Effuse, effusus, effusissime, out of measure exceedingly, abundantly, moze vehemently, prodigally.

Effuse aliquam diligere, to loue a woman out of measure.

Effuse exultat animus, The mynde reioyseth exceedingly, or ouermuche.

Effuse fugere, to flee or renne away on euery syde.

Effusio, ðnis, f. ge. a pouryng out. Sometyme it signifieth prodigality or outrageous spendyng.

Effusio aquæ, a pouryng out of water.

Effusio hominum ex oppidis, whan great routes or companies of men come out of townes.

Effusio animi, and contractio contrarij.

Effusus, a, um, discomfited, scattered, put out, or poured out, rennyng abrode, ouerflowyng or rennyng over the bankes as ryuers dooe also bountifull, libeall in spendyng.

Effusa lachrima, exceedyng toy or myrte.

Effusi in fugam, they ran away on euery syde.

Effusus cursu, he that renneth with all hys myght.

Effutio, effutis, tiui, tire, to speake vnadvisedly, foolyshely or hastily, or that whiche shoulde be kepte secrete.

Effutire aliquid ex tempore, to speake a thyng sodaynly without study or aduysment.

Effutitus, a, um, rashely or foolyshely spoken as brode or vttered.

E A N T E G

E Gelaste, a towne in the higher Spayne.

Egelidor, aris, ari, to relent or dissolue, as yce that thaweth.

Egelidus, a, um, neyther hotte nor colde, but a littell out of the colde. Sometyme it is taken for very colde.

Egens, entis, om. ge. lackyng, needy, pooze.

Egens est consilij, he lacketh counsaile.

Animo egens, one that hath no courage.

Egeo, egui, ere, to neede or lacke, to bee in extreme pouertee.

Egere autoritate, to be without office.

Egeo consilij, or consilio, I lacke counsaile, I can not tell what to doe.

Eget humanitate, he hath littell gentillesse, pittee, or mercy.

Non eget interpretatione, it is playne, it needeth no declaration.

Egetur acriter, I am in great necessitee.

Egeo tempore, I lacke tyme.

Egeria, an ydoll, to whome women with chyldre dyd offer, supposyng that thereby they shoulde traunple easilie.

Egries, ei, fœ. gen. a castyng out or auoydyng of dunge or ordure.

Egênus, a, um, needy, or lackyng somewhat, pooze.

Egero, egeris, gessi, rere, to beare or cary out, to caste out.

Egerit aquam fons, the fountayne pussheth out water.

Egérmino, aui, âre, to bourgeyn, to spryng, to budde out.

Egelinus, a philosopher, the scholer of Euander.

Egesta, a citee in Sicile, whiche Æneas builded.

also

also the daughter of Hippolyta, the Troyan, mother of Aegistis.

Egestas, tātis, f. g. necessite of lacke of thynges necessary, pouertie, needynesse.

Afferre egestatem, to make one pooze and needye.

Viram in egestate degere, to leade ones life in pouertie and neede.

Egestio, ōnis, f. g. distribution abjode. it is also the carping towey of ordure or dounge. also the abuyding of ordure out of the body.

Egestosus, a, um, very pooze.

Egis, idis, looke Aegis.

Egestus, us, idem quod egestio.

Egestus, a, um, cast out, or put out.

Ego, I.

Egomēt, I my selfe.

Egomēt memet verberaui, I haue beaten
my selfe.

Ibo egomet, I will goe my selfe alone.

Eorum ego viam mortemq; iuxta estimo,
We for me truly; or truly I for my part esteeme their life and death to be all one.

Egomēt mecum cogitabam, I thought with
my selfe.

Mihi satis pulchra est, she is saye ynoughe in my syght, or hie beautee pleaseh me well enough.

Mihi quidem esurio, non tibi, In dede my selfe feleth the payne of the hunger, and not you.

Non credebam mihi met, I dyd not beleue
my selfe.

Egōne? who I?

Potui est hic tacere? P. Egōne? optime, Can this felowe keepe counsayle? P. Who I?
in the best wyse.

Egredior, eris, gredi, to goe foorth, or goe oute.
Egreditur ab ea, he commeth foorthe of hys house.

Egredi obuiam alicui, To go foorth to meete
one.

Extra praescriptum egredi, to passe the bouns des prescribed or limited to one.

A proposito egredi, to make digression, to goe from the purpose.

Terminos egredi, to passe the boundes.

Nos nostro officio nihil egressos, That wee haue dooen nothyng agaynst our dutie, or or ther wyle than we ought to dooe.

Egressus, a, um, gone foorth, passed foorthe, set foorthe.

Domo egressus est ad bellum, he went foorthe to warfare.

Egressus annum vnde uigesimum, passe nines tene yere olde.

Egressus, us, m. g. a gopng foorth.

Egregius, a, um, excellent.

Egregia & praecleara indoles, an excellent and goodly towardnesse.

Egregia forma, excellent or passyng goodly sanour. no shou to woiden in his offen

Egregius, the comparatiue more excellent.

Egregie, excellently. Sometyme for Valde, or Nimis, greatly, passyngely, very muche, chiefly principally, especially.

Egregie cordatus homo, a very wyle and discrete persone.

Seruus egregie fidelis, a veray faithfull and trustie seruant.

Egregie grace loqui, to speake greche exels lently, and passyngly well.

Quod ab eo egregie diligaris, because he lo-ueth you excedyngly.

Horum ille nihil egregie praeter cetera stus debat, he gaue him selfe to none of these thyns ges specially more than other.

Egula, egula, f. ge. a kynde of bymstone bled to make woulle white.

Egurgito, aui, are, to dyawe out, as lycour out of a place.

E ANTE H.

E Hem, is a woorde spoken whan a man is moued with some thyng, whiche is newly happened.

Eheu, alas.

Eho, an interiection of calling, it signifieth hoe.

also of one that moueth his care to here some les crete thyng: or of a troubled mynde: or whan one perceyueh a thyng sodrynly. also of mers naplyng.

Ehodum ad me, Hoe, come hither to me.

Eho tu, hoe sirra, whan one calleth a man to him, forgettyng his name.

Eho, is vled in askyng a question, as Eho quaso, laudas, qui heros fallunt? Ah sy, or why sy, dooe ye ppeple theim, that begyle they maisters?

Eho tu, cho tu, hoe sirra sirra.

E ANTE I.

E Ia, sometyme it exhorteth: sometyme it blas-meth or correcteth one, that threatheneth or tauntereth.

Eia vero age, dic, Well go to, speake on.

Eia haud sic decet, what softe, that is not sees myng: Or, it should not bee for your honestie so to dooe.

Eia vt elegans est, Eih what a minion it is.

Eia autem inimicos? what sy your enemies?

Eia, in principio epistolae positum.

Eiaculator, aris, ari, or Eiaculo, aui, are, to shoote thynge, or caste a farre of.

Eiectio, ōnis, f. g. a thowpyng or castyng oute.

Eiectamentum, ti, neu. gen. pourgyng or such thyng as the sea or ryuers doo cast on lande.

Eiero, eieras, aui, are, to refuse or forsake a iudge.

Eiectitius, a, um, beyng cast oute, or that casteth out.

Eiecto, aui, are, to throw or caste out.
 Eiectus, a, um, throwen or caste out.
 Eicio, leicio, leci, icere, to cast out, or put out.
 Eicere & excludere.
 Retinere & eicere contrary.
 Eicere foras, to cast out of doores.
 Eicere in exilium, To banyshe or to sende in exile.
 Eicere ex animo memoriam alicuius, To put one out of our remembrance, to forget one willingly.
 Eicere dicitur mulier, subaudi partum, To traunple before the time.
 Eicere suum animum de aliquo, To tourne his mynde, affection, or loue from one.
 Eicere se in agros, to goe hastily into the fieldes.
 Eiecit se ex oppido in syluas, he flange suddenly out of the towne, and wente into the wooddes.
 Eicere vrinam, to make water, to pisse.
 Eicienda hęc animi molities, I muste caste away this tenderesse of herte.
 Eioneus, one of the princis of Grece, whiche came to Troie: an other of Thrace, whiche added the Troynes.
 Eiulatio, ōnis, f. g. a baying out with lamentation, a wayling or crying out.
 Eiulatus, us, m. g. idem.
 Eiulo, eiulas, aui, are, to crie out, to wayle.
 Eiuro, eiuras, aui, are, to dooe besyde the lawe, to renounce, to resigne, to refuse a iudge.
 Eiurare magistratum, to resigne an office.
 Eiuratio, ōnis, f. g. a renuncynge, a resignation
 Eiusmodi, & eiuscemodi, such, like, of the same sorte or facion.
 Eiusdem farinae, of the same sorte or condicion.
 Eiusdem notae, of the same estimation or state.
 Eiusdem modi, of the same sorte, lyke.

E ANTE L

E Labor, eris, elapsus sum, elabi, to slippe or slide away, to escape, to fall out.
 E memoria elabi, to goe out of memory, to be forgotten.
 Elabi de, e, or ex manibus, to slippe out of ones handes, to escape from one.
 Satis te elapsurum omni suspitione arbitrare, you thought you shoulde escape well ynough withoute any suspicion: or you thought you shoulde auoyde all suspicion.
 Elaboratus, a, um, perfectlye or cunninggelye wrought, doen exactly with study and diligence.
 Omnes apud hunc ornati elaboratique sunt versus, All the verses that he writeth, are elegant and cunninggelye made.
 Elaboro, aui, are, to labour or endenour diligently, to traunple or take payne in a thyng, to woork the cunninggelye and exactly.
 Quicquid elaborari aut effici potuit, what so ener coulde be endenoured or dooen.

 Eniti & elaborare.
 Sed in literis certe elaboraui, But in booke in the study of good letters I haue laboured and taken payne.
 Elaborare aliquid, to woork a thyng with great cunningg and diligence.
 In his potissimum elaborauimus, in these thynges we haue chieflye traunpled.
 Ad iudicium alterius elaborare, to indenour and take payne to content and satisfie the iudgement of an other.
 Elacata, or elacatena, a kynde of salt fyssh: or after some a saure vled in olde time.
 Elactesco, scere, to tourne into mylke, or waxe white as mylke.
 Eliza, a citee of Italia, an other of Italy: the people wherof be called Eletz, or Elitz. It is also a citee of Phenicia, an other of Bithynia.
 Elzemporia, a, f. g. the proupyng or byng of ople for a citee of common weale.
 Elzomeli, a certayne kynde of gumme thicker than hony, thynner than rosein, fatte, and vnctuous, whiche renneth oute of the stemmes of olde trees, which grow in a countrey called Palmyris in Syria.
 Elzothesium, sij, n. gen. a place where men were annoynted after bathyng or washyng.
 Elamita, be called the princies of the Persians, of Elam the son of Sem, as Iosephus saith.
 Elxon, ople.
 Elanguo, gui, ere, to be sycke, to languyshe, to pyne away.
 Neque elanguit cura hominum ea mora, neyther byd the diligence of men slake or dysmynghe.
 Elanguesco, scere, to waxe feble.
 Elape, es, f. g. a kynde of serpent.
 Elaphoboscon, an herbe, whiche some dooe call Gratia dei, commonly Pabulum cerui, it is taken off some for sage.
 Elaphos, an herbe.
 Elapido, aui, are, to rydde a place of stones.
 Elapsus, a, um, escaped out of some daunger.
 Elapsa est spes, hope is loste.
 Elapsa ex oculis hominum anguis, the adder stole away out of euery mans sight.
 Elargior, giris, giri, to graunte or geue bountifullly or liberally.
 Elasseco, to waxe weery, to detaie.
 Elate, elates, form. g. after Dioscorides is that, wherein a palme or date tree bearyng fruite, is wapped. Galene taketh it for the tender and yonge bzaunche of a palme. Hesichius dooeth asseme the same: some take it for a kynde of Date trees.
 Elate, proude, softly, grauely, with an high style, hautely.
 Elaterium, rij, n. g. a wilde cucumbe, which hath leaues lyke vnto gardeyne cucumbers, but the fruite is muche lesse, lyke as it were longe as cornes, coznes, and hath a greete roote and a whyle.

Some call them Cucumeres anguini. There is also a medicine so called, made of the iuyce of them, to purge cholet and sleume bywarde and downwarde.

Elatine, an herbe lyke to withwind, but it hath seedes and flowers lyke buckwheate, it groweth among cozne, rennyng buckwheate, or bynde cozne.

Elatio, ónis, form. gene. lofynesse, hautenesse:
it is taken sometyne in the good parte, and sometyne in the ylle. In the good parte: as,
In hac elatione & magnitudine animi facillime pertinacia, & nimia cupiditas principas-tus innascitur, In this hyghnesse of hert, and greatnesse of courage, there is byedde verie lightly wilfull appetite, and to myche desire of great authoritee. in an yll parte: as, Parium comparatio, nec elationem habet, nec submissionem, The comparison of them that are equall, hath in it neyther arrogante, nor yet submission.

Elatites, m. g. a kynde of stones.

Elatro, elatras, aui, are, to barke, to speake out or aloude.

Elátus, a, um, hyghe or aduanced, properly in herte or courage. sometyne it signifyeth proude or arrogant.

Elauo, aui, are, to name one to his prayse.

Elauo, elauas, aui, are, siue, ere, to washe cleane, to rynde clothes, to robbe or to spoyle, to ridde
one of all that he hath.

Elauare se bonis, to be cleane washed from all his gooddes, to spende all awaye, and leaue no-
thyng.

Elcebus, a citee in Fraunce, called communely Schelestade.

Eldana, a citee in Spayne, called Duennes.

Eldia, idem quod Dictamum.

Elea, a citee in the countreile of Lucania.

Eleates, a man of that citee.

Elecebra argentaria, harlottes.

Eléctio, ónis, form. ge. an election, an approbation, choyse.

Elécto, aui, are, to entice or allure.

Electra, the daughter of Oceanus and Cethys, she had a daughter of the same name, on whom Juspiter begat Dardanus.

Electrion, the father of Amphitrio, and sonne of Alceus.

Electrites, certayne yles in the sea Adriaticum.

Eléctrius, a, um, of Electra.

Electrum, i, neu. ge. that whyche is in englyshe called ambze, wherof beades be made. It is also taken for a mettall, parte golde, and parte syluer.

Eléctus, a, um, cholen, pikd out.

Electus, us, m. g. choyse.

Eléctor, óris, m. g. a choyser, an electour.

Eleemofyna, a, f. g. almesse, pietee.

Elegans, antis, om. g. elegant, freshe, gorgeous cleane, polite, minyon, triche, pyked, fyne.

Mundas & elegans.

Elegans formorum speciator, one verie well seene and skilfuld in faire women: a deintie and fyne frowe in choyse of faire women.

Elegans in omni iudicio, he that hath a fyne and a good iudgement in all chynge.

Elegans in cibus, fyne, pyked in meates.

Elegantior, netely, finely, eloquently, degnitly, minyonly.

Elegantia, a, f. g. elegancie, gorgeousnesse, cleannesse, beautee in wordes, netenesse, hansomnesse, trymnesse.

Elegantia morum, noueture, verie honest bes-hauour.

Elégia, a, form. g. lamentablenesse, a lamentable songe.

Elégia, órum, n. g. lamentable verses.

Elegiacus, a, um, perteynyng therunto.

Elegidion, n. g. a lamentable verse.

Elegiographus, phi, m. g. a writer of lamentable verses or balades.

Elegus, elega, um, lamentable.

Elei, people in Grece in the countrepe sometyne called Peloponessus, nowe Thora.

Eleleus, one of the names of Bacchus.

Eleliphacos, the herbe called sauge.

Elementarius, a, um, perteynyng to elementes, letters or principles.

Elementaria litera, the crosse rowe.

Elementarius senex, an olde man that learneth his crosse rowe.

Elementum, i, n. ge. the fyrst or principall mat-tier, wherof all thinges dooe take their begyn-nyng, whiche bee foure in hountye, fyre, ayre, water, and erth. Also the letters, wherof syllables be made, are called Elementa.

Elenchus, chi, ma. ge. an argument, reasonyngs subtillly an other argument. It is also a table in a booke, to shewe the places by letter or otherwise. It is also a great pearle, or other precious stone that women were wont to hange at theyr eares.

Eleo, cui, ere, to spoyle or spoyle.

Eleoselinum, ni, n. ge. an herbe, whyche of sem is called smallache.

Eleophillon, an herbe, called also Phillon.

Eleostaphylos, a vine grafted on an olive, and bearyng the frute of both trees.

Elephantographi, be called those peincters, that peincte with yuoie.

Elephantia, seu Elephantiasis, a kynde of leapre, wherin the fleshe doeth swelle, and is full of spottes, it is ingendred of blake choler.

Elephantiacus, a leaper.

Elephantia, be serpentes, so called, because he, whom they doo bite, falleth into the kynde of leapre, whiche is called Elephantia.

Elephantina, a citee of Egypte. also a certayne confection, loke Celsus, li. 5.

Elephantinus, a, um, perteynyng unto an oly-phaunt,

phant.

Elephantini libri, amonge the Romans were booke, wherein they lawes were written, which concerned the nobilitie.

Elephantis, an plande in the ryuer Nilus.

Elephas, antris, ma. g. or Elephantus, ti, an oliphant, the greatest of all foure footed beastes, hys forelegges bee longer than his hinder. He hath ankles in the lower parte of hys hinder legges, and fyue toes on his fette vndergyded, his snoute or nose is so longe, and in suche forme, that it is to hym in steede of an hande, for he neyther eateth nor drinketh, but by bryngyng his nose to his mouth: therewith he healeth by his master or keeper, therewith he overcometh trees. He hath lower teethe on either syde of hys mouth, wherewith he eateth and grindeth his meate. He hath also two great tuskes, the male greater than the female, bowynge downwarde. His tongue is veray lictell, and so farre in his mouth, that vneth it maye be scene. Of all beastes he is the most gentle and tractable. For by many sundry wayes he is taught, and doth vnderstand, in so muche that he lerneth to do due honour to a kynge, he hath a great perceyving, and excelleth in Marpenesse of witte. The female, whiche he ones seasoneth, he neuer after toucheth. The male oliphant lyueth 200. yeres, at the least 120. yeres. The female alwayne as longe: but the floure of theyr age, is aboute .lx. yeres. They can not suffer wynter nor colde. He loneth ryuers, and will often go into them vnto the nose, wherewith he bloweth and taketh wynde, but swymme he can not for the weyght of his bodie. Polimius and Solinus wyte, that they vse none adultery. If they happen to meete with a man in wildernes beyng out of anye waye: gently they will go before, and bryng hym into the playne waye. In battayle ioyned, they haue no small respect, for they bryng them that bee soe harte or wery, into the middell of the houle, to be defended. They are made tame by drinkyng the iuyce of barley, they haue continuall warre agaynst dragons, whiche desyre theyr bloude, and therefore lyng in awayte, as the Oliphant passeth by, the dragon (beyng of an exceldyng length) wyndeth his tale about the hinder legges of the Oliphant, and lettynge hym to go, thrusteth his head in the Oliphantes nose, and exhauketh his breath, or elles byteth hym in the eare, wherunto he can not reache wth his nose. And whan the Oliphant waxeth saynte, he falleth downe on the serpent, whiche is full of bloude, and with the poyle of his bodie breaketh hym: so that his owne bloude, with the bloude of the Oliphant, renneth out of hym myngled together, whiche is called Cinnaberis, in englysh Synoper.

Elephantus, is sometyme used for puer.

Eleuies, ei, f. g. a purgation.

Eleuo, eleuas, au, are, to lyfte vp. sometyme to take awaye, to myngle, to extenuate wth wordes, to make lycht and of lictell value, to dyspraise.

Lepore eleuare, quod obiectum est, wth pleasaunt and praeie wordes to extenuate that whiche is layed agaynst vs.

Authoritatem eleuare, to dimynish the ones authority.

Eleuare ignominiam, To deface hys ignominie, and recouer honour.

Eleuare verbis famam vrbis capite, With wordes to mitigate the fame and byrte of consuetudynge the citee.

Eleus, untris, a citee of Thace.

Eleus, the name of Bacchus.

Eleusinus, a, um, of the citee Eleus.

Mater Eleusina, Ceres.

Eleusina sacra, ceremonies of Ceres the gods dote.

Eleusis, a citee in Grece, not farre from Athens, where Eleusius reigned.

Eleutherius, a, um, that maketh free or deliuereth out of bondage.

Eleutheros, a ryuer by the towne of Orhosis.

Elicio, elicis, elicui, or elixi, ere, elicium, or electum, to drawe out or gette out, to pryke out a thyng or a word, to prouoke or allure, to geat a thyng.

Elicere alium, to prouoke to the stole.

Inferorum animas elicere, to reple by the spites of them that be dead.

Ex terra caueritis ferrum elicere, to myne vnder the earth for yron.

Ad eliciendum vulgi fauorem, to allure and geat the fauour of the people.

Suscitare & elicere fontem, to cause a well to sprynge.

Elicere ignem conficiu lapidum, To styke fyre by beatyng stones together.

Elicere lachrymas, to make to wepe.

Sudorem elicere, to cause one in a sweate, to cause one to sweate.

Multa ab ipso Publio elici possunt, you may geat the knowlage of many thynges by Publius hym selfe.

Elicere archana alicuius, to geat one to vtter his secretes.

Suspicionem elicere ex re aliqua, to gather suspicion of any thyng.

Verbū ex eo nunquam elicere potui, I coulde neuer geat hym to speake one word.

Ira eliciam verū, so shall I geat out the truthe.

Ad colloquium elicit, He gat him to come to communication.

Elicere in insidias, to trayne one into an ambusement.

Elicito, to drawe often.

Elicius, a, um, that draweth or allureth out, the surname of Jupiter.

Elico, au, are, to tourne by sette downe.

Elico,

Elico, onis, ma. gene. he that tourneth thynges out of order.
Elido, si, ere, to hitte agaynst a thyng, to byche or burst out, to presse out, to squise, to exclude, to strangle, to kyll.
Elidere ignem & filice, to beate fyre out of a flint.
Elidere sonum, to make a noyse by beating one thyng agaynst an other.
Elidere caput, to breake ones head.
Herbas elidere, to stampe or powne herbes.
Elidere alicui oculos, to pull out ones eyes.
Sibilum elidere, To cause a whyselinge or byssynge.
Elidere pactum, To breake a couenaunt or bargaine.
Elidunt fortis fues, sowes by lying on theyr pysses, squise them to deathe.
Elidi in turba, To bee thrust in a thronge of people.
Elidi & gritudinibus, to besoye vexed with sicknesses.
Ignis elisit nubes, the fyre brake the cloudes, it lyghtned.
Eligo, eligis, legi, ere, to chosse, to electe.
Populus elegit sibi in principem Octavius, The people dyd electe or chosse Octavius to be theyr soueraygne.
Ad munus aliquod eligi, to be chosen to some office or charge.
De tribus elige quem velis, Of thre, chosse whiche ye wyll.
Elimatus, a, um, filed of, polished, made smothe.
Elimino, au, are, to put or caste forth from a place farre of, to hurle or thurst out of doores.
Dicta foras eliminare, to publyshe out of the doores what was spoken.
Elimo, elimas, au, are, to make cleane, to polyshe, to make perfite. sometyme to cut of with a file.
Elinguis, gue, without a tongue.
Elinguis, is, spechelesse, dumbe, that can not speake.
Elinguo, au, are, to pluche out or cutte of ones tunge.
Elíquâmen, inis, n. ge. fatnesse or iuyce, wronge or pressed out of fleshe or fysh, it maye bee vsed for dyppeing of meate.
Eliscesco, scere, to be dissolued or melted.
Eliquo, eliquas, au, are, to melte.
Elis, a citee of Deloponesus, an other of Icaia.
Elisa, one of the names of Dido.
Elisus, a, um, broken, bruste, pressed, squised.
Elix, icis, mas. gen. a fourowe made for water to passe.
Elium, id est, lilium seluestre.
Elixir, arabice, quinta essentia.
Elixo, au, are, to see the or boyle.
Elixus, a, um, sodden, boyled.
Elleborine, a littell herbe called Epicactis.
Elleboritis, the lesse centaurie.

Elleborum, take Helleborum.
Elleborus albus, an herbe called lyncgwozt, the rote wherof is called neesynge powder.
Elleborus niger, an herbe called beares foote, or after some, terwozte.
Ellenium, nij, take Helenium.
Ellobia, orum, n. ge. thynges whiche were hangged at the rates of women.
Ellum, for ecce illum, see where he is.
Ellychnium, ij, neu. gene. the marche whiche is in the lampe, and standeth in oyle, or the wicke of the candell.
Eloco, elocas, au, are, to caste, remoue or put a thyng out of his place, to sette to hyre, or to ferme.
Elocare fundum, To sette out a grounde to ferme.
Elocare boues aut equos, to leat out oxen or hoxes to hyre.
Elocare filiam, to bestowe his daughter in marriage.
Elocutio, onis, f. ge. a prope fourme of wordes or sentences.
Elocutrix, that speaketh or teacheth to speake.
Elógium, ij, n. g. a testification or report in wordes of a mans prayse or dyspraye, of honour or repporche also a witnessynge or pronouncynge of ones owne opinion or sentence. It is sometyme a superscripcion on a tombe.
Elongo, au, are, to remoue farre of, to prolong, to deferre.
Elops, a fylle called also A cipenser.
Elops, is also the name of one of the Centaures.
Eloquens, entis, eloquent, well spoken.
Eloquentia, a, f. g. eloquence.
Elóquium, n. g. speche in a pleasant manier.
Eloquor, quëris, éloqui, to speake, properly it is whan I sette a thyng forth in speaking, that the hearers maye vnderstande it, as I conceyue it, to speake out. Amonge oratours, to speake eloquently and aptely.
Perge eloqui, saie on, tell forth your tale.
Eloquere vno verbo, tell it at one worde.
Elorus, a citee of Sicille.
Eloza, among the Lacedemonians was as muche to saie as commune mynisters or scruautes. As sergeantes, or such as in London they dooe call premen.
Elorus, a, um, wasshed awaie, made cleane.
Elpenor, a companion of Ulysses, whiche with other, Lirce tourned into hogges.
Elpes, the wyfe of Boetius.
Elúceo, eluces, luxi, ere, to shyne, to be bygh, to be veraie manifest, to appere, to be notable.
Elucere, & occulari, contrary.
Elucet animi excellentia in despiciendis opibus, there appereth an excellencie of the mynde in the contemnyng of richesse.
Spes in puero elucet, there is an hope of towardnesse in the chylde.
Elucet ingenium in eo, there appereth to be a witte

a witte in the man.
Elucesco, sci, scere, to be veratly byght.
Elucido, aui, are, to shyne and make byghte outwarde.
Elucifico, aui, are, to deppine of lyght.
Eluctatus, a, um, that with wastlyng or strugglyng hath escaped awaye.
 Tandem eluctatus obstantia, At the length, after he had hardely and with great payne passed suche thynges, as dyd withstande and lette hym.
Eluctor, aris, ari, with strugglynge or wastlyng to haue the vpper hande, or to escape awaye, to struggle to come forth, to come forth hardely and with payne.
 In ipso fornacis ore flamma eluctatur, The flame brasteth forth, or as it were, wastlyeth to come forth at the narrow mouth of the oven.
Elucubro, aui, are, to wathe and wite by candle lyght in the nyght.
Elucubror, aris, ari, deponens, idem.
Elucus, he that is sicke of the dysenke of yesterday, also a louer of trifles.
Eludo, si, ere, to mocke or deceptue, also to leaue playng, also to auoyde in wordes, as, Eludere alicuius rationem, vel argumētum, to auoyde ones reason or argument that he hath made not by answerng directly, but with trifyng, with schiftes and euasions.
 Facete eludere, to mocke featly.
Eluena, a kynd of fertill vines. Collu. li. 5.
Elugeo, eluges, eluxi, ere, to leaue mounyng.
Elumbus, bi, m. g. & elumbis, & hoc Elumbe, he that hath feble loynes, and can not stande vpright.
Eluo, ul, ere, to washe out, to ryse, to make cleane, to potirge.
Eluere maculas vestium, to washe out spottes that bee stayned in any garments.
Eluere pocula, to ryse cuppes.
Eluere crimen, to purge ones selfe of a crime laied to his charge.
Eluere maculas furtorum suorum sanguine sociorum, to purge and washe awaye the infamie of ones own thestes and robberies, with the bloud of his felowes, or by puttyng his felowes wrongfully to death.
Eluo, aui, are, to lyue in gluttonye, or to spende superfluously.
Elurus, loke Aelurus.
Elusa, an yle agaynst Cypris.
Eluscario, a disease of the eyes, mahyng that one can not see either in the nyght or in the morning, purblindnesse.
Elusco, aui, are, to make purblind.
Elusis, & Elusin, a citee in the prouince of Atica, not farre from Athens.
Elusus, a, um, illuded, mocked, deceiued.
Eluthéria, a, f. g. freedome, gentylnesse.
Eluthérius, the name of a man, and is interpreted, free, gentyll.

Elaria, forum, golde ore.
Elato, aui, are, to sucke out water, after Talesopine, but the place that he citcheth out of Aegile, hath eluctabatur.
Elutrio, aui, are, to poure out of one vessel into another.
Elurus, a, um, washed, rynded cleane.
Eluies, ei, and Eluio, onis, for. ge. or dure or filthe caused of abundance of water or other lycour, a deluge or breaking of the rethe by a great floudde. And by translation, a pestilente or contagious thyng, corruptyng and destroyng all goodnesse, as one shoulde saye, a synke of mischiese.
Eluxatus, a, um, idem quod Luxatus.
Eluxuriari, to abounde, to bee ouer ranke or fetid, to geue ones selfe to rote and pleasure.
Elymais, a countreite nere Persia.
Elysi campi, the same place that is called Elysi.
Elysium, a place of pleasure, where poetes dyd suppose the soules of god men to dwell.
Elysius, a, um, the adiectiue.

E ANTE M.

Emaciatus, a, um, made leane.
Emacio, aui, are, to make leane.
Emacitas, atis, for. g. affection or desyre to be alwayes byng of some thyng.
Emacror, aris, ari, to make leane or batayne.
Emaculo, aui, are, to take awaye the spottes or make cleane a thyng.
Emancipari, are they that are out of theyr fathers rule, or they that are made subiectes to another man.
Emancipator, oris, m. g. a feoffour or alienour.
Emancipatus, a, um, aliened, or geuen to another mans possession.
Emancipo, or emancupo, aui, are, to enfranchise or make free, to sette at libertee, properly ones childerne: sometime it is vsed in the contrary sence, to bynde or make bonde. It is commonly, where a man dispossesseth hym selfe, and putteth an other man in possession of lande.
Emancipare agrum, to dispossesse hym selfe of a peece of lande, or to put lande in an other mans hande to a certayne vse.
Emancupo me tibi, I submitte my selfe to you, or I put my selfe vnder your obediensce, I geue my selfe to you.
Emaneo, emanies, si, ere, to dwell out of a place.
Emano, aui, are, to issue or flowe out, to auoyde or renne out, and by translation, to be spred, published and knowne abroad.
Emanare sanie, to auoyde corrupt bludde and matter.
Emanauit fama, The bruite came abroad, or was spredde abroad.
Emanauit in vulgus, it was spredde or published abroad among the people.
Multis enim emanauit inditiis, For it was knowne known by many tokens.

Emanio, onis, a fault among souldiours, when they tarry long out of their campe.

Emanfor, oris, ma. ge. he that wandreth longe, and of the laste retourneth home, a lusher.

Emarcum, a kynde of grapes.

Emargino, aui, are, to take awaye the scurf about the hummes of wounds, or sores.

Emasculo, aui, are, to gelbe, or to take awaye the courage of a man, or to abuse a man chide in lecherie.

Emaus, a citee that is now called Antioche.

Emathia, a part of the roialme of Macedonie.

Emathius, a, um, of Emathia.

Ematureco, turui, seere, to wate rype.

Emaus, a noble citee of Palestine, whiche is now called Nicopolis.

Emax, acis, an adiective, he of the that is redy to bye any thyng, a great byer.

Embamma, aui, n. g. saue.

Embara, or Epibade, a myppe called a barke, or a passager.

Embateuicon ius, that sygh that the creditout hath on the landes of gooddes of his detrouer, whiche he layed in mortgage to hym.

Emblema, blematis, neu. gene. pictures made of woodde, stone, or metall of one colour; set in woodde, stone, or metall of another colour; as we see the chesse boordes and tables called counters. It is muche used in Itale. It is of some taken generally for all small pynages, stowes, or other thyngs, attached to any other thyng, as on cuppes of golde or siluer, it is used by translation; for the figures or ornaments of oration.

Emboline, a mybbe growinge in Asia; the Juice of the leaf is good agaynst popson.

Embolismus, mi, ma. ge. the addyng of a daye in the yere.

Embolium, li, the argument of first entrie into a playe of enterlude.

Embolum, li, neu. gene. a barre of a doore; also to a mans parde, or rather the entrance in to a turney.

Embryon, i, neu. gen. lightly the chyld conceived, before it receyvetly perfect shape of a man or woman.

Emedullo, aui, are, to take out marowe. And by translation to declare or make manifest.

Emem, olde wryters used for eundem.

Emendare, purely, without faute.

Emendatio, onis, f. g. an amendement.

Emendator, oris, mal. gen. a correctour, or an amender.

Emendatrix, icis, f. g. the feminine.

Emendatus, a, um, amended, made better.

Emendicatus, a, um, begged.

Emendico, aui, are, to aske in fourme of begging, to desyre lyke a begger.

Emendo, aui, are, to amende, to correcte, to make better, to take awaye a thyng that is yll, to heale. Alaum etiam emedat sos. Heder, the flogge of yung shoppers the flure, or helpe one that is laxative.

Emensur, a, um, that hath measured, or that by gopng hath passed our a place, or passingly, that is measured, or that by gopng hath been passed our.

Ementior, aris, titus sum, iri, to make a manyfess lye, to feigne that is not true, to counterfayte.

Illum quem ementitus es, ego sum, I am he, whom thou diddest counterfayte.

In aliquos expentiri, to make a lye vpon any persons.

Ementiri & fingere,

Ementiri authoritatem alicuius, to take vpon hym falsely the authoritee of any man.

Ementitus, a, um, falsely feigned.

Emercor, aris, an, to byea.

Emereo, emeris, ui, etc, to merite, to deserue, to offende.

Emergo, eris, ere, to issue or com out of a place, where a thyng is drowned, or where it was hyd, to appere or shewe it self, to escape.

Delitescere & emergere, contrary.

Emergere extra aquam, to ryle and appere above the water.

Emergere ex mendicite, to ryle out of povertie and become ryche.

Emergere vtero puer dicitur, To come first out of the mothers wombe.

Emergere ex iudicio peculatus, to escape the iudgement, wherin one is accused for robbing a prince or common weale.

Cum ventus emerit, whan the wynde began to ryle.

Amor emerit, the loue appereth or sheweth it selfe plague.

Emergit depressa veritas, The truth being oppressed appereth and sheweth it selfe.

Emergere, & se ad bonam frugem recipere, To ryle from lewdnesse, and become thursty and honeste.

Ad summam emergere opes, To become better ryche, or able to great rychesse.

Emergi, the impersonall.

Emergere ex aliquo negotio, To dispatche hymselfe of a busynesse.

Emergere ex incommoda valetudine, to be recovered of a noious disease.

Emerferam commodum ex Antio in Appiam, I departed in good tyme from Antium vnto Appiam.

Emeretonyxis, eri, to deserue to the uttermost.

Emeritum, ti, neu. gene. a stipende or pension that those souldiours had that were pardoned from the warres.

Emeritus, a, um, that hath deserued or serued for his duetie. Sometime complete, synghed also that is deserued.

Emeriti

Emeriti milites, olde woyme souldiours, whil the were pardoned of warres, and yet notwithstanding had pensions, whiche were called Emerita stipendia.
Emeritum stipendium, the laste wages that a man taketh in warres.
Emeriti senes, olde men excused from labour by age.
Emeriti anni, the yeres of a mans age, whan he is past labour and trauaile.
Emeriti apes, doctres of great bees, that make no more honey.
Emeriti boues, open wethered and ouer laboured, that drawe no more in the plough.
Emeriti a publicis functionibus, discharged by reason of age, from bearyng publyke offices, dispensed withall, exempted.
Emerita Augusta, a citee of portugal, called now Merida.
Emerfus, a, um, that appereth out of the water after it is drowned, or out of a place, where it was hidde.
Emerfus ab admiratione animus, a mynd that is come to him selfe after a great wonderfing.
Emetior, iris, ensus sum, iri, to measure, and by translation, with iourneing of goyng, to passe ouer a place of waye.
Emetiri iter vehiculis, to trauaile of iourney in wagons.
Emetiri vno die ingens spacium, to trauaile of ydde a great space in one daye.
Emeto, emetis, emessui, ere, to reape coine of other thyng.
Emico, emicas, emicui, and emicau, are, to shine forth, to hold by the synger of some other thyng, to dance of leape, to appeare higher than other, to excell, to come of issue forth sodeynly.
Multis calamis ex vno radice emicantibus, with many scimmes risynge of springynge out of one roote.
Sanguis emicat per mille foramina, bloude issued of sprange out at a thousande places.
Sol emicuit, the sonne arose, or appered aboue the earth.
Cor meum cepit in pectus emicare, Myne hearte beganne to leape in my body.
In praelio victor emicat, he appered in the fild as vanquisher of conquerour.
Emicuit longe ante omnes Eufanor, Eufanor farre excelled all other.
Emigro, emigras, aui, are, to go from one place to dwell in an other.
Emigrare e vita, to die.
Eminatio, onis, f. g. a theatnyng of manasyng.
Eminens, entis, om. ge. that appereth hygher than other, that is moze excellent.
Eminentia, e, f. g. excellencie.
Emineo, emines, ni, nere, to shewe of excell a-boue all other, to bee hygher than other.
Eminere & apparere.
Eminere extra terram, to appeare aboue the

grounde.
Eminere quatuor digitos transuersos, to be higher than other the thichnesse of foure fingers.
Moles eminet aquam, the huge heape appered aboue the water, or it was higher than the water.
Eminet ira indies maior, hys anger appereth dailey greater and greater.
Nemo magnopere eminebat, no man was greatly hygher aduanced than other, or of much greater authoritee than other.
Eminere foras, to shewe hym selfe out of doyes.
Eminere in re aliqua, to excell in any thyng.
Eminet ex ore crudelitas, cruelte shewed it selfe in hys countenance.
Eminet ferrum per costas, went through him, and was sent on the other syde.
E minor, aris, ari, to threaten straightly.
Eminulus, a, um, a litle sprynge in height, a litle about other.
E minus, sarre of.
Emiror, aris, to meruaile greatly.
Emissarium, ii, n. g. a sluice or place to let water out of a ponde or ryuer.
Emissarius, ii, n. g. signifieth sometyme hyar, whiche is sente before in battaile to spy, or to spy the, sometyme a seruante that is alwayes at hande, ready to bee sent forth, also is signifieth suche a persone, as is ordeyned of hym that is in authoritee, or any great office, to aduance his byberie, or to herken and tell tales.
Emissarius palmarum, a vine branche cut of, or that is bent out from his felowes.
Emissio, onis, f. g. a casting, hurling, or motynge forth.
Emissus, a, um, that is sent of caste forth.
Emissitij oculi, rolling eyes, gasyng here and there about.
Emissus, a, um, sente out.
Emitto, emisi, ere, to sende forth, to publyshe, to manumise, to sette abrode.
Emittere aculeum in hominem, to thrust his synger in one, and by translation, to shewe the extremitee of hys wyth agaynst one.
Aliquid dignum suo nomine emittere, to publyshe of sette some thyng abroade, worthye his name.
Emittere ouum, to laye an ege.
Emittere sagittas arcu, to shote.
Emittere saturitatem, to cumber the bealy.
Emittere vocem, to speake, also to grone.
Emittere manum, amonge the lawyers to make a caucion or prouiso with ones owne hande.
Emittere manu, to manumise, to make free.
Emmanuel, is interpreted, God is with vs.
Emmaus, loke Emaus.
Emmelia, e, f. g. a certayne quiet kynde of daunsyng, daunfynge, as it were a paſſion.

Emo, emi, emere, to bye, to purchaſe.
Care emere, to bye deere.
Bene emere, to bye good cheape.
Piper pondere emitur, pepper is bought by waight.
Emere precio alterius, to bye at an other māſ price or valuing.
Emere aliquid in publicum, to bye a thyng to the intent it ſhulde bee common.
Emere aliquem donis, To corrupte one with gyftes. Ego ſpem precio non emo, I purpoſe not to bye hope with monie. I wil not pay out of hande, in hope of that that is to come. I will not bye a birde in the buſhe.
Emōdulator, aris, ari, to ſynge in meaſure and proportion.
Emodus, an hylt, whiche about the borders of Indie, is divided into boughtes.
Emōlidus, a, um, ſoſte, tender.
Emōlior, iris, iri, wth ſetthyng to aſcende out, as one doeth ſcume with coughyng. alſo to moue or ſhake.
Emollio, liui, lire, to make ſoſte or pliant, to make tender or nyce.
Emolumentum, ti, n. g. profite gotten of labor.
Emolumento eſſe alicui, to bee proſpytable to one.
Emōneo, ēmones, ui, ēre, to warne, to put one in mind of a thyng.
Emōrior, iris, or eris, emori, to dye vttely.
Emortualis, le, of ones deathe.
Emortualis dies, the daye of deathe.
Emortuus, a, um, deade.
Emotus, a, um, remoued, put awaye.
Emōueo, ēmoues, oui, ēre, to put awaye, to remoue.
Empedocles, the name of a philoſopher, whiche ſuppoſed all thynges to haue theyr beginning of amitee and variance.
Empetrum, empetri, neu. g. an herbe, whiche is commonly called Sampler, it groweth on the ſea rockes, and is kept in ſalte and byrne to ſerue for ſaures. It is medicinable agaynſt the ſtone. It is called alſo Calcifraga, of ſome Creta marina.
Empanda, a goddeſſe that had tuition of thoſe thynges that are abroad.
Emphasiſ, ēphasiſ, f. ge. an expreſſe ſignification of that whiche is intended.
Emphracta, ſhyppes or barges covered.
Emphraxis, is, for. gen. the obſtruction or ſtoppyng of the pores.
Emphyſma, a ſwellng of the eye leddeſ.
Emphyſema, a ſwellng of the guttes. alſo idem quod Emphyſma.
Emphyſodes febris, a vehement heate, whiche cauſeth to bee in the mouth, wheales and inflammations.
Emphyteōſis, f. g. the making of a thyng better than it was, whan it was receyued or letten, as lande.

Emphytegra, ta, ma. ge. he that taketh a thyng, and promiſeth or couenanteth to make it better than he receyued it.
Emphyteſis, ſis, f. g. a graſſing or plantyng.
Empirice, es, f. g. phiſike conſyſtyng in practiſe, or gotten by practiſe.
Empiricus, a, um, that practiſeth, properly phiſik.
Emplaſticum, ci, n. g. a playſter.
Emplaſtratio, ōnis, f. ge. a graſſyng betweene the barke and the woodde, or rather a graſſyng by takyng the budde of one tree, with a parte of the barke, & ſettyng it on an other rocke with a playſter made of claye or ware.
Emplaſtro, au, are, to graſſe betweene the rynde and the woodde. ſeke Emplaſtratio.
Emplaſtrum, tri, neu. g. a playſter or confection made of dyuers thynges.
Emplaſtrum in arboribus, a playſter of claye or ware, to lay about the tree or graſſe, where the barke is taken awaye.
Empneumatōſis, ſis, form. gene. a ventōſitee or windineſſe in the ſtomake, or an inflation, by the whiche it is puffd vp.
Emporeticus, a, um, perteynyng to marchandise.
Emporetica charta, paper wherein marchantes or groſſers doe put theyr wares.
Emporia, a citee of Spayne, called commonly Caſtillon Dempurias.
Empōrium, ri, n. g. a place wherein, is kepte a marke or ſayre, a marke towne.
Emporeuma, atis, n. g. chapmanſhypp.
Emptio, ōnis, f. g. a bying or purchaſyng.
Emptionem facere, to bye.
Emptionālis, le, that haueth ſayres or markettes, or that uſeth to bye muche.
Emptius, a, um, that whiche is or maye bee boughte.
Emptius miles, an hyed ſouldiour.
Emptio, au, are, to uſe to bye, to by oftentymes: it is ſomtyme vſed to be wyſten Emptiare.
Emptor, ōis, m. g. a byer.
Empturio, ēpturis, ui, ire, to haue a luſt or deſyre to bye.
Emptus, a, um, bought, purchaſed.
Emptum conſupratum or iudicium, a iudgement bought and corrupted with bybys.
Empuſa, a certayne goſte, whiche in variable formes appereth. Demosthenes ſaith, that Aeſchines mother was called Empuſa.
Empyicos, he that ſpetteth out matter and filth, as corrupte bludde and ſuche like.
Empyrēma, mais, n. ge. a collection of matter in the bulke of a mans body.
Empyrium cælum, the heauen, that is next above al the ſeuē ſpheares, and ſignifieth the fyrre heauen.
Emucidus, a, um, verate filthie, muche vinned.
Emūgio, emūgis, ui, ire, to bellowe or lowe out lyke a cowe: and by tranſlation, to cry out, or ſpeke out aloude.

Emulgeo,

Emulgeo, mulsi, gère, to mylke.
 Emunctio, ónis, form. gene. snuffynge of wy-pyng of the nose.
 Emunctorium, rij, neut. gene. an instrumente, wherwith the snuffe of a candell is taken awaie,
 a snuffer.
 Emunctus, a, um, snuffed, made cleane. also spoy-led or destroyed.
 Emunctus sum auro, I am spoyled or beggled of all my moneie, my moneie is gotten from me
 by decepte.
 Emunctæ naris homo, a man of a fine and ex-acte iudgement.
 Emundo, aui, are, to make cleane.
 Emungo, unxi, ere, to snuffe a candell. also to make cleane a mans nose. Sometime it signifieth to despoile a man of moneie, properly by craft.
 Emunio, emúnis, iui, ire, to fortifie or make strong, to fence.
 Emunitus, a, um, fortified, fenced.
 Emusco, aui, are, to rubbe of the mosse of a tree or other thyng.
 Emussitatum, made or wrought by rule.
 Emutio, emútis, iui, ire, to humme or make any other sowne lyke a man that is dumme.
 Emuto, aui, are, to chaunge.

E A N T E N.

EN, to, see. En, was vled of olde wryters for Eum.
 Enzema, a medicine of dusky colour, good to heale freshe woundes.
 Enargia, æ, form. gene. an euident and playne demonstracion whan a thyng is so described, that it seemeth to the reader or hearer, that he beholdeth it as it were in dowyng, euidence, per-spicuite.
 Enarrabilis, le, that maye be declared or shewed.
 Enarratio, ónis, fcc. ge. a playne declaracion or exposition.
 Enarro, aui, are, to tell a thyng at length.
 Enascor, sceris, sci, to growe or sprynge of a thing, to be bozne.
 Enato, énatas, aui, are, to swymme out, to swimme to a place. Sometime to escape.
 Enátus, a, um, that hath growen or spronge.
 Enáuigo, aui, are, to sayle thorough to a place that one purposed, to escape awaie by sayling.
 Enáuio, aui, are, to employe or bestowe all a mans diligence.
 Operam enáuant, they employe theyr labour with all diligence.
 Encenia, a renouacion or renewynge. it was as mong the Jewes the feast of dedicacion of their temple.
 Encanthis, cánthidis, f. ge. a disease of the eyes, when there riseth a litle knobbe in one of the corners of the eye, so that the eye leddes can not be opened verie broade.
 Encardia, a precious stone, that hath the figure of a blacke herte in it.

 Encaustes, æ, ma, g. he that fourmeth or scarie-neth a thyng wth fyre.
 Encáustice, es, f. g. makynge of ymages with fyre.
 Encausticus, and Encastus, a, um, enamelled or wrought with fyre.
 Encaustica pictura, an ymage enamelled.
 Encaustum, i, n. g. vernyshe, enamell, or other picture, wrought with fyre.
 Enceladus, a gygaunt, the sonne of Terra, whych was stryken wth the legghynge of Jupiter, and buried vnder the hill Ætna.
 Enchimibomata, a kynde of garmentes for gyrl-les or women seruauntes, maydens byttles or petty cotes.
 Enchimoides, a certayne herbe lyke to Serpillum, an hanfull high, full of branches, and hauing a rounde leaf. it is also called Lectipes.
 Enchiridion, dii, neu. ge. an handell of a thyng, sometime a dagger. Sometime that parte of an oze, that the water man holdeth. it is vsurped for a booke of so litle a volume, that one may alway cary it with hym.
 Enchiros, a beast byedde in the orient, as great as a bulle.
 Enchryson, a kynde of Anchusa.
 Enchimonia, when the fleshe is so brypped, that bludde issueth out of the veines.
 Enclasis, the holones that is made in a bodie, by dashynge of a thyng agaynst it.
 Encolpia, masc. gene. windes rising out of the sea.
 Encomion, mij, n. g. a songe or balade, made in the prayse of a conquerour or noble man, prayse.
 Encryphas, byonne breade.
 Enchrysta, thynne oynmentes.
 Enclisis, inclination.
 Encyclios, & encyclia, the circle of all doctrines.
 Encyclope dia, æ, f. g. that learnynge that comprehendeth all liberall studies and sciences.
 Endeléchia, loke Entelechia.
 Endo, a preposicion for In.
 Endoitium, for Initium, a begynnynge.
 Endo calum, for In calum, into heauen.
 Endoploro, for Imploro.
 Endo procinctu, for In procinctu.
 E'ndromis, idis, f. g. a certayne garment, whiche is heapy lyke to fresshe mantelles, whiche men vled in baynes and places of exercise.
 Endymion, the name of a man, whych found the course of the moone, wherfore the poetes feigned, that the moone loued hym, and descended downe to kysse hym, while he slepte.
 Eneco, enecas, ui, are, to kyl or slea.
 Enectus, a, um, slayne, almost kylled.
 Enectus fame, almoste dead for hunger.
 Enérgia, æ, form. gene. an efficacie, or effectuell operation.
 Energumenus, one possessed of an yll spirite. also lunatike.
 Eneruátus, a, um, made feeble or weake. also tender tender of nyce.

Languidus & eneruatus.

Eneruis, e, & Eneruus, a, um, without sinewes, without strength, feeble, weak, effeminate, tender.

Eneruo, aui, are, to debilitate or make feeble.

Animos eneruare, to effeminate mens mynnes, to make them tender and nyce.

Engaddi, a citee in Judea, from whence the precious baulme cometh.

Engangis, idem quod Gagathes.

Enhaemon, a medicine made of a certayn gumme, that issueth out of an olive in Arabia.

Enhydros, a certayne rounde stone, smooth and white.

Enhydrys, dridis, and Enhydrus, i, a water snake or adder.

Enim, for, forsothe. Somtyme it is expletive, & doeth but fill the sentence, to make it soune well. Sometime it is a copulative, somtyme affirmatiue, and is set in the beginning.

Sed enim, but for as muche.

Enim vero, forsothe.

Enim me nominat, in dedde he nameth me.

At enim istac in me cudetur faba, but in dedde the perill of this will light on my necke.

Moriendum enim certe est, For certaynly we must all dye.

Certe enim scio, yea in dedde, I know surely that it is so.

Enim vero, pro ex aduerso, on the other part.

Eniochi, a fierse and wilde people of Dalmatia, nere to Pontus, whiche had their beginning of Rhecas and Amphistratus, the chariot men of Lestor and Pollux.

Eniopeius, Hector's chariot man, whom Diomedes slewe.

Enipeus, a ryuer of Thessaly, nere to the whiche the battayle was fought betwene Cesar and Pompeie.

Enisus, a, um, that endeuoureth, labourerth, or enforcerth it selfe to do a thyng.

Eniteo, enites, tui, ere, to shyne, to bee gorgeous and cleane, to appere faire and bryght, to shewe it selfe evidently, to be famous and notable or greatly renoumed.

In eo bello & virtus & fortuna Tullij enituit, In that warre bothe the valyantnesse and fortune of Tullie appered and shewed it selfe evidently.

Enitent Athenæ cunctis gentibus, the Atheniens be famous and renoumed through all nations.

Crassi magis enitebat oratio, Crassus style was more beautifull and eloquent.

Enitesco, enitui, enitescere, idem quod eniteo.

Enitor, eris, enixus, & enisus sum, eniti, to endeuour or labour, to enforce ones selfe to do a thyng, to ascende upward with great difficultee, also to trauaile or byng forth a chyld.

Eniti oua dicitur gallina, to lay egges,

Eniti & contendere.

Eniti partum, & Eniti puerum, to trauaile and byng forth a chyld.

Enixe, and Enixim, diligently, and with all force.

Enixus, a, um, that hath brought forth, also trauayling or labouring to byng forth, also labourous, full of trauaile and payne.

Enixa opera, trauaile, wherein a man employeth all his puissance.

Enixior opera, more earnest & greater labour.

Enna, a citee of Sicile, situate in an high place, and is compend to bee the veraye myddell of that countreie.

Ennam, for etiam ne.

Enneaphonos, that hath nine voyces.

Enneas, neadis, the number of nine.

Enneacrunos, a fountayne in Athens, made by Pisistratus.

Enneaphyllon, an herbe harynge. It long leaues, of nature burnyng, and veraye holssome for diseases of the loynes and backe bones.

Ennius, an olde latine poete, boine at Carensum, a citee nowe in the royaume of Naples, as some suppose in a towne called Rhodii in Italy, and was broughte to the citee of Rome by Cato the Censor. For hys learninge and moste honest condicions, he was entirely beloued of Scipio African. wherfore he caused hys ymage to be set on hys sepulchre. he made manye booke in sundry kyndes of verses, but the stile that he vsed was veraye auncient and homely, but they conteyned graue and substanciall sentences of great wisdom, he dyed at the age of lxxiij yeres.

Ennosigæus, the surname of Neptuneus.

Eno, aui, are, to swym out, to swym throughlye to any place.

Enoch, a mans name in holy scripture.

Enodate, manifestly.

Enodatio, onis, f. g. an explicacion or declaracio.

Enodatus, a, um, declared, made manifest.

Enodis, de, without knotte. also withoute difficultee or hardnesse.

Enodo, aui, are, to cut awaye the knottes, or to vnknotte by translation to declare or make manifest, to explicate or dissolue doubtles.

Enoma, a citee of Dalmatia.

Enonymos, like Anonymos.

Enope, a citee nere to Pylus.

Enorchis, a certayne stone, whiche beyng broken, is like the colons of a man.

Enormis, e, great out of measure. also out of square, or out of rule.

Enormiter, naughtily, without measure, vntreasonably, far out of square, greatly amys,

Enos, a greate citee, nighe to the mountayne Lybanus, before Noes floudde, wherein dwelled gygantes, whiche had dominion ouer all the worlde, from the sunne goynge downe, to the sonne rysynge. They trustyng in the greatnesse of theyr bodys, and strength, inuented armour and weapons, oppressed all men, and ge-uyng them selues to all bodily lustes, found passions, instrumentes of musike, and all wanton pleasures. They dyd also eate men, procured deliuerance of childzen besyde the time, and prepared them in to delicate meates. They companied carnallye with theyr owne mothers, systers, daughters, men, and beastes: And all mis-chiefe they did commit, despisers of god and all religion.

Ec moue

Enotesco, scere, to come to knowlage, to bee known.

Ens, entis, beeyng.

Ensiculus, li, a littell swerde or hanger.

Ensifer, ensiferi, that beareth a swerde.

Ensis, sis, m. g. a swerde.

Crudus ensis, loke Crudus.

Habilis ensis, an hansom sworde.

Accommodare ensen, & applicare ensen la-teri, to hange ones sworde by hys syde.

Adigere ensen in pectus, and Condere en- sem in pectore, to thrust one to the hert with his swerde.

Districus ensis, a swerde redy drawen.

Recondere ensen, to put by ones swerde.

Transuerberare aliquem ense, to thrust one thorough with his swerde.

Ducere ensen, to drawe.

Entelechia, perfection, power to moue it selfe or after Hermolaus, continuall agitation and mouyng.

Enterocela, or Enterocela, a dyscase whan the gutte called Cæcum intestinum, is fallen into the coddies.

Enteni, certayne wormes of the earth.

Enterione, the beeth that is in wodde, as the softe matter in elderne, ashe, hasell, and suche
lyke.

Enterocælicus, ci, m. g. he that hath hys bowels fallen into his coddies.

Entheos, full of diuine inspiracion, inspired.

Enthymema, ätis, n. g. an imperfect syllogisme, lackyng the maior of the minor.

Entomon, the herbe, called Elleborum nigrum, in Dioscorides wryten Antomon.

Enûbo, nupsi, ere, to mary.

Enucleare, cleerely, manifestely, exquisitely, some-tyme without difficultee or hardnesse.

Enucleatus, a, um, opened, made manifest.

Enucleo, aui, are, to take out the kernell of a nutte, it is also to declare or make playne a sentence.

Enûdo, aui, are, to make naked, also to interprete, to expounde.

Enumeratio, onis, a numbyng or recknyng of many thynges together.

Enûmero, aui, are, to numbye, to reken or cast.

Enumerare per singula, to numbye euey one after an other.

Enuntiatio, onis, f. g. a proposition.

Enuntiatiuus, a, um, that is pronounced or vttered.

Enuntiatrix, one that pronounceth or vttereth.

Enuntiaturum, ti, n. g. a proposition.

Enuntiatus, a, um, spoken, pronounced, vttered.

Enuntio, aui, are, to pronounce or speake, to declare, to signifie, to publyshe, to disclose, to reuele or vtter abyode.

Enuntiare consilia amicorum aduersariis, to vtter or disclose the counsaile of ones frendes, to theyr aduersaries.

Commisssa enuntiare, to vtter abyode suche thynges as were tolde one in secretes.

Enuntiare apud homines, to tell abyode among men.

Enutrio, triui, ire, to nourtyshe.

Enyo, enyus, the name of Bellona.

Enyalius, the sonne of Bellona.

E ANTE O.

EO, therfore, for as muche, vnto that.

Eo loci, in that state or condicion, also in that place, or in the same place.

Eodem loci, in the same place or estate.

Nec eo secius, and yet neuerthelesse.

Eo usque, so muche, so farre, so longe.

Eousque creuit, donec &c. so longe, vntill, &c.

Eousque dum anhelet, so longe as.

Eo, for in tantum, so muche.

Eo creuit, it increased and grew so muche.

Eo insolentia processit, he became so insolent and proude.

Eo, for propterea, as,

Eo ad eam admissa non sum, for that cause I was not suffered to comen to hir.

Hæc ad te eo pluribus scripsi, vt, &c. I haue therfore wryten these thynges more at large, &c.

Non eo, quin tibi non cupiam quæ velis, not so, but that I woulde be glad to doe that you woulde haue me.

Non eo hoc dico, quin, &c. I speake not this for any suche intent, but that, &c.

Non eo dico, I speake it not therfore.

Eo magis, so muche the more.

Annos sexaginta natus es, aur plus eo, thou arte, lx. yeres olde or aboue.

Eo redactares erat, the mattier was brought into that case.

Nisi eo veniam, Excepte I come thither.

Sed usq; eo quo opus erit, yet at the least, as farre as nede shall requyre.

Hæc quæ scripsi eo spectant, These thynges that I haue wryten, pertain to this ende.

Hæc atq; alia eodem pertinentia, these thynges, and suche other lyke, pertainyng to the same ende, or spoken for the same purpose.

Eo fuerunt cariora, They were so muche the deeter.

Eo, is, iui, ire, to go. sometyme to come.

Eo inficias, I denye.

Eo obuiam, I go to mete with one.

Eo venum, ire venum, to be sold.
 Celeriter isti, & redisti, Thou dyddest come and go quickly.
 Ire grandibus gradibus, to goe with longe strides.
 Patiamur illum ire nostris itineribus, Let vs suffer hym to goe the same waye that we haue gone before hym. And by translation, to kepe the same trade in thynges, that we dyd before hym.
 Ire nauigio, to passe ouer in a Myppe.
 Ire pedibus, to go on fote.
 Ire in aciem, to go to warre.
 Ire in aliquem, to rushe or renne violently as against one.
 Ire in crucem, go and be hanged.
 Ire in exilium, to be banished.
 Ire in fastidium, to begyn to be lothed or abhorred.
 Ire in ius ad aliquem, to pleade or go to lawe before one sitting as a iudge.
 Ire in matrimonium sine dote, to be married without dowrie.
 Vulgabar, ire in melius valetudinem homi-nis, he published abroad, that the man began to recouer his helth, and ware better and better.
 In neruum potius ibit, he will rather be asste in pyson.
 Ire in possessionem, to take possession.
 In rixam non ibimus, we will not fall to chys-dyng.
 Ibit in secula nomen tuum, Thy name shall be spoken of as long as the worlde standeth, or thou shalt get the a perpetuall name.
 Ire in sententiam, to condescende to ones opy-nion, to saye as one hath sayde before.
 Ire in subsidium, to ayde or succour.
 Ire consilium male aliquem, To damage or hurte one.
 Ire datum operam amico, to go to healepe ones friends.
 Ibam ad te, I was comyng to you.
 Ire cubitum, and Ire dormitum, to go to bed.
 Ire habitum honorem alicui, to doe honour and worshyp to one.
 Perditum ire, to destroye, to vndo.
 It dies, the daye passeth awaye.
 It ad melucrum, the dauntage is myne, or the profite cometh to me.
 In exemplum ire, to be for an example vnto other.
 Ire in matrimoniu sine dote, to be married. &c.
 Fluius it, the riuer renneth.
 Eunt precipites mores, honest maners fall soze in decaye.
 Incipit res melius ire quam putaram, to goe better forward.
 Eunt precipites mores, the maners of men
 renne headlong vnto all mischiefe.
 Puppis it, the Myppe sayleth.
 Prorsus ibat res, the matter proceeded or went well forward.

 Is quoniam laudem tibi in mea vita? Doest thou see about to get the laude and prayse by putting my life in daunger?
 Iux, the impersonall.
 Eon, the compass of the eye.
 Eon, onis, the tree, that the Mypp Argo, was made for Iason.
 Eos, the morning.
 Eous, the east.
 Eous, i. m. ge. one of the houses of the sonne. It is bled for the daye after.
 E. ANTE P.
 Pacta, thynges added to.
 Epagris, one of the ples called Cyclades.
 Epagoge, es, f. g. a figure, whan lyke argu-mentes or thynges be conferred together.
 Epagon, epagontis, neu. ge. a trocke in a crane or like engine, called also of Vitruuius, Ergotum, or Ergatum, after some printes.
 Epaminondas, a Theban boyne, (sonne of an honest gentil man called Polymnus) in sundry qualiter excellent, as well of the bodye as of the mynde, in all kindes of muske perfectly instructed, and danced exceedingly well. He was steele, and ranne no man better. In armes stronge, hardy, and valiant. In martiall policie, equall to any than hyunge, wonderfull well learned in philosophy, especiallye in that Pythagoras taughte, the most diffuse and pure doctrine, con-teinyng moste secreete and diuine misteries, wher-vnto he added moste noble vertues. For he was temperate, wyle, of greate graunter, vspnge tyne wylly, of courage invincible, so diligent in ob-seruyng trouth, that he woulde at no tyme lye, neyther in earnest nor in game. He was continent, mercyfull, wonderfull patient, sufferinge wronges both of the people, and of his friends.
 He was secreete and trusty, so saythfull and louing to his frendes, that whan anye of them were taken in warres, or anye of theyr daughters tradye to bee married, and they not able to sette theym forth, accordyng to their degrees: he wold assemble the residue of his frendes, and exhorte theym to hepe vnto hym that lacked, accordyng to theyr powers. he hym selfe wolde liberallye geue to the quantitee of his substance, whyche was but littell, althoughe he were in great anthoyiten (for he refused all rewardes, saupnge thankes onelye) whan he had made a good summe of that, whyche was graunted, before he receyued it, he broughte hym, that shoulde haue it, vnto the geuers, that he mought receyue it of theim, and knowe howe muche he was bounde vnto every of theym. He often tymes refused great summes of monye, and riche presentes sente to him by prynces (all though he were poore) sayng: If the thyng were honest, whych he was requyred to dooe, he woulde dooe it, because it was

was good, without any reward: If it were ill, or not honeste, all the gooddes of the worlde shoulde not make hym dooe it: If it were profitable to his countreie, he was bounden and redy to doe it freely: If it were otherwise: all the riches in the worlde mought not counteruaile the loue, that he bare to his commune weale. In eloquence no Thebane mought be compared vnto him, and his sentences were graue, and veraye compendious, whereby incounsailes he vanquished and put to rebuke greate and famous oratours. In battayle he ouercame the Athenienses and Lacedemons, and in one daye had the victorie of all Grece. At the laste, in the battayle at Mantinea, betwene the Thebans and the Lacedemons, he was strepen and wounded to death with a long speare, the head remayneinge styll in his bodye: yet receyved he lyfe, vntyll it was tolde hym, that his hoste had the victorie. Then layed he, I haue lyued longe enough, for I dye vnvanguished. The prion being drawen out of his bodye, he dyed, before the incarnaciō of Christ. 372. yere. This one thing is well to be considered (as Probus sayeth) the citee of Thebes, before Epaminondas was borne, and also after he was dead, was vnder the rule and in subiection of other people. But duringe the tyme that he was a gouernour in the weale publicke, the citee was head and gouernour of all Grece, whereby it maye bee well perceived, that one such noble man is more than a whole citee.

Epanadiplosis, sis, f. ge. a figure, whan a sentence beynneth with a worde, and endeth with the same.

Epanados, a figure, whan two thynges reherced together, be spoken of afterwarde seuerally.

Epanalepsis, sis, f. g. a repetition, or repetition.

Epanaphora, ra, f. g. a figure, whan diuers clauses begyn with one worde, repetition.

Epaphus, the sonne of Iupiter and Io, of Isis, that builded Memphis in Egypte.

Epaphroditus, ti, m. ge. a pleasant felow.

Eparchia, a, f. g. a prouince.

Eparchiotes, te, one of a prouince.

Eparchus, the president of a prouince.

Epatica, an herbe called lyuer wort.

Epatarius, loke Hepatarius.

Epaticus, loke Hepaticus.

Eparitis, idem quod smilax.

Epauxis, is, f. m. ge. an increas, the figure Incrementum.

Epeirus, a countreie, which hath on the north Macedonia, on the west and south the Adriatike, and Ionike sea: on the east Thracia. In this reigned the famous Pirthus, it hath lyng to it the Isles Lozfun, Tracha, and Zarynthus. &c. this countreie is nowe vnder the Turke.

Epenthesis, a figure, whan a letter or syllable is added in the myddes of a worde.

Epeus, the sonne Endimion, which made the horse that was conueighed into Troie.

Ephelia, a, f. g. the age, wherein one entereth into mans estate. xv. or xvi. yeres.

Ephesium, i, n. ge. the place where yonge streps lynges exercised wastying.

Ephiebus, bi, m. gen. he that is of the age of xv. or xvi. yeres.

Ephedron, dri, n. ge. the herbe called also Hippuris, or equisetum, wherby dryng sodde in a new earthen vessel, consumeth the Splene.

Ephesis, the declaracion or exposition of that, whiche went before.

Ephemera febris, a feuer apte to be cured in one daye, but neglected, it cometh to be in dyuers sortes of feuers, and accordynge to the nature of them, continueth longer. The cause thereof is sometyme of outward heates, sometyme of much labour or weykenesse, sometyme of oppilation, sometime of replecion, especially of diuers meates and drynkes, otherwhyle of longe abstinence or watche, or of corruption of that, wherwith the bodie is nourished.

Ephemeris, meridis, f. m. g. a booke, wherein is written that, whych is dooen dailely, a register, or a booke of reckning, wherein thynges layde out and receiued be written.

Ephemeron, is that, which apothecaries call Harmodactilus, an extreme purger of steme: also a certaine beast that bledeth about the tumer Hippantis, and a certayne herbe, haupnge leaues like a lily, called also Lilium conuallium, in english Liricumphantie, as some doe iudge: other thinke it to be called may lily.

Ephestius, i, familiaris, familiar, of the same house or familie.

Ephesiades, certayne ples, called of the latins Vulcania, and Aeolia.

Ephesus, ephesi, a noble auncient citee in Asia the lesse. It is interpreted by Capnet Hierome, my will. There renneth by it a great riuier called Caystrus, out of whiche be deriued manye other riuers. In this citee was the famous temple of Diana, numbred among the vii. wonders of the worlde, edified by all Asia in an. lxx. yeres, and was set in a fen or marthe grounde, the foundation being firste layed with coles, troden or rammed harde, than flicres of woll slaped thereon, and all this was to saue it from erthquakes. The temple was in length. 425. fote, in breadth. 220. In it were. 127. pillours. euery of them. lx. fote highe, made by lynges, the rouse was of cedar trees, and the doores of Lypyres. A lewde persone, of purpose to geat a renome in histories (being couetouse of glozy, and haupnge none excellent qualitee to attayne therunto) puttyng wylde fyre into the rouse, byd burne this temple. His name was Herostratus (as Strabo writeth) wherof proceeded a proverbe.

Herostrati gloria, applied vnto the that sche for a renome or pryple of a mischeuous art.

Ephi,

Ephi, a measure conteyning iii. Romane bushels, called modij, of our measure nine gallons.

Ephialtes, ris, m. g. a disease, whan one sleppynge thynketh, that a greate weight lyeth vppon hym, and taketh his wynde from hym. It is of some called the maare, whiche is none other thyng but a fumolitee, rysynge from the stomache oz herte, vnto the bryne, there oppresynge the verye animal.

Ephialtes, and Oerus, two sonnes of Neptune, whiche as portes doo feigne, dyd growe euerie moneth. i. ynchis, and trustyng to theyr length, intended to ouerthrowe heauen.

Ephippiari, they that haue theyr hoxses trapped with costlye harneys.

Ephippium, ri, neu. ge. the harneys of an hoxse oz mule, a saddle.

Ephod, a vestiment, vsed in the ceremonies of the Jewes, of the whiche were two soites, one of whiche lynnen like an aube, that oure priestes vse; the other, whiche serued for the high priest onely, was made of golde, purple, scarlet twise dyed, and wound like, like vnto the Tunicle, that the deacon weareth at Masse.

Ephori, were certayn men in authoritee amonge the Lacedemonians, as Tribuni were amonge the Romayns, to whome men might appeale fro the king, as in Rome they mought appeale from the Consules vnto the Tribunes.

Ephorus, the name of a wyter of histories, scholar to Aristotle.

Ephrydros, loke Ephedron.

Ephura, x, oz Ephire, es, a towne of Achaia, whiche nowe is called Corinthus. Also a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.

Ephyreias, adis, a woman of Corinthe.

Ephyris, a woman of Laonia.

Epia, x, a towne of Achaia, the people whereof were called Epi.

Epialos, a feuer ingendred of colde sleume.

Epibades, a certayne kynde of shippes, called a barke oz a passenger.

Epibata, x, m. g. a souldiour on the sea.

Epibatra, the ladder that goeth vnto the toppers of the shippe.

Epicauma, caumatis, neu. gene, a foule soze in the eye.

Epicharidia, x, a kynde of botte oz shippes.

Epicedium, verses made in commendation of a dead man.

Epicharmus, the name of an excellent philosopher of Syracuse.

Epicherema, x, tis, n. gen. an argumente made in reasonyng.

Epichrista, crum, n. g. opnetynge.

Epichrysis, sis, f. g. a funnell.

Epicanum, of bothe the kyndes, male and female.

Epicoma, the difference of sores, whiche ryse in the eyes.

Epirocum, ci, n. g. a garment of saffron colour.

Epictetus, the name of a stoike philosopher.

Epicureus, and Epicurius, x, um, preteynyng to the Epicurens, also voluptuous.

Epicurus, the name of hym that did putte the pryncipall goodnesse in voluptuousnesse.

Epicus, epica, um, an adiectiue.

Epicus versus, an exhameter verse.

Epidamnus, a towne in the southewest parte of Grece on the sea syde, called also Dyrrachium.

Epidaurus, oz Epidaurium, a citee in Grece in the countrey called Achaia, wherein was a famous temple dedicated vnto Esculapius, to the whiche a great multitude of sicke people dyd resorte, and some in their sleepe had the word vnto them that medicine, whereby they shoulde be cured of theyr sickness.

Epidemici, they that appoynte lodgynges for suche as folowe, waite, and attende vppon prynces, herbigers.

Epidemia, x, form. ge. a pestilence oz vniuersall plague of sickness.

Epidicticon, demonstratiue, that pertyneth to prayse oz dyspraysing.

Epidipnida, arum, f, m. g. bankettyng dyshes, brought in at the latter ende of dyner oz supper.

Epidromes, dromidis, the amping of a nette.

Epidromon, the sayle of a shippe.

Epigastrium, neu. gen. all the bealve, from the boulke downe to the priue members, whiche is called also Abdomen.

Epigamia, x, f, m. ge. affinitie with other by marriage.

Epigenema, nematis, idem quod symptoma, apud medicos.

Epigotis, the herbe Climatis.

Epigenes, a philosopher of Byzance.

Epiglossis, oz Epiglottis, a small thyng in the innermost part of the tounge, like a littel tounge.

Epigoni, the surname of them that were the causes of the seconde warre of Thebes.

Epigramma, tis, neu. gen. a superscription, an epigramme.

Epigrammatarius, ri, n. g. he that wytteth verses called Epigrammata.

Epigraphie, es, f. g. a title oz inscription.

Epigrypus, pi, m. g. he that hath a crooked nose.

Epi, certayn people called after Elidentes.

Epicia, oz Ephices, f. ge. is that parte of iustice, called in latine Aequum & bonum, in englysh there is not any one word founden therfore, but that thereby maye be vnderstand, that equitee, whiche omitteth parte of the rigour oz extremitee of a lawe that is writte, oz consozmeth iustice to the occasion newly happened, whiche was not remembred of the makers of the lawe, applyng it to the thyng, whereof leaste detriment may seme to ensue.

Epilepsia, x, f. ge. called also Morbus comitias, & Morbus sacer, Morbus Herculeus, & Morbus S. Ioannis, in englyshe the fallynge sickness, the foule puell. After Alexander it is an infection of the head and bryne, in the parte, wherin is conteyned vnderstandyng, the chiefe of all senses. Galene sayeth, it is a colde humour, wherewith the telles of the brayne are not perfectly stopped, prohibityng the soule to execute his operation, vntyll nature haue estes stones opened the natural cundites of the brayne, remouynge that humour. It happeneth (as Constantinus wytteth) of one of these thre causes, epyther of an humour fleumaticke or melancoly, bredde in the hyndre moste parte of the brayne, or of a wynd grosse and colde, oppresyng the brayne, or of humours to muche aboundyng in the stomake, so that the fume thereof ascendeth by to the brayne by the sinues, by whose grossenesse the wayes or passages of the vitall spirites are stopped.

Epilépticus, ci, m. ge. he that hath that disease.

Epiligna, na, for. ge. a certayne base oymment, that is commonly vsed of all men.

Epimelas, a certayne white precious stone, some what duskyish in the vpper parte.

Epilogus, i, m. gene. a conclusion in wytyng or speaking.

Epimachus, a mans name.

Epimelis, a kinde of medlar trees, the fruite wherof hath in it. iii. stones.

Epimelon, & Epimelida, a certayne kinde of wylding apparis, verye sower and noyous to the head and stomake: some thynke it to be the crabbe or wildinge called Vnedo, other thinke it a kinde of peares, loke Barbar, in Coroll. de arbut.

Epimenides, a noble phylosophier in the ple of Areta: who beyng a yonge man, and sent by his father to seeke a sheepe, for werynesse and heate of the daye, wente into a denne or holowe place in an hyl to rest hym, where he slepte continually. 47. yerres, and than beyng awaked, wente forth to seeke his sheepe, and not fyndyng hym, retourned home, and fyndyng an other man dwellyng in the house, wherhe was his fathers, and beholdyng euerie thyng altered, he went into the citee, where at the laste he founde hys ponger brother, beyng a man of great yerres, of whome he knewe all that was happened, and after became a meruaylous phylosophier, and wate of the nature of thynges, and of the diuine generation, and had the gyfte of prophecie, as some suppose. He liued (as Lactius wytteth) 179. yerres, after other mens saynges: 194. yerres. And was before the incarnation of Christ. 147. yerres.

Epimenidium, a kinde of herbes, that hath a rounde roote lyke an onyon, and is displeasante in eatyng.

Epimetheus, the sonne of Lapetus, and brother of Prometheus.

Epimyctis, loke Epinyctis.

Epimythium, ij, n. g. the declaracion of a fable in a morall sence.

Epiniicia, orum, verses conteynyng pybles.

Epinicium, ij, neu. g. a seale or rope made for bis clopp: as bonfytes, and bankettes therat. Epinyctides, a wheale or pulsthe that riseth on the thynne by nyght: also a disease in the eye.

Epinyctis, is also a booke or register of thynges down in the night.

Epiodium, or Epicidium, dij, n. g. a songe, sung at a buriall, before the corpe be buried.

Epiphanes, notable or famous. it was the surname of Antiochus the most cruell tyranne.

Epiphania, x, for. g. a manifestation. it is also a solemne feast in the church.

Epiphonema, ais, neu. gene. a sentence, or acclamation, conteynyng the summe or conclusion of a thyng.

Epiphora, ia, f. g. a sickness of the eyes, called the droppynge of the eyes.

Epiploocle, es, f. g. a disease, when the intrayles of the thynne thyn or suete, that compasseth the intrayles, falleth into the cobbe.

Epipomphalon, li, n. g. a disease, when the call or suete, wherem the guttes are lapped, breaketh out at the nauell.

Epirhedium, dij, n. g. a waggon or carte.

Epirora, x, f. g. one of Epire.

Epiroricus, a, um, of the countreie called Epirus.

Epirotica mala, called also Rotunda.

Epirus, a region in the south west part of Grece, loke Epirus.

Epischidion, scidij, n. g. a wedge.

Episcopatús, us, m. g. a byshoppe.

Episcopium, pij, neu. ge. a byshoppes palace or house, or a place to spee out at.

Episcopius, a, um, perteynyng to espiall.

Navis episcopia, a shyppe sent out to espy.

Episcopus, pi, m. ge. a byshop. sometyme an els pie: sometyme a tierke of the market.

Epispastica, salus or plaisters to drawe matter out of a wounde.

Epistalma, the commission of a prince, hauyng the charge subscribed.

Epistata villica, a woman that hath the ouersight or keepyng of a ferme in the countreie.

Epistates, te, mal. ge. a proctour, an ouerseer, a bailiffe, a steward of housholde.

Epistathmi, by the interpretation of Budeus, are herbigers, appointers of lodgynges for the train of princes, wherunto Budeus deuiceth a latine word, callyng them Designatores mansionarij, or cretarij, But in myne opinion the greke name maye be vsed well and properly.

Epistola, x, f. g. a letter sent fro one to an other.

Epistolâris, re, perteynyng to epistles or letters.

Epistolâris charra, wytyng paper.

Epistolium, lij, n. g. a littell epistle.

Epistomium, ij, neu. gen. a corke or spoute, sendyng out water from a cundite, a tappe, or othe lyke thyng.

Epistropus, a kyng of Rhodis.

Epistropheus, the foremost ioynte in the necke.

Epistylum, lij, n. g. the chapter of apyllour, or a littell pillour sette vpon a greatter.

Epitaphium,

Epitaphium, ij, neu. ge. a scripture written on a graue or sepulchre, an epitaph.

Epitasis, the part of a comedie whan it is most busy and troublous.

Epithalamium, ij, neu. g. a songe beyng songe at a wedding, or verses made in the prayse of them that are married.

Epithema, thématis, n. g. a medicine layed to the region of the herte or lyuer to cole it.

Epithesis, a counterfayted inscripcion to deceyue a man.

Epithetes, a deceptuour.

Epitheton, an addicion, ppozely applyed to a thyng for some notable qualitee, whyche it signifieth: as, Seuum mare, the roughe sea: Garrula pica, the chattering ppe: Crudelis Nero, the cruell Nero: Campi florigeri, the flouryng fieldes.

Epithymia, α, f. g. concupiscence, desyre.

Epithymum, the floure of the harder tyme lyke vnto sauorie, the toppes thyn and lyghte, the stalkes lyke vnto heares. The difference betwene that and the other floure of tyme, is, that this is greene, of the colour of an herbe, the other is whyte. It groweth specially in Creta. It is hotte and drye in the middell of the thirde degree, and purgeth melancolye or blake choler: or after other, it is a weede that taketh holde of the braunches of tyme, and so windeth about it, that it is nourished of the tyme rote, and beareth a flower lyke tyme.

Epithyrum, a meane to conserue oliues.

Epitogium, ij, n. ge. a garmente woyn vpon a gowne. It maye be vled for suche an hoodde as graduates weare in vniuersities, or elles that whyche they call their habite.

Epitome, es, or Epitoma, α, f. g. a bydgement, or breuiate.

Epitragus, gi, m. g. a certayne fish.

Epitrapézia, órum, the name of all maner vessels belongyng to the table.

Epitritus, a wote of foure sillables, of the whyche one differeth euer from the other thre.

Epitrope, es, f. g. procuracion, wardshipp.

Epitropus, id est, procurator.

Epityrum, ri, n. g. a chese cake.

Epodus, di, a kynde of verses, whyche hath the first verse longer than the second: as,

Beatus, ille qui procul negotius,

Vt prisca gens mortalium.

Epolános, olde wyters vled for Epulones.

Epomes, idis, a cloke, a hoo, to caste on ones shoulders.

Epopa.

Epopos, a mountayne.

Epops, épopis, idem quod Vpupa.

Eporedia, a citee of the Salatiens.

Eporhédicæ, arum, god breakers of horses.

Epos, odos, a woerde or a kynde of verse or songe, whiche conteyneth thynges concernyng as well god as man.

Epóio, aui, are, to drynke by all.

Epóius, a, um, drunke by.

Epulæ, árum, meates, also a bankette made to many persons. Sometyme pasture for beastes.

Mensæ epulis conquisitissimis extruebantur, the tables wer set or garnished with moste deyntie and costly dyshes.

Profusæ epulæ, frastes to sumptuous or costly.

Epula, α, was vled of olde wyters in the singular numbze.

Epuláris, re, belongyng to a feast or banquet.

Epularis sermo, communicacion meete for a feast or banquet.

Epularis dies, a feast daye.

Epulatio, ónis, f. g. feastyng.

Epulatórius, a, um, apte to be eaten at a fraste or bankette.

Epulátus, a, um, that hath frasted or banketted.

Epulis, pulidis, f. ge. fleshe that groweth on the gummes about a mannes teethe.

Egulo, ónis, plural. epulones, men boden to a great feast, or they whyche come vnboden to eate the reuercion. Amonge the gentiles it were they that were called by the priestes to eate that which was leste of the sacrifice, or rather to helpe to make the feast at the sacrifice.

Epulor, aris, ari, to eate at frastes or bankettes.

Epulum, épuli, n. ge. a great feast, wherunto all the people assembled, whyche amonge the olde Romayns was made either to the honoz of some of their goddis: or at the buryng of some notable personage. It maye we nowe take for a church feast, or feast of a brotherhead, or dynner made at a buriall or interremēt. It hath been sometyme vled to bee taken for a bankette.

Equapium, an herbe called also Hippofelis non, Olus atrum, and Olus pullum, in englyshe alisaunder.

Equa, α, f. g. a mare.

Equária, α, f. g. an hearde of hoxses and mares.

Equárius, m. g. an hoxse leache.

Equárius, a, um, perteynyng to hoxses or mares.

Equarius medicus, an hoxse leache.

Eques, iris, com. gen. an hoxseman, contrayre to the footeman. Somtyme it is taken for a knight.

But I suppose that amonge the Romayns, Equites were taken for them, whyche we call gentill men. It is sometyme vled for iudges, because they were cholen out of that order. also Eques is taken in Virgill for an hoxse.

Locare equites pro cornibus, to set the hoxs men in the wynges of the battayle.

Equéstris, stre, perteynyng to Eques, as,

Equéstris ordo, The state or degree of gentyll men.

Equestres copiae, the numbze or compaigne of hoxsmen.

Equestria, the places assigned for gentillmen, where they satte to beholde any solemne sightes or playes.

Pes equestris, an horse foote.
Equestris, Awe castell in Fraunce.
Equicervus, ui, m. g. called also Hippelaphus, a beaste in the orient, haungyng hornes, and a long mane to the shulders, and a bearde vnder his chynne, and feete rounde clouen lyke an harte, and is as great as an harte.
Equidem, verailly, truely. Sometye in a sentence it signifieth nothyng, but supplieth the numbze.
Equidem certe idem sum, qui semper fui. As for me truely I am the same man, that I haue been alwayes.
Equiferus, a wilde horse.
Equila, a littell mare.
Equile, lis, n. g. a stable for horses.
Equeumentum, ti, n. ge. the hyze of the Italyn to couer a mare.
Equinus, a, um, of an horse.
Equio, iui, ire, whan a mare despyeth to bee co-uered.
Equiria, orum, n. g. plu. a rennyng with horses,
a playe dedicate vnto Mars.
Equiselis, an herbe lyke an horse maane.
Equisessor, a man on horsebacke.
Equisetum, i, n. g. an herbe called horsestaple.
Equiso, onis, m. g. an horse breaker. Sometime an horse keeper, Of olde wyters it was vsed for all them that hath oversight of any thyng.
Equitabilis, le, able to bee rydden. also a place where horses myght easly walke.
Equitatio, onis, f. g. a rydinge.
Equitatus, us, ma. ge. an hoste of horsemen. also the acte of ryding. Sometye the state or order of gentill men.
Equitium, ij, neu. g. the esquire or compaigne of the stable, or rather a troupe of horses.
Equitius, the propre name of a man, and surname of a familie in Rome.
Equito, equitas, aui, are, to ryde.
In orbem equitare, to ryde round about.
Equitare in arundine longa, To ryde on a staffe or reede: and by translation to playe the chylde.
Equitari, the passiu, to be ridden on.
Equuleus, lei, m. g. an horse colte. also a maner of tourment made of burnyng plates, lyke to an horse, wherein men were tourmented.
Equulus, li, m. g. a nagge or littell horse.
Equus, i, m. g. an horse.
Equus carpentarius, a carte horse, or chariotte horse.
Generosus equus, an horse of a ioly and lusty courage.
Equus citatus, an horse taken by a losse.
Cæspiratores equi, stumblyng horses.
Anfractus leuioris equi, the tournynge of a quicke horse nowe on the one syde, nowe on the other, a carriere.
Acer equus, a swifte horse.

Bellator equus, a horse of warre.
Duri oris equus, a stubburne horse, that wyl not folowe the bitte.
Recentes equi, fresh horses.
Equus intractatus, and indomitus, an horse that is not broken.
Equum accendere stimulis, to quych an horse with the spures.
Admittere equum, loke Admitto.
In equum ascendere, and Insilire, to leape on horse backe, to take ones horse.
Cadere de equo, loke Cado.
Concitare equum, to take by his horse with the spures.
Exhortari equum, to encourage an horse.
Frænare equum, to byddell an horse.
Incidere equo, and Harere in equo, to lytte on an horse.
Insternere equum, to trappe an horse, or to sad-del an horse.
Equus, is also a sterre.
Equus Troianus, a prouerbe, notyng the destruction of a citee to bee nouryshed within the same.
Velis equisque, prouerbiaily, with all speede and endenour.

E Radico, caui, care, to pluche by by the rootes.
Eradicare aures alterius, to annoy a man
by tellyng ouer many tales.
Erâdo, si, ere, to scrape of or out of a thyng, to putte out.
Albo senatorio erasit, He put his name out of the table of Senatours.
Erani, collectours of taks or contributions.
Erania pecunia, the money that such collectours doe gather.
Eranthemum, a kynde of camomill, haungyng purple floures, loke Chamæmelon.
Eranthemis, idem quod anthyllis.
Eras, men put out of wages.
Erasinus, the name of a ryuer.
Erasistratus, a noble physicion of the house of Aristotle, who for healyng kyng Antiochus, recey-ued of Ptolomeus hys soonne, an hundred tal-lentes, whiche dooe amount of our moneye, to xlii. M. CCC. lxxv. li. he was before the incars-nation of Christ. 243. yeres.
Erasus, a, um, rased or scraped out.
Erate, es, a nymph, the daughter of Oceanus and Cethys.
Erato, the name of one of the muses, whiche had preeminence ouer louers. it is sometye taken for Calliope.
Eratosthenes, the name of a philosophier.
Ercinia, a wonderfull great wood in Germanye.
Ercisceor, scëris, scëri, to diuide or make partition of gooddes or landes betwene diuerse heyses,

heyes, asygnynge to euery one his portyon.
 Erciscunda familiar iudicium, a iugemente for the deuydyng of partyng of gooddes betweene diuers heyes.
 Ercius, one of the names of Jupiter.
 Ercum, vñd of olde wyters for Arcum.
 Erebeus, a, um, of Erebus.
 Erebus, bl, m. g. one of the riuers of hell. some-tyme it is taken for a certayne darkenesse, which poetes seygne to be in helle.
 Erechites, idem quod Senecio.
 Erectheus, a hynde of Athens.
 Erectio, ðnis, f. g. an aduauuncyng and lysteup of a thyng.
 Erectus, a, um, sette or rayled vpright, lyste vp,
 auauunced, in a readynesse.
 Erectus expectatione, attentive and ready to heare that shall be spoken.
 Erecti ad libertatem recuperandam, ready and glad to recouere their libertee.
 Capillo erecto euolare ex aliquo loco, To renne speedily out of a place with his heare ras-yng and standyng vpright.
 In armos erectus equus, an horse that cometh
 a lyste, and standeth on his hynder legges.
 Erectione animo esse, To haue a more lustye
 courage.
 Erēmbi, people in Arabia, whiche goe naked.
 Erēmigo, aui, arc, to sayle or passe ouer, to ren-ouer, to rowe ouer.
 Eremita, a, m, gen. an heremite, one that dwelleth in wyldernesse.
 Eremodicium, cij, neu. gen. defaulte of apper-saunce at the day whan one is bounde to appeere: or whan sentence is geuen, one of the parties beyng absent, whiche in the digestes Tit de minor. infra. & in codice de iudicijs, is corruptely red Hermodicium.
 Erēmus, mi, f. g. a deserte or solitarie place.
 Erēpo, repi, ere, to crepe vp, to clyme vp hardly with greate payne.
 Ereptus, a, um, taken away, deliuered. some-tyme dead.
 Humanis ereptus, dead.
 Eresichthon, one of Thessaly, whiche for contem-nyng Ceres was made so hungry, that he dyd eate the partes of his owne body.
 Eresion, ðnis, a bzaunche of Oliue, vñd agaynst pestilence.
 Eretria, a famous citee of the yle Eubœa.
 Eretria, a, f. g. a hynde of Cerus.
 Eretrici canes, dogges noysshed by the commauns dement of Apollo, which dyd also amonge othre thynges draw the plough.
 Eretum, ti, a strete in the Sabines towne.
 Ereuthalion, a man of huge greatnesse, whiche was slayne by Nestor.
 Erga, towardes, agaynst.
 Erga festum natalis Christi, agaynst Christs masse. Beneuolentiam erga aliquem habere, to beare fauour or ryght good wyll towardes one.

Ergacylus, the propre name of a man.
 Erganica, a towne of Spayne.
 Ergasterium, ij, n. g. a woozke house.
 Ergastes siue ergasticus, a woikeman.
 Ergastularius, ij, ma. g. the gayler or keeper of a prison.
 Ergastulum, li, n. g. an house where men were compelled to woozke on stone or mettall: now it is taken for a prison, sometyme for the prysoners.
 Ergastulus, i. ma. gen. a seruant or slave kept in prison.
 Ergatum, an ingine to draw vp thynges of greate pople or weyght, called a craane.
 Erginus, a tyranne, whome Hercules subdued and slew. also a ryuer of Thace.
 Ergo, therfore. sometyme it is spoken by days nouely.
 Fac ergo quod lubet, than dw as the list. some-tyme exhortyng.
 Ergo age, go to. sometyme it signifieth because Illius ergo, for his sake.
 Virtutis ergo, because of vertue.
 Ergumenus, vexed with an ill spirite.
 Eribra, the stepmother of Mercurie. also a citee of Macedonie.
 Eribinthos, idem quod Cicer. looke there.
 Erice, or erica, ex, f. g. an herbe, that groweth in wilde moores, called in englishe heath, heth hather, or lyng. It is also a fywe, whiche is supposed to haue a voyce.
 Erica um, n. g. a hynde of heny, wilde honie.
 Ericates, a mans name.
 Erice, es, Erica, a, or Erix, icis, the swete brome which hath leaues lyke rosemary, but that they be somewhat pyckynge.
 Erichinus, a fywe of the sea called a rochet.
 Ericis, a towne of Liguria.
 Erietho, a woman of Thessaly.
 Eriethonius, and Erietheus, the fyrst hynde of Athens, whiche inuented a chariot.
 Eridanus, ni, a ryuer in Italy, now called Pasdus, in Italian Po, nygh to the citee called Patavium, so named of Eridanus, which was drowned in the same.
 Erigeron, an herbe called also Senecio, grounds-swell.
 Erigo, erigis, rexi, ere, to set vp, to lyste vp, to reyse vp, to aduance.
 Erigere scalas ad mœnia, to set vp ladders, or a ladder to the walles of a towne.
 Erigere ad spem, to put in hope.
 Erigite animos, lyste vp your spirites, take courage.
 Erigere ad gloriam, to aduance to honour,
 to make renoumed.
 Agrarij se in spem legis erexerant, They that fauoured the diuision of landes, conceiued a good hope, that the lawe myght bee brought to passe.
 Erigere in gradus, to make higher and higher with

with steppes.
 Erigere afflictum, to succour and comforte one that is oppressed with misery.
 Erigere animum & spem afferre, to comforte one, and put him in hope of a thyng.
 Erigere aures, & animum attendere, to giue eare and harken diligently.
 Erigere rem publicam, to succour the comune weale almost oppressed.
 Erigere in digitos, to stande on tpp toe.
 Erigone, the daughter of Icharius, sister of Penelope, whiche was tourned by the goddes into the sygne called Virgo.
 Erimanthus, looke Erymanthus.
 Erinacius, looke Herinacius.
 Erineon, a wylde fygge tree. also a citee in Doris.
 Erinnyes, nyos, or nyis, for gen. the name of one of the furies of helle. Sometime it is taken for the rage of warre.
 Erinum, ni, neut. gen. a medicine, purgeyng the head by the eares.
 Erioxilon, neu. gene. the woull of the shubbe called Xylon.
 Eriphia, a, f. g. a witche.
 Eriphyle, the wyfe of Amphiarus, and sister of Adrastus, whiche betrayed hir housbande for an ouche of golde, at the siege of Thebes.
 Eriphyia, an ylande.
 Eripio, eripis, ripui, ere, to take away by force, to plucke out, to snatche, to deliuer out of daunger. Sometime to make haste.
 Eripe fugam, flee away in haste.
 Eripuisti a me librum, Thou haste taken my booke frome me.
 Eripuisti me a periculo, Thou haste deliuered me from peryll.
 Eripuisti mihi pecuniam, Thou hast taken my money from me.
 Eripere aliquem domo, To pull one out of his house.
 Eripere & extorquere.
 Eripere linguam alicui, To pull out ones tounge.
 Eripere facultatem aliquid faciendi, to lette a man to dooe a thyng that he myght ones haue dooen.
 Eripere alicui amicum, to withdraue a mans freende from him by yll tales, or other meanes.
 Eripere alicui aspectum senatus, To banyshe or forbyd one to come into the senate.
 Orationem ex ore tu mihi eripis, thou takest my tale out of my mouth.
 Eripere se a miseria, to deliuer and ryd hym selfe out of miserie.
 Eripere pudicitiam, to rauishe.
 Se ex crimine eripere, to discharge him selfe of a crime that he is accused of.
 Eris, ris, or eridis, an herbe growyng in Egypte, and may be interpreted contencion.
 Erisichthon, looke Eresichthon.
 Erisinum, ni, n. g. smeth to some physicians to be wilde mustard se.

 Erithrodanum, woadisse or madder.
 Erithace, looke Erythace.
 Erithacos, the bird talld robben rebys.
 Eritha, idem quod erithacos.
 Erithales, an herbe of the kynde of Syngrene, or houselecke.
 Erithraones, a certayne byrde of the kynde of geese, somewhat of blacke the colour, myxt with redde, they beyng kept in houses, die for anger.
 Erodus, a byrde, whiche in time of treadinge sweateth bloudde. It is translated of Theodosius Ardeola. Saynt Augustine calleth it Fulica, Suidas supposeth it to bee Ciconia. After Calpine, it is the greatest foule that flieth, and ouercometh and eateth the egle.
 Erodo, si, ere, to gnawe of, to gnawe about.
 Erogiatio, onis, f. g. distribuicion of thynges to other men, a liberall geuyng.
 Erogiatus, a, um, geuen abrode, distributed.
 Erogiato, aui, are, to despye hartly.
 Erogo, erogas, aui, are, to employe or bestowe on a thyng, to distribute or geue to them that aske of vs.
 Pecunias alicui erogare in rem aliquam, to deliuer moneye to one to bee bestowed on a thyng.
 Eropia, one of the ples Cyclades, called also Asis and afterward Syphnus.
 Erofus, a, um, knawen rounde about.
 Erpillon, li, n. g. wylde tyme.
 Erorhalles, idem quod Aizoum maius.
 Eros, loue. also a mans name.
 Erotema, atis, neu. gene. a demaunde, an interrogacion.
 Erotematicus, he that often demaundeth.
 Erorylos, a pzerious stone lyke to flynt.
 Errabundus, a, um, muche wanderyng or vababunde, straying or tennying at routs.
 Errans, anis, erpnyng, wanderyng, strayinge a byrde.
 Errans & vaga sententia, a waueryng and vnc constant opinion.
 Errantia, a, idem quod error.
 Erratica, herbes which dooe grow of them selues without culture, ye may call them weedes.
 Erraticus, a, um, that creepeth here and there, as, Vitis erratica, a crepyng vine that groweth out in diuers places.
 Erratica herba, a weede or herbe that groweth wylde abrode, without sowyng.
 Erratio, onis, for gen. a goyng out of the way, a wanderyng, a straying abrode, a rounyng.
 Erratus, a, um, that one hath wandered or strayed in.
 Petere veniam errato alicuius, to despye pardon for a thyng that one hath dooen amysse in.
 Erro, aui, are, to erre, to roue, or wander, to stray abrode, to be deceiued. Sometime to goe to pasture.
 Inter audaces lupus errat agnos, fith, goth.
 Errare

Errare de verbis alicuius, to misse vnderstand the wordes that one speaketh.

Varij colores saepe errant in vultu solis, when the sunne seemeth to be of diuers colours.

Circum villulas omnes errare, to go aboute from one maner place to an other.

Erras, si id credis, Thou art deceived, if thou thinke so.

Malo in hanc partem errare, I had rather erre or be deceived in this.

Teneo, quid erret, I perceiue well, wherein he is deceived.

Tota erras via, Thou art cleane out of the way, thou art utterly deceived.

Erratur in nomine, They hitte not or knowe not the right name.

Erro, onis, m. g. a steret a syde, a wanderer, a loyterer, a vagabunde.

Erroneus, idem quod Erro.

Error, oris, m. g. an error, moppely, where false hood is affirmed and taken for trouth, or trouth the for falsehode, sometime ignorance, also deceipte, trumpery, wanderyng.

Mentis alienatæ error, raupng madnesse.

Eodem errore captus quo nos, deceiued in the same thyng that we bee.

Errorum creat, looke Creo.

Afficere mentis errore, to make madde.

Afficere errore, to deceiue.

Auferam, or Eripiam tibi errorem, I will open the trueth to you, or I will informe you of the trueth, and shewe you wherein you be deceived.

Duci errore, looke Duco.

Ab errore auellere aliquem, to withdraue a man from an error or false opinion.

Fessus errore viarum, wepy with wanderynge or goyng out of the waie.

Inducere in errorem, to deceiue, to bypnyng to erre.

Lapsus errore, or per errorem, deceived by a false opinion that he had conceiued.

In magno errore sunt, They be in a greatesse rout, or they be greatly deceived.

In summo errore uersari, teneri errore, trahit error, in errore esse, to bee deceived, or in a false opinion.

Erubescendus, a, um, a thyng to be ashamed of.

Erubescio, bui, scere, to be ashamed, or to blushe.

Nec erubuit ora vestra, and yet was he not ashamed to come before you.

Erubescere loqui, I am ashamed to speake.

Erubescere fortuna, to be ashamed of that hath chaunced to one by fortune.

Eruca, æ, f. gen. an herbe called Rocket. Also a worme called the canker, whiche is common ly vpon colewoortes.

Eructo, æui, are, to bealke or bzeake wynde oute of the stomake, and by translation to speake rudely, and with great despoite, to sende or cast forth.

Erudero, æui, are, to throwe oute, or cast awaye rubbell, as mortar, stones and other like thinges of olde byldynges decayed or pulled downe.

Erudio, erudis, ui, ire, to teache any arte or science, to instruct, to informe, to make cunning.

Erudire ad rationem viam, to instruct to some maner of lpyng.

Erudire in aliqua re, to instruct one in any thyng.

Erudire aliquem artes, to teache one artes or sciences.

Erudire laboribus iuuentutem, to exercise or bypnyng by youth in labours.

Eruditus reysus, he hath taught you.

Eruditio, onis, f. g. doctrine or teachyng.

Eruditulus, li, ma, g. somewhat learned.

Eruditus, a, um, learned or taught, instructed.

Eruditus græcis literis, learned in the greche tynque.

Erugatio, onis, f. g. a wrinklyng.

Erugo, looke Aerugo.

Erugo, giui, ire, to belche or bzeake wynde bys warde, the symple of exusto.

Erugo, æui, are, to make wrinkled.

Erugare cutem, to make the skynne wrinkled.

Erulia, æ, f. ge. a graine, whiche some call tares, but I thinke it rather to be some other kynde of grayne, that groweth in corne fieldes.

Eruiangina, næ, f. g. a cerryngeweede growyng amonge corne, and by wyndyng about it, hilleth it, this weede hath a stalk a foote and an halfe high, somewhat ruddish, rough, tender, & hath a fatte or grosse leafe, eyther a yelow flower or somewhat whitish, the roote a synget bigge: it is called also Diobanche, thoheweede.

Erulia, some do suppose to be frenche beanes.

Erumna, looke Aerumna.

Erumpo, rûpi, ere, to bzeake oute, sometime to leape forth with violence, to bzeake oute of an holde or sitte by on enemies, and by translation to come abroad to the knowlage of men.

Erumpet in neruum istæ fortitudo, A prouerbe diuersly expounded, for it may signifie, This courage of thyne may bypnyng thee to an halter, or to sitte by the heeles: or it may signifie, This greate strengthe and courage of thyne wylle come vnto nothyng. Whiche prouerbe is taken of Archers; whiche oftentimes whan they put forth the most strengthe, bzeake the stringe of theyr bowe, and the arrowe falleth downe at theyr feete, wherby the shoote is loste, and cometh to nothyng.

Quæ per hoc triennium agitata sunt, in hoc tempus erumpunt, Such thynges as haue ben bypnylpe canualed these thre yeres space: dooe nowe at this tyme bzeake forth to daynely.

In actum erumpere, to come to effecte.

In occulto colloqui, quæ mox in omnium pernitium eruptura sunt, To commune of those thinges thynges prynciply, whiche in effecte it be longe, will tourne to the bitter destruction of the whole commune weale.

Erumpunt se ex portis foras, thei bryake forth oz they issued out at the gates of the citee.

Hæc, quo eruptura sum, timeo, I feare to what ende oz issue these matters will come.

Erumpit amentis hominis furor, The furge of that bryaynelesse felowe will shewe it selfe at sometyme.

Erumpunt lachryma, the teares bryast out.

Ne in me stomachum erumpant, That they doo not biter oz shewe theyr cankered stomake oz malice toward me.

Iam ne hoc erumpere mihi gaudium licet?
may I now out with this my ioy and gladnesse?
Illustrantur & erumpunt omnia, All your secretes be now manifest to see, & come abrode to every mans knowlage.

Eranco, aui, are, to weede out.

Erungium, a certayne herbe, loke Eringium.

Eruo, eruis, ui, ere, to bryawe out with force, to plucke vp by the rootes, to gette and come to the knowlage of thynges by labour and study.

Eruere in lucem, to make manifest oz knowne.

Eruere ex tenebris, idem.

Aurum terra eruere, To dygge golde out of the earth.

Eruere oculum, to plucke out ones eye.

Sus rostro semina eruit, The swine rooteth vp the seede with his snoute.

Ex his ea erueret, quæ scriptores graeci prodiderunt, And to picke and gette out of them the knowlage of those thynges, whiche the greke authours haue put in wrytyng.

Eruere herbas noxias, to plucke vp weedes.

Eruptio, onis, scem. ge. is whan an hoste issueth hastyp out of a citie, campe, oz forresse, and setteyth on theyr ennemys.

Erutus, eruta, um, pulled, picked, oz weeded out.

Eruum, i, neu. gene. a kynde of pulle, called also Orobos, there is of it, bothe white and redde.

Some take it to be the same that Erulia is, it is greater and bitterer than a fery.

Erycus, a mountayne in Sicile, where was a temple of Venus, of the whiche she was called E-rycina.

Erymantheus, and Erymanthus, a, um, of Erysmanthus.

Erymanthis, idos, Arcadie.

Erymanthis vrsa, the wyfe of Alcaon, whiche was turned into a beare.

Erymanthus, a mountayne in Arcadie, where Hercules ouercame a boze, that destroyed the fieldes. There are also a wodde and a ryuer of the same name.

Eryngium, oz Erynge, a kynde of thystelles, hauynge longe leaues, & longe stalke with a round knape full of longe pyckes, in the forme of a sterre: The roote wherof beyng condite, and conserved in hony with Cynamome and cloues, comforteth nature, and stirreth courage. It is also called Yryngium, and Centum capita, of the apothecaries corruptly Iryngotum, in English the hulner, oz sea holly: for it groweth muche by the seashyde.

Erysipelas, aris, neu. gen. a certayne soze oz boile
redde rounde aboute.

Erysipelæ, arum, scem. ge. an inflammation with rednesse, wherewith is a feuer oz horrount in the body.

Erysipterum, the name of diuers herbes. Diosc.

Erythace, es, f. g. bees meate whyle they labour.

Erythacus, mascul. gene. a byrde called Robyn redde bryast.

Erythea, an yle in the sea Gaditanum, where is suche temperatnesse of ayre, that men lyue ex-ceedynge longe.

Erytheus, a kyng of Athens.

Erythra, a citee of Asia.

Erythrea, one of the Hyppyles: Also the countrey out of the whiche Hercules dyone his beard of beastes.

Erythranon, ni, n. g. a kynde of Iule.

Erythros, an herbe, wherof Xenocrates wryteth, that there is no disease in the bodie, whiche it is not holosome agaynst.

Erythrotaones, byrdes of the kynde of geese, in whiche is bothe an excellent whitenesse, and a perfecte blacknes, and a purple coloure aboute theyr eyes.

Erythreum mare, the redde sea, so called of the kyng Erythra, whiche in Englyshe signifieth redde. For in dede the water of that sea is of the colour of water, as diuers greates authours, and also experience dooth affirme.

Erythrys, a riuer, the water wherof, maketh heare to growe.

Erythys, an herbe called redde beetes, as I suppose.

Eryx, cis, the name of a mountayne in Sicile, and of a citee thereon builded, wherin was edisfied, a temple to Venus, wherof Venus is called Erycina.

Eryx, was also the sonne of Iouis and Venus:
oz after some of Neptunus and Venus, whiche was slayne by Hercules, and gaue name to the foresayde hill, in the whiche he was buried.

Quid geminas Erycina meos sine sine dolores? Oh Venus why doost thou continually double my sorowes?

Esaies, a prophete of the tribe of Iuda, in whom was such abundance of the spirite of prophete, that he propheted so muche of Christ, that he seemed rather to bee an euang-gelist, than a prophete. He was of such hol-nesse, that (in the tyme of kyng Ezechias, whan a citee was besieged) by his prayer he obteyned of God, that water sprang vp in littell quantite,

tities, so that the people dyd not perishe for lacke of water. And when the enemies had wonne the cities, and besieged Scloum, as often as the Jewes came for water, the water ranne oute of the earthe abundantly, and they tooke warre, but the strangers, when they came, could not fynde it. This holy man, for his libertie of speche, in rebuking the synne of the pyncis and the people, and prophetyng of the vengeance of God vpon that countrey and people, was cutte in two partes with a sawe, and buried vnder an oke: but afterwarde he was translated and layde by the Sepulchre of kynges. He was before the incarnation of Christ. viii. l. yeres.

Esalon, or rather Aesalon, a byrde, whiche breedeth crowes egges, and his birdes be destroyed by the fowle, and lykewyse she killeth the fowle wherby, if she may come by them.

Esau, the sonne of Isaac, and brother of Jacob.

Esca, a, form. gene. all maner of meate, as well for men as beastes. also a bayte to take byrdes or fyshes with.

Contemptissimæ esca, verie vile meates.

Conficere escas, to chawme meate.

Escalis, le, perteynyng to meate.

Escarius, a, um, perteynyng to meate.

Escaria mensa, a table, wherewith men dooe eate meate.

Escaria vasa, vessels, wherein meate is lerned.

Esco, aui, are, to feede vpon a thyng.

Esculentum, ti, n. g. meate.

Esculentus, a, um, any thyng to be eaten, or that perteyneth to eatyng.

Esculenta animalia, such beastes as men dooe vse for theyr foode and nourishment.

Esculenta merx, vitayles to be solde.

Esculento ore homo, a man with meate in his mouth.

Esculenta frustra, morsels of meate that be eatē.

Esculus, looke Aesculus.

Esdia, a certayne confection agaynst diseases of the brayne.

Esis, a ryuet in Italy, not farre from Rauenna.

Esio, escias, aui, are, to eate often, to vse to eate.

Esquilia, looke Exquilia.

Esse in amicis, to be one of his friends.

Essedum, essedi, n. g. or Esseda, a, a wayne, a chare, or wagon.

Esopos, a kynde of wyld leetute.

Essedarius, ij, m. g. a chariot man.

Essedones, a people, which dooe eate their friends when they be dead, and drynke in the skulles of their heades.

Esseni, or Essai, people inhabytyng in Judea toward the weste, whiche dooe lyue without women, and contempne golde, syluer, and al other riches. They lyue by eatyng of dates. There resoureth continually vnto them, by the prouidence of God, men from dyuers partes, so that theyr company neuer fayleth. But none is receyued, one lesse the merite of his vertue and chastitee, doo anounce him.

Essentia, a, the being of any thyng.

Esto, be it.

Estrix, stricis, a woman rauendoure, or deuourer.

Esuriales ferie, waake dayes, or rather feastyuall dayes, one the whiche men dyd forbear eatyng, fastyng dayes.

Esuries, ei, for. g. hunger.

Esurigo, iginis, idem.

Esurio, onis, m. g. an hungry fellow.

Esurio, esuris, iui, ire, to be a hungry.

Esurio, the pasture.

Esuribo, for Esuriam.

Esuritio, onis, idem quod Esuries.

Esuritor, oris, mascul. gene. one that is often hungry.

ET, and, aswell, also, bothe.

Te admirantur & ciues & hospites, as well thy countrie men as strangers doo wonder at thee, or bothe thy countrey men and strangers dooe wonder at thee. Sometime it dooeth signifie but, by an interrogacion, sometye, that is to say.

Annos natus iam sexaginta & senex, Nowe lx. yeres olde, that is to say, an olde man.

Sit hostis & meus, Lette myne also be an enemye.

Et, in an interrogacion: as,

Et quæ tanta fuit Romam tibi causa videndi?

Et, for Nam, or Quia, as,

Non temere est, & properans venit, It is not for naught, for he cometh in haste.

Et, in the begynnyng of a sentence, as Et finitæ sunt partes dux, and thus two partes be made an ende of.

Et ille, and than sayde he.

Et certe is est, and veraply it is he in dedde.

Et quod dicendum nunc fiet, And that I may tell you the trueth. or, And that I may say as the thyng is in dedde.

Etearchus, a kyng of a citee of Crete.

Etenim, for, also, semblably, surely, but.

Etenim nequeo solus, But I cannot alone.

Etenim quoniam summam vobis exponere non possum, Now because I can not declare the whole come to you.

Etenim quoniam, for Nam quoniam.

Etenim mulieres? And what of the women?

Eterocriton, a kynde of barley, whiche groweth crooked.

Etesia, arum, form. gene. wyndes, whiche dooe commonly blowe in sommer aboute the canicus iar daies.

Etesius, a, um, perteynyng to those wyndes.

Ethale, id est, fuligo thuris.

Ethalia, an yle in the sea called Mare Ligusticum which is by Ieane.

Echalion, a mans name, which was tounred into a dolphin.
 Echaniou, nij, n. g. the name of a certayne vessel.
 Echecoles, the sonne of Oedipus & Iocasta his mother, whiche caused the warre of Thebes.
 Echeus, a moyster stone.
 Ethice, es, for, ge. the parte of philosophie persteynng to maners.
 Ethicus, ethica, um, morall.
 Ethici pictores, peincters, which in pictures dooe lively sette forth the maners and affections of
 men.
 Ethmoides, the holes of the nose, by whiche men
 doe smell, the nosthilles.
 Ethmus, the middell brydge of the nose.
 Ethnarches, the prince or ruler of any people.
 Ethnarchia, principalitee.
 Ethnicus, ci, m. g. an ethnick, a gentile.
 Ethologia, the feate of couterfayting mennes maners.
 Ethologus, i, mascu. gene. he that with voyce, gesture and countenance, expresseth the maners
 of men.
 Ethopcia, x, for, m. gene. an imitation of other mens maners.
 Ethopcius, idem quod Ethologus.
 Ethuria, looke Hetruria.
 Ethruscus, looke Hetruscus.
 Etiam, also, moreover, yea, yea further, yet.
 Ego quoque etiam timida sum, I my self am fearefull also.
 Nihil suspicans etiam mali, Demynng none es will as yet.
 Unus scrupulus etiam restat, One doubt remaineth yet.
 Aut etiam maiores, yea or greater.
 Etiam puerum inde abiens conueni Chremi,
 Moreover as I went from thens I spake with Chremes seruant.
 Latini, pudore etiam non misericordia solum moti, The latines beyng moued, not onely with pitee, but also with very shame.
 Etiam, for quin potius, as,
 Ab eo nullius autoritas imminuta est, aucta
 etiam, No mans authoritee was by him diminished, but rather increased.
 Etiam, an aduerbe of affirmynge, contrary to Non, as,
 Si non, quomodo tabulas conficis? Si etiam, quamobrem. &c. If ye will aunswere no, after what sorte dooe ye make your register or re-ckenyng booke? If ye say ye, wherfore. &c.
 Et vero etiam mihi, and to me also.
 Etiam rides? why, doest thou laugh?
 Etiam denuo? yea agayne.
 Etiam atque etiam, greatly, diligently, ear-nestlie.
 Te prorsus vehementer, etiam atque etiam fugo, I desyre you verie earnestly and with all myne herte.
 Etiam, hath sometyme Non solum vnderstan-ded in it: no.

 Etiam huc me sollicitant, Not only greater matters, but even these small trifles dooe make me carefull and sollicitous.
 Etiam dum, yet.
 Etiam, ne amplius? Have you any more to say yet?
 Non dum etiam, not yet.
 Etiam tu hic stas Parmeno? Why Parmeno doo you stande here yet?
 Etiam tum, even then, or even to that tyme.
 Etiam ne? Is it so? is it enough yet?
 Etiamnum, yet, untill then, untill that tyme.
 Etiam nunc, untill now.
 Etiam si, although.
 Etsi, all be it, although.
 Erymologia, logia, for, g. true sayng, or true exposition or reason.
 Erimologus, gi, m. ge. he that setteth oute the interpretation of wordes.
 Erymon, etymi, neut. gene. idem quod ety-mologia.

E ANTE V.

E Vacuo, aui, are, to emptye, to make vas-cant.
 Euacuare alium, to purge the body.
 Euadne, the daughter of Thebes, the wife of Olopus, and the wyfe of Capaneu, was so called, whiche loved hir husbando so feruently ly, that whan she hearde that he was taken at Thebes, she fell nere dead in a soune, and after whan his funerall was celebrated, she lepte into the fyre.
 Euado, asi, ere, to escape or passe with daunger, to appere, to clyme, to deliuer, to bee, to come to, to go.
 E custodia euadere, to escape out of prison.
 Annem haud difficulter euasit, he passed the ryuer easily.
 Omnes sermones malignorum euasit, He alwaies escaped the reposte of malicious tyngues.
 Vana euasit spes, our hope was vaine, or came to naught.
 Vires apprehendendo ramos, in cacumina arborum euadunt, Theye by takyng holde of the bowes, clymbe vp to the toppes of trees.
 Euadere in terram, to escape to lande.
 Siquando aliquod somnium verum euasrit, If one dreame chance to proue true at any tyme.
 Euadere ad muros, pro ascendere.
 Euadere ante oculos, To come in syght, to appere.
 Superas euadere ad auras, to go to heauen.
 Euadere e morbo, to escape a sykenesse.
 Perfectus Epicurus euaserat, He became a persfecte Epicure.
 Probum euadere, to proue an honest man.

Summus euasit, he proued an excellent man.
 Quo euadas nescio, I cannot tell to what purpose or intent you speake these thynges.
 Videamus hoc quorsum euadar, leat vs see to what ende this thyng will come.
 Huc euasit, The matter came to this pssue or ende.
 Huius semper lenitas verebar quorsum euaderet, I feared to what ende my matters continually gentleness would come.
 Euadet in aliquod magnum malum, It will come in effecte to some great mischief.
 Euadere ad frugem bonam, to come to good thyng, to thryue, to waxe honest.
 Euemon, the sonne of Eurypylus, whiche came with the grekes to Troy.
 Euancerus, the name of a kynge of the Lacedemonians.
 Euagatio, onis, a rounyng or straying abode, a spedyng abode.
 Euagor, aris, ari, to wander or straye, to roun abode, to sprede abode, as the boughes of trees, to renne ouer as a ryuer dooth, whan it overfloweth, to make digression, to speake from the purpose.
 Euagantur aqua, the waters burst oute, and sprede farther abode.
 Eualeo, eualet, lui, ere, idem quod Valco, to be of power, to may or can.
 Eualesco, scere, to waxe very stronge.
 Euallo, aui, are, to put out of the doores.
 Euallo, lis, uallere, to make cleane coyne.
 Euan, the name of Bacchus. Also it is an exclamation to the praise of Bacchus, and is as much to say, as Bone puer, O good childe.
 Euander, or Euandrus, the proper name of Larentis sonne, whos by his mothers counsaile slew his father, and leauyng his owne countrey Archadia, came into Italy, and entrynge into the mouth of Tiber, and expullynge the inhabitants, rested in the hill Palatine, where he beganne to builde the towne Palenteum.
 Euandrius, a, um, of Euander.
 Euaneo, & Euanesco, euanni, scere, to banishe away, to peryshe.
 Opera eius euauerunt, his workes are perysshed and losse.
 Extenuatur & euanesceit spes, Our hope is decayed and banyshe away.
 Veritate euanesce, by longe continuance of tyme to banishe away and come vnto naught.
 Euauerunt & exaruerunt amnes, the ryuers were consumed and dried vp.
 Euangelia, orum, plur. nu. sacrefices and solemne prayers made after good tidynge. also the rewardes geuen to the that brought the good tydynge.
 Euangelium, lij, ne. ge. good tidynge, now it signifieth the gospel.
 Euangelus, li, one that byngeth good tydynge.

Euandus, a, um, bayne, frayne, that wyll soone peryshe and banyshe away, vnfaytfull.
 Euanno, aui, are, to banne coyne, or other lyke thyng.
 Euapelus, li, m. gen. a foolc or idote.
 Euaporatio, onis, f. g. a byrthyng, an euaporation.
 Euax, an interfection of eciopyng.
 Euax, iurgio vxorem tandem abegi, Heida, I haue yet at the laste dyuen my wyfe away with thydng.
 Euarchus, a stur of Dythia in Europe.
 Euasto, aui, are, to waste and destroy, to spoyle.
 Eubora, an yle in the Greeke sea, and the name of the citee situated in the same, it is now called Nigra pont: in that is the citee Chalcis, where Aristotle died.
 Euborus, and Eubricus, a, um, of Eubora.
 Eubulus, the name of an history wyter, and is interpreted prudente, also a citsyn of Athens, who was enemy to Demosthenes.
 Eucaria, a, f. g. oportunitas, good occasion to dooe a thyng.
 Eucarpia, a citee of Phrygia, whete growe greates plente of very fayre grapes.
 Eucharistia, a, f. m. ge. good grace, a rendynge of thanks. It is now taken for the sacramente of the altar.
 Euchla, orum, n. ge. meates of good iuce.
 Euchimon, mi, n. g. a kynde of Elleborus.
 Euchion, the name of Bacchus.
 Euclides, the name of a famous geometritian, scholar to Socrates.
 Eucrates, a wily milners name.
 Eucteria, orum, plates, in whiche the actes of prouinces be contayned.
 Eudamon, the countrey of Arabia.
 Eudamidas, the sonne of Archidamus, and brother of Alces.
 Eudora, a nymphe, Oceanus and Tethys daughter.
 Eudorus, the sonne of Mercurie and Polymela.
 Eudoxia, a, f. g. good renoume or good fame.
 Eudoxus, the sonne of Eubonis, an excellent geometritian, astronomer and phisician, scholar to Socrates and Plato.
 Euectio, onis, f. g. carryng footthe.
 Euectiones, power or licence graunted by the prince to vse thole hoyses that be appoynted for the common postes.
 Euectus, us, masc. gene. cartage conuayng by wyppes.
 Euectus, a, um, catied out, aduanced, extolled.
 Eueho, euehis, exi, ere, to carie out, sometyme it signifieth to extoll or lyfte vp.
 Virtus euehit ad aethera, Vertue byngeth a man to heauen.
 Euclatum, wynowed.
 Euello, uelli, and euulsi, ere, to plucke vp, to pull away.
 Mala radicitus euellere, to plucke vp naughtynesse

ness by the rootes.

Euellere sibi scrupulum ex animo, to putte a doubt out of his minde that he is troubled with. Euellere opinionem aliquam ex mentibus hominum, to plucke an opinion or perswasion out of mens myndes.

Euellere ex complexu, to pull one out of a mans armes, whome he embraceth. And by translation to take one from a man, whome he loveth entirely.

Euemenius, a mannes name very familiar with Phylip and his sonne greate Alexander.

Euenetus, a capitain of the Lacedemonians, whiche with Themistocles kept the passages of Thes- saly agaynst Perres.

Euenio, euenis, eni, ire, to happen by chaunce, to come to passe. sometyme to come to.

Euenit ex sententia, It came to passe as I, thou, or he would haue it.

Euenit præter sententiam, aut præter spem, It happened otherwyle than I, thou, or he thought or trusted.

Fortē euenit, by chaunce it happened.

Si velim numerare quibus bonis male euenit, yf I woulde numbre to what good persones mischaunces haue happened.

Prosperē euenire, to chaunce wel, to come well to passe, to haue prosperous successe.

Vt plerunque euenit, As it chaunced for the moste parte.

Veror hæc blanda dicta quo eueniant, I feare to what ende these saye and flatterynge wordes wyl come.

Euenit, impersonall, it chaunced so.

Euenit ut moreretur ille, It chaunced him to die.

Euēnus, a riuer descendyng from Thrace; and dis- uidyng Calidonic. also a philosopher, whiche affirmed fyre to be the beste sauce for all meates.

Euentilo, aui, are, to wynowe, fanne, or blowe wynde.

Euentum, ti, a thyng, whiche hapneth in con- clusion.

Euentus, us, hadde, chaunce, successe. sometyme it is taken for the ende or conclusion of a thyng, or that chaunceth or foloweth of any thyng.

Euentum præstare, to warrant all that whiche shall happen.

Non sine euentu, not without good successe.

Euentu aliquid coniectare, to coniecte of a thyng by that that foloweth of it.

Ad omnem euentum paratus sum, I am res- die to abyde what so euer will chaunce.

Prædictum est fore eodē euentus rerum qui fuerunt, It was tolde before, that the thin- ges woulde haue the same ende or conclusion, that they chaunced to haue in deede.

Varij belli euentus, diuers and vncertayne chaunces of warre.

Eucrbero, aui, are, to beate, to clappe vpon a thing as a byrde dooeth with his wynges.

Euergetes, the surname of one of the Ptho- lomees.

Euergo, ere, to sende out, to make to issue out.

Eueriator, oris, m. g. he that hath goodes of the testatour with condition, that if he persourme not his laste will, or dooe disturbe it, he shall lose all that he hath.

Euericulum, li, n. g. a sytting nette called a dragge, and by translation, one that by extorcion robbeth and spyleth, and as it were, sweepeth al thynges cleane away with him.

Euerro, si, ere, to swepe cleane.

Euersio, onis. f. g. distruction.

Euerfor, oris, m. g. one that destroyeth and tour- neth all thynges vnder set downe.

Euerfus, a, um, destroyed.

Euerto, ti, ere, to tourne vnder set downe, to des- troye, to abolysh.

Euertere aliquem bonis, to spyle a man of al that euer he hath.

Funditus euertere amicitiam, To destroy frendshipp utterly.

Totam evertit dialecticam, He confounded all the science of logike.

Euertere leges, to dissolue & abolysh the lawes.

Nauem euertere, to ouertourne a shippe.

Euertere rem publicam, to destroy and turne a whole commune weale vnder set downe.

Euestigio, by and by, at an instant.

Euganei, people of Menere.

Euganei montes, mountaynes in Italy by Padoue.

Euganeus, a, um, of those hylls.

Euge, well doen, an interiection of prayse, of reioysyng, of agreeyng, of congratulation.

Eugenia, æ, f. g. noblenesse.

Eugenia, certayne excellent grapes.

Eugium, caro eminula inter cūni symplegadas.

Euhoe, a noyse, that they doo make, whiche are in great heynesse or waylyng.

Euthyas, adis, form. gen. a woman priest of Bacchus.

Euthys, the name of Bacchus.

Euiro, euibras, aui, are, to wake or brandishe.

Euictio, onis, f. g. when we conuicte one by the law, to deliuer out of his handes any thyng that he had gotten wrongfully.

Euictus, a, um, overcome, conuicte in iudgement proued gilty.

Euidens, entis, om. g. euident, apparant.

Euidenter, clerely, euidently, apparantly.

Eidentia, æ, f. g. euidentnesse, perspicuite, playnenesse.

Euigilo, aui, are, to wathe, to be diligente, to studie or take peines in a thyng.

Tantum euigilat in studio, He applyeth his studie so earnestly.

Consilia euigilata, counsailes taken with good aduise, or wel prepered.

Euigilare, sometime for Elucubrare.

Euilescō, cuius, scere, to waxe vile, of smallē est;

estimation of regards.
 Euilla, a country in the orient, about the which the river Phison, which we call Ganges, that cometh out of Paradise, dooth renne.
 Euincio, uinci, ire, to bynde.
 Euinco, uici, ere, to vanquish, to overcome, to surmount, to obteyne by earnest laboure, to conuicte one by the lawe, to render any thyng that dooth belonge to vs.
 Instando euincunt, by theyr importune suite and labour, they obteyne.
 Euincere morbum, to overcome a sickness by good diete or medicine.
 Euinctus, a, um, bounden.
 Euratio, onis, the making of a person effeminate.
 Euratio pilorum, the making balde, or cutes-ting of the heare.
 Euratus, a, um, of womanly and childe like conditions. also he that lacketh his genitours.
 Euresco, scere, to become greene.
 Euro, euras, aui, are, to take away a mannes members of generation, to make effeminate, and womanlyke.
 Euisceratus, a, um, bowelled, that hath the bowelles or guttes pulled out.
 Euiscero, aui, are, to bowell or draine out the guttes of any thyng.
 Euiscus, or Ebiscus, called also Alhiza, the great or wylde mallowe, which hath a leafe twyle so thicke as the common mallows, and is therefore called of the apothecaries Bismalua, and Maluaniscus, of the Frenchemen Guimanes, looke Alhiza.
 Euitabilis, le, that may be auoyded or eschued.
 Euitatio, onis, for, ge. an eschuyng, auoydynge or shunning of a thyng.
 Euro, aui, are, to flee, to eschew or beware, to a-uoyde or shunne.
 Eulabes, he that taketh vpon him the charge of busines.
 Eulogia, a, form. gene. a woorde well spoken a prayse, a benediction, an honest and profitable reason.
 Eum, olde writers vsed for Eorum.
 Eumæus, the swynhearde, which conducted U-lisses to his house, whan he returned into his country.
 Eumeces, a kynde of baulme tree, more highe than
 the other.
 Eumelis, a notable Iugurian, or soothsaier.
 Eumelus, the sonne of Demetrius kyng of Thessal-lie, gotten on Alcista his wife. also the name of a Trojan.
 Eumenides, furies of hell.
 Eumetris, m. g. a precious stone, which beyng layde vnder a mans head, maketh him to haue dreames lyke to visions.
 Eumilus, a capitayne of the grekes that wente to the siege of Troy.
 Eumolpidæ, were certayne priestes or magistras

tes of Athens, ordeyned in the honour of kynge Eumolpus.
 Eumolpus, a man of Athens, whom Suidas witteth to be the sonne of Muscus the poete.
 Eumónides, a mans name of Thebes.
 Eunens, the sonne of Jason.
 Eunica, a maydens name in Theocritus.
 Eunomia, a, f. g. a iuste constitution or ordinance of lawes. also due obedience of the lawes.
 Eunomius, a greete heretike, of Arius secte, when vnto he added of his owne malice, that the son was in euery thyng vnto the father, and that the holy ghoste had no medlynge with the father nor the sonne. Wher ouer he affirmed, that all that kepte the saythe that he taught,
 should be saved, had they committed neuer so great a synne, and continued therein. He was aboute the yere of our lord. 353.
 Eunuchus, aui, are, to geld men.
 Eunuchus, chi, m. g. a man gelded.
 Euocati, considiours, which for some necessitee be sodenly called out of the fieldes vnto battayle.
 Euocatio, onis, f. g. a calling forth.
 Euocator onis, m. g. one that calleth forth, or that allureth to come forth.
 Euocatus, a, um, called out, commaunded to appere.
 Euoco, euocas, aui, are, to call out, to call forth or call away. sometyme for Vocare, to call. also to allure or prouoke, to summon or commaunde to appere, to call vpon for helpe.
 Euocare aliquem intus foras, To call one forth that is within.
 Euocare aliquem foras verbis alicuius, To call one forth in an other mans name.
 Euocate huc Sofiam, accersat Blepharonem,
 Call ye forth Sofia hyther, that he wate go call Blepharo.
 Nostras ad pugnam euocant, They prouoke our men to fight, or hadde our men come forth and fight.
 Euocate aliquem acciru alterius, to call forth
 one at an other mans byddynge.
 Euocate aliquem Romam, to call vp, or to commaunde one to appere at Rome.
 Euocat ad se, he commaundeth so come to him.
 Euocate aliquem literis, to will one by letters to come to him.
 Piscem esca euocare, with the baite to allure
 the fysh to come forth.
 Euocate deos, with solemne prayes to will the goddes to come to him.
 Euocate demones, to call by puell spirites.
 Euocate ad arma, to make to bee cried or proclaymed, that euery man be ready in harnesse, at a certayne place and houre.
 Euocate animum a negotijs, To withdawe
 the mynde from busynesse.
 Vis earum omnis euocatur in palmites, All the strengthe of theym is drawen vp into the braunches.

Euocare testes, to byng forth witnesses.
 Euohor, a noyse or exclamation that the priestes of Bacchus made.
 Euolaticus, a, um, that reneth or gaddeth abode.
 Euolito, aui, are, to fle out often.
 Euolo, euolas, aui, are, detiued of the nowne Vola, to steale, to take away by stelte.
 Impune aliquid euolare, to steale away a thing and escape unpunished.
 Euolo, euolas, aui, are, to flee away, to flee out, to renne out, or hie away spedyly, to passe awaye quickly, to steale away, or conueie him selfe as way quickly, to escape.
 Euolare rus ex vrbe, to forsake the citee, and goe into the countrey.
 Anima euolat ex corpore tanquam ex carcere, The soule departeth oute of the bodie, as it were out of a prison.
 Euolare ex periculo, to escape out of daungers. Euolare pernam, to escape payne or punishment.
 Sic euolauit oratio, his woordes wente awate to roundely.
 Euoluo, uolui, ere, to turne hither and thither, to rolle or tumble out of a place, to vnfolde, to explicate or expounde, to declare or tell, to meditate, to cast in ones mynde, to tourne as one tourneth a booke, to reade ouer, to studie diligently.
 Euoluere se turba, or ex turba, to wynde him selfe out of trouble.
 In mare fluuij se euoluunt, The ryuers renne into the sea.
 Euoluere librum, to tourne ouer a booke as one dooeth in reayng.
 Euoluere poetas, to studie and reade ouer poetes diligently.
 Versus euoluere, to reade verses.
 Euoluere naturam rerum, to serche and fynde out the natures of thynges.
 Tempus hac me euoluere coegit, the time hath constrained me to expounde or declare these thynges roundely.
 Non possum euoluere exitum rei, I can not fynde out the ende of this matter.
 Promissa somni euoluere, to muse or thynke on those thynges that seemed to bee promised in his dreame.
 Euolutio, onis, f. g. rolling or tumblyng out, a reayng of poetes or verses.
 Euolutus, a, um, vnfolded, or vnrolled, tourned out.
 Euolutis bonis, a man tourned out of all that euer he hath.
 Euomo, euomis, ui, ere, to vomitte, to caste out, to spue, to vtter out, or speake maliciously, and with a cankered stomake.
 Euomere iram, to wreake anger, to vtter his malice spitefully.
 Euomere virus, to spitte out his payson, to say the worst that one can say.

Euominos, one of the ples called Aeoliae.
 Eupalia, a towne in Locris, whiche some calle Eupalion, and some Eupolyon.
 Eupatorium, or Eupatorias, and herbe called Agrimonie, looke Agrimonia, but Mesues calleth that Eupatorium, that in Englyshe is named Maublene.
 Eupéalos, a precious stone of a fyre colour.
 Euphantasióros, a gay imaginer of thynges.
 Euphonia, a, form. gen. good towne, a swete or pleasant noyse.
 Euphorasia, a, some take for the herbe called, eye bryght.
 Euphóibia, and Euphórbium, an herbe firste founde oute by Iuba the kynge of Libya, and called after the name of his physician. looke Russellus. lib. 3. cap. 55.
 Euphorbus, a Trojan, the sonne of Panthu, whiche wounded Patroclus, and was slayne by Achilles. also a Mepeherdes name.
 Euphoriion, a poetes name of Calcidonie, whome Gallus did translate.
 Euphrasia, a, form. gen. an herbe called of some Ophthalmica or Ocularia, and of the Greekes Euphrosyne, because it cleareth the eyes. In englyshe eye bryght.
 Euphrásynum, syni, neu. gene. an herbe called buglosse.
 Euphrates, one of the ryuers that come oute of Paradyse, whiche passeth thorough the citee of Babylon. also a philosophers name.
 Euphrósyna, the propre name of a woman. also the name of one of the thye graces cald Charites.
 Euphrósyne, bowrage.
 Eupilides, a certayne swelling or rysing of fleshe in the gummes, by the innermost cheeke teeth.
 Eupilis, a lake in Fraunce Cisalpine.
 Eupolis, an ancient poete, which in his comedies sharply taxed the vices of the people.
 Eupompus, a very cunnynge man in arithmetike and geometric. Also a famous peynter, whiche taught Pamphilus Apelles maister.
 Euporus, Lais Gracchus seruante, whiche at his biddinge dydde sea hym, and after kyled him selfe.
 Euprosopon, a promontorie in Phencia.
 Euprépia, comphesse.
 Eurechnemon, id est plantago.
 Eucos, a precious stone like an olyue beary.
 Eurinus, & euritis, a, um, belongyn to the easle wynde.
 Euripides, the name of a famous poete amonge the Greekes, whiche wrote tragedies most excellently.
 Euripidius, the numbre of fortye in a certaine die.
 Euripus, pi, ma. ge. a smalle fundite rysing of a great heygth. Also a dicke made to enclose places to play in, in the feldes of hedges. Some do take it for a smalle ponde or steme. also an arme of the sea. or a narowe passage betwene two places, Euripus also a parte of the sea, betwene twene Aulis, an haven of Boetia, and the Ile of Euboea, whiche ebbeeth and floweth .7. times in a day, with so swifte a streame, that it carrieth with it shippes with full saile agaynst the wynde: and yet .3. daies euerie moneth stonde still, and moued not.

Eurocias, a certayne stone, whiche seemeth to bee blacke and mossy.

Euronotus, a north east wynde.

Europa, the thirde parte of the worlde, diuided from Asia with the greete seas, Hellespontus, Propontus, Bosphorus Thracius, & Pontus Euxinus, and hath the uttermost boundes in the northeast, the ryuer Canais. And from Asie it is diuided by the wyddell sea. It was also the name of a fayre mayden, daughter of Agenor, kynge of Phenicia, whome Jupiter (transformyng hym selfe into the forme of a bul) dyd rauyshe, as poetes wyte: whiche of some is interpreted, that Jupiter caried hir away by force in a shippe, in the dede of maste whereof was a banner of streamer, wherein was peynted a bull.

Eurotas, a ryuer that renneth before the towne of Lacedemonia.

Eurus; the east wynde.

Euryale, the daughter of kynge Minos. there was an other of that name, the daughter of Prætus kynge of Argiue. An other was one of the Gorgons.

Euryalus, the name of one of the mynces of Heslopone. Virgile signifieth a Troiane to bee so called.

Eurybates, a man of Ithaca, Agamemnons seruant.

Eurybatus, the name of diuers men: one was a famous robber and thefe, of whom cometh this woorde Eurybatizare, to steale aways pryue from them that haue hym in keepyng.

Eurybia, a nymphe.

Eurybiades, one of Perres capitaynes.

Eurycles, a sooth faier or diuinour.

Euryclea, a mayden, the daughter of Polixenus.

Eurycratidas, one of Lacedemonia.

Eurycyon, a golde smythes name.

Eurydamas, a Troiane, an interpretour of dreames.

Eurydame, was the wyfe of Leutichis kynge of Spartans.

Eurydemus, the father of Debalica.

Eurydice, the wyfe of Orpheus.

Eurydomene, a nymphe of the sea.

Eurylochus, the kynge of Phlegia, whiche destroyed Thebes before Cadmus buyded it.

Eurymachus, one of Penelopes wouars.

Eurymedon, the sonne of Faunus. also a ryuer of Pamphilia.

Eurymides, a soothfaier amonge the Cyclops, whiche tolde to Polyphemus all that to him hapened afterwarde by Ulysses.

Eurynome, the wyfe of Orichamus, and also the daughter of Apollo.

Eurynomus, a dyuell, who as the auncient Grekes supposed, dyd eate and consume the fleshe of dead men, leauynge the bones bare, whome they peynted in a terrible fygure, haunyng longe teeth or tuskes, sittynge in the chynne of a bulsture, of coloure betwene blacke and blew.

Euryon, the daughter of Amynta kynge of Macedonie.

Eurypylus, one of the sonnes of Hercules, that reigned in the yle of Cos, another the sonne of Euemō, which bothe were at the siege of Troy.

Eurystheus, a kynge of Grece, enemye to Hercules, whiche commanded him to doo many of his enterpryses.

Eurythmia, a, f. ge. is a beautee in the true fomyng of the members, where the height accordeth with the breadthe, and the breadthe also with the length. Finally all thyng aunswerynge to his proportion, a comely gesture.

Eurythus, a kynge of Oechalia, whiche denied to geue his daughter to Hercules.

Eurytion, one of the Argonautes, another was the sonne of Lycæon.

Eusebes, his, masc. gen. a precious stone, whereof a chappe was made in the temple of Hercules at Tyre.

Eusebia, pietee, religion, godlynesse.

Eustathius, a learned man, whiche wrote a cronicle from the tyme of Eneas, to Anastasius the emperour. An other was a lerned bishop of Antioche, whiche wrote agaynst Arius. An other of the same name wrote commentaries on Homers and Dionysius.

Eustaphius, a sophister of Aphrodisia.

Eustratus, a philosopher, whiche wrote commentaries vpon Aristotles Ethikes.

Euterpe, one of the muses, and is interpreted for cunde or pleasant.

Eutheca, a storehouse.

Euthydemus, a philosopher of Macedonia, Apollonius master.

Euthymia, a, f. g. quietnesse, securitee, without troublous affections of mynde, hertes ease.

Euthymus, a famous capitayne, or a mightie champion.

Eutices, an heretike, an abbot of a monasterie in Constantinople, aboute the yere of our lord .450. He affirmed, that Christ had but one onely nature, that is to say, diuine, or of god, lyke as he was one person. This heresye was condemned in the counsaile of Ephesine, and Eutices sente into exyle.

Eutichydes, a famous image maker.

Eutrapelia, a, f. ge. gentylnesse, good behauiour.

Eutrapelus, a mans name, and is interpreted gentill and pleasant.

Eutropius, a mans name, who perswaded Cesar to make a lawe, whereby he him selfe perished.

Ecclesi. histor. There was an other Eutropius S. Augustins scholar.

Euulgo, aui, are, to publishe abroad.
 Euulio, onis, f. g. plucking by or drawing out.
 Euulio dentis, the drawing of a toothe.
 Euulsus, a, um, plucked by or pulled away.
 Euxinus pontus, a parte of the sea, whiche diuiseth Europa from Asia.

E ANTE X.

EX, signifieth of or from.
 Ex aduersum, euen agaynst it, on the other syde.
 Ex æquo, indifferently, equally.
 Ex asse, of the whole.
 Hæredem fecit ex asse, he made him heyre of the whole.
 Ex diametro opposita, so contrary the one to the other, that they may neuer agree.
 Ex disposito, by an order, of a purpose.
 Ex aduersum ei loco, agaynst that place.
 Ex æquo & bono, accordyng to equitee & reason.
 Ex æquo & bono facere, to dooe iustly or indifferently.
 Ex animo, of good will, of a good courage.
 Ex ante diem nonarum Iuniarum, the seventh day of Iune.
 Ex argumento, in token therof.
 Ex composito, as it was agreed.
 Ex dignitate tua, & ex republica facis, Thou doest accordyng to thyne authoritee, and for the weale of thy countrey.
 Ex dignitate nostra, accordyng to our estate or dignitee.
 Ex dignitate tribuere, to geue accordynge to his estate.
 Ex equo pugnare, to fight on horsebacke.
 Summa erit hæc, statues, vt ex fide, fama, rēq; mea videbitur, This shall be the whole effecte, that thou dooe as it shall seme for mine honestee, accordyng to the truste that I put in thee, and for my profite.
 Ex insidijs, by reason, priuely, as it were out of an ambusement.
 Ex more, and Ex consuetudine, accordyng to the custome, as they vse to dooe.
 Ex superabundanti, moze ouer.
 Ex diuitijs iuuenturem luxuria ac auaritia inuasere, by the meane of rychesse, or thorough rychesse, the youthe became lecherous and couetous.
 Ex for Cum: as, Ex melle resinam vorato, Dooe you eate rosen mixt with hony.
 Ex, for præ: as, Quod ei ex alijs Gallis maximam fidem habebam, Because I trusted him best of all the french men: or because I had moze trust to him than any of the frenche men.
 Ex æquo fertilis, euen as fertile as the other.
 Ex æquo viuere, to liue in equall state or condition with other.
 Ex animo amicus, an hertie & vnfeigned freend.
 Ex animo & simulate, contrary.
 Ex animo dicere, to speake as one thynketh without any dissimulation.

 Ex animo tibi bene volo, I wyll you good with all myne hearte.
 Ex animi sententia, euen as one thinketh, accorpyng to his conscience. also as one woulde haue it, or wyll it.
 Ex arte dicere, To speake eloquently, or accordyng to the preceptes of Rhetorike.
 Ex autoritate pontificum, By the ordinaunce and commaundment of the prelates.
 Ex alto repetere, to serche a thyng deeply.
 Ex inuidia, by enuy.
 Ex alijs cognoscere aliquem, to know one by the reporte and information of others.
 Ex confesso malus, openlye naught, a very lewde fellow.
 Ex continenti, in an instant, forthewith, by and by, incontinent.
 Ex contrario, for e contrario, contrarywise.
 Ex contrario stare, to be one agaynst an other, or one contrary to an other.
 Ex omni populo, among all the people.
 Ex consilio iurisperitorum, by the counsaile of lawyers.
 Ex destinato, purposely, of purpose.
 Ex diuerso, nō tamen omnino dissimile, Diuers, but yet not utterly vnlike.
 Ex pueris, and Ex ephēbis excedere, To passe childe's age.
 Ex eo, from thens forth.
 Ex eo die, from that day forward.
 Ex eo fit, thereby it cometh to passe.
 Ex reis aliquem eximere, to discharge a person accused because the accuser dooeth not appere.
 Exponere ex memoria, to expoune or declare by herte.
 Diem ex die expectabam, I looked stylle one day after an other.
 Ex necessitate facere, to dooe by constrainte, or of necessitye.
 Ex facili, easily.
 Hæres ex tertia parte, an heyre appoynted to haue the thyrde parte of a mans gooddes.
 Aliud ex alio malum, one mischiefe in an others necke.
 Magnum mihi ex hac re erit malum, I shall haue some great displeasure by this thyng.
 Ex hoc, for this cause, by this meanes.
 Dependit ex humeris amictus, his garmēte hangeth on his shulders.
 Expressa ex annulo imago, a print or figure made with a seale.
 Septem ex ordine menses, seuen monethes together one after an other.
 Ex parte maiore, for the moze parte.
 Nisi ex præcepto domini, excepte his maister bydde hym.
 Ex ore alicuius pendere, To harken diligently what one will say.
 Ex propinquo præliari, to come to hande strokes, to fight hande to hande.

E. ANTE AX.

INDEX

E-ANTE-X.

Find

Exx

Exa' quor, quâris, the deponente, idem quod
Exequor, to follow, to follow, to follow.
Exa' quatus, a, um, made equall, to be Exa' quatio, ônis, fœ. ge. the making of a thyng equall with other.
Exa' stuo, aui, are, to ouerflowe, to seeke ouer,
as a potte doeth, to be veray fierse and angry.
Exa' stuaire ira, to be verie angrie, or greatly fumed.
Exa' uio, exeuui, uire, to ware gentyl, or mylde.
Exag' gero, aui, are, to heape by together, to ang-ment, to increase, to speake muche in the praise or dyspraise of a thyng, with woordes, to make a thyng moze than it is, to amplifie, to extolle.
Exornare & exag' gerare, to make a thyng
Exag' gerare & extenuare, contrary.
Exag' gerare virtutem, to speake muche in the praise of vertue.
Verbis exag' gerare beneficium, to extolle a benefite with woordes, and make it moze than it is.
Exag' gerare rem familiarem, to increase a mans substance.
Exag' geratus, a, um, heaped togyther, increased,
amplified with woordes.
Exag' geratio, ônis, fœ. ge. a heappenge together, an amplifying or making of the thyng greate.
Exag' ito, aui, are, to bere, to anger, to moue, to chide, to make by with knauillie woordes.
Lenire & exag' itare, contrary.
Ne meum mœrorem exagitem, Leaste I should make my selfe moze heauy and sorowfull.
Exag' itare rem aliquam, to debate and handell a matter in reasonyng.
Exag' itatus, a, um, vexed, moued, robbed, debated in reasonyng, and as it were tossed hyther and thither, canualed, much spoken of.
Spoliari & exag' itari, spoyled and taken oute of all that euer they had.
Exag' itator, ôris, m. g. one that bereth or moueth or speaketh shewdly by other.
Exag' ôga, gæ, m. g. one that carieth any thyng
out of the house.
Exag' ôga, gæ, fœ. m. g. rent, reuenues, also caryng out.
Exalbesco, bescere, to ware paale.
Exalbidus, a, um, somewhat white.
Exalburno, aui, are, to take oute the fatte iuyce,
that is in some woodde.
Exalto, aui, are, to mounte or lifte by. Sometyne to praple verie muche.
Exaluminatus, a, um, cleere lyke alum, or iente.
Examen, aminis, n. g. a swarme as well of bees,
as other thynges, a greate company or flocke.
also the nedill or tongue in balances and bea-mes. Sometyne it signifieth a iuste examination or tryall, diligent inquisition.
Examen infantium, a company or sorte of chyliden.
Examino, aui, are, to examine, to serche or try,

Examo, examas, aui, are, to loue well.
Exampetus, a fountayne in Berythia.
Examurco, aui, are, to drawe oyle cleane from the mother.
Examursum, iustely, by rule.
Exancio, aui, are, to drawe out cleane, to empty.
Sometyne to suffer, to vanguard, to make, to take great payne & muche labour, to dispatche and byng to an ende.
Non potest hic sine tua opera exandari cla-uus, This nagle can not bee made withoute thy helpe.
Exanguis, gue, com. g. without bloudde, timorous or fearefull, pale for anger.
Exanguis atq; estuans, pale for anger, and greatly moued.
Exanimâlis, le, without soule or lyfe, or that tasketh away the soule and lyfe.
Exanimatio, ônis, fœ. ge. a trouble of mynde,
a greate feare.
Exanimatus, a, um, made greatly aserde, astonied or troubled in mynde. Sometyne it signifieth deade.
Exanimo, aui, are, to hyl, to make aserde, to trouble and make astonied.
Priusq; intus redij, exanimatus fui, ere euer I came in agayne I was made aserde.
Multos exanimauit rigor insolitus niuis, the vnaccustomed chylenge of the snowe deppeued many of theyr lyues.
Exanimare aliquem metu, to make one astonied for feare.
Exanimus, a, um, and Exanimis, me, deade, put in feare.
Exanio, aui, are, deriued of Sanies, ei, to squise out mattier or corrupcion.
Exanthema, thematis, n. g. a wheale or a pushe
in a mans skynne.
Exantlo, aui, are, idē quod Exancio, looke there.
Exaptus, a, um, very apte and feete, well copate.
Exardeo, exarsi, dēre, to be vehemently inflamed with desyre, anger, or admiration, to bee very fierse and hotte.
Grauiter exarsit, he was very angry.
Exardere ira & indignatione, to be greatly inflamed with wrathe and indignation.
Desyderio exardere, to be verie desyrous.
Exarsit in iras, he waxed verie hotte.
Exarsit admiratio, men were in a greate admiration.
Exardesco, scere, to waxe hotte, or to bee verement.
Exareno, aui, are, to purge and trie cleane from saide and grauell.
Exaresio, fieri, to be dried by.
Exareo, exares, exarui, rēre, to be drie, to become dry, to pine away, to decay and weare as way, not to be so pleasaunt.
Exaruit diuturna miseria filius, my sonne is pined away with longe and continual misery Facul

Facultas orationis exaruisse dicitur, when a mans eloquence decayeth for faute of vse.
Exaresco, secre, idem quod Exareo.
Exarmo, au, are, to make tame, to vnarme, or to take harnois from a man.
Exarmare actionem, To make the action feynte or feeble.
Exarmare nauem, to take awaie the tackynge from a Shyppe.
Exarmare feras, to cutte or breake of the teeth, clawes, or other partes of wyld beasts, whiche they vse for theyr defence.
Exarmare strigmenta, to plucke of the taggues of poyntes.
Exarmatus, a, um, vnarmed, made tame.
Exaro, exaras, au, are, to eare wel: also to wyte.
Exarare frumentum, by earpyng to receyue as muche cozne as the lande yeldeth.
Epistolam exarare, to wyte a letter.
Exaratus, a, um, eared, eared vp, founde in the grounde by earpyng.
Exarticulatio, the beyng out of ioynte.
Exascio, au, are, to thyp smoothe with an are, as carpenters dooe after they haue roughed heawed: and by translation to polye, but not finely and perfectly.
Exaspero, au, are, to make sharpe, also to make verie angrie, to vexe, to fere.
Animo exasperatus, vexed in minde, made angrie.
Exatio, au, are, to satisfie, to fill.
Exaturo, au, are, to fyll or satisfie an hungrie stomacke or greedy mynde.
Exauctorati, souldiours or seruautes put out of wages, or dismissed of theyr seruyce.
Exauctoratus, depose or put out of offyce.
Exauctoro, or Exanthoro, to put out of wages: also to dismyss from warte withoute any reproche, and giue licence to departe, to discharge theym of theyr othe: sometyme to disgrace a knight, or other lyke.
Exaudio, audis, iui, ire, to here beneuolently, or perfectly.
Exaudire preces, to heare one fauourably and graunt his petition.
Exaugeo, auxi, augere, to increace muche.
Exaugere animum alicuius, to increace ones courage, to make one haue a greater stomake.
Exauguro, au, are, to make prophane the thyng that was holy, to vnhalow with certayne ceres monies.
Exauguratio, onis, f. g. the vnhalowynge of a thyng.
Exauspico, au, are, to dooe a thyng vnforsunately, to haue ill lucke.
Exauspicau ex vinculis, I haue had yll lucke sens I came out of prison.
Exauthoro, au, are, idem quod Exauctoro.
Exbalisto, au, are, to shoote out of a crosse bowe, to trumpe or deceiue.
Ego hunc communem meum atque nostru omnium hostem exbalistabo lepidè, I wyll feately deceiue this mine enemye, and all ours in commune.

Excaco, au, are, to make blynde, to putte oute ones eyes.
Excalceo, ceui, are, to pull of ones shoes.
Excalefacio, or Excalfacio, lesacis, feci, cere, to make verie hotte.
Excalfactio, onis, f. g. a heatyng or makyng of a thyng verie hotte.
Excalfactorius, a, um, that hath the power and strength to make hotte.
Excalcio, factus sum, fieri, to be made hotte.
Excalpo, calpsi, calpere, to scratche or clawe, to ingraue or cutte in.
Excandefacio, defacis, feci, facere, to chaufe or make angrie, to make verie hotte.
Excandescencia, x, f. g. a sodayne anger that tarieth not longe, or after some, the indignacion of the mynde to anger.
Excandescio, candui, scere, to be verie angrie, to waxe verie hotte.
Excanto, au, are, to inchant, to charme, sometyme to shut out.
Excarnificatus, a, um, tozne of rente with tourmentes.
Excarnifico, au, are, to rent and cutte in pierces, to tourment.
Excauo, excauas, au, are, to make holow.
Excauatio, onis, f. g. the making holow of a thyng.
Excèdo, cessi, cedere, to departe or goe forth, to passe or excede, to die.
Excessit ex ephèbis, he passed boyes age, he waxed a man.
Excedere ex pueris, to be passed boies age.
Excedere officium, to do more than his duttie.
Excedere e via, to goe out of the way.
Excedere vrbe, to departe out of the citee.
Excessit mihi aetas ex magisterio tuo, I am now passe your gouernance and correction.
In magnum certamen res excessit, the matties came to great contention.
Morbus, qui quatuordecim dies excessit, which hath continued more then footeene daies.
Excessit annos decem, he is aboue tenne yeres olde.
Excedere de medio, or de vita, to die.
Excedere digitum trasuersum ex loco, to go a fyngers breade out of a place.
Excedit magnitudinem fabæ, it is bigger than a beane.
Excessit e memoria, I haue forgotten it.
Excedere modum, to passe measure.
Excedunt quateragenos denarios libræ, they cost more then. 40.
Notæ excessere, the markes be worne oute.
Excessit res ad publicam quarimoniam, the matter came to the poynt, that the people complayned of it openly.
Excedit fidem, it is not to bee beleued, it is incredible,

Excessus, us, m. ge. goyng out, a dyng or departyng out of lyfe, deathe.
 Excellens, lentis, excellent, surmountyng.
 Excellens omnibus vir, a man surmountyng all other.
 Excellētia, æ, f. g. excellencie.
 Excellētia & magnitudo animi, excellency and noble courage.
 Excellētia & præstantia.
 Excellenter, excellently.
 Excello, cellui, lere, to excell, to passe, to surmount.
 Excellere & præstare.
 Admirabile quantum inter omnes vnus excellat, a meruapulous thyng, howe muche one amonge all other doeth excell.
 Præter cæteros in re aliqua excellere, to bee more excellent then other in any thyng.
 Excellere opibus, to be rycher then other.
 Excellere animo, ingenio, consilio, dignitate, viijs.
 Excellere, non nunquam in malam partem.
 Excelsitas, âtis, f. g. height, altitude, loftynesse, hautenesse of mynde.
 Excelsitas animi, the valiantnesse of hepyght of courage.
 Excelsè, loftly, hautly.
 Excelsus, a, um, highe or greate, loftie, haute, noble.
 Magnus & excelsus homo, a noble man & of haute courage.
 Grandis & excelsus orator, an oratour that useth an ample and loftie style.
 In excelsum collocare simulachrum, to sette it in an high place.
 Amplus & excelsus animus, a couragious and loftie stomake.
 Excelsus & illustris locus, an high and notable place that euery man may see.
 Exceptio, ônis, f. g. an exception.
 Excepto, aui, are, to take or drawe to.
 Eceptor, ôris, ma. ge. he that wyteyth faste that, whiche other men doe speake.
 Exceptorius, a, um, that excepteth, or conteyneth an exception.
 Exceptus, a, um, excepted, taken, receyued.
 Exceptitus, a, um, that is taken or receyued.
 Excerebro, aui, are, to beate oute the braynes of any thyng.
 Excerno, crui, cernere, to sift, to purge: properly it is to trie out the yll from the good.
 Excerniculum, li, a sieue to trie grayne, lime, or other thyng.
 Excerpo, cerpsi, pere, to gather here and there the chiefe of any thyng, to pike out.
 Excerptere & Libare.
 Excetra, æ, f. g. a serpent, of whome the head beynge cutte of, threecame by for it. it was also called Hydra.
 Excalcio, aui, are, to take ones money from him Excidium, dii, n. g. the sackyng of a towne or city, or the better destruction therof.

 Excido, excidis, cidi, cidere, to fall oute of a thyng, to fall away, to be forgotten, to slippe out of memory.
 Excidit animo, it is out of my mynde.
 Excidere animo, to be forgotten.
 Excidere formula, to lose his action.
 Excidit numero ciuium, he is not of the number of citifens, he is banished.
 Excidit de manibus gladius, the swoorde fell out of his hande.
 Tibi excidimus, thou hast forgotten vs.
 Huic excidit lingua, vt opinor, this felowe hath lost his tongue, as I thynke.
 Excidere, & elabi.
 Fulmina exciderunt celo, it lightened.
 Mihi ista exciderant, these thynges were gone out of my memory, I had forgotten them.
 Excidit mihi nomen, I haue forgotten his name.
 Excidit memoria huius rei, or excidit hæres memoria.
 Excidit mihi oratio, I could not speake.
 Mens mihi excidit, I was astonished.
 Fortuito excidit verbum ex ore, he spake that woorde by chaunce, or vtwarres.
 Nullum ferox verbum excidit, in all his communication he chaunted to speake no cruell woorde.
 Vxore excidit, he is disapointed of his wyfe, he shall not haue the woman that he thought to haue had.
 Excidere ab aliquo, To discente or disagree from one.
 Excido, cidi, cidere, to cutte out, to cut downe, to destroy.
 Excidere arborem, to cutte downe a tree.
 Excidere lapides & terra, to cutte or digge stones out of a quarrie.
 Excidere malum, to take awaie a mischiese or yll thyng.
 Excidere & euertere urbem, To destroy and beate downe a citee.
 Ex animo excidere, to plucke out of memory, to make to be forgotten.
 Excidere aliquem ex numero ciuium, to banyshe or exile one.
 Exciet, used of olde wyters for Excitit.
 Excindo, excidi, excindere, to ouerthrowe and destroy, to cutte out.
 Numantiam excindes, thou shalt subuertere and destroy Numantia.
 Excindere linguam, to cut out ones tongue.
 Excio, ciui, citum, cire: or Excio, ciui, exitum exciere, to come vehemently, to call out, to washen, to prouoke or stee, to reyle vp.
 Excire somno, and ex fomno, to awake one out of his slepe.
 Excire foras, to call forth of doores.
 Excire lacrymas alicui, to cause one to wepe, to make the water to stande in ones eyes.
 Excire

Excire tumultum, to reise a tumulte, to make a ruffelynge.
 Excire hostem ad dimicandum, To prouoke ones enemies to fyght.
 Excire aliquem ad cupiditatem discendi, with exhortation to make one desirous to learne.
 Excipio, excipis, excepi, excipere, to except, to take, to take out of exceptue, to enterteine, to trie or interche, to separate, to take by traiste, to gather, to hyde, to succede, to resiste without anye businesse. also to take vtwaies or sodenlye, to herken or here diligently.
 Excipere furem, to receyue a felon as an accessearie.
 Excipere notis, to wyte in cifer, or other compendious fourme.
 Excipit hos luno, id est, eximit. Juno taketh them out.
 Comiter excipere aliquem, to welcome a man gently at his comyng.
 Amplexu excipere aliquem, to embrace a man louyngly whan he meeteth hym.
 Excipere hospicio, to enterteine, to lodge.
 Excipere benigno vultu, to welcome wth a loueng and frendely countenance.
 Excipere audis auribus, to here gladly.
 Quid memoret, hinc excipiam, I will stande here and herken what he saith.
 Labores magnos excipere, To take on hym great payne and trauayle.
 Excipere laudem ex re aliqua, to haue prayse and commendation by any thyng.
 Excipere pugnam, To receyue the byrte of the battayle.
 Excipere rumores, to intende and hearken for rumours and tales.
 Extremum spiritum filiorum excipere, To be wth theyr chylderne at theyr departyng or death.
 Verba alicuius, excipere, to hearken and note a mans wordes, as he speaketh them.
 Se in pedes excipere, to lpyght on his feete.
 Excipere incautum, to take vtwaies.
 Poplitibus semet exceptit, he sette vppon his knees.
 Excipere onera amicorum, to take on hym the charge and burdeyn of his friendes matters.
 Ventris onus auro excipere, to dowe his easement in a vessell of golde.
 Nominatim excipere aliquem, To excepte one by name.
 Excipere, is a worde vled of physicians, whan dyuers thynges byaied or beaten in a moyster, be after tempered with some lycour.
 Excipulus, li, maf. g. an instrument to take any thyng in, a wele to take fyre, a snatche.
 Excipuus, a, um, that is taken.
 Exciso, cisas, aui, are, to crosse, to teare, to beate.
 Excisio, onis, and Excidio, onis, fcm. g. a cuttyng out, a destroyng.
 Excisus, a, um, gelded, cutte oute, cutte downe, destroyed.

Excito, excitas, aui, are, to stire, procure, or entourage, to reise up, to errect and buylde.
 A mortuis excitare, to reise from death to life.
 Excitare somno, and De, e, or ex somno, to awake one out of his slepe.
 Summam hominum admirationem excitare, to make men to meruaile greatly.
 Excitare alicui amorem sapientie, to make a man desyre wysdome greatly.
 Excitare edificium, to erect or reyse an house.
 Excitare ciuitatem, to reyse up and buylde a citee.
 Animum excitare, to be of good courage.
 Excitare clamorem, to make a great shoute and crye.
 Dormiantem excitare, to reyse up one that is a sleepe, and by translation, to quicken a negligent persone.
 Fletum excitare, to make to wepe.
 Caspites excitare dicitur sus, when in rootyng with the snout he casteth vp the earth.
 Excitare memoriam alicui, to bypyng one in remembraunce.
 Excitare risum, to make to laugh.
 Excitare varios sermones, to cause men to reise diuers tales.
 Excitare stomachum, to comfort the stomache and prouoke appetite.
 Tempestates excitare, to stire vp great businesse and ruffelyng.
 Opus excitare, to further the worke, by setting seruantes diligently to labour.
 Ignem excitare, to blow the fier.
 Foculum bucca excitare, to blow the fier with his mouth.
 Excitare metum, to put in feare.
 Sepulcrum elapide excitare, to builde or make of stone.
 Excitare, vehemently.
 Exclamatio, onis, fcm. g. an exclamacion, a fyrgure of rethorike, expresseynge sorowe, or indignation.
 Exclamo, ani, are, to crye out, to call for alowde.
 Furiosè exclamare, to crye out, as one were madde.
 Aliquem nominatim exclamare, to call one by his name alowde.
 Exclamat maximum, he cried out alowde.
 Excludo, clusi, cludere, to shut out, to deliuer, to hatche egges, to make to appere, to reiecte and refuse, not to admitte that is required.
 Excludere ab hereditate, to kepe one from his heretage.
 Nullo loco excluditur, he is shutte out of no place.
 Excludito mihi oculum, si dederò, put out this eye of myne, yf I geue it the.
 Excluditur Cappadocia, he can not haue entrance into Cappadocie.
 Excludi tempore, to be lette from dooynge a thyng thyng by reson of the tyme.

 Honore aliquo nominatim excludi, to be excepted by name from haueinge any office or authoritee.
 Excluforius, a, um, that excludeth.
 Exclufus, a, um, shutte out.
 Excogito, aui, are, to fynde or inuente by thyngbyng, to thynke earnestly.
 Excogitatio, onis, f. g. inuencion.
 Excogitator, oris, m. g. one that inuenteth.
 Excogitatus, a, um, inuented.
 Excolo, excolis, colui, colere, to garnyshe or decke, to polyshe, to haue in reuerence.
 Excolere officium, and Negligere officium,
 contrary.
 Excolere animos doctrina, to garnyshe the mynde with doctrine.
 Excompositus, in order appointed.
 Exconsules, & exquaestores, reherfed in the code of the ciuile lawe, doo signifie theim (as Alcia-tus affirmeth) whiche are or haue been in the dis-gnitee of Consul, or Quaestor, but they dyd nes-uer minister in those offices, nor toke the aduantages therunto belongyng. Also they, whose fathers were Consuls or Quaestors, whan they were bozne, whiche assertion is contrary to Petrus Crinitus, who in the xv. booke De honesta disciplina, saith, that they were called by those names, after they had accomplished theyr ministracion. whiche sentence Alciatus sharply repponeth Disputacionum li. 4.
 Excoquo, excoquis, coxi, coquere, to boyle a thyng vntill it be drye, to boyle thourghly.
 Excoquere malum alicui, to inuent or diuise
 some yuell for a man.
 Ignis excoquit virium metalli, doth consume or purge away.
 Excorsio, aui, are, to pluche of the skynne or hide of a beast.
 Excors, excordis, om. g. a scold or a man hertlesse, without spirit or boldnesse.
 Excreo, aui, are, to spette out with retchyng.
 Excreatio, onis, f. g. a spettyng out.
 Excreabilis, le, that maye be auoyded with rets-chyng and spettyng.
 Excrementa, orum, thynges of digestion expulsed, moyste or drye, wherof there bee. ix. ordure fleume, choler, melancoly, vyne, sweat, filthe of the nose, spetill, milke.
 Excreasco, creui, crescere, to growe out, or to growe muche.
 In alium excreascere, to growe vp bygh.
 Excretus, a, um, of Excreasco, well grown.
 Excretio, onis, f. g. is the superfluitee of excrementes, beyng in the body.
 Excretum, ti, n. g. of Excerno, the refuse or of-fall of any thyng tried or syfied out.
 Excribo, loke, Exscribo.
 Excrucibilis, le, worthy to be tourmented.
 Excrucio, aui, are, to tourment greatly.
 Excruciat vicem meam, he is veraye sozie for my myschaunce.

 Excruciat eam animi.
 Filij causa coeperam me excruciare animi, I beganne to tourment and vex my mynde for my sonnes sake.
 Excubie, arum, form, g. plu. nu, wathe as wel
 by daye as by nyght.
 Agere excubias, to wathe.
 Habere excubias, to haue a wathe.
 Excubitor, oris, m. g. he that watcheth.
 Excubitus, us, m. g. a wathe.
 Excubo, excubas, cubui, are, to wathe, as they wyche in battayle or in the garde of a princis persone doe.
 Excubare in muris, to wathe vpon the wallis.
 Pro foribus excubare, to wathe at the doore.
 Excubar laurus ante limina, a laurell tree is planted before the gate.
 Excubare animo, to be watchefull and haue an attentue mynde on a thyng.
 Excubare & vigilare pro aliquo, To take hede and shewe all diligence for a man.
 Excubatio, onis, f. g. watthyng.
 Excudo, excudi, and after Probus, excusi, excudere, to beate or strike out. Sometyms to fynde out with studge, to pinte, to hache.
 Vt primum silicis scintillum excudit Achates, As soone as Achates had streghen fyre out of the flynt.
 Ceras excidunt apes, the bees make waxe.
 Excudere oua, idem quod excludere oua.
 Excudere opus aliquod, to make a worke also to pinte a mans worke.
 Excusor, oris, ma. gene. a maker of pottes and pannes, also a printer.
 Exulco, aui, are, to treade out or wyppng out.
 Exulcatus, a, um, troden out. also out of vse.
 Verba exulcata, wordes out of vse.
 Exulpo, psi, pere, to graue or intayle ymages,
 also to geat any thyng by hearyng of one.
 Exculpere oculum, to thrust out ones eye.
 Exculpere ex marmore, to engrauie in marble.
 Exculpere nidos gallinarum, to make hennes nestes in a walle.
 Vix exculpsi, vt diceret, I coulde scant geat hym to tell it.
 Exculpere verum, to geat out the truthe of a mattier.
 Excultus, a, um, garnyshe, adorne.
 Excursio, aui, are, to put out of company or court.
 Appollonium ideo excuriauit, quia nihil habebat, therfore dyd he put Appollonius out of the court, because he had nothyng.
 Excuro, aui, are, to dresse a thyng curiously.
 Excursatus, a, um, dresed or handled diligently.
 Excursatus victus, meate curiously dresed.
 Excursatus homo, a galiarde felowe.
 Excurro, excurri, or excucurri, currere, to ren-out of a place, to make inuasions, or bryake into the enemies lades, to make an intode, to assaunte enemies in battayle.

Excurrit oratio, whan one maketh digression.
 Excurrit insula, the plande is extended.
 Deberis mihi decem aureos, & quod excurrit, ye owe me ten crownes and odde monies.
 Summa excurrrens, a broken summe, wherein is odde moneye.
 Excurrrens in meridiem planities, a playne felde extendyng towarde the southe.
 Excursio, ónis, f. g. a digression in speahyng, a skirmishe in warres.
 Excursionones inuicem facere, to make skirmishes and inuasions one vpon an other.
 Excursor, óris, m. g. a cuttoure.
 Excursus, a, um, that whiche is ouertunne or passed ouer.
 Excursus, us, mas, ge. a course, where one passeth his boundes, a goynge from the pource.
 Excusabilis, le, that whyche maye be excused.
 Excusatus, with moze pardon, moze tollerably.
 Excusatoria epistola, a letter of excuse.
 Excuso, ani, are, to excuse.
 Excusatum me volo, I woulde they shoulde holde me excused.
 Excusare aliquem apud alterum, or alteri, to excuse one man to an other.
 Excusatum habeas me, holde me excused.
 Excusares mare, aut ambiguos status, You shoulde laie for your excuse the sea, or the vncertaine wyndes, nowe blowyng in one coste, nowe in an other.
 Oculorum valetudinem excusauit, he lapped for his excuse that his eyes were sore.
 Excusatio, ónis, f. g. an excuse.
 Accipere excusationem, to admytte ones excuse.
 Afferre excusationem, to lay an excuse for ones selfe.
 Temporis excusatione uti, to excuse hym selfe by the tyme.
 Non habet excusationem stultitia, foolishnesse is not to be taken for any excuse.
 Excusor, óris, m. g. a printer. also a maker of portis or pannes.
 Excusare, tollerably, withoute faute, without offence.
 Excusse, exactly.
 Excussorius, a, um, that shaketh of, or shaketh oute.
 Excussores equi, flingynge or gambaldynge hofes.
 Excussores tritici, wyndowers of cozne.
 Excussorium cribrum, a rangeyng sieue. also a course boulder.
 Excussus, a, um, shakyn of, chased out, examined, searched.
 Excutio, excutis, cussis, tere, to shake, to chafe, to weigh or consider, to examine, to seeke or inquire diligently, to put awaye.
 Excutere clauum lapide, to beate out an yron pyne or nayle with a stone.
 Excutere equitem dicitur equus, whan the hofe casteth a man from his backe.

 Excutient tibi istam verborum iactationem, They wyl make the leaue these proude and boastyng wordes.
 Excutere ignem, to styke fyre.
 Excutere fetas cubilibus, to chase or hunte wyld beasts out of theyr denres.
 Excutere mentem, to make madde.
 Excutere oculos alicui, to pull ones eyes out of his head.
 Pacem excusserat orbi, he set all the world in an hyrre, or he troubled the whole world with warre.
 Excutere rationem, to examine an accompte or rekenyng.
 Excutere seueritatem veterem, to put awaye the seueritee and rigour that one hath vsed in tyme past.
 Genus alicuius excutere, to examine of what stocke or kynde a man is descended.
 Excuti patria, to be chased or dyschased out of his countre.
 Vires hereditatis excutere, to examyne and trye out diligently the value of ones heritage.
 Excutere debitorem, to value ones godes, and to examine whether he be able to pay his debtes or no.
 Excutere aliquem, to robbe one, to make one out of his clothes, to searke one whether he haue any thyng about hym.
 Excutere iugum, to shake of the yoke.
 Excutere lacrymas alicui to make the teares come out of ones eyes, to make one wepe.
 Excutere vomitum, to make one to spue.
 Excussi grandine, beaten with hapye stones.
 Excutere cerebrum alicui, to dash out ones braynes.
 Excutiunt cerebrum tua dicta, They wyndes doo beate oute my braynes, or trouble my wyttes.
 Exdecimo, ani, are, to trye out.
 Exdorsus, ani, are, to breake the backe bone.
 Excestides, one, of whome for his immoderate goyng on pilgrimage, grew a pproerbe.
 Execo, excas, ani, are, to cut, to cut out.
 Execare pestem reip. to dispatche or ridde a most pernicious membe of the common weale.
 Execrabilis, le, detestable, horryble, sometyme harde.
 Execratio, ónis, f. g. an execration or cursynge, a vowe, wherein one betaketh hym selfe to the deuil, if he doe the thyng.
 Execratus, and Execrandus, a, um, detestable.
 Execror, aris, ari, to curse, to detest.
 Exectio, ónis, f. g. a cuttyng of.
 Exectus, a, um, cut out, cut of, gelded.
 Filius exectus, a chyld cut out of his mothers wombe.
 Executio, ónis, f. g. an expletyng or doyng of a thyng.
 Exedo, exedis, or Exedo, exes, edis, edere, to cate eat as a worme of a sope dweth, to eat vp; to gnaw, to consume.

Quid te futurum censes, quem assidue excedent? what case shalt thou be in thyself thou, whome they shall continually eat out of house and home.

Angor illum exest, anguish of mynde consumeth hym, or maketh hym pynne awaye.

Exedra, exedra, form. ge. a place full of seates for philosophers or learned men to sytte and dispute in. also a parloure, or other place, where a bedde standeth.

Exegematicus, a fourme of speakhynge, where the poete onely speaketh.

Exegeticon, idem quod Expositium, velenarium, by the whiche one expoundeth or declareth a thyng.

Exemplar, aris, neu. g. a persone or thyng conspyrnyng an example to folowe or eschewe, and Exemplum, is the example it selfe.

As the cloquence of Cicero, is Exemplum, and Cicero hym selfe, is Exemplar. Also it is an example, wyrtten out of a copy. Sometime for Exemplum, a thyng to bee folowed or eschued. Sometime the one is vsed for the other: oftentimes they bothe doo signifie an example, where one thyng is compared with an other.

Exemplare, idem quod exemplar.

Exemplarium, ri, n. g. an example or copie.

Exemplum, pli, neu. gen. an example to folowe, eschue, or bee ware of, a coppe, a paterne, a president, a counterpayne, an open execution or punishment down to the feare of other. also a similitude, a thyng brought in for the prowe or declaration of a matter. Also a thyng that hath been down afore tyme.

Sine exemplo tempora, suche tymes as neuer hath been seen afore.

Si meum esset exemplum, If I hadde geuen the example fyrst, or yf it had been doen fyrst by me.

Quod ad exemplum est? what maner of folowe is he? whome dweth he resemble? whome is he lyke?

Capere exemplum, loke Capió.

Nullo exemplo aliquid facere, To doe that was neuer doen before.

Imitari exemplum alicuius, to imitate an other in his doeyng.

Ad illud exemplum fit, is done euen accordyng as you say.

Nocet exemplo magis quam peccato, He dooeth moze harme by gyuyng an euill example to other, than by committynge the offence.

Præbere exemplum, to geue an example.

Non tibi exemplo satis sum? Maye not you take a good example by me? or am not I a sufficient example for you?

Nullo exemplo aliquid facere, to doe a thyng so as neuer man dyd before.

Malo exemplo facio, I dooe a thyng to the euill example of other.

Vno exemplo ne omnes vitam uiuerent, that all men shoulde not lyue after one sorte or fashion.

Exemplum testamenti, a coppe of a mannes wylle.

Misi ad Cæsarem eodem exemplo literas, I haue sent letters vnto Cesar after the same sorte, or hauyng the same tenoure and effecte.

Animale exemplum, a paterne taken of a thyng that is alpye.

Exempla edere, or exempla facere in aliquo, To punyssh any body openly, to the example of other.

Exempla edi, and exempla fieri in aliquem, To bee punysshed openly, to the example of other.

In quem exempla fient? who is that, that shall be punished to the example of other?

Dij te malis exemplis perdant, God sende the a wpyched ende to the example of other.

Exempli causa, or exempli gratia, For a prowe of this matter, or for a moze manifest declaration of this thyng.

Singularis exempli iuuenis, a yonge man of suche vertue and towardnesse, as there is none lyuyng agayne.

Rarissimi exempli vxor, a wyfe of suche breed as be but fewe.

Futuros sub exemplo præmonere, to warne theim that shall come after, by the cæpple of theim that haue been before.

Subiicere aliquid in exemplum, To adde a thyng for an example or declaration of a matter.

Sunt inter exēpla qui. &c. wyrters haue made mention of some, whiche. &c.

Est in exemplis, it is brought in of wyrters.

Exemptilis, le, that which maye bee taken away, or taken out.

Exemptio, ónis, form. g. an excepcion, a takynge awaye.

Exemptor, óris, mas. g. one that taketh awaye, one that diggeth stones out of a quarrie.

Exemptus, a, um, exempte or priuiledged, taken awaye.

Exemptus est rebus humanis, He is dead.

Exemptus pœna, discharged of punishment, escappynge punishment.

Exentero, aui, are, to pull out the garbythe or guttes of a thyng, to drawe a fythe. And by translation, to cut or pycke ones purse.

Exenteror miser, I am tourmented wpytche that I am.

Exeo, exiui, ire, to goe out, to issue, to hyste out, to ende, to be delpyered, to be past, to be deferred.

In memoriam exire, to bee in remembrance.

Exit in fabulam, it is made a tale.

Exit de potestate, he is besyde hym selfe, he is not able to gouerne hym selfe, he is in ward or vnder under a gardian.

 Exire domum, to go out of the house.
 Mane dum ad te exeo, tarp until I come forth to you.
 Ea dictio exit in, a; That word endeth in, I.
 Exire xre alieno, to come out of debte.
 Ut tandem e tot miseris exiremus, That ones we myghte bee deliuered from so many miseries.
 Exire ex animo, to go out of ones mynde, to be forgotten.
 Ut in altitudinem exeant, That they maye growe vp in heyghe.
 Nec dum exierat induciarum dies, The daye of the trespase was not yet as than passed.
 Exire in herbam aut radicem dicitur granu, To spyngge vp, or to growe to a roote.
 Exierunt libri, bookes were published of sette abyode.
 Nihil non consyderatum exibat ex ore, there came no word out of his mouth but with great consideration and aduysment.
 Exire in praelium, to issue forth, and gone batayle.
 Exire e vita, to dye.
 Nostra licet vita supra mille annos exeat, although we liue aboue a thousand yeres.
 Manesque exire sepulchris, and the dead bodies to go out of theyr granes.
 In vulgus exierat eum dixisse, It was reported of published abyode amonge the people, that he sayed.
 In tertium diem probationes exierunt, The proues of the matter were deferred vnto the thirde daye.
 Exire obuiam alicui, to goe forth to meete with one.
 Exire tela, to eschewe and auoyde darteres and quarrelles that be hurled.
 Quum mea fors prima exisset, whan my lot was fyrst taken out.
 Exequia, arum, f. g. plu. funeralles, whiche are done in the burfall of any person.
 Carere exequiis, to be buried with out solemnitie of funeralles.
 Exequias celebrare, to kepe a solemne funerrall.
 Cohonestare exequias, to bee at ones funerrall or buryng.
 Exequiis rite solutis, after all solemnitiees of the funerrall were duely finished and done.
 Exequialis, le, that belongeth to a funerrall.
 Exequio, aui, ate, to execute the funeralles.
 Exequor, equeris, exequi, to do or execute, to accompysh or finishe. Sometyme to declare or expresse also to punishe.
 Exequi mortem, to dye.
 Exequi sermonem, to speake.
 Quid primum exequar? What shall I fyrst doe, or goe in hande with?
 Aeternitatem exequi, to contynue for euer and euer.

Consilium alicuius exequi, To folowe ones counsaile, to do as one aduyseth vs.
 Exequi delicta, to punishe offences.
 Nec pro modo omnia delicta exequatur, Neether dyd he punishe all offences as they were worthy.
 Exequi funus, to be at ones interment.
 Incepta exequi, to doe that one hath begonne.
 Subtiliter numerum exequi, to cast or compte.
 Exequi procuracionem, to doe the parte of a pjocter.
 Exequi egestatem, To susteine and abyde pouertie.
 Exequi fugam, to flee.
 Funus exequi, to keepe a funerrall.
 Exequi imperium heri, to do his maysters commaundement.
 Exequi iniurias, to reuenge iniuries and wronges doon to vs.
 Iter exequi, to go a tourneie.
 Laudes eius exequi longum esset, it were long to recite and numbre by the prayes and commendacions therof.
 Sedulo munera sua exequuntur, they shall do theyr duties diligently.
 Quae vix verbis exequi possum, Whiche thynges I can scantely expresse and declare in wordes.
 Exequi ius suum, to pursue hys right.
 Negotium exequi, to exployte a matter or busynesse.
 Exequutor, oris, ma. gen. one that executeth or doeth a thyng.
 Exequutus, a, um, executed, doon.
 Exerceo, cui, ere, to exercise, to do, to practise, to tyll, to occupy, to be, to kepe from ydelnesse and rest, to sette on worke, to vse, to gette or wyne, sometyme to dzyue out of the house.
 Exercere a tatem, to lye.
 Exercere Bacchanal, to bee drunke.
 Principem exercere, to practise the office of a pynce or gouernour.
 Exercere discordias & simulates, to haue batriance or contention.
 Exercere sumptus, to get theyr expenses.
 Exercere tellurem, to occupie and tyll well the grounde.
 Exercere cantus, to singe.
 Exercere choreas, to daunce.
 Arcu se exercere, to shote.
 Quadam exercere festis diebus licet, It is lawfull to do some thynges on the holy daye.
 Ad quam communes exercemus amores, which woman bothe of vs do loue.
 Exercere iracundiam, to shewe his wrath, to be cruelle.
 Exercere artem, to vse his science.
 Exercere patris nomen, To vse to doe like a father.
 Exercere populationem, to robbe or spoyle.
 Exercere pugnosc in aliquem, to buffette one with with his hyskes.

 Exercere questionem, to examine.
 Exercere regnum, To doe lyke a kynge, to playe the kynge.
 Exercere vestigalia, To gether and leaue teis bates.
 De aliquare exerceri, to be troubled aboute a thyng.
 Exerceri ad morem philosophorum, to bee exercised after the facion of maner of philosophers.
 Hic me exerceo, here I am occupied, or here I exercise my selfe.
 Exercio, ūi, ere, to amende or repayre.
 Exercitatio, ōnis, f. g. exercise, vse, or custome.
 Exercitator, ōris, m. g. one that exerciseth.
 Exercitatrix, the feminine.
 Exercitio, ōnis, f. g. the taking of moneye for carrying or conueyng by shyppe.
 Exercitatus, ta, tum, exercysed, vexed, disquieted.
 Exercitatus & agitatus curis, vexed and tossed with cares.
 Exercitium, n. g. exercise or vse.
 Exercito, aui, are, to exercise.
 Exeritor, ōris, masc. gener. one that exerciseth or tradeth by men in any feate. Also a factour, or he that hath all the profite for conueyng of wares in a shyppe, whether it bee the owner, or one that hath hyred it.
 Exeritorius, a, um, belongynge to exeritor. loke there.
 Exeritus, us, maf. ge. an hoste of men of warre.
 Exercitum conscribere, to gather an armie.
 Exeritus, a, um, exercised, vled in labour, wored, hardened, troubled, tossed in businesse.
 Exeritus in re militari, of great experience, or well practyse in thialrie and warfare.
 Exeritus in agendis causis, muche practysed in pleadyng of matters.
 Exersitus multa lectione, a man that hath read muche.
 Exersitus rebus aduersis, one that hath bidden muche aduersitee and trouble.
 Exero, exeris, erui, erere, to go forth, to put forth, to drawe out, as a man wyll drawe out a sword, also to lyft vp.
 Fulgentem q̄ exerit ense, And he drew out his byght sword.
 Exerere vincula, to stryke of hys gyues, or to take out of prison.
 Quo caput exeratur, wherby his head maye be put forth.
 Exerere caput, to thurst by the head. And by translation, to auance it selfe, to excell.
 Cochleæ exerunt se domicilio, Snayles creepe out of theyr shell.
 Exerere linguam, to put out the tounge.
 Exerere manum, to stretch out the hande.
 Exerere vincula, to vnlose bondes.
 Exerere mentis secreta, to tell or vtter the secretes of the mynde.

Phœbe vultus exerit, the moone appereth.
 Exerto, aui, are, to shewe forth a jobe.
 Exertus, a, um, shewed forth, put forth, taken forth.
 Exertum brachium, the arme put forth, or shewed forth.
 Ehsis exertus, drawne.
 Exesor, ōris, m. g. one that eateth or consumeth.
 Exesus, a, um, eaten vp, consumed, gnawen.
 Exsilatus, a, um, ditched without.
 Exsio, I pource or cleanse.
 Exsitus, us, m. g. a pourceyng or cleansing.
 Exfodio, exfodis, exfodi, ere, to digge out.
 Exfundo, aui, are, to caste downe harde to the grounde.
 Exgregius, a, um, for egregius.
 Exgrūmo, aui, are, to come forth of an hylde.
 Exgurgito, aui, are, to take or caste out of the channell of streame.
 Exgurgitare argentum domo, to spende ones monie prodigally.
 Exharedatio, ōnis, f. g. a differityng.
 Exharedatus, a, um, differited.
 Exharêdo, aui, are, to differite.
 Exharêres, edis, com. g. one that is differited.
 Exharêsimus dies, the day that maketh the leape pere.
 Exhalabilia, such thynges as beyng sette to the fier doe breath out an exhalacion of fume.
 Exhalatio, ōnis, f. g. an exhalacion of fume that issueth out of the earthe.
 Exhalatus, a, um, breathed out.
 Exhalo, aui, are, to puffer out, to breath out, to sende forth a breath of fume.
 Animam exhalare, to die.
 Lucem supremam exhalare, idem.
 Exhalare crapulam, to digeste a surfet.
 Vinum exhalare, idem.
 Vapores exhalat terra, The earthe sendeth out vapours.
 Exhaustio, ausi, ire, to draw out cleane, to make emptye. By translation, to spend or consume, to pille or robbe, to take from one all that he hath, to wast. Sometime for exequi, to dispatche or accomplishe.
 Exhaustire labores, to bestowe or spende labour.
 Exhaustire poculum, to drynke by all that is in the cuppe.
 Exhaustire ærarium, to waste the commune treasure.
 Exhaustit ægrum fluens alius, the fluxe consumeth it.
 Exhaustire aliquem, to gette all hys moneye from him.
 Ciuitatem exhaustire, to send or put away all the inhabitants.
 Ciuitates bonis exhaustire, to pille and cleane take away.
 Exhaustire dolorem, to susteyne or endure patiently.

ciently.

Exhaurire heredem legatis, to bequeath to many thynges to other, that the heyre hath no thyng left for him selfe.

Quum tantum laboris exhaustum sit, sayng so muche labour is spent.

Exhaurire partem laudum alicuius, To take awaie parte of a mannes commendacion or praise.

Exhaurire mandata alicuius, To accompysh and do suche thynges as one hath committed to his charge.

Sumptu prouinciam exhaurire, to burdene a prouince with expenses and charges.

Exhaurire sentinam furum ex vrbe, by translation to ridde a company of naughtye packes and lewde persons out of a citee.

Sermone exhaurire sollicitudines, with communication to put awaie carefulnesse, & trouble of mynde.

Exhaurire sibi vitam, to kyl hym selfe.

Exhaustum, ti, n. g. that is down or spent.

Exhaustus, a, um, cleane emptied, pylled, spoyled and rydde of all that one hath, consumed, spent, bestowed.

Opes exhaustæ, riches consumed and spent.

Exhaustus, one that hath an empty purse, or whose goodes be cleane consumed.

Pericula exhausta, perilles that a man hath passed and gone through.

Exhaustus est sermo hominum, men haue no moze to saye.

Anno exhausto, the yere beyng ended.

Bella exhausta, finished, ended.

Exhebenum, ni, neu. g. a stone, wherwith golde smyttes dw polyshe golde.

Exhedra, æ, f. g. like exedra.

Exherbatio, ðnis, f. g. a weedyng.

Exherbo, aui, are, to plucke vp herbes or weedes.

Exherbandus est locus, the place muste bee weeded.

Exhibeo, exhibes, hibui, ère, to proffer, to sette abrode for all men to behold, to exhibite, to come to shewe ones selfe.

Exhibere negotium, to putte to busynesse or trouble.

Exhibere rationes, to make an accompte.

Exhibere spectaculum, To make commune plaies or triumph.

Exhibere alicui affectum parentis, To shewe hym selfe lyke a father to one: to beare a fatherly affection towards one.

Fidem ac beneuolentiam exhibere, to shewe hym selfe faythfull and louynge.

Imperium exhibere, to haue the maystry, to beare a rule.

Se iudiciis hominum exhibere, to putte hym selfe to the iudgement of the people.

Iustitiam exhibere, to shewe hys iustice.

Laborem difficilem exhibere, to put to great payne and trauayle.

Argutias alteri exhibere, to shewe agaynst one with subtilties.

Exhibere negotium, to putte one to busines.

Exhibere molestiam, to beere or grieve.

Exhibere reum, when the suerite beyngeth in the man that he was bounde for personally, and disthergeth hym selfe.

Exhibere alterum, to represent the fourme of an other man.

Rem saluam tibi exhibebo, I wyl warrant you your good cause ageyne, I wyl make it good.

Vicem alicuius rei exhibere, to be in steede of an other thyng, to serue to the same vse.

Exhibitio, ðnis, f. g. an exhibition, a geyng or deliuerance.

Exhibitus, a, um, exhibited, geuen, shewed.

Exhilaratio, ðnis, f. g. a comfortyng.

Exhilaratus, a, um, comforted, made mery.

Exhilario, aui, are, to comforte or merrye, to make mery.

Exhilarantur arbores, the trees be comforted.

Exhomologesis, sis, f. g. confession.

Exhorreo, and exhorresco, ui, ère, & scere, to feare horribly or with tremblyng.

Exhorratio, ðnis, f. g. a stomakyng.

Exhortator, ðris, ma. g. is he that encourageth one that fainteth or wareth slacke in doyng.

Exhortatus, a, um, that exhorteth, sometyme past suely, that is encouraged.

Exhortor, aris, ari, to exhorze vehemently, to encourage or stomahe, to cheryshe.

Exhortari canes, to chere the houndes.

Exhortari canes in aliquem, to sette the dogges on one.

Ciues exhortari in hostem, to encourage his cowntrey men agaynst theyr enemye.

Equos exhortari, to animate, encourage, or steepe vp horses.

Exhubero, exhiberas, aui, are, to abounde. also actiuel, to make to abounde.

Exhibilo, aui, are, to whysle or byste a man out of the place.

Exiccatio, ðnis, f. g. a dryng vp.

Exiccatus, a, um, dryed vp, thorough dryed. also without iuyce, vnpleasaunt.

Exicco, aui, are, to dry, to drye throughe.

Exifilare, idem quod exhibilo.

Exigo, exigis, ègi, igere, to expelle or shut out, to dyne awaie, to put out, to chafe awaie. sometyme for transigere, to passe, as one passeth the time, to expresse, to trye or proue, to measure. also for extorqueo, to take by force, to exacte, to make satisfaction, also to require, to demaunde, to inquire, to doe.

Exigere ætatem, to lyue, to leade his liue, to passe his age.

Exigere annos, idem.

Exigere vxorem matrimonio, to be diuorced, to put his wyfe from hym.

Exigere nomina, to compelle men to pay theyr debts, debites, to require debites.

 Exigere creditum, idem.
 Exigere pecuniam, to demaunde moneys that is owynge.
 Exigere supplicium ab aliquo, to punish one.
 Exigere tempus, to passe with the tyme.
 Tua causa exegit virum a se, For your sake she hath dyspyned hir husbände from hir.
 Venena suctu corporibus exigere, to suche the venym out of mens bodies.
 Exigere reges ex ciuitate, to expelle kynges out of the citee.
 Exigere aliquem honoribus, to deppe one of office or authorite, to put or expell out of office.
 Exigere lassitudinem e corpore, to put away weyynesse.
 Exigere uxorem, to put ones wyfe from hym.
 Cuius causa hac erumnā exigo? For whose sake doe I suffer or susteyne this payne and trouble?
 Exigere noctem, to passe the nyght.
 Dare & exigere, contrary.
 Iura debita politici tōri exigere verecunde.
 Exigere pondus, to weygh, to trye the true weyghte.
 Exigere promissum, to demaunde and require that one hath promysed.
 Exigere tributa, to exacte tribute.
 Necessitas exigit, necessite requyeth.
 Hanc exigam a te operam, I wll requyre of you one thyng, and that is this.
 Exigere operam, to make a seruaunt doe hys busynesse and labour, to requyre of a seruaunte his labour.
 Exigere columnas ad perpendicularum, To proue and try whether the pilions bee made euē with the plumbe lyne.
 Exigere ab aliquo veritatem, to force one to tell the trueth.
 Exigere imperatam pecuniam, to leaue moneys that men were reassed to paye.
 Exigere piacula, to constraigne one to make satisfaction for an offence by him committed.
 Mediam dies exigit horam, it is none.
 Exigere ferrum aut gladium, to thruste a sworde through one.
 Exigere fues pastum, to dyspue out the swyre to the fiede.
 Hibernum mare exigunt, they passe or trauell
 the sea in the winter.
 Ad leges & instituta nostra exigere, to meas-sure and examine.
 Exigere stylo, to expresse in wytyng. Quintil.
 Exigere interdum apud Cicer. pro Com-pensare.
 Exigere de re aliqua, to reason and dispute of a matter.
 Exiguo, an aduerbe, significynge veray litlell, hardly, nygardsely, slenderly.
 Exiguus, aīis, f. g. litlellesse, smallnesse, slensdernesse.

 Exiguus, sometyme for exiguo.
 Exiguus, a, um, litlell, small.
 Homo corporis exigui, a mā of litlell stature.
 Exiguus animi, of base courage.
 Numerus exiguus, a small number.
 Exilio, exilis, ilui, li, and liui, lire, to go out has sily, or to leape out, to leape for iope.
 Exiliuit foras, he lepte quicklye forthe of the doores.
 Exiliuit e sella, he leapte out of his seate, or fro his stole.
 Exilui gaudio, I leapte for iope.
 Exilis, exile, slender, small, leane, yll fedde, also of small value.
 Exilius, aīis, f. g. slendernesse, thinnesse.
 Copia et exilitas in dicendo, contrary.
 Exiliter, slenderly, thynly.
 Exilium, ilij, n. g. exyle, banishment.
 In exilium exigere, agere, depellere, eicere,
 to banyshe, to sende in exile.
 Ire & proficisci in exilium, to goe in exile or banishment.
 De exilio reducere, to call from exile, or to resstore one agayne from banishment.
 Exilica causa, a matter agaynst them that be
 in exile.
 Eximie, excellently, notably well, passyngly.
 Eximie utilis, meruapulous profitable.
 Eximius, a, um, excellent, pyched, singular, notat-ble, passynge good, chosen out, great.
 Eximia spe adolescens, a younge man of excelslent towardnesse.
 Eximius odor, a great and strong sauour.
 Eximia forma, a singular sauoure, an excellent and meruapulous beautie.
 Eximia velocitas, notable & passing swiftnesse.
 Eximo, eximis, emi, ere, to take awaye some-tyme to dysge out, to excepte, to picke out of a great numbze, to deliuer, to discharge, sometime to byll.
 Eximere actionem, to barre one of his action.
 Eximere ex arariis, where one hath his Quetus est in the Church, or other lyke place, to discharge one vppon his accompte. Amonge the Romaynes it was to deliuer and quitte a citizen of the fine and penaltie set vppon hym by the Censour, for his mysse behauiour.
 Eximere ex reis, to acquitte one of an offence, or to shew that the accusation, brought agaynst one is not to be receiued.
 Eximere noxae, to release one of a trespassse committed.
 Eximere in libertatem, to take out of seruitude and restore to libertie.
 Eximere dubitationem, to put out of doubt.
 Exime mihi hunc scrupulum, Solue me this doubt.
 Eximere lassitudinem, to put awaye weyynesse.
 Eximere de vestigalibus, to exempte from payyng tribute,

Vinculis

Vinculis aliquem eximere, to deliuer one out of ppyson.
 Eximere ex culpa, to excuse, to shewe one not to be in any fault.
 Eximere memorie, to put out of minde oꝝ mes moꝝ.
 Exime nomen de tabella delatoria, put my name out of the rolle.
 Eximete ex obsidione, To deliuer from a siege.
 Eximere lapides sub terra, To digge stones out of a quarre.
 Eximere numero, to lase apatte, not to rechen oꝝ numbꝛe.
 Reum eximere, to quite a person accused.
 Ex improviso, loke ex.
 Exin, from hensforth, Exinde, idem. afterward, from thence forth.
 Exinatio, exinatio, iui, ire, to emptye, to bying to naught, to voyde, to take from one all that he hath, to robbe.
 Exinanire alium, to purge the bealy.
 Exinanire nauim, to vnlade a shyppe.
 Exinanire vrinam, to make water.
 Exinanire aliquem re, to pyle one of all that he hath.
 Vastare atq; exinanire agros vectigales, To spoyle and robbe the landes, whereof cometh pꝛely reuenues to the common treasure.
 Exinatio, onis, f. g. an emptying oꝝ voydyng, a purgynge of the bealy.
 Exinatus, a, um, pyllid, robbed, emptied, brought to naught.
 Exinsulo, aui, are, to shewe oꝝ put forth.
 Exinsperato, vnloked for, whyche no man hoped for.
 Existimatio, onis, f. g. supposell, an opinion, a iudgement that one hath conceyued of a thyng. Sometime reputacion, estimation, honour.
 Dignitas & existimatio.
 Homo magnæ existimationis, a man of great reputacion.
 Colligere & parere existimationem, to come in estimation and credite.
 Amittere existimationem, to lese his reputacion.
 Existimationi suæ consulere, to pꝛouide and haue regarde to his honour.
 Existimatio damnaus homo, He of whome men haue an yll opinion.
 Existimationem suam committere alteri, to truste an other man in a matter concerning his honour oꝝ estimation.
 Existimator, oris, m. g. one that speaketh as he supposeth, and not as a master oꝝ instructour, a iudge of any matter.
 Existimo, aui, are, to trowe oꝝ suppose, to decrene oꝝ iudge, to esteeme, to thynke.
 De alicuius ingenio bene existimare, to haue a good opinion of a mans disposicion oꝝ nature.
 Male existimare, contrary.
 Vere existimare, to decrene oꝝ iudge truly.

Ex eventu de alicuius consilio existimare, to iudge of a mans dwisse oꝝ counsaile by that that foloweth of it.
 Suis moribus alterum existimare, to iudge an other man by his owne manners.
 Existimatur in probro, It is taken for a reproche. Existimatu facile est, a man may easily iudge.
 Existo, existi, stete, to be, to appere, to stite oꝝ come of, to be sette by oꝝ aduanced.
 Et si hodie ab inferis existat Lycurgus, And if Lycurgus shoulde this daye appere oꝝ rise from death to lyfe.
 Existit ex hoc loco difficilis questio, there riseth out of this place an harde question.
 Existat ille parumper cognatione vestra, doe you ymagine oꝝ suppose a litle in your myndes, that he is aliue.
 Summerus equus voraginibus non existit, was no moꝛe seene.
 Existet ex hac victoria tyrannis, Of this victoꝝ and conqueste, there will aryse a tyranny.
 Exitibilis, le, deadely.
 Exitialis, le, deadely, oꝝ that causeth deathe oꝝ mischief.
 Bellum exitiale, a deadely and cruell warre.
 Exitiosus, a, um, idem quod Exitialis.
 Exitium, n, neu. ge. deathe oꝝ mischief, destruction, A pitiousse oꝝ cruell ende.
 Esse exitium alicui, to be ones deathe oꝝ destruction.
 Exitus, exitus, m. g. a going forth, an issue, an end.
 Exitus hominis, the deathe of a man.
 Exitus anni, the later ende of the yere.
 Exitus orationis fuit, The conclusion of his wordes was this.
 Aqua exitum reperit, the water hath founde an issue.
 Quem exitum res habitura sit non liquet, It is vncertayne what ende oꝝ issue the matter will haue.
 Contigit exitus quem optamus, it is come to passe as we woulde haue it.
 Imponere exitum rei, to make an ende of a thyng.
 In exitu est, it is at an issue oꝝ ende.
 Ex iure manu consertum vocare, was a forme of contention for lande in this wyle. The demaundant sayed before the iudge to the tennant, The lande, whiche is in S, is mine, I saye it is myne by the lawe, I requyre the, trie it therewith me accordynge to the lawe. The tennant answered: from whens thou hast requyred me to trie with the by the lawe: thens I doe cōfession appeale. Than went they together to the place in demaunde, to the entent, that they shoulde bying with them a pyse of the same grounde to the iudge in the citee, & in his pꝛesence to demaunde and answer as for the whole lande whyche was in contention.
 Exiuro, aui, are, to auowe with an othe.

Exlex, legis, com. gene. he that liueth without lawe, or out of lawe; lawlesse, an outlaw.
 Exloquor, eris, qui, to speake as it is, to speake all, to speake out.
 Exobsecro, aui, are, to make great desyre.
 Exoculto, p[ri]uily.
 Exoche, ches, f, g. excellencie.
 Exoculatus, a, um, whose eyes he put out.
 Exoculasso, aui, flere, idem quod Exoculo.
 Exoculo, aui, are, to put out ones eyes.
 Exodia, orum, n. g. were wanton toyes myxte with verses in a comedie or enterlude.
 Exodium, ij, n. g. a songe at the ende of a comedie or enterlude, also the ende of a mattier.
 Nullum eius rei exodium inueniebam, I founde no ende of that mattier.
 Exolesco, exolui, and leui,lescere, to leaue growyng. Sometyme to growe myghtly, to waxe olde, to growe out of vse.
 Exoluit fauor, his fauour or estimation is lost.
 Instituta exolescunt, ordinaunces growe out of vse, and bee littell esteemed.
 Exolētus, a, um, that is pastre growyng. Also olde or out of vse.
 Verba exoleta, wordes out of vse.
 Authores exoleti, olde authours not vled to be redde.
 Reliqui domi virginem exoletam, I lefte at home an olde mayden.
 Exolētus, m. g. a man abused agaynst nature.
 Exoluo, ui, ere, to vnbynde, to paye all cletely, to recompence or geue in rewarde, to deliuer, to lose.
 Suspitione exoluere, to deliuer from suspicio.
 Exoluere religione, to discharge from bowe or conscience.
 Exoluere res alieum, to paye ones dettes.
 Exoluere grates, to requyte a good turne.
 Exoluere fidem, to fulfill that one hath promysed, to keepe promise.
 Exoluere promissum, idem.
 Exoluere penas, to be punished.
 Penas morte exoluere, to be put to death for any trespase.
 Exoluere aliquem solitudine, to deliuer one from carefulnesse and trouble of mynde.
 Vota exoluere, to accomplishe and fulfill that one hath vowed.
 Nodum alicuius erroris exoluere, to shewe the veray truth of a mattier.
 Exolūtus, a, um, lewled, vnbounde, vndwen.
 Exomida, x, f. g. a garment without sleues, a taberde or chymere.
 Exomphalon, that swelleth in the nauill by disease or inflammation.
 Exonero, aui, are, to discharge, to vnburden, to vnlode.
 Exonerare ventrem, to do ones easement.
 Plenas colos exonerare, to spinne of all that was on the distaffe.
 Exonerare aliquid in alicuius aurem, to tell one a thyng in his eare.

 Exonerare aliquem metu, to put one out of feare that he is in.
 Exonerare fidem, to accomplishe and fulfill ones promise.
 Exopinato, as one looked for.
 Exopolis, he that dwelleth in the suburbs of a towne or citee.
 Exopribilis, le, to be wished for or desyred.
 Exopratus, a, um, earnestly wished for, greatly desyred.
 Exopto, aui, are, to desyre feruently, or to wishe.
 Exorabilis, le, he that is easie to bee entreated in a mattier.
 Nulli exorabilis, he that no man can intreate.
 Exorabulum, li, n. g. a craftie fourme of desyryng or askyng a thyng.
 Exoratus, a, um, earnestly desyred, intreated.
 Exorbeo, es, bui, ere, to sup by, and by translacon to susteyne or endure.
 Exorbere difficultatem, to endure or abyde great payne.
 Exorbere sanguinem ciuilem, to suppe the bloude of citefins, to desyre in the cruell death of his countrey men.
 Exorbito, aui, are, to go out to the tracke or carter lose, or to go out of the ryght waye.
 Exorbo, aui, are, to make one that he can not see.
 Exorcismus, an adiuration or coniuring.
 Exorciso, aui, are, to adiuere or coniure.
 Exorcista, an adiurour or coniurer.
 Exordesco, loke Exfordesco.
 Exordine, without reasyng, in order one after another.
 Exordior, iris, iri, to begynne.
 Exordiri facinus, to begyn a great enterpryse.
 Exordium, ij, n. g. a begynnynge.
 Exordium dare, to begynne.
 Ducere exordium ab aliquo, to take his begynnynge of any thyng.
 Exorior, exoriris, or exoreris, iri, to be bozne, to appere out, to rise as the sonne dweth, to inuade, to assaut or set vpon, to be recreated.
 Dies exoritur, the daye appeareth.
 Discordia exoritur, discorde ariseth.
 Fama exoriebatur, a rumour or byute bydde spyng.
 Exoria sunt hæc omnia a te, all these thynges beganne at you, or you beganne all these matters.
 Exoritur illi color, he waxeth ruddie.
 Rex exortus est Lidyæ, he became kynge of Lidyæ.
 Exornatio, onis, f. g. a deckyng or trymmyng, garnyshe or apparailing. Also a colour of Rhes tozike.
 Exornator, oris, m. g. he that decketh.
 Exornatus, a, um, garnyshe, richely apparaild.
 Exorno, aui, are, to garnyshe or make fayre, to apparayle richely, to ordeyne, sometime to make foule or out of apparayle.

Exornare, & deformare, contrary.
 Exornare se honestis moribus, to garnyſhe him ſelfe with honeſt maners.
 Exornare aliquem magistratu, to geue a man an offyce.
 Exoro, aui, are, to induce or obtayne by deſyre, to deſire heartly, to entreate, to bring to conſortitee.
 Exorare veniam, to aſke pardone.
 Non queo lachrymam exorare, I can not gette a teare out of mine eyes by any meanes.
 Exorare aliquid ab aliquo, and Exorare ali-quem, to obtayn of one a thyng that he deſyret.
 Sine te exorem illis hanc veniam, let me ob-tayne this pardone for them, or forgeue them
 this offence for my ſake.
 Exorare filia patrem, to entreate the father to forgeue his daughter.
 Vnum exorare vos ſinite nos, let vs obtayne of you this one thyng.
 Mihi exorandus eſt, I muſte entreate hym.
 Exors, oris, om. g. out of ſelowſhypp, not parte taker, ſometyme excellent.
 Exors culpa, faultleſſe, not gyltee.
 Exors amicitia, not partener of the friendsſhypp or amitte.
 Exors matrimonij, he that was neuer married.
 Exorſa, orum, begynnynge.
 Exorſus, a, um, that beginneth.
 Exorſus, us, m. g. a begynnynge.
 Exortiuus, a, um, that pertayneth to rylſynge, on the eaſt parte.
 Exortus, a, um, that is ryſen, or that appeareth.
 Exortus, us, m. g. a rylſynge.
 Exortus ſolis, the ſonne rylſynge.
 Exos, oſſis, om. g. without bones.
 Exoſſatus, a, um, that hath the bones plucked out or broken.
 Exoſculatio, onis, f. g. a kyſſynge.
 Exoſcutor, aris, ari, to kyſſe.
 Exoſſo, aui, are, to bone or plucke out bones, to breake the bones of any thyng. Alſo to pull out the ſtryng of a lympe.
 Exoſtopes, the ſuperfluitee of certayne bones.
 Exoſus, a, um, actiuelly, that hateth or deteſteth,
 paſſiuely, that is hated or deteſted.
 Exoticus, a, um, ſtraunge, that cometh or is brought out of an other countrey.
 Expalleo, lui, ere, to be pale.
 Expallio, aui, are, to robbe one of his garments,
 to plucke ones garment from his backe.
 Expalpo, aui, are, to grope out, to gette or obtain a thyng by fayze meanes or by flatterie.
 Expanditor amnis, a riuer that floweth abrode.
 Expando, di, ere, to ſpreade out, to open as a floure doeth, to diſplaye.
 Expandere dictis, To open, and declare in
 wordes.
 Expandunt alaſ aues, The byrdes open and ſpreade abrode theyr wynges.
 Expango, panxi, ere, to ordein or appoynt, to ſet or faſten.

Expapillo, aui, are, to make naked to the paye.
 Expallus, a, um, opened, ſpreade abrode.
 Expator, aris, ari, to wander, to walke abrode,
 to ſpreade farre abrode.
 Expatriatus, a, um, that ſpreadeth, walketh, or floweth farre abrode.
 Expato, expatas, aui, are, to come abrode or in-
 to an open place.
 Expatrio, expatras, aui, are, idem quod patriare.
 Expauco, expaues, paui, ere, and Expauſco, ſcere, to be ſore aſtayed or abaſhed.
 Expauere nouitatem, to feare the noueltie or ſtraungenes of a thyng.
 Ad tumultum aliquem expauere, To bee aſ-frayd whan one heareth of tumulte or ruiſynge.
 A primo conſpectu eius expauſcunt, They were aſtayed as ſone as they ſawe hym.
 Expectare, the aduerbe.
 Expectare venis, thou comelt euen as I would haue the.
 Expectatio, onis, f. g. deſyre of thynges cer-tayne and lohed for, expectation.
 Plenus ſum expectatione, I greatly longe or deſyre to knowe.
 Contra omnium expectationem, contrary to the expectation of all men, otherwiſe than any man lohed for.
 In ſummam expectationem adducere, to put one in great expectation, to make one loke er-neſtly for a thyng.
 Crebras expectationes ſui facere, concitare, commouere, to make men loke oftentymes for his comynge.
 Summa eſt expectatio tui, They doe greatly deſyre you, and loke for your comynge.
 Dare alicui expectationem conuiuij, to make one hope or loke for. &c.
 Vereor vt amicorum expectationem ſuſtinere poſſem, leſt I be not hable to ſatiſſie or fulſyll the expectation. &c.
 Decipere expectationē alicuius, To fruſtrate ones expectation.
 Mouere expectationem, to make deſpyous.
 Vincere expectationem omnium, To doe moze than any man dyd loke for.
 Expectatus, a, um, deſpyed, taried and lohed for.
 Expectati parentes, were pll parentes & woꝝ-thy to bee hated, as who ſaith, their death were daily to be deſpyed.
 Charus & expectatus.
 Expectatiſſimæ literæ, letters berate greatly deſpyed.
 Ante expectatum, ſodenlye, ſoner than men lohed for.
 Expecto, aui, are, to tarie or abyde lohyng for,
 to obſerue or take heede, to hope, to feare leſſe a thyng wyll folowe.
 Expecto quid velis, I long, or I would fayne knowe, what your wyll, mynde, or pleaſure is, or elles I deſyre to knowe what you would.
 Expectabo dum venis, I wyll tarie and loke for hym tyll he come.

Expectemus Tartesiorum regis ætatem, let vs hope to lyue as long as euer dyd the kynge of the Tartesians.

Diem ex die expectabam, I dyd loke still euery daye.

Mortem alicuius expectare, to hope euerye houre for ones death.

Expectare te arbitror, I thynke you do desyre to knowe.

Ad mensem Ianuarium te expecto, I loke for you at Januarie.

Expectoro, aui, are, to put out of the breste of stomache.

Expeculatus, he that hath nothyng of his owne.

Expedio, expedis, iui, ire, to deliuer, to speede, to cary out, to declare of shewe, to tell shortlye and in fewe wordes, to ryd or dispatche, to bring one out of trouble. Sometyme to appoynte, to bypunge forth. Also to make preparance or provision, to set in a redynesse.

Expedit manus, to holde by hys handes.

Expedit virgas iubet, he commandeth rodde to be brought forth.

Expedit se omni molestia, to dispatche and rydde hym selfe of all grieve and trouble.

Aditum expedit, to make away to enter.

Causam alicuius rei expedit, to shewe the cause of any thyng.

Merces expedit, to set abrode waares.

Nodum expedit, to vndoe a knot, to dissolue a doubt, to dispatche an harde mattier.

Pecuniam expedit, to fynde meanes to gette money.

Expedit rem suam iudicibus, to proue his mattier good befoze the iudges.

Ad bellum expediti iubet, he commaundeth theim to be in a redynesse for the warres.

Expedit rerum capita, declare the principall poyntes of the mattier.

Expedit ferrum, to draw a sword.

Nomina alicuius expedit, to contente ones creditours, to pay his dettes.

Expeditas me hinc, te rogo, I praye you dispatche me that I maye be gone.

Expedit panem, bypunge forth bread.

Aggere & craibus aditus expediunt, they make wayes to goe to it.

Alimenta arcu expedit, to gette his bypunge by his boe: to kylle suche beastes as he will eate, with his boe.

Expedit se ad prælium, to addresse and make hym selfe in a redynesse to battayle.

Si ita expedit, If it bee needefull or expediente so to be doen.

Expedit rationes, to dispatche matters.

Expedit rem, to declare the mattier plainely.

Expedit se cura, to discharge hym selfe of care. Expedit, tell on quickly.

Expedito, for Expediam.

Expedit, signifieth also It is expedient, or nescessarie. It is come to passe.

Expeditum erat, it was expedient, or rather, It was a shoyte and redie waye.

Expedit, quickly, easly, without cumbrance.

Expedit navigare, to sayle forth prosperously and with a good wynde.

Expeditio, õis, f. g. a setting forth towards battayle, an expedition, a viage.

Expeditus, a, um, deliuered, dispatched out of busynesse, redie, in a readynesse, not letted, easly, some prouided and gotten.

Expediti milites, souldiours in lycht harnays.

Expeditus & paratus, one wel appoynted, and in a redynesse.

Expeditum facere, to ridde out of busynesse and trouble.

Expedita excusatio, a redie excuse.

Expeditum iter, free passage in a mans iourney without cumbrance.

Expedita legio, expeditus exercitus, Expedita subsidia, wherein be souldiours in lycht harnays, and easly to be remoued.

In expedito posuim, In a redynesse, easly to be doen.

Expeditus labor, an easly labour.

Expeditior via ad honores, a moze ready waie to honour and aduancement.

Expello, expuli, lere, to expell or put out, to drive awaye.

Expellere in opus, to drive out to worke.

Expellere bonis & fortunis omnibus, to put men from theyr gooddes and all that euer they haue.

Expellere sententiam, to reiecte a sentence or opinion.

Expellere aliquem regno, to drive one out of his kyngdome.

Expendo, di, ere, to ponder or weygh, to consydre, to examine streightly, to pay truely, to spende moneye.

Expendere scelus, To be punished iustly for his offence.

Pœnas expendere, to be punished.

Expendere & aestimare, to pondre and weight.

Expendere aurum auro, To weyghthe golde with golde.

Expendant se ipsi, let theym consydre theym selues diligently.

Expensum, sign. g. or Expensa, æ, expense or dispense, coste.

Expensum ferre, to registre in a booke what moneye one hath deliuered or layed forth.

Expensum ferre, is not onely spoken of laieing out money, but also of other workes, as, Mensio facta est de legione ea, quam expensam tulit C. Casari Pompeius, mencion was made of the legion, whiche Pompei sayed he had deliuered to Cesar.

Creditores suæ negligentiae expensum ferre debent, The creditours ought to beare the losse, whiche is happened by theyr negligence.

Codex

Codex accepti & expensi, a rekenyng booke.
 Ne tu expensum muneribus feras, That you should not intitle or write it among your gifts.
 Fortunæ omnia expensa, omnia fortunæ fe-runtur accepta, what so euer good or euill chaunceth, is imputed wholly to fortune, or they saye, that fortune is cause of it.
 Expensus, a, um, wepyghed, pondered, consydered.
 Expergescio, gēfacis, scēi, facere, to awake one out of his sleepe.
 Expergesctus, a, um, waked out of sleepe by an other.
 Expergesio, factus sum, fieri; idem quod Expergiscor.
 Expergiscor, eris, experrectus sum, sci, to as-wake.
 Cum sole experrectus, he that awaketh at the sonne rysyng.
 Somno experrectus, wakyng out of sleepe.
 Expergitus, a, um, waked by an other.
 Expergo, experrexi, expergere, to waken. idem quod Expergescio: Expergor, the passyue.
 Experge te, awake.
 Experge te facias, idem.
 Expergo, spersi, gere, to spynelle with licour.
 Experrectus, a, um, that awaketh him selfe, quie-kened, sterred.
 Experiens, riens, an adiectiue, that ttieth or proueth.
 Experiensissimus homo, a man of great experience, or that beth to proue or tye matiers with great diligence.
 Experimentum, ti, n, g. an experiment or pofe.
 Capere experimentum, to proue or tye.
 Experiētia, æ, f. g. experience.
 Experiō, iris, iri, to attempt or assaye, to proue,
 to trie by the lawe.
 Experiri ad arborem cornua, to trie his hoys
 hes agaynst a tree.
 Experiri in patuis, To assaye in littell matters
 of small value.
 Experiri re ipsa, to proue the thyng in deede.
 Experiri certamen, to fight, to ioyne battayle, to assay the halsarde of battayle.
 Experiri fortunam, to put in aduenture and proue what wyl chauce.
 Experire, in Plautus is vled for Experiri.
 Experiri iure, To trie for ones ryghte by the lawe.
 Vires suas experiri, to assay what he is hable to dooe.
 Extrema experiri, to vse the extreakie remedie,
 to put all in halsarde.
 Te experior quanti facias vxorem, I tye the how muche thou doest loue thy wyfe.
 Expertum est, it is tried by experience.
 Ad experiunda vicia, To assaye whether the wyne be good or no.
 Expers, eris, om. g. without any parte, lacking experience, rude, ignorant.

Expers doloris, without payne.
 Expers lucis, without lyght.
 Expers mortis, neuer dyng.
 Expers corporis, that hath no bodie.
 Ne quis expers tuæ liberalitatis fieret, That euery man myght be partetaker of your lyberallites.
 Expers consilij, that knoweth not what to doe.
 Expers linguæ græcæ, that hath no knowlage in the greeke tongue.
 Expers amoris gnati, not knowyng that his sonne was in loue.
 Laboris expers, that dweth not labour and tra-uayle.
 Expers fama & fortunis, he that hath loste his credite and all his goodes.
 Expers metus, or metu, with out feare.
 Expersus, a, um, spoyng with lycons or weate.
 Expertus, a, um, attempted, taught by experience,
 that hath proued or tried.
 Expertus loquor, I speake that I haue experience of.
 Sagittæ expertus, a good archer.
 Experta prodimus, wee shew thynges that be proued and tyled.
 Expertæ industriz homo, a man whose dillgence is well knownen and tried.
 Expes, om. g. without hope.
 Expetendus, a, um, worthy to be despyed.
 Expetessio, sere, to demaunde or despye.
 Expetisco, scere, to despye vehemently.
 Expetitus, a, um, despyed greatly.
 Expeto, experis, tiui, or ti, ere, to despye muche or couete, to happen, to wylle, sometyne to take to passe ouer. Also to pursue or indeuout to gette, as,
 Mirum quin tuum ius meo periculo expe-tam, it is meruayle but I shall endeuour to get thy ryght with my great daunger. It is also to redounde or tourne.
 Nam deum non par videtur facere, delictum suum, suamq; culpam expetere in mortalem vt sinat, it is not fyttyng for god to do, that he shoulde suffer his offence or faulte to redounde to a mortall persone.
 Expetam alterum præ te, I wil despye an other rather then the.
 Audire expeto, I greatly despye to heare.
 Expetitur vnguentis radix asphalathi, It is greatly despyed and sought for to make oynes
 mentes.
 Expetit tuam ætatem illud facere, thyne age
 requireth to dooe it.
 Expetunt multa iniqua, many vnhappy thynges
 ges chauncen.
 Primum hoc abs te expeto, fyrste of al I despye
 this thyng of you.
 Expetere ab aliquo auxilium, to require one to helpe hym.
 Penas ab aliquo expetere, To require one to make satisfaction.

Expiabilis, le, that maye bee purged, or for the whyche satisfaction maye be made.
 Expiamentum, ii, neut. gen. satisfaction, or a purgation.
 Expiatio, ónis, f. g. a purgynge or satisfiynge.
 Expilatio, ónis, f. g. a robbynge or pollynge.
 Expilator, óris, ma. g. a robber, whiche leaueth nothyng behynde hym.
 Expilatus, a, um, pylled, robbed.
 Expilo, aui, are, to robbe or polle, to take by extorcion or decepte, to spoyle.
 Expingo, expinxi, ere, to pepnet, to pepnet out.
 Expio, expias, aui, are, to pacifie god with satisfaccion or prayer, whan we thynke he is displeased, to purge by sacrifice.
 Tua scelera diu immortales in nostros milites expiauerunt, god hath punished our men of armes for thyne offences.
 Expiare iniuriam, to make satisfaction or amendes for iniurie that is done.
 Luxum populi expiare solent bella, warres are wont to chastice and punishe the riotous luyng of the people.
 Eadem eade expiare, with one murder to make satisfaction for an other.
 Exp ratio, ónis, f. g. a bzeathynge out.
 Expiro, aui, are, to bzeath out, to dye, to geue vp the gost.
 Expirare animam, to die.
 Flammæ expirare, To caste or send out great flames.
 Expirante libertate, whan the libertie began to decaye and perishe.
 Expirare auras, to cast forth exhalacions or vapours.
 Expiscor, áris, ari, to seeke for fysh, to fysh out or serche diligently, to get or wyne.
 Tandem nescio quid ab eo expiscatur, finallye I can not tell what he winneth or getteth by hym, or what he trusteth to haue of hym.
 Expisso, aui, are, to make thyeke.
 Explanare, playnly, manifestly.
 Explanatio, ónis, f. g. a declaration, or makinge manifeste.
 Explanator, óris, m. g. one that interpreteth or maketh playne a thyng.
 Explanatus, a, um, declared, expounded.
 Explano, aui, are, to make plaine, to declare, to make manifeste, to expounde.
 Explanare verba, to pronounce distinctly and playnely.
 Explanto, aui, are, to pull vp that whiche is set.
 Explendescio, scere, to appere clerely, to shine, to shyne bryght.
 Expleo, cui, ere, to fyll, to fyll, to fyll vp.
 Also to faciate, to coforte, to make perfect, to accomplishe, to content, sometyms to make emptye or voyde.
 Exple animum curis, put all care out of thy mynde, or fyll thy mynde with cares.
 Exple aliquem scribendo, To satisfie and fyll one with wrytyng letters to him.

 Explere animum suum, to doe his owne pleasure, to fyll his owne mynde.
 Explere animum alicui, to content ones mynde.
 Explere annos ducentos, To lyue full two hundred yeres.
 Supremum diem expleuit, he died, he ended his laste daie.
 Susceptum munus explere, to fyll a charge that one hath taken vpon hym.
 Numerum explere, to fyll by the numbze.
 Famem explere, To satisfie or synit ones hunger. Iphetysse Situm explere.
 Libidinem suam explere, To do and accomplishe his pleasure.
 Rimas explere, to stop and fyll by chynkes.
 Quod summam talenti attici expletet, which was of the iust value of a talent.
 Explebilis, le, that maye be fylled.
 Explementum, ii, n. ge. a thyng that fylleth vp.
 Explatio, ónis, form. gen. a fyllynge, a makinge perfect.
 Explatus, a, um, fylled vp, perfecte, accomplished, atchiued, finished, also replenished.
 Spectando explatus, satisfied, filled.
 Dapibus expletus, filled, replenished.
 Explicabilis, le, that may be declared.
 Explicare, playnely, manifestly.
 Explicatio, ónis, f. g. an unfoldinge, a declaration, an expounding.
 Explicator, óris, m. g. an expounder or declarer.
 Explicatrix, the feminine.
 Explicatus, us, mas. g. a declaration, an unfoldinge.
 Explicatus crurum, a castynge of the legges one from an other.
 Explicatus, a, um, declared, made manifeste, unfolded, dispatched, brought to passe.
 Explico, explicas, plicui, and aui, are, to extend, to unfold, to displaye, to declare, to tell or shewe a thyng playnely, to deliuer, to rydde out of trouble, to byng to passe, to dispatche or make an ende of.
 Explicat ensem, he draweth out his sworde.
 Explicat & cenas vnica mensa duas, he maketh two suppers at one table.
 Explicat caudam pauo, doth sette abroade his tayle.
 Cursum explicare citatis gradibus, to renne apase.
 Explicat vmbram porticus, maketh abroade shadowe.
 Explicare prouintiam cinctam periculis, to deliuer.
 Explica æstum meum, putte me out of this fantasie or doubt.
 Explicat acies, agmen, vel exercitum imperatores, whan they in an open fildes set their souldiours in aray, redy to battell.
 Explicare alas, to spredde and open the winges.
 Explicare naues, to set shippes in an order by to fight. Explicare epistolam, to open a letter.

 Iter commodè explicui, I haue prosperously atchieued and made an end of my iorney.
 Explicatum tibi rem dabo, I wyl dispatche the matrice for you.
 Da operam, vte explices, endeavour to ryd and dispatche you selfe out of businesse.
 Explicare, & expedire negotium aliquod, to rydde and dispatch a matter.
 Explicitus, a, um, unfolded, declared, made an ende of, dispatched.
 Explicitius, the comparatiue.
 Explôdô, plôsi, ère, to dyue out with noyse of res
 bukes, of clapping of handes.
 Explorare, for a suttie, for a certaintie.
 Explorari, after it was serched or tryed.
 Explorator, ôris, m. g. an espie of priuie ser cheout.
 Exploratus, a, um, well knowne, of suretye knowne.
 Exploratum est mihi, I knowe surely, I am sure. Exploratum habeo, idem.
 Explôro, aui, are, to bewaile with exclamation, to assay, to serche out diligently, to proue by di ligent sercheing, to be aduised, to trye by, to re haust, to espie.
 Amenta explorare in digitis, to assay, to proue,
 to trie &c.
 Animum alicuius explorare, to proue ones
 mynde, to thende to know it.
 Taurus cornua explorat in truncis, doth as say of proue his hoznes &c.
 Explorare fugam, to serch and loke for a mean to flee.
 Gustu explorare bonitatem panis, to taste, to assay &c.
 Exploratum dicere, to speake that he hath tris
 ed to be true.
 Explosus, a, um, conuicted or reiected, dyuen out of the place with clapping of handes.
 Expôliô, aui, are, to spoyle or robbe.
 Expôlio, expolis, iui, lire, to polithe well and cleanly, to make smoothe and trymme, to make perfite.
 Expolire vnguium scabritias, to trimme and make smoth.
 Nihil omni ex parte perfectum natura expô liuit.
 Expolitio, onis, f. g. a polithyng, a trymmyng.
 Expolitus, a, um, polithed, made smoothe, cleanly and trymme.
 Expôno, sui, ere, to expounde or declare, to put a thyng out of that, wherein it is. Sometime to caste out a thyng, to the entente that it maye pe rythe, to sette forth at aduventure, also to spende, to sette forth to be shewed, to laye out, sometime to paye money.
 Exponere in terram copias, to land an armie.
 Exponere scenum in sole, to laye abrode heye in the sonne.
 Exponere vasa, to set abrode plaate on cups

bourdes to be stene.
 Exponam vobis ex memoria, or memoriter,
 I wyl declare to you by herte.
 Verboſius exponere, to declare a thyng in ma ny wordes.
 Expopulatio, ônis, f. g. a wastyng or spoylyng.
 Expopulor, âris, ari, to waste, to spoyle, to rob.
 Expôrrigo, exi, ere, to extende or stretche out,
 sometime to prolonge.
 Expôrrigere frontem, to shew a merie counte nance, to be pleasant and iocunde.
 Exportatio, onis, a bearyng out, a conueyng or carryng out, also exile or banishment.
 Exporto, aui, are, to beare or carie out.
 Exportauit Syracusis magnam vim mellis, he caried out of. &c.
 Exposco, posci, poscere, to aske or desyre ins tantly.
 Exposcere deos aliquid, to desyre a thyng in stantly of the goddes.
 Exposcere aliquem, to require one to be deli
 uered into our handes to be punished.
 Expôſiti, children caste out to be perished.
 Expôſitio, ônis, f. g. an expôſicion or declara tion of any thyng difficult or hard to be vnder stande, also carryng out of a thyng to halarde or daunger.
 Expôſitus, a, um, that is layed out to the intente it shoulde perishe. also set out, set abroade, open to all chaunces, in daunger, declared.
 Expôſita prouintia ad prædandum, a prouince in daunger to be spoyled and robbed.
 Expôſitus ſolibus locus, a place open vpon the sonne.
 Expôſtulario, ônis, f. g. a quarell or complaynt.
 Expôſtulator, tôris, m. g. he that complayneth of wronge down by his frende.
 Expôſtulo, aui, are, to complayne, to make a quas cell, to chyde with one for a thyng, to demaunde, to requyre, to wyl.
 Cum eo ne iniuriam hanc expôſtulem? Is se best that I chide with hym, or take hym by for this displeasure or note.
 Minaciter expôſtulare, to take one by sharple for a thyng that he hath down.
 Expôſtulare computationem, to demaunde a reckenyng.
 Expôſtus, a, um, idem quod Epotus.
 Expresse, manifestly, playnly.
 Expresse dicere, to speake properly and to the point.
 Expresſio, ônis, f. g. a strepyng.
 Expresſus, a, um, expresse, manifest, lyuely made,
 taken by force.
 Expressa senatus consulta, ordinances obtey
 ned of the senatours by force.
 Expressa sceleris vestigia, manifest and appa rant tokens of the mischiefe.
 Expressa in cera imago, the likenesse of a thyng printed in waxe.
 Exprimô, exprimis, expresſi, mere, to presse oz wyngne out, to make to doe by force, to con-straine, to wyngne out by force, to expresse, to portray, to draw. also to resemble, to be lyke, to describe.

Deinde perlintea exprimuntur, Afterwarde
they be streyned thorough a clothe.
Eripiendum atq; exprimendum est, it muste be taken and wrested away by force.
Vilachrymas exprimere, to wrest out teares violently by rubbing the eyes.
Expressit hoc necessitas patribus, necessitie constrayned the senators to doe this.
Exprimere confessionē culpæ, To confesseigne one to confesse that he hath offended.
Exprimere risum alicui, to make one to laugh
whether he wyll oz no.
Vocem exprimere, to make speake by force.
Exprimere & reddere aliquem, to doe lyke
one.
Similitudinem palatii hæc domus exprimit,
is like.
Exprimere per aures sanguinem, To make bludde come out. &c.
Exprimere perlinteum, to streine through a linnen cloth.
Exprimere animam, To yelde the gooste and dye with great difficultee.
Exprimere effigiem alicuius, To portraye oz
drawe out ones picture.
Exprimit similitudinem, it resemblith oz it is
lyke.
Versibus exprimere, to peincte oz describe in verses.
De græcis literis ad verbum exprimere, to translate out of greke, worde for worde. lykewise Verbum de verbo.
Vt græci magis exprimunt, as the grekes doe
expresse oz signifie more naturally.
Exprobratio, onis, a reproche, a twytinge, an upbraidynge.
Exprobro, exprobas, aui, are, to upbraid, to twyte. Also to laye in reproche. Sometyme to resecte oz disallowe.
Non exprobrandi causa dicam, I wyll not speake it for any reproche vnto you.
Catonis orationes exprobrant callem aprugnum, Catos oracions reproue oz disallow brawne.
Expromissor, ôris, m. g. he that promisseth, oz is suretee for an other.
Expromitto, si, ere, to promise oz undertake for
an other.
Expromo, prompsi, ere, to shew forth oz open,
to speake, to vtter.
Expromere nummos, to take out money.
Audatius expromam, I wyll vtter oz speake more boldly.
Expromitur, is shewed, oz is imploied.
Expromptus, a, um, taken out, shewed abroad.
Opus est mihi tua exprompta memoria, I muste needes haue the shewe thy good and redy

witte.
Expugnabilis, le, praignable, that may be wonne
by assaut, that maye be vanquished.
Expugnatio, ônis, f. g. conquerynge oz winnyng.
Expugnator, ôris, m. g. a conquerour.
Expugnator pudicitie, a ruffian.
Expugnatus, a, um, conquered, won by assaut, ouercome.
Expugno, aui, are, to wyne by assaut oz force,
to conquer, to ouercome, to vanquish.
Expugnare aurum alicui, by translation, to get money from one by craft and gyle.
Expugnare carcerem, to bryake prison.
Expugnare fortunas patrias alicuius, to thrust a man wrongfully from his heritage, and take it to hym selfe.
Expugnare propositum alicuius frequenti expostulatione, by great suete and intreatynge to cause one to leaue his purpose.
Expugnare pudicitiam puellæ, by gyftes and other meanes to wynn a mayden to leudnesse.
Expulsi, with often beatynge out,
Expugnare pertinaciam alicuius, to ouercomto vanquish. &c.
Expulsio, ônis, f. gen. an expelling oz put-tyng forth.
Expulso, aui, are, to meue a thyng with muche thrustynge, oz to put awaye.
Expulso, ôris, m. g. one that expelleth oz put-teth awaye.
Expulsus, a, um, expelled, thrust out, put awaye.
Expultrix, the feminine.
Expumo, aui, are, to caste out some.
Expuncti, were souldiours discharged oz put out of wages.
Expungo, punxi, ere, to put awaye oz remoue, to put out a word or sentence in wytyng, with pyckynge it rounde about, after the ancient maner, sometyme to prycke, to crosse out.
Expungere nomen debitoris, To put a dettours name out of his booke, to crosse the title of his dette.
Expungere rationes, to here and examyne an acompte.
Stipendij expungere militem, to put a souldiour out of wages, to crosse hym oute of the rolle, wherein they names were wytten that re-ceyued wages.
Expungere nonnunquam significat pungere.
Expungor, eris, gi, to be cancelled and put out, oz rased. It is also spoken of iudges whan they are put out of comission. it is also to quitte: as, Munus munere expungitur, one good turne is quitte with an other.
Expuitio, ônis, f. g. a spettyng forth.
Expuo, expuis, ui, ere, to spet out, to voyde out,
to cast out.
Cum illam expueret ex animo miseriam, whan
he woulde caste that trouble and carefulnesse out of hys minde.
Expurgatio, ônis, f. g. a purgeynge oz makynge cleane

cleane of a thyng.
Expurgo, aui, are, to make all cleane.
Expurgare se, to declare him selfe innocent of that whiche is laid to hym, to purge of cleane ones selfe of a fault.
Expurgationem habere, idem.
Exputo, exputas, aui, are, to treade or loppe a tree, to rutter cleane away. Also to vnderstande perfectly, to coniecte, to imagine or deaple in ones mynde.
Exputresco, putruui, scere, to rotte.
Exquilix, arum, a mountayne in Rome, where watche was kepte.
Exquilus, or Exquilinus mons, the same mountayne.
Exquilus, or Exquilinus, a, um, of the hyll Exquilix.
Exquiro, exquisiui, ere, to serche or trie oute, to enquire diligently, to demaunde or aske.
Intro exquire, sit ne ita, vt ego dico, go aske within, whether it be as I say or not.
Quod meum consilium exquiris, in that you desyre to know my counsaile or aduise.
Exquirere facta alicuius ad antiquæ religionis rationem, to examyne.
Omnia verba alicuius sententiæ exquirere, to examine and ponder. &c.
Exquirere a stirpe, to enquire of a matter euen from the very roote or begynnyng.
Exquirere iudicium alicuius, to demaunde of ones iudgemente.
Exquirere mores alicuius, to make enquire of ones maners.
Precium alicuius rei exquirere, to demaunde and aske the pryce of a thyng.
Exquisite, and Exquisitum, exquisitely, with muche studie and diligence.
Exquisitus, a, um, exquisite, muche serched for, picked, singular, excellent, deintie, fyne, perfitte.
Exquisito opus est, it must be looked for.
Exquisite epulæ, deintie meates.
Iudicio exquisito vir, a man of exquisite and exacte iudgement.
Exquisita doctrina philosophus, of singular or excellent learnyng.
Exquisita ingenia, extellent, fyne and picked wittes.
Exradico, aui, are, to plucke vp by the roote.
Exrogo, exrogas, aui, are, with a newe lawe to abrogate parte of the lawe that was made before.
Exsacrifico, aui, are, to offer in sacrifice.
Exsatio, looke Exanio.
Exsaturo, aui, are, looke Exaturo.
Exscribo, scripsi, ere, to write out, sometyme to represent and be very lyke.
Exscensus, us, m. g. a climbyng out, a commyng forth, as one commeth forth of a shippe to lande.
Exscindo, looke Excindo.
Exsibilo, looke Exibilo.

Exsicco, looke Exicco.
Exsignare, idem quod Signare.
Exsordesco, sordui, scere, to become spithy and dishonest.
Expumo, looke Expumo.
Exsugo, looke Exugo.
Extā, oram, neu. gen. plu. the inwardes, as the herte, the lyuer, the longes or lightes, and the spleane.
Extabesco, tabui, scere, to weare or pyne away, to become drie, to consume.
Extabit opinio, that opinion is worne away and come to naught.
Extemplo, forthwith.
Extemporalis, le, sodaine, vnpremeditate.
Extemporalitas, atis, f. g. a promptnes or redinesse without meditation or musyng.
Extemporaneus, a, um, sodayne withoute musyng.
Extemporaneus, & Extemporalis oratio, an oration of matter written without studie.
Extendo, di, ere, to extende, to stretche out, to continue, to pprolonge, to make longer.
Extendere in proceritatem, to stretche vp in height.
Extendere consularum, to pprolonge ones consullthp.
Extenderem preces nisi, &c. I woulde entreate you longer, laueyng. &c.
Ibi suam ætatem extendebat, there he dyd beslow and spende his time.
Extendere se supra vires, to assaile or enter pryse more than he can dooe.
Extenditur in maiorem partem noctis subsolanus, continueth or abydeyth. &c.
Extendere agros, to gette greate landes, or to enlarge his landes greatly.
Extendere famam, to make his fame be spred farther abzoade.
Extendere iter, to make a greate iourney.
Extendere se magnis itineribus, to aduance and marche forthwarde by greate iurneys.
Vitam extendere, to pprolonge ones lyfe.
Extensus, and Extentus, a, um, stretched longe.
Extensus sonus, an hygh and shrill soune.
Extenta itinera, great iournes.
Extento, aui, are to stretche often.
Extentare vires, to thyste out strength in doynyng of a thyng.
Extenuatio, onis, f. ge. a mahyng of a thyng lesse than it is, a diminishyng.
Extenuatus, a, um, made thynne, or skender, made lesse.
Extenuo, aui, are, to minishe or make litle, to eleuate, to make leane.
Extenuare & augere, contrarie.
Extenuare in puluerem, to make in powder or duste.
Vehementer causam extenuare, to diminishe and make a matter lesse than it is.
Extenuatur cibus dentibus, the meate is chawed.

wed with the teethe.
 Extenuatur, it weareth lesse and lesse.
 Extēdare corpus, To make the bodie leane and slender.
 Extenuare census ciuis, in lessyng to sette a citeisen at a lower summe.
 Exterāneus, a, um, looke Exterraneus.
 Extercorātor, ōris, m. g. one that carieth awaye dounge, a gounge farmer.
 Extercoro, aui, are, to cleanse, to auoyde dounge or ordure.
 Exterebro, aui, are, to perce throught. also to in ferche curiously.
 Extergeo, tersi, ēre, to wype cleane.
 Extergo, rōsi, ēre, idem.
 Exterminātor, ōris, m. g. one that destroyeth or casteth downe.
 Exterminātus, a, um, banished, driue out, put away.
 Extermino, aui, are, to driue out or pull downe, to banish, to driue away.
 Exterminare, & Reuocare, contrary.
 Exterminare ex hominum communitate, to cast out of the felowshyp or company of men.
 Exterminare morbum, to put away syknes.
 Externāus, a, um, altonied, made beside him self.
 Externo, aui, are, to make madde.
 Externus, a, um, whiche is not of that countrey, a straunger, an alien, outwarde.
 De parte externa, outwardly, on the out syde.
 Externa bona, outwarde woordes gooddes.
 Extero, extēris, triui, ēre, to beate oute, also to whet or grynde, to rubbe harde.
 Exterere literam, to put out a letter.
 Exterere messem, to thresh corne.
 Exterrāneus, of an other countrey. Also bozne or brought forth before the tyme.
 Exterrēo, ūi, ēre, to put in feare.
 Exterrītus, a, um, put in a great feare.
 Exterus, a, um, that whiche is not of this countrey or place, straunge, comen farre of.
 Exterfus, a, um, scoured, made cleane.
 Extexo, texui, ēre, to vnweaue.
 Extrillo, aui, are, to drop out.
 Extrillare lachrymis, to weepe, to consume with weeping.
 Extimeo, and Extimeſco, timui, ēre, and extimeſcere, to haue great feare, to dread muche.
 Estimulātor, ōris, m. gen. one that encourageth or stereth vp men to a thyng.
 Estimulātus, a, um, pricked, stered vp.
 Estimulo, aui, are, to picke, to stere vp, to encourage.
 Extimus, extrema, um, the outwardmoste or laste.
 Extinguo, xi, ēre, to put out, propely the fyre, or any thyng that bourneth or is lyght. sometyme it sygnifieth to slea or destroye, to abolyſhe: some tyme to make a distinction, or diuersitee betwene thynges.
 Extinguere animam alicui, to kyll or strayne gle to death.

 Extinguere bellum, to stynte the warre.
 Extinguere familiaritates, to brake and dissolue the love and familiaritee that is betwene menne.
 Extinguere formam, vtely to disgrace the fauour and beautee of one.
 Extinguere furorem alicuius, to suppress and abate the furie of any person.
 Extinguere infamiam suam, to stynte the infamie or yll name that goeth on him.
 Morbo extinguere, to make to die of a sickness.
 Oblivione extingui, To bee forgotten and cleane out of mynde.
 Leges extinguere, To abolyſhe and destroye lawes.
 Vestigia vrbis extinguere, so to subuerſe and destroy a citee, that no sygne of it may remayne.
 Extinctio, ōnis, f. m. gen. a puttyng out, a destroying, an abolyſhyng.
 Extinctor, ōris, m. g. a destroyer, one that stinseth or maketh an ende of a thyng.
 Extinctor patriæ, a destroyer of his countrey.
 Extinctor conuersionis, he that suppresseth a conspiracie.
 Extinctor belli, one that stinseth the warre, or that maketh therof an ende.
 Extirpatio, ōnis, f. m. gen. a plucking by the rootes.
 Extirpo, aui, are, to plucke by the rootes.
 Extirpare humanitatem ex animo, to plucke all humanitee and gentillesse oute of a mannes mynde.
 Extirpare vitia, to roote by vice and naughtynesse out of the common weale.
 Extispex, tispicis, m. g. a soothsayer by lookynge in the inwardes of beastes.
 Extispicium, ij, n. g. the craft of soothsaynge.
 Extantia, æ, f. g. apperance aboue the other.
 Extro, extiti, āre, neut. to be, to remayne, to be apparant, to appere aboue other.
 Extat capite solo ex aqua, he appereth with his head onely aboue the water.
 Ita vt extra terram paululum extent, so that they appere a littell aboue the grounde.
 Extat e terra sesquipedē, it is aboue the grounde a foote and an halfe.
 Extare & eminere;
 Extant libri, orationes, studia. &c. id est, subsistent. Extare & interdicere, contrary.
 Extat literis, it is lesse in wrytyng.
 Non extat alius author doctrinæ eius, there is none other authour of that learnyng.
 Dum id extabit, as longe as that shal continue.
 Extollo, extuli, tollere, to aduance or prayse, to extolle. also to lift vp, to prolong, to magnifie.
 Extollere liberos, to bynge vp chyldren.
 Extollere indignationem, to shew hym selfe to be greatly displeased.
 Extollat nuptias, Let him deferre or prolonge the the marriage.

Extollere onera in iumenta, to lisse by packes on brast's backs, to lode.

Extollere in maius, to make a thyng moze than it is.

Quem virtus extulit, eundem invidia deprimat, whom vertue hath auanced, &c.

Extorqueo, torſi, quere, to ſpnde out the trowth by tourmentes, to take away by force, to pluche away, to wrest from one by violence. also to put out of ioynte.

Exorare & extorquere, contrarie.

Exprimere & extorquere.

Errorrem alicui extorquere, to make one to know and hate the errorre that he was in.

Extorquere veritatem: to extorpe the trueth, to make one to confesse the trueth.

Extorsisti, vt fatear, you forced me to confesse it.

Extorsit articulum, he hath put a ioynte out of his place.

Extorſor, ōris, m. g. one that taketh from men by violence, an extorſioner.

Extorſis, ris, com. gene. is he that is made to voyde, or that is driven out of his countrey. also one that is excommunicated.

Extorſus, a, um, constrained by tourmentes. also wrested from one by violence.

Extra, without, except, sauynge.

Extra telorum iactum, out of arrow thotte, out of gunthome. It ſygmfieth out of daunger, or in saulſegarde.

Extra iocum, in earnest, without mochyng.

Extra precium est, it can not be valued or eſteemed. Extra culpam eſſe, not to be in the faute, to be faultleſſe.

Extra modum, aboue measure.

Extra ordinem, out of order.

Extra ostium, without the doozes.

Extra turbam colloqui, to commune togethet aparte, from other company.

Extra te vnum, onely you excepted, sauynge you onely.

Extra ducem paucosq; præterea, Sauynge the capitaine and a ſewer other beſyde.

Extra, an aduerbe: as,

Extra, ſimile eſt amigdalis, on the vtter parte it is lyke almondes.

Extra quam, ſoꝝ Niſi.

Extra quam, ſi quid factum ſit, &c. Excepte it be ſo that a thyng be dooen. &c.

Extractio, ōnis, f. g. a drawyng out.

Extractor, ōris, m. g. he that draweth out.

Extractorius, a, um, that hath the powze or nature to draw out.

Extractus, a, um, drawen out by force.

Extraho, extrahis, xi, here, to draw oute, to pꝛo longe, to deſerre, also to ridde or diſpatche.

Extrahere telum & corpore.

Extrahere ſcelus in lucem, to diſcouer, to reuele.

Extrahere ex animis religionem, to pluche out of. &c.

Extrahere diem, to put of a mattier from day to daye.

Extrahere certamen, to deſerre battayle.

Extrahere iudicium, to deſerre iudgement.

Quomodo me inde extraham, neſcio, I can not tell how I ſhould get my ſelfe from thens, or out of that buſyneſſe.

Extrahere in annum rem aliquam, to pꝛo long or delay a mattier a whole yere.

Extrahi rem in ſuum aduentu iuſſit, he com- maunded the mattier to be pꝛo longed vntill his comyng.

Extraneus, a, um, ſtrange, of an other countrey.

Extraneus haeres, he that is not the very heyre.

Extraordinarius, a, um, extraordinary, contrary to the ordinance, contrarie to the order or ſacion commonly vſed.

Extrarius, a, um, that is not of the ſame houſe or kinrede.

Extrēmitas, ātis, f. g. the extremitie or vttermoſt parte.

Ora & extremitas regionis, the frontiers and boundes of. &c.

Extremus, laſtely, in the ende, finally.

Extrēmus, a, um, ſometyme ſignifieth the beginnyng or the fyrſt. ſometyme the ende or the laſt. ſometyme the wooꝝke, also ſarre of.

Extrema linia, is ſpoken where a man woulde ſignifie a thyng to be laſt, and after all other.

Extremis digitis attingere, to rouche with the ſpynger toppes, is ſpoken, where it is ſygnified, that a man hath vnceth touched or felt a thyng.

Ab extremo narrare, to declare and ſhewe each from the begynnyng.

Extremus labor, the laſt labour.

In extremo ſpiritu, euen to the ſpyre of his deathe.

Halitus extremus, the laſt breath.

Hora extrema, the hour of deaſh.

Extremam manum addere, to finiſh, to make perfecte.

Extrema nox, the latter ende of the night.

Extrema pueritia, the latter ende of his chyld- hode.

Supplicium extremum, deaſh.

Durare in extremum, to continue to the ende.

In extremo tercio libro, in the latter ende of the thyrde booke.

Ad extremum, in the very toppes or ende. also at the laſt, finally.

Litteræ, quibus in extremis erat ſubſcriptum, a letter, in the ende whereof it was wꝛitten or ſubſcribed.

Extremum tunicæ, the hemme of a quote.

Extrema hyeme apparuit, it appeared in the latter ende of winter.

Extrico, tricas, aui, are, to deliuer or ſhake of any thyng that letteth.

Extri-

Extricare se, to ryd him selfe out of businesse.
 Extricare syluestrem agrum, to ryd and bushe
 a fiede from trees, thornes, and byers.
 Nummos vnde vnde extricare, to get money from one or an other how so euer it be.
 Extringo, xi, gere, idem quod Stringo.
 Extrinsecus, outwarde, on the oute syde, from without.
 Ex tripode, whan we speake of thynges, whiche are very true, and not to be doubted, as it were spoken of goddes owne mouth.
 Extritus, a, um, rubbed out.
 Extro, aui, are, to go out.
 Extrorsum, from without.
 Extrudo, si, ere, to thrust out, to dzyue out.
 Extrudere adibus, and Extrudere foras, to thzuke out at the dwores.
 Quam primum fac vt extrudas, See that you sende him forth with all speede, or as soone as you may.
 Extrudere aliquem, To make one to departe in haste.
 Extructio, onis, f. g. a buildyng vp.
 Extructus, a, um, buylded, made, garnyshed.
 Extruo, extruis, uxi, ere, to ordeyne, to buylde or set vp.
 Extruere & euertere, contrary.
 Extruere edificium in alieno, To buylde a house in an other mans grounde.
 Verba in numerum extruere, to couche and place wordes in order of certayne feete.
 Focum extruere lignis, to make a fire.
 Mensas extruere epulis, to garnishe the tables with good meates.
 Extruere stramenta in acervum, to laye vp strawe together in an heape.
 Cumulum extruere, to make an heape.
 Extruere rogam, to make a great fyre.
 Extuberatio, onis, f. gen. a swellng or ryling
 in the body.
 Extubero, aui, are, to swelle muche, to ryse vp lyke a botche, also actiuelv, to make to swell or ryse vp.
 Extumeo, extumes, and Extumesco, ui, scere,
 to swell or ryse vp.
 Extumidus, a, um, that swelleth or ryseth vp.
 Extundo, extrudi, ere, to fynde oute with muche labour, to gette out with payne, to obteyne by force. also with thumppng to make to swell.
 Exturbatus, a, um, thrust out, pulled vp by the rootes.
 Exturbo, aui, are, to put away, or to put oute or from a thyng by violence.
 Expellere atque exturbare.
 Exturbare homines a possessionibus, To thzuste men violentlye from theyr goodes and possessions.
 Exturbare spem pacis, to put away the hope of peace.
 Exturbare adibus, or ex adibus, to thzuste
 out of the house.

Vt istam exturbes ex animo aegritudinem,
 That you maye putte this passion out of your mynde.
 Exturbare mentem alicuius, to make one out of his witte.
 Exturbare spem pacis, to putte away all hope
 of peace.
 Exturbare calculos, to bzeake the stone in the bodie.
 Extulsire, to coughe out, to anoyde with coughe
 ynge.
 Exubero, aui, are, to abounde, looke Exhubero.
 Exuccus, a, um, without inpre or licour.
 Exudo, aui, are, to sende forth licour, to sweate oute.
 Humor exudar, the humour issueth oute like sweate.
 Exudare laborem, to employ and bestowe las bour and traunple, to labour untill he sweate.
 Exudare causas, to pleade matters with greate labour and diligence.
 Exuerrare, the sweepnges of the house.
 Exuerto, ti, ere, to pteuente.
 Exugo, exuxi, ere, to suche out.
 Exul, exulis, com. g. a banished man.
 Spes alunt exules, euen banished men haue hope ones to retorne into theyr countrey: a pro uerbe, signifying, that there is yet some hope, or that wee should not yet despayre, but looke for a day: for in space cometh grace.
 Mentis exul, madde, out of his witte.
 Exulceratio, onis, a sozenesse.
 Exulceratorius, a, um, that hath the power or nature to make soze.
 Exulceratus, a, um, vexed, made worse, made soze, corrupted with rancour and grudge.
 Exulcero, aui, are, to make soze, to bere or make worse, to impeire, to corrupte with rancour and grudge.
 Exulcerare gratiam alicui, to impeire the fas uour that one beareth to an other.
 Exulcerare animum, to displease the mynde greuouely, to make very angry.
 Ex vinculis causam dicere, To pleade in warde.
 Exulo, exulas, aui, are, to be banished, to lyue
 in exile.
 Exulare domo, to be banished from home, or from his owne house.
 Exultabundus, a, um, reioysyng very muche.
 Exultanter, ioyously, as it were leappyng for ioy, bzaggngly.
 Exultantia, x, f. g. idem quod exultatio, also a beatyng, as a soze or the pulse doeth.
 Exultatio, onis, f. g. a hoppyng or dauncyng.
 Exulto, aui, are, to reioyce exceedingly, to bzag, or make anaunt proude, to magnifie ones selfe, to triumphe ouer one cruelly, to leape oute, to leape for ioy, to bubble, to boyle or playe, as the potte dooeth, whan it dooeth seeth.
 Exultum, with leappyng and hoppyng.

Exulsiōis, a, um, that houlet out.
 Exululo, aui, are, to houlet out, to crie out pitifully.
 Exundatio, ōnis, f. g. an ouerfloowpng, a superfluous aboundpng.
 Exundo, aui, are, to ouerflowe, to abounde, to be superfluous.
 Exungo, xi, gere, to annoynt.
 Exungulo, aui, are, to cut of ones nayles.
 Exuo, ui, ere, to put of, to despoyle of vnclothe, to depriue, to deliuer, to vncouer, to shew out.
 Exue mentem, putte away that mynde of affliction.
 Amicitiam alicuius exuere, to forsake or leaue ones frendshipp.
 Armis exuere aliquem, To take away ones harneys, to vnarne a man.
 Exuere castris hostem, to dyue the enemies out of their campe.
 Ensem vagina exuerat, he hadde drawen his swoorde.
 Exuere ferociam, to leaue the fiercenesse and crueltie that one hath vsed in tyme passed.
 Fidem exuere, to breake promise, to doo contrary to that that one hath sworne.
 Iam gratiam nouitatis exuit, Nowe it is no more pleasaunt or acceptable for the the nouelte therof sens that it wareth olde.
 Nonne humanitatē omnem exuisses? Should not you haue declared your selfe, to haue no humanitee or gentilnesse at all?
 Exuere iugum, and Exuere se iugo, to shake of the yoke of bondage, and sette him selfe at libertie.
 Antiquos mores exuere, To leaue his olde condicions.
 Exuere aliquem regno, To dyue one oute of his realme, to put one out of his kyngdome.
 Exuere se paterno agro, to sell the lande that came to him by his father.
 Exuere senectam, to become yonge agayne.
 Exuere obsequium, To become disobediente and stubbozne.
 Exuere tributa, To refuse to pay any more tribute.
 Exuperabilis, le, that may be excelled or passed.
 Also actiuelly, that may excell or passe.
 Exuperantia, a, form. gene. excellencie, preeminencie.
 Exuperatio, ōnis, f. g. idem.
 Exúpero, aui, are, to excede, to passe or surmounte.
 Exuperat eius stultitia hæc omnia, his folye passeth all these thynges.
 Non solum dum anima exuperabo mea, not onely as longe as I shall lyue.
 Exurdo, aui, are, to make deafe.
 Vina feruida exurdunt palatum, Hot wyne make dull the taste.
 Exurgo, exi, ere, to arise vp, to arise out of miserie and trouble.

Exurgite ambo a genibus, rse vp bothe and kneele no moze.
 Exurgere de multa nocte, To rse late in the nyght.
 Exurgere de insidiis, to breake out of an ambuſhe, and set vpon the enemies.
 Exurgat foras, let hym rse and get hym forth of the doores.
 Exuro, uſi, ere, to bourne out.
 Exusito, aui, are, to stirre or rse vp, to waken from sleape.
 Exussitare animos, to quicken and stirre vp the myndes.
 Exustio, ōnis, f. g. a burnpng.
 Exustus, a, um, burned, parched, dyed.
 Exūtus, a, um, cut of, spoled.
 Exutus campis, diuen out of the fielde.
 Exūtiæ, arum, form. ge. plu. spoyl taken from ennemies.
 Exuuiæ serpentis, an adders skinne.
 Exibaphon, phi, n. g. a salate of herbes.

Ezechiel, (a prophete of the countrey Sara-ra, in Syria, of the line of byshops,) had meruaylous reuelacions and visions, and by hym God shewed many greates miracles. For in the tyme of a great scarſitee, he by prayer obteyned of god abondance of fische, whereby the people were sufficiently refreshed. Also when the people were oppressed, he stode and made their enemies so abashed with myracles and wonderfull sightes, that they ceased of their entrepryse. Being in the countrey of Caldeie, he tolde the people of many thynges dooen in the temple of Hierusalem, he brought the people out of Caldie to Hierusalem, to the repproche of the infidelles. He beyng in Babylon, iudged the tribe of Dan and Gad, for that they had wickedly dooen agaynst the lord, in persecutyng theim, whiche beleued in the lawe. And he shewed vnto them a terrible token. For adders deuoured theyr children and all their cattall. At the laste he was slayne at Babylon by the duke of the people, because he repproved him of ydolatrie. He was buried in the fielde. Saur, in the monument of Sem. Arphaxad, progeneritours of Abraham. He prophesied of the resourne of the children of Israel, and also of the comyng of Christ. He lyued afore the incarnation. 617. yeres.

, VVAS used in olde tyme for H, Fordeū, for Hordeum, Trafo, for traho, &c.

Faba, a, f. g. a beane. Critius Lorus a phisicion of our time, affirmeth, that pulse which we cal beanes, is not Faba, whereof Dioscorides, Celsus, Galenus, and Plinius doe wyte: for that is rounde, and lesse than our beane, whereof. xviii. made a dramme, where ours be so greete, that some one beane weigheth a dramme, and is somewhat longe and flatte.

Faba cudetur in me, the beane shal be knocked on me, signifying the payne or blame shal lyght on me.

Faba inuersa, some doe suppose to bee that herbe whiche is called Lunaria, or Solanum somnificum: reade in Solano.

Faba Pythagorica, signifieth the counsaile of Pythagoras, where he biddeth we should not eate beanes, sayng, Faba abstinet, which is by diuers men diuersly expounded. Some declare it for a bare precepte, sayng: That for as muche as beanes make the syght dulle, and causeth yll dreames, as Plinie saith, or as Cullie affirmeth, prouoketh inflation or much winde in the body. Therfore Pythagoras forbore the eatyng of them. But Aristoreus affirmeth, that Pythagoras did not eate more of any kynde of pulse than of beanes, because they easly loused the bealy. Empedocles saith, that Pythagoras commaunded to absteyne from beanes, as it were from the arte of lechery, because Cyamos signifieth not onely a beane, but also the genitours.

Plutarchus expoundeth this precepte, as yf he had sayed: Absteyne from the ministracion of a common weale, because it is full of perilles, nor can not be without rebuke or damage. In the olde tyme the consent of people was declared by beanes, which yet doth remayne at Venice, as well in election of officers, as in iudgements and sentences: for by whyte beanes thynges are assyzed, by blacke beanes they are denied or refused.

Fabacia, a, f. g. a beane cake.

Fabaginus, a, um, of beanes.

Fabalis, le, of a beane.

Fabale, lis, a beane stalk.

Fabalis, the refuse or offall of beanes.

Fabaris, a ryuer in Italy, rennyng by the Sabins.

Fabarius, a, um, perteynyng to beanes.

Fabaria calendæ, the calendes of June.

Fabellâ, læ, f. g. a short tale.

Faber, a fisme of the Spanishe sea, also called Zeus, and is in fygure rounde, and of a russet colour. It is lyke to be that fisme, whiche is called a lumpe, and of late yeres was founde in the sea about Denonwite.

Faber, bri, m. g. almost euer crastes man, that woorketh with the hande.

Faber lignarius, a carpenter.

Faber ferrarius, a smith.

Aurifaber, a goldsmith.

Faber, bra, brum, perteynyng to a smith.

Faberrime, counnyngly, deerp craftily or well.

Fabianus, the propre name of a man.

Fabitor, in the aunient time was taken for a maynteynour.

Fabius, the surname of a noble house of the Romayns, which had first that name of sowynge or sellynge of beanes, as Cicero of the grain called Cicer, Piso of peasen, Porcius of swyne. of this name wer diuers valiaunt capitains & wise counsaillours: of whome one was called Fabius Maximus, who in his youth exercised both eloquence & prowesse: & therfore he after became, as well in armes as in counsaile, a capitayne most excellent: and subduyng many countreies vnto the Romaynes, he triumphed. v. times. Beyng made dictatour against Annibal, he so repeted prouide with manhood or prowesse, that by detractyng of battayle, and traynyng Annibal from place to place, and at sundry aduantages skirmisshyng with him, he minished his puissance, and preserued the publike weale of his countrey, where Minutius (enuyng hym) in fyghtyng with Annibal, was vanquished, and had ben slaine with all his armie, had not Fabius come to his succor and rescous, who deliuered his aduersarie and all his trayne, and caused Annibal to retyre: who saied then to his hoste: Wyd I not tell you before, that this cloude would at the last byynge vs a storme: callyng Fabius a cloude because of his houerynge on the hilles. This man was afore the incarnation of Christ. 200. yeres, and somewhat more.

Fabius Quintilianus, reade after in Quintilian.

Fabrateria, a towne of Campayne.

Fabre, workemanly, craftily. Vt apologum facit? quam fabre? Se what a defence he maketh: how craftily he handeleth it.

Fabrefacio, bréfasis, feci, ere, to worke cunnynghly, to bylde.

Fabrica, ca, f. g. a workehouse, a forge. sometime the frame or worke. also the science of a carpenter, the facture, soyngynge or settyng toggyther of a thyng, the makynge or workman's shipp. also a wyle or deuite.

Fabrica ferraria, a smithes forge. Aliquam fabricam fingit, he goeth aboute some wyle.

Quot admoui fabricas? howe many craftie waies dyd I assaye.

Fabrico, aui, are, & Fabricor, aris, ari, to make, to build, to inuent. Fabricare naues, to builde shippes. Fabricare gladiū, to make a swoorde. Fabricare animum, to forme the mynde.

Fing

Fingere & fabricare.
 Fabricatus, a, um, made.
 Fabricator, oris, m. g. a maker.
 Mundi fabricator deus, god the maker of the worlde.
 Fabricus, a, um, of or pertaining to a carpenter.
 Fabrilis, le, belonging to handie craftes, as Smithes and carpenters.
 Fabritianus, a mans name.
 Fabritius, a noble Romaine, who beyng wonders full poore, refused a greete summe of money, sent to him by kynge Darius, touchyng with his handes all his membris, and sayng vnto the kynge messengers: As longe as he moughte rule all that, whiche he touched, he could lacke nothyng.
 Fabula, lre, f. g. a fable or tale. sometye an enterlude. It is also a litle beane.
 Fabula palliata, a comedie of greke.
 Fabula togata, a comedie of latine.
 Fabulam inceperat, he beginneth to tell a tale.
 Fabula est omni populo, he is a talkyng stocke to all the people.
 Iam nos fabulæ sumus, now be we a talkyng stocke for every man: howe be wee mocked and talked of by every man.
 Fabulam ætatis agere, To passe the whole course and tyme of ones lyfe.
 In fabulis esse, to be babbled of abroad.
 Fabulæ, spoken in an answer, withoute anie other woorde ioynd therewith, amounteth to as much, as yf one woulde saye, Fables, trifles, fantasies, japes. sometime is added mera, as mera fabulæ, very trifles or fantasies: or as one woulde say, That whiche ye say, is not to be regarded.
 Fabularis, re, of a tale, or lyke a tale.
 Fabulator, oris, m. g. a teller of fables or tales.
 Fabulinus, was supposed of the paynims to be a god, whiche had the rule ouer childzen, whan they began to speake.
 Fabulor, aris, ari, to talke, to commune, to mocke or delude, to babble foolysly.
 Mortuū verba fabulare, Thou speakest to a dead man, thou labourest in vayne.
 Fabulari falsum, to lie.
 Fabulose, lyke a fable or lye.
 Fabulositas, atis, f. g. the inuention of fables and lies.
 Fabulosus, a, um, much talked of, that every man speaketh of, that wherof many thynges be feigned.
 Fabulum, li, n. g. a beane.
 Facesso, cessi, cessere, to go about to do a thyng, to doe, to accomplishe. sometye to go away.
 Facesse hinc, get thee hence.
 Facessit tibi negotium, he putteth thee to busynesse and trouble.
 Facessere periculum, to putte in perill and daunger.
 Facere, meryly, pleasauntly, pretily.

Facetia, arum, f. g. plur. nu. merie woordes or dedes without dishonestie, merie conceits with a pleasant grace.
 Acerba facetia, bityng scoones, tantyng scottes.
 Condurus sale & facetiis, full of wittie and pleasaunt saynges.
 Facetiosus, a, um, full of mirth and pleasantnesse.
 Facetum, ti, n. g. a thyng that is pleasaunt and mery.
 Facetus, a, um, mery, pleasaunt, that speaketh or dooth pleasauntly to make men laugh.
 Facies, ei, f. g. a face. sometye the proportion of all the bodie, a visage, a similitude, the fygure, fourme, or facion of a thyng, the cheere or countenaunce.
 Quæ facie est homo? Of what stature is the man?
 De facie hominem noui, I knowe the man by syght.
 Facies arboris, the fourme or facion of a tree.
 Facies honesti, the description and figure of honestie.
 Confusa in pulueris faciem, beaten small like duste.
 Loci facies, the figure and facion of a place.
 Apheuple Facies vibis, stagni, montis, cœli, maris.
 Noua illic rerum facies, all is newe there to looke to.
 Vertere se in omnes facies, To assay all the meanes and waies that one can.
 Facies, and faci, was vsed of olde wyters in the genitive case.
 Facile, lyghtly or esly, without let or doubt, without any great grieve, without peine.
 Illius ciuitatis facile princeps, without controuersie chief and principall of that citee.
 Facile facere possum, si iubes, I can dooe it quickly, if you bidde me.
 Propter eas, viuo facilius, By them I get my lyuyng more easly.
 Facile hic plus mali est q̃ illic boni, withoute doubt there is more ylle in this parte, than good in the other.
 Facile carere, to be well contente to lacke.
 Facile pati, I am very well contente.
 Facilis, le, lyght, easie, facile, gentle, good to be entreated, easie to be pleased, tractable, redie to forgiue, propice, fauourable, gracious, sometye obedient, peassible, easie to be ruled.
 Facilis aduersarius, a weake aduersary, easly to be vanquished.
 Cæra facilis, softe ware.
 Deos faciles habere, fauourable.
 Cibi faciles, meates easly to be gotten.
 Iactura facilis, a small losse.
 Faciles oculi, rollyng eyes.
 Facilis & plana via, an easly and playn way.
 Facilis homo, a man easly to please, contrary to Morosus.

Ministri faciles, obedient.

Facillimi mores, paſſible manners, and eaſy to away with.

Populum facilem habere, an obedient people, eaſie to be ruled.

Facilis ad credendum, prone & ready to beleue.

Facilitas, aſtis, f.g. eaſineſſe, gentilineſſe, when one is ſoone contented and pleaſed, promptneſſe.

Facineroſus, a, um, full of miſchiefe, wicked, vngacious.

Facinus, facinoris, n. g. an acte of dede. Sometime an ill dede, a great acte.

Facinus indignum, nepharium, tetrum, a ſhamefull and abhominable acte.

Facinus nobile, a noble dede of enterpriſe.

Facinus admittere, coſciſcere, facere, patrare, to committe ſome ſhamefull or heynous acte.

Hic pulcherimum facinus audiui, here dyd I heare the Joyfulleſt matter that euer ye harde.

Facio, feci, facere, to doo, to bee occupied, to make. alſo to ſacrifice, to proſite.

Facere aucupium auribus, to hearken as a ſpie.

Aequi bonique facere, to take in good parte, or in good woorth.

Animum alicui facere, to giue one courage, to ſtomache a man.

Facere carnicinam, to execute the office of an hangeman, in hangyng, beheadyng, or quattreſpyng of men.

Facere caſtra, to pitche a campe, to campe.

Facere certioſem, to aſſertayne or aduertyiſe one by letter or meſſenger.

Facere compendiū, to make ſhort, to abydge to goe a ſhorter way to woork, to doe a thyng the ſooner.

Facere compotem, to geue to one that thyng, whiche he deſireth.

Facere coniecturam, to coniecture or deeme, to diuine or eſteeme.

Facere contumeliā, to doo diſpleaſure.

Facere conuitium, to rebuke, or put to rebuke, to checke.

Capitale facere, to make it felony or death.

Cautioſem facere, to make him wiſer, to make him moze wate.

Concilia facere, to gather to gether for counſayng one an other, to geue counſayle.

Facere copiam, to geue leaue.

Facere copiam alicuius, to let hym take his pleaſure of one.

Facere copiam argenti, to lende money.

Copiam conſilii ſui facere, to heate them that come for counſaile, and to giue it to them.

Facere conſuetudinem, to be familiar.

Deditionem facere, to yelde vp as a man vanquiſhed in warre.

Facere delicias, to ſpeke for pleaſure, or in moſt kage. Fac eſſe, admit it be ſo, or admit the caſe.

Fac eſſe, qui ſum, ymagine that thou were as I am.

Eruptionem facere, to breahe or iſſue out vps pon enemies.

Facere fidem, to make one to beleue hym.

Facere frugem, to myne gaynes.

Facere funus, to miniſter funerals.

Gradum facere, to ſteppe footſtepe or ſteppe vp, to wyne ſomewhat.

Gratiam facere, to thanke, to releaſe or acquite one of a thyng, to giue leaue to pardone.

Gratiam iusiurandi facere, to diſpoſite with one for his othe.

Facere gratum, to doo pleaſure to one, or to wyne a mans fauour.

Facere grauidam, to get with childe.

Facere iacturam, to haue a loſſe.

Impetum facere, to runne on a thyng with a force.

Facere inditium, to tell or to geue warnyng of a thyng that he knoweth.

Facere ingenium ſuum, to doo accordyng to his witte or nature.

Facere inſidias, to lie in waite to doo harme to one. Facere iter, to goe or ride.

Iuſta alicui facere, to perſourme all obſequies belongyng to dead men.

Lenocinium facere, to hepe baudyſh.

Facere lucrum, to wyne.

Facere ludos, to moche or ſcojne. alſo to ſette forth plaies.

Facere magni, to eſteeme muche.

Modum facere, to hepe meaſure.

Modos facere, to ſpynge.

Moram facere, to tary, to prolonge, to deſette.

Morem facere, to bypynge vp a cuſtome.

Multam facere, to forfeite a peyne.

Mutuum facere, to doo one for an other, to quite.

Facere mecum, to make for my purpoſe, to hold on my ſide, to take my parte.

Facere naufragium, to renne to wreche, to haue a ſhippe wreche.

Naufragium gloriæ facere, to loſe his glorie and renoume.

Facere negotium, to put one to buſyneſſe.

Facere nequit, to doo wrethedly.

Facere nomina, to get debtors, as by lendyng: as they doe now by exchaunge, and in wykes, properly called vſury, and in bargaines of coynes, tattalle and other ſyke, or lettynge of landes. it is alſo to bozowe money, to name, to make renowned and famous.

Respondit, ſecum facere Syllam, he answered, that Sylla was of his opinion, or did thyng as he dyd.

Obnoxium ſibi aliquem facere, to bynde one to be at his commaundement.

Facere ocium, to giue to one leſſure.

Facere palam, to tell a thyng abrode.

Facere periculum, to prone, to aſſay, to bypynge in peryll and daunger.

Facere pluriſ, to ſet moze by.

Facere propitiū, to make him thine of his good ſorde lorde of maffet.

 Facere questum, to gayne.
 Facere reducem, to bypnye one agayne.
 Facere rem, to get profite of gayne by a thyng to thypur.
 Facere reum, to accuse of sette one in a crym-nall cause.
 Facere risum, to cause to laugh.
 Face scelus, to doe a mischeuous dede.
 Facere seimentem, to sowe grapne.
 Facere stipendia, to be in wages in the warres.
 Facere sumptum, to bestowe coste.
 Facere superbium, to stea one.
 Facere technam, to play a crafty pageant.
 Facere terrorem, to put in feare.
 Facere transacta omnia, to bypnye all thynges to apoynte.
 Facere turbas, to make busynesse.
 Facere vadimoniam, to lay in gage of surety,
 to promise, to appeare at a day appoynted.
 Facere verba aut verbum, to speake.
 Facere vindemiam, to gather grapes, to make wyne.
 Facere vitium, to fall in decay.
 Facere voluptatem, to satisfy myne, thyne, or his pleasure, or appetite.
 Faciam vt te plurimum amem, I will lone the muche. Fecisse hoc oportuit, needes must ye haue doen it.
 Facio plurimi, I make much of.
 Floccifacio, I sette not a straw by it.
 Facit ad difficultatem vrinae, it is holsome for the stranglition, or for them that can not pisse easly.
 Non facit ad stomachum, it is not holsome for
 the stomache.
 Aes alienum facere, to borow money.
 Facere ad bonos mores, to helpe of auayle to honest behauiour.
 Facere ad alicuius palatum, to bee for ones
 nowne tooth.
 Caput facere, to grow to an head, as herbes do befoze they beare seede.
 Facere concursum, to renne together.
 Qui cum Sertorio faciebant, whiche folowed or fauoured the parte of Sertorius.
 Facere descensionem, to lande out of a shyp or bote.
 Quamuis paucos vnà fecerimus dies, Although we taried but few daies togither.
 Facere dolorem, to put to payne.
 Facere errorem, to deceyue.
 Exempla faciam in te, I wyll punyssh thee to the example of other.
 Facere fauorem apud aliquem, to reconcile.
 Finem facere, to make an ende.
 Formidinem facere, to put in feare.
 Fraudem legi facere, by some craftie or wyle to delude the lawe.
 Funus facere prandio, to eate a mans diner.
 Gloriam alicui rei facere, to make a thyng greatly esteemed and set by.

 Hospicium facere, to entertayne or lodge.
 Hostilia facere, to shew hym selfe to be an enemie, to doolyph an enemy.
 Facere iudicium, to iudge, to geue iudgement.
 Facere manum, to gather a company or bande of souldiours.
 Medicinam facere, to make a confection, also to heale or cure.
 Mercaturam facere, to vse or practyse the feate of marchaundise.
 Missum facere, to let go.
 Missa haec faciamus, Let vs speake no moze of
 these thynges.
 Momentum facere, to bee of some weyght or importaunce.
 Facere momentum annonae, to bypnye downe
 the pryce of vitayle or cozne.
 Huius rei sibi naturam faciat, Let hym by long custome tourne this thyng into his nature.
 Non possum facere, quin ad te mittam, I can not choose but sende to you.
 Optionem facere, to put to the choyse.
 Opus facere, to labour.
 Odium vitae facere, to make one wery of his lyfe.
 Oua facere, to lay egges.
 Partes facere, to diuide.
 Facere pecuniam, to get great gaynes.
 Securitatem facere, to make carelesse.
 Facere syngrapham, to make an obligation.
 Facere prouentum maiorem, to peld more fruite.
 Pugnam facere, to bende the fyfte.
 Facere testes, to take recorde.
 Facere promissum, pro prestare & perficere.
 Factus, a, um, made, doen, wrought.
 Argentum factum, plate.
 Factio, ónis, f. g. a diuision of people in sundry opinions. also an acte, a dooyng. also a compa-nie or bande of men. Sometyme rycheffe, authoritee of estimation in a citee.
 Cui testamenti factio nulla est, to whom it is not permitted by the law, to make any testamēt.
 Factionum principes, the heades of rebellion or sedition.
 Neque nos tanta factione sumus, neyther bee
 we of so great authozitee.
 Factitius, a, um, made or counterfeit to the lykes
 nesse of an other thyng.
 Factitius color, a counterfaite colour.
 Factito, aui, are, to dooe often times.
 Carmina in aliquem factitare, to make verses
 agaynst one.
 Factitare medicinam, to practyse physike.
 Factiosus, a, um, factious, sedicious, bzaulynge,
 also ryche, of great authozitee.
 Factor, óris, m. g. a maker.
 Factum, ti, n. g. a dede, a thyng made.
 Factum atque transactum, dooen and brought to good passe.

Haud muto factum, I repent me not of that I
haue doen.
Facta, p[ro]u[er]be and noble actes.
Fortia facta patrum, the valiaunt deedes of our forefathers.
Factura, a, f. g. the facture of makynge of a
thyng.
Facturio, iui, ij, ire, to desyre to doo.
Factus, us, m. g. a makynge.
Facula, la, f. g. a lynke, or littell tozche.
Facularij, tozche bearers.
Facultas, atis, f. g. power to doo or speake, habi-lite: sometyme rycheffe. also facultee, vertue or strength in a thyng. also occasion, oportunitie.
Adimere facultatem aliquid faciendi, to lette
one that he cannot doo a thyng.
Facultatem dare, to geue power or licence.
Si facultas erit, yf we may, yf we can haue or oportunitie or leysure.
Dare facultatem eligendi. To geue one the choyse.
Facultas ingenij, a facultee or science that the wytte is exercysed in.
Facultas dicendi, eloquence, aptnesse, or p[ro]p[er]- nesse to speake in any thyng.
Facultatem in dicendo habere, to be eloquent or well langaged, to be a good oratour.
Dare facultatem omnibus sui irridendi, To geue all men occasion to mocke hym.
Prætermittere facultatem alicuius rei, To ormitte the oportunitie. &c.
Vtinam esset facultatis mea, I woulde to god that myne eloquence were suche that I coulde:
or, I woulde it were in my power to dooe it.
Facultas nummorum, store or plentie of money, richesse.
Omnia medicamenta proprias facultates ha-bent. All medicines haue theyr p[ro]p[er] vertue and strength.
Facultates, tatum, f. m. gene. plu. nu. riches,
reuenues.
Facultatibus labi, to lese theyr gooddes.
Facultas operæ ubi mihi erit, whan I shall haue leysure, whan my busynesse will suffre me.
Facundè, eloquently.
Facundia, a, f. g. eloquence or sweete and pleasant speche.
Facundiōsus, a, um, full of eloquence.
Facundus, a, um, eloquent, well spoken, he that prophesieth thynges to come.
Facatus, a, um, haupng lees or dregges.
Facatum vinum, wyne that dymneth of the lyes.
Facinoræ vine, grapes, wherof cometh wyne has uyng much lies.
Faculentus, a, um, full of lies, dregges, or groun-des of any lyout.
Facutinus, a, um, p[er]teynng to dregges.
Fax, fa'cis, f. g. lies, dregges, or groundes of any kynde of licour.
Fax ciuitatis, they that in a citee do lyue brastlie and viciouslie, the dregges and castall.

Faginus, a, um, of a beech tree.
Faginus, and fagus, a, um, idem.
Fagus, gi, f. g. a beech tree.
Fagutal, a chappell in Rome, wherin was a beech tree consecrated to Jupiter.
Fala, a, f. g. a towre made of tymber.
Falacrium, a p[ro]montorie of Sicile, called nome Melazo.
Falarica, a, f. g. a kynde of darts throwen out of towres and fortresses besieged.
Falcarius, rij, m. ge. he that fyghteth with a byll,
or he that occupieth a hooke or speth.
Falcarius, a, um, p[er]teynng to a byll, hooke, or speth.
Falcatus, a, um, hooked. also any thyng, wherton be hookes or other lyke thyng.
Falcati currus, cartes armed with hookes.
Falcicula, la, f. m. gene, a lyttell hooke or byll, a sphe.
Falcidia lex, a lawe, whereby legacies were defal-cate or cutte of, where the fourth parte of the goodes were not assygned to the heires.
Falcifer, ciferæ, um, that beareth a byll or hooke.
Falcito, aui, arc, to cutte with a byll or hooke.
Falco, aui, arc, to cut of or mowe, to cut or loppe with a byll or hooke.
Falco, onis, a hauke.
Falcones, they that haue crooked toes.
Falcula, la, f. g. the diminutue of Falx, falcis,
a sphe, a littell hooke or bill. also falcula bee crooked clawes of lyons, liberdes, and suche lyke wilde beastes. also the talons of an hauke.
Falcula, la, f. g. a certayne birde, the thyrd kind offwalos, and is called also Riparia, a banke martnet.
Falere, ris, n. ge. a worde bled of Varro, for a parte of an house to be vnknown.
Falernus, a countrey in Campania, nowe in the realme of Naples, wherin grew the best wyne of Italy, called Falernum, Mountfalcon.
Falisci, a peple in Italy. also a kynde of puddings.
Faliscus, a, um, that is stuffed lyke a puddng.
Fallacia, a, f. m. gen. a deceitfull worde, or generally deceit or crafty handlynge, a subtyll or crafty deuyse.
Fallaciosus, a, um, full of deceipte.
Fallaciter, deceiptfully, falsly.
Fallax, acis, om. g. that deceyeth or begyleth.
Fallax coniectura, a coniecture that deceyeth
a man in his opinion.
Herba fallaces, herbes that yelde not so muche fruite as is looked for.
Fallo, fefelli, fallere, to deceyue, to begyle, p[ro]- p[er]ly with wordes, to be p[er]uie or close from,
to be vnknown, also to be hydde.
Fallunt amaritudinem edentes. absynthium in fico, because they feele not the bitternesse.
Fallere fidem, to breake p[ro]misse.
Iura tori fallere, to committe adulterie.
Memoria falli, to forget.

Nihil me fallis, I know thee well enough, thou deceyvest me nothing, thou canst not go an ace beyond me.

Nisi me fallit animus, excepte my iudgements deceyue me.

Nisi omnia me fallunt, excepte I bee utterly deceyued. Opera fallunt, in their dooynge they deceyue men.

Curam fallere somno, To putte away care by sleape, to lie downe and sleape to put away his care.

Tempus sermonibus fallere, to passe the tyme in talkyng.

Opinionem tuam fefellit ea res, that thyng was otherwyle than you byd thyng.

Opinio de te multū me fefellit, I was greatly deceyued in you.

Fallere promissum, not to kepe promysse.

Spes fefellit, it hath chaunced otherwise than we hoped it would.

Cum saxa lubrica vestigia fallerent, Where as the slippery stones did make mens fete slide.

Tanta celeritate, vt visum fallant, so sodeynly or so quickly, that it cannot be sene.

Num me fefellit hocce id struere, byd not I knowe well enough, that they wente about such a thyng.

Quæ mutatio Neronem non fefellit, whiche chaunge was not vnknowne to Nero, or Nero perceyued well enough.

Qui per biennium fefellerat, whiche the space of two yere was not knowne.

Fallens, entis, that deceiueth, vncōstant.

Vestigium fallens, the fote stydynge.

Fallonia, a trespass, whereby the tenant forsageth to the lord, that which he holdeth.

Falsarius, nij, m. g. a forger of wrytynges,

Falsē, falsely.

Falsidicus, & falsiloquus, a lier or fals repozter.

Falsifico, aui, are, to forge dedes, wrytynges, or seales.

Falsificus, a, um, that vseth to deceyue men.

Falsitas, rātis, f. g. falshood.

Falsiūrius, a, um, that vseth to sweare falsely.

Falsimonium, nij, n. g. a deceyte or falshood.

Falsiloquus, a, um, that speaketh false.

Falsiparens, entis, that hath an other father, than he that is supposed.

Falso, aui, are, to forge.

Falso, falsely, without a cause, wrongfully.

Nec tu me habebis falso suspectum, Thou shalt not suspecte me for naught.

Falsum, si, n. g. a false or vayne thyng.

Tela in falsum iacere, To caste daries, and misse theym that they hurle at.

Falsus, a, um, false, vayne, deceyued, counterfeit.

Falsum habere, to deceyue.

Haud mihi sum falsus, I know well.

Falsus es, you are deceyued, or it is otherwyle than ye weene.

Falsum gaudium, vayne ioy.

Falsa lachryma, a fained teare.

Falsum testamentum, a counterfeit testamēt of will.

Vt falsus, est, how false is he deceyued?

Falsi sub imagine cerui, vnder the lykenesse of a counterfeit harte.

Vt falsus animi est, how much is he deceyued.

Nec ea res me falsum habuit, neither byd that matter deceyue me any thyng: or I was not deceyued in that matter.

Falx, falcis, fcc. ge, a hook, bill, or teth: also an ingin of warre, made crooked like a hook.

Falx fennaria, a teth to mowe grasse.

Adhibere frondibus falcem, to cutte or mow booties with an hook or byll.

Falx arboraria or syluatica, an hedgyng byll, a hook.

Falx vineatica, a hook.

Curare vitem falce, to cutte a vine.

Supponere falcem arctis, to mow roze.

Fama, æ, fccm. gene. same or bruit of a thyng good or yll, a rumour or a noyse brought vp of any new thyng: also renowne. Sometime opinion.

Prior fama, moze renowned, moze famous.

Famam dissipare, to sow a brute or noyse amonge the people.

Famæ commendationis homo, a man that hath a good name.

Secunda fama, a good renowne or fame.

Fama incolumis, fame of a man that is not disteyned.

Morsta fama, heauie tidynge.

Accipere fama, to here by repozte or commonnyng of the people.

Dare famæ, to spreade abroad.

Famam extinguere, to stynt a brute or rumour.

Conualefcit fama, the fame or repozte begins neth to waxe great.

Fama ferebat, the repozte was.

Famam alicuius inquinare, to disteyne a mans good name.

Accipere famā, to here say by repozte.

Percrebuit fama, it was commonly repozted.

Laferat famam sub Nerone, In the time of Nero he gatte hym an yll name: or he was yll spoken of.

Famam temeritatis subire, to be cosited rather, soleyhardy, or vndiscrete.

Intra famam esse, not to be of suche estimation or value, as the fame goeth.

Fama vulgauerat, it was communed abroad.

Famam facere, to reyle a fame or brute.

Vt hominum fama est, as the cummanynge is amonge the people, or as men say commonly.

Si vera est fama, if it be true that the fame and repozte sayth.

Famigeratio, ōnis, fccm. gene. a spreadynge of fame.

Famelicōsus, a, um, often hungrie.

Hh ij

Famel

F A N T E A,

Famel, in the ſhe tongue, is a ſeruant.
Famelicus, a, um, hungry, hunger ſtouen.
Famella, æ, fem, gener. the diminutive of Fama.
Famen, minis, n. g. ſpeche.
Fameo, mui, ere, to be hungry.
Fames, famis, f. g. hunger, famine.
In fame, in time of famine or dearth.
Auri fames, couetouſeneſſe.
Fame abſumi, to be ſtouen for hunger.
Fame conſectus, hunger ſtouen.
Pamem explere, to ſatiffie and ſpyte ones hunger.
Leuare pamem, to aſſuage ones hunger.
Famiger, famigeri, a ſpreader of fame.
Famigerabilis, le, famous.
Famigerator, oris, a teller of newes or thynges, or a ſpreader of fame.
Famigeratio, onis, f. g. a ſpreading of a fame or rumour.
Famigerulus, idem.
Famigeratus, a, um, renowned, famed.
Famigero, geras, aui, are, to publiſhe or diuulgate a thyng.
Familia, æ, f. g. a houſeholde, a familie, or kynred. it alſo ſignifieth all the ſeruauntes of the houſe. ſometyme a ſecte of Philoſophers.
Submouere aliquos familia, to put or remove out of his houſe.
Familiaris, re, perteynyng to houſeholde: alſo familiar, of the ſame familie or houſeholde. alſo a frende of longe acquaintance.
Familiaria ſepulchra, were places of buryall for men and theyr ſeruauntes.
Familiaris Italia arbor, a tree, which groweth much in Italia.
Familiaris ſella, a chambze ſtoole.
Negotia familiaria, houſeholde affayres.
Res familiaris, a mans propre goodes.
Familiarior aditus, a priue entre.
Familiari pecunia tenui eſſe, not to be very riſche, to haue no great gooddes or ſubſtance.
Familiaris filius, the mans ſonne of the houſe.
Familiaria veſtimenta, rayment for the houſeholde.
Sermones familiares conferre, to talke famy liarlie.
Familiaria ſepulchra, Sepulchres for one and for thoſe that be of his familie.
Familiaritas, atis, f. g. cuſtome, familiaritee, acquaintance, familiar frendſhip.
Summa familiaritate coniunctus, a very nere and truſtie frende.
Intrare in familiaritatem alicuius, to become familiar and thoroughly acquainted with one.
Arcta familiaritate complecti, loke Com plector.
Conſlare familiaritatem, to get frendſhip and acquaintance.
Dedere ſe penitus in alicuius familiaritatem, to addicte & geue him ſelfe wholly to uſe a mans

F A N T E A,

Familiaritee and frendſhip.
Intercedit inter nos familiaritas, there is familiaritee and acquaintance betwene vs.
Illum a mea familiaritate diſiunxit, he made him to forſake my company, or to be no moze familiar with me.
Familiariter, familiarly, ſometyme homely, alſo greuouſly.
Nimum familiariter me attraxas, you haue dle me to homely.
Familiariter ignotum compellare, to ſpeake to one that he knoweth not, as though he were well acquainted with him.
Familiariter noſſe cauſam alicuius, to knowe ones matter ſo well as he would his proper and priuet affayres.
Familiariter ferre mortem alicuius, to take ones death greuouſly.
Familiariter aliquo vti, to uſe one as his familiar frende.
Familiariter aliquem diligere, to loue one heretillie, and as his truſty frende.
Faminare, of olde wryters was uſed for Dicere.
Faminor, the olde wryters uſed for Dico, ſay, ſpeake, tell on.
Famofus, a, um, greately renowned, famous, much ſpoken of. alſo that hath an yll name, vn honest, or that ſpeaketh yll by other.
Urbs famoſa, of great renoume.
Famoſa mulier, an harlotte.
Famoſa epigrammata, epigrammes wrytten to the infamie of other.
Famul, idem quod famulus.
Famula, æ, f. g. a woman ſeruant.
Famulanter, humbly, ſeruiſable.
Famulare, aduerbially, lyke a ſeruant.
Famularis, re, that perteyneth to a ſeruant.
Famularius, a, um, ſeruiſable.
Famulatio, onis, f. g. houſeholde or meynie.
Famulatus, us, m. g. ſeruite.
Famulitium, ij, n. g. ſeruite. Alſo the meynie, the compaignie of ſeruauntes.
Famulor, aris, ari, to ſerue.
Fortuna famulante agere aliquid, with the ayde of fortune to doe a thyng.
Famulus, li, m. g. a houſeholde ſeruant.
Fanaticus, a, um, madde. In the olde tyme befoze Chyſte expelled the diuell (whan that diuelles were honoured in Idoles) certayne perſons, as well men as women, were poſſeſſed with diuelles, which ladde them whither they liſted, agaynſt theyr propre wyls, and cauſed them to ſpeake wonderfull thynges. ſome alſo ſodaynly and oftentimes dyd tell what ſhould happen. Wherefoze they were thought to be inſpired with goddes. Thoſe perſons were called Fanatici. ſometyme Fanaticus is taken for the keeper of the temple or the chappell, where the dyuell gaue aunſweres.
Fanatica arbor, a tree blaſted with lightninge.
Fandi, of ſpeakyng.

Fando, in speahyng. Ne fando quidem auditu est, neuer anpe man hearde it reported.
Fandus, a, um, tulle to be spoken.
Fanenſes, and Faneſtres, people of a towne called Fana, in a countrey of Italy called Marca Anconitana, in latine Picenum.
Faneſii, people in the noythe parte of the worlde, whose rates be so great, that with them they heuer all theyr bodies.
Faneſtris, a towne.
Fannia lex, an honourable and vertuous lawe made by Augustus, the noble emperour, the consent of all states of the citee inforceyng it, all dignities appoyning it, the people gladly receyueyng it. By this lawe, the superfluous charges in feastes, wherby the citee abounded in vires, were prohibited, and suche temperance therin provided, that in the greates plates of the Romayns, and those that were called Saturnales, they shoulde not excede an hundred brasse pens, which were ten Romaine grotes, called Denarij and in our money nowe current, amounteth to b. s. vi. d. ob. halfe farthyng, and the fourthe parte of a farthyng: ten other daies. x. brasse pens, whiche is. x. d. ob. q. and a littell more. Every other daye. x. brasse pens, whiche was vi. d. halfe penie, and the. vii. parte of an halfe penie. This lawe was made. xxi. yeres after the lawe called Lex orchia, wherby was determined the nymbre of theym that shoulde dyne and suppe together, and that the doores shoulde be open whyle they late, that men might perceyue, if any mo came than the law had appoynted. But this law was not so good as the other, for than mought none come to their frendes, but such as were invited of bodeu.
Fanniana, a kynde of peares.
Fannius, the name of diuers oratours and noble men of Rome.
Fanum, ni, n. g. a temple, where the deuill geue aunswere out of an Idole.
Fanum fortunæ, a citee of Italy.
Far, aris, n. g. sometyme signifieth all maner of cozne, all be it amonge auncient phisicians it is taken for meale, as well of wheate as of barley, properly where the cozne is beaten in a morter: See Columello libro. 9.
Farcilis, le, any thyng stuffed.
Farcimen, ciminis, n. g. a puddyng of sausage.
Farcio, ciui, ire, to stuffe, also to franke or feede, to fatte, to cramme.
Farcire pannum in os, to thyste clothe into ones mouth.
Farcire alicui centones, looke Cento.
Farfaria, farfugium, or farfaria, an herbe, called also Tusilago, vngula equina, & Bechion, looke Bechion.
Farfarum, fari, n. g. the popler tree.
Farfarus, or Farfar, a riuer of Sirie.
Farfenum, a kynde of Myrribes or twiggis.

Farina, æ, f. g. meale.
Farina arenaria, ote meale.
Cribrro decussa farina, sifted meale.
Farinarius, a, um, pertynyng to meale.
Farinarium cribrum, spere of sifte meale.
Faris, farus sum, fari, to speake.
Farraceus, a, um, of meale.
Farracea, minates made of meale.
Farraginata, plural, minates made of diuers graphes.
Farrago, inis, fce. g. a mixture of sundrie kyndes of graphes and cozne: It is that, whiche in Cambridge wyze is called Solymonge, wherin is barley, otes, and peason, or beiches: sometyme it is taken for a mixture of thynges good and bad together.
Farratia, amonge the olde Romaines were the ceremonies of matrimony.
Farreatio, onis, fce. ge. a sacrifice made with a wheaten cake: whan the byrde was brought to church.
Farreum, rei, n. ge. a wheaten cake, also a barn to lay cozne in.
Farreus, a, um, of cozne or wheate.
Farreus panis, wheaten breadde.
Farrinarium, rij, n. g. a place where wheate or meale is hepte.
Farrinus, a, um, and Farrinaceus, a, um, pertynyng to wheate.
Farcilis, le, that is franked or crammed.
Farcilis anser, a franked goose.
Fartim, full stuffed or crammed.
Fartor, onis, m. g. a puddyng maker, or he that feedeth or crammeth geese, capons, or other fowles to fatte them.
Fartum, ti, n. g. the stuffyng of a puddyng or of other meate.
Fartum vestis, the body.
Fartura, æ, f. g. the craft or maner of stuffyng or crammynge.
Fas, n. g. indeclinabile, lefull befoze god, standyng with the lawe of god.
Fas & iura linunt, It is permitted bothe by the lawe of god and man.
Neg id me facere fas existimo, neyther do I thynke it lawfull for me to doo so.
Fas habebant, they thought it lefull.
Vulgo fas habetur, it is commonly coumpted to be lefull.
Fascelis, a name of Diana.
Fascia, æ, f. g. a swathell, or swathyng bande, or other lyke thyng of lyncn. sometyme any gyrdle. sometyme an hose, greaue, or buskynne, or after some a garter or latchet to fasten ones greaues to his legges. sometime it is vsed for a cloude.
Deuinctus erat fascijs, he was swathed, or he was bounde, or in bondes.
Fascia cretata, peyncted or coloured hoise.
Fascia lecti, the coueryng of a bedde.
Fascie orbis, the circles that astronomers call

Zona.
Fascia pectoralis, the gorget that women vsed to couer their pappes. Also a mucketer that childe ren weare for raying their clothes.
Nil fascia nigra minatur, the blache cloude.
Fasciatus, a, um, swatched, or bounde with swas thell bandes.
Fasciculus, li, m. g. a gyppe or thyng bounden together. It is also a nosegay, or any thyng knytte together, which may be bozne in a mans hande.
Fascinans, nantis, one that bewitcheth.
Fascinatio, onis, f. g. a bewitchyng.
Fascino, aui, are, to transfigure by enchauntment, or to bewitch.
Fascinum, ni, neu. gene. an enchauntment or bewitchyng, and one so enchaunted is of the common people called, taken, or forspoken, or forlooked.
Fasciola, la, f. m. gene. a litle bande, a garter, a latchet, wherewith men vsed to fasten their legges harnayes.
Fascio, aui, are, to swathe a childe.
Fascis, is, mascu. gene. a knytche of woodde or twigges, or any other thyng bounden together, a faggotte, a bawen, sometyme for Onus, a bourdeyne.
Fasces, rodde bounden together, and an are in the middle, whiche were bozne before the chief officers of Rome, in declaring thei authoritee, wherof some had. vi. and some mo. Fasces in the plurall nouthye is vsed for the offices or magistrates, that the people assigned or gaue to any noble men.
Fasces stramentorum vel virgularum, a bundle or burden.
Fascis cocularius, a faggotte of drye wood.
Fasces submittere, was a kynde of reuerence that the Romayne magistrates vsed, eyther towarde the people, or some other noble personages.
Iustitiae fasces princeps submittit, whan he, leauyng his princely traine, or kyngly maiestee, sheweth him selfe in any place of iustice to his subiectes moze pleasauntly.
Fascis sagittarum, is taken for a sheffe of arrowes.
Fasciolus, li, m. g. a kynde of small pulse.
Fasellus, or Faselus, li, m. g. & f. g. a kynde of botes called a gallion.
Fasiolus, loke Phasiolus.
Fassus, a, um, one that hath graunted or confessed.
Fasti, orum, or Fastus, tuum, plu. bookes, wherin were contayned certein ceremonies and causes of sundrie thynges amonge the Romaynes, concerning thei feastes and solemnities, whiche were longe kepte from the knowlage of the common people, vntyll at the laste they were deuulgate by one Caius Flauius.
Fasti dies, were certayne daies, wherein onely the officer of Rome called Prætor, myght speake these thre woordes, Do, Dico, Addico, pleadable daies: Nefasti dies, contrary.

Fastidio, fastidis, iui, ire, to contemne with disdain, to abhorre, to haue in abhominacion.
Fastidire preces, to contemne or disdain.
Fastidit mei, he doeth disdain me. Plaut.
Fastidiosè, proude, disdainfully, scornfully.
Fastidiosus, a, um, full of disdain.
Fastidius, a, um, hated, abhorred, disdained.
Fastidium, ij, n. ge. hatred, proude where one abhorreth the sight or presence of any thyng, contempt, disdainfulness, lothesomenesse.
Fastidium delicatissimum, A verie nice loo thyng or disdainyng of a thyng.
Fastidium audiendi, disdainfulness in hearing.
In fastidium adducere rem aliquam, to make a thyng lothed, hated, or disdained.
Abigere fastidium, to put away lothesomenes.
Afferre fastidium, and Creare fastidium, to make one loth or disdain a thyng or person.
Eius non possum ferre fastidium, I can not abyde his disdainfulness.
Modo ne sit fastidio, so that it wyll not lothe you: or so that ye wyll not disdain.
In fastidio esse, to be lothed or hated, to bee nothyng esteemed.
Fastidium meū, wherewith I disdain other.
Fastidium mei, whan other disdain me.
Fastidium stomachi, lothyng of the stomache, when one cannot bryke meate.
Fastigatio, onis, f. m. g. the making of a thyng sharpe toward the toppe, steple wyse.
Fastigiatus, or Fastigatus, a, um, reyled by sharpe towarde the toppe.
Fastigiatus in mucrone, sharpened to poyncte.
Fastigio, aui, are, to make or reyle by in heygth sharpe towarde toppe.
Fastigium, gi, n. ge. an altitude or the toppe or heygth of any thyng, a rydge of an house: also the bottome of a pitte of lyke thyng, sometyme the begynnyng of a matter. Sometime it signifieth the estate of a person in any dignitee, sometime the ende of a thyng.
Summi fastigia tecti, The ridge or toppe of the house.
Fastigium imponere, is spoken whan a man will signifie a matter of thyng to be fynished or brought to a poyncte.
Fastigium, idem quod genus.
Tria sunt agrorum fastigia, id est genera, Three kyndes or sortes.
Fastigium tenere inter homines, To bee of great authoritee or power, to be highly aduanced or in great promotion.
Fastigo, aui, are, idem quod Fastigio.
Fastosus, a, um, that proude disdaineth other.
Fastus, us, m. g. hautenesse of mynde, pride, arrogancie with proude woordes.
Fatalis, le, pertynyng to destenie, fatall: sometime mortall.

Fataliter, deadly, by destiny.
 Fatantur, id est, Multa fantur.
 Fateor, éris, fassus sum, éri, when a person that is culpable or faultie, doeth confesse and acknowledge his offence, in manner by conscript. Also to bitter and affirme boldly without constraint, boldly or freely to confesse.
 De se ipso haud cunctanter fassus est, as for him selfe he confessed without delay.
 Fatisco, looke Fatisco.
 Faticinus, a, um, that telleth destiny.
 Fatidicus, a, um, that readeth or telleth destinies or thynges to come, a sooth saier.
 Fátifer, rífera, um, that bringeth death or pestilence, deadly.
 Fatigatio, ónis, f. g. a weeryng.
 Fatigatus, a, um, weired.
 Fatigatus corpore, fessus animo.
 Fatigo, aui, are, to make weire, to trouble much, to moue, to constrain, to encourage, to beate or strike, to stirre or prouoke, to restreigne or let.
 Fatigare deum votis, to pray and call upon god very instantly.
 Fatigare vinculis & carcere, to rule and bying to confirme and reason by imprisonment.
 Spe laudum corda fatigar, he doth earnestly sollicite or encourage with hope of prayse.
 Iuécum terga fatigamus hasta. Verg. id est, percurimus.
 Quæ mare nunc terræque metu cælumq' fatigat, id est, perturbat, commoner.
 Fatiloqua, a wythe.
 Fatiloquus, a, um, idem quod Fatidicus.
 Fatisco, scere, to be weired, to thynke or cleave, to open, gape, or chappe, as the earthe doeth in a dythe, to waxe feynte or feble, to become barayne, and as it were weired of bearynge, as the earthe with ouer much tylling.
 Area fatiscit, the floore choppeth.
 Accusatores non fatiscebant, were not weired.
 Fator, aris, ari, to speake muche.
 Fatuitas, átis, f. g. folishenesse.
 Fatum, ti, n. ge. the ordinaunce and disposition of almyghtie god, destiny, goddes prouidence. sometyme death: sometyme calamitee or greete mischaunce of aduersitee.
 Fato consulem fieri, To be made consull by the the ordinaunce of god.
 Si fatum tibi est, if it be thy destiny.
 Fati dies, the day of ones death.
 Fato concedere, to die.
 Fato fungi, to be dead.
 In his qui fato sunt functi, among them which be dead.
 Veneno fata præcepit, he kyled him selfe with poyson.
 Fatuor, áris, ari, to play the foole or idiothe.
 Fatuus, a, um, that hath spoken.
 Fátuus, a, um, vnauery, withoute any manner of taste, swilke, that lacketh naturall knowlage, an idiothe.

Fatuus, a naturall foole, withoute any wyses dome or good facion, or after some one that speaketh folish wordes, folish in wordes or saynges.
 Fatua dea, called also Bona dea, the name of the earthe, so called, because chylzen when they be bozne, dooe not utter any voyce, before they haue touched the earthe.
 Fauces, cium, f. g. plu. the chokes, the towes, the upper parte of the throte. Also a straitte entre into any place. Also the mouth of a riuer.
 Fauce is sometyme redde in the singular nũbre.
 Immani fauces ducit lueta, He gapeth meruaylouse wyde.
 Crucior bolum tantum mihi & faucibus ereptum, It greeneth me soze, that suche a good morsell, gobbet, or pray, is snatched oute of my mouth.
 Fauentia, a cite in Italie, called commonly.
 Faenza, an othet of Spaine.
 Fauentinus, a man of Fauentia.
 Faueo, ui, ere, to fauour, to beare good wyll, to be still and kepe silence.
 Fauere linguis, to kepe silence.
 Fauere faucibus, fauere ore, idem.
 Inuidere & fauere, contrary.
 Honori alicuius fauere, to will well the encrease and furtheraunce of ones honour.
 Male fauere alicui, To beare one lyttell good wyll.
 Isti sententiæ faueo, I like this sentence well.
 Fauetur, the impersonall.
 Fauiani, certayne people.
 Fauii, people whiche discende of Hercules.
 Fauilla, æ, f. m. ge. a dead sparke of fyre, hotte ashes or embres extincted.
 Fauiscæ, certayne cellers in the courts of the capitol at Rome, where were wont to bee laied the banners of the Romaynes, whiche were bozne in warres. Also therein was laied the treasure and money, whiche the priestes of the temples in the capitall, dyd employ about thynges necessarie to their supersticion and ceremonies.
 Fauna, idem quod farua.
 Fauni, were named of the poetes rusticall goddes, and monstrous beastes lyke vnto men.
 Faunus, an aunciente kynge of the olde Latines, sonne of Picus, he was also called Faueus, and was father of Latinus, whiche reygned in Latium, whose wife was called Fatua or Fauna.
 Fauoniána, órum, n. g. pearces whiche are redde.
 Fauonius, one of the wyndes called the southwester wynde.
 Fauor, óris, masc. gene. fauour, good wyll, supposition.
 Studium & Fauor.
 Facere fauorem, to get one fauour.
 Emereri fauorem, to deserue ones fauour or good wyll, to get fauour.
 Fauorabilis, le, fauoured of many, fauourable.

Hh iij

Also

Also that fauoureth.
 Inuidiosus & fauorabilis, contrary.
 Fauorabiliter, fauourably wyth good wyll or sup-portation.
 Fauorinus, a philosophier in the tyme of Adrian the emperour.
 Fauste, prouersouely, fortunately, luckely.
 Faustianum vinum, wyne made of the graspes growyng in the myddes of the fieldes called Falerni.
 Faustitas, âtis, form. gen. good fortune, good lucke, hapynesse.
 Faustus, the sonne of Sylla.
 Faustulus, a shepheard, whiche was the nourys-her of Romulus and Remus.
 Faustus, a, um, prosperous, fortunate, luckie.
 Fautor, ôris, ma. g. one that fauoureth or supporteth.
 Fautrix, icis, f. g. she that fauoureth, or suppo-
 reth, she that sustenteth or mainteyneth.
 Fauulus, a litle hony combe.
 Fauus, ui, m, g. a hony combe.
 Fax, âcis, f. g. a torch or candell, or other lyke thyng, which burnyng, giueth light, a chiefe author or mouer, one that incenceth or sterceth a man to any thyng, a chiefe stercer or mouer.
 Fax accusationis, the chiefe authour and furtherer of an accusation.
 Faces corporis, the motions or appetites of the bodie.
 Dicendi faces, a very eloquente and earnest maner of oracion aboundyng with all figures of amplification and other ornaments of Rhetoricke.
 Fax seditionis, a thyng that is a greate occasion or maintenaunce of sedition.
 Præferre faces, by translation, to shewe the way, or prouoke by his example.
 Addere faces, & subdere faces alicui, to ins-tense and encourage one forwarde in doyng any thyng.
 Dolorum faces admouere, to geue one greate occasion of sorow and heuynesse.
 Faxim, let me dooe.
 Lubens faxim, I wyll dooe it with a ryght good wyll.
 Verbum caue faxis, beware thou speake not one woorde.
 Veinam dii ita faxint, I would the goddes would bypnyge it so to passe.
 Faxint, let them dooe.
 Faxis, I wyll or shall dooe.
 Faxiolus, li, m. g. the fruite of a certayne tree in the realme of Zenega, in Afrike, whiche are redde with blacke spottes.

Febriticus, aui, are, to be sycke of a feuer.
 Febricula, læ, form. gener. a littell or casse feuer.

Habere febriculam, to be sicke of an ague.
 Febrifugia, loke Centaurium, some thynke it to be one of the kyndes of the herbe, whiche is called of olde writers Parthenyon.
 Febrilis, le, pertynyng to a feuer.
 Febrio, iui, ire, to haue a feuer.
 Febris, bris, f. g. a feuer which is an vnnaturall heate kindled at the herte, brought from thens by the veynes and arteries, by the meane of the spirite and veynes, into all the body sensibly hur-tyng his naturall operation. Therof be thre kyndes, one called Hectica, whiche is in the spirites and principall humours, and also in the firme partes of the bodie, and is eyther by it self procedyng of continuall anger, laboure, famine, excelsse of lecherie inflaming and dryng the mem-bres: or folowynge other sickeneses: Some tyme vniuersall, specially in the bodie colerpe or mes-lancolie: or elles partitular, as whan it happeneth after the weakenesse of the fyue principall members, the herte, the lunges, the lyuer, the stomache, or the reynes. An other is named Ephemera, or Diaria: whiche is an inflamation of the spirites vitall, naturall, or animall.
 In the vitall spirites, it happeneth by wrath (inflamyng, by thought or sorow restraynyng, by hotte ayre chaffyng, or by colde ayre stoppyng.
 In the naturall spirites it happeneth by hunger or thyrt inflamyng, by hotte meates and drynkes inflamyng, by replecion oppressing, by superfluous lakke or stoppyng, by accustomed exercise neglectyng, or forbearyng of customa-ble baynes, sweate, or bloudd lettyng. In the spirites animall it happeneth by to much beyng alone withoute recreation, by muche watche or lakke of sleape: by to much or ofte sleapyng, by a catarre or reume, by vntemperate heate or coldnesse of the ayre, or by to muche labour or exercise. An other feuer called Humoralis, and also Putrida, is in the humours, the matter wherof is eyther bloudd, choler, fleume, or melancholie.
 This feuer happeneth either by seruētneſſe of the sonne or ayre, or by lakke of accustomed exercise, baynes, or euacuation, by dayly surfettes, inordinate walkyng or meauyng after meales, drynkyng muche wyne after meate, hotte confections or spices after meales. Of superfluitee of meates and drynkes cometh replecion, whiche stoppeth the pores of the skynne, and the holes of the litle veines called Capillares, because they be as smal as heates. And that stopping or opilation, letteth the ventyng out of the naturall heate: by reason wherof the heate of the naturall humour (nature beyng vnable to rule it) boyleth and sensdeth by fumes, which whirlyng about cometh to the herte, and inflameth it, and passyng forth with by the veynes and arteries into all the bodie, maketh the feuer, called Putrida, which ac-cordyng to the humour, wherin it reigneth, tak-eth a sundrie name, as ye shall reade in thep seuerall places.

Accessio, and Accessus febris, the beginning of the feuer, or the encrease of the feuer.
 Ardor febris, the burning of the feuer.
 Horrores febrium, the chyllynges or shakings of the feuers.
 Intentio febris, the encrease of a feuer.
 Remissio febris, contrary.
 Reliquia febris, the grendgeing of a feuer, after the courses haue lefte a man.
 Vaga febris, a feuer that kepeth no certayne course.
 Abigere, arcere, depellere, submouere, resoluere febre, to put awaye an ague.
 Accessit febris, and Desijt, contrary.
 Minui febre, and intendi, contrary.
 Afferte & facere febre, to bypunge one in an ague.
 Febris instat, incipit, augetur, consistit, finitur, decedit, repetit, reuertitur, redit.
 Corripit febre, and incidere in febre, to fall into an ague.
 Liberare febre, to heale one of an ague.
 Remittit se febris, the feuer diminisheth.
 Februa, orum, plu. sacrifice, and ceremonies for purgynge of soules. Also all thynges vsed in sacrifice to purge and cleanse.
 Februatus, a, um, that whych was so purged.
 Februarius, ij, m. g. the moneth of Februarie.
 Februo, aui, are, to purge soules by sacrifice or prayer.
 Februum, i, neu. g. in the Sabyne tongue, is called purgynge or clensynge.
 Februus, is also Pluto called god of hell.
 Fecialis, is, m. g. a certayne officer of armes whiche denounced warre or peace, where as was hostilitie or cause of battayle: whiche maye be nowe taken for an ambassadour, sente for suche a purpose.
 Fecialis, le, belongynge to that officer of armes.
 Fel, fellis, n. g. the galle; sometyme it is taken for grieve of the mynde.
 Fel terra, the herbe called Centaurium, loke there.
 Sales suffusi felle, taunting scoffes.
 Felicones, men that are necessarie for nothyng, it hath an other signification, whych for the abhorriblenesse therof I wyl not wyte: sence it is moze expedient that it be unknowne.
 Felis, lis, m. g. a catte; sometyme it signifieth a weasell.
 Felix, icis, loke Felix.
 Felleus, a, um, bitter lyke gall.
 Fellico, aui, are, to sucke.
 Felsina, æ, a citee in Italie, nowe called Bononia.
 Feltrum, a towne in Italie in the countrey called Marchia Tarufina.
 Femen, minis, n. g. the innee part of the thygh. Sometyme the priue membe of a woman.
 Feminalia, the heueryng of the thyghes.
 Femoralia, lium, n. g. plur. breeches;

Femur, oris, n. g. the bitter and harder parte of the thygh, some enghyshe it the hamme.
 Femur bubulum, an herbe, holisome for the newes.
 Fenestella, le, m. g. the proper name of a stoye wyter, whych flooyshed in the dapes of Tibertius. Caesar dnt Eusebius affirmeth, that he died in the tyme of Augustus.
 Fenestella, le, f. g. a litle window.
 Fenestra, æ, f. g. a wyndowe, sometyme an entrie into a thyng.
 Fenestram aperire, to open a wyndowe, to geue an occasion, to make awaye.
 Quantam fenestram ad nequitiam patefeceris? Howe grete a gapper shalte thou open to naughtynesse: how grete an occasion shalte thou geue to doe lewdely.
 Fenestralis, le, belongynge to a wyndowe.
 Fenestrat, a, um, opened.
 Nulla est fenestration domus, no house is moze open.
 Fenestrenula, æ, a litle wyndowe.
 Fenestro, aui, are, to open.
 Ferabiles, whiche shal be conquered.
 Fera, æ, f. g. a wylde beaste.
 Feracitas, atis, fruitfulness.
 Ferialia, orum, n. g. plur. a dape: dedicate to the infernall goddes to pacifie theym towards the soules departed. They were also sacrifices made for soules.
 Ferialis, le, deadly of mostall, lamentable.
 Ferialia officia, sollemnities aboute dead bodies.
 Ferialia amacula, wyndyng sheetes, and stiche lyk thynges, wherin dead bodies were lapped.
 Ferialis cultus, mourning apparayle.
 Ferialis dies, the dape of buryng.
 Ferax, acis, om, ge. fruitfull, of that bypgeth forth muche fruite.
 Ferax miraculorum Asia, Asia bypnyng forth many metuaylouse and straunge thynges.
 Ferax ingenium, a plentifull wyte.
 Feraces agri, fruytfull and fertile fieldes.
 Ferax solum, a ranke soyle.
 Ferax bonarum artium seculum, a tyme, in the which learyng and good sciences do flooysh.
 Ferbo, bui, ere, to boyle or seeth.
 Ferulum, li, neu. g. a dishe with meate. also a pageant caried or bozhe to be looked on in a triumph, as were in olde tyme, the images of the goddes, spoyle of the enemies, crownes, ingyns of warre, and other lyke thynges. Sometyme it signifieth the stage or place, wherin the pagent is sette.
 Ferè, almoste, nyghe, well nyghe, lasking but litle, for the moste parte.
 Rure ferè se continebat, he abode or tarped for the moste parte in the countrey.
 Ferè in diebus paucis, shortly after within fewe dapes.
 Qui tum fere multis erat in ore, Whiche was than than all moſte in euery mans mouth.

 Vtor ferē hae veſte in ſacris, faciendis; in do-yng ſacriſtyre, I moſt commonly waite this garment.
 Veſet & ſtyr as it chaunteth for the moſt parte: of
 as it chaunteth almoſte in euery place.
 Ferē plerumque, for the moſte parte, moſte commonly.
 Ferentarius, a, um, armed in lpyde harnes, re-die to come quickly to ſuccours, dyng to ſpygh with a darte, ſwoorde, or ſpyng.
 Ferentarius amicus, a friende; that helpeth at tyme of neede.
 Ferentinum, a cite, which after Polinie ſtandeth in the ſpyſte region of Italie.
 Ferentum, a cite in Apulia.
 Ferēola vitis, a kynde of vynde.
 Feretrius, a name of Iupiter, geuen by Romulus.
 Feretum, ari, neu. g. a beere of coſlyn, whereon deade bodies are bozne. ſometyme a thyng, whereon images, reliques, or iewells are bozne.
 Fēretus, a mounteyne, of the wyche the houſe of Phereire was named.
 Feriā, arum, ſem. genel plu. holy dayes, daies vacant from labour.
 Feriā belli, tymes of variation from warres.
 Feriā ſtatiā, holy dayes that come at one ſertayne tyme of the yere.
 Conceptiā feriā, feaſtes & holy dayes, whiche were ordeyned perely by the pylates and maieſtrates, but at no certayne tyme.
 Feriā imperatiā, extraordinarie holy dayes commaunded ſodeinly by officers, for ſome thing that hath chaunced.
 Feriā eſuriales, faſtyng dayes.
 Feriātus, a, um, vnoccupied or ydle.
 Feriati dies, holy dayes.
 Feriatus voluntate ſua a negotiis publicis,
 one that is not occupied or buſied about the affayres of the common weale.
 Ferina, a, f. ge. veniſon, ſiſhe of a wylde beaſt.
 Ferina caro, idem.
 Ferinus, a, um, wylde as a beaſt, or pertynyng to wylde beaſtes, or lyke to a wylde beaſt.
 Ferio, aui, are, and Ferior, aris, ari, the depo-nent, to bee vacant from labour, buſyneſſe, and ſtudie, to make holy daye.
 Ferio, percusi, ferire, to ſtryke, to ſlablyſhe, to knocke.
 Ferire ſecus, to make a league or truce.
 Ferire iugulum, to ſlea, to hit the marke.
 Feriunt aures hominum, whan thynges that are ſpoken doe pleaſauntly ſere vp men to her-ken to them.
 Ferire cornu, to buſhe with the hozne.
 Feriam fores, I wyll knocke at the doze.
 Oculos feriunt quacunque conſpici poſſunt.
 Pectus ferire, to ſtryke or knocke ones beſt.
 Pecunias ferire, to coyne money.

Pugno ferire, to ſtryke with the ſpyſte.
 Calce ferire, to ſtryke or hyſhe.
 Ferire roſtro, to perke with the byll.
 Ferire ſecuri, to cut of with an axe, to doe excucion.
 Porcum ferire, to ſacrifice an hogge.
 Feritas, atis, ſor. g. a naturall wyldeſſe; ſpyſte-ſneſſe, crueltie.
 Ferme, almoſte, well nere, for the moſte parte.
 Hand ferme, ſtantly, hardly.
 Fermentesco, teſcere, to puſſe or riſe vpp by leaueninge, and in the grounde to lye lpygh and not faſte to gether.
 Fermento, aui, are, to medle or myſte well together, as leauen with dowe, alſo to leauen.
 Fermentare terram, after Calopine, to make faſte the grounde: but diuers places in Colu-tiella doe well declare, that Fermentare terram, is to reſolue the earth into duſt, and make it light, ſoluble, and lewſe, and not to be ſadde, faſte, compact, and cloddy together.
 Fermentum, ti, n. g. leaue.
 Mea vxor tota in fermento iacet, my wyfe is verie angrie, greatly mewed, all beſhewmed.
 Fero, fers, tuli, ferre, to beare, to ſuffre, to ſuſteigne or abyde, to leade or byngge, to eſcape or go awaye, to ſape, to name, to ſhewe or tell, to repoſte, to deſpye, to byngge ſwath, to haue, to boaiſte, to take awaye, to receyue, to obteyne, to accuſtome.
 Balbum vero, qui eſt iſtius rei (quemadmodum ſcribis) adiutor, in oculis fero, Balbus, who (as you wyte) is the helper of all this mat-tier, I loue herſtile, or I greatly eſteeme.
 Ferre acceptum, I ſhewe Acceptum ferre.
 Ferre ad celum, to extolle or playſe a man by redynglye.
 Ferre in aſtra, idem.
 Ferre ad populum, or Ferre rogationem ad
 populum, to aſke aduiſe of the people.
 Aggre ferre, to take it greuouſely.
 Aequo animo ferre, to take patiently.
 Ferre annos, aut vetuſtatem, to endure long, or beare well bys age. It is proppely ſpoken of wyne, or other lyke thyng.
 Ferre conditionem, to proſſer, to put to the choyle, to offer a condicion.
 Ferre expenſum, To ſpende, to laye out, to wyte expenſes, to beſtowe.
 Utinam ita fortuna tuliffet, I woulde it had ſo fortunad.
 Ita fama ferebat, ſo the byute went.
 Fortiter ferre, to abide or ſtepyne conſtantly.
 Fructum ex aliquo ferre, to take proſyt by one.
 Fructum ferre, to byngge ſwath the fruite.
 Ferre gradum, to go ſwath.
 Ferre grauitate, to take a thyng greuouſely.
 Fero tibi iudicem, I am contented to be iudged by ſuche one: leat hym be iudge betweene vs, or iudge the matter betweene vs.
 Fer contra manum, geue me thy hande.

Ferre me, beate with me.

Ferre moleste, to take a thyng greuously, or displeasauitly.

Ferre obscure aliquid, To dissemble a thyng, to kepe secret, to make as though it were not.

Paupertatem tuam nunq̃ obscure tulisti, you dyd neuer dissemble or hyde your pouertee.

Odium ferre pro labore, for ones labour and trauaile to be hated.

Ferre osculum, to kysse.

Ferre palam, to speake it abrode, to publishe a thyng secretly.

Partum, or ventrem ferre, to be wyth chyld.

Pedem ferre, to go fowthe, poetice.

Personam alienam ferre, to playe an other mans parte.

Premium ferre, to be rewarded or recompensed.

Precium ferre, idem.

Primas ferre, to haue the pryce or preeminence, to be chiefe.

Palmam ferre idem.

Præilegium de aliquo ferre, whan the prynce or maiestie requirith the people to enacte a thyng in preiudice of any particular person.

Ferre questionem, whan the magistrates despye the people to ordeyne iudges extraordinaire in a private case.

Situa res fert, If neede bee, if the matter so require.

Repulsam ferre, to be refused, or put backe in a requeste.

Responsum ferre, to haue answer.

Maximū responsum tulere, They had an heauy answer.

Ferre sententiam, to shewe his opinion.

Sese obuiam ferre, to go and mete with hym.

Signa ferre, to marche agaynst enemies wyth banners displayed.

Ferre sitim, to suffer thirste.

Suffragia ferre, To geue voyce in election, or other consent.

Ferre suppetias, to succour.

Susq̃ deq̃ fero, I care not, I passe not on it.

Ferri, to be boorne or caried.

Feror, I go I wotte not how lyke a wadde man.

Dum tempus ad eam rem tulit, whyle tyme serueth therfore, whyle it was conuenient.

Dum ætas fert, while age suffereth or requirith.

Tūne hoc aliter à me argentum feras? Shalt thou haue this money of me, if thou do not?

Quod posces, feres, what so euer you wil requyre or aske, you shall obteyne.

Eius se magistrum ferebat, he sayed he was his mayster.

Et vt ætas illa fert, and as the facion or condition of that age is.

Fert animus, it is my pleasure, it pleaseeth me, I am disposed.

Arma ferre aduersus patriam, to warre agaynst his countrey.

Auxilium ferre, to ayde, to helpe, to come to the rescue.

Clam itam ferre aduersus aliquem, To beate grudge and malice agaynst one priuile.

Maiori strepitu quàm populi Romani fert cōsuetudo, with greater noyse then the custome and facion of the Romaynes was.

Ita fama ferebat, so the byute or rumoze went.

Præcipuam gloriam tulit, he had the chiefe renowne and prayse.

Immoderate, or Immodicè res aduersas ferre, To take aduersities in vnpatiently.

Impune & inultū ferre, to escape unpunished.

Iracundè ferebat, he was veraye angry and displeased with the matter.

Laudem ferre, to haue great prayse.

Ferre laudibus, to extolle, to praise.

Ferre lucem, to abyde the light.

Fer in notitiam meam, geue me knowlage.

Faciet, quæ feret libido, he wyll doe, what so euer his fantasie or pleasure shall leade hym to.

Vt natura ferebat, as nature ledde hym: actors dyng to his nature and inclination.

Natura fert, it is a thyng naturall.

Nomen alicuius ferre, to beate the name of any person, to be called after hym.

Neg id occultè fert, he yther doeth he that pryuplie or in coyners.

Vt mea fert opinio, as I thynke, as I suppose.

Plagas ferre, to be beaten.

Precium obstititiam fero, I haue a rewarde for my toyl & nesses.

Ferre rem vulgo, to diuulgate or tell abrode.

Ferre salutem alicui, to geete or salute.

Sententiam ferre, To speake ones opinion or iudgement.

Non feret, quin vapulet, He shall not goe as waye befoze he be beaten.

Supplicium ferre, to be punished.

Preces deo ferre, to praye.

Victoriam ferre, to haue the victoie.

In questionem seruū ferre, to deliuer a seruauant to be examined by tormentes.

Via quæ ad portam fert, the streete whiche leaseth to the gate.

Fertur ad terrā vitis, The vyne groweth downe towards the grounde.

Tributum ferre, to paye tribute.

Fertur, the impersonalle, the repozte is, the byute is.

Ferunt dixisse, they report that he sayed.

Ferocia, æ, f. m. g. fierfenesse.

Ferocio, ciui, ire, to be fierse or cruell.

Ferocitas, âris, f. g. in shewynge cruelties, fierfenesse, cruellnesse, hastinesse.

Ferociter, fierfely, cruelly.

Feroculus, li, m. ge. one that is somewhat fierse or arrogant.

Feronia, the goddess of wooddes. it was also the goddess of seruantes, in whose temple (the head beyng shauen) they were wonte to receyue a copped cappe, in token that they were in franchises.

chised. it is also a citee vnder the hyll Socrates.
Ferox, ócis, omn. gene. fierce, arrogant, glorious, hardy, courageous, cruell, vnttractable, curst or shrewed.
Eó ne es ferox, quia habes imperium in belluas: Arte thou therfore so hasty on men, because thou arte mayster ouer brute beastes.
Ferox forma, prowde and gloppouse of his beautee.
Ferramentarij, órum, ma. ge. they whych worke in yron.
Ferramentum, ti, neu. g. an instrument of tole of yron.
Ferramenta tonsoria, barbours toles.
Ferraria, æ, f. g. an yron myne.
Ferraria, ferrer, a citee in Italye. also a promons tope in Spayne.
Ferrarius, a, um, perteynyng to yron, or of yron.
Ferrarius faber, a Smythe.
Ferraria officina, a Smythes forge.
Ferraria aqua, The water in the cole throughe, wherein Smythes vse to quenche hotte yron.
Ferratus, a, um, haupnge yron on it, or closed in yron.
Ferreo, a, um, of yron. And by translacon, harde to intreate, vnhynde.
Durus & ferreo, Ferus & ferreo.
Ferreo scriptor, an authour that hathe an harde and crabbed stile.
Ferro, aui, are, to set yron on.
Ferrugineus, a, um, of the colour of rusty yron, a blew colour.
Ferrugo, inis, f. g. ruste of yron, a murray colour. some call it a sadde blew. also the fringe about a canopy or other lyke thyng.
Ferreo, ti, neu. ge. yron. sometyne a weapon.
absumere ferro aliquem, To kille one with a sworde.
adegit ferro in viscera, he thurst hys sword into his bealy.
Cernere ferro, to trye by dente of sworde.
Ferrumen, inis, n. g. glewe, sple, soulder, or suche other byndyng or cleauyng matter.
Ferruminatio, ónis, f. g. a sowdyng with yron.
Ferrumino, aui, are, to ioygne or myrte together, properly mettalles, to soulder.
Fertilis, le, fertile or fruitefull, ranke, battle.
Fertilitas, áris, form. g. fruitefulnessse, fertilitye, battlenesse of the grownd, abundance.
Fertiliter, fruitefully, abundantly.
Fertum, ti, n. ge. a cake made of sundry graynes and spices.
Feruofacio, uéfacis, féci, etc. to make hot.
Feruens, entis, that is veraye hotte, that scaldeth, fierce, feruente, chauffed, angry, vehement.
Feruens aqua, scaldyng hotte water.
Feruens gustu radix, vehement and burnyng taft. Feruens hora diei, the middaye.
Feruens ingenium, a fierce or hasty nature.
Feruenter, hottely.

Ferreo, es, ui, and Ferbui, ére, to be chauffed or hotte, to boyle, to seethe, to be veraye angry.
Ira totus feruet, he is thoroughly chauffed with anger.
Fora litibus omnia feruent, All the common places of iudgements be greatly busied and occupied with suites and matters of the lawe.
Feruofco, ferbui, feruofcere, to waxe hotte.
Feruofce, vehemently, with a great heate.
Feruofus, a, um, feruent, veraye hotte, scaldyng, vehement, also diligent.
Ferula, læ, f. g. a certayne herbe, haupng a stalke lyke to fenell, and as Turno indgeth, maye be named fenell gyant, or herbe Sagapene. it is taken for a rodde of styrke, wherewith chyldrens handes be stryken in schooles, called a paulmer. Also a cane of reede, a potte styrke. sometyne a splente to splente a broken synger or legge with.
Ferula manum subducere, To go to schole with a mayster, & to be beaten as the other be.
Ferulaceus, a, um, like the herbe called Ferula.
Ferularius, a, um, lyke a cane of reede.
Feruo, ferui, ére, to be hotte, to be chauffed, to be angry.
Feruit sol, the sonne is hotte.
Feruor, óris, m. ge. a greate heate or burnyng, vehemencie, great anger.
Ferus, a, um, wyld, cruell, terrible.
Fescenninum, a towne of Campaine, where verses songe at mariages were fyrst inuented.
Fescennini versus, verses songe at weddynges, full of ribauldry, scoffes, and tauntes.
Festis pro ferijs, aliquando dixerunt antiqui.
Festus, a, um, weerie.
Festus via, and De via, weerie with iourneyng.
Festus vita, weery of his lyfe.
Festus cursu, weery of rennyng.
Artus festi, weery lymmes.
Festinas, anris, that maketh haste or speede.
Festinant, Festinante, and Festine, hastyly, quickly, swifely, speedily. sometime without aduysment.
Festinatio, ónis, f. g. haste or speede.
Adhibere festinationem, to make speede.
Festinatio, and Otium, contrary.
Festinato, speedily, in haste.
Festinator, óris, m. g. one that maketh haste.
Festinatus, a, um, hastened, down with speede.
Festino, aui, are, to make haste, to be troubled, to hie apace.
Festina lente, speede the slowly, make slowe hast: soft fire maketh swete malte, it is good be merie and wise, this is, &c. spoken, where a man will signifie a thyng to be doen, neyther to hastyly, nother to slowly, but in a conuenient temperance. Se my booke of the gournour in the chapter of maturitee.
Comes festinationis penitentia, hast bynggeth repentance, hast is hasty mans woe.
Propere & festinare.

F A N T E L

Festinat ad fratrem, he maketh haste to goe to his brother.
Nihil festinat, he maketh no haste.
Fugam festinare, to make haste of speede, to cenne awaye.
Mortem in se festinauit, he hastened his owne deathe.
Festinant esseda, They make ready the mags gons of chariottes with all speede.
Quid festinas? why hyst thou to faste? or what is the matter that thou art so troubled and makest suche haste?
Festinor, the passus.
Festinus, a, um, hastie, quicke.
Festine, merylye, pleasauntlye, feately, pteatly, iolyly.
Festiuus, atis, form. g. mythe, pleasauntlye, ioyefulnesse.
Festiuo, aui, are, to keepe holye daye.
Festiuus, a, um, mery, pleasaunt, prouokynge myth, ioyous: also ptepeynng to holy dayes.
Festiuum caput, a mery, and pleasaunt felowe.
Festiuus sermo, pleasant and mery talke.
Festra, a littell wycket.
Festuca, x, f. gen. the ponge tender sprynge of a tree or herbe, also a mote. also the rodde, whiche the pteoz vled among the Romans, in making bondmen fre.
Festucarius, a, um, ptepeynng to Festuca, belonging to the pteozs rodde.
Festus, a, um, mannes name, familiar with Domitian.
Festum, ti, n. g. a feastiuall daye.
Festus, a, um, feastfull or solemne.
Dies festus, an holy daye.
Festa pax, a ioyfull peace.
O dies festus, O mery and ioyfull daye.
Festus clamor, a crye or shoute of men feasting and mahyng mery.
Conuitia festa, mery tauntes.
Cultus festus, apparell vled on holy dayes.
Celebrare & agere dies festos, to solemnise and kepe holy dayes.
Fesula, arum, f. gen. plu. an olde citee in Tus cane, not farre from Flovence.
Fex, loke Fax.

F A N T E I.

Fiber, bri, m. gen. a beast called a beuer, called also Castor, whose stones are vled in medicine, and are named Castorium: it is also a kynde of waspes.
Fibra, x, form. gen. the bymmes of a ruer, or any other thyng. also Fibra are the extreme partes of the lyuer, the herte, the lungues, or of ther thynges, wherin is any diuision. They maye be called lappes. also small thynges lyke heares, hangynge at the rootes of herbes or trees. Sometyne the small poyes of the beynes, by the which the sweatte issueth. Also in bloude congeled,

F A N T E I.

thynges lyke theedes, whiche are taken out, ere they make puddynges.
Neg mihi cornua fibra est, I am not so harde herted.
Fibratus, a, um, that hath bymmes or small thynges hangynge at it lyke heares, as the bearde of an ongon.
Fibrinus, a, um, of a beuer.
Fibula, x, form. gener. a buckle of a byrdell or other thyng lyke therio, a tache or clasp. Also in buydynge it is a brace, in masonrie it is a craspon or yron hook, to holde square stones together. Also a thyng that surgions vse to close woundes. Sometyne a littell housse or ryng of brasse.
Tigna coniuncta fibulis, The principall postes ioyned strongly together with braces.
Fibulo, aui, are, to buckle, to ioyne or fasten together tymber or bourdes, or other like thynges.
Ficaria, x, f. ge. a fygge tree, or rather the place where fygge trees growe.
Ficarius, a, um, that despyeth to eate fygges.
Ficatum, ti, neu. gener. the liuer of a hogge or swyne.
Ficdula, x, form. g. a byrde whiche feedeth on fygges or grapes.
Ficetum, ti, neu. gene. a place where fygge trees doe growe.
Ficitor, toris, mas. gen. he that loueth or gathereth fygges.
Ficolea, x, f. g. a staffe or stake of a fygge tree.
Ficosus, fulle of soyes in the heade or in the bearde.
Ficte, feygnedly, with counterfaytinge, not sincerely.
Fictile, lis, a thyng made of earth.
Fictilis, le, earthen or made of earthe.
Fictitiu, a, um, feigned, or dissembled, counterfitted.
Fictor, oris, ma. ge. a counterfayer, a feigner, a potter that maketh earthen vessels.
Fictrix, icis, f. g. the feminine.
Fictus, a, um, made to the similitude of a thyng feigned, inuented to no purpose.
Ficulnea arbor, a figge tree.
Ficulneus, a, um, & Ficulnus, a, um, of a fygge tree.
Ficulus, li, m. g. a littell fygge.
Ficus, secundæ & quartæ declinationis, for. ge. a fygge, or figge tree.
Ficus Aegyptia, called also Sycomorus, is a tree, whych hath his name of a figge tree, and a mulberie tree, and therfore may be called mulberie fygge tree.
Ficus, ci, masc. gene. a soye or scabbe, growynge in the places of a mans bodye, where heare is. Sometyne a fygge.
Fidei commissarius, a trooster of truste.
Fidei commissum, a trooffement of truste.
Fidei commissus, a, um, that is committed to one, to be by hym disposed to a certayn vfe.

Fidei

Fideicommitto, misse, tere, to enfeoffe.
Fideiussor, ôris, a suretee or bapowe.
Fidelia, æ, form. gene. an earthen vessel, ser-uing to dyuers purposes. Also a carpenters line, chalked to marke out the euen propozition of
 thynges.
De eadem fidelia duos parietes dealbare, spous-hen of hym that with one benefite or pleasures woulde deserue thanke of two persons.
Fidelis, le, faithfull, loyall, trusty, sure.
Fidelitas, âtis, form. gener. faithfulness, loyaltie,
 suretee.
Fideliter, Fidele, and Fide, faithfullye, truelye, ryghtely.
Fidena, æ, or fidenæ, arum, a towne in Italy.
Fidenates, people of the Sabines.
Fidentia, æ, f. g. a confidence, boldnesse, truste, credite, estimation, tuition, sauēgarde.
Fideiubeo, fidei bes, to bee suretee for an other, to wyl a thyng to be done on his warrantise.
Fideiussio, ônis, f. g. suretishyp.
Fidens, entis, trustyng, bolde, haupng a good confidence.
Fidenter, stoutly, boldly, with a good confidence.
Timide & fidenter, contrary.
Fides, ei, form. gene. beleefe, truste, promyse, credite, estimation, tuition, sauēgarde. It is a stableness and truth in promyses and cou-nauntes. It is also a faithfull exercion of thynges committed or promysed, faithful-nesse, true dealinge, bypghnes of conscience.
Fides labefactata, affecta, afflictā, credence losse.
Fides publica, assurance or warrantise made in the name of al the rulers, and people for a man to doe or save a thyng safely withoute peryll or hurte, saue conducte.
Fide nulla es, thou hepest no promyse.
Fide bona, without fraude or couen.
Fide sua, mea, tua, iubere, to undertake.
Fidem accipere, to be beleued.
Fidem astringere, to promise faithfully.
Fidem deserere, prodere, abrumpere, fallere, frangere, mutare, to breake promyse, to be forsworne, to goe from ones word, to be un-constant of promyse.
Fidem habere, to beleue. also to be beleued.
Fidem labefactare, to lose credence.
Fidem liberare, implere, exoluere, præstare, seruare, to discharge ones promyse or honestie,
 to keepe promyse.
Fidem publicam dare, to geue assurance or warrantise, to graunt a safe conducte.
Fide tua esse iubes, Thou dost undertake, thou dost make warrantise.
Fidem excedere, to be incredible.
Fide maius esse, idem.
Fidem rei exhibere, to declare that a thyng is trewe, to shewe a true pofe of a thyng, to doe a thyng in dede.
Fidem dare, to promyse, to plight ones trouthe,

Ad fidem veri, for the confirmacion and desclaracion of the truth.
Fides sit penes authorem, Lest the first teller thereof answer for the truth.
Fide nulla homo, or fidei nullius, a man of no credite, a man of no honestie, of no substantiall dealing.
Fide publica venire, to come vnder saulfe con-ducte.
Fronti nulla fides, a man maye not bee trusted or beleued by his looke.
Inest in verbis fides, There is in his wordes substantialnesse of truth.
Absonum fidei, not to be beleued, vnphely to be trew.
Haud magna cum re, fed fidei plenus, A man of no great substance, but saythfull and trustie.
Abrogare alicui fidem, to credyte a man no more.
Bona fides, substantiall and trewe dealinge,
 without gyle or craft, contrary to Dolus malus.
Bona fide dicere, to speake as one thyngeth in his conscience, without leasng.
Bona fide emere, to bye a thyng without fraude or gyle.
Fac hoc quod te iubemus, mea fide, Do this that we byd you on my warrantise.
A fide aliquem abducere, to entice a man to doe agaynst his othe and conscience.
Abhorret a fide, it is not lykely to be true.
In fidem accipere, to take vnder obedience and protection.
Fidem detrahare alicui, to bypnge a man out of reputation or credite.
Alligare fidem iuramento, to sweare.
Committre se in fidem vel fidei alicuius, to put ones selfe in the tuition and protection of a man, to truste one to doo with hym as he wylle
 hym selfe.
Fides concidit, his credence is losse, no man will truste hym.
Fides constitit, it is proued or tried.
Cum fide, saythfully, trustyly.
Ex fide scribere, to wyte a thyng truely and saythfully as it is.
Si fidem habeat, yf he mighte beleue: yf he might be in suretie, or yf he myght surely trust.
Res habuit fidem, the thyng was beleued.
Fidem nullam habent, They are nothyng lyke to be true.
Imminuere fidem alicuius, to make a man of lesse credite or estimation.
Fidem implorare, to desyre ayde or succour.
Fidem interponere, to make warrantise, to assure.
In fide populi Romani manere, to abyde or continue in the protection or sauēgarde of the people of Rome.
In fide maneri, & frangere fœdus, contrary.
Redde nunc pactam fidem, Now perfourme that you promysed.

Hoc vnum curant, vt esset mihi fides, Thys one thyng I alwayes endeavored, that a man
myght trust me at my word.

In nullius fide esse, to be in the obedience and protection of no man.

Itane parua fides mihi apud te? Doo ye truste me so litell? of am I in so smalle credyte wth
you.

Fides mihi apud hunc est, I am in good credite with this man.

Fide alicuius sumere argentum, to borrowe monye vppon an other mannes credite or warrantise.

Fidem suam tueri, to maintayne and defende his honestie and credite.

Fides, dis, f. gen. the stryng of any instrument.
sometime an harpe or lute, or other lyke instrumēt with strynges.

Conspicius fide, famous and well knowne for his runnyng on the harpe or lute.

Adhibere fides epulis, to play on the harpe or lute at a fest or banquet.

Discebāt fidibus antiqui, men of auncient time learned to play on the lute, harpe, or gitterne.

Docere aliquem fidibus, to teach one to playe on the harpe, lute, or gitterne.

Iungere vocem fidibus, to singe to the lute, or harpe.

Fidicen, fidicinis, m. gen. an harper, or one that playeth on an instrument with strynges.

Fidicina, æ, a woman harper or luter, a syngyng wenche.

Fidicinius, a, um, of or perteynyng to an harper, or player on a stringed instrument.

Fidicula, æ, f. gen. a rebetke or gitterne, also the name of a sterre.

Fidicula, arum, form. gene. plur. a tourment made with cordes or strynges, wherewith men bee tourmented, to make theym confesse treasons or felonpe.

Fidiculanus, a noble senatour of Rome.

Fidipedes, a kynde of birdes, whereof Helianus wryteth.

Fidius deus, a god among the Romayns, sonne of Jupiter.

Fido, fisis sum, fidere, to truste, to beleue, to put ones hope in a thyng.

Fiducia, æ, f. gen. truste, confidence, sometyme hope, boldenesse, moste commonly in the good parte, sometyme in the yll. It is proprelye that truste, wherin any thyng is deliuered by one man to an other, to the intent that he shall deli-uer it whan he is requyred.

Propter tuam fiduciam, for the confidence that he hath in the.

Qua fiducia id facere audeam? Howe maye I be so bolde as to doo that?

Fiducia in virtute alicuius, Confidence and truste that a man hath in ones constancie and vertue.

Fiduciam etiam diligentiz tibi habeo, I trust well, or I haue a good truste or confidence, that you wyll be so diligent.

Fiducia sui, hardynesse, confidence and trust in ones owne strength.

Fiduciam accipere, vpon ones sayth and pro-myse, to receyue possession of a thyng, whyche he muste after restore to hym, of whome he recey-ued it.

Fiduciam committere, to deliuer the possession or charge of a thyng on that condicion.

Fiduciarius, a, um, that hath the possession, charge or custodie of a thyng on condicion to restore it agayn, or elles the thyng that is so geuen or committed to ones charge.

Fiduciarius hæres, idem quod Fideicommissarius.

Legatus fiduciaria optiner operam, a lieuten-nant of a prynce hath great authozitee, but yet so that he must leaue it, whan his soueraigne commaundeth.

Philippus Corinthum Nabidi, tanquam fiduciam dedit, Philip deliuered Corinthe to Nabis, vpon condicion that yf he returned, he should restore it to him agayn, otherwyle to kepe styll the possession therof.

Fiduciaria mancipatio, aut venditio, a state in landes made vppon confidence or truste, vpon condicion that it maye bee redeemed and restored agayne, mortgage.

Fiduciaria possessio, a possession to an other mans vse, or vpon condicion.

Fidus, a, um, truste, faithfulle, sure, trewe herted.

Figlina, æ, form. gen. a potters warkehouse, or potters crafte.

Figlinum, i, n. g. a thyng made of earth.

Figlinus, a, um, that belongeth to a potters.

Figlina creta, potters clate.

Figmentum, ti, neu. gen. the woꝝke or woꝝkes manthyp. sometyme a lye, or a thyng feygned, a fogyed tale.

Figo, xi, gere, to thyste in, to stycke in, to shote in, to fasten to. Also to hange vp, as one hangeth a thyng by a walle. Sometime to dryue or fasten in the earth. Sometime to strike. also to plant or sette.

Palum humi fixit, he dryue the stake into the
grounde.

Ipsæ feraces figat humo plantas, He maye sette in the grounde the fruitefull plantes.

Figere ceruos, to hunte deere with bowes.

Figere legem, to set an acte of parliament or ordynance on a walle or poste, to the intent that all men maye reade it.

Amicis parcere, aduersarios figere, to taunte his aduersaries.

Figere carnes verubus, to spyt meat.

Figere arma, to hange vp ones armour, and by translation, to bee no more carefull for the warre.

Figere aliquem maledictis, to raille or speake spitefully

Spitefully agaynst one.
 Figere mentem in re aliqua, to sette ones cogitation of mynde on a thyng.
 Oculos figere in aliquo, to loke stedfastly by-on one, to eye one.
 Oscula figere, to kysse.
 Figere in poste, to fasten on a poste.
 Vestigia figere, to steppe suretye, that one fall not also to stop & stand still whan one is goyng.
 Figebantur nostri diuersis telis, were stiched or thrust in.
 Figularis, re, perteynyng to a pottre.
 Figularis creta, loke Figlina creta.
 Figulina, loke siglina.
 Figulus, li, m. g. a pottre.
 Figura, x, f. g. a fygure. also fauoure, Mappe, faction, sometyme a scoffe.
 Noua figura oris, suche a fauour of face as you haue not lyghtly scen.
 Species & figura humana, The fauour and Mappe of man.
 Figuratio, onis, f. g. a fourmyng or factionyng, sometyme an ymaginyng.
 Figuratus, a, um, factioned, fourmed.
 Figuro, aui, are, to make or fourme, to faction, sometyme to ymage, to gesse.
 Figurare os pueri, to faction a chyldes pronunciation or speakyng.
 Figurare orationem, to garnishe an oracion with fygures of eloquence.
 Figurare tamen potestis, qui, &c. yet you may imagine. &c.
 Filatim, threde by threde.
 Filia, x, f. g. a daughter.
 Adultera filia, a bastarde daughter.
 Collocare filiam, to geue his daughter in marriage.
 Filiaster, tri, m. g. a sonne in lawe by an other wyfe, or an other husbnde.
 Filica, idem quod filix.
 Filietum, ti, n. g. a ferny grounde.
 Filicula, x, f. g. ferne growyng on trees, called in grecke Polypodium, in Englishe Polepodium, or walferne.
 Filiola, x, f. g. a little daughter.
 Filiolus, li, m. g. a little sonne.
 Filistim, a cuntrepe that is now called Iscalon.
 Filius, li, m. g. a sonne. Filius etiam in brutis, a colte, a whelp, or the yonge of any beaste.
 Filij, sometyme dwelth conteyne both sonnes and daughters.
 Filius terræ, a newe begun gentylman, or a gentylman of the fyrste head. After some a vile person, of an unknowen birth.
 Fratri filius, a nephewe.
 Fortunæ filius, a fortunate persone, whyche hath prosperous successe in all his doynges.
 Iustus filius, a sonne begotten in a wedlocke.
 Eniti filios, to brynge forth chyldren.
 Filix, filicis, f. g. ferne or brake.
 Filo, aui, are, to spinne or make threde.

Filum, li, n. g. a threde. sometyme the proportion or draught of a thyng. sometyme a lyne. also the forme or fygure of ones visage.
 Filum ducere, to spynne.
 Deducit aranea filum pede, spynneth.
 Trajicere filum in acu, to threde a nedell.
 Filum orationis, a style or maner of oracion.
 Fimbria, x, f. g. the skirtes or hem of a garment.
 Fimbriatus, a, um, that hath a hemme, purfle, pleat, or winkle.
 Fimbria, the name of a Romayn, whyche was beset with proude and seditious.
 Fimētum, ti, n. g. a dounge hyll.
 Fimum, a boxe, out of the whyche men doe caste dyce.
 Fimus, mi, dounge of cattall or of man.
 Reddere fimum, to shyte.
 Fimum, is sometyme red in the neuter gender.
 Fimus columbinus, pygeons dunge.
 Fimus ouillus, shepes dunge.
 Finalis, le, fynall or laste.
 Findo, fidi, findere, to cut, to cleaue, to dymde.
 Aratro cælum findere, a prouerbe spoken of a thyng impossible.
 Finditur cor meum, istius hominis ubi fit mentio, Myne hert bursteth, or it greueth me herie sore, as often as that man is spoken of.
 Finditur illic Euphrates, at that place the ryuer Euphrates is diuided.
 Fingo, xi, gere, to make, properly of earth, as potters doe, to fourme, to seyne, to counterfeit, to ymage, to diuise.
 Finge animo, suppose, or put the case.
 Fingere mores alicui, to faction one in maniers.
 Vultum fingere, to make countenance not to be mery or sorowfull, where in dede he is mery or sorowfull.
 Facere & fingere. Fingere & formare.
 E cæra fingere, to make in ware.
 Fingere animo or cogitatione, to ymagyne or conceyue in ones minde.
 Qui ex sua natura cæteros fingerent, whyche dyd iudge other by theyr owne natures.
 Eum te esse finge, qui ego sum, I magyne thy selfe to be as I am.
 Voto aliquem fingere, to wyshe a man such one as we would haue hym.
 Fingit causas, he picketh quarels, or he feigneth letters, excuses, or occasions.
 Fingere corpora lingua, with lychynge to faction the bodies of the yonge, as beares and lions do.
 Nonne ad senem aliquam fabricam fingit? Doth he not go about some wyle or craft to deceyue the olde man?
 Fingere fallaciam, idem.
 Falsi quippiam fingere, to forge or inuete some vntreue tale or lye.
 Fauos fingere, to make hony combs.
 Fugam fingere, to make as one dyd renne or flee awaye.
 Fingere & fabricare.
 Nidum fingere, to make a nestle.

Fingere

Fingere se ad nuntium aliorum, to facion ones selfe to the mynde of fantasy of other.
 Vultus quoq; hominum fingit scelus, The vngacious knave canne facion to the countenance of men, and make theym looke as he lusteth hym selfe: or he can counterfaytes other mens lokes.
 Finio, iul, ire, to finithe of ende, to accomplishe, to determin of appoynt. sometyms to define, to die.
 Finire vitam inedia, to dye for honger.
 Finiri morbo, to dye of a sicknesse.
 Laqueo of suspensio finire vitam, to hange ones selfe.
 Finire prouintiam alicui certo tempore, To limite of prescribe a tyme, howe longe one shall haue the rule of a prouynce.
 Diem finire, To determine of, appointe a certeyne daye.
 Finitur, the impersonall.
 Finis, is, m. ge. the ende, the conclusion. also the intent of purpose, wherunto anye other thyng hath relation, or is made of down for. sometyms death, also for Fines, the boundes, marches of uttermost borders of any countrey.
 Fines, nium, plur. the borders of marches of a countreie, boundes.
 Afferre finem alicui rei, to make a thyng haue an ende.
 Finem maledictis fecit, he leaueyth saylynge.
 Finem sermoni facere, to speake no moze, to holde ones peace.
 Orandiam finem facito, intrete me no moze.
 Implere finem vitæ, to fynde his lyfe.
 Imponere finem bello, To make an ende of warre.
 Quem ad finem? To what intente of purpose.
 Finire, determinately, with a certayn measure.
 Finitimus, a, um, nygh, ioyngnyng, bordering.
 Bellum finitimum, warre among borderers of neyghbours.
 Finitio, òis, f. g. a definition.
 Finitor, òis, m. g. a setter of boundes, a boun-der of landes.
 Finitus, a, um, fynned, ended.
 Fio, fis, factus sum fieri, to be made, to bee, to be esteemed.
 Nulla adeo ex re istud fit, nisi ex nimio otio, This cometh of nothyng elles but of to much idelnesse.
 Ex ea re quid fiat, vide, Consider what will folowe or come to passe by so doyng.
 Fit obuiam casu ei multitudini C. Curio, By chaunce C. Curio met with that route.
 Illud fit sepe, That happeneth, or cometh to passe oftentymes.
 Fit absynthium in Arabia, wormewood groweth in Arabie.
 Modum fieri non video, I can not see that they vse any measure or meane.
 Aliquid cibi fiet, some meate shall bee prepared or made ready.

 Commodioris fio valetudinis, I wake better at ease, I began to wake stronge.
 Qui fit in hac re scrupulus? what doubt is in this matter?
 Fieri in illum exempla, loke Exemplum.
 Mihi non fit verisimile, It seemeth not to me to be likely.
 Fieri non potest quin sentiant, it can not bee chosen, but that they must needs perceiue it.
 Vbi satietas corporis fieri, when I began to be somewhat weery.
 Vbi tantos sumptus sibi cotidianos videbit fieri, when he shall perceiue, that he shall daylye be at so great costes and charges.
 Ita fit verum, So it is proued to be trewe.
 Nequam in illum vim fieri linat, Least hym not suffer anye violent handes to be layde on hym.
 Quid pecunie fiet? What shall bee dooen with the moneye? better than Quid de pecunia fiet?
 Tanti fit ab aliis, so muche he is esteemed of of ther.
 Fiet, be it so.
 Hoc nisi fit, except this come to passe.
 Firmamen, inis, neu. gen. that holdeth of fasteneth a thyng.
 Firmamentum, ti, neu. gene. a suretie or stabliliter, also that whiche is called the grounde of a cause or matter. Also the firmament of heauen visible, Firmamenta, bee sometime taken for the sinues.
 Firmamentum reipublicæ, the chiefe staye and byholder of the common weale.
 Firmator, òis, m. ge. that maketh stedfast, constant, and sure.
 Firmatus, a, um, stablyshed, fortified, made stronge.
 Firme, and Firmiter, assuredly, stedfastly, constantly, fastely, veraye diligently.
 Firme respondere, to aunswere constantly and boldely.
 Firmitas, atis, & Firmitudo, dinis, f. g. stablesse, constance, surenesse, strength.
 Firmitas vinorum, The strengthe and durablesse of wyne.
 Firmitudo animi, constancie of mynde.
 Firmo, aui, are, to assure, to make stable or sure, to affirme, to satisfie, to make stronge.
 Aluum firmare, to bynde the bealy, or make one coctine.
 Firmare corpora cibo, to strength theyr bodies with meate.
 Dotem firmare, to be at a point what he wyll geue in marriage with his daughter.
 Firmare fidem, To persourme or make assurance of promysse, to confirme that he hath promysed.
 Firmare agrum sepibus, To hedge a fiede about,

Firmata cibo vires, he is made stronge with good meates.
Ei rei firmasti fidem, thou hast made me beleue that thyng the more.
Præsidia firmare, to fortifie garrisons.
Ad spem aliquem firmare, with comfortablen wordes to put in hope.
Firmare agrum sepibus, to fence of mounds.
Mœnia firmare, to fortifie.
Firmare corpora labore, to harden the bodies with labour and exercise.
Pacem firmare, to make peace more sure and stable.
Vix quicquam firmare ausim, I dare scantlie affirme any thyng for a suretie.
Iureiurando firmare, to vpholde a thyng with an othe.
Firmus, a, um, stable, constant, well fortified, assured, stronge, in good health, lusty.
Cibus firmus, stronge nourishyng meate.
Satis firmo corpore cum esset, whan he was stronge, lusty, and in good helth.
Firma hæ vereor vt sint nuptiæ, I feare thys marriage will not continue longe without some breache.
Rumor firmus, a constant rumour.
Potio firma, a porcion of drinke that nourisheth muche.
Vina firmissima, stronge wines that continue long.
Firmus ab equitatu, he that hath a strong bande of horsemen.
Iuuenis firmus, stronge and mightie.
Pectus firmum, constant.
Firma valetudo, when one is not sickely of atatched with diseases.
Firmum castellum, a citee of Italy.
Fiscales, false accusations of those men, whyche hauyng parte of the forfeyte, doe byynge men in trouble.
Fiscalis, le, perteynyng to the kynges treasure.
Fiscella, æ, form. ge. a littell basket of twygges, it maye be vled for a fraple, also a chese fate. Als so it is a thyng made with withies and halsters, wherewith catelle was so mofelled, that they mought not bite any yong sprynges of buddes of trees.
Fiscellum, li, n. g. idem.
Fiscellus, li, a littell hyl in Italye, not farre from Tiber.
Fisci, fiscinæ, fiscellæ, great sachelles, wherein were put great summes of moneye.
Fiscina, æ, form. g. a great basket, a fraple, also a bagge of sachel to put money in.
Fiscina ficorum, a fraple of fygges.
Fiscus, ci, ma. g. a bagge, wherinto moneye is put, also the kynges eschequer, a kynges treasure. Sometyme a paner of ospyars vled in pressyng of olyues, or a great fraple.
Fiscus lineus, a maner of strayners.
Fissilis, le, that maye be cut, slitte, or clouen.
Fissio, ðnis, f, g. a cleauyng or chappyng,

Fissura, æ, for. g. a cut or cleft, also the space betwene the fyngers or toes.
Fissus, us, and Fissum, si, n. g. idem quod fissura.
Fissum ani, the cleft of a man betwene the buttockes.
Fissus, a, um, clouen, chynked.
Fistula, cæ, f. g. an instrument, wherewith piles of woode be dyuuen into the ground, called a water pile sledge or a commander, and stones in a pauement, called a rammer.
Fistulatio, ðnis, formi. generis, the dyuynge downe of piles, or rammyng downe of stones in payng.
Fistulatus, a, um, dyuuen with a commander or rammer.
Fistulo, aui, are, to dyue downe pyles into the earth with a water pile sledge, or to cæme downe stones in payng.
Fistula, æ, form. gene. a flute or pipe, as well to conueigh water as an instrumente of musike. also the wepyll of throte bolle, a tappe or faucet, a dyscase of soze, whyche cometh of a putrified humour, and renneth continually, called in englishe Fistula. Sometyme an yssue, by the whyche some fysshe fetcheth breath. also that, whyche the apothecaries call commonly Casia fistula.
Fistulâtor, oris, m. ge. a piper, one that plaiceth on a flute, or lyke instrument.
Fistulo, aui, are, to be holowe lyke a sponge.
Fistulosus, a, um, full of holes lyke a sponge.
Fistulosa terra, earth barreyne of nature which serueth neither to tyllage nor pasture.
Fit, the imperative of Fio.
Fitiges, the beastes of Æthiope, of a browne colour, hauyng two pappes on the breast as a man hath: They be not so wyld, but they maye be tamed, nor so tame, but they wille hurte those that greue them.
Fiure, olde wyrters vled for Fugere.
Fixula, olde wyrters vled for Fibula.
Fixus, a, um, fyrm, faste, stedy, constant, sure, that is not lyghtly chaunged, certayne.

Flabellifer, lifera, um, that whyche beareth a fanne.
Flabellum, li, neu. g. an instrument, wherewith in the heate of sommer, wynde is fanned and blowen into mens vilages, to coole theim, a fanne.
Flëbellum seditionis, by translation, a mouer or stirrer of sedicion.
Flabilis, le, that maye be blowen, or of the ayre.
Flabrum, bri, or rather siabra, ðrum, neu. ge. a blaste of wynde, a blowyng.
Flaccidus, a, um, wythered, feble, weake, hanging downeward, lollyng or flaggynge.
Flaccidæ aures, hangyng eares.
Flaccus, a, um, that hath hangyng eares. Sometyme eyne brylled.

Flaces, flacium, fœm. gene. plur. nu. the oyles of olyues.

Flagellum, li, n. g. the small branche of twyg of a vyne, or other tree. sometime a whyppe or scourge, a faple, wherewith cozne is thyeshed.

Flagello, aui, are, to whyppe, to scourge, to thyesh, to blame or rebuke.

Flagellare annonam, To bpe cozne of byttaple etc it come to the markette, as forstallers dooe.

Flagellare perticis frumentum. Plin. To thyesh cozne.

Flagitiose, vngreaciously, mischiefully, wickedly, detestably, naughtyly, vniustly.

Flagitium, tij, n. g. an yll or mischeuous deede woorthie rebuke and punishment, an heynouse offence, a detestable acte, a synfull thyng, a great trespass, an abhominable vice or naughty tyefacion. sometyme for Dedecus, dishonour, diswooshypp. sometyme a notable errour. also perille.

Flagitium tuum est, it is by thyne vngreaciouslynesse, or thzough thy defeaute.

Promptus flagitio, ready to doe mischiefe.

Nam id nobis tam flagitium est, quā illa non facere vobis, quæ modo dixi, for that is in vs as great a faute, as it is in you, not to doe those thynges that ye spake of euen nowe.

Flagitio ardere, to be conuypce of a greate offence.

Non patiar me tuis flagitiis infamem fieri, I wyll not suffer my selfe to renne in the slander and obloquie of men thzough thyne abhominable vices and naughty facions.

Comperius flagiti, one conuict of some detestable faute.

Flagitium facimus, we goe about an heynouse offence.

Flagitium est, it is yll dooen.

Flagitiosus, a, um, vngreacious, full of mischiefe.

Flagito, aui, are, to aske importunately, and with clamour to exacte, to requyre instantly. also to accuse.

Flagitare plus est quam postulare.

Implorare & flagitare.

Flagitare aliquem, to despye of one instantly.

Flagitas me vt eloquar, you are betape instant on me, that I should vtter it.

Vt peculatorem flagitari iussit, he commanded hym to be accused as a robber or spoyler of the common weale.

Id me flagitat, he despyeth that thyng of me importunately.

Flagitat frumentum ab Heduis, he exacted cozne of grayne of the people called Hedui.

Flagitator, ôris, m. g. he that instantly despyeth or asureth.

Te flagitatore suscepi negotium, at thy instāt despye I toke on me the businesse.

Flagrans, aris, om. g. burnyng, flamyng, very hott, ardent, shynyng bryght.

Flagranter, verare ardently.

Flagrantia, æ, f. g. flamyng or burnyng; bryghtnesse, shynyng, ardent desyre.

Flagrantia oculorum, glisteryng bryghtnesse of the eyes.

Flagratores, they whiche for moneye doo suffer them selves to be beaten.

Flagrio, ônis, f. g. a slaue vled to be beaten.

Flagro, aui, are, to bourne with a flame of fyre. sometyme to loue or despye inordinately.

Flagrare infamia, to be verap yll reported of.

Flagrare inopia, to be in greatte necessitee of pouertee.

Flagrare inuidia, to be exceedingly hated.

Flagrare libidinibus, to be outrageously geuen to despye of filthy pleasure.

Flagrare amentia, to bee woodde or starke madde.

Flagrare amore, or ardore alicuius rei, to loue a thyng inordinately. Aphetwpe Flagrare desyderio & cupiditate.

Flagrat bello tota Italia, warre rageth thzough out all Italy, or all Italie is miserably troubled with warre.

Flagrant mutuo odio, They dooe hate eche or ther deadly, or they beare mortall hatred one towarde the other.

Rumore malo flagrare, to haue a very ill name: to be verie ill reported of.

Flagrare studiis, to bee exceedingly geuen to study and learnyng.

Flagrum, gri, neu. gene. a whyppe, a rodde, or scourge.

Flamatica, a tree bourned with lightnyng.

Flamea, clothe of silke of yelow colour.

Flamen, flaminis, n. g. a blast of wynde, the blast in an instrument.

Flamen, minis, m. g. the great priest amonge the gentiles.

Flameum, mei, n. g. a veyle or typpet of yelow, whiche women dyd weare, whan they were new married.

Flaminia, a countreie in Italy, called also Aemilia, and commonly Romandiola, in the whiche are the citees of Bononia, Fauentia, Imola, Rauenna, and Ariminum.

Flaminia via, an hygh way from the citee of Rome vnto the citee of Ariminum.

Flaminia, æ, fœm. gen. the house of the archepriest.

Flaminica, æ, f. g. the wyfe of the great priest called Flamen, whiche myght not be diuorced from hir husbände for any cause also a wedding gowne, whiche was of yelow colour.

Flaminium, or Flaminia, ôrum, the offyce of the archepriest.

Flaminiana ostenta.

Flaminus minister, a seruant attendyng vpon the hygh priest.

Flaminus, the name of dyuers Romaynes, of whiche one being Consul, was ouerthrowen by Annyball at Trasimenus.

Flamma, x, f, g. a flame. sometyne peryll. sometyne loue.
Flamma fumo proxima est, there is no smoke without fyre.
Flamma concidit, the flame ceassed.
Concipere flammam, and Corripi flamma,
to bourne, to be on a light fyre.
Incidi in ipsam flammam ciuilis discordia, I chaunted on the veray rage of moste perillous tyme of the ciuile warres.
Eripuit se de flamma iudicij, He rydde hym selfe out of the perill of that iudgement.
Flammatica arbor, blasted with lightnyng.
Flammea, x, f, g. an herbe called also Lachnis coronaria, of the frenchemen Candelaria.
Flammecolum, li, n, g. a littell beyle of tppet.
Flammecolus, a, um, somewhat coloured lyke a flame of fyre.
Flammearius, rij, mas. gen. he that maketh of dieth the beyles called Flammea, a dyer of yellowe colour.
Flammescere, to be inflamed.
Flammeus, a, um, burnyng or flamyng, that is of the colour of a flame of fyre.
Flammifer, a, um, that bringeth or causeth fyre or bournyng.
Flammigena, x, comen of fyre.
Flammiger, idem.
Flammigero, au, are, to burne in a lyght fyre, to cast out flames.
Flammiuomus, a, um, sendyng out flames.
Flammula, x, form. gene. a lyttell flame. also a certayne herbe.
Flandria, a countrey called Flanders.
Flator, oris, m, g. one that bloweth.
Flatus, us, m, g. a puff or blast of wynde.
Flauco, flauus, uere, to be lyke golde or of yelow colour.
Flauesco, idem.
Flauinium, a place in Italie.
Flauus, ij, the name of a family in Rome, of the
which was, Vespasianus, Titus, and Domitia.
Flauus, a, um, yelow or of the colour of golde.
Flaua arua, when coyne is ripe.
Flebilis, le, lamentable.
Flebiliter, lamentable.
Flecto, xi, ctere, to bowe, to bende, to leade, to tourne.
In diuersum flectere, to bowe contrary waies.
Inde Capuam flectit iter, he tourned his iour-ney from thens to Capua.
Flectere animum, To attende and settle the mynde on a thyng. Also to tourne the mynde from any purpose.
Flectere genu, To make curtesye, to make a
legge.
Flectere in gyrum, to turne rounde.
Flectere Leucaten, to turne his iourneye to Leucate.

Flectere aliquem oratione, to perswade or tourne one to his opinion.
Flegma, loke Phlegma.
Flegmen, flegminis, n, ge. is where with muche gopyng the bloud issueth out of the toes.
Fleo, fletui, flere, to wepe.
Flere de morte alicuius, To wepe for ones
death.
Fletus, us, m, g. weeping.
Abstergere fletum, to wype the eyes whan one weepeth.
Fletum ciere, exitare, mouere, to make one wepe.
Comprimere fletus, to cease weping, to stent weeping.
Prosequi natos fletu, To wepe and lament the death of ones chyldren.
Rumpe iam fletus, wepe no moze.
Fletus, a, um, lamented, bewayled.
Fleuo, one of the mouthes of the riuer of Rine.
Also a towne by the same ryuer.
Flexanimus, a, um, that tourneth the mynde.
Flexanima oratio, an oracion of speche, wher-by a mans mynde is stered to pitie, reioysing of other lyke affection.
Flexibilis, le, and Flexilis, le, anye thyng that maye be easily bowed, or bent. Also vnconstant, mutable.
Flexiloquus, a, um, that speaketh thinges doubt-full and obscure.
Flexipes, edis, that hath crooked fete.
Flexio, onis, form. gene. a bendyng, bowyng or crokyng. Also the tunyng of the voyce vp and downe.
Flexumines, certayne swifte horsemen amonge the Romains.
Flexuose, crokedy, wynding in and out.
Flexuosus, a, um, that is croked, or hath manye tounynges and windynges in and out.
Flexura, x, f, g. a crokyng or bowyng.
Flexus, us, mas. gen. a bowyng, a tounyng, the chaungeyng or tunyng of the voyce in pronuntiation.
Flexus sonus, a redowndyng of a sowne.
Flexus ætatis, the declining of the age in the laster parte of the lyfe.
Flexus Autumni, the later part of Autumne.
Flexus, a, um, bowed, bended, tourned, crisped, curled.
Flictus, us, mas. gene. a stryking or dasyng
agaynst a thyng.
Fligo, xi, ctum, ere, to tourment or vex, to strike or dashe agaynst a thyng.
Flo, au, are, to blowe. also to make coyne of metall.
Simul flare & sorbere, a prouerbe signifyng to doe two contrary thynges together.
Floccifacio, floccifacis, feci, facere, to sette naught by.
Illam non floccifacio, I sette not a strawe, eithe or heate by hym.

Flocci non fecit fidem, he nothing esteemed his credite or honestie.
 Flöcculus, li, m. g. a fine floche.
 Floccipendo, endi, ere, idem quod Floccifacio.
 Floccus, i, mas. gen. a floche of the wearing of wollen clothe.
 Floccum facere, idem quod Floccifacere.
 Flores, flocum, flocibus, lyes or dyastes of wyne.
 Flora, an harlot, taken of the Romaines for a goddess.
 Floralia, orum, neu. gen. plu. the feastes of the goddess Flora.
 Florabilis, le, perteynyng to Flora.
 Florales ludi, plates made in the honour of Flora the harlot, which gaue a great treasure vnto the people of Rome.
 Florens, entis, om. g. flourythyng, excellent, beautiful, in great estimation.
 Acate florentes ambo, bothe of them in the flour of theyr age.
 Afflictus & florens, contrarie.
 Florente Antonio, whyle Antonie flourished, or was in estimation of authoritee.
 Florentia, a citee in Italie called Floreence.
 Floreo, rui, ere, to flourishe, or to haue flouris.
 Also to excelle, sometyme to prosper, to be renowned, to bee in great authoritee or estimation.
 Florere & vigere.
 Omni genere virtutis floruit Pericles, Pericles excelled in all kynde of vertue.
 Florere laude bellica, to be greatly renowned for cheualrie, or martiall prowes.
 Florere etate, & forma, to be in the flour of ones age and beaute.
 Florere autoritate & gloria, to be in greates authoritee and reputacion.
 Floresco, scere, to burgee, to byng forth floures, to growe, to encrease.
 Floreus, a, um, made of floures.
 Floridulus, a, um, a little flourythyng, somes what beautiful.
 Floridus, a, um, garnished wth floures, somes tyme freshe or lustie, flourythyng, iolye.
 Gelu flumina constiterunt, the ryuers be frozen ouer.
 Superare flumina, to passe ouer the ryuers.
 Florifer, florifera, um, that beareth floures.
 Floriger, a, um, bearyng floures.
 Florianus, an emperour of Rome.
 Florilegus, a, um, that gathereth floures.
 Florius, a ryuer in Spayne.
 Florulentus, a, um, full of floures.
 Flos, floris, m. g. a floure.
 Apperit florem suam arbor, the tree dooth blossome.
 Flores carpere, decerpere, legere, delibare, to gather floures.
 In ipso Græciae flora, whan Grece mooste of all flourished.
 Florem amittit puella, cum corrupitur.

Flos vini, the saugur of wyne.
 Flos ætatis, the mooste flourishing tyme of ones age, lustie youth.
 Flos Italie, the floure of princypall of all Italie.
 Odorus flos, a sweete flower.
 Blandi fiores, faye flowers.
 Fundit humus flores: byngeth forth great abundance of flowers.
 Nectere flores, to make a garlande.
 Flos in siligine, the flower of wheate.
 Fluctifragus, a, um, that breaketh the waves of the sea.
 Fluctio, ðnis, f. g. the reuolue of pose.
 Fluctinagus, a, um, wandying in ryuers, waters, or in the sea.
 Fluctuans, antis, vncertayne, doubtful, lewse.
 Fluctuam, troublously, doubtfully, lewse.
 Fluctuatio, ðnis, f. g. floatyng, doubtyng, vncertainte, waueryng.
 Fluctuatio animi, whan a man doubteth what is beste to bee doen, waueryng, vncertaincie of mynde.
 Fluctuatio stomachi, whan the meate swimmeth in the stomacke.
 Fluctuatus, a, um, shaken, tossed, moued.
 Fluctuo, aui, are, to wane vp and downe as the water goeth: By translacio it signifieth to shyne nowe one thyng, nowe an other, to be troubled or disquieted in mynde, to bee in an vncertaine state of condicion.
 Fluctuat animus, my mynde wauereyth, or it is nowe in one opinion, nowe in an other.
 Fluctuare animo, to be vncertaine what one maye doe.
 Fluctuor, idem quod Fluctuo.
 In re aliqua fluctuare, to behaue ones selfe vncertainly in any thyng.
 Fluctuose, troublously.
 Fluctuosus, a, um, troublouse, vncertaine, stormy.
 Fluctus, us, m. g. a floude, a wane of water stirred by tempeste, businesse or trouble of aduersities, disquietenesse of mynde through anger, loue or care. sometyme a violent course, or assault, a great multitude.
 Fluens, entis, om. g. flowing, wide, lewse.
 Fluens buccæ, great hangyng chekes.
 Fluentia, the aunciente name of the citee called Floreence in Italie.
 Fluentum, i, n. gen. a ryuer or streame.
 Fluere, to be resolued or relented.
 Fluidus, a, um, flowyng, relented, resolued, that is nothing stronge, without stiffness or strength, feeble.
 Fluida corpora, nice and tender bodies vnapt to payne or labour.
 Fluito, aui, are, to flowe continually. sometyme to flytte or swymme.
 Flumen, fluminis, n. g. a great ryuer. sometyme the course of the water.
 Ne flumini eius riuus esset impedimento, that it might not let the course of that ryuer.

F A N T E L

Aduerso flumine, agaynst the streame.
Increuerunt flumina, the waters were ryfen.
Nullius tantum est flumen ingenij, no man hath so abundant or plentifull a witte.
Flumineus, a, um, of the ryuer.
Aqua fluminea, rennyng water.
Fluminosus, a, um, full of ryuers.
Fluo, xi, ere, to renne as water doeth, to procede or come of a thyng, to growe plentifully, to spreade farre abroad, to slippe or slide, to passe awaye.
Volupras corporis fluit, pleasure of the bodie passeth awaye lyghtely, or is of no continuance.
Tempus fluit, the tyme passeth awaye.
Fluereluxu, to be vicerlye geuen to riotte and wantonnesse, to swimme in sensualitee.
Fluit ratio a capite, reason proceedeth or cometh from the head.
Ad voluntatem nostram res prosperæ fluunt, thynges chaunce and come to passe euen as we woulde haue theim.
Quorsum fluant eius rationes: what doeth he intende or purpose in his proceedynges.
Fluonia, the name of Iuno.
Fluor, oris, Fluxus, us, m. g. & Fluctio, oris, f. g. a flyre.
Flustrum, i, n. g. the full tyde in the sea or other water, whyche ebbeth and floweth.
Fluta, æ, f. g. a fythe lyke to an eele called a lampreye.
Fluuialis, le, of the ryuer.
Fluuiaticus, a, um, and Fluuiatilis, le, that which is in the ryuer.
Fluuiatus, a, um, layed to soke in ryuer water.
Fluuius, ij, m. g. a floude or ryuer.
Flux, abundantly.
Fluxio, oris, f. g. a fluxe.
Fluxio sanguinis, the bloudie fluxe.
Fluxura, lecherie.
Fluxus, a, um, flowyng, vnstable, or that whyche dureth but for a whyle, large or wyde, relented, lecherouse and wanton.
Fluxi, men abandoned to al deliciousnesse or pleasures of lecherie and wanton luste.
Fluxa vestimenta, wyde garmentes, hangyng lewse about a man.

F A N T E O

FObij, idem quod, Fabij.
Focale, is, n. g. a kercheise, whyche men and women dyd weare about theyr chekes.
Seneca semeth to take it for a garment to sit by the fyre in. It maye be taken for a musler that women do vse. It is also an yron pyne to make the heare crispe and curle.
Focaneus, nei, m. g. a bzaunche of a vine, whych groweth out of a twiste or forked bough.
Focaria, æ, f. g. a fyre panne. Also a concubyne that one keepeth as his wyfe.

F A N T E O

Focarius, a, um, of a perternyng (to be herthe).
Focarius panis, bread baked on the herthe.
Focillatio, oris, f. g. a nowtyng or keepyng warme.
Focillo, aui, are, to nourishe or comforte, to kepe warme, to manteyne.
Focilo, idem.
Focula ventris, nourisshyng meates.
Foculo, aui, are, to nourishe or susteine.
Foculus, i, mas. g. a little panne, wherein fyre is bozne. A little herthe.
Foculum exciure bucca, to blowe the fyre with ones mouth.
Focunates, people of the Alpes.
Focus, i, m. g. a pane or herth, wherein fyre is. Some tyme it signifieth fyre, sometyme pryuate houses or tenements.
Extrudere lignis focum, to make a fyre, to laye wodde on the fyre.
Splendet focus, the fyre burneth.
Pro aris & focis pugnare, a prouerbe signifying to fyght and contende as well for the mayntenance of religion and godlynesse, as the safegarde of his countreye and pryuate gooddes.
Fodare, pled of olde wyrters for Fodere.
Fodico, aui, are, to perle or prycke, to boze.
Fodicare dolore, to greue or make sorowful.
Fodina, æ, f. g. a place where a thyng is dygged, a quarrie, a myne.
Fodio, fodi, fodere, to delue, to dygge, to eare.
Fodere argentum, vel metallum, to myne for syluer or other metall.
Fodere ora hastis, to thrust theyr speares in mens faces.
Fodere stimulo, to prycke with a goade.
Fodere terram, to eare or delue the grounde.
Fodiri, is pled of Columella in the fourthie coniugation.
Fecunde, plentifully, abundantly.
Fecunditas, atis, f. g. fertilitie, plentie.
Experta fecunditatis femina, a barayne woman.
Fecundo, aui, are, to make fruitfull or plentious.
Fecundus, a, um, plentious, abundante or fruitfull, barte, as the grounde is full.
Fecundi calices, full cuppes.
Fecundus & yber.
Fecunda mulier, a woman with childe.
Fecundissimus melle & felle amor, loue hath both great plentie of sweetenesse, and also of sorowe, or loue is both verye sweete & verye sower.
Fecialis, loke Fecialis.
Fæde, villanously, shamefully, dishonestly, filthily, cruelly.
Fæderatus, a, um, confederate, one that is in a league or alliance.
Fædero, aui, are, to confederate.
Fædisragus, a breaker of league or truce or enter course.

Fæ di-

Fæditas, âtis, f. g. spthpneſſe, diſhoneſtie, cenetneſſe, pl fauoredneſſe.
Fæditas odoris, the noyng of a ſmelling and poſſe-ſon ſauour.
Fæditas ſpectaculi, the cenetce, or horriblenes of that ſight.
Notabilis fæditas vultus, notable diſſauored-nes, or miſſhap of countenance.
Fædo, au, are, to poiſon or deſpoile, to deſtroye, to ſente or teare, to conſume.
Ora vnguibus fædans, ſcratching or rentyng ones face with his nappes.
Fædus, for deris, n. g. a treatie of peace or league betwene princis, an entercourſe, a truce after battayle. ſometyme it ſignifieth a lawe made in the tyme of warres. Alſo alliance betwene friendes.
Fædus facere, ſancire, ferire; iniire, icere, to make a league or alliance.
Pœnam fæderibus aſcribere, to appoynt a penaltee for them that breake leagues.
Genitalia fœdera, alliance of marriage.
Polluere fœdus naturæ, to breake the lawe of nature, to doe agaynſt nature.
Fædus aliquando pro lege, vt, Aequiſſimo
iure aut fœdere ciuitas.
Cauere fœdere de re aliqua, in conſirmyng a league to make an exception or cauſion of anye
thyng.
Coire in fœdus, to alie, to become fœderates.
Fædus frangere, violare, rumpere, to breake
a league, contrary to, in fide manere.
Fædus, a, um, ſoule, deformed, curſed, or cruell, pl fauored, lotheſome to looke on, ſylthp, unhoneſte, abhominable, detestable.
Fædum exemplum, a byle and naughty example.
Fædum in modum laceratus verberibus, ſcorged or beaten, that it wolde lothe a man to ſee it.
Fædus odor, a poſſon ſtrong ſauour.
Fædiſſima tempeſtas, a verie great or ſoule ſtorme or tempeſte.
Facinus fœdum, a ſhamefull or abhominable
acte, a cruell deede.
Fædum conſilium, a ſhamefull and miſchecous
counſayle or purpoſe.
Bellum fædiſſimum, a verie cruell warre,
wherin is ſhewed no mercie nor pittie.
Fælicitas, âtis, f. g. felicitie, proſperitee, aboun-dauce of all thynges.
Fælicitas terræ, the fruytfulneſſe of the erth, fertilitye.
Fæliciter, happily, fortunatly, with good lucke.
Fælicto, au, are, to make proſperouſe, happy, or fortunate.
Fælix, icis, om. gen. hauyng aboundaunce of all thynges, proſperouſe, happy, commodiouſe, or proſperable. Alſo faete, fruitfull, plentiſull, abou-dant, fertile, ſometyme proſiſe, ſauourable or good.

Ramis fœlicibus arbor, a tree hauyng bowes
laded with fruite.
Fælix induſtria, induſtrie and labour that hath good ſucceſſe.
Fælices horti, fruitfull gardens.
Fælix hoſtia, ſatie. &c.
Fæmen, lake Fæmen.
Fæmina, æ, f. gene. a woman alſo in beaſtes, the female.
Lectiſſima, primaria, probatiſſima.
Fæminas implere, by generation to make the female with yonge.
Fæmineus, a, um, of a woman, or of the female kynde. Fæmineus amor, inordinate or immoderate loue.
Fæmininus, a, um, of the female kynde.
Fænarîus, a, um, perteynyng to hape.
Falces fænarîæ, hookes or ſythes for to cutte hape.
Fænebris, bre, perteynyng to uſurie, or vnræſonnable gayne.
Fænebres leges, lawes made agaynſt uſurie.
Fæneralia, drum, the daye of payment of the money lent to uſury.
Fæneratio, ônis, f. gene. uſurie, or the ſtate or practiſe of uſurie.
Fæneratiûs, a, um, that is lent or taken to uſurie, or that perteyneth to uſurie.
Fænerator, ôris, m. g. an uſurer, or lender for vnræſonable gayne.
Fæneratoriûs, a, um, idem quod Fæneratiûs.
Fæneratus, a, um, perteynyng to uſurie.
Fæneratum iſtum beneficium tibi pulchre dices, Thou ſhalt ſaye thy ſelfe, that thou haſte been well recompenced, or that thou haſte had good aduantage by ſewynge this benefite or pleaſure.
Fænero, au, are, the actiue, wherof cometh Fæneror, the paſſiue, beyng conſtitued with a datiue caſe, and ſometyme with an accuſatiue caſe, ſignifieth to lende out to uſurie.
Fæneror, aris, ari, the deponent, wyth an abla-tiue caſe and a prepoſition, to borrow or take money lent to uſurie: with a datiue caſe, to lende out to uſurie.
Fænerat ſol lumen ſuum cæteris ſyderibus, the ſonne parteth or lendeth out his lyght to other planetes.
Fænerari ab aliquo, To borrowe monye of a man to uſurie.
Fænerari aliquid alicui, to lende out a thyng
to uſurie.
Feniculârium, ſij, neu. gene. after ſome inter-pretours, a place where an arme dooth lie. it ſignifieth properly the mowynge of hape, or the tyme of hay harueſt.
Feniculûm, li, n. g. fenell, or fenhel.
Fenile, lis, n. g. an hape houſe, an hape loſte, a place where hape lyeth.
Feniſeca, æ, com. g. a mowet of hape.
Feniſeciûm, ij, n. g. hape harueſt.

Fœ'nifex, nifecis, com. g. a mower of haye.
Fœnum græcum, fengreke.
Fœnum, ni, n. g. haye.
Fœnum cordum, latewardde hay.
Meta fœni, a tocke of hay.
Fœnūsculum, i, n. g. gayne by lending.
Fœnus, fœnoris, n. gen. fruit; whyche the earthe byngeth fœrthe without any labour. Also vnreasonable and vnmearurable gayne comyng of that thyng, whyche is lent, vsurie.
Credere fœnus argenti, and dare fœnori pecuniam, to lende out money to vsurie.
Fœnore accipere, to bozow money by vsurie.
Quum quinquagesimo fœnore reddit felicitas soli, the fruitfulness of the ground yeldeth fyfte for one.
Trientarium fœnus, fower in the hundred.
Vnciarium fœnus, gayne of one in the hundred.
Fœnus ex triente factum erat besibus, The vsurie was mounted from fower in the hundred, to eght in the hundred.
Magno fœnore versuram facere, by gayne of great vsurie to pay hys creditours.
Fœstūca, æ, loke Festuca.
Fœ'teo, tui, ère, to synke, to sauour yll.
Fœtiditas, âtis, f. g. a synke of yll sauour.
Fœtidus, a, um, synkyng.
Fœtifer, a, um, fruitfull.
Fœtifico, aui, are, to byng fœrth, most commonly as a beaste of birde doeth.
Fœtificus, a, um, that maketh fruitfull.
Fœto, aui, are, the same.
Fœtor, ôris, m. g. synche, of yll sauour.
Fœtuōsus, a, um, full of byrdyng.
Fœtura, æ, f. gen. the tyme from the conception vnto the byrth, Also the encrease of cattell: somes tyme it signifieth encrease of comyng fœrthe of other thynges: sometime the settinge fœrthe of a worke.
Fœtus, m. gen. all thyng that is brought fœrthe in generation: as, of man, beaste, fythe, foule, or other thyng: sometyme the fruite of trees. Also the profyte of gayne that cometh of a thyng. Sometime fœr Fœtura, the tyme of byngyng fœrthe.
Fœtus arborum decerpere, to gather the fruytes of trees.
Fœtus oratorum, great plentie of encrease of oratours.
Fœtus, a, um, full of grete with younge, as a woman with childe, or a beaste.
Canis fœta, a bytche with whelp.
Fœta, also that is deliuered of young.
Fœta loca, id est plena.
Fœta ouis, an yewe that hath younge.
Foliāccus, a, um, of or lyke leaues.
Foliātum, ti, neu. g. a pleasaunt oymment, that the matrons of Rome dyd vse.
Foliātus, a, um, leaued, or haung leaues.
Foliōsus, a, um, full of leaues.

Folium, ij, n. g. a leaue.
Amittere folia, when the leaues fall.
Follico, aui, are, to snuffe of fenche bathe wynde with the nostrilles.
Follicontes calligæ, a kinde of wide bushyns that monkes bled to weare, as saynt Hierome mentioneth.
Folliculære, ris, a parte of an eye.
Folliculus, li, m. ge. the huske, wherein the eares of wheate or other corne is enclosed, when it is grene, called the hols. Also a sacche, wherein corne is put: sometyme a ball stuffed with winde. Sometime it is taken fœr the bodie of a man, by translation.
Follis, is, m. gen. a bagge or purse, or any thyng made of lether to be fylled: a bellowe, where with the fyre is blowne: also a ball blowne full of wynde. Semblably, a bedde stuffed onely with wynde.
Follis fabrilis, a smithes bellowe.
Follitus, a, um, that is couered or wrapped in lether.
Fomentatio, ônis, idem quod Fomentum.
Fomentum, ti, neu. gen. a nourishment of naturall heate. It is also any thyng layed to the bodie in fourme of a playster, to mitigate the grieve or payne of any disease, called Fomentation. And by translation applied to the mynde: a thyng that asswageth or mitigateth sorowe or heauynesse.
Fomes, fœmitis, m. gen. a chopp, or any matter, wherewith fyre is kindled and kepte burnyng. Sometime it signifieth that whiche feruently seareth vs to doe a thyng.
Fons, ontis, m. gen. a fountayne or well, the beginning of principall cause of a thyng.
Caput & fons, the head and principall.
Origines fontium, well springes.
Ex eodem fonte hæc omnia fluxere, all these thynges had one begynnynge.
Oritur fons, the well springeth.
Ipse sibi mali fons, he is cause of his owne hurte, he made a rodde fœr hys owne taylor.
Fons solis, a fountayne in Lybenaica, wherch in the daye tyme is colde, and in the night hotte.
Fontalis, le, idem quod fontanus.
Fontanus, a, um, of a fountayne.
Aqua fontana, well water.
Fonteia, a virgin well.
Fonticulus, i, m. g. a littell well or springe.
Fontinalia, ôrum, the soleinne feastes aboute wellles.
Forago, a chayne of yarne, or rather a threade, by whyche spinners note so muche as they spynne a daye.
Forāmen, rāminis, n. g. an hole.
Foras, out of doores, aduerb. ad locum.
Exire foras ex aedibus, to go fœrthe out of the house.
Foras locare agellum, To leat fœrth a little piece of grounde to a straunger.

Quo foras vocatus est ad cenam: whither is he byd toothe to supper.
 Proferre foras aliquid, to byng toothe a thing.
 Ne hinc foras ambulet, That he should not walke abrode any whither.
 Forasia, a, f. g. gene. a markette woman, whiche selleth egges, chickens, and other lyke thynges at the markette.
 Foratus, us, m. g. an hole.
 Forbea, a, f. g. all maner of meates, foode.
 Forceps, forcipis, ma. & f. gen. a paype of tongues, or other lyke instrument. Also the clawe of a creul or crabbe.
 Forcus, a proppre name of a man.
 Forda, a, f. g. a myche cove that tyngeth forth calues.
 Fore, to be here after.
 Non putavi fore, I neuer thought it woulde come to passe.
 Cito fore, to be ere it be longe.
 Te ad me fore venturum spero, I hope that you wyl come to me.
 Scio ita fore, I know it wyl be so.
 Forem, res, rei, I should or myght bee, thou shouldest or myghtest be, he should or myght be.
 Forensis, se, pretepyng to places of iudgemente or courtes, wherin lawes be excepted. Also a iurour.
 Forentia vestimenta, habites or robes woyme onely in places of iudgement.
 Genus dicendi forensis, a kynde of oration, or a foyme of eloquence used of playbours in the common place.
 Fores, doozes, loke foris.
 Forfex, forcipis, f. g. sheeres.
 Forficula, a, f. g. luttell sheeres, scissours, a forshed clawe of any beaste.
 Fori, rorum, m. g. plur. the hatches of a shyppe or place, where men beyng in the shyppe walke vp and downe. Also stages or galleries, from whens the noble men of Rome, behelde the playes called Circenses. Also forowes in a fiede longe and narrowe.
 Foria, orum, n. g. plur. dounge that is lyquide or thynne.
 Forica, a, f. g. a common draught or takes.
 Foricula, a, f. g. a luttell dooze, hache, or flay of a windowe.
 Forinsecus, without.
 Forio, iui, ire, to discharge the bealy of ordure.
 Foriolus, li, m. g. he that hath a lashe.
 Foriculus, a god amonge the Romaynes.
 Foris, without, or from without, adverb. in loco.
 Foris occludere fores, to shutte or locke the dooze on the out syde.
 Foris est animus, my mynde is abroade.
 Foris sapere, to bee wys in other mennes matters.
 Foris est, he is abrode, he is from whome.
 Foris, is, f. g. a dooze or gate.
 Forem obdere, to bolte the dooze.

Fores aperire, to open a way, or make an entrance to a thyng, to geue an occasion.
 Fores amicitie aperire, to begynne frendshipp, to geue the first occasion of frendshipp.
 Referare fores, to unlooke a dooze.
 Forma, a, f. g. fauour, fourme or shape, some tyme beaute, facion, maner. Also for Species, a kynde, as iustice in respect of vertue. Sometime a lawe or rule. Also a paterne, a plot of an house, or other thyng. Sometime a cheeste vatte.
 Forma statz, a meane fauour or beaute, neyther exceeding fayne nor exceeding soule.
 Formaxoria, idem.
 Tader harum quotidianarum formarum, I am weie of these, whiche be commonly called fayne women amonge vs.
 Accepit formam aratri, It was made lyke a plough.
 Res proxime in formam latrocinij venerat, in maner of a robbery.
 Formalis, le, formall.
 Formator, oris, he that facioneth, instructeth, or maketh.
 Formatura, a, f. g. a facioning of a thyng.
 Formatus, a, um, facioned, made.
 Formia, a towne in Campania.
 Formica, a, f. g. an emot, ante, or pismere.
 Formicans, antis, that moueth lyke the goynge of pismers.
 Pulsus formicans, the pulse strikinge softly as it were antes crepyng vnder ones hande.
 Formicatio, onis, f. g. that whiche is commonly called a ryng woyme.
 Formicinus, a, um, that pertyneth to antes.
 Formicosus, a, um, full of antes.
 Formidabilis, le, that whiche is to be dreade.
 Formidatio, onis, fearyng or dredding.
 Formidatus, a, um, feared or dredded.
 Formido, midinis, f. g. dredd or feare.
 Plenus formidinis homo, a very fearefull person.
 Formido, aui, are, to haue great feare.
 Formido mihi, I feare leaste I shal haue some hatme.
 Formidar auro, he is asfayde, leaste his money shal be taken from hym.
 Formido illum, I feare leaste he wyl hurte me.
 Verbera formidauere, they were asfayde of strypes.
 Formidolose, fearefully.
 Formidolosus, a, um, actuely, that feareth other, dreddfull, terribly, passuely, that is a frayde of other, falseherted, fearefull.
 Num formidolosus, (obsecro) es? arte thou fearefull or false harted? or doeth thyne herte sayle thee man I pray thee?
 Aliena virtus illis semper formidolosa, the vertue of other is to them alwaye dreddfull or terribly.
 Bellum formidolosissimum, verie terribly warre.

watre.
 Formio, a river of Istria, called commonly Lesano.
 Formo, ui, are, to forme, to facion, to make in facion.
 Formare carmen, epistolam, orationem alieno ingenio, to make a verse, an epistle, or oration by an other mans helpe.
 In suos mores formare, to make one in conditions lyke to hym selfe.
 Formare se in alicuius mores, to endeavour to be lyke an other man in conditions.
 Iuuentutem formare, to instructe and facion pouthe to any thyng.
 Formositas, âis, form. gen. well fauourednesse, comelynesse.
 Formosus, a, um, suppe, well fauoured.
 Formula, x, for. gen. an instrument or deede in wrytyng. A style in wrytyng, and a fourme in pleadng. a rule or facion.
 Formula iniuriarum, an action of trespassse.
 Formula cognitionis, the maner of an examination.
 Formula excidere, to be barred of his action.
 Formulam intendere, to bypnye an action.
 Formularius, ri, m. g. a practiser of the lawe.
 Fornacalia, orum, n. g. plu. daies dedicated to bakynge of bryade, or rather bakens holydays, when certeyne sacrifice was dooen in the bakens house.
 Fornacarius, ij, m. g. a baker.
 Fornaceus, a, um, made lyke a founais or ouen.
 Fornacula, x, f. g. a littell ouen.
 Fornax, âis, form. gene. a chymney or ouen, a founais.
 Fornax calcaria, a lyne hylle.
 Fornax lateraria, a bycke hylle.
 Fornicarius, ri, masc. gene. he that hath a stall or boothly vnder the vaultes or arches of churches or palaces, where they sell theyr wares to theym that passe by, as they doo in Westminster halle.
 Fornicarius, a, um, perteynyng to lechery.
 Fornicatio, onis, f. g. a vaultynge or makynge of a vault or archeruffe, also fornicacion, hoysedome lecherie.
 Fornicator, oris, m. g. a lechour.
 Fornicatus, a, um, made lyke an arche, that hath committed hoysedome.
 Forabilis, le, that may be perced or boyled thowowe.
 Fornico, ui, are, to make an arche or a vault.
 Fornicor, aris, ari, to commit fornicacion.
 Fornix, icis, m. g. an arche or a vault. sometyme a stewes or byothelle house.
 Fornices, were also arches in Rome made in the memoie of any noble victorie, or triumph.
 Foro, ui, are, to perse or beze an hole.
 Forpices, scilicet to clyppe heate.
 Fors, ô, fors, a forte, fortune. sometyme it is vsed for Forsan, peradventure.

Fors fortuna, good fortune or chaunce.
 Fors suat, god sende thes good fortune, god speede thee well.
 Fors viderit, I leaue that to fortune.
 Mala fors, yll fortune.
 Forsitan, & forsan, peradventure.
 Fortasse, fortassis, idem.
 Forte, by chaunce, as hadde was, as it fortuneth, peradventure.
 Forte fortuna, by good aduenture.
 Forte fortuna adfuit. &c. by chaunce, or, as fortune was. &c.
 Fortesco, scere, to waxe or be stronge.
 Forticulus, a, um, a little strong, somewhat hardie.
 Fortifico, ui, are, to fortifie or make stronge.
 Fortis, e, stronge, puissant, valiaunt of courage, constaunt. Also suppe. sometyme riche.
 Fortis & ignauus, contrary.
 Fortis familia, a ryche and substaunciall familie.
 Fortis equus, a couragious and swift horse.
 Fortia facta, valiaunt dedes.
 Forte ac vehemens dicendi genus, a weryghtie and vehement maner of stile or oracion.
 Fortes fortuna iuuat, fortune fortherethe bolde aduenturers, nothyng venture, nothyng haue: spare to speake, spare to speide.
 Fortis & magnus animus, a valiant and noble courage.
 Fortiter, strongly, valiauntly, manfully, constantly, mightily.
 Fortiter ferre aliquid, to take a thyng patiently, or with a valiaunt stomake.
 Fortitudo, inis, f. g. strengthe, valiant courage.
 Fortuito, by chaunce, at aduenture.
 Fortuitu, idem.
 Fortuitus, a, um, that happeneth by chaunce.
 Diuinum & fortuitum, contrary.
 Subita & fortuita oratio, speakyng without meditation or studie.
 Fortuitus euentus, a chaunce of fortune.
 Fortuna, x, f. g. fortune.
 Afflicta fortuna, aduersitee.
 Integra fortuna, prosperitee.
 Fortuna, x, or Fortunæ, arum, gooddes, good fortune, aduancement, estate, condicion.
 Committere se fortunæ, to abyde the aduenture of fortune, to aduenture.
 Fortunæ filius, looke Filius.
 Amplissima fortunæ, of ryght hyghe estate or degre.
 Possessiones & fortunæ.
 Conditio, & fortuna.
 Infima fortuna homines, men of moste byle and base condicion.
 Fortunis omnibus evertete, To thrust one out of all that ruer he hath.
 Fortunator fortuna, a better chance, a moze luckie fortune.
 Fortunatæ insulæ, the fortunate ples, whiche were in the great Ocean sea, and of whiche are named named to be .vi. of Solinus .iii. of Ptolome. it. whiche he calleth also the ples of goddes, for the holsomenesse of the ayre, and wyndes blowyng there: Also the plentie of good frutes and fertilitie of the grounde, It is thought of some men to bee those ples, whiche are nowe called Canaria, distant from Spayne, towards the weste. 1200. myles, after the coumpt of Petrus Martyr. of these ples are founden to be .viii. in nombre. Fyfte aboute the yere of our lord. 1405. a frenche man, called Betanhor, at the commaundement of Catharine, then queene of Castell, founde two of theym, and called the one Launelotte, and the other Forte ventum. Soone after one fernandus Peraria, and his wyfe founde other two, and called the one Ferream, and the other Gomeram. After that the greate Canaria was founde by Petrus de Vera, and Mychaell de Moxica. laste of all, by commaundement of fernando, and Elisabeth late kynge and queene of Spayne, Teneriphe, and Palma, were founde by Alphonsus Lugo, So that now all the .viii. ples be under the dominion of the kynge of Spayne. Not withstandinge some suppose, that these be not the ples, whiche were called Fortunatae, but rather those moze southe, called now of the Portugales, Insulae capitis viridis.

Fortunate, happyly, fortunately, prosperously.
 Fortunatum, idem quod fortunatus.
 Fortunatus, a, um, luckie, happie, welthie.
 Fortuno, aui, are, to make prosperous, to augment with good fortune.
 Formula, formula, f. g. a wicket.
 Forule, a citee of Italy.
 Foruli, drum, m. g. plu. hutches, wherein bookes were kepte, now they be taken for keuerpynges of bookes.
 Forum, i, neu. ge. a market, where thynges bee solde. Also a place where iudgements are practised, and matters in lawe pleaded.
 Forum agere, to syt in iudgement, to heare and determyne causes.
 Foro vii, to doo accordyng to the tyme, to take the tyme while it serueth.
 Forum Liuij, a citee of Italy called Forli.
 Fora, vessels used in pressyng wyne.
 Forum, whan it is taken for a markette, hath commonly another woorde ioygned therewith: as Forum boarium, the markette where cattal is solde.
 Forum olitorium, the market, where herbes be solde.
 Forum piscarium, the fysh market.
 Forum Corneli, a towne in Italy called Imola.
 Forum Iulij, a region or countrey of Italie, whiche was sometyme called lapidia, nowe it is called Frioll.
 Forum Claudij, Tarentasia in Italie.
 Fossa, a, f. g. a dyche, or dyke, or a mote.
 Vallo & fossa munire castra, to caste a trench and dicke aboute a campe.

 Fossae marianae, a citee in the prouince of Narbonne called Aigues mortes.
 Fossae Papyrianae, a citee in Italle called Fossanum.
 Fossatum, i, n. g. a dicke or mote.
 Fossilis, le, that whiche is or may be digged.
 Fossio, onis, f. g. a dyggyng or delapng.
 Fossitius, a, um, that is dygged.
 Fossor, oris, m. g. a dygger, or ditcher.
 Fossula, la, f. g. a little dicke.
 Fossam Sempionij, a towne in Italy called Fossanboime. Also Faventia.
 Fossura, a, f. g. a dyggyng.
 Forus, us, m. g. nouryng, keepyng warne and in naturall heat.
 Fetus, a, um, nourished, cheryshed, kept warne.
 Fouca, a, f. g. a denne.
 Fouco, ui, ere, to nourish, to susteyne, to mainteyne, to kepe warne, to cheryshe, to weate or washe a thyng, to ordeyne or set, to defende.
 Fonere aliquem, to kepe one his friende, or to fauour or make much of one.
 Fouere in pectore, to thynke pryncially.
 Fouere oua, to kepe warme egges, as foules doo sytyng on bycde.
 Fouere amorem, to nourish and maynteyn loue.
 Castra fouere, id est tueri.
 Foucam dolores meos, I dyd nourish and maynteyne my sorow and heauynesse.
 Fouere iudicium, quod de vobis habet, mainteyne and increate the good opinion that he hath of you.
 Fouere aliquam, to embrace a woman.
 Fonere vulnus aqua, to washe a wounde with waier, to stinte the bleedynge.
 Fouere os multa aqua frigida, to washe the mouthe with muche colde waier.

F A N T E R.

F Raceo, cui, ere, to putrefie for age.
 Fracisco, scere, idem.
 Fraces, lies of oyle.
 Fracidus, a, um, moze than rype, rotten as fruite is.
 Fractura, a, f. g. a breakyng or bystryng.
 Fractus, a, um, broken, discouraged.
 Fracto animo, & dimisso est, his courage faileth him, his herte seynteth, he stoupeth.
 Fractae res, riches or gooddes spent or losse.
 Fracti bello, wepy of warres.
 Fracta pronuntiatio, an effeminate, womanly and nyce pronuntiacion.
 Frænatus, a, um, that is bydeled or restrained of his will.
 Frænigerus, a, um, that ruleth the byble.
 Ala frænigera, the wynges of horse men.
 Fræno, aui, are, to bydle, to restrayne, to stop.
 Voluptates frænare, to maister the wanton appetites.

petites of pleasures.
 Frænare populum, to kepe vnder a sturborne an frowarde people.
 Iram frenare, to bydle, rule of moderate anger.
 Frænum, ni, n. g. a bydle, of the bit of a bydle.
 Frænum, morbus est cum glans penis ita cō-tacta est, vt nudari not possit.
 Frænos adhibere, to restreigne.
 Frenos injicere alicui, to let one of his pleasure to bydle him that would not be ruled.
 Frænum mordere, to take the bit in the teeth, signifieth, to sette naught by.
 Accipere frænum, by a metaphoze to submit,
 and become subiecte.
 Compescere animum frænis, To bydle the
 mynde.
 Da frænum, let hym haue the bydle at wyll,
 geue him the head, let him doe as he liste.
 Ducere frenum, contrary.
 Eget frænis, he hath nede to be restreigned.
 Fraga, ōrum, neu. gen. plur. strawe berries, the herbe is called Fragaria.
 Frageo, gere, & Fragesco, scere, to brast.
 Fragilis, le, fragile, bychle, soone broken.
 Fragile & caducum.
 Fragile dentibus, That may easely be broke with the teeth.
 Fragilitas, atis, fœm. gen. fraillie, byoukleness,
 inconstancie.
 Fragiliter, weakely, inconstantly, byoukely.
 Fragitides, the two great beynes, whiche doo ap-peare on either syde of the necke.
 Fragmen, inis, & Fragmentum, ti, n. g. a piece of gobber of a thyng broken, a fragment.
 Frigor, ōris, m. g. the noyse that is made at the fallng of trustng of any great thyng.
 Frigōsus, a, um, vncasy to clime, tough, sharpe.
 Frigosa oratio, & Lenis oratio, contrary.
 Fragrans, antis, om. gen. haung great of soote
 saour.
 Fragrantia, æ, f. g. a great saour.
 Fragro, aui, are, to geue a pleasaunt saour.
 Framea, æ, f. g. a speare of iauelyn.
 Francones, people of Germanie.
 Frango, ēgi, eie, to brake, to discourage, to baynquish, to maister, to tame and kepe vnder.
 Frangere animum, to discourage.
 Audaciam hostis frangere, to abate his enes mites courage.
 Frangere auctoritatem veteris disciplinæ, to brake of desrope the olde rule of laudable custome.
 Fidem frangere, To brake promyse of appoyntement.
 Frangere hominem, To cause one to relente from his purpose, to make hym to agree to his requeste.
 Opes inimicorum frangere, to impouertise his enemies.
 Sententiam alicuius frangere, to confute ones opinion and make it of no valur.

 Frangi, not to abyde patiently aduersitee forow of trouble.
 Frangi dolore, to be in extreme sorow, of als
 most dead for sorow of grieue.
 Frangi metu, to be almost dead for feare.
 Frangi pudore, to be exceedingly ashamed, to be out of countenance.
 Frangere in micas, to brake small, to crume.
 Fregit nauem, he had a shipwracke.
 Cupiditates frangere, to maister ones wanton appetites.
 Frangere & domare nationes, to baynquish and kepe vnder nations.
 Patientia alicuem frangere, To overcome
 one with patience.
 Frangere molis, to grynde.
 Frangere consilia alicuius, to stop ones purposes, to let that one goeth aboute.
 Frangōsus, a deceyuour.
 Frater, tris, m. g. a brother.
 Frater patruelis, a brothers sonne, a colyne germane.
 Fratres gemini, two twynnes.
 Fratri mei gnatus, my nephewe.
 Fraterculus, li, m. g. a littel of yonge brother.
 Fraternè, brotherly.
 Fraternitas, atis, brotherheade.
 Fraternalis, a, um, of a brother.
 Fracilli, the fringe of tapestrie that hangeth nexte
 the grounde.
 Fratro, aui, are, properly is sayd of childrens breddes, whan they doo grow and wake imboied.
 Frates Aruales, rede befoze in Aruales.
 Fratria, æ, f. g. a brothers wyfe.
 Fratricida, æ, fœm. gener. he that hath slayne his brother.
 Fratrucles, brothers children, colyn germanes.
 Frandatio, ōnis, f. g. a deceyung of beggyn.
 Fraudator, ōris, m. g. a deceyuour.
 Fraudator, a, um, deceyued of beggled.
 Fraudo, aui, are, to deceiue pryncely by takynge as way that is due, to disapoynte.
 Fraudare alicuem suo testimonio, where one holdeth his peace, whan his friende is spoken of and wyll not say well of him.
 Fraudare genium, not to satisfie the necessitie of nature of carnall appetit.
 Fraudare se victu suo, to fare hardely for nys gardethyp; to withdraue parte of his owne lysyng and sustenance.
 Fraudare stipendium, To retayne of kepe as way wages from men.
 Fraudare, & Fallere.
 Vadimonium alicui deferere, & eum fraudasre, To disapoynte one and not to appeare at
 the day appoynted.
 Fraudare creditores, To deceyue his creditors, not to pay his debtes.
 Alicuem pecunia fraudare, to geat ones money from hym by some wyle of ransple.

Fraudulenter, deceitfully.

Fraudulentus, a, um, full of deceipte.

Fraus, fraudis, fem. gener. deceypte, fraude, a snare or trappe to begyle one, displeasure, inconuenience, hurte, damage. Also peryll daungier.

Fraus & integritas, contrary.

Agere aliquem in fraudem, to bypunge one into peryll and daungier.

Astruere, cogitare, nectere fraudem, to go about to deceyue.

Facere fraudem legi, with some interpretation or meane to delude the lawe.

Quod sine fraude mea populi mei fiat, Casynge myne owne right, and the right of my people.

Fert illi fraudem hœeres, this thyng brought hym in daungier.

In eandem fraudem ex hac re atq; ex illa incidet, Thou shalt fall into the same trappe both by this meanes and by the other.

Illicis in fraudem, Thou bypungest theym to displeasure and inconuenience: Thou doest entice or allure theym to that thyng, whereby they shall haue hurte, Or thou tollest theym into the snare, or into daungier.

Modo ne cares mihi sit fraudi, So that that thyng put me to no displeasure, hurte or inconuenience.

Sine fraude esse, To bee oute of peryll or daungier.

Fraus capitalis, a deadly offence.

Fraus, was vsed of olde wyrters for Pœna.

Frausum, was vsed of olde wyrters for Fraudatum.

Fraxineus, or Fraxinus, a, um, of ashe, or ashen.

Fraxinus, i, f. g. an ashe.

Fraxo, aui, are, to go aboute the watche.

Fregillæ, a littell towne in Italy. Sometime a noble citee.

Fremebundus, a, um, that maketh an horrible and great noyse.

Frémitus, us, masc. gene. a rozyng, properly of waters. Sometime a murmuring, rumble, or noyse of people assembled together.

Fremo, mui, ère, to roze or make a noyse lyke great waters, or lyke a lyon, to murmur and shewe mens selues greatly discontented, to bee berie angrie or greatly moud.

Legiones fremebāt se fraudari stipendio, the souldiers shewed theim selves greatly discontented, that they were deceyued of their wages.

Hæc fremit plebs, the people murmureth and grudgeth greatly at these thynges.

Frendens, dentis, om. gene. gnawynge wyth the teeth.

Fredeo, dui, dère, to grynde the teeth together for anger or payne. Also to grunte or grone for payne, to bryake or bryuse.

Frendo, dui, frendere, idem.

Frentani, people of Italy.

Frenum, looke Frænum.

Frequens, entis, om. gener. accustomed, much haunted. Also assembled together, about daunt.

Omnibus relictis mihi frequentem operam dedisti, Leaupnge all other men, ye haue often holpen me.

Frequens auditorium, a great audience.

Frequens adest, he cometh often.

Frequens est cum eo, he is often tymes with hym.

Frequentes fuimus ad ducentos, we were a great numbze about two hundred.

Frequens senatus, all the senate gathered together.

Venio in senatum frequens, I come ordinatly into the senate.

Frequens populus, muche people continually resoytynge.

Frequens vrbs, a citee full of people, a citee of great resoyte, a citee of much haunt.

Frequens forum, the hygh strete full of people.

Aderat ibi frequens, He was much there a comer and goer.

Auditor frequens, a scholer that resoyteth often to ones lecture.

Frequens numerus, a great numbze.

Via frequens & tuta, a way muche haunted and without daungier.

Frequens secretis, muche of ones pryue counsayle.

Frequentes obuiam prodeunt, they goe soozth in great numbze to mete with hym.

Frequentamentum, ti, neu. gen. in musyke, it is warblyng.

Frequentarius, a, um, of olde wyrters vsed for Frequens.

Frequentatio, ōnis, fœ. gene. an hauntynge, an assemble. also a fygure of rethorike.

Frequentia, æ, fœ. gene. a great haunte or company of folke.

Domum reducebant cum maxima frequentia, with a great company.

Circumfusus frequentia hominum, haupnge a great multitude of people about hym.

Frequentissima ædes, an house muche haunted with people.

Frequento, aui, are, to haunt, to go together, to go much to a place. also to make to be haunted or much vsed. Sometime for Geminare, to respyte agayne.

Frequentare aliquem, to resoyte much to one, to visite hym often.

Frequentatur domus, the house is much resoyted to.

Solitudinem alicuius loci frequentare, to make a place inhabytet, whiche was before deserte.

Frequentare templum decet, it is mete that the people should resoyte muche vnto the churche.

Frequens

Frequentare populum, to assemble the people in great number.
 Fressus, a, um, broken or bruised.
 Fressa faba, a beane bruised or broken.
 Fretum, ti, neu. ge. a narrow sea betwene two landes, as Fretum Herculeum, whiche is in the sea betwene Spayne and the countrey of Moores, called the fraighes of Marrok.
 Fretus, was used of olde wyters in the masculin gender.
 Fretus, a, um, of Fruor, trustyng, haupyng confidence in a thyng.
 De qua tamen magnam spem habemus, freti clementia collegæ tui, wherof not withstanding we haue good hope, trustyng on the mercie of your companion.
 Quo fretus hoc audebat? vpon whose supportacion durste he be so bolde to doo this?
 Friabilis, le, soone broken in small pieces, that may be crummed.
 Fribolus, almost woorth an halfe peny.
 Frico, fricui, and fricui, frictum, and Frictum, are, to rubbe.
 Frictilla, æ, fœm. gen. a fritter made of flowre and batter.
 Frictus, us, m. g. Frictio, & Frictio, ònis, f. g. rubbing, friction.
 Frictus, and Frixus, a, um, fried.
 Frigêdo, gédinis, idem quod Frigus.
 Frigefacio, géfacis, féci, ere, to coole.
 Frigefacto, aui, are, to make colde often.
 Frigefio, fieri, to be cooled.
 Frigeo, gui, and frixi, ére, to be colde of clothe, to be saynte or oute of courage, to be almoste blacke.
 Nimirum hi homines frigent, In faith these fellows are blanke: Of the courage of these men is gone or well abated.
 Vbi friget sermo, whan our communication waxed colde: or whan there lacked matter to talke of.
 Friget venus, lust of the body is colde.
 Frigero, aui, are, to coole.
 Frigescio, scete, to waxe colde.
 Frigidarius, a, um, where colde water is kepte.
 Frigidaria cella, a colde barthe.
 Frigide, coldely, vnaptly, vnpleasantly, without any grace.
 Frigiditas, âtis, f. g. coldenesse.
 Frigidulus, a, um, somewhat colde.
 Frigidus, a, um, colde, dangerous, or noysfull. also nothing hotte in a matter, saynte, slowe, without grace or pleasantnesse.
 Frigidum opidulum, a towne of small roste.
 Argumentum frigidum, a slender argument without force or pithe.
 Frigida negotia, trifelynge matters of no weyght or importance.
 Frigida solatia, slender comfortes.
 Frigidum, foolyshe, that hath no grate, cui Facetum & plausibile opponitur.

Frigida, used substantiuely for colde water.
 Frigidam suffundere, pouer byally, signifieth to encourage or stirre to a thyng, with flattering and fawne wordes.
 Frigilla, æ, fœm. ge. a byrde that lyngeth in the colde wether, that whiche is called a chaffinche, or a spynke.
 Fringillago, ginis, fœ. g. a little byrde called the lesse tilmous.
 Frigo, xi, & frigui, frixum, and Frictum, ere, to drie, to parche.
 Frigorificus, a, um, that maketh colde.
 Frigor, oris, neu. gene. colde. sometyme feare. sometyme death.
 Frigusculum, looke Friciculum.
 Frigutio, frigutis, tiui, ire, to quake for colde.
 Fringilla, idem quod Frigilla.
 Frigillarius, a kynde of haukes, most lyke to be our hobbie.
 Frio, aui, are, to bryake small, especially betwixt the fyngers.
 Frisi, people by Hollande, wherof the countrey is called Friselande.
 Frit, the grayne in the toppe of the eare, whiche is lasse than a coine.
 Fritilla, læ, f. g. a froyse or pancake.
 Fritillus, li. m. g. a boxe, out of the whiche dyce were cast on the tables.
 Friciculum, li. n. g. dissencion between men and theyr wyues, whiche cometh not to separation this woorde is in Alpyan, where some woulde haue it redde frigusculum, some fribusculum.
 Friuola, òrum, neu. gen. plu. vtensyles, of litte tell value.
 Friuolarius, i, m. ge. he that selleth stufte of lyttell value, a pedlar.
 Friuolus, a, um, vayne, lyght, of no estimation or value, that wyl quickly vanyshe or perishe.
 Frixorium, òrij, n. g. a fryng panne.
 Frondarius, a, um, of leaues.
 Frondatio, ònis, fœ. ge. a clippynge of leaues or bowes, loppynge of trees. also brydlynge.
 Frondator, òris, mas. gen. a brydler, a woodde lopper.
 Frondeo, frondui, ére, & Frondesco, scere, to beare or brynge forth leaues.
 Frondeus, a, um, that is of leaues.
 Frondifer, a, um, bearyng leaues.
 Frondo, dau, are, to cut of leaues, or small bootes.
 Frondosus, a, um, full of leaues.
 Frons, frontis, fœm. gener. the foreheade, the fronte or foreparte, the entrance or begynnynge of a thyng, steadfastnesse. Also countenance. also it signifieth the foreparte of an hoste. also seruicitee, grauntée.
 Fronte obducta, corrugata, caperata, contrastâ, nubila, with an heauie, sadde, frowninge, lowe or displeasunt countenance.
 Frons causa, the begynnynge of the matter.
 Prima fronte, at the fyrste, at the entrie, at the prime primiface.

Porrecta, ferens, explicata fronte, with a meere countenance.

Frontem explicare, and exporrigere, to looke merely, to be merry and iocunde.

Frontem contrahere, and Obducere, to looke fowly, to be heauy and fadde, to looke displeafantly.

Frontem ferire, Is fpooken, where a man fignifieth, that one bydeigneth an other exenimely.

Perijt illi frons, he hath lofte his countenance, he is paff Wame.

Frons yrbana, confidence, boldneffe, without mefalfheffe in requyryng a thyng.

A fronte precipitium, a tergo lupi, A prouerbe, fignifyng a man to be in the myddes betwene twoo greate daungers of mplechies.

A fronte & a tergo videre, A prouerbe, no tyng a prouidence and wifedome, in confyderyng and weyng as well thynges paft as to come.

Sed vtrum fronte an mente dubitatur, but it is doubtefull of vncertayne, whether he doo it with his herte and mynde, or with the countenance onely, fheuyng a fayne face.

Frontem perfrita, cafte away all Wame.

Frontem remittere, to abate of ones feueritee, and to become moze pleafant and genetill.

Frons libri, the edge of a booke that is prepynted and coloured.

Frons, frondis, fer. g. the leafe of a tree with the bzaunches.

Agere frondem, to bougein.

Frontale, lis, n. g. the headftall of a byrdell.

Frontatus, a, um, that is lyke a fozehead.

Frontari lapides, ftones that goe thoroughe, and appere on bothe fydes of the wall, and are the chiefte ftrength of the wall. The Grekes call them Diatoni, and Diatori: the Frenche men call them Perpeins.

Fronto, a learned man, inftitutoure of M. Antonius.

Fronto, onis, mafc. gener. that hath a brode fozehead.

Frontofus, a, um, that hath a greate fozehead, or that is not abafhed.

Fructifer, a, um, bearyng fruite.

Fructuarius, ri, mafcu. gene. he that taketh the fruite or profite of a thyng, called of our lawyers. Bernour of profites.

Fructuarius, a, um, that whiche beareth fruite, or doeth pertyne to fruite.

Flagellum vitis fructuarium, That beareth fruite.

Scrofa fructuaria, a fow hepte for bzeede and encrease.

Fructuofus, a, um, fruitfull, profitable.

Fructuofiffimus locus, a very fertyle and fruitfull foyle.

Fructuofa beneficia.

Fructus, us, tuis, & ti, fruite, vfe, commoditee, alfo all ppointe, or reuenues that come of the grounde, or any other thyng. Sometyme meate. alfo the vfe or pleasure of a thyng.

Fructum capere ex aliquo, to haue profute or commoditee of a thyng.

Alere fuis fructibus exercitum, to maynteine an armie with his reuenues.

Frugalis, le, in the pofitiue degre, no good latine woorde. But in the ftrede therof the latyne authours vfe Frugi.

Frugalior, Frugaliffimus, moze temperate, moft temperate.

Dedo patri me nunc vt frugalior sum quam vult, I put my felfe into my fathers handes, to be a moze honeft man and of better rule than he would haue me.

Nequiffimus & frugaliffimus, contrary.

Parciffimus & frugaliffimus, a very thyrftie felow, of great moderation and temperatneffe in luyng.

Frugalitas, atis, fer. g. moderation of luyng, efppecially in apparayle & diete, fobye rule, thyrftines, frugalitee, good and honeft behauiour, alfo fufficientie.

Frugaliter, feparete, foblye, profitably, without reproche, exceffe, or rye.

Parce & frugaliter viuere, to leade a feparate or moderate lyfe, without exceffe, or riotte, to liue fparingly and thyrftilie.

Fruges, or Frux, frugis, fer. g. encrease of all thofe thynges, whiche the earth byngeth forth, moftly propely of cozne and graphe. Sometyme it fignifyeth rent or reuenues.

Recipere fe ad frugem bonam, of a naughtye and light felow, to become tryfte, and wake an honeft man.

Corrigere ad frugem, to chaftife to the intents to make him an honeft man.

Euadere ad bonam frugem, To proue in the ende a ryght honeft man.

Frugi, of all genders and vnderlined, temperate and meafurable in diet, or maner of luyng of ones bodie, and sometyme in apparayle and of ther thynges, of a good rule or moderation, moderate, profitable, neceffary, thyrftie, fobye, good, honefte, contrary to Nequam.

Frugi edificium, an houfe not fumptuous.

Frugi homo, a good man, a thyrftie man, endued with manhod and vertue, an honeft man, temperate in expenfes.

Frugi feruus, a trusty feruant, which looketh well to his mayfters profute.

Permodestus ac bonæ frugi homo, a very modefte perfon, and of a ryght honefte behauiour.

Frugi es, thou arte a profitable and neceffary felow.

Frugi cœna, a moderate and temperate fupper.

Frugi victus, an honeft moderate and temperate rate diete.

 Cui luxuriosus opponitur.
 Frugis, is used of Plantus in the genitive case.
 Frugi filius opponitur luxurioso.
 Frugifer, a, um, fruitfull, that beareth fruite of coine.
 Frugilegus, a, um, that gathereth together fruite of coine.
 Fruiscor, sci, to be at libertie.
 Frumen, frumini, n. g. the uppermoste parte of the throte, the gargill.
 Frumentaceus, a, um, of coine.
 Frumentarius, a, um, pertaining to coine.
 Res frumentaria, prouision of grayne.
 Locus frumentarius, a spyle or place where muche coine groweth.
 Re frumentaria laborare, To lache forrage of coine.
 Solum frumentarium, a spyle or grounde apt to beare coine.
 Frumentarius, ri, mascul. gene. a forager, one that maketh prouision for coine to sell agayne to other.
 Frumentarius negotiator, idem.
 Frumentatio, onis, f. ge. a takinge in of coine, haruest, forageing, also a distribution of coine and grayne among ciuelens.
 Frumentator, oris, m. ge. a pourueyer of coine, a forager.
 Frumentor, aris, ari, to gather or pouruey coine.
 Frumentum, ti, n. g. all coine or pulc. it is most used for wheate or rye.
 Fruniscor, used of olde writers for fruor.
 Frunitus, wyle in vsing of a thyng.
 Fruor, frueris, fretus sum, frui, to rate, to be fed or nourished, to haue the vse or profit of a thyng to vse with delectacion and profite.
 Frui ingenio suo, to dooe as he wylle, to dooe after his owne fantasy and pleasure.
 Frui orio, to be at leysure without busynesse.
 Recordatione nostra amicitia fruor, I take great pleasure in the remembrance of our amities and frendshipp.
 Frui sermone alicuius, to take pleasure or profite by hearyng a mans talke.
 Frui agrum, to take the profite of a piece of lande.
 Aeternitate fruntur animæ, soules lyue eternally, or soules haue fruition of euerlastynge lyfe.
 Frusino, a citee of Campayne.
 Frusinum, a citee of Campayne called Frusinona.
 Frustatim, in piéces of gobbettes.
 Frustillatim, piece meale.
 Frustra, in vayne, without any effecte or purpose.
 Frustra es, thou arte deceyued or abused.
 Frustra esse, to come to none effecte, to profite nothing, to doo no good.
 Frustra habere aliquem, to abuse or deceyue one. Ne frustra sis, That thou bee not disappointed.

 Frustra legati discessere, the embassadours departed without hauing their purpose.
 Frustra gaudius sum miser, I was glad for nothing, unhappy body that I am.
 Frustra est homo, It is not as the man thyng hee, or he is deceyued.
 Ea res frustra fuit, that thyng deceayd their expectation, or it came not to passe as they looked for.
 Frustratio, onis, f. gen. abusynge or deceyving of one.
 Frustro, aui, are, & Frustror, aris, ari, a verbe common after Plinian, after other a deponent to deceyue. Also to dooe a thyng in vayne, or vayne to employ.
 Frustrari expectationem alicuius, To disappoint one of that whiche he looked for.
 Frustrari expensas, To lose his costes and charges.
 Imprudenter facta opera frustrantur expensas, warkes made vnadvisedly make one to lose all that he hath bestowed.
 Frustrari laborem, to lose his payne.
 Frustrari ab aliquo, to be deceyued of one, to be defraied of his purpose.
 Frustratus, a, um, that hath deceyued or begiled.
 Hæc spes me sæpe frustrata est, this hope hath begiled me more than ones or twyle.
 Satis adhuc tua frustrata est fides, Hitherto the truste that I haue had in thee, hath merely well deceyued me.
 Frustrulentus, a, um, full of small piéces of gobettes.
 Frustrulum, and Frustillum, li, neut. gene. a littell gobbet.
 Frustrum, i, n. g. a piéce of gobbet.
 Frustrum hominis, a litle pretie felow, that seemeth to be but a piéce of a man.
 Frustra meri bibunt, They drynke wyne, scot sen into piéces of piéce.
 Frusus, a kinde of brymbles, whose prickles bee not hooked.
 Fruticulosus, a, um, hauing aboundance of suche great herbes, full of shrubbes.
 Frutetum, ti, seu Fruticetum, i, neu. ge. a place where groweth herbes with great stalkes or stemmes, or where shrubbes growe.
 Frutex, fruticis, mascul. gen. a shrubbe, that whiche hath a greate stalke, and yet it is no tree, as fenell, calles, certayne malowes, and other lyke herbes. Sometime it is taken for the stem or stalke.
 Frutex, is also a certayne tree growynge in Phrygia.
 Fruticatio, onis, f. gen. the byngynge forth of wootes or yonge sprynges.
 Frutico, aui, are, & Fruticor, aris, ari, to spryng in stalkes, to bynge forth sprynges, wootes, or shrubbes.
 Fruticare plaribus culmis, to spryng & bynge forth forth many stalkes and shootes.

Fruticofus, a, um, that byngeth forth many shootes, stalkes, or stemmes.
Fruticosa, a temple of Venus.
Fruis, frugis, form. gen. vñed of olde wyters for corne or pulse.

F ANTE V.

Fat, for sic.
Fucatus, a, um, coloured or peincted as some women bee.

Fucatus nitor, counterfayt brightnes or clerenesse.
Fucata and syncera & vera, contrary.

Facilis, le, false coloured.

Fucinus, a lake in Italy.

Fucosus, a, um, coloured, counterfayted.

Fuco, aui, are, to lay on a coloure, to counterfayte.

Fucus, ci, mascu. gener. a doore or bee withoute wynges, which entereth into hives, and eateth vp the honny.

Fucus is also a sea herbe, lyke Lactuse, good to dye clothe with. also peinctyng, al false or counterfayte coloure. it is also vñed for deceipt or falsehoode, or any maner colourable deceipt.

Fucus gloriæ, the glosse of renoume.

Facere fucum, to deceyue or begyle.

Sine fuco, without fraude, sincerely, playnly.

Virgill taketh fucus sometyme for ware.

Fucus marinus, an herbe called also Alga marina, wherewith clothe is dyed.

Fuscus, the name of an ozatour.

Fuga, ga, for. g. flyght, eschewyng of a thyng.
 sometyme exile, banishment. also a swifte race or course, swiftenesse.

Fuga honoris, a meane to eschewe an office or promotion.

Nulla fuga malefactoris meis, my naughtynesse can by no meanes escape unpunished.

Disicere in fugam, and in fugam vertere, to discomfite, to put to flyght.

Dare, conicere, conuertere, conferre se in fugam, to fle or renne away.

Laboris fuga desidiam coarguit: eschewyng of labour is a token of slothfulness.

Fugalia, orum, a feaste amonge the Romaines in remembrance of dyspyng oute of the kynges and expellyng of Tarquinius, solemnised in the moneth of februarye.

Fugax, gacis, om. g. that fleeth lightly. also it signifieth swifte.

Fugacia poma, appulles that will not longe continue, that wyll soone be rotten.

Fugatia, thynges that wyll peryshe and banish away quickly.

Anni fugaces, which passe quickly.

Fugax contra insequentes crocodilus, it fles eth from them that pursue it.

Fugiens, entis, om. g. fleyng or rennyng away.

Fugiens laboris, abhorryng labour or paine.

Fugiens vinum, wyne that hath losse his vertue dure: or wyne that will not be long kept.

Fugientes litteræ, blynde letters.

Fugio, gi, gere, to fle, to ren away, to escape, to forger, to eschewe, to be unknowne.

Fugit aciem tehuitas, it is so small that one can not se it.

Fugite ratio, thou understādest not the matter
De Casare fugerat me ad te scribere, of Cesar
 I had forgotten to write vnto you.

Nisi quæ me forte fugiunt, Except perchance
 I haue forgotten somewhat: or excepte there be some thynges that I know not.

Oculis aliquem fugere, to be losse to see one,
 or looke vpon hym.

Non te fugit, ye be not ignorant, ye know wel
 enough.

Si paululum quid te fugerit, If ye chaunce to forget any thyng: or if ye be ouersene in any popnete, be it neuer so litle.

E manibus fugere, to escape ones handes.

Infamiam fugere, to eschewe infamy or shāder.

Fugere, is spoken epyth of thyppes saylyng or byddes fleyng away.

Fugin hinc: arte thou gone in all the haste: or wilt thou not get thee away quickly.

Fugitiuarius, ri, m. g. one that seketh seruantes that be ranne away, to byng the hym again.

Fugitiuus, a, um, fugitiue, not abydyng, fleyng away, flitting, that gladly and quickly renneth away.

Fugitiuus seruus, he that renneth from his maister, wyllyng neuer to retourne: or goeth to a place, from whence he supposeth that his maister can neuer recouer him.

Fugio, aui, are, to fle to ten away.

Fugitare patrem, and Fugitare e conspectu parris, to kepe ones selfe out of his fathers sight:
 or that his father se him not.

Fugitare quaestionem, to eschewe examinacion or by tourmentes.

Fugo, aui, are, to dīue away, to put to flyght.

Fulcimentum, ti, n. g. a botreuil, or that, wher with a thyng is sustented, a proppe, a doze.

Fulcio, cūi, cire, to suppoze, to fortifie, to stay or holde vp.

Beneuolentia fulcire imperium, to establishe and make stronge a kyngedome with beniuo
 lence and gentleness.

Eius ope fulcus, haupng his good helpe and suppoztacion.

Fulco, a duke of angew, the fyfth kyng of Dies
rufalem.

Fulcrum, cri, n. g. a beadstede.

Fulgeo, si, gere, and Fulgo, gi, gere, to shyne.
 sometyme for Fulgurare, to make to lyghten.

olde wyters vñed it for Perire.

Auro & purpura fulgere, to be gorgeously ap parayled in purple and golde.

Fulgētrum, tri, n. ge. and sometyme Fulgetra, trā, f. g. a vehement and great lyghtnyng, a leame

leame of lyghtnyng.
Fulgidus, a, um, bygght.
Fulgor, óris, m. g. byghtnes, shynng. Sometime lyghtnyng, somtyme great noblenesse and glozy.
Fulgur, guri, n. g. lightnyng.
Fulgurâlis, le, perteynyng to lightnyng.
Fulginates, a people of Italy.
Fulguratio, ónis, f. g. the lyghtnyng whan it is in the cloudes.
Fulgurâtor, óris, m. g. the sender of lyghtnyng, or he that diuyneth by lyghtnyng.
Fulgurio, riui, rir, to cast lightnyng.
Fulguritas, âtis, f. g. lyghtnesse or byghtnesse, glysterynge.
Fulguritassunt, they are blasted or strephen with lyghtnyng.
Fulguritus, striken or blasted with lyghtnyng.
Fulguro, aui, afe, to sende forth lightnyng.
Auro fulgurat domus, The house shyneth or glystereth all of golde.
Fulica, ca, f. g. a sea byrde, moze than a culuer. a whife semewe, with a blacke coppe. there be diuers opinions, and diuersly this name is taken. after Gaza, it is Cepphus, of some called Larus.
Fuligo, ginis, f. g. the soote of a chimney.
Fulix, licis, idem quod fulica.
Fullo, ónis, m. g. a fullar of clothe.
Fullonica, ca, f. g. fullars crafte, or a fullars shop.
Fullonius, and Fullonicus, a, um, of or perteynyng to a fullar.
Fullonicum, ti, n. g. idem quod Fullonica.
Fulmen, minis, n. g. lyghtnyng.
Ictu fulminis desigrare, to be bourned with lyghtnyng.
Afflare fulmine, to blast with lyghtnyng.
Fulmina verborum, great vehemencie of wordes.
Fulmina fortunæ, greete mischaunces of fortune.
Fulmineus, a, um, of or belongyng to lyghtnyng.
Fulmino, aui, are, to lyghten, to strephe with lightnyng.
Fultura, x, f. g. a hoze or pproppe, a thyng that staiteth vp.
Fulminates, people of Illiria.
Fuluriana, a certayne herbe.
Fuluiaster, he that imitateth the maniers of Fuluius.
Fuluius, the name of a Romayne.
Fuluus, a, um, a colour mixt of greene and red, a darke yealow. Somtyme greene.
Fumaria herba, an herbe called Fumitorie.
Fumarium, rij, n. g. a smoky place, where wyne was laied, to the intente that it myght the sootter waxe olde. also the Chanke, shafte, or tonell of a chimney.
Fumeus, a, um, smoky, or of smoke.
Fumidus, a, um, smoky, that smoketh.
Fumifer, ra, rum, that byngeth smoke.
Fumifico, aui, are, to make smoke, to incense, to perfume.

Fumicus, a, um, mahyng smoke.
Fumigo, aui, are, to perfume.
Fumo, aui, are, to smoke.
Fumofus, a, um, smoky, blacke with smoke.
Fumosa imagines, olde smoky ymages, beyng the monumentes of ones auncestours.
Fumus, mi, m. g. smoke.
Fumos vendere, is the practyse of them, which beyng nyghe about a pynce, or in his fauoure, dooe beate men in hande, that they speake for them to the pynce, whan they speake neuer a worde, and cause men to liue thereby in fooles paradise.
Funale, lis, n. g. a tope. Somtyme it is vled for a corde or halter.
Funâlis, le, perteynyng to cordes.
Funales equi, hofes, whiche coupled with an halter, did go befoze the chariot in a triumphe.
Funalis cereus, a tope of ware.
Funâmbulus, li, m. g. he that walketh on a rope.
Functio, ónis, for, ge. the exercise of a weightye matter or office, an office or charge that a man hath to dooe, as in teachynge, in gouernynge a company.
Functus, a, um, dooyng or executyng.
Functi militia, they that be past warfare.
Funda, x, f. g. a slynge. also a castyng net, a sacchell or purse lyke a nette. also a circkle of golde or other mettall, wherein stones be sette.
Fundâmen, minis, and fundamentum, ti, n. g. a foundation, the fyrst beginnyng or grounde of a thyng.
Fundamenta camentitia, foundations made with stones and rubbyshe.
Initia & fundamenta.
A fundamento, euen from the ground and first beginnyng.
Fundamenta iacere, and opera perficere, contrary.
Fundamenta reipublicæ iacere, to begynne to establishe and sette in good order the common weale.
Causa fundamenta iacere, to lay the grounde of a matter.
Fundâtus, a, um, founded, stablished.
Fundata legibus ciuitas, a citee stablished with good lawes and ordynances.
Fundatissima familia, a very auncient and substantiall familie.
Fundibularius, rij, m. g. a slynger of stones.
Funditare rem, to spende gooddes in bayne.
Funditor, óris, m. g. idem.
Fúndito, aui, are, to poure out often, to speake muche and in bayne, to spende riotously and prodigally.
Funditus, aduerb. from the foundation, vterly.
Funditus me perdidisti. Thou haste vterlye vndooen me.
Funditus perij, I am vterly vndooen.
Funditus euerfa ciuitas, a citee vterly destroyed and cast downe euen by the grounde.
Fundo,

Fundo, aui, are, to founde, to make stable, to lay the foundation of a thyng.

Fundare nauem, to make or builde a shippe.

Fundo, fudi, fundere, to pette or caste mettalle, to poure out, to shedde, to throwe downe, to spreade or scatter, to discomfit or vanquish, to geue abundantly, to speake much, to lay downe. Fundere exercitum, & fundere copias, To discomfit an hoste, to slea all the armie.

Fundere lachrymas, to weepe exceedingly.

Fundere verba, to speake more than needeth, to speake in vayne.

Fundere versus, to make verses sodainly.

Fundere yrinam, to pisse muche.

Fundere preces, to pray.

Fundere ex are imaginem, to caste an ymage of brasse.

Fundere flores, to yelde or bynge forth floures abundantly.

Fundere frugem, to putte oute fruite abundantly.

Fundere corpora humi, to caste downe bodies on the grounde.

Fundere mendacia, to tell lies plentifully.

Fundere orationem incondite, to speake confusedly without pausinge, as muche as one can utter at a breath.

Fandit in Rhenum fluuius, the ryuer hath his course into the Rhene.

Latissime fundi, to be spreadde farre abroad.

Fundum, di, neu. gen. the bottome of any thing that conteyneth licour.

Fundus, di, mascu. gene. that whiche is vsed to be called lande or soyle, a plotte of grounde with an house builded on it. Sometime it is taken for a foundation, also for the chiefe authour of a thyng.

Funeris, bre, of or perteynyng to funeralles or mourning for the dead.

Funeria iusta, the ceremonies dooen at the buryng or interment of one.

Funebre bellum, a cruell and deadly warre, wherein is much slaughter.

Epulum funebre, a feast at a buriall.

Funera, arum, those women that are the mourners at a buriall, as the mothers and sisters.

Funeralis, le, perteynyng to funeralles.

Funereus, a, um, perteynyng to the dead body, or to the funerall.

Funero, aui, are, to bury.

Funesto, aui, are, to violate a place with a dead body.

Funestus, a, um, violated with dead bodies. also so mortall, bloudy: also perteynyng to dead bodies or death, deadly, cruell.

Funesta vox, a bloudy and cruell sentence.

Funesta familia, a familie, wherof one of the house is dead.

Perniosum & funestum.

Funetum, boowed or houped as some vines be.

Fungibiles res, al such thynges, whiche be nūbred, wayed, or measured: as wine, oyle, coine, &c. Fungor, funderis, functus sum, fungi, to exercise an office.

Fungi officio suo, to dooe his dutie or office.

Fungi fato, to be dead.

Fungivita, idem.

Fungivice alicuius, or vicem alienam, to bee in an other mannes steede, to supply an other mans roume.

Functus vita, he that hath synned his lyfe.

Iustitiae fungatur officiis, let him liue according to the lawes of iustice.

Fungi munus, or officium alicuius, to dooe an other mans office or charge.

Fungi munere, to geue a gyfte or present. also to exercise an office.

Fortuna prospere fungi, to haue good fortune to prospere.

Laboribus functus, he that hath taken paynes and trauaples, and is now past them.

Functus honore, that hath ben in any office, or dignitee.

Primo loco fungi, to be the fyrst.

Funginus, a, um, of a mustherom.

Fungositas, âris, f. g. the holownesse of a mustherom, or other lyke thyng.

Fungosus, a, um, lyke a mustherom.

Fungus, gi, ma. gen. a tadskoole, a mustherom, a synner of a candelle. also a faule in trees as it were a kynde of blastynge. also a bulle head, a dolte, a foole, an ideote, that hath no witte or vnderstandyng.

Funiculus, li. m. g. a small rope, a littell coorde.

Funis, nis, m. & f. g. a rope or coorde.

Funipeus, idem quod funambulus.

Funus, funeris, neu. g. funerall exequies, or solemnitee of buryng. Sometime it signifieth the dead corpes. Sometime death.

Funus facere, to cause one to die, or to keepe a funerall.

Funus facere prandio alicuius, To eate by ones dyner.

Crudeli funere extinctus, cruell death.

Immatuum funus, vntimely death.

Soluere iusta paterno funeri, to kepe funerall obsequies at his fathers death or buriall.

Fuo, fui, futurum, to bee.

Fur, furis, com. gene. a theefe. Fur, is taken of Varro, for a doore or greate bre. of Vergile for a seruant or slaue.

Fur furem cognoscit, one knaue knoweth an other, one theefe maketh an other by the hande, lyke wyll to lyke.

Fur mihi es, thou stealest away my goodes.

Fur diurnus, he that robbeth in the day time.

Fur nocturnus, contrary.

Furax, âcis, om. g. theuphe, a great picker.

Furaces manus, theuphe handes.

Furacitas, âtis, f. g. thefte.

Furaciter, theuphely, lyke a theefe.

Furca, cæ, fæ, g. a forke, or any thyng made lyke a forke, a fozke, to vnderlet or ppoppe by. Furca, was also a facion of galowes, made with two greete fozkes, and a polle lapde ouerthwarte.

Furcifer, ri, m. g. a seruauit, which foz some light offence was compelled to beate a fozke on his neche, haupng both his hādes bounden fast therto, and so to go thzough the towne, confessyng his default, & exhortyng other, that they should not in lyke case offende, whiche was a greete reproche. it is vled foz euery villayne hāgrope, or knaue.

Furcilis, lis, f. g. a dounge fozke.

Furcilla, lā, fā. g. an hep fozke, also a galowes.

Furcula, lā, f. g. a littell fozke.

Furculus, li, m. g. a littell thefe, a picker.

Furfur, furis, m. ge. byanne.

Furfures, furfurum, ma. g. plu. nu. white scurfe that falleth out of a mans head or face.

Furfureus, and furfuraceus, a, um, of byanne.

Furia, a, or furia, atum, form. gene. the furies of helle, whiche were thye, Alecto, Tisiphone, Megēra. sometyne the woozme or peynfull remozse of conscience, which horrybly tourmenteth the myndes of wycked personnes.

Furfurōsus, a, um, full of byan or scurfe, scurvy.

Furēter, lyke a mad bodie.

Furiālis, le, of or perteynyng to the furies. Or that is proper or lyke to mad folkes.

Furiāliter, madly, or lyke a mad body.

Furiātus, a, um, made furious or mad, rageyng.

Furibundus, a, um, woode or very mad.

Furio, aui, are, to make mad or woode.

Furiōse, furiously, madly.

Furiōsus, a, um, madde or woode, frantike, furiousse, rageyng.

Vefanus & furiōsus.

Furinus, a, um, belongyng to a thefe.

Furnaceus, a, um, baken in an ouen.

Furnaria, a, f. g. bakers crafte, a woman baker, also a bake house.

Furnariam exercere, to vse or exercise a bakers crafte, or to sette oute a bake house or ouen to hye.

Furnalia, the sacrifices of the goddesse Furina.

Furnarius, rij, m. g. a baker.

Furnianus, a, um, of Furnius.

Furniana vasa, certayne vesselles, whiche were inuented by one Furnius.

Furnus, ni, m. g. an ouen.

Furo, furis, furere, to bee woode foz anger, to rage, to be made distraught.

Furere se simulauit, he made as though he were madde.

De aliquo furere, to bee in a greate rage or furies, foz a thyng doone.

Furere aliquid, id est, ob aliquid.

Furor, ōris, mascu. gener. madnesse. also fury, whiche is a vehement concitacion or Rerynge of the mynde.

Furor, āris, ari, to steale, to attayne to a thyng by pziue and secrete meanes.

Furtificus, a picker or pziue stealer.

Furtim, bo stealth, pziue.

Furtiuus, a, um, that whiche is dooen by stealth, or very pziue, or that is stolen away.

Furtiua littera, and furtiua scripta, letters, whiche no man can rede, but onely he, unto whome they be sente, as letters in cipher.

Furtiue excursions, pziue rodes or sayes mythes.

Furtiue, idem quod furtim, by stealth, pziue.

Furtum, ti, n. ge. thefe. It is defyned to bee a decepytfull handlyng or vsyng of any thyng, or the possession therof, to haue thereby gayne or aduantage, whiche is by the lawe of nature prohibited to be suffered. it is sometyne any acte that is dooen pziue, to the intent it shoulde bee secrete, a crafty wyle to decepye one. sometyne auourtrie.

Furti teneri, aut obstringi, to bee answerable to felonie.

Furtum facere, to steale.

Furūculus, li, m. g. a littell sheefe. also a beaste called a stote, that hylleth rabbits. it is also a soze called a feld. also a soze called a cattles heate, whiche byaketh out in the spngers wyth greate wheales, and muche peyne. sometyne a knob in a vine, lyke a warte.

Furuus, a, um, darke, blache.

Furua hostia, sacrifices dooen to Pluto and Proserpine.

Fuscina, a, f. g. a speare with many tette, wherewith fshers dooe take troutes or peles, by throwyng of it, a troute speare, an pele speare.

Fusculula, lā, f. g. a fletche hooke.

Fusco, aui, are, to make byowne.

Fuscator, ōris, mas. gen. he that maketh blache, darke, or cloude.

Fuscus, a, um, byowne of colour, not fully blache, lyke a moze, or one bourned in the sonne.

Fusca vox, a lowe voyce, whan one speaketh, in the thzote, as he were halfe hoarse.

Fuse, in length, longe, abundantly, plentifully.

Fuse late qd dicere, to speake of a thyng at lēgth.

Fusilis, le, that which is molten.

Fusim, abode at it were molten.

Fusio, ōnis, f. g. a meltyng, a foundyng, a pouyng out, a spreadyng.

Fusor, ōris, m. g. a founder a melter.

Fusorius, a, um, perteynyng to foundyng or meltyng.

Ars fusoria, the crafte of meltyng or foundyng.

Vas fusorium, a meltyng potte.

Fustigatio, ōnis, f. g. a beatyng with a staffe.

Fustigo, aui, are, to beate with a staffe.

Fustis, tis, m. g. a clubbe, a staffe, a cudgell.

Caput aperire fuste, to byeake ones head with a cudgell.

Fustarius, rij, m. g. a minister, whiche serueth to beate men with stauos.

Fustuarium, rij, a beatyng with stauos.

Fusus, si, m. g. or fusum, si, n. g. a byndell.

Fusura, a, f. g. a meltyng or foundyng.

Fusus agrestis, the herbe, called also Atractilis.
Fusus, a, um, molten, scattered, or spred abroad.
Fusus humi, stretched on the ground.
Fusi fugarig, slayne and put to flight.
Per herbam fusi, lying alonge on the grasse.
Crines fusi, heares dishevelled or hangynge as bout ones eares.
Fusa cupressus, a large and great cypresse tree.
Fusa in omnes partes vitis, a vyne tree spred as broad on every syde.
Fusum corpus, a bodie playne and smoothe.
Futile, lis, a cuppe used in the sacrifice of Alecta, which was so broad at the mouth, and so narrow at the foote, that it coulde not stande.
Futulis, le, that which will be soone poured oute.
Futulis, he that speaketh al that he knoweth mostly or unadvisedly, vayne, unprofitable, bablyng foolyshe.
Futulis homo, a blabbe, that can kepe no counsaile, a tell tale, one that hath a longe tongue,
one in whome is no stay.
Futulis alacritas, dissolute, or uncomely myght, or gladnesse without cause.
Futuli de causa, for a vayne and trislyng cause.
Futile and futilliter, foolyshe, dissolutely.
Futilitas, aris, f. g. lyghnesse, foolysheenesse, foolyshe babbyng.
Futio, tis, iire, to poure out, or renne out.
Futis, a vessell, wherewith water was poured into a sauer, to byng water into a parlour or sup-pyng chambze.
Futo, aui, are, to blame.
Futurim, for Profusim.
Futuo, tui, tuere, to doo the acte of generacion.
Futurus, a, um, that shall be hereafter.

G A N T E A.

A B A, a towne in Galilee.
Gaba, a citee of Syria.
Gabales, a people of aquitayne in fraunce.
Gabalum, a towne
in fraunce nigh
to Narbona,
where very good
cheese was made.

Gabalus, li, m. g. a galowe tree or gybet, wheron men be hanged.
Gabalus, the name of Helioabalus, befoze he was emperor.
Gabaon, a citee in the holy lande, nigh to Rasma, where Salomon doyng sacrifice, spake with god.
Gabaonitæ, men of that towne.
Gabata, ta, f. g. a potage dishe.

Gabba, a citee in Syria.
Gabh, orum, a citee in Italy, which the Romaines
destroyed.
Gabinensis, and Gabinus, a, um, of the people called Gabh.
Gabinus, a Romaine imballadour, which restored Ptholome to his kyngedome.
Gabinus cinctus, a garment with two lappes, wherof the one cast backwarde, dyd gyde him that dyd weare it, whiche garmente the consull wore, whan he denounced warres.
Gabriel, signifieth the purfauance of myght of
god.
Gaddir, a citee of Spayne.
Gades, dium, for. gene. plur. num. two ples by the further partes of Spayne beyonde Granade.
Gaderes, a citee of Siria, not far from Bealon.
Gadira, a place nere to the uttermoste boundes of Spayne: to whiche whan Hercules came, and shoulde passe no further, he sette vp there his pyllours.
Gadiranus, a, um, of or belongynge to the ples Gades.
Gadiranum fretum, the entree out of the ocean
an sea, in to the sea called Mediterraneum, hauynge Spayne on the north syde, and the Moories on the south.
Gæon, a greete ryuer, whiche renneth through Ethiops and Egypte, & is now called Nylus.
Gagates, m. g. of Gages, a stone called Jeate, & a ryuer in Lycia, where that stone was fyrste
founde.
Gagtes, tis, ma. g. a precious stone, of notable vertue, founde in the Eagles neaste: it is called also Aetires, if it be taken, it semeth to haue an other stone within.
Gaioli & lagunculi, marchepaines and other lyke fyne breade.
Galactis, idem quod tithymalus.
Galactobdolon, idem quod galeopsis.
Galactites, a precious stone of white colour.
Galactophagus, an eater of milke.
Galactopora, a dysnker of mylke.
Galanga, ga, f. g. a spice called Galingale.
Galanthis, the handmayde of Alcmena, by whose craft she brought forth the Hercules, whan she was sette by Juno & Lucina: in despite wherof,
she was touned into a wespyll, called Gale.
Galata, an yle not farre from Melita.
Galata, or Gallograci, people of Galatia.
Galata, a nymphe or mayden of the sea, and was daughter of Neptune and Doris.
Galatia, or Gallogracia, a countrey in the lesse Asia, ioyntynge to Phrygia and Lidia.
Galaxias, a precious stone.
Galba, a Romaine, whiche in his time was verie eloquente.
Galba, arum, f. g. maggottes or small woomes that byde in meate.
Galbanus, ni, for. g. of Galbanum, ni, neu. g. a gumme

gumme of a certayne tree, whiche is muche vſed in playſters. Alſo a kynde of garmentes, whiche delicate perſonnes vſed, of a bygyht whyte colour.

Galbanatus, a, um, that weareth the garmente called galbanum.

Galbaneus, a, um, of the gum called Galbanus.

Calbeum, a certayne kynde of ornaments that women vſed.

Galbinus, a, um, delicate, wanton, or nyce.

Gálbulus, li, m. the cyppelle nutte, or ſpytel round ball, wherein the ſeede is conteyned.

Gálbula, læ, a certayne byrde.

Gale, gales, f. g. a weaſyl.

Galea, æ, f. g. a helmette or ſallette.

Galearus, a, um, that weareth an helmet or ſalet.

Galena, æ, f. g. that parte of the ſyluer oore, that is lefte after the tynne and ſyluer is tryed out: of the which blacke leade is made.

Galenus, a noble phyſician (bozne in Pergamo, ſonne of Piton a greate geometrician) in the arte of phyſike, excelled all other befoze his tyme and ſens, in ſo muche, as in his miniſtracion, counſell, or doctryne, he neuer hadde resproche, as he him ſelfe wyrteth. alſo ſpyunge, as ſome doo wyte. Cr. peres (after he paſſed the age of eyghtene yeaeres, vntyll the tyme of his death) he was neuer vexed with any ſykenesse, excepte the grudge of a feuer of one day, as he ſayeth in his worke De ſanitate tuenda, and that happened onely by to muche labour. He flouryſhed in the tyme of the emperours Marcus Comodus, and Pertinax, and dyed onely for febleneſſe of age, after the incarnation of Chyſte, about. 160. yeres.

Galeo, aui, are, to put on a ſallet or helmet.

Galcóla, le, a wyne pottle, ſomewhat ſacioned like a ſallette.

Galeobdolon, idem quod Galeopſis.

Galericulum, li, n. g. an vnder bonet or rydyng cappe. alſo a piwike.

Galerita, æ, f. g. a lark.

Galeopſis, in latine Vrtica labeo, called of the apothecaries Scrophularia maior, or after ſome. Agripalma, an herbe hauynge a very ſtronge ſauour, and is muche lyke a nettell: it is called Erthangel, as ſome doo ſuppoſe, or blynde nettell.

Galcótes, tis, a kynde of lyſardes, extreme enemye to ſerpentes, for they can not abyde the ſight of this beaſt.

Galerus, ri, m. g. and Galerum, ri, n. g. a hatte. alſo a piwike.

Galeſus, a ryuer of Calaber, by the citee Caſſentina.

Galeos, called of the latines Muſtela, and Lampetra, a fyſhe muche lyke a lamprey, or rather after ſome a lamprey it ſelfe.

Galgulus, li, m. ge. a byrde, whome yf one doo beholde, that hath the yelow iauundiſe, ſoozthe with the man becometh whole, and the byrde dieth.

Galilea, a countrey which marcheth on Syria, Arabia, and Egypt.

Galion, idem quod Galeopſis.

Galla, æ, f. g. a fruite called gaulles.

Gallaria, a lampurne.

Gallia, a noble region, ſette betwene Spayne and Germany, and on the eaſte bordereth on the mountaynes Alpes. That whiche iopneth to Germany, was called Belgica, and was conteyned betwene the ryuers Scaldes, and Sequana. That parte, whiche marcheth to the moſt taynes, was called Celtica, or Lugdunenſis, and was conteyned betwene the ryuers Sepne and Gerunde. That whiche bordereth on Spayne, called Aquitania, was bounded with the mountaynes Pyrenæi. Caſar boundeth the parte called Celtica, with the ryuers Rhone and Geronde: and Aquitania, with the hylles Pyrenæi, and the ryuer of Geronde. Agrippa deſcribeth Gallia betwene the ryuer Rhene, the mountaynes Pyrenæi, the ocean ſea, and the mountaynes Gebenna, & Iura. Moreouer that, whiche is now called Lombardie, was called Gallia Ciſalpina.

Galliamuſcata, a certayne electuarie, very precious and comfortable.

Gallicanus, a, um, Gallicus, a, um, and Gallus, a, um, of Fraunce.

Gallicæ, arum, a kynde of ſhoes that the frenche men vſed to weare in ſoule weather.

Gallicinium, cinij, neu. g. the tyme in the nyght, when the cocke croweth.

Gallina, æ, f. g. an henne.

Supponere oua gallinis, To ſette a henne a broode.

Gallinaceus, a, um, of an henne.

Gallinaceus, a houſe cocke.

Gallinaceus pullus, a thycke.

Gallinago, náginis, a wood cocke.

Gallinarium, rij, neu. gen. a place where poultrie is kepte, a cubbe.

Gallinarius, rij, m. g. he that keepeth poultrie.

Gallipes, that hath a foote lyke a cocke.

Gallium, an herbe lyke vnto clove, but it hath no burres nor prickes, and groweth on ſtone walles. it is called cheſe wurte or courde wurte.

Gallo, aui, are, to be madde.

Galogræcia, a countrey in Asia, called Galatia, the people therof be called Gallogræci.

Galloniſ, a ſumptuous and a voluptuous perſone, of whome Cicero maketh mencion.

Gallulo, as, and Gallulaſco, to beginne to haue a bigge boyce, as yonge ſtriplings at the change of their boyce.

Gallus, li, m. ge. a cocke, a frenche man, a prieſt of Cybeles, alſo a ryuer in Phrygia, the water wherof if it be drunke vnmoderately, maketh one madde.

Gallus, a, um, of Fraunce.

Gamale, a towne in Iudea.

Gammarus, ri, m. g. a fythe called a lopstar, or creuise of the sea.
 Gammoides, an instrument that surgians vse to take matter out of woundes.
 Gamos, in latine Nuptia, mariage, wedlocke.
 Gamphasantes, a wylde people of Aethiophe, which can handell no manner of weapon.
 Ganea, æ, f. g. and Ganeum, nei, neu. gen. a brothell house, a house of baudy and vyotte. also to Ganea is taken for gluttony.
 Ganeo, ðnis, m. g. a ruffian, a haunter of baudie houses, a riotour. also a rauener of delicate meates.
 Gandari, people in the easte parte of Asia, by the ryuer Indus.
 Gangabæ, slauies and porters that carie burdelles among the Persians.
 Gangaridæ, people betwene Assyria and India not farre from the ryuer Ganges.
 Ganges, a great ryuer, that diuideth India, called in holy scripture Phison, one of the 4. ryuers, whiche come out of Paradise. Iosephus dooeth interpretate it Inundacion. The breadth therof (as Solinus writeth) is in the narrowest place. viii. myles, in the broadest. xx. myles. Ptolemy writeth, that where it is narrowest, it is in breadth. 100. furlonges, whiche is. viii. myles. In many places it spreadeth so wyde, that where the ground is most playne, noz any hygh place appereth, no man maye discerne any thyng on the other syde. In the shallowest place it is. 100. fote deepe. There renneth into it. xviij. great ryuers, euery of theim able to beare a shyppe. In this ryuer of Ganges is an yle, and therein a great citee, called Palybotra, the countrey is named Phylia, the kyngdome wherof (as Pliny writeth, lib. 6. cap. 19.) hath alwaye in wages 600000. fote men. 30000. horsemen, and 9000. elyphantes.
 Gangeticus, a, um, of that ryuer.
 Gangetica tellus, India.
 Gangilion, or Ganglion, a sickenesse in the head of a beaste, wherewith the headde becometh full of water. Ganglion, is also the wrestyng of a synew.
 Gangrena, æ, f. g. a soze called a canker.
 Ganictor, a mannes name.
 Gannio, niui, and nij, nire, to make a noyse lyke a fore, to barke or howle lyke a dogge. also to mutter or cris betwene the teeth, as one dooeth that is beaten.
 Gannitus, us, m. g. barkyng lyke a fore, the complaynyng or weepnyng of one that is beate.
 Ganimedes, a Troiane chylde, which was saynted to be ransomed of Jupiter, and made his butlar.
 Ganza, zæ, f. g. a goose.
 Garamantes, people in Aferike, in the middell of Libya, whiche are blake Moores.
 Garamanticus, a, um, of the people Garamantes.
 Garamantes, a certayne kyngdome, whose daughter

Garamantis, Jupiter ransomed, and on his begette Hierba.
 Garganius, a hille in Apulia, called now Mons sancti Angeli.
 Gargarus, ri, m. g. and Gargara, orum, neu. g. the toppe of the mountayne Ida. also a lake of Phrygia, out of the which issuen the ryuers Scamander and Simois.
 Gargarizatio, ðnis, f. g. a washyng of the mouth and throte, to expelle fleume out of the head, gargellyng.
 Gargarizo, aui, are, to gargell or washe the mouth and throte.
 Gargarizatus, a, um, gargaryed.
 Gargarizatus, us, m. g. idem quod gargarizatio.
 Gargitius, the dogge, which kepte the oren of Ceryon, whome Hercules slewe, whan he stole them.
 Garrio, riui, rire, to babble, to chatte or speke many wordes foolyshe to no purpose, properly to chirpe as byrdes doo.
 Garrulus, atis, f. g. chattyng, tanglyng, babbling.
 Garrulus, a babblar.
 Garrulus, a, um, that chattereth, babbleth, or speaketh many vayne wordes.
 Carrula aues, birdes that chirpe & syng muche.
 Garum, ri, n. g. sauce made with fythe salted.
 Garumna, æ, f. g. a ryuer in Fraunce called Geronde.
 Garus, ri, a certayne fythe.
 Garyophyllata, some thynke it to bee the herbe called herbe Benet. some suppose it to be that, which Plinie nameth Gæum. The rote of this herbe gathered in Marche, smelleth lyke cloues. And Plinie writeth, that Gæum hath blacke rootes, which dooe smell veraye sweetely, looke Gariophyllata.
 Garyophilli, the spice called cloues.
 Garyophyllus, Ruellius calleth it Garyophillea, a gylofer, nexte to the rose, the sayrest and sweetest flower. It is also the tree that beareth cloues.
 Gaster, called also Gasterium, a certayne kynde of vessell.
 Gastrimargia, gluttony, ingurgitation.
 Gaudeo, gauisus sum, ere, to reioyce, to be glad, to delite or take pleasure in a thyng.
 Gaudere in sinu, to reioyce by hym selfe.
 Triumpho & gaudeo, I tryumphe & reioyce.
 Hunc scio mea solide gauisurum gaudia, I knowe well, that he wyll be ryght ioyous and glad of my myght and gladnesse.
 Gaudebis facto, Thou wyll be gladde that it hath been dooen.
 Gaudeo mihi, I am glad for myne owne parte.
 Id gaudeo, I am glad of that.
 Frustra gaudere, to be glad in vayne, to reioyce without a cause.
 Gaudium, dii, n. g. ioye, myght, an affection of the mynde, conceiued of an oppinion of a thyng good good or pleasant.

Gaudium capere, compleri, and affici gaudio, to reioyce, to be glad or mery.
Gauia, a, a certayne byrde, which I iudge to be a sea cob, or a seagoull.
Gauisus, a, um, gladde or mery.
Gaulus, a, a littell rounde bote, or a pape, to receyue mylke. Herodotus taketh it for a greete myppe.
Gaurus, an hill in campania.
Gausape, n; g. indeclinabile, a friese or roughe garment, that souldiours bled. a mantell to cast on a bedde. also a carpet to lay on a table. some call it a dagswayne. some doo expounde it a beluer cloke. It is taken of Persius for a longe bearde.
Gausapina, a, idem.
Gausapina penula, a rough garmente bled to be woꝛne in wynter.
Gausapina cubicularia, a rough frise frocke to weare in ones chambꝛe.
Gaza, a, f. g. the treasure of a kyng. also a citee in Palestyne.
Gazella, a, a beaste in the partes of India, of whome cometh muske. Antonius Musa writeth that there be of them in Afrike, in fygure lyke a roe. Serapio sayth, that they haue hoznes. also longe teeth & white, aboute. ix. ynches in length, standynge oute of theyꝝ mouthes lyke a boze. This beast naturally hath a superfluous bloud congeled on his bealy, and groweth lyke an impostume. And whan it is ryꝑe, the beast goeth to a tree or a stone, and rubbeth thereon his beaslie, till the humour breaketh out, lyke vnto corꝛupte matter, whiche at the fyrst styneketh, but whan it hath ben hanged a whyle in the ayꝛe, it waxeth ryꝑe: and than hath it an odoriferous sauour, and is called muske. Gazella, is not a ciuet, as some suppose: for the ciuet is like a great cat, and the sweete humoure that cometh from him, is lyke sweate, and is founde betweene his flankes. wherfoꝛe vnto it is geuen a newe name, and is called Cibeta.
Gazophiliacium, ij, n. g. a chesse or place where treasure is kepte, a iewell house.

G A N T E E.

Gebbanitæ, a people dwellynge in Arabia deserta, by the redde sea.
Gebenna, a citee in Sauoy, called Geneva, where, among the women specially reygneþ a disease called Brunchocæle, whiche is a bolynge or swellynge vnder theyꝝ chinnes. Also Solinus nameth the parte of Alpes, toynynge to Sauoy, Gebenna.
Gebuseus, the sonne of Lanaan, of whome the olde inhabitauntes of Hierusalem were called Gebusei.
Gedanum, a towne of Germanie in the mouth of the ryuer Visula, called now Dantz.

Gedeon, the name of a iudge in Israell.
Gedrosia, a countrey in Asia.
Gehenna, is taken in holy scripture for hell.
Gela, a ryuer in Sicile.
Gelabilis, le, that may be frozen.
Gelasco, scere, to be frozen.
Gelasinus, ni, m. g. one of the foꝛe teeth, whiche be sheweb in laughynge.
Gelasinus, he that laugheth to make other men laughe.
Gelatina, næ. f. g. a kynde of sauce.
Gelatio, ônis, f. g. a frysynge.
Gelucidum, dij, n. g. a froste.
Gelide, coldely, as it were frozen.
Gelidus, a, um, colde as ice.
Gellius, a learned man, whose woꝛkes remayne at this day.
Gello, a maydens name.
Gelo, aui, aui, to friese. Sometyꝑe actiuelly. Sometyꝑe neutrally.
Geloi, or Gelones, a people now called Tartarians.
Gelon, one that attempted to poyson kyng Pꝛyschus.
Gelos, a poꝛte or hauen of Laria.
Gelothophyllis, lidos, an herbe, whiche (as Plinius writeth) beyng drunke in wyne with myꝛre, maketh laughynge withoute seassyng, except the kernels of pine appulles myꝛte with pepsper and honie, in the wyne of dates be drunke after it. This herbe is founde aboute the ryuer Borysthenes, in the furthest parte of Russia, and also in the countrey Baçtræ.
Gelotopæus, he that maketh other folkes laugh.
Gelu, n. g. vnderclined, ice, sometyꝑe colde.
Gelus, li, m. g. was bled of olde wyꝛters.
Gemea, a, a wyng of souldiours amonge the Macedonians.
Gemellar, a certayne vessell to put oyle in.
Gemellaria, a, f. g. an instrument, by the whiche oyle renneth out of the pꝛesse.
Gemellipera, the name of Latona.
Gemellus, a, um, lyttell or small twinnes: sometyꝑe double.
Gemellæ vites, bynes that beare two maner of grapes.
Gemelli, is sometyꝑe taken for two hozses drawynge together in a carte.
Gemibundus, a, um, full of waylynge.
Geminatio, ônis, f. g. a doublynge or repetyng.
Geminatus, a, um, doubled, repeted.
Gémino, aui, are, to double.
Geminus, a, um, the numbre of two. Sometyꝑe lyke. also Geminus is a twynne, where many children are boꝛne at one burdeyne, althoughe they be. iij. or mo. Also it is the name of a man, whiche in Hebrue and englyshe is Thomas.
Acies geminæ, the two ries.
Gemini nominis errore seruatus est, he was saued out of danger, by reason that booth his names names were not known.

Gemina audacia, lyke boldenesse of stomache.

Gemini, is also a sygne in the firmamente of Eastor and Dollor.

Gemisco, gemui, scere, idem quod gemo.

Gemite, es, f. ge. a certayne p[re]cious stone, hauynge the fygure in it of handes clenched together.

Gemitus, us, m. g. a wayl[yn]ge, lamentynge, or mourning, a pittifull grone or sygh.

Gemma, æ, f. g. a ponge budde of a vyne, also a p[re]cious stone.

Gemmafco, scere, to begyn to budde.

Gemmatus, a, um, budded. also set with p[re]cious stones.

Gemmatus, a, um, of or lyke a p[re]cious stone.

Gemmifer, a, um, that byngeth p[re]cious stones.

Gemmo, ani, are, to budde or spyng as a ponge grasse or vine doeth.

Gemmofus, a, um, that whiche is all of p[re]cious
stones.

Gemmula, æ, a littell budde or p[re]cious stone.

Geminula, he also freshe floures in the spyng tyme, whiche garnishe the medowes and fieldes as it were with p[re]cious stones.

Gemo, mui, ere, to grone or wayle, or to make a lamentable noyse, to be sorry or lamente.

Gemit cymba, The bose creaketh beynge overcharged.

Gemitur, the passie.

Gemit turtur, the turtill syngeth mourningly.

Gemodes, p[re]cious stones, whiche are supposed to entrease and byng forth ponge, they ease women trauayling of chyld.

Gemonia scala, a place, from whens the bodie of persones condemned were throwen downe at Rome.

Gemonida, women great with chyld.

Gemursa, æ, f. ge. a corne or lyke grese vnder
the lyttell toe.

Gena, æ, f. g. the eye lyd as well vpper as nether.
it is sometyne taken for the chokes, some take it for the ball of the cheke vnder the eye. some for that part of the face, where the beard begins neth first to grow.

Pubentes gena, when the bearde begynneth to spynge.

Humectare genas, to weepe.

Genaius, a, um, gluttonous.

Genealogia, æ, f. ge. a pedegree, a genealogie.

Gener, generi, mascu. gene. he that marieth my daughter.

Generabilis, le, that is easly engendred.

Generalis, le, generall.

Generaliter, generally.

Generalco, nascere, to engender.

Generatim, by euery kynde. sometyne generally.

Sigillatim & generatim, contrary.

Generatio, onis, f. m. ge. a generacion, an en-gendryng.

Generatior, oris, m. g. he that engendryeth.

Genero, ani, are, to engendrye as the male doeth, to byng forth as the female doeth, to spyng as herbes do. sometyne to inuent.

Generose, nobly.

Generositas, atis, f. g. nobilitie, the estate of gen-till men, sometyne aptnes to generacion.

Generosus, a, um, of a gentyll or noble kynde, excellent, couragious.

Generosus princeps, a puissant and couragious p[ri]nce.

Generosus equus, an hoise of a good race, a couragious hoise.

Arbores generosa, trees whych beare plente of good fruite.

Genesis, genescos, f. ge. generacion, natiuitee,
also the planette, vnder whiche one is bozne.

Genethlia, orum, neu. g. plu. solemnitee of seas spynge at the daye of ones byrthe.

Genethliacus, an astronomer or othel lyke, whych by the sterres sette at a mans natiuitee, telleth his fortune.

Genethliacus, a, um, belongynge to a mans natisuitee.

Genetum, ti, a promontory, wherin is a temple dedicated vnto Iupiter.

Geneua, a towne in Sauoy.

Genezareth, a great meere or ponde in the lande of promission, called also Mare Tyberiadis.

Genialis, le, that is geuen to voluptee and pleasure, and to make good chere, full of myrthe and pleasure.

Genialis torus, siue lectus, a byrthe bedde.

Genialis dies, a day addit to voluptuousnesse and pleasure, or to be mery and iocunde in.

Genialis homo, a man in his house verie liberall and freshe.

Genialiter, depntly.

Genialiter viuere, To liue delicately and mis-eriously.

Geniana, na, f. g. a p[re]cious stone, p[ro]curynge punishment to a mans enemies.

Genia, olde beches full of unhappynesse.

Geniculatim, toynt by toinct, at euery toyncte.

Genicularis, the herbe called Lychnis coronaria.

Geniculatus, a, um, that hath many toyntes, or knottes, as the stemples of herbes or straws.

Geniculum, li, neu. gen. the toynt of a straw, or stalke of an herbe.

Genij, men whych do geue all theyr studie to ca-tyng and drynkyng.

Genista, æ, f. ge. a shubbe, whych hath littell sedes lyke lintels, growynge in coddies, and a peoslow floure, whych bees delite in: they vse it for bandes to bynd bynes, and for diuers other purposes: loke Spartum.

Genimen, niminis, n. g. generacion.

Genitale, lis, n. g. the membre of generacion.

Genitalis, le, perteynyng to the byrth or natiuitee
of a man.

Genitale solum, the naturall cuntreie or place where a man is bozne.

Genitale

Genitale semen, the seede of generation.
Genitalis dies, the day of natiuitie.
Genitales trunci, Rockes of trees that be fertile, and haue strength to beare.
Genitaliter, by generation.
Genitura, sometyme generation, sometyme the
 seede of generation.
Genitiuus, a, um, that hath power to ingendre, or that whiche proceedeth with generation.
Genitura nota, markes wherewith a manne is bozne.
Genitor, oris, m. g. a father.
Genitores omnium vitiorum Græci, The Greekes, fathers and begynners of all vicious lypynge.
Genitrix, icis, f. g. a mother.
Genitura, æ, fœm. gen. generation, engendrynge, conception. Sometime foz Horoscopos, the ob-seruacion of the tyme of ones byrthe. also the seede of generation.
Genitura herois, the herbe Polygonon.
Genitura Titani, the herbe Sideritis.
Genitus, a, um, begotten, engendred.
Genius, ij, ma. gene. an angell. amonge the pay-nims some suppoed it to be the spirite of man.
 Some dyd put two gouernours of the soule, a good and an yuell, Bonus genius, & malus genius, which neuer departed from vs. Some-tyme it is taken foz nature it selfe, or delectation moued by nature, the grace or pleasauntnesse of a thyng.
Genio dare operam, & indulgere genio, To lye voluptuously.
Genium defraudare, to absteyne from al thyngges pleasaunt.
Geno, genui, genere, idem quod gigno.
Genocha, a beaste lesse than a foxe, in colour a darke yelow, full of black spottes. I suppose it to be a blacke genet, the furre wherof is in Eng-lande esteemed aboue all other furies.
Genon, a kynd of oynions, whiche haue a sharpe taste.
Gens, entis, fœm. gen. a nation, a people. Som-tyme a kynrede.
Gens Aelia, a kynrede compacte of many fasmilies.
Minime gentium, in no wyse in the worlde.
 The latin men of olde tyme did take these wor-des, as who shoulde say thus: a thyng that all the people of the worlde iudge in no maner wise to be doone.
Nusquam gentium, no where. Lykewyse getium is vsed after these aduerbes, Vnde, vn-decunque, vbinam, vbiuis, vbique, vbi, quo, quando, longe, and it is an expletive, added festiuitatis gratia.
Sine gente, vnnoble.
Gentiâna, æ, f. g. an herbe called Gentian.
Genticus, a, um, of a nation or people.
 More gentico, after the maner of that people.
Gentilis, a kynfman of the same name or stocke.

Sometyme it signifieth a Gentile or Paynym.
 Sometyme a countrey man.
Gentilis, le, propre or familiar to that people or kynred, or that hath the same name.
Gentiles dominorum serui, seruantes hauing the same name that theyr masters haue.
Gentilitas, âtis, gentilitie, the multitude of the people or familie, the frendshippe and aliaunce betwene men of the same stocke and kynred.
Gentilitas in herbis, the soyle or place, where the herbe groweth, or the likenes of nature and properitee.
Gentilicius, a, um, of the people or nation, or that a people nation or kynrede hath of longe tyme bled.
Gentilium hoc illi est, this cometh to hym of kynde, he hath this of his auncestours.
Gentilium nomen, the surname or aunciente name of a mans auncestours, declaryng their originall begynnyng.
Gentilitia sacra, ceremonies of that countrey or people.
Gentilium est, It is a propre vse or custome
 among them taken of theyr auncestours.
Gentis, idis, a kyng of Illiria, called nowe Slauony, whiche was the fyrst fynder of the herbe called Gentian.
Genu, n. gs. in the singular numbze vnderclined,
 plu. genua, genuum, genibus, the knee.
Aduoluo genibus vestris supplex, I falle downe at your knees humbly intreatyng you.
Nixus genu, kneelyng.
Genua submittere, to kneele, to make curtsie.
Genu terram tangere, to make so lowe curtsely,
 that his knee toucheth the grounde.
Genua, a great citee called Geane.
Genualia, a kynde of hoses to keuer the knees.
Genuinus, a, um, proper, peculiar, naturall.
Genuinum frangere in aliquo, & genuino rodere, to backebite or slander, to speake ylot one behynde his backe.
Genuini dentes, the innermoste cheke teeth.
Genuinus sermo, The naturall speche or mother tongue.
Genus, generis, neu. gene. is the begynnyng of euery thyng, either of the person that ingedreteth it : or of the place where it was ingedreted, a kynred, a stocke, a linage, a parentage.
 It is also a sort, a maner or facion.
Orestes à Tantalò ducit genus, Orestes hath his begynnyng of Tantalus, or is descended li-neally of Tantalus.
Plato genere Atheniensis est, Plato is of his bloudde or auncestrie, an Athenian. also it sygnifieth kynde.
Genus vitæ, a kynde of lyfe.
Genus mortis, a kynde of death.
Genus animalium, a kynde of beastes. also it signifieth that, whiche conteyneth many sundrie kyndes, as Animal comprehendeth a man, a byrde, a fysh, and euery of theim is Genus to that

that whiche is comprehended in them. As a brute beaste is Genus to an hoxe, a lyon, a bull, a dogge. &c. a byrde is Genus, to an egle, a crow, a lark, a sparowe. &c. a fysh is Genus to a whale, a porpysse, an haddocke, a playe. &c.
 Genere summo prognatus, descended of a noble familie of stocke.
 Genere paterno ab Hercule oriundus, descended of haupng hys begynnng of Hercules on the fathers syde.
 Genus humanum, or genus hominum, mans kynde.
 Genus Thebanum, the nation or people of Thebes.
 Est genus hominum, there is a sorte or faction of men.
 Generis grati est, he cometh of a kind stocke.
 Eiusdem generis, of the same sorte.
 Vno genere pisces capere, to take but of one sorte of fyshes.
 Geodes, a certayne stone.
 Geodesia, f. ge. a science of thynges concernng sensible greatnesse and figure.
 Geodates, he that hath that science, a divider of grounde, a mesurer of lande.
 Geographia, a, f. g. the description of the erth.
 Geomantia, a, f. ge. superstitious workyng in sortery, by circles and pyches in the earth.
 Geometres, is, or Geometra, a, m. g. a geometrician, a mesurer of the earth.
 Geometria, a, f. ge. geometry, measurynge, and proportionynge of figures in the earth.
 Geometrica, drum, feates or poyntes of geometrye.
 Geometrice, like a geometrician, or accordyng to the preceptes of geometrie, by demonstration.
 Geometrice eruditus, turned in the science of geometrie.
 Geometricus, a, um, of or belongyng to geometrye.
 Georgi, people of Asia, haupng that name of tyllng the earth.
 Georgia, as, f. m. gene. culture and tyllng of the earth.
 Georgica, drum, booke written of husbandry.
 Georgicus, a, um, belongyng to husbandry.
 Geranium, nij, neu. ge. herbe Koberde, as some doe iudge: other call it Pirke netle, or Franes bill.
 Geranogeron, ri, neu. gene. idem.
 Geranopodion, the herbe called Lachnis coronaria.
 Geraca, a ritter of Portugall, called Caceres.
 Gergonia, a towne in Cypen standyng on an hygh hyll.
 Germane, brotherly.
 Fraterne & germane.
 Germania, a cuntry called of some Ducheland, of some Almayne, it is described by Ptolome the. xi. chapter, to be bounded on the west with the ryuer of Rhene: on the northe wyth the sea

Germanicus oceanus: the south west part with the ryuer Donowe, the easte side is bounded with the bendyng of Donowe vnto the hylls of Sarmatia. The name of Germanye extendeth nowe further: for therein are conteyned manye greate cuntries and citees, whiche sometyme were part of Gallia Belgica, that is to say, from the ryuer of Rhene westwarde, vnto our sea Mare Britannicum.
 Germani, people of Germany, or Germanes.
 Germanicus, a noble man of Rome, father to Caligula the emperor.
 Germanicus, a, um, of Germany.
 Germanitas, aris, f. m. ge. brotherhood of brother germanes.
 Germanus, a substantiue, brother of one father and one mother.
 Germanus, a, um, come of the same stocke, ryghte and veray true, not counterfeit.
 Germanum nomen, the propper right name.
 Mea germana patria, my veray and naturall countrey.
 Germani Attici, the ryght and true folowers of the Attike eloquence.
 Germanissimus Stoicis, veray lyke the Stoikes in opinion.
 Germanæ geræ, veray trifles.
 Frater cognatione patruelis, amore germanus, by nature a cousyn germane, in loue, a veray brother germane.
 Germen, germinis, neu. ge. a branche of a tree or herbe, a yong spryng.
 Germinalis, le, that spryngeth or brancheth.
 Germinales arbores, Trees that spryng of a kernell or seebe.
 Germinasco, scere, to shote or spryng vp.
 Germinatio, onis, f. g. a spryngyng, a brachyng.
 Germinatus, us, m. g. idem.
 Germino, aui, are, to brach out, to shote out yonge sprynges.
 Gero, gelsi, erere, to beate, to rary. Sometyme it signifieth to haue, to do, to execute, to behaue.
 Gerere amicitiam, to practise frendshipp, to be ones frende.
 Quorum sunt de gerenda amicitia praeclarissime scriptilibri, whose booke we haue, how to practise frendshipp, very well wyten.
 Gerere bellum, to make warre.
 Gerere honores, To bee in honour or authoritee.
 Gerere magistratum, to exercise an office.
 Gerere morem, to obeye.
 Gerere negotium, to do his busynesse.
 Paternam speciẽ gerere, to bee like his father.
 Animo morem gessero, I wyll satisfie my mynde, I will folowe myne appetite or fantasy.
 Gerere praturam, to be in the office of a iudge.
 Gerere pudorem, to be shamefast.
 Gerere rempublicam, To mynister the publike weale.
 Simulatẽ cum aliquo gerere, to be at variance riaunce with one.

 Gerere cornua, to weare oz to haue hoznes.
 Gerere consulatum, oz Consulem, to beare the office of a consull, to be consull.
 Quemadmodum nos geramus, howe we may behaue our selfe.
 Animum muliebrem gerere, to haue a womanly herte oz courage.
 Fidem fluxam gerere, not to be faythfull and trusty of promyse.
 Ingenium callidum gerere, To haue a crafty and subtil witte.
 Veteres inimicitias cum Cesare gerebat, There was olde geudge and malice betwene hym and Cesar.
 Morsu onera gerunt, they cary theyr burdeins in their mouthes.
 Gerere partum oz vterum, to be great wpyth chylde.
 Bene rem suam gerere, to playe the good husbände, to doo his busynesse well and thurstily for his owne profite.
 Personam ciuitatis gerere, To represente the state oz person of the hole citee oz commynalte.
 Reuiso quidnam hic rerum gerat, I come agayne, to see what he is doyng here.
 Sciui extemplo rem de compacto geri, I perceived by and by, that the matter was agreed betwene them.
 Res alias geris, Thy mynde is on other matters.
 Gessit se contra disciplinam meam, He hath doen contrary to myne instruction.
 Tutelam ianuæ gerit, He kepeth the gate.
 Gerontocomion, mī, n. g. an hospitall, wherein old men are kept, an almes house.
 Gerra, x, f. g. the name of. iii. cities: One in Syria, an other nere to Traconites, the thyrde in Arabia felix.
 Gerra, arum, f. g. plu. n. lattyse made with twiggys. also trifles and thynges of no value.
 Gerra scular, trifles.
 Gerres, f. g. of the kynde of herpynges. it may be called pylhardes.
 Gerro, ōnis, f. gen. a talker of triflyng thynges oz light matters.
 Gërula, x, a mayde that kepeth a chylde, and beareth hym about.
 Gërulus, li, m. g. a porter oz a man hyred to cary burdeyns.
 Gerrus, a ryuer of Scythia.
 Gerunda, a citee in Spayne called Girona.
 Gerundium, a gerunde, a nowne participiall.
 Gerusa, a citee of Sarmatia, called nowe saynct Georges.
 Gerusia, x, f. g. a place where the counsayll was assembled at Lacedæmonia, like as the senate house was at Rome.
 Geryon, oz Geryones, a kyng of Spayne, whom Hercules dyd slea, and toke from hym certayne bulles and hyen of notable greatnes.

Gescorëta, tx, f. g. a kynd of boates, whiche some call proscumia.
 Gesodumum, a citee of Popice, called Saltbourg.
 Gesum, si, neu. gen. a certayne weapon for the warre, as a sworde oz a woodknife. some take it for an halberde.
 Gestampini, trees whiche beare cotton, wherof cloathes be made.
 Gessoriacum, as some suppose, was the towne, whiche is nowe named Calais, Mayland saith Boloigne.
 Gestus, a ryuer of Ionia.
 Gestæ, ōrum, neu. g. thynges whiche haue been doen, actes.
 Gestamen, inis, n. gen. what so euer is bozne, a burdeyn oz cariage, a mace, a scepter.
 Gestario, ōnis, f. g. the exercise, where a man is caried oz bozne on any thyng. Also a place whither men be caried either for theyr helth, oz for theyr solace and pastyme, in maner of a gallery oz parlour.
 Gestatorium, ij, n. g. that wherein anye thyng is caried oz bozne, a flagon, a hozselitter.
 Gestatorius, a, um, that which is caried, oz whers in one is caried.
 Sella gestatoria, a chaire wherein one is caried, oz that maye be remoued from place to place.
 Gestatus, us, m. g. carpyng.
 Gesticularia, x, f. g. the feate of theym that daunce with poppettes, also a daunsinge oz tumbling wenche.
 Gesticularius, a, um, perteynyng to signes oz tokens of myrthe, with meuyng the bodey oz handes.
 Gestitulator, ōris, m. f. g. he that playeth wpyth poppettes.
 Gesticulator, aris, ari, to make signes oz tokens of myrthe, as in dauncyng, to make much gesture.
 Carmina gesticulari, to daunce accordyng to numbre and measure of verses.
 Gestiens, entis, hoppyng oz skyping.
 Læticia gestiens, hoppyng oz skyping for ioy.
 Gestio, ōnis, f. g. an exploitng oz doyng of a thyng.
 Gestio, iui, ire, to shewe the affections of the mynde by meuyng of the bodey oz any parte therof, and maie be referred both to myrthe, sorrowe, oz anye other passion oz appetite of the mynde. sometyme it signifieth to delite. also to desyre gladdely.
 Quid est, quod sic gestis? What is the matter that ye leape oz skyppe so? oz that ye fetche suche gambaldes?
 Gesticulōsus, a, um, full of mouynge, busye in mouynge.
 Gestito, aui, are, to beare oz weate ostentymes.
 Gestio, aui, are, to beare longe.
 Gestat ventrem, she is with chylde.
 Annulos gestare, to weare rynges.

Gestare

Gestare collo, to weare about ones necke.

Gestare aliquem in sinu, to sette muche stozz by a man, to loue hym heartly.

Gestas animum meum, Thou knowest my thought or mynde.

Non obtrusa adeo gestamus pectora, we be not so harde herted.

Gestus est mos, it was obeyed or down accordyng to theyr will or pleasure.

Gestuosis, a, um, full of gesture.

Gestus, a, um, bozne, or don, ministered, executed.

Gestus, us, m. ge. gesture or countenance with meuyng the bodye, demeanynge, demeanure.

Sometyme for Gestio, a doyng or exploitng.

Getæ, people whiche some suppose to bee those, whiche are in Roswaie and Gothia. Some saye that they be moze in the north east in Scythia, pertaynyng to Europa: some thynke that it is the people of the countreys Valachia & Transilvania.

Geranium, the herbe called a line, a chyue or a cluet.

Getuli, a people of Africke.

Getulus, a, um, and Getulicus, a, um, of the people Getuli.

Geum, an herbe called in Englyshe abennies.

G A N T E I.

Glarus, a litell yle in the sea Jonium, wher vnto men condemned were exiled.

Gibber, eris, m. ge. idem quod Gibbus.

Gibber, a, um, and Gibber, eris, & hoc er, that hath a crooked backe, or a great bunche on anye parte of the bodye. sometyme that appereth or standeth vp aboue other.

Gibbosus, a, um, idem quod Gibber, a, um.

Gibbus, bi, m. ge. a great bounche or swelling of a thyng embossed.

Gibbus, a, um, for conuexus, that hath the round figure of a thyng embossed.

Giganteus, a, um, of or belongyng to gigantes.

Gigantomachia, a battayle whych gigantes prepared agaynst the Goddis, as Poetes feigned.

Gigas, antis, mascu. gener. a gyaunt, a man or woman farre excedyng the common stature of men, of whome as well holpe scripture, as other credible wyrters do make mencion. Plutarchus wyrteth, that Sertorius, a Romaine capitaine, beeyng in Mauritania, brake downe the sepulchre of Antheus, and therein was found the body of a man, of suche monstrous greatnesse, that the same Capitayne meeued with a reuerente feare, caused the monument to be reedified. Plinie wyrteth, that in Creta, an hill fell downe, and there was founde the bodye of a man, in length. xlii. cubites, whiche was supposed of some to be the body of Oyon, of some the bodye of Etion. Sabellicus affirmeth, it was reported to hym of a credible person, that in the south parte of Candie, was founde vnder a great tree, the head of a man as greate as a wyne vessell called Dolium, Howe great that vessell is at Menice, where Antonius wyate, I can not tell, with vs it is taken to bee the greatest vessell, whiche was sometyme a tunne. But he saith, one of the teeth of that head remaineth at Menice, of wonderfull greatnesse, by the which they thate se it may make some gesse to the gretnesse of the head. Solinus remembreth, that in the warres, whiche the Romayns hadde in Candie, in a great rage of water, the grounde beeyng broken vp, there was found the body of a man in length. xxxiii. cubites: whiche Flaccus and Metellus (than capitaynes of the Romayns hoste) beholdyng, wondered, whiche they before would not beleue, whan they onely herde it reported. About. xxx. yeres passed, I my selfe, beeyng with my father Sir Richarde Cypot, at a monastreye of regular chanons, called Juy church, two myles from the citee of Sarisbury, behelde the bones of a dead man founde depe in the grounde, where they digged stone, whiche beeyng ioyned together, was in length xiii. fote and. x. ynches. wherof one of the teethe my father had, whiche was of the quantitee of a great walnutte. This haue I wyten, because some men will beleue nothyng, that is out of the comipasse of theyr owne knowlage. And yet some of them presume to haue knowlage aboue any other, contemnyng all men but them selues, and suche as they fauour.

Gigeria, orum, n. ge. a meate made of garbage of pullayne and other thynges.

Gigno, genui, or ginui, gignere, to ingender or geat. sometyme to make, to cause.

Gignere & procreare.

Quæ piper gignunt, whiche byyng forthe pepper.

Gignere capillum, to byeede heare.

Oua gignunt pisces, ffishes byde and byyng forthe spaune.

Ad has & huiusmodi fortunæ occasiones gignimur, we bee bozne to abyde these and suche lyke chanches and aduentures of fortune.

Gilo, a citee, the people whereof be called Gilonites.

Gillus, a man of Tarentum.

Giluus, a, um, yelow, lyke honye.

Gingiber, loke Zinziber.

Gingidium, dii, neu. gen. an herbe that groweth muche in Syria, or Cilicia, lyke to wilde turnepes, but moze bitter, and hath a small roote, somewhat white and pleasaunt to see to: Plinie and Dioscorid. say, that it is a strange herbe: some Physicians take it for Cherule, they are deceyued, that take it for Fumeterrie.

Gingiva, æ, f. ge. the gümme or iawes, wherein the teethe bee sette.

Gingeria, idem quod Gigeria.

Gingiuula, æ, f. g. a litell gümme.

Gingrina, æ, f. g. a kynde of small ppyes, making a noyse lyke the churkyng of byrdes.

Gingrio,

Gingrio, griui, grii, grire, to churre of make a chime as bydes do.
Ginzeriator, a piper, a mynstrell.
Gion, a great ryuer in Egypte, otherwysed called Nilus.
Girgillus, li, mas. gene. a reele, whereon thyeede is wounden.
Giruli, fynes, whyche I suppose to be menowes.
Girh, or git, neu. gen. indeclinabile, an herbe whyche is now called Nigella Romana, the seede therof is blacke lyke vnto onyon seede, and is verate soote. And the sauer therof exhausteth reumes of the head.
Girhago, cockle, growynge amonge cozne that is rype.

G A N T E L.

GLabella, x f. gene. the space betwene the browes ouer the nose.
Glabeus, a, um, that is bare without heare.
Glaber, a, um, smothe without heare, pylbe.
Glabreo, brere, to become naked, bare of pylb, without heare.
Glabresco, scere, to be without heare or smothe.
Glabretum, ri, neu. ge. a place, hauyng nothyng growyng in it, a plot that will beare no cozne.
Glabriones, they whyche lacke heare.
Glabrior, oris, the comparatiue of glaber.
Glabro, aui, are, to make bare, pylb, or smoth,
without heare or woulle.
Glacialis, le, where yse is, that maye or is wont to be frozen or touned into yse.
Polus glacialis, the nozthen pole.
Glaciatus, a, um, congeled, frozen. also for Coagulatus, gathered to a turbe or crosse.
Humor glaciatus in grandines, congeled.
Glacies, ei, for. g. yse.
Ignis exoluit glaciem, dissoluth, or melteth.
Glacio, ani, are, actiueli to freeze, or tounre to
yse. sometyme for Glacior, to bee frozen or congeled.
Glacior, aris, ari, to bee frozen.
Humor glaciatur in gemmas, the humour is congeled into pzeious stones.
Glacito, aui, are, to make a noyse lyke a gander.
Gladiator, oris, m. gen. one that playeth with a sworde. Among the Romaynes they were men, whyche fought vnarmed with swordes.
Gladiatorius, a, um, pertynyng to that maner of fyghtyng.
Gladiatorio animo, spoken prouerbielly,
whan one with a stubburne or quetfull mynde intendeth to hurt an other, though he be to his owe great peryll and daunger.
Gladiatorium, is sometyme vsed absolutely for the rewarde geuen to sworde players.
Gladiatura, x, for. ge. the acte or scate to fyght or playe with a sworde.

Gladiolus, li, m. ge. a littell sworde, a woodde knyfe. also the name of an herbe like to sedge, ha-uyng a yalow floure, like in fourme to a floure deuce.
Gladius, ij, mas. gene. a sworde. also a kynde of feste, which hath a bone in his focheade lyke to a sworde.
Dedisti gladium, qui se occideret, you haue geuen him an occasion to destroye or caste away
hym selfe.
Gladio nostro conficere sententiam alicuius,
With our reason or persuasion to confounde an other mans opinion.
Distingere, enodare, educere gladium, To drawe out a sworde.
Recondere gladium, to put by a sworde in his scabbard.
Suo sibi hunc iugulo gladio, I kyll hym with his owne sworde, I confounde hym with his owne wordes.
Gladio plumbeo iugulare, to conuince with a weake argument.
Cinxit se gladio, he dyd put on his sworde.
Conficere gladio, to kyll.
Transiit seipsum gladio, he thrust hym selfe throughe.
Glandarius, a, um, that belongeth to masse.
Glandaria sylua, a wood hauyng muche mast, or that is kept to beare mast.
Glandatio, onis, for. ge. feedyng of swyne with masse, called pynage.
Glandula, x, form. gen. a littell acorne or masse.
also that parte of a swines necke that hath many kernelles.
Glandomirum, a citee in Spayne, called nowe Mondauedo.
Glans, glandis, or Glandis, glandis, f. ge. masse growyng on okes, beches, chestens, and other lyke. sometyme the fruit of all trees. It is also a pellet of leade, or a plommet of leade, whiche men vsed in warre for a wepon. also a kernell growing betwene the skyn and the fleshe. It is mozeouer the foze parte of nut of a mans yarde. It is also a suppositorie.
Glans louis, a chesten.
Glans Aegiptia, Myrobolanos.
Glans ynguentaria, the frute of a tree muche lyke Mirice, of the biggenes of a silberde, out of the kernell cometh a certayne humour, whiche is vsed to pzeious oymmentes.
Glandulosus, a, um, full of kernelles or masse.
Glandifer, ra, rum, that whyche beareth masse.
Glandium, dii, n. ge. the parte of a boyes necke the necke, the shelde or gamonde. after some the necke of the boye.
Glaphirus, a, um, iocunde, pleasaunt, ingraued,
polys, holowe, famous, subtil.
Glans, or glanis, a certayne fyne.
Glarea, x, f. g. pzeiely grauell.
Glarea & arena, grauell and sande.
Glarea leuina glarea, dyne and barayne grauell.

Glareolus, a, um, gravelly, full of gravel.

Glareola, la, for. g. small gravel.

Glastum, si, neu. g. an herbe, called also Isatis, in englyshe wad, wherewith woulle and woulle ten clothes are dyed blew, the leaues are lyke to great sorrel, but greater and thicker. Cesar writeth, it was so communely known in England, than called Wisayne, that the people, with the iuyce therof, coloured their bodies and visages, to seeme terrible to their enemies. Of this herbe, wad is made in this wyse: They grynde it with wheles of wodde, renning in a compasse trough, vntill the iuyce bee out of the herbe, and than they make it into balles, and laye them on a bouted flooze a certayne space, vntill they be putrified and dyed into poulder. But the making thereof hath remayned vnknewen in Englande. 1000. yeres, and mo, vntill now of late an honest marchante man (zelous of the common weale) hath estones noursed that herbe in his garden at London, and by the example, whyche he founde in countreys beyonde the sea, he making houses and mylles, to his impossible charges, hath nowe experienced to make the same wad to the inestimable commoditie of this realme, yf it bee woorthylie embraced, the marchantes name is godman, a name ryght agreeable vnto his qualites, who deserveth to be incouraged, that by his thanke and rewarde, other maye the rather endeuoure them selues, eyther to inuent by their wittes, or to attempte by the example of other countreys, to augmente the weale and honour of this realme of England.

Glaucia, a, f. g. the herbe Chelidonia.

Glacito, aui, are, properly to make a noyse lyke a wheate.

Glaucinus, a, um, of the colour called Glaucus, loke there.

Glauciolus, li, m. g. a horse with a wall eye.

Glaucium, ci, n. g. is a ioyce of an herbe, whyche the potteries do commonly call Memitha, whiche is used in medicine for diseases in the eyes.

Glaucōma, māis, n. g. and Glacemarum, ti, n. g. and Glaucōma, mā, f. g. a humoure in the eyes lyke cristall, whych letteth the syght.

Glaucopis, pidis, com. gen. a man or woman with greie eyes: or after some, hauing a terrible and fery byghnesse in their eyes, lyke to the eyes of a lyon or an oule.

Glaucus, a, um, blew or greie as the skye is, when it hath littell speckes of grene cloudes: but Antonius Chylius, in his booke of colours saith, that Cæsius color, and Glaucus, is all one, saynge that glaucus, is moze common: and descriueth theym bothe, to haue a certayne fery byghnesse and ruddinesse, as in the eyes of a lyon or an oule, also in the shynges of yonge withy branches, and in chest nut shales: In horses he calleth it a baie, but not a byghht baie.

Glaux, glaucos, an owle, also an herbe, whyche is iudged to be named trifoly, very straunge in England.

Glaucus, a god of the sea, also many men wer called by that name. one, borne in Samos, founde fyrst the foundryng of brasse. it is also the name of a fische.

Gleba, a, f. g. a turfe or piece of earth, a clodde, also a piece of a stone.

Glebosior, the comparatyue of Glebosus.

Glecon, ci, n. g. organimint, or penie royall, vt quidam arbitrantur.

Glessatia, an ple in the north sea, called Mare Germanicum.

Glessum, si, n. g. chysall or berill: the frenche men call it a certayne kynde of ambre gumme.

Gleucinum, ni, n. g. ople, whyche doeth come from the olyues befoze they be pressed.

Glicon, aceris genus est, called also crassinium.

Glirarium, rij, n. g. a place where fiede myse or battes be nourished.

Glis, gliris, m. g. a fiede mouse, whyche slepeth all the winter, also a bat or retemouse.

Glis, glissis, for. g. potters claie.

Glis, glitis, f. g. a thistell.

Glisco, scis, scere, to growe, to wax fatte, to coact or despye feruently.

Gliscite in dies seditione, The sedition increasynge euery daye moze and moze.

Certamen gliscit, the battaile waxeth moze fierce.

Terra gliscit, the earth waxeth fat.

Globo, aui, are, to gather or make round together.

Globulus, li, m. g. a littell rounde cake or pellet.

Globōsus, a, um, rounde as a boule.

Globus, bi, m. g. a boule or other thyng veray rounde. also a multitude of men or beastes gathered rounde togyther.

Globus armatorum, a company of men of warre.

Glōcido, aui, are, to cackle as an hen doeth.

Glocio, ciui, ire, idem.

Glōmero, aui, are, to wynde in rounde, to gather togyther in an heape. also in an horse it is to go pleasantly.

Quidam glomerant tempestatem, the foule blacke cloudes gather together.

Glomerāmen, minis, n. g. a rounde bottome, also pilles.

Glomeramina ouis, id est, stercus ouinum.

Glomerācio, ōnis, f. g. wyndynge rounde on a bottome. also the pleasant pace or aumblyng of an horse.

Glomus, mi, m. g. and glomus, mēis, n. g. a bottome of threde.

Gloria, a, for. ge. the consente of god men in the prayse of a man or woman, called renoume, glory. also preeminence, aduancement.

Operosa gloria, gotten wpyth great trauell.

Plurique in gloria dicunt, manye thynke it a great glory and renoume.

Gloria deflorata, glory or renoume disgraced.

Gloria

Gloria & splendor.
 Gloriatio, ónis, f. g. gloryng.
 Gloriabundus, a, um, that gloryeth or maketh auaunt.
 Gloriola, a diminutive of Gloria.
 Glorioso, gloriosus, with great prayse. sometime in the pill part, vaingloriously, proudly, braggingly.
 Glorioso amiciri, to be richely and gorgeously apparayled.
 Glorioso mentiri, to lie goodly.
 Glórior, áris, ari, to glory, to auaunt or boast, to thintent to haue prayse, to extoll with boasting.
 Gloriar apud aliquē, to one, or in his person.
 Gloriar contra aliquem, agaynst one.
 Gloriar de re aliqua, of a thyng.
 Gloriar in re aliqua, in a thyng.
 Gloriar aliquid, to glorie or make his auaunte of a thyng.
 Gloriosus, a, um, glorious, goodly, excellent, notable, greatly esteemed or praised. sometime in the pill part, vainglorious or boasting hym selfe.
 Praclarum & gloriosum, a thyng for the whiche the one hath great renoume and glory.
 Gloriosum in vulgus, that is esteemed for a goodly and excellent thyng of the common weale.
 Gloriosa mors, a glorious deathe, worthy great prayse and renoume.
 Glos, gloris, f. g. the husbandes sister, or brothers wyfe.
 Glossa, x, for, g. a glose or exposition of darke speche.
 Glossēma, áris, n. g. a worde not muche vñd.
 Glossēmaticus, he that maketh a comment on a booke.
 Glossographus, phi, m. g. he that maketh interpretation of straunge and harde wordes.
 Glossōpetra, a precious stone lyke a mans tūgue, which is supposed not to growe in the earth, but to fall from heauen in the wane of the moone.
 Glottis, glóttidis, f. g. a tūgue. also a certayne byrde of the kynde of quailles, which hath a long tūgue.
 Glubo, bi, ēre, to pulle of the barke or rynde of a tree.
 Glūbere pecus, to flea the skyn of a beast.
 Glucidārum, a sweete and delectable thyng.
 Gluchon, the herbe pulegium.
 Gluma, x, f. g. the huske of wheate.
 Gluo, glut, ēre, to streigne or wyngre harde.
 Gluten, tñis, & glutinum, i, n. g. giwe.
 Glutināmentum, ti, n. g. all glewþe matter, as paste, and such lyke.
 Glutinātor, óris, m. g. one that gleweth.
 Glūino, aui, are, to glew, to ioygne, to soulder.
 Glutinósus, a, um, clammy, glewþe.
 Glutitio, tiui, ire, to swalowe.
 Glutire vocem, to make a noyse in the throte, lyke a rauē, or as one were strangled, to rattell in the throte.

Gluto, ónis, m. g. a glutton.
 Glutus, a, um, vnited, compact, beaten or thynned harde together.
 Glyceraton, licorise.
 Glycerium, ri, f. g. a womans name in Terence.
 Glyciámérides, a kynde of delicate meate.
 Glycea, órum, sores in the nose.
 Glycis ancon, the herbe abrotonum.
 Glycon, a mannes name in Horace. Also the physician of Pansa the Romayne, whiche was suspected to haue poisoned his maister.
 Glycirrhiza, lphorise.
 Glycisida, x, an herbe called a pionie.

G A N T E N.

G Naphalium, an herbe, whiche is also called Chamæzelon, whose leaues are so whyte and softe, that they seme to be flore. Pli. lib. 27. cap. 10.
 Gnaphalos, idem quod gnaphalium.
 Gnaphalon, a certayne flore.
 Gnaphæus, a certayne fish, called also Fullo. Barb. in Corol.
 Gnaphos, a tesle, whiche tuckers or clothe workers vse, also idem quod Gnaphalium.
 Gnarraut, and Gnarrauisse, for Narraut, and Narrauisse.
 Gnare, skylfully.
 Gnāritas, áris, for, ge. skylfulnesse, expertenesse, knowlage.
 Gnariter, for Gnare, wpttly.
 Gnarus, a, um, skylfull, knowyng, experte, sometime well known or perceyued.
 Gnarus sum loci illius, I knowe that place well.
 Armorum ac militiæ gnarus, experte and skilful in feates of armes, and policies of warre.
 Nulli magis gnarum quam Neroni, to no man better knowne than to Nero.
 Gnathos, a cheeke or iawe, wherof cometh the Parasites named Gnatho.
 Gnatus, ti, m. g. a sonne.
 Gnauiter, diligently, lustily, valiantly.
 Gnauus, a, um, quicke, lustie, actiue, apte to cūery thyng.
 Gnesius, sei, m. g. the right angle, of meane bignes, and of colour tawne. Pli. lib. 10. cap. 3.
 Gneus, the name of certayne noble Romaynes.
 Gnide, a certayne fyne called Vrtica, loke there.
 Gnidius, a, um, of the citee Gnidus.
 Gnidus, a citee of Apyria.
 Gnitur, Gnixus, olde wyrters vñd for gignitur and nixus.
 Gnoma, x, f. g. an instrument or rule to measure landes, also a sentence, an opinion.
 Gnomon, ónis, m. g. the toothe, whereby the age of an horse is knowen. it is also that, whiche sheweth the howres in a clocke or dial. also a rule to knowe any thyng by.
 Gnopholion, li, n. g. of some is taken for the herbe

G A N T E N.

herbe called caddewurte.

Gnoro, for Noro.

Gnosco, for Nosco.

Gnosis, gnosisos, a woman of the citee Gnosos.

Gnosus, Gnosus, and Gnosiacus, a, um, of the citee Gnosos.

Gnosos, a citee in Landie.

Gnostici, detestable heretikes, who on good fridays, about the sonne sette, assembled men and ponge women together, not sparing daughters nor sisters. After nyne monethes passed, they mette agayne in the same place, and than they plucked the childerne newelpe bozue from they mothers, and cutting theym in pieces, and receyving they blonde in pottes and cuppes, they houred the bodie into ashes, whyche they dyd mixe with the bloudd, and preserved it to put into they meates and drynkes. They also affirmed, that neither the lawe of nature, nor lawes made by men, were good, and that the vertues were nothyng.

G A N T E O.

GObeum, a towne in Fraunce, called Le four.

Gobio, onis, and Gobius, brj, masc, gen. a gogcon.

Gobrias, a noble Persian in the tyme of Darius. Goetia, a, form, gener. a spice of witherastie, called also Theurgia.

Goliath, a puissant kynge of the Philistines, whome David, beyng yet a chyld, slewe, whan the Jewes were afrayde to fyghte with hym man for man. His stature was, as the Bible reherseth, vi. cubites, and a spanne, whyche was x. fete, lachynge. iii. ynches, accomptyng it with the fete of men lyuyng at that tyme, whyche undoubtedly were moze than they be now. His habergeon weyghed five thousande stiles, whych is. ii. M. and. 500. ounces. And the pzon of his spere, weyghed. 600. stiles, whyche is. 300. ounces: whereby his greatenesse and strength maye bee coniected, to excede any man lyuyng in this tyme.

Gomor, is a measure of the Hebryues, and is the tenth parte of Ephraim. Wherfore it conteyneth of our standerde measure, nyne pyntes, an halfe pynte, a quarter, and about halfe an ounce. It is somtyme taken for as muche coyne as one maye receyve betwene his armes.

Gomor, after Judei and Glarian, the tenth parte of Ephraim, and Ephraim is the same measure that Amphora, Amphora is. 9. galons, so that Gomor, is a galon and almost a pinte.

Gomoria, & Gomorim, a citee in Judea, which was consumed for horrible synne against nature.

Gonagra, gra, the goutte in the knee.

Gongylium, of Hippocrates and Galene is used for a pill in medicine, and for the similitude therof, of, it signifieth the rape roote, whyche is rounde, or rather newe of turnepe. It is also called of some Gongyles, or Gongylis, idis.

G A N T E O.

Gonnus, a citee in the upper part of Thebaic.

Gonorrhea, a, form, gener. a disease whereby a mannes seede goeth from hym unwyttyngly, and they, whych have that disease, be called Gonorrheici.

Gordianus, the name of three Emperours, the first, the sonne, and the nephewe.

Gordium, the principall citee of Phrygia.

Gordius, a poore husbnde man of Phrygia, (having but two yoke of oxen) in the tyme of a sedition in the countrey, was by aunswere made of an Idolle, chosen kynge there, whan he came with his wayne, where the counsaile was kept, and beyng made kynge, and causynge the sedition to cease: he made his yokes to bee hanged vp in the Temple of Jupiter, the yokes thereof beyng made in such knottes, that it seemed impossible to bee vnderen.

Gorgias, a famous Rhetorician in the tyme of Socrates, who invented the craft to dispute and aunswere so depnly to every question or matter, that was proposed in a continuall oration: And by teachynge Rhetorike, became so ryche, that he was the first that dyd sette an ymage of gold in the temple of Apollo at Delphos. he beyng of age. 108. yeres, surmounted almoste all men of his tyme, in bodily strengthe, perfectnesse of senses, quychenesse of wytte, and stablesse of memorie.

Gorgones, monstrous women, which were vaine quitted by Perseus.

Gorgoneus, a, um, perteynyng to Gorgones.

Gorgonia, a, f. g. coralle.

Gorgonius, the name of a neasty felowe in Horace.

Gorgophorus, a, um, that beareth the Gorgons, the surname of Pallas, because she had the head of Medusa pyncted in hir shield.

Gorogition, a Trojan.

Gortina, or Gortys, a citee of Landie.

Gortynius, a, um, of that citee.

Gossampinus, ni, form, gen. a tree, whiche beareth cotton.

Gossipium, ij, n. g. idem. also the cotton of the same tree. reade Plin. lib. 29. cap. 1.

Gothia, an yle by Denmarke called Gutlande, not farre from Norwaye.

Gothi, people, of whome the first came out of Gutlande, vnto whome resorted a great multitude of other people as well out of the countreies nowe called Prutia, Liunia, Russia, and Tartaria, as dyuers other partes, called somtyme Scythia: and makynge sundry kynges, dyd depopulate and byrge in subiection the moze parte of Europa, and fynally destroyed Rome, and inhabited the parte of Italy, nowe called Lombardia: and lykewyse subdued the royalmes of Castile and Aragon.

GRab, a fistula, or disease in the eye.
 Grabatus, bati, mascul. generis, a poore mans couche. also a bed that men pled in the olde tyme to take theyr ease vppon at after none.

Graccanus, a, um, of Gracchus.

Gracchuris, a citee of Italy.

Gracchus, the name of a noble familie or house in Rome.

Gracile, slenderly.

Gracilens, entis, idem quod Gracilis.

Gracilesco, scere, to waxe or become leane, thyn, or slender.

Gracilis, le, and Gracilentus, a, um, leane, slender, thynne, small, preatie.

Gracilis liber, a thyn booke, that hath not muche paper.

Gracilitas, âtis, form. gene. leanness, slender- nesse, softnesse.

Gracilitudo, dinis, f, g, idem.

Gracus, ci, & graculus, li, m. ge. a byrde called of some a Jape: but Erasmus in his adagies, so often as this worde Κολοι, doeth come in vse, doth still translate it Graculus, and Aristotle maketh. iii. kindes of those birdes, whiche he calleth Κολοι, the description of the fyrste, agreeth in all poyntes vnto the comyn theough: the description of the second vnto our chough, properly called monedula, the third I knowe not: by the descriptions of Aristotle, I thynke nothyng less true, then that the Jape should be any of the thre kindes of those birdes, whiche be called Graculi.

Graculo cum fidibus nihil, The Jape hath naught to dwe with the harpe, spoken of them, whiche lackyng eloquence or good letters, dooe chozue theym that haue good learnyng. And Graculus inter musas, an vnlearned among learned men, a childlike talker amonge eloquente men.

Semper graculus assidet graculo, One knaue will kepe an other companie, one prattler will be with an other, like will to like.

Gradarius, a, um, that aumblith.

Gradarij equi, aumblinyng hofses.

Gradatim, in order, or by course, a lyttell and a littell, by leisure, by degrees or steeppes.

Gradatim & pedetentim.

Minutatim & gradatim interrogare, To demaunde in diuers shorte questions, descendyng to the purpose by lyttell and littell.

Gradatim amicos habet, he hath diuers sortes of frendes, some that he setteth moze by than othet some.

Gradatio, onis, form. gener. a fourme of speakyng, whan of the fyrste sentence spryngeth the seconde, of the seconde, the thyrde, and so forth.

Gradator, oris, m. ge. a great goer.

Gradatus, a, um, made with grieces or steeppes.

Gradiuicola, one that wozyppeth Mars.

Gradiuus, one of the names of Mars.

Gradior, graderis, gradi, to goe by steeppes, or to steepe, to walke.

Gradus, us, m. gene. a griefe or steepe, a degree in consanguinitee, a degree or estate of honoure, or promotion, somtyme an occasion or meane, a pace in goyng, a rounde in a ladder.

De gradu deiici, To be caste downe from his place: wherby is signified to be abased or moued from constancie of mynde.

Deturbari gradu, hath the same significacion.

Gradu dimoueri, To be putte out of estimacion or authorytee.

Gradu mouere, to cause one to steepe backe, to make to recule or geue backe.

Pleno gradu tendere, to goe or marche forth a great pace.

Accelerare gradum, to go apace.

Vt adderent gradum, that they woulde make speede forwarde.

Adiuuare gradum baculo, to walke with a staffe.

Modico gradu ire, to go softly.

Facere gradum, to steepe, also to make a meane or waie to any thyng.

Inferre gradum, to auance forwarde and set vppon enemies.

Gradum iacere ad aliquam rem, To make an entree, waie, or begynnyng to a thyng.

Omni gradu amplissimo dignus, woorthye mozte hygh honoure and aduancement.

Militia gradu deicere, to putte one out of the roume that he is in, and make hym a common souldiour.

Gracanicus, a, um, come out of Grece.

Græce, in greke.

Græce loqui, to speake greke.

Græcia, æ, form. gene. (the fountayne of prowesse and doctrine, and nourise of eloquence) a great and famous cuntrye, conteynyng these noble regions, Epirus, Acarnania, Aetolia, Phocis, Locris, Acaia, Messenia, Laconia, Argos, Megaris, Attica, Bæotia, Doris, Phthiôtis, Thessalia, Magnesia, Macedonia, & Thracia, All the whiche of late yeres were vnder the yoke of Christes religion, and nowe alas, to the great discomfort of all perfecte christen men, are vnder the mozte cruell subiection and seruitude of the great tyranne the Turke, and become barbarouse, lyuyng in the beastly supersticion of the fals prophete Mahomete.

Gracienfis, se, of Grece, or comyng out of Grece.

Gracisso, are, to folowe the grekes.

Græcor, âris, ari, to ryotte in bankettyng and rybauldry.

Gracostasis, a place where ambassadours stode till they were sent forth into the senate.

Græculus, a, um, a diminutiue of Græcus.

Gracula rosa, a certayne rose, no bigger then a violet.

violet. Plin. li. xii. ca. 4.
 Græcus, ei, m. g. a man borne in Grece.
 Græcus, a, um, of Grece.
 Græca salix, reddē willowe.
 Ad Calendas græcas, a pioushe, signifying neuer.
 Graiugena, æ, com. g. a greke.
 Gralla, arum, crouches, spltes, or tharches.
 Grallator, ōris, m. gen. he that goeth on spltes of tharches.
 Grallatorius, a, um, the adiective.
 Grallatorius gradus, a great or longe stride,
 such as one taketh that goeth on spltes.
 Gramen, graminis, neut. gener. grasse, somes tyme all herbes together, the swathe also an herbe called Sanguinaria, Dactylon, of some Vens canis, of Dioscorides, Coronopus, that is to say, crowes foot. It spreadeth and groweth by hedges, and is moze pleasant to beastes, than any other herbe of grasse. Some take such wood for the true grasse, but they are deceived.
 Gramia, æ, f. g. a fleume in the eye.
 Gramiōſi oculi, eyes that be soze of that disease.
 Gramma, tris, n. g. a letter, also idem quod scrip-tulum vel scrupulum, a scruple, the xiiii. part of an ounce.
 Gramineus, a, um, of grasse.
 Graminōſus, a, um, growen wyth grasse or herbes.
 Grammateus, trisyllabum, a chauncellour.
 Grammatias, a pioushe stone, of the kynde of talpis, hauing a rounde white circle about it.
 Grammatica, æ, of Grammatices, es, com. gen.
 grammar.
 Grammatica, ōrum, the study or science of grammer.
 Grammaticē, an aduerbe, lyke a grammarian.
 Grammaticē loqui, to speake congruely.
 Grammaticus, mas. g. he that teacheth grammar, or expoundeth authors, a profounde grammarrian.
 Grammaticus, a, um, perteynyng to grammar.
 Grammatista, a smatterer in grammar, a meane grammarian.
 Grammatocyphon, phy, n. g. he that writeth on his knee.
 Grammatophylacium, cii, n. g. a place where the records or common wytynges be kept.
 Gramme, a length, without breadihe.
 Granarium, ri, neu. gen. a granarde, wherein corne is kept.
 Granata, a royallme and citie in Spayne, fornyng to the sea called Mare mediterraneum, whiche was vnder the subiection of the Mores eyght hundred yeres. At the last, by the great wysdome, polycie, and prowesse of Fernand do, and Elsyabeth, of famous memoire, late kynge and queene of Spayne, was estewnes restored vnto Chrystendome, and the Mores expelled.
 Granatum, i, n. g. a pomegranarde.

Granatus, a, um, that hath many coynes or kernelles.
 Malum granatum, a pomegranarde.
 Grandedale, æ, m. f. g. heare in the armeholes.
 Grandeditas, æ, f. g. great age, aunciente.
 Grandedus, a, um, heras olde, aunciente.
 Grandedo, scere, to waxe great, to growe.
 Grandiculus, a diminutive of Grandis.
 Grandigro, ōis, are, to go away apace.
 Grandiloquentia, æ, f. g. a stately eloquence.
 Grandiloquus, a, um, eloquent, he that speaketh as it were with a greatte magnificence in wodes.
 Grandinatus, a, um, hurt or wounded with haille.
 Grandino, ōis, are, to haille, actually.
 Grandinōſus, a, um, full of haille.
 Grandio, ōis, ire, to waxe great.
 Grandis, de, auncient or great, of great valur.
 Grandis nati, well strepen in yeres.
 Grande æs alienum, great debte.
 Grande gaudium, great ioye and myght.
 Grandis ætas, aunciente.
 Grandis litera, a great capitall letter.
 Genus dicendi grandius, a moze loftie and ample stile.
 Grandi pecunia mercari, to bye for a greata summe of moneye, to bye verry dere.
 Grandis nati, a veray aunciente or aged person.
 Grandior virgo, a maye of a good bigge stature.
 Grandior homo, a well aged man.
 Granditas, æ, f. g. aboundaunce of yeres, aun-ciente.
 Granditas verborum, amplenesse of wordes,
 hygh and loftie speakyng.
 Grandisculus, a, um, somewhat great, of a good stature or age.
 Grandis, ōis, f. g. haille.
 Granicus, ei, m. g. a ryuer of Bithynia, at the whiche great Alexander ouerthrew and put to flight the power of Darius.
 Granum, i, n. g. graine or coine. also the .v. parte
 of an ounce.
 Graphiariū, ii, n. g. a case, wherein pensels were kept, it may be called a pennar.
 Graphiaria theca, idem.
 Graphice, es, f. g. catupng in booke, or other lyke
 thyng.
 Graphice, properly, well and cunningly.
 Graphicus, a, um, counnyngly, or perfectely wrought.
 Graphicus homo, a pious man.
 Graphis, graphidis, fac. gen. the arte of portratture, after Budeus, the description or delineation, or drawyng out of a worke that is to bee made.
 Graphium, ii, n. g. a pensell, wherewith men doe wyte in tables.
 Grassatio, ōis, robbing.
 Grassator, ōris, m. g. he that by hygh wayes ly-ely in a wayte to robbe of sea men, also an ex-torcioner.

Grassatura, a, f. g. idem quod grassatio.

Grassatio, thinking about a bodie.

Grassor, aris, ari, to robbe of sea men passenge by the hysly wayes. Also to go or come on with a violent rage. Therefore in a sodayn and violent pestilence, it is sayed, Morbus grassatur, the sicknesse killeth men in greete numbers so deply: and it is taken in the pl. parte, or els in the god parte, and signifieth to goe earnestly to
a thyng.

Vt in te hac via grassaremur, that we might as-cende the, or sette vpon the this way, or after this facion.

Ad gloriam virtutis via grassatur, he contempeth to come to glory by vertue.

Grassari, sometime taken in the god parte for Procedere, Alii se iure grassari non vident est, procedere, sometyme to walke.

Gratunbas, a, um, and Gratans, antis, om. g.
geuyng thanks, thankfull.

Grate, hyndely, thankfully, gratefully.

Grates, f. g. pluri. thanks.

Agere grates alicui, to geue one thanks.

Gratia, a, f. g. grace, fauour, sometyme it sig-nifieth thanks, a benefite, a rewarde, peace, or truce, cause of respecte, ppyse, authoritee, fa-uour.

Mala gratia, signifieth displeasure.

Mea, tua, velleus gratia, for myne, thyne, or his sake.

Gratiam habere, to thanke, to bee myndefull of a benefite, to haue mynde to requyte a benefite.

Gratiam inire, to get thanks.

Ab eo gratiam hanc inibo, I will geat this thanke of him.

Gratiam referre aut reddere, to requyte or doe one god tourne for an other, or one displeasure for an other.

Ad gratiam, for fauour, or to please.

Si quid benefacias, leuior pluma est gratia, If ye doe theym any pleasure, they haue littell or no consideration at all.

Componere gratiam, to make at one, to reconcile.

Gratiam facere delicti, to pardon an offence, to forgeue.

Petere gratiam ab aliquo, to aske pardon or forgeuenesse of one.

Petere gratiam alicuius, to desyre to haue or nes fauour and good wyl.

Apud Lentulum ponam in te gratiam, I will brynge you in fauour with Lentulus, or I will reconcile you to Lentulus, or make you at one with Lentulus.

Recipere in gratiam, to loue and take one into fauour ageyne after some breach or varyaunce.

Redire in gratiam, to bee at one, to be recon-ceded, to come agayne in fauour.

Restituere in gratiam, to brynge in fauour a-gayne, to reconcile.

Redigere in gratiam aliquos, idem.

Retinere, or tenere gratiam alicuius, to kepe ones selfe in a mans fauour, to kepe one his freinde. Gratias scribere, to geue thanks to one in wrytyng.

Cum illo magna est mihi gratia, He and I be great frendes, or we bee nowe throughe reconciled.

Cum illo nulla est mihi gratia, He and I be not frendes, or he and I neuer loued together.

Tibi gratia est, I thanke you.

Ea gratia est, for that cause.

Cupio gratiam tuam, I desyre to haue your fauour and good wyl.

Negligere gratiam alicuius, Not to passe where he haue ones good wyl or not.

Lusurandi gratiam facere, to discharge or quit
one of his othe.

Gratia, the graces, loke Charites.

Gratidia, the name of a woman of Naples in Italy.

Gratificor, aris, ari, to gratifie or dooe a thyng thankfull: or to confere a benefite, or to do a good tourne, to make one bounde to hym by dooyng some pleasure.

Gratiam gratificari, to do a pleasure.

Gratificatio, onis, f. g. a gratifying.

Gratioso, for fauour, cui opponitur Sordide, for hypocrites or gyftes.

Gratiosus, a, um, veraiue thankfull, also in fauour of redpyte with the people, gentill, pleasant.

Gratiosa amissio, a licence to departe, purchased by vnlawfull fauour.

Apud omnes ordines gratiosus, in fauour, or well esteemed with all sortes of men.

Gratis, an aduerbe, betokenyng without rewarde, without desert, for nothyng, without respecte of profyte, frankly and freely.

Habitare gratis in alieno, to dwell on an others mans grounde without payng rent.

Seruire gratis, to serue without wages.

Gratis diligere virtutes, To loue vertues for theyr owne sakes, not for anye aduantage or profyte.

Gratanter, thankfully.

Gratitudo, dinis, f. g. hyndnesse.

Grator, aris, ari, to geue thanks to god with of-ferynges. Also to reioyce of good fortune. Also to speake a thyng thankfully.

Gratuito, an aduerbe, signifyinge of good will,
without benefite, freely.

Gratuitus, a, um, without rewarde, or vnhyred.

Gratuita amicitia est, Frendeshipp is a thyng that shoulde be without hope of recompence.

Innata est homini probitas quaedam gratuita,
There is ingendred in man, a certayne goodnesse or honestee, whiche is neyther allured with pleasures,

Gratus, not hyed with profit, but in free wylly for the loue of vertue it selfe.

Mercenarius & gratus, contrary.

Gratulabundus, a, um, that doeth reioyce of grete
thankes.

Gratulatio, dis, f, g. Sometime it signifieth a re-ioycing of some good fortune happened to hym selfe, or to an other man. Sometime a geuyng of thankes.

Gratulor, aris, aris, to make ioye, and to sape and reioyce in thynges, that thou arte gladd of the good fortune, either of an other man, or of thy selfe, to be glad of reioycion ones behalfe.

Gratulor tibi, quod tam. &c. I am glad, that you.

Gratulor mihi, cui hoc seculo. &c. I am glad in myne owne behalfe.

Gratulor tibi istum magistratum, I am glad that you haue that office. A phrysi, Gratulor tibi ob istum magistratum, and De isto ma-gistratu, Iou, ceterisque diis gratulatum, to geue deuoute thankes vnto Iupiter and the other gods.

Tibi de hac tua felicitate gratulor, I am ioyeous on thy behalfe of this prosperitie that thou arte in. Sometime it signifieth to geue thankes vnto god, to praye of dooe our deuotion to god.

Aduentum gratulantur, They sayed I was welcome, or that they were gladd of my com-
ynge.

Gratulor tibi hanc rem, or Gratulor tibi in hoc, I am glad that this hath chaunced to you.

Gratus, a, um, that remembreth or recompenceth a good tourne, agreeable, delectable, kinde, thanks-full, pleasaunt, acceptable, takē in the good parte, in good grece.

Memor & gratus.

Gratum se præbere, to shewe ones selfe thanks full and kinde.

Gratissimum mihi feceris, you shall doe me a great pleasure.

Gratum & optatum.

Gratum in cibo, saoury or pleasant in meate.

Gratum iucundo odore, pleasant with a delectable and swete saour.

Grato animo esse, to haue a thankfull and kinde mynde.

Graustellus, an auncient father.

Grauate, & grauatum, greuouely, displeasante, pynfully, hardely, with an puell wyl.

Quam grauate pater dedit, With what an y-uell wyl did my father geue it?

Id grauate concessum est, That was hardely graunted, and with an puell wyl.

Grauatius, a, um, greuied, bourdeyned, troubled with the murre or distillation in the head. also he that doeth a thing, as it were halfe against his wyl.

Grauius somno, drouly for sleape, that he can scarcely holde by his head.

Grauius vulneribus, he that hath manye sores or greuouous woundes.

Grauedinotus, a, um, that hath an heauy heade, heauy or heauy, disposed to do nothing, that hath the murre or pole, or that causeth it.

Grauedo, uel dinis, f, g. heauynesse, grete, distaste,
also the murre or reume of the heade.

Graueolens, lentis, that hath a very yll saour.

Graueolentia, w, for, gen. synche or synhyng
saour.

Oris graueolentia, a synhyng breath.

Grauesco, scere, to be loded or bourdeyned, to waxe heauy.

Indies valerudo grauescit, he is euerie daye sicker and sicker, he waxeth euerie daye worse and worse.

Malis publicis indies grauescentibus, The grete yuels and mischieues in the commune weale waxing daylye more and more.

Grauiors, cordis, he that hath a great heete.

Grauidias, aris, f, ge. greatnesse with chylde, or with young.

Grauido, ani, are, to geat a woman wth chylde.

Grauidus, a, um, geat with chylde, or with yong.

Grauida mulier, a woman with chylde.

Grauidam facere mulierem, to geat a woman with chylde.

Grauida est Pamphilo, she is geat with chylde by Pamphilus.

Grauioloquus, he that speaketh grauely and seriously.

Grauionarum, a citee in Almayne called Banbergh.

Grauis, heauy, greuouous, pynfull, soze. Sometime substantiall, weyghte, of great weyght or importaunce, graue, or haupnge grauitee, sage, discrete, contrary to lyghtie or wanton. also geat of puissance. Sometime olde or aged, sure or constant, plentuous or full. also synhyng, haupnge a stronge saour of ylle apye. Sometime difficile and harde.

Terra grauis, lande loded with cozne.

Grauis nuncius, One that byngeth heauy tydynges.

Graue precium, an hygh pryce.

Grauis annis miles, an auncient and aged soule dionr.

Grauis senecta, impotent for age.

Graui teste priuatus sum amoris erga te mei,
I haue lost a substantiall witness of my loue to-wardes the.

Grauis Marte, geat with chylde by Mars.

Morbo grauis, feeble and saynte wth the sies kenesse.

Quanto tuus est animus natu grauior, tanto sit ignoscentior, The more graue, sage, and discrete your wysedome is, by reason of your age, so muche the more ready let the same bee, to forgiue and pardon.

Grauis vinculis, loded with yrons and fetters.
Grauis somno, so heauy and droulye, that he can scarce holde up his head for slepe.

 Grauis vulneribus, soze wounded.
 Grauis vicio, great with thylee.
 Graue absinthium, wormewood breay bitter,
 and vnpleasunt in taste.
 Grauis aduersarius, a soze and dreadfull enemy.
 Aes graue, wriges of ingottes of golde of sple-
 net. Grauis amonia, breath of coyne.
 Grauis armatura, a complet harness, comento Lewis armatura.
 Grauis author, a substantiall author of good and thylee.
 Grauis halitus, a strong of stinking breathe.
 Imperium graue & stabile, a tyme of durable rule of imperie.
 Grauis manus, a hande, full of money, or some other thyng.
 Grauis paupertas, great neede, extreme pouer-
 tie. Graues remi, great and myghty oyes.
 Grauis senectus, pepynefull olde age.
 Grauis supellex, goodlye and ryche stuffe of householde.
 Vereor, ne tibi sim grauis, I feare least I trow ble you.
 Grauius erit tuum vnum verbum quam centum mea, you shall doo moze with one worde, than I shall with an hundred: O yone worde of your mouth shall moze pceuaile, than an hundred of myne.
 Hæc dum incipias, graua sunt, These thynges be harde tyll a man hath ones begun them.
 Grauisimum anni tempus, the most daungesrous and peryllous tyme of the year.
 Non dum audisti, quod est grauisimum, you haue not yet heard the greatest matter, that is most heinous or grauous.
 Grauis odor, a stronge sauour.
 Oratio grauis, graue of discrete wordes.
 Grauis sonus, a base or lowe sowne.
 Grauisima sunt, ad. &c. they are of veray great efficacie, to. &c.
 Grauisca, a castell of the Tuscans.
 Grauitas, ætis, f. g. grauitie, authoritie, sagesse,
 discrettenesse of mynde, weyghtinesse, heauynesse. also the greuousnesse or greatnesse of a
 thyng.
 Grauitas odoris, the strongnesse of sauour.
 Grauitas doloris, the greatnesse of sorowe or pepyne.
 Grauitas audiendi, auditus, & aurium, dul-
 nesse in hearpyng.
 Grauitas cœli, the vnpleasuntnesse of the ayre.
 Grauitas oris, a stynkyng breathe.
 Grauter, & graue, greuouely, painfully, heauyly, substantially, muche wylly, saddely.
 Grauter accipere, to take displeasantly.
 Grauisime ærotare, to be beraye soze sicke.
 Grauter crepuerunt fores, the doozes made a great crakpyng or noyse.
 Nimis grauter cruciat adolescentulum, he bereth the younge man to soze.

20 Grauter laudiquam dicere, to take simply and rygourously agaynst one.
 Grauter aliquid facere, to doon a thyng differ-ently and wylly.
 Grauter increpare, to chide or rebuke sharply.
 Grauter irascere, to be wrothangry.
 Grauter & acere sonare, to creak.
 30 Grauter dissentire inter se, they are adgredisorde and variaunce betwene theym selues.
 Grauter spirare, to haue a stronge sauour.
 Grauisculus, a diminutiue of grauis.
 Grauis, aut, are, to greue or harden, to bide.
 Grauer, aris, aris, to be greued, or to take greuously, to be lothe to doo a thyng.
 Quæ si quis grauibitur, whiche thynges if any man be discomforted or displeased with.
 Gregalis, le, of the same flocke or company, of the common soze.
 20 Gregales iuxta companions, and maye.
 Gregarius, a, um, of the common flocke or soze.
 Gregarius canis, a curie dogge.
 Gregarius miles, a souldiour taken at a venture, not chosen, a common souldiour, of small estimation.
 Gregarius pastor, the chiefe sheperde, whiche hath the charge of the hole flocke.
 Gregatim, in sundry flockes or companies.
 Gremiale, lis, n. g. an apron.
 Gremium, i, n. g. the space betwene the twoo thyghes, specially of a woman.
 Gressibile, lis, n. g. apte to goe.
 Gressus, m. g. a steppe or goyng.
 Superbus gressus, a proude or statelike mayce in goyng.
 Gressus, a, um, that goeth.
 Grex, egis, m. g. a flocke, a route or company, a bende of men.
 Grex hominum, a compaign of men.
 Dux gregis, a bull.
 Grex equarum, a herde of mayces.
 Grillur, loke Gryllus.
 Griphus, i, m. g. a nette, a riddle, an intricate or darke sentence, harde to be assolled.
 Gronii, people of Spayne.
 Grossapina, æ, f. g. cotton.
 Grossulus, li, mal. gen. a lyttell fygge, that is not ripe.
 Grossus, i, m. g. a greene fygge. vel f. g.
 Grossus, a, um, great, grosse.
 Gruina, n, f. g. herbe Robert.
 Gruma, æ, f. g. a mydde place, from whence goe the wayes. Also a thyng, wherwith grounde is measured.
 Grumulus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Grumus.
 Grumus, i, m. g. a barrowe or hilloke.
 Grudio, and grunnio, iui, nii, ire, to grunt lyke swyne.
 Grunnus, us, m. g. a grunting of a swyne.
 Gruo, grui, ere, to crie lyke a crane.
 Grus, gruis, m. of f. g. a crane.
 Grillus, i, mal. ge. a beak moze than a grasshop,
 whiche

G A N T E V.

whiche destroyeth coyne. Grillus, is also Xenophon's sonne.
Gryneus, a, um, of Grynia.
Grynia, a towne of Aetolia, in the borders of Ionia.
Gryps, gryphis, or Gryphus, phi, m. g. a gryppe or gryphon.
Grypus, i, m. g. he that hath an hooked nose like an haukes byll.

G A N T E V.

GVaiacum, a tree growynge in the ples newe founden, the one called Corterari, the other Hispaniola, whiche bee not far from the equinoctiall lyne, whiche tree is in the toppes full of branches, the leaues veray small, and meruailous grene, it beareth fruite of the quantitee of a sylberde nut, haunye with in it a kernell, and without a thynne shale. There is of this tree thre kyndes. The wood of the one is hard and heuy, within blacke, without pale coloured, haunye lynes somewhat rustette. The other is somewhat whiter without, but blacke within, not in so great a compasse. The thyrde is whyte within and without, haunye veray small lynes. This wood boyled in water hath been found an excellent remedy agaynst the frenche pockes, and also the goute.

Gubernaculum, li, n. gene. the sterne or rother of a shyppe, and by translation the gouernance of a common weale.

Gubernacula reipublicæ tenere, to haue the rule or gouernaunte of the common weale.

Accedere ad gubernacula reipublicæ, to come to beare a rule in the common weale.

Deicere senatum a gubernaculis reipublicæ, To put the senate from the gouernance of the common weale.

Sedere omni tempore ad gubernacula reipublicæ, To be alwayes occupied in the gouernance of the common weale.

Gubernatio, onis, f. g. the gouernynge of a shyp, the rulyng of a common weale.

Gubernator, oris, m. gene. a mayster of a shyp, also a gouernour of a countreie, a ruler.

Gubernatrix, icis, the feminine.

Gubernare, ui, are, to gouerne, to rule.

Guesfeli, beastes lyke to mife, whiche haue theyr doung as swete as muske.

Gula, æ, fæ. gene. the gullette or wrypsande. somtyme gluttonye.

Gula follis, the nose of the bellows, where the wynde cometh out.

Gulioxa, the greene shales of walnuttres.

Gulose, glottonously.

Gulosus, a, um, gluttonous.

Gulosus lector, one that hath redde muche.

Gummatus, a, um, dycked with gum or rosen.

Gummatæ arbores, trees that bynne fowthe gumme.

G A N T E V.

Gummi, neu. gene. vnderlined, gumme whiche droppeth from trees.

Gumminum, ople made of gumme.

Gummitio, onis, f. g. annoynting with gumme.

Gummofus, a, um, that hath much gumme.

Gurdi, orum, soles.

Gurges, itis, m. ge. a swalowe or depe pitte in a water, or a goulfe. somtyme the streame. somtyme the perillous daunger of the sea. By translation, a naughty and wycked persone, hauing in hym as it were an hole sea of mischiefe.

Gurges caruleus, the sea.

Gurgito, ui, are, to swalowe or deuoure.

Gurgulio, onis, m. ge. the gullie or gargill of the throte bolle. It is also a worme that byedeth in garners, and eateth vp coyne.

Gurgustiolum, li, n. g. a littell cabyn or cotage.

Gurgustium, ij, n. gen. a darke and vile habitation, a cabyn or cotage.

Gustatorium, ij, neu. gener. a place where men were wonte to banquet.

Gustatus, us, m. ge. taste.

Gusto, ui, are, to taste, to haue a lyttell knowledge or experience in a thyng.

Primis labris gustare, To tast or wete the lippes a littell, to haue a littell smache or sauour of a thyng.

Gustare eius sermonem volo, I will heare what he will saye.

Gustus, us, m. ge. taste.

Veræ laudis gustum non habent, They haue no smache or taste of trewe pryse and commendation.

Gutta, æ, f. g. a droppe.

Guttum, h. droppe, one droppe after an other.

Guttus, a, um, that hath as it wer drops in it.

Guttans, antis, om. ge. that droppeth awaye.

Guttulus, li, m. ge. a littell cruet or lyke thyng.

Guttur, uris, n. ge. the throte.

Gutturifus, a, um, that hath a swollen throte.

Gutturium, nij, n. ge. a lauer or pether.

Guitus, i, m. ge. a cruet or other lyke thyng, out of the whiche lyquor is poured droppynge, also an ople vessell.

G A N T E Y.

GYarus, i, or Gyara, æ, loke Giarus.

Gyas, the name of a Troiane.

Gygæus, a lake of Lydie.

Gygæmorus, a littell hpyl not far from Thessaly.

Gyges, the sonne of Dascylus, one of the seruantes of Candaules, kynge of Lydia (as Herodotus wyrteth) or his companion (as Crogus reherfeth) was also kynge of Lydia, by this meanes. Candaules had a wyfe, whome for the inordinate loue he bare to hir, he supposed to be the fayrest woman luyng. On a tyme he prayfed his wyues beautee vnto Gyges, aduysing therto, that he moughte the better beleue hym, he would cause hym to see hir naked. But

Gyges refused, dissuadynge as muche as he could Candaules from that folie, with right wise exhortacions. But Candaules obstinately persistyng in his foolish fantasie, dyd set Gyges in a secreete place, where he behelde his wyfe naked goynge to bedde. And as Gyges departed, the ladye behelde hym. And finally the matter disclosed vnto hyr by hir husbände, she intended to bee reuenged. For in that countrey it was an intollerable reproche to a man or woman, to bee seene naked. wherfore rallyng vnto hir suche of hir seruantes, as she specially trusted, she sent for Gyges: who beyng come, she purposed vnto hym thys election, epyther he hym selfe to be slayne, or elles to promyse to slea Candaules, and take hir to his wyfe, and the realme with hir. whiche he abhoirynge, and a good while resistyng, with sundry perswasions, at the laste he chose, rather than to dye hym selfe, to slea Candaules, as he dyd lyng in his bed, by the meanes of the queene, whome he tooke to his wyfe, and was kynge of Lydia. Plato lib. 2. de iusto, telleth, that Gyges had a ryng, of suche vertue, that whan the broder parte therof was tourned to the palme of his hande, he was seene of no man, but he myghte see all thynges: And whan he tourned the ring on the contrary parte, he was hym selfe seene openly. by the meanes wherof he slewe Candaules, and comitted adulterie with his wyfe. There was also an other Gyges, a great giant, and brother of Briareus. Gymnas, adis, f. g. exercise. Gymnasiarchus, i, or Gymnasiarcha, x, m. g. the chiefe maister of the schoule or place of exercise, the principall of a hall, the head of a halle or colledge. Gymnasium, ij, neu. g. a place where is common exercise of the body. sometyme a schoule house, a colledge or hall, suche as be in the vniuersities. Gymnastes, he that teacheth chylderne to exercise them in wastlyng or other lyke. Gymnasticus, or Gymnicus, a, um, belongyng to exercise. Gymnastium, the acte of exercise. Gymnisi ludi, plaies exercised naked. Gymnos, signifieth naked. Gymnosophystæ, philosophiers of Inde, whiche went alwayes naked. Gymnus, a beaste, whiche cometh of an hore and an asse mare. Gyndes, a greete riuer of Assyria, which Tyrys caused to be deuided into. xlvj. chanelles or streames. Gynaconitis, that parte of the house, whiche serueth onely for women. Gynaconomus, the grekes called him, that in olde tyme had the charge, to ouerse the numbze of guestes at feastes. Gynæprilus, li, m. ge. a great louer of women, an amorous person. Gynæcanthe, vitis alba. Gynæciarij, they, whiche beyng in an house togerther with women, after cloath is made, doe cleanse it, and cut of the knottes of the thyedes. Gynæcæum, a nourcery, or secreete place, where women onely doo abyde. Gypsarus, a, um, playstere. Gypsara manus, in Ciceros epistle of his tenth booke to Trebatius, is taken after some interpreters for white handes, or after some for deceitfull or crafty handes. Gypso, aui, are, to playster. Gypsum, i, n. g. playster. Gyrtus, turned rounde. Gyrtinus, i, m. g. a tadpole. Gyro, aui, are, to compasse, or go in circuite. Gyrtus, i, m. g. a circuite or compasse. Agere gyros, To turne rounde, or to renne rounde, as a hore doth in a carrie. Ducere in gyrum rationis, to byngge with in the compasse of reason. Gytheum, a towne, whiche Hercules and Apollo buylded together, and the inhabitauntes of the same towne be called Gytheates.

H A N T E A.

A, an interiection of chastitynge or warning, that a thing should not be doen. Habēna, x, for. g. the rayne of a byddell, sometime it signifieth power or rule. Habenas adducere, To holde stricte the byddell. Habenas remittere, to slacke the byddell. Laxissimas habere habenas, to haue the byddell at wille. Tradere habenas alicui, To committe to one the authozite to rule or gouerne. Rerum habena traduntur Hasdrubali, the gouernance or rule of the commune weale, was committed to Hasdruball. Habēnula, x, f. g. a littell rayne of a byddell. Habentia, x, f. ge, was vsed of olde wryters, for the haupng of a thyng. Habeo, es, ui, ère, to haue, to holde, to possesse, to occupie, to esteeme or suppose, to call, to dwell, to handell or intreate wel or yll, cruelly or gently. Also for seruare, to kepe diligently. Habere, is often tymes vsed with aduerbes, whiche beyng spoken by a nowne substantiue, shoulde be the datiu case. As Negligenter habere parentes, for Neglectui, to vse the parentes negligently. So Humaniter habere, for Humaniter tractare. Communiter res habere, for Rerum communionē habere. Habere, for Inuenisse. Spero me habere, qui hunc meo excruciem modo, I thinke I haue found awaye to vex him. and ger euery beine in his herte, eue as I wil my self.

 Habeo audire, I can here, or rather I muste here. Habeo policeri, I can promyse, or I must promise.
 Haberi aliquo numero, To be had in some estimation.
 Clodij animum perspectum habeo, I knowe or I perceyue right well what Clodius intens-deth. Habere bene seu male, to doo or prospere well or ill, to be in good health.
 Bene habet, it is well.
 Male me habet, it greueth mee.
 Habere concionem, to preache, to declare a thyng to the people.
 Habet eum arcte, he kepeth him thowte or from libertee, he holdeth him streete.
 Fortunas suas venales habuit, he solde all his gooddes.
 Frustra habere, to be deceyued.
 Habet frustra, he is disappoynted.
 Habere gratiam, to thanke. it is properly in the mynde, whan wee remembre suche benefites as we haue receyued, and haue a good will to requite the same agayne.
 Sat habeo, I desyre no moze.
 In custodijs haberi, to be kept in prison.
 Habere obuiam, to encounter or meete with
 one.
 Pensi habere, to take hede.
 Prorsus neque facere, neq; dicere quicquam pensi habebat, he cared not what he did, nor what he spake.
 Principatum habere, to be moze excellent.
 Habere quaestui rempublicam, To minyster
 the weale publike for his owne profite.
 Habere delectum, To muster, and take vp men for the warre.
 Habere rationem, to haue regarde or consyde-
 ration.
 Habere ratione cum terra, to labour the earth, or to be occupied in manuryng and tyllinge of
 the grounde.
 Res ita se habet, the thyng is at this poynt, the matter is in this case.
 Habere rem cum muliere, to meddell with a woman.
 Habere rem cum aduersario, to contende.
 Se munditer habere, to be cleanly.
 Sermonem habere, to common or deuise.
 Habeo tibi fidem, I beleue thee, I trust thee.
 Nunquam secus habui illam, atque si me ex nata esset, I neuer entreated hir otherwise, than if she had been myne owne naturall daughter.
 Parce ac duriter se habere, To lye sparingly and hardely.
 Nimum te habui delicatum, I haue brought thee vp to nicety, I haue made to much of thee.
 Aegre habet, he is displeased or discontented.
 Habet eos somnus, they are a sleape.
 Habere in tenebris, to kepe in a darke house.
 Hic habet, he dwelleth hère.

Habeo dicere, I can saie somewhat.
 Hæc habui de amicitia dicenda, this muche I had to say concernyng amities and frendship.
 Sicuti plerag; mortalium habentur, as it chanceth most commonly amongest men.
 Respondendum habeo, I must answer. Ihes-use Præcipiendum, tolerandum, dicendum habeo. Deportatum habere, to haue caried away.
 Acerbum habuimus Curionem, Curio was ve-rie soze agaynst vs.
 Habet res admirationem, The thyng is won-derfull.
 Habere ætatem, to leade ones lyfe. Also to bee of good age.
 Bene habere ætatem, to lyue pleasantly.
 Bonum habere animum, bee of good chere.
 Habere in animo, to thynke, to intende, to purpose, to bee mynded.
 Dicebat se triginta habere annos, He sayd he was thirtie wynter olde.
 Anxium me hæc res habet, This thyng bereth or troubleth me, or maketh me carefull and pensue.
 Quæ nos attonitos habent, which thynges make vs astonied.
 Quos authores habet, whiche authoures he dooeth folow.
 Belle habere se, to be mery and in good health.
 Bonum ciuem illum semper habuit, he founde
 hym alway a ryght good citlese.
 Bonum cælum locus habet, the place standeth in an holsome ayre.
 Habere castra, to campe.
 Nullam mei cogitationem habuit, He neuer thought on me, he had no regarde to me at all.
 Compertum habere, to knowe surely, to haue sure prooffe of a thyng.
 Habere consilium, to consult, to hold a counsell.
 Ne quem conscium suorum haberet, that none of his companions should know it.
 Ut intransium exeuntiumque conspectum habeat, that he may see theim that go in and out.
 Certamen habere cum aliquo, To contende or strue with one. Likewise Habere controuersiam and contentionem.
 Constitutum habere, To haue thzoughly determined.
 Conuiuium habere, to kepe a feaste.
 Meam culpam habeto, Blame me, laye the faute on me.
 Curæ rem aliquam habere, to take good heede of
 a thyng.
 Cursum secundum naues habuere, the shippes had prosperous saylyng.
 In delitijs habere, to loue one tenderly, to make one his derlyng, to byng vp wantonly.
 Derelictui habere, to neglecte, to take no hede of
 a thyng.
 Despicatum, and despectui habere, to despise, to contemne, to set naught by.
 De Cesare satis hoc tempore habeo dictum, I haue spoken sufficiently of Cesar, for this tyme.

Dignum me habuit, he thought me woorthy.
 Habeat me ipsum sibi documento, Lette hym take me for an example, or leat hym take an example of me.
 Habet dolorem capitis, His head aketh, he hath the head ache.
 Pro haud dubio habitum est, it was thought for a suretee, or they thought surely.
 Habet effigiem, he is lyke.
 Expertem consiliorum omnium illum habebat,
 He made him priue to nothyng: or he kepte secrete from him all that euer he intended or wente aboute.
 Habui excusationem, I cleted, or I excused my
 selfe.
 Habere fidem apud aliquem, to be in credite with one.
 Habere fidem alicui, to beleue, to trust.
 Gratiissimum habent, They delite greatly, they haue a great pleasure.
 Quod apud alios gratiam habet, whiche thyng to some is acceptable and pleasaunt, or pleaseth some well.
 Habere honorem alicui, to honour, to reuerence
 one. Habet honorem, he hath attayned the office or aduancement.
 Habere honore, for In honore, To haue in estimation or reuerence.
 Infestum habere, to vex, to trouble.
 Immunitatem omnium rerum habent, they be charged with nothyng.
 Impune habere, to escape quite.
 Iter hac habui, my iourney lay this way.
 Nullo loco habere, to set naught by.
 Ut hodie diem luculente habeamus, That wee may this day be mery and make good chere.
 Habere ludibrio, to mocke, to scozne.
 In magno negotio habuit, he endeuoured or laboured earnestly.
 Ad manus habere, to haue in a redynesse.
 In manibus, and sub manu habere, to haue in hande.
 In matrimonio habere, to mary.
 Si ita me haberem, if I were in that case.
 Hoc male habet virum, this greueth the man, or byteth him by the stomache.
 Quæ te nunc habet sollicitudo? what is it that maketh you so heauy or carefull?
 Nullum momentum habere, to be of no weyght or importance, to helpe nothyng to the purpose.
 Habeo hunc morem, or hoc moris, this is my fastion or custome.
 Eius naturam habet, he is of his nature, he is lyke to him.
 Notam impudentiæ habere, to be noted for an impudent person.
 Habui numerum sedulo, I remembred well the numbze.
 Offensionem habet, it doeth displease.
 Odium in aliquem habere, and odio habere aliquem, to hate.

In ore habere, to speake oftentimes, or much of a thyng or person.
 Habere religioni, to make conscience, to make scrupulous.
 Scis quo modo tibi res habet, wilt thou know howe the mattier standeth with thee? or doest thou know how thou shalt be handled?
 Parum habuit hoc facere, he thought it but a small thyng or light mattier this to doo.
 Nihil secretum alter ab altero habebant, they kepte nothyng secrete the one from the other.
 Sic habeto, perswade your mynde thus, be you sure of this, or know you this for a suretee.
 Sic habere sine, put the case, or suppose it so
 to be.
 Sub signo habere, to kepe safe, as it were vnder
 locke and keie.
 Omnes sollicitos habui, I had all my house-holde or meyny, as busy as coulde be.
 Studio ne id sibi habet, Doeth he that of purs-pose or for the nones?
 Hoc tu tecum tacito habeto, keepe this secrete to thy selfe, and tell it to no man.
 Habeo tibi res solutas, I haue paid thee.
 Habe tibi, take it to thee.
 Vacationem militiæ habere, to make a respite of warre.
 Bene habent tibi principia, thou haste a good begynnyng, thy begynnyng goeth wel forward.
 Habesit, of olde wryters vsed for Habeas.
 Habessus, a citee of Aicia.
 Habilis, le, fete, apte, hansom, nete, conuenient.
 Habilis ensis, an hansom sworde.
 Habilis locus pandendis retibus, a fete place to lay or spreade their nettes in.
 Habilis frumentis terra, a grounde or soyle
 apte to beate corne.
 Habile tundendo ferrum, yron meete to bee beaten and knocked with an hamer, as when it is well het in the forge.
 Habilior, the comparatiue, moze able or meete.
 Habilitas, âtis, f. g. ablenesse, fitnesse, aptenesse, hansomenesse.
 Habitabilis, le, that may be inhabited.
 Habitaculum, li, n. g. and Habitatio, onis, f. g.
 a dwelling place or habitation.
 Habitior, ôris, moze corpozate, in better plyghte or lyghng, moze full of fleshe, rounder, moze plumme.
 Est paulo habitior, he is somewhat fat, rounde or in good lyghng.
 Habitatio, onis, f. g. habitation, dwelling.
 Habitator, ôris, m. g. a dweller and byder in a place, an inhabitant.
 Habito, aui, are, to dwell.
 Grauius increpuit tanti censorem habitare,
 He blamed Marpely, that a censure shoulde dwell in so costly an house, or in an house of so great rent.
 Tringinta aureis dixisti eum habitare, You said that the house, wherein he dwelleth, coste xxx.

Hac voluit: of that he pnteth: xxx. crownes for his house rent.
Bene habitare, to dwell in a commodious place.
Habitare laxè & magnifice, to dwell in a sumptuous and great house.
Qui in foro habitant, whiche doo none other thing, but continually pleade matters in the common place.
Tecum habita, dwell at home, lyue at thyne owne coste or charge.
Habitare ad occasum, to dwell toward the westward.
Quorum in vultu habitant oculi mei, whose countenances I doo continually beholde.
Habitu, habitus, f. g. the state, plight, or lykynge of a body.
Habitu corporis, the plight or lykynge of the body.
Gracilis habitu, the slender state of the body.
Tenuis habitu, spare or leane state.
Que habitu est corporis, how rounde or fatte, or in howe good state of lykynge is my body.
Habitus, us, m. g. the fourth of state or disposition of the body: sometyme of other thynges, also apparayle, the facion of countenance of a man.
Lugubri habitu venerat, he came arrayed in mourning apparayle: Also it signifieth a proppete of qualitee, which a man hath conceyved by education, longe exercise of custome.
Habitus loci, the situation of a place.
Habitus verborum, the garnysshing of wordes.
Habitu aliquo se augustiorem facere, to make hym selfe more honourable with some kynde of apparayle or ornamente.
Permutare habitum cum aliquo, to chaunge apparell with one.
Residere in malum habitum, to fall or turne to an ill state of disposition of the body.
Habitus, a, um, had, compted.
Habita est semper eius soror, she was alwayes taken to be his sister.
Ut patrem tuum vidi esse habitum, As farre as I coulde perceyue by the facion of your father.
Habitus est tibi hic honor, Thou haste this rewarde or promotion geuen thee.
Duro imperio habitus, ouer roughly or cruelly handled.
Habitus magnæ autoritatis, greatly esteemed, or in great reputation.
Habraham, is interpreted father of many diuers people.
Hac, hæther: sometyme by this place, this way.
Ira nunc hac, an illaceam, sum incerta consilij, Now whether I may goe this way or that way, I am vncertaine.
Hac non alia successit aggrediamur via, this way it cometh not to passe, leat vs nowe assaye an other facion.

Hac iter est, my journey lieth this way.
Hactenus, hæthero, so much, to this time.
Sed hæc hæctenus, but this much haue we spokent of the matters.
Hadraminani, people of Sicilie.
Hadria, a, f. g. a cite of Italy on the sea syde, by the whiche the sea betwene Italy and Sclauonie, was named Mare Hadriaticum.
Hadria, a, m. g. a bosome or goulfe of the sea, of the sea it selfe, called Hadriaticum.
Hadrianopolis, a cite of Thracia.
Hadrianus, a noble empereur, in all sciences excellently learned, he was after Christes incarnation 119. yeres, and reigned xxi. yeres.
Hadrobolum, li, n. g. a kynde of sweete smelling gumme that groweth in Arabia.
Hæbudes, are fine yles beyonde Scotlande. ii. dates saylyng.
Hædera, loke Hedera.
Hæderatius, a, um, loke Hederatius.
Hædile, or Hædile, lis, neu. g. a stable, wherein kiddes be kepte.
Hædillus, li, m. g. a littell kiddle.
Hædinus, a, um, of a kiddle.
Hædina caro, kiddes fleshe.
Hædui, people of Fraunce, which be now called Burgonions, and Burbonoises.
Hædulus, li, m. g. a littell kiddle.
Hædus, or Hædus, i, m. g. a kiddle.
Hædi, be also certayne sterres.
Hæluola, a kynde of excellent grapes, of colour betwene purple and blacke.
Hæmogogon, the Pionie.
Hæmacates, a stone of a bloudy colour.
Hæmantinum vitrum, a kynde of glasse.
Hæmatites, a, m. gen. the sanguinarie or bloud stone, whiche beyng rubbed, will bleede.
Hæmodes, an hyll of Lycia.
Hæmon, a Thebane.
Hæmonia, the countrey called Thebes.
Hæmorrhagia, a discaise muche lyke the Emorroides, but somewhat differynge from it.
Hæmorrhoia, a, f. m. gen. idem quod Hæmorrhais.
Hæmorrhois, roidis, f. m. gen. a discaise in the fundement, like teates or wartes, oute of the whiche issueth bloud called Emorroides or ppyles. also a serpente, of whom if a man be stricken he bleedeth to death.
Hæmus, loke Aemus.
Hæba, loke Herba.
Hæbaceus, a, um, loke Herbaceus.
Hæbarius, loke Herbarius.
Hæbesco, scere, loke Herbesco.
Hærbidus, a, um, & Hærbosus, a, um, loke Herbidus, & Herbosus.
Hærediolum, dioli, neut. gen. a diminutiue of Hæredium.
Hæredipera, dipetæ, m. g. a trauer of gooddes, flatterynge men to be their heye.
Hæreditarius, a, um, perteynyng to inheritance.

or that cometh by inheritance. Bona hereditaria, gooddes which doo come by inheritance. Hereditarium nomen, comynge by succession. Hereditas, atis, fem. gen. inheritance or succession. Hereditus caduca, lande fallen by exchequer to the lord, of whome it is holden. Hereditatem adire, to take possession of his inheritance. Hereditatem auertere, auferre, eripere, detorque, To get ones inheritance wrongfully from him. Hereditum, dij. n. ge. lande wherein a man hath a state of inheritance, or rather a littell ferme, manour, or piece of groundes. Harreo, si, ere, to cleape or stiche to a thing. Somus tyme to doubt, to stoppe or bee at a stay, to sticke in the byers, whā one can not dispatche of rydde hym selfe of a busynesse. Harret in te omnis culpa, All the blame is put in thee: or all the blame is laide on thy necke; or resteth in thee. Perij, lingua harret metu, Als that rure I was bozne, my tongue is tyed; or I can not speake for feare. likewise Vox faucibus harret. In complexu alicuius harere, to haunge vpon one imbarryng him. Harere in equo, to sit on the horsebacke. Pugnus in mala harreat, Let thy fyfte fyght on his cheke, or geue him a boxe on the eare. Harrens in terga Romanus, The Romayne souldiours pursuyng theyn harde at theyr backs. Sed illud nobis harreat, But let vs haue this alway in mynde. Peccatum harret in eo, the faute or blame resteth in him. Harret, to Pompeio, he cleaueth to Gneius Pompeius parte. Harret in salebra oratio, by translation whan one stoppeth and can go no further. Harere apud meretricem, to loue an harlotte so inordinately, that he can not bee out of his company. Vt haream in aliqua parte apud illam, That I may bee an hanger on in one parte or other with hir. Harebat nebulo, The knaue was in doubte, and could not tell what to say. Harret hęc res, this mattier is in a perplexitee, or stycketh in the byers. Hares, edis, com. gen. an heppe, or he that succeedeth one in his landes or gooddes. Harredem scribere, to make one heppe by testament. Harredes secundi, heppes in remainder. Harredem instituire ex deunce, to make one heppe of a leuen partes of his gooddes. Haresco, scere, to stycke faste, or be thyust in. Harresarches, an arche heretike,

Har'etis, is, f. ge. a sect, an heresy, a sympton non either in good or ill. Hareticus, ci, m. g. an heretike. Haritatio, onis, f. g. doubt. Haritancia, a, f. g. idem. Haritancia lingua, Rustica. Haritator, onis, m. g. he that doubteth or wavereth not what to dooe. Har'ito, aui, are, to stycke in, to doubt, to sticke, to stagger. Haritare lingua, toammer or stut. Haritare inter laticia & metū, to waver, or to be in a wammeryng betwene gladnesse & feare. Haritare & cunctari. In eodem ludo haritas, prouerbiaily, thou art in the same daungier that I am, or thou arte as muche troubled or wrappd in the byers as I am. In eo maxime haritabat, he sticke moste in this poynte. Hagiographa, holy scripture. Hagiographus, a wyter of holy scripture. Hagios, holy. Hagnos, pure, cleane. Halacōmene, or Halalcomene, a towne of Beroia. Halcyon græce, and (as Varro saith) Halcedo latine, the daughter of Strepheus, and wyfe of Lays, whome she beholding to be drowned, for sorowe drowned hir selfe. wherfore the pperes wyte, that they were bothe transfourmed into byrdes, and called Halcyones, reade bes fore in Alcyones, vnder the description of these byrdes. Plin. lib. 10. cap. 32. Halcyoneum, ci, a certayne medicine, whiche is made of the nestes of the byrdes Halcyones. Halcyoneus, a, um, of Halcyon. Halcyonei dies, looke Alcyon. Halec, halēcis, ne. & f. ge. a fythe called an heryng. also a sauce made of fythe. Halēcula, a, f. ge. a littell hearyng, a pitcherbe. Hales achne, the herbe called Spuma salis. Halesina, a citee of Sicilie. Halesina regio, a countrey, wherein is a well, the water wherof beyng alwayes quiet and playne, yf one standyng by it dooe playe on a shalme, or other lyke pype, the water in the well wyll ryse as it daunced, in so muche that at the laste it wyll mounte and renne ouer the byrmyne of the well: and the pype crassyng, the water wyll sooth with fall and become quiete. Halesus, a ryuer and hill not farre from Aetna. Halia, a nymphe of the sea. Haliacmon, a riuer of Macedonie. Haliaetus, a kynde of egles that hauntrth aboute the sea. It is taken of som for a faulcon, of some for a gossehaue: but I take it to be rather that wee call an Osprey, whiche byrde, when he hovereth ouer a fische poole, all the fythe turneth vpon their belies: and he taketh his praye: and therfore is verie hurtfull to fische pooles.

Halica, looke Alica.
Halicacabus, an herbe called of the apothecaries
Alkekengi, the french name is Coqueret.
Halicallios, called also Dorion strichois, and erichros, an herbe holleome agaynst all diseases of the bodie, as Penocrates affirmed.
Halicastrum, m, new ge. a kynde of leede, reade
Col. lib. 2. cap. 6.
Halicarnassus, a ciue of Licia, whiche was some tyme chiefe of all the countrey.
Halicuricalorum, ne. g. booke conteynyng the properties of fyres.
Halimon, m, new ge. a thorne lyke to a white thorne, growynge by the sea syde, and hath leas lyke to olpnetee, but they be bydder. o ther describe it thus, to bee a Myrte, apte to hedge with, somewhat lyke to the Myrte, cal led Rhamnus, without picles, hauynge a hard leafe, but somewhat broader, and groweth in hed ges and places nere the sea. of this herbe spea keth Diosco. lib. 1. Theophrastus, lib. 4. & 5.
de causis. Paulus lib. 1.
Halipleumon, a fyre of the sea.
Halimon, n, oyle of Almons.
Haliphlos, a tree, hauynge so bitter fruite, that no beast but swine will touche it.
Halipleumon, a certayne fyre.
Halito, aui, are, to vapour out, to sende out a breathe.
Halitosa, those thynges, whiche may be avoyded
by the poyses.
Halitus, us, m. g. breath or vapour.
Efflare extremum halitum, to die, to geue the last gaulpe.
Noxius terræ halitus, an unholsome vapour that ryseth out of the earth.
Halius, liados, f. m. gene. a certayne small ship or bote.
Halizones, people of Baphlagonie, so called bec cause they are inuironed about with the sea.
Hallucinator, aris, ari, to be in a dreame, to be des ceyued, to erre, or to take a mattier wronge, to take one thyng for an other. looke Allucinator.
Hallus, li, m. g. or Hallux, uis, m. g. the great toe, which lieth ouer the next toe.
Halmades, be oliue bearies, condite in byrne, as Quellius affirmeth, who saith, that Colym brades, be they, whiche dooe swymme in theyr owne oyle, all be it, (as he saith) men doo cons founde the one name with the other.
Halmias, the herbe Polygonon.
Halmyris, a kynde of colewooytes, crispe and des licat to eatz.
Halo, aui, are, to sende forth sauour, to breathe.
Halo, onis, f. m. ge. a myte, whiche sometye happeneth to bee aboute the moone, in maner of a rounde circle.
Halonesos, an yle in the sea Begeum, nere to Charia.
Halophanta, or Holophanta, x, m. g. a greate lyar.

Halosis, sis, f. g. captiuitie.
Halter, eris, or Haltère, eris, a plummett or weight of leade, whiche dauncers on cordes doo holde in theyr handes.
Halus, li, f. m. gener. an herbe called of some Coronea.
Halcarnasus, looke Halicarnassus.
Halyetis, looke Halyærus.
Halys, a great ryuer of Baphlagonia.
Hama, x, f. m. g. a great hooke vled in ciities to pull downe houses in daungier of fyre.
Hamadryades, nymphes or fayries of the wooddes.
Hamatilis, le, perteynyng to an hooke.
Piscatus hamatilis, fyshyng with an hooke, or anglyng.
Hamatus, a, um, to bee furnished with hookes.
Hamata munera, giftes or presentes that bee
geuen for aduantage.
Hamaxa, x, f. g. a planette called the. vii. sterres.
Hamaxampeus, parte of the riuer Hypanis.
Hamaxobij, a people of Sarmatia, so called for their harde and bygged lyfe.
Hamilcar, looke Amilcar.
Hamiota, x, m. g. an angler, or a fysher with an angle or hooke.
Hamites, tis, ma. gene. a precious stone lyke the spaune of a fyre.
Hammon, onis, m. g. Jupiter in the Egyptian tongue.
Hammonis cornu, a precious stone, of colour
lyke golde, much esteemed in Aethiope.
Hammoniacum, and Hammonitrum, looke Ammoniacum.
Hamo, aui, are, to trooke.
Hamonium, nij, mascu. gener. a darke ruddy colour.
Hamotrahones, fyshers, or they that dye the bodies of dead men with hookes.
Hamulus, li, m. g. a lyttell hooke. also a crooked instrument that surgions vse.
Hamus, i, m. gene. a hooke. sometime a chayne.
also a thyng made of yron, that ryche men see a boute theyr coffers. It is also an yron combe, wherwith they kemb flaxe or hempe.
❖ Semper tibi pendear hamus, lette thy hooke hange alwaies, thou maist happe to haue some what: hope still, for in space cometh grace.
Hanapis, a ryuer of Serthia.
Hannibal, the sonne of Hamilcar, the moste noble and valiant capitayne of the Carthaginenses, who makynge warre with the Romanes. xvi. yez
res, contended with them in prowesse and polis rie, wyppynge from them theyr dominions in Spainne and Italy. Finally, beyng vanquis Med by Scipio, he fled to Antiochus kynge of Asia, afterwarde to Prusias kynge of Bithynia, of whome vnder the colour of amitee, he was betrayed, and woulde haue bene deliuered to Flaminius, that tyme ambassadoure to Pru
sias. But Hanniball percepyng it, choosynge rather

rather to die, than to come into the hands of the Romayns, toke popson, whiche he kepte for that purpose, sayng, let vs deliuer the Romaynes from the care and feare, whiche they haue of vs, with a fewe mo wordes of indignacion, and so died, befoze he mought bee deliuered, some write this name without H.

Hanno, a noble man of Carthage, which persuaded them to make peace with the Romaynes, but he could not be heard.

Hanum, or Hanus barbatus, a vessel with a greete bealy, wherein wine or water was wont to be brought to the table.

Haphe, es, fem. gen. a colour on the body, lyke to them that be leprous. also the castynge of dust on the wrestlars, after they were annoynted with the sweete oyle. Also the ioyngng of wrestlars whan they meete together. Pollux taketh it for the firste dyngge of any thyng.

Hapsus, si. ma. g. an handfull of woulle, or other lyke thyng.

Hara, a, f. g. a swynes sty or cote. Also a place made for geese to sitte abyode in.

Harena, vide ante in Arena.

Hariolatio, onis, f. g. a soothesaying.

Hariolor, aris, ari, to diuine, gesse, or tell thynges befoze.

Hariolus, li, m. g. a soothsayer.

Harma, a village in Boeotia unfrequented, called of them a carie or chariotte, looke the proverbe, Vbi per Harma fulgurauit.

Harmala, of some is taken for the seede of rue.

Harmodius, and Aristogiton, two noble citizens of Athens.

Harmodorus, a poete.

Harmonia, a, f. g. harmony or melody.

Harmonicus, a, um, perteynyng to harmony or melody.

Harmonides, a Troiane carpenter, whiche made the shippes that brought Paris into Grece.

Harmosini, certayne maiestates in Sparta, whiche chastised the frowardenesse of women towards their husbands.

Harpaction, a kynde of bymstone.

Harpagium, the towne, where (as the Grekes sayne) Ganimedes was taken away.

Harpago, aui, are, to take by violence.

Harpago, onis, m. g. a grapple of a shippe. also a coupers instrument, wherewith he dyueth on houes, an addise. also a hooke or instrument, wherewith they take by thynges fallen into welles or ryuers, a drage.

Harpalice, a womans name, the daughter of Harpalus, kynge of Thrace, and queene of Amazones.

Harpalus, a traytour, whiche forsooke Alexander, and fledde to Athens.

Harpasa, a towne of Asia.

Harpastum, i, n. g. a facion of greete balles lyke to a foote balle.

Harpax, acis, m. g. a graplyng yron for to claspe shippes together. Also a polle with an hooke on the ende, that shippemen vse.

Harpax, agis, ma. ge. idem quod Verticillum, a wherue.

Harpe, es, f. g. a swerde lyke to a sythe, suche one as the poetes sayne Mercurie to custe of Argus heade with all, and Perseus the heade of Medusa.

Harpocrates, the god of silence.

Harpocratem reddere, to put one to silence.

Harpocratis meminisse, to kepe silence.

Harpyia, monstrous birdes, haupnge maidens visages, and talons of a maruailous capacitee, wherfoze menne that bee rauinous and great gatherers of gooddes, bee named sometyme Harpyia.

Haruga, a strife.

Haruspex, icis, ma. g. a diuinatour, or teller of thynges to come, by lookyng in beastes bowelles. Also he that obserueth tymes in doyng of thynges.

Haruspica, a, the feminine of Haruspex.

Haruspicina, a, f. g. the arte of him that is a diuinatour.

Haruspicius, a, um, perteynyng to diuination.

Haruspicium, ij, n. ge. the diuination or telling of thynges to come by lookyng in beastes bowelles.

Hasdrubal, a noble capitayne of Carthage.

Haspis, idis, the bowyng made lyke a circle in the roofes of houses, or of a wheele.

Hasta, a, f. g. a speare: sometyme it is taken for open sale of gooddes, because a speare was pitched where suche sale was made.

Hastam abicere, signifieth to leaue suite, to dispayre of the matter in variaunce, to mistrust his matter and geue ouer.

Hastæ puræ, were withoute yron, and in the olde time were geuen for a pryce to them that vanquished first in battayle.

Subire sub hasta, to be solde.

Hastarium, ij, sellynge vnder the standerde.

Hastatus, a, um, that bleth or beareth a speare.

Hastati milites, speare men in the fore fronte of the battayle.

Hasticus ludus, rennyng at the tilte with speares.

Hastile, lis, n. g. a speare staffe.

Hastula, a, f. g. a littell speare, a sauelyn.

Hastula regia, an herbe called also Asphodelus, and Albucus, loke there.

Hau, an interiection of the mynde beyng troubled.

Haud, in no wyse.

Haud ab re, not without a cause.

Ei haud comodi est, it profiteth him nothyng.

Haud consuetudine hoc facis, you were not wont to doo this.

Haud dubie, without doubte.

Haud dudum, not longe sene.

Haud ferme inuenias, a man can scantly fynde.

Haud ita decet, it is not seemely.

Haud mora, immediately, without delaye,

for: the forthwith.

Haud immerito, not without a cause.

Haud perinde, not so muche.

Haud stulte sapias, ye are no small foole.

Haud procul absuit, it lacked but littell.

Haud secus, none otherwyse.

Haud quaque, no, not.

Haud inuito, willyngly.

Haud nihil, some thyng.

Haurio, si, iui, ri, riri, to drawe or take out, to here, to see, to take a thyng greedily, to wounde, to fatigue or make werte, to make empty, to consume, to endure or suffer, to drynke, to swallow, to lette out, as in woundyng to make one bleed.

Hausit cœlum, he began to take breath.

Hausit corda pauor, feare made theyr courages sapnte.

Hausi dolorem acerbissimum, I tooke or consueued very great heuynesse.

Haurire supplicia, to suffer punishment or paynes.

Haurire artes, to learne good sciences.

Calamitatem haurire, to endure or suffer miserie and trouble.

Haurire cibos, to eat and swallowe downe meate greedily.

Flamma aut incendium multos hausit, The fyre consumed and deuoured many.

Auribus gaudium haurire, to heare glad and ioyfull tydynges.

Larus alicuius haurire, to geue one a greate wounde in his syde.

Laudes haurire, to gette or wyne prayse.

Haurire lucem, to be bozne.

Poculum haurire, to drynke vp.

Vt solidos hauriant tauros, That they coulde swallowe downe whole bulles.

Hauritorium, ij, neu. gen. a whele of a well, or a bucket, or any thyng, whereby water is drawen out of a welle.

Haustrum, i, n. gen. a whele of a well to drawe water with.

Haustrum, us, mas. gen. a draught in drynkyng, a suppyng, a drawyng vp of water.

Haustrum facere, to drynke.

Exiguus haustibus bibere, to drynke a littell at ones.

Haustrum, a, um, drawen, taken oute, swallowed, drowned, supped, or drunke vp.

Haustrum mari naues, Myppes sunken or drowned in the sea.

H A N T E E.

HEana, na, form. g. a foundation. also basylas of a Myppe.

Heautontimorumenos, the name of one of the comedies of Terence, which is as muche to say, as tourmentyng hym selfe.

Hebdomas, domatis, or Hebdomada, x, f. ge.

a weeke. also the noumbe of seven in dayes, yerres, or other tyme.

Hebe, hebes, the daughter of Juno, who was butlar to Jupiter before the rapturing of Ganymedes, and she was called of the Panims the goddess of youthe.

Hebenotrichon, the herbe called Capillus ueneris.

Hebenus, i, for. gen. or Hebenum, i, neu. gen. a tree, wherof the woodde is blacke as geate within, and it beareth neyther leaues nor fruite, like Ebenus.

Hebeo, ui, ere, to bee dull.

Hebes, hebetis, om. gen. slowe, dulle.

Hebetiores aures, eares somewhat dulle of hearpyng. Aphewyle Oculi hebetes.

Hebes ac rudis.

Hebetem reddere aliquem, to make one slow, heauy, or dull to dooe any thyng.

Gustu hebes, that is not quicke in taste.

Hebes atque pecus, as dull as a beast.

Dolor hebes, that greneth not soze.

Hebesco, scere, to waxe more dull or slowe.

Hebescitacies autoritatis, his authorites desceyeth for lacke of vse.

Hebetatio, onis, f. g. a dullyng.

Oculorum hebetatio, the dulnes of the syght.

Hebetatrix, tris, form. gen. that maketh duske or dull.

Hebetesco, seu Hebetasco, scere, belongeth properly to the eyes, to bee dulle in syght. also as the edge of a knife is dull.

Hebero, aui, are, to make dull or blunte. Some tyme for Hebeo, to bee dull or sapnte, as the stomake whan it is diseased.

Heberudo, tudinis, f. g. dulnesse or duskyynes.

Hebiones, of men in olde tyme were called pooze folkes.

Hebraei, Jewes which came of Abraham.

Hebraicus, a, um, an hebrician, or of hebrue.

Hebron, a village by Hierusalem.

Hebrus, a ryuer in Thrace, into the whiche Orpheus headde was caste: It is now called Mariza.

Hecale, the name of a very pooze woman.

Hecamede, the daughter of Hesiod, whiche was geuen to Nestor for a gifte.

Hecate, a name of Diana, Juno, or Proserpina.

It is also the name of the daughter of Perles, a woman of notable cruelnesse, whiche paysoned hir owne father. An other Hecate, was daughter to Perseus and Andria.

Hecatombe, bes, for. g. a sacrifice, wherein were kyled an hundred beastes.

Hecatompiros, the chiefe citee of Parthia, which had an hundred gates.

Hecatompolis, lis, for. gen. a countrey haupnge an hundred citees therein.

Hecatompus, pi, ma. gen. he that hath an hundred feete.

Hecaton, an hundred.

Hecate

Hecatonchiros, ri, m. gen. he that hath an hundred handes.
Hecatonarchus, tarchi, masc. gene. a capitayne of an hundred men, a centurion, or petie capitayne.
Hecata, a, fecm. gene. the verynge of a man, also a littell paffe, which ryleth in bread, whan it is bake. Sometyme it signifieth a trifle, a thyng of no value.
Hic homo hecæ me facit, This man setteth nothyng by me, or esteemeth me nothyng.
Hectice, es, or Hectica, a, f. gen. the feuer that consumeth.
Hector, oris, the sonne of Priamus, the moste noble and valiant of all the Troians.
Hecuba, the wyfe of Priamus kynge of Troie, daughter of Lysseus kynge of Chrycia, a woman of noble courage, and moste unhappye fortune. For hange all hir sonnes and husband slayne, hyr fayre daughter Polyxena killed bypon the graue of Achilles, hir other daughter Cassandra taken prisoner, beholding the noble citee of Troie bourned, hir selfe in captiuitie, hir youngest sonne Polydorus killed: the final lie waxed madde, and did byte and strike al men that he mette, wherfore he was called dogge, and at the last was hir selfe killed with stones by the Grekes.
Hecubæ sepulchrum, a promontory of Chyace.
Hecyra, a mother in lawe, and the name of a comedie in Terence.
Hedera, a, f. g. pyre.
Hederaceus, a, um, of or belongyng to pyre.
Hederalis herba, the herbe pyre.
Hederiger, a, rum, that beareth pyre.
Hederosus, a, um, full of pyre.
Hedichum, cri, n. gen. a perfume or sweete oyle, which maketh one to haue a pleasaunt and faire colour.
Hediosinum, a minte.
Hediosmos, mi, m. g. an herbe called a mynte, or speremint.
Hedonius, expence in voluptuous thynges.
Hedra, a seate, vnde cathedra.
Hedui, people in Fraunce, now called Burgonions, looke Hædui.
Hedypnois, in Plinie seemeth to be dentidelyon, or priestcrowne.
Hedysmata, um, n. g. sweete sauces.
Hegesias, a philosopher of the secte called Cirenaica, who with his eloquence did so vehementlye sette forth the incommodities of mans lyfe, that many, whiche hearde hym, killed them selves.
Hegesipile, the daughter of Olorus, kynge of Chyace.
Hegesippus, a storie wyter.
Hegestratus, one of Ephesus.
Hegerinatia, a citee of Germany called Enitz.
Heheu, an interiection of sorow.
Hei, and interiection of sorowynge or waylynge.

Sometyme of exhortyng.
Hei mihi, alas for me that euer I was borne.
Heliulo, aui, are, to wayle cryng out.
Helbunon, nij, neut. gene. idem quod Dictas muti.
Helciaricus, ij, m. gen. a mypman that draweth thynges of great weyght into a myppe with ropes, or one that draweth the myppe to the moze, or from the moze.
Heliolum, ij, neut. gen. the harneys of earthpyles, wherby they draw.
Helysma, atis, n. g. the refuse or scumme of sylet after it is tried out.
Helei, a famous people of Deloponnesus, whiche had the rule of the plaies called Olympici.
Helenæ, a, or Helene, es (the daughter of Iupiter and Leda, wyfe of Menelaus kynge of Laconie) for hir wonderfull beautee, was twyle rauyned. First at the age of nyne yerres by Theseus: afterward by Paris the Troiane, than beyng wyfe vnto Menelaus, whiche was the onely occasion of the tenne yerres spege, and synall destruction of the most famous citee of Troy, with the deathe and losse of moste noble prynces, and of people innumerable. looke moze in Troia.
Helenium, nij ne. ge. an herbe commonly called Enula campana, in englyshe Helycampane.
Helenus, a Troiane.
Heliades, the daughters and the sonne of Nexara, that is to saye Phaetusa, Lampetia, and Lampetusa, whiche lamented so much the deathe of theyr brother Phaeton, that therewith they died, and were transfourmed (as poetes fygne) into trees, out of the whiche renneth the gumme called Electrum, in Englyshe ambre, wherof beades be made.
Helias, the prophete of Chelbis of the countrey of Arabia, a leuite of the trybe of Aaron. He dwelt in Giliad: for Chelbis was an habitacis on dedicated vnto priestes: in the tyme of hys byrthe, his father Sobac dyd see in a vision, that men apparayled in white dyd cal the childe, theywe him into the fyre, and gaue to hym a flame of fyre to cate. The father rylngge bywente to Hierusalem, and shewed his vision to the priestes: and he that gaue aunswere, sayed vnto hym: beware thou disclose it not. The habytacion of this childe shall bee lyght, and hys worde a demonstracion, and shall iudge Israell in the sword and fyre. This is that Elias, that brought fyre thysse out of heuen, and bare rayne in his tongue, and was taken by into heauen in a fyre stowe. That whiche is wyrtten moze of Elias in the Byble, maye bee there redde.
Helice, a citee of Achaia, swallowed vpp of the sea.
Helicon, a mountayne in Beotia, dedicate to the muses.
Helictæres, and Helicæ, rynges and hoopes, that men menne and woomen bled to hange at thyr eares.

Heliocaminus, ini, m. g. a collar sette in a sunne place, where the heate of the sunne may be receyued, which was used in the olde tyme.

Heliocopis, the name of a nymphe.

Heliocoryos, an herbe, haupng an pelowe floure: a marygolde, or rather that herbe, whiche is called Chrysanthemum.

Heliolorus, a famous Rhetorician of the Grekes.

Heliogabalus, supposed to bee the bastarde sonne of Antonius Caracalla, Emperour of Rome, and (as Lampridius wyrteth in his lyfe) of Semiamitra: or as Egnatius wyrteth, of Scenides, his tosen: he was made Emperoure after Macrinus, and Diadumenus, beyng but a boye of xvi. yeres olde. He so muche excreased in detestable lechery and promorynge of vile persones, and rybaldes: that finally he was hated of all men, and at laste slayne and drawen through the citee of Rome, and throwen into the rypure of Tiber. All be it he was warned as soze of astronomers, that he should die a violent death: and therfore had prouided ropes of sylke (yf neede were) to hange hym selfe, twoordes of golde to hylle him selfe, stronge popsons in Jacinthes and Emerauldes to popson hym selfe, yf he were enforced. Moze ouer he made a brayghy towre, haupnge the fidoze of boordes heuured with plaotes of golde, and bozdered with pzyous stones, from the which, he would throw hym selfe downe, whan he were poursewed. But all this nothynge auayled, for he was slayne by knaues. Moze of hym maye you reade in the lyfe of Alexander Seuerus, whiche I dyd translate into Englyshe, and called it the ymage of gouernance.

Heliophyton, ti, n. g. the herbe smilar.

Heliopos, pi, mascu. gene. the herbe Helitropium magnum.

Helosacte, es, f. g. idem quod ebulus.

Heliopolis, a citee in Grecia, called also Corinthus. An other in Egypte, an other in Sicilie, where Chrysippus was bozne.

Heliocopium, a littell tree lyke a fygge tree, with leaues lyke a plane, but greater and blacker.

After Plinie it is a kynde of spurge, haupnge leaues lyke pourcelane, wherin culuers greatlye deelyte.

Heliocelinum, ni, n. g. an herbe like to smallage, whiche groweth in watrye groundes, and hath but one leafe. Plin. li. 19. cap. 8. but some thinke it to be smallage it selfe.

Heliotropium, called also Herba solaris, because the flower of it eueryth away with the sunne, bothe at his risynge and goynge downe: yea although the day be cloudye. Plin. and War.

Helis, looke Ehs.

Helislaus, the prophete of Belmuth, of the lande of Rubim: whan he was bozne in Galgalis, the come of golde in Belom cried so loude, that he was hearde at Hierusalem. And the priest sayed, that it signified, that a prophete was bozne that daye, whiche should disolue and bryake in pices, ymages heuured and cast of mettall. Many myracles almighty god wroght by hym, whiche ye may reade in the Bible.

Helius, a mans name, also the sonne.

Helius, a certayne kynde of the osall or flower of brasse, when it is molten. Diosc.

Helix, icis, f. ge. of some is taken for a kynde of wylowe tree, of some for Iule.

Helianodices, ca. m. g. the iudge in any game or contention.

Hellas, adis, a ryuer and countrey of Acaia: Grece was so called of Hellen, Deucalions sonne.

Helle, the daughter of Athamas kyng of Thebans whiche was drowned with hir brother Phryxus in the sea by Byzance.

Helleborosus, a, um, he that hath receiued or taken so much of the herbe called Helleborum.

Helleborum, i, n. ge. or Helleborus, i, m. gen. an herbe, the roote wherof pourgeth melancoly. looke in Elleborus.

Helleborus albus, nelyng powder.

Helleborus niger, sette woze.

Helleborum edere, is a proverbe spoken to men, whiche are very melancoly, or be wyde brayned.

Hellen, the son of Deucalion, of whome the Grekes were called Hellenes.

Hellespontus, is the fyrst parte of the sea, whiche diuideth Europa from Asia, and is in breadth but vii. furlonges, whiche lacketh one furlonge of a myle. It is now called Brachium sancti Georgij.

Helminthoborane, the herbe Abrotonon, good to kill woymes.

Helo, in hebryue signifieth god almyghty.

Helops, opis, mascu. gen, a certayne fywe, idem quod Accipenser.

Helorus, a ryuer in Sicilie. also the sonne of the ryuer Jster, slayne by Jlar.

Heluati, rauenous eaters.

Heluata, a, form, gen. a garment, whiche was used in Lydia, and was of the colour of a cowes hide.

Heluatio, onis, for. g. gourmandyng or ryotous eatyng.

Heluella, arum, f. g. small woortes or herbes.

Helucolus, looke Heluolus.

Heluetij, people called Switcers, or Sutches, by despye of warres, enemies to all mankynde, subiectes neyther to God nor to prynce, as resdie for money, to serue as well Turkes as chrystian princes.

Heluo, onis, m. gen. he that in eatyng and dryng kyng, spendeth all his substance, a reuelar. Sometyme a glutton only.

Heluo libroru, an insaciabie reader of bookes.

Heluo patrix, a vicious persone, that deuours

reth the common treasure, and bestroeth his countrey.

Heluor, âris, ari, to eate rauenously, to raue, to deuoure, to consume.

Gurges, atque heluo.

Heluolum vinum, claret wyne.

Heluus color, betweene red and white, lyke the colour of clothe, called frenche taup.

Heluolus, a, um, Adiectiuum, of that colour.

Heluola vix, grapes of that colour.

Helxine, xines, f. ge. an herbe called pelitopp of the wall. also the woode called withwynde.

Helymus, and Panopes, the companions of Hector hyng of Sicile.

Hem, an interiection of blamyng, of disdeignyng, meruaylyng, of Mewyng, exclamacion of crying to.

Hem serua, howe take heede.

Hem, for Ecce, as,

Hem libero, loe, I delpue thee.

Hem Daum tibi, Deponder is Dams.

Hem, is vled also in pityng, as Ihan Chrysis.

hem. Is Chrysis dead in dede? alas for pittie.

Also in aunswering: as,

Hem, quid est? howe what is the matter?

Hem Simo, Oh maister Simo.

Hem, in reioyng, and signifieth, heyday, or some such lyke thyng.

Hem asturias, Oh subtyll deupse, Ironice.

Hemeresios, that dureth but one day. also a table, whiche Pamphilus, Apelles maister, pernycted in one day.

Hemeridion, which dureth but one day.

Hemeris, a kynde of trees, which beareth make.

Hemerobius, one daies sustenance. Also a woyme of flie, which lyueth but one day.

Hemerocalles, liliu syluestre. Dios. li. 3.

Hemerodromus, i, m. gene. a courrou, whiche renneth many myles in one day.

Hemicadia, vesselles called a tierce, halfe an hogges head.

Hemichorium, rij, n. g. halfe a daunce.

Hemicraea, a, for. gen. a peine in halfe the heade called the migrim.

Hemicranicus, i, mascu. gene. he that hath the migrim.

Hemicyclus, i, masc. gene. a compasse chayre, or halfe a circle.

Hemidrachmum, m, neu. gene. idem quod Triobulum.

Hemina, hemina, f. g. a measure, which is halfe Sextarius, tenne ounces of measure, which lacketh two ounces of our halfe pinte, and conteyneth in weyght of oyle. ix. ounces, of wyne, ten ounces, and of hony. xv. ounces.

Hemina, idem quod Cotyla. loke there.

Heminarius, a, um, that is of the measure called Hemina.

Hemipléxia, idem quod Paralipsis, pause in halfe the body.

Hemineron, a kynde of saulte fyre, called also Peltes, & saperda Coracinus.

Hemionos, Mandragora magice.

Hemiola, la, f. g. gayne of al and halfe as much, as if of. iii. s. begotten. vi. s.

Hemiolus, li, m. g. a propozicion in arithmetike, conteynynge the whole numbze and halfe that numbze, as. iii. to. i. xv. to. x.

Hemionium, ij, n. ge. of Hemionitus, nitidos, for. gen. the herbe whiche is commonly called Partes tunge, as Leoniceus supposeth. it is good agaynst all yeres.

Hemis, halfe.

Hemiphérium, ij, n. g. halfe the compasse of the visibie heauen or firmament, halfe a circle.

Hemistichium, ij, n. ge. halfe a verse.

Hemitogium, gij, n. gen. halfe a gowne.

Hemitritæus, an halfe tertian feuer, whose course is eury. xxi. houres, of whiche hath the course of a tertian.

Hemitarichon, a kynde of salte fishe.

Hemodes, certayne ples in the douches sea.

Hemorrhoids, loke Emorrhoids.

Hemus, a greete mountayne in Thrace, nyghe to the sea Propontis, whiche is fyve myles in hight.

Hendecasyllabus, a verse of. xi. syllables.

Hendiadys, loke Endiadys.

Henetia, was sometyme vled for Venetia.

Heniochi, loke Eniochi.

Hénula, a, f. g. a lyttell chapell.

Heo, an interiection, hoe in calling one.

Hepar, heparis, n. gen. latine dicitur lecur, the lyuer, also a certayne fyre.

Hepatarius, a, um, perteynyng to the lyuer.

Hepatica, an herbe called A puerwozte, trade after in Lichen.

Hepaticus, a, um, of the lyuer, or that is diseased in the lyuer.

Hepatitis, a precious stone of the figure of the lyuer.

Hepatitis, the herbe called Eupatorie.

Hephestites, a, m. g. a stone, whiche representeth ymagis, as a myrrour or glasse dooeth.

Hepiolus, li. m. g. a flie lyke a butterflye, whiche flieth at nyght into the leame of a candell.

Hepsema, must boyled to the thyrde parte.

Hepta, seuen.

Heptagonia, the name of a place.

Heptapachys, the measure of seuen cubites.

Heptraphillon, an herbe called tozmentill.

Heptaphones, a certayne haue, or rather a walyng place, or place of exercyse at Olympia. also that seuen voyces.

Heptapleuron, ri, n. g. an herbe called plaitain.

Heptapolis, lis, was sometime the name of Egypte, by reason of seuen citers that were fynde in it.

Heptaporus, a ryuer by Trope.

Heptapyllos, that hath seuen gates.

Heptemimeres, where a syllable naturally thorte is made longe in a verse, whiche dooeth happen in the beginning of the first foot.

Hepiēres, a galley heaving seven rowes of oars.

Hera, re, for, ge. the name of Juno. It is also the maistresse of a familie or household. It is also an herbe called Clarie.

Heraclea, a towne in the confines of Europe, an other in Italy, an other in Sicile, an other of Pontus, called now Naxio porius. It is also a citee of Lydia, wherof the touche stone is called Heracilius lapis.

Heracleon, or Heraclion, an herbe lyke to Organum, it groweth in watry places, and hath a flower lyke a Lily, and whan the flower is fallen, it hath an head lyke a poppe. It is also an other herbe growyng in places, haupnge a lites tell stalk, whiche exceedeth not foure syngers high, haupnge a redde flowre and leaues lyke Coriander. This herbe healeth all woundes, yf it be layde vnto them. Heracleon, is the stone Magnes.

Heracleo, a notable theefe or robber.

Heracleotici, a kynde of crabbe fysh.

Heracleon, a grammarian of Egypt, which wrote commentaries on Homer and other.

Heracleopolis, the name of thre citees, one in Egypte, an other not farre from Pelusium, the thyrde not farre from the mouth of Nilus.

Heracleotes, a, one of Heraclea.

Heracleoticus, a, Heracilius, a, um, of Heraclea.

Heracleotica nux, a walnute.

Heracilius lapis, the lode stone, and also the touch stone. It is vld prouerbiaily for one that hath a fyne witte, and an exacte iudgemente.

Heracleus, the name of diuers emperours.

Heracilia, a, f. g. a kynde of the water lily, called Nenuphar, haupng a whyte flower.

Heracides, the name of a philosopher of Pontus, a sophister of Aicia, a grammarian of Sicile, and of a famous painter of Macedonie.

Heracilius, a philosopher, whiche alwayes wepte whan he behelde the people, consideringe how busy they were to gather treasure, and how negligent in the well bypyngng vp of theyr chyldren. His warhes of a purpose were obscure and hard to be vnderstande. An other of that name was an excellent tennet.

Herba, a, form. gen. an herbe. also generally all thyng that groweth on the carthe, not beyng woodde. sometyne a weede. sometyne grasse. Proiectus in viridi herba, laied alonge in the greene grasse.

Herbam dare, aut porrigere, where a man yeldeth him, or confesseth him to be vanquished.

Seges in herba est, the cozne is bladed or new shot vp aboue the grounde.

Herba paralysis, the small dayly.

Ar herbaria, the knowlage of the symples.

Herbaceus, a, um, of herbes or grasse, that groweth or bypyngng vp lyke an herbe.

Herbare, to bypyng foot herbes.

Herbarius, and Herbaria, he or she that dooth gather herbes for phisicians. also he which knoweth the properties of herbes, and maketh medicines of them.

Herbarius, a, um, pertynyng to herbes.

Herbasco, or Herbesco, scere, to make herbes or weedes to grow, or ware into an herbe.

Herbidus, a, um, full of herbes or grasse.

Herbidus color, the colour of herbes, greene.

Herbifer, ra, um, that beareth or bypyngng for the herbes or grasse.

Herbigrada, a, form. gen. a maye that goeth on the grasse.

Herbilis, le, that belongeth to herbes, or that is fedde with herbes or grasse.

Herbilis anser, a grased goose.

Herbōsus, a, um, full of herbes or grasse.

Herbita, a citee of Sicile, called Sapnet Nicolaus.

Herbula, a, f. g. a littell herbe.

Herbulum, the herbe Erigeron.

Hercus, a, um, one of the surnames of Jupiter.

Hercinia, a great woodde in Germanie, the which is in byedth nyne daies iourney, and in lengthe forty daies iourney, as Cesar writeth. Pomponius Mela affirmeth it to be forty daies iourney in length.

Hercisceor, sceris, sci, or Ercisceor, sci, to make partition betwene coheppes, and to assigne to eche of them theyr porcion. Therof cometh Familia herciscunda, a title in the digestes of the lawe civile. looke Ercisceor.

Hercle, or Hercule, a woode vld to orzinate a sentence in maner of an othe, as god helpe me, truly, in saythe.

Mea quidem hercle certe in dubio vita est, Withoute doubte my lyfe is in daungier in dedde.

Herculanum, a towne of Campayne.

Herculanus, or Herculeus, a, um, of Hercules.

Herculanus morbus, the falling sykenesse.

Herculanus nodus, a certayne knotte harde to bee vndoon, wherby a subtyll question or apologismus may bee signified. Festus Pompeius writeth, that in olde time the custome was, that whan the new married byde wente to bedde, she shoulde bee gyfte with a woullen gyrdell, knitte with Hercules knot, whiche the housbande for good lucke shoulde vndoe in the bedde, that he myghte be fortunat in getting of chyldren. For Hercules is reported to haue 72. sonnes, and one daughter, as Aristotle writeth De natura animalium, lib. 7, cap. 6.

Herculeana pars, a, Herculeus quæstus, It was the custome of men in olde tyme, to auowe the tenth part of theyr goodes vnto Hercules, and that tenth part was called Herculeana pars.

Herculea, an herbe commonly called Millium for lis, of Dioscorides, Lithospermion.

Herculee, valiantly, mightily, strongly, lyke Hercules.

Herculeus, a Romaine, whiche fauoured the parte of Marius.

Hercules, seemeth to bee a generall name geuen to men excellen in strength, all other of their tyme. Cicero De natura deorum, wyrteth, that amongst auncient wyters were founde six Hercules. Varro affirmeth, there were thye and fortye. Finallye there is no notable mention made but of twoo, the one called Hercules Aegyptius or Libycus, whiche is supposed to bee Olyss, of whome is wrytten hereafter. The other (longe after hym) was sonne of Jupiter and Almena, called Alcides by his propre name. And for his incomparable strength and labours (taken for the common profite of mankynde) he was named also Hercules. All be it Verosus affirmeth Hercules to bee the sonne of Olyss, and kynge of Egypte, and was called Hercules Libycus, because he conquered Libya. Saynte Hierome on the tenth chapter of Genesis wyrteth, that this Hercules perfourmed the twelue notable labours, whiche poetes wryte of, and not Alcides, sonne of Almena. The fyrste labour (as Diodorus wryteth) was the sleaynge of a Lyon in the woodde Nemea, that farre exceeded all other Lyons in greatnesse, which moughte not be slayne with mettall, nor stone. wherfore he was constrained to slea him with his handes. The seconde labour was the kyllynge of Hydra the monster, in the fennes of Lerna, which had a hundred neckes with serpentine heades, And whan one was striken of, there did aspyse eftsoones two other heades. The thyrde labour was the takynge of the greates wyld boze of Erimanthus, whiche wasted the countrey of Arcadia, and all people drazde him. But finallye Hercules tooke him a lyue, and bearyng him on his shoulters, brought him vnto kynge Euristheus. The fourthe labour was the battayle whiche he had alone with the greates nombr of men called Centaurs, that were of great strength and swifte as hoxes. All theym he slew, whan they assaulted hym. The fyfth was the takynge of the greates harte in rennyng, whiche for his swiftenesse had his hornes gilted. The syxt was the destruction of the byrdes Strymphydes, whiche consumed the frutes and grappe of the countreys adioynynge. The seuente was the makynge cleane of the halle of Augeus, beyng full of dounge, the whiche Hercules perfourmed by wysedome, byngynge the ryuer Pygnio throughe out the halle. Whiche by the swyfte course of the streame in one day, caried away the dounge, without any reproche vnto Hercules. The eyght was the byngynge of a Bull from Creta into Grece, drazynge hym a longe the sea. The nynte was the takynge of Diomedes kynge of Thracia, and callynge him to his hoxes, who feedynge them with mannes fleshe, was hym self of them deuoured. And after Hercules breaking those wyld hoxes, and makynge them gentyll, brought them to Euristheus. The tenth labour was his voyage into Spayne, and sleaynge of Cerion and his sonnes, and takynge the greates kynne, whiche he gaue to a kynge in that countrey, who continually afterwarde, dyd petyly offer in sacrifice, to the honour of Hercules, one of the bulles, that came of those kynne. The eleuenth, was his goynge into hell, and fetchynge thens Theseus and Perithous, and byngynge with him in a chayne Cerberus, the dogge of hell, haupinge thre heades. The twelfth and last labour was the takynge of the golden appulles, out of the gardens Hesperides, and sleaynge the terrible dragon, whiche continually watchynge kepte those appulles whiche were called golden for the beautie of them. Some say they were Mepe, whose fleshe where of the colour of golde, and the dragon signifieth the diligence and strength of the Mepeherde, whiche kepte them. These were the twelue labours of Hercules, wherof grewe this prouerbe.

¶ Herculei labores, where the labours dooe seeme impossible to be atchieued.

¶ Herculis cothurnos, was vsed for a prouerbe, wherin a thyng of lyttle importaunce was set foorth with great eloquence or other thyng, solemne, more apte for a greater matter. as one woulde put Hercules hosen on a childes legges. Wherwith accorded the sayng of the wysse kynge Agelilaus, whan one commended to him a Rhetorician, which by his crafty eloquence made trifies and small thynges to seeme great. The king answered, That lowter deserueth no prayse, whiche putteth a great shoe on a very lyttel foote meanynge thereby, that the woordes woulde as well accorde with the matter, as the garmente with the persone. This is so common a vyce nowe a dayes amonge students of eloquence, that in wrytynge and speakynge, they seeme to prepare the hofe befoze they knowe the measure of the legge, wheron they wyl put it.

Hercules Gallus, as Lucianus wyrteth, was in the olde tyme in Fraunce, an Image made lyke an olde manne, with a balde headde, and vnkempte, his heare verie whyte, the chynne of his face ryuelled, and as it were bourned with the sonne, wearynge on him a Lyons chynne, and bearyng in his ryght hande a greates clabbe, in his left hande a bowe, a quier at his barke, drazynge after him a multitude of people, tyed by theyr eares, with a lyttell chayne wrought with aumbe and golde, but they were so easly tied, that laughynge and with good chere they wyllynge folowed, and as it seemed, woulde not be loused: and the other ende of the chayne was tied at Hercules tongue, who looked towarde them with a laughynge countenance. This ymage signified eloquence, whiche for the purtaunce thereof, resembled rather Hercules than Mercurie. And his age betokened, that for the moste parte eloquence is substanciall and vehemente. That Hercules, or rather eloquence draweth draweth men by the enticed to his tongue; signifieth the affinitie betwene the tongue and the eare: and they glad and voluntary folowinge, signifieth with what delectacion flo-quens draweth men unto his persuasions and exhortations.

Herculis genitura, the herbe called myrtus sylvestris.

Herculis sanguis, id est, crocus.

Herculis farina, id est, irion.

Herculis portus, a citee of the Gallians, called now Villa Franca.

Herculis turris, a citee of Cyrene called Ziuayra.

Herculeus, a, um, puissant of might.

Herculeus morbus, the falling sickness.

Hereynia, toke Hercinia.

Here, for heri, yesterday.

Herebus, the deepest place in Helle. Look on Erebus.

Heri, yesterday.

Hericius, a, m. g. an pyhen or hedgehogge.

Herilis, le, pertaining to the loade of marke.

Herilis filius, for Filius heri.

Herifuga, a, ma, g. one that renneth away from his marke.

Herillus, a philosopher of Calcidonie, the scholar of Zeno, whiche put the chiefe goodnesse in science and knowlage.

Heracleus, rei, and Herix, icis, mas. gene. an hedgehogge.

Herlinus, one of the Centaures.

Hermia, a, m. g. an ymage of Mercurius. It is taken also for a firmamente or establisshinge.

Sometyme the balasse of a Myppe. It is also an ymage, the head wherof may be changed.

Hermæ, be also ymages sette of layde on sepulchres.

Hermæa, after Ptholomee, the bittermoste citee of the lesse Afrike. After Mela, a promontorie of Mercurie, called Cabo de Nubia.

Hermaphroditus, the sonne of Mercurie and Venus. Also he that is bothe man and woman.

Hermagoras, a famous rhetorician of Colia.

Hermathena, was two ymages together of Mer-curie and Minerva.

Hermeas, a famous capitayne vnder Antiochus magnus.

Hermenij, a people by Colchos.

Hermerotes, tum, small ymages, propely of lit-tell childzen with wynges.

Hermes, mis, or metis, Mercurie.

Hermes trimegistus, the name of a famous philosopher of Egypte.

Hermesia, a confection made by the Persians with hony, myrthe, saffron, the wyne of iuyce of Dates, the hernelles of pyne appuls, whiche bryng taken of a man wyth myrthe, and of women after they be conceyued, shall byynge forth childzen in personage and witte very excellent.

Democritus writeth of a lyke medicine, by the whiche childzen, saye, good, and fortunate, shall be begotten.

Hermiona, a towne of Grece.

Hermione, the daughter of Menelaus and He-cuba, being a child, was by Pandarus, the fas-ther of Menelaus, in his absence affianced to Paris, the sonne of Agamemnon: but after ward he was married by his father vnto Menelaus, sonne of Achilles, whome Menelaus had first wedded Hermione, and had by her three sonnes, Telemachus, Laonitus, and Demetrius,

the younger: There was an other Hermione, daughter of Menelaus and Helen, wife of Ladamonus, whome she ported segned to her (with her husband) touned into a serpent.

Hermiones, people in the bittermoste borders of Germany, called nowe Pomerani.

Hermippus, a poete of Athens: also a philosopher in the tyme of Socras.

Hemocrates, a famous sophister vnder the rype roure Socrates.

Hermodactylus, li, m. g. is supposed to be that,
whiche of Aetius, and Paulus is called Epheme-

ron. Actuarius maketh mencion of two kyndes called Hermodactyli, whiche are as muche to saye, as Mercurij digiti, in englyshe Mercuries fyngers, for the similitude that they haue with fyngers, whereof the one is white, the other redde: Whiche Raellius supposeth to be that, whiche the Arabians call Been rubeum, and Been album.

Hermodorus, a philosopher of Ephesus, whiche caused the xii. tables to be made: Also a philosopher of Sicile, the scholar of Plato.

Hermogenes, the propre name of a famous Rhetorician.

Hermoglyphus, phi, mascu. gene. a grauer of ymages.

Hermolaus, a grammarian of Constantinople.
an other of the same name conspired agaynst Alexander.

Hermion, a litell hyl that standeth on Jordan.

Hermopolis, the name of a citee that Hercules builded.

Hermopolium, a place where ymages were set out to sell.

Hermupoa, an herbe called Mercurie.

Hermupotantion, idem.

Hermus, a ryuer, whiche in the middes parteth the fieldes of Smirne, and falleth from the hyl

Dorylao, and deuideth Phrygia from Licia, wherin Virgile supposed to be golden lande.

Hernia, a, for. gen. the disease, whereof men bee called byusten, for that they bowels or other mattier is fallen into theyr coddes.

Hernici, people of Campania.

Hernion, nij, n. g. the herbe Eringion.

Herniosus, a, um, he that is byusten.

Herodes, the sonne of Antipater, whiche in the tenth yere of Augustus, was of the Romaynes declared kynge of the Jewes: and he reygned.

37. yeres. Of that name were dyuers other kyn-
des.

ges, of whome Iosephus wryteth abundantly.
Herodianus, a noble hystorian, which in Greeke wrote most eloquently and truly the liues of the Emperours, from Marcus philosophus, to Gordianus the yonger, which booke is most eloquently translated into latyne by Angelus Politianus.
Herodius, a birde named a faulcon. Theodorus calleth it Ardeola, sayncte Augustyne Fulica: Suidas, Ciconia.
Herodotus, was a noble hystorian; bozne in the citee of Halicarnassus in Asia. He wrote most eloquently a generall hystorie of the actes dooen in Europa, and Asia, by the space of .L. and xl. yeres; vntill the warres amonge the greekes, called Bellum Peloponeiacum, which Thucydides, with an equall style wrote and performed. He flourished before the incarnation of Christe. two hundred yeres.
Heroicus, a, um, noble or pertaynyng to noblenesse.
Heroica actas, a tyme wherein are many noble men.
Heroica persone, noble personages.
Hérois, rôidis, fœ. g. a noble woman. Hérois na, æ, idem.
Heron, an oratour of Athenes.
Heros, herois, an halfe god, or he whiche for the loue of vertue, suffereth greate labours and perilles, also he that excelleth in any facultee or science.
Herostratus, a poore folke the man, who to haue a perpetuall fame, bourned the most famous temple of Diana at Ephesus, and after detected him self, and was put to death.
Herpacantha, idem quod acantha.
Herpes, a soze rpyng of to muche abundance of Melancholie. also a certayne beast. Pli. lib. 30.
Herpetra, or herpera, a tetter.
Hersilia, the wyfe of Romulus the fyrst kynge of Romayns.
Herus, i, m. g. a lozde or maister.
Hesichius, a learned man in the time of Anastasius the Emperour, whiche wrote an hystorie, as well of the Romayne Emperours, as of other nations.
Hesione, was daughter of Laomedon kynge of Troye, and syster to Pryamus, whome Hercules at the fyrste destruction of Troye gaue in maryage to Chelamon, a noble prynce of the Greekes.
Hesiodus, an aunciente poete of the Greekes, whiche fyrst wrote of husbandry, whom Virgile folowed in his georgikes.
Hesperia, Italy.
Hesperia vltima, Spayne.
Hesperides, the thre daughters of Atlas, whiche kepte the gardens, wherein grew the golden apples, that were taken away by Hercules.
Hesperidum horti, the gardens, wherein were the golden apples now called oranges.

Hesperis, ris, f. g. an herbe, which smelleth more in the nyght than in the day tyme.
Hesperum, a monometry in Aethiopia.
Hesperus, i, m. g. the west sterre, that soloweth on the sonne goyng doorne, the euening sterre.
Hesseni, people of Palestine, which woulde neuer eat pigmeates.
Hesternus, a, um, of yesterdaies, or of the daye before.
Hesternapotatione Hesternapies, paynyngs and gapping of the tye, that they kepte the day before.
Hestia, is a parte of Thessaly. Saxil, Strabo and Pytholome, and in Homer it is a towne of Cuboea, Stephanus sayth, it is a citee in Beccania.
Heterocliton, ti, n. g. that is excepted oute of the common maner of declining or varyng.
Heterocranea, nœ, f. gen. a disease in the head, whan it akeith and swelleth and hath litle round pumes and sores rpyng in it.
Heterogenius, a, um, of an other kynde.
Heteromafchala, and Heteromalla, orum, n. g. garmentes that be frised onely on one syde. It is sometyme taken for velvet.
Heteronimon, that hath an other name.
Hetruria, the countrey of Tuscany, wherein is the citee of Florence.
Heithburgum, gi, Edenbrough in Scotland.
Hetruscus, a, um, of the countrey called Hetruria.
Hetrusca disciplina, a certayne doctrine taught in Tuscan, concernyng the interpretation of lyghtnynges, tokens in the firmamente, and thynges monstrous, whiche was of such estimation among the aunciente Romaynes, that it was decreed by an ordinaunce of the Senate, that into sixe partes of that countrey shoulde be sente sixe sonnes of noble men, to learne that arte.
Heu, alas, it is construed with a nominatiue, a datiu, and an accusatiue case.
Heu mihi, alas that euer I was bozne.
Heus, an aduerbe of callyng. somtyme of sorowynge.
Hexaclinum, clini, n. g. a parlour, wherein sixe persones may suppe, or rather a place, wherein be .vi. suppyng beddes, as they vsed in olde tyme.
Hexagonum, ni, n. g. sixe cornerde.
Hexameton, of sixe daies.
Hexameter, i, m. g. a verse of .vi. fete.
Hexapeda, a measure called a fathom.
Hexaphorum, i, n. g. a litter or chaire to be bozn by sixe men.
Hexaplum, vel Hexapla, an example.
Hexasticum, i, n. g. a kynde of barke, the rare wherof hath .vi. rowes of cozne. also .vi. verses together.
Hexecontalithos, thi, n. g. a little pperious stone which hath diuers colours.
Hexeres, shippes with sixe orders of oyes, or haunyng sixe oyes in one scate.

Hiacinthus, the herbe Delphinion.
 Hians, antis, om. g. gappinge; openinge, chapping, despyng of lochyng gredyly for a thyng.

Hians oratio, a style that is not well compacte:
 but by reason of meetynge of bowels together,
 soundeth unpleasantly.

Hiarbas, the sonne of Jupiter, which was kyng of the Getulians, and made warre agaynst Dido queene of Carthage.

Hiasco, scere, to gape, to open by hym selfe or spreade as flowers dooen.

Hiato, ui, are, to gape, to open.

Hiatula, loke Chama.

Hiatus, us, m. gen. a gapping or openinge of the mouthe.

Hiatus terra, the gapping or chynhyng of the
 grounde.

Hiberia, and Hiberus, loke Iberia.

Hibericum, ci, n. g. an herbe, which (as Dioscorides saith) is called of some Androsamō, of some corion: se his description apud Dioscoridem. lib. 3. cap. 146.

Hiberis, loke Iberis.

Hibernia, the yle called Irelande. Betwene En-glande and Spayne in the Ocean sea, on the east it hath Englande with in one daies saylyng: on the south it hath France: Spaine on the west distanceth thre daies saylyng: on the north the mayne ocean sea. it is not farre from Scotland.

Hibiscus, sci, m. g. and Hibiscum, sci, n. g. an herbe, whiche Galenus calleth wylde malowe.
 it is also called Althea, Marthe malow, or water malowe. Ruellius saith, that it is the same that the apothecaries call Bismalua, or Malua-uiscus, whiche is the double malowe: it is named the warth malow. But Virgile in Alexi, semeth to take it for a kynde of bulle rushes, or ponge shootes or twygges.

Hibla, loke Hybla.

Hibris, hibridis, a wylde hogge, engendred be-twene a wylde boze and a tame sowe.

Hic, hac, hoc, a pronounne, this or that.

Hic amor, hoc studium, that is your desyre, therabout you god.

Hic quis est, who is this?

Hic somnus est mihi, This is my maner of sleppng.

Vna hac spes est, There is no hope but this.

Hac, is vsed of Terence in the feminine gender plural numbze.

Hac re, for this cause, also by this meanes.

Hic legibus, on this condicion.

Ne comparandus hic quidem ad illum est,
 This fellow is not to be compared to the other.

Hic, an aduerbe, here in this place. Sometime in this matter or businesse. also in this state or condition. Hic is sometyne taken for Tum.

Hic illi sientes, rogare arqueorare ceperunt,
 Then they blouderyng and weepynge began to desyre and pray.

Tu si hic sis, aliter sentias, If thou were I, or as I am, thou wouldest thinke otherwise.

Hicce, hrece, horce, for hic, hac, hoc.

Hiccine, haccine, hoccine, for hic ne, hac ne,
hoc ne.

Hiccine est Simo? Is this Simo? Sometyne
 it is taken doubtfully, as,

Haud nihil ambigam hiccine fuerit Ascanius, an maior quam hoc, I doubt somewhat whether this were Ascanius, or an other eldce than he.

Hidrunum, A towne of Calaber, called commonly Otronto.

Hiena, loke Hyena.

Hiera, An yle betwene Sicile and Aiperis, des-tituted to Vulcan. Also the name of a waye, and of a woman, the wyfe of Chelaphus kyng of Asia, whiche in beautee was supposed to exceede Helena.

Hiera, a confection.

Hieracites, æ, m. g. A certayne precious stone.

Hieracium, An herbe, whiche some do suppose to be sowthistle. But by Fuchsius, it appereth not to be the same, but somewhat like, and therefore is called Sonchites, And Lactuca syluestris, in Englyshe of some, dent de Lyon, but other well expert in the nature of herbes, take it to be an other herbe.

Hieracopodion, the herbe called Lychnis agria.

Hieranosos, mos hacer.

Hieranthemis, the flowze of the herbe Camomill.

Hierapicta, æ, f. m. gene. a medicine to purge fleume and choler, and sometyne it is called onely Hiera. It is of sundrie spices confectioned in a powder.

Hierapolis, A citie in Asia.

Hierarchia, æ, f. gen. the holy gouernaunce or principallitee.

Hieratica, æ, f. gen. fyne paper.

Hieremias, A prophete bozne (as Epiphanius writeth) at Anathoth, and slayne by his people at Caphnas in Egypt. But afterwarde the Egyprians had him in greates honour, and buried hym in the place, where Pharaos Palais stode. For he draue thence serpentes and Crocodiles. This prophete before the alteration of the temple, tooke the arch or holy coffer, and that which was in it, and caused a stone to swalowe it by, sayng to the priestes and auncient menne, that were present, Our lord is departed from Sina to heauen, and shall retourne with an hos-lie puissance, and this shall bee the sygne of his comyng, whan all people shall honour a tree.

he saied mozeouer vnto them, Fewer man shall open this arke, neither priest nor prophete, excepte Moyses the electe of God. The tables within it, no man shall vnfolde, except Aaron.
 And at the resurrection spake this Arke shall ryse, and shall come oute of the stone, and shall be sette in mounte Sina, and all sayntes shall resorte thersvnto, there to receyue the Lorde, and shall flee from the enemy, whiche would haue destroyed them. And he sealed the stone, wrytyng thereon the name of our lord. The sygne was like as it were grauen in yron, and a cloude than couered the stone, but no man knoweth that place.

Hieri, people beyonde Sauromatas, whiche be balde and flatte nosed, euen from the natiuitee. They are very iuste people, and neuer warre one on an other.

Hieris, id est, consecratrix.

Hiero, onis, a kyng of Sicile, whiche was lyke a ppyuate persō, very rude and homely, and of his nature intractable and fierse. But after he became sicke, and ceassed from busynesse (the festuct now and than takynge hym) he became a man of good maners and honorable. And in the meane tyme that he was not vexed with the feuer, he fell to learnyng. Wherfoze beyng recovered, he vsed the companie of Simonides, Pindarus, & Bacilides, moste excellent poetes at that tyme lpyng: who in their wrytynges brought his name in an honourable remembrance. In other of that name of Athens, was familiar frende and scholar with Picias.

Hierobotane, es, fcm. gen. In herbe called Meruen.

Hierobryncas, a kynde of the herbe Geranium.

Hieroceps, an yle in Cypus nere to Paphus.

Hierocōmion, mij, n. g. a lasterhouse.

Hierodoli, ministers in temples and churches.

Hieroglyphicæ, mistickall or enigmatikall letters or Cyphers among the Egyptians, whiche were ymages signifying holy sentences.

Hieron, vel Hieron, A chappell.

Hieromyrtos, idem quod ruscus.

Hieronius, ci, m. gene. he that is victour in the games called Sacra certamina.

Hieronymus, the moste noble & famous interpreter of holy scripture. He was after the incarnation of Christe about .387. yeres, as he himselfe wryteth. He was bozne in a towne called Strido, which was in the confines of Hungaris and Dalmatia. His fathers name was Eusebius. There was an historiographer and a philosopher of Rhodes of this name. Also a tyran of Sicilie, the sonne of Hiero.

Hierophanta, tæ, m. g. the declarer of misteries of holy scripture.

Hierophylax, idem quod Aedituus.

Hierosiarthus, the chiefe priest.

Hierosolyma, æ, and Hierosolyma, orum, or after the Hebrewes Hierusalem, the chiefe citee of Iudæa (as Eusebius wryteth) in compas about .vi. miles, and an halfe. And as the same authoure sayeth, lib. 9. preparationis euangelicæ, cap. ultimo, it was called Hieron Solomonis, that is to say, Salomons temple. And after, by corruption of speche, was called Hierusalem and Hierosolyma, But Lyranus, on the .xxviii. chap. of Genes, wryteth, that it was first builded by Melchisedech, and by him called Salem, that is to say, peaceable. For as much as he was kyng of peace and iustice, also that it was called Solyma, Luza, also Bethell, Hierus, Hierosolyma, & Aelia. Albeit Iosephus de bello Iudaico, lib. 7. cap. 26. affirmeth, that the first builder thereof, was Chanam, whiche made there a temple, and called it Hierosolyma, where before it was called Solyma. S. Hierome de locis Actorum apostolorum, sayeth, that the citee was called Aelia, of Aelius Adrianus the Emperour, whiche effesaones repaired it, after that it was destroyed by Titus, and made it larger. It was five tymes wasted, and laste destroyed by Titus, after the incarnation of Christ. 73. yeres.

Hierosolymarius, the surname of Pompey for conquering of Hierusalem.

Hierotheus, the propre name of a man.

Higra, a roote of pepper.

Hila, a small gutte or ars gutte.

Hilare, meryly, ioyously.

Hilaresco, scere, to be mery.

Hilaria, plur. the .viii. calendes of April, when the day and night haue equall houres, and the day begynneth to increase.

Hilaris, re, and Hilarus, a, um, mery or ioyous, pleasaunt.

Hilarem hunc sumamus diem, Let vs spend this daie meryly.

Hilarem in modum, meryly.

Hilara vita, a mery and pleasaunt lyfe.

Hilaritas, âtis, fcm. ge. myyth, pleasauntnesse, iocundenesse.

Hilaritatem afferre, to make mery or iocunde.

Hilaritate conspergere, idem.

Hilaritus, vled of Plautus for Hilariter.

Hilarius, the propre name of a man.

Hilaro, aui, are, to make one mery or ioyous.

Hilarodus, di, ma. ge. a synger of wanton and delicate songes.

Hilator, âris, ari, to be mery.

Hilarulus, a, um, mery and pleasaunt.

Hilla, læ, or Hilla, orum, idem quod Hila.

Hillus, the sonne of Hercules by Deianira.

Hilum, i, n. gen. the litle blacke, which is in the ende of a beane. It is sometyme taken for nothyng or nought, or very litle.

Himera, a ryuer in Sicile, diuided into two partes, the one frethe water, the other salte.

Hin, is a mesure of the Hebrewes, whiche after the accompte of Senalis, is of our measure one gallon, and a pynte, and recepueth in pople of wine .xvi. li. di, and two ounces: of oyle .xv. li. of honny .xxv. li.

Hinc, an aduerbe, signifying from hens. Sometime for that cause.

Hinc illæ lachrymæ, for that cause were the teares, or that was the matter wherfoze he wepte.

Hinc loci mei, from my countrey or towne that I cam fro.

Hinc

Hinc scibo iam ubi sit, I will wyffe of hym nowe where he is.
Hinc illinc, here and there.
Hinc & illinc, on euery syde.
Hinc inde, idem.
Hinc illinc venit, he cometh I knowe not from whence.
Hinc ciuis est, She is a citisen of this cite.
Hinc, for Ex hac parte.
Hinc inde, euery where, rounde about.
Hinnio, iui, ire, to reie lyke an hofse.
Hinnitus, us, m. g. neyng.
Hinnulus, li, m. g. a faune of hynde calfe.
Hinnulus leonem, there is to be vnderstande
capit, vicit, or prouocat, The hpd of faune tooke, vanquished, or prouoked the lyon to battayle. A prouerbe applied to a person feble or ignorant, whyche by anye meane hath vanquished hym, whyche is moze puiſſaunte than he:
or prouoketh to battayle, or contendeth with hym, whych is wiser or better lerned than he him-
selfe.
Hinnus, hinna, & hinnulus, la, a mule engendred betwene an hofse and a she asse.
Hio, aut, are, to gape, to chappe, to open, to cleaue.
also to wonder or meruaile.
Hiant flores, the floures doo sprede.
Hiauit humus, the ground chapped or opened.
Hiare vocalibus sermo dicitur, when vowels mete vnpleasantly in an oracion.
Semper ad spem futuri hiar, he looketh gre-dye, or he gapeth alwaye for that, that is to come.
Hiosciamus, loke Hyosciamus.
Hippace, es, f. g. chiefe made of wares mylke.
Hippaco, aui, are, to fetch breath quickly.
Hippagium, ij, n. g. carriage on hofsebacke.
Hippagius, idem quod armiger.
Hippago, inis, for. gen. a ferle bote to cary ouer
hofses.
Hippagogeus, gei, m. g. an instrumente, wheres with stones are polished.
Hipparchus, a notable astronomer that wrote a gynst Plato. Also a comicall poete. He is also the sonne of Pisistratus the tyran. He signifieth a capitayne of hofsemen.
Hippasus, a philosophier, the scholar of Pythasgoras.
Hippe, the daughter of Chiron the Centaure.
Hippeas, a hynde of crabbye.
Hippii, cometes or blasynge sterres, haunge masnes lyke hofses.
Hippelaphus, loke Equicernus.
Hippenemia, the egges of a certayne kynd of hen-nes, whych conceyue by the wynde.
Hipperides, an oratour of Athens, ennemie to Demosthenes.
Hippiades, dum, f. g. images of women on hofses
backe, as the women of Amazon were alwayes peinted.
Hippiæ, ben a kynde of ceranilles in the countrey called Pharnicia, whyche be so swyfte, that it is impossible to ouertake them.

Hippias, a Rhetorician (as Appuleius saith Flo-ridorum. 2.) excelled all men in the multitude of orations, and was equall to anye man in eloquence. he came on a tyme to Spise, to the great triumphe called Olympicum, and all thynges that he dyd weare vpon him, was of his owne making, his shoes, patens, and rote wrought of the finest threde, with iii. threde stiches, a baud-ribe of baudhen, with changeable colours and sundry pictures, a mantell of whyte ouer all, a rynge on his fpynger with a stone, wherewith was a signet moſte perfectlye wrought. All this dyd he wofke with his owne handes. also he caried with hym a lytle oyle bottel, with a narrow mouth, and the residue rounde and flat, with a littell instrument to stryke sweate from his bodye hangyng therat. He played excellentlye on euery instrument, and fange his owne verles in all kyndes, whyche no man coulde amende. In all portes of logike, rhetorike, and philosophie, he vanquished manye, and was vanquished of none. He canne, wrestled, and dyd other feates of actiui-tee, that all men beholding hym, were therewith abashed. Finally, he seemed not to be ignorant, weake or vnable in any thyng. Not withstansdyng Plato in two dialogues, byngeth in Socrates disputing with him. in the one interchyng what beautee is, in the other what a lye is. he concludeth and proueth Hippias to be an arrogant and ignorant fole, forasmuche as praisyng beautee, he wiste not what beautee was, and bo-sting that he befoze any other mā, coulde decerne a lye from a trewe man, he coulde not make of them a diffinielion. By this it appereth, howe much the common iudgemente of men hateth, and is inferiour to the iudgemente of a perfect
wyse man, as Socrates was.
Hippatrus, ij, m. g. an hofse leache.
Hippice, ces, f. g. an herbe, which if a man beate in his mouth, he shal neuer feele hunger nor thirſte.
Hippii. lib. 25. cap. 8.
Hippius Tyrius, was he that fyrst made Hippos, whyche serue onely for boudryng, called in latine Naues Onerarie.
Hippo, m. g. the name of ii. cities in Aſiæ, of one of them sainte Augustine was bishop.
Hippicum, ci, n. g. a measure of grounde, cons-teynyng eight miles.
Hippobotos, a feder of hofses, a hofshearde.
Hippocampe, & Hippocampi, fishes lyke hof-ses on the foze parte.
Hippocampus, a, um, of those fishes.
Hippocentauri, were a people in Thessalia by the mounte Pelius, whyche were also called Centauri, the whyche were the fyrst that were sent in Grete rydyng vpon hofses wherof came the fable, that Centauri were halfe men and halfe
hofses.
Hippocomus, ij, m. g. an hofse cosser.

Hippo.

Hippocrates, the name of a physician moste excellent.

Hippocrène, a fountayne in Arcotia dedicated to Apollo, and the ix. muses.

Hippodamia, or Hippodame, the daughter of Demonaus, kynge of Arcadia, vnto whome it was told by the soothsaier, that whan his daughter shoulde marie he shoulde dye. Therefore, whan she came to the yeres of marriage: he ordeyned a ppyce of rennyng with chariottes, and caused to be pporlaymed, that who so euer shoulde vanquish him therein, shoulde haue his daughter to wyfe: and he that was vanquished by him shoulde dye. Many of these wowers were slayne. At last Pelops, despyng to haue the saied mayden, promysed pynnyll to Mytilus, whyche drewe the kynges chariot, that yf he did wyne the ppyce, Mytilus shoulde wyth Hippodamia the firste nyght: vpon the whyche couenante Mytilus made the axeltree of waxe, by occasiō wherof the chariot fell downe and was broken: wherfore Demonaus slawe hym selfe, and Pelops enioyed the ladye and the roialme. whan Mytilus axed that whyche was promysed hym, Pelops threwe him into the sea next adioynynge, whyche therof was curre after called Mare Myrtoum. There was an other ladye called Hippodamia, whyche was wyfe to Perithous, for whome the bataille was betwene the people called Centauri, and them whyche were named Lapythæ.

Hippodamus, mi, m. g. A breake of hofes. Also the name of a learned man: of Miletus, whyche wrote first of the good state and gouernance of a citty.

Hippodorus, A pynce of Athens, whych to seme gentle to the people, bled grete seueritee towardes his owne chyldren and hys selfe.

Hippodromus, mi, m. g. a brode waye, wherein many hofes may renne together.

Hippoglottion, in, n. g. the herbe whyche some call Daphnitis, some carpophillon.

Hippoglōssa, fæ, fæ m. g. an herbe like an hofse tounge, whyche Ruellius supposeth to bee that whyche is called Laurus Alexandrina, it hath a leafe like a tounge.

Hippolapathum, i, n. g. an herbe called patience.

Hippolochus, Belletrophons sonne, father of Glaucus. an other of the same name was the sonne of Antimachus the Troiane.

Hippolyte, the wyfe of Acastus kynge of Magnesia. An other was queene of Amazonas, whome Hercules vanquished, and gaue hir to Theseus.

Hippolytus, the sonne of Theseus, who at the complaynte of Phedra his stepmother, was persecuted by his father, and he in a charpote, slepyng, was ouerthrowen among the sharpe stones, and rente all to piereces. Afterwarde Theseus reuined and restored hym to lyfe. wherfore he would be called Virbius, that is to saye, twyfe a man, for as muche as he had twyfe liued.

Hippomachia, æ, f. g. a tourneys and iustys on hofse backe.

Hippomachus, the name of a famous minstrell.

Hippomanes, n. g. an herbe, wherof if hofses doe eate, they forthwith renne madde. It is also a venemous humoure, rennyng out of the shape of a mare, whyche yf a man hap to receiue inward, he shalke mad. Plinie saith, that it is a litle fleshe in the forehead of a colt when he is new foled, blake and as bygge as as date, whiche the mare plucketh awaye with hir teethe, as sone as she hath foled. And if anye man do take it awaye before hir, she wyll neuer after loue hir sole.

Hippomanes, the herbe, called also Apocynon.

Hippomathrum, thri, n. g. wilde fenell.

Hippomenes, the nepheu of Neptune, whyche as uername Athlanta in rennyng.

Hippona, a goddesse, whome hofsekeepers dyd worship.

Hipponax, a greke poet borne in Ephesus, who was defoimed in visage, but in style sharpe and belement, in so muche as whan a cunnynge peynter, named Bubalus, had peincted his yll fauoured face, to make men laugh at it: Hipponax made agaynst hym suche vengeable verses, that for anger and shame he caused him to hange him selfe in his house.

Hipponomus, an herbe of keper of hofses.

Hippopéra, æ, f. g. a male of bouget.

Hippophaes, the herbe called taspil. It is also called Labrum veneris, and Vigna pastoris.

Hippophyes, idem.

Hippolanus, he that beegpleth in sellynge of hofses.

Hippopodes, people in the Scythike ocean, whiche haue feete lyke hofses.

Hippopotamus, mi, m. g. a beast lyuynge in the tract of Nile, haunynge feete like an oxe, his backe and mane like an hofse, and neith like an hofse, a wyndyng taylor, and tusked like a boze.

Hippos, an hofse.

Hippopion, matter in the eye.

Hipporibus, bi, m. gen. an hofse herde, or one that fedeth hofses.

Hippocelinon, ni, n. g. some suppose it to be the herbe called smallage, or marhe. It is also called olus atrum.

Hippotela, æ, f. g. a sole of an asse.

Hippotoxata, ioxoia, mæ. gen. an archer on hofsebacke.

Hippuris, ris, f. g. an herbe called in latyn Equisetum, or Cauda equina, in englysh hofsetayle, but it is commonly called cattes taylor.

Hippus, a ryuer in Thierrennyng into Phasis.

Hipicratea, the wyfe of Epidaurus.

Hir, hiris, f. g. the palme of the hande.

Hira, a citee by the sea side, not far from Idus, also the gut, whych is called leiumum.

Hircinus, a, um, got the, or of a got.

Hircipilus, li, m. g. a man that is hearie.

Hircō.

Hircolus, a, um, that synkeith lyke a gote.
Hircus, i, m. gen. the corner of the eye. Also he that is gogle eyede.
Hirculus, li, m. g. a hynde of spikenarde.
Hircus, i, m. g. a gote bucke: it is also the ranke sa- uoure, which smyth out of the arse holes.
Hirnea, x, f. g. a cortayne vessell.
Hires, idem quod gnaphalion.
Hirpiæ, certayn families not farre from Rome, wherthe boyng sacrifice to Apollo, went vpon the fyre, and were not hurt therewith.
Hirquinus, a, um, idem quod Hircinus.
Hirquitulus, i, m. a. gen. a chyld whiche passeth the age of rixty yeres, and beginneth to be sterred with lecherie.
Hirquitallire, to enter into that age of aptnesse to lecherie.
Hirrio, iui, ire, to naere lyke a madde dogge.
Hirsitia, x, f. m. ge. the roughnesse of heares of byssels.
Hirsutus, a, um, rough, heary, full of byssels, mosy, and by a metaphoze austere, vnpleasant.
Hirtius, a consull of Rome, which was vanquished in battaile by Britonic.
Hireus, a, um, idem quod Hirsutus.
Saxa hirta dumis, rockes full of busshes and byambles.
Hirtæ sepes, hedges made of thoznes & byers.
Hirudo, rudinis, f. g. an hoyle leache or bloude sucker.
Hirudo ærarij, by translation, one that wasteth or consumeth the common treasure.
Hirundinaria, idē quod Chelidonia, looke there.
Hirundinus, a, um, or rather hirundininus, a, um, of or belonging to a swalowe.
Hirundo, inis, f. g. a swalowe.
Hisciacus, ci, m. g. he that galpeth muche.
Hisco, sci, scēre, to gaulpe as one dweth for slug- gishnesse after sleepe, or for lacke of sleepe. also it is to proffer to speake, or open the mouthe to speake, to mutter, to be astonied, amased, or in doubt what to doo. also to chappe or bee ope- ned.
Hismaelita, a saraſin.
Hispalis, vel Hispalum, a citee in Spayne nowe called Sibilis, or Siuile.
Hispania, a countrey in the weste parte of Europa called Spayne, sometyme called Iberia, and Hesperia. It is inuironed on the southe parte with the sea Mare Mediterraneum, whiche di- uideth Europa from Africa, on the nozthe parte with the sea Mare Cantabricum, on the weste with the great ocean sea: On the east wyth the mountaynes Pyrenæi, and the parte of the roi- alme of fraunce called Aquitania, & Narbo- nensis. This countrey is diuided by Ptholo- mee into thre regions, Bethica, wherin is Gra- nado, Siuil, Corduba, &c. Lucitania, wherin is Portugal, Galicia &c. Taraconensis, whers in is Castile, Lyons, and Aragon. At this tyme it contepneth fye royalmes, Granado on the southe parte towarde Aſtrophe: Portugal, on the west: Galicia and Biscaie on the nozthe, Aragon on the east, Castile and Lyons in the middle. Muche of the weste partie by reason of rockes, foystes, and lacke of water, is not fertile nor well inhabited. The nozthe parte by reason of muche colde is not plentious. The south parte is wonderfull fruitefull. It is in length (as Stras- bo wyteth) 6000. furlonges, which is 850. miles. In breadth 5000. furlonges, which is 625. miles. Plinius (nexte vnto Italy) extollet it in fertili- tee, aboue all other countreys. Solinus compa- reth it with the best countreys in plentie of grayne, wines, oyle, siluer, golde and Iron. Statius and Claudius, do no lesse commende it.

Hispaniensis, se, that was borne or bred in other countreys, and lyueth in Spayne.
Hispanus, a, um, that is borne or bred in Spayne.
Hispidolus, a, um, full of byssels.
Hispidus, a, um, byssled, or rough heared.
Hister, i, m. g. a player of tumbler.
Histira, a citee in Eubœa.
Histæus, a tyran of Mileſia. Erasmus saith, it was a veyre wily and subtile man of the yle of Samos, a friende of Darius, of whose newe in- uencion of letters sendynge, Au. Gell. wytyeth lib. 17. cap. 9. Noct. Attic.
Histonium, a towne in Italie, not farre from the mount Garganus.
Historia, x, f. g. an hystorie.
Historice, es, f. ge. a declaracion of an authoz in maner of an hystorie.
Historialis, le, and Historicus, a, um, of or per- taining to hystories, hystorie wise.
Historicus, ci, m. g. a wyter of hystories.
Histricus, a, um, pertaining to players.
Histrion, ōnis, com. g. a player in enterludes, or stage players.
Histrionia, x, f. g. and Histrionica, x, the feate or science of stage players.
Histrionicus, a, um, and Histrionalis, le, idem.
Histris, histris, f. ge. a brasse haupnge Charpe pyckes on his backe, called a porke pyne.
Hiulce, as it were with chappes or gappes.
Hiulco, aui, are, to make to gape or chynke, to cleaue.
Hiulcus, a, um, gappinge or chynkynge, as the grounde is in a great dythe.
Hiulca gens, a couetous and deceitfull people.

H A N T I. O.

Hoc is bled for tanto. when quo or quod foloweth.
Hoc vide, a forme of latine speche, bled in Terence and Plautus, signifyinge that wee saye in englyshe, See I praye you.
Hoc, this or that.
Crede hoc meæ fidei, beleue this thyng on my warrantise.
Quid hoc hominis? what felowe is this?

Hoc

Hoc literularum, this Hoyle letter or little es-pille.
Hoc mentis, this myde. Iphewyle Hoc morbi, sceleris, noctis, lucis. &c.
Hoc est, quod ille & cer. thys is the cause why
he. &c.
Huius non facio, I set not this muche by hym.
Hodie, to daye, nowe, at this tyme, in these dayes,
in this age.
Hodie mane, to daye in the mornynge early.
Nunquam hodie, no tyme to daye.
Non facies hodie: Non dices hodie: and such lyke are spoken for a vehemencie to enforce one the more.
Hodiernus, a, um, of this daye.
Hodierno die, to daye, nowe at this presente
tyme.
Hodierno mane, idem quod Hodie mane.
Hodardocus, ci, ma, gnee, a robber by the hygge
waye.
Hodaporicum, a booke to carrie in iourney, whych maye be called a iournall: or a booke wherein icarnepes from place to place be described.
Hodaporus, ri, m, g. a trauayler by the waye.
Hodus, loke hedus.
Hermotopodis, a byrde, whiche by Plinies description, I thynke to be our redshanke.
Hortichius, a Greeke, very cunning in ymage makyng.
Hoi, an exclamation of one that wepeth.
Holcus, a certayne herbe.
Holmus, a moztar, a cuppe made like a hoyle.
Holocaustum, i, n. g. properly the beast, whych haupng his bowels taken out, is layed whole on the altare, and bourned.
Holobrizæ vestes, garmentes all of pure
golde.
Holoboræ vestes, garmentes whych be heauie and stiffe, with golde that is wrought in them.
Holographum, phi, n. g. a testament all wrytten
with the hande of the testatour.
Hololampus, all in flame.
Holophanta, loke Halophanta.
Holor, ôris, m. ge. a swanne.
Holosérica vestis, a garment all of silke.
Holopecthon, a hole cubite.
Holosteia, a certayne herbe.
Hulus, loke Olus.
Hulus, alias Homolus, an hyl of Chessaly.
Homelium, li, n. g. a certayne faction of rappes.
Homericus, a, um, of Homere.
Homeromastix, tigris, mas. gene. the reprocher of Homere. Generally Homeromastices, bee taken for all reprochers and false detractours of learned men.
Homêrus, the chiefe of all poetes, whose proper name was Melesigenes. But because he was blynde, he was called Homêrus, whych in the tunge called Ionica, signifieth blynde. Cicero, Tuscul. 5. saith, It is wryten that Homere was blynde, yett se we his picture and not his porme. For what cuntry, what marches, what host, what nauie, what motions of myndes, as well of men as of beastes, are expressed in suche wyse, that he maketh vs to see that he sawe not? Plutarchus in the booke whych he wryte of hym saith, that in his two marches he compre-hendeth bothe the parties of man. For in Illiade he described strength and valiantnesse of the bodye, In Odyssea he dooth sette forth a persfecte paterne of the mynde. Not withstandinge for his vndiscrete fabledge of goddes and god-desse, Plato excluded hym out of his weale pu-blike.

Homicida, x, com. gene. a murderer, a mans killer.

Homicidium, ij, n. g. murder or manslaughter.

Homilia, lix, f. g. a sermon.

Homo, i, nis, m. gen. as saith Phoca, the excellent grammarian, but the common rules teache it to be the common gender; a lyuing creature haupng capacitee of reason, subiecte to death, a man, woman or childe.

¶ Homo bulla, a man is but a bubble, a prouerbe signifyng the vncertaine and vncertaine of mans lyfe, resembling it to a bubble of water, whych thoztly ryleth, thoztly vanysheth, and cometh to nothyng.

¶ Homo homini deus, Man is mans god, and plied to him, whych with any singular benefite, helpeth a man about his expectation.

¶ Homo trium literarum, signifieth sometyme in mockage a man of a noble linage, because noble men wryte theyr fornames, their names and surnames with thre letters, as P. Cor.
Scipio. C. I. Caesar. It is sometyme taken for a theft, because Fur, hath in it but thre letters.

Afini homines, folles, asses.

Anfatus Homo, a man with his armes a hens bowe.

Nemo homo est, there is no man.

Homo sum, I am a man, I may be deceyued.

Homo es, thou shewest thy selfe like a man, thou playest the man.

Nihil minus hominis videtur, There seemeth nothyng to me further from mans nature, or more vnseemely for a man.

Sic homo est, such is his faction, or this is the faction of the man.

Homo, and Quisquam, bee elegantlye ioyned together, not with standynge that Quisquam alone, signifieth as muche as Homo quisquam.

Homocapnus, ni, m. g. a man that spitteth alway in the smoke, or by the fyre.

Homœmeria, lykenesse of partes.

Homeoptoron, ti, neu, g. a figure, when diuers membres of a sentence haue like fall of cases.

Homœosis, a similitude.

Homœoteleuton, a figure, when clauses of a sens-tence ende like.

Homogalactus, ti, m. g. a foster brother.

Homô-

Homógenes, nis, com. gene. of one kynde.
 Homoglossus, of the same tongue or language.
 Homole, an hyl of Magnesia.
 Homoleum, a cap of the olde faction.
 Homolium, a towne of Magnesia.
 Homología, x, for. gene. a confession, consent,
 or conuincement.
 Homolotti, a people.
 Homographia, like wytyngge or peinctinge.
 Homologare, to consent.
 Homophónos, of one sounne.
 Homóphilus, of one kynd or tribe.
 Homophýchus, of one minde.
 Homonara, the propre name of a woman, wherby is signified concordie.
 Homónymon, mi, n. gen. where manye thynges
 haue one name, but diuers in effecte: as a man, whiche is alpye or peynted, diuided by this addition, a verie man, a peynted man.
 Homosipyi, they whiche sleape together vnder one touse.
 Homousios, sij, m. g. of lyke substance.
 Homulus, Homúncio, & Homúnculus, a little man, or of small reputation, a dwarfish fellow.
 Honestamentum, i, n. g. a thyng that commens-deth or setteth forth.
 Honestas, áris, f. g. honestie, dignitie, worship.
 Honestas & turpitudō vitæ, contrarie.
 Dignitas & honestas.
 Honestē, honestly.
 Honesto, aui, are, to rewarde with honour, to make moze honozable, to make moze esteemed, to commend or set forth.
 Honestum, i, n. g. honestie.
 Honestus, a, um, honeste, of god behauoure, of god reputation, comely, fayre, beautiful, wel fauoured.
 Dies honestissimus alicui, a daye on the which a man hath great honour shewed hym.
 Homines honore honesti, men aduanced to honour and dignitee.
 Honesta oratio est, his wordes or sayng is reasonable. Ille erat honesta facie ac liberali, he hadde a god and well fauoured face, or he was bothe fayre and well fauoured.
 Honestus conuentus, an assemble of worship-full and honourable persons.
 Honesto loco natus, descended of an honest and substantiall kynred or familie.
 Honestissimum testamentum, a wyll discretely and wysely made.
 Honor, or Honos, óris, m. g. honour, dignitee, sometyme beaulte, also reuerence, honestie. somettyme a sacrifice, a rewarde geuen to a man, also funerall obsequie.
 Honorem præfari, is where one shall speake of any thyng that is not honeste, than to saye, say-uynge your reuerence.
 Quo honore est: in what office or dignitie is he:
 or in what reputation is he: or howe is he esteemed.

Afficere aliquem honore, habere honorem alicui, and in honore habere aliquem, to doe honour to one, to haue in reuerence.
 Honore augeri, to be aduanced to hygher honour and dignitie.
 Honore florere, to be in great honour and estia-mation.
 Honorem congerere, deferre, dare, to promote, to geue office or dignitee to one.
 Perfunctis honoribus amplissimis, he that hath been in great dignitee and authoritee in the common weale.
 In honore esse apud aliquem, to be in reuerence with one, to be muche esteemed and set by.
 Honoribus vii, to beare office, to be in authoritee.
 Honori habere consulatum suum, to entende to great honour and reputation by ministering his consullthipp.
 Honore summo ei fuit, it was great worship and honour to hym.
 Honorabilis, le, honourable, worthy honour.
 Honoraria, plates made at Rome to the honour of Bacchus.
 Honorarium, rij, n. g. a present geuen to princes, ambassadours, great officers, & iudices at their first comyng, or executyng of their authorites.
 Also a custome, that the Decuriones payed for their admission in to the courtie.
 Honorarius, a, um, perteynyng to honour.
 Honorarius arbiter, a worshipfull man ap-poynted by the Pretor, to be an indifferent iudge betwene two parties.
 Honorarius tumulus, a monument or hearse set vp to the honour of any person, where the bodie is not present.
 Honoratē, honourably, worshipfully.
 Honoratus, a, um, that is in honour, estimation and reuerence, worshipfull, honourable.
 Honoratus vir, a worshipfull personage.
 Honorificentissime, in a very honozable forme or maner, very honozably.
 Honorifico, aui, are, to doe honour, or to honoz.
 Honorifice, idem quod honoratē.
 Honorifice appellare, to name one after a very worshipfull and honozable faction.
 Honorificus, a, um, that byngeth honour, ho-nozable, worshipfull, done or spoken to a mans honour or worship.
 Honóro, aui, are, to honour, to doe reuerence.
 Honórus, a, um, that is with honoz honozable.
 Hora, an houre; also tyme of an houre, a daye or pere.
 Crastina hora, to morowe.
 In horas, euery houre.
 Omnium horarum homo, a felowe at all alsayes.
 Dum hæc dicit, abiit hora, while he spake these thynges, a whole houre passed awaye, or the time passed.
 Horum, rai, neu, gener. sommer honye. it is also

also a sauce made of fische.
 Horarius, a, um, that is the space of an houre.
 Horarium, ri, n. g. the space of an houre.
 Horatius, a famous poete, bozne at Venusium, a man excellent in sharpnesse of witte, and quicknesse of sentence: he was addict to Epicures secte, somewhat wanton in maners, though he liberally note the vices of other men in his verses called Sapyri, in balades to syng to the harpe (whych were in, roni. sondre kyndes of verses) he passed all other that wrote in latine. He was in good fauour with the Emperour Augustus, by the meanes of Mecaenas the Emperours minion, who toke in hym for his mirth and with much delectation: to whom, and to Augustus, he wrote diuerse epistles in verse, comprehendynge great wisdomes in compendious sentences: and died whan he was .57. yeres olde, as Eusebius writeth. he was after the incarnation of Christ about .x. yeres. Of his name were diuers notable Romayns.
 Horcum, olde wyrters used for Bonum.
 Horda, a, f. g. a cove great with calfe.
 Hordeaceus, a, um, of barley.
 Hordearij, they whych dooe lyue with eatynge barley.
 Hordearius, a, um, petycynnyng to barley.
 Hordearium as, money geuen to souldiers to be cognie.
 Hordearia pruna, plumes of the colour of barley, when barley is ripe.
 Hordeum, dei, n. g. barley.
 Hordeum murinum, called also of Plinie Phoenicia, is wall barley, that groweth on muddde walles.
 Horia, a fishers bote.
 Horiola, a littell fishers bote.
 Horizon, zontis, neu, gen. a circle diuidyng the halfe sphere of ouer parte of the firmament, from the other halfe, where to our sight, it seemeth, that the heauen toucheth the earth.
 Hormesion, a precious stone of fire colour.
 Horminode, es, m. g. a greene stone, compassed with a circle of the colour of golde.
 Horminum, ni, neut. gener. and herbe, called of the frenche men Tout' bonne, loke Ormis num.
 Horno, an aduerbe, signifyng, this yere.
 Hornorinus, a, um, of this yere, or of one yeres growynge.
 Frumentum hornotinum.
 Hornus, a, um, of this yeres, or of one yeres consynuaunce.
 Agnus hornus, this yeres lambe.
 Horna fruges, this yeres grayne.
 Horologium, gi, n. g. a diall or a clocke.
 Horologium solarium, a diall.
 Horomaldes, amonge the Caldees was named the god god.
 Horontes, loke Orontes.
 Horoscopo, aui, are, to marke the houre.

Horoscopus, the diligent markynge of the tyme of the birth of a chyld.
 Horoscopus, pi, m. gen. that part of the firmament, whiche euery houre ryseth from the east: astronomers call it the ascendent.
 Horoscopus, a, um, euery thyng, wherin houres be marked.
 Horrearius, ri, m. g. the keeper of the barn.
 Horreo, rui, rere, whan a man thynketh that his heare doeth rise. also to quake for colde or feare. sometye to feare muche, to be astonied or to wonder, to be rough, as fieldes vntilled or out of culture.
 Horrent agri, the fieldes are vnplesant and vnfertile.
 Omnium conspectum horreo, I am asfearde to come in any mannes syght.
 Horrere alicui, to feare lest some harme wyl chance to a man.
 Horrere minas alicuius, to feare a mannes thretynges.
 Horrendus, a, um, dreadfull, horrible, terrible.
 Horrens, entis, horrible, that setteth by the bysils, as a lion, or dogge.
 Horresco, scere, whan a man feleth within hym great colde or tremblynge to begynne, as in a feuer, or in a great feare: sometye to quake, to feare, also to make as coine doeth with the wynde.
 Horreum, rei, n. gen. a garner, a barn, wherin coine is laied. sometye a store house, wherin any other thyng is kepte.
 Horribilis, le, horrible or terrible, fearefull.
 Horrificus, a, um, idem.
 Horride, without any good facion or pleasure.
 Horriditas, atis, idem quod Horror.
 Horridulus, la, lum, timorous, somewhat vnplesant, rough, rude.
 Horridus, a, um, hideous, terrible, or he that quaketh for colde, or feare, ruffe for colde, rough, out of culture, nothyng cleane, handsome, or trymme.
 Horrida & inculta vita, a rude and homely life.
 Deformis atque horridus homo, an yll fauored and foule persone, lothesome to beholde.
 Inculta & horrida scripta, wytynges without grace or elegancy.
 Horrifer, rifier, rum, that byngeth colde weather.
 Horresco, aui, are, to make asfearde, to make to quier or tremble.
 Horripilo, aui, are, to grow rough.
 Horrifonus, a, um, hauntyng a terrible towne or boye.
 Horror, oris, ma. gen. a thretyng or quakynge for colde or feare. sometye the cruelnesse or terriblenesse of ones looke. also a religious or reuerende feare.
 Horrore perfundi, To be in suche feare, that one quaketh or threareth.
 Horsum, hither, or hitherwarde, and aduerbe.

Hortacio, ónis, f. g. Hortamen, minis, & Hortamentum, ti, n. g. idem quod Hortatus.
Hortator, óris, m. gene. one that counsaileth of moueth to a thyng.

Hortatrix, the feminine.

Hortatius, a, um, that belongeth to exhortacion of mouyng.

Hortatus, us, masc. gene. an exhortacion of exhortyng.

Hortensia, æ, f. g. the daughter of Hortensius, a woman most eloquent.

Hortensius, an excellent oratour of Rome, of a wonderfull memoie.

Hortensis, se, pertynyng to a garden, of a gardeyne, of that groweth in a gardein.

Hortensius, a, um, idem.

Hortor, áris, ari, to exhorte, to counsaile of moue to a thyng.

Hortari canes, to there the houndes. likewise

Hortari equos.

Hoc te iam diu hortor, cum duobus accus.

Hortari vt capiat.

Hortari ad perficiendum.

Isdem de rebus hortor.

Hortari aliquem de pace. &c.

Hortus, ti, m. ge. a knotte gardein, of a gardein for pleasure, of an orcheyarde.

Horri pensiles, gardeins made in the toppes of houses.

Horti, in the plurall numbze, is moste commonly vsed for an orcharde of gardein of pleasure.

Hortus, was vsed of olde wryters, for Villa.

Hortulus, li, m. g. a littell gardeine.

Horula, a littell houre.

Horus, an Egyptian, whiche wyate and declared the secrete maner of wrytyng, whiche the Egyptians vsed, called Hieroglyphica. Horus was also the sonne of Isis.

Hofa, a riuer of Tuscan, called now Martha.

Hofromaticus, sickely.

Hofpes, hóspitis, com. g. an host that receyueth straungers or guesstes into his house. also a gest, whiche lodgeth in an other mans house. also a stranger, of a man inhabityng out of the countrey.

Hospita terra, a countrey, whereby a man maye possibly passe.

Hofpes vrbis, a sträger that knoweth not what is done in the citee.

Hofpes in re aliqua, one that is ignozant in a thyng, of knoweth not what belongeth to it.

Hofpes in voluntatibus fuorum ciuium, one that knoweth not the mynde of wyll of his cites lins or countrey men.

Hóspita, æ, a strange woman.

Hospitalia, lodgerynges in an house, whiche serue onely for strangers.

Hospitalis, le, vsyng a gentill enterterpement, of gladly receyvinge a stranger: of that belongeth to an host or guest, of to enterterpement of strangers.

Hospitalis Iupiter, so called because strangers or gesses when they were ill intreated in theyr lodgerynges, called hym to wyndic; desyryng hym to reuenge them.

Hospitaliter, lyke a geste.

Hospitalitas, áris, f. g. hospitalitee, enterterpement of frendes or guesstes.

Hospitalolum, i, adminutue of Hospitium.

Hospitium, ij, n. g. an house alway redie to receiue frendes. sometyme a lodgeryng. also an hospital. sometyme frendeshyp shewed in hospitalitee, frendely familiaritee betwene persones, when one man cometh boldly to the others house, enterterpement.

Renuntiare hospitium alicui, to forsaكه ones house, where he hath ben interteined.

Excipere aliquem hospitio, to lodge or interteyne one in his house.

Pro hospitio, quod mihi cum illo est, for the familiaritee that is betwene him and me.

Librale hospitium, a liberall enterterpement of frendes or strangers.

Hospitium & amicitia.

Hóspitor, áris, ari, to receyue frendely into hys house. also to lodge in a place as a guesst of straunger.

Hospitatur aqua in eo loco, the water resteth in that place.

Hóspitus, a, um, strange, also that guessteth or receyueth guesstes.

Hospita æquora, id est, Vicina.

Hospita flumina, riuers that may be passed in a bote or shyppe.

Hosimi, they that be bozne without nosethyilles.

Hostia, æ, f. g. an host or sacrifice offered to attayne victory of ennemies.

Hostiatus, a, um, that is laded with sacrifices.

Hósticus, a, um, hostile or enemy.

Hostilis, le, pertynyng to an enemy.

Hostiliter, lyke an enemy.

Hostilitas, áris, f. g. hostilitie, enmitie.

Hostimentum, i, n. g. recompence, one for an other.

Hostio, iui, ire, to recompence, to assuage or abate, to offende, to stryke.

Hostis, is, com. gen. an enemy.

Hostium, ij, n. g. a measure of an hundzeth and forty bushels. also a dwze.

Hostórium, ij, n. g. the staffe wherewith all measures be made euen, a strike.

Hostus, i, the quatrite of oyle, that the olyues yelde at euery pzeilyng.

H ANTE V.

H Vber, húberis, n. g. a paype or bdder.
Huber, huberis, om. ge. fruitefull, plentiful, abundant.

Huber aqua, plente of water, muche water.

Ferax & huber.

Huber & fecundus author, an authour that is plentious and full of good matter.

Huberior

Huberior spes, greater hope.
 Edictum huberrimum, an ample and large commaundement.
 Huberrimus fructus, great plentie of fruite.
 Hubero, aui, are, to make plenteous oz fruitfull,
 also to be abundant.
 Huberrime, verape plentiously.
 Hubertas, âtis, f. g. plentie, abundance, fruyts
 fulnesse, fertilitie.
 Hubertas mammaram, abundance of mylke
 in the brestes.
 Hubertas soli, fruitfulnessse oz fertilitie of the
 grounde.
 Hubertas virtutis, the great fruitfulnessse of vertue.
 Hubertim, plentiously.
 Hubertus, a, um, abundant oz plentious.
 Huc, hyther.
 Huc abij cum illo, I came from thens hyther wth him.
 Huc coram adducam, I wyllynge hym hys ther befoze you.
 Huc prouiso, I come hyther to see.
 Ergo huc redde, than restore it hyther to me as gayne.
 Omnia hæc verba huc redeunt, All theese wordes come to this ende, oz bee spoken to this intente.
 Rem huc deduxi, I broughte this mattier to this poynte.
 Huc & huc, nowe on the one syde, nowe on the other, nowe to the one syde, nowe to the tother.
 Huc illuc, hyther and thither.
 Hui, an interiection of wonderynge, sometyme of scoynge.
 Hui meam sororem? Ho my syster?
 Hui tam cito? Ho, ho, so shortly, so soone?
 Hudum, for Sudum.
 Huic, to that place, also to hym oz hys.
 Huiusce, the genitiue case of Hic, hæc, hoc, compounded with ce.
 Huiusmodi, & huiuscemodi, suche, of that sorte.
 Hulula, læ, f. g. a shrike oule.
 Húlulo, aui, are, to howle.
 Humanitas, âtis, fce, g. humanitee, oz nature of man, kyndnesse, also doctrine, perceyninge to man, learnyng, liberall knowlage, gentylnesse, meekenesse, curtesie, gentyll behaviour, ciuili-tee, pleasauntnesse in maners.
 Humanitas & modestia.
 Immanitas & humanitas, contrary.
 Comprehendere aliquem humanitate, To shewe gentelnesse towarde.
 Politior humanitas, good learnyng.
 Vir humanitate politus, a man adowyned with cleane learnyng.
 Humaniter & humane, gentilly, curtesely,
 meekely.
 Humanitus, aduer. of men, after the facion of
 men.
 Humanus, a, um, gentyll, tractable, courteys, mercifull, freendely, humane, leaened, coun-nenge.

 Si quid mihi humanum contigerit, If I chaunce to dye.
 Hoccine humanum est? Is this a gentyll touche?
 Humanus calculus, The stone ingendred in a mans body.
 Humanum genus, and Humana gens, mankynde.
 Humana specie & figura esse, To haue the shappe and figure of a man.
 Humatio, ónis, f. g. an interrement oz buri-
 all, a putting into the grounde.
 Humator, óris, m. ge. one that burieth.
 Humatus, a, um, buried, layde in the earth.
 Humeftatus, a, um, mayde moyste oz weete.
 Humefto, aui, are, to make moyste, to weate.
 Humeftus, a, um, moyste oz weete.
 Humeo, mui, ere, to bee moyste oz weete.
 Humerus, i, m. g. the shoulder.
 Ab humero pendebant sagittæ, his arrowes hanged at his shoulders.
 Extollere in humeros, To take vpo his shoulders.
 Humeris rempublicam sustinere, by translation to susteyne and beare vpon the comune weale, as it were vpon his shoulders.
 Humeri in bobus.
 Humeri in gallinaceis.
 Humerale, lis, neu, gen. a thyng to weare on the shoulders.
 Humerosus, a, um, that hath great shoulders.
 Humesco, scere, to waxe weete, to bee weete.
 Humescentes oculi, eyes wet with weeping.
 Humidulus, a, um, somewhat moyste oz weete.
 Humidum, i, n. g. moysture, weatnesse.
 Humidus, a, um, moyst, weate.
 Humifer, misera, rum, that byngeth moysture oz humour.
 Humificus, a, um, that maketh moysture.
 Humigatus, a, um, moysted.
 Humilio, aui, are, to make lowe, poze, oz abiecte.
 Humilis, le, base, lowe, also simple oz poze, aba-iecte, vile, humble, of lowe condition.
 Humilis & excelsa Luna, contrary.
 Humilis vitis, a vyne kepte lowe by the
 grounde.
 Humilis & abiectus.
 Humilis animus atque demissus, a lowe and base courage.
 Humilis sepultura, simple oz of small coste.
 Angustamens & humilis, idem.
 Humilis ars, a vyle crafte, lyttell esteemed.
 Humili atque obscuro loco natus, descended of a base oz vnknownen stocke.
 Oratio humilis & abiecta, cui contraria Alta & excelsa.
 Preces humiles, humble prayers.
 Humiles habitare casas, to dwelle in small cos-tages.

Humilis

Humilis statura, a dwarfish or low stature.
 Humilitas, a low, f. g. baseness or lowliness.
 Humilis generis, a baseness of ones stock or lineage.
 Humi, alone, or on the ground. colla humi
usque humi, lying along upon the ground.
 Humiliter, lowly, humbly.
 Humifer, a, um, that beareth the ground.
 Humo, a, ui, the top of the ground.
 Hemor, or ism, go, humour or moisture, that is of the colour of blood.
 Hemorrhoides, a, ui, go, a swelling of the corrupt humour.
 Humus, i, f, m, generis, the deep, moist, the ground.
 Tollere se humo, to rise from the ground.
 Hungaria, a, ui, a name of a country.
 Hunai, people, whiche came out of Scythia, and inhabited Hungary.

HYACINTHIA festa, were solemn ceremonies done in the night.
 Hyacinthinus, a, um, of violet colour.
 Hyacinthizantes, the fourth hynde of the stone called smaragdus.
 Hyacinthus, called also Vacinium, hath leaves like the poet, an handle by the in height, lesse than a maydens little finger, greene of colour; the toppe lighe downe full of purple flowers, and the roote rounde. The flower springeth out in springe tyme, with the violet and before the rose. Of this flower were fygged two sundry fables. One, that it was a boye that Apollo louch, whome by misfortune he slew, wherefore he turned hym into this flower. An other fable is, that it sprang of the bloude of Ajax, the valyaunt Greeke, and that certayne dropes of the flower, seme to expresse the figure of these two letters A. I. that herbe, whiche is commonly called Hyacinthus, is named in English Crowtoe. It is also a precious stone of the colour of golde, called a iacinct, whiche hath a souverayne vertue agaynst
 the common plague, specially if it be so woone, that it doo thouch the veyne that cometh from the herte.

HYADES, are vii. sterres, whose names are Ambrosia, Eudora, Pasithoe, Coronis, Plexau-ra, Pytho, & Tyche. They bee troublous, and cause sorowes and wundes. They goe downe the fourteenth Calendes of Maye. Poetes name them the daughters of Atlas, and Aethiopia, wherefore they been also called Atlantides. But because in lamenting they brother Hyas (slayne by a spouse) they woyned away and dyed, and therefore translated by Jupiter in to the firmament: They were afterwarde called Hyades, by the name of they brother. Some saye, that they were the nourices of Perseus, and were called

Dodonides Nymphae, of a towne and forest called Dodona. The Romaynes called them Succulae, also Paracumones.
 Hyana, or Hycon, a name of a city.
 Hyalagus, a, ui, g. a glassy, or crystal.
 Hyale, a nymphe, one of the companions of Diana.
 Hyalinus, aliquid, glassy, of the colour of glasse.
 Calices hyalini, crystal glasses.
 Hyalus, i, m, g. glasse. It is sometime taken for greene colour.
 Hyantius, and Hyantens, a, um, of Beroia.
 Hyas, anis, one that was gouernour of Beroia, of whom they were called Hyantes.
 Hyas, hyadis, like Hyades.
 Hyarbas, like Hyarbas.
 Hyberna, a region in Asia ioyning to Armenia, enuironed with the mountayne Caucasus. It is also the vnde name of Spayne.
 Hyberna, norum, n. g. plu. places where men of warre do rest them in wynter.
 Hybernaculum, i, neu. g. a place prepared for men of warre to wynter in.
 Hybernia, a, f. g. Irelande.
 Hybernici, a, um, of Irelande.
 Hyberno, aui, are, to make abode in wynter.
 Hybernus, a, um, pertyning to wynter.
 Hybernium cubiculum, a wynter chamber.
 Hybernium agni, lambes eate in wynter.
 Hybernium tempus, wynter season.
 Hyberus, a great ryuer in Spayne, nyght to Tarrhacon.
 Hybla, a, um, of the mountayne of citee.
 Hyble, a, ui, g. a name of a city.
 Hyble, es, or Hybla, a, a tice in Sicile, and a mountayne nyght to it, wherewith groweth plenty of tyme. And therefore the honye that is ther, is of all other moste pleasant.
 Hybras, an ozatour.
 Hybridæ, swyn half wyld.
 Hybris, hybris, f, m, g. a name of a city, engendred betwene an hounde and a wasp, called a hy-mer, or a mungrell. Also a kinde of haukes, which seldom is seene in the daye, but seeth his prey in the night.
 Hycca, a great fyre, whiche Hermolaus Barba-rus taketh for a surgion.
 Hydarnes, or Hydarnus, a noble man of Persia.
 Hydaspes, a greatte ryuer in Indie. Looke Idaspes.
 Hyderos, ri, m, g. a disease whan the chynne is fylled with water.
 Hydra, dra, f, m, g. a water serpente. It was also a monster, with whome Hercules fought, and as soone as he hadde striken of ens heade of the monstre, an other sprang out of the same.
 Hydram secare, to meddle with an endlesse matter, or where one mischief happeneth after another.

Hydor, hydus, or hydus idem quod aqua.
 Hydragogas, g, m, g. he that dryngeth water to a place by furrowes or trenches.
 Hydragyrum, ri, neu. gener. a certain thyng wherwith silver is golde in the steele of quicksilver.
 Hydralcon, water mixte with oyle.
 Hydrastina, na, f, g. wilde hempe.
 Hydraulax, lácis, m. g. a water forowe.
 Hydralicus, a, um, perteyning to organes, or to an instrument made to drawe up water.
 Hydraulis, lis, m. g. an organe player.
 Hydraulus, i, m. g. an instrument to pulle out the water by violence, or rather to drawe up water out of a deepe place. Also a peece of organes.
 Hydria, a, f, g. a water pottle.
 Hydrocele, hydrocelles, a disease whan a man is burste, or when the humour falleth into one of the bones.
 Hydroclericus, ci, m. g. he that is bursten.
 Hydrolapathon, thi, n. g. a water docke.
 Hydromantia, tiay, f, g. divination in calling of spirites to appeare in water.
 Hydromeli, n. g. undeclinable, water and honye sodden together.
 Hydromphalon, a deade humour gathered about the navell.
 Hydronteroccele, the disease of burstynge.
 Hydrophobia, a, f, g. a disease, when the patient feareth water exceedingly.
 Hydrophobus, bi, m. g. he that is a fearde of water, or hateth water.
 Hydropycus, a, um, that hath the droppe.
 Hydropiper, semeth to be the herbe, whych the Apothecaries commonly call Eupatorie.
 Hydropsis, sis, f, g. idem quod Hydrops.
 Hydropota, he that drynketh alwaye water.
 Hydrops, drópis, the droppe. It is a sicknesse (as Trallianus wytteth) whiche cometh of the liver, made so colde, that it maye not sufficiently boyle the meate that is received, and convert it into the substance of pure bloude, but turneth it into a watrye substance, wynde or sicume. By occasion whereof (as Galenus and Paulus saye) the liver beyng feeble, the colde matter, whiche aboundeth, is sente into other members, wherof cometh yll habyte and figure of the bodie. It proceedeth of iii. causes: of a primative cause, as by muche colde drynke immediately after labour, bairnyng, goynge longe in the sonne, or drynkinge muche fastynge. Of a proceeding cause: as of an yll complexion, hotte or colde, or oppilation, wherby good humours are let to be ingendred, and yll humours to be expulsed. Of a ioynt cause: as of water or wynde possedynge eyther all the members, or onelye theym whiche serve for nourishment of the bodie: of this sicknesse bee thre kyndes, Tympanites, Astites, Hypofarcha, Reade moze of theym in theyr places.
 Hydrus, druntis, or Hydruntum, i, a cite in Calabria, by the sea syde.

 Hydrus, i, m. gener. a water serpente. idem quod Natix.
 Hydrusa, a cite in the countrey of Athens. Also an Ilande called Andros.
 Hyela, a cite in the countrey of Oenoxia.
 Hyemalis, le, of wynter.
 Hyemalis dies, a wynter daye.
 Hyemalis vis, the penesse of wynter.
 Hyemalis locus, a colde countrey.
 Hyematio, ónis, f, g. a wynteryng.
 Hyemo, aui, are, to rest in the wynter tyme, to wynter, to make colde wether.
 Hyematus, a, um, frose.
 Hyems, emis, f, m. gener. wynter, tempest, great wethering, sometime a yer.
 Magnitudo hyemis, great wetherynge in the tyme of wynter.
 Adula hyems, the myddle parte of wynter.
 Affecta hyems, wynter almost ended.
 Sub casum hyemis, a little before the ende of wynter.
 Matura hyems, a tyme of wynter, cui apponitur tarda hyems, a latewarde wynter.
 Hyems iam præcipitauerat, it was towardes the later ende of wynter.
 Hyena, na, f, m. generis, a beaste lyke a wolfe, whiche hath a mane lyke an hore ouer all his backe and necke, but the beates be longer and harder.
 Hygris, a cite of Sarmatia, called commonly Carbardy.
 Hygreemplastra, moiste playsters.
 Hygromyza, orum, moiste ointementes.
 Hygrotes, in trees is the gumme or moisture that droppeth out.
 Hyla, a, or Hylas, la, the companion of Hercules, whom he losse in the borders of Ionia.
 Hylax, a countrey, after whiche a parte of the sea is called Hylaxum.
 Hilaxus, a Centaure, whose incontinence was cause of the warres betwene the Lapites, and the Centaures.
 Hylas, a lake of Bithynia, in the whiche (as some suppose) Hyla, Hercules companion was drowned.
 Hyllus, the sonne of Hercules by Deianira.
 Hylonome, a woman of the centaures, whiche after hir housbande was deade, clewe hir selfe with his sword.
 Hymanopodes, a lame people in Ethiopia, which haue clubbed or crooked feete.
 Himella, a river.
 Hymen, minis, neu. gener. a chime in the secreete place of a mayden, whiche whan she is defloured, is broken. Also a songe, songen at weddynges.
 Hymenæus, ai, ma. gener. the god of mariage, it is sometyme taken for mariage, also a songe or verses songen at mariages.
 Hymera, the name of a river.

of a man.
Hyphear, a kind of glim mislewe.
Hypheon, where byuers woodes bee monouns-ed under one accentus; Quandoquidem, vtcunc; &c.
Hypnales, adders, which stynging a man, he dyeth
 sleppng.
Hypocaustum, sti, neu. gene. a hotte house of stewe.
Hypochoyma, a greye humour, coueryng the eye;
 called also Glaucoma.
Hypocōndrium, drii, neu. gene. the inward parte of the bodye aboute the nauilly, and vnder the stomake.
Hypocrisis, sis, f. ge. dissimulation; feigned holy-nesse, hypocrisis.
Hypocrita, a, m. g. an hypocrite.
Hypocimpes, bowes of Dirthe tree.
Hypodēsis, or Hypodēma, ātis, n. g. a shoe.
Hypodistole, idem quod substitutio.
Hypodidascalus, an hypisther or substitute in teachng.
Hypoglossis, the little fleshe that fasteneth the tonge to the nether parte of the mouth.
Hypogēum, ei, n. ge. a place vnder the ground.
Hypogēon, idem quod Aizoum.
Hypoglossida, littell rounde thynges made by phisike to lye vnder ones tūgue, whiche is di-ceased with reumes of grese in the throte.
Hypolapathum, hū, n. g. an herbe lyke to dothe,
 named patience, and is a kynde of fojell.
Hypomnema, ātis, and Hypomnematum, ti, n.
 g. an exposition of comment.
Hypomēmia oua, egges that birdes byng forth when they be troden of other. The byrdes for males, whiche be vnprofitable, and will not be hatched.
Hypomnematographi, wryters of commentaries.
Hypofelinum, ni, idem quod olus atrum, loke
 there.
Hypopodion, dii, n. g. a fote stole.
Hypopyon, where matter renneth out of the eyes.
Hypoytes, an inner garment.
Hyposarcha, one of the kyndes of dropsy, whers by all the bodye bolneth or swelleth. It cometh by the encreasynge of bloude colde, thyn, and watrie, infused into all the membes, in the defeaute of the thirde digestion, caused by the weaknesse of the stomacke and lyuer, the wayes wher-of beynge stopped, the power whereby superflui-ties are separate and expelled, is made feeble, whereby the bodye gathereth vicious iuyce and wyndes.
Hypophagma, where the skynne of the eye by some stroke is so hurte, that the blouddē cōuerthly spreadeth ouer the eye.
Hypostasis, seos, f. gen. substance. It is also that whiche dooeth ryle in byrte, where there is good digestion, if the residence be whyte, lighte to and stynging in fūntayn lyke a prate the small ende vpwarde.

Hypotheca, a pledge, also a doctrine.
Hypothesis, an argument, matter of cause, whers vpon one should argue, dispute, or speake.
Hypothicos, a kind of fish.
Hypothyra, seos, f. gen. the doore, or res-tacher, the plate open, where the doore is, the doore room.
Hypothyron, a ground full of thesholds.
Hypozoxis, a figure contrary to Zeugma, whan every clause hath his propre verbe.
Hypozigia, all drawing castell.
Hypochorialis, a disease in horses eyes, risynge of a humour, that cometh out of the heade.
Hypsā, a riuer of Sicile.
Hypsa, a blinde woman's name in Hozar.
Hypsenor, the sonne of Dolopio, whiche was slayne by Euripilus at the siege of Troy.
Hysphicra, the wyfe of kynge Mithydates, whis che folowed hym in all his warres, beyng armed lyke a knyght.
Hysphile, the daughter of Thoas kynge of Lemnos, whiche whan the women there, by a common consent, had slayne all the men of that countrey in one nyght, saued hir father. After whan Jason goeyng towarde the conqueste of the golden flice, came vnto Lemnos, he beeyng in loue with him, concerned by hym two children wyppnes, and whan they were borne, the women of the countrey woulde haue put hir to death, for the sauyng of hir father; but she in sleeyng was taken by pyrates, and geuen to Apyrgus kynge of Armea, whose sonne he noursished. Wherhan the Argyues wente to destroye Chetee, Hysphile, whyle she wente to shewe to the Argyues a fountayne, left the childe kynge on the grasse, who was slayne by a serpente. Wherfore whan the father of the childe woulde haue put hir to death, the kynge of the Argyues defended and saued hir. Some other wyte, that Hysphile (whan she perceyued Jason dyd not retourne to hir agayne, accordynge to his promyse) threwe hir selfe into the sea, and was drowned.
Hyrkania, a countrey in Asia.
Hyrcanius, a, um, of Hyrcania.
Hyrkanum mare, the sea nowe called Mare Abas-cuk, or Mare de Sala.
Hyrium, a cite of Apulia, called commonly Le-sioa.
Hyracus, a Croiane, father of Apulus, Ieneas companion.
Hysginum, a colour lyke scarlet.
Hysopytes, a, m. g. and figurately, n. g. a wyne made with hylope.
Hysopus, pi, m. g. or Hysopum, pi, n. g. an herbe called hylope.
Hysteralgia, peyne of the bealy.
Hystorologia, & Hysteron proteron, a maner of spekyng where the last is set before the fyrste, and as it is sayed, the rarte before the horse.

OF blide wyters was used for V, as Maritimum
for Maritimum.
I, is the impera-
tue made of Eo,
and dweth signys
fie, go thou. It is also a fourme of speaking, when we doo correcte, exhorte, or moche

any man.

I nunc, & rebus nimium confide, secundis,
Go to and put all thy trust in prosperite.

I nunc, & dormientem exita, Go thy way and awake hym.

Ia, was the yonger daughter of Atlas, and counteth as muche as a boye.

Iacchus, one of the names of Bacchus, called god of wyne.

Iacea nigra, is, (as Brunfelsius supposeth) the herbe, whiche is called Morfus diabolii.

Iaceo, cui, ere, to lye, to extende out, or bee of length, sometimes to be, to be able, to be unknowe, to be unable, to be dead, to be condemned, or naught set by, to be vile, and of no price.

In medio campus iacet, In the myddes is a felde.

Ille iacet, he is dead.

Maximas vero virtutes iacere necesse est, vo-luptate dominante. Carnall delectation ru-lyng, nedes muste excellent vertues be nothyng sette by.

Iacent, they are without vertue, courage, or estimation.

Iacent virtutes, vertue is naught set by.

Iacent precia, they are of a lowe price.

Iacet grauitas, he lieth sicke.

Iacer oratio, the oracion is without any grace or spirite, or hath no lyfe or quicknesse.

Iacens animus, a desperate mynde, or out of courage.

Iacente te, thou beyng syche.

Iacere alteri ad pedes, to lye at ones fete, humblylly intreatyng hym.

Iacere prostratum, to lye alonge.

Iacere in obliuione & silencio, to be forgotten and nothyng spoken of.

Iacere in occulto, to be nothyng renoumed or famous.

In lacertis alicuius iacere, to lye clipped in ones
armes.

Iacere inultum, to remayne unpunished, or to die without reuengement.

Iacere in merore, to remayne in great heauy-
nesse.

Iacere in sordibus, to lye as a desperate persone, that passeth not what becommeth of hym
selfe.

Rationes iacent, I can not tell what to saye.

Iacent studia, studie and learning is nothyng regarded.

Iacent his testibus, they are confounded wth these witnesses.

Iacere, to be deade.

Iacens, lyeing, beyng situate, also slow, sicke.

Signis, & iacens.

Iacio, ieci, iacere, to throwe, to caste, to hurle, to mowe, sometimes to set on lape, to maite, to tell, to speake, to publyshe abroad.

Iacere fundamentum, to set on lape a foundation: by translation to geue an occasion, or to make waye to any thyng.

Præcepta se iecit in agros, he ranne headlonge into the felde.

Iacere aggerem, to make a bulwarke, or construction.

Edictum in populum iacere, to publyshe, or set abrode proclamacions.

Gradum or aditum iacere, to make waye, or entrance to a thyng.

Odorem iaciunt, they sende out a greet saoure.

Contumelias & probra in aliquem iacere, to scape, or speake ill of one.

Iacere minas, to threaten, or manace.

Quærelas & quærimoniam iacere, to complayne.

Iacere ridiculum, to speake, or byynge forth a mery geste, to be laughed at.

Iacere sermones, to common, or talke.

Significationes iacere, to shewe by tokens and signes, to signifie.

Iacob, a patriarche, sonne of Isaac.

Iacobus, a propre name, in englyshe James.

Iactans, anis, tasyng, bostyng, crakyng, auau-ntyng.

Iactantior gestus, proude, or statelie gesture, a bragge.

Iactanter, bostyngly, braggyngly, proude.

Iactatio, ônis, f. g. a verynge, or troubyng, a tol-lyng, or shakynge, a mowynge, or gestyng, a cal-tyng, a bostyng, crakyng, or auauentyng.

Iactatio corporis, the mowynge of the bodye.

Insolentiam & iactacionem hominum ferre, insolencie and braggyng.

Temporum nostrorum iactatio, the trouble.

Iactantia, idem.

Iactator, ôris, masc. gen. a craker, or boster, a glorious persone, that maketh auauente of his owne preyse.

Iactatus, a, um, tossed hyther and thither, diuen from quoste to quoste.

Iactatus, us, maf. gen. a tossyng, a tasyng, a mo-uyng.

Iactito, aui, are, to beate often.

Iacto, aui, are, to throwe, to reuolue, to caste, or toss, in the mynde, to bere, to throwe downe, and beate, to auauance and gloze, to speake vaynelye, to set forth, to toss, to caste out.

Iactare brachium, to wagge, or swynge the arme.

lactare caput, to caste the heade nowe on the tone syde, nowe on the tother.
 lactare oculos, to gaze about, now on one syde, nowe on an other.
 lactare pectore curas, to caste and reuolue in ones mynde diuers serious matters.
 lactari febri, to bee tourmented with a feuer or ague.
 lactare dicta iocosa, to hyunge forth mery scoles ses or gestes.
 lactari sermonibus, to be communed or talked of abode.
 lactatur hoc vulgo, this is commonly talked abode.
 lactare se magnificentissime, to praple and aduance ones selfe aboue the mone.
 Ventis lactamur, we be driuen and tossed nowe into one quost, now into an other.
 lactari vitio, to be spitefully spoken of, to be rat-led agaynst.
 lactuose, and lactuosus, are redde in nogod au-thour.
 lactura, a, f. g. losse, damage, proppely thynges caste out of a shyppe in tyme of tempest.
 lactus, a, um, caste, laped.
 lactus, us, ma. gen. a thowe, a hurle, a caste, a draught with a nette in fyshyng.
 laculabilis, le, that maye be hurled or caste.
 laculatio, onis, f. ge. laculamen, & laculamentum, ti, a shotte or cast with a darte or iauelyn.
 laculátor, óris, m. ge. he that hurleth a darte or iauelyn, or one that shoteh.
 laculátorius, a, um, that pertyneth to shotyng or castyng of dartes.
 laculátrix, trícis, f. g. the feminine.
 láculo, aui, are, is sometyne read.
 lácutor, áris, ári, to shote or caste farre.
 láculum, li, neu. gene. any thyng that maye bee shotte or caste farre, moste commonlye a darte or lyght iauelyn.
 láculus, li, ma. gene. a serpente that lyeth vnder trees, and sodaynlye with a metuaylous violens-ce, percereth any beaste, whyche happeneth to passe by hym.
 Iadera, a towne of Illyricum.
 Ialyfos, a citee of Rhodes.
 Iam, nowe, yet, mozkouer, ouer and besides this,
 furthermoze, also incontinent, or forthwith, immediately, by and by, ere it bee long, nowe at the length, sometyne for Tunc, than.
 Iam ne imus? why tarie we? Shall we not goe nowe?
 Iam diu, longe agone, a great whyle, long sens.
 Iam dudum, nowe late, but a whyle sens.
 Iam dudum, is spoken of a shotte tyme, as of one, two, thre, or foure houres, and is most commonly ioyned with verbes of the presente tense, and significth the acte to continue styll.
 Iamdudum, a pety whyle sens and yet styll.
 Iam dudum hic adsum, I haue been here a god
 whyle.

Iam dudum animus est in patinis, my mynde
 is on my dyner, and hath been a good whyle.
 Iam dudum, sometyne for Iam primum.
 Iam iam, euen nowe, by and by, streyght waye.
 Iam inde, incontinent after.
 Iam olim, a great whyle agone, also in tyme past.
 Iam pridem, a littell whyle past, but late, sometyme forthwith, also a good whyle agone, longe sens. Iam pridem, is spoken of somewhat longer tyme than Iam dudum, as of five or sixe mones thes or yeres, or moze, or lesse, as the thyng re-quyeth: and is ioyned with the presente tense, as Iam dudum is.
 Iam tum, for that tyme, euen than, or euen at that tyme.
 Iam, already, er this, by this time.
 Iam rediisse oportuit, Thou shouldest haue been here agayne by this tyme.
 Iam, for Amplius: as,
 Neque iam lactantes appellantur, Neether be they any moze called suckyng pygges.
 Iam, for post hac: as,
 Vestrum iam consilium est, Nowe hereafter it is your parte to consulte or take hede herof.
 Iam biennium est cum mecū ille rem cepit,
 It is now fully two yeres sens he beganne. &c.
 Iam a pueris, euen of lyttell babes or chyldern.
 Plus iam anno scio, It is moze than a yere sence
 I knewe it.
 Iam diu est, quod ventri victum non datis,
 Ye haue not founde my bely meate and dyneke
 many a daye.
 Iam diu factum est, postquam bibimus, It is a great whyle sens we dranke.
 Iam iam q, quickly, speedily, by and by, also from hence forth.
 Iam inde ab adolescentia, Euen from his youg age.
 Iam indevsque à pueritia, cōtinually, euer sens
 he was a littell chyld.
 Iam nunc, euen nowe.
 Iam pridem est mihi amicissimus, He is a great frend of myne, and hath been many a day.
 Iam primum, nowe fyrst of all, nowe and neuer before, also firste and for mozte.
 Iambeus, that is of the foote in meeter called Iambus.
 Iamblicus, a philosopher of Pythagoras secte, scholar of Porphyrius.
 Iambus, a foote in meter, haupnge the fyrst sillable
 shorte, and the other longe.
 Iamefa, a creke of the Britayne sea.
 Iamno, a towne of the people called Baleares.
 Iana, the name of Diana.
 Ianassa, a nymphe.
 Ianiculum, li, neu. gen. a parte of Rome, and a mountayn in it, also a gate of the same name.
 Ianira, the daughter of Oceanus and Cethys.
 Ianitor, óris, masc. gene. a porter or a keeper of a gate.

Ianitor,

Ianitor carceris, a keeper of a prison.
Ianitorix, the feminine.
Ianitrices, bee also the wives of two brethren.
Iantha, a daughter of Oceanus and Cethus.
Ianthinus, a, um, violet colour, of purple.
Ianalis, le, of Janus.
Ianua, or, forth, ge. a gate; sometime a doore by translation, a waye of entrie to a thing.
A ianua quere aliquom yte of the for one at the gate of doore.
Quamquam qua nolui ianua sum ingressus in castrum, Although I have entered into my citie by that occasion that I would not haue entered by my good will.
Ianuarius, the moneth of Ianuer.
Ianuall, n, g. a kind of cakes consecrated to Ianus.
Ianius, some suppose to be Saturne, some to be Japhet; one of the sonnes of Noe: Accotaleth hym the superiour worlde of heauen: He was made haupnge two faces of visages, eyther because the heauen tournyng, the pere continually where it began: or elles because it knoweth what is past, and foretelleth what shall happen: Ianius claudere, in olde tyme signified to make this verfall peace. For in the temple of Ianus at Rome, were two doores, which were opened whan the Romanes made warre: and whan warre was finished, and all thinges in quiete, then were they shut. Ianus was also a place in Rome, whither vsurers resorted.
Iapetus, the father of Prometheus, sonne of Caelum & Terra.
Iapigia, a countrey in the realme of Naples, called Calabria.
Iapigium, a promontory in Iapigia.
Iapis, the propre name of Aetolus.
Iapix, iapigis, the sonne of Medalus, kynge of Calabria, whiche of hym was called iapigia. also a western wynde, whiche cometh out of the partes of Apulia.
Iarbas, like Hiarbas.
Iarchas, the chief of the philosophers of Inde.
Iaron, ri, neut. gener. idem quod Dracontium maius.
Iasiades, the sonne or newewe of Iasius.
Iasis, Athalanta, the daughter of Iasius.
Iasius, the brother of Dardanus, and sonne of Electra, also Iasius is the father of Palinurus.
Iasminum, a tree, and litle floure called Iasemine.
Iason, Iasonis, he that fyrst conquered the golden floure, and made the notable expedition in to Cholchos, the sonne of Aeson and Alhimece.
Iasionium, a promontorie of Cappadocia, called S. Thomas.
Iaspideus, a, um, of the colour of Iasper stone.
Iaspis, idis, a stone called Iasper.
Iasponix, nicis, m. g. a precious stone as white as snowe.
Iasum, an yle of Caria, lyngge toward the maine lande.
Iatraléptes, tæ, m. g. a phisicion or surgion, which cureth with oymntes.

Iatraléptes esphig, curing by oymntes.
Iatronice, a booke of phisike.
Iatros, a phisician.
Iaus, a phisician.
Iaxamans, people about Spaine.
Iaxartes, a river of Scythia in Asia.
Iaxres, a river of Scythia.
Iaziges, people of Media in Europe, on the south part of Germany, called now Saperm in castre: Iazigis alpe Sibenburgh, it hath on the north, Armenia: on the west and south, Germanie and Pannonie in the east: Iazigis Dacia.

I ANTE B.

Iberia, the name of Hibernia.
Iberia, the aunciente name of Spaine: also an other countrey nigh to Germany: It is of some written with H. and anglicke, Iberia & Iberi, & Ibres, Spayardes, or men of the other Iberia.
Iberica, or, f. g. an herbe called of olde wytted Spantum.
Iberis, or Hiberis, an herbe lyke to cresses, but muche greater, the stalk is a litle cabite of height. In sommer it beareth a whyte floure, and hath a litle seeds, whiche groweth aboute all the stalken. Hermodas doth interpret it wyld cresses: Panardus wytteth, that some men call it Lepidium: Aetius calleth it Cardamina, whiche in latin is Nasturium, in Englysh cresses. wherfore I thinke it to be a hynde of cresses.
Ibericus, a, um, of Iberia.
Iberus, a river in Spayne.
Ibi, there, than, whan that was down.
Ibi viast, there as he is.
Duxi vxorem, quam ibi miseriam vidi. I maryed a wyfe, what miserie and wretchednesse dyd I perceyue to be therein?
Ibi homo me cepit obsecrare, Than he began to entreate me.
Ibi mori scilicet sum, per mare, and thereabout I am, or thereupon I thinke of muse.
Ibidem, there, or in the same place, sometime in the same thyng.
Ibidem mihi adnunt, he berked to me out of the same place where he was.
Ibidem loci res erit, the matter wyll be in the same case.
Ibicus, a porten name of Regium in Italy.
Ibis, ibis, vel bidis, f. g. a foule or byrde of Egypt, whiche is hygge, and hath wyte legges, and a longe byll. They pofyte muche to the countrey in kylling and eatyng of serpentes, whiche out of Libya, be caried into Egypte, with a southern wynde. also it is taken for an enuious person, loke. Phil. li. 8. cap. 27.

Icadus, a notable robber.
Icaria, an yle in the sea Icarium, whiche is also called Icaros.
Icaris paronymicum, of Icarus.
Icarus or Icarus, the father of the chaste Penelope. There was an other Icarus, the sonne of Dedalus, who hauynge wynges, with his father flew out of the yle of Crete: But whan he flew hygher than his father commaunded: the waxe, wherewith the fethers of his wynges were glued, melted with the heate of the sonne. And the fethers fallinge of, Icarus was constrained to fall into the sea, afterwarde called Mare Icarium. Also Icarus is a mounteyne in the region of Athens.
Ichneumon, néumonis, m. g. a beast of Egypt, whiche is now called a moule of Indie, of the greatnesse of a catte, & is fashioned lyke a moule, who creepeth into the body of a crocodyll, whan he gapeth, and eatyng his bowelles, cleareth him. it is also a kynde of waspe.
Ichneuta, idem quod Ichneumon.
Ichrei asinus, the herbe maioram.
Ichnographia, x, f. g. is a plot concerning buydyng, wherein is onely conteyned the plate, wheron the buydyng shall stande, hauyng lightly described with rule and compasse, the foume and facion of euery cource, quadrant, and floore therin comprehended. also an instrument lyke a compasse, wherewith are made the descriptions of the sonne.
Ichthycusa, the yle called Icaros.
Ichthylóbolus, li, m. g. a fysher.
Ichthyocolla, a fysh, of whose skynne water glewe is made: And the same glewe is called also Ichthyocolla.
Ichthya, x, f. m. g. an instrument, wherewith a childe beyng deade in the mothers wombe, is cutte forth.
Ichthyóphagi, people by south Indie, whiche doe eat onely fysh, and also theyr cattell is fedde therewith. They weare garmentes of fysh skynnes. Also (as Strabo writeth) theyr houses be made with whales bones and oyster shelles. The ribbes of the fishes make the beames and rafters, of the iawes are made the doores, of the backes bones are made moztars, wherin the fysh is pounned, and dried at the sonne, and thereof they make breadde mingled with a littell wheate. Arrianus, lib. 8. writeth, that the ribbes of whales (seene there, by the capitayns of king Alexander) were about xxxviij. fote. di. longe, wherewith their houses were buylded.
Ichthyopóla, lx, ma. gene. a fishmonger, a seller of fysh.
Ichthyopolion, polii, n. g. a fish market.
Ichthyotrophium, phii, n. g. a ponde of stewe, wherin fysh is nourished & fedde.
Ichthys, a promontory in Icaria.
Ico, ici, ere, ictum, to stryke.
Icere fœdus, to make a league or truce.

Icon, iconis, f. g. an ymage.
Iconicus, a, um, so peynted or fourmed, that in euery member the very similitude is expressed.
Iconcula, a spile ymage.
Iconismus, mi, m. g. a description.
Iconium, a towne in the country of Strile: an other in Asia the laste, it is also a mans owne ymage lyke hym selfe.
Icosium, a towne in Mauritania Cæsariensis, buylded by the companions of Hercules.
Ictericus, he that is diseased with the jaundise.
Icterus, icteri, m. g. a fysh, whych if a man take of the jaundise doe see, he shall be healed.
Icteros, a synchneffe called the jaundise.
Ictis, idis, a white weasel, whych destroyeth beest fialles, and eateth the hony. After Crasus it is a furret. For he saith, the latines call it Viverra, loke the prouerbe, I modo venare leporem, where he correcteth a place in Plautus.
Ictus, a, um, stricken.
Ictus, us, m. g. a stripe or stroke, a blowe.
Ictus fulminis, a blasting with lychtning.
Ictus serpentis, the syngyng of a serpent.
Ianguidus ictus pulsum, a feeble beating of the poulls.
Iclinare ictum, to auoyde a blowe.
Icti, is sometyme red in the genitive case.
Ictus, a famous wrestler of Carentine, whych to be the stronger, absteyned from women all his lyfe.

ID, that, loke Is.
Id quod res est, whych is trouthe, as the matter is in dede, as the trueth is.
Id ætatis, of that age.
Id curat scilicet, he careth muche therfore. whiche is spoken, as who sayeth, he careth nothyng for it.
Id locorum, for Id.
Id temporis, at that tyme, or suche a tyme.
Id temporis est, the tyme is suche.
Ida, x, f. m. gen. a mountayne, whych lieth nigh the Troye.
Idæi dactili, people called also Coribantes. also a precious stone lyke a mans thombe, wherof be many founde in Landie.
Idæus, a, um, of the mountayn Ida.
Idælium, a mountayne and citee in the Ile of Ege, pyres dedicated vnto Venus.
Idælius, a, um, of that mountayne, or of Venus.
Idanthyrus, a famous kyng of Scythia, whych subdued a great parte of Asia.
Idas, x, the husbnde of Marpissa, a man of excellent fauour and beautee.
Idaspes, a ryuer rennyng by Parthia and Inde, and at laste falleth into the great ryuer called Indus. In this ryuer is founde muche golde and precious stones.
Idcirco, or Iccirco, therfore, for that cause.
Idea, the figure conceived in imagination, as it were were a substance perpetuall, and lyke as of one scale proceedeth many pyntes, so of one Idea of a man, procede many thousandes of men. and semblable of other Ideas, procede thynges innumerable. So that Idea, be as it were external examples, wherby al other thynges be creas-

 ted. and this is Idea, wherof Plato speaketh.
 Idem, the same thyng, or the same man. also lyke or semblable.
 Idem es qui soles, Thou arte the same man that thou were wonte to be.
 In eisdem illis locis, in the very selfe same places.
 Idem dicere semper, to be alwaies in one minde or opinion.
 Vno & eodem tempore, at the very selfe same
 tyme.
 Alter idem, one as lyke as it were the selfe same person.
 Animus erga te idem est ac fuit, My mynde or affection towards you is as it hath been afoze tyme.
 Idem ætatis, for eisdem ætatis.
 Magis eadem, more lyke the same woman.
 Dianam & Lunam eandem esse putant, they thynke Diana and the moone to be all one.
 Idem valet ac si pater iudicaret, It is al one as if your father dyd iudge the matter.
 Identidem, eisdones, nowe and than amonge,
 euer nowe and than, often or diuers tymes,
 with a certayne space betwene.
 Ideo, for that cause.
 Idicus, a, um, of the mountayne Ida.
 Idiographæ literæ, a priuate letter.
 Idiographum, phi, n. g. a priuate wrytyng.
 Idioma, omatis, n. g. a ppropie fourme of speche.
 Idiopathia, æ, form. gene. the ppropie facion of a disease.
 Idiota, æ, com. gener. a man or woman vnslearned.
 Idipsum, the same thyng, or one thyng.
 Idmon, a soothsayer, the sonne of Apollo and Asteria.
 Idolum, lij, n. g. a littell Idolle.
 Idololatra, æ, m. g. a wooshipper of ymages, an ydolater.
 Idololatria, tria, f. g. ydolatrie, wooshippyng of ydols.
 Idolothyrtum, ti, n. gen. that whiche is offered vnto ydols.
 Idolothyria, æ, offeryng to ymages.
 Idolum, li, n. g. an ydoll, an ymage.
 Idomeneus, a kyng of Candie, whiche came with the Grekes to Troy. In his retorne beyng troubled with tempestes, he bowed, that yf he returned saule into his realme, he woulde offer what so euer he mette fyrste. Wherefoze whan he woulde haue offered his sonne, who fyrst mette him at his landyng: the people arose agaynst him, and dyaue him out of the countrey.
 Than sayled he into Apulia, and builded a citee, whiche he called Petilia, on the mountayne Saslentinum in Calabye.

 Idonie, aptly, conueniently, fytly.
 Idoneus, a, um, apt, mete, ppropie, conuenient,
 also able, sufficient, profitable.
 Idoneus author, a substantiall and sufficient authour.
 Idoncum tempus, a conuenient tyme.
 Aprus & Idoneus.
 Idonea, orum, n. g. plu. mete and apte places.
 Idotea, the daughter of Idæus kyng of Ae-gyptes.
 Idula, idula, f. g. a sheepe that was offered euer Idus vnto Jupiter.
 Idumæa, a region in Siria ioyning to Egypte,
 and bordereth vpon Palestina.
 Idume, a citee in the countrey called Idumæa, ad-bout the whiche are abundance of palme or date trees.
 Idus, iduum, plu. tantum, the Ides of monethes whiche doo diuide Nonas from Calendas.
 Idyia, the wyfe of Aexia, kyng of Colchis.

Iecinorosi, men speke in the lyuer.
 Iecoraria, æ, form. gene. an herbe called liuers woozte.
 Iecur, iecoris, & iecinoris, n. gen. the liuer of a man or other thyng lyuyng.
 Iecusculum, li, n. g. a littell lyuer.
 Ieiune, barely, basely, coldely, slenderly.
 Ieiunium, nij, neu. g. fastyng, or the tyme that men doo faste, fastyng day.
 Ieiunitas, atis, f. g. barenesse, basenesse, or slen-dernesse of style.
 Ieiuno, aui, are, to fast or absteyne.
 Ieiunum, i, n. ge. the guite, whiche goeth downe to the foundement.
 Ieiunus, a, um, fastyng, that fasteth. And by a metaphoze, gredy, hungrie, bare or barene, sterile.
 Ieiunum solum, a barene ground.
 Ieiunus stilus, a bare or base stile, that is not thyng entyched with weyghtie and pythy sentences.
 Ieiuni penates, an house of small chere, or colde roste.
 Ieiuna auiditas, a gredy appetite to meate.
 Ieiuna salua, fastyng spittle.
 Ieiunus animus, a base mynde of small capadcitee.
 Iëns, euntis, goyng.
 Ientaculum, li, n. g. a breakefast.
 Iento, aui, are, to eate meate afoze dinner, to breake ones fast.
 Iërna, a ryuer of Spayne.
 Ierusalem, the chiefe citee of Iudea.
 Iës, etis, a citee of Achaia, situate vpon a promon-torey of the same name.
 Iësus, the sonne of god, and of the moste pure virgine

virgine Mary, Although in the common translation of the Bible in latine, it seemeth there were dyuers other Jewes so named: yet in the hebrue tongue, as Becline writeth in his booke Devers bo mirifico, there was some diuersite in the letters of the name of our sauour, from them that were in the othe called Iesus. For in his glorious and wonderfull name were the bowelles called Tetragrammaton, with one consonante, called Schin, whiche is one S of the hebrues, wherein was a mysticall or hid signification of his diuinitie, although the whole name be interpreted Sauour: who beyng equall in diuinitie with god the father, begotten of him before the worlde was created, and without tyme, wyllynge for the redemption of man, descended in to the body of the blessed virgine, and was conceived in hir by the holy gost, the thyrde person in godhead, and of hir bozne the 3962. yere after the creation of the worlde: and beyng God and man, lyued here. 32. yeres in fourme of posteritee, and than beyng betrayed by his owne disciple, was by the Jewes (his owne people) most cruelly rayled on the Crosse, the yere after the creation of the worlde. 3994.

I ANTE G.

Igitur, therfore, from thens forth, afterwarde, than.

Quid igitur faciam? Than what shall I dooe?

Ignarus, a, um, ignorant, not knowyng.

Ignarus es morum meorum, thou knowest not my facions.

Ignarus philosophie, one that hath no skill in philosophie.

Ignarus docendi, he that knoweth not the way to instructe or teache.

Ignarus sences tuarum lacrymarum esse me, you thynke that I knowe not why you wepe.

Ignatius, an holy bishop of Antioche, the thyrde after saynt Peter, disciple to saint John the Evangelist. In the tyme of Traian he was condemned to bee deuoured of beastes, and as he was ledde toward Rome with tenne menne of warre, whom for their crueltee, he called Leoparides, he by the way confyrmmed all christen men in the faythe, as well by prayers as by letters, sayng in this wyse: So that I may fynde Christ and imbrace hym, I woulde there shoulde come vnto me fyre, gybbettes, beastes, crals, mynge of bones, rentyng of all the bodie, and all the tourmentes of the dyuell. When he hearde the roynge of Lyons, whiche shoulde deuoure him: he ioyously said: I am the wheate of Christe, let me be grounde with beastes teeth, that I may be founde to be pure and fyne manchet. He was martyred after the incarnation about. lxxx. yeres.

Ignauus, cowardly, slowly, with a false herte.

Ignauia, a, f. g. cowardnesse: also lacke of courage, lythernesse.

Ignauit, he made him a foole.

Ignauiter, idem quod ignauus.

Ignauus, a, um, cowardly, lyther, vniuersally, false herted, that taketh away the strength of courage of a thyng. also vnprofitable, good to no vse, of no strength of force, slouthfull.

Ignauus, i, a slouch, a lacke, a lubber, a lardene one that wyl doo no labour, one that wyl not doo nothing but eate, drynke and sleape.

Ignauus dolor, sorrow that maketh one sluggish, slouthfull or vniuersally.

Succus ignauus, a rype that hath no force nor vertue.

Igneco, es, ere, to bee on fyre, to tounne to fyre, to burne.

Ignesco, scere, idem quod igneco.

Ignescunt irae, id est, accenduntur.

Igneus, a, um, that is brighte, or shyneth lyke fyre, fyre.

Ignia, certayne fautes, whiche earthen pottes haue in the realyng.

Igniarium, ij, n. g. ante thyng, out of the which fyre may be striken. also woode that taketh and kendleth fyre quickly. It may be vsed for a fyre bore.

Igniarius lapis, a flynt stone, out of the which fyre is striken.

Igniculus, li, m. g. a sparke of fyre. It is also an instinctiō that a man naturally hath to vertue and honestee.

Virilis igniculus, a sparke of manly courage or vertue.

Igniculus desiderij, the motion or instinctiō of ones desyre or appetite.

Ignisatio, feci, ere, to set on fyre.

Ignifer, a, um, that beareth fyre.

Ignifluus, a, um, that floweth with fyre.

Ignio, iui, ire, to inflame.

Ignipes, ignipedis, that hath a fyre foote.

Ignispicium, cij, n. g. diuination by fyre.

Ignipotens, one of the surnames of Vulcanus.

Ignis, is, mascu. gene. fyre. Sometime it is taken for an harlotte. Sometime for loue. Sometime lighnyng.

Ignis sacer, a soze, wherein is an extedynng inflammation and bournyng.

Ignis sancti Antonij, a discafe, whiche doeth mortifie and corrupte the membze.

Adiuuare ignem, loke Adiuuo.

Debacchatur ignis, the fyre rageth.

Ignem elicere, or excutere, to strike fyre.

Subicere ignem, to put fyre vnder a thyng, and by translation to minister matter of enuy or hatred.

Facere ignem, to make a fyre.

Astrorum ignes, the sterres.

Ignitabulum, li, n. g. a fyre panne.

Igni-

Ignitus, a, um, f. p. p. verie hotte.
Ignitum vinum, verie hotte or stronge wyne.
Igniuomus, a, um, he that spitteth fyre. the sunne is sometyme so called.
Ignobilis, le, vnnoble, vnknowen, foolyshe, of none estimation.
Ignobilis & inglorius.
Surdæ & ignobiles herbæ, herbes that be not knowen, or any thyng spoken of.
Ignobile gramen, a vile weede that groweth euery where.
Ignobili de loco natus, of a base or vnknowen stocke or kynred.
Ignobilitas, âtis, f. m. gene. basenesse of birth vnnoblenesse.
Ignominia, a, f. g. reproche, infamie, slander, rebuke, diswoorship.
Concisus ignominijs, spitefully slandered with yll reportes.
Ignominia est, it is taken for a great rebuke or diswoorship.
Ignominia notari, to be defamed.
Afficere ignominia, to defame, to slander, to put to dishonour.
Ignominiatus, a, um, defamed. A woode oute of vse.
Ignominiosus, a, um, infamous, slanderous, reprochfull, dishonourable.
Ignominis, ne, without renoume, not famous, of no estimation.
Ignorantia, a, f. m. gener. ignorance, lacke of knowlage, and is referred to the witte of a person.
Ignoratio, ônis, lacke to be knowen, and pertyneth to the thyng or arte.
Non negligentia, sed ignoracione rerû omnium factum est, It chaunced not through my negligence, but by meane I dyd know nothing, or by reason that all thynges were to me vnknowen.
Ignoratio sui, whan one for pride dooeth not knowe him selfe.
Ignôro, aui, are, not to knowe, to be ignozante.
Ne quid huius rei ignores, That you may not be ignozant in any poynt of this mattier.
Ignoras me, you know not what a felowe I am, or what maner of man I am.
Ignorat nomen suum, he hath forgotten his owne name.
Ignoratur, the passiu.
Ignoscibilis, le, tollerable, to be pardoned.
Ignoscens, entis, that quickly forgeueth or pardoneth.
Ignoscencia, a, f. g. pardonynge, forgeuyng.
Ignoscencior, the comparatiue, ignoscens, id est, propensior ad ignoscendum, moored to forgeue or pardon.
Ignosco, noui, scere, to learne and know perfectly. also to forgeue, to pardon, to haue excused, not to knowe, or be ignozant.
A me quæ feram ignoscite, Dooe you knowe or learne of me diligently suche thynges as I will tell you.

Ignosco, is sometime a verbe actiue, and transitiue, and gouerneth an accusatiue and a dative case: as, Ignoscas mihi hoc vnum delictum, pardon me this one faute.
Ignôtus, a, um, vnknowen. also ignozant. Sometyme Ignôtus, is vled for ignobilis.
Obscurus & ignorus.
Pondus auri ignotum, an vnknowen substance of golde and money.
Terra ignota, an vnknowen countrey.

I ANTE L.

Illa, le, f. g. the least portion of a thyng that may be imagined. also the stuffyng of a pudgyng or other lyke thyng.
Ilba, or Ilua, an pland in the Tuscan sea, where is great plentie of cozne.
Ile, lis, n. g. plu. Ilia, lium, the guttes.
Ileus, vel Ileus, lei, m. g. the colyke.
Ilex, ilicis, f. m. ge. a tree called of some holmes, wherof one kynde beareth grayne, which the Arabians call hermes.
Ilia, lium, n. g. great guttes.
Iliacus dolor, the frettyng of the guttes.
Iliacus, a, um, of Troia.
Ilias, adis, the warke of Homere of the siege of Troie.
Illias malorum, a prouerbe vled whan manye and great mischiefes and misfortunes happen to a man.
Ilerda, a citee of Spayne called Leyda.
Iliberis, a citee in the prouince of Narbon.
Ilicet, quasi ire licet, a woode, wherby it was notified to the iudges, that they myght departe whan they would. As one would saie, goe whan ye luste, or ye may departe whan ye will, ye may goe make your cares, and signifieth the mattier to be ended. Also by and by, quickly, incontinent. Sometyme it is an aduerbe of affirmynge.
Ilicetum, ti, n. ge. a place where holme groweth.
Iliceus, a, um, of holme.
Ilicó, looke Illicó.
Ilienses, auncient people of the yle Corsica.
Iligneus, or llignus, a, um, idem quod iliceus.
Ilione, the proper name of a daughter of Priamus.
Ilioneus, the proper name of a Troian.
Ilissus, the name of a ryuer in the prouince of Athens.
Ilithia, a name of Diana.
Ilium, the palace of Priamus. It is taken for Troie.
Ilius, a, um, of Troy.
Illabefactus, a, um, that was neuer made weake or feeble.
Illabor, eris, âbi, to slippe or slippe in, to renne or flow in, to fall in, to enter in.
Illabi animos, to fall or slippe into the myndes of

of men.
 Mediæ illabitur urbi, it flydeth forth into the myddes of the citee.
 Illaboratus, a, um, that whiche is made or done without labour.
 Illac, on that syde.
 Hac aque illac perfluo, I renne out or leake on euery syde.
 Illacerabilis, le, that can not be tozne or rent.
 Illaceffitus, a, um, vnclered, vnprouehed.
 Illachrymabilis, le, vnmercyfull, that will not be moued with pitee.
 Illachrymo, aui, are, to weepe or lamente vehemently. Sometyne to sweate or sende forth a moyste humour.
 Illachrymare mortem alicuius, To weepe or lament for ones death.
 Illado, lafi, adere, to violate or breake.
 Legem illadere, to breake a lawe.
 Illafus, a, um, not hurte.
 Illatibilis, le, without mirth, or lackyng myrthe or pleasure, forowfull.
 Illapfus, us, m. g. a flydyng or fallyng in.
 Illaqueo, aui, are, to tie or bynde, to share, or entangle.
 Illatebro, aui, are, to hyde in corners.
 Illaudabilis, le, and Illaudatus, a, um, not woorthy to be named, woorthy no prais or commendation, woorthy no honest reposte.
 Ille, he: Sometyne for Aliquis, some man. It is often vfed Emphasis gratia.
 Ille Caro, that same my frende Cato, that is to fo renoumed and known.
 Ego ille, euen I the verie same person, that. &c.
 Apkewse Ipse ille, Noster ille, Ille iste, Ille alter, be elegantly ioygned together for a moze expresse notyfing of the thyng or persone.
 Ne illum talem praripiam tibi, Lest he shoulde begyle thee of fuche a ioly felowe as he is: or of hym, beyng a man of so greate price and woorthynesse.
 Illac, for illa hac.
 Illecebra, thynges delectable, that draweth and allureth the mynde to imbrace it, a flukyng enticement, a lure.
 Illecebrose, wantonly, with a wanton intyfyng or alluryng.
 Illecebrofus, a, um, that whiche pleasauntly allureth one to fauour it.
 Illecfamentum, i, neu. ge. a lure, a prouocation, an inticement.
 Illecfio, aui, are, to draw pleafantly.
 Illecfum, a thyng vned.
 Illecfus, us, m. ge. an intyfyng or alluryng.
 Illecfus, a, um, pleafantly fpyred or prouoked, intyfed, allured, tolled.
 Illegitime, vnlaufull.
 Illegitimi, vnlawfully begotten, basterdes.
 Illepide, vnpleafantly, without grace.
 Illepidus, a, um, without delectacion or grace, vnpleafant.

Illex, illicis, o. g. that enticeth or allureth, waton.
 Illex oculus, a wanton eye.
 Illex, egis, om. g. lawlesse.
 Illi, for illic, or ibi, there.
 Illibatus, a, um, vntouched, vntasted, pure, vn-corrupted.
 Illiberalis, le, vngentyl, withoute hyndenesse or curtesy, vn honest, nothyng liberall.
 Illiberalis labor, a scruple labour.
 Illiberale facinus, an vncurteys pageant, an vn honest acte.
 Illiberalitas, atis, f. g. nygardshyp.
 Illiberaliter, vngently, excedyngly yll, mischeuoufely, vncurtefely, vn honestly.
 Illiberis, a citee of Marbon, after Pomponius: after Ptolomee, the chiefe citee of Granada in Spayne.
 Illic, there. also for ille, he.
 Illicet, now go to, incontinent, looke Illicet.
 Illicio, illicis, exi, ere, to prouoke or fpye pleafantly, to allure, to entice, to tolle.
 Is me hac illexit fraude, he tolled or inticed me by this crafty meane.
 Illicere in fraudem, looke Fraus.
 Illicite, vnlaufull.
 Illicitus, a, um, vnlaufull, vn honest, vncomely.
 Illicium, ij, n. gen. a prouocation, a thyng that allureth or inticeth.
 Illico, anon, by and by, in all the hafte. Sometyne tyme in the same place.
 Illido, fi, dere, to dyue or beate to a thyng, to dafte, to ftrike vehemently.
 Illidere dentes alicui rei, to thryfte ones teethe into a thyng, to byte.
 Fluctus littori illiduntur, the waues beate or dafte agaynst the bankes.
 Illidere manus, to clappe the handes together.
 Dentes illidere labellis, to bite his lippes.
 Illigatus, a, um, intangled, knitte or fastned.
 Illigatus alicui amicitia, coupled with one in frendeshyp.
 Illigo, illigas, aui, are, to bynde, knitte, or fasten to, to entangle.
 Illigare alicui bello gentem aliquam, to caufe a countrey or people to take parte with theym in a warre that they haue agaynst any other.
 Illigari Romano bello noluit, he would not bee intangled, or he would not meddle or haue any thyng to doo in the Romayn warres.
 Sic illigat fententiã verbis, he dooeth fo knitte or compacte the fentence with woordes.
 Illimis, me, without muddle or flyme.
 Illinc, from that place, from that parte. Sometime for Abilla, from that woman.
 Hinc illinc, I can not tell from whens.
 Illinio, illinis, iui, ire, to annoynt one.
 Illino, illinis, lini, leui, liui, ere, to annoynte harde, to spotte or coyle.
 Tectis aurum illinere, to gylte theyr houfes.
 Illinere chartis aliquid, to put in wrytyng.
 Illipula, an hille in Spayne called commonly Ilipa, oꝝ Ilpa, not illad one of those that Illius, a, um, dyen of heateth, passed against,

 oꝝ that be with oꝝ heateth agaynst a thyng.
Illisus, oꝝ, masen, gene, beating oꝝ dathyngs
 agaynst a thyng.
Illiquescio, quescis, feci, ere, to melte oꝝ make liquides.
Illiteratus, a, um, vnlearned.
Illiteratum & insulsum.
Illius, Illius, m. g. an annoynting oꝝ smeryng.
Illitus, Illita, um, nopened, smered.
Illitum veneno donum, a present infected with a popson, spoken whan a thyng is geuen for a mischeyous intene.
Illitus fucus, pepneted with a false colour.
Illiusmodi, of that soȝte, oꝝ of that facion, suche.
Illo, to that place, thither.
Illocabilis, le, that can not be let out.
Illocabilis virgo, a mayden that can not be married.
Illosus, a, um, foule, vnwashed, stubbered.
Illotis manibus rem aggredi, to goe aboute a great thyng without reuerence, oꝝ dishonestly to handell a thyng of great estimation.
Illoris pedibus, fere idem. Also wythoute name.
Illuc, thither, to that place. also for Illud, that
 thyng.
Hucatque illuc, hyther and thither.
Illuceo, lūces, xi, ere, & Illucesco, scere, to bee
 lyght oꝝ clere, to shyne, to appere oꝝ shew it selfe.
Vbi illuxit, whan it was day.
Ea nocte, cui illuxit dies cordis, On the night
 befoze the day that he was murdered oꝝ slayne.
Comitas in maximis ingenijs maxime illucet, Lutes oꝝ gentylnesse in moſte noble natus
 res dooeth moſte of all appere and shew it selfe.
Illuctor, âris, ari, to strue oꝝ wrestle, to struggle.
Illudo, si, ere, to moche, to hurte in iappynge oꝝ playng, to laugh to scozne.
Illudere corpori mulieris, to dooe bylany to a woman.
Pene illusi vitam filia, I haue almoste taste a way my daughter.
Illudo in te, as, Idonei in quibus sic illudatis?
 whome you should moche after this facion?
Illudens in Albutium, scoffyng at Albutius, oꝝ mockyng Albutium.
Dignum me putas quem illudas? Dooest thou thynke me a meete man for thee to moche?
Non impune in nos illuseris, Thou shalt not laugh vs to scozne, and escape free thy selfe.
Illuminare, playnely, cleerely, eloquently.
Illumino, aui, are, to geue lyght, to make playne,
 to make moze beautifull.
Illuminus, a, um, without lyght.
Ilūnis, ne, darke whan the moone dooeth not shyne.
Illūsiō, ōnis, f. g. a mockyng oꝝ scoznyng.
Illuro, a citee of Spayne.
Illustramentum, i, n. g. that maketh moze beautifull, manifest oꝝ playne, that doeth commende oꝝ facion, a thyng.

Illustratio, ōnis, f. g. a beautifyng, a maynge of a thyng manifest and playne.
Illustratus, a, um, made lychtosome, made famous oꝝ knowen, declared, also manifestly proued.
Illustris, stre, famous, cleare, noble in renoume, excellent, well knowen, lychtosome.
Nocte illustri, in a saye cleare nyght.
Nihil illustrius dicere possum, I can say no thyng moze noble oꝝ excellent.
Obscurum & illustre, contrary.
Nihil est ad gloriam illustrius, quam calamis tas ipsa, nothyng byngeth greater renoume oꝝ praple than calamities and trouble it selfe.
Illustris & lata via, a saye byode way.
Illustro, aui, are, to make lyght oꝝ clere, to make famous oꝝ well knowen, to sette forth the that whiche is byd, to declare, to make manifest oꝝ
 playne.
Illustrauit tuam amplitudinem, it commended your noblesse, and made it moze famous and known.
Patefacere & illustrare.
Illusus, a, um, mocked to scozne.
Vestes illustræ auro, wrought here and there with thyrdes of golde.
Ilutibilis, le, that whiche cannot be washed away,
 oꝝ purged from filthe.
Iluius, ei, ferm. gen. vncleanesse, fylthynesse in man oꝝ garment.
Cultus & illuius, contrary.
Illyberis, a citee of Spayne.
Illyria, illyris, oꝝ Illyrium, a countrey which hath on the north both the countreys Pannonia superior and inferior, on the west Histriam, on the east Mysiam superiorem, on the south the sea Hadriaticum, that countrey is now called Sclauonie, oꝝ wendenlande.
Ilirica, a, idem quod Iris.
Illyricus, a, um, of Illyria.
Ilori, a towne.
Ilua, an Ilande by Tuscan, looke Ilba.
Iurcis, a citee of Iberia.
Ilus, the kyng of Troianes sonne, that builded Ilium.

Imaginarij, bearers of baners, wherein be smas
 ges pepneted.
Imaginaris, a, um, dooen for a fourme oꝝ facion, and not in effecte, that is onely imagyned and conceued in the mynde, and can not be in dedde.
Imaginaria emptio, a byng, that is only for a facion to kepe a custome.
Imaginaris miles, a fouldiour only by name that neuer was in the watteres.
Imaginatio, ōnis, f. g. an imaginacion.
Imaginatus, a, um, figured oꝝ fourmed into an ymage.

[illegible][illegible]

Limiting

Imitatio, ōnis, imitation, following.
 Imitator, ōis, malefice, one that followeth the example of a thyng.
 Imitatrix, the feminine.
 Imitatus, a, um, followed, imitated, counter-fayed.
 Imitor, āris, ari, to followe the example of an other, to counterfeit, to imitate, to be lyke in facion.
 Folium alas auum imitatur, the leafe is lyke to a bydes wynges.
 Imitari chirographum alterius, to counter-
 faite an other mans hande of wytyng.
 Imitatur sermones hominum, it endeuoreth to speake lyke a man.
 Mœsticiam imitari, to feygne sadnesse of hesynnesse.
 Immoedo, immales, mādui, ēre, to be moyste of werte.
 Immanis, rie, cruell, outragious, fierse, huge,
 great, horrible.
 Immane & mansuetum, contrary.
 Importuna & immanis natura, an outragious and fierse nature.
 Quæstus immanis, vneasonable luccre and
 gayne.
 Ferus & immanis hostis, a fierse and a cruell
 ennemie.
 Immanis numerus, a wonderfull of excedynge great numbre.
 Immanis moles, a huge heape.
 Vulnera immania, horrible great wondres.
 Immanie, wonderfull, incredible, metuagious to be spoken.
 Immanitas, ātis, f. g. crueltie, greatnesse, outas-giouesnesse.
 Immanitas precij, the vneasonable greatnesse of the pryce of any thyng.
 Immansuetus, a, um, vngentyll, vnpleasant, vns-tractable, cruell, wyld.
 Immarcesco, cui, celscere, to corrupt, putrisie, or rotte.
 Immaturē, befoze the tyme of season.
 Immaturitas, ātis, f. g. vnrypenesse, to much hast in doyng a thyng befoze the tyme.
 Immaturitas sponfarum, when maydens bee not able to be married.
 Immaturus, a, um, that is not ripe, out of season that is taken of dooen befoze the tyme.
 Immaturum consilium, to hasty counsaile.
 Filius immaturus obiit, this sonne a yonge man died befoze his tyme.
 Immatura mors, death that preuenteth the naturall tyme.
 Immediate, immediatly, forthwith, by and by,
 without tarpyng.
 Immedicabilis, le, that can not be healed or cured.
 Immemor, ōis, om. g. forgetfull, he that doeth not remembze.
 Immemor es dicipli: Hastu thou forgotten a scholar of thyne owne teachyng?

 Immemorabilis, le, vnwoozthy remembrance, sometyme excedynge great, that can not be re-membred.
 Immensus, a, um, of such greatnesse, that it can not be measured, passynge all measure, vnmeas-urable, excedynge.
 Labor immensus, excedynge great labour.
 Opes immensa, excedynge great, and innumerable rychesse.
 Euphrates immensum attollitur, the riuer Eusphrates is ryfen by excedynge of passynge all measure.
 Immensio plus, more beyonde all measure.
 Gula immensa, vneasonable gluttony.
 Immensum iter, a wonderfull great iourney.
 Immensitas, ātis, f. g. excedynge greatnesse.
 Immeo, aui, are, to go in, to enter in.
 Immerens, entis, om. gener. that hath not desserued.
 Immerenter, vnderferuedly, without a cause.
 Immergo, meris, gere, to drowne or to plunge a thyng in the water, to driepe.
 Immergere se in consuetudinem, to enter into deepe familiaritee of acquaintance.
 Immerit se in ganeuin, he is gotten into a tasuerne, or he hath thrust him selfe into a sauerne of byrthels house.
 Vbi iter amnis immergitur, where the ryuer
 Jher falleth into the sea.
 Immergere se in voluptates, to drowne ones selfe in pleasure.
 Immerito and Immeritissimō, an aduerbe, without deseruyng, without cause.
 Immeritus, a, um, idem quod immerens.
 Immerita gratia, thanke or fauour not deserv-ued. Immerito meo, without my deserte.
 Immeritabilis, le, that can not be drownd.
 Immeratus, a, um, that is not bounded or messured.
 Immigro, immigras, aui, are, to goe dwell in a place, to enter in.
 Immigraui in ingenium meum, I came to myne owne rule, or to be ruled by myne owne
 witte.
 Immigrauit auaritia in rempublicam, coue-tousnesse entred into the common-weale.
 Imminens, entis, em. g. that is at hande, or like to come to passe ere it be longe.
 Imminens ingenium, a rennyng witte.
 Imminens Dario, willing to assaile Darius.
 Gestus imminens, an earnest & lyuely gesture.
 Immineo, nui, nēre, to hange or houer ouer a thyng as it would fall, to bee at hande, to bee lyke to come to passe ere it be longe, to take hede or espie. also to be nigh. sometyme to stande by.
 Mors propter incertos casus quotidie immi-
 net, death throughe vnccertayne chaunces, is es-uery day nigh, or at hande, or hangeth euery day ouer our heades.
 Bellum imminet ab Tarquinis, It is at the poynt

pointe to haue warre with the Tarquines.

Iminet exitio alterius, he is ready to flee the other.

Imminent in fortunas nostras, They are at hande and redy to robbe vs of our goodes, or seeke of espie an occasion to robbe vs.

Impendere & imminere.

Instare & imminere.

Imminebat in occasionem, he was ready looking for some oportunitie of occasion.

Imminebant animis in propinquam spem, They had a good hope that the thyng would come to passe ere it were longe: or they looked euerp day that it shoulde come to passe.

Imminent duo reges toti Asia, two kynges seeke meanes and occasions, to byrge all Asia vnder their dominion.

Imminere rebus, to espie of seeke occasion, to get the imperiall dominion.

Qui deditioi imminebant, whiche did seeke and espie oportunitie to yelde by the citee.

Imminuo, minus, uere, to diminisse, to make lesse, to abate, to cut of.

Imminuere caput alteri, to breake ones head.

Imminuere ius, to defalcate or minishe the authority, or state of a person.

Amplificare & imminuere, contrary.

Imminuere summam, to abate of a summe, to diminisse.

Imminuere maiestatem, to commit treason.

Imminuere pudicitiam virginis, to defloure a maiden.

Imminutio, onis, a diminucion, a making of a thyng lesse, or moze slender.

Imminutus, a, um, made lesse, diminished, decayed.

Immiscuo, scui, scere, to mingle together, to, put in a moxter to licour or powder, to powder.

Immiscere se alicui bello, to meddle or take parte in any warre.

Immiscere se colloquijs, to begyne to talke or fall in communication with other.

Immiscere se reialieni, to meddle in an other mans matter.

Immisericabilis, le, that no man dooeth pitee, help, or succour.

Immisericordia, x, f. g. vnmisericordie, lache of pitee.

Immisericorditer, withoute pitee, vnmisericordie, cruelly, rigorously.

Immisericors, ordis, om. g. vnmisericors, without pitee.

Immissio, onis, a sendyng or puttyng in, a setting, a grassyng.

Immissum, layed in to abyde, as a beame into an house or other lyke thyng.

Immissus, a, um, sent in, cast in, put in, layed in, suborned, sent priuily, let slippe. also longe.

Immissa barba, a longe bearde.

Canes immissi ceruis, the dogges let slippe at hartes.

Immitis, te, om. g. cruel, without pitee, rigor rous, bngentyll.

Immitia poma, appuls which are not yet ripe.

Alphewyle Vua immitis, a souer of hard grape.

Immitte & turbatum celum, a troublous & troublous weether, a very vntreuant ayre.

Immitte pectus, a cruel and hard herte.

Immitte Pelagas, a troublous sea.

Immitto, misi, ere, to sende in, to suborne, or byrge in craftily, to cast in. Sometime it signifieth to let growe in length.

Neque barbam immiseris istam, Neether let this bearde grow in length.

Respicimus, dira illunies immisissaque barba, we behelde, O what an horrible fylthynesse, and a bearde growen in length. also to byrge or sende on the contrary parte.

Hoc futurum esse dixerunt, vt postea breue tempus immitteret deus regē, qui expugnaret ludæos, It shoulde come to passe (said they) that god shoulde sende to the contrary parte a kyng, which shoulde vanquish the Jewes.

Alij Tarquinium a Cicerone immisissum aiebant, ne Crassus suscepto maiore patrocinio, rempublicam turbaret, some said that Tarquine was suborned, or caused by Cicero, priuily so do, lest Crassus in takyng on him, the defence of misdoers, shoulde thereby cause trouble or sedicion in the weale publike.

Immittere rudentes, to let go the ropes or cables.

In medios hostes se immisit, he thast him self into the myddes of his enenemies.

Aliquos in bona alterius immittere, to sende men to robbe, spoyle, and take ones goods from him. Likewise immittere in rempublicam.

Immittere se in voluptates, to drawne him selfe in ryotte and pleasure.

Immittere iniuriam in aliquem, to do iniurie or wronge to one.

Ne in aures immitras tuas, Doe not geue care to it, doe not heare it.

Immo, or rather Imo, but rather, yea rather, yea, yea but. Sometime nay, nay rather.

Immo pernegat, naie he denieth it vterly.

Immo optima causa est, yea mary, it is a verye rightfull and good cause.

Immo certe, without doubte.

Immo aliud, nay it is not that, it is an other thyng.

Immo etiam, naie or yea, but that moze is.

Immo vero, Immo enim, Immo certe.

Immobilis, le, vnmouable.

Immobilibus oculis contueri solem.

Immoderate, immoderately, vnmisurably, vntemperately, to beyonde measure.

Immoderate ferre res secundas, in prosperitee to be proude or loftie.

Immoderate ferre res aduersas, contrary.

Immoderatio, onis, f. g. immoderate nesse, vntemperate.

Immoderatus, a, um, immoderate, vntemperate, with without meane or measure, out of rule; vntuly, wylde.

Immodeste, out of measure, also to much saucie, vnmanerly, malapertely.
Immodestia, a, malapertenesse, saucinesse, immodestie, vnsobernesse.
Immodestus, a, um, with out tēperaunce or modestie, wilde, vntuly, vnsober, vnmanerly, malaperte, saucie.
Immodesti mores, malaperte behauiour.
Immodestum iocandi genus, an vnmanerlie or to saucie a facion in scoffyng or iestyng.
Immodice, to muche, out of measure, excessiue, immoderately, to beponde measure.
Immodice ferre, idē quod immoderate ferre.
Immodici, many.
Immodicus, a, um, great or muche, vnmeasurable, vnreasonable, to muche, excessiue, sometye to many.
Immodica oratio, to longe.
Labor immodicus, excessiue labour.
Immodulatus, a, um, not scanned or long in measure, vnpleasant, withoute melodie, proportion or measure.
Immolatio, ōnis, f. g. a sacrificyng.
Immolator, ōris, m. g. one y offereth in sacrifice.
Immolatus, a, um, builded, erected.
Immolo, immolās, aui, āre, to offer in sacrifice.
Immōrior, immoti, to die on a thyng.
Ferro immorī, to die on a swordes poynce.
Studijs immori, to be continually in studie.
Immōrōr, āris, āri, to abide or continu in a thyng
Immorari honestis cogitationibus, to bestow much time in musyng and thynkyng on honest thynges.
Immortalis, le, immortall, that liueth euer, that shall neuer decay, or fayle.
Immortalia facinora, actes that wyl neuer bee forgotten.
Herba immortalis, a weede that wyl neuer be kylled.
Immortalitas, ātis, f. g. a perpetuall lyfe, immortalitye, euerlastyngnesse, euerlastyng name, perpetuall memoire.
Mihi immortalitas parta est, I am nowe in heauen.
Commendare immortalitati, and Reddere immortalē alicuius memoriā, To make one remembred and spoken of so longe as the worlde standeth.
Immortaliter, immortally, perpetually.
Immortale, for immortaliter.
Immōtus, a, um, that is not moued or stirred, stedfast, immouable, firme, constant, y varieth not.
Fides immota, firme, constant.
Lumina immota tenere, to looke stedfastly.
Immulgeo, mulsi, or mulxi, gēre, to mylke, or mylke in.
Hubera infantium labris immulgere, To mylke into the childe's mouth.
Immāgio, mūgis, giui, or giij, gire, to lowe, to roze, to make a great noyse as the sea doorth.

Immundus, a, um, foule, vncleanly, filthy, clutty, neaky.
Immūnis, ne, exempt, without office or charge, free, that payeth no tribute.
Virtus immunis non est, Vertue is neuer ydel but doyng somewhat.
Immūnis & vectigalis, contrary.
Immūnis huius mali, nothyng suspected of this offence.
Immūnis militia, exempt from goyng to war.
Immunitas, ātis, f. ge. franchises or libertee.
Dare immunitatem, To graunt libertee, to exempte.
Immūnicus, a, um, that beareth no office nor charge.
Immūnitus, a, um, not defended, not fortified, vnensled.
Immūmuro, aui, are, to murmur within one, to make a great noyse.
Syluis immurmurat Auster, maketh a greates noyse.
Immurmurare palato, To make a mumbling in the rousse of the mouth.
Immūstulus, immūsculus, or immūssulus, li, m. g. after Festus it is a kynde of egles, but not so stronge as the Egles, and appereth only in the spryng tyme. Plini writeth, that some tooke it for a yong Vulture, and Massarius, for a yong egle, before his tayle waxeth white.
Immutabilis, le, vnchaungeable, that can not bee chaunged, constaunt.
Immutabilitas, tātis, f. ge. immutabilitye, vnchaungeablenesse, constancie.
Immutatio, ōnis, f. g. a chaungeyng or alteryng.
Immutatus, a, um, chaunged, altered, also vnchanged.
Immutesco, mūtui, scere, to bee dumbe, to hepe silence, not to haue a worde to say.
Immutō, aui, āre, to chaunge, to alter. Somtyme not to chaunge one thyng for an other.
Adeo homines immutari, is it possible for men to bee so chaunged or altered?
Immutare se in re aliqua, to chaunge or alter his mynde in a matter.
Alienare à se aliquem, & se illi immutare, To chaunge his mynde toward him, and of a friende to become a foe.
Immutare aliquid de institutis, to alter.
Immutare vultum, to chaunge countenance.
Imo, looke Immo.
Imola, imolā, a citie of Italy, somtyme called Forum Corneliij.
Impacatus, a, um, not pacified, not appeased.
Impactio, ōnis, f. g. a strykyng or dallyng together of two thynges.
Impactus, a, um, dallyed or beaten agaynst a thyng.
Impactus in carcerem, cast in prison.
Impāges, impāgis, f. g. a tenon, whiche is put into the mortays, also a pyne that is dyuen into into tymbre, to make it forsgne and abyde.

 Impalleo, lui, lère, to waxe pale.
 Impācro, aui, āre, to inuade or go into a place.
 Impar, imparis, om. gēne. not equall, not sufficient, vnlyke, odde.
 Impar certamen, in contencion, or in games
 nyng, where is an equall matche.
 Imparātus, a, um, vnready, vnprepared, vn-prepared.
 Imparati tum ā militibus, tum ā pecunia, not haupng in a redinesse either souldiers or money:
 or vnprouided bothe of souldiers and also of money.
 Imparens, entis, om. g. disobedient.
 Impāriter, vnlykely, vnequally, vneuenly.
 Impartio, looke impertio.
 Impasco, aui, scere, or impascor, impasceris,
 idem quod pasco, or pascor.
 Impastus, a, um, vnfed, vnpastured, hungry.
 Impatibilis, le, that whiche can not bee suffered or susteyned, vtollerable.
 Impatibilis cruciatus, intollerable tourmētes.
 Impatiens, entis, om. g. vnpatient, that can not suffre or abide a thyng.
 Impatiens vetustatis, that will not endure longe.
 Laboris impatiens, that can not abyde labour.
 Impatiens hyemis, that can not abide the sharpenesse of winter.
 Impatienter, impatiently, hardely, with greate
 payne.
 Impatiētia, æ, f. g. impaciēce, vn sufferableness, whan one cannot endure or suffer a thyng, as,
 Impatiētia frigorū.
 Impāuidē, boldly, stoutely, without feare, with a hardy stomake.
 Impāuidus, a, um, that feareth not, bolde, stout,
 without dreade.
 Impeccabilis, le, that can not offende or dooe
 amys.
 Impedātus, a, um, vnderfet, propped vp.
 Vitis impedata.
 Impedimentum, ti, n. g. lette, impediment.
 Impedimenta, is the cariage and other thynges necessary, that goeth with an hoste.
 Nisi quid impedimenti in via passus est, Except he had any lette by the way.
 Impedimento esse, to lette.
 Superabat impedimenta naturæ, he dyd ouer-come the lettes and incommodities of nature.
 Inferre impedimentum, to lette.
 Pati impedimentum, to be lette.
 Impedio, impedis, diui, ire, to lette, to staye, to cumber, to disturbe, to intangle, to bynge in the byers.
 Impedire se & implicare, to intangle or wzap him selfe in busynesse.
 Impedire, and Expedire, contrary.
 Impediri & alligari in re aliqua, To be cumbryd or intangled in a matier.

Impedire iter, to stoppe ones iourney, and make that he can not haue free passage.
 Nihil impedio, I lette you not. also I passe not, I care not.
 Franis impediuntur equi, The hoxses bee bydled.
 Pudore impediōr, I cannot for shame.
 Impeditio, ōnis, fcm. gē. a lettynge, byndynge, or cumberynge.
 Impeditus, a, um, proppely he that hath his feete
 so bounde, that he can not goe, lette, cumbered entangled, brought in the byers, Mahled, poy-stered.
 Iter impeditum, a troublous or combrous iourney.
 Viden me tuis consilijs impeditum? Dooest thou not see, that thorough thy counsayle I am brought in the byers?
 Impedo, impedas, aui, arc, to vnderfet, to prop
 vp, to stay vp with a forke or other thyng.
 Impello, impuli, ère, to perswade instantly, to inforce, to thrust violently, to dyue forwarde, to plucke downe, to enfeeble.
 Impulit vt crederem, he perswaded me to beleue it: or he forced me with reasons to beleue him, whether I would or no.
 In fraudem impelli, to be perswaded to a thyng that will be to his hurte and daunger.
 In fugam impelli, to be putte to flyght.
 Ad iram impellere, to stire to anger.
 Impellere in spem, to put in hope.
 Impellere atque hortari, to perswade and ex-horte to a thyng.
 Impelli, atque incendi ad aliquid faciendum,
 to be stpyred and incensed to dooe a thyng.
 Impellere mugitibus auras, to moue the ayre with his loude cryng.
 Impēdeo, impendes, di, dère, to hange ouer ones head, as it were redie to fall, to be lyke to chaunce or happen within shortly space, to bee nere at hande.
 Tanta tibi impendent mala, So greate mischiefes hange ouer thy head, or bee lyke to fall or chaunce to thee ere it be longe.
 Impendēre & imminēre.
 Impendet procella reipublicæ, Some greate storme of trouble or busynesse wyl chaunce to the common weale ere it be longe.
 Impendebat mons altissimus, There did bend
 ouer a very high mountayne.
 Impendentis mali nescius, not knowynge of the great mischiefe that was at hande.
 Impendent te mala. Terent. mischiefe hangeth ouer thy head.
 Impendio, veray muche or moze, excedynge-ly, moze and moze.
 Impendio magis animus gaudebat mihi, my hearte was maruaylous ioyfull and glad styl moze and moze.
 Sed loquatur impendio & pomptior, but very talkatiue, to to ful of wordes and merray-lous

ious rebv thereto.
 Ille impediō magis odit Senatū, he to so much hateth the Senate, or the noblenesse of the citee.
 Ille minus minusque impendit curare, he set by me still lesse and lesse by a great waite.
 Impenditōsus, a, um, that spendeth more than needeth, to liberrall.
 Impendium, ij, n. gen. expence or coste. sometime gayne by vsurp.
 Ad assem impendium reddere, to paye one es
 uery farthyng of his costes and charges agayne.
 Rationem impendiorum possidere, to demande rechenyng of that is layde out.
 Conferre impendia in educationem, to bes stowe some coste vpon ones byngyng vp.
 Impendo, di, dēre, to spende or lay oute money,
 to bestowe, to emplot.
 Impendere de suo, to bestow of his owne cost.
 Biennium impendere, to bestowe the spate of twoo yeres. Aphetwse Operam, curam, stud dium, sumptum, laborem, tempus, vitam impendere.
 Impenetrabilis, le, that can not be pceded or en
 tred into, impenetrable.
 Pudicitia impenetrabilis, of chastitee or hos
 nestee vncorruptible.
 Impenitrāle, lis, neu. g. that, wherof the inners
 most parte can not be entred into.
 Impensa, benefite.
 Impensa, x, f. gen. expence, coste, charge.
 sometime a benefite.
 Officiorum impensam facere, To shewe dy uers frendely pleasures and good tournes to
 one.
 Impensas agere in rem aliquam, to bestowe coste.
 Parcere impensæ, to spare coste.
 Levis impensa, lyght coste.
 Ingentes impensæ, contrary.
 Impensē, greatly, excedyngly, passyngly aboue
 other.
 Est impense improbus, he is a very yll man.
 Impense doctus, very well learned.
 Impensibilis, le, without consyderacion.
 Impensius, excedyng, more greuous or displea saunt, more earnestly, excedyngly much.
 Impensus, a, um, bestowed, laied out. Also riche, abundant, vehement, greate. sometime intol
 lerable, greuous, peynfull.
 Impensa voluntas, for propensa.
 Impensa libido, excedyng great.
 Impensæ preces, great or vehement prayers.
 Ingrato homine nihil impensius, more vn tollerable.
 Cura impensior, greater care.
 Imperator, ōris, m. g. the chiefe capitayn in waes
 res, now the emperour.
 Imperator vitæ & necis, that hath in his pos
 wer both lyfe and death.
 Imperatoriū, a, um, belongyng to an emperour or great capitayne.

Imperatrix, leis, f. g. the empyesse.
 Imperatus, a, um, commaunded, bidden.
 Imperata facere, to do that one is commaunded.
 Imperceptus, a, um, that can not be taken or pers cepted.
 Impercussus, a, um, vnstricken.
 Pedes impercussos mouere, to moue the fete without hope.
 Impreditus, a, um, that was neuer lost or de stroied.
 Imperfectus, a, um, vnperfecte.
 Imperfōsus, a, um, that is not dygged or thynst thorough.
 Imperiose, stately, rigorously, pyondely.
 Imperiōsus, a, um, imperious, lordely, stately,
 full of commaundementes.
 Imperiosus vir, a masterly man, rigorous, or cruell in gouernance.
 Imperiosus sui, he that maistereth the passions and affections of his owne minde.
 Imperiosa Dictatura, of great authoritee.
 Imperite, vnexpertly, vnlearnedly.
 Imperitia, x, f. g. lacke of knowlage, ignorance,
 vnskillfulness.
 Imperito, aui, are, to rule or gouerne.
 Imperitus, a, um, not experie, easly to be deceyued,
 vnlearned, rude, ignorant, vnskillfull.
 Imperitus & callidus, contrary.
 Imperitum vulgus, the rude and ignorant
 people.
 Imperita multitudo, the simple people.
 Imperitus rerum, hauyng no experience of the worlde, not knowyng the worlde.
 Imperium, ij, n. g. a solemne commaundemente,
 a preeminence in gouernance, authoritee royall,
 power, dominion, empirie.
 Arbitr imperij, gouernour of the empirie.
 Imperium exequi, to dooe that is commaunded.
 Satis pro imperio quisquis es, stately or im periously spoken what so euer thou be.
 Facile est imperium in bonis, it is an easye thyng to gouerne honest men.
 Si quid imperij est in te mihi, If I haue anie authoritee to commaunde thee.
 Imperium tuum est apud nos, we remembze well that you commaunded vs.
 Accipere imperium, and abnuere & Detre stare imperium, contrary.
 Imperium tuum demutat, he dooeth agaynst your commaundement.
 Habere imperium, to be maister or gouernor.
 Duro imperio habitus, gouerned cruelly or ri gorously.
 Proferre imperium suum, to shewe his autho ritee or power. also to enlarge his seignorie or dominion.
 Cum imperio esse, to be in authoritee, to beare
 a rule, to be in some great rule or office.
 Omnes imperiū esse Publico Scipioni in His paniam iusserunt, All commaunded that Scis pio should haue the gouernance of Spayne.
 Oo ij Impe-

Imperiuratus, a, um, that is neuer twayne by.
 Impero, imperas, aui, are, to commaund, to commaunde with authoritee, to enioyne, to haue the maistrie and lordship ouer other, to rule.
 Imperare cupiditatibus, to rule the desyes of appetites of the minde.
 Imperare animo nequiu, quin. &c. I coulde not chosse, I could not rule my mynde.
 Imperare dolori, to ouercome sorow, and take it patiently.
 Imperare sibi silentium, to settle him selfe not to speake.
 Imperare tributum, to exacte or require tribute or payment of money.
 Equites imperare ciuitatibus, to command and ordeyne citices, to set foot the hoysmen or men of armes.
 Obsides imperare, to command or require hostages or pledges for assurance of peace.
 Imperor, the passiu.
 Impermissus, a, um, vnlawfull, that is not permitted.
 Impersonalis, le, that hath no persones.
 Impertectus, a, um, nothyng abashed or affraide, stoute, hardy.
 Impertio, tui, tui, & Impertior, tuis, tui, to participate with one, to geue parte of that whiche he hath, to communicate.
 Impertire salute aliquem, and alicui salutem, to salute.
 Impertitur, parte is geuen.
 Impertit tibi, multum salutis, he saluteth you hartely. Studium philosophie impertire, to bestowe parte of ones studie in philosophie.
 Huic rei aliquid temporis impertias, bestowe sometime vpon this mattier.
 Impertire aliquem osculo, to kysse one.
 Dolorem suum alicui impertire, to communicate his sorow with one, or to tell him of it.
 Sed cesso heram hoc malo impertire, to tell my maistres of this mischiefe.
 Collegæ meo laus impartitur, part of the praise is geuen to my companion in office.
 Impertire alterum rem aliquam, and alteri de re aliqua, to make an other part taker of a thing, to geue him parte of it.
 Imperturbatus, a, um, not disturbed, not troubled, nothyng abashed.
 Imperturbata lux, a cleare and caulme day without wynde or cloudes.
 Impetruius, a, um, that can not be passed or gone through.
 Impesco, scere, to put a beast into a good pasture to feede.
 Impetigo, gnis, f. g. a ryng worme.
 Impetor, impetis, tui, tere, to inuade, to assaile or set vpon.
 Impetrabilis, le, that may be gotten by desyre.
 Impetrabilis dies, a daye in the whiche a man easily obteyneth his desyre.
 Impetrabilis orator, an oratour that easily obteyneth that he would haue.

 Impetratio, ois, f. g. an obteynynge by prayer.
 Impetratus, a, um, obteyned by desyre.
 Impetrasso, trassi, sere, to get by desyre or instance.
 Impetratus, a, um, infused, mosteased, as it were in a stone.
 Impetro, impetras, aui, are, to obteyne by request.
 Impetrare & exorare.
 Impetrare cum gratia, and voluntate impetrare, to obteyne with ones good wyll.
 Ex penitentia veniam impetrasti, he beyng sorry for that he had don, obteyned forgiveness.
 Impetuosis, a, um, violent or hasty in wrath.
 Impetus, impetus, & impes, petis, m. g. violence, an inuasion, a vehemence, a bynde, a bzunt, a rase of fese in rennyng.
 Impetus animi, vehemens of the minde.
 Impetum dare vel facere, to inuade, to renne with a great randon on any thyng.
 Primo impetu, at the first assaulte, at the fyrste bzunt. Impetum excipere, to receiue or abide the bzunt. Impetus repentinus, a soden bzande.
 Feruntur omni impetu, they ren with all theyr violence and force.
 Capere or sumere impetum, to setche his sease and renne with all his might.
 Vno impetu, one after an other without taryng. Impetum facere in bona & fortunas alicuius, to inuade and take away wrongfully by force a mans gooddes and possessions.
 Impexus, a, um, vnkembred, vndecked, vntrinned.
 Impico, impicas, aui, are, to pitche, or couer with pitche.
 Impiatus, not pourged of synne, contaminate, defyled.
 Impie, wickedly, cruelly, mischeuouely.
 Impietas, atis, f. g. hatred of god, crueltee, wickednesse, impietee.
 Impiger, gra, grum, diligent, not slowe, valiant, quicke.
 In scribendo impiger, diligent in wytyng.
 Vir ad labores belli impiger, a diligent man and meete to abide the pynes and trauayle of warfare.
 Impigre, diligently, without slouth, quickly.
 Impigras, atis, f. g. diligentnesse, quichenesse, valiantnesse.
 Impingo, pegi, pingere, to hitte one in throwyng some thyng at him, to throw against a thing, to beate or dash.
 Dicam tibi impingam grandem, I will laye a weyghty matter to thy charge.
 Impinges me in mag nam litem, thou wylte cast me.
 Impingere fustem alicui, to geue one a knocke with a cougell.
 Caput parieti impingere, to knocke ones head agaynst the wall.

Impingere compedes, to put on gyues.
 Impingere culpam in aliquem, to lay the blame on one.
 Impingere nauem, to renne the shyppe on a rocke; or to bryue him on lande; or to renne the ship on grounde.
 Impingere alicui epistolam, to sende a letter to one.
 Impingere pugnam si mutuerit, geue him a bore on the eare; yf he speake one woode; or yf he othes whysper.
 Venenum impingere, to popson.
 Vulnus impingere, to wounde.
 Impingi, sometime for Impelli.
 Impinguo, aui, are, to make fatte.
 Impio, aui, are, to defile, to distayne ones selfe with a dishonest or foule deede, specially against god or his parentes.
 Impius, a, um, cruell, hatyng god and good men, wicked, that careth not for god, an vngracious man, a mischeuous man.
 Implacabilis, le, that can not be pleased, pacified, appeased, or reconciled.
 Implacatus, a, u, that is not pleased or contented.
 Implacitus, a, um, idem.
 Implacabiliter, after that sozte that he can not be pleased or reconciled.
 Implano, aui, are, to deteine.
 Impleo, eui, ere, to fyll, to fulfyll, to accomplishe, to put in execution.
 Implere vicem alterius, and Vices implere pro alio, to take in hande an other mans charge, to exercise an other mannes office, to doo an other mannes dutie.
 Implet vlnas hominum quatuor, it is fully two fathomes about.
 Canes implentur vno coitu, Wythes are with whelpes with ones lynnyng.
 Religionis iustæ impleuit, he made them earnest folowers of honest religion.
 Adoloscenscentem suæ temeritatis impleuit.
 Impleuit centum annos, he was fully an hundred yeres olde.
 Amaritudinem inimici impleuit, he shewed hym selfe as rigoious and sharpe as if he hadde ben his enemye.
 Diem sermonibus implere, to passe the daie in talkyng.
 Aduentantis auxiliij hostes impleuerunt: they had spyed the rumor or bryute ouer all their enemies, that. &c.
 Aures implere sermonibus, to fyll ones eares with babbyng.
 Formidinis implere, to put in a great feare.
 Officium suum implere, to doe his dutie.
 Promissum implere, to kepe promise, to fulfill his promise.
 Extemplo spei impleuit, by and by he put him in greate hope: or made him conceyue a greate hope.
 Implere superstitione, to make verie superstitious,

Vides, cuius debes implere vestigia, Thou seest whose steppes thou shouldest folow.
 Cursum vite implere, to leade the hole course of ones lyfe.
 Numeros principis implere, to do in al poyntes as a prince shoulde doo.
 Raro modus grani noui: xvj. libras implet, it is seldome that a Romaine bussell of cozne doeth not weigh xvi. pounde.
 Implexus, a, um, wounde in, folded in. somtyme for Complexus, sometime for implicitus.
 Implicitus, a, um, wrapped or tied fast together, platted or bryded, intangled.
 Implicitus morbo, attached or deteigned with sykenesse.
 Miseria implicitus, wrapped in miserie.
 Implicitus suspicionibus, suspected of dyuers matters.
 Coligatum atque implicitum, knitt and platted together.
 Implicatio, onis, for. g. a platting, brydyng, or intanglyng one within an other, a wrappynge one within an other.
 Implicitè, obscurely, intricately.
 Implico, implicas, aui, are, to wrappe in, to fold in, to platte, to bryde, to set one within an other, to tie fast, to deteine, to let.
 Implicat ad speculum caput, the boande by his head at a glasse.
 Implicatus ad seueritatem videbatur, he seemed to be bent and genen to seueriter.
 Implicari familiaritate alicuius, to be alped or sociated with one.
 Implicatum teneri legibus, to be wrapped in the penalties of the lawe.
 Implicare occupationibus, to be greatly occupied and busied with diuers matters.
 Collo implicuit brachia, the clipped him about the necke.
 Crines implicat auro, the platteth or brydeth hir heare with golde.
 Impedire & implicare se, to let and entangle.
 Implicata res controuersijs, the matter is wrapped in many controuersies.
 Implicari, to be inuironed and beset with enemies.
 Imploro, aui, are, to desyre lamentably, to aske helpe and ayde with teares and weepynge.
 Implorare & obtestari.
 Implorare & supplicare.
 Imploratio, onis, for. g. a lamentable desyringe of a thyng.
 Implumis, me, without feathers.
 Impluo, implui, or impluui, pluerè, to rayne in.
 Ne malum impluat mihi, that the mischicks may not fall on me, or lyght on my necke.
 Implutus, a, um, wette in the rayne.
 Impluuius, a, form. gene. a cloke to weare in the rayne.
 Impluuiatus, a, um, coloured as it were wette in the rayne.

Impluviata, garmentes of that coloure.
 Impluvium, uij, neu. gen. a place of little court in the house, wherby they used to receyue rayne water.
 Impolitia, x, f. g. negligence about the weale pu-blike. also rudenesse, vncleanpnesse.
 Impolite, grosely, rudely, without polithyng, homely.
 Impolitus, a, um, not polished, rude, or rough.
 Impollutus, a, um, undefiled, not dissteined.
 Impomenta, thynges set on the table after supper.
 Impono, sui, ere, to put one thyng on another, to put in, to set vpon, to appoynt, to bobbe, to decepte, to blynde ones eyes: also to geue, to in-ioyne, to lay to ones charge.
 Imponere alicui, to abuse or decepue one.
 Calculum imponere, to cast accmpt.
 Imponere clauas alias portis, to chaunge the keyes of the gates.
 Clausulam disputationi imponere, to conclude or make an ende of the disputacion.
 Imposuit exercitum Brundisij, he laied his host in garison at Brundisium.
 Iniuriam alicui imponere, to dooe wronge to
 one.
 In stipendium argentum imponere, to assesse what men or towneshypps shall paie to the souldiours wages.
 Laborem imponere, to appoint him busynesse.
 Imponere sibi laborem, to charge him selfe with great peyne and trauayle.
 Imponere legem, to set a lawe on a thyng.
 Imponere legem alicui, to appoint a man what he shall dooe.
 Imponere summam manum, to atcheue the thyng that a man goeth about.
 Imponere fastigium, idem.
 Manum imponere, to begynne.
 Modum imponere prosperæ pugnae, to hold a meane, or to vse temperance, where the battaye is prosperous.
 Imponere mulctam, to set a peyne, as iudges
 dooe.
 Necessitatem imponere, to constreygne.
 Onus imponere, to geue in charge, to charge,
 to bourdeyne.
 Imponere præsidium ciuitati, to set a garison in a citee.
 Imponere precium, to set a price.
 Silentium imponere, to commaunde silence.
 Imponere nomen, to geue a name.
 Speciosaque nomina culpæ imponis Medæa tuæ, and Medea thou geuest an honest name to thy mysdoynge.
 Mihi imposuit, he blynded myne eie.
 Imponere aliquid alicui cum fide, to committe a thyng into ones handes, trustyng that he wyll dooe it faithfully.
 Consullem imponere, to appoynt and ordeyne
 a consull.
 Dominum aliquibus imponere, to set a mai-ter or ruler ouer any people, and make them subiecte.

 Imponere exitum, or finem, to atcheue, to make an ende.
 Quiduis oneris impone, lay what burdein so euer ye will vpon me.
 Importarus, a, um, couered in the ridge.
 Importco, aui, are, to make a balke in earpyng of lande, or rather to make a ridge.
 Importcitor, or importcator, oris, m. g. he that maketh balkes in earpyng.
 Importo, aui, are, to earpy, byng, or conueigh in.
 Importare fecunditatem, to make fruitefull or apte to beare chyldren.
 Importare adiumenta, to byngge ayde, helpe,
 or succour.
 Contagionem importare, to infecte, to byng infection into a place.
 Periculum importare, to byngge daungier.
 Importatus, a, um, brought, caried, or traied in.
 Importune, importunately, without reason: also out of season.
 Importunitas, tatis, f. gen. importunitie, whic
 he hath no commoditee of tyme nor of place, vnreasonablenesse, crueltie, outragiousnes. also vnreasonable and immoderate incontinency.
 Sometime a detestable acte agaynst all honestie and reason.
 Importunus, a, um, out of season, vnconuenient, that hath no regarde of person, place, or tyme, importunate, vnreasonable, vrgent, cruel, outragious. also without succour, helpe, or quiet.
 sometime vnconuenient.
 Ille fuit senex importunus semper, That olde soke was alway vnreasonable.
 Importunum tempus, no conuenient tyme.
 Importunum ingenium, a light and foolish
 witte.
 Corda importuna domare, cruell, outragious.
 Importunus & crudelis.
 Immanus & importuna natura, a cruell and outragious nature.
 Importunus & amens tyrannus, an outragis-ous and woodde tyranne.
 Importuosus, a, um, without porte or haue.
 Impos, impotis, om. g. vnable, without power.
 Impos animi, one besyde him self, one that can not rule him selfe, wilde, vnuly.
 Impossibilis, le, vnpossible.
 Impositus, a, um, set on, laied on, put on.
 Nomen impositum, a name geuen to a thyng.
 Impositus, us, m. g. idem quod impositio.
 Impositio, onis, f. g. a puttyng or settinge on a
 thyng.
 Imposititiu, a, um, that is put, set or gyuen to a thyng, vnnaturall.
 Impostor, oris m. g. he that deceiueth with promises, or selleth false ware for good. also a consurer, a iugglar, a deceiver.
 Impostura, x, f. g. fraude, gyle, lieger demayn, trumpery, decepte in byng and selleng.

Impos

Imposturam facere, to deceiue in maner afoz saied.

Impotens, entis, om. g. he that can not resist his appettites or affectiōs, wylde, outrageous, vnable to rule hym selfe, wylfull, one that hath no fear of hym selfe, mischeuous, wicked. Some-tyme it is vsurped for puissant, or that hath to great power. also weake, feeble, impotent, ha-ble to doo nothing.

Adeo impotenti esse animo? Should he be so farr out of reason?

Impotentissimus tyrannus, a tiranne of very great puissance and dominion.

Impotentissimus homo, a verie naughty and wicked felow.

Impotens homo, hable to doe nothing.

Impotens amor, immoderate loue.

Impotenti est animo, he is of an outrageous wylfull stomache or appetite: or he can not master, subdue, refraine, withstowe, or rule the passiōs of his minde.

Impotens dominatus, a proude, cruel, or wyl-full dominion and power.

Fortuna superba & impotens, that maketh vn-ruly or wylfull.

Impotens ira, not able to moderate his wrath.

Impotenter, wylde, wylfully, outragiously. also naughtily, vniustly, cruelly.

Impotentia, a, f. g. debilitie, infirmitie, also wil-fulness, unrulynesse. Sometime immoderate power. also vnable to resist.

Impotentia animi, when he is not able to rule his affectiōs.

Impresentiarum, at this tyme, or for this present
tyme.

Impransus, a, um, that hath not dined, fastyng.

Imprecor, aris, ari, to desyre, to wyshe, to curse.

Impressio, ōnis, f. g. a violent assaulte, a pyn-tyng or markyng.

Impressiōem facere, and Dare, to assaulte and set vpon fierly.

Vi atque impressiōe euertete, to ouerthrowe with force and violence.

Impressiō vocum explanata, a plaine and distincte pronounciacion, when one speaketh as he would marke euery worde.

Imprimis, chiefly, specially, first of all.

Imprimo, imprimis, pressi, primere, to prynte,
to seale, to marke.

Signum imprimere pecori, to marke cattall.

Imprimere vestigium, to set ones fote, to step.

Imprimere vulnus, to wounde, to cutte.

Imprimi in animum, to bee prynted in the
mynde.

Imprimere sigilla annulo, to seale with a ryng.

Dedecus reipublice imprimere, to do disho-nour to the common weale.

Imprimere vnguem, to pynche.

Imprimere maculam laudibus alicuius, to disseine ones prayse.

Improbabilis, le, that can not be proued.

Improbatio, ōnis, form. gene. a disallowyng, a reprouyng.

Improbe, yll, naughtily, vnhappily.

Improbitas, tātis, for. g. dishonestie, vnthriftinesse, wantonnesse, obstinacie, malapertnesse, raueny, wylpnesse.

Improbo, improbas, aui, are, to disallowe, to dispraise, to condemne.

Improbus, improba, um, an yll man, a calise, dishonest, obstinate, wanton, malapert, wily, vnfaciable, vnshamefast, impudent, cruel, yll faoured.

Improba facies, an yll faoured face.

Factus improbum, a shewde tourne.

Labor improbus, great trouble.

Improba merx, vnlefull merchandise, or of small profite, naughty ware.

Improbum os, a lewde or mischeuous tunge.

Improbi postes, rotten postes, or beyng in any wyse vn sufficient.

Improbiorē faciem non vidi, a moze leude face, or ill faoured.

Improbus anser, vnfaciable, hurtfull.

Improba carmina, wanton, lasciuious.

Diuitiæ improbae, ill gotten. also great.

Improbū testamentum, a testament vnsufficient, lackyng the circumstance or fourme.

Nulli alie rei est improbus, he geueth hym selfe to none other naughtynesse, or he dooeth not amisse in any other thyng.

Improbō, aui, are, to dispraise, to rebuke.

Improcerus, a, um, lowe, not hygh, not talle.

Improfessus, a, um, not professed.

Improlis vel impolus, he whiche is not yet a citizen.

Impromiscuus, a, um, vnmynghed, not confute, or intricate.

Impromptus, a, um, nothing prompt or redy.

Improperatus, a, um, that is not hastened.

Improperium, iij, n. g. imbraydyng of a defeute.

Impropēro, aui, are, to imbrayde a man with some defeute, also to make haste in.

Improprius, a, um, vnproprie.

Improprie, vnproprie, not featly, not conueni-ently, vnnaturally.

Improsperē, not prosperously.

Improtectus, a, um, not defended.

Improuidus, he that prouideth not for the time comyng.

Improuidus, a, um, that which cometh sodenly, and vnlooked for.

Improuida tela, passively, darter or arrowes that one seeth not, or is not ware of.

Pectora improuida, vnshulfull mindes, not forseyng daungier, or symple and true meas-uryng hertes.

Improuide, without any foresyght, rashly, vncircumspectly.

Improuise, & improuiso, vnthought on, or vn-looked for, sodenly, vnwares.

Improuisus, a, um, sodayn, vnwares, that was not

I A N T E M.

not forseen and taken heede.
 Improuifior, the comparatiue.
 Imprūdēſ, dētis, om. gen. vnware. alſo not circumſpecte, fooliſhe, ignorant, vnwittyng, vnknowyng.
 Imprūdēſ, id eſt, incogitans, vnware, vnaduifed for faute of remembraunce or conſideration.
 Imprūdēſ harum rerum, not knowyng of thoſe matters.
 Dolet dictum imprudenti adoleſcenti, This ſayng greeued the fooliſh yong man.
 Imprudentem opprimere, to take one ſodenly ere he be ware.
 Non imprūdēſ aduerſabar, I was not agaynſt it without a cauſe.
 Imprudenter, vnwifely, vnaduifedly, fooliſhly, by ignorance, vnwittyngly, caſhly.
 Imprudentia, æ, f. gen. lacke of forſight that it was not thought on, ignorance.
 Per imprudentiam, vnware.
 Impubes, pūbis, vel impūbis, be, & impūber, pūberis, om. g. a man childe before the age of xiiii. yeres, a mayden before. xii.
 Impūdēſ, cētis, om. g. ſhameleſſe, ouer bolde, impudente.
 Impudenter, vnſhamefaſtly, without ſhame, diſhoneſtly, vnaduifedly, wantonly, impudently.
 Impudentia, æ, f. ge. impudencie, vnſhamefaſtneſſe, ſawcynneſſe.
 Impudicitia, æ, f. gen. vnclenneſſe of luyng, wantonneſſe.
 Impudicus, a, um, ſupzated.
 Impudicus, a, um, vnchaſt, vnclene in luyng, leude, wanton. alſo ſaucy, malapert.
 Impugnātus, a, um, reſpſted, ſtruen agaynſt, ouercome.
 Impugnatio, ōnis, f. gen. g. a fightyng agaynſt, a reſpſyng.
 Impugno, aui, āre, to reſpſt, to fyght agaynſt, to ſtrive agaynſt, to impugne.
 Terga hoſtium impugnare, To fyght at the enemies backes.
 Impugnare morbum, to dīue away a ſickneſ.
 Impulſo, aui, āre, to perſuade often.
 Impulſus, a, um, perſuaded, prouoked, inſozced.
 Impulſum bellum, a warre almoſt finiſhed.
 Impulſus, uſ, m. ge. a vehement motion or perſwaſion, an inſozcyng.
 Impulſu ſuo, tuo, veſtro, by thyne, his or your perſwaſyon.
 Impulſu primo, at the fyrſt motion.
 Impulſio, ōnis, f. ge. a motion, a perſwaſion to dooe a thyng.
 Impulſor, ōris, maſcu. gene. he that perſuadeth vehemently, he that inſozceth or moueth to doo a thyng, he that eggeth one to doo a thyng.
 Impunē, without damage, without puniſhment or grieſe, without daunger, ſcotfree.
 Haud impunē in nos illuſeris, thou ſhalte not laugh vs to ſkozne, and eſcape quite thy ſelfe,

I A N T E M.

Credin' te impunē habiturum, or abiturum? Dooeſt thou thynke to eſcape unpuniſhed?
 Siquidem iſtuc habueris impunē, if thou eſcape quite with this.
 Impunē ferre, to ſcape quite.
 Quia impunē illis fuerunt, becauſe they were not puniſhed for it.
 Impunius id ſe facturum putauit, he thought he might dooe it with leſſe dangier.
 Impūnis, ne, unpuniſhed, without peyn, vnhurt.
 Impūnius, with leſſe danger.
 Impuniſſime, without any danger at all.
 Impuniſſime licet facere, you maye dooe it withoute any danger at all, or no man ſaynge blake is your eye.
 Impūnitas, tātis, f. gen. lacke of puniſhment, libertee without puniſhment, pardon of puniſhment.
 Impunitas & licentia.
 Spes impunitatis, hope to eſcape unpuniſhed.
 Veniam & impunitatem dandam puto, I thynke good, that they be pardoned and forgenē.
 Impunitus, a, um, unpuniſhed, quite, forgenen his faute.
 Impurātus, a, um, idem quod impurus.
 Impurē, diſhoneſtly, vilely, naughtyly, lewdly.
 Impūritas, ātis, f. g. infamie, diſhoneſtee, naughtynneſſe, filthy and vnclene behauiour.
 Impūrus, a, um, diſhoneſte, vile, reprocheable, ſluttlyſhe, naughty, lewde.
 Homo impurus, a naughty ſelow.
 Haud impurus, an honeſt man.
 Imputātus, a, um, vncutte, or neuer cutte.
 Imputātor, ōris, ma. gen. a reprocher, one that laieth thynges to other mens charges.
 Imputo, imputas, aui, āre, to impute or aſcribe, to laye the blame or defeaute. alſo to reckon one thyng with an other, or to accompte one ſumme with an other. Sometime to ceſſe a certaine ſumme of money to be payed, to pretende or lay a thing for excuſe.
 Imputreſco, pūtrui, trēſcere, to rotte, to rotte within a thyng.
 Imus, a, um, the loweſt or moſt low, the deepeſt.
 Ima auris, the nether parte of the eare, whiche is ſoſte.
 Imus pes, the ſole of the ſote.
 Imus ſonus, the baſe in ſonge.
 Imo à pectore, from the bottom of the herte.
 Ab imis radicibus eruere, to plucke vp harde by the rootes, to plucke vp rootes and all.
 Senſibus imis reponere, To kepe ſurely in mynde or remembraunce.
 Imæ radices montis, The verate bottome of the hylle. Summus & imus, contrary.

I A N T E N.

IN, ſigniſieth, In.
 In, in compoſicion ſometyme is boyde, as, Inaudio, for Audio, Immuto, for Muto, Some

I ANTE N.

Sometyme it increaseth, as Inaro, inaras, auare, Sometime it signifieth In, as, Infundo.
Sometyme Super, as, Infusus, id est, superfu-sus. Sometime it is priuative: as, Inauditus, vnhearde.
In aduersum, on the contrary parte.
In annum, for one yere, or for a yeres space.
In bonis, amonge good men.
In cenam, for supper.
In conspectum aspice, looke before the.
In diem addicere, to sell vpon condicion, that a thyng bee down by a daye.
In diem viuere, to lyue without carynge for to morrowe.
In dies singulos, daye by daye.
In horam, for an houre.
In horas, from houre to houre. also often tymes.
In lucem, vntyll daye.
In magno munere, for a great rewarde.
In manu vel manibus est, It is in his power,
at hande, or easie, or in hande.
In manum dari, to bee geuen aparte or seuerally. In meam partem, on, or for my parte.
In medium afferre, to bypunge forth to a common vse or commoditee.
In mentem venire, to come to mynde or re-membraunce, to bee considered.
In nauem ingreditur, he went into the shipp, he tooke shipping.
In noctem, vnto nyght.
In numerato habere, ready or at hande.
In numerum ludere, to daunce by measure.
In ordinem ducere vel cogere, To bypunge downe from authoritee, to mynythe estimation or power.
In ore est omni populo, all the people speaketh of it, it is in every mans mouth.
In partem, for thy parte.
Age sis tu in partem nunc iam hunc delude,
atq; amplexare hac, Go to nowe for thy parte.
deceyue hym hardely, and take hir vnto the.
In partem dimidiam decoquere, to boyle it to the halfe deale.
In paucos dies, for a littell whyle.
In pedem, for euery foote.
Is se ternis nummis in pedem tecū transgisse dicebat, he sayed, that he bargayned with the for
iii. pens a foote, or for euery foote. iii. pens.
In perendinum, after to morowe, or two daies
hence. In portu sum, I am saufe.
In posterum, finally, in conclusion, from hens forth, hereafter.
In potestate esse, vnder the rule, or at the pleasure of one.
In presentia, at this tyme.
In praesens, idem.
In primis, chiefly, speciallye, aboue all other
thynges.
In priuato & publico, at home and abroad.
In procliu est, it is easie to doe, or to bypunge to passe.

I ANTE N.

In promptu est, it is easie to know, it is apparant.
In propatulo, before of all men.
Iam in propinquo certamen erat, Nowe was the battayle at hande, or the daye of the battayle was come.
In proximo, at hande.
In publicum redigere, to confiscate, to take for a foysaye.
In re ipsa, by experience, in dedde.
In re tua, for thy profite.
In re praesenti, in a playne and euident mattier.
In rem nostram, it is for our profite.
In rem praesentem excurrere, to come on the lade whiche is in demaunde.
In rem praesentem perducere, to bypunge the mat-tier to light, to expresse the thyngs perfectly, to declare the mattier so lyuely, that one maye perceyue it, as well as though he sawe it.
In rem praesentem venire, where the landes in desbate doe come in viewe by the assignement of iudges, vnto them whiche be called viewers, which shall see the boundes and quantitie of the landes in variance.
In serum, vntyll night.
In speciem, by dissimulation, for a countenance, or a face.
Ducentos paucos in speciem captiuos, feigning that they caried a fewe prysoners with them.
Praeclara classis in speciem, It seemed a fayre and greate nauy.
In spem venire, to begyn to hope.
In tempore, in season, oportunately.
In tutum eduxit legiones, He brought his armye out of daungier into a sure place.
In viros diuidere, to geue to euery man.
In vniuersum, generally.
In vtranque partem, of the one syde and other, for bothe partes.
In agritudine has ardes emit, he bought this house agaynst his wyll.
In animo est, it pleaseth me, or I purpose or in-tende.
In breue, byefely.
Denarij collatis in capita, Euery man payng a penie.
In cogitando, whyle I thynke.
In commune consulas, Loke on the mattier in differently for vs bothe.
In crastinum vocare, to bydde one come to mor-
rowe.
In culpam dicere, to speake to ones rebuke.
In animis nostris es, Thou haste woonne oure heartes.
In diem, for a great whyle hereafter. also for one dayes space.
In hoc factum est, It was down for this cause or for this intent.
In incerto res mihi sita est, I am vncertayne what to doe.
In insidijs esse, to lye in an ambusche, to lye in a wayte to deceyue.

I A N T E N.

In integro res nobis erit, Our matter shall be in as good case as euer it was.
In itinere, whyle we went by the waye.
In itinere est, he is comyng.
In manibus habere, to fauour, to set much by.
Mater virginis in medio est, The maydes mos-ther is here before you.
In militem, in capita, in naues, id est, pro quo libet milite, pro singulis capitibus, pro singulis nauibus.
In modum seruilem, after a scruple facion.
In modum amici, lyke a frende.
In more est, the facion is.
In morem, after theyr facion.
In orbem, one after an other by course rounde
about.
In pedes me conieci, I ranne awaye.
Ego fui illic in re presenti, I was there present at the deede doyng.
In ridiculo habere, to make a laughyng stocke.
In summa, byescelf.
In superuacuum, in vayne.
In suspenso relinquere, to leaue vncertayne.
In tantum, so muche.
In omne tempus, for euer.
In totum, vterly, all together.
In transcurso, and in transitu, by the waye, insidentely.
In turpissimis, habent rebus, They count it as wile a thyng as can be in the worlde.
In vicem, in steede, in place.
In vulgus gratum, acceptable to the common people.
In abruptus, a, um, not violatyd, not broken, or that can not be broken.
Inaccessa, an Ilande in Egypte, to the whyche is no comyng.
Inaccessus, a, um, that no man doeth or can come to, or that is not lawfull for anye man to come to.
Inachia, the countrey of Peloponnesus.
Inachides, the sonne or newewe of Inachus, some-tyme one of Argiue.
Inachis, the daughter or neere of Inachus.
Inachus, the fyrste kynge of Argiues.
Inaduersum, on the tother parte.
Inadulabilis, le, that wyll not be flattered by anye
meanes.
Inadifico, aui, are, to buylde in a place, to buylde vp together wth other thynges. also to destroy that is buylde.
Inaqualibus, le, idem quod inaequalis.
Inaqualiter, idem quod inaequaliter.
Inaqualis, le, vnequall, not euen.
Inaqualiter, vnequally.
In quo, aui, are, to make playne or euen.
Inestimabilis, le, vnestimable, that can not be valued.
In stuo, aui, are, to boyle, to boyle vehementlye,
to be veraye hotte.
Inaffectatus, a, um, not affectate, not curpous.

I A N T E N.

Inalbesco, scere, to waxe pale or white.
Inalgescio, scere, to become colde or chilly.
Inalpini, the people that dwell upon the Alpes.
Inamabilis, le, not amiable, that hath no grace nor pleasantesse worthy to be beloued.
Inamaresco, scere, to waxe bitter or displeant.
Inambitosus, a, um, seekyng no preferment, not ambitious, not sumptuous, not gorgeous.
Inambulatio, onis, a walkyng vp and downe in a place.
Inambulo, aui, are, to walke vp and downe in a place.
Inamens, a, um, displeant.
Inanimatus, a, um, idem quod inanimus.
Inanescere, to be vayne, and of no estimation.
Inania, arum, voyde and emptye thynges.
Inaniloquus, a, babblar, that speaketh vayne
wordes.
Inanimus, a, um, without soule.
Inanio, iui, ire, to make emptye, to emptye.
Inanis, ne, emptye, vacant, voyde, vayne, vncou-stant, poore, that hath nothyng, ydle, light in estimation, vnprofitable.
Inanis accedit, he cometh without bringyng as ny thyng wth hym.
Mensa inanis, emptye table.
Inanis equus, a vacant or leare horse that beareth nothyng.
Inanissimus prudentia, vterlye withoute all wysedome.
Inane crimen, a lyght accusation.
Inane, substantiue, great emptinesse, a voyde place. Sometime the ayre.
Inanitas, atis, & Inanitio, onis, f. g. emptynesse, voydenesse, vanitie.
Inaniter, vayne, also for Frustra, in vayne.
Inapparatio, onis, f. g. lacke of preparation or prouision.
Inapertus, a, um, not open, euident or playne, secrete, pryue.
Inardeo, arsi, dere, & Inardesco, scere, to burne, to be on fyre, to be scedyng hotte, to be more and more inflamed.
Inarefactus, a, um, made dry or dyed to powder.
Inaresco, inarui, scere, to drye vp, to waxe dryer and dryer.
Inargentatus, a, um, not couered or inclosed in silver.
Inargute, vntwittily, without subtilitee.
Inarme, an yle in the Tuscan sea. Also a mountayne.
Inaro, inaras, aui, are, to tyll or husbandle diligently.
Inartificialiter, without crafte or counnyng, not artificially.
Inascensus, us, m. g. the ascendyng into a place.
Inassatus, a, um, idem quod Assatus.
Inaspectus, a, um, not seene.
Inassuetus, a, um, not accustomed, vntwente.
Inattenuatus, a, um, that is not made more telender, thynne or lesse, not diminished.

Inau-

Inaudax, facis, carefull, without stomache or courage, cowardly.
 Inaudio, iui, ire, to heare, to heare speake, to heare playnely.
 Inaudiuncula, æ, a subtil knacke or quiddities that one hath not hearde of.
 Inauditus, a, um, neuer hearde of, strange to heare.
 Inauditum in omni memoria, That was neuer heard of, sens the world spake began.
 Inauditum damnare, to condemne a persone, not hearyng his cause, or what he can saye for hym selfe.
 Magnitudo inaudita, an incredible greatnesse.
 Inauditum damnari, to be condemned and neuer come to his aunswere.
 Inauguro, aui, are, to aske counsaile of the Augures, what shall folowe. also to dedicate, to consecrate.
 Inauguratio, the aduerbe, takyng the aduise or counsaile of Augures, or soothsayers.
 Inauratus, a, um, gylted, covered with golde.
 Inauris, ris, f. g. a ring of other lyke thyng hangyng at the eare.
 Inauritus, a, um, without eares.
 Inauro, aui, are, to make ryche. also to gylte.
 Inauspicatus, a, um, vnlucky, vnforsunate, that was not doon by counsaile of the Augures.
 Inauspicato, vnluckily, without counsaile of the Augures or soothsayers.
 Inausus, a, um, that no man dareth enterpryse to doe.
 Incæduus, a, um, not vsed to be cut.
 Incero, aui, are, like Incero,
 Incresco, lui, scere, to be or waxe very hotte.
 Incalfacio, calfacis, feci, facere, to make hotte.
 Incallide, vnwytily, nothyng subtilly.
 Incallidus, a, um, simple, without crafte, or subtiltie, nothyng wysse.
 Incalo, incalas, aui, are, to calle.
 Incandesco, dui, scere, to be very hotte angry, to be greatly inflamed, to bee all fyre, to bee angry.
 Incanesco, scere, to waxe hoze or whyte headed.
 Incantatio, ônis, f. g. & Incantamentum, i, n, g. a charme, an enchantment.
 Incanto, aui, are, to charme, to enchaunt.
 Incanus, a, um, very hoze for age.
 Incapistro, aui, are, to halter, or to bynde with an halter.
 Incastigatus, a, um, not chastised, vncorrected.
 Incassum, in wayne.
 Incaute, vnwysely, without takyng hede.
 Incautus, a, um, vnware, that hath no foresight, vncircumspect, that taketh no hede, vnpudente. also that is not forescene and taken hede of.
 Non incautus futuri, that seeth or taketh hede of that is lyke to come.
 Incauo, incauas, aui, are, to make holow.
 Incêdo, cessi, cedere, to go or walke, to go with a statelype pace, to shewe great grauitie or maiestee in goynge, as princis dwe, to goe lyke greate estates to sette lyke a lord: also for Venire, or Accedere, to come.

 Incedere magnifice per ora hominum, to sette lyke lordes through the stretes that men maye see theym.
 Parmenohem incedere video, I see Parmenohem comyng or settyng lyke a lord.
 Molliter incedere, to go with a nyce, tender deslitate, or gyngely pace.
 Incedit pedes, he goeth on softe.
 Incebris, bre, not haunted or resoyted to, nothyng saluod.
 Incendarius, ij, a naughtye persone, that setteth houses or citees on fyre, to the intent to robbe or spoyle, or for some other mischiefe.
 Incendium, dii, n. g. a light fier burninge a house or other thyng. sometyme enure.
 Incendia vires posuere, the fier is allwaged.
 Incendo, di, ere, to inflame, to set fyre in a thyng, to incense, to animate or geue courage, to make veraye angry, to bere, to moue, to chaufe, to inflame in loue, to make veraye despyous.
 Incendi ira, amore, desyderio, dolore, to be inflamed with anger, &c.
 Incendere in se odia, to get the yll willes of men towards hym, to stee vp hatred towards hym selfe.
 Incendere odores, to bourne parfumes.
 Incensinarium, rij, n. g. the name of the Inner treasorie in the tēple of Saturne in Rome, where treasure was kepte agaynst extreme necessitee & daungier. it was called also Cimiliarchium.
 Incensio, ônis, f. ge. and incendium, ij, n. ge. a burnyng, a light fyre that bourneth an house or other thinge. sometyme enuy.
 Incentio, ônis, f. ge. harmonie or melodie of instruments, or of men synnyng together. also a charme or enchantment.
 Incensus, a, um, of Incendo, set on fyre, inflamed, haunyng a great despye or courage.
 Incensus, a, um, of Census, not registred in the numbryng of Citizens, or one that woulde not be registred or inrolled.
 Incentius, a, um, that pricketh, stiereth, or incenseth to a thyng.
 Inceps, olde wyters vsed for Deinceps.
 Incepsit, for Inceperit.
 Incepto, aui, are, to begyn, to go aboute, and is referred to great, bold, and hardy enterpryses.
 Video quod inceptet facinus, I see what he begynneth to do, or I perceyue where aboute he goth, or what a pranke he is about to playe.
 Quid inceptas? what mynde you to enterpryse?
 Quo iter inceptas? whether arte thou about to goe?
 Inceptor, ôris, m. g. a beginner.
 Inceptum, i, n. ge. and Inceptio, ônis, f. c. gen. a begynnyng, an enterpryse.
 Inceptus, a, um, begunne.
 Inceratus, a, um, covered with ware, reared.
 Incerniculum, li, n. ge. a tangeydg siue, wherein to the is clefnd, ere it be ground. also a farce.

Incerno, creui, nere, to spste, to spste in, to tpe
 by spsting.
Incerno, incéras, aui, are, to couer with ware.
Incerto, aui, are, to make doubtfull or vncertayne.
Intertum, ti, n. g. substantiuely, doubtfulnesse.
Incertus, a, um, vncertayne or doubtful, vncons-
 tant, waneryng.
Fecit animi vt incertus foret, he brought hym
 in the case that he was vncertain what to do.
Incertus sum, Incertum est mihi, and Incer- tum est, absolutely, I can not tell, I know not.
Aura quavis incertior, moze inconstant than the wynde.
Nihil est incertius vulgo, moze vncertain,
 lesse to be trusted.
Incerto me, vnknotyng to me.
Incertus sententia, he that can not tell what to saye in a mattier.
Incerto scio, for Clam me est, I knowe not, I can not tell.
Incesso, cessi, or siui, siere, to come, to appoche, to be at hande, to inuade, to set vpon, to assaile, to bere, to tarre, to make angry, to do displeasure to one, to accuse.
Incessere hostes iaculis, to cast darteres or iave-lins at the enemies, to assaile or set vpon enemies with darteres.
Incessit ambos inopia, both of theim are vexed wth pouertee.
Cupido eum incessit, there toke hym a desyre,
 there came a fantasie vnto hym.
Is incessit mos, they haue taken such a custome.
Cum Autumnus incesserit, whan Autumne cometh or appocheeth.
Timor patres incessit, The senators or counslaylours began to dreade and feare.
Incessit homines admiratio, men began to meruaile.
Verbis amaris incessere, to rate with churlishe and vnkynde wordes.
Incessere aliquem dolis, to go aboute to descepe by some crafty meanes.
Ipsum ingens cupido incesserat, he hadde a great mynde, desyre, or fantasie.
Noua religio in te istac incessit, This holysnesse, supersticion, or scrupulositee of conscience, is come vpon the but late.
Seditio incessit, there rose a sedicion.
Tenebrae incessunt, The nyght appocheeth, it waxeth darke.
Valerudo eum incessit, he fell syke.
Incesse, polutedly, fylthly.
Incestificus, a, um, that poluteth or defyleth.
Incesto, aui, are, to polute, to defile by incest.
Incestuosus, a, um, he that dooth often polute.
Incestus, a, um, poluted, defyled.
Incesto flagitio polluere, to pollute by incest.
Incestus sermo, fylthie and vile talke.
Incestus, us, m. g. or Incestum, i, n. g. lecherpe committed with one that is nyghe of kyne or alliance to hym that committeth it. also it signifith all maner of polucion.

Inchoatus, a, um, begon, vnperfecte.
Inchoo, inchoas, aui, are, to begyn. also to pce-forme.
Inchoare & perficere, contrary.
Spem longam inchoare, to prolonge hope.
Incido, cidi, ere, to cut, to graue, to herue, to cut tayle, to cutte off, to cut awaye.
Incidit marmori, to be graued in marble.
Incidere in are, and in as, to graue in copper or brasse.
Leges incidere ligno, to carue lawes in tables of wodde.
Incidere sermonem, to breake communication. Incisa, lost.
Spe incisa priusquam predicta dies adesset, hope beyng loste ere euer the sayed daye was comen.
Lingua inciditur, the tonge is cutte.
Ludum incidere, to breake of game.
Sermonem incidere, to leue of talke.
Singultus verba incidunt, he could not speake for lobbyng.
Incidere neruos, to diminish the ones power.
Incidentis, entis, that falleth downe, that chaunceth. Incidentis portis exercitus, an armye after the discomfiture rennyng in at the gates of the citee.
Incido, incidis, di, ere, to happen, to fall so deyn-ly, to come by chaunce, to chaunce so deynly vpon
 a thyng.
Incidit in latrones, I chaunced to mete wth theues.
Incidere in as alienum, to fall in debte.
Incides in eadem fraudem, Thou shalt fall in to the same snare.
Iocularium in malum insciens pene incidi,
 I had vntwares almoothe fallen into a shewde
 spoptyng mattier.
In eorum mentionem incidi, I chaunced to speake of them, or to mention theym.
Incidit mihi in mentem, it fell into my minde,
 it came to my remembrance.
Aliud ex alio incidit, one thyng ryseth of an other, or one thyng cometh to mynde by reason of an other.
Incidunt sape causae, dyuers chaunces ofientymes doo falle.
Incidit mentio de Philippo, They chaunced to speake or make mencion of Philip.
Qui istac tibi incidit suspectio? Howe came it vpon you to suspect this?
Inciduus, a, um, that is not lawfull to be cut, or that is not wont to be cutte. Sylua incidua.
Incians, a woman nyghe hys tyme in trauayle of
 chyld.
Incile, lis, n. g. a gappe, a trenche or dyche.
Inciles, trenches to conuey water from a ryuer into a medowe or other lowe grounde.
Inciles canales, gutters in streets or places paved.

Incidit, gutters, trenches, or dyches.
 Incilo, aui, are, to blame or reprove, to rebuke.
 Incinctus, a, um, girded, instructed, compassed in.
 Incingo, cingo, cingere, to gird, to gird about,
 to environ, to compass in, for cingere.
 Urbem incingere mœnibus, to walle the citie
 about.
 Incino, incinis, nui, ere, to sing, properly to feine
 a small beast, to sowne pleasantly, and with melody.
 Incipio, incipis, cœpi, ere, to begynne.
 Facinus incipis, Thou goest aboute to doe a naughty acte.
 Incile, idem quod incisim.
 Incisim, pece meale, gobbet meale, by short sentences and members.
 Inciso, onis, f. g. incision or cutting, also a short poynting of a sentence.
 Incisura, æ, f. g. a cutte or garse, also Incisura,
 be the lynes in the palme of the hande.
 Incisum, i, n. g. a short membre of a sentence.
 Incisus, a, um, cut, graued, or carued in.
 Incisus, us, m. g. idem quod Inciso.
 Incitabulum, li, Incitamen, and Incitamentum,
 neu. ge. a prouocation, a stirring or mouyng, a thyng that encourageth.
 Incita, incita, f. g. pouertee, necessitee.
 Incitate, with a certayne mouyng, quychenesse, or vehemency.
 Incitatio, onis, f. g. an instigation, a mouyng or stirring.
 Incitatus, a, um, moued, stirred, encouraged, also vehement, troubled.
 Incitega, a thyng whereon greate vessels of wyne or touched.
 Incito, incitas, aui, are, to prouoke, to moue, to stirre, to encourage, to entice.
 Incitare ad scribendum, to moue or prouoke
 one to wyte.
 Incitare currentem, To encourage one to a thyng that he is prone vnto, or well entered all ready.
 Incitat audiatem, It prouoketh appetite to eate.
 Incitare milites in aliquem, to encourage hys souldiours agaynst one.
 Incitare equum, To galope wth his horse: to make his horse renne a mayne.
 Incitus, us, m. g. idem quod Incitatio.
 Incitus, ex In & Citus, swpste.
 Inclamito, aui, are, to call vpon often.
 Inclamo, aui, are, to call for one, or crye out on one rebukefully, to call in, to chide, to rayle, to scolde
 at one.
 Inclamare aliquem magna voce, To call for one aloude.
 Inclamare nomine, to call by name.
 Seruos, or seruis inclamauit, he called vpon his seruantes: or he chidde or scolded with his seruantes.

Inclareo, inclares, clari, tere, or Inclaresco, scere, to be known of all men, to be notable or famous.
 Inclémens, entis, om. ge. vngentill, vncurtis,
 churlyshe, rygourous, mercilesse, worde of pitee.
 Inclementer, without mercy, cruelly, sharply, rygouously, vngentilly.
 Inclementer dicere, to speake churlyshly, cruelly, or rygouously.
 Inclementia, æ, f. g. crueltee, lacke of mercey, rygoure.
 Inclínatus, a, um, inclined, bended, prone, somewhat decayed, warpyng toward the ende.
 Inclínatus morbus, a synnelle begynnyng to weare awaye.
 Inclinator ad pacem animus, a mynde more prone or inclined to peate.
 Inclínatus, us, m. g. for Declinatio, a declining,
 after the grammarians.
 Inclínatio, onis, f. g. an inclination or bowyng.
 Inclinationes rerum & temporum, the mutations or alterations of matters and times in the common weale.
 Inclínamentum, ti, neu. ge. a declination or detiuation.
 Inclino, aui, are, to incline, to bowe downe, to descay, to appayze, to waxe worse.
 Hæc animum inclinant, these thynges comes what bende my mynde.
 Hos vt sequear inclinat animus, My minde somewhat inclineth to folowe these men.
 Inclinar acies, whan the hoste dweth recule.
 In vitium inclinare, to begyn to be naught.
 Inclinare opes ad Sabinos, rege inde sumpto videbantur, The chiefe substance and power semed to turne to the Sabins, after that a kynge was made of theyr people.
 Cum omnē culpam in collegam inclinarer,
 whan he had layed all the blame to his felowe.
 Inclinata respublica, the publike weale decayed.
 Inclínante se fortuna ad causam plebis, whyle fortune dyd somewhat bend or leane toward the quarell of the people.
 Inclinauit sententia, he thought thus, or was of this opinion.
 Inclinauit eò sententia, the moste parte were of that opinion, or the more parte bente that waye.
 Inclinare in fugam, to be redy to flee.
 Inclinauit se sol, it was past none.
 Phalereus eloquentiam primus inclinauerat, was the fyrste that began to corrupte eloquence:
 or to make it apayze and decaye.
 Inclinare in fugam, to begyn to flee.
 Inclúdo, si, ere, to include or shutte in, to close in.
 Inclúdi in periculum legis, To bee vnder the penaltie of the lawe.
 Includere se domi, to kepe him selfe at home in his house.
 Illigare & includere aliquid in scyphis ausreis, to engraue. lyke wyse, Includere & insculpere gemmam, to enchase or graue.
 Includere

Includere viam, for precludere, to stop the passage of waie.
 Includere in carcerem, and in carcere.
 Includere aliquem in dialogum, to make one a speaker in a dialogue.
 Admiratio incluserat vocem, He was so amazed or astoned at the matter, that he coulde not speake.
 Dolor includit vocem, He can not speake for sorowe.
 Dolor inclusit lachrymas, he coulde not wepe for sorowe.
 Inclusia, æ, f. g. a garment that the Romans vsed, and may be called a peticoate.
 Inclusio, ònis, f. g. a shutting or cloyng in.
 Inclusus, a, um, inclosed, shut in.
 Inclutus, incluta, um, glorious, famous, of great renomme, excellent.
 Incoactus, a, um, voluntarie, not constrained.
 Incòctile, lis, n. g. a pot, wherein meate is sodden, also a bzasen or copper vessell tinned within.
 Incòctilis, le, that is sodden in a thyng. also that is typped, spluered, or gylde.
 Incoctus, a, um, vnboyled or rawe, also boyled together with any other thyng.
 Incoctæ mulieres, women whyche doe trym theyr heares to muche.
 Incoenatus, a, um, not hauyng supped.
 It incoenatus cubitum, he goeth to bedde supperlesse.
 Incoenis, ne, without supper.
 Incoeno, aui, are, not to suppe, to go supperlesse.
 Incepto, aui, are, Inceptum, i, Inceptor, ois, Inceptio, ònis, loke Incepto, &c.
 Incogitabilis, le, and Incogitatus, a, um, idem quod incogitans.
 Incogitans, antis, om. g. rashe, swyft, vnadvised, without consideration.
 Incogitantia, æ, f. g. inconsiderancie, vnadvisednesse, rashnesse.
 Incognitus, a, um, vnknown.
 Incohibesco, scere, not to restraigne.
 Incoibilis, le, that can not bee sette or myngled together, I woude out of vse.
 Incola, incolæ, com. ge. one that dwelleth in an other countreie than that he was bozne in.
 Incola arbor, a tree broughte out of an other countreie, and planted with vs.
 Incolæ orientis, the inhabitantes of the east partes of the worlde.
 Incolatus, dwelling in a straunge countreie.
 Incolo, incolis, ui, ère, to dwell in a place, to inhabit.
 Incolit vitam inopem, he leadeth a poore lyfe.
 Incolilocus dicitur, to bee inhabited.
 Incolumis, e, holle, safe, without spekenesse, lacking no reparation or amendement.
 Post hac incolumem sat scio fore me, I knowe ryght well I shall be well ynough: or out of all daunger from henschewth.
 Incolumem se ad suos recepit, he retourned safe home to his frendes or company.

 Gratulor incolumi tibi, I am glad that ye be in god helthe.
 Incolumis status, helthe, prosperitie.
 Aedes incolumes, an house that needeth no reparation.
 Incolumitas, tatis, f. g. helthyngesse, safetie.
 Incomes, itis, that hath no companyon or fellowe, vnacompanied.
 Incòmitas, tatis, f. g. the beeyng without companye, after Calpine, but the place of Warro, wherof he gathereth it, hath incomitatus, the datiu case plural of Incomitatus.
 Incomitatus, a, um, beynge without companye, alone, idem quod incomes.
 Incomitio, aui, are, to commit suche an offence, for the whyche one muste be brought before the conuocation or assemble of people, an olde worde out of vse.
 Incommendatus, a, um, not commended.
 Incommodè, uncommodicuse, p. ll. fauouredly, vnprospitabily, vngaynely, nothyng to ones paye or appetite, vnhanfomely, vneasyly.
 Incommoditas, aui, and Incommodatio, ònis, f. g. incommoditee, damage, displeasauntnesse.
 Incommodo, aui, are, to hurte, to do displeasure, to hynder, to dispoite.
 Incòmodum, di, n. ge. damage, hurte, displeasure, daunger.
 Incommoda fere alicui, to hurte, to do displeasure.
 Nauigare incommodum est, It is an p. ll. of daungerous thyng to sayle or be on the sea.
 Incòmodus, a, um, incòmodious, damageous, hurtfull, nopsom, vngayne, vnhanfom, vneasye.
 Nisi tibi incommocum est, except it be trouble or let to you.
 Incommune, equally, indifferently for all partes.
 Incompactum, vnioyned, or p. ll. ioyned.
 Incomparabilis, le, incomparable.
 Incompertus, a, um, vnknown, not proued, not tryed.
 Incompertum est, it is vnknown or vnknowne sayne, we can not tell.
 Incompertū habeo, I knowe not for a surtee.
 Incompositè, without order or araye.
 Incompòsitus, a, um, without order or araye, out of facion, nothyng p. l. p.
 Incomprehensibilis, le, that can not be comprehended or numbred.
 Incomprehensus, a, um, not comprehended.
 Incomptus, a, um, not decked or trimmed.
 Inconcessus, a, um, denied, not graunted.
 Inconciliatè, p. ll. vnadvisedly.
 Ne inconciliatè quid nos postules, That thou mayest require nothyng of vs, wherfore we shoulde owe the displeasure, or be thy vache frendes.
 Inconcilio, aui, are, to trouble, to sette at discorde or variaunce.
 Inconciliare sibi aliquem, To make one his enemie.

ennemie.
 Inconcinniter, nothing properly or featly.
 Inconcinnus, a, um, unmeet, yll proportioned, vnapt, nothing fitte or pretie.
 Inconcussus, a, um, stable, that can not be shaken.
 Incondite, aduerbum, without facion, or without order.
 Inconditus, a, um, out of order or facion, rude, also wearyshe. sometyme vnburied.
 Corpora incondita, bodies vnburied.
 Inconditus turbidusque clamor, a confuse clamoure of noyse of manye voyces myngled together.
 Orator inconditus, That disposeth not his wordes well.
 Inconditus motus, a leapyng, daūsing, or moyng without facion or order.
 Inconditus, a, um, vnmade, vnbuilded.
 Inconfessus, a, um, not confessed.
 Incongēlabilis, le, that can not be frozen.
 Incongruens, entis, om. gen. incongruent, not consonant or agreyng, absurde.
 Inconniuens, entis, om. ge. that moueth not the eye liddes, that twinkleth not with the eyes.
 Inconsciū, a, um, not knowyng nor wityng.
 Inconsequentia, x, f. g. a conclusyon or ende.
 Inconsiderantia, loke Inconsyderantia.
 Inconsolabilis, le, that can not bee comforted.
 Inconspētus, a, um, not dispised or contemned.
 Inconstans, antis, om. ge. vnconstaunt, lyght, was uerynge, nowe in one mynde, nowe in an other, not agreyng with it selfe.
 Inconstanter, vnconstantly.
 Inconstātia, x, fcc. g. inconstancie, lyghtenesse, wauerynge.
 Inconsuetus, a, um, vnaccustomed, vnwont.
 Inconsulte, without counsaile, or vnaduisedly, vnwysely.
 Inconsultus, us, m. g. not demaundyng of counsaile, not geuyng of counsaile.
 Inconsultu meo, without my counsaile.
 Inconsultus, a, um, lackyng aduise or consideration, he that wyll not aske counsaile, rather, follyshe. also one that is not asked counsaile of, somtyme he that hath no counsaile geuen hym.
 Inconsultum consilium, vnwysle counsaile, follyshe counsaile geuen without aduisement.
 Inconsumptus, a, um, not consumed.
 Inconsutis, le, without any seame.
 Inconsutus, a, um, vnstowed.
 Inconsyderantia, x, f. ge. lacke of consideration, vnaduisednesse, rashenesse.
 Inconsyderate, vnaduisedly, rashely.
 Inconsyderātus, a, um, and Inconsyderans, antis, without consideration or aduisement, rather, follyshe.
 Incontaminātus, a, um, vndeptyed, not spotted or steyned.
 Incontentus, a, um, not stretched out, not wrested vp, slacke.
 Incontinens, entis, he that is not chaste, or keepeth hym not to one woman, that can not res-freigne and rule him selfe.

 Incontinenter, incontinently.
 Incontinentia, x, f. g. incontinencie.
 Incontinentia vrinae, the rennyng of ones water from hym whether he wyll or no.
 Inconueniens, entis, vnconuenient, vnseemely,
 vnfitting, also that dweth not agree.
 Incoquo, inquouis, xi, ere, to seeth or boyle in a thyng, to seethe or boyle together, also to co-uct wyth syluer, tynne, or leade.
 Inquoqui sole, to be ryped in the sunne.
 Incordio, aui, are, to put into a mans herte, to presswade hym.
 Incorporālis, le, that hath no body.
 Incorporēus, a, um, without a body.
 Incōporo, aui, are, to imppinte or set vpon ones
 bodye.
 Incorrectus, a, um, vncoorrected.
 Incorrupte, vncoaruptly, purely.
 Incorruptus, vncoarupted, pure, cleane, sincere.
 Incoxo, aui, are, to sit as women or taylers doe, without a stole.
 Increātus, a, um, neuer created.
 Increbresco, increbrui, or bui, scere, to waxe, to be spede or muche knowen.
 Increbuit rumor, the rumour or bzute increassed or went abroade.
 Increbuit res prouerbio, it was commonly taken by for a prouerbe, or it grewe to a prouerbe.
 Auster increbuit, the southwynde waxeth bygget.
 Vnde magis increbescunt, the sea waxeth
 moze troublous.
 Incredibilis, le, incredible, not to be beleued, miraualious.
 Incredibilis sum, no man wyll beleue me.
 Incredibiliter, incredibly.
 Incredulus, a, um, that wyll beleue nothing.
 Incredulitas, ātis, f. g. incredulitee, lacke of beleefe.
 Incrementum, i, n. g. increase.
 Incrementum fluij, the rysyng of a rpuer.
 Incrēpito, aui, are, to blame or rebuke often.
 Increpitus, a, um, chydden, blamed, rebuked.
 Increpo, increpas, ui, are, to sowne or make noyse, to creake. also to rebuke, to rate, to blame, to chyde, to prouoke.
 Increpare aliquem auaritia, to blame one of rouetousnesse.
 Simul atque increpuit suspitio tumultus, By and by as sone as there was heard anye suspision of tumultie or rufflyng.
 Hæc in eum increpantur, these thynges bee layde to his charge, or he is blamed for these thynges.
 Stimulo tardos increpuisse boues, to prycke with a goade.
 Lyram increpare digitis, to playe on the harpe.
 Increasco, eui, scere, to growe muche, or moze and moze.

Incruentatus, a, um, not dyed with bladdred.
Incruentus, a, um, without bloud shed, not bloudy.
Incrustatio, ónis, f. g. a pargettyng or couerynge with harde matter lyke a cruste.
Incrusto, aui, are, to pargette or make harde or in a cruste.
Incubatio, ónis, Incubirio, ónis, f. g. Incubitus, us, & Incubatus, us, m. g. lyng in, styng to hatche egges, sitting abroode.
Incubo, bónis, m. g. he that setteth all his studie on treasure.
Incubo, incubas, cubui, and cubaui, bare, to lye in or upon, to cleave to, to sit ouer a thyng, to sytte on egges as an hen doeth, to occuppe, to possede, to inbrace, to nourshe, to dwell in, to care. also to lye and sleape, to the intent to haue some vision or aunswere of the yholes, as they bled in bode tyme, to be verage muche in a place, and is taken in the yll parte.
Alicui pecuniae incubare spe atque animo, to be verage greedy, and desyrus of moneye, and set ones whole mynde and trust vpon it.
Nox ponto incubat, it was as darke as nighte vpon the sea.
Incubare oua, or ouis, to sytte a broode vpon egges.
Incubare thesauris, to keepe moneie locked vp, and as it were to lye abroode on it.
Incubare thesauris publicis, to vsurpe and hepe the common treasure as his owne by force.
Incubator, óris, m. g. one that is muche in a place.
Incubiro, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Incubo.
Incubitus dextri lateris, lyng on the ryghte syde.
Incubus, incubi, a spirite, whyche assuminge the forme of a man, medleth with a womā. also that whyche is called the mare, wherewith men ben oppressed in theyr sleepe.
Incudo, ónis, m. g. he that worketh on an anuill.
Inculco, aui, are, to porre in, and by translation, to repete a thyng often, and as it were to beate or porre into ones memozy. also to make one to take whether he wyll or no.
Inculcare munus, plusquam offere, to offer a charge to one whether he wyll or no.
Inculcatus, a, um, porred in, often repeted, beate into the memozy.
Canis rabiosi moribus inculcata, porred into the bytynges of madde dogges.
Tradita atque inculcata libertas, lyberte whiche men had of theyr auncestours, and haue continually ben brought vp in.
Inculpatus, a, um, blamelesse, not faultie.
Vita inculcata, a lyfe that can not be blamed in any poynt: a perfect honest lyfe.
Incultus, rudely, without eloquence.
Incultus, a, um, vnhusbanded. or vntilled, rude, nothing eloquent.
Incultus, us, m. g. vncleanly apparaylunge, contrary to Cultus, negligence in apparayling.
Incumba, bæ, f. g. a parte of a pillour in makynge of arches, wheremyon the arche specially resteth.

Incumbo, cubui, cumbere, to endeouour, to take in hande, to hadde, to leane vppon, or fall on a thyng. also to be inclined to some thyng, to geue all diligence and studie, to synke downe vpon a thyng.
Incumbo ad or in studia, I geue my mynde wholly to studie and learnyng.
Ad salutem reipublice, or in rempublica incumbere, to traualle about the common weale, to endeouour with all study and diligence to help the common weale.
In causam incumbere, to mainteine that parte.
Incumbere gladium, or in gladium, to synke downe on a swordes poynt, and slea hym selfe.
Incumbunt tecta centenis columnis, The roof is bozng vp with an hundred pillours.
Sed mihi incumbunt, But the bourdepyne of these thynges charge or ouerlade me, or lye heauy on my necke.
Qui in te ipsam incubuerunt, whyche are fallen or throwen on thy necke.
Baculo incumbens, leanyng on a staffe.
Incumbere ad bellum omni studio, to geue all ones care and studie to the mayntenaunce of warre.
In eam curam incumbere, Geue all your care or study to this, or endeouore this with all diligence.
Incumbere toto pectore ad laudem, Geue or apply all your whole mynde and courage, to great pryse.
Incumbere ad, or in perniciem alicuius, to go about with all diligence, to purchase ones deathe or destruction.
Ad voluntatem perferendam legis incubuerat, He woulde haue had that lawe made.
Ad lenitatem nimiam incumbunt mores, the maners of men be bente or inclined to to muche gentylnesse.
Incunabula, órum, n. g. plu. all that longeth to the swathelpnge of a chyld, thynges pertynyng to infancie, it is also taken for the begynnyng of thynges. Also for the place where one was bozne, or the fyrste begynnyng of ones stocke or kynrede.
Ab incunabilis, euen from our infancie.
Incunabula & rudimenta.
Incunabulum, li, n. g. a cradell.
Incuratus, a, um, vncured, vnhealed.
Incuria, æ, f. g. negligence, pl husbandry, carelesnesse.
Incuriose, negligently, without care.
Incuriosus, a, um, carelesse, negligent.
Incuriosus proximorum, that is not carefull for those thynges that folowe next.
Incurro, incurri, ire, to renne agaynst one, to iutte, to renne, to meete wth one by chaunce.
In tenebris incurere, in the darke to meete or ren agaynst a thyng.
Incurrere & incidere.
Incurrit ager in agrum, one fielde extendeth or lieth within an other.

Incurp

Incurrere in aliquem verbe, to inueighe a agaynst one with woordes. Incurrere in loca, to make inrodes or inuasions on one. In aliquem incurrere, to renne violently agaynst one. Incurrere in oculos, to come in ones syght that looketh not for it, or would not see it.
 Quae in odia hominum incurrunt, whiche thynges be hated of men. Incurrere in voces maleuolorum, to be selans dered or pll spoken of, by malicious persones, or suche as doo not fauour vs. Incurrere circensibus, to fall on the same daye that the plaies called Circences are kepte.
 In quem diem incurrat nescio, I can not tell vpon what day it falleth. In varias reprehensiones incurrere, to be blamed for diuers thynges. In vrbauitatem hominum incurrere, to be morked of scoffed at. Incurritur, the impersonall. Incurtio, onis, f. g. inuasion of enemies an in-rode, a iutting or meryng of thynges together. Incurtionem facere, to inuade or make an in-rode or forrey vpon enemies. Incurtionibus vastari, to be ouer runne, spoysled and wasted by enemies. Incursum, antis, om. g. that iuteth or hyteth as agaynst a thyng suddenly. Incursum, aui, are, the frequentatiue of incurso. Incurso, aui, are, to ren agaynst a thyng, to iut, to iutte vpon a thyng, to make inrodes and inuasions vpon enemies. Incurfare aduersis cornibus, to iutte or renne together as rammes dooe. In fortunas hominum incurfare, to inuade mens possessions and gooddes, and by extorte power to take them away. Pugnare aliquem incurfare, to renne on one to thumpe and beate him with his fistes. Incurfus, us, m. g. idem quod incurtio. Vis & incurfus pluuiarum, the force and vehemence of rayne. Incuruesco, scere, to bow downe, or be crooked. Incuruo, aui, are, to make crooked. Incuruus, a, um, crooked. Incus, udis, f. g. an anuyll. Eandem incudem tundere, to labour alway aboute one thyng, to repte one thyng continually, to harpe alway vpon one stryng. Incudi reddere, by translation to correte, to polyste, to amende. Incuratio, onis, f. g. a blamyng. Incuso, aui, are, to accuse, to blame, to fynde faute with. Quid me incusas? why blamest thou me? or why laiest thou blame or faute in me? Qui alterum incusat probri, he that laiest a faute to an other mans charge. Incustoditus, a, um, not kepte. Incusus, a, um, coryned or dented in.

Incurtio, incurtis, cussi, ere, to strike or dash.

Incurere scipione in caput alicuius, to rappe
 one on the pate with his walkyng staffe.

Incurere pedem terrae, to stampe on the ground with his foote.

Incurere colaphum, to geue a blowe.

Desyderium ciuitatis incurere, To make one desyrous of the citee.

Incurere errorem, to deceyue, to bypnye in an errour or false opinion.

Merum incurere, to make ascrapde.

Morbum incurere, to make sicke.

Incurere alicui nuntium, to bypnye one tyden-ges suddenly.

Pudore incurere, to make ashamed or abashed.

Indagante, diligente, with great serchyng.

Indagatio, onis, f. g. gen. a diligent serchyng or seekyng out.

Indagator, oris, m. g. gen. a diligent searcher or seeker out.

Indagatrix, the feminine.

Indago, aui, are, to secke or serche, to vente, to seeke out as an hounde dooth.

Indagare & odorari, to seke and smell out.

Omnibus vestigijs indagare, to serch out dilisgently by all signes and tokens that may be.

Indago, inis, f. g. a serche, also the serchyng vpon of a tople or nettes aboute a parke or forest, to take dere or wyld beastes.

Et syluas vastas feras indagine claudit.

Inde, from thens, there, from thence forth, after warde, from that man or woman. Sometyme for ob id, for that thyng.

Vxorem duxit, nati filij duo, inde ego hunc maiorem optaui mihi, he tooke a wife and had by hir. ii. sonnes, from him I tooke this, which is the elder, and made him mine heire.

Inde ab initio, from the fyrst beginnyng.

Inde est, therof it cometh.

Inde ab incunte aetate, euen from his youth.

Indebito, an aduerbe, where a man ought not to haue payed.

Indebitum, i, n. g. a thyng that is not due.

Indebitus, a, um, not due, not owen.

Indecens, entis, om. gen. vnseemlyng, vnconuenient, vnseemlyng.

Indecenter, vnseemly, vncomely.

Indecet, it misbecometh.

Indeclinabilis, le, that can not be eschewed or a-uoyded: also vndeclined. Sometyme constant, that wyl not vnde.

Indeclinabilis animus, a constant and immutable mynde.

Indecor, oris, not regarded, not seemly.

Indecore, vnholly, vnconueniently, vncomly.

Indecoris, re, idem quod indecor.

Indecorus, a, um, vnseemly, vncomly, vnholly.

Indefatigabilis, le, that can not be weryed or tired.

Indefensus, a, um, without defence.

Indefessus, a, um, that can not be weryed or tired.

Indefinitus, a, um, not determined or discussid, obscure, darke.

Indefectus, a, um, that is not lamented or wayled for.

Indeflexus, a, um, not bowed, not tooled.

Indelectus, a, um, that is not caste downe or ouerthrowen.

Indelēbilis, le, that can not be put or rased out.

Indelibatus, a, um, that is whole, vntouched, not diminished.

Indemnatus, a, um, agaynst whome no sentence is pronounced of the iudge, or agaynst whom no iudgement is geuen.

Indemnitas, ne, adiect. without hurte or harme, without damage defended.

Indemnitas, ātis, fcm. g. eschuyng of damage, escaping without hurte.

Existimans indemnitati suæ consuli posse, thynkynge that he moughte eschewe damage or daunger.

Indeploratus, a, um, not bewayled or lamented.

Indeprouatus, a, um, not deproued or corrupted.

Indeprecabilis, le, that will not be intreated, or that will not forgeue.

Pœna indeprecabilis, punishment without remission.

Indeptus, a, um, gotten, or that hath gotten.

Indesertus, a, um, not deserte.

Indesēs, desidis, not sluggish, quicke, diligent.

Indesinenter, alwayes, continually.

Inderosus, a, um, not shauen or notted.

Indeuotio, ōnis, fcm. ge. slacknesse in dooynge of thynges godly and honest.

Index, indicis, om. g. he that accuseth or appeareth an other man. also he that to escape punishment, or for some reward, discloseth the conspiracie, wherunto he was made priuie. It is also the forsynger, a touchstone to try golde. also the table of a booke, wherby certayne chapters or notes be founde.

Leonum animi index cauda, sicut & equorū aures, that whyche sheweth theyr courage.

India, a greete ryche countreie, called in englyshe Indie, lyng on the southe easte partes of the worlde, whiche as Ptolomeus writeth, is in two partes. The one is called Inde within the riuer of Ganges, whiche on the west is bounded with Aracofia & Gedrosia, on the east with the great ryuer called Ganges, on the north with the hyll called Imaus: On the south and west, with part of the Indian sea. The other part of Indie without Ganges, is bounded on the west with the sayde ryuer Ganges, on the north with parte of Scythia and Setica: on the east with the region called Sinarum, on the south with the Indian sea. Ptolemy, great Alexanders admirall, affirmed (as Arrianus writeth) that it was four monethes iorney by the playnes of Indie. Mesgasthenes sayd, that the breadth of Indie from the east to the west, cōtyneth. 16000. furlonges, whiche is .2100. miles. The length from the north to the south. 22000. furlonges, whiche is.

2850. myles. Aethias affirmeth it to be as much as the residue of Asia. But Onesicritus, whyche wrote the actes of Alexander, demeth it to be the thyrde parte of Asia. There is alwaye two sommers, and fruites and grayne twyse gathered. The wyndes be alwayes temperate, the beastes and foules muche greater than in other countreys, and of more dyuers kyndes. The names of the countreys and citees there, be nowe otherwyle than they were in the tyme of the auncient wyrters. They which bee now knownen, shall be declared in theyr places, with the mountaynes and ryuers, whiche are greete aboue all other.

Indicatio, ōnis, and Indicatura, æ, f. g. the prysynge or settinge the price of a thyng. Indicatio is sometyme an affirmynge or auowynge.

Indicatus, a, um, shewed, declared, accused, also prised.

Indicium, ij, neu. gen. is where one, whiche was participatour in an offence, doeth discouer the actes and diuises of his companyons. also a spgne, a token.

Indicio esse, to betoken or declare, to notifye by a signe or token, to be a signe or token.

Quale ingenium haberes, indicio fuit oratio, your communication well notified of what disposition you were.

Indicium profiteri, voluntarily to disclose ones selfe, and all his companions.

Ex indicio nihil periculi est, there is no iopery die, or daunger in disclosynge the mattice.

Indico, indicas, aui, are, to disclose, to manifest, to make opely knownen, to demonstrate, to appeach, to accuse, to set or telle the pryce, to delpue in possesio that whych is bought, to detect, to shew, to tell, to declare.

Num color pudoris signum vsquam indicat? Doeth his colour shewe anye maner token of shamefastnesse?

Indicare in vulgus, to telle abroad.

Res ipsa indicat, the thyng it selfe declareth.

Indico, xi, ere, to denounce, to declare solemnly, and for a great cause, as battayle, fastinges, funeralles, counsayles, triumphes, and other great thynges. also to sette a tribute or taxe, and to appoint or commaunde.

Indicere consilium, to call or command a counsell.

Indicere iustitium, to commande a vacation, or as we vse to saie, to keepe no terme.

Indicere pecuniam populo, to sette a taxe or subsidie on the people.

Bellum indicere voluptati, to stryue and resist agaynst our voluptee and pleasure.

Sibi bellum indicere, to torment or vex ones selfe. Cœnam indicere, to commaund a supper to be prepared, to bespeake a supper.

Bellum indicere ventri, to fast.

Inimicitias indicere, to declare and notifye ones selfe to be an enemy.

Indicere

Indicere sibi legem innocentia, to hynde hym selfe to lyue byrthly.
Indictio, onis, for. g. the space of. xv. yeres, also a tere graunted by the people.
Indictious, a, um, that whiche is declared oꝝ appointed, that is denounced.
Indictus, a, um, declared oꝝ denounced solemnly. also not spoken, not defended, not declared.
Indicta causa, the cause oꝝ matre not knowen, declared oꝝ defended.
Indiculum, a diminutive of Indicium.
Indidem, from thens, from the same place, foorthwith, the same.
Indies, dailely from daile to daile.
Crescente indies multitudine, the multitude oꝝ numbre dailely increasynge.
Indifferens, entis, om. g. indifferent, that is not ouer rigoꝝous oꝝ cruel. also that doth not differ.
Indifferens homo, that putteth no difference betwene thynges.
Indifferenter, indifferently.
Indifferenter ferre, to take the matter indifferently, not to be greatly displeased.
Indifferentia, æ, indifferencie, also likenesse, as greablenesse.
Indifficilis, le, veraiie harde oꝝ difficulte.
Indigena, æ, om. gene. of the same countrey oꝝ towne boꝝne and bredde.
Indigenialis, le, idem quod indigena, a worde out of vse.
Indigentia, æ, f, g. nede, necessitee, lacke.
Indigeo, indiges, digui, ère, to lacke, to haue nede.
Hoc bellum indiget celeritatis, This warre nedeth speede and haste.
Quasi tu huius indigeas patris, As thoughe thou haddest any nede of me thy father.
Malo virum pecunia, quam pecuniam viro indigentem, I had lietter haue a man that lacketh money, than money that lacketh a man.
Indigeo addiscere, I had nede to learne.
Indigeste, without order.
Indigestio, onis, yll digestion.
Indiges, indigetis, a god made of mortall men. some take it for a pyuate god, pertynyng to particular places.
Indigestus, a, um, without order oꝝ disposition.
Indigitamenta, orum, bookes containing the names of goddis, and the mysticall significacion of them.
Indigito, aui, are, to name, to call by name, to signify, and as it were to shewe with ones fynger.
Indignabundus, a, um, angry, shewynge his indignacion oꝝ wrathe.
Indignatio, onis, for. gen. angre, wraath, indignacion.
Indigne, vntwoꝝthly, vnhoneestely, cruelly, wickedly, villanously.
Indigne ferre oꝝ pati, to disdeigne, to be discontent, to take greuoussly.
Indignissime interierunt, They dyed moste mysferably oꝝ wretchedly.

Indignitas, æris, f. g. indignitee, vntwoꝝthynesse, vn noblenesse, dishonestee, crueltee, sometyme vilenesse oꝝ basenesse of condicion.
Indignor, æris, ari, to disdeigne, to fume, to fere, to chafe, to thinke stoꝝne, to be made angry, to be stampynge and staryng wood.
Indignus, a, um, vntwoꝝthly, miserable, vnhoneest, shamefull, cruell, impious, horrible, detestable.
Tu indignus qui faceres tamen, yett ye were no mete man to doe it.
Indigna homine dubitatio est, Of that matter it is no honestee for a man to doute.
Indignum facinus, a shamefull oꝝ vnhoneest acte. Indignum illi facis, thou doest not well by hym, he hath not deserued it.
Indignum in modum, after a cruell oꝝ vnhoneest sorte oꝝ facion.
Indigus, indiga, um, nedy oꝝ lackynge.
Nihil indigus ensis, haunge no nede of a swoorde at all.
Indilgens, entis, om. g. negligent, nothyng diligent oꝝ laboriouse.
Indilgens hortus, a gardyne that is not well trimmed oꝝ husbanded, negligently kepte.
Indiligentia, æ, f, g. negligence. Veni indiligentis, a, negligence in sekyng the truthe.
Indiligenter, negligently, with no diligence.
Indipisco, scere, & indipiscor, eris, sei, to obteyne to vsurpe, to geat, to ouertake.
Indipisci pugnam, to obteyne victoꝝy.
Multum in cogitando dolorem indipiscor, By musynge oꝝ thynnyng on diuers matters, I fall into great sorowe and heuynesse.
Indipisci animo, to cunne by herte, to holde in remembraunce.
Numquam pot indipiscet postea, Cruelly he shall neuer attayne to it, oꝝ get it after.
Indiscretus, a, um, not seuered, not separated, one togyther, also lyke, not differynge.
Indiscretæ similitudinis res, thynges of lykenesse that can not be discerned.
Indiscriminatum, indifferently, without diuersitee.
Indiserte, without eloquence.
Indisertus, a, um, without eloquence, not well languaged.
Indisposite, without order, disposition, oꝝ aray.
Indissolubilis, le, that can not be dissolued.
Indissolutus, a, um, not dissolued, knyt togyther.
Indistincte, vndistinctly.
Indistinctus, a, um, not distincte, confuse.
Indistrictus, a, um, not hurte.
Inditus, a, um, put oꝝ set in.
Indiuiduus, a, um, that may not be diuided oꝝ separated.
Indiuisus, a, um, not diuided oꝝ separated.
Indo, indidi, ere, to put oꝝ set in, to geue.
Indere catenas captiuis, to put chaynes vpon captiues oꝝ prisoners.
Indere nomē alicui, to geue a name to a thyng.
Indere titulum, to set a title on a thyng.
Indocilis, le, a dullard that can not be taught, vnapte to be taughte. Also naturallie, that is of nature without instruction.

Indocilis & Tardus.

Indocte, vnlearnedly.

Indoctus, a, um, vnlearned, vntaught.

Indolentia, a, f. g. lacke of payne.

Indoleo, indoles, lui, ere, and Indolesco, scere, to be soyy.

Indoles, indolis, f. g. towardnesse and disposicion one to vertue in chyldren, in men token of vertue. Also bray nobilitie of honour, aptnesse to good of yuell.

Specimen indolis dare, when in pouthe one sheweth a lyphelphode of towardnesse to vertue.

Socrates proxime videtur accedere ad Laconicam indolem, to resemble the begyne of the Las redemonians.

Lata indolis adolescens, a ponge man of a mery and pleasant nature.

Tanta indoles in Lauinia erat, So good of vertuous a nature there was in Lauinia.

Equorum indoles, the race of hofes.

Fructum indoles, the tetrage, verdure, of sente of frutes.

Frugum indoles, the good growthe and fulnesse of grayne.

Homines in quibus est virtutis indoles, men, in home appereth a manifest token of vertue and honestee.

Cum hac indole virtutum ac vitiorum, shewing these tokens of the good and ill inclination that was in hym.

Indomabilis, le, that maye not be made tame.

Indomitus, a, um, wylde, vnbroken, vnruly.

Indomitus equus, an hofse vnbroken.

Indormio, miui, ire, to geue to muche stude to a thing, also to sleape in doyng a thing, to be slowe of lacke.

Desidia indormire, to sleape in slothfulness, to become vcraye slothfull and ydell.

Indormire causa, to be negligent and slowe in a matter.

Indotatus, a, um, not indowed with anye gyftes, that hath no dowry geuen.

Indubitabilis, le, idem quod indubitatus.

Indubitanter, vndoubtedly.

Indubite, without doubt.

Indubitatus, a, um, vndoubted, certayne.

Indubito, aui, are, not to doubt.

Inducia, arum, f. g. plur. truce of peace for a certayne tyme.

Inducia exierant, The truce was past.

Inducias facere & inire, to make truce.

Pacta inducia, truce made.

Induco, xi, ere, to induce, to bynge in, to perswade, to allure, to incline, to deceyue, to cancell, to rase of strike out, to defete, to put on, properly hosen of shoen, to infixe of stablyshe, to couer of caste ouer.

Ira induxi in animum, I haue so infixed of stablyshed in my mynde, I haue so perswaded my selfe. In errorem inducere, to byng into a fals opinion. In memoriam inducere, to byng in to mynde of remembrance.

In spem inducere, to byng in hope of truste.

Inducere morem, to bynge in a custome.

Inducere seditionem in ciuitatem, to reple a sedicion. Inducere colorem pictura, to lay colour on a picture.

Inducere parietes, to pargette walls.

Inducere scura pellibus, to couer.

Inducere exordium, to begyn.

Inducere cuti nitorem, to make the skyn beaytyfull and sayre.

Senectus inducit rugas, Olde age maketh men wrinkled and ryueled.

Ne illis animum inducas credere, Let it not synke into your mynde to beleue theym.

Inducere animum ad meretricem, to cast ones loue vpon an harlotte.

Promissis aliquem inducere, to induce of persuade one to do a thyng with sayre promyses.

Ad misericordiam inducere, to moue to pitye of mercy. Senatus consultum inducere, to rase out of fordoe a decree made by the senate.

Inducere noueram filia, to mary an other wyfe whyle hys daughter is alpye.

Inducere calceum alicui, to put on ones shoe.

Inducere rotam, to tourne of rolle a wheele.

Inducere scuta pellibus, to couer tergates with skynnes.

Aliquem inducere, to deceyue one.

Inducere fructum dicuntur arbores, to bynge forth the fruite.

Inductio, onis, f. g. a forme of argument, proceedinge from the particulars vnto the vniuersalles. also an argument, whyche by gettinge the assent in thynges not doubtfull, proueth the thyng whyche is intended. Sometime a cancellyng of rasyng out.

Inductio animi, a perswasion.

Inductio aquarum, a conueyng of water.

Inductus, us, m. g. a perswasion of inducing.

Inductus, a, um, brought in, induced, perswaded, moued, ledde, rased, striken out, layed vpon in stede of an other thyng, caste ouer, smered of anoynted.

Quæque sub inducta latuit finilla fauilla, i. raked ouer it.

Inducula, a, f. g. a littell garment.

Indugredi, for ingredi.

Indulco, aui, are, & Indulcoro, aui, are, to make sweete.

Indulgens, entis, gentill, that suffereth one to haue his wyll and pleasure. Sometime he, to whom gentylnesse is shewed.

Indulgenter, fauourably, without rigour, to gently. Indulgenter aliquem habere, to handle of intreate fauourably and gently.

Indulgentia, a, & Indulgitas, aui, gentilnesse in sufferance, cokerpyng, also mercie.

Nimia indulgentia, inordinate and to muche tenders tenderneſſe.

Indulgeo, dulſi, ere, to graunt lyghtely, to conſent to a requeſte. alſo to geue reſpite, to be gentle and mercifull, to pardon, to leaſt one haue his wyll, to coker or make to muche of one, to geue licence, to permitte. alſo to geue hys mynde or ſtudye to a thyng.

Indulge valetudini tue, Take heede to thy helth, cheriſhe or make muche of your ſelfe, tender your helth.

Nimium illi indulges, Thou arte to tender on hym, thou makeſt hym to muche a wanton, thou letteſt hym haue to muche of the bybell, or to muche of his owne wyll.

Indulſit balneum fieri, He graunted lyghtely, that a bayne ſhould be made.

Indulgere luſibus, to addicte and geue himſelfe to fantaſies, paſtymes or trifles.

Indulgere abdomini, to geue hym ſelfe to beaſty chere, to fede and cheriſhe the carneys to muche. Indulgere nouis amicis, to make much of newe friendes.

Indulgere deſyderio alicuius, to graunt that one deſyret or would ſayne haue.

Quid ego indulgeo dolori? why doe I geue my ſelfe to ſozowe and heauyneſſe?

Luxuriæ indulgere, to abandon ons ſelfe to pleaſure and wantonneſſe.

Nimis me or mihi indulgeo, I ſolowe mine owne appetite to muche.

Lachrymis indulſit, he wepte muche.

Abolitionem publice indulgere, to permitte openly, to graunte.

Qui malis moribus nomen oratoris indulgent, whiche permitte & graunt, that they, which liue ill, may be called oratours.

Peccatis amici indulgere, to ſuffer and pardon the miſdoyngeſ of ones frende.

Indulges filio veſtitu nimio, you ſuffer your ſonne to haue to ſumptuous or coſlye apparell.

Indumentum, i, n. g. a garment.

Induo, dui, ere, to put on a garmente or other lyke thinge, to tranſforme or tranſlate, to caſt in, to annoynt.

Induere perſonam alterius, to ſpeake in the name or ſtede of an other man.

Induor hanc veſtem and hac veſte, I haue on this garment.

Induere perſonam iudicis, to preſent or do the office of a iudge.

Induere poſtes pice, to laye on pitch on the poſtes. Induere ſibi ingenium nouum, to chaunge his nature. Speciem latronis induere, to be the facion of a theefe.

Veruſtatem induere, to become olde.

Indui fructu, to be charged or laded wpyth fruite. Indui ſua confeſſione, to be taken by his owne confeſſion.

Induit ſe in florem, it bloſſometh.

Quid erat induta? what garment had the on?

Induere ſibi veſtem, and ſe veſte.

Induere annulum digito, to put a rying on his ſynger.

Induitur etiam pedibus aurum, he weareth golde on his fete alſo.

Arma induere, to put on harnes.

Soleas equo induere, to ſhoe an horſe.

Terra tantis ſegetibus induebatur, the ground was laded with ſo muche cozne.

Induere ſibi nomen, to geue hym ſelfe a name, to take on hym a name.

Faſam ſibi ſcientiæ perſuaſionem induerunt, They haue perſuaded them ſelfes to be lerned, and be not in deebe.

Simulationem rei alicuius induere, to counſterſayte or feigne.

Videte in quot laqueis ſe induerit, See you into howe manye ſnares he hath brought hym ſelfe, or in howe manye ſnares he hath intangled and wapped hym ſelfe.

In idipſum ſe induit, quod timebat, he hath brought hym ſelfe into the ſame inconuenience, that he feared.

Induere ſe re aliqua, to entangle ones ſelfe in a matter.

Vultus ſeueros induere, to looke ſaddely and grauely.

Indupedior for Impedior.

Indupérator, óris, m. g. for Imperator.

Indúreo, indúres, rui, rere, and Indureſco, ſcedere, to be harde or waxe harde.

Indúro, áui, áre, to harden, to make harde.

Indus, i, m. ge. a noble ryuer, that cometh from the greate mountayne Taurus, and incloſeth Indee on the weſt, and renneth into the Indus an ſee. Into this ryuer ren. xix. greate and famous ryuers, the leaſte of theym more than the greate ryuer of Danowe, where he is broadest. Strabo ſayeth, that they, whiche do wyte moſte moderately of Indus, do aſſume, that he is in breadth ſixtie furlonges, whiche is twelue myles and an halfe. The water therof cauſeth greate fertilitye, whan it ouerfloweth, and therof many ſundry pleaſant and hoſſome frutes doe ſpyng without labour.

Induſiarius, ij, m. g. a maner of peticores. Induſiáta, æ, f. g. Idem quod Induſium. Induſiárus, a, um, cladde in a peticote. Induſium, ij, n. g. a peticote, or rather a ſhyrte. Indúſtria, æ, f. g. a vertue, comprehendynge bothe ſtudy and diligence, induſtrie. alſo trauayle or labour.

De induſtria aliquid facere, to doe a thyng of purpoſe or for the nones.

Induſtria, idem quod de induſtria.

Ob eam induſtriam hodie ducam ſcortum ad cœnam, Becauſe thou doeſt ſpye and watche ſo diligently what I doe. &c.

Induſtriæ, wittiply, with diligence, with induſtry.

Induſtrius, a, um, that is witty and actiue, dili-gent, laboious, glad to trauayle or take pain in a thyng.

Indutus, us, mas, ge. arayng or apparayllyng, the puttynge on of a garment.
 Induuia, apparayle.
 Induuium, uñ, n. g. the barke of a tree.
 Inebra aues, byzdes whiche in the diuination of the Augures forbode any thyng to be doon.
 Inebrio, aui, are, to make drunke, to be drunken.
 Inedia, x, f. g. hunger, fampne.
 Ineditus, a, um, not put abode or declared, not published.
 Ineffabilis, le, that can not bee spoken or pronounced, in speakeable, suche as neyther hart can thynke, nor pen descriue.
 Inefficax, acis, om. gen. of no force, vertue, or strengthe.
 Ineffigatus, a, um, unfacioned, without good proportion, without faction or fourme.
 Inelaboratus, not counnynglye wrought or done.
 Inelegans, antis, om. g. without eloquence, nothyng pretie or feate.
 Inelegant, nothyng preatylye.
 Ineluctabilis, le, that can be overcome or passed with no labour or traualle.
 Inemendabilis, le, that can not be amended.
 Inemptus, a, um, not bought.
 Inenarrabilis, le, meruaylous, that can not be declared or uttered.
 Inenarratus, a, um, not declared or expounded.
 Inenodabilis, le, that can not be dissolued.
 Ineo, iui, ire, to begyn, to go in, to enter in, to desserue, to get, to wyne, to obteyne, to treat.
 Inire, is sometye where the male leapyth the female, as the hore couereth the mare, also to cosider and vnderstande.
 Inire cursum, to begyn his course.
 Inire fœdus, to make a league or treatie of pece.
 Inire fugam, to flee as men do in battayle.
 Gratiā inire, to get thanke or frendshyppe with doyng some pleasure for a man.
 Gratiā ab vel cum aliquo & apud aliquem inire.
 Inire magistratum, to enter into an office.
 Inire pacem, to make peace.
 Inire bellum, to make warre.
 Inire viam, to fynde a waye.
 Rationem inire, to seeke meane, or to consider how a thing may bee doon, to consult, to rechen, to make an accompte.
 Inire societatem, to fall in felowshyp with one.
 Inire suffragia, to assemble people for an election, or to consent to any matier.
 Inita subductaque ratione, all thynges reckned or well accompted.
 Ineunte ætate, in youthe.
 Ineunte vere, at the beginning of the spyng of the yere.
 Caue ne falsam gratiam studias inire, beware that thou desyre not to haue or pyke a thanke of me vnderferued, or that thou goe not about to make me thanke the for nothyng.
 Inijt se vnquam febris: Wpd the feuer euer take you: or were you euer sicke of the ague?

 Consilium cum aliquo inire, to consult or take counsaile wth one.
 Conuiuium inire, to go to a feast.
 Inire imperia alicuius, to serue or to become subiecte to one.
 Nexum inibant, they were cast in pylon, they were layed in chaynes.
 Inire numerum, to numbre.
 Inire prælium, or pugna, to begynne battayle,
 to geue the onsette.
 Ratio de integro ineunda est mihi, I must be sayne to begyn my rechenyng or accompte all newe agayne.
 Cubile alterius inire, to lye with an other mans wyfe.
 Ineor, irjs, iri, the passyue.
 Ineptè, folyslye, fondely, vntwysly, without god purpose, not to the purpose.
 Ineptia, vnaptenesse, fondenesse, foly, trifyng.
 Ineptio, iui, ire, to trifle, to do or speake a thyng vnmete for the purpose.
 Ineptus, a, um, vnapt, foolyshe, vnconuenient,
 vnmete, fonde.
 Labor ineptus, wayne and vnprofitable labour.
 Inepta lenitas, folyshe and fonde gentynesse out of time and place.
 Causa inepta, a folyshe excuse.
 Ineptum est, it is a veraye folye, or a thyng vnsconuenient.
 Via inepta, an yll and troblous waye.
 Ineptus, a trifier, vsyng nothyng in order, vnapt to the purpose.
 Inequitabilis, le, that can not be rydde throughe.
 Inermis, me, vnarmed, a man yolden.
 Inermo, aui, are, to vnarme, to take ones harnys from hym.
 Inermus, a, um, idem quod inermis.
 Inerrans, antis, that moueth not, or goeth not from place to place.
 Inerrantes stellæ, fixed sterres.
 Inerro, aui, are, idem quod erro.
 Iners, eris, omnis, gen. without anye science or craft, ydell, slouthfull, not occupied, nothyng lyuely, folyshe or dull, without courage or spyte, not able to helpe it selfe. also vnprofitable, some tyme barrayne.
 Iners, & ignauus.
 Aetas iners, olde age.
 Iners membris, not able to helpe it selfe wth
 the partes of the body.
 Ad repugnandum iners, not able to resiste.
 Gleba inertes, barrayne cloddes.
 Aqua iners, standyng water.
 Admissarius iners in venerem, not desirous to leape the mares.
 Caro iners, vnsauoy flesh, nothyng quicke of tast.
 Inertes querelæ, vnprofitable.
 Sal iners, without quyknesse or sauour.
 Tempus abibit iners, Shall passe away without doyng

Inopng of any thyng, inopia, want, need.
Inertia, x, f. ge. lacke of craite, ydelnesse, negligegence, slacknesse, vntuynesse.
Inerticula vitis, a vine, wherof the wyne is so good, that none yuell pprodeith thereof, or rather the wyne that neuer maketh one drunke.
Inerudire, vnlernedly, without knowledge.
Ineruditus, a, um, vnlerned.
Inesco, scis, scere, to saye a hopte, also to deceyue.
Inenitabilis, le, that can not be eschewed.
Inexaturabilis, le, that can not be satiate or filled.
Inexcohitatus, a, um, not inuented, not pditated.
Inexcultus, a, um, rude, not trimmed, not husbanded.
Inexcusabilis, le, vnexcusable.
Inexercitus, a, um, not exercised, vncorrupted.
Inexercitatus, a, um, idem.
Inexhaustus, a, um, neuer filled or satiate, also that can neuer be consumed or spent.
Inexorabilis, le, that can not be intreated.
Inexpectatus, a, um, not looked for.
Inexpertus, a, um, not proued or assaied, also actually not experie.
Inexpiables, le, that can not be pouaged, that can not be appeased.
Inexplanatus, a, um, that is not made playne.
Inexplanata lingua, a tongue that is halfe tied,
 and can not well pronounce.
Inexplebilis, le, that can not be filled, vnsatiate.
Inexpletus, a, um, that is not complete, or made perfecte.
Inexplicabilis, le, that can not be declared or expounded, also intricate, that can not bee vnsolded.
 A thyng, out of the whyche a man can not ridde him selfe.
Inexplicatus, a, um, intricate, obscure.
Inexploratus, or Inexploratus, without serche.
Inexploratus, a, um, not sought or tried before.
Inexpugnabilis, le, vnpzeignable, that can not be wonne or overcome by any assaite.
Inexputabilis, le, that may not be noumbred, that can not be compted or reckened.
Inextinctus, a, um, that is not extinct or quēched.
Inextirpabilis, le, that can not be rooted or dig-ged out.
Inextricabilis, that can not be taken of or dissolved, a thyng that one can not rydde hym selfe of.
Inexuperabilis, le, that can not be passed or o-uercome.
Infabre, vncunynghly, vncraistly, yll fauoredly.
Infabricatus, a, um, not wrought.
Infacetus, a, um, vnpleasaut.
Infacundia, x, f. g. lacke of eloquence.
Infacundus, a, um, not eloquent.
Infamia, x, f. gen. infamie, sleauder, yll name, yll repute, obloquie.
Inurere infamiam alicui, To make one haue a shewde name, that he shall neuer after putte awaye.

Infamis, me, infamed, sleaudered, yll reported of, that hath an yll name.
Infamis digitus, the myddell finger.
Infamem fieri, To be in infamie and obloquie of men, to renne in sleauder of men.
Infame os, a sleauderous tongue, or that vseth vile or filthy communication.
Frigoribus intames Alpes, the Alpes muche spoken of for the horrible cold that is on them.
 Likewise Infamis annus pestilentia.
Cani, ne ca res sibi infamiz esset, He took hede, that that thyng should not hurte his name, or byng hym in any obloquy or yll name.
Infamo, aui, are, to infame or yll repute, to sleau-der, to make to haue an yll name. Sometime to telle abroad.
Infandum, so greate that it maye not be uttered:
 Or so horrible and nought, that it maye not be spoken. Infandum, as one Quid saye, A horrible chaunce, not to be spoken or mentioned.
Infans, antis, om. gen. a chyld that can not yet speake, also every thing that is verapong, also it signifyeth not eloquent. Sometime an ydote that can not speake, or that lacketh veterance.
Remouere infantem, to weane a chyld.
Pullus infans, a yong chyren.
Infantaria, x, f. ge. a woman lyng in chyld bed.
Infantia, x, f. ge. chyldhode, infancie, babelhye, also folishnesse, lacke of veterance, lacke of eloquence.
Infantilis, le, perteynyng to chyldhod.
Infarcio, si, ire, to infarse or fülle, to fylle, to poore in.
Infarcire verba, whan one vseth wordes out of order and place to fylle by his stile.
Infatigabilis, le, that can not be weryd or tird.
Infatuo, ai, are, to make folpme.
Infautus, a, um, vnlucky, vnforsunate.
Infectio, oris, m. g. a dyer of colours.
Infectus, us, m. g. dyng or styngng.
Infectus, a, um, infected, dyed, stynged, poysoned.
Infectus, a, um, of In, and Factus, vndoen, not made, not synned.
Infecta pace, without any peace made.
Infectum reddere, To vndoe that whyche is
 doen.
Infectum argentum, monye not coyned.
Damni infecti promittere, to promise, if anye damage come by our faute, that wee will pay for it, or make it good.
Omnia infecta sint, suppose nothyng were doone.
Infecta dona facere, to reuoke or call agayns that one hath geuen.
Infectum fieri nō potest, it can not be vndoen.
Infelix, like Infelix.
Infenso, ai, are, to vexe, to trouble.
Infensus, a, um, displeased, moued with anger or hate towards an othyr, that beareth malice.
Infensus & inimicus,
Infer, for Infra, an old wyde.

IN ANTE N.

Inferi, they that be vnder other, that ar in hell.
 Inferia, arum, f. g. plu. sacrifice down to infernall goddis, or theyn whiche be deade.
 Inferior, us, lower, inferiour, moze base, of lesse
 reputacion, the comparatiue of Inferus.
 Infernalis, le, infernall.
 Infernas, âtis, om. ge; that is belowe, benethe, or in the nether part.
 Inferne, alowe, or benethe.
 Infernus, hell.
 Infernus, a, um, lowe, nethermoste, deepest.
 In inferni, infernall goddis.
 Rex infernus, ruler.
 Infero, tuli, ferre, to bying in, to carry or beare in,
 to throw in, to adde to, to cast in, to conclude.
 Inferre arma, to make warre vpon.
 Bellum inferre, idem.
 Inferre crimen alicui, to laye to ones charge.
 Inferre sermonem, to talke.
 Stuprum inferre, to committe auoutrie or for-nicacion with a kynsewoman.
 Inferre pecuniam, to paye monie.
 Inferre se in vibem, to go or remoue hym selfe into a citee.
 Inferre in ignem, to caste into the fyre.
 Inferre se, to invade, to rushe on, to enter with violence. also to sette or go by aggyngelpe into a place.
 Per medios inferre se, he rushed or entered with violence into the myddes of them.
 Ad hunc modum me intuli, I wente in by aggyingly after this sorte.
 Abortus inferunt, they cause aboztion or tras-uaplyng before the tyme.
 Cæcitatem inferre, to make blynde.
 Caritatem annonæ intulere, They brought or caused derthe of vitayle.
 Causam inferre, to laye an excuse for hym selfe,
 to shew a reason why.
 Faces tectis inferre, to sette houses on fyre.
 Gradum inferre, to marche towarde.
 Inferre se in periculum capitis, to put him selfe
 in daunger of hys lyfe.
 Inferre manus alicui, To laye violent handes on one.
 Inferre mentionem, To make mencion or speake of.
 Mortem inferre, to kyll.
 Inferre oculos, to loke, to regarde.
 Inferre pedem, to steppe in, to goe in, to enter vpon.
 Signa inferre, to aduance forwarde the standerdes, to march forwarde with baners displayed.
 Sumprium inferre ciuibus, to put the citelens to cost or charge.
 Inferre vulnus, to wounde.
 Calamitatem ciuitati inferre, to be the cause of the destruction of the citee.
 Cladem inferre, to geue an ouerthrowe, to discomfite or slea.

IN ANTRA N.

Iniuriam inferre, to doe iniurie or displeasure, to do wronge, also to shal. eg. I. n. amro.
 Litem capitis in aliquem inferre, to committe an action concerning lyfe and deeth agaynst one.
 Inferus, infera, um, lowe, benethe, in hell.
 Aetas inferior, the age or tyme before.
 Inferius maiestate sua, thynkyng it not se-mely for they; maiestee. and. mu. s. subitanti.
 Inferum mare, the Tuscan sea.
 Inferus, bui, uere, and infernesco, scete, to be caldpyng hotte, or to seethe.
 Inferuacio, feci, facere, to make hotte.
 Infeste, maliciously.
 Infestus, a, um, vnnete for dispozt, vnpleasant.
 Infesto, aui, are, to do displeasure with sundry incurcions or rodes.
 Infestus, a, um, that geneth all stude and diligence to do displeasure, malicious. also dangerous. Sometyme that is vexed or in troupe, or that hath deadly and mortall enemies.
 Infesta signa, standerdes of baners displayed in battayle agaynst enemies.
 Infestus, a mortall enemy.
 Infestus ager, a dangerous countrey to passe through.
 Infestus animus, a malicious mynde.
 Habere mare infestum, to robbe and do misthyng on the sea, to make it dangerous to passe.
 Infesta fortuna, aduersitee.
 Infesta salus alicuius, Cui multi sunt inimici, Infestus & inimicus.
 Itinera infesta, wayes dangerous to passe, by reason of theeries or enemies.
 Infibulo, aui, lare, to clasp together.
 Inficissime, very yll fauoredly or deformedly.
 Inficialis, le, that petyneyth to denyng.
 Inficias ire, to doubte or denye, to goe from a thyng in wordes.
 Inficiatio, onis, f. g. a deniall.
 Inficiator, oris, m. g. he that denieth det, or that is layed to his charge.
 Inficio, inficis, feci, ere, to dye clothe, to stayne or infect, to corrupte, to colour.
 Inficere pocula veneno, to poyson the drynke,
 to put poyson in the cuppe.
 Inficere prauis moribus, to infecte and corrupte
 wyth yll maniers.
 Inficior, aris, ari, to denye or disaffirme, to goe
 from a thyng in wordes.
 Infidelis, le, vnfaithfull, not keepynge promyse.
 Infidelitas, âtis, f. ge. vntrueth, vnfaithfulnesse, infidelitee.
 Infidus, a, um, vnfaithfull, not to bee trusted, treas-terous.
 Infigo, fixi, ere, to fasten or sticke in.
 Infimates, the base people.
 Infimus, infima, um, the lowest or mooste base,
 mooste vile, of least reputacion.
 Infimo loco natus, descended of a very base stocke or kynred.
 Infimis precibus aliquid petere, mooste humbly and

and lowely to desyre a thyng.
Infiado, idem quod Findo.
Infinite, infinitely, continually, alwaies. Some-tyme without measure or reason.
Infinitus, a, um, infinite, that hath none ende.
Infinita altitudine speluncæ, deepe beyonde
 measure.
Infinium imperium, exceeding large, without boundes.
Infinior, the comparative.
Infinio, ōnis, Infinitas, ātis, and Infinitudo, inis, f. g. infinitenesse, generalitee.
Infirmatio, ōnis, f. g. a confutation.
Infirmatus, a, um, made weake or feeble.
Infirmus, weakely, feynthly, not firmly.
Infirmitas, ātis, f. g. vnsustaynnesse, weakenesse,
 sickenesse, infirmitie.
Virtutis infirmitas, lasche of strength or puisance.
Valitudinis infirmitas, feeblenesse, sicknesse.
Infirmus, aui, are, to make weake or feeble. also to dissolue.
Infirmare veritatem, to speake agaynst the trueth.
Infirmus, a, um, feble, weake, feeble. also vnsus-tayne, vnconstant.
Infirmæ nuptiæ, mariages not lyke to constitue.
Infirmi saporis vinum, wyne not quicke or sharpe in taste, that drynketh not of the verdour.
Infirmus animus, an vnconstant minde.
Init, he saied, he beganne.
Infixus, a, um, fastened, or that sticketh in.
Inflammo, aui, are, to inflame or set on fyre.
Inflammare & incendere.
Inflammati, to be in a greate loue or desyre of a
 thyng.
Non feci inflammandi tui causa, I dyd it not to the intente to scere vp your minde, or to make you the more earnest or hote in the matter.
Inflammare inuidiam, to increase enuie or malice.
Inflatio, ōnis, f. g. inflation, brydding of wynde
 in the body.
Inflatus, a, um, blowen or puffd vp, proude.
Inflatus, us, m. gen. a blowing or puffinge in, a blowing in an instrument.
Inflatus druinus, a diuine inspiration.
Infecto, xi, ere, to boowe or ple, to crooke, to turne.
Infectere genu, to make curteisly, to make a
 legge.
Vestigium cursus sui infectere, to tourne or steppe out of his course or rase.
Infectere ius gratia, to bende or wreste the law for fauour.
In orbem infectere, to bende rounde.
In nodum infectere, to knytte on a knotte.
Inflexibilis, le, that can not be bended or bowed.
Inflexibilis obstinatio, vnruely stubbornnesse.
Inflexio, ōnis, f. g. a bowing or bending.

Inflexus, a, um, bowed, bent, crooked, tournd.
Inflexa in se cornua, hornes crooked inward.
Infigo, xi, gere, to cast violently, to styke.
Infigere pœnam, to punish.
Infigere grauiores viuras, to make to paye greater blawe.
Infigere colaphum, to geue a blowe.
Infigere vulnus, to wounde.
Turpitudinem sibi infigere, to displaye his owne honestie.
Inflo, aui, are, to blowe in, to puffe vp, to blowe in an instrument.
Inflare buccinam, to blowe a trumpet.
Inflare sonum, to make a sowne with a pipe, to blowe an instrument.
Inflare ambas buccas, to puffe by bothe the cheekes, spoken prouerbi ally of angry persons.
Inflare spem alicuius, to increase ones hope.
Inflare animos rumor, the rumoure made the more couragious, or puffd by their mindes and made them more proude.
Influo, infuls, xi, ere, to renne into a thyng, as water or other licour dooeth, to flow in: and by translation, to enter in in great numbze.
Influere in animos hominum, to fall in the fa-uour or loue of men. Also to synke or enter into mens myndes.
Bona omnia nobis influunt, all wealth happes
 nith to vs without trauaile.
Infodio, infodis, infodi, infodere, to digge in,
Infecunditas, ātis, f. g. barrennesse.
Infecundus, a, um, barren, vnfruitfull.
Infelicitas, ātis, f. g. aduersitie, misfortune.
Infelicitate, vnhappyly, vnfortunatly.
Infelicio, aui, are, to make vnfortunate or vns-luckie.
Infelix, licis, om. gen. vnhappy, vnfortunate,
 barren, vnprofitable, vnfruitfull.
Infelix fama, a rumoure, bryngyng pll tydinges.
Infelix ingenium, a naughtie wytte, a naughtie nature.
Arbor infelix, vnfruitfull.
Informatio, ōnis, f. g. information, a knowlage naturall impressd in the minde of man.
Informatus, a, um, begun to be faciond.
Informis, me, without facien or foume, rude, Exitus repentinus & informis, sodayne and vilanous.
Informo, aui, are, to shape or forme, to inform, to instruct or teache good maners, to begynne to wooye a thyng, as a carrier to make an ymage, to drawe out the facien of a thyng, to facion,
 to instructe.
Areas informare, to draw out plottes in a gardyne.
Informare deum coniectura, to ymagine in our myndes, what maner thyng god is.
Inforo, inforas, aui, are, to declare at the barre in a place of iudgement, to pleade. also to perforate or make an hole in.

Infortunatus, a, um, vnfortunate, vnluckie, vnhappie.
Infortunium, nñ, n. g. yll chaunce, myffortune, calamitee, mischief, misadventure, yll happe.
Infossus, a, um, dygged in.
Infra, a pzeoposicion, vnderneath, in numbze it signifieth lesse or fewer.
Infra, an aduerbe, benethe.
 Me infra ætatem filij sui posuit, He saied I was scant so olde as his sonne.
 Multo infra, of muche lesse value.
 Infra se ducere aliquid, to esteeme a thyng not to be worthy or seemely for him to doo.
Infractio, ònis, f. g. breaking.
Infractio animi, a basement or discouragynge of the mynde.
Infractus, a, um, vnbroken, sure, also broken all to pices.
Infractus animi, spsse of courage. Sometyme it signifieth discouraged, detaied.
 Loquela blanda & infracta, suche talke as nurses vse to little infantes, leaping out halfe wordes and sentences.
Infractæ fortunæ homines, id est, concussæ.
Infranatus, a, um, not bydeled.
Infranati equites, horsmen that haue no byrds on theyr horse heades.
Infrano, aui, are, to byrde, to refrayne.
Infranare nauigia anchoris, to stay the shippes with anchoys.
Infranare & domare.
Infranus, a, um, that hath no bydle, vnruled.
Infragilis, le, not byttell, that can not be soone broken, or discouraged.
Infrangibilis, le, that can not be broken or discouraged.
Infrēmo, infrēm̃is, iiii, ere, to make a great noyse or murmure.
Infrēdeo, infrēdui, ēre, to craше the teeth together for angre.
Infrēdes, frēdium, com, ge. children lackynge teeth.
Infrēquens, ēntis, om. g. not greatly haunted or resorted to. also that resorteth or cometh seldome to a place.
 Sum Romæ infrequens, I vse not to come muche at Rome: or I am but seldome in Rome.
Infrequens sum vocum latinarum. Gel. I vse the latine tongue but seldome.
Infrequentia, æ, f. g. a small assemble, where as be but fewe persons, contrary to Frequentia.
Infricatus, a, um, frotted or rubbed.
Infrico, infricas, aui, or cui, are, to rubbe in, to rubbe vpon.
Infrigo, infrigis, frixi, ere, to frie together.
Infringo, ēgi, ere, to breake in pices, to abate, to diminish, to discourage.
Infringere aliquem, to abate ones courage, to make him slowpe or bowe.
Infringere animos, to discourage.
Infringere colaphum, to geue a blowe.

Conatus aduersariorum infringere, to stop or let the enterprises or endeuore of our enemies to disappoynt theym of that they goe aboute.
Spem infringere, to put out of hope.
Infracta, broke into small crummes, or powder.
Infrico, aui, are, to breake or crumbe in small.
Infructuosus, a, um, vnfruitfull.
Infructuosæ preces, prayers that nothinge asuaile.
Infrunius, a, um, foolyshe, that knoweth not how to vse a thyng. also foolyshe bragginge, bragglous.
Infucatus, a, um, coloured or painted, couered or hid, to the intent to deceiue.
Infuco, aui, are, to couer a thyng, intendynge deceite, to prynte, to colour.
Infula, infulæ, f. g. the labell that byd hangen on every syde of a mytter. It was in the olde tyme the attier, that priestes did weare of theyr heades. They were also tappettes of linnen, wherewith temples were hangen.
Infulcio, iui, ire, for ingerere, to put in often.
Infulgens, ēntis, idem quod fulgens.
Infumibulum, buli, n. g. the Manke or tunnel of a chymney.
Infumo, infūmas, aui, are, to drie in the smoke.
Infundibulum, li, n. ge. a funnell, wherinto liquor is poured, whan vessels are fylled. also a hopper of a myll, or rather the place, wherinto they powze the cozne.
Infundo, fudi, ere, to powze in, to hylle on.
Infundere vitia in ciuitatem, to spreade vice and naughtynesse in the cite.
Infurnibulum, li, n. g. a puelle, wherewith breade is set into the oven.
Infuscatus, a, um, made darke or obscure, or duskie.
Aqua infuscata, the water byng troubled, or thicke with mudde. Infuscatus maleuolentia, corrupted or distempred with malice or puelle will.
Infusco, aui, are, to make duske or darke.
Infuscare vinum merum, to alay wyne with water.
Infuscare saporem, to corrupte the taste, and make it woofle.
Infuscata aqua, water that is troubled or muddy.
Infuscari barbarie, to be corrupted. &c.
Infuscus, a, um, idem quod fuscus.
Infusa, some vse it for Clusters.
Infusus, a, um, poured in, or poured vpon.
Infusus, us, m. g. and Infusio, ònis, f. g. a penyng in or vpon.
Ingemino, aui, are, to double, to repete often. Sometyme neutrally, as Auster ingeminat.
Ingemisco, scere, idem quod Ingemo.
Ingemo, ingemis, iiii, ēre, to lament, to betwayle muche, to grone.
Ingencro, aui, are, to ingender, to make.

Ingeniculor, aris, ari, to bowe the knee or make curtisie.
 Ingeniculus, a fygure amonge the sterres called now Hercules.
 Ingeniose, wittely.
 Ingeniosus, a, um, wittely, haupng a very good or pleasant witte.
 Ingenitus, a, um, begotten, ingendyed in, or of nature, geuen of nature.
 Ingenium, ij, n. g. properly the nature, inclination, disposition or propriete of a thyng. also witte.
 Sui viuere ingenio cepit, he began to liue after his owne nature or fantasie.
 Vena benigna ingenij, a pleasant veine of wit.
 Acuerē ingenium, to sharpen the witte.
 Ad ingenium redit, he cometh to his nature as gygne.
 Ita mihi ingenia sunt, my witte is so diuers.
 Ingenium soli aut terræ, The nature of the grounde.
 Ingenium cernæ, the counnyng deuilsyng and preparyng of bankettyng dysches and subtiltees.
 Ingenium patris habet, quod sapit, he is lyke his father in wysdome.
 Mobilissimus ingenio, a very vncōstant person.
 Socrates patria quidem Atheniensis, ingenio vero Spartanus, Socrates was of Athens in countrey, but in condicions a Lacedemonian.
 Ingens, entis, wonderfull great.
 Ingens animus, a great courage.
 Ingemis spiritus vir, a man of a very lofty stomake or great courage.
 Pecunia ingens, a great summe of money.
 Gratiā ingentes agere, to geue very hartie thankes.
 Iras ingentes concepit, he was very angry.
 Ingenuatus, ia, tum, commen of an honest stocke, or kynrede, that hath an honest and liberall nature.
 Ingenuē, frely, frankly.
 Ingenuē educatus, brought by lyke a gentyll man.
 Ingenuitas, āis, f. g. freedome, honestee, noblenesse or gentylnesse, in persones of free and lyberall nature.
 Ingenuus, a free man bozne, a gentyll man.
 Ingenuus, a, um, naturall, free bozne.
 Ingenua facta, noble actes.
 Ingenuæ artes, liberall artes or sciences.
 Ingenui mores, gentylmanly manners.
 Facies ingenua, an honest and comely face.
 Ingero, ingeris, gessi, erere, to byng in, to put in, to powze in, to thow downe one.
 Ingerere cibum, to geue one meate.
 Ingerere dicta in aliquem, to chide with one, to say ill of one, to rayle at one.
 Ingerere malum, to dooe displeasure.
 Omnia mala ingerebat, he did the woozse that he coude,

Osculum ingerere, to kysse one passyng by.
 Ingerere pugnos in ventrem alicuius, To thumpe one on the bealy with his fyngers.
 Se ingerere, to auance him selfe in company, or to be malapert, to put forth him selfe in doosyng of thynges.
 Ingerere aquam, to poure in water.
 Dicta in dolium pertusum ingerere, prosucribally, to speake in bayne, to lose labour.
 Ingeram mala multa, I wyll gyue him many shewde woordes.
 Saxa ingerere in subeuntes, to caste downe stones one them that goe vnderneath.
 Semen solo ingerere, to sowe seede.
 Vulnera ingerere, to geue many woundes.
 Tela ingerere, to thow or cast darteres at enemies.
 Scelus sceleri ingerere, to heape mischiefe vpon mischiefe.
 Ingestibilis, le, that can not be bozne.
 Ingestus, a, um, bozne in, poured in, proffered to one whether he will or no.
 Ingigno, genui, gignere, to engender with in.
 Ingitas, aris, f. g. pouertee, after Perottus.
 Inglómero, aui, are, idem quod Glomero.
 Inglórius, a, um, of no renoume or fame.
 Honoratus & Inglorius, contrary.
 Ingluuius, ei, m. gen. gluttony, rauenyng. also the crate or gorge in birdes.
 Ingluiōsus, a, um, gluttonous, rauenous.
 Ingrandesco, grandui, scere, to waxe great.
 Ingrate, vngrately, vnthankfully, agaynst ones wyll.
 Ingratis, the ablatiue case, maugre one.
 Vobis inuitis atque amborum ingratis.
 Tuis ingratis, maugre thy heade.
 Ingratificus, a, um, idem quod ingratus.
 Ingrātis, agaynst my wyll or our wyll, without my loue and my leaue, with an euell wyll.
 Libenter & ingratis, contrary.
 Ingratitudo, dinis, vnkyndenesse, vnthankfulnessse, vngreatitude.
 Ingratus, a, um, vnthankfull, vnpleasunt, not acceptable: contrayned, or agaynst a mans wil. also vnkynde, and not remembryng friendshipp or beneuolence.
 Ingratus sapor, an vnpleasunt taste.
 Ingratus vt dormiam, That I may sleape whether I wyll or no.
 Ingrauesco, scere, to waxe more heuy or weyghtie to waxe more peynfull, to become woozse and woozse.
 Ingrauescit indies malum, the mischiefe increaseth dayly, and waxeth woozse and woozse.
 Ingrauescere furore, to encrease in furie more and more.
 Releuari & ingrauescere, contrary.
 Ingrauescit annona, vitayle yfelyth styll to an higher price.
 Ingraūo, ingrauas, aui, are, to make heauy or greuons, to make woozse.

Ingrédior, éris, grédi, to enter in, to goe in, to walke, to begynne.

Ingredi iter pedibus, to begynne to goe a tozney on foote.

Ingredi mare pedibus, to wade in the sea.

Quamquam ingressus essem dicere, although I had begunne or was about to shewe or tell.

Hi qui ingrediuntur ad studium, They whiche begynne to learne or to geue them selues to studie.

In spem libertatis ingressus sum, I began to hope for libertie.

Vestigijis patris ingredi, to follow his fathers steppes.

Ingredi in vitam, to be hojne.

Ingredi in conspectum populi, to shew hym selfe in the syght of the people.

Quam vitam ingrediat definias, declare to me what kynde of lyfe I should begyn to leade.

Orationem ingredi, to begyn to speake.

Ingressio, ónis, f. g. an enteryng or goynge in.

Ingressus, us, a walkyng, a maner of goynge. also to a begynnyng.

Ingruo, ingruis, úi, ere, to inuade, to assaile with violence and puissance, to be imminent, proppey by spoken of battayle or tempest.

Ingruente estate, sommer beyng nere come or at hande.

Ingruens periculum, a daungier nere at hand.

Ingruit frigus, there wille bee a greate colde shortly.

Nostri contra ingruunt, our men on the other side assaile them with great force and violence.

In agrestes ingruerant morbi, inuaded or came suddenly vpon them.

Inguen, inguinis, n. g. the parte aboute the priuate membre of a man or woman.

Inguinaria, x, f. ge. an herbe, whiche cureth the diseases in priuate membres, some thynke it to be aigrimonie.

Inguinium, a citee in Liguria, ancient and riche.

Ingurgito, aui, are, to deuoure gluttonously, to gourmandise, to caste in as it were into a greate streame or bottomlesse pitte, where it is lyke to be swallowed.

Ingurgitare se in flagitia, To geue hym selfe to all naughtynesse and myschiefe wythoute measure.

Ingurgitare se in philosophiam, to geue hym selfe to marche to the studie of philosophie.

Ingurgitare se in copias alicuius, to spoyle a man of his rychesse.

In se merum ingurgitare, to ouer charge hym selfe with wine, to surfet with dzyppyng.

Inguatabilis, le, that can not be tasted, that nothyng can abide to taste.

Inguatatus, a, um, not tasted.

Inhabilis, le, vnapte, vnable, vnmete.

Inhabilis magnitudinis nauis, a ship that by reason of the bignesse is vnwilde.

Inhabitabilis, le, inhabitable.

Inhabito, aui, are, to dwell in a place.

Inhareo, inhæsi, ere, to cleaue or sticke to.

Inharebat oculis memoria imaginis, He thought I did alwaies see that ymage, or that ymage was alway in myne eyes.

Inhareisco, scere, to sticke faste, idem quod inhæreo.

Inhâlo, aui, are, to breathe vpon one.

Inhibeo, inhibes, bui, ere, to forbydde, to lette, to stoppe.

Inhibere alium, to stynt or stoppe the laske.

Inhibere, & incitare auaritatem, contrarie: to take away ones stomake, and to make one haue an appetite.

Nauciam inhibere, to stint vomityng.

Inhibere franos, to plucke backe the byrdell, to rayne the horse.

Inhibere quo minus aliquid fiat, to lette that a thyng be not dooen.

Inhibere remos, to ceasse rowyng.

Manum eius inhibuit, he helde his hande as he was about to strike.

Inhibere imperium, To manace or threaten, that he will vse his authorite or power.

Inhibere nauem, to caste anchor, or to staye a shippe whiche is vnder sayle, that the sayle not a full course.

Imperia inhibita vltro citroque, They menaced to vse their power or auctorite one agaynste an other.

Inhibere supplicia alicui, to threaten punishement.

Inhibitio, ónis, for, ge. an inhibition, a forbyddyng, a stoppyng.

Inhibitio remigum, The stoppyngs of the ship or boote with oyes, as they dooe when they tourne it.

Inhio, aui, are, to gape. also to couete much.

Bona mea inhiant, they gape after my goodes.

Illum inhiant omnes, they all looke greedily for his comyng.

Inhoneste, dishonestly.

Inhonesto, aui, are, to dishonest.

Inhonestus, a, um, dishonest, yll fauoured.

Inhonoratus, a, um, lachynge honour, contrary to Honoratus.

Iohonorus, a, um, without honour.

Inhorreo, horruui, rere, and Inhorresco, scere, to abhorre, to quake for feare, to tremble.

Inhospes, he that will lodge no man.

Inhospitâlis, le, vnapte for lodgyng or intertynyng.

Inhospitalitas, âtis, f. g. contrary to hospitalitee when one will lodge or intertayne no man.

Inhospitus, a, um, not meete, apte, or comodious to intertayne, barbarous, rude, dangerous.

Inhospira tecta, houses wher no mā may lodge

Inhumane, vngentilly, vncourteysly, cruelly.

Inhumaniter, idem.

Inhumanitas, tâtis, for, g. inhumanitee, vngentilnesse, vncourteisie.

Inhu

Inhumanus, a, um, cruel, unconteys, vngentill, without all humanitee.
 Non adeo sum inhumano ingenio, I am not off to vngentill a nature of facion.
 Inhumatus, a, um, vnburied, not laied in the earth.
 Inhumo, inhumas, aui, are, to putte into the grounde, to interre, to lay in the cathe.
 Inibi, euen there, anon, among them.
 Iniectio, onis, f. g. a casting in.
 Manus iniectio, a fisure of lande.
 Iniectus, a, um, caste in.
 Iniectus, us, m. g. a casting in or vpon.
 Iniecto, aui, are, to cast or put in often.
 Inijcio, inijcis, ieci, iicere, to caste or throwe in, to cast at some thyng, to throwe with violence, to put on.
 Inijcere manum, to seise or take possession of a thyng.
 Inijcere manus in aliquem, to apprehende or attache one, to arrest one.
 Inijcere scrupulum alicui, to put one in doubt.
 Inijcere studium alicui, to stee, to prouoke, to incourage, to make desyious.
 Tantum iniecit ardoris, he made theym haue suche a courage, he putte them in such a heate or to inflamed them.
 Beneficium inijcere, to doo a pleasure to one proudly and contemptuously.
 Catenas & vincula inijcere, To laye chaynes or pions on one, to bynde.
 Certamen aliquibus inijcere, to geue occasion of contention or strife.
 Cunctationem inijcere, to cause a matter to be prolonged.
 Curam alicui inijcere, To make solicitous or carefull.
 Inijcere fugam inimicis, to putte enemies to flyght.
 Inijcio illud quod, &c. I adde or say that moze ouer, &c.
 Cum mihi in sermone iniecisset, whan he had signified or made mencion to me as wee talked together.
 Inijcere mentem alicui, to put one in a fantasie or mynde to dooe a thyng.
 Inijcere metum, to make aserde.
 Inijcere spem, to make one to conceue an hope.
 Iniecta mihi est spes, I haue an hope.
 Inijcere tumultum ciuitati, to rayse a tumultie, busynesse or ruffling in a citee.
 Iniecit se in medios hostes, he entred and rushed into the middes of his enemies.
 Cogitationem alicui inijcere, to make one to thynke or muse on a thyng, or to haue a fantasie.
 Franos furoris inijcere, To refreigne or stop ones furie.
 Inimice, lyke an ennemie.
 Inimicitia, a, f. g. hostilitie, contrary to amitte, enmitte.

Inimicitia sunt inter eos, They are fallen at variaunce.
 Inimico, aui, are, to make enemies.
 Inimicor, aris, ari, to practise hostilitie.
 Inimicus, i, m. g. an ennemie.
 Inimicus, a, um, not friendly, of or perteynyng to an ennemie, hurtfull, nospum.
 Vultus inimicus, no friendly countenance.
 Inimica oculis, hurtfull or noisum to the eyes.
 Inimitabilis, le, that no man can imitate or followe.
 Ininde, from thens, out of that place.
 Inique, mischeuouesly, or vniustly, vnequally, not indifferently, vnpatiently.
 Inique facis, it is yll doone of you.
 Inique iniurius, that dooth wronge withoute a cause.
 Inique pari.
 Iniquitas, atis, f. g. partialitee, contrary to iustice, vnequalitee.
 Iniquitas loci, whan one hath the vpper hande or better grounde of the other.
 Iniquitas temporis, the streite or dangerous condition of anye tyme.
 Iniquus, a, um, not euen or playne. also not indifferently or iuste, vnreasonable, that lacketh good discretion or consideration, vnequal, angry, that beareth yll wyll. sometyme great. also straitte or narrow.
 Iniqua conditio, no indifferent, equall, or reasonable condition.
 Iniqui sermones, detraction, ill wordes.
 Iniquo animo ferre, To bee discontented or sorrowfull, to take greuouesly.
 Iniquo animo ferre vel pari, to take vnpatiently.
 Initia, orum, n. ge. plu. nu. sacrifice dooen vnto Ceres.
 Initiorum dies, daies on the whiche those sacrifices were kepte.
 Initamenta, orum, neu. gen. plu. the fynde instructions in any kynde of religion, science, or knowlage.
 Initatus, a, um, instructed or entred into rules concernyng religion.
 Initio, aui, are, to instructe a thyng concernyng religion, to geue orders, also to begyn to doo a thyng.
 Initior, aris, ari, to be weaned as chyldren bee.
 Initium, ij, n. g. begynnynge.
 Initium capere, sumere, facere, ponere, to begynne.
 Initio, initas, aui, ari, to walke in.
 Initio, oris, m. g. a station.
 Initus, initus, m. g. the leappynge or couerpyng of a mare by an hourse.
 Initus, a, um, begunne, entred.
 Initum verbis beneficium comprobare, To accomplishe in dedde a pleasure begunne in wordes.
 Iniucunditas, atis, f. g. vnpleasauntnesse.

Iniucunde, vnpleasauntly.
Iniucundus, a, um, vnpleasaunt.
Iniudicatus, a, um, not iudged.
Iniuges, cattel neuer yoked or broken, which were sometime sacrificed.
Iniungo, xi, ere, to enioyne, to commaund, to appoynt, to laie on as a man will adde to a greate burdeyne.
Iniunxit cum eo amicitiam, for Coniunxit.
Ne quod detrimentum reipublice iniungant, That they may doe no harme to the common weale.
Iniungere iniuriam, to dooe iniurie or displeasure. Necessitatem iniungere alicui, to constrain one.
Munus iniungere alicui, To geue to one the charge or office to doo a thyng.
Ne tibi tantum laboris iniungas, Do you not put your selfe to take so muche paynes.
Iniuratus, a, um, vnsworne, that sweareth not, that hath not sworne.
Iniuria, x, fœm. gene. wronge, iniurie, reproche, damage, displeasure, offence, vneyght: taken as an aduerbe, it signifyeth without cause, without deserte.
Ab iniuria obliuionis se asserere, to make his name immortall, to bypnye his name in perpetuall memorie.
Iniuria ciuium, wronges dooen to the ciuilians.
Obuiam ire iniurie, to pzeuent and leaue iniurie, hurte, or wronge.
Soluere iniuriam, to reuenge wronge or iniurie dooen.
Neg iniuria, and not without a cause.
Non iniuria illud tibi accidit, That chaunced not to the without thy deservynge, or thou dydest deserte so much.
Offerre iniuriam immerenti, to doo wronge to one that doeth not deserte it.
Iniuria tua, thyng thy default.
Inidior, âris, ari, deponent, to doo wronge, iniurie, harme, or displeasure.
Iniuriose, wronghfully, inturiousely.
Iniuriôsus, a, um, that dooeth wronge, that hurteyth or endamageth an oither.
Iniurius, a, um, wronghful, he that doeth any thing agaynst the law or reason, vnreasonable.
Iniurium est, for iniquum est.
Ipsus sibi iniurius videatur, he may seeme to hym selfe to be vnreasonable.
Iniussus, us, m, g. vnbyddyng.
Iniussu imperatoris, without the emperours commaundement.
Iniussus, a, um, not commaunded or bidden.
Iniussa virescunt gramina, without sowynge or husbandynge.
Iniuste, vniustly, wronghfully.
Iniusticia, x, f. g. iniustice, wronge.
Iniustus, a, um, vniuste, also excedynge iuste measure.
Innabilis, le, that can not be swymmed in.

Innascor, ceris, sei, to be ingendred in one. Some time idem quod Nasci.
Innato, innatas, aui, are, to swymme in a place.
Innatâre aquis, and aquam, to swymme in the water.
Innatus, a, um, ingendred.
Id vitium omnibus innatum est, That vice or fault is naturally in all men, or all men haue it of nature.
Innatus, and Aduentitius, contrary.
Innatus his disciplinis animus, a mynde framed of nature to these learnynge.
Non mihi auaricia vnquam innata est, it was neuer my nature to be couetous.
Inanigabilis, le, that can not be sayled in.
Innecto, xui, ere, to knight, to tie, or bynde.
Innitor, eris, inniti, to assay, to endeuour, to leane vpon.
Innitor hasta, he leaneth on his speare.
Cubito innixa, leanyng on his elbow.
Inno, aui, are, to swymme in.
Innocens, entis, om. gene. vnharmedfull, innocent, harmelesse.
Innocenter, innocently.
Innocentia, x, fœ. gene. integritie, true intente, innocencie.
Innocuus, a, um, vnharmedfull, he that doeth no harme, or he to whome no harme is dooen, not hurted.
Innotesco, tui, scere, to be knowen.
Innouo, innouas, aui, are, to make newe, to renewe.
Innoxius, a, um, wherein is no damage, that can doo no harme, harmelesse, blameles. Sometime that hath no harme dooen to it, that is not hurted.
Vsit innoxius ab iniuria pecorum, That he bee not hurte of the cattall.
Innuba, x, f. g. she that was neuer married.
Innubilo, aui, are, to make obscure, darke, or cloudie.
Innubilus, a, um, saye & cleare, without cloudes.
Innubis, be, idem.
Dies innubis, a saye day without cloudes.
Innubo, nupsi, nubere, to be married or brought home to a mans house.
Innubus, bi, m. g. he that was neuer married.
Innumerabilis, le, innumerable.
Innumerabilitas, âtis, fœ. ge. where bee so many that they can not be numbred.
Innumerabiliter, without numbre.
Innumerato, in a redynesse.
Innumerus, a, um, and Innumerôsus, a, um, idem quod innumerabilis.
Innuo, innuis, nui, ere, to graunt or assente with noddynge of the head, to geue tokenynge of a thyng.
Innuptus, a, um, vnmarried.
Innutrio, nutris, triui, ire, to noyrthe, or bypnye vpon together.
Innutritus, a, um, nourished, brought vpon, fostered, trayned trayned in a thyng.

Ino, huius inus, the daughter of Cadmus, wyfe of Athamas kyng of Thebes, whiche (hir hous
 sebande beyng madde, and Learchus hir sonne slayne) threw hir selfe into the sea.
Inous, a, um, of Ino.
Inoblitus, a, um, inpyndfull, that forgetteth not.
Inobrutus, a, um, not ouerwhelmed or drowned.
Inobscuro, aui, are, to make vnknewen, or of no fame or memorie.
Inobsequens, entis, om. ge. disobedient, stoubs burne.
Inobseruabilis, le, that can not be obserued or marked.
Inobseruatus, a, um, not obserued.
Inocidius, a, um, that neuer vseth to fall.
Inocco, aui, are, to harrowe in, to couer with earthe.
Inoculatio, onis, form. gene. graffing, whan a budde of one tree is cut of rounde with a part of the barcke, and sette on an other: or whan an hole is boyled in a tree and a kernell put in with a litle lome.
Inoculator, oris, mas. gen. he that vseth to graffe on that wyse.
Inodoro, aui, are, to make a sauour, to perfume.
Inodorus, a, um, without sauour.
Inoffense, without stoppe or state.
Inoffensus, a, um, unhurt, against the whiche a man hath no hurte, that doeth not offende, dis please, or hurte.
Inoffensavia, an easie and playne waie, that one doeth not hurte him selfe in.
Inoffensa tempora a valetudine viuere, To liue all ones life without sychenesse.
Inofficiosus, a, um, that dooeth agaynst hone nestee and reason, or that dooeth no good turne or pleasure to his friende.
Inofficiosum testamentum, where the father by testament giueth awaye from his sonne, his landes or goodes without cause.
Inolesco, lui, & leui, scere, to ware greate, to growe bygge, and sometyme actiuelly, to make to grow in.
Inominatus, a, um, unhappie, forspoken.
Inopaco, aui, are, to shadowe, to make darke, as trees in a wood dooe vnder them.
Inopia, æ, f. ge. pouertee, lacke of thynges nes cessarie, neede, scarcittee.
Inopia argenti, lacke of money.
Inopia recti, lacke of an house to dwell in.
Inopinabilis, le, that no man would euer haue thought.
Inopinans, antis, om. g. not thynkyng, vnwares.
Inopinanter, sodeinly, vnwares.
Inopinate, and inopinato, vnthought on, others wyse than one looked or hoped.
Inopinatus, a, um, vnthought on or vnlooked for.
Verba inopinata, woordes that escape a man vnwares.
Inopinatum & insperatum,

Inopinos, a, um, idem quod Inopinabilis.
Inopiosus, a, um, needie, without all helpe or succ
 our. In olde woorde.
Inopportūus, a, um, vnmeete, out of season,
 inconuenient.
Inops, inopis, om. g. pooze, needie, lackyng help,
 Also vnburied.
Inops ab amicis, dispurued of friendes, withs out friendes.
Inops amicorum, idem.
Auxiliū inops, that hath no ayde or helpe.
Verbis inops, that lacketh woordes.
Inora, beastes without mouthes.
Inoratus, a, um, not expounded, or declared.
Re inorata reuerterunt, they retourned againe with out declaryng or oppenyng the mattier to them that they were sent to.
Inordinatus, a, um, out of order or array.
Inorior, eris, idem quod orior.
Inornate, without eloquence.
Inornatus, a, um, that is not decked or trimmed.
Inquam, I saie, or did saie.
Inquantum, in as muche, or for as muche.
Inquantum potest plurimum, as muche as can be possible.
Inquantum cumque magnitudine creuerunt,
 how much so euer they haue growen or increas ed in bygnes.
Inquies, etis, and Inquietus, a, um, vnrestfull, vnquiete.
Inquieta nox, an vnquiete nyght, in the whiche men take no rest.
Inquieta ingenia, vnquiete natures, desirynge
 sedicion and businesse.
Inquies, etis, f. g. care, vnquietnesse, watch, lacke of rest.
Inquietatio, onis, and Inquietudo, dinis, f. g. disquietyng, trouble, vnreste.
Inquiēto, aui, are, to vnquiet or trouble.
Inquilino, aui, are, to dwell in a straunge place.
Inquilinus, ni, m. ge. he that dwelleth in a place,
 where neyther he nor his ancestors were bozne,
 he that dwelleth in an other mans house.
Inquinamentum, i, n. g. filthe that disteyneth or polluteth.
Inquinare, filthyly, dishonestly.
Inquinatus, a, um, defyled, distreined.
Inquino, inquinās, aui, are, to defyle or pollute,
 to stayne, to die, to distaine.
Inquinare famam aliquis, to disteyne a mans fame or good name.
Inquo, inquis, inquit, I say, thou sayest, he say
 eth. Eccum me inque, here I am say thou.
Aliquis inquirat, some man would say.
Inquiro, siui, rere, to inquire, to make inquisi tion, to serche, to aske, to demaunde.
Inquisitio, onis, f. g. inquisition, serche.
Tu caue inquisitionē ne mihi sis, Se that thou be not from home, & cause me to seke the abroad.
Inquisitor, oris, m. g. he that maketh inquisition or serche for a thyng.

Inqui

Inquisitus, a, um, searched or inquired for.
 Insalubris, bre, unholosome.

Insanabilis, le, uncurable, that can not be healed.

Insanabile ingenium, a witte or nature that can not be reformed, amended, or brought to reason by any good meanes.

Insane, madly, with a fury or rage.

Insania, a, f. g. madness, peevishness, dotage, frowardness.

Insania villarum, excess, or greate sumptuousnes in building of houses or manours.

Insanio, iui, ire, to be madde or peevish, to dote, to doo vnadvisedly. Sometime to make verses.

Nisi ego insanio, except I be a very foole, and vetterly deceived.

Insanitas, atis, f. g. idem quod insania.

Insanus, a, um, madde, peevish, dotynge regatynge no counsaile, frowarde, untractable.

Sometime great. Sometime for valde sanus, verie sage and prudent: as Pers. Insano multum laudanda magistro.

Insani fluctus, great waues excedynge troublous.

Insanæ substructiones, meruaylous great buildynge of bulwarkes.

Insanæ vites, vines bearynge frute beyonde measure.

Insanum, aduerbialiter, wonderfull greate, greatly.

Insatiabilis, le, unsatiabile, sometime that dooeth not satiate or fill.

Insatiabiliter, unsatiably.

Insatiatus, a, um, unsatiated.

Insatiuus, a, um, that is not planted, grafted, or sown.

Insaturabilis, le, unsatiated, that can not be filled.

Insaturabiliter, unsatiably.

Insendo, di, dere, to go vp, or to clymbe.

Insendere currum, to goe into the chariot or waggon.

Insendere in arborem, to clyme vp into a tree.

Insendor, the passyue, to bee climed or leaped by on.

Insciens, entis, unwittynge. also not thynkyng on that he dooeth, foolyshe, sonde.

Non insciente te, not without your knowlage, you not beyng ignorant in the matter.

Insciens feci, I did it vnwares, or not witting.

Me absente atque insciente, whyle I was absent, and not knowynge of the matter.

Abi sis insciens, away got or sole that thou art.

Inscientem atque imprudentem dicere ac facere omnia, to consider and regarde nothyng that he dooeth, or to dooe and say all thynges unknowynge and vnadvised.

Inscienter, ignorantly, by ignorance, for lacke of knowlage.

Inscientia, a, f. g. ignorance.

Inscire, nothyng prattly or hansomly, foolyshe.

Inscitia, a, f. g. ignorance, folly, foolyshe, foolyshe, lacke of knowlage, vnkyllfulnesse.

Propter lini vsus inscitiam, because they knew not the vse of linnen or flax.

Inscitia confidentiam parit, none is more bolde than blinde bayarde.

Inscitus, inscita, um, nothyng frate or prattie, displeasent, foolyshe.

Quid est inscilus? what is more foolyshe?

Inscius, inscia, um, ignorant, not knowynge.

Inscribo, scripsi, scribere, to write in or vpon, to name or intitle.

In fronte inscribere, to write in ones forehead.

Monumento se medicum inscripsit, he caused to be grauen on his tumb that he was a physician.

Inscribitur Panathenaeus, It is intituled Panathenaeus.

Aedes inscribere, to write on the doore that the house is to be solde or let.

Corpus inscribere, to rent, to mangle, or make scarres and sygnes of woundes on ones bodie.

Puluis inscribitur hasta, the dust was raised with the speare.

Inscriptio, onis, f. g. an inscription, a title, a note, a marke.

Inscriptiones frontis, markes bourned in ones forehead with a hot yron.

Inscriptum, ti, n. g. a superscription. also a litle byllet or letter, such as marchantes haue oute of the custome house.

Inscriptus, a, um, vntwytten, witten vpon, named or entituled.

Inscripta epistola patri, the letter was witten to his father.

Alia est scripta, alia inscripta.

Insculpo, sculpsi, sculpere, to ingraue, carue or entayle.

Insculptum in animo, printed or fastned in ones mynde.

Inseco, insecas, insecui, are, to cut in.

Insecabilis, le, that can not be cut.

Insectatio, onis, a raylyng or speakynge agaynst one with all the yll wordes that a man can diuise.

Insecto, aui, are, is sometime red in the actus voyce.

Insector, aris, ari, to pursue or renne after.

Insectari aliquem hasta, to pursue one with his speare.

Insectari lapidibus, to renne after one, and hurle stones at him.

Insectari aliquem maledictis, to rayle, to speake all the euill that a man can diuise agaynst one.

Insectus, a, um, cut in.

Insecta animalia, be all flies and wormes that be diuided in theyr bodies, the head and breast from the bealy and tayle, as bees, waspes, c.

Insecutus, a, um, that foloweth immediately.

Insedabilis, le, that can not be quieted or made calme.

Infedabiliter, so that it can not be quieted or quened.

Infedatus, a, um, vnquiet, or not quiet, troublous.

Infermo, aui, are, to sowe in.

Inferesco, scui, scere, to continue longe, and as it were to spende all ones life in a thyng.

Insensibilis, le, and Insensilis, le, vn sensible.

Insepultus, a, um, not buried.

Insequens, entis, that ensueth or foloweth immediately.

Insequens annus, the nexte yere folowynge.

Insequor, eris, qui, to folowe, to ensue, to pursue, to speake vnfriendly agaynst one.

Insequi contumelia, to rayle or chide.

Inseruas, a, um, cloude, not fayre or clere.

Insero, inseris, serui, rere, insertum, to set in, to sowe, to put in, to cast in, to entermynge.

Manum in sinum inferere, to put ones hande in his bosome.

Quod admirandis suis inseruit, which thyng he did put or wyte amonge his wonders.

Bellis ciuilibus se inferere, to meddle or take parte in ciuile warres.

Collum in laqueum inferere, to put ones necke in the halter.

Insero, inseris, inscui, insitum, inferere, to enplant, to engraffe, to insill, to sow in or among.

Inserere frumenta in arboribus, to sowe cozne amonge trees.

Inserere hortos, to sow or plant.

Inserpo, idem quod Serpo.

Insero, aui, are, to set to, to put in often.

Incertorium, ri, n. g. the bonde or thong, where with a tregat or bucklar is hanged on a mannes arme.

Inseruio, uiui, ire, to serue, to doo pleasure or seruice to one gladly and voluntarily.

Inseruire suis commodis, to prouide or doo all that one can for his owne aduantage.

Inseruire honoribus, to geue all his diligence to purchase honour and aduancement.

Inserui valetudini tue, therishe your helthe, or dooe as it shall be moste conueniente for your health. Plebi summa ope inseruitum est, they endeuoured with all diligence to please the people.

Insubilo, aui, are, idem quod Subilo.

Insecarus, a, um, dried.

Insidens, the participle of insido.

Insidens, entis, sityng on or in, chauncynge.

Equo insidens, sityng on his horse.

Insideo, insides, sedi, sidere, to sitte on, to sitte in, or be in, to besiege, to abide in a place.

Insidere equo, to sitte on horsebacke.

Insidere in sella, to sitte on a stiole.

Insidet pedibus dolor, The payne resteth in the feete.

Si tibi penitus insedisset ista suspitio, yf this suspicion had been so vtterly settled or rooted in your mynde.

Quod non in memoria mea penitus in sedes

ris, whiche dyd not sicke faste in my memorie.

Insidere itinera, To lye in wayes in the wayes that men muste passe by.

Quingentis militibus arcem insederat, he kept the garison with five hundred souldiours.

Insideri, the passive.

Insidia, arum, f. g. plu. nu. wyles to intrappe a man ere he be ware, an ambusche, a conspiracie.

De insidijs nihil agendum putat, he thynketh it mete that nothyng should be dooen deceitfully and craftily.

Ex insidijs aucupari, to lie in a wayte, to espye.

Consurgere ex insidijs, To breake out of an ambusche.

Parare insidias vitæ alicuius, To conspyre a mans death.

Insidiator, oris, m. gen. he that laieth wayte to deceiue.

Insidiator, aris, ari, to practyse wyles, to entrappe or betraie a man, to laye a wayte to deceiue.

Insidiosus, wylly, craftily, deceitfully, falsely.

Insidiosus, a, um, full of wyles or deceitfulness, false.

Insido, insidis, sedi, ere, to enter to the intents to abyde, to synke into a thyng, to scile in a thyng.

Insidere memoria, to stycke or settle in ones memorie.

Insidor, the passive.

Apes variis insidunt floribus, lyght downe and sitte vpon.

Insigne, nis, n. g. a notable signe or token.

Quod erat insigne, whiche was an euident token.

Ad memoriam insigne, a thyng woorthy remembraunce.

Insigne regium the habite and estate roiall.

Insignia, all thynges notable and manifest.

Insignia, orum, synes or tokens of honoure, wherby every estate or greate authoritee is knownen, as robes, marcs, swordes bozne bypight, cappes of maintenance, and other lyke thynges. Also tokens of doctrine and vertue, as staves tipped with siluer, whiche beards beare befoze doctours, hoodes, furred, crownes of laurell. It maie be also taken for the armes or badges of gentill men.

Insignio, iui, ire, to note with some signe, also to double knightes.

Insignire aliquem, to marke one.

Insignire annum cladibus, to make a yere notable by great murder and slaughter.

Insignis, ne, notable, whether it be in good or ill: as, Insignis virtute, and Insignis vitiis.

Also excellent, marked with some speciall token to be knownen, euident, apparant, manifest. Sometime greate.

Insignis ad deformitatem puer, a thyde very ill fauoured and mysse shapen.

Res insignis ad decus & ad gloriam, a thyng notable to gette honour and glorie.

Insignis auro & purpura, gorgeously appareled rayled in golde and purple, and thereby the moze notable.

Cum aliquo insigni iudicio, mea erga te bes neuolentia, with some euident and apparant token of my good wpll towarde pou.

Insigne odium, manifest and apparant hatred. Insignire, and Insigniter, notably, excellently, greatly.

Homo insigniter malus, a very naughtie person, notably known to every man.

Insigniter facta magna est iniuria, great wrong is dooen to him very euidently.

Infile, lis, n. g. the treadle of a weavers loome.

Infilio, infilui, infiliui, or infilij, ire, to leape in or by. Tergo alicuius infilire, to leape on ones backe. Infilire in equum, to leape to horsebacke.

Insimul, together, a woode selborne vled.

Insimulatio, onis, f. g. an accusation or appeale.

Insimulo, aui, are, to accuse, to deteete, to lay to ones charge, ppropely a crime that is not true, but a forged mattier. also to sepgne or dissemblye, to make semblaunce to doe a thyng.

Quod illum insimulat durum, id non est, where as he accuseth him, or laieth to his charge, that he is harde or streite, it is not so.

Insimulare alicuem auaritia, to lay to ones charge that he is couetous.

Insinuatio, onis, f. g. a colourable & crafty begins nyng of an oracion, dissemblyng some thyng, where the matter may not be fauourably heard.

Insinuatus, a, um, an adiectiue.

Insinuo, aui, are, to put in ones bosom, to byng into, to conioigne, to put in a mans mynde covertly and craftily.

Aliquem alteri insinuare, to byng one in fauour with an other.

In causam insinuare se, to consider the ground of a mattier.

Insinuare se, by craftie meanes by littel and littell, to crepe into fauour or credence.

Insinuare se in consuetudinem, to enter in acquaintance, or be come familiar with one.

Insinuare se in sermonem aliquorum, to enter lace communication with them, which be already talkyng of a mattier.

Insinuant se mala, euils and mischieses crepe and enter in by littell and littell.

Insinuare se in quam maxime familiarē vsum To offer ones selfe to dooe all the pleasure and seruice that is possible for a man.

Insinuat, for Insinuatur.

Insinuatis manibus, the handes clasped one within an other.

Inspidus, a, um, vnfauoury.

Inspiciens, entis, without discrecion, foolyshe, vnwysse.

Inspiro, aui, are, to cast, a woode out of vble.

Inspicienter, vnwysely, without wisdom, and discrecion.

Inspicientia, æ, for gen. folij, foolysheesse, lacke of wisdom.

Insisto, stiti, sistere, to sette fast and firmly, to endeavour, to prouoke or sollicite. Sometyme to assiste, to persiste, to continue, to inforce, to last boue earnestly, to pursue a mattier diligently, to rest, to stop or stande still, to pause as one would speake no moze. Sometyme to leane upon. Insistebat in manu Cereris dextera simulachrum pulcherrime factum victoria, There was in the right hande of Ceres an ymage of victory most pleasauntly wrought.

Aliquod negotium insistere, To go aboute some assaye or busynesse.

Hastæ insistere, to leane on a speare.

Mente & animo insistere in rem aliquam, to employ all witte and mynde on some thyng.

Omnes itinera insistant sua, let every man goe his owne waie.

Quam insistam viam? what way shall I hope? Vestigijs alienis insistere, To folowe other mens doynge.

Insistere vestigijs laudum suarum, to continue in his well dooynge.

Viis insistere, aut ingredi, to tary by the way, or to go forth.

Vno crure insistere, to stande steddyly on one legge, Ne insistas credere huic, do you not beleue this felow.

Si in singulis insistere velim, if I would abide and speake at length of every one of them.

Insistere digitis, to stande on ones toes.

Insitio, onis, f. g. grassyng.

Insitium, ij, neu. gen. that is grassed or set in, not natie.

Insitius, a, um, straunge, not naturall, that is sette in by arte.

Insitius sermo, Cui patrius opponitur.

Insitium, i, n. g. a grasse sette in the stocke.

Insitium, a iegot or other lyke meate staffed with egges and fleshe chopped or mynced.

Insitiuus, a, um, that is grassed or put in, not naturall.

Insitor, oris, m. ge. a grasser.

Insitus, insitus, m. g. idem quod Insitio.

Insitus, a, nm, ingendryed in a thyng naturall, grassed in.

Insociabilis, le, that can not be loyned or mingled together, or byought in one compaigny or felowshyp.

Insolabiliter, without comfozte, so that he coulde not be comfozted, desperately.

Insolatio, onis, f. g. a sunnyng.

Insolatus, a, um, sunned.

Insolati dies, sunny daies.

Insolens, entis, om. g. not wont or accustomed, haue, arrogant, presumptuous, not takyng it as he hath dooen.

Insolens infamia, not wont to haue an yll name or slander.

Bellorum insolens, not wont to haue warre.

Insolens verbum, a woode not vled of good authours.

Latitia insolens, immoderate ioy.
Insolens ostentatio, a proude auauntynge of boastyng.
Insolenter, arrogantly, seldome, not accustomed to. Superbe & insolenter.
Insolentia, z, for. gen. seldomnesse of vse in any thyng, vnhantynge of a place: also presumption, wanton pryde, newe founde lordelynesse, late takynge state vpon one, presumptuous vaunting arrogancie, insolencie.
Insolite, not as it was wonte.
Insolitus, a, um, not wonte, not accustomed, not vsed, straunge.
Ratio dicendi insolita, a maner of speakynge not vsed.
Insolitus ad laborem exercitus, an army not accustomed to trauaile.
Insolitus rerum bellicarum, not accustomed of brought by in warrefare.
Insolo, au, are, to dye in the sunne, to ley out in the sunne, to bleache.
Insolubilis, le, that can not be leued, vnbounde,
 of vndooen, of that can not be recompenced.
Insolubile beneficium, a benefite, that can not be requited.
Insolutus a, um, not pated.
Insomnia, z, f. g. lacke of power to sleape.
Insomnis, ne, without sleape, that watcheth alwaye.
Noctes insomnes, nightes without sleape.
Noctem insomnem ducere, not to sleape all
 nyght longe.
Insomniosus, a, um, troubled of vexed with dreas
 mes, that dreameth muche in sleapyng.
Insomnium, ni, n. g. a wayne dreame.
Insono, insonas, ui, are, to sowne.
Insons, ontis, com. ge. innocent, of not gylte, without faute.
Insonus, insona, num, without noyse, an olde woorde.
Insopirus, a, um, watchefull, not drowsie of slea pyng.
Inspectatio, onis, f. g. a beholdynge, a lokyng on.
Inspectio, onis, f. g. a beholdynge, an ouersyght, a lookynge on, a controllment, a viewynge of consyderynge, a seepynge.
Inspectionem alicuius rei habere, to haue the charge to viewe and consider a thyng.
Inspecto, au, are, to behold attentuely, to waite on, to loke in of vpon.
Inspector, oris, m. ge. an ouerser, a controller, one that hath the charge to see and allowe wares
 of chaffer that is commonly solde.
Insperabilis, le, that no man would hope of looke for, passe all hope.
Insperans, antis, that hopeth not for a thyng.
Insperatus, a, um, not hoped for, sodayne, not looked for.
Ex insperato, otherwyse than one hoped of
 looked for.
Inspergo, ipersi, gere, to spynkle of cast vpon.

Inspicio, inspiciis, exi, spicere, to beholde, to uersee, to controule, to consider a thyng thorough ly, to viewe, to serche.
Vis ne te inspiciamus a puero, wylt thou that we should consider what maner of felowe thou hast bene euen from thy chyldhood?
Inspicere sententiam alicuius, Diligently to attende and consider what one meaneth.
Inspicere hominem propius, to viewe of be holde a man, to consider moze earnestly what maner of felow one is.
Inspicere aliquem experimentis, to assay and proue what maner of man one is.
Inspico, au, are, to make a thyng smal of sharpe lyke to a wheate care, whan it cometh out of the huse.
Inspiro, au, are, to inspire, to blowe in.
Granaria aquilonibus inspicientur, Lette the graniers be so made, that the northe wyndes may blow in.
Inspirare aliquid oculo per fistulam, to blowe
 in a thyng into the eye. z.
Alicui litera inspirare, for Aspirationem prapondere.
Inspoliatus, a, um, not robbed of spoyled.
Inspuo, inspuis, spui, ere, and insputo, au, are
 To spytte on.
Inspuo, au, are, to spytte on one.
Instabilis, le, vnstable, vnconstante, lyght, that can not tary of abyde in one place, of in one state.
Vultus instabilis, a wyld of shyttishe looke.
Instabilitas, atis, f. g. vnconstancie, instabilitee.
Instans, antis, an instaunte, the leaste parte of
 tyme.
Instanter, instantly.
Instantia, thynges that be present.
Instantia, z, f. g. earnest and continuall diligence, earnest behemencie of oracion.
Instar, n. g. vndeclined, as it were of lyke and is referred to measure, quantitee, of lykenesse.
Simul atque instar quatuor digitorum erit, so sone as it shall be foure fyngers longe.
Instar quinque modiorum, to the measure of five busshels.
Duarum instar legionum, aboute the numbre of two legions.
Vrbis instar, as it were a citee, of lyke a citee.
Instar refectionis existimas mutationem la boris, you esteeme the change of labour to bee a refreschynge.
Instar voluminis erat epistola, the epistle was great lyke a booke of volume.
In quo instar omnium auxiliorum erat, wher che coulde doo as muche as al the other apders of healpers.
Instar, is sometyme vsed for Exemplar.
Si proponatur instar quoddam operis, id est
Exemplar, a platte, a paterne.
Ad instar exercitus, for Ad similitudinem ex ercitus.

Instat, It is nyght, it is come, it is enen at hande.
Caesar ubi se diutius duci intellexit, & diem instare, quod die frumentum militibus metiri oportebat, Whan Caesar perceyued, that he was delayed, and the daye was nyghte come, that he muste needes deluyce cozne to his men of warre.
Instatio, onis, f. g. the approachyng of a thyng.
Instauratio, onis, f. g. reedifyng, repairyng, resnewyng.
Instauratiuus, a, um, that pertaineth to renuynge or reparyng.
Instauro, aui, are, to newe make or begyn agayne any thyng. Sometyme to renue, or reforme, to reedifie, to repayre.
Instaurare bellum, to make warre cōsiones, to renue the warre.
Instaurare tunicam aduersus hyemem, to prosupde or make a coate agaynst the colde of winter.
Instaurare acies, to repayre an army that is discomfited.
Instaurare caedem, to commit a new murder.
Epulas instaurare to renewe a feaste or banquet with mo dishes, to byng in an other course. also to begyn a banquet agayne.
Insterno, strāui, ēre, to couer, to sprede vpon, to lay abrode vpon.
Terrā insterni, to be buried.
Equus regio instratus ornatu, an horse royally attapped.
Instigans, gantis, om. g. styryng, mouyng, perswadyng.
Instigante te, Thorough thy perswasion of motion.
Instigatio, onis, f. g. a motion, or pyckynge forward.
Instigator, oris, m. g. a motioner, one that prycketh and moueth a man to a thyng.
Instigatus, us, m. g. an instinction, motion, or pryckynge forward.
Instigo, aui, are, to moue, styre or prycke forward.
Instillatio, onis, f. g. infusion or powyng in by littell and littell.
Instillo, aui, are, to put or powe in by lyttell and littell, to let in by droppe meale, to fal in droppe by droppe.
Instimulo, aui, are, to prycke, to styre, or to motion to a thyng.
Instinctus, oris, ma. g. a motioner or mouer, a perswader.
Instinctus, us, m. g. an inwarde motion, an inspiration, an instinction or perswasion.
Instinctu alicuius facere, to doo a thyng by a mans perswasion or motion.
Instinctus, a, um, inwardly moued.
Instingo, inxi, gere, to moue inwardly, a worde out of vse.
Instipulor, aris, ari, to demaunde or require of one, whether he wyll geue or dooe a thyng for hym, and he answereth, yea, Or to couenante by demaundyng and prompyng.

Instira, instira, f. g. a purse, a garbe.
Instito, aui, are, to repugne or withstande.
Institor, toris, m. g. a chapman, a merret. Also he that selleth apparayle and fyne stuffe, goynge aboute therwith. Also a marchauntes factour.
The spyne named the seuen starrs, is sometime called Institor vestis.
Institor eloquentia, a vaunter and setter forth of eloquence, a marchaunte of eloquence.
Institorius, a, um, pertainyng vnto chapmans shyppe.
Actio institoria, an action agaynst the mayster for the acte of the factour.
Institrix, icis, f. g. a woman seruaunt that selleth wares for her maistresse.
Instituto, tui, ere, to institute, to begynne, to instruct or teache, to trayne, to breake or haue the fyfte breakyng, to ordyne or appoynt, to purpose or aduise, to enter, to prepare, to furnish or make in a readinesse.
Aueo scire, quarum rerum rationem instituar, I would sayne know where aboute he goeth, or what he intendeth to dooe.
Senex institui lyra non erubescere, Whynge an olde man, he was not ashamed to be taught to play on the harpe.
Instituere sibi amicos, to purchase and get friends.
Animum ad cogitandum instituere, to settyll or apply the mynde, to thynke or muse on a thyng.
Cursum cum institueris, whan thou hast once begunne thy course to renne.
Haredem instituere, to appoynte or ordyn an heyre.
Instituere in animo, to purpose, to intende.
Naues instituere, to prouyde and furnyshe shippes.
Naueu instituere, to cause a shyppe to be made.
Negotium instituere, To goe aboute a busynesse.
Orationem cum aliquo instituere, to tourne or bende his communication to one.
Vitem instituere, to plante a vine.
Ita vt facere instituit, As he hath begunne to dooe.
Argumenta in corde institui, I haue heaped by reasons and argumentes in my mynde.
Accusationem instituere, to commence an action, or make a complaynt by byll.
Astutiam instituere, To inuente a craftie meane.
Cerramen sibi instituere cum aliquo, to purpose to be at variaunce with one.
Collegium instituere, to founde a colledge.
Consuetudinem instituere, to enter into familiaritie. Likewise Instituere amicitiam cum ali- aliquo.

Delectum militum instituere, to rayse or muster men for the warres.

Quæstum sibi instituere, to begynne a way to haue gayne or profite by it.

Vitam sapienter instituit, he appointed his lyfe, or prepared him selfe wysely.

Instituta, orum, n. g. plur. ancient maners and customes. also ordinaunces.

Institutio, ðnis, f. g. instruction, doctrine, teaching, also a purpose to declare or teache.

Institutio & disciplina.

Institutum, ti, n. g. an ordinance, a decree, a loze, a good maner of custome, taken by reason and aduiselement. Sometime a purpose or intente. also a begynnyng.

Pro meo instituto, for my purpose.

Instituto Platonis, after Platos schoole or loze.

Abduci à suis institutis, to bee withdrawen from their purposes, or from theyr accustomed maner.

Meo instituto vsus sum, I did after myne accustomed facion.

Constitutione atque instituto maiorum, after the custome and maner of our forefathers.

Institutum vitæ capiendum, some maner or trade of lyuynge must be chosen.

Institutus, a, um, appoynted, ordeyned, instructed, taught, trayned, begon, entred.

Insto, institi, are, to require instantly, to bee earnest on one to doe a thyng, to sollicite, to sicke to, to resiste, to persiste, to pzease on, to come on or immediately, to folow, to inforce, to pzeasue and folowe strenghtly, to auouche or asseyme earnestly. also to be nyghe.

Vestigis alicuius instare, to folowe one foote by foote. also to imitate or folowe ones dooynge.

Instat, it is nowe.

Periculum instat, daungier is at hande.

Instant à me tibi bona, I am at the poynt to do thee good.

Quod nunc instat agamus, Let vs dooe that is now moste necessary.

Instare operi, to hasten a worke forwarde instantly.

Rectam instas viam, It is euen as thou saiest, thou arte in the right way.

Hac an illac iter instituit? wente he this way or that way?

Ille instat factum, He auowed or saied earnestly that it was so.

Instat ire ad deum, id est, perseverat.

Instabat certo vultu index, The accuser auduethed it with an earnest countenance, or did stande earnestly in it.

Instragulum, li, n. g. idem quod Stragulum.

Instratum, i, n. g. a counterpoynte. also it signifieth all tapestry, whiche serueth to couer any thyng, also the trappier or the apparayle of an hōse, an hōse clothe.

Instratus, a, um, couered, trapped.

Instrenuus, a, um, not valiaunt and hardy, not diligent prompte and hardy to do thynges, vn-noble, vnhonest.

Animus non instrenuus, a noble and gentyll courage.

Instreps, instrepis, pui, pere, to make a crahyng crashyng, or noyse.

Instringo, strinxi, gere, idem quod Stringo, to bynde or streygne harde. After come to vnt bynde.

Instructio, ðnis, f. g. a setting in aray or order, a teachyng or instructyng.

Instructio exercitus, setting of an armie in aray.

Instructor, ðris, m. g. he that maketh preparation or furnissheth.

Instructus, us, masc. gener. furniture, apparayle.

Instructus, a, um, instructed, taught, furnisshed, garnisshed, appoynted with all necessities.

Instructiores peditum copie, The footemenne were in better order and better appoynted.

Vir instructissimus, a man furnisshed with all maner of thynges necessary or conuenient.

Quam instructus ad perniciem sit? How well appoynted he is to vndooe or caste awaye a man?

Instrumentum, ti, neu. gene. an instrument or toole. Also ordinaunce of warre, vessell, and all necessities of householde and housebandy.

Sometyme it signifieth a deede or charter concerning lande, dettes, or couenauntes. Also that serueth for an ayde or helpe to dooe or to attayne a thyng.

Instrumentum regni, a wrytynge or instrumente, concerning the state royall.

Instrumentum venatorium, all thynges belonging to huntynge.

Instruo, instruis, uxi, ere, to set in order or aray, to arme, to instruct, to furnishe with all thynges necessary, to prepare.

Domum instruere, to garnishe an house with all thynges necessary.

Epulas instruere, to prouyde for a feast or banquet.

Insidias instruere, to prepare thynges to intrap or deceiue one.

Instruendæ fraudi aliquanto intentior, somes what busy in deuysyng how to deceiue.

Instruere accusationem, to prouide wrytynge, letters, witnesses, and all thynges necessary for an accusation.

Instruere aciem, to sette an army in order of battayle.

Mensas instruere epulis, to furnishe the tables with muche meate or many dysches.

Instruere nauigia, to furnishe shippes with all abilimentes and takelynges.

Instruamus qua in oratione, Let vs teache in what maner of oracion.
 Instupens, entis, om. ge. beyng astonied, that is without sence or feelyng.
 Insuasum, si, n. g. a kynde of yelow or tawnye colour, as that hath, whiche is hanged in the smoke.
 Insuavis, ue, vnsweete, sower, synkyng, vns pleasaunt.
 Insubide, rashely, without aduilement.
 Insubidus, a, um, rashe.
 Insubres, Lumbardes, proppely men of the duchie of Melayne.
 Insubtiliter, not subtilly.
 Non insubtiliter, wittily, craftily.
 Insuccandus, a, um, that must be moysted with lycour.
 Insucco, aui, are, to make moyste with lycour.
 Insuefactus, a, um, accustomed, taught, brought in bye.
 Insuesco, suēui, scēre, to be wonte, to vse for a custome, to practyse.
 Insuescere corpori meretricis, id est, consuetudinem stupri habere.
 Insueuit pater optimus hoc me, my father did accustom me to this.
 Insuesci, the passyue.
 Sic insuesci debent, ut in &c.
 Insuetus, insuetā, um, not vled, not accustomed, not wont. Insuetus nauigandi, not vled to be on the sea.
 Insuetum iter, a waye that hath not been accustomed to be gone in, a waie vnhauented.
 Insuetus mos, a facion that hath not been vled.
 Insuetus moribus Romanis, not accustomed to the maner of behauour of the Romayns.
 Insuetus laboris, not wonte or vled to labour.
 Insuetus vera audire, not wonte to here the truthe of matters.
 Insuefacio, feci, facere, to accustom, to byng in bye.
 Insula, lē, f. g. an yle inuironned with water. It is also an house in a towne, haupnge none other house ioynd to it, but strettes on euery syde of it.
 Insulāris, re, belongyng to an yle.
 Insulārius, rij, m. g. he that kepeth a noble mans house or manour.
 Insulārius, a, um, most vile, proppely men banyshed into ples to digge mettall.
 Insulātus, a, um, made an yle.
 Insulse, vnwysely, foolysshely.
 Insulitas, rātis, fōm. gener. foolysshenesse, vnlausouryenesse, lacke of grace, or pleasauntnesse.
 Insulsus, a, um, without smache of salte, vnlausorie, foolyshe, without wysdome, that hath no grace, that hath no quickenesse or lustyenesse, that hath no pleasant facion neither in woordes nor iecture, nor otherwysely in his behauour, and consequently very foolishe, and such as no man hath any pleasure in.

 Efflagitatio insulsa, a foolyshe request.
 Insultatio, ōnis, f. g. a leapyng by, outrageous mockyng or scoynge, a reproche of one in woordes, a braggyng agaynst a man, as though he had ouercome hym.
 Insulto, aui, are, to leape by, to leape by for iope or to scoyne, to speake or doo in the reproche of a man, to mocke.
 Insultare fores calcibus, to knocke or beate ones heeles agaynst the doore.
 Insultura, ra. fōr. gen. leapyng by or into a thyng.
 Insulm, ines, fui, to be in somethyng.
 Seueritas inest in vultu, There is in his face, or countenaunce, sagenesse and grauiter.
 Quicquid hic inest, what so euer is here with in.
 Is mihi candor inest, I am of that gentylnesse or curtesie.
 Inest nobis spes, we haue a hope.
 Insulmo, aui, are, to synthe.
 Insulmo, pli, mēre, to spende or lay out money, to bestowe, also to take to hym.
 Operam frustra insulmere, to bestow labour in vayne.
 Sumpul in rem aliquam insulmere, to bestow cost.
 Mentes insulmite dignas captis, take to you courages, &c.
 Insulo, insui, insulere, to sowe in, and by translacon, to ioyne to, or togyther.
 Insulper, furtheemoze, mozeouer, also aboue, or uer, vpon, from aboue.
 Insulper quam, for Praterquam.
 Insulper his, moze ouer than this, ouer and besydes these thynges.
 Duos insulper consulatus gessit, he was twise Consul together.
 Insulperabilis, le, that can not be ouercome or brought vnder.
 Insulgo insullexi, ere, to ryle by agaynst a thyng.
 Insulfurro, aui, are, to whisler, to make a hummyng.
 Insulfurare alteri, or in aurem alterius, To whisler in ones eare.
 Insulceptus, a, um, not receyued or taken.
 Insulcērus, a, um, not pure, corrupte.
 Insulabesco, idem quod Tabesco.
 Insulactilis, le, that can not be touched, or that wil not be touched.
 Insulactus, a, um, not touched, not corrupted, vnswefiled, not deflowzed, not violatd, not hurte.
 Insulacti religione animi vir, a man that hath no remozse or scrupulosite of conscience, or without all religion or feare of god.
 Insulactus a sibilu, neuer hissed at.
 Insulactus infamia, haupng his good name neuer disreyned.

Intaminatus, a, um, not defiled or dispeined.

In tantum, so muche.

Integer, integra, um, if it bee spoken of age, it signifieth yonge and lustie. If it bee spoken of a man, it signifieth honest in all poyntes and qualities. In a thyng it signifieth entier and whole. Also false, sounde, not broken, or wried with labour, vncorrupted, pure, not defloured. Some tyme sobze.

Integer aui, lusty of age.

Integer ab labore, not wried.

Integrum se seruare, to keepe him selfe indifferente, and meddle with neyther of the parties.

Mulier ætate integra, a woman beyng in hyr best yeres, or beyng in the flower of hir tyme or nothyng broken with age.

Exercitus integer, an army whole and sounde, in the whiche no man hath perished or myles caried.

Integra res, and perdita, contrary.

Integer sanguis, pure and vncorrupted bloud.

Integra valetudo, perfecte good helth.

Ab integro, a frethe, a newe.

Homo integer & sanctus, a perfecte honest man.

Omnia integra principi relinquere, to meddell nothyng in any matter, but to reserue all whole to the pynce.

Integri, cui onusti vino & cibo opponuntur sobri, not a craled or out of temper through surfettyng.

Ut integri defessis succedant, that the freshe & lusty men shoulde come in theyr places that bee wried.

Integra æstimatio, a mans estimation whole and sounde, or not dispeined or diminished.

Com tibi in integro tota res esset, whan the whole matter was in yout handes, or in that case that ye myght haue dooen as ye listid.

Non est integrum, it is past remedie, it can not be holpen.

Integrum esse, to bee at a mans libertee, or in his power.

Non est integrum Cn. Pompeio, consilio iam vii tuo, It is not nowe in Pompeies power to doo after your counsaile.

Ego si mihi esset integrum, susciperem hoc crimen, if I were at my libertee, I woulde take that blame vpon me.

Constituent quid agant, quibus integrum est they which yet haue dooen nothyng, let them take hede what they dooe.

Si mihi esset integrum, if it were in my power, I woulde dooe that I haue dooen.

In integrum restituere, to byng it to the fyrst estate, to restore it to the poynte that it was at.

In integro esse, as spoken, where in any matter or affayre, there is nothyng dooen, but that every man may dooe as it lyeth hym.

Sed quoniam hæc iam neque in integro esse possunt. But for as muche as there is no remedie, or that these thynges may not be holpen, or may not be in as good case as they were.

Intego, integis, texi, tegere, to couer, to thetche.

Integrasco, leere, to bee tenned.

Integrè, truly and diligently, sincerely, purely.

Integritas, as, f. ge. honestee, without corruption, innocencie, integritie.

Corporis integritas, good disposition of the bodie, helthynesse of the body.

Fraus & integritas, contrary.

Integro, integras, aui, are, to begynne agayne to reue.

Integumentum, ti, n. g. a couerpyng.

Integumenta flagitiorum, clokes or couerpynges of naughtynesse.

Intellectualis, le, of vnderstandyng.

Intellectus, us, m. g. vnderstandyng, knowlage, intelligence. Sometyme the signification of a word.

Intellectus saporum, tastyng, or the iudgement of tastes.

Intellectum consequi, to attaine to the knowlage of vnderstandyng of a thyng.

Intellectus disciplinarum, knowlage, learning science.

Citra intellectum acrimonia, without any percepyng or feelyng of aigernesse.

Habere duplicem intellectum, to haue two significacions.

Intellectus, a, um, vnderstanded, percepued, known.

Intelligens, entis, om. g. vnderstandyng, wple, cunnyng.

Intelligens iudicium, a learned and substantial iudgemente, that proceedeth of a greates knowlage.

Intelligens principis, he that percepueth the pynces nature and inclination.

Intelligenter, playnely, so that it may be easily vnderstanded.

Intelligentia, æ, fcm. g. the percepyng of the mynde, vnderstandyng, intelligence.

Intelligibile, that may be vnderstanded.

Intelligo, and sometymes Intellego, lexi, ligere, or legere, to vnderstande, to percepe.

Intelligere animam alicuius, to knowe and percepe ones mynde.

Non satis intelligo, I doo not well percepe.

Intelligo de gestu, quid respondeas, I percepe by thy gesture or mouyng of thy bodye, what thou wouldest answer.

Male intelligere, not to vnderstande or percepe well, to take a thyng amisse.

Non intelligitur quando obrepit senectus, No man feeleth or percepueth whan olde age crepeth vpon him.

Intemerata, perfecte sacrifices, all thynges obserued.

Intemerandus, a, um, holy, consecrat, that may not be prophaned.

Intemeratus, a, um, vndefyled, vncorrupted, not troubled, not violate.

Intemerata fides, credence or faithfulness not dispeyned.

Intemperans, antis, om. ge. he that doeth euery thyng without order or measure, vntemperate, he that is not maister of his owne appetites.

Intemperans sum in rei cupiditate quam nō fti, I couete or desyre that thyng that ye wot of, beyonde all measure.

Intemperantia, æ, f. g. intemperancie, whan one can not rule or moderate his appetites & lustes. vnrylphesse of minde, seruage to pleasure.

Intemperantia risus, whan one can not refreigne laughyng.

Loci intemperantia, immoderate gestyng, whan one can not forbeare.

Intemperanter, vntemperately, vnmodestly.

Intemperatē, proudly.

Intemeratus, a, um, vntemperate, without measure or moderation.

Intemperā, arum, f. g. plu. nu. goddesses, hauyng power to dooe harme, the fury or trouble of mynde by remoyse of conscience, that suffreth a man to haue no quiete.

Quæ intemperā nostram agunt familiam? what furie disquieteth. &c.

Intemperies, ei, f. g. vntemperatnesse.

Intemperies cœli, vntemperatnesse of the ayre.

Intemperies amici, The furie or foly of ones frende.

Intempestus, a, um, quiete, without noyse or trouble.

Intempesta nox, mydnyght, whan all thyng is in silence.

Grauisca intempesta, id est, pestilentes & sine temperie.

Intempesta, atis, fœm. gener. idem quod Intemperies.

Intempesta cœli, yll wetheryng.

Intempestiue, vntimely, out of due time or order out of season.

Intempestiuus, a, um, a thyng out of due tyme or season.

Intempestiua epistola, a letter that cometh out of season.

Intendo, di, dēre, to bende, to stretche or reche as a man doeth the stringe of a bowe or lute, to streigne. also to looke diligently on a thyng, to knytte or tie, to inforce with might, to endeuour or go about, to intende, to thynke, to increasē or augumente. Also to laye abrode, or to sette nettes: and by translation, to pretende, to purpose.

Intendere animum, to sette or fixe the mynde.

Intendere formulam, to bynne an action agaynst one.

Animum or ingenium intendere, or intendere nervos animi & ingenij, To holde the mynde greatly busied or occupied on a thyng, so streigne the mynde or witte, that is to geue verie exatte aduertisement, and to proue them to the vttermost.

Intendere arcum, to bende a bowe.

Aciem aciem in omnes partes intendere, to looke diligently aboute on euery syde.

Intendi acies longius non potest, a man can see no further.

Quo animum intēdat facile perspicio, I perceiue right well, what he doeth intende, or what his intende or meanyng is.

In regnum Adherbalis animum intendit, he gaue or set his mynde to obtayne Adherbals kyngdome.

Intendere actionem, to commence an action.

Mitigare & intendere leges, contrary, to diminish and augment the rigor of the lawes.

Animo intendere, To purpose or intende in ones mynde.

Totum in Annibalem intendebant bellum, They did bende the whole puissance of the war agaynst Anniball.

Hi in quos crimen intendebatur, they whiche were accused, or to whose charge the matter was layde.

Curam alicui rei intendere, To take very good hede of a thyng.

Intendenda in senem fallacia, I muste fynde some wyle to deceiue the olde man: or I muste streygne a synew or stretche a veyne; to begyle this olde man.

Intendere vocem, to streigne the voyce, or to speake as loude as one can reache.

Intendere dijs manus, to holde by the handes to the goddes.

Gloriam intendit, i. auxit, it encreased his glorie.

Iter captum in Italiam intendere, to continue his iourney into Italy.

Nervos intendere, to stretche the sinewes.

Periculum intendere alicui, to threaten to doo one a displeasure.

Qui se intenderāt aduersarios, whiche had declared them selues to be ennemies.

Intendere (sine adiecto) for Conrendere.

Hanc se intendit esse, He goeth aboute to fynde, that she is that woman.

Quo nunc primum intendam? whither shal I now fynd goe?

Officia intendebant, They did theyr duties to the vttermoste.

Intendere vincula, to bynde.

Intensio, or 'ntētio, ōnis, a streygnyng, a retychyng, a stretchyng, a bendyng, diligence, a wyl, a meanyng, the mynde, the faculty, the intencion, the aduertisement or retychyng of the mynde, the bendyng or stretchyng of the mynde on a thyng, amonge orators the proposition that laith the cause to ones charge.

Intentio vocis, a byayng or a streighnyng of the voyce, speakyng a loude.

Intensio oculorum, staryng.

Intend

Intentio & remissio animi, contrary.
 Intentio operis, id est, propositio, deliberatio.
 Notatur id intentione diligenti, that was diligently marked or observed.
 Perdere intentionem, To leese his action or sute in the law.
 Intentus, a, um, or Intentus, a, um, sette or fixed, intentive, diligently bent or sette to a thyng. also stretched, reachd, bended, streigned, inhauced or augmented, set forth or pproved to the vttermost.
 Intentus arcus, a bow bended.
 Intentior custodia, a more diligent keepng.
 Intentis oculis conspici, To behold one stedfastly.
 Intentis alimentorum precijs, the price of viatyle beyng inhauced or augmented.
 Intentior sermo, earnest and vehement speaking with a loude voyce.
 Intentatio, omis, a menacng with the hande.
 Intentatus, a, um, not assayed.
 Intentari gladij, menacng one an other with theys swordes drawn.
 Intentatus & nouus amicus, a newe friende, that was neuer pproved nor tried.
 Intente, diligently, with earnest consideration.
 Intentio, aui, are, to menace, to stretch out often, to put out as one dweth his hand.
 Intentare imperium Romanum, to denounce or menace punishment by the Romayns.
 Intentare manus in aliquem, To put out ones hande towards a man, as we do in thretenng.
 Intentare manus alicui, to lay handes on one.
 • Intentare & minari.
 Sicam intentare, To make signe or threten to strike with ones dagger.
 Crimen inuicem intentant, they laye ethe to others charge.
 Intentus, us, m, g. a stretchng or stretchng.
 Intentus palmarum, a stretchng out of the handes against one, where many men doe threaten some one persone.
 Intentus, a, um, loke Intentus.
 Intepes, inipes, repui, repere, and Intepesco, scere, to waxe luke warme.
 Inter, betwene, among.
 Inter cornam, for in corna, at supper tyme.
 Inter nos amamus, wee loue together one an other.
 Inter opus, whyles he was busy.
 Inter paucos dies, in a shorte tyme.
 Inter penam, beyng in tourment.
 Inter sacrum & saxum, in the poynt to perthe and be utterly losse.
 Inter vias, on the waye ridng or goyng.
 Inter omnes potentissimus odor, The moste strongest sauour of all other.
 Est inter causas timoris, It is one of the causes of our feare.
 Inter conuentum, for in conuentu, in an assemblie or company gathered together.

Qui inter tot annos ne appellari quide. &c. whych in so manye yeres space. sc. Likewyse inter tot dies.
 Inter hac, pro Interea, in the meane space, while this was in doyng.
 Inter illud gaudium, whyle he was in that ioye or gladnesse.
 Inter initia principatus, whan he was fyrst created prince or made ruler.
 Inter manus auferri, to be caried out betwene men.
 Inter sese fabulantur, They talke one wyth an other.
 Inter se amplexari, to enbrace one an other.
 Inter vina, as they were drynkyng.
 Quum inter homines esset, whan he liued here in the worlde.
 Inter nos sordemus alteri, one of vs displeaseth or lypheth not an other.
 Inter se distantes ternis pedibus, beyng. tit, foute a sunder, or one from an other.
 Inter omne tempus, all the whyle.
 Bene inter vos dicatis, Say well one of an other.
 Bonis inter bonos necessaria amicitia est, frendshipp is of necessite betwene good me.
 Inter albio, aui, are, to inclyne somewhat to the coloure of whyte.
 Interamina, a citie in Italy.
 Interanea, orum, n. g. plur. the inwardes of a man or beaste.
 Interaneus, a, um, that whych is within.
 Interaresco, scere, to be dried vp, to waxe drye.
 Interbibo, bibi, bere, to drynke all out.
 Interbito, aui, are, an olde woide for Interuenio.
 Intercalaris, re, and Intercalarius, a, um, put or set betwene.
 Intercalaris dies, the daye of the leape yere.
 Intercalaris mensis, the moneth, in the whych certayne dayes were sette, that lacked to make the yere complete, whych moneth is februarye.
 Rede abundantly herof in Solino and Macrobio, whych woulde be tedious to wyte in englyshe, specially in this Dictionarie.
 Intercalaris versus, a singular verse often repeated amonge other verses. Some doe call it in englysh balades and songes, the foote or retere of a dite.
 Intercalaris annus, the leape yere.
 Inter calo, aui, are, to set or put betwene, as a man putteth a daye, moneth, or yere. Sometyme to deferre.
 Inter capedo, pedinis, for. ge. a space or pause, a space of tyme or place that is betwene two.
 Post intercapedinem temporis. &c.
 In eorum vita nulla est intercapedo molestia.
 Intercedo, cessi, cedere, to make intercession. also to go betwene, or be betwene, and is referred as well to tyme and place, as anye other thyng. also to leat or prohibite.
 Quadringentorum remigum obsequio contra se in.

se intercedit, that letteth that. 400. water men,
whych the rowed, dyd not obey hym.
Veteres mihi necessitudines cum his omnibus intercedūt, There is great amitie of a long tyme betwene vs.
Tribuni intercesserunt, the Tribunes dyd leat oz prohibite.
Intercedit mihi tecum amicitia, There is amis-tee betwene the and me.
Pro alio intercedere, to aunswere for an other man, to make promyse, oz bee suertee for an other.
Intercessere pauci dies, in a fewe dayes after, a littell whyle after.
Quæ ratio tibi cum illo intercesserat? what ac-quaintaunce haddest thou with hym? Or what haddest thou to doe with hym?
Dies non dum decem intercesserant, ten daies were not yet come and gone.
Si nulla ægritudo huic gaudio intercesserit,
If no heauinesse be myrte with this ioye.
Non quia intercedēdum putem imaginibus, not because I woulde drinke ymages to bee
hadde.
Senatus autoritas grauiſſima interceſſit, id
est extitit,
Cum genere humano quasi ciuile ius intercesdit, All men in the worlde be as it were the ci-zens of one citie, whych be subiect to certayne common ordinaunces and lawes.
Si dissensio intercesserit, yf there chaunce to come any sedicion in the meane tyme.
Intercessio, ōnis, f. g. a prohibition, a withstan-dyng, a gapeſayng, whan one steppeth in and letteth a mattier, that it proceedeth not.
Intercessioni cedere, to geue ouer, and not to proceede in a mattier because of the prohibition.
Intercessio Tribunorum, a let oz prohibition of the Tribunes agaynst the authoritie of other officers.
Intercessor, ōris, m. ge. he that letteth a mattier, that it maye not goe forwarde. also an intercessor oz mediatour.
Abſicere intercessorem, with a vehement persuasion to repelle hym that withstandeth oz gapeſaith any mattier.
Interceptus, a, um, p̄uented, taken vp before,
taken vp by the way.
Interceptus mortalitate, p̄uented with deeth.
Interceptio, ōnis, f. g. a taking vp of a thing before oz by the waye, a p̄uentynge.
Interceptor, ōris, m. g. he that p̄uenteth an other in taking of a thyng.
Intercido, cidi, cīsum, cidere, to cut a sūder in the middes, to defalcate, to cut downe oz of in the meane tyme.
Intercido, cidi, ere, intercāsum, to decaye oz pe-ryſhe betwene this and that.
Apud quem gratia beneficii intercedit, which geueth no thanke for a good tourne.
Perire & intercidere,

Extare atque intercidere, contrary.
Intercedit memoria beneficii, the benefite is forgotten.
Quod si intercederit tibi aliquid, If thou haue forgotten any thyng.
Intercidere, sometyme for Cadere.
Memoria ille intercedit, he is forgotten, he is out of mynde oz memory.
Intercinctus, a, um, interclad.
Intercino, cinui, nēre, to syng betwene oz in the middell of a thyng, as in comedies oz interludes, whyles newe personages be in p̄passynge.
Intercipio, intercīpis, cēpi, cipere, to p̄uent oz apprehēde one bynware, to take vp before, to take vp by the waye, to take in the middes oz in the meane whyle. sometyme to take all.
Intercipere iter, to kepe oz inclose a waye, that men may not passe.
Ne qua interciperet obliuio, that it might not be forgotten.
Intercipere literas, to take letters on the waye from hym that carieth them.
Intercipere sermonem, to interrupte a mans tale oz purpose, as he is speakyng.
Quod nos capere oportet, hic intercīpit, the profite that we shoulde haue, this man taketh vp before.
Intercipi morbo, to be attached with some disease, oz to fall sycke as one is about to doo a
thyng.
Regnum intercīpit, he tooke on hym the gouernance of the kyngdome in the meane whyle.
Intercise, by choppes oz cuttes, as it were cut in gobettes and moſelles.
Intercisio, ōnis, f. g. a cutting of in the myddes.
Intercisio stomachi, a gnawynge oz byrnyng of
the stomache.
Intercisus, a, um, cut of in the middes.
Intercisi dies, were dayes diuided, parte holpe dayes, parte woork dayes: certayne daies, in the whych some houres it was leful to geue iudge-ment on mattiers, and in some not, we may vse it for theym, whych we call halfe holy dayes.
Intercisæ pactiones, cōuenantes oz agremētes dissolued and broken.
Interclūdo, clūsi, clūdere, to shutte in, to stoppe ones iourney, to let, to stop the passage before one come.
Intercludere corporibus suis aduētum inimi-corum, to kee them selues in the waye to lette theyr ennemies to enter with theyr own bodies.
Dolore intercludi, id est, impediri, to be leat thorough sorowe and heuinesse.
Fugam intercludere, to kepe the passages that they escape not.
Libertatem intercludere, to leat them that they can not go in and out at theyr pleasure.
Spem commcatus intercludere, to put theym from hope to haue vittayles.
Commecatum inimicis, and Inimicos commeatibus

meatibus intercludere, to keepe or stoppe the passages, that victayles can not come to theyr enemies.

Aditum intercludere, to lette that one can not enter.

Animam intercludere, to stifle or strangle.

Interclusio, ōnis, f. g. a stoppyng or lettynge, a shuttynge in of a thyng with an other.

Parenthesis interclusio, the two halfe circles notynge the parenthesis.

Intercolumnium, nī, n. g. the space betwene pyllores.

Interconcilio, aui, are, to wyne the fauoure or loue of men.

Interculco, aui, are, to treade downe harde togyther with the fete, to stampe.

Intercurro, curri, currere, to renne betwene, to go betwene.

Intercurfus, us, m. g. a comyng betwene men to pacifie them, intercession, a rennyng betwene or amonge.

Intercurso, aui, are, to renne betwene often.

Intercus, intercutis, a disease betwene the skin and the fleshe: whan it is an adiectiue, it signifieth inward.

Intercutibus vitijis madentes, olier weat with inward vices.

Intérdatu, a, um, distributed, or putte betwene.

Interdico, dixi, cere, to prohibite greuousely, to resist or leat, to forbidd.

Interdico alicui aqua & igni, was a condemnation in Rome, whereby one was depriued of the vsage of water and fyre, whereby he was constrained to departe out of the limites of the empire of Rome.

Interdicere de vi hominibus armatis, to ordeyne that he, by whose meanes one supposeth, that he is put out of possession with force, shall set hym esteemes in possession.

Vestigijis interdicere, to forbid one, that he shall not go vpon a certayne place or ground.

Nihil interdico, I will not let the, I care not, for it.

Interdico tibi domo mea, I forbidd the my house.

Prisco Italia interdictum est, priscus was banished Italy, or forbidden to tary in Italy.

Cui nemo interdicere possit, whom no man can let or resist.

Interdixit fieri, he forbade it to be doon, or commanded that it should not be doon.

Interdixi tibi de medicis, I forbade, or I commanded you, that ye should not vse the counsaile of physicians.

Interdixit, sometyme for Edixit. the passiue is vused with an ablatiue: as, interdico aqua & igni: or with a datiu: as, Aqua & ignis inters dicuntur mihi.

Interdictum, ti, n. g. a prohibition, a menace. sometyme a determination of the possession of a thyng in debate.

Interdictus, a, um, forbidden, prohibited.

Interdictio, ōnis, f. m. gen. a prohibition, a forbidding.

Interdictus, us, masc. gene. a space betwene full sentences.

Intérdu, in the daye tyme.

Intérduus, was vused of olde wyters.

Interduum, and Interatim, was vused of olde wyters for Interdum, and Interim.

Interdum, sometyme.

Intérea, in the meane while, in the meane season, also neuertheless.

Interealoci, in the meane space.

Interea dum is venit, In the meane season while he cometh.

Quum interea, for Quum tamen.

Intéreo, interis, interui, or rī, rīre, to dye bitterly, to perishe. sometyme to be slayne.

Interire fame, to perishe or dye for hunger.

Interire naufragio, to perishe or be drowned in a shippe wrecke.

Nihil valentius est, a quo intereat, There is nothyng of greater power, by the whyche it muste perishe or bee extincte, dissolved, or brought to nought.

Interq, alas I am but dead.

Intéritus, réritus, masc. gene. death, destruction, ruine, bitter decaye.

Intérquito, aui, are, to ryde betwene.

Interesse, ab Inter & esse, to be present.

Publicis consiliis inersuimus, we were present at the common counsaile. also to bee betwene.

Triduum non interest ætatis, vter maior sit, there is thye dayes difference betwene them in theyr age.

Interest inter duos amnes.

Interesse nobis dicitur deus, pro adesse.

Nostro sermoni interfuit, he was presente at our communicacion.

In conuiuio interesse, to bee at a feast.

Id morari victoriam rati, quod interesset amnis, supposyng that the cause why that they had not forthwith the victorie, was for asmuche as the ryuer was betwene theym.

Triginta firmè interfuerunt anni, there were also moste thirtie yeres betwene theym.

Interest, ab in, re, est, it is profitable, it is beehouable, it belongeth, it pertaineth, it maketh matter, and maye be toynd to these ablatiue cases, Mea, tua, sua, nostra, vestra, whether it be personall, or impersonall.

Si nihil interest regis, peto, vt dum dico, vinculis liberer, if it bee no matter to the kynge, I praye you, whyles I doe speake, lette me be without gyues.

Nihil interest tui, it is no matter to the.

Magni sua putabant interesse, They thought that it made muche for the purpose, or for theyr profyts.

Nihil

Nihil interest eius, It maketh no mattier to hym.
 Interest eius, it is his parte, or it is for his profite.
 Quid ergo interest, proferantur necne? what maketh it mattier, whether they bee brought forth or no?
 Nec interest discentium, quibus quidque nominibus appelletur, it maketh no mattier to theym that doe learne, by what names any thing is called.
 Permagni interest, It maketh muche of the mattier.
 Inter hominem & beluam hoc maxime interest, This is the moste diuersitie betwene a man and a beaste.
 Quod interest, tenent Arabes, That that lieth betwene theim, the Arabians possesse.
 Interesse, to differre, and is commonlye ioygned with the preposition Inter.
 Interesse & differre.
 Interest in infinitum, there is a wounderfull great difference.
 Hoc interest, this difference there is.
 Stulto intelligens quid interest? what difference is betwene a wyle man and a foole?
 Vt vidit tua interesse, as soone as he sawe it to bee for your profite.
 Nostra nihil interest, it maketh no matter to vs.
 Magni mea interest, it is greatlye for my profite: or it is veraye behouefull for me.
 Interest, is vsed with these gentiue cases, Magni, plurimi, tanti, quanti, and with these aduerbes, Facile, multum, plurimum, plus, parum, Numquid, minus, minime, &c.
 Tantum interest, so muche matter it maketh.
 Vtriusq; nostrum permagni interest, it is veraye behouable for vs bothe, or veraye greatlye for our profite.
 Ostendam, quantum salutis cōmunis intersit, I wyl shewe you, how greatlye it shall be for the profite of the common weale.
 Interest, sine casu, it is profitable.
 Non interest, quid faciat morbum, it maketh no mattier what causeth the sicknesse.
 Nihil ad rem interest, it maketh nothyng to the mattier.
 Interfacio, interfacis, feci, facere, to sette hande to the worke that is in doyng.
 Interfaciendo muro, whyle the wall was in makinge.
 Interfāris, fātur, fāri, to interrupte one as he is speakinge, to speake whyle an other man speaketh.
 Interfatio, ōnis, fēm. gene. an interrupcion of ones tale.
 Interficio, interficis, fēci, ficere, to slea, to kyll, to murder.
 Vita interficere aliquem, for vita priuare.
 Interficere messes, id est, perdere & cremare.
 Interfectus, a, um, kyled, slayne, murdered,

Interfectus omni supplicio, cruelly slayne.
 Interfector, ōris, masc. gene. one that kylleth, a murderer.
 Interfici, to perishe, to be consumed.
 Interfluo, fluxi, fluere, to flowe betwene.
 Interfluus, a, um, that floweth betwene.
 Interfamineum, a womans priue token, whereby she is knowne from a man.
 Interfringo, frēgi, fringere, idē quod Infringo, to breake or burste.
 Interfundo, fūdi, fundere, to potze betwene.
 Intēfuro, fūre, to be in a fury or rage, to bee wode.
 Interfusus, a, um, spilled or shed betwene twayn or by the waye, also that floweth betwene.
 Intergerinus paries, a walle added to an olde foundation or wall, to susteyne it: or rather a partition wall to diuide mens groundes.
 Intergero, gēssi, gerere, to carpe or beare betwene.
 Interi, they that be within.
 Interiaceo, interiaces, iācui, cēre, to lye or lye betwene.
 Spacium quod sulcis interiacet, the spate that is betwene the fozowes.
 Interiacet Capuam & Capuā.
 Quae inter Capuam Tiphataque interiacet, whych lieth betwene Capua and Tiphata.
 Interibi, in the myddle of that place. also for Interea.
 Interiectus, a, um, put or cast betwene, layed or beyng betwene.
 Interiectae collibus valles, halles lyege betwene the hilles.
 Interiecti inter philosophos, & eos qui rem pub. administrant, whiche be neyther philosophers, nor yet ministers of a comon weale, but meane betwene theim bothe or participatours of the one and the other.
 Interiectum tempus, the meane tyme.
 Singulae singulis saxis interiectis, euerie one haung a stone layed betwene it and the next.
 Interiectus inter mare & caelum, placed betwene the water and the firmament.
 Inter horum aetates interiectus Cato, Cato beyng betwene theim bothe, after the one and before the other.
 Paucis interiectis diebus. after a littell whyle.
 Interiectus, us, maf. g. a laying, puttyng, or castyng betwene.
 Interiectio, ōnis, f. g. a puttyng betwene.
 Intericio, interncis, iēci, icere, to caste or put betwene or amonge.
 Interim, in the meane space or tyme, in the meane season. also sometyme sodainlye, otherwhyle, among all other matters.
 Interim scit, interim nescit, sometyme he knoweth, sometyme he dweth not.
 Interim miris modis odisse cepit, sodainlye he began to hate hym wonderfully.
 Quum interim, for Quum tamen.
 Interimo,

Interimo, emi, imere, to kill.

Vitam tuam interimam, an olde facion of speakyng.

Interimi veneno, to bee poysoned.

Interimere & conseruare, contrary.

Interimit me hæc oratio, these wordes kill myne herte, or greue me wery soze.

Interemptio, onis, f. g. a kylling or sleayng.

Interior, & interius, the inner.

In interiore epistola scribis, you wyte in the middell of your letter.

Interitus, us, m. g. death, destruction, ruine.

Interiungo, iunxi, gere, to tary, to reste.

Interiungere equos, To vntee the hoxes, that they maye reste.

Interiungere dextras, to take on an other by the hande.

Interius, moze inward.

Interlino, lini, liui, or leul, nere, to stryke out with a penne, to blotte out.

Delere & intellinere, to rase and blotte out.

Interloquor, eris, terloqui, to speake in a mans tale, to enterrupte.

Interlocutio, onis, f. g. a speakyng betwene.

Interluceo, luces, luxi, lucere, to shyne betwene or in the myddes: sometyme to appere or bee seen in the myddes.

Interlūco, auī, are, to make a glade in the myddle of a wodde, to loppe or cut awaye bowes, where they leat the lyght.

Interlucatio, onis, f. g. suche a cuttyng or loppynge of trees.

Interlūnium, nij, n. ge. the space of tyme, in the whiche neyther the olde moone doeth appere, nor the newe moone is scene.

Interlūo, terlui, ere, to flowe betwene, to washe betwene meales, or other actes.

Interluere manus, to washe the handes betwene two actes or dedes dooyng.

Interluuius, ei, f. g. a brooke or riuer that renneth betwene.

Intermāneo, termanes, manſi, manere, to tary in the middes of a thyng or place, or to abide among.

Intermedius, a, um, in the myddle, that lieth or is betwene two.

Intermēstruus, a, um, idem quod Intermeſtris.

Intermēo, āui, āre, to go or flowe betwene.

Intermenſtrum, ſtrui, n. ge. the tyme whan the moone is at the poynte to chaunge, the coniunction of the ſonne and the moone.

Intermeſtris, ſtre, belongyng to the space betwene the olde moone and the newe.

Intermeſtris luna, the coniunction of the moone and ſonne, when the moone is not scene.

Intermico, micui, āre, to shyne in the middes or among.

Interminor, aris, ari, to thzette ſoze, to charge vpon a payne.

Interminatus ſum, ne faceres & dydde not I charge the ſtreytly, or vpon a great payne, that thou ſhouldeſt not doo it?

Viro ſuo interminatur vitam, he thzette to kill his houſebande.

Interminarus, a, um, and Interminus, a, um, that hath no bonde nor ende.

Intermiſceo, miſcui, ſcere, to mingle with other.

Intermitto, miſi, mittere, to leaue or put of for a tyme, to diſcontinue, to deſerre, to be ſlacke in dooyng.

Obſides date intermiſerant, they were ſlacke in geuyng hoſtages or pledges.

Intermittere & retinere, To leat paſſe for a whyle, and to receyue or holde ſpyll.

Non intermittere, id eſt, continuare, not to ceaſe.

Non vnum intermittit diem, quin veniat, he ſayleth not one daye, but that he cometh, he cometh every daye duely.

Iter non intermittere, to continue on his journey ſpyll.

Tui mentionem intermitti non ſinit, he ſpeaketh of you alwaye, or he will not ſuffre you to be forgotten.

Opus intermittere, to leaue of or geue ouer ones worke for a whyle.

Non intermittit calum niſcere, the weather is alwaye fayre and cleere.

Nec diem nec noctem intermittit, he ceaſeth ſith or reſteth neyther daye nor night.

Conſuetudinem intermittere, to forbeare familiarity or reſorte.

Officium intermittere, to be ſlacke in dooyng ones duety.

Intermiſſus, a, um, leat paſſe for a tyme.

Intermiſſa tecta, houſes ſtandynge a ſunder, or one from an other.

Intermiſſus, us, maſc. gener. a lettynge paſſe, a pauſyng.

Intermiſſio, onis, f. g. a ceaſyng, a diſcontinuyng, a pauſyng, a variation from a worke or labour for a tyme.

Sine vlla intermiſſione, without ceaſyng.

Intermiſſionem facere a re aliqua, To ceaſe from a thyng, or to geue it ouer for a whyle.

Intermiſſio literarum, whan one ceaſeth for a certayne ſpace, and wytteth no letters.

Intermōrior, mortuus ſum, intermori, to perſe the or dye vtterly, to die as a thyng is dooyng, ſometyme to be loſte, caſte awaye, or nothyng effected.

Intermoriuntur officia, friendly pleasures be loſte, or vtterly forgotten.

Intermortuæ conciones, id eſt, languidæ, without ſpīte or lyfe, halfe deade.

Intermortuam memoriā renouare, To reſnewe the memoie of one that was vterly forgotten.

Intermortui mores, corrupte and naughty maners.

Intermortuus, a, um, as it were halfe deade halfe alpye, at the poynte to die, paſſe hope of lyfe.

Inter

Intermundum, dij, of Inter, and mundus: as,
Intercolumnium of Inter and Columna.
Intermurālis, le, that is betwene two walles.
Internāscor, nāsceris, nāsci, to growe or spryng
by amonge or betwene.
Internāus, a, um, that is growen or spryng by amonge or betwene.
Internecinus, a, um, perteynyng to the slaughter or destruction of a great weyny.
Bellum internecinum, a moxtall warre to the bitter destruction of one of the parties.
Internecio, and Internicio, ōnis, f. g. an vniner-fall slaughter, a kyllyng, a sleayng.
Ad internecionem cāsi, well neere all slayne,
fewe lefte alyue.
Intērneco, aui, are, to slea all at ones, to kyll a great multitude together.
Internecto, nexui, nēctere, to knitte or tye together.
Internidifico, aui, āre, to make the neste betwene or amonge.
Intēnigrans, antis, beyng somewhat blacke.
Interniteo, intērnites, nitui, nitēre, to wyne or be bygght among or betwene.
Internodium, dij, neu. gene. and sometyne Internodius, dij, masc. gen. a ioynte in a mans fynger or legge, the space betwene two ioyntes or knottes.
Internosco, nōui, scere, to knowe a thing among other thynges, to discerne from other.
Fures internoscere non possunt, they can not decerne theues from other men.
Internūcio, aui, āre, to go in message betwene.
Internūcius, cū, m. g. a messanger or meane be-twene two persones beyng at variaunce, or that goeth in messages betwene two.
Intērnus, a, um, that is within or inward.
Intero, interis, intrui, intērere, to crumme in,
to grate in or with other thynges.
Tute hoc intristi, omne exedendum est, selfe doe, selfe haue, hote suppe, hote swallow.
Interordinum, nij, n. ge. a space betwene two thynges, that be in a rewe or orde.
Interpellatio, ōnis, f. ge. a leat in a mans busynesse, a disturbance, and interruption, a callynge on one, whan he is speakyng or dooyng.
Interpellator, ōris, m. ge. a disturbour or letter of other, that they maye not dooe theyr businesse, an interrupter.
Interpello, aui, are, to interrupte or let one that is speakyng or dooyng any thyng, to disturbe. also to require, to aske or demaunde.
Si interpellas, ego tacebo, if thou interrupte me, I wyll holde me peace.
Interpellare debitorem, id est, appellare, to requyre or demaunde his debt, to entre an action agaynst his debtour.
Interpellare partem victoriam, id est, impedire, to hynde or leat.
Interpellare stuprum, To leat an aduoutrie that was intended.

Res interpellata, a matter disturbed and broken by.
Interpellatus, a, um, interrupted, disturbed, discontinued, sometyne despyed or intreated.
Interpensua, certayne pices of symber, clonen boudes, or sometyne stoncs, which are set from the coyners of the wall, to the endes of the rafeters, to conueygh rayne water into the spoutes.
Interpensui parietes, walles, whych ryle vpon an other wall, or flowe, and haue no foundation in the ground.
Intērplico, plicui, plicāre, to folde by betwene.
Interpolatio, ōnis, f. ge. newe dresyng or polyshyng of thynges.
Vestimenta interpolata, garmentes newe dressed.
Interpolātor, ōris, m. gene. and Interpolātrix, trix, he or she that refresheth or dreseth olde thynges, and doeth make them seeme new.
Intērpōlis, le. and Intērpōlus, la, lum, renewed, refreshed, newe dressed, newe scoured or polished.
Vestimenta intērpōla, Garmentes newe dressed.
Intērpōlo, aui, are, to renewe or refresh any thyng, to polyshe, trimme or decke, as it were made newe, to make freshe, as they do that sell olde stuffe in sleeve of newe, to dresse newe, as fullars doe, to newe perietie or whitelyne, to peynete newe where as olde peynetyng hath bene before. sometyne to purge or trie, as frans hyulence is whan it is made.
Interpōno, sui, nere, to put or sette betwene, to resiste, to intermeddell, to wyngle, to suborne.
Interponere fidem publicam, to promysse vpon
the credence and consent of all the people, to geue a cause conducte.
Quid interponerem tuā audaciā? what shuld
I set to leat thy presumption or boldnesse?
Interponere aquam, To myngle water wth
wyne.
Auctoritatem interponere, by his authoritee to commaunde a thyng to be doen or not to be doen.
Accusatorem interponere, to suborne and set by an accuser.
In aliquam rem fidem suam interponere, to promysse and bynde hym selfe vpon his faileth and credite for the assurance of a thyng.
Suum iudicium interponere, To speake or geue his iudgement in a matter.
Iusiurandum interponere, To auowe with an othe.
Moram interponere, To deferre, to delaye, to prolonge, to dypue of a matter.
Nomen alicuius in re aliqua interponere, To set ones name in a thyng for a colour or fraud.
Interponere postulatū, To make requeste, or to proffere condicions of peace, to the entent,
that his enemies shoulde not prepare agaynst
hym.
Se interponere, to intermeddill,

Me nihil interpono, I meddill nothyng in the matter.
 Operam suam pro aliquo interponere, To traunple oꝝ doe the best he can for a man.
 Interpositus, a, um, sette oꝝ put betweene. also myngled.
 Diebus aliquot interpositis, after a littell whyle.
 Interpositus, us, ma. gen. a puttynge oꝝ settinge betweene.
 Interpositio, ōnis, f. ge. a puttynge betweene, an interlynyng.
 Interpremo, pressi, premere, to stop oꝝ close in.
 Interpreter, prētis, om. gene. an interpreter, an expounder, a translater. also a Richlar betweene two, whiche are at variance, a mediator, a meane, a truthe man. sometyme a southerlaur oꝝ diuinour.
 Interpretamentum, ti, n. ge. and Interpretatio, ōnis, f. ge. an interpretation oꝝ translation. sometyme a coniecture oꝝ iudgement.
 Interpretatus, a, um, expounded, declared, interpreted.
 Interpretor, āris, āri, to interpret, to expone, to declare, to translate. also to iudge oꝝ esteeme.
 Virtutem ex consuetudine vitæ interpretemur, leat vs iudge the vertue of the persone by his custome of lyuynge.
 In bonam partem interpretari, To take it in good parte.
 Peruerse interpretari, to meane shrowdly: oꝝ rather to take a thyng yll.
 Interpretari somnium, to expone a dreame.
 Quum huius verba interpretor, as farre as I can gather by this mans wordes.
 Interpunctus, a, um, distincted with poyntes.
 Interpunctum, ti, n. g. a poynte, a distinction.
 Interpunctio, ōnis, f. g. idem.
 Interpurgo, aui, are, to purge.
 Interputo, aui, are, to cutte betweene, to cutte of rounde, to prune trees.
 Interquiesco, quiesci, escere, to reste oꝝ pause in dweyng a thyng.
 Interrado, rāsi, rādere, to scrape about: also to pollyshe, to fyle.
 Interrasile, that whyche is playne betwyrte two partes, grauen oꝝ imbofed.
 Interrasilis, le, scraped, pollyshed, fyled.
 Interrēx, rēgis, masc. gene. he that ruleth in the meane tyme betweene the ceassyng of the authoritee of one principall gouernoure, by death oꝝ other wyse, vntyll an other be elected into the same office.
 Interregnum, ni, n. gene. the sayed meane tyme of gouernaunce oꝝ rule.
 Inire interregnum, to take vpon hym the rule oꝝ gouernaunce after the death of a pynce, vntill an other be chosen.
 Interritus, a, um, not feared, not abashed.
 Interrogo, aui, are, to demaunde a question, to aske: sometyme to accuse, to appeale.

Interrogari legibus, to be tried by examination, that they had offended agaynst the lawes.
 Interrogatio, ōnis, f. g. a question oꝝ demaunde.
 Interrogatiuicula, lre, f. g. the diminutiue.
 Interrumpo, rūpi, rūmpere, to breake in the middes, to interrupte oꝝ leat one that is speakynge.
 Ordinem interrumpere, to confounde.
 Colloquia interrumpere, to interrupte men that be talkynge.
 Interruptus, a, um, disturbed broken in the middell, interrupted, letted. also discontinued.
 Longis intervallis interrupta consuetudo, f. g. militaier discontinued a longe space.
 Interruptis vocibus loqui, to speake as one dweth that sobbeth oꝝ wepeth.
 Interruptum & continuatum, contrary.
 Interrupte, by stoppes.
 Interscalmum, mī, n. ge. the space betweene the oꝝes in a boote oꝝ galee.
 Interscapilium, lij, n. ge. the space betweene the shoulders vnder the necke.
 Interseindo, interseidi, dere, to cut in the myddes.
 Intercribo, scripsi, scribere, to wypte betweene, to interline.
 Interseco, aui, are, to cut in the middell, to stop in speakynge, as one did cut of his wordes.
 Intersectio, ōnis, f. m. gene. a cuttynge of in the middell.
 Intersepio, intersepi, sepsi, pīre, to diuide in the middell with some closure.
 Intersepta, the gristyll, whyche maketh partition betweene the nolethpilles.
 Interseptus, a, um, stopped, closed, shutte.
 Iter interceptum, a waye stopped.
 Interfero, serui, ferere, to put betweene, to mingle.
 Interfero, seui, ferere, to sowe, sette, plante oꝝ graffe betweene, oꝝ in the middes.
 Intersono, ūi, are, to make a noyse in the middes oꝝ betweene.
 Interspiro, aui, are, to bzeath betweene, to vent.
 Interspiratio, ōnis, f. g. a bzeathynge betweene, a ventynge.
 Sine interspiratione, with out fetchynge of bzeath.
 Intersterno, strāui, stēnere, to strawe betweene, oꝝ thowme thynge betweene.
 Interstingo, stinxi, stingere, to quenche out.
 Interstinctus, a, um, distincte, diuided, marked here and there, peincted in diuers places.
 Interstitium, tij, n. g. a distance oꝝ space betweene.
 Interstitium lunæ, the space betweene the olde moone and the newe.
 Interstitio, ōnis, f. ge. a ceassyng, a vacation, a pausynge.
 Interstrepo, strēpui, strēpere, to make a noyse among other.
 Interstringo, strinxi, stringere, idem quod Stringo.
 Intersum, loke Inter est.

Intertextus, a, um, wouen of wrought betwene,
of tinsell, as cloth of tinsell or baudchyn.
Intertignium, nij, n. g. the space betwene two rafters of two other beames or plākes in building.
Interringo, tinxī, tingere, to diche and there.
Interstruo, struxi, struere, to ioigne diuers thynges together.
Intertraho, traxi, trahere, to drawe out.
Intertrigo, gnis, f. g. gallyng in a maner byste by long goyng, rydyng, or rubbyng of one thyng agāst another.
Intertrimentum, ti, n. ge. the waste or losse of a thyng by wearyng or occupyng, losse to bathe partes: also the refuse of golde or syluer that is lost in the tryng.
Interturba, a, f. g. idem.
Interturbo, aui, are, to trouble exceedingly, to disturbe, to enturpse.
Interturbatio, ōnis, f. g. a disturbing.
Intervaco, aui, are, to be vacant or voyde be-twene.
Intervallum, li, n. g. the space betwene the stakes in making of trenches: and therof every distance of tyme and place.
Annuum intervallum regni, the space of a yere
whan there is no kyng.
Dare alicui intervallum soluendi, to geue one a respite or lēsure to paye.
Intervalla requietis habere, to haue diuers tymes, wherein he may reste, or bee at quete and take ease.
Longo intervalllo, after a longe space of tyme that a thyng hath not bene.
Intervallis moveri, to bee moved at sundrye
tymes with pause betwene.
Cur ex tāto intervalllo rem desuetam vsurparent: why should they vsurpe a thyng, that hath not ben accustomed so longe tyme?
Ne intervalllo quidem facto, makinge no delaye, without any taryng.
Intervallatus, a, um, the adiective.
Intervallata febris, a fever that leaveth a man,
and cometh after agayne.
Intervello, velli, or vulli, vellere, to plucke by here and there.
Intervenio, intēvenis, uēni, venire, to come in the meane whyle, to be present amonge other, to come vpon one sodrynly as he is doyng a thyng, to make meane to one for a man.
Ira interveniunt, variaunce and debate falleth now and than betwene theym.
Interventus, us, m. g. a compyng betwene, a com-pyng sodrynly vpon men, as they be doyng or speakyng.
Interventor, ōris, m. g. he that cometh sodryn-ly vpon men, and letteth theym. Sometyme a suretee.
Intervenens, entis, that cometh betwene. Some-tyme that sloweth or renneth betwene. Sometime that lyeth or is situate betwene.
Intervenium, nij, n. g. the space betwene the veines

in the earth.
Intervento, uetti, uertere, to take awaye craftily, to conueigh awaye falsly: that was lent to one, or committed into his handes. Sometyme for Subuertere, or Euertere, to tourne by sette downe, to abolyshe, to destroye. Sometyme for Deconquere, to consume and spende wastefully.
Intervertere aliquem, Intervertere aliquem re-aliquā, and Intervertere rem aliquam.
Intervigilo, aui, are, to lie wakynge now and than.
Intervireo, tēvires, uirere, to be greene amonge other colours.
Interviso, uisi, uisere, to visite amonge, or now and than.
Intervola, la, f. g. a myt or smocke.
Intervando, aui, are, to distinate a thyng, as it were with waues of water.
Intervomo, uōmui, uōmere, to poure or caste out among other thynges.
Intervisum, rij, n. ge. the vse or commoditee of a thyng in the meane tyme, or vsurie that riseth in the meane tyme.
Intestabilis, le, that by the lawe can make no testament, or that can not bee taken for a witness.
also infamous, not to be beleued. Sometyme it sig-nifieth detestable.
Intestato, the aduerbe, without makinge of testament.
Intestatus, a, um, that dieth without makinge any testament, intestate, also that dieth makinge none here by testament, also one out of credēce, whome no man will take for a witness: Sometime not conuicted with witness.
Intestina, ōrum, n. gen. the bowels, or inwarde part of man, or other thyng liuing, the entrails.
Intestinus, a, um, that belongeth to the inwarde partes, or that is all within.
Intestinum bellum, where people doe warre within theyr owne realme.
Intestinum odium, hate wyth hert and mynde, mortall hatred, prync and secreete grudge, great and spitefull malice longe bozne in mynde.
Intestinum opus, the inwarde buildyng of tymber and parget, siclyng with wainescotte, toppyng woorke.
Intestina pestis, a greate and daungerous conspiracie.
Intestina discordia, a civill discorde.
Intestinum, ni, n. g. or intestinus, ni, mas. gen.
a bowell, a gutte.
Intexo, texui, texere, to enterlace, to weatte in,
to knitte in, to folde in, to platte with other
thynges.
Intexere aliquem in dialogum, to bypnyge in one speakyng in a dialogue.
Intimus, intima, um, mooste inwarde, mooste secreete.
also he whome a man mooste specially fauoureth.
Intimus illi sum, I am one of his hertly frendes.
Intimus est eorum consilijs, he is chiefe of theyr counseyle, or he is of theyr prync and secrete

trest counteyle.
 Odium intimum, malice or grudge deeply rooted in ones stomake, mortall hate.
 Intime, veraye inwardlye, from the bottome of the herte, veraye affectually.
 Intimo, intimas, aui, are, to shewe, to signifie, to denounce.
 Intimari, sometyme for Ingredi, to enter in.
 Intinctus, us, m. g. sauce.
 Intingo, xi, ere, to depe in as one dweth his syn-ger into lycour.
 Intingere calamum, to put his penne in to the inke.
 Intolerabilis, le, intollerable, that can not be suffered or borne.
 Intolerabiliter, intollerable.
 Intolerandus, a, um, idem quod Intolerabilis.
 Intolerans, antis, vnpacient, that can not suffer or beare, impotent.
 Intolerantissima laboris corpora, bodies that can suffer no labour or hardnesse.
 Intoleranter, vnpacientlye, so that no man can abyde it.
 Intolerantia, a, f. g. impatience.
 Intondeo, tondi, dère, to clyp or sheare rounde
 about.
 Intono, intonas, tonui, are, to thunders, to make a rumbling, And by translation, to speake vehesmently with great fiercenesse and stomache.
 Intonsus, a, um, not shorne, not clypped, not notted.
 Intorqueo, intórques, si, quère, to thurst in by thzowynge of a darte, or other like thyng. Also to tourne or wynde in, to folde or wryp rounde about a thyng.
 Intorquere mentum, To wrythe or wryste the thyngne.
 Intorquere telum in aliquem, to hurle a darte
 at one.
 Intortus, a, um, tourned or wynded in, wrynckled, croked, wrypped about. sometyme obscure, ambiguous, intricate.
 Intorti capilli, curled heare.
 Intoria cauda, a croked or wrynckled tayle.
 Oratio intorta, a darke maner of oracion, a crabbed or obscure style.
 Intortum-bruscum, id est crispum.
 Intra, within, sometyme amonge.
 Intra famam, lesse than the opinton that men
 haue.
 Intra modum, lesse than a meane, shyfte of a meane.
 Intra cubiculum, id est in cubiculo.
 Intra calendas, id est in calendis.
 Intra quatuor annos, within lesse than the space of.iiii. yeres.
 Intra legem epulari, To bestowe lesse vpon a banquet, than is permitted by the lawe.
 In interiori epistola scribis, you wryte in the myddle of your letter.
 Intractabilis, le, intractable, vneuly,

Intractatus, a, um, not handled, not tamed, not broken, wyld.
 Intrarius, a, um, idem quod intimus.
 Intrarius amicus, a speciall frende.
 Intratus, a, um, entered into, Rarum.
 Intremis, intremis, ui, ere, to tremble greatly, to feare.
 Intremisco, miscete, idem.
 Intrepidè, boldly, without feare.
 Intrepidus, a, um, nothyng afearde, nothyngs abashed.
 Intributio, ónis, f. g. a contri bution.
 Intrico, aui, are, to wryppe.
 Intrinsecus, within, on the inner parte, on the in-syde.
 Intritus, a, um, brayed in a mortar.
 Intrita panis, brade brayed with other thyngs
 ges. Aqua intrita facta, bread or other thing brayed with water.
 Intrita, a, f. g. or Intritum, intriti, n. g. garlyke or other meate stamped or brayed in a morter, fyne morter. sometyme earthe that byrche or tyle is made of. It is taken of Marro, for the lome of claye that men grasse with. Or after. Beroals dus, for the dyegges of wyne.
 Intro, into a place.
 Intro ad nos, into our house.
 Intro spectare, to loke in.
 Intro, aui, are, to enter or goe in.
 Intrare infamiliaritatem, to enter into familiaritee.
 Adem & in adem intrare.
 Intrare in affectum, to enter or syncke into the affection of thynde.
 Introclúdo, si, ere, to shutte in.
 Introdo, dedi, are, to enter or please in, or to cast in.
 Introduco, duxi, ere, to byynge or leade in, to mainteyne or holde an opinion in teachyng, to byynge in an assercion or doctrine.
 Præsidium in oppidum introducere. Introducere ambitionem in senatum, id est Inducere.
 Introducere consuetudinem, To byynge in a custome.
 Introductio, ónis, f. ge. a byynng in. Also an introduction or begynnng of any thyng.
 Introeo, introis, iui, ire, to goe in.
 Introire in vitam, to be borne, to enter into life.
 Introire ad aliquem, to go into the hous to one.
 Introfero, tróuli, ferre, to beare in.
 Introgrédior, eris, introgrédi, to go in.
 Introitus, us, m. g. a goyng in, an entraunce.
 Introitus in causam, a begynnng or enterpyng into a mattier.
 Intromitto, misi, ere, to leat in.
 Intromittere mares ad feminas, to putte the males to the females.
 Introrsum, or Introrsus, into, within, on the inner parte.
 Introrumpo, rúpi, rumpere, to breake in, to enter in by violence,

Introspectio, trōspicis, spexi, spicere, to loke in, to see diligently, to view, to consider earnestly.

Introuoco, aui, are, to call in.

Intrudo, trūsi, ere, to thruste in violently.

Intubum, oz Intubus, loke Intybum.

Intueor, ēris, intūitus sum, ēri, to beholde, to loke vpon, to take heede.

Intento animo aliquid intueri, to consyder a thyng in ones mynde attentuely.

Intueri aliquem, and in aliquem. Intueri in summos homines, To beholde and consider the lyfe and maners of the moste noble persons. Seipsum intueri, To looke vpon his owne fautes.

Intuitus, us, m. g. a beholding oz lokyng vpon.

Intumeo, intumes, tūmui, tumere, and Intumesco, mescere, to swell, to ryle vp, to be puffed vp, to bee somewhat hygge, to swell for anger.

Intumescere alicui, id est, irasci.

Intumescens locus, a place somewhat ryllyng in heygth.

Intumulatus, a, um, not buried, not layed in graue.

Intuor, eris, intūitus, oz intuirus sum, intui, to see, to beholde, antiquum.

Inturbatus, a, um, not disturbed, not troubled.

Inturbidus, a, um, not troblous oz busy.

Inturis, idem quod Capparis.

Intus, in a place, sometye from within.

Dic me rogare, vt aliquis intus prodeat, saye that I desyre one to come forth to me.

Intus euocabo aliquem foras, I will call one forth.

Intus domum nostram, for Intra.

Intus in crumena, in my purse.

Hic intus, here within.

Intus domus, at home and within the dozes.

Intus sibi cauere, prouerbialiter, spoken of them that stude onely for theyr owne vse.

Intus, sometye for Intro.

Intusium, idem quod inducium.

Intutus, a, um, vnure, not in safegarde, not out of daunger, not kepte, not defended.

Quousq; cunctando rempublicam intutam patiemini, howe longe pprolongeyng the tyme wyl you suffer the common weale in icopardy?

Intybaceus, a, um, oz Intubaceus, of cihozie oz endyue.

Intybum, intybi, n. g. oz Intybus, bi, m. g. oz f. g. semeth to be the generall name of all kyndes of endyue and Suckozie. Yet Dioscorides diuideth it into .ii. kyndes, the one wylde, the other, whiche is cōwen, and of that also he maketh .ii. sortes, the one with a broade leafe, whiche I take to bee the endyue, the other with a narrowe leafe, whych I take for the commune and garden cihozie. that which is wylde, hath also .ii. kyndes, the one called Succozie oz hardeweis, and the other Dent de leon.

Inuado, si, ere, to inuade, to enter, to apprehend, to assaile.

Cum ferro in aliquē inuadere, to renne vpon one with a sworde.

Consulatum inuadere, To take vpon hym a consullthp by vnlawfull power oz violence.

In fortunas hominum inuadere, to take mens goodes wpongefully from them, to robbe, to pill, to vse extorcion, and rauen.

Biduo tria milia stadiorum inuadit, he goeth.

Capillos alicuius inuadere, To leape to one and pull hym by the heare.

Inuade viam, go on thy waye.

Tanta libido inuaserat, suche a fantasie came in theyr bzaynes, oz suche a desyre came vpon them, oz they were so desyrouse.

Eum morbus inuasit grauis, he was attached with a greuouse sicknesse.

Bellum inuadere, id est, incipere.

Inuadere collum alicuius, To leape in ones necke.

Ea inuasit homines habendi cupido, suche a couetousnesse fell oz began to reigne amonge men, oz entred into the hertes of men.

Tantus terror inuaserat, so great a feare came vpon theym.

In arcem causæ inuadere, To enter into the chiefe poynt of the matties, and there as the chiefeste of the matties resteth.

Inualeo, inuales, lui, lere, and Inualesco, scere, to waxe stronge, to bee confirmed oz stablyshed, to growe in vse. sometye to become weake, to growe out of vse.

Inualuit consuetudo, it getwe to a custome oz vse, oz a custome is taken vp oz growen in vse.

Inualentia, æ, f. g. idem quod Inualetudo.

Inualetudo, inis, fcc. ge. feblenesse, weakenesse, sicknesse.

Inualidus, a, um, feble, weake, impotent, of littell force oz vertue, not valiaunt and stronge.

Inuēctio, ōnis, f. ge. a byngyng oz conueyghyng in. Also inueyghyng oz speakyng vehemently agaynst a thyng.

Inuectius, a, um, inuēctiue, that belongeth to inueyghyng, oz speakyng agaynst.

Inuectius, a, um, idem.

Inuectiue orationes, orations made agaynst one, repprouyng his maners and lyuynge.

Inuectus, us, mascu. gene. a byngyng oz conueyghyng in.

Inuectas, a, um, caried oz brought in.

Inueho, inuehis, uexi, here, to carie in a thyng, to carie a thyng into a place.

Inuehebant se hostes, the enemies pressed in vpon them.

Inuehor, ēris, inuehi, depon. to rebuke one vehemently, to rate, to rayle, and with violence and sope wordes to inueygh agaynst one.

Equo inuehi, to be on horse backe to ryde.

Flumine inuehi, to rowe oz sayle.

Inuectus portum, for in portum.

Inuenditus, a, um, not solde.

Inuēnio, inuenis, uēni, ire, to fynde a thyng whych whych a man seeketh for, to inuent or imagine, to knowe or trie out, to get, to obteyne.

Inuenitur apud authores, & in authoribus, it is redde in authours, or it is founde written in authours.
Inuenire aditum, to fynde the meane to enter or haue access.
Certum inueniri non poterat, the certaintie or trueth coulde be knowen by no meanes.
Quod labore inuenierit, id est parauerit, that he hath gotten by hys labour and trauaile.
Nomen inuenire nouum, to get a new name.
Nomen latinum non inuenit, it neuer hadde
name in latine.
Obtrectatores inuenire, To be yll spoken of by naughtie tongues.
Salutem fuga inuenire, By flyght to escape safer.
Inueneris, ex me quidem nunq̃ fies certior, enquire or aske of whome thou wyle, thou shalt neuer knowe it of me as long as thou lyuest.
Hoc mali non pridem inueni, id est, intellexi, fensi, It is not long sens that I haue perceyued thys displeasure.
Inueni quod agam, I haue inuented, or I haue bethought me what to doe.
Finem non inuenit, It was not atchived or ended. Laudem inuenire, to gette prayse or com-mendacion.
Inuenias vbi habitet, enqurre out where he dwelleth. Viam inuenire, to fynde a waye or meane.
Inuentarium, rij, n. g. an inuentorie.
Inuentio, onis, f. g. an inuencion, a fyndyng.
Inuentiancula, æ, f. g. an inuencion.
Inuentor, oris, m, g. a fynder out, an inuentour, or fyrst authour.
Inuentrix, tris, f. g. the feminine.
Inuentum, i, n. g. an inuencion or deuise.
Inuentus, us, m, g. idem quod Inuentio.
Inuentus, a, um, founde out.
Inuentum reddere, to fynde out.
Inuento est opus, it muste be founde out.
Inuentus, vnpleasantly.
Inuentus, a, um, vnpleasant, without grace.
In verba iurare, to bee swozne as pynnis counsalours and seruantes be swozne vnto them also to doe fealtee.
Inuerecundus, a, um, vnchast, without shame, impudent. Inuerecūda frons, id est, perfricta, without shame.
Inuergo, verxi, ere, to entpyne, to poute in.
Inuersion, onis, f. g. a tournyng in and out, tournyng of the wyng syde forwarde.
Inuersum, in numbre and order.
Inuersus, a, um, tourned in and out, tourned backwarde.
Inuersa verba, wordes tourned backwarde, as Vola, for Lauo.
Consuetudo inuersa, a custome chaūged cleane
contrary,

Inuerto, ti, tere, to couerne in, to tourne by syde downe, to tourne in and out after the vulgar speche, Propely to tourne euery thyng contrary to the ryght fourme and facion.
Inuertere verba, to bypge out wordes, so that wee speake one thyng for an other.
In locum anulum inuertere, To turne the ringe agayne into his place.
Negotium aliquod inuertere, To disturbe a matier, and tourne it vpside downe.
Inuertere ordinem, to dwe or say a thing backs
warde.
Inuerrere scrobes oleis, To bygge places to plant olpues in.
Quam le cito inuertetur? Howe quicklye hath he tourned or chāged hym selfe?
Inuesperascere, to waxe nyght.
Inuestes, stium, m. gen. ponge thyldren without heare, or after some, they that be vnarmed.
Inuestigabilis, le, that maye not bee founde with schyng.
Inuestigatio, onis, f. ge. a serchyng or schyng out, a tracynge.
Inuestigator, toris, m. ge. one that maketh dili-gente serche or enquirie for or of a thyng.
Inuestigo, aui, are, to seeke or fynde out by the stepps and print of the fete, as hunters doo, to trace. And by traslacion, to make diligent serche of or for a thyng, to enqurre.
Vbi inuestigem, where maye I fynde whych way he went?
Quarendo inuestigari possit, By diligent searchyng and serchyng, it maye be founde out.
Diligenter de aliquo inuestigare, to make diligent serche and enqurre for one.
Inuestio, iui, ire, to adorne or garnishe a thyng, to trymme.
Inuestis, ste, that hath no heare or bearde, idem quod impubis.
Inueterasco, scere, to waxe of force or strength, to bee confirmed by longe vse, to growe in custome.
also woxne out, almoste consumed. sometyme to be longe in a place.
Inueterari, olde shewes or vntyffes, men waxed olde in vntyffy luyng.
Inueteratio, onis, f. ge. the growyng of a thyng
in vse by longe custome.
Inueteratus, a, um, confirmed by long vse, growen
in custome, olde, auncient.
Inuetero, aui, are, to kepe yll it be olde or siele, to growe in vse, or be establisshed by longe custome.
Inueterauit hæc opinio, This opinton hath been long in mens wyndes.
Inueterauit consuetudo, a custome is taken vp or growen in vse.
Quorum nomen inueterauit hominum famæ & sermonibus, whose name hath bene of longe tyme renoumed, and of reputacion among men.
Inuicem, together, one the other also for per vices, one after an other, by course. sometyme for Ri ij vicissim,

vicissim, or econtrario, agayne on the other syde, agayne for thy parte or my parte.
 Inuicem diligunt, they loue one an other.
 Habes res urbanas, inuicem rusticas scribe, Howe thou knowest the assayes of the citee, for thy part agayne, write what is down in the coun- trepe.
 Inuicem crimen intentare, To lay one to an others charge.
 Inuicem obstant, They leat one an other.
 Loquamur inuicem, leat vs speake one after an other by course.
 Inuictus, a, um, valiant, myghtye, that can not be ouercome or vanquished.
 Inuictum se a labore prestare, not to be ouer- come with labour and peyn, not to be wriced.
 Inuidencia, a, f. ge. grete to beholde or here that an other man prospereth.
 Inuido, inuides, uidi, ere, to haue enuy at an others prosperitee, to hate. Sometime to disdei- gne, also to see inwardly or through a thyng. Sometime to denie a thyng to one: as, Natura inuidit oleum Africa.
 Inuideo tibi doctrinam, I haue enuy at thy learnyng.
 Inuidebant omnes mihi, euerye one hadde grudge and enuy at me.
 Honorem alicui, and honori alicuius inui- dere, To be greued with the honour and aduans- cement of an other.
 In eo, cui inuidetur, the impersonall.
 Inuideor, the passyue.
 Inuidetur, the impersonall.
 Inuidia, a, f. gen. enuy, hatrede, yll wyll, grud- geyng, the yll brute or opinion that the people haue of one, despite.
 Inuidia facti sui, The displeasure of his acte or attemptate, or the deede wherof he was enuied or hated.
 Inuidiam concitare alicui, to byng one in ha- tred or yll opinion.
 Facere inuidiam, idem.
 Inuidia temporum, id est iniuria, malignitas.
 Querere inuidiam in aliquem, to seeke mea- nes to byng one in hatred and yll wyll.
 Inuidiam regie largitionis, for hatred and despite of the kynges prodigalitee.
 Cumulare sibi inuidiam, To purchase hatred and displeasure.
 Habere inuidiam, to be hated or enuyed, to be odious or displeasunt.
 In inuidia esse, idem.
 Rapere, trahere, adducere in inuidiam, To make one hated and maligned, or to haue the yll will and displeasure of men.
 Vertere inuidiam alicuius, rei in alterum, To tourne the blame, hate, or displeasure of a thyng to an other.
 Conferre inuidiam mortis alicuius in alteru, to make one hated for the deathe of a man.
 Flagrare, or conflagrare inuidia, to be greatly spited or hated.

 Inuidia crudelitatis ex re aliqua colligere, to be noted & taken for a cruell persone for doyng of a thyng, to bee hated or haue yll wyll or displeas- sure of men for his crueltie in any thyng.
 Inuidia esse alicui, to cause that one is hated or enuied.
 Inuidiola, a, f. g. a littell enuy or hatred.
 Inuidiose, enuiouely, odiously, spitefully.
 Inuidiosus, a, um, enuious. Sometime enuyed, or dious, hated, spited.
 Inuidiosa res, a thyng that bredeth enuy or hat- red. Inuidiosum iudicium, a iudgemente or opinion, wherof men haue an yll opinion, or wherewith men be displeased or discontented.
 Inuidiosum nomen, an odious name.
 Inuidiosum ad bonos, or apud bonos, That is odious to good men, that men of honestee doe hate.
 Parabant absentis damnationem multo inui- diosorem fore, they thought that his condemn- nation would be much more odious and displeas- sant, because it was in his absence.
 Inuidus, inuida, um, that hath enuy, that enui- eth, enuyous.
 Inuigilo, aui, are, to haue watche of a thyng, or to laye watche, to watche diligentely, to care, to take good heede.
 Inuiuius, a, um, that neuer dzyneketh wyne.
 Inuiolabilis, le, that can not bee violated or bro- ken.
 Inuiolat, purely, vncorruptely.
 Inuiolatus, a, um, not violated, not corrupted, pure, not hurte.
 Inuisitatus, a, um, not visited.
 Inuiso, uisi, sere, to goe to see, to visite.
 Ad eum inuiso, I go to hym to see.
 Domum alicuius inuisere, to visite, to come to ones house to see hym.
 Inuisus, a, um, neuer seene, also hated or odious, that we can not abyde to see.
 Inuisus deo, hated of god.
 Inuisior, and Inuisissimus.
 Inuitabilis, le, delectable, iocunde, pleasant.
 Inuitatio, onis, f. g. and Inuitamentum, i, n. g. idem quod Inuitatus.
 Inuitatus, us, m. g. a byddyng or despyng, an al- luryng or prouoking.
 Inuitatus, a, um, boden as to a feast or banquet, despyed to come, allured, inticed.
 Inuito, aui, are, to bydde, to calle, to despye to come, to allure, to entice, also to delite to fyll the beally.
 Inuitare & alluctare.
 Inuitare animos visu, to despye and recreate mens myndes be seeyng it.
 Inuitare ad cœnam, to byd or despye to come to supper.
 Domum aliquem inuitare, to despye one to come to his house.
 Inuitare ad legendum, to allure.

Gloria inuicantur preclara ingenia repellent
wittes be allured with glorie.
Inuitare in hospitium, and hospitio, to desyre one to come to his house, and take such fare and lodging as he hath.
Inuitat genialis hyems, delicteth.
Inuitare aliquem poculis, to drinke to one.
Inuitare se in cenam, to drinke or quaffe largely.
Inuitare in praedam, to entice one to a great prey.
Vomitiones inuitare, to provoke vomite.
Inuite, inuitius, rissime, agaynst ones wyll, vns willingly.
Inuitus, a, um, vhwyllyng, or agaynst ones wyll,
by constraynt, agaynst herte and mynde.
Inuita Minerua aliquid facere, to do a thyng agaynst nature.
Inuitis omnibus, in spite of all theyr tethes,
mange theyr heades.
Inuitus facio, I doe it agaynst my stomache.
Inuitus huius solutionis, not willing that this shoulde be payed.
Non inuitus, with a good wyll.
Inuis, inuisa, um, lachryme a wepe, of where no thyng can passe.
Inuisa, places that can not be passed by.
Inula, inula, f. g. called Eleniu, Helenacampaha.
Inultus, a, um, that is not punished. Sometime without reuerdie, without hurt or danger.
Inuidro, aui, are, to make shadowe. Sometime it signifieth to defende.
Inuoco, aui, are, to cathe as it were with an hoke.
Inundatio, onis, f. g. a floudde, a deluge.
Inundo, aui, are, to overflowe or surrounde.
Sanguine inundare, to overflowe in bloude, to be all full of bloude.
Inunctio, onis, f. g. an annoynting.
Inungo, unxi, ungere, to annoynt.
Inunguem, to the point, perfectly.
Inuocatus, a, um, not called, not bydden.
Inuoco, inuocas, aui, are, to calle in, to call for helpe. also not to calle.
Inuocare subsidium, to desyre aide or succour.
In auxilium aliquem inuocare, to desyre or call vpon one to helpe hym.
Inuolito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Inuolo.
Inuolo, inuolas, laui, lare, to steale awaye in ones hande, to laye violent handes on one, to take in ones hande, to flee in, to enter in quickly.
Inuolare intro, to flee in.
Inuolare in aliquem, to leape or renne violently by on one.
Vix me contineo, quin inuolem in capillum,
I can vnyth refraine my self from sleeing, vpon
hym, to pulle hym by the heare.
Inuolare in possessionem, to take possession of a thyng hastily.
Inuolucris, cris, a barbour clothe caste aboute a mans necke in Maing.
Inuolucris, cre, and Inuolucer, cris, cre, that can not flee, not ready to flee.

Inuolacrum, i, n. g. euery thyng which serueth to couer or wyappe an other thyng in.
Inuolucris simulationum regi, to be hyd vnder crafty conuynge of dissimulation.
Inuoluo, uolui, ere, to wyappe, to folde in, to cou uer, sometime to platte. Sometime to put in.
Inuoluere se literis, to geue hym selfe wholly to study. A phewpse Orio se inuoluere.
Inuoluolus, i, m. g. & Inuoluola, x, f. g. a wayme lyke a canker, whiche is on bynes, and when he is taken of, he wyappeth hym selfe rounde toge ther.
Inuolutus, a, um, wyapped, folded in, couered.
Inuolutum bellum, warre, cloked vnder the name of peace.
Inurbane, incurteplse, rudely, homely, after no
civile or gentyll sorte.
Inurbanus, a, um, incurteplse, rude, homely in man ners, without honest ciuilitie.
Inurgeo, es, urli, gere, to thrust, to force.
Inurino, aui, are, to plunge and washe thym sel
ues in water as geese and duckes doe.
Inuro, uisi, ere, to marke a thyng with an hote
pyron, to enamell or wyke with fyre.
Inurere alicui notam censoriam, to bynge to one a notable reproche, to put to a notable te buke.
Inurere infamiam alicui, to bynge vpon a slan der on one, whiche wyll neuer be layed.
Leges inurere, to make lawes to the perpetuall dishonour of a weale publike.
Inurere dolorem, to put to great payne and sor
rowe.
Inurere famam superbiam, to make one to bee noted for a proude persone.
Inusitate, and Inusitatio, strangely, not after the ac customed facion.
Inusitatus, a, um, not wonte, newe, strange.
Inustus, a, um, bourned in, marked with an hote pyron.
Inutilis, le, vnprofitable.
Inutilitas, atis, f. g. vnprofitableness.
Inutiliter, vnprofitably.
Inutrium, a towne in Mayne, called In sprough.
Inuulneratus, a, um, not wounded.
Inuus, is the rusticall god of the Painynes, called also Pan.

IO, an interiection, signifyng sometime grete, as in Libullo. Vrorio, Oh, I burne. some tyme excessive gladnesse, as in Ouidio. Dicis re io Paan.
Io, the daughter of Inachus.
Iocinalis, the herbe called also Onobrychis.
Ioannes, a propre name of hebrewe, and signifieth
the grace of god.
Ioannes Baptista, sonne of Zacharias, and Elias both of the trybe of Levi, was sanctified before he was Rij he was

he was borne, and declared by an angell, that his name shoulde be John. And because his father dyd not forthwith beleue it, he was spechelesse vntill the eighth daye after the birth of the childe, and that he had written in tables, his name is John: than was his mouth opened, and he spake glorifying god, and made than the psalme: Benedictus dominus deus Israel. This John was of such perfection and holynesse, that our Saviour Christ testified of hym, that he went in the spirite and trouthe of Elias the prophete: but yet was he more than a prophete, & the messenger, promised by the prophete Malachias, that god wolde sende, which shulde prepare the way before hym. Semblably John testified of Christ, that he was the true light that lighteth every man, that cometh into the worlde, and that he was in the worlde, and the worlde was made by hym, and that he bare record, that he was the sonne of God. John lyued in wyldernesse, his garmente was of camelles hautes, his gyrdell of a skyn about his loynes, his meate Locusts and honny of the wooddes. He baptised onely in water, teachynge repentance and the appoynting of the kyngedome of heauen. But because he sayed to Herode, it was not lefull for hym to haue his brothers wyfe, he was by hym put in prysone, and finally at the petition of the daughter of Herodiades, who daunced before hym (by the persuasion of Herodiades, who was his brothers wyfe) his head was stricken of, and in a dishe brought by the mayden vnto his mother in open banket. Iosephus antiquitatum li. 18. calleth hym a veray good man, who commanded the Jewes to labour to geat vertue, to obserue Justice amonge them selues, to keepe true religion towarde God, and by baptism to soigne toggyther in one. also he saith that many men thought, that in the battayle betweene Herode & Bretha, by the iust vengeance of god, for puttynge John Baptist to death, the hoste of Herode was utterly destroyed. He was borne before Christ carnally monethes, and was put to death before Christ suffered his passion, one yere.

Ioannes, apostle and Euangelyst, sonne of Zebedeus, brother of James the apostle, called the more, was of Christ moste tenderly beloued, and in tyme of the emperour Domitian, was exiled into Pathmos, where he wrote the Apocalypsis. After the death of Domitian, in the tyme of Pertinax, he returned to Ephesus, and there remaynynge vnto the tyme of Traiane, he raysted manye churches, dyd set them in order, and beyng of greate age, dyed. lxviii. yeres after the passion of Christ, as Sophronius wytteth, and was buried at Ephesus. Polycrates, an ancient and holye byshop in Asia, in his epistle to Victor, byshop of Rome, wytteth in thys wyse: Also John, whiche layde his head vpon oure lordes breast, who was the chiefe ppyete, and wore the pontificall plate of table, martyr and doctour of the churche, slept at Ephesus. He wrote his gospel laste of all the Euangelistes in the last ende of his lyfe, wherein he declareth the diuinite of our Saviour, more than any of the other, whiche by the holye ghost was referred vnto hym.

Iocasta, was daughter of Creon, and firste wyfe of Laus kynge of Thebes, after whose death she beyng ignorant, married Oedipus her naturall sonne. After that her sonnes Polynices & Eteocles, whiche she had by Oedipus had one slayne the other in battayle, she also kylled hir selfe.

locatio, ónis, fce. ge. a mery testynge, a thyng spoken in bourde.

locans, antis, om. g. that speaketh a thyng meryly, testynge, boordynge.

Iochabella, the name of Moysses mother.

lôco, and locose, in spozte, meryly, in game, in ieste, in bourde.

Nescio, hæc ioco an serio dicat, I can not tell whether he speaketh these thynges in game or in earnest.

locor, áris, ári, to speake meryly, or in dispozte, to speake in ieste, to bozde.

locósus, a, um, & iocularis, re, mery, spoztfull, prouokynge merythe.

locosus homo, a pleasant and mery man full of iestes.

Iocularius, a, um, that is spoken in ieste, a spoztynge matter.

Iocularium malum, a shewd spoztynge matter.

Ioculariter, meryly, in ieste, in waye of spozte and boordynge.

Ioculátor, óris, m. ge. a iester, one that speaketh meryly and in bozde.

Ióculans, antis, idem quod locans.

Ióculus, li, m. g. a lyttell spozte or merythe.

locus, ci, m. g. plu. loci, or ioca, a merye word, dispozte, ieste in wordes.

Iohel, a prophete borne in Bethon, in the lande of Rubim, he prophesied muche of Hierusalem, and finall conclusion of Gentiles.

Iol, a citie of Numidia.

Iólaus, the sonne of Iphiclus, of whome the people of Sardinia were named Iólenfes.

Iolcos, a towne of Thessaly.

Ióle, the daughter of Euritus, kynge of Actolia, whome Hercules loued so muche, that he serued hir in a womans apparayle, and spanne on a distaffe.

Ion, a stone of violet colour. also the name of a grecke poete.

Ión porphirion, the blew violet.

Ionas, a prophete of the countrey of Cariathas maum, not farre from Azotus, a cytee of the Grekes, nygh to the sea in Syria, in the tyme of Helias, and was the soonne of the poore wydowe, and hym did Helias restore vnto lyfe for the hospitalitee of his mother whan he came to full age, he was by almyghty God sente to the great great city of Nine in Assyria, and as he would have fledde from the lordes, and haue turned his iourney vnto Charlos, he was deuoured of a whale, and beinge at the last cast vp into the land out of the whales mouth, when he had been thre dayes in his belly, he went forth and preached in Nine in such wyse, that the people by penance resigned the wooorde of god, whiche was ready to stryke them. Steward Jonas, vexed wth heauynesse of mynde, returned vnto his countrey, nor there longe abydinge, sayinge wth hym his mother, went to the lande of Sur, and as he haunted the lande of Saar, he there dyed, and was buried in the graue of Cneph the Judge. He propheted, that whan men shoulde be in Hierusalem muche people come from the weste partes of the worlde, than shoulde the cite be destroyed vnto the hard earth.

Jonas, in hebreue significth a cutler, a destroyer of people.

Ionia, a region in Grece of Asia, wherein were the cittes of Ephesus, Miletus, Priene, and other, and the people thereof be called Iones, and the tongue Ionica, and the sea ioyning to it Mare Ionicum.

Ionicus, ca, um, & Iónius, a, um, and Ioniacus, a, um, of Ionia.

Ionith, wartes or littell pimple in the face.

Iopas, a kynge of Aethiopia, one of Didos mores.

Ioppe, es, fa. ge. a cite of the countrey of Palestina, not farre from Hierusalem, standing by the sea, some men doo suppose it to be the haue, whiche is called Portus Iaffa.

Iordanis, a saye ryuer in Iudaea, whiche diuideth Galilee from the residue of Iudaea, and falleth into the dead sea.

Ios, an yle where homerus was buried.

Ioseph, the son of Jacob the patriarche, was thos-rough enuy sold by his brethren vnto a marchant, who brought hym into Egypte, and gaue hym to Putiphar, greate mayster of householde wth kynge Pharaon, whose wyfe bournynge in concupiscence, because Ioseph would not com-myt adultery wth hyr, caused hym to be caste into ppyson, where he declaring to the kynge cups bearer the signification of hys dreame, was afterward by the same cupbearer remembred vnto kynge Pharaon, when he had dreamed a dreame, whiche he would haue expounded. And he expoundinge the kynge's dreame, was made high steward of his royaume. So that by his most excellent wysedome such abundance of grayne was brought into the kynge's barnes, and there hepte duringe the vii. plentifulous yeres, that the scuerie scarce yeres nexte ensuyng, it sufficed not onely to releue all the people of Egypte, but also refreshed other countreys, and made the kynge exceedynge riche. Moreover the brethren of Ioseph, beinge sente by Jacob theyr father to bye corne in Egypte, not knowynge theyr brother Ioseph, were by hym sundry times apprehended, and compelled to seeke theth younger brother Beniamyn, and at the last Ioseph discoueryng hym selfe vnto them, caused them to seeke hys father into Egypte, with all his family thulio, where they were honourably enterpayned of king Pharaon and Ioseph. And Ioseph had there two sonnes, Efram and Manasse, and liued a hundred and ten yeres. Ioseph significth increase, or a great officer, he dyed before the increasnation about 1652 yeres.

Iosephus, the sonne of Mattathias, a priest, of Hierusalem, wrote in Greke the historie of the Jewes, and destruction of the cite by Vespaslian and Titus, whereat he hym selfe was present. He wrote also of the antiquities of the Jewes. He was amonge the Romans had in such reuerence and honoure, that his image was sette vp in the cite. He had the spirit of prophescie, and beinge ppysoner, tolde vnto Vespasian, that he shoulde be imperour of Rome. Also in his booke of antiquities he wyrteth in this wise.
Whiche tyme was Iesus a wylde man, yf it bee les-full to call hym a man, he was a doer of wonders full workes, and a teacher of those men, whiche willingly doo here thinges that be true, he tougned vnto hym manye Jewes and also Gentiles, this man was Christ. Whan Pilate, by the enuy of the chief men of our nation had iudged hym to be put on the crosse, he forsooke not them, whome from the begynnyng he loued, but appered to them the thyrde daye, afreshones alius, as coydinge as the prophetes by diuine inspiration spake before of hym, and that innumerable mysteries shoulde be done by him. Hitherto wrote Iosephus, wherby appereth his excellent mys-dome, and speciall grace, whiche he had receiued:
and it repugneth not muche, that in his herte he embraced the feith of Christ. He was after the incarnation of Christ. lxxvi. yeres.

Iota, the name of a greke letter.

Iotapata, a cite in Syria.

Iouianus Pontanus, a poete.

Iouiniani, were men of armes so called of Paris mian the emperour, whiche dyd valiaunely in the countrey of Illyria.

Iouis glans, the chesnutte.

Iouis, the gentine case of Iupiter, or after Hy-scian of the nomi. Iouis.

Iouiste, compositum ex Ioue & iuste.

I ANTE P.

IPhianassa, the wyfe of Melampus, whome for hir beautee Iuno courned into furie or mad-
nesse.

Iphiclus, son of Almena, borne with Hercules at one byrth, but Hercules was gotten by Iupiter, & Iphiclus by Amphitrio. And whan two ser-ers came to the cradell of Iphiclus, and sawe hym, after whan they came to Hercules, he tooke in euerye of hys handes one, and cleue them.

therm. There was an other Iphiclus, the sonne of Philacus & Clymene, who Hesiodus saith, was so lyght and swyfte, that he ranne vpon the eares of wheate as they grewe, and yd not hurt theym. also that he ranne on the water as well as on the lande. Beade. Caelum Lectionum antiq. lib. 2. ca. 5.

Iphicrates, a noble man of Athenes.

Iphidamas, the sonne of Antenor.

Iphimedia, the wyfe of Floeus.

Iphigenia, the daughter of kynge Agamemnon, whome he offered in sacrifice goyng to Troie.

Iphinassa, idem quod Iphianassa.

Iphinous, one of the Centaures.

Iphitus, the sonne of Pyramidis, whiche spyt obeyned the solenne plaies called Olympiada.

also an other of Troie.

Ipnion, id est, muscus.

Ips, ipos, a littell worme breedynge in hoznes and vynes. Erasmus saith, hurtfull to hoznes and vynes.

Ipsa, ipsa, ipsum, he, she, that same, by demonstrastyng o' shewyng the person o' thyng spoken of.

Ipsa egomet, I my selfe.

Rem ipsam dic, tell hym the veraye mattier.

Ipsior, ipsissimus.

Idem hoc ipsum, the veraye selfe same thyng.

Res ipsa indicat, the mattier it selfe declareth.

In ipsis nuptiis, at the veraye poynt of the ma-riage.

Eo ipso die, on the veraye same daye.

Ipsimet, he hym selfe.

Ipsippe, to hym and to none other.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

Ipsulces, plates imboled lyke to figures o' ymages
of men o' women.

sumptue, testye, entlined naturallie to anger,
quickely moued and for a lyght cause, quickely to displeased. Iracundus est, he is as angre as a wolfe.

Irascor, eris, irasci, to be angre, to be moued, to be displeased.

Irascor tibi illud dictum, I am displeased with the for so sayng.

Irasci vicem alicuius, id est dolere.

Irasci & stomachari, they be angre with theym that doe moue the o' tell theym of ange

thyng.

Irate, angerly.

Iracus, a, um, angre, troubled, greatly moued.

Iracum habere aliquem, to haue ones dyspleassure o' yll wille.

Iracum mare, the tempestuous o' troublous.

Iracior, iracissimus.

Ircus, a kynde of puddynge.

Ircipes, an hartowe.

Ire, and Iri, toke Eo.

Irenarches, & Irenarcha, m. gen. he whiche is in authoritee to see peate. hepte, in a countrey o'

citee. whiche amonge vs maye bee called a Justice of the peate.

Iria flauia, a citee of Spayne.

Irinium, vyle of Yreos.

Irinus, irina, num, that is made of the flower deluce.

Iris, iridis, form. ge. the rayne bowe. It is also a flower deluce, the roote whereof is veraye soote, and is commonlye called Yreos. it is also a cer-tayne precious stone.

Irio, named in Greke Ericimon, in Englyshe winter cresses, it groweth about townes and was-ter sides.

Iris syluestris, viola est purpurea.

Irnella, a, form. gene. a certayne vessel bled in sacrifice.

Ironia, a, form. g. a figure in speakyng, whan a man speaketh otherwyle than he thynketh, as in scoffing o' bourdyng, callyng that saye whych is foule in dede, that good, which is yll, that eloquent whiche is barbarous, semblably, reasoning cons-traye to that I thynke, to the intent to mocke hym, with whome I reason o' dispute.

Ironice, mockyngly, scoffyngly.

Ironicus, he that vseth that facion in speakyng.

Irpices, takes with yron teeth, wherewith they dyen
by weedes, some take it for an hartow.

Irpini, certayne people.

Irradio, aui, are, to wyne vpon, to cast his beames vpon, as the sonne doeth, to lyghten.

Irrasus, a, um, vnthauen, vnraied, rough. that is not polished.

Irrationalis, le, vnreasonable, without reason.

Irrauesco, raucui, scere, idem quod Iraucio.

Iraucio, rauci, ire, to bee hoarse.

Irrediuuius, a, um, that can not be recuyred o' respayred.

Irre-

I ANTE R.

IR, the holownesse of the hande. Sometyme it as-signifieth the hole hande.

Ira, ra, f. ge. wraath, anger, an appetite to punyng the hym of whom we be offended.

Accensus in iram, inflamed with anger.

Concitare iram alicui, to make angry.

Nunc meum cor cumulat iram, Howe dwe I ware muche more angry.

Iram euomere in aliquem, to vtter his wraathe
o' anger towards one.

Facere aliquid per iram, To dwe a thyng in his anger.

Ira sunt inter eos, they be fallen out.

Recanduit ira, he waxed angry agayne.

Frana ponere ira, to moderate anger.

Iracunde, angerly, with a stomache, spituously.

Iracundia, a, form. g. anger quickely moued and for a light cause, displeasure agaynst one, a desyre to be reuenged.

Iracundiam cohibere, continere, reprimere.

Omitte tuam istam iracundiam, quite your selfe, appease your selfe.

Iracundus, a, um, moztly o' soone angry, hasty

Irreduc, reducis, om. g. from the whiche one can not retourne safe agayne.

Irreligarus, a, um, unbounde, leuse.

Irreligiōsus, a, um, ungodly, not religious, not deuoute, without feare of god.

Irremeabilis, le, that, from the which one can not come agayne.

Irremediabilis, le, that can not be holpen with a remedie, that can not be remedied.

Irremunerabilis, le, that may not be rewarded or recompensed.

Irreparabilis, le, that may not be repayed or restored to the first estate.

Irrepertus, a, um, not founde.

Irrepo, psi, ere, to crepe in, to enter in by stealth, or pryly by litlell and litlell.

Irrepere in tabellas publicas, to be written or inrolled in the commune registers pryly or by stealth.

Irrepere in hominum mentes, To enter into mens myndes by litlell and litlell.

Irreprehensus, a, um, that can not be reppoued, without faute, not blamed.

Irrequies, a, um, without rest or quiete, stirring neuer doynge, busie, active, full of trouble.

Irresectus, a, um, not cut, not pared.

Irresolutus, a, um, neuer lette slacke, or leused.

Irretio, irretis, iui, ire, to take or holde in as it were in a nette, to entangle, to snare, to allure, to tolle.

Irreptus, a, um, taken, lapt in with craft or faire promys, snared, allured.

Irretortus, a, um, streyght, not crooked or bent awrie.

Irreuerenter, unreuerenter.

Irreuerentia, a, f. g. unreuerence.

Irreuocabilis, le, that can not be reuoked or called agayne.

Irreuocabilis constantia, constantia that can not be chaunged by any meanes, immutable.

Irreucatus, a, um, not called agayne.

Irrideo, rides, irrisi, dere, to moke, to laugh to scozne. Sometyme to laugh.

Irriidicūle, not meryly, vnpleasautly.

Non irriidicūle, meryly.

Irrigatio, ōnis, f. g. a waterynge.

Irrigatus, a, um, watered.

Irrigatus plagis homo, one beaten vntyll he bleede.

Irrigo, irrigas, ai, are, to water grounde, to byng water into the fieldes out of a ryuer.

Irrigare aquam in locum aliquem, to coueighe water into a place.

Irriguus, a, um, the grounde or fiede that may be easily watered. Sometyme the water that may be easily derriued into the fieldes.

Irrigua fontibus terra, a ground haupng many welles or fountaynes.

Fons irriguus, a fountayne that watereth any place.

Iripio, ere, to plucke in.

Irriō, ōnis, form. gen. a mockyng, a deludyng, a laughyng to scozne.

Irriōr, ōris, m. g. one that mocketh or laugheth to scozne.

Irrius, us, mafc. gene. a mockyng, or laughyng to scozne.

Irriui esse, to be laughed to scozne.

Irrius, a, um, laughed to scozne.

Irritabilis, le, quickly made angry or moued.

Irritamen, inis, or irritamentum, ti, neu. gen. a thyng that stireth or prouoketh.

Irritatio, ōnis, form. gene. a spyring, incensyng, or prouokynge. Sometyme for cupiditas, an appetite or desyre.

Irritatus, a, um, prouoked, stired, moued to anger, angry.

Irrito, irritas, ai, are, to make voyde, and of none effecte.

Irrito, as, re, haupng the last syllable saynge one longe, to prouoke, to handle wrathe, to spyre vp, to incense.

Irritus, irrita, um, voyde, of none effecte or force.

Qua irrita, egges that proue not vnder an henne or other byrde.

Irritus spei, disapoynted of that he looked for.

Preces irrita, vain prayes that be not herd.

Ad irritum cadit spes, Our hope is vayne and cometh to nothyng.

Quod modo erat ratum irritum est, that was euen now ratified and allowed, is nowe voyde and of none effecte.

Irrobore, raui, rare, to make stronger, or of more force, to confirme.

Irrogatio, ōnis, f. g. a setting or imposyng of a tribute, penaltie, or lyke thyng.

Multa irrogatio, a condemnynge to pay a forsaite.

Irrogatus, a, um, imposed, sette vpon.

Irrōgo, irrogas, ai, are, to impose or sette vpon, to ordeyne.

Irrigare leges, to make lawes.

Irrigare pœnam, to punishe.

Tributum irrogare, to sette a tribute or payment.

Irrigare multam, to sette a payne or forsaite.

Irrōro, ai, are, to sprinkle or wette with dewe or moisture, to caste a dewe vpon.

Irrubeo, irruces, ui, bere, and irruresco, scere, to be redde, to waxe redde.

Irructo, ai, are, to belche, to belche out.

Irrugio, irrugis, giui, ire, to bryte out.

Irrūgo, ai, are, to make wrynked.

Irrumo, ai, are, to sucke in.

Irrumpens, bzeakyng in violently.

Irrumpo, rupi, ere, to bzeake in or enter with force. Sometyme to bzeake a sunder.

Irrumpere oppidum, to bzeake into a towne by force.

In castra irrumpere, to assaile enemies in their campe.

Irruo, irruis, irui, ere, to renne hastily or furiously.

ypouſely into battayle, or vpon any thynge.
 Sometime to fall in or caſte in, to ruſhe in.
 Irruit in mediam aciem, he ruſhed into the myddell of the army.
 Irruere in odium alicuius, To caſte hym ſelfe wylfully without any conſideracion into the diſpleasure of hatred of a man.
 In mala irruere, To renne wyllyngely into naughtynelle.

Irtiola, x, f. g. a kinde of vines.

Irus, i, m. g. a beggar, of whome Homer maketh mention, who was great and feeble, and beyng in Ithaca, the countrey of Ulyſſes (he beyng abſente) conſumed his vitayles with the wouers of Penelope. Wherefore Ulyſſes at his returne home, ſlew him with his ſpeere.
 Iro pauperior, as very a beggar as Iurth, as poore as Job, in extreme neceſſitee.

I A N T E S.

IS, a citie eight daies iourney from Babylon.
 Is, ea, id, a pronowne, whiche ſignifieth he,
 ſhe, that. Sometyme ſuche.

Is fuit, ſuche a man he was.

Iam ea ætate ſum, I am now of ſuch age.

Eare, therfoze.

Iibus, for tis.

Eapſa, for caipſa.

Id, for ob id.

Nunc id prodeo, now I come forth for that cauſe or therfoze.

Id, for Hoc.

Id modo dic, Say this onely.

Id, for per id.

Vt id oftenderem, that I might declare or ſhewe by that meanes.

Id ætatis, of that age.

Id diei on that day.

Id honoris, of ſuche honour or eſtimation.

Ad id locorum, to that place, alſo to that time.

Id temporis, at that time, in thoſe daies.

Nec id nobis virium erat, we were not of ſuch puiſſance or ſtrength.

Id genus hominum, that ſorte of men.

Iſaca, the ryuer in England called Exe.

Iſcus, a famous Rhetorician, whiche inuented to make euery matter compendious.

Iſagoge, ges, f. g. an introduction.

Iſagogicon, a way to introduce or begynne to teache.

Iſagora, a mans name.

Iſandrus, the ſonne of Bellerophon.

Iſapis, a riuer nygh to Cecenna.

Iſara, a ryuer comyng out of the ryuer of Rhone, where the hylle called Cemenus, is ioyned to the Rhone, and ſo renneth by Duentia into the gulfe of Venice.

Iſaria, an yle agaynſt Uelia, called alſo Denotris.

Iſatis, tis, f. g. woode. reade before in Glaſtum.

Iſauria, a region of Aſia ioyng to Cilicia, ſome doo take it to be parte of Cilicia.

Iſaurum, a citie in the countrey of Pamphilia.

Iſca, a citie in Devonſhyre called Exeter.

Iſcalis, a towne in Somerſet ſhyre called Ilcheſter.

Iſchia, x, f. ge. the huckle bone. It is ſometimes taken for the ache in the ſaid bone, whiche vniuerſall phyſicians doo call Sciatica.

Iſchiadicus, vel Iſchiacus, a, um, that hath the ache in the hippe, commonly called Sciatica.

Iſchias, chiadis, form. gene. the ache in the huckle bone.

Iſchiroſ, idem quod fortis, ſtrong.

Iſchomache, the name of Hippodamia.

Iſchi, idem quod Iſchia.

Iſcopolis, a citie of Capadocia called Tripolie.

Iſiacus, i, the prieſt of the goddeſſe Iſis.

Iſis, a certayne plaſter, holſome agaynſt melan-colie.

Iſis, called alſo Io, one of the harlottes of Egypt ter, whome he conuerted into a cowe for feare of Juno his wyfe.

Iſitium, ti, n. ge. a certayne puddynge, ſome call it an pſynge.

Iſmael, was the ſonne of Iſrahaham by Hagar his wifes mayden, of whome the Sarazens be called Iſmaelita, as they be called alſo Agareni.

Iſmarus, i, m. g. & plur. Iſmara, orum, a mountayne in Thracia.

Iſmene, the daughter of Oedipus.

Iſmenias, the name of an excellent mynſtrel, whiche
 he played on the Maultmes.

Iſmenides, the women of Thebes.

Iſmenus, a ryuer in the countrey of Scotia, nam-med of Iſmerus, the ſonne of Delaſgus.

Iſocinnamon, mi, neu. gen. an herbe called alſo Daphnois.

Iſocolon, where two ſentences are in lyke length.

Iſocrates, the name of a famous oratour, of wondrous deepe eloquence, out of whole ſchoole proceded the moſt excellent oratours of Grece.

Iſodomon, a ſourme of buyldynge, where euery thyng is equally ſtrength.

Iſonomia, x, form. gene. equalitee of lawes, as where they bee indifferent to all maner of per-ſons.

Iſopleuros, three edged.

Iſopyron, ri, neu. gene. an herbe called of ſome
 Phaeſelium, and hath leaues lyke anniſe.

Iſoſtathinos, a confection agaynſt the cough.

Iſpalis, a citie in Spayne called now Siuile.

Iſpolum, a citie of the Wilumbrians, called now Iſpellum.

Iſrael, ſignifieth a man ſeyng god. alſo the name of Iacob the patriarche, and the people of the Iesues were called by that name. Howbeit ſomestyme it was attributed onely to ten tribes, the tribes of Iuda and Benjamin, beyng ſeuered from them.

Iſſa, an yle in the Venetian ſea, ioyng to Sla-uonie.

Iſus,

I A N T E S.

Iffus, a citee in Sicile, and a ryuer of Spylia.

Iste, ista, istud, this or that.

Ista ipsa de re, of the very same matter.

Istac, this waie.

Ister, a great riuer called Danubius, in duche Donowe. It cometh out of an hyl in Germanie, called of Plinie Roba, of Ptolomee Abnoba, of Tacitus Irbona. It receyvet into it thre scoze riuers, wherof the moze parte be nauigable, and renneth by Swaue, Bawer, Onstrie, Hungarie, Malachia, and so thorough Europa, and falleth into the sea called Pontus in seuen sundry places, as Solinus and Mela write.

But Plinius and Tacitus affirme but five. Herodotus, Arrianus and other but five. while it is in Germanie, it is called Danubius, and wha it cometh into a parte of Thracia called Istria, where it is broadest, it is than called Ister.

Isthmus, mi, m. ge. a narrow parte of the countrey, where two seas are but a small distance asunder, enclosyng the lande on bothesydes. In suche a place is sette the citee of Corinthus in Grece. There bee diuers suche places in Grecia and of them were certayne places called Isthmia.

Istic, there where thou arte.

Istic, istac, istoc, for iste hic, ista hac, istud hoc.

Istac res est, the matter is euen as you say.

Istinc, from that place, from thens.

Isto, thither.

Istoc, out of this place.

Istonium, a towne of Italy called Gnatio.

Istorsum, thitherwarde.

Istria, x, a parte of Italy, marchyng on Illiria, called now Slaunonie.

Istuc, for istud.

Iffus, the sonne of Priamus.

I A N T E T.

IT A, an aduerbe of aunswerynge or aspyrnyng, and sometyme signifyeth yea. somtime so, so muche.

Ira est, euen so it is.

Ira loquor, yea so I say, yea I assure you that it is so.

Ira aiunt, so men say.

Ira me deus amet, so god loue or helpe me.

Itane? but is it so? or is it as thou saiest? also it signifyeth a note of disdeigne.

Itane contemnora abs te? Settest thou so litle by me?

Itane beatus quidem est? Is he therfore than happy?

Ira negotium est? so the case requyrez, so the busynesse requireth.

Ira opus est facto, so must it bee doon.

Ira sane, yea truly.

Ira vt erat, as it was in dede.

Ira vt fit, as it happeneth.

Dum rus eo, corpi egomet mecum inter vias,

I A N T E T.

Ita vt fit, vbi quid in animo est molestie aliam rem ex alia cogitare, whan I went downe into the countrey, by the way, as it hapneth often times, whan any displeasure cometh to my minde I bethought me on one thyng and other.

Ira est homo, suche is the mans nature, suche is his facion. Likewise, Ira ingenium eius fuit, Ira animatus fui, I was in the mynde, I was so mynded.

Ira enim vero, yea verely.

Ira inquam, so I tell you.

Ira vestra est benignitas, so benyng and gentyl ye be.

Ira ingenio sumus omnes, we bee all of this nature.

Ira erat res, the matter stode so, suche was the case.

Ira nunc viget mos, so the facion is now.

Non ira multi fuerunt, there was not suche a great numbje.

Non ira valde, not so greatly.

Non ira dissimili sunt argumento, the argument and summe of theym bothe is not muche vnyke.

Non ira multo post, shortly after, a lyttell whyle after.

Ira subito est, it is so sodenly.

Ira prorsum oblitus sum mei, I am so cleane belyde my selfe.

Ira vt si esset filia, euen as though she had ben myne owne daughter.

Ira nati sumus, we be so bozne, or wee be bozne to that, or to that ende.

Ira, sometime for lgitur, or Ira q.

Itaq, penul. cor. wherfore than, and therfore.

Iraque, and so.

Italia, a noble countrey, whiche is inuironned on the weste with the mountaynes Alpes, on the nozthe with the sea Adriaticum: on the eastre and the southe with the sea Mediterraneum, and Fretum Siculum: it also conteyneth these regions, Liguria, Ethruria, Vmbria, Flaminia, Latium, Aprutium, Campania, Apulia, Venetia, Picenum, Gallia Cisalpina, called Lombardie, the length thereof (after Plinie) is. 1020. miles: the breadth in some place betweene the two seas. 410. miles. it was sometyme named Magna Græcia, because it was inhabited with Grekes, as Myrsilius writeth. Solinus resemblith the figure thereof to an oken leafe, extendyng moze in length than in breadth, towarde the ende beyng diuided, as it were into two hoznes, wherof the one lieth towarde the sea Ionium: the other looketh to the narowe sea of Sicile, called Fretum Siculum: in the narrowest place it passeth not in breadth. xx. myles.

Italica, a citee in Italia, whiche by an other name is called Confinium. There is an other in Spayn, where Silius Italicus was bozne.

Italicensis, a citee in Italia.

Ira-

Italicus, a, um, of Italic.
 Italus, an Italian.
 Itrea, called also Salix, the kindes of willow.
 Item, in lyke maner, so, also, even as, afterward.
 Iter, iteris, or iteneris, neu. g. a iourney, also a waite, a goyng. Sometime an intente, enterpryse, or purpose.
 Iter habeo ad Casarem, I take my iourney to the emperour.
 Iter conficere, to perfourme a iourney, to go or ryde a iourney.
 Iter facere, to go a iourney.
 Iter diei, a daies iourney.
 Iter denium, a die waite.
 Accelerare iter, To make speede forwarde on his iourney.
 Longum iter agere, to make a great volage, to go a longe iourney.
 Supremum iter carpere, to die.
 Iter necessarium eo die illi erat Lanuuium, nedes he must goe that day. &c.
 Iter aquarum, id est, mearus, conductes.
 Comparare se ad iter, to prepare him selfe to go out of towne.
 Iter eo contuli, I went thither.
 Conficere iter pedibus, to iourney by goe on foote.
 Iter habet Capuam, he will goe to Capua.
 Nobis iter est, we must goe.
 Esse in itinere, to be on the way iourneyng.
 Ingredi iter equo, to iourney, or take his iourney on horse backe.
 Iusta itinera, whole iourneys.
 Iter prouum ad honores, an easie or redie way or meane to honour.
 Ire nostris itineribus, to goe the way that wee haue gone, to folow our faction or trade.
 Itinera loci alicuius, holes or caues in any place.
 Iteratio, onis, f. g. a repetition, a renewyng, a begynnyng agayne. also the seconde earpyng or castyng by of the grounde. Sometime the seconde pressyng of Olives, and the oyle that cometh of the seconde pressyng.
 Itero, iteras, aui, are, to dooe a thyng eftsoones, to goe backe agayne, to renewe, to repete, to do or saie agayne, to begyn a frethe, to iterate. Sometime to goe.
 Aequor iterare, to sayle againe, to make a new viage on the sea.
 Iterare verba, to repete wordes agayne.
 Sape iterando eadem, with often repetyng one thyng.
 Iterare campum, terram, agrum, pro iterum proscindere, arare, To till or cast by the ground agayne.
 Iterum, este soones or agayn, the seconde time.
 Iterum ac tertium nominaui, I named him twice or thryse.
 Iterum consul, consull the seconde time.
 Iterum & sapius, moze than ones or twyse, oftentymes.

 Ithaca, an yle, lying before Ithakis, & was called les countrey, therof called Ithacus.
 Ithaceus, a, um, of Ithaca.
 Ithome, a towne in Peloponneso, an other in Thessalie.
 Ithonea, or Ithonia, a citee of Boetia, of the whiche Pallas was called Ithonia.
 Ithyphallus, the name of Hyacinth, the molle dishonest and abhominable idoll. Also Ithyphalli, were dishonest persons, whiche in honouryng theyr ydoll Bacchus, daunted, haupng betwene their legges members of horrible greatnesse.
 Ithyra, a towne in the mountayne of Taurus toward Parthia.
 Ithyreus, a, um, of Ithyra: somtyme of Parthia.
 Ithyrea sagitta, arrowes of the Parthians.
 Ithytherion, Iule.
 Ithadendros, the herbe Hippuris.
 Itidem, so lykewys, after the same sort or faction, lykeblably.
 Vt hoc tidi doleret itidem, vt mihi dolet, that this thyng doo greene you as muche as it greeth me.
 Itidem vt cognata si sit, euen as though we were my kynswoman.
 Itinerarium, ri, n. g. a comentarie or booke of remembraunce, conteynyng thynges committed in iourneys. Also it is a calender of miles in the distance of places, with the tyme of abode in euery place, like to iestes of pyntices.
 Itio, onis, f. g. a goyng, a comyng.
 Obuiam itio, a meetyng.
 Itio, aui, are, to goe muche or often.
 Ition, tri, sweete cakebzed.
 Itarissa, a citee of Spayne.
 Iturea, a region in Arabia or Syria, of which the people are called Iturxi.
 Itus, us, m. g. idem quod Itio, onis.
 Quid noster itus & redirus? what our going and comyng?
 Itymoneus, a valiaunt man, the sonne of Hypparchus.
 Itys, the sonne of Tereus, and Prognos, who (as poetes feygne) was touned into a Phelaunt. Erasmus saith, Itys is a byrde called Phasianus of Phasylde, a ryuer of Syria.

IVba, the name of a beaste, also the name of a kyng of Mauritania.
 Iuba, ba, f. cm. gene. the maane of a horse or other beaste.
 Iuba gallinaceorum, The softe feathers in a cockes necke lyke a maane, whan he holdeth vp his head.
 Iubar, iubaris, n. g. a sterre, whiche is also called Hesperus and Lucifer. it is somtyme taken for brightnesse, a sunne beame. Sometime the noblenesse of a prince or great man.

Iubatus, a, um, that hath a maane.

Iubeo, iussi, iubere, to commaunde, to desyre, to wyshe, to exhort, to decree, to ordeyne, to appointe.

Iubeo te saluere, god saue you, I wyshe you well to fare.

Dionysium iube saluere, commend me to Denys, salute Denys in my name.

Iubeto habere animu bonum, bidde him haue a good herte: or byd him be of good chere.

Iube matrem sperare, bidde my mother haue a good hope in the matter.

Iubilo, aui, are, to declare in the voyce the ioye and gladnesse of the herte, whiche maye not bee expressed with wordes.

Iubilatus, us, m, g, a cryng out, a shoute.

Iubilum, li, n. ge. ioye or gladnesse in voyce, or with a shoute, not expressed in wordes.

Iucunde, metly, gladly, pleasauntly, delectably, sweetely.

Iucunditas, atis, f. gen. delectacion, pleasure, reioysng.

Dare se iucunditati, to geue him selfe to pleasure, mythe or iolpsee.

Iucundor, aris, ari, to be ioyous and mery.

Iucundus, a, um, that whiche is the cause that another reioyseth, delectable, pleasante, to se or here: also ioyng.

Odor iucundus, a pleasaunt and delectable sauour.

Iucundi agri, goodly and pleasaunt fieldes, that delite a man to beholde theim.

Iudaea, a countrey in Asia, which hath on the west Mare Cyprium: on the north Phœnicia and Syria on the east Arabia: on the southe the lande of Egypt. it receiued that name of Iudas the sonne of Jacob the patriarke, where before it was called Chananaxa or Chananaxus, the fourth sonne of Cham.

Iudæi emplastrum, a salve layde to a soore head.

Iudæi, not onely the people of Iudaea, but also they be so called, whiche dooe obserue their supersticion. They were expelled out of this realme of Englande in the tyme of kyng Richard the fyrst, for their crueltee in sleayng of chrysten children, lyke as they haue been out of faunce and Spayne: and nowe of late oute of Portugal: whiche now be suffered este soones to respayre hether, and here to inhabite vnder a countreye colour of saythe, wherby no lyttell corrupcion is happened in our relygion by their secreete workyng many of theim beyng phisicians of the body, but priue murderers of chrysten mennes soules, as it wyll ones more playnly appere, to our no lyttell peryl, shame and dysmonour, excepte god wyll. Moxtely putte into the hartes of gouernours to remembre what mortall and naturall hatred the killers of our Sauour, and his obstinate enemies and blasphemours haue borne alwaie towarde vs: prayng in theyr Dis-nagoges for our destruction: and after credence ones gotten, vnder the cloke of phisicke, wilfully and ioyously killeth vs.

Iudaicus, a, um, of Iudea.

Iudaicus lapis, called also Ecrolithos, a stone founde in Iudea, whiche is of the quantitee and figure of an ahozne, or of an olyue (as Solinus writeth) white and saye with an order of lines so correspondente, that they seeme to be wrought with the hande and tourne. Albertus mineralium, libr. i. calleth it Cægolites.

Iudex, iudicis, com. g. a iudge.

Iudex ordinarius, he that hath authoritee of his propre iurisdiction, to sitte in iudgement without commission, as the chiefe iustice of Englande, the maye of a citee incorporeate, and a coroner.

Iudex delegatus, he that sitteth by commission as all other Iudges and iustices.

Iudex obnoxius grata, that will be partiall.

Sedere iudicem in aliquem, To bee iudge in ones cause.

Constituere iudicem, to appointe a iudge to examine or trie a matter.

Iudicatus, a, um, iudged.

Homo iudicatus, a man condemned.

Iudicatio, onis, fem. gener. the question cometh in iudgement. Sometyme iudgng or sentence geuyng.

Iudicatio, an aduerbe, whiche significeth with a iudgement or consyderacion.

Iudicatum, ti, neu. gene. the thyng iudged or determined.

Iudicatum facere, to obey the sentence or iudgement.

Iudicatus, us, masc. gene. iudgement, authoritee to iudge.

Iudicialis, le, of a iudge, or perteynyng to iudgement.

Iudiciarius, a, um, perteynyng to a iudge, or that which is to be iudged.

Iudiciaria controuersia, where the iudges doo not agree in one opinion.

Lex iudiciaria, a lawe made for iudges and iudgementes.

Quæstus iudiciarius, gayne that the iudge hath by sellng of his sentence, byrbes.

Iudicium, cii, n. gene. iudgement, examination, suite. also sentence or opinion.

Iudicia legitima, iudgementes giuen accordyng to the determined lawe writen, or by aunciente custome approued.

Iudicia publica, iudgementes giuen by theym, whiche bee called iudges, and haue places certayne, and dooe not renue their commission, as the Iudges of the kynges bench and common place.

Iudicium capitis, iudgement in causes criminall.

Iudicium dare, to graunt a commission to here and determine a matter.

Iudicium rescindere, to reuerse a iudgemente.
Iudicium habere aliquo, to haue an opinion of one. Also Iudicium habere, to haue respecte, consideracion or regarde of a thyng.
Iudicio perfundere, to byng one to the poynt to be condemned.
Iudicium accipere, to take on him to defende ones cause.
Adiungere in iudicium, to accuse, to bynge besyde a iudge.
Iudicium agi dicitur, whan the iudge is exasmyng the matter.
Deferre iudiciū a subsellis in rostra, to byng a matter from the iudges to the people.
Exercere iudicium, To sit in iudgement and examination of matters.
Pronuntiare iudicium, to pronounce his sentence or opinion.
Iudicium non reddere, whan the maiestrate will not receiue a mans suite or proceffe, or will not here his cause.
Meum iudicium fuit, myne opinion was, I thought this.
Si flexerit iudicium suum, if he become unconstant and chaunge his opinion.
Limatum & politum iudicium, an exacte and fyne iudgement.
Suum iudicium interponere, to geue his iudgement, to tell his aduise.
Confligare iudicio, to contende or sue one another in the lawe.
Iudico, aui, are, to iudge, to deeme, to suppose, to geue sentence, to condemne.
Iudicau animo meo, I thought in my mynde.
Iudicare & perpendere.
Ex aliorum ingenio me iudicat, he iudgeth me by the nature or disposicion of other.
Pecunia iudicatus, condemned in a certayne summe of money, or in a forfaiture.
Sub formula iudicare, to minstre iudgemente accordyng to the rigour of the lawe.
Iudicasset, for iudicauerit.
Iuernia, Irlande.
Iugalis, le, that is yoked.
Iugale vinculum, the bonde of matrimonie, wedlocke.
Iura iugalia, lawes of matrimonie.
Iugales, hoxles coupled together.
Iugamentum, ti, n. ge. a thyng that fasteneth or coupleth lyke a yoke.
Iugatus, a, um, yoked, ioygned, coupled.
Iugata vitis, a vine rennyng on a frame.
Iugatinus deus, was among Waynims the god, whome they supposed to haue authozitee ouer the ridges of hylles.
Iugarius, rij, ma. gen. he that byueth a ploughe with Oxen, or a waine. also a strete in Rome where was an altar of Iuno, at the whiche, if any were wedded, they supposed that matrimonie to be moste surely ioygned.
Iugatio, onis, f. g. a certayne rent paid for enery acre of ground: from which payment none can be quited, but by the prince.

Iugarorius, a, um, that is yoked to drawe.
Iugeratim, by sundry furlonges.
Iugere, to erie lyke a hyte.
Iugerum, iugeri, vel iugeris, a nominatiuo Iuger, datiuo iugero, accusatiuo, & vocatiuo iugerum, ablat. iugero, & iugere, plur. nom. accus. & voca. iugera, gen. iugerum, dati. & ablati. iugeris vel iugeribus, as much ground as one yoke of oxen will eate in a daie. Colmella saith it conteyneth in length. 240. foote, in breadth. 120. whiche multiplied one with the other, conteyneth. 28800. fete. It maie be vfed for our acre, whiche conteyneth muche more, as in breadth fower perches, that is. 66. foote: in length. 40. perches, that is. 660. foote, which multiplied riseth to. 43560. foote.
Iuges, oxen lyke in greatnesse, called yokes or payres.
Iugis, continuall.
Fons aquæ iugis, a well that alwaie springeth, that is neuer drie, likewise iugis puteus.
Iugiter, continually, alwaie.
Iuglans, andis, f. g. a wall nutte.
Iugo, aui, are, to yoke or couple together.
Iugosus, a, um, ridged, full of ridges.
Iugula, læ, f. g. a celestiall signe called Orion.
Iugulo, aui, are, to slea, not onely with weapon, but also with sickenesse.
Transfertus ad inanimata: Scelus est iugulare falernum: Marti.
Quartana neminem iugulat, the feuer quartaine sleaeth no man.
Iugulare mortuos, to kyll deade men: a proverbe applied to them, whiche dooe speake or write to the rebuke of men that are deade, or (as Erasmus dooeth thynke it more apte) it maye be said by them, that impugne a booke, whiche is of all men condemned: or reasoneth against a sentence of all men reiected: or disprayseth a thyng, which is of all men abhorred.
Hominem suis verbis iugulare, to catche and confute one in his owne woordes.
Iugulare suo gladio, idem.
Iugulare plumbeo gladio, to conuince with a weake argument.
Iugulatio, onis, f. g. a sleayng or kylling.
Iugulum, li, neu. gen. or iugulus, li, m. ge. the fore parte of the necke, whiche is diuided into two great sinewes, Dexter & sinister.
Iugulum ferire, to slea, propertly in the necke.
Iugulum petere, whan an oratour or a man of lawe toucheth vehemently the pointe of the matter: and with manifest and soze argumentes and reasons, seemeth to assaulte and oppresse the contrary parte, as it were with sharpe weapons.
Dare iugulum, to offer the necke.
Ostentare iugulum, procipite alicuius, to put his life in daunger for ones safegarde.
Iugum,

Iugum, gl, n. g. a yoke, a couple of oxen yoked together, also the ridge of an hyll or banke. also the beame, wheron weauers dooe couerne their webbe: Also a thyng lyke to a galowes, vnder the whiche in sygne of reproche, they that were vanquished, were consyregned to crepe, which was made with two speares standynge, and one speare ouerthwarte. also a frame, wheron bynes are toygnd: also a beame, wheron balancers doo hange, also the syde beames in a shippe, in the whiche the transomes are fastened: or rather the seates, wheron the rowers doo sitte. it is also a rolle of tymber, wheron the iudgother or woozker of carpettes doeth rolle by the thing that he woozkeh on. It is also the sygne called Libra, somtime as muche grounde as two oxen can eate in one daie: by translation it is taken, for seruitude and bondage.

Iugo subdere, to yoke.

Iugum subire, to be yoked.

Iugum aquilarum, a couple of egles.

Iugum impiorum, a couple of naughty paches confederated together.

Demere iuga fatigatis bobus, To vnyoke werte oxen.

Ciuitatis iugum deiecere a ceruicibus, to set at libertee.

Pari iugo niti, when two labour willyngly together with lyke paynes and diligence.

Iugum accipere, to take the labour of bondesman, to be in subiection vnder one.

Iugurtha, a kyng of Numidia.

Iugurthinus, a, um, of Iugurtha.

Iulep, a clarified porcion.

Iuli, are the moynesse of softe heates, whiche dooe growe on the beardes and visages of yonge men, before they be Maunen. Somtime it signifieth the same yonge men.

Iulia, a kyntred, whiche proceded from Ascanius, sonne of Aeneas called Iulus. also a towne in Calles in the countrey of Spayne.

Iulianus, a, um, and Iulius, a, um, and Iuleus, a, um, of Iulius, or of the moneth of July.

Iuliani milites, id est, Casariani. Ipkewils Iuliani anni, and Iuliana Vestigalia.

Iuleæ voces, pleasant and sweete voices.

Iuliobona, a pounflete in Fraunce.

Iuliobriga, a towne in Spayne called Logroino.

Iuliomagus, Angiers in Fraunce.

Iulis, a citee in the yle of Cea, the countrey of Sicily monides the poete. also a kynde of fishe.

Iulium Carnicum, a citee in the dukedome of Austrie.

Iulius, the moneth of July, which tooke his name of Iulius Cesar.

Iulus, as Ruellius writeth, is that whiche cleaueth fast to a hasyll nutte or silberd, clusteryple in a compact hardnesse, and as it were a veray longe synew hangyng by one stalke.

Iulus, otherwyle named Acanius, the sonne of Aeneas. Iulus is also a lyttell woozme with mas hie stete, bydyng in bites and okes, whiche is also called Conuoluulus, Inuoluulus, & Uolulus: it is also the moynesse of the outwarde parte of frute, also the yonge fruite immediates lie after that the floures be fallen. Iulus is also a thyng, whiche is gyde vnto whales, whiche also is called Hegeter. It is moze ouer a longe dedicate to Diana.

Iumentum, ti, n. g. every beaste that dyaweth or beareth bourdengs, also a littell carre.

Iumentarius, a, um, that belongeth to cattell.

Mola iumentaria, a horse mylle.

Iuncidus, a, um, thyng, slender like a bull rushe.

Iuncinus, a, um, of a bulle rushe.

Iunceus, a, um, that is made of bulle rusches. also thyngne and slender, and lyke the facion of a bull rushe.

Iuncetum, ti, neu, gen. a place whets bulle rusches growe.

Iunco, ónis, f. g. a byrde, called a rebbe sparowe, some what lesse then a sparow, with a long taile, a blacke head, and the residue duskie.

Iuncosus, a, um, full of bull rusches.

Iunctim, toynctly.

Iunctio, ónis, f. g. a toygnyng.

Iunctura, æ, f. g. a toygnyng or couplyng together.

Iunctus, a, um, toygnd, coupled.

Iuncti matrimonio, married together.

Quintio iunctus hospitio, very familiar with Quintius, by reason that he was often lodged in his house.

Iunculi, meates called iunhettes. Also a fleshe cheste made on rusches, called a sackman.

Iuncus, ci, m. g. a bull rushe.

Iuncus odoratus, is of two sortes: one is of Plinianie called Triangularis: of Dioscorides Angulosus: of Theophrastes Cyperus: the stalk is littell and red, & if it bee byrsted, it smelleth lyke to a rose: the best groweth in Arabia and Babathra: the woozst groweth in Africa. Another sorte is rounde, and hath floures, whiche be medicinable: and it is of the apothecaries called Squinantum. Reade in. Schereno, in englishe Squinant.

Iunganni, people in the countrey of Liguria.

Iungo, iunxi, gere, to toygne, to couple, to yoke.

Iungere vulpes, To yoke or couple foxes: Propone be signifiyng to doo a thyng, which is impertinent, or without any reason.

Affinitates iungere, to make aliaunce by marriage one with an other.

Iungere equos ad currum, to put the horse in the carre.

Arma Rutulis iunxit, he toygnd his power, or he tooke parte with the Rutulians.

Fœdera iungere, to make a leage or alliance.

Oscula iunxerunt, they kyssed eche other.

Iunichlus, li, mascu. gene. a longe twygge of a vine, which dooth growe oute of length, and woulde be laied on a frame, it is otherwyle called Draco.

Draco.

Iunior, the comparative of Iuuenis, younger.
Iuniperus, ri, f. g. a sweete bushe called Iuniper.
Iunix, nicis, f. g. a younge cowe or heffer.

Iunius, a propre name of the Romans, as Junius Brutus, Junius Columella. It is also a moneth called June. For whan Romulus had first deuised the people into olde men and younge, called in latine Maiores & Minores, he honoured them with two moneths, calling the one Maius or Maie: the other Iunius, of younge men called in latine Iuuenes.

Iuno, was daughter of Saturne and Opis, sister and wyfe of Jupiter, called also Héra.

Iuno moneta, soone after that kynges were expelled out of Rome, there was a great earth quake at whiche time there was hearde in the Capitoll out of the Chapell of Iuno, a voyce, warnyng them, that they should make a full pacification of hir wrathe, and so doyng the earthe quake ceased. Of that warnyng, which in latine is Monitio, she was called Iuno Moneta: and to the honour of hir was made one chappell in the Capitoll by Camillus, an other on the hill called Auentinus, wherein was set hir idol broughe from the citee called Veia, destroyed by the Romans: bothe these chappelles were called Aedes Iunonis Monetae.

Iunonius, a, um, of Iuno.

Iunonicolæ, the surname of the Phaliscians.

Iunonigena, the surname of Vulcan.

Iunonia, one of the isles called Insulæ fortunatæ.

Iupiter, Iupitris, or Iupiteris, after Iulian, not Iouis, whiche cometh of the nominatiue case Iouis: the sonne of Saturnus & Opis, king of Ereta, who dyaue his father out of his realme, and was a man valyaunt and wyse, but exceedingly geuen to lechery, in deflouryng as well maydens as wyues. Not withstandyng for his prowesse and witte, after his deathe he was of all the grekes honoured for a god, and called father and kyng of goddes. His name was in such estimation amonge the gentiles or paynims, that they gaue to him Couerapntee in all thynges: In so muche as they also named him god of Hospitallitee. And therfore whan any thyng was violated, eyther by the good man of the house, or by his guesse, they called on Iupiter Xenius: whan truste in frendshipp was broken, they called to take vengeance Iupiter Philius: whan companions betrayed one an other, Iupiter Hesterius, whan kyns men, Iupiter Homoginas: whan they whiche were in league together deceived eche other, than cried they Iupiter Enhorscius.

Iura, a mountayne in Fraunce, whiche dyuideth high Burgoyne from Swytzerlande.

Iuramentum, ti, n. g. an othe.

Iuratus, a, um, that hath swozne.

Iurandum, di, n. g. idem quod Iusiurandum.

Iurato, with an othe.

Iuratus est mihi, id est, iurauit.
Iuratussimus author, a learned wyfiter of good credence.

Iureiurare, idem quod Iurare.

Iurátor, óris, m. gen. one that sweareth, he that witnesseth a thyng to be true with an othe.

Iurgiósus, a, um, brawlyng, full of contention.

Iurgium, gij, neu. g. a brawlyng or a small contention.

Iurgo, aui, are, to brawle or chide.

Iurgor, áris, ári, idem.

Iuridicális, le, belongyng to the law.

Iuridicus, a, um, accordyng to the lawe, or belongyng to the law.

Iurisconsultus, ti, m. g. a lawier, an interpretour of the lawe.

Iurisdíctio, ónis, f. gen. iurisdiction, power, or authoritee to minister and execute lawes, as diuers citees and countreys haue by the grantes of emperours and kynges.

Iurisperitus, ti, m. g. idem quod Iurisconsultus.

Iuro, aui, áre, to sweare.

Iurare aras, poërice, for aris tactis iurare.

Iurare in leges alterius, to sweare to kepe the lawes or ordinaunces of an other.

Iurare in verba alterius, to dooe fealter, or to be swozne a subiecte to one.

Conceptis verbis iurare, To take a solemne othe, the woordes thereof beyng recited to him that sweareth, by an other.

Iurare alicui, to sweare to be true to one.

In aliquem iurare, to conspire a mans destruction or vndoing.

Iurarunt inter se, they conspired.

In hæc verba iurat ipse, ad idem iusiurandum adigit Afranium, he swooze after this forme and maner, &c.

Iurulentus, a, um, full of iuce, licour, or bwothe.

also sodden in pottage or bwothe.

Cibus iurulentus, stued meate.

Ius, iuris, neu. gen. lawe, as well of nature as civile and of custome, auctoritee, libertee, power, ryght: sometyme the place, wherre the lawe is ministered.

Ius annulorum donare, was amonge the olde Romaines the same almoste, that is now to make knyghtes.

Ius municipale, a priuate law or custome, whiche a citee or towne hath within it selfe for the good ordye of their common weale.

Ius moribus constitutum, ryght made of custome.

Ius dicere, to geue iudgement, to minstre iustice.

Ius dicis, thou speakest reason.

Ius bonum dicis, your request is reasonable. It is reason that ye saie, ye speake reason.

Iure, with good cause.

Iure vel iniuria, by ryght or wronge.

De iure meo, tuo, suo, decedere, to omit some parte of the rigour or extremitie of the lawe, or of that a man may lawfully doo.

Summo iure agere, To take the extremitie of the lawe.

Ius est facere, it is lefull so to doo.

Summum ius, the rigour of the lawe.

Iuris sui esse, to be subiecte or bounde to no man, to be at libertie.

Tamen meo iure possum, although I maye by good right and authoritie, and no man saye me naye.

Ius suum obtinere non potest, he can not obteyne his right, he can not haue iustice and reason in his assaye.

Siculi hoc iure sunt, the Sicilians haue this manner of law, or ministryng of iustice.

Ius naturale, a law or ordinance proceedinge of nature.

Ius gentium, a common law among all men, agreeing to naturall reason.

Nundinatio iuris, sellinge of right and iustice for money, byetie amonge iudges and magistrates.

Ius honorarium, or Prætorium, ordinances added by the Prætor, either for the correction or makinge perfecte of the lawe ciuile.

Ius singulare, a speciall or particular lawe in as much certayne case.

Ius priuatum, a private law concerninge the betwixt of one person.

Ius facere, to dooe ryght. Also to be of the force of a lawe, or to be obeyed as a law.

Concedere in ius, ditionemq; alicuius, to bes come obedient and subiecte to one.

Ius reddere, to ministrate iustice.

Pari iure esse cum alijs, to bee subiecte to the lawe euen as other be, and to haue no more priuilege than other haue.

Ius petere ab aliquo, to be vnder ones iurisdiction.

Ius petis, fateor, it is reason and ryght that you requite, I graunt.

Optimo iure prædia, manours or fermes, that haue very good priuileges or franchises, and bounde to nothyng.

Meo iure agere, to doe that I may by my lawfull authoritie, and no man say me naye.

Ius, iuris, n. g. portage, licour, byothe, gruell.

Ius conditum, portage well reasoned.

Iusculum, li, n. gen. byothe, wherin meate hath bene sodden.

Infulentum, ti, neu. gene. sodden in portage or byothe.

Iusiurandum, di, n. g. a solemne othe or promise made to god.

Iusiurandum dare, to sweare, to make an othe.

Iusiurandum offerre, to proffere to take an othe for the confirmation of a thyng.

Exigere iusiurandū, to requite one to sweare, to cause one to take an othe.

Interponere iusiurandum, and firmare iurando, to sweare, to confirme with an othe.

Iustus, a, um, commaunded.

Iustus, us, mal. gen. plural. iusta, orum, a commaundment.

Iustum, si, n. g. a commaundment.

Iusta exequi, to doo ones commaundment.

Iusta, orum, n. g. plu. sacrifices dooen for deade men: now it may be vsed for funerall exequies.

Also ordinances or customes, meete, conuenient, or necessarie to be dooen.

Iusta solnere, facere, peragere, is properly in funerall obsequies, to dooe and performe all thynges thereto necessarie, or belongyng.

Iustus exequiarum curare, to be buried withs out accustomed solenities, or funerall pompe.

Iusta reddere, to paye or dooe his accustomed labour or taske.

Iusta operum peragere, idem.

Iusta exigere, to bte extremitie, to requyte the bittermost, to constrayne one to do his taske to the bittermost.

Ad iusta perducere, to hyng by littell and bytell to his ordinarie and accustomed laboure and taske.

Percipere iusta, to receyue our due, or that that is appoynted and ordeyned for vs.

Iuste, iustely, lawfully, ryghtfully.

Iusto, idem.

Longius iusto, longer than nede is, or than is meete.

Iustificus, a, um, that maketh iustice.

Iustinus, an emperour, comen of a pooze kynrede (his mothers brother Iustinus Emperour before hym beyng but a swyne herde) succeeded his uncle at the age of .xiii. yeres in the empire, and gouerned it nobly the space of .xl. yeres. Augmentyng it honourable. He caused the lawes ciuile, dispersed in infinite volumes, to bee reduced into .50. bookes (called the Digestes) and .iiii. bookes of Institutes to be made, and byes wyls the Lode, contenyng the decrees of emperours, although he him selfe knew no letters. An excellent prince, if he had not ben corrupted with auarice, and the heresye of Eutichianus: he was after the incarnation of Christe. 570. yeres.

Iustitia, x, f. g. iustice, equite, indifferencie, reasonable, bypyght dealing, a perfect vertue (as Aristotle saith) referred to a seconde person, and therfore chiefe of all vertues, more wonderfull than the bright sterres Hesperus and Lucifer, comprehendyng in it all the partes of vertue: this is called Iustice vniuersall. But there is a more particular Iustice, whiche in the lawe ciuile is desygnd to bee a constant and perpetuall will, geuyng to euery man that belongeth to him, whiche is called his right. Those aboundantly herof shall ye fynde in my woork called the Gournour.

Iustitium, in, neu. ge. a ceasing for a tyme from ministration of lawes in places iudiciall, a vacation.

Iustitium edicere, to pronounce a vacation of resting from the ministration of the lawes.
Iustitium remittere, to ende the vacation, to begynne the terme.
Iustus, a, um, equall, meane betwene two extremes, ryght, lawfull: sometyme sauourable, good, tractable, reasonable. sometyme it signifieth great, full, perfecte.
Iustus, a iuste or righteous man, an vpryght and true meanyng man. It is taken ofte tymes, in holy scripture for a vertuous man or a good mā.
Iusta pars, the greate parte the full or lawfull parte. sometyme it signifieth amonge lawyers, true or verie.
Iustus filius, his very sonne, or he that hath the whole or perfect ryght and tytle of a naturall sonne.
Iusta magnitudo, neither great nor littel, meane or indifferent bignes.
Dies iusti, a delay and tyme of .xxx. daies, geuen by the law to them that were condemned, either by wytyng, or their owne confession, that they might make redie their payment. Also .xxx. daies continuall that a banner of redde did hange in the toppe of the castell, whyle an armie was gathered and warre indicted.
Iusta seruitus, seruice without rygout.
Iustæ inimicitia, great hostilitie.
Iusti honores, honours due.
Iusto labore, with great labour.
Iustum testamentum, a lawfull testament.
Iustus exercitus, a full or greate armie, an armie totall.
Iustum prælium, a strong and great conflict, merite to be called a battayle.
Iustus hares, a rightuous and lawfull heire.
Iusta classis, a full and perfecte nauie.
Iustus dominus, he rightfull possessor, master or owner.
Iustus vas, a sufficient fuerie.
Iusta materfamilias, and Pellex, contrary.
Iustam operam reddere, To worke his full taske.
Iuturna, the sister of Tarnus.
Iuuāmen, minis, n. g. helpe.
Iuuenalia, plaies bowed for the helth of yonge men.
Iuuenālis, le, perteynyng to youth.
Iuuenalis dies, a daie celebrated to youth.
Iuuenalis, is also the name of a poete, which wyrote Satyres.
Iuuenari, idem quod Iuuenescere, to play yong thely partes.
Iuuenus, & Iuuenca, younge, not onely men but also beastes, a stiere or heifer. And Iuuenulus a diminutive of Iuuenus.
Iuuenesco, scere, to wake or be younge.
Iuuenilis, le, yonge, perteynyng to youth.
Aetas iuuenilis, yowthe, or after the facion of yonge folkes.
Iuueniliter, yongly, lyke a younge man, thils dyshely.

Iuuenis, a younge man.
Iuuenis, ne, an adiectiue. sometyme for Iuuenilis.
Iuuenes anni, younge peres.
Iuuenta, æ, f. g. yowthe, idem quod Iuuentus.
Iuuentas, the goddess of yowthe.
Iuuentus, tūis, f. ge. yowthe. sometyme a multitude of yonge men. also the goddess of youth.
Iuueria, the olde name of Ireland called of some Iuernia, & Hibernia.
Iuuō, iuui, āre, to helpe, to ayde, in the thyde person, to delite, to please.
Iuuat mihi, it dooeth me good. It is a pleasure to me.
Neg vnquam quicquam me iuuat, quod edo domi, that whiche I ate at home, dooeth me no good, or reioyseth me nothyng.
Iuuat q̄ me, hoc tibi profuisse, I was verie ioyouse, that that thyng did profit thee.
Iuare dolorem, to ease the griefe.
Iuare auxilio, to helpe, to ayde.
Quando ita tibi iuuat, when that it dooeth so please you, sayng you be so disposed.
Valde me iuuat, it greatly deliteth me.
Iuxta, a preposicion, nigh, by, nere to, sometyme for simul or Coniunctim. sometyme for secundum or Post.
Iuxta Marcum Varronem doctissimus, excepte Varro, or nexte Varro, of all other mooste excellently learned.
Iuxta, an aduerbe, euen lyke, accordynge, aswell, as well one as the other.
Nunc vero quo in loco res nostræ sint, iuxta mecum omnes intelligitis, now how the matter standeth: ye all knowe as well as I, or els, in what case our businesse is: ye vnderstande all as much as I doo.
Iuxta boni maligni, strenui & imbecilles, euen lyke the good and the badde, the valiant and the vnwarlyke.
Iuxta hyeme atq̄ æstate bella gerere, to make warre as well in wynter as in sommer.
Spem ac metum iuxta grauatus, troubled as well with hope as feare, or bothe with hope and feare.
Femina iuxta ac mares, as well males as females.
Iuxta ac si frater esset, euen as muche as though he had ben my brother.
Iuxta magnis difficilem, no lesse difficile or harde to atchpue, than mattices of great weight and importaunce.
Iuxta esse, to be familiar.
Iuxta cum ignarissimis, as lyttell as they that know lesse.
Iuxtim, nigh to, nere by.

Ixia, a certayne herbe called of some Camelion.
Ixion, a kynge of Thessalia, who falsely brake 1705

prompse with his wyfes father, and chere him into a pitte of fyre. He also called by Jupiter vns to a feast, byed Juno to committe adulterie, whiche Jupiter percyuynge, made a cloude lyke vnto Juno, and deliuered hir to him, on whome he begate the people called Centaurs. But whan he had aduanted, that he had companied with Juno: he was dyuen downe into hel, and there bounde to a wheele alwaies tournynge and full of serpentes, as poetes feigne.

Ixionius, a, um, of Ixion.
Ixionides Perithous, the sonne of Ixion.
Ixon, a great whyte birde of the kynde of rauen.
Ixos, called in latine Viscum, in englyshe mistletoe, or mistledene.

I. ANTE Y.

IYnx, lyngis, fce. gen. a byrde, called of some Torquilla, whiche hath a speckled necke, and a tongue lyke a serpente, asperhe, or a hikwop.

L. ANTE A.

A B A S C O, fce re, & Labascor, eris, to fayle or decaye, to breddie to falle, to faynte, to begyn to geue ouer: Labascit, victus vno verbo, he saynteth or geueth ouer, and is ouertom with one poore woorde.

Labatus, a mannes name, often mencioned of Plutarke.

Labdacus, a kynge of Thebes, father of Laius, who was father of Oedipus or Edipus.

Labecula, lae, fce. m. gene. a littell spotte or blesmythe.

Labefacio, labefacis, feci, facere, to bryake or destroye, to make weake, or feble.

Labefacere aliquem, To feare one from his purpose, to make one chaunge his minde.

Labefacere fidem suam, to lese his credite.

Labefactio, onis, fce. m. gene. a makynge to falle downe or out.

Labefacto, aui, are, to make feble or weke, to aspayre, to subuerste, to corrupte, to destroye, to vndoore, to caste downe.

Labefactare fidem alicuius precio, to corrupte with brybery.

Labefactare & euertere rem publicam, to destroye and subuerste the common weale.

Labefactare aliquem, idem quod Labefacere aliquem.

Labellum, li, n. g. a tpype. Also a candyon, a mas ket of lyttel fatte or lyke beffell.

Labeo, a mans name.

Labeo, onis, m. g. a man haupynge great tpyptes also a nettie called a blinde nettie.

Labronia, a, f. g. the herbe Marrubium.

Laberius, a poete, a gentylman of Rome.

Labes, bis, fce. g. a great violence of water, tethis pest or hayle, or an horrible quare or gapynge of the earth. Also a spot which sodenly hapeneth to thynges that are smothe, and by translation, a faute, a bite, a destruction.

Labes conscientie, remoyse or grudge of conscience.

Innocentie labes, corruption of honestie.

Labes reipublice, destruction, or confusion of the common weale.

Inferre labem alicui, To distayne ones honestie, to defame.

Labia, a, f. g. idem quod labium, after Nonius.

Labicanum, a towne in Italy.

Labici, the inhabitauntes of that towne.

Labienus, a noble man of Rome, capytayne vnder Cesar in France.

Labicus, was the name of the son of Apinor, who was named also Glaucus.

Labilis, le, vnsable, whiche wyll soone fall, slippaerie.

Labina, na, f. g. slippynesse.

Labio, is a fythe, which I suppose to be in englysh called Lodde with great tpyptes. it was also the surname of a Romayn.

Labium, bij, n. g. a tpype.

Labo, aui, are, to fall dothe sodenly, to seynt.

Dentes labant, the teeth fall out.

Genua labant, his knees faile vnderneath him.

Sermone labare, to speake vnconstantly and as one were aserde.

Labant animi, their hertes faile them.

Memoria labat, The memoie fayleth or decayeth.

Vita labat, id est non recta est & integra.

Labor, eris lapsus sum, labi, to slippe, to die, to fall, to fall downe by little and lyttell, to decaye, to fall in pouertes, to erre, to offende, to syn, to dooe a myse, to crepe or goe, as a snake dooeth, to swynne, as an eele or lamprey. some tyme to floe.

Tempora labuntur, tyme passeth away by lyttell and lyttell.

Pennis labitur, he flieth.

Lababar longius nisi me retinuissem, I was aboute to make further digression, or to go further from the purpose. Lapsus, deceiued of that he hoped for.

Labi imprudentia, to offende or dooe any thing vnwares.

Labi mente, to fall madde.

Labor, oris, m. g. labour or ttenayle, and often in postes, perill, daunger, calamitee, trouble.

Frangere se laboribus, to hurte him selfe with labour.

Lunæ labores, the eclipse.

Imponere laborem alicui, to charge one with labour.

Insumere magnum laborem, To bestowe greate labour or trauple.

Labori esse, to put to paynes of labour, to trouble.

Laborem impendere, to bestow labour.

Primos lucinæ experta labores, haupnge trauayled of hir fyrst childe.

Laborātus, a, um, made with payne, studie, and trauple.

Laboriæ, the name of a countrey in Italy, vulgarly called Terra laboris, the lande of labour.

Labōrifer, a, um, that susteyneth labour.

Laborinus, a fildie in Campania, where the stubble of cozne is so greate, that the people dooe bournie it in stede of woode.

Laboriosus, a, um, laborious, paynfull, full of labour, difficile, that can not be brought to passe without great labour.

Laboriosus homo, a paynfull man.

Laboriosum opus, a woork that can not be brought to passe without great labour and trauple.

Laboriosa deambulatio, a walkynge that wearieth the body.

Laboriosæ exercitationes, paynfull exercises.

Laboriosè, paynfully, hardly, with great payne.

Labōro, aui, are, to labour, to bee in heynesse of griefe, to be sycke or faulie, to be in danger.

Animo laborare, to be carefull.

Ex rebus laborare, To haue paynes in the reynes.

Fame laborare, to die for hunger.

Fornore laborare, to be in debte by reason of vsurie.

Laborare frigore, to be almost dead for colde.

Ingenio laborare, to be troubled in witte.

Laborare iniuria, to suffre wronge.

Laborare morbo, to be sycke.

Nihil laboro, I care not, I passe not on it.

Non laboro, idem.

Odio apud hostes laborare, & cnotemptu inter socios, To be hated of his ennemies, and not regarded of his friends.

Laborare podagra, to haue the gout.

Vitijs laborare, to be vicious.

Laboratur vehementer, they study diligently to byng a matter to passe.

Nota infamiae laborare, to haue an yll name.

Esse in labore, to labour.

Laborare in aliquo, to loue one ardently.

Laborare vtero, to trauple of childe.

Ac mundi moles operosa laboret, should trauple or be in daunger of perishing: or should haue muche a do to escape perishing.

Nec quarta loqui persona laboret, let hym not be to busie.

Arma laborare, id est, laborando conficere,

Laboraui amari ab eo, I traupled or endurtioned earnestly to winne his sauour.

Laborat dolore, the labourer of childe.

Laborat dolore capitis, he is sicke or distressed with payne in the head.

Laborare ex desyderio, to be very desyrous.

Laborare ex inuidia, to be enuyed or hated.

Vtis, cuius, cornu in acie laboraret, that he, whose wyng of the battayle was the weaker, or that first did seynt or began to recuple.

Si causa laboramus, if our parte in the matter be the woorse: or if our cause or quarrell be obious or nothing pleasant or favourable.

Hostibus externis laborare, to be greatly troubled, vexed, or troumbled with foeyne ennemies.

Opinione arrogantia laborare, to be compted a proude and arrogant person.

Re frumentaria laborare, to haue scarfiter of cozne and grayne.

Nihil est quod labores, there is no cause why we should be carefull, anxious, or troubled in mynde. Valde laboro, I am very carefull and sollicitous.

Quasidē verbo, non de re laboretur, As though the controuersie or contention were for the worde, and not for the thyng selfe.

Pestilentia laboratum est, There was a great pestilence.

Labrax, braxis, m. g. a certayne fysh, with a wide yanyng mouth. Aristotle nymbreth him among them that liue by prey and rauenyng. His tongue is bonie and cleaueth faste: his harte tris angle. About Miletum, a citee of Asia, are manie of these fishes very great. This fishe deliteth in freshe water. Some thynke it that fishe, whiche in latine is called Lupus.

Labrosus, a, um, that whiche hath a border, byzmye or bynke.

Labrum, bri, ne. ge. a lippe. also the byzmye or bynke of a ryuer or fountayne. also a bat or lyke vessell to be bayned in. sometyme a bat for wyne after it is pressed. It may bee vled for a keele bat, wherinto ale or biere is put. also a cesterne that recepueth water rennyng out of the rocks of cundites.

Labris primoribus attingere, to taste or saie.

Labrum superius, the upper lippe.

Labrum Veneris, is taken for tassill, although Dioscorides dooeth not remembre, that it serueth to the vse of toukars, but assigneth that rather to other two herbes, the one called Hippophaes, or Hippophyes, and the other Hippophaestos.

Labrusca, x, f. g. a wylde vyne.

Laburnum, a tree growynge on the mountaynes called Alpes, the wood wherof is white & harde, and hath a floure a cubite in lengthe, whiche no bee will touche, he groweth but in drie places, and hateth water.

Labyrinthus, a place made in suche wyse, that who so euer came into it, could not pssue oute without

but a verie perfect garde, or without a shade leaving him, whereof the bottom of steele should be left at the entree. Of this name were thre principall places: One in Egypte (by the pattern whereof the other were made) described by Hesiodorus (who wryteth that he saw it) sayng, that it was about the great poole called Myxids, towards the cite of Crocodiles. Strabo in his xvii. booke calleth the saide poole or meere Musris. Herodorus in Euterpe saith, that fished there were .xii. halles covered, fyre towards the North, and fyre towards the South, all inclosed with one walle. within the walle were houses in twoo diuers sortes: one sorte vnder grounde, an other above grounde ouer them, e-uery sorte being in number .3500. The ouermost (as he saith) he behelde, the nethermost he mought not be suffered to see: but as he hearde by reposte of them, which saw it, he wote. The ouermoste, whiche he didde beholde, excelled all moother of mens handes: for he wente from a hall into parlours, from parlours into chambers, from chambers into other solars, and from parlours into other halles. The beame, whiche bare the floozes, was of stone, wrought with imagerie, euery halle incircled with pillers of white stone. In the ende of that Labyrinthus standeth a stone, large benethe, and smalle on the toppes, called Pyramis, whiche is of length .xl. paces, in the whiche are wroughte greate ymagis, and therat is the entrie vnder grounde to the other Labyrinthus. An other Labyrinthus, was in Crete, made by Dedalus, by the commaundement of Minos for a prison:
but it was muche laster than the other. But by diuers doozes, entrynge and untraynges oute, it deceiued them, which came into it. The thirde was in Italy by a town called Clustum, made by kynge Dozlena: and (as Plinie and Varro wryte) was of square stone, the sides .30. foote broad. in height .50. feete. Into the which who so euer wente, without a clewe or bottome of threde, coude neuer retourne. On this place stood .v. pyramides or steeples, one at euery corner, and one in the middle, eueryche of theim 150. foote hyghe: on the toppes of theim greate holles of brasse, and thereon hozes with wynges, from whiche did hange chaynes, haupnge belles at theym, which meued with wynde, rend-red a sharpe sounde. also vpon the foure bolles of brasse stood foure other pyramides or sharpe pillers, of an hundred foote highe, and on that whiche was on the middell, stood one sharpe pillout, whose height Varro durste not reherse, because it seemed a thyng incredible. All these thynges were made by great kynge, which haupnge abundance of treasure, and lachynge leaving, did set their delite in such vaine ostentacion.

Labyncus, the sonne of Sictoris, quene of Basbylon.

Lac, lactis, n. g. milke: and in Plautus somtyme
Lactis in the nominative case.

Lac gallinaceum, the mylke of a henne, a pro-uerbe applied to them, which lache nothing: or to thynges, whiche for the scarcete of theym be verr importours.

Lactis coagulatio, Connyng of mylke to crudde.

Lactis abundancia, copia, fecunditas, plenty of milke in womens breastes.

Bubulum lac, coow milke.

Humanum lac, woman milke.

Lacena, a kynde of apparayle, also a woman of Lacedemonie.

Lacenus, a, um, of Lacedemonie.

Lacca, a certayne gumme.

Laccobriga, a cite of Egypte.

Laccia, a, f. g. a fyre called a theyn.

Lacedemon, a noble citee in Grece, called also Sparta, in the region of Achaea, the countrey is called Lacomia.

Lacedæmoni, a, um, of Lacedemonie.

Lacer, & lacerus, a, um, to rene or rent, mangled in pieces, dismembred, that hath some part of the bodie to rene or rente. Of olde wryters Lacer was vsed for him that had his eares pulled of.

Laceras gentes colligere, id est sparsas.

Laceratio, onis, fer. m. ge. a rentynge or tearyng,
a manglyng.

Lacerna, a, f. gene. a fashion of clothes, seruyng as well for men and women, poore and riche, as for soldiours in warfare. The Romayns vsed them on their gownes, to kepe theym warme, whan they sat longe in beholding playes.

Lacernatus, a, um, clothed, or clad in suche a maner cloke.

Lacero, aui, are, to rent in pieces, to mangle and cut in pieces, to teare, to dismembze, to tourse munt.

Lacerare diem, to lose the daye, to spende the tyme about naught, to spende the day in vayne.

Comas, capillos, ora, vestem lacerare,

Lacerare vnguibus, to scratche.

Lacerare rem suam, To spende his gooddes riotously.

lacerare famam alicuius, To speake and resposte ill of a man, to hurte and disrepute his good name.

Lacerari dolore, to be greuously tourmented with sorow and payne.

Lacerare homines male suadendo, to byngne men in pouertee with ill counsaile.

Lacerare optimum virum incesto ore, with a naughtie and ballanous toung to speake ill of a very honest man.

Lacerta, a, f. g. or Lacertus, ti, m. g. a lizard,
an euet. also a certayne kynde of fyre.

Lacertofus, a, um, haupng great bzaines and stronge synewes.

Lacertus, ti, m. a. ge. the arme from the elbowe to the wyeste of the hande, properly the bzayne and kinewes of the arme.

Lacesso, siui, & cessi, siere, to rente or go aboute to rente the good renoume of a man. Also to prouoke, stirre, or egge a man to wrathe, displeasure, or contencion, with wordes, wytyng, or acte, and is taken bothe in the good parte and the yll: to raple on a man, to pryke a man with some yll language or acte. Sometyme to destroye instantly. also to tynge as a mans bodye dooeth.
Stimulo iuuenum lacessere, to pryke an yre with a goade, and make him draw.
Ciere & lacessere.
Lacessere ad pugnam, to prouoke to battail.
Lacessere maledictis, To tarre or prouoke to wrathe with yll wordes.
Sermones lacessere, id est, excitare, to raple brute or communication.
Vah quibus illum lacerarem modis, Oh, how
 I would dismembre him.
Sponsione lacessere, to prouoke one to sticke to the triall of a matter, by laynge downe a gage or paune.
Lacessior, firis, firi, the passiu.
Lacessitus, a, um, prouoked, stirred, egged.
Lachanizo, aii, are, to be feble, weake, or feynte.
Lachanum, ni, n. g. all kynde of herbes, whiche serue for the potte called woztes: or after some a kynde of scepters made with herbes.
Lachanopoles, a seller of herbes.
Lachanopolium, the herbe market.
Lachesis, one of the thre ladies called Parce, which poetes dyd feigne to haue the rule and costinaunce of mans lyfe.
Lachryma, ma, f. g. a teare in wepyng.
Lachrymas afferre, mouere, ciere, to make or cause one to wepe.
Lachrymas tenere, compescere, cohibere, comprimere, continere, To cease and leaue
 wepyng, to wepe no moze.
Dare lachrymas, to wepe.
Implere verba lachrymis, to wepe as he speas keth, to wepe at euery worde.
Hinc illa lachryma, This is the cause of his wepyng, or that moued him to wepe, and prouerbially, this is the cause why he dooeth it, or why he dooeth complayne.
Lachryma arborum, the moysture that dystilleth out of trees, and tourneth to gumme.
Lachrymabundus, a, um, wepyng, readie to wepe, wepyng eype.
Lachrymabilis, le, lamentable, to be bewayled.
Lachrymatio, onis, f. g. wepyng.
Lachrymationum saluax, gumme that distils
 leth out of trees.
Lachrymationes oculorum, a disease whan the water standeth alwaies in ones eyes, as though he dyd wepe.
Lachrymans, antis, om. g. wepyng.
Lachrymo, aii, are, and Lachrymor, aris, ari, to wepe.

Lachrymare ex abitu amici, To wepe for his frendes departyng.
Num id lachrymat virgo? Doeth the maiden wepe for that, or therfore?
Lachrymosus, a, um, full of teares, that prouo-keth to wepe. also that that distilleth out moze sure lyke teares.
Fumus lachrymosus, smoke that maketh a man to wepe.
Lachrymose, as though one did wepe.
Lachrymula, x, f. g. a little teare.
Laciburgium, a citee in Germanie, called Rosstolum.
Lacides, garmentes that be rent.
Lacinia, x, f. g. a rebbe mustherow, whiche spryn-geth at the roote of a chesten tree.
Lacinia, x, form. ge. gardyng of a garment, pro-priely where the shypes be cut in sundry facions, a hemme, a fpynge.
In lacinias, in piéces, in tagges.
In lacinias distribui, to be fundyed or sette a parte, as cattell be whan some be infected.
Laciniatus, a, um, that is garded, hemmed, or playted.
Laciniatum, disparpled abrede.
Laciniatus, a, um, cutte in sundry facions, wy-dyng and tournyng dyuers waies, tagged full of plaites.
Lacinium, an elbowe of lande lyngne betweene the sea called Adriaticum, and the sea Ionium.
Lacinius, a, um, of or belongynge to that pros-montorie.
Lacio, lacui, & lexi, lácere, to byng into a snare,
 or to wynde one in, to deceyue him.
Lacippo, a citee of Spayne.
Lacon, onis, a man of Lacedemonie.
Laconia, the countrey where Lacedemone standeth.
Lacónicus, a, um, of the countrey Laconia.
Laconicum, ci, n. ge. a horte house or dyr baine.
Laconismus, mi, m. ge. a mozte fourme of speas-hyng, contepyng muche sentence in a fewe
 wordes.
Lactatus, us, m. g. geuyng sucke or milke.
Lactans, antis, om. gene. that hath milke in the brestes or dugges.
Lactantia, is vled of Celsus for all maner of meas-tes made of mylke.
Lactarius, a, um, that maketh meate of mylke, that is made of mylke, and that byngeth soozth
 mylke of it selfe.
Lacteo, tère, to sucke milke.
Lactes, lactium, form. ge. plu. places within the ribbes of a man beneth the nauille, so tender, that it maye not suffre anye wounde or stroke, as Probus saith. Some say that they be causles, wherein the small bowelles doo lie. After other, the small guttes, by the whiche the meate passeth.
Lactesco, scere, to be tourned into milke, or to be filled with milke.

Lacteus,

Lacteus, a, um, of mylke or lyke mylke. also that which is nouryshed with mylke.
Lacteus porcus, a suckyng ppyge.
Collum lacteum, a necke as white as milke.
Lacticia, orum, neu. gen. white meates made of mylke.
Lactidaci, they that be stryken about the nauill.
Lacto, aui, are, to geue sucke, to feede with milke. also to deceiue with fayre woordes, to allure with fayre promises.
Lactoris, a certayne herbe, whiche is full of milke. reade Plin. li. 24. cap. 18.
Lactuca, cæ, f. g. an herbe called letuce.
Lactucini, the surname of certayne Romaynes.
Lactucula, læ, f. g. a lytell letuce.
Lacuno, æ, f. ge. a ditch, wherein water standeth. also a trench, whereby fieldes are dygged. some englishe it a sinke, in payng a hole lower than any other place.
Lacuna, in wrytyng, is whan any thyng lacketh, as mendum, is that, whiche is corrupted or faultie.
Lacuna fama, a blemishe in ones good name, infamie.
Vide, ne quæ lacuna sit in auro, Se that there be nothyng of the money lackyng.
Lacunam explere, to fyll a ditch.
Lacunam rei familiaris explere, To repayre and restore agayne a mans substance that was consumed and spent.
Laculis, idem quod filix.
Lacunatus, a, um, that hath ditches or litle holes.
Lacunar, aris, n. ge. a beame, also sucke a thyng as doeth yet hang in marchantes houses ouerthwart their halles, wheron be set a greate number of candels.
Lacuno, aui, are, to make ditches or holes.
Lacunosus, a, um, full of ditches or holes, not even.
Lacuscus, li, maf. gene. a litle ditch or hole, a beame or plank.
Lacus, cus, or ci, m. gene. a poole or deepe place alwaie full of water, whiche is deriued into brookes and ryuers. also the vesselle, whiche receybeth wyne whan the grapes are pressed. also the principall beame, that goeth ouerthwarte the house. sometyme a plank.
Lacus Lemanus, a lough in Decemountayne.
Lacuturres, great cabages.
Lacydes, a philosopher of Cyrene.
Lada, the herbe, wherof Ladanum is made.
Ladas, a man, who ranne so swiftly, that on the sande he left no print of his foote.
Ladanum, a gumme, whiche renneth from an herbe called Lada, or Ledum, whiche is commonly called Labdanum, and is moste vled in pomaunders.
Ladon, a ryuer in Arcadia. also one of Acteons dogges.
Læander, a poynt man, which for the feruent loue that he bare to a fayre mayden called Eros, wryng to swym from Abidus to Sestos, ouer

these called Hellepontus, at the laste was drowned, whom Eros beholding to be deade, threw his selfe into the sea from a high towre: of whome Musæus and Ouidius, in his epistles doo write.
Lædo, læsi, dere, to hurte or doo displeasure.
Lædere famam, to hurte ones good name, to slander, to backbite.
Fidem lædere, to breake promysse, to doo contrary to league and agreement.
Lædere maiestatem, To derogate any thyng of the kynges authorite or prerogatiue, to committe treason.
Læsa religionis culpa, heresy or lollardy, contempt of religion or ceremonies.
Lædere aliquem iniuria, to doo one iniurie or wronge.
Ludibrio lædere, to laugh to scoone.
Nulli as lædere, to speake ill of no man in his presence.
Ferro lædere, to cutte.
Lædi odore, to be annoied or offended with an yll odour.
Lælius, the familiar friende of Scipio African.
Lamargia, æ, f. g. gluttony.
Lamargus, gi, m. g. a glutton, a smell feast.
Lamulclator, ti, neu. ge. the rewarde geuen to him that vanquished at playng or fighting with weapons.
Lana, æ, f. ge. a garment lnyed, whiche the diuinitours, called Augures, did weare. also a cloke that Soudiours did weare vppermost.
Laertes, a citee in Cilicia.
Lætiēs, the father of Ulysses.
Laertiades, the name of Ulysses.
Laertius, a, um, of Laertes.
Laertius, the name of one, whiche wryte the liues of philosophers.
Lastrigones, were people in the confines of Lætaniam, which doo eate mans flesh.
Læsus, a, um, hurte, offended, violated.
Læsus talis, prised with weapons.
Læsis, onis, f. g. hurtyng, harmyng, annoyng.
Lætabilis, le, gladd or ioyfull.
Lætamen, looke Lætamen.
Læte, ioyously, gladly, meryly, also plentifully, fruitfully, abundantly.
Lætifico, aui, are, to make glad.
Lætificare terram fimo, to dounge the groude, to make the grounde fat with dounge.
Lætificor, aris, aui, to be made ioyous or glad.
Lætificus, a, um, that maketh glad.
Lætisco, scere, to be glad, a woorde out of vse.
Læticia, æ, f. g. gladnesse, reioysyng of the mynde, whiche dooeth appere also outwardly.
Lætitiā facere, and dare, to make glad.
Lætitiā apertissime tulimus omnes, all we shewed our selfe to be verie glad and ioyous.
Lætitudō, diuis, idem quod læticia.
Læto, aui, are, to make gladd. an olde woorde out of vse.

Lactor, aris, ari, to be gladde, or to reioyce with outwarde signes.
Lactor virgatus, I am glad for bothe of those
thynges.
Latus, a, um, topous and gladde. also luckye, fortunate, fertile.
Latum prodigium, luckie.
Latus homo, a gladde man.
Lata ouis, a good sheepe.
Lata seges, & latum legumen, plentifull toyne and grayne. All other thynges not has pyngge lyfe, beyng called Lata, dooe signifie des lectable to beholde, or that dooe please the eye of the beholder.
Latus audere aliquid, to venter or enterpryse to doo a thyng merily.
Alterum intrasse latum est, to haue entered in to the one is a token of good fortune.
Latum solum, a fruitefull grounde.
Lata indoles, a pleasaunt and mery nature.
Laua, a, f. ge. the lefte hande.
Ad lauam, on the lefte hande.
Leua petentibus, to them that go on the lefte
hande.
Lauatus, a, um, made smoothe.
Leue, absolute, a smoothe thyng.
Leuigo, au, are, to plane or make playne, or to polyshe, to make smoothe or like.
Leuis, leue, smoothe or playne, light.
Oraleuia, facis that be smoothe withoute brardes.
Leuitas, tatis, form. gen. playnnesse or smoothes
nesse, lyghtnesse.
Leuitas intestinorum, slippernes of the guttes.
Lauo, au, are, to make smoothe, idem quod Leuigo.
Lauor, oris, m. g. smoothenesse.
Leuorsum, towarde the left hande.
Lauus, a, um, lefte, on the lefte syde. also lyght,
by translation; foolyshe, looke Leuis.
Tempore lauio, id est importuno, out of sea son, vnconuenient.
Lumen lauum, id est, noxium, noyous.
Lauus homo, an ouerthwart & foolish fellow.
Laganum, ni, n. g. a thyn cake made with flour and water, wherunto was put fat byrthe, pep per, saffron & cinamom, a fritter, a pancake.
Lagari verses, verses, which dooe halte in the myddes of the foote.
Lagaron, is the parte of the body fro the stomache to the nauyll, called also Hypochondrium.
Lagena, a, f. ge. a flagon or bottell. also a meas sure conteynyng eght cotulas, or .4. sextarios.
Lageos, a kynde of grapes, called in latine Le poraria.
Lagia, one of the names of the yle of Delos.
Lagois, a kynde of fysh, whiche may bee called the hare fysh. also a byrde, whose fleshe is lyke a hares.
Lagonon, the frettyng of the guttes.
Lagophthalmos, mi, he that hath eyes lyke a hare, or in whome the ouer liddes of the eyes dooe not mene downwarde.

Lagopus, gopodis, form. gen. an herbe of the kynde of trefoples, called trinitee grasse. some call it hare cummine. Some suppose it to bee Densdelion: Other Garyophyllacium, among the Germanyes it is called Harefoote, and so philistons name it amonge vs. It is also a bird, seene most commonly in the Alpes, and hath his feete rough as it were with the heare of a hare or conie, the residue all white: it neuer eateth but in the place where it was byed, and neuer will be made tame. Pl.
Lagotrophia, a, form. gen. a warren or parke of haares.
Laguncula, la, f. g. a littell flagon or bottell.
Lagyges, people in Sarmatia.
Lagyr, a citee of Chersonesus.
Laicus, ci, m. g. a laie man.
Laicus, a, um, prophane, not consecrate.
Lais, a common harlotte in Grece, who was of suche excellent beautee, and therewith so pleasant, that vnto hir out of all Grece, there came to Lozinthus, where she dwelled, men noble and riche in greate numbze, to company with hir.
On a tyme cam to hir Demosthenes, the greates test oratour of Grece, and despyed to lye wth hir: of whome she asked for one nyght, a thous
sande Dragmas, whiche amounteth to the rate of our money at this present time, to .xxii. li. x. s.
r. d. which Demosthenes hearyng, departed, say yng in this wise, I will not repente me at that price, or I will not bie repentance so dere. Some wyte, that she demanded .10000. dragmas, whiche was a talent.
Laius, a kyng of Thebes, and father of Oedipus, whom Oedipus vnwares slue in battail, and wedded his wyfe, which was also Oedipus mo ther called Iocasta. rede after in Oedipus.
Lalerania, a countrey in Spayne, the people wher of be called Lalerani.
Lalio, onis, m. g. a colte of a wylde asse.
Lallo, au, are, to speake like a baby: in the which woorde the greke dooeth appoche nerer to the englyshe than to the latin; as Babazin, whiche made a latin woord, is babare. it may be trans ferred to the nourse, that babbleth with hir child, whan she geueth to it the dugga.
Lama, ma, form. gen. the raggednesse of rockes:
after Festus, it is the gatheryng together of was ters.
Lambito, au, are, to lycke or lappe.
Lambo, bi, bere, to licke with the tounge, to lap.
also to touche, to flow or renne softly.
Lambotus, a ryuer of Arike.
Lambrus, a ryuer in Italy, whiche meeteth with the ryuer of Po, called Padus.
Lambrani, people dwellyng about the sayed riuer of Lambrus.
Lamella, a, f. g. a diminutiue of Lamina, a lit tell thynne plate.

Lamentabilis, le, lamentable.
 Lamentarius, a, um, that causeth lamentacion.
 Lamentatio, ōnis, fcr. g. lamentyng oꝝ waylyng, waimentyng.
 Lamentatus, a, um, lamented, bewailed.
 Lamentor, āris, ari, to lament oꝝ bewayle.
 Lamentum, ti, neu. gen. a bewaylyng oꝝ lamens tyng.
 Lamia, a beaste, whyche hath a womans face, and the feete of a hoꝛse. It was also the surname of a noble Romayn, and also of a famous harlot.
 Lamia, be women, whyche beholdyng chyldren, oꝝ geuyng to them gyftes, doo alter the foꝛme of theym: whyche chyldren be afterwarde called elves, oꝝ taken with the sayze, and some suche women will sucke the blood from chyldren. They be also those, whiche be called ladies of the sayze, whyche dooe allure yong men to company carnally with theym: and after that they bee consumed in the acte of lecherie, they couete to deuoute theym.
 Lamina, æ, f. g. a plate of mettall.
 Lamirus, one of the sonnes of Hercules.
 Lamna, fcr. lamina.
 Lamium, mī, n. g. archangell, oꝝ deade nettle.
 Lampada, dæ, idem quod Lampas.
 Lampas, lampadis, fcr. gen. a leame of fyre oꝝ byghtnesse of the son, mooste vñd fcr a lampe, also a toꝛche.
 Lamperia, the daughter of the Sunne by Neera, whiche with hir syster Phaetusa, kepte shepe in Sicile.
 Lampetra, a fythe called a lamprey.
 Lampetus, the syster of Phaeton.
 Lampeus, an hyll in Arcadie.
 Lampia, a ryuer in Arcadie.
 Lampon, the name of an hoꝛse. also of a soothsayer, that vñd to sweare by a goose: whereof grew a pꝛouerbe, Lampon iurat per anserem, loke there.
 Lampfacius, the sonne of Elis.
 Lampfacum, a towne on the sea side called Hellespontus, in the syde of Asia, where Priapus was honoured.
 Lampfacenus, a, um, of Lampfacum.
 Lampfana, loke Lupfana.
 Lampfris, pýrios, f. g. a gloe worme, oꝝ a worm called a gloe beard, whyche shyneth by nyght.
 Lamyrus, a kinde of liscardes, oꝝ euettes. also one of Hercules sonnes.
 Lana, æ, f. g. woull.
 De lana caprina rixari, to contende fcr a treflyng matter.
 Lana facta, parne.
 Lana infecta, wull that is not spunne.
 Lana peñtita, carded.
 Ducere lanam, to spinne, to spinne wullen.
 Trahere lanam, idem.
 Lana leporina, the softe heare of an hare.
 Lanaria, an herbe, whyche fullars doo vse, whan they scoure clothes, some saie it is that, whyche oposteratius doo call Conditi.

 Lanaris, re, that beareth oꝝ hath woull.
 Lanare pecus, beastes haupng woull.
 Lanarius, rij, m. g. a woull man, oꝝ he that occupieth oꝝ selleth woull, also a wulwinder.
 Lanatus, a, um, cladde oꝝ wrapped in woull.
 Lanata vires, a kinde of vines, whyche hath a certayn moynesse lyke woull.
 Lanatus lupus, a fythe, called fcr his whitenesse and softnesse.
 Lanatioꝛe canitie, with moze cotten.
 Lancearius, rij, m. g. he that beareth a lancelyn.
 Lanera, æ, fcr. gen. a Spanishe Javelyn with a brode head.
 Lanceatus, a, um, armed with a lancelyn. also wounded with a lancelyn.
 Lancino, au, are, to strike, to reñte with the teethe, to thrust throughe.
 Lanea, æ, f. g. idem quod Laniena.
 Lanerum, a garment made of vñdped woull.
 Laneus, a, um, woullen, oꝝ made of woull.
 Laneum latifculum, a side as softe as woull.
 Laneus lupus, a fythe white and softe.
 Langa, gæ, fcr. gen. a beaste, whyche is found about the ryuer of Po.
 Langia, a fountayne in Remen, a countrey of Aescadia, where the holte of Aegius was refreshed, whan they went agaynst Thebes.
 Languo, languui, guere, to languyshe, to bee fyche, to be faynt, to be aferde, to be ydell, to decaye, to diminishe.
 Languere e via, to be wey of iourneysng.
 Languesco, scere, idem.
 Languidus, a, um, feynt, fyche, aferde, ydell.
 Languidus pulsus, a feynt poulse, that striketh feebly.
 Languidior, somewhat slacke in dooeyng a thyng.
 Autoritas languida facta est, the authorite is diminished oꝝ decayed.
 Languide, feebly, feyntly, negligently, ydelly, without quickenesse of spyrite.
 Languidulus, la, lum, the diminutue of Languidus.
 Langor, ōris, masc. gene. languor, faylunge of strengthe, and naturall moysure, languysmynge, feeblenesse, feyntnesse. Sometyme wearynesse.
 Langurium, rij, n. g. languettes of ambze, like to longe beadesstones.
 Laniena, æ, fcr. g. the fleshe chambers, oꝝ shoppe, where fleshe is solde, the slaughter house. Sometyme it signifieth dismembryng.
 Lanicum, cij, n. g. clothng oꝝ the crasse of mayng woullen clothe.
 Lanifer, ra, rum, that beareth woull.
 Laniger, ra, rum, idem.
 Lanifex, idem quod lanificus.
 Lanificium, cij, n. g. cardyng oꝝ spynnyng of woull, woylyng of woull.
 Lanificus, ci, m. g. he that dooeth woꝛke woull
 to

to make it mete for the clothier, it maye be called also a woull wynder.

Lanio, aui, are, to cutte like a boucher, to teare or rent in pieces or gobettes, to quarter.

Laniare dentibus, to teare with the teeth.

Laniatus, a, um, rent, to be cutte in pieces.

Laniatus, us, m. gen. a rearyng, a quarteryng, a cuttyng in pieces.

Laniarium, ri, n. g. boucherpe.

Lanionius, a, um, pertynyng to bouchers craft.

Lanista, x, m. g. he that had the rule ouer sword plaiers, and caused them to be taught, and after solde them, also that ordeyned byrdes to fight, it may be taken for a maister offence.

Lanicus, a, um, woullen or of woull.

Lanium carnarium, a slaughter house.

Lanius, nij, or Lanio, onis, m. g. a boucher.

Laniuum, or Lanuium, a citee in Italy, belonging to the Romayns.

Lano, aui, are, to put in woull, or to dresse with woull.

Lanoculus, li, m. g. he that couereth the blemishe in his eye with woull, or he that weareth a cloth before his eye.

Lanofus, a, um, full of woull, or haupng muche woull.

Lanubium, a citee of the Latines.

Languinosus, a, um, mosy.

Lanugo, ginis, f. m. ge. the softe heares or mossynesse in the visages of chyldren and women, also on frutes called peaches, and some herbes, as longe wort, clapp, and suche other. also the downe feathers in byrdes. it is also the sawe dust or other poudet, whiche cometh of wood whan it is perced.

Lanula, la, f. g. a diminutiue of Lana.

Lanuini, the stones couered with softe heare.

Lanuuium, loke Lanuium.

Lanx, cis, f. ge. a dythe whiche of some is called a pottynger, also a balance.

Laocoon, the sonne of Priamus.

Laodamas, one of the sonnes of kyng Alcinous.

Laodamia, the wyfe of Prothesilaus. also the daughter of Bellerophon.

Laodicea, a citee in Asia.

Laodice, or after some Laodoce, one of Priamus daughters, whiche was married to the sonne of Antenor, kyng of Thace.

Laodocus, the sonne of Antenor the Trojan.

Laomedon, onis, the father of Priamus.

Laomedonteus, a, um, and Laomedontius, a, um, of Laomedon.

Lapathum, thi, n. ge. called also Rumex, the generall name of all sorrell, as Oxylapathum, or Lapathum acutum, sorrell, as well wylde as of the gardeyn. Hippolapathon, a great sorrell like a docke, but haupng the tast of sorrell, and is called Pacience, this worde Lapathum, of some is vsed for the docke.

Lapethos, a citee in Epyres.

Lapicida, x, m. f. m. ge. a dygger of stones in a quarrye.

Lapidina, x, f. g. a quarry of stones.

Lapidatio, onis, f. m. ge. a stonyng, a hurlyng of stones.

Lapidatus, a, um, pertynyng to stones.

Lapidator, oris, m. gen. a hurler of stones, one that hurte men with stones.

Lapidesco, scere, to be made or touned into a stone, to waxe harde as a stone.

Lapido, aui, are, to styke with stones. also to styke sometyme without stones. Sometyme to rapne stones.

Lapidatum est, it rayned stones.

Lapillus, li, m. f. m. ge. a littell stone. also a precious stone.

Lapio, piui, pite, to make harde as a stone, an old worde.

Lapis, lapidis, m. f. m. ge. a stone, but lesse than that, whiche is called Saxum. Sometyme it is taken for a myle. Sometyme an hylle. by translation a negligent persone, that bespyrreth him not in doyng a thyng.

Ad tertium aut quartum lapidē, At the thyrde or the fourthe myle, because in olde tyme myles were noted by stones.

De lapide empti, Names of bondmen. A proverbe, signifying persons of most vile condicion, whiche were bought in the markette place, stans dyng vpon a stone.

Lapidem verberare, pouverbially to labour in bayne.

Quid stas lapis? why standest thou styll thou dead stone?

Lapis incusus, a stone pecked and dresse for a myll.

Appetere lapidibus, To assaile or sette vpon with stones.

Lapideus, a, um, of stone, or harde lyke a stone.

Lapideus murus, a stone wall.

Lapideus sum, I am as heauy as a stone.

Lapideo imbri pluit, it rayneth stones.

Lapidofus, a, um, stonye, full of stones, harde like a stone.

Lapithæ, people of Thessaly, of whome Perithous was kyng.

Lapitheus, or Lapitheus, a, um, of the Lapithes.

Lappa, x, f. m. ge. the generall name of all burrez growyng on herbes, whiche wylle styke to any thyng.

Lappaceus, a, um, of or lyke a burre.

Lappago, ginis, f. g. an herbe like to Anagallis, sayng that it hath no leaues.

Lapsana, Plinius and Theophrastus do wyte, that they were called of the Arcadians wylde Colewortes, and of the phisicians (as Theophrastus sayeth) Ceta, with the rootes hercof, boyled in mylke, all the hoste of Julius Cesar lyued at Dirrachium, a longe tyme, whercof came the pouverbe Lapsana viuere, where men do liue nygardyng and wretchedly, this herbe is named named in Englyshe wildecote, or Carloke.

 Lapsio, ōnis, f. g. a fall, a slydyng of slyppynge.
 Lapsio, aut; are, to fall often.
 Lapsus, us, m. gen. a fall, a slydyng, also a small offense done by negligence, an oversight.
 Lapsus lingue, trippynge of the tonge.
 Lapsus memorie, failynge of the memory.
 Lapsus, a, um, fallen, slyden, that hath offended or erred.
 Lapsis paucis diebus, after a fewe dayes.
 Lapsus serpentum, the slydyng of a serpent.
 Lapsus fluminum, the rennyng of rivers.
 Laqueare, laquear, ris, & Laquearium, ri, n. g.
 the russe of a chambere, whiche is imbowed or fretted also a playn beame in a rousse.
 Laqueatus, a, um, haltered, snarled, tied, or bounde faste. Sometyme it signifieth holowe or bowynge.
 Laqueata tecta, embowed rofes.
 Laqueatum auro templum, a churche haung
 the beames of the rousse gylted.
 Laqueus, laquei, m. g. an halter, any thyng, that one is snared or intangled in, a ginne.
 Laquei legum ac iudiciorum, The snares of lawes, &c.
 Lar, the singular nounbe of Lares, loke there, it is taken for an house, Sometyme the inner parte of an house, also for a chymney and the fire.
 Lara, vel Larunda, a mayden, whiche shewed to Juno the wanton pastimes of Jupiter with women, for the whiche Jupiter dyd cut out his tongue, and commaunded Mercurius to byng him to hell: who begotte on his two sonnes, which were called Lares.
 Laranda, a citee of Lycaonia.
 Lararium, ri, n. g. a priuate chapell or closet in a mans house.
 Larcus, a panne, wherin coles be caried.
 Lardum, di, n. g. larde, the fatte of bacon.
 Larentia, a famous harlot, whiche because she made the people of Rome hir heire, they named hir a goddesse, and called hir Floza.
 Lares, goddes, whiche the painymys did suppose euerye person had belongynge vnto hym: they were also called Penates: both the whiche wor-des bee also taken for priuate dwellynges or houses. Mei lares, mei penates, My house or dwellyng place.
 Large, aboundantly, liberally, bountifullly.
 Vino largius epulas celebrare, to drinke wine
 veraye largely at a feast.
 Largior, largiris, giri, to geue liberally, also to graunte, sometyme to permitte.
 Beneficium ex facili largiri, to do a pleasure quickly.
 Si tempus non largitur, if the time suffre not.
 Largiri Ciuitatem, to make one a citifin.
 Largiri se vltro, to offere hym selfe willyngly.
 Largitor de tuo puer, geue liberally of that is thyne owne, thou saucy boye.
 Largitas, atis, f. g. largesse, or liberalitee.

Largitio, ōnis, f. g. liberall expence to wynd
 a mans purpose, largesse, prodigalitee.
 Largifluus, a, um, that floweth abundantly.
 Largiloquus, qui, he that hath many wordes.
 Largiter, idem quod large.
 Vapulabis largiter, thou shalt be well beate.
 Largiter peccasti, Thou hast doen a great offence.
 Largitor, ōris, m. g. a liberall spender, a prodiggal person, bounteous in geuyng.
 Largitus, for Largiter.
 Largus, a, um, large or verie great, also free of expence, bounteous, liberall, prodigall.
 Dat nemo largius, he geueth no man moze liberally.
 Largus opum, riche.
 Animo largus, of great courage.
 Lux larga, great lyght.
 Largus opera sua, that is no sparet of his labour.
 Largus lachrymarum, that wepeth muche.
 Vino largiore vti, to drinke moze than one is commonly accustomed.
 Imber largus, a great shewe of rayne.
 Large opes, great riches.
 Laridum, vel Lardum, laarde, or the fatte of an hogge. Sometyme swynes fleshe called.
 Larina, the name of a famous woman of Italy.
 Larine, a fountayne in Sicilia.
 Larise, a citee of Eolia.
 Larinna, a towne of Sicilia.
 Larissa, the name of diuers citees, one in Thessalia, whereof Achilles was called Larisseus: an other in Asia, whereof Jupiter was called Larisseus, the thyrde in Italye, an other in Crete.
 Larius, a brooke or a greete poole by the citee of Comum.
 Larix, laricis, f. m. g. a great tree, whiche hath leaues lyke a pine appull, the wodde longe and apte for buyldynge of inward workes, it hath in it a thynne tosen of the colour of honye of Be-thenes, it perseyeth not, neyther by rottyng, nor by eatynge of wormes, nor wyll burne in a flame, nor be broughte vnto coles, but by a long space of tyme be consumed. also it wyll not swimme on the water as other trees doe, and therfore be they epyther caried in shippes, or els layde on fyre trees pinned together, this tree maye be called in Englyshe Larch tree. The gumme, whiche cometh from this tree, is called Laricea resina, whiche is used in the stede of Cerebinthine, no that is discommended of Petrus.
 Larodj, people in Scythia.
 Larua, e, f. g. and Larua, arum, plur. a spirite, whiche appereth in the nyght tyme. Some call it a hegge. Some a goblin. Some a goste or an elfe.
 also a masker, or he that weareth a visour. also the visour it selfe.
 Laruale, an ymage deformed, pale, leane, and horrible to beholde.

Larvatus, a, um, that is feared with a spirit, and is become madde. it sometyne signifieth a maske; one wearyng a visour, disguised.

Larus, called in greke Cephus, a certayne birde of the kynde of seamewes: of this soye there is a little birde, haupng many feathers, whiche at the tyme that the byngeth forth yonge, crieth out. She liueth by eatynge the some of salt water, of hir cam the prouerbe.

✠ Larus parturit, Larus doeth laye, applied to them, whiche promyse muche, and great thynges, and fynally dooe geue of byngge forth no thyng, in regard of that whiche they promysed. I thynke this bird is called in englyshe a sterne. In the prouerbe Larus hians, Erasmus sayth, Larus is a greedy deuourng birde.

Lasanum, ni, n. g. a chambré poite of stowe.

Lasciuia, a, f. g. wantonnesse.

Lasciuio, sciuis, sciuiui, uire, to bee wanton: also to growe of spryng rankely.

Lasciuus, a, um, lecherous bothe in luyng and wordes, wanton in behaueour of with women, dishonest, that speaketh of dweth thynges folyshely, without regard of vertue and honestee. Pagina lasciuia, a wrytyng conteynyng wanton thynges.

Laser, laseris, neu, g. a gumme of iuce remynge out of a tree, whiche is taken of the best wyters to be that, whiche is called of the apothecaries Asa fetida.

Lacer, is the iuce of gumme, that cometh of the mybbe of herbe called Lacerpitium: the frenche men call this gumme, Bentoin.

Laserpitium, ti, n. g. is of Antonius Musa supposed to be the sweete rosen called Hellewpyne, or Beugewpyne: some suppose it to bee the tree of whiche cometh that rosen of gumme.

Laserpitium Gallicum, the herbe called Bellis toxe of spayne.

Laserpitarius, a, um, that is tempered of mixed with the iuyce of Laserpitium.

Lasibus, olde wyters bled for Laribus.

Lassatus, a, um, worried, tired.

Lassisco, lassus sum, scere, to become wepy.

Lassia, an ile in the sea Egeum, it was also called Andros.

Lassitudo, dñis, f. g. wepynesse.

Lasso, aui, are, to wepy, to tire.

Lassulus, a, um, the diminutiue of Lassus.

Lassus, a, um, wepyed, tyred.

Lassus de via, werie with goyng of iourneyng.

Rebus lassis, in aduersitee. Lassa terra.

Lasthenia, a woman, whiche was Platos scholar, comyng alwaye in to his schoule in mans aparyle.

Lastaurus, i. hirsutus circa virilia.

Lasus, a man in the tyme of Darius, that wote fyrst of mulske.

Larace, ces, f. ge. an herbe, whiche the kynges of Persia were wonte to geue to ambassadours, wherein they hadde this superstitious beleue, that bearynge aboute theyn that herbe, where so euer they went, they shoulde haue plentie of all thynges, and shoulde not perpe for hunger or thurst. The figure of this herbe I coulde neuer fynde in any authour.

Late, abzoade in many places, farre abzoade, sometyne for Diurnus, longe.

Latus loqui, To speake more largely bypon a thyng.

Late patet, it belongeth to many.

Late longe & diffusum, spreaue abzoade well neere in all quostis of the worlde.

Famae latus consulere, to prouide that his resnowme maye continue longe tyme.

Lâtebra, a, & Lâtebra, arum f. g. plu. a pyruie place, where men doe hyde theyn. sometyne it signifieth an excuse.

Latebras querentes, hydelynges.

Lâtebra ferarum, couert for dere, of denues for wyld beastes.

Lâtebra habere, to haue an excuse of pyetene to cloke the matter.

Ex latebris erumpere, to come abzoade.

Lâtebra peritio querere, to sweate wylly vnder a colour, to the entente to deceyue a man.

Lâtebricola, le, for. gene. one that dwelleth in a pyruie place.

Lâtebrose, priuily, secretly, as it wet in a corner.

Lâtebrofus, a, um, that is full of denues to hyde of lurke in.

Lâtebrofus locus, where as bee manye pyruie places.

Lateo, tui, tere, to be hydde, to bee secrete, to be vnknewen.

Nec latuerunt eum doli, he knewe they deccite full well.

Latet mihi causa, I know it not.

Res latuit patrem, he knew it not.

Latet plerisque, it is vnknewen to the mooste parte.

Latet in herba, it lyed hid in the grasse.

Latuit ad hanc aetatem, it was vnknewen enen to these dayes.

Latenter, priuily, secretly.

Lateralis, le, belongyng to the syde.

Later, lateris, m. g. byrche, tyle.

✠ Laterem lauas, thou wasthest a tyle. I prosuerbe, signifying, thou labourest in bayne.

✠ Laterem elixas, a prouerbe hauinge the same signification.

Laterani, yomen of the garde.

Lateranus, the name of a consull of Rome, of whose house was made a charche in the citee of Rome, of saynt John, whiche is now called Lateranensis.

Lateraria, a, for. gene. a place, where byrche of tyle is made.

Laterculus, li, m. g. a littell byrche of tyle.

Crudi laterculi, byrche before it is baked.

Lateritius, a, um, made of tyle or byrche.

Lateritius paries, a byrche wall,

Laterna,

Laterna, na, f. g. a lantern.
Laternarius, rij, m. g. a lantern bearer.
Laterones, pomen of the garde.
Lateruncularius, a, um, of or belonging to chesse.
Lateruncularia tabula, a chesse board.
Latex, laticis, masc. gene. all maner of licour of iugre, but it is moste commonly taken for water of wyne.
Latex scythicus, rayne water.
Lathyrus, for. ge. an herbe of the hynde of spurge, called commonly Cataputia.
Latialis, le, and Latiaris, re, of latin, of that part of Italie, whiche was called Latium.
Latialis sermo, the latine tongue.
Latibulo, aui, are, to be hyde.
Latibulum, li, n. ge. a denne or bury, where beastes dooe hyde theym. Sometyme it is vsed for a secreete place, or caue, wherein men be hydde.
Latilauum, uij, n. g. the garment of a senatour. Sometyme it signifieth the dignitee of a senatour: and Latilauus, is taken for the Senatours.
Latifolium, lij, n. g. and Latifolia, x, f. ge. that whiche hath bryde leaues.
Latifundium, dii, neu. ge. a great or large fiede, greate and large possessions, also that hath a great or large fiede, or large and great possessions.
Latina, narum, sacrifices to Jupiter, named of the Latines, who fyrst dyd ordeyne theym.
Latine, in the fourme of latine, after the facion of latine, in latine.
Latine scire, to be skylled in the latine tonge.
Latinitas, atis, f. g. latinespeache.
Latinienfis, se, idem quod Latinus, a, um.
Latinus, a, um, latine or of the people called Latines.
Latina consuetudini tradere, to translate into latine.
Vertere in latinum, idem.
Latini, people of Latium in Italie.
Latinus, ni, the propre name of the father in lawe to Jencas.
Latio, onis, of Fero, fers, a bearyng.
Legum latio, an ordeynynge and publyshynge of lawes.
Latio suffragij, a geuyng of voyce or sentence in assignynge or chosynge of any magistrate.
Latisco, to waxe bryde.
Latito, aui, are, to hyde often, to lurke. also not to appere whan one is sommoned to appere in the lawe.
Latitatio, onis, f. g. a hydynge or lurkyng.
Latitudo, dinis, brydth, largenesse, latitude.
Latitudo possessionum, largenesse of possessions, great possessions in landes.
Latium, rij, n. g. a parte of Italie, betweene the ryuer of Tibris and Liris, wherein standeth the citee of Rome.
Latius, a, um, of that countrey.
Latmius, is a mountaine of Caria, and Latmus, a mountayne in Honia, where poetes saye the moone bysed Endymion.

Lato, latescere, to be broade.
Latomia, or Latuma, arum, plu. was a streete pysson in the citee of Syracusa in Sicilia: an other in Sparta. It is also a quarry, out of the whiche stones are digged.
Ad latomias damnari, To be condemned to worke in quarreys or mines alwaye.
Latomus, mi, m. ge. a mason, one that cutteth or diggeth stones out of a quarry.
Latona, the mother of Apollo and Diana.
Latonia, called also Diana, and is also taken for the moone.
Latonius, a, um, of Latona.
Latonigena dii, Apollo and Diana.
Latous, Apollo.
Lator, oris, m. g. a bearer, a carrier, one that getteth or maketh lawes.
Latratu, us, m. ge. a barkynge or bayng of dogges. also a vehement speaking agaynst one.
Remugit nemus latratu, the wodde rymgeth with the crye of noyle of the houndes.
Latratu, oris, m. g. he that barketh, a barket.
Latres, a seruaunt.
Latria, x, f. g. the honour and seruite, wherewith god onely is worshypped.
Latrina, x, f. g. a synke. also a siege or iakes.
Latro, aui, are, to barke as a dogge doeth: and by translation to crye out and baye at one like a dogge whan he barketh.
Stomachium latrantem lenire, a curlyng stomake despyng meate.
Latror, aris, ari, the passyue.
Latrocinium, cinij, n. gen. theste, robbery. Also warfare.
Agitare latrocinia, to vse robberye.
Latrocinor, aris, ari, to robbe by the hygh waye, also to serue in warres.
Latro, onis, com. gener. a robber by the hygh waye. also a souldiour retcynd. Amonge the Romans, it wer those, whiche were alwaye aboute the emperours persone, as the garde is aboute the hyng. Also Latrones, seu Latronculi be chesmen. Latro is also vsed of poetes for an hunter.
Prælia latronum ludere, to play at chesse.
Latrocinatio, onis, f. g. a robberye.
Latrunculus, li, m. gen. a lyttell theste or robber, also a chesman.
Latunculatu, oris, m. ge. a iustyce of gayle deliuerie, or any iustyce, whiche doeth geue sentence on theues. also a prouost marshall.
Latumia, arum, plural. quarreys, where stones are digged.
Latus, a, um, of fero, fers, bozne. Also getten, ordeyned, publyshed.
Latus, latior, latissimus, broade, ample, large, conteynyng a great rowme.
Lata culpa, a grosse negligence, whan a man percepueth not that thyng that euery man vnderstandeth.

Latusculum, li, n. g. a litle syde.
Latus, lateris, neu. g. a syde. it is often tymes taken for the strength and durableness of the voice and breath in speakyng.
Adiungere aliquem lateri filij, to appoynte one to kepe his sonne compagne alwaye.
Homines à latere, men that are vcraye familiar and in great fauour with princes.
Accommodare ensen lateri, To putte on a swerde.
Cingere latus ense, idem.
Latus ense percgit, he thrust hym throughe the syde wth a sworde.
Latus campi, the syde of any fielde.
Latus clauus, a senatours robe of garment. It is put sometyme for the dignitee of a senatour.
Lauacrum, cri, n. g. a bathe of bayne: it is nowe taken for a fonte.
Lauatio, ónis, a washyng, a bayne of bathe.
Lauatrina, nã, form. ge. a synke, wherinto foule water is caste of swepte, wherby pauementes are made cleane.
Lauce, an ile in the sea called Pontus.
Laudabilis, le, laudable, commendable.
Laudare alterum ad aliquem.
Laudatio, ónis, form. gen. a prayse of commendation.
Laudo, aui, are, to prayse, to commend. also to cite of name.
Laudo testem, I take to wytnesse.
Cum exceptione laudari, To be praysted in all thyng sayng one, to be praysted with a but.
Laudare authorem, to cite of name the authoure of the persone, of whom he had the thyng.
Laudatus, a, um, praysted, commended.
Laudator, óris, m. ge. one that prayleth of commendeth.
Laudatrix, trícis, f. g. the feminine.
Laudabiliter, commendably, worthy prayse.
Laudatiuus, a, um, that prayleth.
Laudicenus, ni, m. g. he that is hyrd for a supper to prayse a man: or for a supper promysed, dooth prayse a man.
Lauer, laueris, neu. ge. and sometyme for. ge. an herbe growynge in the water, like to Bilsander, but haupnge lesse leaues: some doe call it bilsters, or Belleagges: some name it pealow water cresses.
Lauerna, a goddesse, vnder whose protectiõ theues were in Rome.
Lauinia, the daughter of kyng Latinus, for whome Aeneas and Turnus fought together.
Lauinium, a citee in Italic called also Laurétum.
Lauo, laui, are, and Lauo, ui, ere, to washe.
Lauare peccatum suum, to purge hym selfe of that is layed to his charge.
Laura, suche a place of pleasure at Samios, as Anton was at Sardis.
Laurca, x, f. gen. a leafe of laurell or baye tree. sometyme a garlande made of laurell. sometyme a laurell or baye tree it selfe.

Laureatus, a, um, crowned wth laurell, wearyng a garlande of laurell.
Laurens, entis, or Laurentis, te, of the towne called Laurentum.
Laurentia, x, f. g. the wyfe of Faustulus, whiche nourished Remus and Romulus.
Laurentalia, certayne feastes dedicated to Laurentia.
Laurentum, a citee in Italic, called also Lauiniũ.
Laureo, aui, are, to put on a garlande of laurell.
Laurcola, x, f. g. a crowne or garlande that victours ware in theyr triumphe.
Laureotis, althes, that come of the trynge of siluer in golde smithes forges.
Laurétum, ti, n. gen. a place, wherin doe growe laurelles or baye trees.
Laureum, a place in the countreie of Grece, called Attica.
Laureus, a, um, of laurell.
Laurices, a kynde of hares.
Laurifer, and Lauriger, ra, rum, that weareth a garlande of laurell.
Laurinum, ni, n. g. oyle of laurell or bayes.
Laurinus, a, um, of laurell or lyke to laurell.
Laurion, a place in Attica, where syluer was dyged.
Lauro lauinium, a citee in Italic by Laurentum.
Laurus, ri, or Laurus, us, form. gen. a laurell or baye tree.
Lausus, the sonne of Mezentius.
Laus, laudis, for. gen. prayse commendation, red nowme, glorie, euery mans good report.
Armatae laudes, martiall renowne.
Dicere laudem alicuius rei, to prayse of sette forth the commendation of a thyng.
Ei laudi datum est, it was compted a prayse to hym: or he was praysted of commended for it.
Efferre laudibus, to extolle.
Habere laudes de aliquo, To prayse one, to speake in commendation of one.
Laudem non habet, it is not to be commended: it is not praysted of esteemed.
Laudem inuenire, To get prayse and commendation.
Sperauit magnæ laudi fore, he hoped that it woulde be great prayse to hym.
Tua laus fuerit, The prayse shall redounde to you: or you shall be praysted for it.
Latine loqui, est in magna laude ponendum, It is a thyng greatlye to be praysted and esteemed to speake latine well.
Laude afficere, to prayse.
Laute, elegantly, minionly, trimly, gaily.
Laute vestitus, minionly apparayled.
Laute diuersari, to be honourable lodged, to be well intertyned.
Laute loqui, to speake eloquently.
Laute munus administrasti tuum, Ye haue doun your offyre of duee honourable, or to your great prayse.
Lautia, órum, neu. g. plur. presentes, whiche the Romans

L ANTE A.

- Romayne did send to ambassadours of other realmes.
Lauria, is sometyme vled in the feminine gender.
Lautia, a, form. g. magnificence and nefeence in diners and bankettes.
Laurices, the wyues of two byetherne.
Lautula, weate baynes.
Lautus, a, um, and Lotus, a, um, washed. also nete of cleane, elegant, ryche, minion, tricke, handsome.
Lautus homo, a minion, ppropze, or nete person.
Lautia ciuitas, a ryche and noble citee.
Lax, distypte, gyle: a wynde out of vse.
Laxatus, a, um, letyse, set at his libertee.
Laxamentum, ti, n. g. release, recreation, libertee, refreshyng.
Laxamentum & veniam non habent leges, lawes remitte and perdone no punishment.
Laxamentum dari legi, to enlarge a lawe that it be not so rpygous.
Laxamentum dare, to geue rest and recreation from labour.
Laxitas, ais, f. gen. release, pardone, lousenesse, lybertee.
Laxitas domus, largenesse of an house, greete renowme.
Laxe, lowly, largely.
Habitare laxe & magnifice, to dwell in a great large house nobly.
Anguste & laxe, contrarpe.
Laxissime ambulare, to haue a verape large come to walke in.
Laxe distare, to be far a sunder.
Laxo, aui, are, to louse or set at libertee, to releate, to open, to make larger.
Laxare manipulos, was in battayle, whan the sundrye bendes or companies of foute men were set in a raye, one man a conuenient distance from an other, that they moughte fighte the moze at theyr lybertee.
Laxare & astringere, contrary.
Annona laud multum laxauerat, the pryce of vittayle was fallen littell or nothyng.
Tempus laxare, to extende and pzonege the tyme.
Laxare animum a laboribus, To recreate the mynde from labour. to be at quiete.
Laxare animum molestijs, idem.
Laxum, an aduerbe, signifieth wyde.
Laxus, a, um, louse, large, wyde, losse, weake.
Funes laxi, cordes not stretched out.
Laxas dare habenas, to geue byddell at wyll.
Laxa opes, great ryches.
Laxum tempus, and Laxa dies, a longe terme or tyme.
Cum ipse alium diem laxiorem dederim, whan that I my selfe haue pzoneged the tyme, or geuen a longer daye or terme.
Ager laxus, a broade or wide fiede, Angustus

L ANTE E.

- contrary.
Arcus laxus, a botte vnbenet.
Calcus laxus, a wide shoue.
Domus laxa, a great house with muche room.

L ANTE E.

L Ex, lex, and Lexna, a, f. g. a lionesse.
Lea, is also a kynde of colewortes.
Lex, an Ilande by Lpyrenica, a region of Strike.
Lexna, a lionesse: it was also the name of a common woman at Athenes: who (after that Demodius and Aristogiton had slayn Hipparchus the tyran) beyng turmented in sundrye facions, to the entent she shoulde discouer the confederates of that murder, spake not one word, but buyng in sunder hir tonge, she spitte it in the face of Hippas the tyran, who caused hir to be turmented.
Leander, the name of a man.
Learchus, the sonne of Athamas and Ino, whom the father beyng madde, slewe in the skede of an herte.
Lebadia, a citee of Bortia.
Lebedus, a citee.
Leberis, ridis, a serpentes huske or hale, or olde bypeshyne, whyche he casteth of.
Lebes, betis, m. g. a caudion to boyle in.
Lebynthos, one of the yles called Cyclades.
Lecanomanticus, a certayne kynde of southsayers, that vled theyr diuination with basons of water.
Lecanomantia, a, form. gen. a kynde of diuination by water in a basin, whyche the rustical people in the olde tyme vled amonge the Assyrians. They fylled a basin full of water, in to the whyche, after certayne wordes spoken, spirittes entred, whereby was hearde a lyttell sowne or whisperyng: by the whyche the inchaunters perceyued thynges to come, and made answers accordyng. Ioannes Zeses, in his comment on the Iliados of Homere, maketh mention of two kyndes of Lecanomantia: one olde was, whyche Willes, vled: an other newe founde, whyche is by water in a depe basin, into the whyche was put golde, siluer, ambre, copper, and stones, wherat myghte be no women, or they whyche had offended with women. But this vayne science is forboden among christen men, lyke as Necromancie and Geomancie is.
Lechia, a, f. g. a fythe, whyche some haue taken to be Tuny, for the similitude of thepm.
Lectica, a, f. ge. a thyng lyke to a bedde, wherein riche and noble men were bozne by six seruantes: it maye be taken for a lieter.
Lecticarij, they whyche beare Lectica.
Lecticariola, she that attendeth on a lieter bearer.
Lecticula, a littell chayre or lieter caried betweene men.

Lectio,

Lectio, ōnis, fœm. g. tēdyng, a lesson, choys, a gathering.
Lectipes, an herbe.
Lectisterniātor, ōris, m. g. a chamberlaine, or he that maketh the beddes.
Lectisternium, a solemnitie amonge the paynims, whan in the honour of theyr gods, Jūpiter, Juno, & Minerva, beddes were spreadde in the temples, in the whiche fyrre the idollis were laped, in the residue as manye as mought he and cate.
Lectito, aui, are, to reade often. Also to gather often.
Lecton, one of the toppes of the mountayne called Iba.
Lectrum, a parte of Asia lying into the sea.
Lector, ōris, m. g. a reader.
Lectus, us, m. g. a choys.
Lectus, a, um, read. also chosen, picked, selected.
Lecturio, ire, to desyre to reade.
Lectus, ti, m. g. a bearde. it is vsed somtyme for a table, because they vsed in olde tyme to ease theyr meate syping on beddes.
Lectulus, li, m. g. a lyttell bedde.
Lecythus, thi, mascu. & fœm. gene. a pottle of carthe, whiche serued onely for oyle, an vntygallie or vble.
Leda, the wyfe of Tyndarus kynge of Laconia, with whome (as poetes dooe fable) Jūpiter in the forme of a swanne dydde companye, and she brought forth the two egges, of the one came Pollux and Helena, whiche was rauishd by Paris: of the other came Castor and Clytemnestra: Pollux and Castor bee called Ledai.
Legæa, one of the nymphes.
Legālis, le, belongyng to the lawe.
Legārium, ri, n. g. idem quod Legumen.
Legatārius, ri, m. g. he to whom any thyng is bequethed.
Legataria prouincia, a prouince appoynted to one.
Legatio, ōnis, fœm. g. an ambassade or office of an ambassadour.
Accipere legationem, To take on hym the charge of a Legacie.
Gerere legationem, and fungi legatione, to be an ambassadour.
Legatio libera, a legacy or lieutenantshyppe purchased by fauour, to the intent that one maye wryth moze authoritee prosecute his owne priuate matters in the countreie whither he is sente.
Votiua legatio, whan one purchaseth the title of an ambassadour or lieutenant, that he maye the moze honourably perfourme a vowe that he hath made.
Legatium, ui, neut. gener. that is geuen to the ambassadour for his expence, his dietes, his allowance.
Legatitius, a, um, pertynyng to legacies.

Legator, ōris, ma. gene. he that bequetheth any thyng, the testatour.
Legatū, ti, n. g. a legacy or bequest.
Legatus, ti, ma. gen. an ambassadour, that hath commission to treat of matters. He that is sent onely to salute or congratulate, is called Vas tour. It is also a lieutenant or generall capitaine of an armye.
Legerda, a citee in great Armenia.
Legibilis, le, legible, that maye be redde.
Legifer, idem quod Legislator.
Legio, ōnis, fœ. g. a companye of men of warre, containing commonlye. 6000. fowte men. 732. horsemen: or after Cæsar. 12500. men of warre: But it is manifest in A. m. that the nombre of a legion is vncertaine. It is also a towne in Lyons wall, now called Leshard.
Legion, the chiefe citee of Castile called Lion.
Legionarius, a, um, of or pertynyng to a legion.
Legirupa, x, m. g. a breaker of lawes.
Legislator, ōris, masc. gene. a maker or geuer of lawes.
Legitimè, lawfully, accordyng to the lawe.
Legitimus, a, um, accordyng to the lawe, lawfull, right, conuenient, iuste, iust.
Legitimi dies, dayes in banke before ordinarie iudges, whan the partie shoulde appere or pleade: or els it maye be dayes of retorne in the kynges bench or chancerye.
Legitima iudicia, iudgements confirmed by lawes wrytten or auncient custome.
Legitimo functionis tempore expleto, the ordinarie tyme of his ministringe beyng expired.
Legiuncula, la, f. g. a small legion.
Lego, aui, are, to sende as an ambassadour, or as a legate, or depute, to committe or appoynt, to bequeth, also to assigne or impute.
Cassius sibi legauit, he toke Cassius to be his lieutenant.
Famulum legare aliquo, to sende his seruante any whither.
Legare negotium alicui, to committe a charge or businesse to one.
Legare fortunæ, to assigne or impute to fortune, to blame or laye the fault on fortune.
Consulem legare ad id bellum placuit, theyr pleasure was, that the consull shoulde be sent as chiefe capitayne to that warres.
Legare aliquid alicui, to geue a thyng to one by testamente.
Lego, legi, gere, to gather, to rede, to passe by, to chouse, to styke. somtyme to steale.
Legere sermonem alterius, to hearken what onesayeth.
Legere vestigia, to folowe one steppe by step.
Legens oram Italia, saylyng along by the sea coast of Italie.
Legula, la, f. g. a fillette.
Leguleius, lei, mascu. ge. a lawier, a student of the lawe.
Legulus,

Légulus, li, m. g. a gatherer of small thynges, as grapes or olives.

Legūmen, minis, neu. gen. all maner of pulse, as beanes, peason, betches, tares, &c.

Legumentum, ti, and Legarium, rij, neu. gene, the same.

Leleges, or Lelegæ, people, whiche were alwaye wandyrng: and inhabited sometyme in Thessalie.

Leitus, one of the v. capitaynes of Scroetia, that went to Trope.

Lelaps, lelapis, one of Becons dogges.

Lema, x, f. ge. a teare congeled. Erasmus saith, that Lema is a congeled humour in the eyes, that harteth the sight.

Lemānus, a poole, into the whyche the ryuer of Rhone renneth, called in frenche Lausane.

Lembunculus, li, a diminutiue of Lembus.

Lembus, bi, m. g. a swifte littell Myppe, whyche maye be called a barke.

Lemma, māis, n. g. an argument.

Lemnia terra, that whyche is now called Terra sigillata.

Lemniſci, ōrum, ma. ge. plu. labelles hangyng downe from garlandes, also iesses belongyng to an hauke.

Lemniscātus, a, um, that hath suche labelles, or iesses hangyng downe.

Lemnius, a, um, of Lemnos.

Lemnos, one of the Iles called Cyclades, wher in Vulcan was nourished. The women of this ile beyng in a furie, that their husbandes were longe absente in warrtes, whan they came home (conspyrng together) slewe them all in one night, excepte Hippisphyle the kynges daughter, saued and conueighed hie father. Reade in Hippisphile.

Lemonium, nij, n. g. an herbe.

Lemosi, they that weepe lightly.

Lemouices, Lymoū in Fraunce.

Lēmures, murum, m. g. plur. spirtes, whyche do walke by night with horrible figures.

Lemuria, ōrum, neu. ge. plu. feastes dedicate to those spirtes.

Lenæum, a holy daye kept at Athenes.

Lenæus, one of the names of Bacchus.

Lena, nā, f. g. a woman baudie.

Lendiginosus, a, um, full of nittes.

Lenē, idem quod leniter.

Linimentum, ti, and Lenimen, minis, n. g. that maketh pleasaunt or swete, that taketh awaye the sharpnesse or egernesse of a thyng.

Lenio, iui, ire, to pacifie, to moderate to appease, to teate gently, to make playne or smothe, to comforte. Quo illam mihi lenirent miseriam, that they myght ease me of the sorowe or care that I was in.

Lenire tempestates, to appease the tempestes.

Lenis, ne, not soone angrye, soone contented or pleased, full of sufferance, that whyche hath no roughnes, meke, tractable, softe of conditions, gentyll, modest, mylde, pleasaunt in taste, contrary to eiger and tart.

Lenē & asperum, contrary.

Venenum lenē, an easy poyson, that kylleth a man without payne.

Vinum lenē, delicious and pleasaunt wyne.

Ingenio leni esse, to haue a gentyll nature.

Lenes cibi and acres, contrary.

Lenitas, rāis, and Lenitudo, dñis, f. g. mekenesse, gentilnesse, easynesse to please, softnesse, smothernesse. Also pleasauntnesse in taste, fauours eablenesse.

Leniter, softly, sweetely, moderately, gently.

Leno, ōnis, com. gener. a baudie, a marchaunte of howes.

Lenobates, a treader of grapes.

Lenocinium, nij, n. gen. the practyse of baudie.

Sometyme immoderate & exquisite clemynesse or elegancy to stee a man to vice, a vicious pleasauntnesse, a pleasaunt inticement or lure.

Lenocinor, aris, ari, to practyse baudie. Also to speake faire or allure one with wordes and other pleasaunt thynges. Sometyme to gette fauour, to make a thyng to haue the more grace.

Lenonius, a, um, petyng to baudes.

Lens, lendis, f. g. a nitte.

Lens, lentis, fcm. gene. a kynde of pulse called lentelles.

Ante lentem augere ollam, to vse to much hast, to fish before the nette.

In lente vnguentum, a prouerbe, signifying the thyng to be absurde, as farre from the purpose as Magnificat from mattens: as mete for this matter as swete oyle in potage.

Lens palustris, duckes meate or water lentelles, whiche in standyng waters lieth howeryng.

Lentē, easily, softly, slowly.

Lentē ferre, to suffre or take patiently.

Lentē agere, to doe a thyng slowly, and negligently.

Lente ac fastidiose aliquem probare, to proue by lptel and lptele in longe continuance.

Lentissime mandere, to eate vnsay slowly and leysly.

Lenteco, tui, tere, to be softe, tendre, to be pliant.

Lentesco, scere, to be smothe or tendre, to become slammyp lyke glew, pitche, or birde lime.

Lenticula, lē, f. g. a pulse called chittes.

Lenticula, a maner of vessell, out of the whyche hynges and pynces were anoynted, a Chrysmas tozie. also a rounde redde thyng lyke a lptell in mens visages.

Lenticularis, re, lyke a chitte or fatche.

Lentiginosus, he that hath in his face or bodye many lptle redde markes lyke lptelles.

Lentigo, tiginis, f. ge. a thyng lyke a lptle wart in the face, redde or blacke.

Lentiscus, a lptle tree, out of the whyche cometh a swete gumme called Mastix, mastix tree. of this tree they make tooth pickes: and fyne duk to scoure the lcthe.

Lentiscum mādīr, spoken prouerbiālye of one that trymmeth hym selfe to curiously.
Lentiscinus, a, um, made of the tree Lentiscus.
Lentisciferus, a, um, that beareth these trees.
Lentitia, a, f. g. softnesse, pliantnesse.
Lentitudo, dinis, f. g. slownesse, negligence.
Lento, aui, are, to doe a thyng softelye, easelye, or slowly. also to make pliant or flexible.
Lentor, ōris, masc. gene. a clammy and glewlye humour.
Lentulus, a ctesin of Rome.
Lentulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Lentus.
Lentus, a, um, soft gentyll, tendze, pliant, that boweth easlye, easie, slowe, remisse, secure, carelessse, at rest, idell, cleaupng. or clammye, longe in doyng a thyng sometyme colde. also that continueth long.
Lento gradu ire, to go slowlye or a soft pace.
Lentus ignis, a soft fyre.
Lentior pugna, a slacke batayle with out fiercenes.
Tellus lenta, clammye.
Lentus humor, a colde stymie humour.
Lenta viuacitas, whan one is long in dyng.
Lenta mora, longe taryng, lpyngeryng.
Lenulus, a lyttle or ponge sawde.
Lenunculus, li, maf. gen. idem, also a little fys Mars boct.
Leo, a mans name of Byzaunce.
Leo, les, leui, lere, to anoynt or smere ouer.
Leo, ōnis, m. ge. a lion also a well fysh called a lopstar, also a signe in the firmament.
Leonem ex ynguibus astimare. To esteeme the lion by his yons: A prouerbe, signifying, to perceiue by a litle what y whole matter meaneth or by a piece of a thyng what the whole is, or by one tokē to vnderstād what maner of mā one is.
Leonem radere, spoken where one attempteth a thyng dangerous and all most impossible.
Leo risit, a prouerbe, touchyng theym, whiche be slowe of countynauce, fyele, and vns courtelye.
Leochares, the name of an excellent grauer.
Leodamās, the propre name of a philosophier.
Leon, a philosophier.
Leonides, a kyng of the Lacedemonians, whychē dydde incredible feates of warre agaynst Peres kyng of Persia: and fynallye was slayne in defendyng Greece, with. 4800. grekes onelye, agaynst. x. hundred thousande of the hoste of Peres. There was also an other Leonides, whiche was tutour to kyng Alexander, whan he was a chyld.
Leoninus, a, um, of a lion.
Leonina, nā, f. ge. an herbe, whychē groweth on hilles, whose floures are like to a lions mouth, whan he gapeth.
Leontice, ces, f. ge. an herbe called also Cacalia, and hath lytle seedes lyke to a margarite and is called of the apothecaries Carui agreste.
Leontini, people of Sicilie.

Leontios, a kynde of precious stones.
Leontopetalon, li, n. ge. an herbe hauyng leanes lyke to colewortes, the stalke halfe a fote hyghe, the seede in huskes as great as small peason, the roote lyke a rape roote, great and blacke, whychē helpeth agaynst the styngyng and bytyng of all maner of serpentes.
Leontophonon, a lytle worme, whiche if the lion do bite, the lion dieth incontinent.
Leontophona, nā, f. gen. a lytle beaste, whose heade is turned into a scow, wherewith men doe mixte fleshe and cast it into the wayes, wherby lions doe passe, wherof if they doe eate they die incontinent.
Leontopodion, di, neu. gene. an herbe called Dee de leon, whychē hath floures lyke roses vnspredde.
Leontopodium, an herbe, whychē some do saye is lyke to that, whychē is called Marigouldes. Some suppose it to be the herbe, whychē is called Dent de lion.
Leopardus, di, m. g. a leoparde.
Lepadusa, the yle of Sicilie.
Lepide, vnpleasuntely, pteatly, with a grace, honesty.
Lepide memoras, this is well sayed of you.
Lepide stratus lectus, minionly, trymely.
Vin' tu lepidē facere will ye doe well.
Lepidium, an herbe, whychē Virgilius Marcellus supposeth to be that, whychē the apothecaries doe call Seitrac. Ruellius describeth it to haue leaues whan they be yong, lyke to laurell, but they be softer. Finallye it is lyke a sword blade rebated: the stalke riseth in heighe a cubite, and hath a great roote with a thycke rynde, and a pithe lyke to wodde. Some physicians doe call it Cittandor. Dioscorides affirmeth Lepidium and Gingidium, to be all one, whychē Gingidium some doe call cheruile.
Lepidotes, tis, f. ge. a precious stone, lyke to the scales of fshes.
Lepidule, the diminutiue of Lepide.
Lepidus, a, um, nete, polite, pleasant, as well in speache as in gesture, that hath a good grace, pteatie, mery.
Mores lepidi, pleasant manners.
Lepida occasio, a good occasion.
Lepidum nuncium, mery tydynges.
O capitulum lepidissimum, a litle pteatie feat goll poll.
Lepista, nā, f. ge. a lyttle pottle or viole.
Lepor, and Lepos, ōris, m. ge. purenesse or netenes in speche. Also the good grace and delectableness in speche, gesture, or doyng a thyng, pleasantnesse.
Leporarium, ri, n. ge. an inclosure, or place inclosed, wherin are kepte any beaustis for pleasure, or huntynge, a parke, a cunnygate.
Leporinus, a, um, of an hare.
Leporis palatium, an herbe called Sowthistel, in greke Donchus.
Lepra,

Lepra, prae, f. g. lepric.
 Leprium, a citee of Achaia, an other in Arcadia.
 Leptenacia, a promontorie of Indie.
 Lepris, the name of two citres in Aethiopia the last.
 Leptoludix, blache fygges.
 Lepion, an herbe of the hynde of Centaurie.
 Leptophillon, li, n. g. a kinde of Spurge that hath brode leaues.
 Leptus, the weyght of a karat and an halfe. Andreas Alciatus in tres posteriores libros saith, a karat is the thyrde parte of Obolus, whiche is halfe a scrupull.
 Lepus, leporis, m. g. an hare.
 Duo simul insequor lepores, I fythe after two thynges atones, and am lyke to lese both:
 betwene two stoles my taylor is lyke to goe to the ground.
 Lepusculus, li, mas. g. a leueret oz ponge hare.
 Lepus, a certayne fysh, whiche is poyson to a man,
 and a man to hym.
 Leria, one of the ples called Sporades: the people therof are called Leriij, of whose maners grow a prouerbe, Leriij mali.
 Lerne, oz lerna, a lake oz a fenne, in Achaia about Argos, and a fenne, in the whyche was the serpent Hydra with manye heades as poetes feigne.
 Into this lake the people of the citees of Argus and Mycene dyd throw all the ordure and swes-synges of theyr stretes and houses, wherof came the prouerbe.
 Lerna malorum, wherby was signified an heape of mischieses: oz ane person, in whom is all vice and abhominacion.
 Lerneus, a, um, of Lerna.
 Leros, an ilande in the sea Icarie.
 Lestosa, a citee of Spayne, called now Torrasa.
 Lesbos, an yle in the sea called Egeum, wherein was the citee Mytilene.
 Lesbios, a, um, of the yle of Lesbos.
 Lesbia regula, is spoken, where reason is applied to the arte, and not the arte to reason: and where the lawe is accomodate to maners, and not maners to the lawe. Hereof speaketh Aristotle Morali. lib. v. of that, whyche is infinite, the rule is infinite like the leaden rule of Lesbos, whyche serueth for buildyng, and is chaunged to the facion of the stone.
 Lessus, us, ma, ge. a lamentable voyce vsed in the buryng of men, as we dw saie, alas.
 Lestorum, a region of Indie.
 Lestrygones, a people in the extreme part of Ita-lie, whyche dyd eate the companions of Ulysses roasting them on byches.
 Lestrygonus, a, um, of that people.
 Letalis, le, mortall, deadly.
 Letaliter, mortally, deadly.
 Letata corpora, bodies of them that be slayne.
 Letatus, a, um, slayne.
 Letamen, minis, n. g. compasse, dong, oz mucke, layed in the felde to make cozne and grasse to growe plentifully.

 Letania, oz Lirania, a supplicacion oz common prayer.
 Letargia, oz Lethargus, whiche of some is called veternus, is (as Paulus Aegineta wyrteth) a disease in that parte of the heade, in the whyche the power of reason is conteyned possesseynge the same place that phrenesie dooeth, that is to saye the bryayne: but the cause and mattier be contrary. For in this is continuall necessitee of slepe, harde to be awaked, the mattier being a moyste and veraye colde humour, washyng the bryayne, and compellyng one to slepe. Alexander Trallianus addeth therto, that therein is suche a forget-fulnesse, that he which is sicke, can not remembre what he wolde speake. Constantinus saith, that where sometyme theydwe gape, they do forget to close theyr mouthes. It is sometyme called Vera, and then is it of a pure colde mattier, and somestyme it is called Non vera, and than is it of a colde mattier mixte wyth a littell bloude oz chol-ler: seldome it happeneth of Melancholy. Sometime it foloweth an other sicknesse, as a fleumatie fever, oz the sicknesse of the lunges called Perip-neumonia. In these diseases by heate the fleume is made subtil, and is plucked vpp to the bryayne, where a cotidian feuer and that bee together:
 sometyme the feuer departeth in the space of seuen dayes, and leaueth behinde that sicknesse.
 Lethargicus, ci, m. gen. he that hath the sleppynge oz forgetful sicknesse.
 Lethara, loke Letara.
 Lethe, a ryuer of helle, the water wherof as soone
 as it is drunke, causeth a man to forget all thing that is passed, it is also a ryuer in Aethiopia.
 Letheus, a, um, of that ryuer.
 Lethifer, ra, rum, deadly, byngyng oz causyng
 death.
 Lethificus, a, um, causyng death.
 Leto, aui, are, to flee.
 Letum, oz Lethum, ti, n. g. death.
 Leto interire, to bee slayne.
 Eripere se letho, to salve his owne lyfe.
 Leua manus, the left hande.
 Leuamen, minis, and Leuamentum, ti, neu.
 generis, solace, comfort, consolacion, that dimi-nisheth yuell oz sorowe, and maketh it moze tollerable.
 Leuatio, onis, f. gen. a consolacion, an easyng, a diminishyng of payne oz sorowe.
 Leuatus, a, um, lifted vp.
 Leuca, a promontorie oz elbowe of lande, nyghe to Corinthus.
 Leucachates, tis, ma. gene. a precious stone that is white.
 Leucadia, an yle by the bosome of the sea called Ambracium.
 Leucacantha, is (as Jo. Agricola affirmeth) a thornie bushe comyng vpp in hedges and disches, haupnge whyte scote floures: oz els a kynde of square thistle, full of pyretes. Manardus Trij suppos

suppoſeth it to bee that, whyche the Arabians call Wedeguar. Ruellius affirmeth it to bee that, whyche Dioſcorides calleth Rhamnus: the Romayns Albam ſpinam, white thorne, growyng in hedges, hauynge ſtreight by bzaunthes full of pyches, lyttell leaues, ſomewhat longe, fatter and ſofter. Some is whiter than other, the darker coloured hath broader leaues, and ſomewhat ruddy, the twigges be in lengthe almoſte ſyue cubites, the fruite white, brode, thynne, ſhaped lyke a codde. Nowe haue ye the ſundrye diſcriptions of the great lerned men of this tyme: diuine what Leucacantha is: for to ſo diuers opinions I can not fynde one engliſhe, excepte I ſhoulde call it white bzler. this Leucacantha is commonly after ſome mens opinions named carduus S. Marie, our lady thiſtle.

Leucanthemis, an herbe, whiche phyſicians of late dates call Camomill, loke Chamæmilon.

Leucathiopes, a people of Aſiæ.

Leucargilion, liij. n. g. white clate.

Leucas, cadis, ſc. m. gen. a towne in the countrey of Leucadie.

Leucaspis, a Troian, whyche ſayled with Aeneas into Italye.

Leucates, a mountaine in Epiro. alſo an yle.

Leuce, a kynde of morpheu.

Leuce, a littell towne, not far from Smirnia. alſo an herbe lyke Mercurie, hauyng a white lyne in the middle of the leafe. Leucero dius.

Leucippus, a philoſopher.

Leucocryſos, a precious ſtone.

Leucogea, a precious ſtone.

Leucogei, certayne hilles in Italye by Naples.

Leucóion, leucóij, n. ge. the generall name of all kyndes of violetttes: not withſtandyng it is properly taken for the winter gilofey, whyche is a kind of violetttes.

Leucola, an ile by Cyprus.

Leucóma, máris, n. g. the webbe in the eye whan it is roted. alſo the whyte of an egge. alſo the table, wherein the names of iudges or officers be wyitten, and the actes of euery yere regiſtered, called alſo Album.

Leucon, a kyng of Pontus, ſlayne of his brother Oxilocus for adultery. A houſband man of the ſame name.

Leucónium, nij, or Leuconicum, ci, neu. gene. white cotton.

Leucopetalos, a whyte precious ſtone with ſtrakes of golde.

Leucopetra, a promontorie of Sicilie.

Leucóphæus, phæi, maſ. gen. a browne or ruſſet colour.

Leucophæatus, a, um, that weareth a ruſſette garment.

Leucophlegmantia, a whyte dropſy.

Leucophlegmatia, or Leucophlegmatias hyderos, one kynde of dropſy, wherein all the bodye ſwelleth vnequally.

Leucóphorum, ri, n. gen. that they ſouldye golde with, boras.

Leucophthalmos, a precious ſtone lyke a whyte eye.

Leucopus, white of naturall colour.

Leucosia, an ile agaynſt Peſtanum, in the ſea Thyrrenum.

Leucosiria, a countrey, whyche is nowe called Cappadocia.

Leucosydorum cubitus, a place in Cappadocia.

Leucoſticſos, a ſtone that hath whyte ſpottes in it.

Leucothæa, the goddeſſe, whyche was called Mar-tuta and Aurora.

Leucothoæ, the daughter of Oreamus of Baby-lon, whome (beyng gotten with childe by Phebus) hir father dydde burie alive: but Phebus (as poetes ſeygne) dyd tranſforme hir into a tree, out of the whyche tenneth frankyncens.

Leucrocuta, a beaſte in Indie, as great as an aſſe, hauynge legges lyke an herte, the heade, necke, tayle, and breaſt of a graie or badger, the ſoute clouen, a wide gaping mouth by to the eares: in ſtede of teeth, one hole bone, in his voyce he will reſemble the ſpeache of a man. Plinie ſaith, this beaſtes head is of the ſacion of Melis, and Melis is the beaſte called Texo, whyche is a graie or a badger. Solinus ſayeth, he hath the head of a ramme, whyche perchaunce was the faulte of the wyter or prynter, whyche vnto Meli, added Ca, and madde it Cameli.

Leuctra, plu. and Leuctrum, or Leuctra, ſingu. a towne of Beotia.

Leuctricus, a, um, of Leuctra.

Leui, one of the ſonnes of Jacob the patriarche.

Leuiathan, a dragon of the ſea. It is taken in holy ſcripture for the dyuell.

Leuiculus, a, um, ſomewhat light. alſo wanton.

Leuidenſa, æ, ſc. gen. a garment made of coarſe clothe, ſuche as men vſed in olde tyme to geue to gueſtes of theyr acquayntaunce.

Leuidenſa munus, ſpoken prouerbiallye of a ſimple giſte and of ſmal value.

Leuiſidus, a, um, of lyghte or ſmal credence or truſte.

Léuipes, uipedis, om. ge. ſwifte, lighte of fote.

Leuir, léuiri, m. g. the huſbandes brother.

Leuis, leue, lyght, liger, eaſy, vnconſtant, ſmal, vile, of littell ualue, of ſmal reputation.

Leuia vina, ſmal wyne.

Leuis armaturæ milites, lyght ſouldiours.

Leuis armaturæ excuſio in oratione, lyghte argumentes, that men bypnye befoze they come to the pithe of the mattier.

Leuis author, of no authoritee.

Leuis homo, an vnconſtant man, alſo a vile perſon of ſmal eſtimation.

Leuia hæc ſunt, theſe are but triflyng and lighte thynges, or matters of ſmal importance.

Leui brachio aliquid agere, to do a thyng ſleightly, or negligently.

Dolor leuis, id eſt paruus.

Impenſa leuis, ſmal coſte or charge.

Precium leuius, a more easy paye.
 Reprehensio leuis, a smaller buke.
 Leuis labor, a light and easy labour.
 Leuita, among the Jewes, was a minister in theyr ceremonies vnder their prestes, a decon.
 Leuitas, raris, form, generis, lightnesse, incommensurable.
 Leuiter, lightly, vnconstantly, smally, meanelye, easily, patiently.
 Leuiter agnoscere, to haue a littell knowlage of a thyng.
 Leuiter attingere studia, to be a student but a litle while, to haue but meane learning.
 Leuiter inter se dissident, there is a little variance betwene them.
 Leuiter eruditus homo, a man of small learning, or meanely learned.
 Leuiter aspersus laudibus, preysed a litle.
 Leuiter ferre, to take patiently.
 Leuiter inflexum, a littell bowed.
 Vt leuissime dicam, to speake moste gently, or that I maye not speake the extremities.
 Leuissime laesus, hurtis very littell.
 Leuiter aliquid tangere, to touche or speake of a thyng briefely, or in a fewe wordes.
 Bene volumus leuiter lenonibus, we owe haundes but small fauour.
 Leuius ledit, it hurteth lesse.
 Leui somnus, a, um, that so slepeth, that it will lightly or soone awake.
 Leuo, aui, are, to lyfte vp, sometime to take away, to abate, to minyssh, or mitigate, to make easy or light, to helpe, to vnbourden.
 Leuare aliquem onere, to dyscharge one of his burdeyne.
 Leuare animum, to recreate the spirites.
 Leuare annonam, to minyssh the pryce of vintages.
 Leuare tributum alicuius agri, to take vp the rente for a certayne plotte of ground or piece of lande.
 Leuare facinus alicuius, to excuse one of a mischeuous dede.
 Leuare ictum serpentis, To heale one stonge with an adder.
 Leuare laborem alicui, To ease one of his labour, or to put hym out of payne.
 Leuare metum alicui, to put one out of feare.
 Leuare morbum alicui, To make his syknes more easy.
 Leuare populum frumento, to helpe the people with coyne in tyme of scarcitee.
 Leuare suam auctoritatem, to minyssh his authoritee.
 Leuare amicitias remissione vsus, to leaue off frendshipp by litle and litle.
 Calamitatem innocentium leuare, To healep them that be troubled wrongfullye, so to deliuer them out of trouble.
 Leuare dentes penna, to picke the teeth with a quille,

Paupertatem alicui leuare, to healep one that is in pouertie and neede.
 Promissa multa fidem leuant, he that promyseth many thynges, is not lightly belened.
 Leuare sese are alieno, to paye his debtes.
 Sumptum leuare, to diminish the onces charges, to make that he spende not so muche.
 Leuare vincula, to slacke the bondes that one is tyed with.
 Leuare plagam, in grassynge after the stroke is fawed, to paye the heade smothe with a knyfe.
 Leuus, or rather Leuius, a, um, lesse, also whan it is spoken of worldely thynges, it signifyeth lesse, vnhappye contrarie, whan it is referred to celestiall thynges, it betokeneth righte, fortunate, prosperous. For that whiche to vs is the lesse hande, to them, whiche are aboue, and doe looke toward vs, is the righte hande, whiche Leuius.
 Leuphana, a citee of Germanie, called commonly Hanouer.
 Leuthychides, a kynge of Lacedemonie.
 Lex, legis, femin. generis, lawe. also a statute or decree, a rule to folowe, a couenant or condicion.
 Lex municipalis, The peculiar lawe, whiche euery cite hath.
 Lex orchia, a lawe, whiche assigned, howe many persons shoulde be bouden to supper, and that men shoulde suppe at theyr doores, to the intent that it myghte appere, howe the lawe was obeyed.
 Lex plagaria, wherby men were whipped.
 Leges Cēturiatæ, lawes made by thassemblies called Comitia Centuriata, rede Comitia.
 Leges Curiatæ, lawes made in the assemblies called Curiata comitia, whiche were called by wekes.
 Leges Tribunitiæ, lawes made by all the common people, whiche were also called Plebiscita.
 Lege agere, to sue in the lawe: also, to put the lawe in execution.
 Legibus soluere, to dispense or graunt a place to one, to do any thyng contrary to a lawe made.
 Sancire leges, to ordeyn and stablysh the lawes.
 Mac lege, on this condicion.
 A stringi legibus, to be subiect to the lawes.
 Lege vendere, whan the lawe geueth authoritee to selle.
 Hanc ad legem formanda vobis oratio est, after this rule.
 Leges perlege, rede the condicions.
 Abrogare lege, legi, and legem, to abrogate parte of a lawe.
 Lexis, lexeos, f. g. a word.
 Lexipyreti, medicines, whiche doe heale men of fevers.
 Lexouij, or Lexuuij, people in hygge fraunce about Burbon.

Lia, one of the wives of Jacob the patriarche.
 Lia, he holes in the toppes of a mast, whiche doe receyue the halsters or ropes.
 Liba, an yle in the Indian sea.
 Libadion, an herbe called the lesse Centory.
 Libāmen, bāminis, Libamentum, ti, n. ge. and Libatio, ōnis, f. m. gen. a taste or sape taken, properly in sacrifice.
 Libanius, the name of a great rhetorician.
 Libānicus, a, um, of frankincense.
 Libanocnes, a precious stone like to frankincense.
 Libanos, a tree growynge in Arabia, out of the whiche renneth Frankincense, whiche of Euripides is called Libanos, and the tree Libanotos: contrary wyse of Sophocles, and Gasienus, the tree is called Libanos, and the gum Libanotos.
 Libanotis, tidis, f. g. an herbe called Rosemary.
 Libanotus, a wynde, whiche doeth blowe oute of the northweast.
 Libanus, a mountayne betwene Arabia and Phenicia. It is also a tree, whiche byngeth to the incense.
 Libarius, rij, m. g. he that selleth cakes.
 Libatus, a, um, tasted, assayed, sacrificed, taken out of an other thyng, loke Libo.
 Libarnum, or Libarna, a citee of Liguria.
 Libella, lē, f. g. the diminutive of Libra, it was also a small coigne, and of theim were twoo sortes: one was worth the tenth parte of Sestersrius, the other the tenth parte of Denarius, idem quod As, assis. It is also the line and plums mete of a mason or carpenter.
 Libellarius, ci, m. g. he that for feare of punishment is content to haue his name registred among the ydell wozshippers.
 Libellio, ōnis, mas. ge. a writer of booke, also a carier of letters.
 Libellulus, li, m. g. a veraye littell booke.
 Libellus, li, m. gen. a littell booke. Sometime an epistoll, a supplication, a libell or declaration in the lawe, of debte, trespass, couenant, and other lyke, a citation, a rolle conteynynge notes made for memoie, a letter sette vp on a poste or walle.
 Sometime a poynt or article, a byll of cōplaynt.
 also a certayne measure.
 Libelli supplices, supplications made to greate
 men.
 Libellus memorialis, a littell register, scrow, or table made for memoie.
 Libellorū præfecti, maysters of the requestes, whiche doe receyue billes of supplication, beyng put vp to the kyng or pynce.
 Libellos agere, to be master of the requestes.
 Libellos signare, to aunswere to the bylles of request.
 A libellis, mayster of the requestes.
 Libens, entis, om. g. wyllyng, gladde.
 Libenti animo, gladly.
 Me libente, with my god wyl.
 Libentissimis omnibus, with every mannes

ryght god wyl.
 Libens, for Libenter.
 Libenter, wyllyngly, gladly.
 Bene libenter victas, thou louest to fare wel,
 and make good chere.
 Libentia, a, f. g. a dilection, a pleasure.
 Libentina, one of the names of Venus, or Proserpina.
 Liber, liberi, the finder of wyne, called also Bacchus and Dionysius. It is sometime put for wine.
 sometime for the sonne.
 Liber, libri, ma. gen. a booke or warke written,
 the inner rynde of a tree, sometime a register, an Inuentorie.
 Liber, libera, crum, free, at libertee, not bounden, large or great, bolde or franke. also without bus-sinesse or lette, not subiect.
 Libero aere viuere, to lyue in open ayre.
 Litera libera, letters, wherein one spareth not to shew his mynd freely and frankly.
 Tempus liberum, a vacant time, or durynge whych season one maye do what he listeth.
 Liber ab irrisione, not mocked.
 Liber a legibus, not subiecte to lawes.
 Liber religione animus, a wynde without all religion or feare of god.
 Liberum est mihi, I maye, it is in my power or choyse.
 Libero corde fabulari, to common his myndes boldly.
 Liber lectulus, whan one lyeth alone without a bedde felowe.
 Liber locus, a place, where one maye do his pleasure without feare or correction.
 Laborum liber, that labourerth not.
 Relinquere liberum alicui, To leane to ones
 choyse, to do or thynke what he listeth.
 Liberalia, ōrum, n. ge. a soleinne or festiual daye dedicate to Bacchus.
 Liberalis, is, liberal, comely, well fauoured, full of largesse, full of liberalitee.
 Liberales artes, the liberall sciences, or sciences
 belongynge to a free man.
 Liberalis forma, a good fauour.
 Liberale ingenium, a free courage, an honeste nature or disposition.
 Liberale iudicium, & liberalis causa, where a man contendeth for his libertee.
 Liberales ioci, testes, & merke sayings mete for honest men.
 Liberalis, and Auidus, contrary.
 Liberalis facies, a well fauoured and good face, a face of fauour shewyng tokens of honestie and grace, honest.
 Liberale coniugium, honeste wedlocke betwene
 two persons free bozne.
 Liberalitas, tātis, f. g. liberalitee, bountie, honest intreatyng or dealyng, freeness in geuyng or besrowyng.
 Liberaliter, liberally, abundantly, largely, frely,
 honestly, lyke an honest body.

Exercitum quem in Asia ductauerat, luxurios se, nimisque liberaliter habuerat, The armye, which he had with hym in Asia, he let them haue to muche theyr pleasure.
Liberaliter eruditus, well taught, brought vp in honest learnyng.
Liberaliter viuere, to lyue without vile ocupacion.
Liberaliter tractare, to interteyn liberally.
Liberaliter polliceri, to promyse largely.
Seruire liberaliter, to doe ones dutie in his seruise honestly.
Liberator, oris, m. g. he that deliuereth.
Liberatio, onis, f. g. a setting at libertee.
Libere, frankly, liberallye, without constraint or let, boldly, freely, without feare.
Libere viuere, to lyue at pleasure.
Educari libere, to bee brought vp honestly lyke
a gentyll man.
Libere loqui, to speake freely and boldly, fra-ryng no daunger.
Liberi, orum, m. g. plu. chyldren as well women as men, and sometyme it is spoken of one.
Auctus liberis, he that hath a chyldre bozne.
Liberides, conpes.
Libero, aui, are, to deliuer, to set at libertee, to brynge out of bondage.
Liberare creditorem, To contente or satisfie hym, of whome money is borrowed, to paye debtes.
Culpam aliquem liberare, to discharge one, to shew hym to be blamelesse.
Liberatus sum tua opera, I am rydde out of daunger by thy helpe.
Liberare se a re alieno, to paye his debte.
Liberare aliquem metu, to put one out of feare.
Liberare fidem suam, to doe that he promysed.
Libertas, tatis, f. ge. libertee taken wel neere al-waye in the good parte.
Dare libertatem alicui, to make one free.
Recipere libertatem, to receyue agayne theyr franchise or libertee.
Vindicare in libertatem, To deliuer out of bondage, to sette at libertee.
Libertinus, a, um, that is manumised or made free also bozne of one that was a seruant.
Libertus, and Liberta, he or she that of a bonde man or woman is manumised or enfranchised, a late seruant.
Liberum arbitrium, free wyll.
Liber, it lyketh or contenteth, it pleaseth.
Libuit, it was my pleasure so to dooe I was disposed, it was my phantasie, luste, or appetite.
Cetera quæ cuius libuissent, which lyked euery man in his owne phantasie.
Quoniam libitum est vobis, because it hath pleased you.
Silibitum fuerit, yf it come in his head.
Libethra, a cause, wherein was a well called Libethros, where the Muses beynge conuersant, were therefore called Libethrides.

Libethrides, the Muses or ladyes of sciences.
Libethrij, a people of Persia, bitterly rude and vn-
learned.
Libethrus, a mountayne in Macedonia, where the Muses dyd dwell.
Libidinarius, an haunter of lechery.
Libidinosus, a, um, lecherous, wyllfull, pleasant.
Libidinosæ dapes, curious and exquisite fare.
Libidinosè, lecherously, wyllfully, after ones owne appetite.
Libidinor, aris, ari, to playe the lechour.
Libido, bidinis, f. m. ge. sensualiter, vnlesull appetite or luste. Sometyme it signifieth onely appetite or wyll.
Libitina, æ, f. m. ge. a goddesse, in whose temple were solde all thynges, perceyninge to sepulchres or funeralles. Sometyme for buryng, or sep-lynge of suche thynges as apperteine to buryng.
also the charge and expence at buryng. also for deathe, or the bette, wheron dead bodies are carryed.
Libitinaris, rij, m. g. he that hath the surueyng and charge about burynges.
Libo, bonis, a citsin of Rome.
Libo, aui, are, to taste anye thyng. Sometyme to touche. Sometyme to sacrifice. Sometyme to take or pyke oute in readyng of authours that whyche lyketh one.
Libare gustu potum, to taste or say the drynke.
Oscula libauit naræ, he kyssed his daughter.
Cibum libare digitis, to touch.
Cibilibati ore alicuius, tasted.
Thura libare dijs, to sacrifice.
Libora, a citee in Spayn, called sometyme Elboze, nowe commonly Caleuera.
Libra, bræ, f. ge. a pounce, wherof be thre sortes,
one called Troiana or Publica, conteynyng. 16.
ounces: whyche all occupiers in weighynge doe vse commonly: An other is called Romana, conteynyng. 12. ounces, whyche the Romanes were wont to vse, and this doe our poticaries vse: and of this pounce doe all the auncient wyters speake. The thyrde pounce is called Marca, Octonaria, or Nummularia, whyche conteynneth but. viii. ounces, that is halfe so muche as the common pounce: by this pounce they doe weigh money. also a measure of lycour conteyn-nyng. 12. ounces. Sometyme a paye of balaces.
it is also one of the. 12. signes. Sometyme a carpenters lyne, a masons rule.
Libra Romana, after some, was equall with oure pounce sterlyng: but moze treuelye, it is twyfe so muche. For Libra conteyneth. 100. des-narios, and euery denarius. is in value a groate sterlyng.
Libra attica, reade in Mina.
Libralis, le, that is a pounce weight or measure.
Libramentum, ti, n. ge. equall poyle or weyght,
the tongue of the balance.

Libramenta tormentorum, strynges, thonges, and cordes, belongyng to ingins of warre.
Libramenta plumbi, great weightes of leade put into the ingin called Aries.
Libramen, bráminis, n. gen. the castyng of hurtyng of a dartte.
Libraria, æ, form. g. a librarie, or a woman that weigheth out woull or flaxe.
Libraria taberna, a booke sellers shoppe.
Librarium atramentum, pynners inke.
Librarius, rij, ma. ge. a scriuener, a bookebinder, one that kepeth a librarie. also he that weteth out flaxe, woull, or yarne.
Librarius, a, um, perteynyng to bookes, balances, or of a pound weyght.
Libraria frusta, powndestones or thynges weyghyng a pownde.
Librarium, rij, n. g. a grosse register.
Librator, toris, m. g. a conueigher of water from well spynges to cundites, considering the leuel of the places.
Libratóres, hurlers of stones in warres.
Librile, lis, the hanging equally of the balance, the beame of the balance.
Librilla, or libella, stones tyed by strynges, or thonges, to hurle at men, vled in olde tyme in the warres.
Libripens, dis, m. g. he that holdeth the balance in his hande, and weigheth, a weigher.
Libro, aui, are, to weygh, to poyle, to make weightie, to houer, to leuell, to counterpoyle. Sometyme to diuide equally.
Librare tela, to cast darter with great violence.
Librat sese ex alto Aquila, The eagle houereth or soareth on hygh.
Libs, bis, m. g. a wynde, the whyche bloweth out of the southe.
Libum, bi, n. g. a cake.
Liburni, people of the countrey called Liburnia, also common messengers.
Liburnia, a parte of Dalmatia or Slaunonie, now called Croatia.
Liburnum, ni, n. g. Liburna, na, and Liburnica, æ, form. gene. a lyghte and swyfte shyppe, a foyste.
Liburnus, a, um, of Liburnia.
Libya, was amonge the Greekes, the generall name of all Africa: Not withstandyng it is of the Romaynes taken onely for that parte of Africa, whyche is from Egypte to the west ocean, conteynyng Cyrenaica, Africa minor, Numidia, and Mauritania: The Spaniardes doe commonly call them all Moyses.
Libya interior, is bounded on the north wth the two contreis called Mauritanie, with Afrike the lesse, and Cyrenaica: on the east with Aethiope: on the south with Aethiope the further: on the west with the Ocean sea. In this countrey be the Garamantes and Getules.
Libyctinus, a, um, of Libya.
Libycis, cidis, a towne of Iudea on the east parte of the ryuer of Jordan.

Libycones, stones, whyche are not very cleere.
Libycus, a, um, of Libya.
Libyophanices, people in Africa.
Libys, and Libysia, a man and woman of Libya.
Libysia, a citee of Bithynia, called commonly Dolmen.
Libystinus, the surname of Apollo.
Lica, licæ, the name of one of Hercules companions.
Licambes, a citee of Macedemonia.
Licenter, licentious, ouer freely, with to much libertee, to boldely or rashely.
Licentia, æ, f. ge. licence, vnlesfull or immoderate libertee, pooze to doe a thyng.
Licentia temporum, a tyme whan euerye man vseth great libertee, and almoste dweth what he lysteth.
Licentior, licentius, ouer liberall or free, dissolute.
Licentior epistola, a letter, wherein one writeth his minde freely.
Licentior vita, a dissolute and an vnrule lyfe.
Licentiōsus, a, um, easie, vnyng vnlesfull libertee, licentious, dissolute.
Liceo, licui, cere, n. pass. to be pypled, or set at a pryce, or for howe muche it shall be solde.
Liceor, cēris, ceri, dep. to set the pryce hygher, to shewe for howe muche a man will selle it. also to cheape, to offre a certayne pryce.
Licet, it is lesfull. Sometyme it is vled for maie.
Mihi licet, I maye. Tibi licet, thou mayest. Sometyme be it so, admitte it.
Licuit esse ociofo Themistocli, Themistocles mought haue been without trauayle.
Nobis non licet esse tam disertis, we can not be so well spoken or eloquent.
Per me vel stertas licet, Thou mayest sleape for me vntill thou route: or I wil geue the leaue to route.
Licet mihi id de te discere, I maye learne this of you.
Licet, the aduerbe, be it, although.
Lichas, a measure, whyche exceedeth not foure synners.
Lichen, lichēnis, m. g. or Lichēne, nes, f. ge. a foule breakyng out, whyche begynneth aboute the chynne: and therefore is called Meniagra. Some dooe take it for the frenche pockes. but it semeth not so to bee. also an herbe called lyuerwortte.
Lichnis agrestis, called also Tragonaton, and Anthirrhinos, an herbe lyke to lyne seede, hayng almoste no roote, and a blue floure, with sedes lyke a calves snoute. It groweth amonge cozne in some countreies.
Licianus, a poete in the tyme of Martvall.
Liciatorium, torij, n. g. a weauers myttell, or a sylke womans tauell, whereon sylke or threede beeyng wounded, is wotte through the webbe or loome.

Licitans,

Licitans, antis, he that cheapeneth, or he that inhaunceth the price.
Licitatio, onis, for. ge. a cheepenyng, a pyssyng, a setting of the price, an open sale.
Licium, ci, n. g. and Licia, orum, neu. g. plur. thynges, whiche lyke women dooe weare in lincels or kooles.
Licina, a, f. g. a kynde of oliue trees.
Licitor, aris, ari, to cheapen, to bydde a certayne price for a thyng, to pryse, to set the price hygher. also to fight, to deale blowes.
Licitator, oris, ma. gen. one that inhaunceth the price, one that in cheapenyng profereth moze. a chepner, a chapman. sometime it signifieth a broker.
Licitatorem apponere, to laboꝛne one, to proferre or bidde moze for a thyng.
Licite, lesfully.
Licito, idem.
Licitus, a, um, lawfull.
Licoctonia, an herbe, whiche maie be called woulfe baine.
Lictor, oris, m. g. a sergeant, or other like minister to execute corporall punishment. A Consul of Rome had. xii. other head officers had. vi. whiche bare every one in their handes rodde and axes bounden together, to dooe with theim execution, as they wer commaunded.
Lictorius, a, um, perteynyng to sergeantes and other lyke officers.
Lidoron, a tile, in length one foote and an halfe, in bredth one fote.
Lien, enis, or lienis, lienis, mas. gen. the splene, the milke.
Lienicus, and lienofus, a, um, that is speke in the splene.
Lienosum cor, an herte that swelleth.
Lienteria, a, for. gen. slippernesse of the guttes, the flite.
Lientericus, a, um, that hath the flite.
Ligamen, gaminis, n. g. a bonde.
Ligamentum, ti, n. g. and ligatura, a, for. ge. idem.
Ligarius, a Romayne.
Ligellum, li, n. g. a littell house or cottage.
Ligeon, a certain tree. also an herbe.
Ligilium, an herbe mentioned in Columella.
Liger, ligeris, mas. gene. a riuer in Fraunce called Loire.
Lignarius, a, um, of woodde or that goeth for woodde.
Lignarius faber, a carpenter.
Lignator, oris, mas. gene. a carier of woodde, one that maketh prouision for woodde, a woodmonger.
Lignatio, onis, f. g. a hewyng, bearyng, fetchyng or purueynge of woodde. Sometime a groue where is much woodde.
Ligneus, a, um, of woodde, trine.
Ligneolus, a, um, a littel thyng made of woodde.
Lignile, lis, n. g. fuel, or a woodde stake.

Lignor, aris, ari, to go to cary woodde, to go to purueigh wood, as countpours doo in an army.
Lignofus, a, um, as harde as woodde, harde lyke woodde.
Lignum, ni, n. g. woodde.
Ligo, ui, are, to bynde.
 In catenas ligare, to bynde in chaynes.
Ligatus, a, um, bounden.
Ligo, onis, m. g. a spade.
Ligographi, common regesters, or auditours.
Ligula, la, f. g. a littell tongue, a latchet, it is also a spoone called Cochlear, whiche in measure conteyneth. iii. dragmas, and one scruple.
Liguria, a part of Italy, from the hille called Apenninus, vnto the sea called Tuscum, also from the ryuer of Marus, vnto the ryuer called Marcra. In it be the cities Genua, Sauona, Nau-lum, Albigena.
Ligurinus, called also spinus and acanthis, a bird that feedeth muche vpon Thistles, and hath a naturall hatred against the asse, and syngeth pleasantly: it is supposed to bee a grene finche, yet some haue taken it to be the nightingall, as Serenus writeth.
Ligurio, liguris, liguriui, or liguri, rire, to eate hypocritisme, or to deuoure sweete or deyntie meates. also to eate or pike morsels deyntily or curiously.
Furta ligurire, to eate stolen meate.
Ligurire lucra, by littell and littell to robbe a man with pyllyng and pollyng.
Ligurire rem aliquam, to despye or couete a thyng gredily, to the intente to fare the better by it.
Liguritis, onis, form. gen. gredynesse, immoderate appetite.
Ligus, liguris, of the countrey of Liguria, a Janz uens, of Janewaie.
Ligusticum, or after some Ligustinum mare, the sea that is by Ieane.
Ligusticum, or after some Libysticum, an herbe growyng commonly in the hilles of Liguria, it is called of the apothicaries Leuisticum, Lumbardie louage.
Ligusticus, a, um, of Liguria.
Ligustrum, tri, n. g. a tree, haupnge leaues lyke an olyue tree, but they bee broder and softer, and more grene of colour, whiche dooeth beare white floures and foote, whereof is made an oyle called Oleum Ciprinum. And this tree dooeth growe in watry places, as willowes and salowes dooe, and beareth a blacke fruite lyke to an elder tree. They whiche dooe take it for the bushe called Prinet, be much deceiued. This is maister Eliotes sentence, whose iudgement, I will not suppress, because certayne thynges in Plinies description semeth to confirme his opinion, as that Ligustrum groweth only in watry places: and also that the same tree is commonly taken to be Lypzos, whereas Fuchsius denieth it and saith, it is not Lypzos: how be it by iudgement of most physicians this Ligustrum is called Prinet or primprint. it is also an herbe which some men doo call Maior, and groweth by hedges.

Lygies, are people of Asia, which with Xerxes warred agaynst the Greekes.

Lygistus, the sonne of Phaeton, of whome Liguria was named.

Liliaceus, a, um, of lilies.

Liliæum, ti, n. g. a place where many lilies dooe grow.

Lilium, lij, n. g. a lilye.

Lilium conuallium, the herbe like to a lilye called Liricumfanse.

Lilybeum, a towne or promontorie in Sicile, where one of the Sibelles lieth buried.

Lima, a, f. g. a fyle.

Ultima lima defuit meis scriptis, the last correction, emendacion or castigation, whiche is as it were a fylling or polishing.

Vti lima mordacius, to correcte or mende a writing to rigorously or sharply.

Liber rarus lima, a booke corrected.

Limaria, the fythe called Tuny, whan it dooeth not excede one foote in length.

Limatus, a, um, filed, polished, also trimme, pure, nete, elegant. Terfus & limatus.

Limatus oratione, That hath a pure and eloquent style.

Limaculus, a, um, a littell filed, pure, nete, subtil.

Limatura, a, f. g. powder, whiche cometh of fylling.

Limax, mâcis, masc. gene. a snayle. also a man, whiche prieth or seketh for some thyng, to consume or scale it.

Limolarius, rij, m. gene. a maker of gardes or purples.

Limbus, bi, m. ge. a purple, a garde, a hemme of a garment.

Limen, liminis, n. g. signifieth not only the thresholde of a doore, but also the haunce. Somes tyme it signifieth the entrie of the doore. Somes tyme friendshipp, after the exposition of Seruis us. also the place where one standeth.

Ad limina seruis, a porter.

Limen cubiculi, the entrance into the chambze.

Limina imperij, the frontiers of the realme.

Limen, mênis, a porte or haue.

Limenarcha, cha, m. g. the wardein of the portes.

Limes, limitis, m. g. a crosse path or way. also a bounde or buttynge in fieldes.

Limeum, an herbe, called of the Frenchmen Venenum ceruarium.

Limiosaleum, a citee of Germany, called commonly Gnisna.

Limitatio, ônis, f. g. a boundynge.

Limitaneus, a, um, belongynge to the marches or boundes.

Limitanei agri, fieldes lyng in the extreme marches of a countrey.

Limitanei milites, souldiours, which were appoynted to kepe and defende the marches of the empire.

Limni, an yle of the east parte of Irelande.

Limitatus, a, um, bounded, limited.

Limito, aui, are, and Limitor, aris, ari, to bound or limite, how farre a thyng doeth extende, to diuide or departe.

Limitrophi fundi, landes, the possessors whereof are bounde to sende the coyne that cometh of those landes to finde the souldiours, that kepte boundes of the empire.

Limo, aui, are, to fyle, to polythe, to tryme, to take away that is superfluous, to diminish.

Limare commodum alicuius, To pare away parte of ones profits.

Ornare & limare.

Politus limare aliquod opus, To amende a worke more exactly.

Limones, num, f. m. gen. fruite called limons, whereof no mention is made of auncient authors, except it be among them, whiche are called Citra.

Limonia, a, f. g. gen. a kynde of the herbe called Anemone.

Limonium, m, n. ge. an herbe growynge in meadowes or moorthe groundes, hauynge leaues lyke to beetes, but lesse and more weake, and hath a stalke lyke a Lily, full of leaues, and a redde seide, wintergreene.

Limouum, a towne of Botlers in France.

Limosus, a, um, full of slime or mudde, muddy.

Limpha, a, f. g. water.

Limpidus, a, um, cleare, pure, bright.

Limpitudo, dinis, f. g. clearenesse.

Limuici, or Limouices, Lymolin in Botlers.

Limulus, a, um, somewhat a skew or a wye.

Limus, mi, masc. gene. a vesture from the belly downewarde. Also mudde or slime, cley, whiche is in the water.

Limus, a, um, crooked, awry, a skew.

Limis, oculis spectare, To looke wantonlye on the one syde, to caste a wanton eye, to looke a skew.

Linamentum, ti, neu. g. linnen, threde, that is made of flaxe. also lynte.

Linarius, rij, m. g. a worker of linnen, that occupieth or selleth flaxe or line.

Lindos, a citee of Rhodes.

Lindum, a citee in Englande, whiche some dooe suppose to be Lincolne, some Linne.

Linea, a, f. g. a carpenters line or corde, it signifieth also euery lyne generally, either made or imagined to be also a degree of length.

Linea margaritarum, a longe row of perles on a threde.

Lineam ducere, to make a lyne, to rule a booke.

Lineamentum, ti, n. g. the faction or proportion of a body or visage drawn out.

Lineâris, re, perteynyng to a lyne.

Lineo, aui, are, to draw lines, to drawe out the figure

figure of a thyng with lines.
Lingo, xi, gere, to lyche with the tongue. also to fuche downe by luttell and luttell.
Linctus, us, ma, ge. lythyng or fuchyng downe, lapping.
Lingones, people of Fraunce in the countrey called Langres.
Lingua, guæ, for, gen. a tongue. also a language.
 also an instrument, wherewith men doe take me-decines of salues out of a bore. It is sometye taken for raplyng or slander. also a promontory of hille.
Bisulca lingua, a forked tongue.
Commertia lingua, communication.
Deerat lingua palato, I could not speake.
Properante lingua legere, to reade fast.
Titubante lingua loqui, to stutte.
Linguas scire, to be skyled in the tongues.
Egestas linguæ, the lacke in any tongue, when it hath not fitte woordes to expresse any thyng.
Lingua hæsitare, to stutte.
Linguas hominum effugere, to escape detrac-tion or slander.
Lingua bula, an herbe called Lange de beose.
Linguax, âcis, om. gen. a greete speaker, full of woordes, a babblar, a tangler, long tanged.
Lingula, æ, for, ge. a littel tongue. also a larchet of lyngell. also Lingua, & Lingula, dooe some-tyme signifie a spoone, or a longe instrumente lyke a spoone, that apothecaries vse. also a fas-cion of swoordes made like a tongue. It seemeth also to signifie a longe trough of ymbe of stone wherein wine or water dooeth renne.
Lingula edolata, a littell tenon to putte in a moys-teps.
Lingulaca, a woman full of woordes. Also a fyre called a sole, also a certayne herbe, whiche groweth about well spynges. also a byrde called in Greeke $\nu\lambda\omega\tau\tau\iota\varsigma$. because it hath a longe tongue. Arist.
Lingulatus, a, um, that hath a tongue.
Liniger, ra, rum, that beareth line or flaxe.
Linio, niui, nire, to annoynte, to rubbe vppon softly.
Lineo, aui, are, to make lynes, to drawe oute the propozition of a thyng.
Lino, lini, liui, or leui, linere, to annoynte or lay on some thyng that is sicke, to swere or rubbe.
 sometye to lay oynment or other moisture on
 a thyng.
Linostrophon, phri, n. ge. an herbe, whiche is also called Marubium, Hozehounde.
Linozôstis, stis, f. g. an herbe called Mercurie.
Liquo, liqui, liquere, to leaue.
Linqui animo, to sownde, to seinte.
Linquentem reuocare animum, To reuue from sownyng.
Lintearius, rij, m. ge. a metcer of linnen, a lynnen draper.
Linteatus, a, um, that weareth a sotchet, surplice,
 or other linnen vesture.

Linteus, ônis, m. g. a linnen weauer.
Linteolum, li, n. gen. a piece of linnen clothe, a linnen ragge or cloute.
Linteus, a, um, of linnen.
Linteï libri, bookes made of linte.
Linternum, a towne in Campania, whete Scipio Africanus died, and is buried.
Linternus, a, um, of Linternum.
Linternus, a ryuer in Campania.
Linteum, rei, n. g. a sheete. it is also taken for a linnen clothe, sometye for a saple.
Linter, lintris, m. and f. g. a littell bote made of a holow tree.
Linum, ni, n. g. lyne or flaxe. sometye a thyrd.
 also a cable or rope in a shyppe. sometye a ca-syng nette or drasse.
Lina, plu. nettes, hayes, that beastes be taken in.
Linus, the most aunient poete, a Theban, whom Virgilius calleth the sonne of Apollo and Ura-nis, one of the .ix. muses.
Linx, or rather Lynx, a beast, whiche hath the face of a lyon, the body spotted lyke a Panther, and is of the greatnesse of a Doe, whose byrde is so deynly iourned into a stone.
Lipara, æ, scem. gene. an yle by Grece. also a soft plaster.
Liparis, a ryuer in Cilicia. also a kynde of Apslardes.
Lipopsichia, æ, for, ge. a swoundyng, where one seemeth to be dead.
Lippio, iui, ire, to be poze blynde or sandeblynde, or dimme of sight.
Lippitax, the impersonall.
Lippitudo, dinis, f. g. the blednesse of the eyes.
Lippus, a, um, bleate eyed, haupng dzyppng eyes.
Lipsana, ôrum, scrappes or leaupng of vitayles, or other thynges.
Liquâmen, quâminis, n. gene. greace or tallow,
 molten setwet, larde, dzyppng.
Liquefacio, quâfacis, fêci, facere, to melte.
Liquefactus, a, um, melted, made liquide.
Coagula liquefacta lacte, greene cheese.
Liquesio, liquesis, to be made liquide.
Liqueo, licui, liquere, to be liquide or soft,
 as oyle.
Liquentia, a riuer in Lombardie.
Liquesco, scere, to relente, to melte, to becoms soft or liquide.
Liquescere voluptate, to be wanton, delicate,
 and all geuen to pleasure.
Liquet, it appereth, it is sure, it is cleare, it is manifest, it is apparant or well proued.
Liquet inter nos, we be sure, or we know cer-taynly.
Non liquere dixerunt, They saied the mattes was not sufficiently or manifestly proued.
Liquet mihi deierare, I maye boldly sweare without spotte of conscience.
Liquido, playnely, apparantly, purely, cleetely, manifestly, withoute spotte of conscience, or certayntes.

Liquide, idem quod liquidus.
 Liquidus, a, um, liquide, rennyng and soft. Sometime pure, clere, without dyegges, groundes, or mud.
 Liquidus venter, a bealy that hath the flixe.
 Liquidus animus & tranquillus, a mind with out care or heynesse.
 Liquidum auspiciu, id est, optimum.
 Liquidum, substantiuely, water.
 Ligo, aui, are, to melle.
 Liquor, liqueris, liqui, to be dissolued, to bee melted.
 Liquor, oris, m. g. humour, licour.
 Lira, æ, f. g. a ridge of lande, whiche is ouer the furrow. Sometime it signifieth an harpe.
 Lira, be trifles or iapes. Lira in latine (sayeth Erasmus) are Sulci, in englishe furrowes.
 Liratum, in ridges, ridge by ridge.
 Lirimiris, a citee of Germania.
 Lirinus, a, um, of lilies.
 Lirion, ni, n. g. oyle of lilies.
 Liris, a ryuer in Itale, by the towne called Minturna.
 Liro, aui, are, to make ridges.
 Lis, litis, f. gene. debate, variance, controuersie.
 Lites, properly stryung in wordes.
 Litem æstimare, to asseesse damages and costes for the playntife in an action.
 Litem contestari, I suppose dooeth signifie as muche as that, whiche our lawiers dooe saye, to interpleade, whan one, whiche is not partie to the action, cometh in, or is called in, to pleade with the other, to thentent to saue his title, or interest, whiche is supposed that he hath with them.
 Litem capitis in aliquem inferre, to accuse one of a matter concernyng lyfe and death.
 Litem habere cum aliquo, to haue suite in the law with one, to be at variance with one.
 Intendere litem alicui, To sue oute a proesse
 agaynst one.
 Litem perdere, and Litecadere, to lose his action.
 Componere lites inter aliquos, to set men at one that be at variaunce.
 Litem suam facere, where one medleth in an other mans matter, as it were his owne: or so to pleade or defende a matter, that he seemeth to speake in his owne cause, and not in an other mans.
 Instrumentum liris, that one byyngeth in to iustifie his cause.
 Lissus, a riuer in Thracia, whiche Herodotus wisteth, was drunke vpon by the armie that Peres hyng of Persia ledde into Grece.
 Lissus, a citee of Dalmatia.
 Lirato, the aduerbe, by pleasynge of god with sacrifice.
 Liratio, onis, f. m. gen. a pleasynge of god with sacrifice.
 Liratum, genen to god.

Litera, æ, for. g. a letter, a wrytyng. Sometime a byll or scrowe.
 Litera salutaris, was in the olde tyme A, as be tokenyng absoluyng. Litera tristis, B, as syg-nifyng condemnynge.
 Literæ fugientes, blynde letters, whiche either in defeaute of the puke, or of the parchment, or for aunciente may not be redde.
 Literæ, arum, plur. tantum, a letter or an epistle sent to one. also an ordinaunce or commaundes ment of a pynce or magistrate. also letters, wrytynges, dedes, sciences, knowlage, learnynge.
 Literam longam facere, to be hanged.
 Trium literarum homo, a theefe.
 Ad literam, letter by letter, euery letter.
 Ad similitudinem tuæ literæ, like to thy hand or wrytyng.
 Literis mandare, to wryte.
 Nullam literam scripsi, I wryate nothyng.
 Literæ publicæ, common registers, wrytynges or dedes.
 Literas attingere, to study.
 Abdere se literis, to geue him selfe wholly to studie.
 Literarius, a, um, perteynyng to letters or sciences.
 Literatè, lyke a learned man, cunnyngly, lernedly.
 Literarius latine loqui, moze cunnyngly.
 Literator, oris, m. g. a grammarian, or a mayster of grammar.
 Literatūra, æ, f. g. grammar, learnynge, wrytyng,
 counnyng.
 Literatus, a, um, counnyng, learned. also that hath letters graued in it.
 Literatum otium, time that one applyeth whols lie to studie.
 Literosus, a, um, greatly learned.
 Literula, læ, f. g. a littell letter, a scrow or byll. Literula, sometime studie of good learnynge.
 Lithargyrium, rij, n. g. litarge or white leade.
 Lithargyros, idem.
 Lithialis, sis, f. g. the grecke of the stone.
 Lithocolla, læ, for. g. a cement, wherewith stones are ioygned together.
 Lithoglyphus, phi, m. g. a grauer in stones.
 Lithologéma, gématis, n. g. a heape of stones.
 Lithos, a stone.
 Lithospermon, called commonly Miliun solis an herbe, whiche hath seedes lyke stones, and groweth amonge cozne, it cureth the stone of the bladder. Some suppose it to be grummell or gray myle.
 Lithostrôus, ti, m. g. and Lithostrôtum, ti, n. g.
 a place paved with square stones.
 Lithotomia, æ, f. m. gen. a masons workhouse or quarry.
 Lithotomus, mi, m. g. a mason.
 Liticen, ticinis, m. g. a blowet of a small respet.
 Litigátor, oris, m. g. a stricker.
 Litigatrix, the feminine.
 Litigiôsus, a, um, full of stryfe or contention, a wjangler.

Litigium, gij, n. g. debate of variance.
Litigo, aui, are, to varie, to strue, to sue one another.
Lito, aui, are, to please god with sacrifice, and to obteyne ones desyre. Sometime for Sacrificare, to sacrifice.
Litorëus, a, um, and Litorâlis, le, of the sea side.
Literosus, a, um, belongyng of like to the sea side of bankes.
Lituania, a countrey which is parte of Sarmatia, called Luten, and soygne the to Polonia on the north, and is vnder the kyng of Poole.
Litûra, æ, f. ge. a blottynge of strike throughe that, which is wryten, cancellynge.
Litûro, aui, are, to blotte of stryke throughe, to cancelle.
Litus, of littus, ôris, n. ge. the bankes as well of the sea, as of a great ryuer. Sometime lande buttyng on the sea, called the sea syde.
Litus, ta, tum, enoynted, spotted, spured.
Lituis, tui, m. g. a crooked staffe, whiche the diuiners, called Augures, helde in their handes whan they apoynted places in theyr diuination. also a scepter and a trumpet.
Patitur lituos equus, The horse abideth the noyse of the trumpet.
Strepunt litui, the trumpettes sowne.
Liueo, uere, to be blacke and blew, to enue.
Lineo, scere, idem.
Liuidus, a, um, blacke and blewe with beatyng of strykyng, enuiyng, spitefull, malicious.
Liuius, the prince of latine histoiens.
Liuius Andronicus, the first latine poete, whiche wryte comedies of tragedies in latine: aboute the seconde warres of Carthage. also he wryte xxiij. bookes of the perely actes of the Romayns, whiche were called Annales.
Liunia, a parte of Sarmatia, beyonde Luten northwarde, haupnge on the west the sea called Germanicum.
Liur, liuôris, ma. gen. the colour, whiche is left on the skynne, after beatyng of whyppe, called commonly blacke and blewe, a leaddy colour. Sometime it is taken for enuy or spite.
Liur edax tibi cuncta negat, The gnawynge enuy denieth thee all thynges.
Rabiem liuôris acerbi, nulla potest placare quies, No quiete can content the ragynge of bitter enue.
Liurem contrahere, to waxe blacke.
Lix, licis, f. g. ashes.
Lixa, æ, fœm. gen. of Lixa, arum, plur. a skul lion, which carieth woodde of water in an holt, or to the kethyn, brudges and clauces that follow the army.
Lixabundus, a, um, that for a small rewarde doth eth moste vile seruice.
Lixiuum, uij, n. ge. of Lixiua, æ, f. g. lie made of ashes to washe clothes cleane.
Lixiuus, a, um, of lie.
Lixo, aui, are, to seethe.

Lixos, a towne and ryuer in Afrike.
Lixus, a, um, sodde.

L ANTE O.

L Oba, æ, fœm. gene. a hynde of the grayne called Milium, whiche hath grete stalkes five foote hygh. It is also the leaf whiche groweth nexte the grounde in euery hynde of grayne.
Lobos, the lappe of the eare.
Locarium, rij, neu. gene. the hire of a house of lodgynge.
Locatarius, rij, m. gen. he that letteth a house of lande, a lessour.
Locatio, ônis, a lettynge to hyre, a lettynge oute, of takynge of worke by great.
Locator, ôris, ma. gen. he that letteth a house of land, a lessour. also he that letteth forth worke of he that taketh worke by great.
Locellus, li, m. g. a littell place.
Lôcito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Loco.
Loco, aui, are, to place, to set of laie, as a house is sette in a place, a foundation is laied: also to laie by, as a thyng is to be kepte, also to let a thyng to hyre, or rent, to make a lease to putte out a thyng to be dooen of wrought. Sometime to geue in marriage.
Locare filiam, to bestow his daughter in marriage.
Locare agrum fodiendum, to bargayne with one a greate to delue his grounde.
Locare argentum, to lay out his money on a thyng.
Argentum locare fœnori, to lende money for vsurie.
Pro cornibus equites locare, to sette of place the horsemen in the wynges.
Faciendum locare, to put forth to be made.
In numero veterum locare, to numbre among the auncientes.
Insidias alicui locare, to goe about to deceyue one.
Operam suam locare, to take vpon him to doo a thyng for wages.
Locare beneficium apud gratos, to doe a pleasure of benefite for hynde and thankefull persons.
Locare fundamentum, to lay the foundation.
Locasti optime operam, thou hast well bestowed thy labour.
Locoritur, a citee of Germanie, called nowe Crutonia, commonly Forchein.
Locris, cidos, a countre in Greece.
Locrenses, and Locri, people of Locrus, there were also people so named in Greece.
Locrus, a citee in the better moste parte of Italie, which was named Magna Gretia.
Loculamentum, ti, neu. gen. a place made with boures, wherein tame culuers, and other byrdes of contes are kepte to breede, a dooue cote.

Also a coffyn to put a booke in.
Loculatus, a, um, deuised into sundrie places.
Loculosus, a, um, that hath many holes or places.
Locus, li, m. g. a litle place. Also a purse, a bagge to kepe money in, an almshouse, a litle coffyn, a bier, wheron dead bodies are boyned to be buried.
Locus, pletis, om. ge. riche, abundant, sufficient.
Locus, fideiussor, a sufficient suretee.
Locus, oratio, a copious and plentiful oration.
Locus, testis, a sufficient witness.
Locus, auctor, a substantiall author of good credence.
Locus, tabellarius, a sure and trusty carrier.
Locus, pletis, aui, are, to make riche of perelous reuenues, to inryche wth landes and possessions.
Locus, eloquentiam, to make his eloquence more copious.
Locus, ci, m. g. Pluraliter hi loci, & haec loca, a place. also a case, condition, or state, occasion, opportunity, leysure. Sometime loue, estimation or fauour that one is in. Sometime a familie or kynred. also steepe: as,
Locus, patris te habeo, I take thee in steepe of my father.
Locus, obuiandi, occasion to chide.
Ex loco, inferiore agere, looke Ex.
Prior loco, causam dicere, to pleade first, to speake in his defence befoze the thyng be laied to his charge.
Nullo loco, deesse, id est, nunquam.
Secundo loco, for Praterea, furthermore, more ouer.
In eum locum, res redijt, the matter is come to that state or poynte.
Locus, meliore, in better condition or state.
Eodem loco, stare, to abyde in the same state.
Difficili loco, res est, the matter is in a harde case. Esse magno loco, apud regem, to be in great fauour with the kynge.
Quem locum, apud Caesarem teneret, in what estimation or fauour he is with Caesar.
Obscuro loco, positus, litle esteemed, nothyng famous.
Tenere principem locum, to be in greates estimation and authoritee.
Eodem se loco, habiturum, that they woulde haue them in lyke estimation and fauour.
Nullo loco, numerat, he setteth nothyng by it, or he esteemeth it nothyng.
Te in germani fratris dilexi loco, I haue loved you euen as my naturall brother.
In eorum locum, succedere, to come in theyr steepe or place.
In locum, alterius consulatū petere, to labour to be made consull in an other mans place.
Si in istoc essem loco, if I were in that place.
Locus, aliquid querere, to aske or inquerer a thyng in tyme and place conuenient.
Litterae non loco, redditae, letters giuen or de-liuered out of season.

In loco, in season. Also sometime, in some case.
Locum dare, aliquid faciendi, to geue tyme and space to doo a thyng.
Dare locum, rationi, to geue place to reason, to vse reason.
Dare locum, alicui oratori, to geue an orator opportunity, to geue him audience.
Nihil loci est, segnitiae, there is no tyme nor leysure to be negligent.
Nihil est, precii loci relicti, none enterate will serue.
Respirandi non est, locus, he hath no leysure to fetch breathe.
Nullum locum, praetermitto, I let passe none occasion.
De summo loco, adolescens, a yonge gentil man of a noble stocke or linage.
Loci, plu. nu. the secreete parties of a woman.
Locusta, ta, a flie with longe hynder legges, whiche bourneth coine with touchynge of it, and deuoureth the residue. In India be of them three sorte of length, whiche the people of that countrey doo eat. It is also a sea fythe lyke to a cress, called a lopster.
Locutor, oris, m. g. he that speaketh much.
Loculeus, lei, m. g. a pynter of a tangler.
Locutus, or Loquutus, a, um, that hath spoken.
Locutio, or Loquutio, oris, f. g. a sayng, a saying, a woorde.
Lodica, a, f. g. a litle thete.
Lodix, icis, f. g. a thete.
Lectoria, a bytyng taunte.
Laelaps, a blast of wynde turned from the eth by swarde.
Log, is the same measure of the Hebrewes, that Sextarius atticus is amonge the grekes, reade more in Sextarius.
Logarion, rij, n. g. a rekenyng booke.
Lógica, a, or Lógica, es, f. g. logyke, one of the liberrall sciences, the crafte of reasonyng or arguyng.
Logion, gij, n. g. a place whete iudges geue sentence. also a gatheryng of tent, or other reuenues.
Logistoricum, ci, n. g. a booke conteynyng the declaration of notable saynges.
Logodactylus, li, m. ge. a wayne talker, whiche useth eloquente woordes, without quichenesse of sentence: or doeth more studie for the aptnesse of an oration, than for the grauitie of the sentence.
Logographi, orum, n. g. they that wryte bookes of accompte.
Logomachia, a, f. g. a contention with woordes, or an vndecrete alteration.
Logos, a woorde, a sayng.
Logi, plu. trisyng woordes, or wayne language.
Logothea.
Lolios, a thycke syrupe,

Loligo, lignis, for. ge. a fyfthe, whiche hath his heade betwene his feete and his beale: and hath also two bones, one lyke a knyfe, the other lyke a penne.

Loliguncula, a diminutive of Loligo.

Loliarius, a, um, belonging to tares.

Lolium, li, n. g. a vicious grayne, called eare of barnell, whiche commonly groweth amonge wheate: and if it be eaten in whotte breadde, it maketh the headde gyddie, as if a man were drunke.

Lombricus, ci, m. g. a lamprey.

Lomentum, ti, n. g. beane meale.

Lonchitis, the herbe called Fipion.

Londinum, the noble citee of London. Crassus on the proverbe Rhodii sacrificium, writeth, that Londinum is deducted of Lindus, a citee of Rhodes, whiche Stephanus calleth Lindonium.

Longa Alba, a citee in Italie.

Longæus, a, um, longe lived, of many yeres continuance, auncient.

Longanimis, me, he that suffereth longe.

Longanon, nōnis, m. g. or as some write it Longano, a gutte, out of the which ordure issueth.

Longē, an aduerbe, signifieth longe, farre: some tyme muche, and is ioynd with the comparatiue: sometyme excedyngly, greatly, with a superlatiue, and other nownes, verbes and aduerbes.

Longe lateq; dispersum, speede farre abroad.

Longe abieram, I was gone a good way past.

Longe gentium abest, it is verie farre hence.

Longe prospicere, to forsee matters.

Longe melior, muche better.

Longe doctissimus, excellently well learned.

Longe cæteris artibus antecedit, it farre excelleth all other sciences.

Longe aliter est amicus, & amator, a friende and a louer differ very much.

Res aliter longe euenit, the matter hath chaunged farre otherwyse.

Longe mihi alia mens est, I am farre of an other opinion.

Longe princeps, farre moze excellent than other.

Longe vsque illic in campis habitat, he dwelleth a great way hens in the fieldes.

Longe principes habentur Hedui, the people called Hedui, be in farre greater estimation and honoure than any of the other.

Longe primus ciuitatis est, he farre excelleth al other of that citee.

Longe plurimi, very manie.

Eius iudicium longe antepono, I preferre his iudgement very muche.

Ab his longe dissentimus, wee be farre of an other opinion than they, or we agree not with them in any wyse.

Longe errat, he is greatly deceived.

Non aberit longius, it will not be very longe ere he come.

Longissime abest a vero, he is very farre from the truth of the matter, he is far wyde.

Quid longissime meministi, what is the furthest thyng, that thou canst remember?

Longinquitas, tatis, f. ge. either longe distance of place, or length of time.

Longinquus, a, um, farre of, strange, that endureth longe.

Morbus longinquus, a sickness that hath longe continuance.

Longinqua linia, a longe line.

Sermo longinquus, a longe communication.

Longinqui, they that dwell farre of.

Ex longinquo venire, to come out of farre countreys.

Longinquis bellis obrui, To be ouer charged with longe and continuall warres, or with warres in places farre of.

Longinquum loqui, to make a longe proceffe.

Longipes, gipedis, om. gene. that hath a longe foote.

Longisco, scere, to be longe: or after some to breake.

Longitudo, dinis, f. g. length as well of tyme, place, as other thynges.

Consulere in Longitudinem, to prouide for the time to come, or a greate while hereafter.

Longiusculus, a, um, somewhat longe.

Longulus, a, um, idem.

Longule, somewhat farre, somewhat longe.

Haud longule, not verie farre.

Longobardi, Lombardes.

Longobardia, a region of Italie, called Lumbardia.

Longum, a longe time.

Longurio, ōnis, a longe symme.

Longurius, ri, m. g. a longe pole stethwards in hedges.

Longus, a, um, longe.

Longior sum quam tu, I am taller man than thou.

Longum pede, a foote longe.

Nimium longi sumus in rebus apertissimis, we make to longe a proceffe, or to many wordes in matters that bee veray playne and euident.

Longior esse nolo, I will not speake many wordes, or I wil not tary longe in the matter.

Haud longum est id quod orat, It is for no longe time that he doeth entreate you.

Atque adeo longum est nos illum expectare dum exeat, and it woulde be to longe for vs to tary vntill he come forth.

Longum est, it were a longe matter to tell.

Ne longum faciam, that I may tell you in fewe wordes or briefly.

Nihil mihi longius est, nethyng is to me moze peynfull, or there is nethyng that I moze desyre or woulde moze fayne.

Longum vale, farewell for euer and a day.

Log

Lopas, lópadis, f. g. a shell fishe.
 Loquacitas, raris f. g. babbling.
 Loquaciter, babblingly, with many wordes.
 Loquaculus, a, um, that hath many wordes, a great talker.
 Loquacito, aui, are, to babble or speake muche.
 Loquax, ácis, om. ge. full of wordes, to muche talkative.
 Loquela, la, f. g. speache.
 Loquentia, æ, f. g. speaking.
 Loquitor, áris, ari, to speake muche by often.
 Loquor, lóqueris, loqui, to speake, to say.
 Ad voluntatem loqui, to speake at pleasure what men list.
 Loqui ad voluptatem, to speake, to delecte and please the audience.
 Loqui porrectiore fronte, to speake boldly.
 Loqui in eandem sententiam, to speake the same thyng, to be of the same opinion.
 Pergin' hero absenti male loqui? dooest thou to speake ill, or rayle agaynst my maister in his absence?
 Loquere mihi nomen tuum, tel me thy name.
 Loqui ore duarum & viginti gentium, To speake .xxii. diuers languages.
 Quid tu tecum loquere? what dooest thou mutter to thy selfe?
 Loquuntur Annales, loquuntur historie, id est, referunt.
 Loquitur res ipsa. the matter it selfe is manyfeste, and needeth no spoken man.
 Loquitur fama, the bzute is, the rumoure mesweth.
 Sæpius ista loquemur inter nos, we wyl commune of these thynges oftener betweene oure selves.
 Loquuntur vulgo, they talke abroad cōmonly.
 Lora, ræ, or Lorea, æ, f. g. a drinke made of grapes after that they be pressed, called secōde.
 Loramentum, ti, n. g. a thonge, a bonde, a cord.
 Lorarius, rij, m. ge. a seruant, which serued to bynde men, or to beate them, whan they were by theyr maysters commaunded.
 Loreus, a, um, of thonges or bondes.
 Lorica, æ, f. gen. a coate of fence, a coate of male, a bygantine, an habergeon, the defence or munition of euery thyng, agaynst that whiche make hurte or perseye it. also the cōpyng of a walle. also Lorica is in makynge of floozes, the vyppre course or crutche made with marble beaten, lime, & sande, it is also the walle plate besyde that moztter is layed on it.
 Loricatio, ónis, f. ge. harneysing with an habergeon, coate of fence, or such like.
 Loricatus, a, um, armed with an haberton, a bygantine, a coate of fence or other like.
 Loricion, a mantell.
 Lorico, aui, are, to put on a haberton, coate of fence or other kynde of harneys.
 Loricula, la, f. g. a diminutive of Lorica, in warfare it is a muniment or fortification, that the besiegers of a citee dooe make, betwene theyr campe and the citee. also a place made vpon walles, lyke an open galerie, with grates of timber or hurdels, to kepe men from fallng.

 Lóripes, rípedis, com. ge. whose feete are as if they were bounden or byded.
 Lorum, ri, n. ge. a thonge of lether, or a colde, or other lyke thyng, wherewith beastes are bounden or tied. Sometime a whippe, or wherewith a man or beaste is whipped. Also the rayne of a bydell.
 Cedere loris, to whippe.
 Lotaringia, a countrey beyonde Picardie and Normandie.
 Lothoringia, a countrey called Lozayre.
 Lótio, ónis, f. g. of Lano, lauas, a washyng.
 Lótium, tij, n. g. myne or pisse.
 Lotometra, a kynde of byade.
 Lotóphagi, people in Affrike, whiche doo liue by eatyng only of a fruite called Lotos.
 Lotus vrbana, an herbe, garden Clauer.
 Lotus syluestris, of this kynde are the herbes called here melilotes.
 Lotos, tidis, and Lotus, ti, for. g. a notable tree in Affrike or herbe, of whose fruite if a stranger doo eate, he doeth incontinently forget his owne countrey.
 Lotos, loridis, a nymphe, the daughter of Peptune, whiche slepyng from Priapus, was turned into a tree of that name.
 Lotúra, ræ, f. g. a washyng, a rynsyng.
 Lotus, a, um, washed, rynsed.
 Loxa, a river in Englande called Firth.
 Loxias, one of the names of Apollo.

L A N T H I V .

L Vbens, entis, om. g. that doeth any thyng with a good will or gladly.
 Lubente me facies, you shall dooe it with my good wyl, or I am right well contente, that ye dooe it.
 Lubenti animo, with a good wyl.
 Lubens, and Lubenter, gladly.
 Lubentia, æ, f. g. myrthe, pleasantnesse, grace, most properly in wordes.
 Lubet, it liketh, it pleaseth.
 Lubet quicquid facias, it pleaseth me what so euer ye doo.
 Lubido, pro libido, sensuall appetite.
 Lubido est obseruare quid agat, I haue a desyre to espie what he dooeth.
 Id lubido, est scire, I woulde fayne know that Lubrico, aui, are, to make slipper.
 Lubricus, a, um, slipper, waueryng, mutable, variable, deceitfull. sometime ready to slippe or slide.
 Oculi lubrici, whiche be alwayes sterryng.
 Lubricus locus, a slipperie place. also a daungerous & harde matter to intreate or speake of.
 Lubrica adolescentia, youth wherin one maye quickly offende or doo amysse.
 Lubricus,

Lubricē, dangerously, pettiously, doubtfully,
waueryngly, vnconstantly.
Lubricum, ci, n. g. Oppernesse.
Luca, a cite in Italy, of whiche the inhabitaun-tes are called Lucenses.
Lucē boues, were taken of the olde latines for Elephanes.
Lucani, people of the countrey of Lucania.
Lucania, a countrey belongyng to the royalme of Naples, betwene Poyle and Calaber.
Lucanica, cā, f. gen. a puddynge made of pothe,
a sausage.
Lucanus, a famous poete, whiche wrote the battyle betwene Cesar and Pompei.
Lucar, money bestowed in wooddes, dedicate to goddess called Luci.
Lucaria festa, feastes, which the Romanes made in holy wooddes.
Lucellum, li, neut. gene, a lyttell gayne, a small market.
Lucens, centis, om. g. that which hath his light of an other thyng, shynyng bright.
Lucenia, a cite of Spayne.
Lucentum, a cite of Spayne called Susana.
Luceo, luxi, lucere, to shyne.
Luceſcit, it waxeth day.
Lucet, it is day. Focus lucet igne, the fyre burneth in the chymney.
Luceres, the thirde parte of the people of Rome, distributed by Tatius and Romulus.
Luceria, a cite of Apulia.
Lucerius, a kynge of Ardea, whiche holpe Romulus agaynst Tatius.
Lucerna, x, f. g. a lampe, a candell, a light.
Lucerna simplex, a lampe with one matche.
Lucerna eadem scripsi, I wrote it by the same candell: or I wrote it at the same tyme.
Nisi me lucerna desereret, excepte the lampe hadde gone out, except my candell hadde gone
out.
Lucernula, a scone, a lyttle lampe or candell.
Luceſco, ſcere, to be bright or clere as day.
Lucetia, one of the names of Iuno.
Lucetius, a name of Iupiter.
Luci, by day, in the mornynge.
Lucibile, that, whiche is light of it selfe.
Lucido, aui, are, to make clere, or to geue light.
Lucidus, a, um, clere, bright, lyght.
Lucifer, ri, m. g. the day sterre.
Luciferus, ra, rum, that bringeth light.
Lucifico, aui, are, idem quod Lucido.
Lucifugus, a, um, that fleeth from lyght, and deſpecth in darkenesse.
Lucigena, ingendred of lyght.
Lucilius, the name of an olde poete.
Lucina, one of the names of the moone, called the goddesse of byrthe.
Lucinia, idem quod Lucina.
Lucini, they whiche haue lyttell eyes, and smalle light.
Lucius, a mans name.

Lucius, a name.
Lucromones, certain men.
Lucretia, a noble woman of Rome.
Lucretilis, an hill in the countrey of the Sabines.
Lucretius, a latine poete.
Lucretificabilis, le, that bringeth gaine or profite.
Lucretificio, feci, facere, to winne or get a vau-tage or profite.
Lucretificare nomen, to get a name.
Lucretificare iniuriam, to doo wronge and escape quite.
Lucretifactus, a, um, wonne, gayed.
Lucretio, factus sum, fieri, to be wonne or gotten in aduantage.
Lucretifuga, he that fleeth from lucre or gynes.
Lucretinum, a towne of Apulia.
Lucretinus, a mere of great water in Campania.
Lucrio, onis, a courtous man, an inordinate gayer.
Lucror, aris, ari, to gayne or to wyne.
Lucrosus, a, um, full of gayne or lucre.
Lucrum, cri, n. g. lucre or gayne, vantage,
wynnyng.
Quid mihi lucri est te fallere? what profite or wynnyng should I haue to deceyue you?
Lusta, x, f. g. a wastlyng.
Luctamen, minis, n. g. Luctatus, us, m. g. and Luctatio, onis, f. g. a wastlyng, a struggling.
Luctarius Catulus, a cistern of Rome.
Luctator, oris, m. g. a wastlar.
Luctifer, ra, rum, cause of wastlyng.
Luctificus, a, um, idem.
Luctitor, tari, to wastle ofte.
Lucto, idem, quod Luctor.
Luctor, aris, ari, to wastle, to struggle, to enduer, to take great payne, to contende.
Luctari complexu, to wastle by the middle.
Luctantes venti, wyndes whurlyng one ag-aynst an other.
Luctuosus, a, um, lamentable. also that causeth
heauynes and mournyng.
Luctus, us, ma. gen. weepynge and wastlyng, the habits of mournyng, lamentation.
Squallor & Luctus.
Luctum operire, to hyde or dyssemble ones wastlyng.
Lucubratio, onis, f. g. studyng by candell light,
or a worke studied and made by candell lyght.
Lucubratorius, a, um, belongyng to studie or making of a worke by candell lyght.
Lucubro, aui, are, to make any thyng by candell lyght.
Luculentē, clerely.
Luculentē vendere, to sell at an high price.
Luculenter, gentilly, properly.
Luculenter scribere, to write honestly, gentilly, and playnly.
Luculentus, a, um, full of lyght, clere, fayre, beautifull.
Luculenta formina, a very fayre woman.
Luculenta plaga, a great wounde.
Yy Luculena

Luculentæ diuitiæ, abundant riches.
 Luculentus auctor, he that writeth in a gentle style.
 Luculentus homo, a famous man.
 Facinus luculentum, a notable acte.
 Oratio luculenta, a pleasant and easy stile.
 Luculenta condicio, a fayre offre.
 Luculenta familia, a riche house, familie of kyndred.
 Luculenta forma, id est, egregia, præclara, insignis, goodly fauour.
 Luculentitas, raris. f. gen. beautifulnesse, lightnesse, goodlynesse.
 Lucullus, the name of a noble Romayne.
 Lucumo, a mans name, of whome the Tuscians were called Lucumedi.
 Lucus, ci, ma. ge. a highe and thicke woodde, a grove. Sometime it signifieth light, when it is of the fourth declination. It is also a citee in Spayne by Compostella, whiche is now called Lucensis, also a promontorie of Hetruria, called commonly Petra sancta.
 Luc⁹ Augusti, a citee in Spaine called Oluca.
 Ludia, æ, fœm. gen. a daunsyng of mery wench full of spozte.
 Ludibrium, brij. n. g. a mocke of any thing that is mocked, a wayne and trisyng thyng to be laughed at.
 Habere ludibrio, To mocke, to laugh, to laugh to scozne.
 Ludibrio esse, to be mocked, to be a laughyng or iestyng stocke.
 Ludibrio erant minæ Tribuni, the menaces of the Tribune were mocked and tested at.
 Ludibrio lesum iri ab aliquo, To be mocked or scozned of one.
 Ludibundus, a, um, playng of full of play.
 Ludicrum, cri, n. g. any play of pastyme, or an interlude.
 Ludicrus, or Ludicer, cra, crum, perteynyng to play of mirth. also light, mockyng.
 Meum cor cepit facere artem ludicrâ, myne herte beganne to leape in my body.
 Ludificabilis, le, that maketh spozte of pastime, mockyng.
 Ludificatio, onis, decepyng, mockyng.
 Ludificatus, a, um, mockyng, that mocketh or deceiveth. Also that is mocked or deceived.
 Ludifico, aui, are, to mocke, to deceive.
 Ludi, & Ludiones, players in enterludes, or stage plaies.
 Ludimagister, a schoole maister.
 Ludio, onis, m. gen. and Ludius, dii, m. gen. a plaier in enterludes.
 Ludo, lusi, ludere, to play, to mocke or deceyue in game, to laugh to scozne, to ieste, to make dispozte, to daly, to fynde or make pastyme, to spozte, to play as one doeth on instrumentes, to write verses.
 Ludere in numerum, to daunce measure.
 Ludere operam, to lose his labour, to spende labour in wayne.

 Ludere otium, to passe the time.
 Ludere aleam, and alea, to play at dice.
 Consimilem luserat lusum, he had played like pageant.
 Ludere par impar, to play at even and oddes.
 Ludere dolis aliquem, To deceyue one by craftie meanes.
 Ludus, di, masc. gene. plate in actes, mythe in woozdes, a spozte, a game, a pastyme. also a schoole or place of exercise, where any arte or feate is learned.
 Ludos aliquem facere, to mocke one.
 Ludum aperire, to teache, to begyn to herpe a schoole.
 Quos mihi ludos reddere, what pranks of pageantes would he play me?
 Operam ludos facere, to lose his labour.
 Ludo, in spozte.
 Ludus est illa perdiscere, It is a pastyme of spozte to learne those thynges.
 Ut ludos facit, how he is disposed to mocke, ieste, or dallye.
 Ludi, in the plurall numbze be taken for those thynges, whiche we call syghtes: as the pageantes at London on Whylsome nyght. Sometime for suche triumphe as he made by kynges, with iustynge and turneyng.
 Ludi Circenses, was rennyng with chariotes, in the great compassed place at Rome called Circus.
 Ludi compitalitij, called also Ludi liberales, were plaies made in high wayes to the honoure of Bacchus, called also Liber.
 Ludi Florales, were abhominable plaies used at Rome in the presence of all the people, in the whiche onely common women played all naked in wanton woozdes and motions, satisfygge the peoples detestable appetites.
 Ludi gladiatorij, were farre from all humanitie, and a spectacle of crueltie. For in thei men withoute quarell and harnes fought in great numbzes with weapon, eche, couetyng to kyll other: and to shew all pointes of beastly crueltie, diuers of theym haungge nettes made of cordes, to drawe vnto thei their aduersaries.
 Ludi gymnici, were exercises in rennyng, leapyng, throwyng of the darte or ston, and wrestlyng.
 Ludi Iupercalæ, wherin gentill mens sonnes, beyng naked, and haungge lyttell whippes in thei hâdes, ran about beatyng every man that they mette, laughyng vpon them.
 Ludi Megalenses, were plaies made to the honoure of hir, whiche was called mother of goddes.
 Lucentium, Powes landes in wales.
 Lues, luis, fœ. g. pestilence in men, murrayne in beastes, a great and comon destruction.
 Lugdunum, ni, neu. g. a citee in Fraunce called Lyons.

Lion.
Lugdunensis Gallia, the thirde parte of France, called now the countrey of Lyons. it hath on the north, the English Sea, on the west partly the Ocean, partly the countrey Guyan, on the east the riuer Sonneron the south Rarbon.
Lugeo, luxi, lugere, to mourne, to lament.
Lugetur, the impersonall.
Lugodinum, called also Traiectum, a citee in Hollande named Mersch.
Lugubris, bre, perteyning to mourning.
Vestis lugubris, a mourning garment.
Lugubris exulatio, a lamentable cry or wailing.
Lugubre, and Lugubriter, lamentably.
Luma, ma, f. g. a hynde of Bumbles.
Lumbago, ginis, form, gene, feblenesse of the loynes.
Lumbare, banches of hosen.
Lumbricus, ci, ma, gen. a woorme bredde in the earthe, or in the body of a man or beaste. also Lumbrici, are litell fythes taken in small ryuers, whiche are lyke to lampurnes, but they be muche lesse, and somewhat peolowe, and are called in Wylshpe pydes.
Lumbifragium, ij, breaking of the loynes.
Lumbulus, li, m. g. a diminutive of Lumbus.
Lumbus, bi, m. g. the loyne, the haunche.
Lumaria falces, hedgeng billes or hookes, wherewith they cut downe bumbles.
Lumen, inis, lyght. also a day, an eie. sometyme an exposition or interpretation.
Lumina praeferre, to inspyre.
Luminibus obstruere, to stoppe by the light, to lette that the light maye not come into an house. And by transclacion, to obscure the byte or glozie of an other.
Secundo lumine, for Secundo die.
Cassus lumine, deade.
Acies luminum, the eye syght.
Orbus luminis, blinde.
Alterum luminum eruit, he plucked out one of his eyes.
Lumina ciuitatis, the most notable persons of a citee.
Lumen probitatis prospicere in aliquo, To perceyue great vertue and honestie in a man.
Sine lumine animi, without knowlage of lernyng and sciences.
Lumera, places full of bumbles.
Luminare, ris, neut. gener. that whiche geneth lyght, a light. And by transclacion a noble and famous man.
Lumino, aui, are, to lyght to geue lyght.
Luminosus, a, um, full of lyght.
Luna, x, f. g. the moone.
Luna vicesima, The twentieth day after the change of the moone.
Luna, a towne of the Ligurians. Also a promontorye in Portugall.
Lunaria minor, an herbe supposed of some to be that whiche is called mortis herba.

Lunaris, re, perteyning to the moont.
Lunarium, a promontorye, called now Mons Iouis, Schale, Annabalis, and Mouini.
Lunaticus, he that is madde or fecke at a certayne tyme of the moone.
Lunatus, a, um, lyke a moone.
Lunensis, these.
Luno, aui, are, to bende or croke lyke the new moone.
Lunula, le, f. g. a lytell syng.
Lutio, onis, a payng of ransome.
Luo, lui, ere, to paye, to satisfie, to purge, to suffer punishment or death.
Luere capite, to haue the head streyn of, to suffer death.
Luere maculas sanguine, to purge or washe away the infamy of naughtie actes, by the wrongfull death of other.
Luere peccata, to suffer punishment for offences. Quomodo ergo hoc lues, than howe wylt thou satisfie for this?
Supplicia crucibus luerat, he was hanged.
Luere, to paye ransome.
Lupa, x, f. g. a female wolfe, also an harlot.
Lupanar, aris, n. g. a brothels house.
Lupanaris, re, perteyning to a brothell house.
Lupanarium, ri, n. g. an harlots house.
Lupurdum, a citee in Germanie called now Misna, vulgarly Meissen.
Luparius, a hunter of wolfs.
Lupatum, ti, n. g. and Lupatus, ti, m. g. an hard bytte.
Lupercal, a place dedicate to Pan the god of Shepheardes.
Lupercalia, sacrifices and plates made to Pan.
Luperci, ministers of that solemnite.
Lupia, a riuer in Germanie called Neccharum.
Lupinum, pint, & frequentius neu. gen. Lupinus, ni, m. g. a hynde of poulte coyne, hauyng one stalk, the leafe in fyue dimityons, the codde creused aboute, hauyng in it fyue or syre graynes, harde, broade and rebbe. They be commune in France and Italy, but here vnneth knowne.
Lupinus, a, um, of a wolfe.
Lapor, aris, ari, to meddle with common harlots.
Lupulus, & Lupus salictarius, an herbe called hoppes wherewith beere is brewed.
Lupus, i, m. g. a wolfe. also a bitte for an horse, also an hooke to draw by thynges out of a pit. Also a hynde of spiders. Also a fythe whiche some men take to be a pike.
Lupus est in fabula, a proverbe whan he cometh that is spoken of.
Lupum auribus tenere, a proverbe in thynges that be daungerous, eyther to receyve or to let goe.
Lura, x, the mouthe of a hottell or leather bagge.
Lurco, aui, are, and Lurcor, aris, to cate raues nouely.

Lurco, onis, m. g. a deuourer of his owne substance, a gulligutter.
Luridus, a, um, very pale, wanne of colour.
Luridus sol, the forme whan it is very pale.
Luror, oris, m. g. palenesse, wannesse.
Luscinia, a, f. g. a nyghtingale.
Luscinida, a, f. g. a littell nyghtingale.
Lusciosus, or Lusciosus, a, um, poreblynde, that seeth lytell in the night or in the moorning. Or after some, he that seeth better in the night, than at midday or by candlelyght.
Luscitio, onis, the faded disease.
Luscus, a, um, poreblynde. Sometime a man has yung but one eye.
Lusio, onis, f. g. a playng.
Lusitania, the realme called Portugale.
Lusro, aui, are, to play often.
Lusius, a, a riuer of Arcadie.
Lusor, oris, masc. gene. a player. also one that deceiteth.
Lusorius, a, um, perteynyng to play.
Lusoria fulmina, lyghennges that hurte nothyng.
Lusorium nomen, a debte or bytell of debte onely ymagined to be.
Luspiria, a citee of Calaber called commonly Lecicio Lezo.
Lustralis, le, perteynyng to riotte and lecherie. Sometime a thyng dooeth every fyfte yere. also to perteynyng to the solemnitie called Lustra.
Lustratio, onis, and Lustramen, inis, a purgynge by sacrifice, a goyng about or circuite.
Lustricidies, the day whan a childe is firste named, whiche in men children was the nythe day, in women children it was the eyght day. It may now be vsed for the day of christenynge of children.
Lustrificus, a, um, idem quod Lustralis.
Lustro, aui, are, to goe aboute in circuite. it was also amonge the olde Romaines, to leade about an armie, a shepe, a cowe, and thre bulles, thynkyng that thereby the hoste was purged of suche greuous offences as had ben committed agaynst their goddes. Also to consider in the mynde, to shadowe, to beholde, to looke about.
Arua lustrare, to go about the fieldes.
Lustrare exercitum, to mustre an armie.
Lustrare animo, to consider in the mynde.
Lustrare oculis, to beholde or looke rounde aboute.
Lustrare urbem, to purge the citee by sacrifice.
Lustrare lampade, to geue light.
Lustor, the passiue, to be purged.
Lustor, aris, ari, the deponent, to haunte by the helles houses or stues.
Lustrum, i, n. g. a denne or caue of wyld beasts in wooddes, an hyd place and hyle, an house where gluttony and lecherie is haunted. Also the haunteynge of the same vices. Sometime it signifieth the space of fyue yeres. also the general purgation of the citee by sacrifice every fyfte yere. Starcanus, in his Chronologia writeth that Lustrum amonge the Romaines, is as much as Olympias amonge the Grekes, which is the space of. iiii. yeres. And so Stron expoundeth this place of hoiact.

Fortuna lustro prospera tercia. &c.
Lusus, us, m. g. a playe. or sport, without arte, it is properly in children. Also delynge, pastyme, recreation.
Lutamen, i, n. g. any thyng made with lome or morter.
Lutarius, a, um, that lyueth in mudde.
Luteola, a, a littell floure of the colour of yelow, in greatnesse and sandre not muche vnlke a violet, also a littell birde, not muche vnlke a goldefinche called a titkin.
Lutensis, se, that is nourtured with clay, mud, or durte.
Luteolus, a, um, somewhat yelow.
Luter, eris, m. g. a cuppe, wherein wine is delayed with water.
Lutesco, scere, to be touned into clay, or to bee thicke lyke clay.
Lutetia, the citee of Paris in France.
Luteum oui, the yolke of an egge.
Luteus, or Lutea, a hyde, which some iudge to be our yelow ham, or yelowying.
Luteus, a, um, yelow.
Vulcanus luteus, the fyre, or the flame of the fyre. Luteus color, the colour of yelow as pprocheyng toward redde, of the colour of the yolke of an egge, or of wate new made.
Luteus, a, um, of Lutum, that is made of clay, lome, or morter.
Vasa lutea, earthen vessell.
Luteus homo, a byle rascall of no estimation.
Lutea meretrix, a flythy and vile harlotte.
Luto, aui, are, to clay, sometime to spothe or file.
Lutra, a, f. g. a beuer, or a beast much lyke to it, whiche gnaweth trees a sunder, and dooeth haunt great waters, and lyueth lyke an otter.
Lutum, i, n. g. clay.
In medio luto esse, by transclacion, to be entangled or wapped in a matter, to bee in daunger.
Lutum, i, n. g. priore longa. a yelow floure.
Lux, ucis, f. g. lyght, daie. Sometime byghtnesse, or clerenesse. Sometime an eie.
Luce clarius, as manifest as can be.
Luce vicesima, the. xx. day.
Luce & palam, openly & in every mans sight.
Luce, in the day time.
Luce prima, early in the moorning.
Finis huius lucis, the ende of this lyfe.
Lucis vsuram dare alicui, to suffer one to lue.
Luce clara, whan it was byght daie.
In luce, a hyde in the sight of men.
Lucus, olde wyters vied for Lux.
Primo lucu, perly in the moorning.

Luxatus, a, um, out of ioynt, put out of place.
Luxo, au, are, to lose or might lose, to put out of ioynt.
Luxuria, looke Luxus.
Diffuere luxuria, to reue at couers, to riote.
Luxurio, au, are, to excede to abounde more than necessarie, in the bodie of personage, to be wanton of geuen to riote, to spynge, to grow to plentifully of rankely.
Luxurior, aris, ari, to abounde exceedingly in thynges concerning the minde of goodes. Als to to be wanton with to make wealth of prosperitee.
Luxuriose, riotously, to abundantly, to rankely.
Luxuriosus, to prosperous, of hugnge in to make pleasure.
Luxuriosus, a, um, riotous, of ill rule, exceding in abundance, that groweth of spyngeth to rankely.
Luxuriosus cultus, excessive and to sumptuous apparelling.
Nimis luxuriosa fuit illa lantia, that glabness was to much or to exceding.
Luxuriosa uitis, a vine that beareth out branches to rankely.
Luxus, us, m. ge. luxuria, & luxuries, ei, f. g. all superfluitie of excede, as well in carnal pleasure as in sumptuous fare, apparell, of busbyng, riote.

L ANTE Y

Lycus, one of the names of Bacchus, called god of wyne.
Lycus, a, um, of Bacchus or of wyne.
Lycum, looke Lyceum.
Lycus, or Lyceus, a mountayne in the countrey of Archadia.
Lycambes, a Thebane, whom Achilocus ratyng with verses, caused to hange him selfe.
Lycan, donis, the kynge of Archadia, whom Jupiter turned into a wolfe.
Lycania, a countrey in Asia the lesse, nere to Lycia, as writeth Diodorus. Also wolues with mannes.
Lycania, a countrey in Asia. after some writers, it is a parte of Archadia.
Lycaste, one of the daughters of Pyramus.
Lycastos, a citee of Landia.
Lyceum, Aristotles schoole in Athenes. also a schoole of Ciceros in his place at Tusculum.
Lyceus, a mountayne in Archadie, dedicate vnto Pan.
Lychas, Hercules seruant.
Lychis, midis, f. g. an herbe, whose floure shyneth by night, and first spyngeth, and longest dureth: whiche in drinke, helpeth them that be bingden with the Scorpion.
Lychites, white marbre.

Lychnobii, they which doo tounge the night into day, and day into night.
Lychnochus, i. m. g. idem quod Lychnus, also a braunche, haungeth many candletyches of lampes, with candels and lightes in them.
Lychnus, i. m. g. a matche of a candle. sometimes the letter candle.
Lycia, a countrey in Asia the lesse, betweene Pamphilia and Caria, in the whiche are two great cities, Patara and Myra. Sometime there were 70. cities.
Lycidas, the name of a Centaure, and of a shepherde in Thracia.
Lycimnius, the brother of Astiochia.
Lycion, a thyng made with the suite of an herbe wherewith soe eyes be cured.
Lycisca, a dogge common of a woulfe & a dogge.
Lyciscus, a boyes name in Bozace.
Lycium, idem quod Lyceum, also a medicine made of a kynde of brembles.
Lycius, one of the names of Apollo.
Lycostones, a venemous herbe, called also Asconitum.
Lycophron, a grammarian and writer of tragedies of Calcedonie.
Lycophthalmos, a precious stone that hath foure diuers colours.
Lycopolis, a citee of Egypte.
Lycopus, pi, mother wort.
Lycopsis, after Dioscorides description, seemeth to be the herbe called houndes tongue.
Lycorias, the name of a nymphe.
Lycormas, a ruere rennyng out of Aetolia.
Lycos, a kynde of spidre.
Lyconia, a citee of Crete.
Lycus, a citee of Crete, named of Lycus, the sonne of Layton.
Lycurgus, a kynge of the Lacedemonians, which gaue to them their first lawes.
Lycus, a river in the countrey of Asia, also the name of diuers men.
Lydda, a citee of Judea, called Rhama.
Lydia, a countrey in Asia, on the easte topnyng to Phrygia, on the north to Thracia, on the southe vpon parte of Caria. In this region is the hille called Tmolus, out of the whiche cometh the riche ryuer called Pactolus.
 Reade of them in theyr owne places.
 & Lydimali, post hos Aegypti, a prouerbe applied where two yuell persones bee compared together, and the one beyng founde very vngracious: the other deserveth the lesse dyspraise.
Lydius, a, um, of Lydia.
Lydius lapis, a touche stone, wherewith the fynesse and coarsenesse of golde is tried.
 It is also vled sometime for a prouerbe, applied to them that haue an exacte and quick iudgement.
Lydius, a, um, of the countrey of Lydia. Also Lydius, is the sonne of Hercules. In other the sonne of Iphis, and brother of Cyrenus, of whome Lydia was named. Lydus, the sonne of Cyges.

Lyenteria, or Lienteria. For I fynde it written sometyne with Y, and sometyne with I, is a flure of meate undigested, sent forth in the same qualitees, that they were receyved, without alteration in colour, lycour, or savour.

Of this sicknesse be twoo kyndes. The one (as Paulus writeth) cometh of the exulceracion of the bowelles, that is to say, woundes or sores in theim. Of other dysyllacions or reumes. The other cometh of debilitie of the powers, which shoulde retayne in the stomache, that shoulde serue for nourishment. Causes of this sicknesse be twelue. The qualitee of the meate receyved, the quantitee of that which annoyeth, oppressing the stomache, and infecting his vertue retentive, much effusion of melancolie to the mouth of the stomache, much and laborious styrginge, immediately after meales, the stomache being full, much dyspne with meate or after, causing the meate to renne downe to hastily, lacke of order in eatynge, reume descendynge into the stomache, much fleume gathered in the stomache and bowelles, feeblenesse in digestion, and the vertue retentive in the stomache, debilitie in the vertue attractive in the lyuer, by the reason of opylacions and inward sores, by the touchynge wher of the meate slippeth away, by closenesse of the pores and passages of the body, wherby all superfluities be tourned inward.

Lygdamum, the name of a towne.

Lygdamus, a Sicilian of the citee of Syracusis, a puissant wrestler, whose bones after his death were founde to haue no marowe.

Lymira, a ryuer and a citee of Licia.

Lympha, x, f. g. water.

Lymphaticus, a, um, madde, furiose, fallen out of his witte, by scyrge somethynge in the water.

Lymphaticus pauor, a feare that putteth a man out of his wittes.

Lymphatus, phara, atum, Idem quod Lymphaticus.

Lympho, aui, are, to trouble, to make madde.

Lymphor, âris, âri, to be madde or out of ones witte.

Lympidus, da, dum, cleare, smoothe. Looke Limpidus.

Lyncestius, a, um, of the water that maketh men drunke lyke wyne.

Lyncestus, a water, which maketh men drunke lyke wyne.

Lynceus, a, um, of the beaste called Lynx, also that seeth very sharpe.

Lynceus, dissyllabum, a man, who (as Warro wyrteth) coulde see thynnes on the sea, a hundred and thyrtye miles from him, and did number them. Some write, that he coulde see thos rough a walle, and therefore, they that haue herie sharpe syghtes, be saied to haue Lynceus oculos, the eyes of Lynceus.

Lynceus, a mans name, that first founde out the metall mynes of brasse, syluer, and golde.

Lyncurium, curij, n. g. a precious stone congeled of the dyspne of the beast called Lynx.

Lyncus, a kyng of Scythia.

Lyndus, a citee in the yle of Rhodes, where they did sacrifice to Hercules with reproches and curses.

Lynter, iris, a cocke bote.

Lynx, lyncis, m. g. or f. m. g. a beaste lyke to a woulfe, hauynge many spottes, whose syght dooth perse all thynges. It is also a byrde, which hath a tynge lyke a serpent.

Lyra, rz, f. g. an harpe.

Lyrice, ricinis, com. g. an harper.

Lyriceus, a, um, perteynyng to an harpe.

Lyrictis, tis, com. gen. idem quod Lyrice.

Lyseus, a well, out of the which issueth the ryuer of Inachus.

Lyris, a ryuer of Lampayne.

Lyrnessus, of the citee of Troy.

Lyfander, kyng of lacedemonia, Whan it was layed vnto him for a reproche, that he did more by subtiltee, than by prowesse: He dyd aunswere in this wyse, where the Lyons skynne doeth not auaille, a man must slowe or tie a forres skynne vnto it. Not withstandinge that practise is seldome commended in anye noble man.

Lyfania, an oratour of Grece.

Lyfiades, a philosophier of Athens.

Lyfias, an oratour most pleasaunt, of whome Quintilianus speaketh.

Lysicrates, a man whiche in his olde age died his white heares blacke, that he myght seeme yonge.

Lysimachia, a citee in Ponto, whiche fell downe with an earthquake.

Lysimachium, chij, uen. g. is thought of Matnardus, to be the herbe, whiche we call marigoldes. Leoniceus taketh it to bee that, whiche dyers dooe occupie, and is called also Lutea & corneola, wherunto Ruellius accordeth and sayeth, it is that, wherewith clothes are dyed greene. By this description it seemeth to be the weede called Wooddewaren, growynge in pastures, somewhat lyke vnto broome, with smalle pelowe flowers, whiche is so bitter, that no beaste wyll eate of it. but other take this Lysimachia to bee an herbe, named Loostrife, or herbe Wplove, wherof bee two kindes, one that hath a pelow flower, the other a purple.

Lysimachus, a noble man of Macedonie, the scholar of Calisthenes, and one of the moste valiant capitaynes of Alexander.

Lyfpe, one of the daughters of Pectus kyng of Argues.

Lyfippus, an excellent harner.
 Lyfis, f. g. a solution opening, a chynnyng of opening of a wall.

Lyfistratus, the banet of Lyfippus.
 Lyfius, a vicer of Macabius.
 Lyria, m. f. g. a woode in a dogges tongue whiche is taken out, while he is younge, wase afterwards he should be madde.

Lyus, a ruet of the lefte Sha.

M ANTE A

MACAE, people of Arabia felix.
 Macareus, the son of Deolus, whi
 che deflored his syster La
 nates.
 Macaria, the dau
 ter of Heracles.
 Also a kinne of marrie in Ma cedon.

Macarismos, mi, mas. gen. idem quod beari tudo.

Macarius, the name of a man, in latine it signifi
 eth blessed.

Macedo, onis, a man or woman of Macedonie.
 Also the sonne of Odis, of whome Macedonie was named.

Macedonia, a, f. gen. a royaume in Grece, first called Emathia. On the north, it boundeth (as Ptholomeus writeth) upon the sydes of Dal matia, Mesia superior, & Thracia: On the weste it stretcheth to the sea Ionium. Pius de scribeth it to lyege south and west to Thracia, and that the southe syde lyeth on the backes of Thessalia and Magnesia, the north on Pconia & Paphlagonia. That it hath also on the southe Epirus, on the north Illyria: whiche varietly not muche from Solinus, who sayeth, that it is diuided from Thracia with the ryuer Strimon, it is now vnder the Turke.

Macedonicus, ca, cum, and Macedonius, of Macedonie.

Macellarius, a, um, that belongeth to the Cham bulles.

Macellaria taberna, a bouchers Shoppe, a vils tayleng house.

Macellarius, h, m. g. a vitapour or seller of all maner of vittaple.

Macellora, a, f. g. a gardeyne dooze.

Macellum, macelli, neut. gener. a place where all maner of vittaples is solde, a Chambles.

Macellus, a, um, somewhat leane.

Maceo, cui, & Macesco, scere, to be leane, to be come leane.

Macer, cra, crum, leane, thynne, barayne.

Macer Aemilius, an olde poete, whiche was in the Quiber land, who (as he saith) wrote of bles sednes in verbe. Also of the vertue of herbes. But it was not that Macer, whose marches we now anheue, of the vertues of herbes, but rather he, or whome the panger Plinie pponed to write somethynge of his vntle. Finally, that lytell booke of herbes, is eght pfectible in dis cretely to be named by harte of a ponge scho lar, whiche belongeth to that maner. Not with standyng the sayd Macer, wrote more eloquent ly, and is commended thewyse of Quintilian.

 He wrote also of the battayle of Troy and of ves nemous beastes.

Macer, or Macis, or Macir, is now in doubte, whether it be the Cyte, commonly called Ma cis, whiche is a hylle of cynde, aboute the nute mygge, soe muche as Dioscorides writeth of Macer, whiche he neuer made mention of nut mygge. And Plinie saith, that Macer is the cynde of a certayne roote of a tree of the same name. Dioscorides also saith, that it is a thicke cynde, muche strepyng the tongue, whiche is not pceptible in our maw, and they are also dreythynne. Salene calleth them drie in the thyrde degre, and equall in heate and colde, but we fynde them hott in taste. Diuene affirmeth them to be hott and drie in the seconde degre, whiche is confirmed by Constantine, who saith they be ryndes of the boughes of the trees that beare nutmygges.

Maceratus, a, um, made leane, watred, soaked,
 or made soft with lyeing in the water.

Maceresco, scere, to be made or become soft with lyeing long in licour.

Maceria, a, & Maceries, ei, f. gen. a wall of stone without mortar, made in the ferde of an hedge. also leanness.

Macero, au, are, spoken of the body, signifieth to make leane or thynne, or soft, by strepyngs in lycour, to soke in the water, to water fyre.

Referred to the mynde, it signifieth to bere or in quiete, to hurte with care or vngquietnesse.

Noli te macerare, hurte not your self with care or sorowe.

Salsamenta hac macerentur probe, let these salte fyshes be well watered.

Oua aceto macerata, Egges layed to soke in byneger.

Macetho, idem quod mentia.

Machabeus, the fyrste of that name was Judas, the thyrde sonne of Mathathias the Jewe, a valyaunt man in his saythe, and of an inuincis ble courage. In so muche, that with thre thou sande men, he vauquished Lyfias, the lieuten nant of kynge Antiochus, and his sonne, and with them .xl. thousande foote men, and
 vii. thousande horsemen, and slewe of theym fyue thousande. Afterwarde in Galilea, he slewe of the hoste of Timotheus (an other of the kynge Capitaynes) fyft thre thousande, and afterwarde eght thousand. After that by a vils lage

illage called Adasiss, he with a thousande fought with Pirano, a captayne of hyng Demetrius and nyne thousande with him. At the whiche battayle, Pirano was slayne, and of the nyne thousande almoste none escaped. Finally, to muche trustyng to his prosperitee in warres, in goynge agaynst Bacchis (a captayne of hyng Demetrius, who hadde a greates hoste) and castyng with him but .ii. thousande, of the which at the laste remayned with him but onely .viii.
hundred. He fought till it was nyghte, and made a wonderfull slaughter of enemies. But whyles he enforced him selfe to come to Bacchis the whiche was on the ryght wyng of the battaye, he fought so noblye, that he scattered that wyng, slaying many about him. Finally, beyng entypponed with the lefte wyng, and stry-ken with many woundes, was slaine with much difficultee. Also the incarnation of Christ about 305. yeres.

Machera, a sword, a dagger, a knyfe.

Machetion, idem quod Xiphion.

Machetophorus, phori, m. g. a sword bearer.

Machetropios, ij, m. g. a cutlar, or a bladesmith.

Machaon, the sonne of Esculapius, an excellent surgeon.

Machina, x, f. g. a thyng craftily invented, or a crafty inuencion, a subtile deuise, an instrument, an ingene.

Vt omnes adhibeam machinas, that I maye assay all the meanes possible.

Machinas post bellum adfers, when the stede is stolen, thou stealest the stable doore.

Mundi machina, the composition and woakes manship of this worlde.

Dolum ad aliquem machinamve commoliri, to worke deceipte or craftie agaynst one.

Machinalis, le, belongyng to ingins or instrumentes of warre.

Machinamentum, ti, n. g. idem quod Machina.

Machinari, ij, one that flyngeth or casteth with an ingene of warre.

Machinarius, a, um, belongyng to instrumentes or ingins of warre.

Machinatio, onis, f. g. a subtile inuencioon or deuise, a crafty endeavour, an ingene or instrument.

Machinator, toris, an inuentour, a dynser, an author, a maker of instrumentes or ingins.

Machinor, naris, nari, to inuente craftily, to desuple, to imagine, to goe about discerptfully.

Macia Romana, the herbe called Anagallis purpurea. Diosc.

Macidos, a citee of Thrace.

Macies, ei, f. g. gen. leanness.

Macilentus, a, um, leane.

Macio, aui, are, to make leane.

Macis, looke Macer.

Machomacha, a citee.

Macra, a ryuer, which renneth betwene the moun-taynes of Liguria.

Macreo, macrui, macrene, to be leane.

Macresco, scere, to make leane.

Macriudo, iudinis, f. g. leanness.

Macro, aui, are, to make leane.

Macrobi, people in Ascher, the whiche of Rome supponus be also called Macrobi. They count steep is inuoyoned with the ryuer of Nilus, the an plande. They lyue halfe as much longer as men doo here. and be saye and goodly peror nages, reuerende, and louers of vertue. There is moze golde than in Persia, and therefore that whiche is like pious, they doo moze estme, deckyng them selues with ornamentes of copper and byasse, and makyng gyues of golde. They do lyue commonly a hundred and twenty yeres, and doo masse them selues in a fontayne, whiche causeth theyr bodies to smelle like vio-lletes.

Macrobius, the name of a great learned man.

Macrochira, x, f. g. a garment with long sleeues, looke Chirodora.

Macrochir, he that hath longe handes.

Macrocatalectos, a woorde endyng in a longe sil-lable.

Macrocerini, mountaynes by the riuer of Jura.

Macrocephali, people by Bosphorus.

Macrocollum, li, n. g. paper topall.

Macrocosmus, id est Longus mundus.

Macror, oris, m. g. leanness.

Macrator, toris, a kyller, a sleaer, a murderer.

Macratus, a, um, slayne, sacrificed.

Macratus, us, mas, gen. a kylling of a thyng, to sacrifice.

Macra, or Matya, a delicate saure or meate, of the whiche al delicate meates are called Macra.

Macricus, he whiche hath great cherekes, and a gaspyng mouth.

Macro, aui, are, to slea or kyll, also to heate, to hurte, to doo pleasure, to handell ylle, to caste downe headlonge. Sometime to honour, also to increase.

Ferunt laudibus, maclant honoribus, They extolle with prayse, they increase in honour.

Maclare deos, for Maclare diis.

Maclare Orco, to doo sacrifice with one, to Pluto, the god of hell.

Maclare supplicio, to punishe.

Maclare damno aut malo, to hurte, to doo displeasure.

Maclra, x, f. g. an hutch, wherein bread is put. Some doo call it a brake, wherewith doo is wrought, or rather it is the kneadyng trough or tubbe.

Macltus, a, um, moze encreased, augmented. And is vsed most commonly in the vocatiue case.

Maclte amare, id est maxime.

Maclte animi, be of good courage.

Maclte virtutis & virtute, or Maclte virtute esto, procede in vertue, goe toothe and doo well.

Maclti ingenio, men of excellent wittes.

Macltus

Maculus esto hoc facinoroso; When one speaketh to god secretly, secretly it is to take this sacrifice in good parts; of that this sacrifice may please you.

Maculosa macte virtute esse; I would god him encrease and goe forwarde in this vertue and to wardness that appereth in hym.

Macula, a, f. gen. a spotte; a blemish; a marke of shame; whereby a thyng is knowne. also infamy by reproche. Sometime the marke of a nette or hole betwene the thynges. also a nette.

Maculare maculam; to putte away an infamy or slander.

Imburus maculo sceleris; to be discoloured with this foule and dishonest acte.

Inurete aternas maculas; To dishoneste for ever.

Maculo, ani, are; to spotte or make foule; to defile; to soyle; to dishonest; to disrepute.

Maculare nomen alicuius crimine; To defame.

Maculosus, a, um; speckled, spotty, full of spotted, uncleane or foule, dishonest.

Maculosus homo; a man greatly disreputed with infamy.

Macyberna; a citee of Bithonia.

Madagastar, an yle beyonde the furthest parte of Ethiopie; fouche; founden by the Portugalles; in the tyme of Emmanuell, kynge of Portugall.

This yle is in circuite, 4000. myles; & is verie ryche. Therin be great ollyphantes, Lyons, panthers, and such other beastes. The inhabitants be of Mahometes secte.

Madaurense; a citee in Africa.

Madefacio, defacis, feci, ere; to weate, to wash; to bayne.

Madefio, factus sum, fieri; to be moysted or made weate.

Madeo, dui, ere; to be weate or washed.

Madere vino; to be drunke.

Madere metu; to sweate for feare.

Madefco, descere; to sweatte or bee thorough weate.

Madian; a citee beynde Arabia, on the southe part; in the deserte of the Saracens, agaynst the east parte of the redde sea.

Madido, aui, are; to make weate.

Madidus; a, um; weate or washed with licour. Sometime drunke, also imbued.

Madifico, aui, are; to make weate.

Madon; a certayne kynde of white vines.

Madonais; that whyche is called of the poetasters Nenuphar.

Mador, oris, mascu. gener. moisture. Sometime sweate.

Madulsa, a, masc. generis; a drunke, he that hath a swylled soule. it is also red Madusa, without L.

Mander; a ryuer of the countrey of Phrygia. Erasmus saith of Lydia, whyche hath many turnynges and windynges, and of that all crow ned and subtile turnynges wyces, meane and diuise be called Mander. There is also of that name a mountayne in India. Mander, is also a picture made with turnynges and wyndynges lyke a labyrinth.

Manderi more; a word, wyndyng in and out continually.

Media; a citee in the royaume of Charia.

Mee; a kynde of great crabbe of the sea.

Maia; the month of September.

Mamoe; the herbe Illecebra.

Mena; a, a, a, a, called of Venetians Menela; to be unknowne, some take it rather for herpyng or a kynde of them.

Menades; furiose women; whyche serued in the sacrifice of Bacchus.

Menala, neu. g. plur. or after some, Menalum; sing. an hygh mountayne in Arabia.

Menalius; for Arcadius; therfore Menalium carmen; is taken for an inchantment.

Menalius aper; a boze of Arabia.

Menalius, a, um; of the mountayne Menala.

Menapij; Cellars; or people of Cellarlande. also cellers.

Menoles; one of the names of Bacchus.

Menomenon, ni, neu. ge. a kynde of honye that maketh men madde.

Menula; pilcherdes.

Meonia; a countreie in Asia the lesse, called also Lydia.

Meonius, a, um; of Meonia; Homer the excellent poete was called Meonius; eithere because he was borne in that countreie: or elles that his fathers name was Meon.

Meonida; men of Lydia.

Meonis; a woman of Lydia.

Meotia; a people of Scythia.

Meotis, otidis, or tidis; a great mere in the countreie of Scythia, which is alwayes frozen. Meotidis paludes; fennes; whereunto the sayed ryuer or mere renneth.

Meo, Meor, Meotia, & Meotudo; Meosto, & Meotifico; are; Meotus, a, um; loke after in Meo, Meor, &c.

Magalia; or Magaria, orum, n. g. plu. villages.

Magas, magadis; an instrument of musike.

Magi; amonge the Caldees and Persians, were men of excellent knowledge in philosophie natural and mathematicall, and knewe the hybertues and operations of thynges. The sonnes of the kynges of Persia were taughte by them to gouerne and minister theyr publyke weale, accordyng to the fourme of the vniuersall order and gouernance of the celestial worlde. Such were Magi; or the thre kynges that soughte Chryste, and offered to hym golde, myrr, and frankincense, adaptynge theyr present vnto the double nature of hym, vnto whome they gaue it; who was both god and man, kyng and priest. Now is that name impropely bled for a wyche, an inchaunter, a worker with yll spirites, which maye

maye bee better called Venefica Nicromantis cus, Incantator, or other names, as befoze and after bee rehearsed.

Magia, α, f. ge. magike, wherh is in two sortes.
One is the secrete knowlage of the natural qualities and hyd operations and causes of thyn-ges, and that is called Magia naturalis, naturall magike. An other is superstitious and deuple lythe, called wythcheraste, soxterpe, or other lyke detestable names, whiche is ynlefull by the lawes of god and man.

Magice, es, f. ge. the art of wythcheraste or magike.

Magicus, a, um, perteynyng to magike.

Magida, a kynde of breade.

Magidar, hytchen bourdes or instrumentes perteynyng to the hytchen.

Magidaphori, they whiche accompanie and goe with the mapster of the game.

Magirus, ri, m. g. a coke.

Maginor, aris, ari, to trifle, to goe slowly aboute a thynge.

Magiriscium, ij, n. g. a littell coke.

Magis, idis, f. m. g. a kneadynge throughe. also a platter or charger, sometyme a round bourde.

Magis, moze, rather.

Magis lubet quam perdere, I had liefer than to lose it.

Vbi molestus magis est, whan he beganne to be somewhat bulge with me, or to disquiete or boere me.

Magis ex vsu, moze for your pposite, moze profitable.

Magge, for Magis.

Magis ac magis, moze and moze, oftener tymes.

Magister, stri, masc. gen. a mapster or teacher of sciences. Also he that is ordeyned by an officer to sell a debtors gooddes.

Magister populi, the chiefe ruler of the people, by the whiche name the Dictator amonge the Romaynes was called.

Magister feriniorum, an officer lyke to the mapster of his Rolles.

Magister scripturæ, seemeth to bee a generall Surneyour, or he that hath the lettyng out of pastures.

Magister ludi, a schoule mapster.

Magistri morum, the Censors.

Magister naui, a myppe mapster.

Magister pecoris, an herde, a pastoure, a graspar.

Magister morū, a Censor, that hath the charge to correcte yll maners.

Magistellus, stelli, the diminutive of Magister.

Magisterium, rij, neu. g. the dignitie or office of a mapster.

Magistra, the feminine of Magister, the mapstresse or teacher.

Magistratus, us, m. gene. a great officer, a man
haupnge authoritie in gouernance of people, all be it that some haue moze authoritie by the lawes, and some lesse. Also the power, office, au-thoritie, or dignitie of a ruler. In head officers amonge the people.

A bire magistratu, to leaue his office, to goe out of office.

Gerere magistratum, to beare office, to be in authoritie.

Magistratum imminuere, to diminishe the au-thoritie or priuilege of an office or dignitie.

Magistratum habere, to be an officer or ruler,
to bee in authoritie.

Mandare magistratum, to assigne or appoynte an office.

Magistro, au, are, to rule.

Magma, âris, n. ge. a confection made of diuers swete spices in paste, onely for the saour, as pomaunders and washyng balles. sometyme it is taken for the dyegges of swete Magma croci-oples.

Magmentum, ti, neu. gene, a greate increase or ayde.

Magna Græcia, the parte of Italy from Laure-tum to Cumas.

Magnalia, great thynges to be wonderd at.

Magnanimitas, âris, f. m. ge. valpauynesse of courage or herte, noblenesse of stomake, magna-nimitas.

Magnanimus, a, um, that hath a valiant herte or courage, that whiche hath a noble and lofty stomake.

Magnarius, a great marchaunt.

Magnas, âris, & Magnatus, m. g. a noble man,
a man of great estimation.

Magnata, a citee of Irelande.

Magnes, étis, m. ge. the lode stone, that hath the vertue to drawe yron vnto hym. Whiche vn-propely, we vse to call adamant, where Ada-mas, is the diamand, as is afoze declared.

Magnes, a poete of Athens.

Magnesia, a parte of Macedonie.

Magnesia, hyppolite the wyfe of Theseus hyng of Magnesia.

Magnetes, tum, head officers amonge the Macdonians.

Magnetes, or Magnesij, people of Magnesia.

Magnificè, nobly, honourably, royally.

Magnifice accipere, to entertayn honourably.

Magnifice compellere aliquem, To speake to one with verape honourable and reuerende
wordes.

Hic me magnificè effero, Herin I aduance my selfe royally.

Magnificè incedere, To goe lyke a greate lorde or gentylman, to goe with a solemne maiestie.

Magnificè vtiles, verape profitable.

Magnificè loqui, to speake with a granitee or maiestie.

Magnificè viuere, To lyue noblye and lyke a gentill man.

Magnificentia, α, f. g. a disposicion and admi-nistracion

nistracion in dowynge of making of great thynges and sumptuous, magnificence.
Magnifico, aui, are, to extolle, to exalte, hyghly to pryse and commende.

Magnificus, a, um, that doeth greate thynges, great, noble, honourable, sumptuous.

Magnifica verba, hygh and byagging wordes, full of ostentacion.

Succus magnificus in vsu, a iuyce gretly vsed.

Magnificus apparatus, great and sumptuous prouision.

Magniloquentia, x, fce. g. a losy and hygh stile of maner in speakyng.

Magniloquus, qui, he that speaketh losyfe and proude wordes, of that hath a losyfe style.

Magnipendo, magnipendi, ere, to haue in great estimation, to sette muche by.

Magnitas, magnitatis, vled of olde wyters for magnitudo.

Magnitudo, inis, fce. g. greatnesse, amplenesse, largenesse.

Magnitudo animi, excellencie of noblenesse of herte of courage.

Magnopere, greatly, veraiue muche.

Non magnopere laboro, I care not muche.

Quid magnopere potuit tacere? what greate thyng coude he doe?

Nec magnopere visum, litte scene.

Magnopere censeo, I thynke veraiue good and expedient that ye do so.

Magnum, the herbe named Ballote, or Marrubium.

Magnus, a, um, great, large.

Haud magni precij, of no great value.

Pueri magni, great mens chyldern.

Magno animo vir, a man of great courage.

Magno natu vir, an auncient man, a man of great age.

Maior natu, elder.

Maior quadraginta annis erat, he was aboue xl. yerres olde.

Magnum fecit, he did a great thyng.

Magnum esset, it were a great labour, it were a great mattier.

Magna ex parte, for the moze parte, moste commonly, almoste, well nere all.

Magnam partem in his occupati sunt, They were occupied moste parte about these thynges.

Magno vendidit, he solde it deere, or at a great pryce.

Magni erunt mihi, I wyll set muche by them.

Magnum, for valde.

Magnum clamat, he crieth out alowde.

Maior morbus, id est comitialis.

Maiorem in modum, greatly, as muche as I can.

Magna pars Arabia, The moze parte of Arabie.

Magnus socer, my wyues grandfather.

Maior socer, my wyues great graundfather.

Maior patruus, my grandfatheres vncle.

Maior magistratus, the Consul.

Magnus portus, the haven called Portsmouth in Englands.

Mago, the name of bidens men.

Magog, the sonne of Japhet.

Maguderis, or Magideris, fce. g. a kynde of the herbe named Lacerpitium, after some only the stalks of that herbe: after other the roote of it.

Magus, i, m, g. loke Magi.

Mahmethes, or Mahumetha, was bozne in Arabia (as the moze parte doe wyte) of a poore house of familie, and fyrst was a byar and seller of Camels.

Afterwarde he fell acquainted wth a munke called Scygius, whiche was an heretike, by whose meanes he declared hym selfe to bee a prophete, and tooke on hym to reforme as well the olde lawe as the newe, and made other lawes, the whiche for theyr pleasantnesse, allured vnto theym muche people.

So, gatherynge vnto hym a great hoste, fyrst he wasted Syria, & wan Damascum, the chiefe citee thereof.

And haupng in his apde the Arabians called Scenitz, a valiaunte people (who had displeasure agaynst the Emperour Heraclius, because he payed them not theyr wages)

he wanne other greate Royalmes, and at the age of forty yerres, dyed (as some doe suppose) of the fallynge sychenesse, whiche he longe tyme dydde byssamble, fryngynge, that the angelle Gabriel was than sente vnto hym in message, whose brightnesse he myghte not susteyne.

he was buried at Medina, iii. dayes tourney from the redde sea, an hundred myles from Mecha, where is now the chiefe temple of his lawe.

He was after the Incarnation of Christe, fyre hundred yerres.

Maia, a kynde of crabbeshe.

Maia, the mother of Mercurius. Also one of the sterres called Pleiades.

Maiâlis, lis, m, g. a barowe hogge.

Maiestas, atis, fce. gen. maiestee, the greatnesse, dignitie, or excellent estimation of honour of a kyng, prynce, emperour, or greate manne.

Amonge the olde Romaynes it was the power and authoritee of the people of Rome, vnto whome Appellacion, called Prouocatio, was from all other dignitees.

The dignitie of the Senate was called the authoritie of the Senate.

Tantus autem cōsensus municipiorum coloniarumq; prouinciæ Gallia, vt omnes ad authoritatem huius ordinis, maiestatemque populi Romani defendendam, conspirasse videantur,

There is nowe suche agreement of wylls of the townes confederate and subiecte vnto vs in the partes of Fraunce, gouerned by vs, that all men there, dooe seeme to conspyre, howe they maye defende the authoritee of this Senate, and the Maiestee of the people of Rome.

Maieestas

Maiestas imminuta, is where any man goeth aboute to derogate anye thyng of the kynges authoritee royall, as also of the empyre and hygh power of the people of Rome. It may be taken for treason.

Si maiestas est amplitudo ac dignitas ciuitatis, is eam minuit, qui exercitum hostibus populi Romani tradidit. If Maieſtee bee the honoure and authoritee of this citee, he goeth aboute to appaie it, whyche hath deliuered the hoſte to the enemies of the people of Rome.

Maieſtas est in Imperij atq; populi Romani dignitate, quam minuit is, qui per vim, multitudinem ad ſeditionem vocauit. Maieſtee is in the authoritee of the Emperour and people of Rome: Agaynſte whome, he playnely commytteth treason, who ſo euer he bee, that violently prouoketh people to a ſedition.

For the worde Minuere maiestatem, the latter wyrters did vſe, Ludere maiestatem.

Maieſtatis crimen, is treason agaynſt a king. It was amonge the Romaynes conſpiracie agaynſte the Senate and people, whyche was also called Perduellio, and of Hiſtorians is named Coniuratio. And it is more than Maieſtas imminuta, for therein onely they doe derogate or take away ſome parte of the royall authoritee or honoure dewe to the perſone or citee. In the other they endeavour to deſtroye them vtterly, or to byrge them in ſubtection. Maieſtatem conſeruare, To haue or reſerue ſtill the dignitee of an Emperour or kyng or people, in one lyke honoure and reuerence.

Maieſtatem conſtituere, to preſerue authoritee that it decaie not, but to reſerue ſtill the eſtimation thereof.

Maieſtatem ſoluere, to byrge his maieſtee or authoritee in leſſe eſtimation.

Retinere maiestatem, to kepe his authoritee or dignitee.

Maieſtas in oratione, maieſtee or grauntee in ſpeakyng.

Maior, ōis, greater, loke Magnus.

Maiorana, nā, f. g. an herbe called Maioram.

Maiores, auncetours, progenitours.

Maiorina, a kynde of olpues, the whyche be not ripe befoze the ſyxtē Idus of Februarie.

Mauium, liij, n. g. of certayne late wyrters is taken for lettuce.

Maius, Maij, m. g. the moneth of Maye.

Mauiſculus, a, um, ſomewhat bygger, of good ſtature or age.

Mala, lā, f. g. the balke of the cheke.

Malabathrum, a certayne leafe, whyche in Indie ſwimmeth in poles and diſhes, without a roote. of it is made the ſwete oyle called Malabathrinum: loke Dioſc. it is named of the Mauritanes Cerebull.

Malabathrinum, ni, is called ynguentum foliaſum, a pleaſaunt oyntment.

Malach, a ſtree in Spayne.

Malache, ches, f. g. a kynde of malowes, the ſtalke wherof dooeth growe into the greatneſſe of a tree.

Malachites, a ſtone of a darke greene colour.

Malachia, a, ſer. g. caulme of the ſea, and greffe of the ſtomache, not ſuſtaininge meate, abhorring all thyng, as a womā with childe. Some doot calle it abhominacion of the ſtomache. But it is more reulpe the longynge of women with childe, and ouercastynge of the ſtomache, if they haue not that they longe for.

Malaciſſo, aui, are, to kneade or make ſoſte.

Malachia, called also Maldacon, a tree growyng in Bactria, as bygge as an olive, hauyng leaues lyke an olive, and fruite lyke pygges. out of this tree iſſueth the gumme called Bdellium.

Malacoſtratha, ſoſte as of the withoute Melles.

Malacrocraneus, idem quod molliceps.

Malacus, a, um, ſoſte.

Malchus, an hiſtoriographer.

Malocociſſus, an herbe with a ſmall ſtalke, and a leafe lyke to Iule, and windeth about euerie thyng that it ſtandeth npe. it is called of ſomme ſigillum Mariae.

Malagma, ātis, neu, ge. a molliſyng playſter, wherby hard impoſtumes be made ſoſt or ripe.

Malaiſſo, aui, are, to make ſoſte or ripe. Also to exteuple.

Male, yll, vnhappely, vncommodiouſely, miſcheuouſely.

Male exceptus, yll intreated, yll handled, ſpewdly welcome.

Male accipere, to intreate one yll.

Male accipere verbis, to geue yll language to one. Male audire, to bee yll repoied of, to haue an yll name.

Male cadere, to chaunce yll.

Male cogitare de aliquo, to haue an yll opinion of one.

Male conciliatus, he on whome a man hath loſte all that euer he hath beſtowed.

Fugitiue prodi, male conciliate, Come forth myſther, on whome I haue loſte all that euer thou coſteſt me.

Male formido, I am yll or ſore affrayed.

Male maceror, I am yll vexed, I am yll at eaſe.

Male me habeo, I am ſpyke, vexed, or diſquieted in mynde.

Male me habet hæc res, I am ſorpe or yll as payed for that matter, or that matter greuous to me.

Male mereri, to doe diſpleaſure to one, to deſerue diſpleaſure.

Male meritis est de me, he hath yll intreated me, or hath doen me diſpleaſure.

Male metuo, I am yll aſcarde.

Male moratus, yll manerde.

Male morigerus, diſobedient or ſrowarde.

Male odi, I hate deadly,

Male

Male optare, to curse.
 Male precari, to aske a vengeance.
 Maleficus, or maleficus, he or she that useth wretched counsaile.
 Male verat illi, God send hym all lucke there of, yll maye he bryke it.
 Male animatus erga aliquem, he that beareth little good wyl towarde one.
 Male sibi consulere, to dwyll, or to take an yll waye for his owne parte.
 Male credere, to truste one that is lyke to deceyve hym.
 Male dicis: Dost thou threaten me?
 Male docet te mea lenitas multa, my gentleness, or my favourable facion my teacheth the many thynges, or geueth the occasion to dwyll in many thynges.
 Hoc male habet virum, This geueth hym, or byteth hym by the stomache.
 Male mulctari, to be beaten, punished, or yll handled.
 Male viuere, to lyue poorly.
 Male vestitus, yll appareled.
 Malea, a promontorie of hille lying into the sea by Liconia, whiche is dangerous for shippes to passe by.
 Maledice, slanderously, reprochefully.
 Maledicentia, a, f. g. detraction, yll reporte.
 Maledico, maledicis, xi, ere, to curse, to rayle, to cherke, to speake yll to.
 Maledictio, onis, f. g. slander, yll spekyng.
 Maledictum, ti, neu. ge. a cherke, a rebuke, a wretched worde, an yll reporte.
 Conferre, congerere, conicere maledictum in aliquem, and Insectari aliquem maledictis, to speake yll or myreporte of, to rayle at one, to cherke.
 Maledicus, a, um, yll tongued, that speaketh yll of men, that rayleth.
 Maledicentior, maledicentius, Maledicentissimus, a, um.
 Maleficio, malefacis, feci, facere, to doe yll.
 Malefactum, ti, n. ge. a wretched tourne, an yll dedde, a displeasure.
 Malefica, a wylche, whiche with sorceris dooth hurte to men or beastes.
 Maleficentia, a, f. g. mysdooyng. idem quod maleficium.
 Malefice, mischeuously, harmefully.
 Maleficiose, idem.
 Maleficium, ti, n. g. damage, wronge, displeasure, hurte, a mischeuous dedde, an yll acte, a wretched tourne.
 Maleficus, a, um, hurtfull, noysome, that dooth hurte.
 Maléloqui, & Maledicere, to curse.
 Maleuentum, i, n. g. a citee in Campania called nowe Beneuentum.
 Maleuolens, entis, idem quod Maleuolus.
 Maleuolentia, a, f. g. malice, yll wyl.
 Maleuolus, a, um, malicious, that beareth yll

wyl, that beareth grudge.
 Malcus, a mounteyne in India.
 Malica, a citee in Spayne called nowe Malgrado.
 Malicium mare, the sea about Chetialp.
 Malicorium, ti, neu. gen. the cynde of a pomegranate.
 Malica, a citee in Chetialp.
 Maligne, enuiously, disrepyghfully, maliciously.
 Malignitas, atis, f. ge. wickednesse, malignitee, enuy, malice, yll wyl, unprouidentnesse, the vyce contrarye to liberalitee, niggardshyp.
 Fortuna malignitas, the forwardnesse of fortune.
 Malignor, & Maligno, to beare malice, to be hatefull.
 Malignus, a, um, wycked, cruell, enuious, troublesome, sparyng, to muche a niggarde.
 Aditus maligni, straight entrees.
 Maligna via, an yll waye.
 Maligna lux, a dysmyse lycht.
 Nec malignus, nec effusus, not to bryefe nor to longe: not to little nor to much.
 Malignus ager, grounde that is ylle to be brought to tyllhe.
 Malimnus, an hille of Sicilie.
 Malinathalla, a plante growyng in Egypte.
 Malinus, a, um, of or made of an appull tree.
 Malicia, a, f. g. knauery, naughtinesse, contrary to vertue and goodnesse, sometyme it signifieth subtilitee with deceipt, refectyng all thynges to his owne profite.
 Malicia cali, the vnhollofomenesse of the appre.
 Malicia soli, the naughtinesse of the grounde.
 Maliciose, subtilly, craftyly, wylly, deceptfully, spitefully, with an intent to beguyle.
 Malitiosus, a, um, crafty, subtille, deceptfully, wylly.
 Malrum Rom. the herbe called also Anthemis: looke there.
 Malleator, oris, m. ge. he that worketh with a hammer, mallet, or beetyll.
 Malleatus, a, um, hammered.
 Malleo, ani, are, to worke with an hammer or mallette.
 Malleolaris, re, as a twigge of bough.
 Malleolaris virga, idem quod malleolus.
 Malleolus, i, m. g. a little hammer. it is also a small bough or twigge of a vyne, worynge out of the balke. Also Malleoli, be sometyme taken generally for small stiches. They be sometyme taken for the bones of the ancle.
 Malleus, ei, mas. gene. an hammer, a mallet, a beetle.
 Mallos, a citee of Cilicia.
 Malluuium, ti, neu. gene. & Malluiz, arum, fa. gene. a baten, wherein men doe walke theyr handes.
 Malo, I had leffer or rather, mauis, mauult.
 Quiduis iam malo quam, &c. I will rather Suffre nowe anye misaduenture in the worlde, than it.

Malobathrum, thri, n. ge. a sweete herbe growynge in Indie vpon waters without roote.
Also a sweete oynment, wherewith men were wote to walke theyr heare, some write it Malas bathrum.
Malolion, the herbe called also Lichnis coros- naria.
Malogranatum, a pome granate.
Malho, ani, arc, to couer with the claye of claye called maltha.
Maltha, iha, f. g. a claye, whiche touchynge any other matter of substance, setteth it on fyre, rede in Asphaltum, & Bitumen.
Malua, x, for, gen. an herbe called malowes, or holphoches, whych is named to be one kynd of malowes.
Maluaceus, a, um, perteynynge to malowes, or lyke malowes.
Maluaticum, ci, neut. gene. of some is vsed for malmeley.
Maluaniscus, reade in Althea.
Malum, li, n. g. an apple.
Malum punicum, a pomegranate.
Malum terræ, reade Aristolochia.
Malum medicum, citrum, Hespericum, As- tyrium, aureum, an orange or lymon.
Malum Cotoneum, vel Cydoneū, a guince.
Malum epiroticum, Romanis orbiculatum, pome paradise.
Mala struthia, mustea, melimela, certayne
kynnes of quinces.
Malum caninum, the mandrake.
Malum terrestre, idem.
Malum, substantiue, an yll thyng, a shewde tourne, a mischiefe. Also labour, vexacion, sykenesse, grieve, payne, bearynge, punishment.
Dare malum, to doe a shewde tourne or displeasure, to hurte.
Cauere malum, to beware and take hede of a mischiefe.
Non potest ad salutem cōverti hoc malum, this mischiefe can neuer bee recovered or eased.
Malum habere, to haue a shewde displeasure.
Malum pondus, a false weight.
Vitare malum, to eschewe an yll mischiefe.
Malum, beyng an interfection, signifieth with a mischiefe, or like thyng.
Quid vos malum ergo me sic ludificamini?
than wherfoze with a mischiefe do you thus moche me?
Quid tua (malum) id refert? what with a mis-chiefe reckest thou therfoze, or haste thou ther-with to dwee?
Malus, a, um, yll, contrary to good.
Non vides quantum mali ex ea re excites? dost thou not perceyue howe muche inconuenience thou stirrest vp therby?

Malus fidei possessor, he that mistrustfully possesseth an other mans landes and goodes wōges fulle.
Malus, li, m. g. the malte of a wypp.
Malus, li, for, g. an apple tree.
Malus Assyrica vel medica, an orange tree.
Malus Persica, a peach tree.
Malus cotonea, a guince tree.
Malus Punica, a pomegranat tree.
Malus armeniacā, the fruite whiche some doe
call an Aprikke.
Mamercus, a byshoppe of Vienna, whiche first ordained the rogatio or procession weke 4-4-4.
yeres after Christe.
Mamers, in the Oske tongue, the name of spare.
Mamerthes, one of Corinthes.
Mamerini, people in Campania.
Mammas, a rote, haupnge dyuers rounde bunches, whych is good to take away scattres. Ruels has thynketh it that, whiche is called Doroniz- cum Romanum.
Mamilla, x, f. g. a little dugge or pappe.
Mamillare, ris, n. ge. a hercheffe, wherewith wōs men doe couer theyr pappes.
Mamma, x, f. g. a dugge or pappe. Sometime it is taken for the mother or nourse. Also a graunde mother. Sometime the budde of a tree before it be sponged out.
Primum mammarum dare, to geue first sucke.
Mammare, To geue the dugge or breste to a chylde.
Mammeata, a woman with great dugges or brestes.
Mammearus, and mammofus, n, um, haupnge great dugges.
Mammona, x, f. ge. in the language of Syria,
worldely substance, ryches.
Mammothrepius, ti, m. g. the chylde that sucketh long, so is it interpreted by saint Augustyn in hys exposition vpon the psalmes. Not with-dwyng Erasmus in ratione concionandi, inter-preteth it a chylde wantonly brought vp.
Mammula, x, a little teate or dugge.
Mamolaria, idem quod Acanthium.
Mamolaria, the herbe Acantha.
Mamphula, x, f. ge. a certayne breadde vsed in Syria, whiche ere it bee throughte bakyn, falsleth into coles.
Mamphur, phuris, a rounde peece of tymber, that turners vte.
Mamurius, a notable smithe or engrauer in the tyme of Nurba.
Mamurra, a gentylman of Rome.
Mana, in the olde tyme was taken for Bona,
god.
Manalis, le, that, out of the whych lycour alwaye renneth.
Manalis fontis, a well that alwaye springeth.
Manalis lapis, the dōze of hell, by the whiche soules ascende to heauen. Also a stone by the temple

Temple of Mars, whiche when the Romayns in a bryght brought into the citee, there foloweth alwaye chynne.

Manans, antis, rennyng.

Manantia viscera, rennyng sores, or sores that encrease and were more and more.

Manapia, a towne in Irelande called waterford.

Manceps, mancipis, m. ge. a farmer that byeth or byeth a thinge of the people, one that byeth or byeth by thynge a great, and after letteth or selleth theym at a greater pryce, for his owne aduantage. also one that selleth a thynge on warantys. Sometyme anye other creatur man or hysier.

Mancipes conducti, they that take on them to doe a thynge of great for money.

Mancinati, persons condemned.

Mancipatus, a, um, bonde, brought in seruage.

Mancipatus, us, a sellng with warantys.

In mancipatum venire, to be solde solemnely befoze witnesse with warantys.

Mancipatio, onis, fa. g. the assurance by liuery and possession.

Mancipi, or Mancupi, indeclinable, the interest or ryght of a thynge.

Mancupi emptio, the soleme forme of maner of byng any thynge befoze witnesse, by liuery and seyson, or possession takynge, wth other thynge executed, requisite for the assurance of the bargayne and sale.

Mancipi res, all thynge that maye be aliened from our possession to others. also those things that be in our full and propre possession.

Mancipium, or Mancupium, ij, n. g. that whiche is solemnely bought befoze witnesse, the contracte of bargayne of a thinge solde with warantys. Also a mans propre goodes or cattell. Sometyme a bondeman, a prisoner, a captiue.

Fortuna nihil dat mancipio, Fortune geueth nothing to a man to possesse for euer.

Mancipij sui esse, to bee his owne man, and none other mans subiecte or seruant.

Mancipio, or Mancupio accipere, to take possession of liuery and seysone, to take a thynge with warantys of hym that geueth or selleth it.

Mancipio, or Mancupio dare, to deliuer possession reseruyng a rente, to geue or selle a thing with warantys.

Vita mancipio nulli datur, lyfe is geuen to no man as his owne propre possession.

Mancipo, aui, are, to deliuer in bondage, to deliuer possession, to make liuery or seyson, to dispossesse our selfe, and geue possession to another. Also for Vendere, to sell.

Mancupes, the principall takers of lande or other thynge, wherof groweth yearly reuenues. Also they that dooe take on theym to perfoyme anye worke in great.

Mancus, a, um, lackynge one hande. Also generally, that whiche lacketh any thynge necessary, maymed, vnperfecte, weake, Manca cognitio, vnperfecte knowlage, whera some thynge lacketh.

Fortuna manca, weake, of no puissance.

Mandane, Astinges daughter, mother to hyngd Lynus.

Mandatarius, he to whome a commaundement is geuen.

Mandator, oris, m. gen. he that willethe or chargeth one to doe a thynge. he that suborneth a testate of false accusis.

Mandator cordis, he that suborneth or pporueth one to committe a murder.

Mandatum, ti, neu. g. a commission, also a commaundement, a charge.

Mandata conficere, perficere, exequi, facere, To doe the thinges that one is commaunded or charged.

Dare mandata alicui ad aliquem, To wyll or charge one to doe certayne thynge by another that goeth as messenger betwene.

Fallere mandata alicuius, to deceyue one, and not to doe that a man wylleth or chargeth him to doe.

Habere mandata ab aliquo, To haue commission, commaundement or charge of one, to doe or saye a thynge.

Mandata addere, to geue in charge or commission mozeouer.

Mandatus, us, m. gen. a byddyng, chargeyng, or commaundyng.

Mandatus, a, um, geuen in charge or committed to one to doe.

Mandela, a byllage of the Sabyne.

Mandibula, la, form. gen. a sawbone, wherin the teeth be sette.

Mando, onis, m. gen. a great eater, or he that is alwaye eatynge.

Mando, di, ere, to chewe meate or grynde it with the teeth.

Lentissime mandere, to chewe meate softly.

Mando, aui, are, to comyt, to charge, to commaunde, to bidde, to geue in charge.

Memoria mandare, To remembre, to put in remembraunce, to leaue in memorie or for a memoriall, to putte in wrytyng. Also to conne by herte.

Mandare eternitati, to wryte a thynge, to the entent it shoulde be in perpetuall remembraunce.

Mandare curam, to leaue the charge vnto one.

Mandare fidei alicuius, To put a man in trust with a thynge.

Mandare literis, To put in wrytyng or memorie.

Mandare monumentis, to put the acte of any man in perpetuall remembraunce.

Mandare se fugæ, to renne awaye.

Mandare terræ semina, to put seede into the grounde, to sowe grayne or seedes.

Satin hoc mandatum est tibi, is this byddyng enoughe for the?

Mandare in vltimas terras, To banyshe or sende sende to the bittermoste partes of ende of the worlde.

Bona nostra hæc tux mando fidei, I committe all these my goddes to your fidelities.
O I putte you in truste, with all these my goddes.

Humo mandare aliquem, to burie one.

Verbis mandare, to write in verses.

Honores mandare, To geue offices or digni-ties to one. Likewise Mandare magistratum.

Mandonius, a Spanysh capitayne.

Mandra, a, f. g. an houell, or other lyke place, wherin cattell dooe save them selves from the heate of the sonne, or from tempestes, a beas-tes stall.

Mandragora, a, f. g. mandrake, an herbe whych Dioscorides saith was of some called Circea, because it was feined, that Circe the great sorceresse, vled the roote thereof in hie amonous drynkes. The iuice of the roote, or wyne wher-in the roote is boylled, will cause one to slepe a deade slepe, wherfoze surgeons dooe vse to geue it to theym, whome they wyl cutte. It is also vled for other purposes in physyke. of this herbe be two kyndes, the male and the female.

Mandrabus, a man that sounde a great treasure: on whom goeth a prouerbe.

Mandro, a poze shypman, whiche throughte prosperouse fortune, grewe at length to bee a great capitayne.

Manduces, images caried about in paganes with great cheekes, wyde mouthes, and mahynge a great soune with their teeth.

Manduco, zui, are, and manducor, aris, ari, in olde wryters, to thewe meate, to eate.

Manduco, onis, m. g. a great eater.

Manducus, ci, idem.

Mane, yearly, also in the mornynge.

Mane & mani, dixerunt veteres.

Hodie mane, to daie in the mornynge yetly.

Tam mane, so yearly in the mornynge.

Dormire totum mane, to sleepe all the morn-ynge. A mane dici, euen from the mornynge.

Multo mane, and bene mane, verie yearly.

Nimis mane, very yearly or to yearly.

Maneo, mansi, ere, to abide, to tarie, to stande still, to remaine, to continue, to persiste, to happen hereafter, to be lyke to chaunce hereafter. Sometime for expectare, to abyde losynge for.

Manere promissis, to kepe promise, to sticke to ones promise.

Manere ad exercitum, to tarie with the army.

Manere aliquem, to abyde lokynge for one.

Quicunque te manent casus, what channes so euer bee lyke to fall to you, or shall come to you hereafter.

Manet te bonum, some good fortune wyl chaunce to the.

Periculum ingens manet, nisi. &c. there wyl great daunger ensue or folowe, except. &c.

Manfit Silvius postea omnibus cognomen, qui Alba regnauerunt, All that reigned after at Alba were surnamed Silvii, or had this surs name Silvius.

Lex manet, cui apponitur abrogata est.

In officio manere, To doe his duties dill-
gently.

Si sententia tua manet, if you bee still in that opinion.

Manent causas, the same causes or leattes be still.

Id mihi manet, that tartish with me, or I have that still.

Manere in conditione, to sticke to the offer that he hath made.

Manere in fide, to be true.

Manebitur, the impersonall.

Manedum, tarie a while.

Manes, manium, plu. tan. m. ge. the godd and badde aungell: sometymes they bee taken for diuelles, sometyme for goddes, sometyme for spirates or soules not purged of synne, some-tyme for the pyenes, whiche soules doo suffer.

Manes, an heretike, whiche affirmed him selfe sometyme to be like Christe, sometyme to bee
the comfortour that was promised to come.

Manethus Mendes, a priest of Egypte.

Mango, onis, com. g. was taken for a seller of hoyes to abhominable vices, whiche accusos med to peincte and decke theim, to sell them the better. It is taken also for suche a one as possitheth and peincteth a thynge with a false colour, to sell it the better. It is sometyme taken for a seller of hoyes, a hoyse cosler that pampereth by his hoyes to make theym seeme sayge.

Mangonicus, a, um, perteynynge to that craft.

Mangonium, n. n. g. the craft to make thynges saleable.

Mangonizatus, a, um, trymmed, pollyshed, peinct-ed, pampered or poyred by, to bee the better solde.

Mangonizo, aui, are, to pollysh, peynete, or trim a thynge, to make it more vendible, or to be better solde.

Mania, a, f. g. madnesse, reade in Phrenitis.

Mania, a citee of Persia.

Mania, was also amonge the gentyls a goddesse called the mother of theym, whiche were called Lares, or Larui, vnto the whiche goddesse they vled a while to offer mens heades in sacrifice.
But after by meanes of Jun. Brutus, whiche was consull, they chaunged that sacrifice into garlyke heades, and the knoppes of popies. It was also that, wherewith nourices dyd put chyldren in feare whan they cried, whiche women vse to calle the bugge, or the goblin.

Mania, arum, f. m. gen. plu. defourmed pressonages.

Manica, arum, plur. manacles to tie the handes together: also gauntletttes and splintes: also mittaynes and longe gloves.

Manica,

M A N T E A.

Mánica, re, f. g. a sleeue of a garment.
Manichæus, a, um, secured of hangynge sleeues.
Manicata vestis, a garment with sleeues.
Manichæi, a secte of heretikes, so named of an arche heretike called Manes.
Manicon, an herbe called also furialis.
Manicula, lx, f. g. a little hand.
Manicus, ci, m. g. a madde man.
Manifestarius, a, um, cleere, euident, openly known, notorious.
Manifestaria res est, the thyng is very euident and notably known.
Manifestarius fur, a theefe notably known.
Manifeste, cleere, manifeste, euidentely, playnely.
Manifesto, an aduerbe, cleere, playnely.
Manifesto, aui, are, to manifest or make aparynt.
Manifestus, a, um, manifeste, cleere, euident, playne.
Manifestum habere, to knowe surely.
Manifestus mendaci, proued a lyar. Iphé wyfe manifestus vanitatis, flagiti, ambitionis, delicti.
Manifestum facere, to declare playnely.
Manilius, the name of a noble house amonge the Romaynes.
Manimoria, thynges that dwre abyde in tennembyraunce.
Maniolæ, ples agaynst Indie, beyonde the ryuer of Ganges, where as bee rockes of Adamant stones, whych dwre drawe vnto thym thyppes that haue yron nayles. Maniolæ were also little puppettes made of dowe, geuen to chyldren.
Manipulâris, & Maniplâris, a capytayne of a bande of men. A Randetde bearer.
Manipulâris, re, of or belongynge to a bande of men.
Manipulâtum, by bandes or companies of men.
Manipulus, li, m. f. gen. an handefull, a grype, a bande of men, propriely of x. souldiours.
Manipulus sceni, a bottell of herye.
Manius, the name of certayne Romaynes.
Manliana, a citie of Portugale, an other of Tuscane.
Manliana imperia, cruell gouernaunce, or rule without any mercy.
Manlius, the name of diuers noble romaynes.
Manna, in holpe scripture was a certayne delitate thyng, whych god rained to the Jewes, brynge in wyldernesse, whych lape on the grounde whete, and lyke to the sede of Coliander, and was wonderfull pleasaunt in eatynge, and by lyhellyhode hollesome, as engendrynge no putrefaction. nowe, we dooe commonly name it aungelles foode. Manna vled in thislike, is in. ii. sortes. One is a drwe congreled on trees in certayne places, and falleth as meldeu dweth here in Englande, and is gathered and solde veraye deare for a medicine to purge choler easylie. Some supposed it to be that, whych Dioscorides calleth Elecomeli: some, that which he calleth Saccharum. But manardus and Musa, dooe affirme the contrary.

M A N T E A.

 Not withstandinge that, whych Galene in his myke de alimentorum facultatibus, calleth Mel roris, seemeth to be this Manna. But Asuerois putteth it amonge those thynges, whiche were founde after Calches tyme. An other Manna, called Manna thuris, is the crumbes of fragmented of frankencense, whiche with the rynde of the tre, falleth in the gatherynge of frankencense. The fyrste is temperate betweene hote and colde without any degree, this other is of the temperature of incense, but that it is moze byndynge.
Mannor, aris, ari, to scale.
Mannulus, li, and Mannus, i, m. a. ge. a nagge, a lyttell horse.
Manus, the sonne of Teuton, of whome the Almaynes descended.
Mano, au, are, to renne out, as spoure dooeth. Also to droppe out, to appere out as sweate out of the pores. Also to descende, to procede, to goe abroade, to spreade abroade.
Manat tota virbe rumor, the bzulte therof was spreade and sowne throughe the citee.
Manantia vlcera, sores that dwre waxe moze and moze.
Lachrymæ manauere genis, the teares tribbled downe his cheekes.
Manat picem hæc arbor, pitche renneth out of this tree, of this tree sweateth or sendeth out pitche.
Gelidus toto manabat corpore sudor, all his bodie was in a colde sweate.
Manat sudore, he sweateth.
Manabant omnibus gaudio lachrymæ, they all wepte for ioye.
Latius manabit hæc oratio, this kynde of oracion wyll serue to many other thynges, or be vled in many other thynges.
Manabat indies latius, it dailye encreased and went further abroade.
Manobarbuli, were hartes wrought wth leade, also they whiche vled to beate thym.
Mansio, onis, f. g. the abydynge or tatyng in a place, lodgynge or baltynge. Scietyme it signifieth a dayes iourney. but amonge auncient wyters it signified the place where an hoste dyd rest in iourney. Also the places, where coursers of men ridynge in poste, dooe change theyr horses or waggons, were called Mansiones. The space of the fyrst, after the accompte of olde capytaynes, was. 150. furlonges, whiche is. 18. miles, a halfe myle, and a quarter of a myle.
Mansiferna, a pitchar pottle.
Mansito, au, are, to abyde longe. Also to chaw or chaw often.
Mansius, stollen.
Mansu efacio, efacis, feci, facere, to make gentill

M A N T E A.

til of tractable, to make taame.
 Mansuēfactus, a, um, made gentill of taame.
 Mansues, for Mansuētus.
 Mansuesco, scere, to waxe taame of gentyll.
 sometyne for Mansuefacere.
 Mansuerārius, rij, m. gen. he that breaketh an horse, or maketh any other beast taame.
 Mansuetudo, dinis, f. g. meekenesse, gentylnesse, a moderate temperaunce betwene pyde and simplicitie.
 Mansuetē, meekely, gentilly, tamely.
 Mansuētus, a, um, meeke, gentyll, taame.
 Hæc ego putabam omnia esse humani ingenij, mansuetique animi officia, I thought all these to be the partes of a gentyll nature, and of a tendre herte.
 Mansum, si, neu. gen. meate, whyche the nurces dooeth chewe, and after geue it to the chylde, puttyng it into his mouth.
 Manus, a, um, of Mando, mandi, chewed.
 Mansutius, a gourmaundour of great eater.
 Mantelūm, li, mantelium, lij, and mantele, lis,
 n. g. a towell of naphyn, wherwith men dooe wipe theyr handes, whan they haue washed. als
 so a cloke.
 Mantelūm mendacijs, a cloke of couer to hide ones lies.
 Mantes, tis, m. ge. a diuinour of coniectour of thynges to come.
 Manteum, rei, n. g. a place, where dyuelles in is dolles gathe aunsweres.
 Mantia, æ, f. g. diuination. also the bushe called rubus: loke there.
 Mantice, tices, f. g. the arte of diuination.
 Mantica, cæ, f. ge. a bagge. sometyne a cloke, a wallet.
 Mantiora, a beaste, whych is in India, in bodye lyke to a lyon, but moze rough, hauynge a face lyke to a man, and in his mouth two rowes of sette of teeth, the tayle of a scorpion, and the voyce of a small trumpette, and is of coloure redde, and will neuer be made taame.
 Mantacula, læ, fæm. gener. a little bagge of purse.
 Manticularia, towells of other lyke thynges, wher with men doe wpe theyr handes.
 Manticularius, rij, m. g. a stealer of nappye, also a picke purse of cut purse.
 Manticulatio, ōnis, f. g. clynesse, decepte.
 Manticular, aris, ari, to doe a thyng clyly, as to picke a purse.
 Mantile, lis, idem quod Mantelūm.
 Mantinea, a citee in Grece.
 Mantis, idem quod Mantes.
 Mantiscinor, āris, ari, to steale of picke craftily.
 Mantissa, æ, f. g. the addition in weyght, somewhat ouer.
 Mantius, the sonne of Melampus.
 Manto, the sonne of Ciresias the Theban prophet, who led his father, whyche was blynde.
 Manto, aui, are, the most auncient writers vled

M A N T E A.

for frequenter manere, to varie often tymes.
 Mantua, a noble citee in Lumbardie, where Al-gill the excellent poete was borne.
 Mantuanus, a, um, of Mantua.
 Mantuaria tunica, sleeued iachettes.
 Manuālis, le, of the hande, or that filleth the hande, or that is holden in the hande.
 Manualis, idem quod iuncus marinus.
 Manuarius, a, um, manuall, that belongeth to the hande.
 Manubia, arum, f. g. pl. the prate taken of enemies, the bootie: after some, the capitaynes parte of the praye. Also a spoyle taken of some noble person that yeldeth. also money, for the whyche the praye was solde.
 Manubiālis, læ, perteyninge to a praye of bootie.
 Manubialis pecunia, money that the praye is solde for.
 Manubinarius, a, um, parte taker of a praye bootie.
 Manubriolum, li, n. g. a little haffe of handyll.
 Manūbrium, brii, n. g. the hylte of handill of a weapon of instrument.
 Ossea manubria, bonie haffes.
 Manui, amonge the olde Romayns in their son-ges called Saliares, signified good of honeste
 men.
 Manuleātus, a, um, hauynge longe sleues, or that weareth a garment with longe sleues: and by translacon, a nice, tendre, & delicate person.
 Manuleata tunica, a cote with longe sleues, loke Chirodora.
 Manulearius, rij, m. g. he that maketh garmentes with longe sleues.
 Manum, clere, wherof cometh Mane, the mo-
 nyng.
 Manumissio, ōnis, f. g. an infranchisement of a bonde man.
 Manumissus, a, um, infranchised, manumised.
 Manumitto, misi, mittere, to manumise of in-franchise a bonde man.
 Manufactus, a, um, made with hande.
 Manuor, idem quod Furor.
 Manuprécium, cij, n. g. the rewarde of wages for woorkeman shyppe.
 Manuria, a cote with sleues.
 Manus, us, f. g. a hande, a mans hande in wry-tyng, a wrytyng, a subscription with ones owne hande. also a grapull to fasten shyppes togesther. sometyne it signifieth a multitude of men in the ayde of one: sometyne power. also the nose of snoute of an olyfante.
 Manus interiectio, attachment. also season of seysure of a thyng, wherunto we make title.
 Manum inire, to seple of take possession.
 Mittere manus ad rem aliquam, to seple of take possession of a thyng to some vse.
 Mann consertum ex iure vocare, to chalenge ryght of propriete in a thyng, and offre to trie it by the lawe. Reade Gell. li. ix. Cicer. pro Murena, and De oratore, lib. i.

Manum

Manum conferere, to fyghte hande to hande.
Manum feruile subducere, to suffer to be coꝛrected in learning, to be contente to be taught, to be learned, ones to haue gone to schoule, and nowe to be past teaching.

Manum non verterim, I wyl neuer go about it, I will not turne my hande foꝛ it, I passe not much, I care not.

Manum habere sub pallio, to be ydell, to bee
nothyng lyuely oꝛ steyng.

Manibus pedibusque, with all myght and maine, with hande and foote, with toothe and naye, as muche as in hym lieth, all that euer he maye right busily.

Manibus pedibusque ire in sententiam, is in a parliament, great counsaile, oꝛ other greete assembly, to haue the consente of manye men, where þe greatter parte consenting to one mans opinion oꝛ sentence, doe goe towarde hym, holdyng by theiꝛ handes, in toke that they be ther-unto agreed.

Mittere manum, in dice playng to pardon one that casteth the thowte, whereby he leseth all.

Manum de tabula, a pꝛouerbe, signifyinge,
leane whyles it is well.

Manum & mentum, was an olde pꝛouerbe, wherby men were warned of chaunces, whyche happened sodenly, and in so shorte a tyme as a man myght byngge his hande to his chin. lyke to the same is an other pꝛouerbe of the grekes, Multa quidem cadunt inter calicem supra-maque labra: reade that in, M. ante. V.

Compressa in pugnū manus, the fyfte.

Manus oculata, handes lookyng always to receyue that was promysed.

Mea manu scripta litera, letters of myne owne wyting.

Plena manu, liberallye, bountefullye, copyouslye.

Aquis manibus abscedere, so to departe fro battayle, that neyther can tell whyche hath the better hand, to departe on euen hande.

Afferre manus, to hyll.

Inter manus accipere aliquem, to take one by aloofe, and carie out betwene men.

Manu capere, to wyl in war by strong hande.

Collidere manus, to clappe the handes together. Vix continet manus, he dweth standyng holde his handes.

Dedere manus, to yelde.

Victas dare manus, idem.

Manu docere, to teache playnly.

Manibus praelium facere, to ioygne battayle, to fyght hande to hande.

Habere ad manum, to haue in a redynesse.

Imponere summā manum, to make an ende of a thyng, to make perfect.

Intentare manus in aliquem, to laye handes upon one.

Manus multas poscit hoc opus, this worke requyret the helpe of many.

Pulsare utraque manu, to thumps with bothe
the fyfles.

Hoc succedit sub manibus negotium, this thyng cometh well to passe, oꝛ hath good successe.
Esse manus alicuius, to helpe one.

In manibus vestris habetis, it is in your poster. Est in manibus liber, the booke is abyde in every mans hande.

Plus illi in manu est, he is rycher, he hath greater substance.

In manus sumere, to take in hande.

Tendere manus, to holde by the handes as men doe in prayng and besyng.

Tollere manus, to cast by the handes foꝛ ioy.
Longa manu dare, to pꝛofte and pꝛomys a thyng, but not to geue it out of hande.

Brevi manu dare, to geue somethyng with that one pꝛomyseth.

Res ad manus veniebat, it came to that poyn-
t that they sought foꝛ the marrye.

Inter manus versari, to be abyode in mens handes.

Per manus, and De manu in manum, frome hande to hande, from one to an other.

Præ manu pecuniam dare, to geue money bes foꝛ hande.

Quod mihi fuit præ manibus, that I had in my handes.

Sub manu, at hande.

Pro manus, precio aliquid dare, to geue any thyng foꝛ the workman shyppe.

Manizantion, of Setus is taken foꝛ the roote of Colocasia.

Mapalia, drum, neu. gen. plu. cotages buylded rounde lyke ouens.

Mapera, a cite of Sarmatia, called commonlye Lopa.

Mappa, x, f. g. a table clothe.

Marasmus, is a kynde of the feuer called Hectica, in the whyche the moysture of the substan-ciall partes of the bodye is exhauste oꝛ dried up, and the fleshe resolved. wherfoꝛe Gale-nus exhorteth the physicion, not to go about to cure hym, whome this sickness hath attached.
Foꝛ although he dooe extinguishe the heate, yet
wyl the dysenese, that is left, lyke vnto age, consume the patiente. The causes thereof be the same, whyche are of Hectica, the one and the other is called in englyshe a consumption feuer: but this may be called a mortall consumption, because it is incurable.

Marathus, idem quod Hippomarathon.

Marathon, a towne & fiede in the countrey of Athenesse, distaunt from Athens. x. myle, where Theseus slewe a terrible bull, and Milciades vanquished the Persians.

Marathrites, a kynde of wyne, haunye fenell instused, good foꝛ the eye sight.

Marathusa, an ile, wherein is aboundance offenel, and is also called Clazomenis.

Marathrum, thri, n. g. idem quod feniculum,
X x ij fenell,

fenell, whyche is hotte and drye in the seconde degree.

Marcella, a womans name.

Marcellus, a propre name.

Marceo, cui, cere, to corrupte, to be rotten.

Marcere vino, to be consumed with dronkennesse. Marcet animus, his courage faileth him, his mynde is slouthfull and heauie, he is without courage of lyfe.

Marcesco, scere, idem quod Marceo, to waxe rotten or corrupted, to become vnlustie.

Marcescere otio vel desidia, to be laske with idelnesse and slouth.

Marcescente adhuc stomacho pridiani cibi onere, the stomache beyng yet oppressed and feeble wth the meate that he hadde eaten the daye before.

Marchasira, idem quod Pyrites, as Georg, Agricola testifieth.

Marchia, a countrey in base Germanie.

Marchlas, a notable robber in the woodde Dodonia.

Marcus, li, m. ge. a hammer or other lyke instrument, that a copper smith dweth vfe.

Marcidus, a, um rotten, feeble, vnlustie.

Marcidæ aures, hangyng eares.

Marcidus somno, vnlustie with to much slepe.

Marcipanes, a kynde of bread named of the inuentour marchepaine.

Marcipor, marciporis, ma. gen. the seruaunt of Marcus.

Marcomani, people in Germanie, whyche are nowe supposed to be eyther of Boheme, or of Moravia.

Marcor, oris, m. ge. corruption or putrefaction, ruggardie.

Mardi, a people adioynyng to Persia.

Mardonius, one of Perxes capitaynes.

Mare, ris, n. ge. the sea, it is sometyne putte for any great water.

Mare celo miscere, to trouble all the worlde.

Mare Mediterraneum, the sea, whyche cometh from the weste ocean, and entreteth by the streittes of Marroche, and passeth betwene Spayne and Barbarie, diuiding Europa from Africa, and entreteth into Asia, takyng not with standyng dyuers particular names: as Balastricum, Ligusticum, Tirrenum, Carpathiū, Aegeum, &c.

Infestum mare habere, to trouble the sea.

Mari terraque querere, to seke euerye where, bothe by sea and by lande.

Mare rubrum, the redde sea, betwene Egypte and Palestine.

Mareotis, oridis, a pole or meere in Egypte, also a parte of Libya, and a parte of Epirus.

Margea, a certayne fountayne.

Marionides, grapes of the countrey of Mareotis.

Marga, a, fce. ge. a kynde of earthe called marle, which is a fatte claye and chalke mingled.

Margarida, small daytes, rounde and whyte.

Margaris, margaridis, fce. gen. a kynde of date trees.

Margarita, a, f. g. and Margaritum, ti, ne. ge. a perle: a margarite. Sometyne generally all precious stones are called Margaritæ. Sometyne a date.

Margaritarius, ri, m. g. a seller of perles.

Margaritefer, ra, rum, that whith bringeth forth the or hath plenty of perles.

Margiana, a region in Asia.

Margites, the name of a verye soale, after whom a notable soales bee so called.

Margo, marginis, com. g. the bymyne or edge of any thinge, the margent.

Margines imperij, the boundes or marches of the empyre.

Marginatus, a, um, that hath a brode margent.

Margino, ani, are, to make bymynes, bymynes or margentes.

Margus, a river in Asia.

Maria, a, f. g. a propre name.

Mariaba, the chiefe citee in Saba.

Mariandini, people of Bithinia.

Mariandinum, a countrey in Asia where Hercules ouercame Cerberus.

Marianus, a hylle in Spayne.

Marica radix, the herbe called also Iris.

Marica, a goddess.

Maridunum, the towne of Laier Marthen in wales.

Marinus, a, um, of the sea.

Marina aqua, salte water of the sea.

Marinus color, id est, varius color.

Marionus, Lunemburgh in Almayne.

Maris, a ryuer rennyng into Jher.

Marisca, vnlauery figges, wyld figges, figges whyche doe open that the seedes dooe appere. Also greete piles of hemorroides in the fundement.

Mariscus, ci, m. g. or Mariscum, ci, n. g. a kynde of bullrushes.

Marita, ta, f. g. a wedded woman, a wyfe.

Maritalis, le, perteynyng to wedlocke.

Capistrum marital, the bonde of wedlocke.

Marigenus, a, um, come of the kynde of Mars.

Maritimus, a, um, of the sea syde, of the sea coast.

Marito, aui, are, to wedde: and is spoken also of trees, as to set vines to elmes or other trees.

Maritari, to be made great with yonge.

Maritus, ti, m. g. a wedded man, an householder. Sometyne it is taken for a cocke, sometyne for the buche gote, or the male in any couple.

Marius, the propre name of a noble Romayn.

Marmarica, a countrey in Afrique, betwene Cyrene, Libya, and Egypte, haupyng on the north the Egyptian sea.

Marmarida, people of Afrique, marchyng to Egypte.

Marmaritis, tidis, fce. ge. an herbe, supposed of Dioscorides to bee fumptorie.

Marmor, oris, n. g. marble stone.

Marmo,

Marmorarius, rij, m. gene. he that woorketh in marble, a marbler.
Marmoratio, onis, f. g. buyling with marble.
Marmoratus, a, um, wrought with marble, that is covered with marble.
Marmorata laudes, images of marble, set up for the memoie of any man.
Marmoratum, ti, n. g. a thyng made of marble.
Marmoreus, a, um, of marble.
Marmorosus, a, um, harde like marble.
Maro, ronis, the name of the most excellent poete Vergyll.
Maronia, a citee of the Liconias, where is verie good wyne, and after some so strong, that it twentie tymes so muche water bee put to, it kepeth his strength still. also the herbe centaurie.
Maronius, a, um, of Maronia.
Marpesius, an hill in the yle called Parus.
Marpesius, a, um, of the same hill.
Marpissa, the daughter of Euenus, and wyfe of Idas.
Marplacidæ, myppes or barges bled in Media.
Marra, æ, f. g. a mattoche to pare awaye weeds.
Marrubium, bij, n. g. an herbe called hozehoude: it is hotte and drye in the second degree.
Marrucini, people in Italie.
Mars, martis, called the god of battayle, sometime it is taken for battayle.
Mars communis, the uncertayne chaunce of warre.
Mars suo, of his owne pöpple witte without any counsaile.
Martis capitulum, the herbe Eringium.
Martis sanguis, the herbe Asarum.
Marticola, a woymypper of Mars.
Marsi, people in Scythia.
Marspiter, the father of Mars.
Marsia, a countrey in Italie. it is also a ryuer rennyng by Apamea.
Marsus, and Marsicus, a, um, of Marsia.
Marsupium, pij, n. g. a pouche or purse.
Marsyas, the name of a famous historiographer, & of certayne other men. also a ryuer of Phrygia named of one Marsyas, a minstrell.
Martia, Latos ponger daughter.
Martia, æ, f. g. a water in Rome, verie holtsome and excellent.
Martiaca, wages geuen to souldiours.
Martiacus, a, um, belongyng to warres.
Martialis, le, bozne under the planct of Mars.
Martianus, a, um, of Mars.
Martialis, the name of a poete, who wrote Epigrammes.
Martius, the name of diuers Romaynes.
Martius, a, um, pertynyng to Mars.
Martius Campus, a fiede at Rome dedicate to Mars, where the yong men of Rome dyd exercise them self. Also there were their assemblies, for the election of theyr great officers.
Martius mensis, the monthe called Marche,

Martyr, martyris, com. ge. a marty, a witness.
Martyrium, martyrdome.
Marulium, vide mauium, lettuce.
Marullus, the name of a Romayne, chennie to Cesar. Also of a poete, and of a grammarian.
Marum, ri, an herbe, whiche Galen sayth, is lyke maioram, but of greater sauour.
Maruda, a certayne measure, conteyning two of the measures called Cotylæ.
Mas, matis, the male of euery kynde.
Masalia, a toun of Crete.
Maschala, an ingin, wherewith the fardels bee hopsted in and out of myppes, such as wee call a Crane.
Maschalion, after some is a basket, made of a date tree, because a twigge of the date tree is called Maschale, some take it for a rope.
Masculesco, scere, to be manly, great or wise, to be comen of the male kynde.
Masculerum, ti, n. ge. a place where male bythes doe growe.
Mascolinus, a, um, masculine, that is of the male kynde.
Masculo, aui, are, to make manly or stronge.
Masculus, a, um, manly, great, wyle, stronge, hardye.
Masculus, li, m. g. a man.
Masdoranus, a mountaine, which diuideth Parthia from Armenia.
Masiniissa, looke Malsiniissa.
Maspetum, ti, n. ge. the leafe of an herbe, of the whiche cometh Beniowpne, or after some the stalk of that herbe.
Massa, æ, m. g. a ryuer in Libia.
Massa, æ, f. g. paaße, a lumpe of any thyng.
Massa auri, a wedg of golde.
Massa ferri, a barre of iron.
Massagetæ, a people in Asia, whiche rennyng on horse backe throughe desartes, doe drinke their horse bloude mixte with mylke: they also doe eate theyr parentes, if they die for age: but yf they be sicke, they cast them to wyld beasts, to be deuoured.
Massica, a countrey in the southe parte of Spain.
Massicum, ci, neu. gen. wyne of the mountayne Massicus.
Massicus, a mountayne in Campania, where is very good wyne.
Masilia, a citee in hygh France, called Marfiles.
Masiliensis, se, Malsitanus, and Malsiloticus, a, um, of Marfiles.
Malsiniissa, a king of Numidia, and great friend to the Romayns.
Masylla, a countrey in Afsrike amonge the western Moyses.
Masyllus, Masylius, and Masylius, a, um, of Masylla.
Masso, aui, are, to make in paaß, to make thicke.
Masticeos, reuerende, honourable.
Mastiche, ches, for. gene. a soote gumme called Mastix.

M A N T E A.

Mastigia, α, f. ge. and Mastigeus, gei, m. gen. a knave worthy to be beaten.
Mastigophorus, ri, a fellowe worthy to be whyped, also a certayne minister, whych with whypes remoued the people where there was muche ppeale.
Mastix, tigis, m. g. a whippe, a scourge.
Mastos, a teate of a cesterne, whereby water doeth renne out by a cocke or spoute.
Mastruca, ca, f. gen. a garment, whiche men of Sardinia vsed to weare.
Mastrucatus, a, um, that weareth suche a garment.
Mastruprari, to touche dishonestlye the pryue members of a man.
Masurius, the name of a famous lawier, whych wate on te lawes ciuile.
Masytipos, idem quod anagallis purpurea.
Matella, la, f. g. an vynall or other vessel seruyng to that purpose, a water pottle.
Mattellio, onis, m. g. idem.
Matatechnia, the vanitee, whych is in a science or crafte.
Matcola, la, a litle betyll or mallet.
Mater, matris, f. gene. a mother, a dame, sometime a nource.
Matrem gerere, to doe the parte of a mother, to execute the offyce and dutie of a mother.
Mater sylua, of some is taken for Iule.
Matercula, α f. g. a littell mother.
Materfamilias, genitiuo, matrisfamilias, f. g. an housewyfe, good wyfe of the house, she that hath gouernance of other women, bee she married or unmarried: sometime a wyfe.
Maternatrima, she that hath a mother luyng.
Maternus, a, um, motherly, of a mother, on the mothers syde.
Materia, α, and Materies, ei, f. g. mattier, wherof any thyng is made, be it metall, woodde, stone, erthe, or any thyng els. It is often taken for all maner of tymber or wood. also the bodye of the tree vnder the barke. also occasion.
Materies dicitur etiam de equis.
Materia libri, the mattier, argument, or preposicion, wherof a booke intreateth.
Materialis, le, that whiche is of some mattier.
Materiarius, rij, m. g. a carpenter.
Materiarius, a, um, of tymber, or belongyng to tymber.
Materiaria fabrica, carpenters crafte, or a carpenters shop.
Materiatio, onis, f. g. and Materiatūra, ra, f. g. tymberynge.
Materiatus, a, um, tymbered, made of some mattier.
Aedes male materiata, ill tymbered.
Materior, aris, ari, to warke in tymber.
Materiari, idem quod Lignari.
Matēris, ris, f. g. a frenche speare or sauelyn.
Matētera, α, f. ge. an aunt or mother syster.
Mathematicus, ci, m. gen. he that is cunnyng in

M A N T E A.

aulgrym, muske, geometrie, and astronomie.
Mathēsis, lis, f. g. and Mathēma, thēmat, n. g. lernyng by demonstration.
Matinus, a hyl of Calabrie.
Matralia, n, ge. plur. the soleinne frailes of Matrita, called the mother of goddis.
Matresco, scere, to bee lyke a mother, to waxe mother lyke.
Matricida, α, m. g. he that killeth his mother.
Matricaria, idem quod Amaracus.
Matricidium, dij, neu. gene. murdryng of ones mother.
Matrimonium, nij, n. g. wedlocke, matrimony.
Matrimus, mi, m. g. whose mother yet lyueth.
Matrix, trici, f. g. the mother or matrice in a woman, in the whiche the chyld is conceived, in herbes or shrubbes it is the pyth. Also matrix, is any female kynde, that conceyureth and beareth. Also the citee in a countreie where as the archebishops see is called Matrix vrbs, whiche in greke is called Metropolis. It is also the pithe of a tree.
Matrix arbor, a tree that bringeth good grasse.
Matrona, α, f. g. a wyfe, a matrone, also the name of a ryuer in Burbon.
Matronalis, le, perteyning to a wyfe.
Matruelis, lis, f. g. my mothers brother sonne.
Matta, ta, f. g. a matte.
Mattea, idem quod Mattya.
Mattiaca pilae, sope balles.
Mattyacum, a towne in Germanie.
Mattici, men with great cheekes and broode mouthes.
Mattya, orum, n. g. a deyntie dythe, costely and precious meate.
Mattyolicus, a costly feeder, a glutton.
Matula, la, f. g. a water pottle, on vynall, also a timorous and fearefull fellowe.
Maturatus, a, um, made ripe. also hastened.
Maturata concoctio, id est, perfecta.
Maturato opus est, it muste bee dwen with speede, he muste make speede.
Maturatio, onis, f. g. makyng speede or haste.
Maturate, hastily, quickly.
Iube maturate illam exire huc, byd hir come forth quickly.
Mature, tymely, not to sone, not to late, in season, in good time, in a good houre. also besimes, carefully, quickly, with the sonest.
Mature mittere, to sende in due tyme.
Maturtime, and maturissime, the superlatiue.
Maturesco, maturui, scere, to bee ripe.
Maturitas, tātis, f. g. ripenesse in all thyng, and as it were perfection, maturitee, oportunitie, good season, tyme conuenient.
Nondum est maturitas illud faciendi, it is not yet tyme conuenient. &c.
Mutuo, au, are, to make ripe or perfect, to doo a thyng perfectlye in due tyme and measure. sometime to dooe a thyng speedily or quickly, to hie, to make haste, to make speede,

M A N T E A.

Id v; maturent, that they woulde make haste with all, or doe it speedily.
Corpiā maturare, to make speede to atchieue
thynges that one hath enterprysed.
Mortem maturare, to hasten ones death.
Ni maturatū ab eo esset, excepte he had made good speede.
Maturare & properare.
Maturor, āris, āri, idem quod Maturesco.
Maturus, a, um, tpe, perfecte. Sometime it sig-nifieth aged, also quickly done or with speede.
Matura ætas, full of perfecte age.
Maturus homo, an aged man.
Maturus cibo, meete or ready to be eaten.
Cum multo maturius surrexisset, when that he rose faster more early.
Maturior facultas dicendi, more ripe, perfect, or pleasant eloquence.
Maturam senectutem reddit, it maketh one sone olde.
Tempus maturius, a more due or convenient tyme, a better oportunitie.
Matura cibo olea, tpe to eat.
Annis maturus, aged.
Militia maturus, of age meete or hable for
warre.
Tempus maturum vino, a tyme meete to geue
the sicke man wine.
Matura viro virgo, a mayden that is marrying able.
Maturum facere, to dispatch a thyng quickly.
Matuta, æ, f. g. the moynnyng or morowe.
Maturinus, a, um, of the morowe, or moynnyng.
Tempus matutinum, the moynnyng.
Matutinum, ni, n. g. the moynnyng.
Matutino, in the moynnyng.
Matutinis omnibus, euery moynnyng.
Mauors, ōrtis, Mars, sometime battayle.
Mauortius, a, um, pertynyng to Mars, or to battayle.
Mauri, people called Moyses.
Mauritania, the countrey nowe called Morisco, or of Moyses lyng on the west parte of A fri-ca, betwene the sea called Mare Mediterrasneum, on the north, and Libya on the South, Martianus sayth, that in length it is ten tymes eight and thirtie myles, whiche is thye hundred and foure scoze myles: and in bredth toward the south, iiii. hundred thye scoze and .vii. mys-
les. It is diuided in to two countreys, Tingis-tana, and Cesarientis. Tingitana hath on the west, the Ocean sea: on the north the streite of Marroche, called Fretum Herc. vnto the ryuer
Walna: on the east Cesarientis, on the south Getulie and Lybia. Cesarientis hath on the west Tingitanam, on the north the sea Sardoum, vnto the riuer Amplagus: on the south the mountaines of Lybia, and the countreie of Getulie.
Maurus, a, um, and Maurusius, a, um, of Maus-ritania,

M A N T E A.

Mausoleum, solei, n. gen. a sepulchre of tomlie, whiche Arthemisia made for hir husband Maussolus, whiche for the excellent woorthemans shyp, was accounted for one of the .vii. miracles of the worlde: and for the famousnesse therof, euery greate and notable sepulchre is called Mausoleum.
Mausolus, the kynge of a realme called Caria.
Maxilla, læ, f. g. the cheke bone, the iawe bone,
sometime the chynne.
Maxillaris, æ, belonging to the iawe bone.
Dens maxillaris, the cheke tothe.
Maximates, the greatest men in authoritet.
Maxime, veraye much, veraye greatly, most of all,
also chiefly, especially. sometime yes truly,
yes verely, without any doubt.
Si cognata esset maxime, if she were the nereſt
kynswoman that I haue in the worlde.
Maxime indigere, to haue veraye great neede.
Maximèpere, veraye greatly, veraye earnestly.
Maximitas, tātis, f. g. auerent wyters vled for greatnesse.
Maximus, a, um, greatest or most in estyma-cion.
Maximus, a counnyng peincter.
Maxima vestalis, the abbess.
Maza, æ, f. g. idem quod Massa.
Maza, saith Erasmus, is a thing made of milke and flower, that vplandishe men vled in stede of breadde.
Mazaca, a citee in Cappadocia, vnder the hylle called Argus, nowe called Cesaria.
Mazara, a kynde of darts vled in warre.
Mazax, a people in Africa.
Mazeras, a ryuer in the mouth of the sea, called Mare Hircanum.
Mazeres, a souldiour of kynge Cyus.
Mazonomum, mi, n. gen. a platter or charger, wherein meate is carped.

M A N T E E.

ME, the accusatiue case of Ego, vled of olde
wyters also for mihi.
Meabilis, le, that floweth or renneth
easyly.
Meander, a ryuer in Phrygia, whiche by sundry wyndynges, at the laste falleth into a creeke, whiche diuideth Miletum & Priena in Grece.
Meapte, wyne owne.
Mearus, a ryuer of Spayne.
Meatus, atus, m. gen. a passage or waye, also the pores of the bodye, out of the whiche doo come sweate and vapours.
Meatus syderum, the course and mouyng of the planettes.
Mecastor, a fourme of swearing, as who shulde
saye, so Castor helpe me.
Mechanica ars, an handy craft.
Mechanicus, ci, mascu. gener. an handy creates man.

Mecistus, one of the companions of Ajax Telamonius.
Mecium Aegyptis, anagallis est.
Mecenas, âris, minyon to Augustus the emperour, and because he was the supporter of great learned men, all fauourers and succourers of learned men bee so called.
Mecon, in greke, is Poppie in englyshe.
Meconagrium, gith.
Mecon roias, wild poppie.
Mecon ceratidis, poppie that is hoyned.
Mecon emeris, poppie of the gardeyne.
Meconium, the iuyce of the leaues and heades of poppie, whiche some doe vse in the seede of Opium.
Meconium, in Dios. idem quod Enemone.
Mecum, with me, with my selfe.
Mecum facit, it maketh for my purpose.
Mecum sentit, he is of myne opinion.
Mecum vna simul, together with me.
Meci, idem quod anagallis.
Mecyberna, a towne of Macedonie.
Meda, a citee of Chetialp.
Medarga, for Ergame, towarde.
Medata, idem quod Marrubium.
Medea, wyfe vnto Jason, a wyche, a cruelle woman, she was daughter of Oetes kynge of Colchos, and Hypsea his wyfe, whose hystorie is knowne sufficiently in all songes.
Medeis, Medeides, patronymicum femininum, of Medea.
Medela, la, f. g. remedy by medicine.
Medera, ra, f. g. an Ilande in the Ocean sea, situate from Spayne south west, beeyng distant from the poynt of the lande of Spayne, called Caput sancti Vincentij, almoste. 100. miles.
Medeor, âris, eri, to heale or cure, to remedy.
Quas minus mederi possis, whiche you can not cure or remedy.
Mederi frumentaria inopia, to remedie, to helpe.
Ars medendi, phisicke.
Contra serpentum ictus medetur, It healeth the stynge of serpentes.
Mederi reipublica, to helpe and succour the common weale.
Mederi alicui, To ayde one and deliuer hym out of trouble.
Medecicastes, the bastarde daughter of Phriamus.
Media, a countrey in Asia, haung on the north the sea called Hircanum, on the weste Armenie the moze, and Assyria, on the southe Persia, on the east Hircania, and Parthia.
Medianum, loke Mesenterion.
Madianus, a, um, that whiche is in the myddle.
Mediastinus, stina, um, the myddelmoste.
Mediastinus, i, m. g. a budge or lubber, whiche doeth all maner of vyle seruyce in the house, as to sweepe or clesse the house carpe wodde to the hytchyn, and other lyke budgeye.

Mediastinus, ni, m. g. the seruant that hath the rule of the house vnder his maister.
Medibilis, le, in state to be healed, curable.
Medica, ca, an herbe, whiche hath leaues lyke clauer, & cobbes wythen in agayne like a water snail, and therfore maye be called hoyned clauer, for I knowe no other englyshe name. Of other it is thus descriued, an herbe haung the leaues alwaye greene, verie good meate for horses: beeyng ones sowne, it continueth. x. yeres.
Medica malus, an orange tree.
Medica mala, Oranges.
Medicabilis, le, curable, sometyme medicinable.
Medicamentarius, ri, m. g. a phisicion.
Medicamentarius, a, um, perteynyng to medicine or phisike.
Medicamen, inis, & Medicamentum, i, n. gen. loke Medicina.
Pecunia præsens medicamen est præsens neum, redie money, redie medicine.
Medicamentosus, a, um, that is medicinable, that cureth, that healeth.
Medicatio, ônis, f. g. healyng, carynge, minis tryng of phisike.
Medicatus, a, um, myrte in dugges or medicine. Also medicinable, haung vertue or strength.
Medicatus sapor, an hollome and medicinale sauour.
Res medicatissima, a thyng veraye hollome and medicinable.
Medicata pocula, phisicall potions.
Languida permulcens medicata lumina virga, with his rodde of vertue, Loquens de Mercurij caducea.
Medicina, æ, f. m. gene. phisike, a medicine, a remedy, an healyng or carynge. Sometyme poyson.
Medicinam facere, to cure, to minister phisike.
Medicinam adhibere reipublica, To ayde or succour the common weale beeyng in decay.
Medicina faciendæ locus non erit, It will be impossible to remedy it.
Medicina, nârûm, poticaries shoppes, places where poticaries or phisicions dwelle.
Medicinâlis, le, medicinable.
Médico, aui, are, & Medicor, âris, ari, to heale or cure, to helpe.
Médicus, i, m. g. a phisicion.
Médicus, a, um, perteynyng to phisike, or of Media.
Medidies, idem quod Meridies, not vled.
Medietas, âris, f. g. medietee, the betraie myddell betwene two.
Medimnus, i, m. gen. or Medimnum, i, ne. ge. A measure of the Grekes, wherof were two sortes. One was called Atticus, and conteyned of our measure sixe gallons, one pottell, and one quarte. In other was called Georgicus, whiche was of our measure, one bushell, a peche, a pecke, and one pynte. It receiued xliiij.

Charnices.

Medimnus, after Budei, containeth two of the measures called Amphora, every Amphora, thre modios: every modius. 16. Sexta-rios, and sextarius of our measure is a pynte and an halfe, whiche accompted proueth, that Medimnus is of our measure. xviij. galons.
wherfoze they are deceyued, whiche affirmen,
Medimnum and Modiu, to be one measure.

Mediocris, mediocre, measurable, in a meane, moderate, not to great, not to littell.

Mediocritas, aris, f. g. a meane.

Intra vel citra mediocritatem, Of the basest sorte.

Ultra vel supra mediocritatem, Aboute the meane sorte.

Mediocriter, meanelly, measurably, competentes lye, with a meane and moderation, reasonably well.

Mediocriter ne delectat? Doeth it not greatly lie delite vs?

Non mediocriter ferre, to bee greatly moued with a matter, to take it very displeasantly.

Mediolanium, a citee of towne in Englande, in Leicester Wyze, called Manchester.

Mediolanium, the citee of Olypance in France.

Also a citee in Westphalia in Almayne, called Münster: whiche (for as muche as the people therof were infected with the heresie of the Inabaptistes, and other detestable errors) was destroyed by the princes of Almayne, aboute the yere of our lord god, a thousande, five hundred, thirtie and nyne.

Mediolanum, the chiefe citee of Lumbardie, called Myllane.

Mediolum, a towne in Spayne.

Mediomatrices, Maikright in Brabant.

Medioximus, a, um, meane, or in the myddes.

Medioximi dii, meane goddes.

Medipontus, an instrument, wherewith ropes be made.

Meditabundus, a, um, carefull, studious.

Meditamentum, menti, idem quod Meditatio.

Meditate, studiously, perfectly, on the syngers endes, with meditation and study.

Meditatio, onis, f. g. a thynkyng or dyllyng in thought, studie, musyng, meditation. Also an exercise as well of mynde as of bodie.

Meditatorius, a, um, that which belongeth to meditation.

Meditatus, a, um, that hath mused or bethought
it selfe what to dooe or saye. also that whiche hath ben studied, mused, or thought on.

Venit meditatus, alicunde ex solo loco, He cometh from some place, where he hath bene alone, and bethought him, or studied, mused or prouided what he will say.

Mediterraneus, a, um, in the myddell of the lande, and furthest from the sea.

Mediterraeus, a, um, idem.

Meditor, aris, ari, to thynke deeplie, & in thynkyng to synde out, to study or muse on a thing in ones mynde, to recorde, to practise and assay how well one can doo, to pourpose, to lay snares, to syng or play sweetely.

Meditari fugam, to thynke to flee.

Meditari se, to exercise him selfe.

Meditari dolum ceruis, to hunte hartes.

Meditrina, the goddess of phisicke.

Meditralia, orum, neu. g. ceremonies used by them, which dyanke most of new wyne.

Medicullum, i, n. g. the middle.

Medium, a certayne herbe.

Medius, a, um, the myddes, equallye disaunte from the extremities. Sometime meane, neither to be played or displayed. Sometime manifest.

Medium commune, amonge all.

Medio vel de medio tollere, to hyl.

Medius amicus, a friende of twoo that be at variance, and taketh parte with neyther of bothe.

Media vocabula, woordes, whiche maye bee spoken in a good or yll parte. So Tempestas, signifieth tempest and time.

Facinus, A notable deede, good or euill.

Valetudo, health or sickness, and other lyke.

Dies medius, the midde day.

Plus media parte, more than halfe.

Medium arripere, to take one by the myddle.

Mediam mulierem complectitur, He imbrac-ed the woman aboute the middell.

Medium responsum, id est dubium.

A ferre in medium, to byng a byode to a comon yle or profite.

In medium consulere, for In commune.

E medio excedere, to die.

Pellere e medio, to thrust away.

In medio relinquam, I will define nothyng,

I wyll leaue it in doubte, vncertain, or to the iudgement of other.

Medio tempore, for Interea, In the meane season.

Venire in medium, to come in.

Medio aestu, In the middell of the day whan
it was most hotte.

Media mulieris aetas, The flowre of a womans age.

In media portione exclamat, in the middes of his draught he cried out.

Medium tenere, to hepe a meane.

In medio positum est, it is common and easie for every man to haue.

In medium consulere, to proude or doo for a common profite.

E medio discedere, to departe out of a place.

Medium vulgus, the people.

In media vrbe, in the herte of the citee.

Ex media morte rapere, To take out of deas thes mouth or dooze.

Medius fidius, an othe, whiche although some-tyme it hadde an other signification, yet maye

it nowe in a commune fourme of sprayng, bee bled in this wyse. By the fayth of my body.
Sens Dins for Iupiter, and Fidius for Filius be now out of use.
Medix, an high magistrate amonge the people called Ofci.
Medo, onis, mulle, or water and hony.
Medod, one of the Centaures.
Medon, the bastarde sonne of Oileus. Also one of Penelopes wowers.
Medua, an haue in Italy.
Meduacus, a riuer about Venice, called nowe Brent.
Medulla, læ, f. g. marowe, whiche is in bones,
in herbes and shrubbes, it is the pyth.
Mellis medulla, spoken prouerbially of a thing
verie pleasaunt and sweete.
Medullina, a mayden of Rome, which beyng ras uished by his father, killed him in sacrifice.
Medullitus, inwardely, into the marow, depely,
effectuously, euen from the herte.
Medullo, au, are, to take out marow. Sometime to expresse bitterly.
Narra iam rem nobis omnem atq; emedulla,
Tell and expresse utterly vnto vs all the whole matrice.
Medusa, the herbe Lonchitis. Diosc.
Medusa, a lady, of whome fables do report, that by Minerva her heares were touned into ad ders, and they, whiche behelde her, were toun
ed into stones, whome Perseus, afterwarde slew. She is sometyme taken for one of the furies of hell.
Mefansilium, a certayne weapon to thye we.
Mega, a promontorie of Mauritania, called com monly One, or Que.
Megabizi, or Megalobici, priestes of Diana, which alwaies were gelded, and are taken for weake and effeminate persons.
Megara, a surp or tourmentour of hell, whome Paynyms dyd suppose to prouoke and sterre men to woodnesse.
Megalenes, and Megalesia, plaies to the ho nour of Cybell.
Megalesia, the festiuall day, dedicate to Cibeles, called the mother of goddes among Paynyms.
Megaliū, lij, n. g. a sweete oynment.
Megaloprepia, an honourable facion, in gy uyng or imployng of great thynges, which be cometh a man of great courage.
Megalopolis, a great citee of Arcadie.
Megaloprepes, he that doeth great thynges ac cording to his dignitee.
Megara, a citee belongyng to Athens. It was al so the name of one of Hercules wiues. Also an hyll in Sicilie, where is great plentie of Bees.
Megareus, Megareius, Megaricus, and Megas rus, a, um, of Megara.
Megaris, idis, a countrey in Acala.
Meges, one of the princes of Grece, that went to Troy.

Megistanes, be they, whome we do call nobles or peeres of a Realme.
Mehercule, an othe sworne by Hercules.
Me Hercules, idem.
Meio, minxi, ere, to pyss.
Mel, mellis, n. g. hony.
Mel meum, my sweetyng, my hony one.
Melabathrum, idem quod Parthenium.
Melane, the ple Loxyia.
Melane, a towne in Arcadie.
Melamirum, a fisme, haunge his name of a blache talle.
Melampelos, Helixine, Diosc.
Melampyenos, idem quod Melampyrum.
Melamphillum, an ple in Asia.
Melamphillum, i, a kynde of the herbe called Acanthus, looke there.
Melamphyllis, an ple in Samothrace, and Sa mos is also called Melamphyllis.
Melampodium, a kynde of the blache Hellebo rus, so named of Melampode the poete or shepherde, looke Helleborus.
Melampus, a mans name, also one of Acteons
dogges.
Melampygyus, a reuenger, he that redresseth thynges. Hercules was so surnamed, by rea son his counte was blache and all heary.
Melampyrum, or Myagros, an herbe full of branches, of thre foote high, and a seede lyke fengreke.
Melancolia, æ, f. ge. melancholy, blache choler.
Sometime madnesse.
Melancolicus, a, um, melancholy.
Melancoryphus, phi, m. g. called also Ficedula and Atacapilla, looke there.
Melandria, the leane partes of the fythe called Cunp.
Melandrium, drii, neu. gene. a certayne herbe, growyng among cozne, and in meadowes, with a whyte flowre, after Plinie: other take it for the pyth of an oke. Some for a kynde of okes.
Melanion, the purple violet.
Melanes, a mountayne in Arabia deserta, called nowe Mons Sinai, and Mons S. Catharina, of the Hebrewes Sur desertum.
Melanteria, ynke or blache.
Melanthia, the daughter of Deucalion, by Piter tha his wyfe.
Melantheion, id est, Anthemis.
Melanthium, thij, neu. gen. an herbe, called also Nigella Romana, Gith.
Melanthius, the name of a Troian, and of diuers other men.
Melanthus, one of them that Bacchus touned into Delphins.
Melanurus, nuri, m. gen. a kynde of pearches called rufes.
Melappium, a kynde of Apples.
Melas, the name of diuers riuers.
Melas, anos, m. g. a kynde of morphew.
Melculum, li, n. ge. a wanton word, spoken by louers

Iouers vnto their paramours, my littell hony.
 Mele, the nominatiue plurall, songes or balades.
 Meleager, or Meleagrus, the sonne of Deueus, kynge of Calydon.
 Meleagras, the citee called Caledon.
 Meleagrides, byrdes, whiche we doo call hens nes of Synny, or Turkey hennes.
 Melegina, an yle in the Venecian sea.
 Melera, Dipfacus.
 Melenerus, a kynde of Faucons beate littell of bodie, blacke and puissaunt, whiche haunterh mountaynes, and feedeth hit byrdes alone, a merlyan, as I suppose.
 Meles, etis, a ryuer by Smyrna.
 Melesigenes, the propre name of Homere.
 Meletius, a bishop in Egypte of Arius sect.
 Melrugum, an herbe that groweth alwaies as mong coyne, named white melilote.
 Melgemella, a kynde of aples.
 Meli, honie.
 Melibœa, a citee in Chetaly.
 Melia, a tree, byngyng forth a very pleasant frute.
 Meliboides, a certayne stone in Diosco.
 Melicæ gallinæ, a kynde of thos, whiche we call Turkey hennes.
 Melibœus, a shepardes name.
 Melicérus, idis, or Melicéria, æ, fœ. gen. A soze or shauell in the head like an hony combe, out of the whiche cometh an humour lyke hony.
 Melicerta, the son of Athamas and Ino; whome
 the Gentiles did honour for one of the goddess of the sea, called also Palemon.
 Melichros, chri, m. g. a stone. Sometyme blacke sometime yeolowe.
 Melichrysis, a precious stone in India.
 Melicraton, ti, neu. gene. wyne and honny lodden together.
 Melicus, ci, m. g. a musician.
 Meligene, the yle Melites.
 Melilótus, ti, m. g. an herbe called Melilote.
 Melimeli, melimélis, n. ge. the syrups of quins
 res condite in hony.
 Melimélum, li, n. g. a sweete apple.
 Melina, a sweete baulme.
 Melina, æ, f. g. a certayne garmente.
 Meline, the herbe called milium after Varro: butt
 in Diosc. it is panicum.
 Melinum, melini, n. g. the herbe called Baulme.
 also oyle of the blossomes of appuls. Also an oymment, and a very white colour.
 Melinus, a, um, a very white colour, or after some, white russet, or ginger colour. Melinus nus color in Diosc. is taken for Luteus.
 Melior, the comparatiue of Bonus, better.
 Melioresco, scere, to ware better.
 Melipesta, meates made with hony.
 Melion aqueum, the seconde kinde of Satirion.
 Meliphyllon, the herbe called baulme.
 Melipontus, idem quod Medipontus.
 Melis, lis, fœ. g. a beast called a gray, a byrche, or a badger.

 Melissa, a woman, who with hie sister Amalthea nourished Iupiter. It is also an herbe commonly called Baulme.
 Melissophyllon, looke Apiastrum.
 Melissus, the name of him which first did sacrifice vnto idols. Also the name of an auncient philosopher.
 Melira, sine Melite, an yle lying betwene Sicily le and Threke, after Plinie, li. 3. ca. vlt. it lyeth betwene Corcyra nigra, and Illyricum, wheras in is plentie of hony, and is now called Malta,
 Where at this time the company of the knyghtes Hospitallers doo inhabite as they dyd at the Rhodes.
 Miliræon, idem quod Melissophyllon.
 Melitæi canes, & Melitenses, were preaty littell houndes, in the which ladies toke pleasure and delite, whiche were brought out of the saied yle of Melite.
 Melites, a precious stone of the colour of an os-reuge.
 Melitites, tis, a dyynke made of hony and must or new wyne. also a precious stone.
 Melitton, ónis, m. ge. a place where bees be nourished.
 Melitus, the name of him that accused Socrates.
 Melius, the comparatiue of Bene.
 Accipit hominem nemo melius, id est lautius, better, or moze deintillie, or with better
 there.
 Meliuscule, somewhat better.
 Meliusculus, a, um, somewhat better, a littell admended.
 Melizandrus, he that wrote the storie of the warres betwene the Lapithes and the Centaures.
 Mella, a ryuer of Fraunce.
 Mallarium, rij, n. g. substant. the place where the bees that make hony be nourished.
 Mellarius, rij, m. g. an hony man, or seller of
 hony.
 Mellarius, a, um, of hony.
 Mellatio, ónis, f. g. the tyme of byngyng of hienes whan hony is taken out.
 Mellatum, ti, n. g. newe must, wherin hony is sodden.
 Mellene, a citee in Arcadia.
 Melleus, a, um, of hony. also sweete.
 Vox mellea, a sweete voyce.
 Mellica, a kynde of pulse, of the colour of red, of the fourme of Mill.
 Melliceris, looke Meliceris.
 Melliculum, idem quod Melculum.
 Mellificatio, ónis, f. g. makyns of hony.
 Mellificium, ij, n. g. idem.
 Mellifico, aui, are, to make honye.
 Mellifer, ra, rum, idem quod Mellificus.
 Mellifluus, a, um, sweete as honye, that oute of whiche hony floweth.
 Mellificus, a, um, and Mellifer, that maketh
 hony

hony.
Meligenus, a, um, that is of the same kynde that hony is.
Mellinum, idem quod Melinum.
Melligo, liginis, fœ. ge. a mell dew, which fals leth on the leaues of trees, and sometyme on cozne.
Mellilla, my hony, my sweetpng, a woozde of wanton daliers.
Melliloquus, a sweete speaker.
Mellifones, they whiche doo practyse drectpng of hony.
Mellirones, a place where bees be nourished.
Melliturgus, gi, m. g. a woorket or maker of hony.
Mellitus, a, um, mixte with hony, condite in hony. also sweete, pleasant, delectable.
Mellium, lij, n. g. a dogges collar.
Melizonum, a confection made with hony clarified.
Melo, a ryuer called also Geon and Nilus.
Melobosis, a nimphe.
Melocabus, a citee in Germanie.
Melodes, dis, m. ge. he that syngeth cunnyngely and sweetely.
Melodia, dia, f. g. melody, sweete synngng.
Meloesia, an Ile by Sicile, in the whiche was great plentie of sheepe.
Meolpillon, milfoile.
Melomeli, n. g. idem quod Melimeli.
Melones, wellons, pompons.
Melosmos, the herbe polium.
Melonia, a goddesse amonge the Romayns.
Melos, one of the Iles called Cyclades.
Melos, odis, n. g. melody, harmonie.
Melopepones, melons.
Melota, x, f. g. a sheepes fell or skynne.
Melothrus, a certain herbe or myrre, vitis alba.
Melpomene, one of the ix. Muses.
Melus, a towne of Thessalie, besieged and wonne by Picias the athenien Capitayne, namely by famine, whereof grewe the prouerbe, Meliza famet.
Membrana, x, fœ. ge. parchment or belume, wherein men dooe wryte. Also the yppermoste skynne of any thyng. Sometime it is taken of Lucretius for the fygure or propozcion of thynges.
Directa plumbo membrana, ruled patchement.
Membrana ligni, the thyn skyn betwene the bark and the woodde of a tree.
Membranaceus, a, um, lyke parchment.
Membraneus, a, um, of parchment or belyme.
Membranula, x, fœ. g. a littel rolle or scrolle of parchment.
Membrare, to fourme membris.
Membratim, by euery membre, membre by membre.
Incise & membratim, to speake in shorte clausles of membris, and not to vse iust perodes.

Membratura, x, fœ. g. the settinge or order of membris or partes.
Membratus, a, um, haupng a great membre.
Membrum, bri, n. g. a membre, a part of onys body, the fleshe that couereth the sinues, bynes and bones of any parte of the body. In oracion, a shorte sentence.
Abalienata membra, partes of the body bes noumed.
Muliebribus membris puer, a tender chyld.
Dormitorium membrum, a sleapyng chambrye, a parte of the house appoynted to sleape in.
Memerylus, a littell tree lyke a citron tree.
Memet, my selfe.
Memini, I remembre.
Memini videre, I remembre that I saw it.
Hoc me memini dicere, I remembre wel that I cated this.
Memineris meminisse, see that you remembre.
De quibus plurimi meminerunt, Of whiche thynges very many haue made mencion.
Omnia quæ curant meminerunt, They remembre all thynges that they set theyr myndes vpon.
Memmius, a citeyn of Rome.
Memnon, the sonne of Thiton, whiche came to the ayde of the Trojans.
Memnonius, a, um, of Memnon.
Memnonia anes, byrdes whiche were supposyd to grow of the ashes of Memnon.
Memor, ôris, om. g. that remembreth, myndes full. sometyme that is remembred.
Memorabilis, le, woorthy remembrance, woorthle to be reposed, to be spoken.
Erit mihi hoc factum mortuo memorabile, this acte shall be had in memoze, when I am dead and rotten.
Memorabiles duces, capitaynes of woorthy memoze.
Memorandus, a, um, to be remembred or spoken of.
Memorator, ôris, m. g. he that speaketh, repositeth or maketh mencion of a thyng.
Memoratus, us, m. g. a remembryng.
Memoria, x, f. g. memoze, remembrance.
Patrum memoria, in our fathers daies.
Post hominum memoriam, sens men were men.
Ex omni memoria ætatum, In all cronicles and stozies that a man can reade.
Omnis memoriæ facile princeps, withoute controuersie, the noblest person that euer man can remembre.
In omni memoria inauditum est, it was neuer herde of any tyme, or sens any man coude remembre.
Vsq̃ue ad hanc memoriam, euen to these daies euen to this present tyme.
Ut mea memoria est, as farre as I remembre.
Ab recenti memoria perfidia, because they had had freethelp in memory, they late vntershe of falsehoode.

Memoria falli, to forgette.
Memoria proditum, or traditum est, It is lesse in wrytyng, it is wrytten.
In memoriam redigere, Reducere in memoriā, Renocare animos ad memoriā, to call to remembraunce, to cause to remembre.
Memoria tradit, it is wrytten.
Redeo in memoriā mortuorum, I remembre them that be dead.
In memoriā redite quæso, I pray you remembre or call to remembraunce.
Princeps huius memoriæ philosophorum,
the chiefe philosopher of this age.
Superiori memoria, in time past.
Tanta multitudo, quanta mea memoria nū-quam fuit, so great a multitude as neuer was vnto I could remembre, or in my tyme.
Memoria teneo, I remembre.
Memoriale, a thyng whiche should be remem-bred, a memoriāll.
Memorialis, le, belonging to the memoriā.
Memoriola, a, f. g. a littell remembraunce.
Memoriosus, a, um, he that hath a good memorie.
Memoriter, perfectly by herte, or with good re-membraunce, redply.
Memoriter cognoscere, to knowe perfectly by herte.
Memoriter respondere, to answer promptly.
Memoro, aui, are, to remembre, to tell or expounde, to repute, to say, to make mention, to recite, to rehearse.
Memorant, men say, tell, or repute.
Verbum est verum quod memoratur, It is true that is commonly sayed.
Nomen tuum memora mihi, tell me thy name.
Incredibili memoratu est, it is a thyng incredible to repute.
Memphi, people of Memphis.
Memphites, patronymicum, m. g.
Memphitis, patronymicum, f. m. g.
Memphis, a great and famous citee in Egypt.
Memphiticus, a, um, of that citee.
Memphicus, a hynde of Egypte, which slue his brother Malis.
Mena, nā, f. g. a littell fyre, blacke or blew in summer, and white in wynter. Theodorus Gaza doeth translate Manides, calling them sometyme Haleces, which we call heartynge:
and Menidia, he translate paruas Haleculas, littell heartynge called pylchardes.
Menachini, the name of a comedie in Plautus.
Menachmus, a philosopher of Platos secte, whiche wryte vpon his booke De republica.
Also an historiographer, that wryte the historie of Alexander Magnus.
Menalcas, a Mepeherdes name.
Mentalippe, the sister of Antiope queene of Ama-zone, whome Hercules vanquished.

Menalippides, the name of: ii. poetes.
Mentalippus, he that slue Tydeus, an other of that name was brother of Tydeus.
Menapii, people of the countrey called Cellas lande, or Gylberlande, and Cleane.
Menander, a famous poete, a writer of comedies. Also a notable heretike, which followed Simon Magus.
Menaria, an Ile in the sea betwene Carthage and Sicile.
Menceps, he of the that is out of their witte.
Menda, a, f. g. & mendum, di, neu. gene. an errour, a faulte or vice in wrytyng. If it be applied by a metophore to the bodie, it is a faulte or blemyshe.
Mendacium, ij, n. g. a lie, a leasynge, a false in-uencion, a false tale.
Componere & conficere mendacium, to inuent or make a lye.
Mendaculum, & mendaciunculum, li, n. g. a littell leasynge.
Mendax, acis, com. g. a lye.
Mendaciloquus, a, um, that telleth lies.
Mendecium, one of the mouthes of Nilus.
Mendecium, a certayne opynment.
Mendicabulum, li, n. g. beggynge.
Mendicatio, onis, a beggynge.
Mendicatus, a, um, begged.
Mendicitas, acis, f. g. & mendicimonium, nij, beggery.
Mendico, aui, are, to begge.
Mendicare sibi malum, to purchase him selfe a mischefe.
Mendicula, a, f. g. gen. a certayn vesture or garment.
Mendiculus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of mendicus.
Mendicus, a, um, that goeth on beggynge, a beg-ger, poore, needy.
Mendix, an office amonge the olde Italians called Olci.
Mendose, vncorrectly, with fautes.
Mendosus, a, um, faultie, full of fautes, or errors.
Mores mendosi, manners naughtie and vicious.
Mendrua, idem quod Limonium.
Mendum, idem quod menda.
Menecus, the son of Creon, hynde of Thebes.
Menecina, a citee in Oenotria.
Menecis, the uttermost citee of Rhodis, towards the weste.
Menecrates, was an arrogant and proude physy-cion, who because he chaunced to heale sundrie persons, of whose health men did despayre, and therfore in commendynge him, called him Juspiter: he after that named him selfe Menecrates Iupiter.
Menedemus, the name of diuers philosophers.
Menelaus, was hynde of Lacedemonia, brother to Agamemnon, and housebnde to the sayre Helene, for whom Troy was destroyed.
Menes

Meneletus, ti, m. g. a birde lyke to a small eagle, and of the kynde of Eagles.
Meneleus, trissyllabum, one of the Centaures, also one of Aetons dogges.
Menes, the fyrst that reigned ouer Egypt.
Menestheus, was duke of Athens, sonne of Theseus and Phedra. Also Diomedes charyot man.
Menesthius, the sonne of Erithous and Philomeda.
Menestho, one of the Nymphes.
Meniana, orum, n. gen. buildynges outwarde in prospectes of galleries, properly wher they be builded after surhe faction, that the edifice iuterteth out a good length from the pillar or other parte of the house, wheron the buildyng especially resteth.
Meniantes, the herbe trifolium.
Meninges, the resine, wherein the brayne is inclosed.
Meninx, an ple against the lesse Aleshe.
Menion, the pionie.
Menippus Phœnix, a philosopher. Also Menippus is the name of dyuers other learned men, Of whiche one was Ciceros maister.
Menis, idem quod Mena.
Menius the sonne of Lycoan, who cursyng Iupiter, was stricken with lightnyng.
Menlana, a citee of Spayne, called commonly Marcia.
Mennonnia, a certayne white precious stone.
Menotius, Parroclus father.
Menoles, the name of Dionysius.
Menophilus, an eunuche, to whom Mithridates (beyng overcome by Pompeius) committed his daughter to kepe.
Menosgada, a citee in Germany called nowe Egra.
Mens, entis, fœm. gener. the highest and chiefe parte of the soule. Sometyme it signifieth the mynde, wyll, intente, or memoire. Sometime aduise or counsaile.
Mente caprus, a madde man.
Mentis compos, of whole mynde or perfecte remembraunce.
Vna mens omnibus, They had all one minde or will.
Abderitica mens, id est stupida.
Nostram accipe mentem, heare our counsaile or aduise.
Sux mentis esse, to be in his right wittes.
Hæc mihi in mentem veniebant, these thynges came into my mynde or remembraunce, or I remembred these thynges.
Cum Dolobella venit in mentem, when I remembred Dolobella.
Mensa, æ, fœm. gene. a table or boorde to eate on. Sometyme dyner or supper. also a dishe or trencher. also a counter or table that bankers doo vse.
Astare mensæ domini, to stande waytyng on his maiesties table.

Angusta mensa, a slender supper, of small roste.
Secundæ mensæ, banquettyng disshes after supper.
Est in mensa, he is at dinner or supper.
De mensa mittere, to make a dishe and sende from the table to one.
Mensarius, rij, m. ge. the banker or exchanger, of whome men doo borrow money upon gayne, called exchange.
Menses, in plurali, idem quod menstrua.
Mensio, onis, f. g. a measurynge.
Mensiflora, a certayne herbe, called in Greke Menanthos.
Mensis, sis, m. g. a moneth. Sometime for Mensstrua, the naturall purgacion of women.
Mensis sextilis, Auguste.
Mensor, oris, maf. gene. he that dooth lay out the boundes of lande, betwene man and man, or towne and towne. Also he that measureth out the grounde, where the armye shall pitch thei camp.
Menstrua, orum, n. g. plur. a womans naturall purgacion called floures.
Menstrualis, le, perteynyng to the moneth, or of the space of a moneth, or durynge the tyme of a moneth.
Menstruatus, a, um, that which hath floures lyke to women.
Menstruum, prouision, vitayle or wages geuen to souldiours for a moneth space.
Menstruus, a, um, that whiche happeneth euerie moneth, or is doen monethly.
Menstrua aduersaria, rolles or registers for a moneth space.
Mensularij, idem qui mensarii.
Mensura, æ, f. g. a measure.
Mensurnus, a, um, monethly, after Calpurne.
But the place that he citeth out of Cicero, hath Menstrui.
Mensus, a, um, measured.
Menta, & Mentula, læ, f. g. the priue members of a man.
Menta, læ, f. g. an herbe called mynt.
Menta hortensis, spermin.
Méntagra, æ, fœ. ge. a discaie that couereth the face with a foule skabbe. It was called of the Grekes Lichen. Some suppose it to bee the same discaie that is nowe called the frenche pockes.
Mentastrum, i, n. g. wyld mynt.
Mentercosa, a citee of Spayne.
Mentibor, for Mentiar, I shall make a lie.
Mentigo, inis, f. g. the scabbe whiche is among shepe, called the pockes.
Mentio, onis, f. g. mention.
Facere mentionem, to make mention.
Incidere in mentionem, to chaunce to speake of.
In mentione terræ dicetur, It shall be declared

ted whan we shall speake of the earth.
Mentior, iris, tiri, to lie, to feigne, to counterfayne.
Mentiri se esse aliquem, to feigne to be an other person.
Mentiri sexum muliebri motu, to feigne him selfe to bee a woman, to make semblance in gesture as though he were a woman.
In aliquem mentiri, to make a lie vpon one.
Colorē fūco mentiri, to make a fayne colour with payntynge.
Mentiri, to write false.
Mentitus, a, um, feyned, counterfayte. also that hath lied.
Mentisa, a citee of Spayne, called commonly Jaen.
Menuthias, an plande in the southe parte of the world, called Madagascar, or Insula sancti Georgij, the inhabitants whereof folowe Mahomet.
Mentoas, the famous ruer, whiche is now called Danubius.
Mentor, oris, an excellent grauer of vessell.
Mensum, i, n. g. a thynne.
Menus, a ruer in Germanie. Also a mannes name, which loued exceedingly solitarinesse.
Meo, aui, are, to go, to flowe.
Meonia, a countrey of the lesse Asia, called after Lydia.
Meonides, a man of Meonia.
Meopie ingenio, by myne owne witte, of myne owne nature.
Mephiticus, a, um, synnyng.
Mephitis, tis, f. g. a snake, of ill sauour, which proceedeth of corrupte water or lycour, mixt with earth.
Merācus, rāca, um, pure, without any mixture.
Vinum meracum, wyne without any water.
Merāculus, a, um, a diminutiue of Meracus.
Meraculum vinum, wyne but a littell alayed.
Mercalis, le, vendible, of that whiche may bee bought.
Mercans, antis, he that bieth.
Mercatio, onis, f. g. a byng.
Mercatura, a, f. gen. the state of marchandise.
Mercaturam facere, to practise the state of merchandise.
Mercator, oris, m. g. every bier, a marchaunte byng and sellynge.
Mercatus, us, m. ge. bynge, a marte, a fayre, a market place, a place where wares are solde.
Indicere mercatum, to proclaime that a mart or faire shall be.
Mercatus, a, um, bought.
Mercēdula, a, f. g. a diminutiue of Mercēs.
Mercenarius, a, um, that serueth for hire or wages.
Mercēs, ēdis, f. gen. wages, the rewarde of labour or seruice, rent, reuenues. Sometime doo mage or hurte that foloweth of a thyng.

Prædiorum merces, reuenues of landes.
Mercimonium, nū, n. g. that whiche is touned in byng and sellynge, wares.
Mercor, aris, ari, to bie, to bie to sell for paynes.
Mercari alicui, to bie for one.
Mercari ad certam summam, to bie at a cer-tayne price.
Mercari græca fide, to bie with redde money.
Mercari præsentī pecunia, idem.
Mercuriālis, lis, f. gen. an herbe, called Mercurie, of whiche be twoo sortes, male and female.
Mercuriālis, le, of Mercurie.
Mercuriales viri, learned men.
Mercuriales, a colledge or company of men, instituted to the honour of Mercurie.
Mercurius, was of the paynims called god of eloquence, and messenger of Jupiter. It is the name of one of the vii. planetes.
Mercurij dies, wednesday.
Mercurij basis, of the magiciens is taken for the herbe called Halimum.
Mercurij genitura, the herbe Bupthalmos.
Mercurij sanguis, eadem quæ Verbenaca.
Mercurij semen, bill.
Merda, a, f. gen. the excrement or ordure of a man or beaste.
Merdo, aui, are, to expell ordure, to shite.
Merenda, a, f. ge. meate eaten at after noone, a colation, a noone meale, a boiuer.
Mereo, merui, ēre, & Merco, eris, ēri, to desserue, to merite, to gette. also to take wages, to serue for wages, to dooe a pleasure or good tourne, to exercise a vile occupation. also to serue in wartes.
Merere stipendia, To take wages as a souldiour, or to be a souldiour.
Merere alicui, to doo seruice to one.
Merere equo, to be a man of Armes, or to serue on horsebacke in wartes.
Merere pedibus, to be a footeman in wartes.
Mereor bene de te, I doo somewhat for thee.
I deserue to haue thee my friend, or to haue thy fauour, I doo the pleasure.
Male mereor de te, I do the displeasure, I do
 yll deserue thy fauour.
Quid merearis, vt te dicas, &c. what aduan-tage can you haue to say, &c.
Quid merear, quamobrem mentiar? what aduantage or rewarde should I haue to lie?
Novissima exempla meriti, they that haue deserued extreme punishment.
Quid de te merui? what offence or displeasure
 haue I doen you?
Neque re, neque verbis merui de te vt face-res quod facis, I neuer did nor sayd any thing
 wherefore you should doo by me as ye dooe.
Offensam mereri, to wyne or get displeasure or yll wyll.
Merē, purely.
Meretricie, whozzyshly, lyke an harlotte.

Meretricium, ij, n. g. whoz dome oz brothelrie.
 Meretricius, a, um, pertaining to brothelrie oz whoz dome.
 Meretricor, aris, ari, to live in brothelrie, to play the harlotte.
 Meretricula, a, f, g. a diminutive of Meretrix.
 Meretrix, icis, f. m. gen. an harlot. a brothel, an hoore, a stomper, a light housewife.
 Merga, a, f. m. g. a pitchfork, for to take by Meurs, also merle oz white earthe like chalker, wherewith ground is made fatte oz fertile.
 Mergo, the herbe Clymenon.
 Merges, mergitis, f. m. g. a gripe of coyne, oz so much of hee oz coyne as one taketh by with a pickfork at ones.
 Mergo, si, gere, to drowne in the water, to depe, sometime to overwhelme.
 Mergere ultimis supplicis, to put to extreme punishment.
 Mersus secundis rebus, overwhelmed with prosperitee, drowned in welthe.
 Mergulus, an instrument, wherin the matche of a lampe is conteyned.
 Mergus, oris, mascu. gen. a bucket to drawe by water.
 Mergus, i, m. g. a foule of the sea lyke to a gull, whiche divineth vnder the water to take fische, and by often dyping perceyvethe signes of trespers compung, and than sodaynely with a greater crie, flieth out of the middle of the water, to the lande, a cozmopant.
 Mergus, gi, a vyne oz other small tree, which is bowed, and hath the toppes bowewyse, turned and set in the grounde.
 Meridianus, a, um, pertaining to noone.
 Meridiano, at noone tyme.
 Meridiani, is used for sworde platers.
 Meridiano, onis, f. m. gen. noone rest.
 Meridies, ei, m. g. midday, noone tide.
 Meridio, aui, are, and Meridior, aris, ari, To dine, to eate meate at noone, to sleape at noone.
 Meridionalis, le, of the southe.
 Meriones, a noble man of the Grekes.
 Meris, idem quod tripolium.
 Merismorion, the melyssophillon.
 Merismos, a figure called also Distributio, wherby the oracion is distributed into sundrie sentences.
 Merito, woorthly, with good cause.
 Meritissimo, the superlatiue.
 Merito, aui, are, to gayne, to be woorthly. also to serue in warres.
 Meritorius, a, um, that whiche is let oz set for aduantage.
 Meritoria taberna, an house, wherinto a man is receiued for his money.
 Meritorium cornaculum, a chambrze set out to hier.
 Meritorium, an house oz shop set out to hier.
 Meritum, ti, n. g. a benefite oz pleasure, a good tourne, sometime a rewarde.

Meritum est meum, it is my default.
 Meritum est tantum, you haue deserued that I should dooe you this pleasure.
 Merito meo, woorthly, rightously, as I haue deserued.
 Pro merito, as one hath deserued.
 Merito vestro maximas gratias agere debes, you be woorthly greates thankes, oz you haue deserued of vs great thankes.
 Meritus, a, um, deserued, due, conuenient, also that hath deserued.
 Meritus, a mountayne in the thirde parte of Europe, beyonde Greece.
 Mero, was in scoyne the name of Tiberius Nero because he was so great a dyncer of wyne.
 Merobibus, a, um, that drinketh wyne without water.
 Meroctes, tis, m. g. a litle stone of the colour of leches, which sweatteth a licour like to milke.
 Meroe, an Ile in the greatespyer of Nilus in Egypte.
 Merope, the wyfe of Sisyphus.
 Meropes, men of diuers languages.
 Merops, meropis, m. g. a birde, whiche dooth eate bees, and whose nature it is to kepe theyr parentes, which neuer come abroade, and to noyise them as them selfe were noyised beyng yonge. Plinie.
 Meropus, a mountayne in Grece by Thessaly.
 Meros, an hill of Indre, at the foote wherof is the citie called Nisa.
 Merdia, a place, where Scholes, by castinge in woodde, made the pestilent and bitter waters hollesome.
 Merseon, of the Egyptians taken for ambrosia.
 Merito, aui, are, to drowne oz putte vnder the water often tymes, to dippe in often.
 Merfo, aui, are, to drowne often, to depe in often.
 Merio, aui, are, idem.
 Merrix, the seconde kinde of Geranium.
 Merula, a, f. g. a birde called a blacke macke oz owself, with a pelowe beake. Also a fyssh called merlyng oz whityng. Also the name of diuers men: one in Varro de re rustica.
 Merum, i, n. g. wine vnalaped, without water.
 Merus, i, m. g. the thyghe. Also an hyll in India dedicated vnto Bacchus.
 Meruopium, of the Egyptians is used for Serpillum.
 Merus, a, um, soole, mere, pure.
 Nugæ meræ, verie trifles.
 Scelera mera loquuntur, they speake of nothyng but mischiefe.
 Meri bellatores, very warriours.
 Merum vinum, pure wyne, not alayed with water.
 Mera spes, onely hope and nothyng els.
 Merx, ercis, f. m. g. any kynde of marchandise, chaffer, ware that is bought and solde.
 Esculentæ merces, viaples solde to eate.
 Esse in merce, to be solde.

Mes, in the Arabian tongue is a pear of the Grekes (as Marardus writeth) libro. i. Episto. 3. Serapio saith, that it is a grayne, haupnge in it a figure of an eye, with the apple thereof be-rie blacke.
Mesa, the middle partes of a house or building.
Mesa, a riuer that renneth by Brabant, the lande of Luke and Sellar, called the Mase.
Mesapia, a countrey called also Apulia.
Mesapus, the sonne of Neptune, of whome that countrey was so named.
Mesariæ venæ, certeyne veines, called also Messeriæ.
Mese, a certayne wynde.
Mesembria, a towne belongyng to the Megaresenses.
Mesauli, entrees betwene the halle and the parlour, or other rooms in a house.
Mesentericæ venæ, are veynes, whiche lyke to rootes of trees, dooe receyue nourishment from the stomache and bowelles, disposyng it into all the bodie.
Mesenterion, rij. n. g. is a bowell, topnyed with the myddes and vnto the backe, whiche letteth that the iuyce of meates be not sucked to hastily or vnprofitably, by the other bowelles. Julius Doller writeth, that Mesenterion, is a thynne compacte of veynes and sinewes topnyng to the reynes and stomake, sendyng nourishment vnto the lyuer. Galenus, in Anato. saith, that it is sette in the myddes of the bowelles, and is also called Mesarchon, because he wrap-peth and encloseth all the veynes, whiche dooe come from the lyuer vnto him, with also the arteries adioynnyng vnto him. it is also called in latine Medianum.
Mesia, a countrey, topnyng to Hungary, Myse.
Mesochorus, ri. m. ge. he that playeth on a flute or other pipe in the middes of the dauncers.
Mesocranium, the crowne of the head.
Mesoleucos, ci. m. ge. a precious stone, blacke, haupng a whyte strake in the middes. Also a certayne herbe lyke Mercurie.
Mesomelas, a kynde of precious stones, called Achates; which beyng white, is diuided with a blacke lyne.
Meson, was one whiche fyrst inuented to brynge into comedies, seruantes and cookes. wherof it is supposed that in olde tyme, the cookes of cities and townes, were called Mesones, as straunge cookes were called Tetriges. Cælius, antiq. lect. lib. 3. Meson was also a certayne Astronomer.
Mesonauta, ræ. a drudge in a shippe, or a shippepage, whiche doeth all vile seruice in the ship.
Mesonyxion, midnyght.
Mesopotamia, a countrey in the orient, lyng betweene the two noble riuers Tigris and Euphrates, and hath on the southe Babylon, and on the northe the greate mountayne called Caucasus,

Mespilus, li. form. gene. a medlar tree, or open arke tree.
Mespilum, li. n. g. a fruite called a medlar.
Messala Coruinus, a noble senatour of Rome, of whome Cully in his booke of oratours, called Sytus, writeth in this wyse: I may not omit to speake of the excellencie of Messala. Beware, doe not thinke, that any is lyke vnto him in constance, care, and studie aboute the weale publyke. also in eloquence, wherein he wondrous-fully dooeth excell. And not withstandyng, beyng such a man, two yeres before he dyed, he so losse his remembrysance, that he forgot his owne name. which hath hapned to diuers other men of great wisdom and learnyng.
He liued in the tyme of Julius Cesar and Tus-tulus emperours.
Messalina, wyfe to the emperour Claudius, a woman of insatiable lecherie.
Messana, a citee in Sicilie.
Messapia, a parte of the countrey of Apulia.
Messene, a citee in Grece.
Messenij, the people of that citee.
Messenia, a region in Achaia, haupng xviij. thousandes, in the whiche was a citee called Mese-lene.
Messias, Christe.
Messis, sis. f. ge. haruest. sometyme it signifieth
the coyne, or the grapes new mowen or gathered.
Messibus, s per messes, in the haruest tyme.
Messio, ônis. f. g. a reappng.
Messor, ôris. m. g. a reaper, a haruest man.
Messorius, a, um, perteynyng to reappng.
Falces messorie, liethes or reappng hookes.
Messus, a, um, reaped.
Mestles, one of the captaynes that came to ayde
the Trojanes.
Mesum, a town in Germany called Meisburg.
Met, a syllable added to a pronowne.
Meta, ræ. f. g. a but or pynke to shoothe at, properly made brode beneth and sharpe toward the toppe lyke a sugar lofe. sometime a marke or gol in the fielde, wherunto men or hoes do renne.
sometyme a bounde in landes. also a rieke or cocke of coyne or hey. also the lower ston of a mylle.
Meta forni, a cocke of hey.
Meta lactis, a cheese made lyke a sugar lofe.
Meta distillatoria, a stillatorie.
Metabasis, sis. f. g. a passage.
Metabole, chaunge.
Metagónium, a promontorie or mountayne ly-ng into the sea, whiche diuideth Africa from Numidia.
Metalepsis, a figure, whereby a woorde is putte from his common signification.
Metalli, hired souldiers.
Metallici, they whiche dooe digge and woozhs mettall ouer of the mynes, wherin mettalls is founde.
Metallicus, a, um, belongyng to mettall.

Metallifer, ra, rum, that ingendeth metall.
 Metallum, li, n. g. metall.
 Metamorphosis, seos, f. g. a transfozmation of chaungeyng of figure.
 Metaphora, a translation of woordes from their propre signification.
 Metaphrænum, ni, neu. gene. that parte of the backe, which is agaynst the herte, the spleene, the lunges and the lyuer.
 Metaphysica, òrum, thynges supernaturall and the science of them.
 Metapsychosis, a passyng from one body to an other.
 Metaplasmus, mi, a figure called trāsfozmation. it is a translatyng of woordes, beyng in prose, into a fourme of meter, either for necessitee, or for to augment the elegancie.
 Metapontum, a citee in the realme of Naples.
 Metapontini, people of that citee.
 Metatio, ònis, f. g. a disposicion.
 Metator, òris, m. g. he that disposeth or setteth trees in orde in a vineyarde or any other place.
 Metathesis, where one letter is transposed from one place in a worde into an other, as Timber, tymber.
 Metaurus & Metaurum, a riuer of Vmbria, whiche renneth into Flaminia.
 Metellus, the propre name of diuers noble Romanes.
 Metempsychosis, sis, f. g. the transposyng of soules, after the opinion of Pythagoras, oute of one bodie into an other.
 Meteora, are booke of Aristotle, wherein he treateth of sterres, and suche other celestiall thynges.
 Meteorica, speculation in high thynges.
 Meteorologus, gi, m. g. he that is studious in such speculation.
 Meteoros, hygh.
 Meteoroscopus, pi, m. g. a beholder of hygh thynges.
 Methrion, looke Chamedaphne.
 Methodus, di, f. g. a compendious or redy way or a rule certayne to learne any science by.
 Methone, a citee of Peloponnesus, called nowe Modona.
 Methymna, a citee in the yle of Lesbos.
 Methymneus, a, um, of that citee.
 Meticulosus, a, um, timorous or fearfull.
 Metculus, a, um, fearfull.
 Metiocus, the sonne of Miltias of Athens.
 Metior, tiris, tiri, to mette or measure, to geue by measure, to passe or go ouer, to esteeme, to iudge. Summum bonū honestate metiri, to esteeme the chiefe goodnesse to be in honestie, or perfecte felicitie to consiste in honestie.
 Omnia, quæ ad beatam vitam pertinent, vērē metiri, to iudge felicitie to reste in nothyng but in bankettyng and makyng there, or in eatyng and drynkynge.
 Milii istic nec scribitur, nec meretur, that belongeth nothyng to me.

Metis, one of the daughters of Oceanus and Tetys.
 Metiscus, Tarnus chariot man.
 Metius Suffetius (a capitaine of the people called Albani) was of Tullus Hostilius, king of Romaines called to battayle agaynst the people Fidenates. He came, but abydyng which hoke should haue the victorie, he absteyned to fyght. wherfore Tullus, after that he had vanquished his enemies, caused Metius to be tied to sundrie hostes, and to be drawen in pices. also Metius is the name of diuers other.
 Meto, mēssui, mētere, to trape.
 Metecus, was he, which came out of one countrey or citee, and dwelled in an other. Suche were wonte to pay certayne head syluer, which was named Metecium, and was the value of xii. dragmas.
 Meto, aui, are, is sometime rebbe for metor.
 Metona, looke Methone.
 Metonymia, a figure called denomination: as Bacchus, for wyne: Venus for lechery, Cupido, for loue.
 Metoposcopus, pi, m. g. he that considereth a mans face, and thereby iudgeth his condicions or affectes.
 Metopion, pii, n. g. ople of almondes. also a tree in Arike, whiche distilleth downe gumme lyke rosen.
 Metor, aris, ari, to sette boundes, to measure lands, to dispose.
 Castra metari, to pitche a campe.
 Metata etiam passine dicitur.
 Metra, a famous harlotte, the daughter of Erichthon.
 Metretra, a certayne measure, wherof bee twoo sortes: the one is called Attica, and conteyneth of wyne a hundred poundes, of ople 90. poundes, of honie a 150. poundes, and is of our measure. vi. gallons, one pottell, and one quarte: and so it receiueth. xii. Choas atticas. The other is called Georgica, but it is of equall measure with Attica.
 Metreca (as Dioscorides saith) conteyneth ten congios: that is of our measure. x. galons. x. pintes, whiche is a leauen galon and a quarte. In all these comptes of measures you must vnderstande, I take sextarius, by which all other is tried, to be. 24. ounces, that is a pinte and an halfe. if it be but. 18. or 20. ounces: then is it easely cast accordyng to that rate.
 Metricus, a, um, perteynyng to measure.
 Metrodorus, a philosophers name, a folower of Epicure. also the name of certayne other philosophers.
 Metropolis, lis, f. g. the chiefe citee.
 Metropolitanus, a, um, of that citee.
 Metropolitæ, the bishop of the chiefe citee.
 Metrum, tri, n. g. a measure, a verse.
 Metuens, entis, om. g. that feareth.

Metuo, metui, meturus, to feare of dede with fremblinge. Metuere ab aliquo, to feare lest one will harme us. Metuo mihi, I feare lest I shall haue harne. Metuere de aliquo, to feare lest he should haue harme. Male metuo, I feare feebly.
Metuo crimen, I feare it wyl be laied to my charge.
Metuo fratrem, ne inuis sit, I feare my bro ther lest he be with in.
Metuo tibi, I feare lest some harme will come to you. Haud metuo, I feare not, I passe not.
Metuo meo amori moram, I feare he wil p longe of deferre my marriage.
Ab Annibale metuens, fearyng Annibal lest he woulde woozke them some mischief.
A me insidias metuunt, They feare lest I will betraie them.
Metuo reipublice malum ab eo, I feare he will woozke the common weale some harme.
Metuit de vita, he feareth that he shall die, o that it wylleste him his life.
Metuo quid agam, I can not tell what to do.
Iam metuo, patres quot fuer, now I know not how many fathers there were.
Metuo ut subster, I feare he wyl not be able to holde his owne.
Metus, us, m. g. feare, drede. Sometime religi on. Amoro metu, all feare laied aparte.
Facere metum alicui, to make one a frayde, to put one in feare.
Incutere metum, idem.
Liberare aliquē metu, to put one out of fear.
Ponere aliquid in metu, to feare.
Sum in metu, I feare.
Inanem metuebat metum, he feared in vain,
he was worse afred then hurte, he was afraged of his owne shadowe.
Metutus, a, um, feared.
Merys, the refuse of ware.
Meu, an herbe, hauing a stalke and leaues like to anple.
Meum, a certayne herbe seldome in Englande, it is called Meu or Duch dill.
Meuania, a citie in the part of Italy called Um bria, wherin Propertius the poete was bozne.
Menda, looke Limonium.
Meyquia, a citie in wales, called saynt David.
Meuius, a foolyshe poete, enemye to Virgile and Horace.
Meus, a, um, myne.
Mea quidem sententia, in mine opynion.
Meo nomine, for my cause, on my behalfe, for my sake.
Meum est, it is my dutie or my parte, or mine ingencion.
Meus sum, I am mine owne man, or subiecte to no man, or in no mans daunger.
Non est mentiri Meum, It is not my nature or propertie to lye.

Si hoc esset mactum, ite were in me to do this.
De meo nihil addo, I adde nothyng of myne owne invention.
Mens, and maner, he sometimes used as substantives.
Meganima scriptor literarum, letters of myne
owne hande writing.
Mercurius, lorde of Lances, a wicked person, &
contemning the goddes.
Mica, ant. ANTE in 15
Mica, in 15 it is also the vocative case of Mens. Mica, ex. f. gen. a very small portion of any thing, as a crum of bread, or of glasse, sande, or metall being spled.
Mica salis, a coine of salte.
Miaspho, of the magicians is used for Cy- claminus.
Micans, thynnyng, glystrenge.
Michale, a sojournesse among the Centaures.
Mico, avi, are, to glyster or thynne.
Micant gladij, the two swords doo brandyng the Micant venæ, the venes doo beat.
Dignus, qui cū in tenebris mices, is applied to one, whiche is reputed to bee an honest man and a trusty, whiche will keepe to wyse and believe no man: It may be in this wyse translated, in a comon forme of speakynge: he is one,
with whome thou maist assuredly bargayne, as to Micare digitis, a certayne plate, that yet is used in Italie, it is to holde by nowe one fynger, now tow, as men doo when they treat of bargayne together by signes.
Auribus micat equus, the horse moueth his
eares.
Cor tremore micat, my heart pateth for feare.
Crebris micat ignibus æther, it lighteneth often.
Micat animus, the hearte leapeth.
Miconis, a kynde of wyld lettuce.
Miconium, an herbe called Poppy.
Microcosmus, mi. m. g. a littell worlde.
Micrologia, α. for. g. curiosities aboute thynges of no valuer.
Micrologus, gi. m. g. a littell communicacion.
Microsichia, α. for. g. feble courage, feyntnesse of herte.
Microsichi, they whiche haue feynt hertes.
Micturio, rini, rire, to pisse, or to haue wil to pisse.
Midtyris, pōoze folkes portrage.
Micypsa, a kynde of Humidia.
Midas, a woorme bredyng in beanes. also a certaine cast at the dice.
Midas, a kyng of Phrygia, who excelled all othein riches, who foolishly preferred Pan before Apollo in syngyng.
Auriculas asini Midas habet, spoken prouerbially of fooles, and of them that haue grosse and corrupt iudgements.

Midion, di; n. g. a certayne thippe.
 Mieza, a towne in Macedonia.
 Migratio, onis, f. g. a removing in journey.
 Migro, au, are, to remove from one place to dwell in an other.
 Migrare in micronem, to be pointed.
 Migrassit, for migraverit.
 Migrare de, or ex vita, to die.
 Mihi, sometime it signifieth to me. Sometime as gaynt me.
 Si quid peccat Demea, mihi peccat, Demea what so ever it is that he hath dooen amisse, it is against me, it is my harme, and none others.
 Sometime it signifieth of me, or by me, Syrus est prahendendus, atque adhortandus mihi, Syrus must be gotten and counsaied by me: or I muste exhorte or counsaie Syrus.
 Hic mihi quato nunc rectius sapit, quam e-gomet mihi? How muche wiser is he now in this case for my behofe and profite, than I am for myne owne.
 Mihi, is often added Festivitatis gratia.
 Mihimet ipsi, to me my selfe.
 Mihipte, Latobled for mihi ipse.
 Milax, the herbe called also Volucrum, and Glysmenon.
 Milciades, a noble capitayne of the Atheniensis, who with 11000. Grekes, vanquished 60000 Persians in the fiede of Marathon. Afterwarde, by the people of Athens, he was condemned and caste into prison, where he died, and mought not be suffered to be buried, untill his sonne had taken vpon him the gyves, which his father did weare.
 Miles, militis, com. gener. a man of warre, a souldiour.
 Miles, is sometime bled in the feminine gender.
 Milites, be sometime bled for sergeantes, beards, or somnets, belongynge to magistrates and iudges.
 Miletus, a citee in Ionia, an other in Creta, an other in the yle of Lesbos, Miletus is also the sonne of Sol and Pasiphae, whiche builded that citee in Ionia.
 Milesius, a, um, of that citee.
 Miletum, a citee in the countrey of Athens.
 Miliaria, an herbe, whiche windynge aboute the grapne, called millet, killeth it: it is good also agaynst the goute in beastes.
 Miliaria, a birde that eateth miliam.
 Miliaris, a serpent.
 Miliaria, a, f. g. the litlest birde called a linet.
 Militaris, re, belongynge to warfare.
 Militaris homo, a man of warre.
 Militaris via, the high way.
 Militaris, f. herbe, called also Coniza, loke there: also it is the same, whiche is called Lactoris, it is very medicinable to greene woundes.
 Militarius, a, um, idem quod militaris.
 Militariter, warrelly, lyke a souldiour.
 Militia, a, f. gen. warre, warfare, the exercise

of warre.
 Dare nomen militie, to offer him selfe to be bled to go to warre.
 Militia vacat, to be exempt from going to warre.
 Militia, the gentillie case, adverbially in the warre, or at warfare.
 Milico, au, are, to goe on warfare, or to be in warres.
 Milium, li, neu. g. a small graine called millet or hiesle.
 Milium indicum, wheat of Turkey.
 Miliaris, a, um, of or perteyning to mille, or that is bled with mille.
 Mille, adiectivum, plur. tantum, indeclin. a thousand.
 Mille passus, a myle.
 Mille, neu. gen. substantivum, plur. millia, a thousande.
 Mille annorum, a thousande yeres.
 Milli, is added in auncient writers in the ablative case singular.
 Millesimus, a, um, the thousande.
 Millesima pars, the thousande parte.
 Millefolium, or Millefolia, an herbe called milfoyle, parrow, or nosseblede.
 Millepeda, a, f. m. g. a worthe haupng a great numbre of feete.
 Millesies, a thousande times.
 Milliarius, a, um, of a thousande weight.
 Milliarius grex, a flocke of a thousand.
 Milliarium, ri, n. g. and Milliare, ris, n. gen. a myle. also a randon. also a pillar in Rome, wherein was grauen all the waies of Italy.
 Millies, a thousande tymes, verie often tymes.
 Millum, li, n. g. and Millus, li, m. g. a mastis or colar, made of leather with naples.
 Milo, lonis, the name of one, whiche at the game of Olympus, with his bare hand slewe a bulle, and afterwarde caried him a furlong, and the same day ate him eury morselle. It was also a noble Romaine, for whome Cullie made an oracion, conteynng incomparable eloquence.
 Milo, is also an hill in India.
 Miliades, idem quod Milciades.
 Miluina tibia, a cornet or small chaufme.
 Miluius, ui, or Miluus, ui, m. g. a hite, and by translacon, a rauenyng pollyng man. There is also a fythe and a sterre of the same name.
 Miluinus, a, um, of a kite, or lyke a kite.
 Miluinus pullus, a ponge kite.
 Miluinus pes, an herbe called Bistefote.
 Milyas, a place in Asia.
 Mima, a, f. g. a tumbling or dancynge wenche, that counterfaite the gestures and facions of other.
 Mimalion, a ponge man that loued Athalanta of Arcadie.
 Mimallis, an ylande.
 Mimallones, or Mimallonides, dum, f. m. g. women seruyng Bacchus.

Mimas,

Mimas, a mountayn in the Iles of the Whits, the the forlaine women were named.

Mimicis, sis, f. g. a figure called imitation, counteresembling other mens wordes and gesture.

Mimernus, ni, m. ge. a writer of verses before the time of the vii. wise men.

Mimula, la, f. g. a diminutive of Mima.

Mimus, mi, m. ge. a doozer, or a rapier, which in mocking other men in gesture and countenance, doeth followe them, feynynge to be the same persones, whome they dooe reproue.

Mimi, be verses counterfeiting muche wantonnesse without any reuerence, haupnge not withstandynge some wise sentences myngled therewith.

Mimicus, a, um, of such wanton facion.

Mimographus, phi, mas, gen. a writer of such wanton matters.

Mina, na, f. m. g. after some is the value of our pounde sterling: but moze truly it is the same amonge the Grekes, that libra is amonge the Romains. x. crownes franche. xl. s. sterlinge.
It is also amonge the grekes sometime signified a poyle, or weight. Sometime a coyn. The poyle was of three fortes: one was called Mina Attica, which weighed. xii. ounces, and an half, whiche was more than the Romain pounde by. iii.
drammes: for the Romain libra, contained but 96. drammes, and the Athenes pounde conteyned an hundred. Mina medica weighed. xii.
ounces. Mina Alexandrina weighed. x. ounces, whan it signified coyne, there was of it also two fortes, one called Mina, or Mna anti-ca Solonis, which conteyned a hundred dragsmas of our money now current. xlviii. s. xi. d.
An other was Mina, or Mna verus, which was lxxv. Draggmas, xlv. s. xi. d. q. Budeus estemeth Minam Atticam, at x. crownes franche:
of our money, after Constall. xl. s. or as I thinke. xlviii. s. iii. d. if we take Denarium to be a groate sterling, as Constall teacheth, and as it is most true: for in euery Mina is. 100.
Denarii. Mina, is also a measure of grounde, conteynyng. 122. foote in lengthe, and as muche in bredth.

Mina Italica, as Dioscorus saith, was a poud weight, and. iii. drammes.
Decem minae, or minae, be of our money. xlviii.
li. x. s. ii. d. or to accompte after Constallus,
xl. li. sterlinge.
Centum minae, or minae, be. 239. li. x. s. vii. d.
or after the computation of Bude and Cons-tall. 200. li. sterlinge.

Mina ouis, a shepe pside vnder the bealpe.

Minacia, arum, f. m. gen. plur. vled of Plantus for Minae.

Minae, arum, f. g. plu. thzetynges, menacynge, eyther in wordes or sygnes. also basilicantes of walles, or lytell pinnacles.

Minas iactare, to thzeten.

Clamore ac minis aliqñ insequi, to cry oute upon one and thzeten hym.

Minax, acis, om. g. full of thzetynges.

Minaxiter, thzetyngly with thzdyng and Wapwordes, sayngly.

Minatio, is, iis, to trouble lyke a doone of pigeon.

Minas, the name of a pygane.

Minatio, onis, f. g. a thzetyng.

Minanter, thzetyngly.

Miner, people of Arabia, nygh to the red sea, where frankincense the first groweth, and is of that place called Minia um.

Minerius, a river of Italy, whiche compasseth the ciety of Mantua, and trencheth into the great ryuer of Po, called Padus.

Minera, & Mineralia, are of some vled for menes, out of the whiche metall is dryed.

Minerva, ur, f. ge. the goddess of doctrine and wysedome, whiche was also named Pallas.

Sometime Minerva is vled for nature, with or craft.

Crassa Minerva, vel pingui Minerva, grosse-ly, rudely.

Inuita Minerva, agaynst nature.

Sus Minerva, prouerbiaily spoken, where an prouer of soles teacheth a wise & learned man.

Minerva sanguis, the herbe Chamæpitis.

Mineo, na, are, to die redde, to colour with red leade.

Minerva, a promontorie of Campayne, called commonly Capo Minerva.

Minervale, and Minervale, lis, n. ge. a reward given sometime by scholars vnto theyr magstra, in meate or drynke.

Mineo, a claret.

Mineus, a Theban, whose daughters were turned into batters of remembrance.

Mingo, minxi, gere, to make water, to pisse.

Minarius, a, um, of sinople or of redde leade.

Miniacus, a, um, made of red leade or sinople.

Miniaia, a, f. m. ge. the place where sinople, is dygged.

Miniarus, or Miniatulus, a, um, lyke sinople, or of the colour of sinople, or vermilion.

Minia libri, tynded bookes, haupng letters of dyuers colours.

Miniatula cera, redde were.

Miniatula cera notare, to note a thyng to be amended or corrected.

Minilus, an hille in Thestaly, called after Orchomenus.

Minime, least, also no, in no wyse.

Minime gentium, least in all mens opinions,
no in any wyse.

Minime doctus, vnlearned.

Minime sapiens, vnwyse.

Minime mirum, littell meruayse,

Minime feceris, doo it not.

Minime, sometime much lesse, also at the least.

Minime gratum spectaculum, no pleasaunt sight.

Minime omnium, no in any wise.
 Minime tribus diebus, at the least thre daies.
 Minime multi, fewe.
 Minimus, a, um, least, smallest.
 Minimus naru, the yongest.
 Minimus digitus, the littell fynger.
 Minimo emit, he bought it almost for nought.
 Minimi precij homo, a vile person, of no estimation.
 Minima quidem ex parte, littell of nothyng at all.
 Minimum, an aduerbe, at the least.
 Minimum, a substantiue, a very small thyng, the least thyng in the worlde.
 Minimopere, verie littell.
 Miniscitur, for reminiscitur.
 Minister, stri, m. g. a seruant, a minister.
 Minister, stra, strum, that serueth of ministrerth.
 Ministerium, sterij, neu. gen. seruite. Sometime generally, all worke, sometyne ministeria, be seruantes.
 Ministra, stra, a woman seruant.
 Ministrator, oris, m. gen. he that mynistrerth of serueth.
 Ministratrix, the feminine.
 Ministratorius, a, um, pertainyng to ministracion of seruite.
 Ministro, aui, are, to serue, to giue a thyng in doyng seruite, to proffer to, to deliuer to, to minister.
 Ministrare poculum, to serue one of drynke, to waite on his cuppe.
 Ministrare victum, To fynde, to geue meate and drynke.
 Minutabiliter, idem quod minaciter.
 Minutabundus, a, um, threathnyng soze.
 Minutans, antis, om. g. threathnyng.
 Minuto, aui, are, and minitor, aris, ari, to threathen soze, to menace.
 Minitari ferrum & flammam, to threathen, to flea and to bourne.
 Minitare malum, to threathen to doo one a threwe tourne of displeasure.
 Mino, aui, are, to leade.
 Minus, nij, neu. ge. sinople, redde leade, of vermilion.
 Minus, a riuer in Spayne.
 Minoz, a citee in Sicilie, an other in the ile called Amozgos by Sicilie.
 Minon, the herbe mandragoras.
 Minor, aris, ari, to threathen, to menace. also to stande out further than other.
 Minatur mortem illi, he threatheneth to flea him.
 Minor, oris, the comparatiue of Paruus, lesse, smaller, yonger.
 Minor naru, the yonger.
 Minoris dimidio, lesse by halfe.
 Minor filius, the yonger sonne.
 Quasi istic minor mea res agatur, quam tua, as though this belonged not to me, as muche as to you: or as though this concerned not as muche my profit as yours.

 Minos, Minois, a kyng of Crete, that first gaue them lawes, whom paynyms for his excellent iustice, supposed to be chiefe iudge of hell.
 Minois, and Minous, a, um of Minos.
 Minois, noidis, patronymicum for mininum, of Minos.
 Minotaurus, ri, a monster in Crete, whome the poetes feigne to bee borne of Pasiphae, the wyfe of kyng Minos, being parte lyke a man, parte lyke a bulle, which being inclosed in the place called Labyrinthus, was fed with mans fleshe. He was slayne by Theseus, with the heulpe of Ariadna daughter of Minos.
 Minotia, an helle, named of Minotia Plutos harlotte.
 Minthos, dunge of ordure.
 Minturnæ, a citee in Lapania.
 Minuo, minui, minuire, to minishe, to make lesse, to appayre or abate.
 Minuere as alienum, To paye parte of ones debtes.
 Ut aliqua pars laboris minuatur mihi, That some parte of my labour may bee cutte of, or that I may haue somewhat the lesse payne.
 Minuere, absolutely, sometime for Decrescere.
 Ne minueris hac quæ facis, continue and do as ye dooe still.
 Minuere controuersiam, to appease or finish a controuersie or variance.
 Minuere imperium matris, To dooe agaynst his mothers commandement.
 Minue iram, quiete your selfe, appease your selfe, be not so angry, pacifie your selfe.
 Maiestatem per vim minuere, To rebelle, to make a commoncion.
 Minuorizo, aui, are, to lyege smalle, or to feigne in lyegeyng.
 Minus, lesse, sometime for Non.
 Minus intellexi, I did not vnderstande it.
 Minus audacter, not so boldely or stoutely.
 Minus credere, not to beleue.
 Minus memini, I doo not remembre.
 Minus venit, he cometh seldomer.
 Minus minusque obtemperat, he obeyeth me lesse and lesse.
 Minus duo millia hominum effugerunt, there escaped not two thousande.
 Amicorum hic habens minus, hauyng fewer friendes here than you haue.
 Quo fiant minus, That they waye not be brought to passe.
 Minus quinquennium est quod &c. It is not fyue yeres, sens. &c.
 Nunquam nix minus quatuor pedes alta iacuit, The snow was there neuer lesse, than foure foote deepe.
 Minusculus, a, um, littell, pretie.
 Minuscula epistola, a littell epistoll.
 Digitus minusculus, the littell fynger.
 Minutal, talis, ne. g. a meate made with herbes and

and other thynges chopped together, a tussell.
Minutarius, a seller of trifles or small habers dasse ware.

Minutarium, peere meale, in gobbettes, also by littell and littell, leysely, with leysure.

Minutarium interrogare, to aske by diuers and sundry questions.

Minute, the aduerbe, smally.

Minutum, in littell pieces or mozelles.

Minutia, a, f. g. the smallest thyng that may bee
sene. It is also the name of a virgin Westall.

Minutio, onis, f. g. a minishyng.

Minutulus, a, um, littell, pyccle.

Minutum, idem quod Lepia.

Minutus, a, um, minished, small, littell.

Minutus animus, a feble courage, a feint hett.

Fruges minutæ, corne, grayne, differyng from pulle.

Quæstionculæ minutæ, littell questions.

Minutæ literæ, smalle letters.

Minyx, people of Thessalia.

Minycus, a ruere rennyng out of Thessaly.

Mion, the herbe, called also Hippomarathrum.

Mira, wonders or meruaples.

Mirabilis, le, meruapulous, wonderfull, to bee wondered at.

Mirabilis suauitate, wonderfull pleasaunte and swete.

Mirabilem in modum, meruapulously.

Mirabiliter, meruapulously, wonderfully, greatly, exceedingly.

Mirabiliter multa, very many thynges.

Mirabiliter lætor, I am wonderfull of exce-dyngly gladd.

Mirabilitas, atis, f. g. wonderyng, meruaplyng.

Mirabundus, a, um, that meruapleth or woun-dereth.

Miraculum, li, n. ge. a miracle, a thyng exceedyng nature or commune reasone, a monstrous
thyng.

Mirandus, a, um, to be woundyed or meruapled at, meruapulous.

Mirandum in modum, wonderfully, exce-dyngly.

Miratio, onis, f. g. meruaplyng, wonderyng.

Mirator, oris, m. ge. a wonderer, a meruailer,
one that esteemeth a thyng muche.

Miratrix, tris, the feminine.

Miratus, a, um, meruaplyng.

Miratus, us, m. g. a meruaplyng.

Mire, wonderfully, meruapulously, exceedingly.

Mirius, the comparatiue.

Mirifice, idem quod mire.

Mirifico, aui, are, to make wonderfull.

Mirificus, a, um, wonderfully done, meruapulous.

Miriones, men haupyng wyse mouthes.

Miritus, a, um, of Thessaly.

Mirmecia, wertes in the priue partes.

Mirmillones, challengers at fgyhtyng with wooydes.

Miro, aui, are, is sometime founde in olde wy-

- ters for miror.

Miror, aris, ari, to meruaple, to lyke a thyng, to wonder at, to be in loue with, to beholde with great delectation & pleasure, to esteeme greatly.

Mirari se, to please him selfe well, to be vayneglorious.

Mirari aliquem, to haue one in great admiras-cion, to esteeme him muche.

Mirus, a, um, meruapulous, wonderfull.

Mirum in modum, in a meruapulous facion.

Mirum, aduerbialiter, in answeryng, as one shoulde say, a wonderfull thyng.

Ne cui sit vestrum mirum, meruaple notie of
you.

Mira sunt nisi. &c. It is greate maruaille but that, &c.

Mirum nimis est, It is a thyng greatly to bee meruapled at.

Non mirum facis, you doo no new or strange thyng, or nothyng to be meruapled at.

Miris modis, meruapulously.

Mis, the genitive case of Ego.

Misanthropos, he that hateth the compaigny of
men.

Miscellaneus, a, um, that is myxt together with out order.

Miscellanea, thynges myxt together, or a wooyke conteynyng diuers matters myxt to-gyther.

Miscellus, a, um, myxt or myngled of diuers
thynges.

Miscellæ vites, vines that maye bee myngled with any other, or may be planted in any place indifferently.

Miscellæ vix, grapes that small wyne is made of for seruantes.

Miscellum, a kynde of culuers.

Misceo, scui, scere, to mixte or mingle together, to temper together, to confounde together, to trouble, and make great confusion of thynges, to doo a thyng out of order or reason. Sometime it signifieth to serue one of dyner.

Miscere tumultum, to sette men in a roze, to make a commotion.

Miscere vinum aqua, and aquam vino, To temper or alay wine with water.

Ita tu istæ tpa misceto, ne me admisceas,
Byngge in, or meddle of thyne owne matters, in suche wyse, that thou byngge not me in as monge them: or that thou make not me parte taker of them.

Omnia miscere, to trouble and confounde, all
thynges.

Miscere venenum, to temper popson for men to dyne.

Miscere certamina, to stepe in and fgyht as monge other.

Misellus, a, um, a diminutiue of Miser.

Misenum, a promontorie by Cumæ.

Misenus, the sonne of Aeolus, Jeneas trumpettoure.

Miser, misera, erum, wretched, miserable, pitious, inthaldome and rebuble, heauy, some-tyme sick, sometime innocent.
Miserrimus, fui fugitando, ne quis me cog-nosceret, I was very ill troubled, encumbred and vexed, or (as we saie) in a pecke of troubles, with rennyng out of the way, that no mā myght know me. Or I was wery, tyred, and faynt with rennyng. &c.
Nemo est miserior me, no man is moze miserable, or in worse case than I.
Miseram me, Oh wretched woman that I am.
Me miserum, Alas, that euer I was bozne.
Miseris modis, piteously, that it would pitee
one to see it.
Miser animi, animo, ex animo, he that hath great heauinesse and sorow of herte.
Quem minus miserum credere est? whome shoulde a man beleue to bee in better case or co-dition?
Perij miser, Alas I am vndoyn wretched man that I am.
Miserum, an interfection of sorowynge, as one would say, a pitifull thyng to remembre.
Miserabile, for Miserabiliter.
Miserabilis, le, miserable, wretched, lamentable to be pitied.
Miserabiliter, miserably, lamentably, wretchedly.
Miserandus, a, um, to be pitied. idem quod mi-serabilis.
Miseranter, idem quod Miserabiliter.
Miseratio, ōnis, f. g. pitee, mercie, compassion.
Miserator, ōris, m. ge. he that doeth an acte of charitee on him, whome he pittie.
Misere, miserably, wretched, pitifully, vnfortuntunately, greatlye, very muche, excedynglye, desperately.
Vt stultæ ac misere omnes sumus religiosæ,
As all we women be foolish, and perillous ful of supersticion.
Misere amat, he loueth excedyngly, he is verie
depe in loue, or loueth desperately.
Misericors, ordis, om. ge. mercyfull, pitefull, that hath pitee and compassion, that is sozie for an other mans pll, tender herted.
Misericor, éris, éri, and sometyme Misereo, mis-eres, to haue pitee, to pitee, to be soz for ones distresse or miserie.
Mei miseret nemo, no man pittie me.
Miseret, the impersonall, it pittie.
Miseret me vicem tuam, I haue pitee of your pll chaunce, or I am sozie for your misfortune.
Miseret me, I haue pitee.
Miseretur, I am moued with pitee.
Misertum, vel misertum est, men haue compassion or pitee.
Miseresco, scere, to be moued with pitee.
Miséria, æ, f. g. mysery, wretchednesse, infelicitie, distresse, misfortune, aduersitee.

Misericordia, æ, f. g. pitee, mercy, compassion, that one hath on an other miserie.
Misericordior, the comparatiue of Misericors.
Misericorditer, pitefully.
Misericor, miserably.
Misericordia, inis, idem quod miseria.
Miseror, áris, ari, to haue pitee and compassion for ones miserie, to lamente ones misfortune.
Misocali, they whiche hate all kynde of learnyng or honest knowledge.
Misodolon, li, n. g. the herbe called Ocimum.
Misoparhos, the herbe called also Ocimastrum.
Misoponus, he that hateth labour.
Misogynia, an hater of women.
Misenus, an hyll in Campania.
Missiculo, aui, are, to sende often.
Missile, lis, a dart, stone, or other thyng that is thowen.
Missilis, le, that may be thowen, caste, or hurled.
Missiles res, thinges that be scattered or thro-wen amonge chyldren.
Missilia, thinges, whiche the auncient emperroues were wonte to caste amonge the people, as beeadie, cakes, sweete oynementes, and suche lyke, whiche was dooen in the Theater, in the feast called Saturnalia.
Missio, ōnis, f. g. a sendyng away, a message.
Also leaue to departe.
Missito, aui, are, to sende often.
Missus, a, um, sente away, caste, hurled, shotte foorth, let passe.
Missum facere, to omit or passe ouer a thyng.
also to geue leaue to departe.
Missam facere vxorem, to caste of and for-take ones wyfe.
Missā istāc facito, let these thynges passe.
Missā facio, I let you dooe what you wyl.
Nos missos face, speake no moze to vs of the mattier, trouble vs no moze with the mattier, let vs alone.
Missum facere vadimonium, not to appere at
the day appoynted.
Missio conuiuii, after the table was take vp.
Missio officio, leaupyng aparte honestie, or that one is bounde to dooe by honestie and reason.
Missus, us, m. g. a castyng, a hurlyng, a sendyng,
a course, whan one thinge cometh in a distance after an other, a turne, a course in seruice at the table.
Mistura, æ, f. g. a mixture, a temperature.
Mistus, and Mixtus, a, um, mingled, tempered.
Misy, is that whiche the apothecaries dooe call Uitriole.
Mitella, æ, f. g. a littell miter.
Mite, gently, myldely, patiently.
Mitesco, scere, to waxe tame, to become gentill or tractable, to waxe caulme, or quiet. Some-tyme to waxe rypp or mellowe.

Mitescence hyeme, towards the ende of wynter, when the tyme waxeth moze warme and pleasant.
 Mare mitescit, the sea waxeth calme.
 Mitescit discordia, the dyscorde of variance is appeased or allayed.
 Mithra, the Persians do call the sonne, and also the chiefe priest of the sonne.
 Mithriaca, orum, n. gen. plur. ceremonies of the sunne.
 Mithridates, a pissaunte kynge of Pontus in Asia.
 Mithridaticum, i. n. g. a medicine lyke to Triacle called Mithridate.
 Mithridation, an herbe, hauinge two leaues cominge out from the roote lyke Acanthus, and in the myddes a stalk bearinge a redde flower.
 Mitifico, aui, are, to pacifie or make quiete. Some tyme to concocte or digest.
 Mitigatio, onis, f. g. an appeasynge, an asswagynge, a makynge of a thyng moze quiete, gentyll, or easy.
 Mitigarorius, a, um, that hath strength to mytisgate or asswage.
 Mitigo, aui, are, to mitigate, to swage, to appease, to make tyme or mellowe.
 Irasci & mitigari, contrary.
 Cibum mitigare, to seeke meate.
 Mitigare dolorem, to asswage ones sorowe.
 Iras mitigare, to appease ones anger.
 Febrem mitigare, to make a feuer moze easy or lesse paynfull.
 Mitis, te, meeke, symple, mylde, gentyll, softe, tractable, not steerynge, calme, quiete, with out surges or waues, also tyme, mellowe.
 Mitis & mansuetus, and Ferus & Immanis, contrary.
 Mores mitissimi, becompe gentyll and pleasant behauiour, becompe easy to awaye with.
 Mitiozem in partem interpretari, to interpret a thyng gentilly.
 Nihil poterat illo fieri mitius, There coulde no man in the worlde be moze gentill than he.
 Mitia poma, tyme and mellowe appuls.
 Mite stagnum, a standynge water, a quiet water, without wanes or surges.
 Mitra, æ, f. g. a mytre. It was also a tye of men and womens heades amonge the Egyptians. It maye also be vsed for suche a coper as yonge maidens and damosels vse to weare.
 Mitrax, a stone of the colour of a rose, but against the sunne it is chaungeable.
 Miterin, an ple, sixe dates saylynge out of Englaunde, wherein is great plentie of tynne.
 Mittrula, a diminutiue of mitra.
 Mittò, misi, mittere, to sende, to leaue or laye a parte, to lesse passe, not to speake of, to geue, to cast, to hurle, to byng forth, to putte forth, as a tree doeth leaues or fruite.
 Mittere sanguinem, to leat bloude.
 Obuiam mittere, to sende to meete.

Præcipitem mittere, to cast headlonge.
 Salutem mittere, to salute by an other, to send greetynge or commendacions.
 Subsidium, and subsidio mittere, to send aide or succour.
 Vocem mittere, to speake, to crye.
 Mittere vocem contra aliquem, to speake agaynst one.
 Voces furiales mittere, to speake ragerly lyke a mad man without tyme or reason.
 Mittere folia, to byng forth leaues.
 Mittere lachrymas, leaue weepynge, weepe no moze.
 Mittere male loqui, leaue your ylle language.
 Pro nobis mitte precari, intreate no moze for vs.
 Sed mitto de illo, But I will speake no moze of hym.
 Mittere id quod scio, dic quod rogo, Let passe that I knowe, and tell me that I aske the.
 Mittere me, let me goe, lette me alone, trouble me no moze with the matter.
 Mittere legatos se venturum, He sent word by ambassadours that he would come.
 Mittere in seruitutem, to put in bondage and subiection.
 Mittere sub iugum, To make to go vnder the galowes in signe of repproche.
 Iacere & mittere ridiculum, to speake a mery thyng to beloughed at.
 Mittere ambages, leaue these longe circumstaunces, and telle the thyng in a fewe wordes.
 Mitto iam osculari & amplexari, I wyll not speake nowe of kysynge and clyppynge.
 In possessionem mittere, When the magistrate for the stowarde contempte of none appeeraunce of the partie sendeth the detourdaunte to take possession of his house & goodes: Or when that the demaundaunt to lycensced, sendeth his seruantes to take possession and seison.
 Mittere ad nomen, to sende to the mustres, to be billed for the warre.
 Manus mittere, to seyle, to take possession.
 Mittere signum, to signifie, to geue a token.
 In ora populi mittere, to make one to be talked or communed of among the people.
 Mittere in consilium, to leat the Judges departe, to geue sentence after that the oratour hath finished his oracion, or the lawyer his plea.
 Mittere hanc noxam, forgue me this faute.
 Mittere hunc ire, leat hym goe.
 Mitras frænum affectibus, Wyddell thyne affectiõs.
 Mitylene, es, & Mitilenæ, arum, a citee in the yle of Lesbos.
 Miua, is an Arabike worde, & signifieth the iuyce of fruytes, boyled vntill it be as thicke as honye. It is nowe onely taken for a syrupe made with the iuyce of quinces, wyne, and sugar or honey.

M A N T E N.

hony, as it was in olde tyme.
 Mixtarius, a cuppe, wherein wyne is alayed with water.
 Mixtus, a, um, loke Mistus.

M A N T E N.

MNa, idem quod Mina.
 Mnas, the name of a pyrate in the tyme of Pompeie.
 Mnasca, a poete.
 Mnamona, in latine are called modiparatores.
 Mnasium, a certayne herbe growyng in Egypte.
 Mnemónica, órum, ne. gen. plur. preceptes for memorie.
 Mnemósyne, es, f. g. the mother of the ix. Muscs, and is interpreted memorie.
 Mnemósynon, ni, n. g. a monument, token, or pledge left with a mans frende for the memorie of any thyng.
 Mnesarcus, a famous philosophier.
 Mnesithecum, the herbe Buphthalmos, also Ius niperá parua.
 Mnestera, wars.
 Mnestheus, the name of a Troiane.

M A N T E O.

MO A B, a citee of Arabie, also the name of one of the sonnes of Loth, of whom the people are called Moabites.
 Mobilis, le, mouable, some moued, vnconstant, mutable, waueryng.
 Mobilia ingenia, waueryng wittes.
 Mobili animo esse, to haue an vnconstaunte and wauering mynde.
 Mobilitas, áris, f. g. mouableness, waggyng, inconstancie, lychtnesse.
 Mobiliter, mouabyle, with mouynge, vnconstauntly.
 Mobilito, aui, are, to moue.
 Mocontiacum, or Moguntia, the citee of Mentz in Almayne.
 Moderabilis, le, measurable, moderate.
 Moderamen, ráminis, n. gen. and Moderatio, ónis, f. g. moderation, temperance, modestie, gupdyng, gouernaunce.
 Moderanter, moderately, temperatly.
 Moderatè, moderatelp, meanly, with moderation and reason.
 Moderatè ferre, to take patiently.
 Moderatim, leysurely, by littell and littell.
 Moderátor, tóris, ma. g. a gouernoure, a ruler, a mayster.
 Moderátrix, tricis, f. g. the feminine, a gouernesse, a Regent.
 Moderátus, a, um, moderate, temperate.
 Nihil habere moderati, to haue no modestie or honest temperance in thynges.
 Módero, aui, are, to measure, to put a meane.
 Móderor, áris, ári, to gouerne, to rule, to set a measure in thynges, to moderate.

M A N T E O.

 Ex sua libidine nos moderantur, They rule, measure, and order vs, by theyr owne wyllfull appetite.
 Lingua moderandum mihi est, I muste reseyne and rule my tynge I must kepe silence.
 Modeste, temperately, sobriely, aduisedly.
 Modestia, æ, f. ge. modestie, temperance, softnesse, humilitee, humbleness.
 Modestus, a, um, temperate, well aduised, modeste, that vseth a meane in all his doynges.
 Modestus vultu, demure.
 Modiális, le, that whiche containeth a bushell.
 Modiatio, ónis, idem quod modius.
 Modice, meanely, measurably, reasonably, moderately, temperately, with a meane, not to muche nor to littell, nor to manege nor to fewe, also briesly.
 Modice ab humo extantia, a little above the ground.
 Ea res modice me tangit, It greuethe me but litle, or I passe but litle for it.
 De re pauca ac modice loquutus est, he spake of the mattier in fewe wordes, and briesly.
 Modice hoc faciam, I wyll dooe thys measurably.
 Modice ferre, To take paciently and moderately.
 Modice spernere, To contemne measurably, and not to muche.
 Modicellus, a diminutiue of Modicus.
 Modicum, i, n. g. a littell or small thyng.
 Modicum, an aduerbe, a littell.
 Modicus, a, um, that exceedeth not, measurable, littell, small, fewe.
 Modicus cultu, meanely apparayled.
 Modici fuimus ea in re, we were but briesly in that mattier.
 Originis modicus, of a base or meane stocke.
 Modico gradu ire, to go a soft pace.
 Eques modicus, a meane gentylman, not exceeding in riches.
 Facultatibus modicus, not very riche.
 Modicus animus, a moderate mynde, content with fewe thynges.
 Modicum iudicium, a meane iudgement.
 Modificatio, ónis, f. m. g. measurynge or byngynge in measure.
 Modificor, áris, ári, to take the measure of a thyng, to measure.
 Modiolus, li, m. ge. a littell bushell, also a buetlette, wherwith water is drawn out of a well, or a pottle fastened to a wheele, whych byng geth by water, and poureth it out. Also a littell byphkynge cuppe lyke a goblet, and an instrument that surgions vse.
 Modiolus in rora, the haue of the whele.
 Modiparatores, men ordeyned to see measure kepte.
 Modius, ij, m. gen. and sometyme Modium, dij, neu, ge. a bushell. It was properly a measure of of by thynges, whiche conteyned. xvi. Sextarios, of our measure, one galone, one portelle, and one quarte, sayng four ounces measure. If Modius Romanus be conteyned, 16, Sextarios, and euerie Sextarius, be. 24. ounces, as Budei proueth, then is modius of our measure, 16. pintes, and, 16. halfe pintes, whiche is iuste. iii. galons. I meane of wyne measure, but if Sextarius be, 18. ounces, as physicians doe take it, then is Modius but. ii. galons and one quarte if Sextarius be. 20. ounces, then is it accordyng to that rate Plinie sayth, Modius both commonly weighth, 16. pound, and then it differeth not muche from one peche. Vide postea in Sextario.

Modius agri, grounde conteynyng euery way an hundred fecte.

Modo, nowe, nowe late, of late, whyle ere, a litle while agoe, ppropely it signifieth a tyme very litlell past: but sometyme it signifieth tyme present or instant, sometyme it signifieth so that.

No refert modo id faciat, it maketh no matter so that he do it.

Id modo dic, saye this onely.

Modone id demum sensisti Pamphile, & pperpuedst thou not it vntyll nowe Pamphilus? or haste thou found that out nowe at the laste, and neuer before?

Modo ago, nowe I doe it.

Modo veni, I came but late.

Modo intron, I went in but euen nowe.

Modo faciam, I will doe it by and by.

Modo ait, modo negat, somewhyle he sayeth yea, somewhyle he sayeth naye.

Modo non, id est propemodum.

Modo vt, for Dummodo, so that.

Modo for Saltem, at the least wyle.

Modo, is sometyme used for Quidem, and ramen.

Modo, for Interdum, sometymes.

Modulâmen, laminis, neut. gene. Idem quod Modulatio.

Modulare, aptely with measure.

Modulatio, ônis, fœ. ge. measure, modulation, pleasant tune.

Modulâtor, ôris, m. g. he that syngeth or tuneth a thyng in measure.

Modulâtus, a, um, don or longe by measure, tuned.

Modulâtus, us, masc. gen. tunyng, singyng in measure.

Modulor, âris, âri, to make or doe a thyng by numbze or measure. also to syng, to speke with pleasant tune and accent.

Modulari vocem, To measure and tune the voyce.

Modulus, li, m. gene. the measure of a thyng, a songe, modulation, the tyme in syngyng. also a measure that carpenters vse.

Modus, i, m. ge. maner, measure, meane, forme, facion, weye, quantitie, ende, the size of a thyng, also tyme or measure in musike.

Omnium par modus sit, That there bee lyke proportion or measure of all these thynges.

Eth nihil scripsit, nisi de modo agri, although he wrote nothyng but of the quantitie of the filde.

Modus vini maior, To muche vse or bynyng of wyne, or moze vse of wyne than one was wont.

Modo nostro, after our facion, as we wyl oureselues.

Modum habere, to kepe a rule or order in any thyng.

Modum statuere, to geue a rule.

Sumere iustum modum cibi, to make a full and perfect meale.

Scias posse habere iam ipsum suæ vitæ modum, Wete you wel, that he may haue the rule and gouernance of his owne lyfe.

Omni modo differre, so to varie that one is lyke an other in nothyng.

More modoque, after the maner and facion.

Omni modo laborare, to labour or endeuour with all meanes possible.

Modum constituere, idem quod Statuere modum.

Modum adhibere alicui rei, to doe a thyng after a certayne maner and meane.

Saltare ad vbiuinis modos, to daunce after the mynstrelles playng or tunes.

Modus agri, measure of lande.

Modum facere, habere, seruare, to kepe a measure or meane.

Hoc modo, after this facion, in this wyle.

Ad hunc modum, idem.

Meo modo, as I wyl my selfe.

Bono modo fiat, Leat it be dooen after an honest sorte.

Multis modis, id est vehementer, greatly, earnestly.

Extra modum, beyonde all measure.

In modum pilæ, after the facion of a balie.

Pacis modo, as it were in the tyme of peace.

In modum amici, speke a frende.

Nisi tibi aliquem vitæ modum constitueris, If you take not some certayne maner or trade of lyuyng.

Nullus mentiendi modus est, They doe not thyng but lye.

Lapis natura maiorem modum dedit, Nature hath made woulues bygger or greater.

Non facere modum lugendi, neuer to ceasse or make an ende of weepyng and wailynge.

Nulla modo, wythout measure or ende.

Statuere modum inimicitiarum, to hate with measure.

Statuere modum imperij diuturnitati, To presyre a tyme howe longe the Authorytie of an office or gouernance shall continue, and whan it shall ende.

Mæchisso, aui, are, to commit auoutrie, to playe the lecheour.

Mæchor, aris, ari, to commit auoutrie.

Mæchus, chi, m. g. an auouter, a lecheour.

Mæmagus, a towne of Fraunce called Presmours.

Mænia, niam, n. ge. plur. walles of a towne or castell.

Cingere mænibus, to walle aboute.

Circundatus mænibus, walled aboute.

Mæniana, idem quod Meniana.

Mænis, a ruuer in Germanie that renneth into Rhene.

Mænit, a, um, walled about.

Mærens, entis, sadde, lamentyng, mournyng.

Vultus mærens, a sadde and heauye countenance.

Mæreo, mæstus sum, & olim mæru, ere, to be sorowfull and sadde, to be heauy in hert, to lament, to mourne.

Mæreo casum huiusmodi, I am sorowfalle that it should so come to passe.

Et in mortem mære, to lament the death of his sonne, to be sorowfull for the death of his sonne.

Mæri, rorum, idem quod Muri.

Mæris, a sorowful.

Mæro, aui, are, to make one sadde and heauy, an olde woode.

Mæror, oris, m. g. sorowe and heuynesse of hert, sadnesse.

Iacet in mærore meus frater, my brother is in great sorowe and heuynesse of herte, or he is all a mozte.

Mæsia, a prouince in Athens, nygh to Pontus.

Mæste, sorowfully, sadly, heauily.

Mæstiter, heauily, sorowfully.

Mæstitia, a, f. g. idem quod Mæror.

Flectere os in mæstitiā, to make semblance of sorow or sadnesse.

Inferre mæstitiā, to make heauy and sadde Incessit mæstitia animos, They selle into a great sadnesse or dumpe.

Tanta in mæstitia fui, I was so heauy, sadde, or sorowfull.

Mæstudo, rudinis, f. g. idem quod Mæstitia.

Mæsto, aui, are, & Mæstifico, aui, are, to make sorowfull.

Mæstus, a, um, soyy or sorowfull, sadde, heauy full of lamentyng and mournyng.

Mæstæ aræ, sacrifices to the infernall goddis.

Timor mæstus, feare, makyng men heauy and sorowfull.

Moga, a countrey in Asia, called now Cæsaria.

Moguntia, a noble citee in Germanye, called Wentz.

Mola, a, f. ge. a myll. It is also a great peece of fleshe without shape, growen in a woman, whiche causeth theym comertme to thynke that they be with chylde. It is also a cake made of meale and saite.

Molæ trufaciles, or versatiles, handemylles.

Molæ asinaria, mylles tourned with asses.

Molæ operam dare, to geat his spynge by tournyng the myll.

Molâris, ris, m. g. the cheeke sothe, also a peece of a broken myllstone.

Molâris, re, & Molârius, a, um, pertainyng to a myll, or wherof a myll is made.

Molarius equus, an horse whiche dyrectly as bout a malte myll.

Molendinarius, a, um, idem quod Molâris, re.

Molendinarius, ij, a myller.

Moles, lis, f. g. a thyng that is veraye great and weyghtie, greatnesse, a great pyll, heape, or dam made in a riuer, or in the sea to stoppe the water. Sometyme the mounge of anye great thyng. Sometyme it is taken for difficulte.

Tarda mole se ferre homines crassi & magni dicuntur, to go a softe pace.

Molibus ferarum mirabilis, meruylous for the huge great wyld beastes that be therein.

Tanta molis erat, so harde or great a thyng it was.

Iniuria molē sustinere, to abyde and susteyn the greete iniurie or wronge, that one doth to hym.

Molestē, greuouely, pynfully.

Molestē ferre, to take greuouely, to be pille content, to be displeased.

Molestia, a, f. g. greffe, peyne, trouble, disquietyng.

Sine molestia, without anye trouble or busynesse.

Molestiam addere, to put to moze peyne and greffe.

Molestiam exhibere, aspergere alicui, and Molestia afficere alicuem, to trouble, to disquiete, to put to pyn.

Ne nausea molestiam suscipias æger, Leste you beynge speke, shulde trouble your stomache, and cause your selfe to vomite.

Molesto, aui, are, to greue, to offend, to do displeasure to one, to trouble, to put to peyne.

Molestus, a, um, that whiche greueth, offendeth, or discontenteth, greuouous, pynfull, troublous, that vexeth or disquieteth, sometyme for Difficilis, hard, difficulte.

Molesta tunica, a garment, whiche was mixte with some matter, that gathereth styfe, put on some persons, whiche should suffer deathe.

Vbi molestum non erit, whan it shall bee no diseale to you.

Multum molestus ei fuero, I wyl be vex every bepe in his herte.

Vbi molestus mihi est, whan he began to bee somewhat busy with me, or whan he disquieted or vexed me, or woulde not suffer me to bee in resse.

Nisi forte molesti interuenimus, If our comyng do not trouble or diseale you.

Molstrina, nā, f. ge. gener. a moztter or quærne, wherewith wherein anye thyngs maye bee ordeined with hande. It was in olde tyme used for a bakes house. It maye bee nowe taken for a myll. M.

Molilagī, they which haue an yll pronunciation. Molile, lis, neu. gen. an instrument that was sette on the shoulder of a man, horse, or asse, to drawe the myll.
Molimen, liminis, n. g. the force of endeouour in doynge a thyng.
Molimentum, i, n. g. idem.
Molior, iris, iri, to moue, to remoue, to force and streigne hym selfe to dooe a thyng, to be-nye of inuente, to goe aboute to doe a thyng, to make of worke, to bee caried of let.
Moliri classē, to prepare a nauie.
Moliri iter, to goe a iourneys.
Moliri habenas, to rule.
Moliri insidias, to laye snares, to laye in a waite.
Moliri arcem, to buyld a fortreffe.
Moliri bellum, to make warre.
Dum moliantur, dum conantur, annus est, whyle they sette forwarde, and whyle they attempe, yfpe, and trymme theym selues, it is a whole yere.
Minoribus aratris moliantur, they worke of laboure with smaller plowes.
Bipennem moliri in vites, to cut the vines.
Moliri fugam, to seeke a meane to flee.
Pulmina moliri, to lyghen, to make of cause lyghenynge, actiuelly.
Locum moliri, to prepare the place.
Opera moliri, to labour, to worke.
Viam moliri, to seeke out the waye with great
payne.
Moliri corruptelam iudicii, to goe aboute of endeouour to corrupte the iudges.
Moliri terram, to labour the earthe.
Moliri in aliquem locum, to endeouour to goe or come to a place.
Moliri iacula, to hurle darter.
Moliri moram, to tary.
Molitio, ōnis, f. g. endeouour of goeyng about
a thyng.
Agrorum molitio, the labouring of the earth.
Molitor, ōris, m. g. a myllar.
Molitor, oris, mas. gen. he that endeouureth of goeth about a thyng, he that enforceth of streigneth him selfe to dooe a thyng, also a worker, a maker, an authour.
Molitrix, icis, the femine.
Molitrix triciis, the feminine of Molitor, a woman myllar.
Molitūra, a, f. g. gryndynge.
Mollesco, scere, to waxe softe, to bee pacified from wyathe, to be thoroughly softe.
Molestia, a, f. g. a thepes fell.
Mollicina, a, f. g. a fine clothe of sylke.
Mollicellus, a, um, of Molliculus, tender, delicate, wanton, womanlyke, some what softe.

Molliceps, a birde, no bigger then a chynthe, but that he hath a head very byg for the proportion of his bodie, some thynke he is called a Chynke, a nyn murder.
Mollifico, to make softe of tender.
Mollimentum, i, n. g. a swagynge of easynge.
Mollio, liui, ire, to make softe of tender, to pacifie of appeale, to make wanton, nyce of delicate.
Animos mollire, to make the mindes of men gentyll and quiete, also to effeminate, to make tender and delicate.
Mollire impetum, To reppesse the vehemency of rage of a thyng of persone.
Mare mollire, To make the sea rauine of quiete.
Mollire hominem, To pacifie, to appeale, to toure ones mynde, and induce hym to doe that he is despyed.
Mollipes, lipedis, that hath a softe fote.
Mollis, le, softe, tender, remysse, sowernye pleassaunt, easy to be pleased, yfpe.
Molle ingenium, a wyte which lightly taketh.
Mollis homo, a man effeminate of womanly, not hardye of constant of wytte, inuolued in wanton pleasures and sensuall appetite.
Animus mollis, in the god parte, a softe and gentill mynde easy to be pleased.
Castaneæ molles, yfpe chestens.
Collis mollis, an hyl nothing steepe, easy to go by an downe on.
Hyems mollis, a mylde and gentyll wynter,
nothing rough of sharpe.
Mollissimus odor, a veray pleasaunt sauour,
a nothing stronge of ranke.
Versus molles, verses of loue, wanton and amorous verses.
Vinum molle, a pleasaunt wyne that is not eyger and sharpe in drynkynge.
Molles sententiæ, fauorable sentences with out seueritee.
Molles amplexus, amorous embracynge.
Mollis lex, a gentyll lawe nothing rigorous.
Mollis cultus, delicate and nyce apparayle.
Mollis oratio, gentill and pleasaunt wordes.
Mollities, ei, & Mollitia, a, f. g. softenesse, tendernesse, delicatenesse, womanlynesse.
Mollities maris, the caulmenesse and quietnesse of the sea.
Ensciundahæc mollities animi, This tendersnesse of nyctenesse of hearte muste bee putte
awaye.
Molliter, gentilly, with good wyll, easely, delys-eately, patiently, softly, womanly, nyce.
Molliter se curare, to lyue delicately, to cher-yssh the ones selfe nyce.
Molliter sustine nunc me, Softe man, be not to sharpe of rigorous with me.
Ferre molliter, to take patiently.
Mollitudo, dinis, f. g. softenesse and gentylnesse:
idem quod Mollities.
Mollitus, a, um, made softe, tender, of delicate.
Mollusca,

Mollusca, a, form. ge. a snail with a softer shale, a sylberde.

Molluscum, i, n. gen. the wenne of bunche of the tree called Acer.

Molorchus, a, a wyperherbe in the woodde Remea, whiche receiued the rukes whan he cam thither to kyll the lyon.

Molossia, a, parte of Epyre.

Molossus, a, um, of Molossia.

Molus, a mans name in Homere.

Molo, lui, mólere, to grynde.

Ni purges & molas non comedes, No las boue no profite: gape tyll thou be fedde, & thou shale famish for hunger.

Moloch, was an ydoll of the Ammonites. signifying in hebrue a gowernour of counsaillour. It was also called Molchom, sometime Milchom.

Moloché, the great malowe or holihocke: some call it beyonde the rose.

Molochinus, ni, m. g. a colour like to the floures of malowes, somewhat purple.

Molochinarius, ri, masc. gen. he that dyeth the sayed colour.

Molothus, i, m. gen. a plumrule, suche as masons and carpenters do occupie in squaring of stone and tymber.

Molossia gens, people in the parte of Grece, called Epirus, they were also called Molossi.

Molossus, a machine dogge. It is also a soete in meter.

Molothros, a kynde of white vines.

Molucrum, cri, n. ge. a square piece of tymber wherupon the painyus did sacrifice. It is also the trendyll of a myll. Also the swelling of a womans bealy, whiche dweth happe as well to maydens as to wyues.

Moluris, a locuste, whiche destroyeth coyne, the Germaines call it a Tournibell.

Moly, molyos, n. ge. an herbe of all other most praysed of Homere, whiche thinketh it to haue that name of the goddess: it is saide to be inuented of Mercurie, & to haue great vertu against witheraste: loke for the description in Dioste. li. 3. cap. 52. and in the commentaries of Barabarus, and Vergilius, on the same place.

Molybdéna, a, for. g. a beyne of leade or syluer. It is also one of the kyndes of the herbe called Persicaria.

Molybditis, tis, form. gen. the spume of some of leade.

Momar, a fowle, in the Sicilian tonge.

Momen, inis, n. g. idem quod momentum.

Momentaneus, a, um, that which durth but for a whyle, or shortly altereth.

Momentarius, a, um, that whiche is doorn in a littell space.

Momentosus, a, um, that is of some weyghte or value.

Momentum, i, neu. gen. the least part of tyme, whiche can not be assigned, a moment. It is also a porcion more or lesse of any thing or mass after also the estimation of value of a thyng, as to a weyght of payre.

Nullus est momentani, It is of no myghte or value, also it is of no strength or vertue.

Pari momento fors, it is one chaunce of the value of thyng.

Momentu, aduertibally, in a moment, quickly, incontinent.

Momentu temporis, of houre, quickly, at one tyme of houre.

Ne minimi momenti esse ad, Sec. to be of none esteem, vertue, of force, to helpe nothing to a thyng.

Paulo momento, easily, with the least thyng in the worlde.

Afferre momentum, to helpe or profite to a thyng.

Permagni momenti est, It is of great value, force, or strength, or it helpe much.

Perleui momento fortuna, with the leaste chaunge of fortune that can be.

Nullum habet momentum, It helpeyth or ferueth nothing.

Momus, mi, m. g. a god of reprehencion. And of him all curious reprehenders bee called Momi.

Momo, satisfacere, to contente him, whom al moles no man can please.

Momo iudice decernere, to contende afoze a rigorous and extreme iudge, or hym that will fynde a faulte quickly.

Monas, called of the grekes Mōna, is an yle nigh to Britany, pursuant of people in the tyme of Cornelius Tacitus, where they that fled from the Romayns were succoured, I suppose it to be the yle now called Man, and neer Anglessey, for as muche as that is topyned to Britanye. There is also an other yle of that name in the riuer of Rhyne, nigh to Fryslande, and not onely nigh to Britanye.

Monarda, and also Monarina, the yle of Man, by the east parte of Irelande.

Monachis, a mountayne in Berabie.

Monachus, i, m. ge. a solitarie persone. all be it that it is vled for a monke.

Monas, a, a kyng of Parthia.

Monarcha, a, m. ge. a prince that ruleth alone without prece or companion.

Monarchia, a, form. gen. the rule of one, a monarchy.

Monas, monadis, f. g. the numbre of one, vnite.

Monasterium, ri, n. g. a place solitarie.

Monaulos, a, a pyre, a reuoluer.

Monédula, a, form. ge. a byrde called a thought or cadelle.

Moneo, iiii, ére, to warne, to put in remembrance, to put in mynde, to aduertise, to counsaile, to bydde one to diner or supper.

Monere and Admonere, is to tell a man his fault, with a certayne correction or chiding.

Nisi ipsa res moneat, Excepte the thyng selfe byd byd me or geue me occasion,

Habeo pro illa reillum quod moneam probe, I knowe what to tell hym in his eare for that well enough: Or I have to put hym in mynde for that thynge well enough.

Moneta, æ, f. g. monie; also the name of Juno. Proferre aliquid ex nostra moneta, to inuent somewhat of our owne wyl, to bypnyng out somewhat of our owne deuise and inuention.

Monetalis, le, ptepyng to monie.

Monetarius, ri, mas. gene. a maker of moneye, a copner.

Monile, lis, n. ge. a colar or beere that women vse to were about their neckes, an ourche. It is also a paitrell of an hoise.

Monimentum, i, n. g. a signe, a token, a tombe. loke moze in Monumentum.

Monitio, onis, f. g. a warnyng, a chydyng, a rebukyng, an aduertisyng.

Monitor, oris, m. ge. he that warneth a man or putteth hym in remembrance, a prompter, an aduertiser, a monysher. He that promptlyng players in an enterlude or comedye.

Monitorius, a, um, that whycher dweth warne or exhort.

Monitum, i, neu. ge. a monition, a warning, an aduertisement, a cheeke, a rebuke, a pcepte, a lesson, a counsaile.

Monitus, us, m. g. idem quod monitio.

Monitus, a, um, monished, warned, aduertised.

Monna, loke Mona.

Monobeli, they which haue a long thyngelike to spittes. also they that bee veray hyge in stature, & aboute other. Lampridius in vita Alex.

Monoceros, oris, m. g. an hyrcorne.

Monochordium, dq, neu. g. an instrument hauing many strynges of one soune, sauing that with small pieces of clothe, the sounes bee distincte, as Clauycordes bee, and for that reason, some thinke it maye be vled for the clauycordes.

Monochromateus, a, um, belongyng to portraictures of one colour.

Monochromatos, a portraicture of one colour.

Monoculus, li, mas. gene. a man hauynge but one eye.

Monodia, æ, f. ge. a lamentable or mournyng song, suche as is songe in funerals.

Monoclonos, the herbe Artemisia.

Monogenion, the pionie.

Monodos, the sonne of Pyrus, who in fede of teeth had but one bone, lyke as kynge Pyrus thus had.

Monochus, an hauen of Liguria.

Monogamus, mi, ma. ge. he that neuer had but one wyfe.

Monogrammi, men leane and ylle coloured.

Monogrammus, a picture onely drawen with a lyne.

Monologium, gij, neu. gen. a long tale of one matter.

Monomachia, æ, f. ge. a battaile, wherin onely

two men doo fight.

Monomachus, chi, m. ge. he that fighteth alone without helpe of any other man.

Monomeri, people in the east part of the worlde, whiche haue but one legge, wherewith they go by leapes moze swyftly than any beast.

Monophagia, æ, f. g. a meale of one only meate or dyete.

Monophthalmus, idem quod monocidus.

Monopodium, ij, neu. gen. a table sette on one foote or trestyll.

Monopolium, lij, neu. gener. where one man engrosseth thynges, to haue all in his owne hande, that no man maye gayne but he onely. It maye be also one countreie or market, that taketh awaye the gaynes from other countreies or markettes.

Monops, a beast in Maxonia, of the bignesse of a bull, whycher slepeth from the hunters, casteth out a certayne fierie extremite, which if the hunters touch, it destroyeth them.

Monoptoton, a word haupng but one case.

Monosceli, men in Indie, whiche haue but one legge, so great, that therewith they couer them selfe from the sunne.

Monostylon, li, neu. gen. where as is but one pylar.

Monotropos, pi, mas. gene. solitarie, of one fashion alwaies.

Monoxylon, li, n. gen. a bote made of one piece of timber.

Mons, ontis, m. gen. a mountayne or hyll. also an heape of thynges, or any other thyng in the fourme of an hyll.

Præruptus aquæ mons, a gret waue of water.

Mons frumenti, a great rike or heape of corn.

Montes aureos policeri, prouerbially spoken of them that make large promises.

Mons feratus, a countreie in Italy.

Monstrabilis, le, that maye be shewed.

Monstratio, onis, fem. gene. a shewyng or declaring.

Monstrator, oris, m. g. one that sheweth, declareth, telleth, or teacheth.

Monstratus, us, mas. gene. a demonstration or declaring.

Monstrifice, monstrously, straungely.

Monstrificus, and monstriker, a, um, monstrous, that hath some figure contrary to nature.

Monstro, au, are, to shewe, to declare, to telle, to teache, to proue.

Monstrosc, monstrously, straungely, contrary to nature.

Monströsus, a, um, monstrous.

Monstrum, tri, n. ge. a monster, that whiche excedeth or lacketh in naturall fourme or order, also anye thyng that is downe agaynste the commune course of nature, in what kynde of thing so euer it be, a token or shewyng, any thyng that in signifyng an other thyng, dweth shewe it, sometime for monstratio.

Monstrum

Monstrum hominis, non dicturus: thou mist
Mayen haue, wylt thou not speake & tell me?
Monstra deum refero, I make relatib of those thynges to you, that þe goddis haue shewed me.
Monstra narrare, to shewe verie strange thynges contrary to nature.

Montanus, the name of a poete.

Montapium, n. g. idem quod horioselinum.

Montanus, a, um, of a mountayne.

Montana nunc sunt omnia, It is hilly of full of hylles nowe in euery place.

Monticula, a, com. gene. he that inhabiteth of dwellerh vpon hylles.

Monticulus, li, m. g. a littell hyl.

Montifringilla, a birde named a byramlyng.

Montigena, boine on an hyl.

Montiuagus, a, um, wanderyng by hylles.

Montosus, a, um, full of hylles, hyllye.

Monumentum, i, n. ge. a remembrance of some notable acte, as sepulchres, ymages, pyllers, great stones, inscriptions, bookes, & other lyke:
wherby any thyng excellent concernyng great wyttes, cunnyng, enterpryse in armes, puissance, or richesse is remembred, a memoriall.

Monumenta, wrytynges, histories, tokens, co-gnysances, armes, and suche lyke.

Monycha, a, the name of saincte Augustines mother.

Mónychus, a gygant, one of the Centaures.

Monyma, the wyfe of kyng Mithrydate, whiche after that hir husbände was vanquished, killed hir selfe.

Monymus, a mans name.

Mopsofia, the countreie of Athens.

Mopsus, the name of a poete. it is also a sheepes herdes name.

Mora, a, f. g. taryng, leysure, delaie, prolonging, slackenesse, slownesse. also a stape that surgions vse in splyntynge of sope legges.

Moram creare, to prolong the time, to delay.

Afferre moram, and Moram facere, idem.

Per hunc nulla est mora, he letteth it not.

Nec mora vlla est quin eam vxorem ducam,

There is no lette but that I maye wedde hir.

Faxo haud quicquam sit mora, I wil see that there shal be no delaye of taryng.

Inicere moram & religionem iudicandi iusdicibus, to make the iudges aserde of scrupulous, and to deferre iudgement.

Quid ergo erat mora, & tergiversationis?
Than what was the lette, and that he went not farther in the mattier?

Dimoue vocis moras, tell byiefely.

Nullam moram dare, To geue no delaye of leysure.

Vt non habeat aliquid moræ, That it haue no lette.

Nullam moram interponere, to make no des-laie. Hoc mihi mora est, This letteth me of causeth me to tary.

Ne in mora cum opus sit fies, Let vs not tary on you, whan nede shal be.

Neque istic neque alibi vlla erit in me mora,
Neither in this mattier, nor in anye thyng els
you shal haue any lette of taryng in me, or you shal not tarye on me, or I am readye to do as you wyl haue me.

Sine mora, without delaye of taryng, quickly, incontinent.

Nulla est in nobis mora, we be ready, there is no lette in vs.

Ne in mora meis nuptiis egomersem, That I my selfe ppylonge not of hynder not myne owne mariage.

Moram afferre supplicij, To cause ones punishment to be deferred.

Moras quærere, to make delays.

Moralis, le, pertynyng to maners, morall.

Moramantum, ti, n. g. taryng, abode, lette.

Morator, ôris, m. g. a taryer, a letter, a hynder.

Moratorius, a, um, belongyng to taryng or de-laie makinge.

Moratoria cautio, a determination of a iudge or magistrate, to paye at a daye appointed, whiche one hath in respitte.

Moratus, a, um, that hath maners good or yll,
that is well or yll manered.

Ita nunc adolescentes morati sunt, Of suche naughtye condicions bee younge men nowe a dayes.

Morata oratio, an oration that representeth
the maners and facions of hym that speaketh, Moratus bene, well manered.

Bene morata ciuitates, cities in good facion and order, and well gouerned.

Moratus, a, um, of Moror, that hath taryed or abydden.

Morbidus, a, um, sycke or shabbed.

Morbificus, a, um, that which causeth disease or sykenesse.

Morbosus, a, um, full of sickenesse, sickely.

Morbus, bi, m. g. sykenesse, a disease, a soze.

Morbo affici, to be sycke.

In morbo esse, idem.

In morbum delabi, to fall sicke.

Morbo laborare, to be sicke.

Ex morbo conualescere, assurgere, euadere, to be recouered from sicknesse.

Morbus arcuatus, the jaundise.

Morbus animæ, a vice inueterate and hard to be cured, as ambition, auarice, &c.

Morbus animi, trouble or vexation of spirite.

Morbus regius, the pelow jaundise.

Absumi morbo, to be soze broken and woyn with sicknesse.

Affictari morbo, to be greuously sycke.

Confirmata valetudo a morbo, health fully recouered after sicknesse.

Contrahere morbum, to great a disease.

Crudescit morbus, The sicknesse cometh a newe or waxeth freshe agayne.

Depellere morbum, to put awaye a disease.

Facere

Facere morbum, to make or cause a disease or sickness.
 Iactari morbo, to be long sick.
 Inuasi morbus, the sickness took him.
 Leuasi morbo, to be cured of his sickness.
 Tentari morbo, to be troubled with sickness or disease.
 Mordacitas, atis, f. g. a biting.
 Mordax, acis, om. g. he that biter byt, be it with the teeth or with language.
 Mordax folium, a leaf that biteth the tongue with the sharpness of his taste.
 Mordeo, momordi, ere, to bite, to detract or rebuke vehemently, to grieve.
 Mordere frænum, to gnawe on the byddell, whiche is spoken, where it signifieth one to repugne agaynst severity and bondage.
 Mordere clanculum, to speake yll of one behynde his backe.
 Iniquo dente mordere, to speake yll of one for malice without a cause.
 Dente inuido mordeor, I am enuoustlye slandered.
 Si hoc te mordet, yf this thyng greue you or bite you by the stomache.
 Mordicibus, for Morcibus, with bitynges.
 Mordico, aui, are, to bite with bityng.
 Mordicus, an aduerbe, bityng harde and fast, as a man holdeth a thyng fast with his teeth.
 Mordicus tenere, to holde fast, to persist obstinately in an opinion or sentence.
 Abripere nasum mordicus, To bite of ones nose.
 Morétum, ti, n. gen. a kynde of cakes made of mylke, wyne, cheese, and herbes.
 Moria, æ, f. g. in greke, is in Englysh scolymnes or colpe.
 Moribundus, a, um, dyng.
 Morigeratio, onis, f. g. obeyng.
 Morigeror, aris, ari, and sometyme Morigero, aui, are, to obeye, to doo as a man biddeth, to conforme his maners to an other mans wyll.
 Morigerus, and Morigeratus, a, um, obedient.
 Morini, people in fraunce dwellynge aboute Eurwane.
 Mório, onis, m. g. a soke.
 Morion, ri, n. g. a certayne precious stone. also the male mandrake.
 Morior, moriris, vel móreris, moriri, vel mori, to dye.
 Moriar, a manner of an othe, significynge, I would I should dye, or I praye god I dye.
 Fama beneficiorum moritur, Benefites bee forgotten or out of memoire.
 Certum est moriri, quam. &c. I had liefte dye, than. &c.
 Moror, aris, ari, to tary, to abyde, to dwell, continue or reste in a place, to leat or cause to tary, to esteeme or passe on a thyng. sometyme Morari, passiuely, is to be madde.
 Nō moror, I wil not let, there is no let in me.

Dextram moratur manum, he stopped of helde his right hande.
 Egomet conuuls moror, I my selfe cause my selfe to tary.
 Quid moraris abeuntem? wherefore dooe ye halde and kepe hym backe? whyl dooe ye cause hym to tary that wolde be gone?
 Moros, ri, m. g. a soke.
 Morose, waywardly, fromwardly.
 Morositas, atis, form. gen. waywardness, fromwardness.
 Morosus, a, um, wayward, fromward, ouerthis warte, diuers in conditions, whom no man can please, moze cruell than needeth.
 Arbor morosariata, a tree that doth scarcely proue or growe in a place, or that is dangerous to growe.
 Morotis, & Morosis, a madness or frensie, where a man loseth his memoire.
 Morpheus, dissyllabum, the sonne or seruant of the god Somnus.
 Morphna, idem quod Planga.
 Mors, ortis, fæ. g. death. Mortes, is sometyme read in the plurall numbre.
 Absumi morte, to dye.
 Accerere mortē, and conciscere sibi mortē, To procure his owne death, to kyll hym selfe.
 Afficere morte, and Afficere mortem, to put to death.
 Morti dare aliquem, to put to death, to kyll.
 Eripere aliquem morti, to saue ones lyfe.
 Minari mortem, to threaten death, to threaten to kyll one.
 Multari morte, to be put to death.
 Mortem obire, and occumbere morti, mors tem, and morte, to dye.
 Morri aliquem obicere, to put one in danger of his lyfe.
 Morficium, bityng one an other.
 Morficula, æ, f. g. a littell bytte of snatche, a taunte or checke.
 Morfus, us, m. g. a bytte with the teeth, a taunte in speakynge, also greese, payne, sorowe, sickness, also the fastnyng or bucklyng of harnays.
 Vnci morfus, when the anke fastneth or taketh holde in the grounde.
 Morfus, a, um, bitten.
 Mortalis, le, mortal, deadly, y is subiect to death.
 Mortales leges, lawes that wyll not continue but be for a tyme.
 Mortalior, the comparatiue.
 Mortalis, lis, the substantiue, a man.
 Mortalitas, atis, f. g. mortallite: sometyme it is taken for mortall men.
 Moriariū, ij, n. g. a moztar, wherein thynges are bzaied or grounden. It is also the place where tyme and sande be mingled together, to make moztar.
 Morticini, cornes whiche bee on mens feete.
 Morticinus, a, um, dead, or of that which is dead, sopt, corrupt, carayne.

Morticina caro, murthered fleſhe, whiche dieth by it ſelfe, cattayne.
Mortifer, a, um, whiche cauſeth anye thinge to dye, deadly.
Mortiferum bellum, deadly warre.
Mortualis, le, pertaining to dead men.
Mortuus, a, um, dead, without contrage of ſpirite.
Mortuum mare, a great mere in Syria, wherein no heauy thynges may ſynke.
Mortuo verba facere, to ſpeake to a dead ma, pꝛouerbially ſignifying to ſpeake in vayne.
Moruetrum, a citee in Spayne, where Saguntum in old tyme did ſtande.
Morula, la, f. g. a little taryng.
Morum, ri, n. g. a mulbery or blacke berie.
Morus, i, f. g. a mulbery tree, and a bꝛamble that beareth blackeberies.
Morus Aegyptia, called alſo Sicomorus.
Morus vaticana, the bꝛamble of blacke berie tree.
Mos, moris, m. g. a maner, a condicion, cuſtome, a faction, a guiſe.
Morem gerere, to obeie.
Moris antiqui homo, an honeſte man of the olde faction.
Adumbrare morē alicuius, to folowe an other mans maners.
Mos eſt, the faction is.
Non eſt moris, it is not the faction.
Omnium more, as all men be wont.
Ferarum more, lyke beaſtes.
Meo more, as I am wont, as my faction, maner and cuſtome is to doe, as I will my ſelfe.
Nouo more aliquid facere, to doe a thyng as it was neuer doen befoze.
In morem fluminis, as it were a riuer, lyke a ryuer.
Conformare mores, to faction his maners.
More magiſtrac ſcribo, quā quo te monēs dum putem, I wyte this rather after myne accuſtomed faction & maner, than that I thinke it nedefull to admoniſhe you.
In patris eſt moribus, Our aunceſtours were wont.
Decedere de ſuo more, not to doe as he was wont, to leaue his olde wont.
Morem gerere animo, to doe his pleaſure.
Moribus, accordyng to the maner and cuſtome.
Mos bonus, a good faction.
Inceſſit mos, loke Inceſſit.
Pacis morem imponere populis, to geue lawes of peace to the people.
Manet mos antiquus, the olde faction taryeth ſtill.
Perducere aliquid in morem, To bꝛynge a thyng in cuſtome or uſe.
Morem antiquum referre, to bꝛynge agayne the olde faction or maner.
Morem tenere, ſeruare, retinere, to kepe a faction, maner or cuſtome.
Ad cæli mores, ſoliꝝ ingenia, accordyng to the qualitee of the ayre & nature of the grounde.

Mos nunquam illi fuit, it was neuer his faſh he was neuer wont.
More hominū euenit, It hath happened after the commune couſe of the mores.
Mosa fluuius, a ryuer whiche is called the Mos, and ernneth betwene the burie of Iſrahame, and the lande of Iude.
Mosca, a riuer in Polcouia.
Moscatula, peates which do ſauour lyke muſke.
Moschata, Moschomyra, Moschela, certayne confections of opynientes in ſerius.
Moschæa, x, f. g. a temple, wherein the people whiche worſhipped idoles, haue recourſe to praye in, namely the temple of the Turkes and other Mahumetanes.
Moschenton, a certayne roſe, that hath a ſtalke lyke a mallow.
Moscouia, a great countrey in the north part of the world, beyonde Polonia, whych containeth in length, 400. myles and aboue. The people therof bee called Moscouita, in engliſhe Moscouites. They haue a great duke, who nameth hym ſelfe emperour of Ruſſie. They bee chriſtened, and doe obſerue the rites of the Grekes. Their language is the tongue of Slaunon, whiche is alſo vſed in Boheme and Pole.
Moscu, is the chiefe citee of that countrey, thꝛough the whiche the ſayde ryuer of Mosca doeth renne.
Moschocaryon, called alſo nux ynguentaria, or myrſtica, a nutmidge.
Moschum, chi, n. g. muſke.
Mosculus, a cauſe, alſo an herbe.
Moscuſ, a region in Aſia, ngye to the ryuer of Phaſis, deuided into thꝛee partes. In the one doe dwell people called Colchi, in the ſeconde Hiberes, in the thꝛyde Armenij.
Mos, loke Moyſes.
Mosillus, a diminutiue of Mos.
Mocinacæ, or rather Mosinacæ, people in the north parte of Aſia.
Motabilis, le, alwaye mouing.
Motacilla, la, f. g. a byrde called a wagge tayle.
Motiuus, a, um, mouyng, not abydyng.
Moro, aui, are, to moue often.
Motor, ôris, m. g. he that moueth.
Motus, a, um, moued.
Motus, us, m. g. mouyng. ſometyme a commotion. ſometyme a motion or cauſe.
Vano motu iactās brachia, ſwyngyng his armes fondely.
Feroci motu quatiens caput, ſhakyng his head fierſely.
Motus animi, id eſt perturbatio.
Afferre motum reipublicæ, To trouble the commune weale.
Audiſti conſilij mei motus, ye haue herd the cauſes of my counſaile and purpoſe.
Moueo, moui, ere, to moue, to ſtirre, to remoue, to put awaye, to departe from a place, to entice, to allure, to pzoouhe, also to change o' affect.

 Mouere calculos in uentre pzoou, To make difficultie in the one parte of the other, to moue doubtes on bothe partes.
 Mouere animam, to stirre o' allure the mynd.
 Mouere castra, to remoue the campe.
 Mouere rag edins, to make a great hurie o' busynesse.
 Mouere camerinam, To stirre thynges which shall bee to his owne displeasure that begyns neth it.
 Mouere heredes, to put the heyres out of possession.
 Mouere nuptias, to trouble the widdynge.
 Mouere stomachum, to cause one to bee ve-raie angrye, also to pzoouke to vomite.
 Ego istac moueo, I care muche therfore, o' do passe muche therbyon, spoken in mockage.
 Mouere aliquem a sententia, To make one chaunge his opinion.
 Mouere senatu, vel de senatu, to put one out of the senate, o' to depriue hym of that author-itie.
 Mouere alium, o' ventrem, to make one soluble o' disposed to the stole. Likewise Mouere vrinam, to make to pisse.
 Mouere teoryus, bestyres the apare o' quickly.
 Postquam Canusio mouerat, After he remou-ued from Canusium.
 Ego me de Cumano moui, I remoued o' departed from Cumanum.
 Moue abs te moram, id est festina.
 Mouere bellum, o' arma, to reple vp men to
 warre.
 Dolore mouere, to ake, to put to payne.
 Fletum mouere, to make to weep.
 Indignationem mouere, to make one greatly displeased o' verarie angry.
 Loco mouentur ossa, bones bee put out of toynete. Mouere se ad motum fortunæ, To chaunge as fortune chaungeth.
 Mouere mentionem de re aliqua, to speake
 o' make mencion of a thyng.
 Risum mouere, to make to laughe.
 Sudorem mouere, to make to sweate.
 Nusquam re vestigio moueris, moue not a fote out of the place thou standest in.
 Mouere cerebrum, to trouble the witte.
 Si vllam litteram moueris, If ye put awaye onely one letter.
 Mouere expectationem, to make despyous.
 Mouere aliquem possessione, to put one out of possession.
 Mouere suspicionem alicui, to make one suspecte.
 Motuuncula, x. f. g. a littell motion o' steeryng.
 Mox, anone, forthwith, by and by. Mox tpe after, after a while. Sometyne for Deinde, as Proxime laudatur Syriacum, mox Gallicū.
 Quam mox, howe sone.
 Moyles, o' Moses, significeth drawen by o' taken by from the water. It was the name of a noble prophete, sonne of Amram, of the tribe of Leauel, who brought the Israelites from the bondage of Pharao kynge of Egypte, with most wonderful myracles, and gouerned them with great patience. He dyed also the incarnation of Christe, 1461. yere, beyng of the age of 120. yeres, his eyes beyng neuer dimmed, nor his carthe house stant a day after his death.

Muced, muced, mouere, to be filthy o' visued, palid, o' deade, as wyne which hath lost his verdure.
 Mucedo, scere, idem quod Mucedo.
 Mucidus, a, um, filthy, vinewed, palid.
 Panis mucidus, vinewed bread.
 Mucor, oris, m. g. filthe, vinewe, such as is on breade o' meate longe kept, hozensle.
 Mucro, onis, m. g. the poynte of a sworde o' knyfe. Sometyne it is taken for a sworde, also the sharpe toppe of herbe leaues, o' anye other
 thyng.
 Retundere mucronem, To make the poynte blunt. In mucronem desuete, to haue the sharpe poynt o' toppe.
 Mucro defensionis, the chiefe poynte of ones defence, that toucheth the matter nere.
 Mucronatus, a, um, poynted.
 Mucronata folia, leaues that haue sharpe toppes.
 Mucronor, aris, to be sharpe poynted.
 Mucus, i, m. g. the splythe that cometh out of the nose, snuall.
 Mucosus, a, um, snattye, o' snuelled, full of snuall.
 Mugil, ilis, vel Mugilis, lis, m. g. a sea fysh, of all skaled fyshes moste swyfte, of colour whete, they be of the Grekes called Cestre & Flota.
 They commonly be named Cephal. Of theim bee sundry kyndes, as it shall appere in their places. It is an vnstariable fysh, & hath a great bealy, and therfore excepte he bee empty, he abiddyth styll in a place, and beyng a fraide, he dyth his head, weenyng that all his bodye is also hydde. They are so despyous eithe of the kyndes of the other, that whan fyshes haue taken the males, and tyed them by a lyne, and lea-dyth them down into the sea: all the females, whan they perceyue the males, dooe gather together, and comyng to them are taken in the nettes.
 Like wyle both the male kynde, and the female kynde, about Marton in Fraunce, where it is taken, they call it a Muge.
 Muginor, aris, aris, to murmure, to ryle and go hachely about a thyng.
 Mugio, giui, ire, to bellowe lyke a cotwe o' bull.
 Sometyne it significeth the noyse o' thunder o'
 great wyndes.
 Solum mugit, the grounde groneth.

Mogitus, us, m. ge. bellowing of hyme or other noise lyke.
Mugitas nemorum, the roaring and noise that woodes make with the blustering and blowing of the wynde.
Mugonia, a gate at Rome, wherby cattell dyd enter into the citie.
Mula, a, f. ge. a mule gotten of an horse stallion, and a female asse, as Columella wytyeth. In Syzia (as Aristotle wytyeth) mules do bothe great and byng forth soles. There hath ben of them founden at Athens, which were 80. yeres olde, as that authour wytyeth. It is also the name of an herbe lyke to Scolopendrium, so translated by Theodorus Gaza, where the Greke wyrd is Hemionos, whiche Dioscoride called Asplenon, loke there.
Mularis, re, petyninge to a mule.
Mulcedo, inis, f. g. a gentill or sweete handling or intreatyng.
Mulceo, si, ere, to pacifie, to appease, to mitigate,
to swage, to make sweete, to annoynt, to polyshe, to please, to delite.
Mulcere fluctus, to make quiete the waues of the sea.
Mulciber, ciberis, one of the names of Vulcan, called god of fyre. It is sometyme taken for the fyre.
Mulcta, re, f. g. a penaltie, a condemnation, a fine celled. loke Multa.
Mulctam dicere, to geue an intinction, to set a payne, to amerce, or condempne to paye a fozsaite.
Mulctam irrogare, idem: loke Multa.
Mulctam committere, to fozsaite, to tyme in the payne, to incurre the payne.
Mulctam remittere, to pardon, to releafe or remitte the penaltie.
Mulcto, am, are, to punishe be the pource, to amerce. loke Muko.
Mulctra, a, f. ge. the mylkyng, the payle where-into it is mylled, sometyme the mylke selfe.
Mulctrale, lis, and Mylctrum, u, neu. g. a myl-king payle.
Mulctus, us, m. g. mylkyng.
Mulgeo, si, or mulxi, gere, to mylke or stroke.
Mulgere hircos, spoken prouerbially of a thyng veraye absurd and contray to reason.
Mulgo, au, are, to publyshe.
Muliebris, brium, n. gen. plu. naturall euacuations, which women haue, called theyr floures.
It is also vled for lechery, vncleanlynesse.
Muliebris, liebre, petyninge to women, was manlyhe, fearefull, timorous, vnconstant, was uerpynge.
Muliebre folliculum, dicebant vuluam.
Muliebris animus, a fearefull, vnconstant or waueryng mynde.
Muliebris sententia, an vnconstant opinion,
that is quickly chaunged.
Muliebris fides, stypper credence,

Muliebritas, tatis, f. ge. delicatenesse, tendernes.
Muliebritas, womanly, delicately, tenderly, effeminately.
Mulier, mulieris, f. ge. a woman, properly she that is no vigin, and by translation, a weake and effeminate person.
Mulier, is sometyme vled for a wyfe.
Mulier, pro ea vel illa dicitur.
Muliercula, la, f. g. a diminutive of Mulier.
Mulierarius, a, um, that foloweth or doteth on women. also that whiche is doen or prepared by women.
Mulieraria manus, womans helpe, or rather a company of womanly or effeminate persons.
Muliero, sui, are, to effeminate or make lyke a
woman.
Mulierofitas, atis, f. m. gen. the vice of louing
many women.
Mulierofus, a, um, of or belongynge to women.
Mulierofus, si, m. g. a great loue of women.
Mulio, onis, m. g. a dyure of mules, a mulet-tour. It is also a certayne kynde of gnatto.
Mulionius, a, um, that belongeth to a mulet or.
Mulius, i, m. ge. idem quod Mulio, after Cales-pine. But Dion in that place of Horace rebeth Philus.
Mulleus, ei, m. ge. a kynde of shewes of purple coloure, whiche the hynges of Alba ware, and afterwarde the noble men of Rome.
Mullulus, i, a diminutive of Mullus.
Mullus, i, m. gen. a fyne of a meane quantitee, hauynge two barbes or warres on the nether lyppe, the coloure towardes greene, wyth some yealow lynes, whiche some haue thought to be called a mullette. In greke it is called Trigle.
Among the auncient Romayns it was in suche estimation, that in the tyme of Claudius the emperour, Sinius Celer, one that had been Consull, payed for one of the sayde fyshes. viii.
thousande sesterios, whiche after the rate of this ptesent tyme, is of our moneye. lii. l. xiii. s.
iiii. d. or after Constalles accorde. 40. pound sterlinge, with whiche wyrd is vled for a baxbyll, and so it cometh by the description to be.
Mulseus, a, um, sweete as honny.
Mulseus sapor, a sweete and pleasant taste.
Mulsum, i, n. g. wyne and honny sodden together,
sweete wyne, bastard or mulcabel.
Mulfus, a, um, any lyeout myxt with honny. also sweete, delectable.
Mulsa loqui, to speake fayre and pleasant wordes, to flatter one.
Mulsa mea, my sweetynge.
Multa, re, f. g. a penaltie, a fine, a merccment or fozsaite. loke Multa.
Multam petere, to swe one to haue him paye
the penaltie or fozsaite.
Irrogare multam, to condempne one to paye
the penaltie, fozsaite or amercement.
Multratus, a, um, petyninge to a fozsaite or payne assayed.

Multatus, a, um, condemned to pay the forfeits.
Multatio, ōnis, f. g. a condemning to pay a restcernment, a punishment by the purse.
Multangulus, a, um, that hath many corners.
Multesima pars, a parte representing an infinite quantitie.
Multibarbus, a, um, he that hath muche beard on his beard.
Multibibus, a, um, he that drinketh muche.
Multicaudus, a, um, full of tales.
Multiculus, le, haung many stalkes.
Multicanus, a, um, that is very holow.
Multicolor, ōnis, com. g. of diuers colours.
Multifacio, fēci, facere, to make muche of, to esteem muche.
Multifariam, and aduerbe, many waies, in many facions.
Multifarie, idem.
Multifarius, a, um, diuers in manners and consditions.
Multifer, ra, rum, bearyng abundantly, or bea-ryng many thynges.
Multifidus, a, um, haung many fittes, cliftes or creuises, diuided in many partes, full of scotches.
Multiforacilis, le, with many holes.
Multiforis, re, and Multiforus, a, um, that hath dyuers holes.
Multiformis, me, of many facions or figures.
Multiformiter, in diuers facions, diuersely.
Multigēneris, re, of dyuers kyndes.
Multigenus, a, um, idem.
Multinguis, ge, and Multilingus, a, um, diuers, manyfolde, of many soyes.
Multilingues literæ, letters intreating of diuers matters.
Multiloquus, a, um, full of speche, that hath many wordes.
Multimodus, a, um, of diuers soyes, facions, or manners.
Multinūmus, a, um, haung muche monye, or that toherwith one getteth muche monie.
Multipartitus, a, um, beyng diuided into many partes.
Multipes, multipedis, and Multipeda, x, for. g.
 haung many fete.
Multiplex, leis, om. g. manifold, diuers soyes.
Multiplex animus, a variable or chaungeable
 mynde.
Multiplicabilis, le, that maye bee multiplied or augmented.
Multiplicatio, ōnis, for. g. multiplyng or aug-mentyng.
Multiplicatus, a, um, multiplied, augmented.
Multipliciter, diuersely or manyfolde.
Multiplico, aui, are, to multiplie or to make much moze, to augment.
Aes alienum multiplicare, to renne moze and moze in debte.
Multiplicare gloriam, to encrease or augment ones glory.

Multipotens, enis, om. g. of great power, that can do muche.
Multiscius, a, um, knowyng muche.
Multisonorus, a, um, that maketh a great noyse or sound.
Multisonus, a, um, haung a great sound, or mas-ny soundes.
Multitia, ōnis, neu. g. plu. garmentes made of fine shreds of sylke, whiche pappelye women bid vse.
Multinagus, a, um, wandying muche abroad.
Multitudo, inis, for. gen. a multitude or great numbre.
Multitudo aquæ, abundance of water.
Multitudo, he that seeth muche.
Multivolus, a, um, that willety or despyeth many and dyuers thynges.
Multo, & Multo, aui, are, to punyssh, to pun-nysh by the purse, to condemne, to puttro, to intreate yll, to disorde, to vexe, to put to pyne.
Exilio aliquem multare, to condemne to bannyshment.
Morre multare, to punyssh by deathe, to put to deathe.
Multare verberibus, to beate.
Multari virgis, to be whipped.
Multari patria, to exile, to bannysh.
Multare bonis omnibus, to putte one besyde all that euer he hath, to condemne hym to lese al his goodes.
Male multabo ipsum, I will punyssh hym sherpely.
Multata consilia à fortuna, whan fortune turs neth ones purposes to his great displeasure.
Multare matrimonio, to deuoye or dissolue marriage.
Multo, ioygned to aduerbes & prepositions doeth
 augment the vertue or vehemencie of thepm.
Multo aliter, and Multo secus, far otherwyse.
Multo ante, longe before.
Multo ante ponere, to pfectre a great deale.
Multo præstat, it is muche better.
Multo minoris vëdidit, he tolde it for muche lesse.
Is quæstus nunc est multo vberimus, by so dōyng (as the worlde goeth nowe) a man maye geat a meruaylous good liuing, or now a daies, that is the verape chiefe and principall waie to geat monye enough.
Multopere, for Magnopere.
Multum, an aduerbe, signifieth muche. Sometime a longe season.
Non ita multum, not so greatly, not so longe
 tyme.
Multum fleuit, he dyd wepe bitterlye, a great
 whyle.
Multum tacuit, he helde his peace a greate
 whyle.
Salue multum, God speede hertilye, god geue you an hundred good mozowes.
Sulpitio vtebare multum, you were verate fas-militar with Sulpitius.

Multus, a, um, muche, many.
Multus in opere, oftentimes in business, of verate muche occupied.
Multus sermo ad multum diem, muche comunication a great parte of the daye.
Multa nocte, late in the nyght.
Multo mane; in the moynynge betwene.
Multus in admiratione, greatly esteemed of sette by.
Multus in eo fuit, he spake muche of that matter, Of he was verie busy in that thyng.
Multa, for Multum, muche.
Multis modis; byuers wayes, also greatly, earnestly.
Nomen turm multum est, in his locis, ye be muche spoken of in these quarters.
De multa nocte profectus est, he departed forth late in the night.
Multis partibus maiorem esse, to bee muche greater.
Multi sudoris est, it is a veraye payneful matter, Wheremuste take great payne and trauble in it.
Multissimus, is sometyme used for the superlatiue.
Multus, sometyme for Multiplex.
Minus multi, fewer persons.
Mulca, a ryuer of Mauritania.
Mulus, i, m. g. a mule. also a certayne fythe.
Muli mariani, forkes, wheron fardelles were trusted and bozne by men.
Muli mariani, a prouerbe referred vnto them, whiche bee obedient vnto euery comandement, bee it neuer so greuous. It maie also be applied vnto them, which be inuolued in perpetuall and intollerable labours and businessse.
Muli mutuum scabunt, Mules doe gnaw one an other. A prouerbe, applied to persons yll and defamed, whan one of them commendeth the other.
Munda, a citie of Spayne.
Mundanus, a, um, worldely, of of the world.
Munditer, cleanly.
Mundities, ei, & Munditia, x, f. g. cleanlyesse.
Mundifico, aui, are, to clense.
Mundo, aui, are, to wype, to make cleane.
Mundulus, a, um, to curpous in trymmyng it selfe.
Mundus, i, ma. ge. the world, a womans whole attyre or oznamentes.
Mundus, a, um, cleane, neate.
Munerâlis, le, perteyning to gyftes.
Munerârius, rij, m. g. he that at his owne charge maketh pastyme vnto the people, with men taughte of purpose, to fyghte hande to hande vnto the utterance.
Munero, aui, are, to rewarde.
Muneror, âris, âri, idem.
Mungo, xi, gere, to make cleane, proppely the nose,

Munis, drum, n. g. plu. offices due to be done of any state or condiction of men by the lawe.
Munia regis obire, To take on him the charge and office of a thing.
Belli pacisque munia, offices or charges, that men beare other in warre or peace.
Municeps, nicipis, com. ge. a citisen of burgesse enioyng the libertees of the towne. Amonge the Romans proppely they that were receiued and made free of the citie.
Municipâlis, de, primately or peculially belonsyng to one citie.
Municipale ius, the priuate lawe of euery particular citie.
Municipalia magisteria, ciuile offices in euery citie or towne.
Municipârim, towne by towne.
Municipium, ij, n. gen. euery citie or towne, haueyng the same libertees that the citie of Rome had. A citie or towne incorporate, haueyng their proppre officers and lawes.
Munifex, nificis, om. gene. that hath or doeth take the charge or office, committed to hym to dooe, that is in office.
Munificè, largely, bountifully, liberally.
Munificentia, x, f. g. liberallitee in geuyng of rewarde, largenesse, bountee.
Munificus, a, um, liberall, bounteous, free of gyft.
Munificentior, moze liberall. Munificentissimus, most liberall. In the olde tyme Munifici, were taken for them, whiche consented to that, whiche their friendes dyd or spake.
Munimen, inis, & munimentum, i, n. g. a fortification of a towne or castell.
Munio, iui, ire, to fortifie, to prepare, to repayre.
Munire à frigore, to arme hym, or make defence agaynst the colde.
Munire viam, to make the waye of suche sorte that no man maye passe. sometyme to make a waye, that one maye passe easily, also to make a causey.
Aditum munire, to make a way to a thyng or persone.
Hortum munire, to enclose his gardeyn.
Munis, he that beareth the charges, whiche the people shoulde dooe.
Munitio, ônis, fce. g. a fostresse or stronge holde for the warres.
Munito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Munio.
Munitor, ôris, m. g. he that dooeth fortifie.
Munitus, a, um, made stronge to defende, fortified, fenced.
Munus, muneris, n. g. a gyft, a present, a charge, a dultie, or office, a gratuitee or benefitte, a frendely pleasure shewed to a man.
Munera, common plaies or gaye syghtes for the people to beholde, to reioyre them, prepared by officers of cities, as in Rome sundrye plaies, swoorde plaiers called Gladiatores, huntynge of wylde beastes. Also nowe in the citie of London, the watches and syghtes on

Munus wize, Cicero. to giue or to giue
Omni manere vite, in all shippes, wherewith
Comumpere aliquem muneribus, to corrupte
Tanti munus est, it is your partie or office
Ad omne officij munus instruere, to instruct Munus promissi conficere, To doe that one Deferre munus, to appoint an office or charge Munus fungi, defungi, perfungi, explore, exequi, administrare, efficere, to doe the of-Munusculum, i. n. ge. a littell gifte or present, a Manychia, drum, the solemnities of ballies
Munychia, an hyll towne. Chetronesus.
Munychyates, a citee in Arabia Petrea, where Mahumetes sepulchre is, called nowe Medina Talnabi.
Murana, s. f. g. a lampre.
Mura nula, s. f. ge. a small chayne, which Muralis, le, pertaynyng to a walle or bulwarke.
Muralis corona, a garlande geuen vnto hym, wher fyre shaled the walles and entered, in the sige of a towne or citie.
Ictus muralis, a stroke that one hath from one Muralis herba, an herbe called Peritojie or Heliojie, idem quod Helixine.
Machine murales, ingins to ouerthrowe and beate downe walles.
Muratus, a, um, walled.
Murcea, s. the goddess of slouth.
Murcidus, a, um, without aduilement, slouth-full, folythe.
Murciolum, li. n. ge. the seede of that, whiche is called Lentiscus.
Murcus, ci. m. ge. a slouthfull or sluggie person, whiche doeth ent of his shombe, because he will not go to warre.
Murex, muricis, ma. gen. a shell fythe, of whom cometh the lycour, whiche maketh purple colour. Sometyne it signifieth the same colour.
also an herbe, whiche groweth in a pytte, where no sunne shyneth. Murex, is also the Marpisse of a stone or rock.
Murgentina vina, a certayne kinde of wines.
Murgino, au, arc, to tary, to bee slouthfull.
Murgis, a hosome of the sea in Spayne.
Murgitana regio, a countreie in the south partes of Spayne.
Murgiso, onis, maf. gen. an ybell or slouthfull
person.
Muria, s. f. ge. a maner of sauce, wherby they

[illegible]

Mus, muris, m. g. a mouse or ratte. Mus araneus, a hynde of wyse valley. Mus, whiche if it go ouer a beastes backe, he shall bee lame in the thynge, if it bite any beaste, it shall lech up to the hert and the head dyeth. Mus vrbani, a mouse of the cite. Musa, x, f. g. a sweete songe. Musa, arum, Muses, whiche were maydens, whome poetes feigned to be the daughters of Iupiter and Minerva, and that they were ladies and governeours of poeys and musike. They were in numbre nine, as is shewen before. Some call them geners of eloquence, and do name them goddesses. It is sometime taken for poeys or study of humanitie. Musa mansuetiores, studies more gentill or delectable. Musis auersus, he that hath forsaken the studie of eloquence, or that is vnapt to lerne or study. Delectare se cum musis, to delecte hym selfe with study. Musica, Musica, & Musiva, bee markes couerynge peynted, that in some places they seme to bee embored out, in some place grauen, although it be all playne. Musarum, ei, m. g. an house, wherinto men lerne in all sciences, vnto to teapayze, and to dispute, and maye bee well bled for a college, or house of learned men. It is also an house dedicated to the Muses, such one was fyrst made by the kynges of Egypte, called Ptolomei, in Alexandria. Museus, a, um, of the Muses. Museus, the name of thye auncient poete, one in the tyme of Orpheus, whiche went with Jason to the wyppynge of the fleete of golde. Another of Thebes the sonne of Champe, before the battayle of Troye. The thyrde of Ephesus in the tyme of Cumes and Italus kynges of Pergamum. Musca, x, f. g. a flye. Muscaria, x, f. g. a byrd. Muscarium, ij, neu. ge. a flappe to dyspaye awaye flies. It is also the topp of fenell, dyll, and other lyke herbes, wherin the feedes be. Muscarius, a, um, perteynyng to flies. Araneus muscarius, a spider that taketh flies. Muscentron, ti, n. g. a certayn rose that springeth of a stalke with manye smalle braunches, and hath leaues lyke to an olyue tree. Muscerda, x, f. g. mouse dunge. Muschus, a beaste which beareth muske, a muske catte. Muscinus, a, um, of a flye. Muscio, onis, f. g. a catte. Muscor, aris, ari, to be couered with mosse. Muscōsus, o, um, mosse, couered with mosse. Muscipula, x, f. g. a trappe, wherewith myce or ratte bee taken. Muscula, x, f. g. a small flye.

Musculōsus, a, um, harde of fyfte with muscles of byawnes of harde fleshe and quaters. Musculus, i, m. g. a litle muske. Musculus, a litle muske, wherby they are defended, whiche doe appoche the walles of a plate de- fensed, to fill the byrth. It is also a litle flye, whiche guideth the whale, that he doe not come bynne to rockes. Also a litle muske of hard fleshe compacte with sinewes in the bodye, whiche doe inclose the spirituall members. Musculus, i, m. g. muske, whiche groweth in welles and other moyst places. Sometime on trees, they growe in cold countreys. Musculus marinus, a mosse growynge in the sea, wherby corall both springe. Musculum demeret, he moweth before the mow be growen, he is to haste. Musca, orum, n. g. a lobe Musca. Musica, x, o, Musice, ces, fer, genetis, musice. It was bled in olde tyme for studie of humanitie and liberrall knowlage, and especiall poeys. Artem tractare musicam, to wyppre comedies. Musica, orum, n. g. plu. musice. Musice, delectabile, or in an harmonye, also pertyneth, that nothyng lacketh. Musicus, a, um, perteynyng to muske. Musicum studium, the studie in makynge of comedies. Musicus, i, m. g. a musician. Musimon, simonis, m. g. a litle nagge, also, or moyle. Musmones, thepe with heary twelle. Musitabundus, a, um, that speaketh to hym selfe piously, or muttering betwene his teethe. Musitandus, a, um, to bee secretlye considered and not spoken or vttered abroad. Musito, aui, are, to speake or talke alone, a frequentative of Musso, toke there. Musso, aui, are, to mutter betwene the teethe, as they doe that dare not speake for feare, to murmur, to repine, to grout, and complayne with soft noyse, to talke softly and secretly, to kepe silence, also to doubt. Non decet muscare bonos, Good men shulde not kepe silence: or it is not meete that honest men should holde their peace. Tace, musca, holde thy peace, kepe silence, not a woide but mum. Muscat dicere, he is in doubt whether it bee best to tell it or no. Mustace, ces, fer, ge. a tree hangynge leaues lyke a laurell, but greater and weaker. Mustaceus, ij, m. g. Mustaceum, ei, n. g. a cake or paste made to comforte the stomake. Mustarius, a, um, belongynge to must or new wine. Mustax, a hynde of laurell, with a great leafe. Mustela, la, fer, ge. a beaste called a weasel, also a flye lyke to a lampyre, or as it seemeth by Plinius, a lampyre it selfe. Mustela,

Mustela, a mus name, which is much much.

Mustelinus, a, um, of a mustel.

Colore mustelino est, of a tawny like a fox.

Mustus, a, um, of a mustel of new wine.

also ferre, new.

Liber mustus, a book lately made, that is yet fresh and new.

Calculus mustus, waste chest.

Poma mustea, apples sweet like new wine.

Mustulentus, a, um, idem quod Musteus.

Musticollis, a, um, of a maker's collar, wherby he was perch'd there, of an instrument made with two sides, betwene the whiche the shoe is putte, whyle the sole is in setting.

Mustum, i, neu. gen. new wine, new ale, or wurt, new beer, or any thing that is new and fresh.

Mustus, a, um, new, pong, late made, ferre.

Mutabilis, le, changeable, mutable, unconstant.

Mutabilitas, atis, fer. ge. changeableness, al-terypg, waterpge, inconstancie.

Mutatio, onis, fer. m. gen. a change. also an exchange.

Mutatio sedis, changepge of ones dwellinge place, banishment.

Mutatus, a, um, changed, altered.

Quantum mutatus ab illo Hectore, &c. how farre vnlike that Hector? &c.

Muticus, a, um, an adiective.

Mutica spica, an eare of coarne without a beed.

Mutilatus, a, um, diminished in some thinge, or where some thinge is cutte of, maymed, made vnprefect.

Mutili, horned beastes of nature, lackinge ho-rnes, as oxen, goates, &c.

Mutilo, aui, are, to cut of, to minthe, to take a way, to mayme, to make lame or vnprefect.

Mutilus, i, m. g. looke Mutulus.

Mutilus, a, um, lackinge some principall parte, mutilate, lame, maymed, vnprefect.

Mutina, e, fer. m. g. a citie in Italy, called in the vulgar tongue Modona, whiche is now vnder the subiection of the duke of Ferrare, where was the greate batayle betwene Augustus and Brutus.

Mutinenfis, fe, of Mutina.

Mutinenfis color, a naturall colour, as wolle or clothe neuer died.

Mutio, iui, ire, to speake softly, or with an vn-prefect boice, to mutter.

Mutito, aui, are, to feast one an other. also to exercise, or dooe a thinge often.

Mutius, was a noble familie of the auncient Ro-mayns, in the whiche one was called Mutius Scevola, who at the time that Popilena kynge of Etruscanes, laied siege to Rome, came in a beggers apparayle into the campe of Popilena, and intendinge to haue slayn the kynge, slew his secretary. wherby he was taken and brought to a great fire to be burned, into the whiche he willinglye cast his hande that had sayde to sleaze the kynge, and suffered it to be burned to ashes, after which that daye of him, there were three hundred that had vowed to make lyke at-tempte. After which the kynge beinge abashed, offered them immortall courage, made pact with the Romaynes, takinge pledges of them: and repelyng the sieg departed withoute molestyng of them or their allyes.

Muto, aui, are, to change, to translate, to batter or exchange one thinge for an other, to translate from one place to an other, to change from one nature or coloure to an other.

Haud muto factum, I doe not repent me.

Ego quod dixi haud mutabo, I will not vs-
e that I haue ones sayd.

Fidem mutare, not to hepe promple.

Id mutauit, he hath changed his minde in
that.

Sedem & locum mutare, to forsake his countey of habitation, to go dwell in a strange place.

Solum mutare, idem.

Mutare consilium, to change his purpose.

Mutare mores, to change his conditions.

Mutare aliquid cum aliquo, to make an exchange with one for any thinge.

Mutare aliam aliam, to change one thinge
for an other.

Mutare merces, to batter, to change ware for ware.

Mutare gaudium in merore, to turne ioy and merriment into sadness.

Exilium patria sede mutauerat, he banished him selfe voluntarily, he willingly wente into exyle.

Mutare se in formā alterius, to disguise ones selfe and make him lyke an other.

Mutari in marem, to become of the male kind.

Vestem cum aliquo mutare, to change co-lores or garments with one.

Mutare sedem ex sede, to go or fle from place to place.

Si queam mutare, If I could amed the faulte or make it otherwyle.

Mutari ciuitate, to be made free of one citie, &
lose the tyght of an other that he had before.

Muto, onis, the priate membze of a man.

Mutatio, onis, f. g. a borrowpge.

Mutuatius, a, um, borrowed.

Mutulus, i, n. ge. a staie cut out of stone or tymber in buyldenge, to beare vp the summer or other lyke thinge. In masonry it is called a corbell, in tymber worke, a braggert, shoulderpge or such like.

Muticans, antis, om. g. desyryng to borrowe.

Mutunus, who was also called Priapus.

Mutuo, together, or one an other.

Mutuo diligebant, they loued one an other.

Mutuo, aui, are, to lende, sometyme to borrowe.

Mutuo

Mutuo, aris, ari, to borrow, to take of an other.
Mutuari in sumptum, to borrow money, to be some in business.
Mutē, mutually, one to an other.
Mutus, a, um, that can not speake, dumbe.
Mutum dices, Thou shalt perceiue me to be a dumbe man, and not to speake a worde.
Mutus illico, he was dumbe by and by, and had not a worde to say.
Magistratus mutus, the law.
Mutuum, i, n. g. a lene, that which is borrowed.
Mutuo appendere, to leude.
Mutuum rogare, to aske againe that which was lent, or desire one to leude vs.
Mutuum in amicitia, mutuall affection and loue in friendship.
Mutuas, a, um, lents or borrowed, mutual one for an other.
Argentum nusquam inuenio mutuum, I can borrow money no where.
Mutuas amor, mutual loue, where one loueth an other equally.
Mutuas pecunias sumere, to borrow money.
Mutua carne inter se vescuntur, The one eateth the flesh of the other.
Mutua inter se fiducia negligentiores sunt, by trustyng the one in the other, they bee more negligent.
Operas mutuas tradere, to help one an other.
Terror mutuas, when bothe the parties feare one an other.
Mutuis vulneribus se concidere, to wounde one the other very sore.
Mutuum mecum facit, he doeth for me, as I dooe for him.
Mutua sunt a me, I wyl to him as he wylleth to me, or I dooe by him as he dooeth by me, or I woulde him as good wyl as he woulde me.

M. ANTE. Y.

Mya, α, f. g. a shell fythe in the sea, called Bosphorus, which byngeth foot the littell redde stones, and rounde. it signifieth also a flie. It is also a childe's play called Rhodian blinde, which some call Myia.
My facere, to doubt, to be halfe a ferde.
Myagros, gri, m. g. a certayne herbe, haunge a stalk like fenell, the iuyce wherof is good for sores in the mouth.
Myagrus, called also Myodes, the god of flies.
Mychale, the name of a sozeresse in Ouide.
Mycana, α, & Mycenā, α, & Mycene, enes, a citee in the parte of Grecia called Peloponnesus and a littell region, where Agamemnon reigned called now Morea.
Myceneus, a, um, of Mycena.
Mycerinus, the sonne of Theops kyng of Aegypte.

Mychon, the name of a famous painter.
Mycopros, wife bunge.
Mycone, es, & Myconus, ni, one of the yles called Cyclades.
Myconi, people of that yle, which be naturally halde, and of theym halde men be called Myconi.
Midas, a moorme bydyng in beaues.
Mydia, an yle named also Delos.
Mydon, sonne of Atymnis, slayne by Antilocus, at the siege of Troy.
Mydriasis, sis, f. g. a sickness of the eyes, where no colour of the eyes is changed, but maketh them muche broder, all be it it taketh awaye the sight, or maketh a man to see the less: and the thynges which are seene, to seeme lesse than they are.
Mydusa, ca, quæ Anchusa.
Mygala, læ, f. g. a feld mouse, with a longe tounge, called a shewe.
Mygala, læ, f. g. a ratte.
Mygdonia, a parte of Macedonia, on the sea side where Niobe was touned into a stone. It is soote saith, that it is a part of Thracia, ioyngunge to Lydia. Solinus saith it was called Behrycia, and after Bithynia.
Mygonides, the son or nephew of Mygdonus.
Mygdonis, idis, fæ. ge. the daughter or neere of Mygdonus.
Mygdonus, the brother of Otreus.
Myla, a certayne towne.
Myla, α, f. g. an herbe, with a rote lyke an onion.
Mylachris, idem quod Mylacos.
Myle, idem quod moly.
Myle, es, fæ. g. a roote of docke or wylde sorrell, which being sodde, is good agaynst the toothache.
Mylachos, a butterfly, which is in mylles.
Mylas, a myll.
Mymphur, a tourners spindell or pynne, wherewith on he tourneth or worketh any thyng.
Myoctonos, the roote of Aconitum, which is good to kyl myle, called also luparia.
Myoparo, onis, a kynde of myppes used in the sea called Mare, Tirrenum, a fopst or other smalle myppe, that pyrates and robbers use commonly.
Myochnos, ni, m. g. a killer of myle.
Myoopia, pozeblindenesse.
Myoops, opis, he that can not see, but that he holdeth nere his eyes, pozeblind.
Mypsei, a people of Thracia, which yeldd to Darius.
Mysota, or rather Myosis, looke alsine.
Myra, a citee in Lycia.
Myrapidia, orum, a kynde of littell peares, very pleasant & odoriferous, and therefore be called Muscata, or Moscharula.
Myrarches, a capitayne of x. thousand men.
Myrades, many tymes ten thousande.

Myrias,

Myrias, adia, the number of ten thousande.
 Myrica, x, or Myrice, es, f. m. ge. called of the latynes Tamarix, of the apothecaries Tama-riscus, a littell bush called in Italy Tamarisco, in English Tamariske.
 Myrina, a queene of Amazons.
 Myrinus, ni, m. g. the male kynde of a lamprey,
 which hath a toothe out of his mouth.
 Myriophyllum, li, n. g. an herbe called Spils foyle.
 Myristica nux, a nutmygge.
 Myrlea, a towne of Bythinia.
 Myrmecias, a precious stone, hauing littell knotes lyke wartes.
 Myrmecides, a cūnyng carner of small thynges.
 Myrmecites, m. g. a stone, wherein is the figure of an emote.
 Myrmecium, ch, n. g. a kynde of spiders lyke an emote, hauing a blacke bealy with whyte spots tes, also a littell rough warte.
 Myrmicoleo, a lytle beast that deuoureth emotes.
 Myrmidones, the people called also Hellenes.
 Myrmilon, the name of a stage plaier.
 Myrmillones, were swoorde players, where the one prouoked the other to battayle.
 Myrobalanum, ni, n. g. a frute growng in India, lyke unto plummes or damsons, whereof bee diuers kyndes, whiche doo easly pouge all superfluous humours, and also comforteth nature, in so muche that a man whiche eateth them, beynge condite, shall not looke oldlie.
 Myrobrechari, or Myrobrechi, they which doo make sweete oyntmentes, or rather they, which be oynted or perfumed with sweete oyles.
 Myron, onis, the name of an excellent caruer.
 also olde oyle.
 Myropola, x, m. g. a seller of oyntmentes, or sweete oyles.
 Myropolium, ij, a place where oyntmentes are solde.
 Myrothesium, ij, neu. ge. a boxe of sweete oynt-
 mentes.
 Myrrha, x, f. m. gener. a sweete gumme called Myrre.
 Myrrhis, an herbe called mockerheruell, also an herbe lyke to hemlocke.
 Myrrha, the daughter of kyng Linyza, which losued hir owne father filthely.
 Myrheus, & Myrrhinus, a, um, of myrre.
 Myrrinum vinum, wine condite with myrre.
 Myrsenium, nij, n. g. a kynde of fenngyll, hauing greater leaues and a sharpe taste.
 Myrsinites, an herbe of the kynde of Scurge, also a precious stone, hauing the colour of honte, and sauour of Myrre.
 Myrsine, myrtus syluestris.
 Myrteria, sputge.
 Myrsinus, a citie in Peloponesus.
 Myrsun, a towne in the parte of Grece called Peloponesus.
 Myrsus, the father of Landau les.

Myrtans, a, um, or myrtidanus, a, um, that is made of Myrtels.
 Myrtetum, ti, ne. ge. a place where myrtell trees bee set.
 Myrtens, a, um, & Myrtinus, of myrtels.
 Myrtilus, a chariot man of kyng Oenomaus.
 Myrtidion, the herbe called Geranium.
 Myrtites, a kynde of oyle condite with myrtell.
 Myrtapetalum, li, neu. gener. the herbe called also Polygonatum, because it hath many knottes.
 Myrtoselinus, the herbe named moule ease.
 Myrtoum mare, a portion of the sea, whiche is betwene the sea called Aegeum & Ionium.
 Myrtus, i, f. m. g. a littell tree, bearyng beeries of sweete odour, a myrtle tree, or a myrt tree.
 Mys, ios, the name of a cūnyng grauer, also a shell fysh of the sea, called Mus aquatilis, &
 Mus marinus.
 Mysia, a countrey towarde Grehelande, whiche is diuided into twoo partes, heigher and the lower. the higher hath on the north, Dacia: on the east, Dalmatine: on the southe Macedonia:
 on the east Thrace: this is now called Seruia.
 The lower Mysia hath on the west Daciama:
 on the north Sermacie: on the east the sea Euxine: on the south Thrace. this is now called Valachie and Bulgarie. Ptolomeus writeth of two contries called Mysia, the more and the lesse, and bothe in Asia beyonde Bithynia, not farre from Ido.
 Myfi, certayne people.
 Myforum postremus habetur, prouerbi ally he is neglected and contemned: he is cast at the cartes aste.
 Mysta, x, m. ge. he that learneth or is experte in mysteries of religion.
 Mystagogus, gi, m. g. the chiefe interpreter of misteries and ceremonies.
 Mystrium, ij, neu. gener. a mistery, a thyng secrete or hidde in woordes or ceremonies, or a ceremonie, wherein some secret thyng is vnderstande.
 Mysticus, a, um, mysticall.
 Mystillus, a cokes name in Sparrall.
 Mystris, stris, m. g. a fysh called a sea mouse.
 Mystus, a certayne fysh.
 Mythologia, x, f. g. a declaration or exposition of fables.
 Mythos, a fable.
 Mythridates, looke Mithridates.
 Myrtitos, a kynde of meate vled of the bylandish men in Italy.
 Myfos, a kynde of begette, of the abundance
 wherof the countrey Mysia was named.
 Myxaria, that which the apothecaries call Sesbesten.
 Myxa, x, f. ge. the filth that cometh out of ones nose, snyuell.
 Myxon, onis, m. ge. snottie, he that hath a snyuelled nose, also a certayne fysh.
 Myxos,

Myxos, xi, m. g. a thuffe of a candell.
Myxus, a priest of Diana, glorious, and a skoute talker.

ABATHABA

a parte of Arab-bia felix, lying between the Persian sea, and the redde sea.

Naara, the handmaide of Eleospatra, that willingly died with hir maistresse.

Nabathe, people

inhabitinge the countrey called Arabia felix, very continent, & in preparing and hepyng their commodities, ryght prudent, as Strabo wis-seth, in whome ye may reade moze abundantly of theyr maners, not much expedient to be declared in this place.

Nabis, a beast in Ethiopie, haupng an head lyke a camell, a necke lyke an hore, and feete lyke an ore.

Nabius, a ryuer in Spayne.

Nablium, ij, neu. gen. an instrument of musike, much lyke an harpe, and hath a moze sweete and pleasant towne, called also Psalterium.

Nabriassa, or after some Nabriassa, a citee in Spayne.

Nabuchodonosor, the ninth kynge of Babylon, or the thirde kynge of Caldeis, named of Berosus, Nabogodrosus, of the hebrues Nabus-gadnasar. he by the occasion of his greate and wonderfull dominions, fell into such pyde, that he woulde haue his ymage honoured for
god. wherfoze Almighty god, sodenly transfourmed him in to an horrible monster, ha-uyng the head of an ore, the feete of a beare, the taylor of a lyon, and did eate hey as a beast. And after he had in that fourme dooen penaunce by the continuall praters of Daniell the prophete, god beyng moued with mercy, restored him to his pristinate fourme, and afterwarde he lyued well, and commaunded that the very god of heauen should be onely honoured. He was be-foze the incarnation of Chryste. 633. yeres. He reigned. xliiij. yeres.

Nacca, fullers of clothe.

Nactus, a, um, the participle of Nanciscor, signi-fifieth gotten or obteyned.

Inde nactus est laudem incomparabilem, thereby he hath gotten prayse incomparable.

Na, truly, or now in good sayth: also for valde or nimis, very greatly.

Na illi vehementer errant, Cruelly they bee farre out of the way, or in a wrong opinion.

Na ego multo lubentius emerim diuorrium Tarracina, Howe in good faith, I had lesse haue bought at Tarracina an house to lodge in.
-

Na ille facili me videretur patre, In saythe he shall haue me a gentyll father.

Na iste haud mecum sentit, He and I bee of farre contrary appetites, or he is nothing of my mynd or opinion.

Naera, a womans name.

Nania, a, or Nania, arum, f. gen. plu. a lamentable songe, songe at the deathe or buriall of a man. Sometime the songe that the nourse dooth wantonly synge, when she dauleth hir childe.

Nania, was also taken for a goddesse.

Nanius, a poete.

Nanius, a, um, of Nanius.

Nanius, i, m. gen. a molle or other lyke natural maske in the body.

Nagnia, called now Narnia, a citee in Italy.

Nagnata, a citee in Irelande.

Naides, elles or fappies, haunting ryuers and fountaynes.

Naim, a citee of Galilee.

Nais, naidis, a riuer in the east, which renneth out of the mountayne of Caucas, into the sea called Pontus. Also a nymphe of the water.

Nam, a conjunction causall, sette most commonly in the fyrste parte of a sentence, and sometime doeth not so much shew the cause of the thyng, as the beginnyng or eneryng into the matter.

Nam, in the seconde or othet place, signifieth for. Sometime it is putte for Autem, following onely the sentence, withoute any other signification.

Namquid, and Namquis, for Sed quid, and sed quis, or Quid autem, or quis autem.

Nam quid ita? And why so I pray thee?

Nam quando in bonum verteris vitia, id est quando autem.

Nam est longe aliter in versibus, Cruelly or certaynly it is. &c.

Namita, people of Pautes.

Nanciscor, nactus sum, nancisci, to get, to ob-teyne, to fynde.

Cum plus otij nactus ero, when I shall haue moze leysure.

Nancisci aliquem otiosum, To fynde one at leysure, or without busynesse.

Spem maximam nactus est, he hath conceiued
a very good hope.

Si nihil nanciscor mali, if I get no ylle, or if I chaunce to haue no yll by the matter.

Pisces ex sententia nactus sum, I haue gotten suche fysh as I would haue.

Nancitor, for Nactus erit.

Nanque, sette afoze other woordes, signifieth truely, put after, it betokeneth for. Sometime for verum, or Sed.

Nanum, a littell byrde vessell, called also Scitus
lus barbarus,

Nanium, a littell woman.
 Nanius, a, um, a dwarf, or a verie littell person of thyng.
 Nannetes, a towne in littell Britayne, called Nannetes.
 Naocaphithum, idem quod Nascaphithum.
 looke there.
 Napacti, people in Ethiopia.
 Napæi, people of the Ile of Lesbos.
 Naper, Goddesses of flowers and wooddes, or rather albe, haunting wooddes.
 Naphtha, is, f. g. a certayne kynde of maunde or chylit stape, somewhat liquide, (as Strabo wytteth) whereunto if fyre bee putte, it kende leth in such wyse, that if a lystell water bee cast thereon, it burneth moze frequently, and may be extincted onely with greate abundance of water, or elles with vineger, alme & hyde lyne. There is wonderfull plentie thereof founde by Babylon in the countrey called Ecbatanis, as Plutarchus wytteth in the life of great Alexander.
 Napina, a gardeyn of nauetes.
 Napitz, people of Septhia.
 Napus, pi, a floure, or as other call it, turnep, longe rape, or nauet gentle, it is a kynde of Raspes. It is soone boyled, and nouryseth but littell. The grekes dooe call it Bunias.
 Nar, a ryuer whiche runneth into Cyber. There is an other riuier of that name in Germanye, whiche cometh out of the greates ryuer Danus
 bius, or Donow.
 Narane, a ryuer in Dalmatia, about an hundred myles from Epidaurus.
 Narbafis, a towne in Spayne.
 Narbo Martius, called commonly Narbona, a cite in France.
 Narbonensis prouincia, a parte of Gallia, hauing on the east, the mountaynes Alpes, on the southe Mare Gallicum, on the weste the mountaynes Pirenei, on the northe the mountayne Iura: It conteyneth the countreys called Saoupe, Dolphyn, Prouance, and Langues docke. It was in the olde time called Gallia Brachata.
 Nascaphithum, looke Nascaphithum.
 Narcissinus, a, um, of Narcissus.
 Narcissites, a precious stone, whiche hath beines like Iuie.
 Narcissus, the sonne of the riuier Zephirus, which was tourned into the floure called Narcissus.
 It is also a certayne riuier.
 Narcissus, fsi, m. g. an herbe and floure, hauing
 the leaues nexte the grounde like to Daffadill, or broder lyke to a Lyte, the stalk bare and greene. In the toppe thereof is a floure white or purple, the seebe in a thynne skynne, blacke great and longe, the roote beynge rounde. It is called white Laus tibi, or white daffodill.
 Narcotieus, a, um, stupefactiue, or makynge a membe insensible.

Nardus; nardus, um, of Nardus, smelling of hauing the taste of Cardus.
 Nardus pyra, sentayne sweete peates.
 Nardus, i, f. g. a plant, wherof Plinie remem-bryeth many kyndes, but Spica Nardus is of Gas-cone and Plinie supposed to come out of Indie, whiche some men thinke were lacke. It is called Spikenard. That whiche we haue, cometh out of Syria.
 Nardus gallica, some suppose it to be lauandee or that whiche is called Spike.
 Narica, ca, f. g. a certayne littell fyre, whiche
 swimmeth very swifly.
 Naris, ris, f. g. the nose thille.
 Emanet naris homo, a wittie man that hath a fyne iudgement in thynges.
 Obese naris homo, he that smelleth nothing,
 he that hath a grosse iudgement in matters.
 Indulgere naribus, to moke, to scozne.
 Narius, a ryuer in Umbria.
 Naritia, an Ile in the sea Aegeum.
 Narna, or Narnia, a towne in Italy, also a cite of Umbria.
 Narnia, or Narnienses, people of Narnia.
 Narniensis ager, the countrey aboute Narnia,
 where the grounde with rayne waxeth dustie,
 and in drye weather durty.
 Narona, a ryuer of Dalmatia, called nowe Narenta.
 Narrabilis, le, that may bee shewed, declared,
 tolde, or spoken.
 Narratio, onis, f. g. a narration or reposte of a thyng, a shewyng, a declaration, a tellyng, an expyessyng.
 Narratiuncula, le, f. g. a littell narration.
 Narrator, oris, masc. gene. he that sheweth or tellyth.
 Narratus, us, m. g. a shewyng, a declaration, a tellyng.
 Narratus, a, um, shewed, tolde, declared.
 Narro, auis, are, to shewe, to tell, to reposit, to declare, to expresse, also to say.
 Narrare stomachum, to speake what he thyn-keth, to vtter his stomake.
 Narrato omnem rem ordine, shew him all the matter in order as it is.
 Bonum ingenium narras adolescentis, By your sayng the yonge man is of a good and gentyll nature.
 Quid narras? what saiest thou? a manner of admiracion and miruaplyng as one should say: it is a wonderfull thyng that ye tell.
 Opinor narras? Say you I thynke?
 Narro tibi, I say to you.
 Quas mulieres narras? of what women speake you? or what women be they that ye speake of.
 Narses, a mans name, an Eunuch of the Em-perour Iustinian, whiche was a valiaunt and prudent capytayne.
 Nartes, people of Italy, called also Interamnates.

Narthecium, cii, n. g. a plate apte of conuient to hepe spices of medicines in.
Narthex, hécis, m. ge. the herbe called Ferula,
looke there.
Narytium, a towne of the people called Locrensses, where is greates plentie of excellent and good pische.
Nasamones, people dwellinge in the myddell of the sandes of Libya. Amonge whome is founde den the precious stone called Carbuncle.
Nasamonites, tis, m. gen. a stone of colour sans guine, with littell blacke veynes.
Nasamorrius, & Nasamoniacus, a, um, of the people Nasamones.
Nascaphum, a very precious and odoriferous woodde, brought out of Indie, whereof they make very pleasant perfumes.
Nascor, nasceris, sci, to be bozne, in herbes of trees it signifieth to spryng or grow.
Nascitur ventus, The wynde riseth or begyns neth to blawe.
Nasci in pedes, to be bozne the fete forword.
Natus ex tanta familia, descended of so riche and noble a familie.
Penelope natus, Penelope was his mother.
De pellice natus, hauynge an harlotte to his mother.
Ego profecto egregie ad miseriam natus sum, Truly I am notably bozne to misery, wretchednesse, misfortune, or aduersitee.
Ex me atque ex hoc natus es, I am thy mother, and this man is thy father.
Nasci iusta vxore, to be bozne in lafull wed-locke.
Natus summo genere, of a noble linage.
Natus male volente genio, bozne in an ill howse.
Natus animo leni, he that is of nature gentill and easy to be pleased.
Natus laudi, bozne to prayse and renoume.
Annos ad quinquaginta natus, well nere fiftie yeres olde.
Copiosissime nasci, to spryng or growe very plentyfully.
Nascuntur fascina, discidia. &c. they spryng
ryle or be ingendred.
Vnde iste error natus sit, wherof this erreour
shd come, rise or spryng.
Ne plus mali nasceretur, That no more mis-chiefe shoulde ryle of the matter.
Nata est sententia, the opinion didde ryle or spryng. Nata herba ad spem fœniculæ, The grasse did growe or spryng to the tyme of hys haruest.
Nascens, entis, om. g. growyng, spryngyng.
Nasica, the surname of a noble Romayne called Scipio.
Nasiterna, a vessell with handels, and a wyde mouth.
Nasium, a citee in Fraunce called Nanse.
Nassa, a, fœ. g. a weele or bowenet, wherewith fythe is taken.

Nassus, si, f. g. a centepur tree, the woodde where of is of purple colour, and groweth plentifully
in the yle of Medera.
Nastes, the brother of Amphimachus, which came to helpe the Trojans.
Nastiriosi, they whiche see better in the euenynge then at nowne: and can see nothyng but that is harde at them eyes.
Nastipades, a kynde of spite cakes.
Nastocopi, they whiche make those cakes.
Nastophagi, they whiche ate those cakes.
Nasturtium, ii, an herbe called Cresser, which was among the Persians in suche estimation, that the pongemen, when they wente on huntyng, dyd eate none other meate, supposynge that thereby, they spyrites were made more quicke and liuely.
Nasus, i, m. g. a nose. Sometyme it is putte for sharpnesse or quickenesse in speche. wherefore we say of him that can prettily saunte or moke one so that vnyth it can be perceiued, Hic na-sum haber.
Naso suspendere, to moke couertly.
Nasus collisus, a nose as flatter as a cache beaten to ones face.
Nasutulus, a, um, a diminutiu of Nasutus.
Nasute, wittily, mockyngly.
Nasutula, a shywde wenche.
Nasutus, ti, m. g. he that hath a great nose. also he that can taunt or moke wittily. Sometyme it signifieth him that hath a great instrument.
Natales, natalium, pl. the stocke or familie, where
of one cometh, parentage.
Natalibus clarus, noble of blood.
Obscuri natales, base blood.
Natalibus restituere, to make a gentylman,
and to geue to him armes.
Natalitia dare, to make a feaste at the day of ones byrthe.
Natalis, le, and Natalitius, a, um, perteynyng to birthe, as, Natalis dies, the day of the byrth or natiuitee. Natalis, is sometime spryngyng or growyng. Natalis, is the seede, wherof anye thyng spryngeth or is ingendred.
Natalis, lis, m. g. Natale, lis, and Natalitium, tij, n. g. the date of ones byrthe.
Celebrare natalem suum, to hepe solemn the day of ones byrthe.
Urbs natalis, the day on the whiche the citee was first builded.
Natalitia predicta, diuinations of astronomers, concernyng ones natiuitee.
Natales diuersarum gentium, the original or beginnyng of diuers nations and countreys.
Natilis, le, that swymmeth or can swymme.
Natatile, lis, n. g. a ponde or other place, where geese, duckes, or fyshes doe swymme.
Natatilius, a, um, that whiche doeth swymme.
Natator, oris, m. g. he that swymmeth.
Natatorium, tij, neut. gener. a place made to swymme

Naucleus, ri, and Nauclearius, rij, m. g. a ship maister.

Naucratis, a cite in Egipte, the inhabitants whereof be called Naucratice.

Naufragium, gij, n. g. wrecke on the sea, comes eyne it signifieth losse or detrimēt.

Naufragium facere, to lose a ship by trespit: v
by translation, to have great losse of gooddes.

Naufugia rei familiaris, great losse of goods
des.

Hæcyna ex hoc naufragio tabula me delectat, This only apde, healte or succour in this great calamitee doeth comforte and delite me.

Naufagus, gi, m. gen. he that escapeth on lyue after the shippe is lost. It is somtyme taken for one fallen in powertee.

Naufagus patrimonio, one that by his owne faute is fallen in powertee.

Naufagus, a, um, pertainyng to shipwrecke.

Nauia, æ, f. g. a holow tree like a shippe, occu-pyed whan grapes be gathered.

Naufagus, a, um, idem quod naufragus.

Nauicula, æ, f. g. a little shippe.

Nauicella, a diminutive of nauicula.

Nauicularius, rij, m. g. he that letteth shippes to
hye. somtyme a pylote, a ship maister.

Nauiculator, oris, idem.

Nauiculor, aris, ari, to gouerne a shippe. Comes time to go on the water in a shippe or bote.

Nauicularia, æ, f. g. gen. the arte of gouernynge a shippe or rowyng.

Nauiculariam facere, to freight a shippe, to sette shipps to hye for carryng of marchandise.

Nauigabilis, le, where a shippe may passe, na-uigable.

Nauigatio, ðnis, f. g. exercise in goynge on the water, saylyng.

Nauiger, uigera, gerum, whiche will beare a vessell.

Mare nauigerum, The sea that will beare a vessell.

Nauigium, gij, n. g. all sortes of vessels to sayle or rowe in. somtyme for saylyng. also the con-ductyng or gydyng of a shippe.

Nauigia speculatoria, brigantines or shippes of espiall.

Infrænare nauigia anchoris, to cast anchoys,
to stae the shipps with boowyng of anchoys.

Instruere nauigia armamentis, to founythe
the shippes with abillimentes or takelyng.

Vectoria nauigia, shippes to transpote and conueigh men from place to place. passengers.

Nauigium interiit, the ship was lost.

Nauigiolum, li, n. g. a littell barke.

Nauigo, aui, are, to go or be caried on the was-ter in a vessell, to sayle.

Nauigare in portu, to be in सुरtee, to be out of daungier.

Nauigatur, the impersonall.

Nauis, uis, f. g. a shippe.

Nauem deprimere, to drowne a shippe.

Nauis pompatica, a ship made with chambers and banettyng parlours, sayle to pleasure.
It is also called Nautilmus.

Rector nauis, a shippe maister.

Modicum nauis, the gubynge or gouernyng of a shippe.

Actaria nauis, to be a Actarius.

Longa nauis, great shippe of gallies, sayle on both with oars and sayles.

Clauer oneraria, great shippe made for burden of cartage, suche as halles be, that be only the sayle and not oars.

Acrata & Rostrata nauis, shippe of gallies, that haue theyr bowes armed with brasse.

Piscatoria nauis, a fishing bote.

Prætoris nauis, the admiralles shippe.

Vulnerata nauis, a shippe broken, pected, or bowed with ordinaunce.

Constrata, and recta nauis, covered shippe.

Deferri nauis, to be caried, or sayle on the sea in a shippe.

Appellere nauem, looke Appello.

Conscendere naues, to take shippyng.

Descendere ad naues, To goe downe to the rode where shippes lie.

Naues construere, fabricare, edificare, faces-re, to make or bunde shippes.

Moliri naues ab terra, To hyng the shippes from lande to take the sea.

Subducere naues, to hyng the shippes into the haun.

Reficere naues, to repayre shippes hurt by tempest or battayle.

Vna nauis est bonorum omnium, by translation, all good and honest citemis bee of one consent and myll together.

Nauita, tæ, idem quod Nauta.

Nauitas, ætis, f. g. diligence, scrpyng quicknesse.

Nauiter, for gnauiter, diligently, with dexteritee valiantly.

Nautilmus, a shippe or berge, that noble men use for pleasure, with gorgeous chambers and other ornaments.

Naula, læ, form, gen. an instrument of musike, called also Psalterium.

Naulium, a diminutive of Naula.

Naulium, a towne in Lumbardie.

Naulum, li, n. g. the fraye of sare paid for passage ouer the water.

Naumachia, æ, f. g. a battayle on the water, or the place where the battayle is.

Naumachiam committere, To fyghte with shippes on the sea.

Naumachiarius, rij, m. gen. he that doeth battaye on the water.

Naumachiarius, a, um, pertainyng to that foyme of battayle.

Naumachiarus pons, a bypge, one which they passe into the shippes to fyght.

Nauo, aui, are, to employ with all his power, so dooe, apde, healte, or endeavour with all pills

Nauaneoperam, the power of his endeavour, to helpe with all his power.

Vi nostram in te beneuolentiam nauare possumus, That we may doe all our endeavour, to shewe what good will we beare you, or that we may bestowe our beneuolence & louinge mynde towards you.

Naupactus, a towne of Acha, taken from the Aeneians by the Troies, called now Lepanthum.

Naupégus, gi. m. g. a shipwright or carpenter.

Nauplium, plij, a sytle lyke a cuttill.

Nauplius, Salamedes father.

Naupliades, the sonne or nephew of Nauplius.

Naupontius, a riuer in Sclauonie.

Nauscit, when a beane openeth it selfe in the earth to sprynge.

Nausca, a. f. gen. disposition or will to vomite, sometime abhorring of thynges.

Nauseam discutere, to put away the disposition of vomityng.

Nauseam facere, to prouoke to vomite.

Inhibere nauseam, to stoppe vomityng.

Nauseator, óris, m. gen. one that vomiteth, also one that lotheth or disdaineth a thyng.

Nauscola, a diminutiue of Nausca.

Nauseósus, a. um, that whiche prouoketh one to vomite.

Nausco, aui, are, to haue an appetite to vomitte, sometime to abiecte or abhorre a thyng, to despyse, to contemphe, to lothe.

Nauseabundus, a. um, disposed to vomite.

Nausicae, es, and Nausicaa, a. f. g. the daughter of Alcinous kynge of Phaeaces, who fyndynge Ulysses, after that he had escaped drownyng brought him to his fathers palace.

Nausithous, the sonne of Neptuneus, and father of Alcinous.

Naustibulum, li. n. ge. a hyue lyke a shyppe.

Nauta, or Nautia, a. com. g. a shyppe man.

Nautea, tea, f. g. the ordure, which issueth oute of the pumpe of a ship. also currious blech, also a certayne herbe, which curriours do vse, some take it for Anagyris.

Nauticus, ci, m. g. a shyppe master.

Nauticus, a. um, belongynge to shypes or shypmen. Nauticus panis, biscette.

Nautilus, li, of some called Pampilus, a certayne shell fythe, of the forme of a vowe, and dooeth swymme the bealy vpwarde.

Nautilia, the craft of shypmen.

Nauus, a. um, quicke, actiue, valyaunt, that dooeth a thyng todaynly, without much studey, diligent.

Nauus & Ignauus, contrary.

Nauus & Industius homo, a diligent and prynfull man.

Naxium, ij, n. ge. a kynd of wheatstones in the yle of Epyrus.

Naxius, a. um, of Naxos.

Naxos, an yle in the sea called Iegauis, one of the Cyclades, not farre from Rhodus, renowned for the myrrour which there growyn.

Nazareus, a man dedicate onely to the seruite of God, or that had a speciall name for a time.

Nazareth, a little towne in Galilee.

Nazara, a city in Cappadocia, called also Les seria.

N ANTE. E.

NE, an aduerbe, denieng, forbyddynge, or dissuadynge, and is ioynded sometime to the imperative, sometime to the Subiunctiue, sometime to the optatiue moode.

Ne, began an aduerbe of forbyddynge, may indifferently be ioynded with a clause of the Subiunctiue moode, or els of the imperative: Non may neuer be ioynded with the imperative.

Tu ne cede malis, geue thou no place to aduersities. Sometime it is a coniunction copulatiue, and signifith And, or neyther, sometime it is causall, as Vide ne pereas, Take heed that thou doe not loose thy selfe: or beware that thou cast not away thy selfe.

Ne multa, to make short, without many wordes, or in few wordes.

Ne plura, is sufficeth, it is enough.

Ne longum faciam, to make short, to be short.

Ne sim saluus, si aliter scribo ac scripio, I pray god I be dead, yf I write otherwys than I thynke.

Ne vinam, and Ne valeam, idem. Est ne hic Crito sobrinus Chrididis, Is not this Crito, Cousen germane to Chrysis?

Honestu ne factu sit an turpe dubitans, they doubt, whether it be honest to doo or no.

Neue hoc, neue illud, neither this, nor that.

Ne dicam, I wyll not say, or I dare not say. This clause (Ne dicam) if it folowe a substantiue, the adiectiue is put in the accusatiue case: but if it be putte betwene a substantiue and an adiectiue, the one and the other shall be the nominatiue case.

Homo imprudens, ne dicam stultum, not stultus, because the substantiue (Homo) goeth before.

Crudelis, ne dicā impius, & sceleratus Castor, not sceleratum Castorem, for as muche as the substantiue Castor foloweth. In other cases is none ambiguitye. For alway the adiectiue and substantiue must accorde, as, Non faceres hac magistro conscio, ne dicā præsente, not præsentem.

Mihi qui ne detur, that the may not be geuen to me, or that I may not haue hir.

Vt ne ducas, for vt non ducas.

Ne hoc quidem tacebit Parmeno, Parmeno will not kepe this secrete neither.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedynge, or nothyng to doo.

Ne dicam grauius, That I may say no worse of it.

Ne my quidem, applied to him that dare not speake one worde.

Ne, an aduerbe rationall for Ergo. Verg.

Mene incepto desistere victam? what shall I than beynge vanquished or put by, cease from myne enterpryse: or leaue of my purpose as bayne?

Ne amicis nihil eribuamus, epulamur, to the intent that our friends shall not thynke, that we will doo nothyng for their sake; we dooe eat and banquet.

Ne, sometime signifieth demaundyng, as, Datur ne illa hodie Pamphilo nuptum? But shall he be married to day vnto Pamphilus? Egone? who?

Nea, an yle betwene Lemnos and Hellespont.

Neades, beastes in the yle Samos, as Helianus writeth: of whiche the bones be so bigge, that they be kept for a meeuaple: and their voyce so strong, that they make the earth.

Neata, a womans name, mother of Phactula, and Lampena.

Neathus, a ryuer in Calaber.

Nealces, a famous pynter.

Neapolis, a noble citee of Campania, sette on the borders of the sea, called Mare Mediteraneum, and was first called Parthenope.

Of this citee the countrey of Campania, Apulia, and Calabria, be now called Regnū Neapolitanum, the realme of Naples. There is also a citee of this name in Syria, an other in Laria.

Nearchus, a yonge man of excellent fauour and beautee.

Nebis, a riuer in Spayne.

Nebrides, the skynne of redde deere and falow.

Nebriion, herba ceruina, vel elaphoboscus.

Diosto.

Nebrundes, the genitoours of beastes.

Nebrites, singu. num. a pyerious stone dedicate to Liber.

Nebula, α, f. g. a littell white cloude.

Quasi per nebulam audire, i. leuiter, non attente.

Erroris nebula, the cloude of errout.

Diluit nebulas Titan, the sonne putteth away cloudes.

Nebulo, lōnis, m. gen. a knaue, a vile felow of no estimation.

Nebulosus, a, um, cloudie.

Nebulosus ager, a countrey haupnge oftentimes cloudes ouer it, wherby it is temperate.

Cælum nebulosum, a cloudie weather.

Nec, noz, neither, oftentimes for Non.

Nec opinato, by aduenture, sodeinly, otherwise than was thought.

Quæ nec opinanti accidunt, which chaunce to me not thynkyng, or nothyng doubtyng of the mattier,

Nec opinata res eos perculit, The thyng wherof they doubted not, or thought not on, astonied them.

Nec iniuria, not without a cause.

Nec ita multo post, not very longe after.

Nec mirum, and no meeuaple at all.

Nec sicut vulgus, and not as the commune sorte of the people.

Nec caput nec pedes habet, It is a confused mattier, it hath neither head nor tayle, nor begynnyng nor endyng.

Nec nihil, nec omnia sunt, quæ dicit, It is somewhat that he saith, all though it be not all: or, I can not say, but that it is somewhat that he saith, and yet it is not all.

Nec eo minus, and yet neuertheless.

Nec quicquid aliud quam sicturum, and that he would doo nothyng but wepe.

Perfolui gratia non potest, nec malo patri, a man can not recompence or shewe pleasure for pleasure, no nor to an yll father.

Necatus, a, um, slayne.

Necatus veneno, poysoned.

Necatus fame, famished.

Nec dūm, not yet.

Necessarie, idem quod necessario.

Necessario, necessarily, of necessity, nedefully, of force, inuitably, without redemption, without choys.

Nec non, also.

Necesse & necessum, of force, that must needes be, necessarily.

Sed necesse est, but it must needes be.

Necesse fuit facere, I might not choose but doo it, needes I must haue doon it.

Necesse habere, to haue neede.

Necessarius, rij, m. geue. a kynseman, a very neere frende.

Necessarius, a, um, necessary, nedeful, inuitable.

Necessitas, tātis, f. g. neede, necessity, an alliance or bonde of amitie, neere friendship.

Necessitates, necessary and vrgente busineses or affayres.

Astringi & cogi necessitate, to be constreyned or forced of necessity.

Necessitati parendum est, vel necessitas inexorabilis, Necessitee hath no lawe, or needes must that needes will be.

Datur necessitati venia, he that coulde not choose, must needes be pardoned.

Ea quæ habent aliquam necessitatem, suche thynges as must nedes, or as be necessary.

Necessitatem imponere, iniungere, afferre, to constreigne.

Necessitate coactus feci, I was forced or constreigned of necessity to doo it.

Reliquis tribus virtutibus necessitates propositæ sunt, &c. The other three vertues be forced of necessity, or must nedes. &c.

Necessitudo, dinis, f. g. idem quod necessitas. Facere necessitudinem alicui, to constreigne one

one. Facere necessitudinem alicui cum aliquo, to make acquainted or familiar.
 Necessitudinibus publicis implicitus, let or troubled with the urgent affairs or necessities butnesses of the common weale.
 Adungere ad suam necessitudinem bonos viros, to addresse to him in familiaritee and friendship, good and honest men.
 Coniungere necessitudinem cum aliquo, to become acquainted and familiar with one.
 Omnibus necessitudinibus circumuentus, bounden or in daunger to one for a thousande pleasures that he hath shewed him.
 Recipere aliquem in necessitudinem, to receive or numbze one amonge his frendes and familiars.
 Intercedit alicui necessitudo cum aliquo, he is familiar, or well acquainted with him.
 Necessitudo est mihi cum illo, he and I be familiar, or I have good acquaintance with hym.
 Necessitudinem habui constitutam, I was acquainted or familiar.
 Nos in necessitudines adungere, to get new frendes and acquaintance.
 Nos summa necessitudine attingunt, They are very familiar with vs, or they be our nere frendes.
 Necessitudinem colere, to cherishe and mainteyne acquaintance, or frendshipp.
 Necim, auncient wyttens used for Nec cum.
 Nec ne, or not.
 Necoz, necaui, necatum, and necui, necum, nec care, to see, to hyl.
 Necos, a kynge of Egypt.
 Necromantes, vis, m. g. a necromancer, he that calleth by dampned spirites.
 Necromanticus, idem.
 Necromantia, a, f. g. necromancy.
 Necropolis, a citee of Egypt.
 Nectar, nectaris, n. g. a pleasant licour, which the poetes feigned to be the drynke of goddis sometime it signifieth immortallitee.
 Nectarus, a, um, immortall, drinke, sweete, pleasant.
 Nectarca herba, an herbe, called also Inula Campana, Elcampane.
 Nectarites, a drinke made with the same herbe.
 Necto, nexui, and nexi,nectere, to knytte, to wynde or wynde laces or other lyke thynges.
 Nectere aliquid ex duabus rebus, to make one thyng of twayne.
 Nectere causas, to make excuses.
 Nectere aliud ex alio, to hange one thyng by an other.
 Nectere dolum alicui, to inuent a mean to de ceupe or moche one.
 Necti, the passie of Necto, whan the detour was deliuered to his creditor in bondage.
 Coronari nectere alicui, To make a garlands for one.

Moras nectere, to make delays.
 Nectus, a, um, of Neco, killed without weapn, as with famine, colde, and suche lyke.
 Necubi, left in any place. sometime in no place.
 Necubi regum desiderium esset, That they should not be desirous of kynge in any place: or that they should not lacke or want a kynge in any place.
 Nidendum necubi aqua consistat, they must beware, that the water dooe not stande or rest in any place.
 Necunde, left from any place.
 Circumspectans necunde impetus in frumentatores fieret, looking rounde about, that they should not invade or breake vpon the fowrages from any place.
 Necya, a, f. ge. a funerall ceremony at the graues of dead men.
 Necyomantia, divination by calling by of dead spirites.
 Necydalus, li, m. gen. a certayne worme, of the whiche the sphe worrme cometh, or whiche in the space of sixe weekes is touned into the sphe worrme called Bombyx.
 Nedum, not only, and is used two waies, either whan bothe clauses be reduced to one verbe: as Funderem pro te sanguinem, nedum pecuniam, I would spende for thee not onely my money, but also my bloud: or elles whan eche clause hath his propre verbe, as, Funderem pro te sanguinem, nedum pecuniam tibi crederem, I would not onely lende you money, but also wedde my bloud for you, or putte my lyfe in daungier for your sake.
 Ne crederem tibi obolum, nedu vitam meam, I would not trust thee with one half peny, muche lesse with my lyfe.
 Nedum morbum remouisti, sed etiam gratitudinem, Thou hast not onely put away the sicknesse, &c.
 Nefandus, a, um, horrible, not to be named.
 Nefarius, a, um, cursed, unwoorthy to lyue, wicked mischeuous.
 Nefans, antis, om. ge. idem quod Nefandus.
 Nefarie, wickedly, naughtily, mischeuously.
 Nefarium, ri, n. g. a wicked or detestable acte.
 Nefas indeclin. neu. gene. a thyng detestable, a wicked acte, a cursed dede.
 Nefas habetur, it is compted a heinous thing.
 Nefastus, a, um, unlucky, unhappy.
 Nefastus, sometime for Nefarius.
 Nefasti dies, daies, in the which it was not lawful to speake thre wordes, Do, dico, addico; daies, on the whiche it was vnlawfull to pleade in the law.
 Nefrendes, um, com. ge. pigges weaned, called shotes, after some weathers, after others, pong infants.
 Negabundus, a, um, that denieth.
 Negatio, onis, f. g. denyng, a nay.
 Negans, antis, denyng, sayng nay.

Negantia, z, f, g. idem quod negatio.
 Negatiuus, a, um, that denieth.
 Negatus, a, um, denied.
 Négito, au, are, to deny.
 Neglectim, carelessly.
 Neglectus, us, m. g. small regard, contempt.
 Neutrquā hæc res neglectui est mihi, I may in no wise neglecte this affayre or busynesse: or I must in no wise be negligent in this matter, or I may in no wise forget this matter.
 Neglectus, a, um, not regarded, contemned, not passed vpon, ill looked to.
 Negligentia, z, for g. negligence, rechelesse,
 yll looking to a thyng.
 Negligentia fortunæ, contempte of fortune,
 and thynges casuall.
 Negligens, entis, om. g. negligent, rechelesse,
 that passeth on nothyng.
 Negligentem feceris, ye shall make him rechelesse, or in suche case, that he will passe on nothyng.
 Megligens sui, negligent or rechelesse in thyngs
 ges perrepyng to him selfe.
 Negligenter, negligently, rechelesely. Sometime contemptuously.
 Négligo, glexi, gligere, to neglect or haue lye tell regarde to a thyng, to be rechelesse in do-yng a thyng, to contemne, not to passe vpon, to looke yll to a thyng.
 Periculum fortunarum & capitis negligere not to feare to putte all his gooddes and lyfe in daunger.
 Non negligere aliquod negotium, not to be rechelesse in do yng a thyng.
 Minas alicuius negligere, not to passe on or nes menacynge or threathynge.
 Nego, au, are, to deny, to refuse, to say nay.
 Negato esse iuram, say she wyll not go.
 Negaris sæpe esse domi, They say often tps
 mes that thou art not at home.
 Quin te ducturum neges, but that ye wyll refuse to mary hit.
 Negant quenq̃ virum bonum, nisi sapientem, they say that no man is good, but onely a wyse man.
 Negotialis, le, perrepyng to merchandys, or occupacion.
 Negotiatio, onis, for g. occupyng of marchan-dys, buyng and sell yng.
 Negotiator, oris, m. gen. a marchaunt man, an occupier, a factour.
 Negotior, aris, ari, to exercise merchandys in straunge countreys. also to be in busynesse.
 Negotiari animas dicuntur medici, To get their luyng by kill yng of men.
 Negotiosus, a, um, haupng muche busynesse in body or mynde, full of busynesse.
 Res negotiosa, a busy and prynfull matter.
 Negotiosi eramus nos nostris negotiis, wee were busly occupied in our affayres.
 Negotiosa & molesta prouincia, full of peyn

and trouble.
 Negotium, n, n. gen. busynesse, affayre, charge, care, trouble.
 Dare negotium, to geue in charge.
 Sui negotij benegerens, he that doeth wel his busynesse, or that exploiteth well his affayre.
 Plurimum in eo negotij habui, I traueled much in it, I had much a doo with it.
 Negotium magnum est navigare, arque id
 mense quintili, it is much a doo to saile there, specially in the moneth of July.
 Negotium facessere, exhibere, confiare, facere, to trouble or vexe one, to putte to busynesse, to put in daunger by accusyng or layng some thyng to his charge.
 Est mihi negotium, I haue somwhat to doo.
 Ita negotium est, the matter so requirith.
 Nullo negotio, without payne, easly.
 Nil est negotij, it is light doen.
 Sed quid negotij, quãobrem succedes mihi?
 what is þe matter why thou art angry with me?
 Obiectum est mihi negotij, I am in trouble.
 Offerre se negotijs alienis, to maddie in other mens matters without any commaundment.
 Negotij sum plenus, I haue as muche to doo as I can tourne me to.
 Id sibi negotij credidit solū dari, he thoughte he should haue had none other busynesse but this. Humana negotia, worldly affayres.
 Mirabar, quid hic negotij esset tibi, I miruayled what busynesse thou haddest here, or what thou haddest here to doo.
 Quasi negotij nihil sit, as though there were nothyng to doo.
 Pompeio cum Cesare est negotium, Pompeye hath busynesse with Cesar, or hath some what to doo with Cesar.
 Negotia reipublicæ, the affayres of the commune weale.
 Negotium meum non est, It is no busynesse or matter of myne.
 Negotiorum curator, a solicitor, or a factor.
 Negotiolū, li, n. g. a little busynesse or matter.
 Neleides, patronymicum of Neleus, as it were of the progenie of Neleus.
 Neleus, the father of duke Nestor.
 Neleus, and Neleius, a, um, of Neleus.
 Nemasus, a citee of Parthia, called commonly Nimes.
 Nem, sometime. also except.
 Nemea, a woodde in Grece, where Hercules slew. iii. horrible Lyons.
 Nemæus, a, um, of Nemea.
 Nemerites, a fapye of the sea.
 Nemesis, the name of a goddesse, whom the pay-nims supposed to be the punisher of greuous offenders, some cal hit fortune. Suidas saith, that Nemesis, is iustice, complaynt, repproche, enuy, fortune. Cras. Nemesis, is a goddesse, the reuenger of insolencie and arrogancie: she is called Adrastia of Adrasto, the kyng, that lyeth

first constituted to be a temple.
Nemeti, people of a citty in Germany, called Syyes.
Nemetobriga, a towne in Spayne called Valdenebro.
Nemo, neminis, com. g. no man, or no woman no body.
Nemo non, every body.
Nemo homo, for nemo omnino, non at all.
Nemo vnus, no one man.
Nemo est hominum, qui metuat minus, there is no man alyue, or no man in the worlde, that feareth lesse.
Nemo omnium, no man lyuynge, no man in the worlde. also not one of them all.
Nemo hoc nescit, every man knoweth this, or all the worlde knoweth this.
Non nemo, many, some, certayne persones.
 sometyme every man.
Nemo hercle quisquam, in sayeth no man in the worlde.
Contigittibi, quod haud scio, an nemini, id
 est, vlli.
Nemo diuim, for nullus diuorum.
Neminis, Cato vsed in the genetive case.
Nemo, is spoken of women.
Hoc scio vnum, neminem peperisse hic, I know this one thyng, that no body is brought a bedde here.
Nemorâlis, le, perteynyng to a wood or groue.
Nemorensis, se, idem.
Nemorensis rex, the chiefe priest of Diana.
Nemoriuagus, a, um, that wandreth in a wood or groue.
Nemorosus, a, um, full of wooddes.
Cupressu nemorosus, full of Cypress trees, or haupng many cypress trees.
Nempe, an aduerbe of confirmyng, and is some-tyme vsed with an interrogacion, sometime without, for because, truly. Sometime it signifith for.
Nempe negas ad beate viuendum satis esse virtutem? Doo ye denie than that vertue is.
 or, ye doo denie than, that vertue is sufficient to perfecte felicitye, doo ye not? without inter-rogacion: as, Nempe omnia hæc verba huc redeunt, All these woordes in dedde, come to this poynt.
Recta via illuc, G. Nempe ad Pamphilam, that is to Pamphila: or ye meane I am sure to Pamphilas house.
Nempe, in answeryng: Expedies? D. Certe Pamphile. P. Nempe vt modo, yea in dedde as thou diddest whyle ere.
Neemias, a Jewe, cupbearer to Artaxerxes, kynge of Persia, a man of greate learnyng and holy-nesse, who beyng in great fauour with the saied kynge, obteyned bothe licence and ayde to reedifie the citee of Hierusalem, asoze the incarnation of Christ. 447. yerres.
Nemrod, is interpreted rebelle, or gouernour sleepyng: he was the sonne of Chus, sonne of Cham, the seconde sonne of Noe. he is of some wrytten Sumrod, of some Rumbroth. He was also called Sarurnus Babylonicus, and was the first that took on him to tryght ouer men, and attempted to build the great towne of Basbylon, intendynge so haue aspyed it aboue the cloudes, thys thyng thereby to haue escaped, if any floudde shoulde efface it. haue happened.

 He was before the incarnation of Christ. 2170.
 yerres, after the creation of the worlde. 1728.
 yerres.
Nemus, nemoris, a woodde setynge for pleas-sure, a groue.
Nennut, was vsed of olde wryters for Nisi, e-tiam, nempe.
Nenum, was of olde tyme vsed for Non.
Neo, neui, ere, to spiane.
Neobole, the daughter of Lycambis.
Neocles, a philosopher of Athenes.
Neodunum, a citee in Fraunce, in the countrey of Lyons, called Leondull.
Neogamus, newly wedded, a hyde groomer.
Neomagus, a towne in Fraunce called Nemurs.
 It was also a citee in Britania, whiche some men suppose to be Chester.
Neomenia, a, for, ge. the moone while she is in chaungeyng and lackyng light; the tyme of the new moone.
Neophytus, ti, m. gen. a man newly entred into any profession, a new man. also a tree of herbe newly sprongen vp.
Neoproleus, m, male, gene. a ponge or new souldiour, a knight newly made, it was the surname of Pyrrhus, whiche was the sonne of Achilles.
Neotericus, ci, m. g. one of the late time.
Nepa, a, or Nepes, pis, a scorpion: herof Crasmus doubteth, looke the prouerbe, imitabor Nepam. also the first kynde of the herbe called aconitum.
Nepenthes, n. g. a dymke confectioun, or made by Helene, wyfe of Menelaus, whiche caused them that dranke therof, to forget all sorowe.
 Some suppose it to bee made with the herbe, called Bozage, in latin Buglossa. Wherfoze that herbe is of some men so called.
Nepeta, or Nepira, a citee in Euscane: it is also an herbe called Calampyt, but therof be twoo sortes: the one moze, with leaues somewhat hoze, whiche I suppose to be Nep: the other lesse, haupng leaues lyke peny royall, but somewhat greater: whiche of some men is called wyld peny royall, and groweth in plashye groundes. Dioscorides teacheth to make three kyndes of Nepeta.
Nephelia, drum, neut. gene. plur. the feastes of sobye men, where no wine is vsed, but only meathe.
Nephele, les, a greke woorde, signifieth a cloude.
 It was also the name of a woman, mother of.
 Aaa iij. Helles

Helles, which gave the name to the sea called Hellespontus.
 Nephelides, small spotted in the eyes.
 Nephelus, a, um, of Nephelus.
 Nephritis, phuridis, & g. a sickness and griefe
 in the capnes.
 Nephriticus, a, um, that hath pain in the raines.
 Nepos, nepotis, m. gener. the sonnes sonne, or daughters sonne, a nephew. Sometime it is taken for a nece. it also signifieth a riotous person, a ruffian.
 Nepotes, signifieth all the succession following
 sonnes and daughters.
 Sororis nepos, id est nepos ex sorore.
 Nepos in suo patrimonio, he that riotously
 spendeth or wasteth his heritage.
 Nepotes in vite, The yonge braynes that sprynge every yere out of the vine, and are cut away.
 Nepotinus, a, um, of a nephew, or of a ruffian,
 or riotous spender.
 Nepotor, aris, ari, to lyue or spende riotously,
 to liue lyke a ruffian.
 Nepotatus, us, mas. gener. riot or superfluous
 dispenses.
 Nepotulus, li, m. g. a diminutive of Nepos.
 Neptis, tis, f. ge. the sonnes daughter or daughters daughter, a nece.
 Neptunius, a, um, of Neptune.
 Neptunus, ni, m. g. the god of the sea.
 Neptunalia, drum, neu. gener. plur. feastes of Neptune.
 Neptunine, nes, the daughter or nece of Nep-
 tune.
 Nepus, Cluttythe.
 Nequa, left by any wayes or place.
 Nequalia, detrimentes.
 Nequam, a noune vnderlined, an ill man, one that is lecherous and an ill lyuer of his body.
 Also he that is good for nothing, a naughty vns-thift, vngacious, vnthiftly.
 Tanto nequior, the lesse grace is in thee.
 Frugi, and Nequam, contrary.
 Eiusdem agilitatis homo frugi, melius quam
 nequam faciet, If there be two men of sembla-ble agilitie or wildynesse & bestirynge of theim selues, an honest felowe shall dooe any thyng
 that he is sette vnto better than shall an vnthiftly felowe or a naughty packe.
 Nequam & cessator, an vngacious vnthift
 and loyterer.
 Nunquam vidi hominem nequiorē, I neuer
 sawe a moze vngacious knaue or a moze vnsthifty person.
 Nequam vitis, id est, inutilis.
 Nequam, sometime for Nequiter.
 Nequando, at no time, lest at any tyme.
 Nequaquam, no, not, in no wyse.
 Neque, a coniunction, neither.
 Neque enim hoc possum negare, and without doubt I can not deny this.

Neque tu haud dicas tibi nō predictum, say
 not, but that ye were tolde of it before.
 Nequedum, not yet.
 Neque quicquam quam, say tantum, nothing
 els or onely.
 Neque scius eo, and yet neuer the lesse.
 Neque vt opinor, sine tuo. &c. And as I thynke not without ye.
 Neque id quidem facient, and I know surely, they will not graunt that neither.
 Nequeo, quini, nequitum, nequire, I can not.
 Nequeo quin sciam, I can not chole but wepe.
 Nequitur, the impersonall.
 Nequis, nequa, nequod, vel nequid, least any body, or least any person.
 Nequissimus, woost of all; moze vngacious, or vnthiftly.
 Nequicquam, in bayne. also no.
 Nequino, aui, arc, to denie. also to play the wanton.
 Nequinum, a citee in Italy now called Nernia.
 Nequunt, olde wryters vied for Nequeunt,
 they may not.
 Nequis, lest that any man, or that no man.
 Nequitia, e, form. ge. vnthiftynesse, where one
 is geuen to all voluptuousnesse and lecherie,
 naughtynesse, vngaciousnesse, negligence,
 lewdnesse: also craft, gyle.
 Quantam fenestram ad nequitiam patefecer-is? How great a gappe should you breake ope vnto naughtynesse: or how great occasio should you geue him to liue lewdly and naughtly?
 Frugalitas, and Nequitia, contrary.
 Nequiter, vnthiftly, vngaciously, lewdly,
 naughtly.
 Nequiter & frugaliter, contrarie.
 Nequitus, was vied of old wryters for nequiter.
 Nereides, faeries of the sea.
 Nereus, a god of the sea. and sometime it is put
 for the sea.
 Nerine, nes, the daughter or nece of Nereus.
 Nerio, nerienis, the wyfe of Mars.
 Neris, idem quod Nardus montana.
 Nerite, a hynde of shell fyshes.
 Neritos, an yle in the myddell sea. also an hyl in
 the yle Ithaca.
 Neritius, a, um, of Neritos, Ulysses was so called.
 Nerium, rij, neut. gener. a tree of Myrb, whiche hath leaues lyke an almonde, which some dooe
 call Oleander, some Rosagine, some rose laus-well. it is also a promontorie or elbowe of lande in Gallia, lyng into the west sea, not farre
 from Compostella.
 Nero, called also Domitius, an emperour, sonne
 of Gn. Domitius Nero, adopted into them-pire by Claudius; who married his mother Agrippina: although he were broughte vp by the reuerende and wise Seneca, yet by the inevitable corruption of his nature, he became horrible vicious, in so muche as he caused hym
 selfe

left to be pulled, and came in the forme of a woman, and so to be abused, and by his cruelties made his own mother to be slayne, and the city of Rome to be conquered, he in the meane tyme playing on a harpe, and bringing the destruction of Troy. Finally he being hated of all men, was slayne in a cave, wherinto he fledde, when he was but .xxiiij. yeres olde, and had reigned .xliii. yeres, in the .liii. yere after the incarnation of Christ.

Nerua, a, f. g. an harpe of late stryng.

Neruiceus, a, um, offshewes.

Neruij, people inhabiting in Courney and the countrey adioynynge.

Neruium, uij, idem quod Nerua.

Nerulani, people nigh to Rome.

Nerulonenses, people in Campania.

Nerulum, a towne in Lucania.

Neruofus, a, um, hauing great sinewes or many sinewes. It also signifieth strongly, strongly made in body.

Neruofus orator, an oratour that hath a pithy and earnest stile.

Neruofitas, atis, form. g. the hauing of sinewes or strengthe.

Neruofe, strongly, pithily, vehemently.

Neruus, ui, m. gen. a sinew, and by translation force or strengthe. also a fetter or yoke, wherewith the legges are tied. also the stryng of an instrument or bowe.

Neruus intendere, and Contendere omnes neruos, or contendere omnibus neruis, in re aliqua, To endeuour with all force and myght, to imploye all diligence possible.

Nerui reipublice, prouision for defence of the countrey, strengthe and puissance of the common weale, that is to say, stronge men, treasure, shippes, &c.

Nerui belli, money and men of armes.

Sine neruis, without pith or strength, weake.

Neruis virtutis incidere, To make vertue weake and feeble.

Incidere neruos virtutis, To make vertue feeble or feeble.

Corripere aliquem in neruum, to cast one in to prison, or in to fetters.

Adducere arcum, or neruum, to draw abow.

Erumpit sagitta neruo pulsanre, the arrowe sleeth out of the bowe.

Sagittam aptare neruo, to sette his arrow in his bowe.

Concordia neruorum, the tune or agreement of the strynges of an instrument.

Percutere vel pulsare neruos, to stryke the strynges.

Neruulus, a diminutive of Neruus.

Nerua, called also Cocceius (a Gentile) was a good and noble emperour. In the begynnyng of his reigne, he set at libertee all christen men, whiche were accused or banished: he so muche excused in liberalitee toward poore men, that he thereby lacking treasure, caused his apparel, plate, and ryche stuffe to be sold for his necessitie, and ordeyned, that the children of poore men shoulde be kept with the common treasure, and determined nothing by him selfe, but only by the consent of excellent wylle men: yet not withstanding his frugality and verities, he lacked not treasures, whome he did tollerate wonderfully, and at the last dyed of the age of .lxx. yeres, when he had reigned one yere and .iii. monethes, after the incarnation of Christ .99. yeres.

Nesa, a countrey in the yle of Sicilie, ioyninge to Venus.

Nescio, nesciui, nescire, not to knowe, to bee ignorant.

Nescio alios, me scio quidem. &c. as for other men I know not, for mine owne parte, I am right sure, that, &c.

Nescio quid circumspiciat, He looketh about him what so euer the matter is.

Latus est nescio quid, he is mery what so euer the matter is.

Si sapias, quod scis, nescis, if thou bee wysse, thou wilt holde thy peace, or keepe it as secreete as though thou knewest nothing of the matter. Irasci nesciunt, they can not, or they will not be angry.

Latine nescit, he is ignorant in the latin tongue, he can not speake latine.

Hic nescit, nisi foris fabulari, he can talke or speake of nothing but of vsurie.

Nescio quid mihi animus presagit mali, I can not tell how my mynde geueth me, that some ill or mysfortune will chaunce ere it be longe.

Vt quo se verrat, nesciat, id est, nesciet, that he shall not wotte whither to turne him.

Nescitur, the impersonall, it is not knowne.

Nescius, a, um, that is not knowen, or dooth not knowe.

Nesi, people of Scythia in Europe.

Nesia, a nymphe of the sea.

Nesium, or Nesis, an yle by Campania.

Nesotrophium, plij, n. ge. a place where dukes be kept to be made fatte.

Nesius, a Centaure, whiche rauished Deianira Hercules wife, who being wounded to death, gaue to Deianira a popson, wherewith Hercules whete being washed, and putte on him, his body did rotte with most horrible paynes, whiche he not susteynyng, did enter into a greate fyre, and let hym selfe be burned.

Nestor, nestoris, a duke of Grece, whiche came to the siege of Troie, who in geuyng counsell was reputed mooste excellent, and lyued (as he him selfe saied) thre menys ages.

Nestorides, the sonne or nephue of Nestor.

Nestorius, a great heretike, bishop of Constantis nople, the yere of our Lorde .419. who denyed Christ to be god. Of him the heretikes holding

Helles, which gave the name to the sea called Hellespontus.
 Nephelides, small spotted in the eyes.
 Nephelus, a, um, of Nephelus.
 Nephritis, phritidis, & g. a sickness and griefe
 in the capnes.
 Nephriticus, a, um, that hath pain in the reins.
 Nepos, nepotis, m. gene. the sonnes sonne, or daughters sonne, a nephew. Sometime it is taken for a nece. It also signifyeth a riotous person, a ruffian.
 Nepotes, signifyeth all the succession following
 sonnes and daughters.
 Sororis nepos, id est nepos ex sorore.
 Nepos in suo patrimonio, he that riotously
 spendeth or wasteth his heritage.
 Nepotes in vite. The ponge byaunces that sprynge every yere out of the vine, and are cut away.
 Nepotinus, a, um, of a nephew, or of a ruffian,
 or riotous spender.
 Nepotor, aris, ari, to lyue or spende riotously,
 to liue lyke a ruffian.
 Nepotatus, us, mal. gener. riot or superfluous
 dispenses.
 Nepotulus, li, m. g. a diminutive of Nepos.
 Neptis, tis, f. ge. the sonnes daughter or daughters daughter, a nece.
 Neptunius, a, um, of Neptune.
 Neptunus, ni, m. g. the god of the sea.
 Neptunalia, orum, neu. gene. plur. feastes of Neptune.
 Neptunine, nes, the daughter or nece of Nep-
 tune.
 Nepus, Clutty the.
 Nequa, lest by any wayes or place.
 Nequalia, detrimentes.
 Nequam, a noune vnderclined, an yll man, one that is lecherous and an yll lyuer of his body.
 Also he that is good for nothing, a naughty vn-chyste, vngacious, vnchistly.
 Tanto nequior, the lesse grace is in thee.
 Frugi, and Nequam, contrary.
 Eiusdem agilitatis homo frugi, melius quam
 nequam faciet, If there be two men of sembla-ble agilitie or wildynesse & bestirrynge of themselues, an honest felowe shall dooe any thyng
 that he is sette vnto better than shall an vn-chyste felowe or a naughty packe.
 Nequam & cessator, an vngacious vnchiste
 and loyterer.
 Nunquam vidi hominem nequiorē, I neuer
 sawe a more vngacious knaue or a more vn-chyste person.
 Nequam vitis, id est, inutilis.
 Nequam, sometime for Nequiter.
 Nequando, at no time, lest at any tyme.
 Nequaquam, no, not, in no wyse.
 Neque, a coniunction, neither.
 Neque enim hoc possum negare, and without doubt I can not deny this.

Neque tu haud dicas tibi nō predictum, say
 not, but that ye were tolde of it before.
 Nequedum, not yet.
 Neque quicquam quam, for tantum, nothing
 els or only.
 Neque scitis eo, and yet neuer the lesse.
 Neque vt opinor, sine tuo. &c. And as I thinke not without, &c.
 Neque id quidem facient, and I know surely, they will not graunte that neither.
 Nequeo, quini, nequitum, nequire, I can not.
 Nequeo quin sciam, I can not thole but wpe.
 Nequitur, the impersonall.
 Nequis, nequa, nequod, vel nequid, least any
 body, or least any person.
 Nequissimus, woost of all; moste vngacious, or vnchistly.
 Nequicquam, in bayne. also no.
 Nequino, aui, arc, to denie. also to play the wanton.
 Nequinum, a citee in Italy now called Nernia.
 Nequunt, olde wyters vled for Nequeunt,
 they may not.
 Nequis, lest that any man, or that no man.
 Nequitia, æ, form. ge. vnchistynesse, where one
 is geuen to all voluptuousnesse and lecherie,
 naughtynesse, vngaciousnesse, negligence,
 lewdnesse. also craft, gyle.
 Quantam fenestram ad nequitiam patefeceris?
 How great a gappe should you breake open
 vnto naughtynesse? or how great occasio should
 you geue him to liue lewdly and naughtly?
 Frugalitas, and Nequitia, contrary.
 Nequiter, vnchistly, vngaciously, lewdly,
 naughtly.
 Nequiter & frugaliter, contrarie.
 Nequitus, was vled of old wyters for nequiter.
 Nereides, faeries of the sea.
 Nereus, a god of the sea. and sometime it is put
 for the sea.
 Nerine, nes, the daughter or nece of Nereus.
 Nerio, nerienis, the wyfe of Mars.
 Neris, idem quod Nardus montana.
 Nerite, a kynde of shell fyshes.
 Neritos, an yle in the myddell sea. also an hyl in
 the yle Ithaca.
 Neritus, a, um, of Neritos, Ulysses was so called.
 Nerium, rij, neut. gener. a tree or shrub, whiche
 hath leaues lyke an almonde, which some dooe
 call Oleander, some Rosagine, some rose laustell. it is also a promontorie or elbowe of lande in Galitia, lyng into the west sea, not farre
 from Compostella.
 Nero, called also Domitius, an emperour, sonne
 of Gn. Domitius Nero, adopted into them-
 pire by Claudius, who married his mother Agrippina: althoughe he were broughte up by the reuerende and wise Seneca, yet by the inevitable corruption of his nature, he became horrible vicious, in so muche as he caused hym
 selfe

self to be pulled, and came in the forme of a woman, and so to be abused, and by his cruelties made his own mother to be slayne, and the citie of Rome to be honoured, he in the meane tyme playng on a harpe, and singynge the destruction of Troy. Finally he beynge hated of all men, was slayne in a rage, wherinto he felle, when he was but .xxxi. yeres olde, and had reigned .xlvi. yeres, in the .lvii. yere after the incarnation of Christ.

Nerua, a, f. g. an harpe of lute stryng.

Neruiceus, a, um, offspawes.

Neruij, people inhabitynge in Courney and the countrey adioynynge.

Neruium, uij, idem quod Nerua.

Nerulani, people nigh to Rome.

Nerulonenses, people in Campania.

Nerulum, a towne in Lucania.

Nervosus, a, um, hauing great sinewes of many sinewes. It also signifieth strongly, strongly he made in body.

Nervosus orator, an oratour that hath a pithy and earnest style.

Nervositas, aris, form. g. the hauing of sinewes of strengthe.

Nervose, strongly, pithily, vehemently.

Nervus, ui, m. gen. a sinew, and by translation force of strengthe. also a fetter of gyne, wherewith the legges are tied. also the stryng of an instrument of bowe.

Nervus intendere, and Contendere omnes nervos, or contendere omnibus nervis in re aliqua, To endeuour with all force and myght, to imploye all diligence possible.

Nervi reipublice, prouision for defence of the countrey, strengthe and puissance of the common weale, that is to say, stronge men, treasure, shippes, &c.

Nervi belli, money and men of armes.

Sine nervis, without pithie & strength, weake.

Nervis virtutis incidere, To make vertue weake and feeble.

Incidere nervos virtutis, To make vertue feynte of feeble.

Corripere aliquem in neruum, to cast one in to prison, or in to fetters.

Adducere arcum, or neruum, to draw abow.

Erupit sagitta neruo pulsante, the arrowe fleeth out of the bowe.

Sagittam aptare neruo, to sette his arrow in his bowe.

Concordia nervorum, the tune of agreement of the strynges of an instrument.

Percutere vel pulsare nervos, to stryke the strynges.

Nervulus, a diminutive of Nervus.

Nerva, called also Cocceius (a Gentile) was a good and noble emperor. In the begynnyng of his reigne, he set at libertie all christen men, whiche were accused or banished: he so muche excused in liberaliter towardes poore men, that he thereby lachynge treasure, caused his opprobrie, place, and ryche stuffe to be solde for his necessaries, and ordered, that the chyldren of poore men shoulde be kept with the common usages, and determined nothing by him selfe, but only by the consent of excellent wyse men: yet not withstanding his clemencie and beneuolence, he lacked not traitours, whome he did tolerate moste fully, and at the last dyed of the age of .lxxi. yeres, when he had reigned one yere and .viij. monethes, after the incarnation of Christ .99. yeres.

Nesia, a countrey in the yle of Sicilie, belonging to Sicilia.

Nescio, nesciui, nescire, not to knowe, to bee ignorant.

Nescio alios, me scio quidem, &c. as for other men I know not, for mine owne parte, I am right sure, that, &c.

Nescio quid circumspiciat, he looketh about him what to eue the matter is.

Latus est nescio quid, he is mery what to eue the matter is.

Si sapias, quod scis, nescis, if thou bee wyse, thou wilt holde thy peace, or keepe it as secreete as though thou knewest nothing of the matter: Irasci nesciunt, they can not, or they will not be angry.

Latine nescit, he is ignorant in the latin tonge, he can not speake latine.

Hic nescit, nisi fœnus fabulari, he can talke or speake of nothyng but of vsurie.

Nescio quid mihi animus præfagit mali, I can not tell how my mynde geureth me, that some yll of my fortune wyll chaunce ere it be longe.

Ut quo se veritat, nesciat, id est, nesciet, that he shall not wotte whither to turne him.

Nescitur, the impersonall, it is not knowne.

Nescius, a, um, that is not knowne, or dooeth not knowe.

Nesi, people of Scythia in Europe.

Nesia, a nymphe of the sea.

Nesium, or Nesis, an yle by Campania.

Nessotrophium, phi, n. ge. a place where dures be kept to be made faster.

Nessus, a Centaure, whiche rauished Deianira Hercules wife, who beynge wounded to death, gaue to Deianira a popson, wherewith Hercules thirte beynge washed, and putte on him, his body did rotte with most horrible paynes, whiche he not susteynyng, did enter into a greate fyre, and let hym selfe be burned.

Nestor, nestoris, a duke of Grece, whiche came to the siege of Troie, who in geuyng counsell was reputed moste excellent, and lyued (as he him selfe saied) thre mens ages.

Nestorides, the sonne or nephue of Nestor.

Nestorius, a great heretike, bishop of Constantinople, the yere of our Lorde .419. who denyed Christ to be god. Of him the heretikes holding that opinion, were called Nestoriani.

 Nestus, a ruuer of Thrace.
 Netrides, a kinde of oliues.
 Neu, for neue, or non.
 Neu lachryma foror, wepe not forer. sometime it signifieth no, when it is doubled.
 Neu se, neu Pompeium absentem imperato-rem aduersarijs ad supplicium tradant, obles-erat, He despyed them, that they woulde not betray neyther him nor Pompey they captiuayne beyng absent, vnto their enemies to bee put to cruell death.
 Neuceria, a citie in Umbria, a parte of Italy.
 Neue, or not, not yet.
 Neugmate, for Negare.
 Neuola, a tinct.
 Neuolo, neuus, neuult, for Nolo, nonuis.
 Neuri, people of Scythia, of whome it is written,
 that in sommer they were turned to wolues.
 Neuficus, a, um, that hath griefe of the sinnes.
 Neurobata, ix, m. gene. a walker on toyes or ropes.
 Neustria, Normandy.
 Neuter, tra, trum, trissyllabum, after Plinian, none of them, neither the one nor the other, neither of the two. The latine writers vse not to saye, Neuter neutri, but rather neuter al-teri: For properly, vterq; vtriq; but vterque alteri.
 Neuter vtri inuider, the one doeth not enuye
 the other.
 Neuter anguis, id est nec mas, nec femina.
 Neutra alteri officit, neither doth hurt other.
 Neuter alterum diligit, neyther of theym lo-ueth other.
 Neutrum ab altero separo, I dooe deuide or separate neither of them from other.
 Neutralis, le, that is a neuter, and belongeth to neither of the partes.
 Neutro, aduerbium, neither to the one part, nor to the other.
 Neutrobi, idem.
 Neutiquam, in no wyle, in no condicion.
 Neuus, ui, m. ge. a mole, or other lyke marke in the body or visage.
 Nex, necis, for, ge. violente death with weapon or other force.
 Artifices necis, intencers of straunge deaths and toymes.
 Conciuit sibi ipsi necem, he killed him selfe.
 Dedere aliquem neci, to kill, to put to death.
 Eripere necem alicui, to saue ones lyfe.
 Neci datus, slayne.
 Nexilis, le, any thyng that may be knyt.
 Nexi, were free men, whiche bounde them selfe to serue, to be therfore acquitted of their dettes.
 Nexo, aui, are, or Nexo, nexui, nexere, to knit often.
 Nexus, a, um, knitte or bounden.
 Nexu solutus. discharged of bonde.
 Nexares pignori, a thyng laied to mortgage,

Nexum es, money that one is bounde to paye or dettes.
 Nexum inire, to be wrapped in bonde, to be come seruant of bondeman to his creditor for saue of payment.
 Nexus, us, m. ge. a bonde, an obligation, wherwith one is obliged to doo a thyng, a kinde, a
 thyng.
 Nexu vincti, they that are bound to serue for their detts.

NI, if not, but if, excepte, least that. Ni, was vfed of olde writers for Non, also for Ne.

Ni teneant cursus, for Ne teneant.
 Mirum ni domi est, It is meruaile but that he is at home, or if he be not at home.
 Ni metuam patrem, if I did not feare my fas-ther, or if it were not that I am affraide of my father.
 Niethos, a ruuer in Sicily.
 Nicearchus, a famous painter.
 Nicandrus, or Nicander, a famous poete, which wrote of popsons.
 Nicenor, nicenoris, a grammarian of Alexandria in the tyme of Adrian the emperour.
 Nicator, nicatoris, m. ge. a banquisher. it was the surname of Seleucus.
 Nicea, and Nicia, a citie in Bithynia, wher was holden the holy counsaile agaynst Arius. In the whiche was presente the noble Emperoure Constantinus Magnus. There is an other ci-tie of that name in Fraunce.
 Nicedula, idem quod Cicindela.
 Nicerotianum, ni, n. gen. a sweete and pleasant oymment.
 Nicepsus, a greke phisicion and a great magician
 aboute the yere of our lord. 650.
 Nicetaria, orum, n. g. plu. rewardes for victo-rie, as rynges, colars of golde, or garlandes.
 Some doo write it Niceretia.
 Nicetes, a sophister in the tyme of Alexander, excellently learned.
 Nicias, a noble man of Athens. it is also the name of certayne other.
 Nico, one of the Carantines that conspyred a-gaynst Anniball.
 Nicocreon, a tyran of Cypres.
 Nicolaitae, were heretikes, whiche tooke that name of Nicolas, one of the .viij. deacons in the tyme of the apostles, who beyng blamed of them for his ialousy, brought his wyfe, who was sayre, amonge all the disciples, sayng, that who so woulde, shoulde vse hir, thynkyng thereby to pouрге him selfe of ialousie: wherof other yll men takynge occasion, beleued, that euery man mought lesfully vse euery woman that he lusted, which heresy (as reason woulde) was condemned immediately, but it is to bee feared,

feared, that it is not closely dyed. Nicolai, a name of Nicomachus for great dates.
Nicolaus, a name of some Nicomachus in Byzantium.
Nichomachus, the name of some Nicomachus in Byzantium.
Nicomedes, a king of Byzantium.
Nicomedia, a noble cite in Byzantium, where Constantinus maynt the emperor dyed. It is now called of the Nicomedi.
Nicophanes, a cunning Nicomachus.
Nicopolis, a cite in Byzantium, where Octavian maynted Antonia and Eleopatra.
Nicostrata, called also Carmentis, was mother unto Euander, kynge of Latines, and a prophetesse.
Nicostratus, a famous orator of Macedonie.
 There was also a poet and a mynstrell of the same name. also an excellent player of comedies.
Nicromantia, like Necromantia.
Nictatio, onis, for g. a twynnyng of twynnyng with the eyes.
Nicto, tere, to vent or open as a hounde of spaynell doeth, when he hath the sent of the game.
Nicto, ui, are, to winkle, to twynkle with the eyes.
Nictor, aris, ari, idem. also to endeavour of styte with an ager of the body.
Nidamentum, i, neu, gen, a place where bydes make thepp nestes.
Nideo, dere, to hyne, to geue a sauour.
Nidifico, ui, are, to buyde a neste.
Nidificus, a, um, that maketh a neste.
Nidor, oris, m, g. the sauour of a thyng boune of rosted. sometyme grynnyng of the wyng of the teethe. sometyme byphtnesse.
Nidulor, aris, ari, to make a neste. also to set a byde on egges.
Nidulus, li, m, g. a littell neste.
Nidus, i, m, g. a neste. sometime the bydes that be in the neste, also a vessel lyke a neste. Also boxes of chestes, wherein grossers of mercers do put their wares, be called Nidi.
Distrahere aues nidis, to pull birdes out of their nestes.
Loquaces nidi, chypnyng pong birdes.
Construere nidum, to make a neste.
Nigella, la, form, gene, an herbe, that beareth a blacke seede of good sauoure, wherby profiteth agaynst reumes.
Nigellus, a, um, browne of coloure, somewhat blacke.
Niger, gra, um, blacke. sometyme it signifieth purple. sometyme darke: by translation dead, also hurtfull, perillous, yll naughty.
Nigra vena, id est, Mediana.
Nigrum mariubium, idem quod ballore.
Nigrum papauer, gith.
Nigidius figulus, an auncient Romayne, whiche was a philosopher, of the secte of Pythagoras, and was wonderfull subtilly, about the pers of our lord. xlviii. he dyed in exyle.
Nignia, a certayne herbe, which taketh away the scars of woundes.

Nigir, a tyar of Libya.
Nigra, idem quod anemone.
Nigrans, antis, that is blacke of darke.
Nigrado, gredinis, f, g. blacknesse.
Nigreo, & nigresco, nigrui, ere, and scere, to become blacke.
Nigrefacio, grefacio, feci, facere, to make blacke.
Nigrefio, fieri, to be made blacke.
Nigrico, ui, are, to be somewhat blacke.
Nigrinus, a name name in Luciane.
Nigris, a fountayne in Ethiopia, which some suppose to be the head of the famous riuer Nilus.
Nigrines, ei, Nigritia, a, and Nigritudo, us, dinis, f, g. blacknesse.
Nigro, ui, are, to make blacke, or to be blacke.
Nigror, oris, m, g. blacknesse.
Nihil, n, g. indeclin. nothyng or nought.
Nihil cum fidibus graculo: Nihil cum amaracino fui, The dawe hath naughte to dooe with a lute, nor the sow with oyle of maioram. A proverbe applied to hym whiche presumyng of his witte, meddled with thynges that he can not skyll of.
Nihil ad nostram hanc, nothyng in comparison of this mayden that I speake of.
Nihil ad te, it pertayneth nothyng to the, or it maketh no mattier to the.
Nihil ad hanc rem est, it belongeth nothyng to this purpose.
Literarum admodum nihil sciebat, he was nothyng learned, or he was viterly vnlearned.
Nihil admodum territus, feared nothing at al.
Nihil agere, To labour in vayne, to lose ones labour.
Nihil praterquam vigilatum est, they dyd nothing but watche.
Nihil audio, id est non audio.
Nihil mihi cum illo fuit, I had nothyng to doo with him.
Nihil est, it is an easy thyng, also there is no hope at all.
Nihil est quod, there is no neede, there is no cause why.
Nihil est quod dicas mihi, aliam querebam, I had nothyng answere the to saye vnto me, I sought an other man.
Ego quid agas nihil intelligo, I can not persceyne wherabout thou goest.
Nihil est aque quod faciam lubens, there is nothyng in the worlde, that I would doe so gladly.
Nihil interest dactylus sit an creticus, it maketh no mattier.
Nihil moror, I passe nothyng vpon, I dooe nothyng esteeme.
Nihil mihi potius fuit quam. &c. I desyred nothyng moze than. &c.
Nihil quam, for nihil aliud quam. &c.
Nihil scio, for Nescio, I can not tell.
Nihil rerum omnium est, There is nothyng in the

in the worlde.

Nihil dum, nothing yet.

Mea nihil refert, dum potiar modo, I care not what I doe, so that I maye haue it.

Nihil festinare, to make no haste.

Nihilum, li, n. g. idem quod Nihil.

Redigi ad nihilum, to be brought to nothing, to bee brought to veraye poore estate.

Nilum, for Nihilum.

Nihili, of no pyce or value.

Cui minus nihilo est, whiche hath lesse than nothing.

Isti nihilo sum aliter ac fui, I am none otheres wyle towarde hym, than I haue been afore tyme.

Non hoc de nihilo est, this is not for naught.

Nihilo magis, neuer the moze, neuer the rather.

Nihili melior, no better.

Nihilo minus, neuer the lesse, not withstandynge.

Quæ nihilo minus, vt ego absum cõfici possunt, whypche maie well enough be dispatched, all though I bee not there.

Nihilifacio, feci, facere, to sette naughte by, to esteeme nothing.

Nihilipendo, di, dere, idem.

Nil, nothing. sometyme for non.

Niligenus, a, um, engendred, or bredde in, or of Nilus.

Nilion, lij, n. g. a stone lyke a Topace, but that is moze duskye.

Nilõtis, nilõtidis, f. g. of Nilus.

Nilus, a famous and great ryuer, rennyng thorough Ethiope and Egypte, & is supposed to bee one of the ryuers of Paradyse, called in holye scripture Gehon. All be it to me it seemeth vnlykely, for as muche as in Genesis it is writen, that Gehon enuyronneth all Aethiopia, where is no mencion made, that it passeth thorough Egypte, all be it, that Egypte and the ryuer of Nilus were moze nyghe to Moyses, whan he wrote the Genesis, than Aethiopia was. And also Nilus was famous for the vertue of the water thereof, whiche ouerflowynge the countrey of Egypte, made the grounde wonderfulle fertile manye yeeres after, so that without labourynge, the earthe broughte forth abundaunce of sundrye graynes & plantes, delectable, and profitable. Also beastes of sundrye kyndes, without other fourme of generation, especiallly whan the ryuer came to the depenesse of xl. cubites. likewyse whan it exceeded not. viii. cubites, there succeeded muche famine and scarfutee.

Nilus, is sometyme vled for a diech or mote, lyke as Euripus is.

Nilifacus, & Nilõticus, a, um, perteyning to the ryuer Nilus.

Nimbatus, a, um, oynted with swete oyles.

Nimbifer, feri, the byrnger of stormes.

Nimblis, engle in the sea called Nentum.

Nimbus, i, m. ge. a great storme of rayne, a dryne storme of rayne or haille, a greates blaste of wynde, a tempest of weither, by translation, a sodayne and greates fall, also a vessel, out of the whiche wyne is drawen, or as some haue it a certayne poste, for wyne, or water, or to kepe perfumes. sometyme a cloude, wherein the gods des descended downe.

Cinixerunt æthera nimbi, the cloudes be sette rounde about, as it is commonly sayde a great storme.

Crepitant nimbi culminibus multa grandis ne, there is a great storme of haille.

Densi funduntur ab æthere nimbi, a greates shoure of rayne doth petye downe.

Nimbosus, a, um, stormy, tempestuous.

Nimirum, ptye, surely, in sayth, certaynly, bus doubtely. sometyme it signifieth Scilicet, that is to say. sometyme At, sometyme it is added to an answer.

Vter melior dicetur orator? nimirum qui homo quoque melior, Whiche shall be sayed to be the better oratour: euen he that is also the better man.

Nimirum hi homines frigent, In sayth these men be blanke, or out of courage.

Nimis & Nimium, doo signis excess in muche or lytell.

Nimis magnus, to great.

Nimis parvus, to lytell.

Nimis bonus, to good.

Nimis malus, to ill.

Nimis cito, to soone.

Nimis diu, to longe, or veray longe.

Nimis male metuo, I feare greatly, or I am veray greatly asfearde.

Nimis cupio, and Nimis velim, I woulde veraye sayne.

Nimis pulcher, veraye sayte.

Nimietas, atis, for. g. superfluitee, excess, great abundaunce.

Nimie, and Nimio, aduerbes, signifyinge to muche, excessiue.

Nimius, a, um, to muche, excessiue.

Nimius animi, he that hath to great a corage.

In dando nimius, to liberall, prodigall.

Nimium quam delectabiliter, very pleasantly.

Nimium istoc abiisti, Thou wentest to farre that waye.

Illud non nimium probo, I doe not allowe that greatly.

Nimium lubenter, with a ryght good wyll, veraye gladly.

Ego te nimio plus diligo, I loue the muche better.

Nimio satius est, It is muche better.

Nimius, and Modicus, contrary.

Nimiopere, an aduerbe, signifyinge to excess dyngely.

Ninguis, guis, form, generis, was vled of olde writers

myttes for Nix.

Ningo, or Ningoo, nixl, ere, to shewe.
Ninguidas, a, um, where there is muche shewe.
Ningulas, la, lum, vnt of olde wynters, for Nec vllus.

Niniue, seu Nisibis, a citee in Assyria, buylded
by Ninus; in compasse thre dayes iournepe.
There was an other citee of that name, in the corner of Iudaea towards Arabia.

Ninos, a citee of Assyria, called also Ninus, and Niniue.

Ninus, kyng of Assyria, and sonne of Belus, was the fyrst that made warre, he conquered vnto Indie, and vauquished Xoroastes kyng of Bactria, whiche fyrst inuented art magike, and also caused fyrst monepe to be currant. He had to his wyfe Semiramis, he reigned. lli. yeres, before the incarnation of Christ. 2055. yeres.

Niobe, bea, daughter of Chelous kyng of Phry-gia, wyfe of Amphion, a woman of muche wi-spome, who brought forth seven sonnes, and as many daughters of excellent beaute, wherof of he vaunted and preferred his selfe before Latona, mother of Apollo, and Diana, wherof Latona being angrye, commaunded Apollo to slea all the sonnes, and Diana, all the daughters. For whiche deede Niobe (thorough discomfort and heuynesse) losse his speche, and remayned without meynge. Wherfore the poetes feygned, that she was transfoymed into a stone vpon the sepulchre of her chyldren.

Niphaus, a mans name.

Niphates, a ryuer of the great Armenie.

Nireus bisyllabum, the sonne of Læopus, the moste beautifull of all the Greeces that came to Troie.

Niptrum, i, n. g. a lauer, bathe, or bayne.

Nis, of olde tyme was vnted for nobis.

Nisa, a womans name in Virgill.

Nissa, a citee in Lidia. also the name of diuers
men.

Nisæe, a nymphe of sayrie.

Niseus, a place in Media, where was a good bryede of sayre hoyses.

Niseus, a, um, of Nisus.

Nisi, except, but if, sayng, yf not.

Nisi me animus fallit, If I bee not deceyued in myne owne mynde.

Nisi tu caues, yf thou take not heede.

Nisi quod, sayng that.

Hanc nisi mors mihi adimet nemo, There shall no man take his from me but death.

Nisi quid pater aliud velit, Excepte perchaunce your fathers mynde bee to haue it otherwyse.

Nisus, a kyng, of whom it is wyntten, that he had one golden heare, the whiche caused hym alwayes to bee victorious. But his daughter called Mirrha, at the request of one, with whose loue she was taken, stole awaye the sayd heare, wherby his father was vauquished and slayn,
it is also a kynd of hankes.

Nisus, a, um, the participle of Nior.

Nisus, us, m. g. endeuour, insojournment, laboure to do a thyng.

Nisyros, an yle wyth to Syra.

Nitidula, la, f. g. a glowe worme that shyneth in the nyght, also a kynde of small myce.

Nitela, a, or nitella, for. g. cleerenesse, gaynesse, bryghtnesse, also the small glystersyng thynges in duste or sande, a towhe pickar. Sometime it signifieth elegancy in speche.

Nitens, entis, shynng, beautifull, gay.

Nitico, tul, ere, to be neate or cleane in body, garmentes or other thynges, to be beautifull and gay. also to wyne.

Nitisco, scere, idem.

Nitibundus, a, um, endeuouryng, trustyng, trustyng to a thyng.

Conspiratu tacito nitibundi, puttyng the confidence or trust eche in other with one assent or agreement.

Nitide, cleanly, gozglyously, gayly.

Nitido, aui, are, to make bryghte or cleane, to make nette or trimme.

Nitidiuscule, the diminutive of Nitide.

Nitidus, a, um, cleere, neate, gay.

Sol nitidus, the bryght and cleere sunne.

Verba nitida, eloquent and goodly wordes.

Nitriobriges, people of Nabon in Fraunce, nowe called Mount pellier.

Nitor, niteris, niti, to endeuour, to ensojourn, to labour to do a thyng, to leane to, to put trust and confidence in a thyng, to bee styffe, or to resiste agaynst a thyng, to take payne, to traspale.

Nititur hasta, he leanceth to or on his speare.

Nitialis, to flye.

Nititur in coniectura, it resteth in coniecture.

Niti pari iugo, to take as muche payne the one as the other.

Niti pro aliquo, to take ones parte, or to labour in defendyng his cause.

Niti gradu, to walke.

Maiorum cōsilio & autoritate niti, To go uerne hym selfe by the counsell and authozites of his elders, to leane to the counsaile. &c.

Niti ad gloriam immortalem, to endeuor to geat a name for euer.

Cuius in vita nitebatur salus ciuitatis, In whose lyfe consisted the good state or wealth of the citee.

Nitens aduersus populum, shoulberyng or thrustyng agaynst the people.

Nitor, oris, m. g. cleannesse, bryghtenesse, gay-
nesse.

Nitaria, a, the place where Nitrum groweth.

Nitratus, a, um, mixte with Nitrum.

Nitria, a countreie in Egypte, and the name of
ii. citees about Memphis.

Nitrosus, a, um, where Nitrum is, or of the sauour of Nitrum.

Nitrum, i, n. g. a kynd of salte, whiche some saye
pale

pose to be that, whych is called false peter: but it is not true, for Dioscorides writeth, that Nitrum is of a light ruddy colour of whyte, has uppe holes lyke vnto a sponge, and was put in to the potte with herbes, wherby they were made more tender and apte to be eaten. And I had some geuen to me, whiche was of a carmacion colour, and not glistering, lyke our false peter.

Rubentis nitri spuma. Ouid.

Niuālis, niuāle, perteyning to snowe.

Aqua niualis, that cometh of snowe.

Oculum niuale, a colde eyse.

Niuale celum, rayny wether.

Niualia loca, snowy places.

Niualis dies, a daye in the whych it snoweth.

Niuarius, a, um, of or belonging to snowe.

Vas or colum niuarium, a colander or a bolle with a clothe sette on the bottome to streyne lycour thorough, a sieboll.

Saccus niuarius, a kynde of fyne strayners, as it were an pphoras bagge.

Niuārus, a, um, made colde with snowe.

Niueus, a, um, lyke snowe, snowy, of snowe.

Niuōsus, a, um, full of snowe.

Nix, iuis, f. g. snowe.

Nixor, aris, ari, idem quod Nitor, niteris.

Nixurio, nixurn, ire, to attempt or endeavour to doe a thyng.

Nixus, a, um, bozne or brought swythe into the world, trustyng to, leanyng to, stayed vp.

Nixus, us, m. g. the byrthe of a chyld. also endenour.

Nixus, i, a sterre or planet in the firmament.

N ANTE O.

NO, aui, are, to swymme.

Nare contra aquam, to swym agaynst the streame.

Nóbilis, le, noble, famous, excellent in any thyng good or yll, well known.

lis nunquam nobilis fui, id est cognitus.

Nobili loco natus, descended of a noble Roche, a gentyll man bozne.

Nobiles, gentyll men.

Ad multa nobile fel, a gall berate excellent in medicine for many thynges.

Scelece nobiles, men famous and known as mong all other for theyr mischiefe.

Nobile facinus, a notable and famous acte much spoken of.

Nobilitas, atis, nobilitate, estimation, noblenesse of byrthe, excellencie, and worthynesse, byrite and renoume.

Nobilitatus, a, um, ennobled, made famous or notable, whether it be good or yll.

Nobilitata phalaridis crudelitas.

Nobilitate, nobly.

Nobilito, aui, are, to make noble, to promote to dignitee, to byng to renoume, to byng to notable infamie by any thyng.

Flagitiis aliquem nobilitare, to be the cause that one doeth some ill, by which he cometh to notable infamie.

Noceto, cui, cere, to hurte, to endamage.

Nihil nocuerit, si cum Balbo eris loquutus, It shall be no harm, if you talke somewhat with Balbus of the matier.

Nocere noxam, to doe hurt or damage to one, that must be satisfied or made amends for.

Nocetur, the impersonall.

Nocens, entis, he that hath doen a trespass or iniurie, that hurtech or endamageth.

Nochelim, idem quod ballote.

Nocenter, hurtfully.

Nocius, a, um, hurtfull, noyous.

Noctesco, scere, to waxe nyght, or be darke.

Noctescit, the impersonall.

Noctifer, tifer, um, that byngeth nyght, the euenyng sterre is so called.

Noctifuga, the thing that may not susteine nyght.

Nocticula, a name, wherby the moone is called, also a littell beast, whych wynech by nyght.

Noctiuagus, a, um, that wandreth by nyght.

Noctu, for Nocte, in the nyght, or by nyght.

Noctua, æ, f. g. an owle.

✱ Noctuas Athenas, supple. portas, or mittis, Owles to Athens, a prouerbe, where one sendeth to a man anye thyng, wherof he that receyureth it hath plenty.

Nocturnus, a, um, perteyning to nyght.

Nocius, a, um, that whiche dweth hurte.

Nodatio, onis, f. g. knottynesse.

Nodia, a certayne herbe, whych curiours do vse, called also Mularis.

Nodinus, a god, whome the auncient Romans worshypped.

Nodo, aui, are, to knytte, to tye knottes.

Nodōsus, a, um, knotty, full of difficultee.

Nōdulus, a diminutiue of nodus.

Nodus, i, m. g. a knotte, a knurle, a toynete, a difficultee, an intricate matier, also a thyng of men in battayle.

✱ Nodus Herculeus, Hercules knotte, a prouerbe applied to a thyng, whych by no meanes maye be lousd.

✱ Nodum in scirpo quærere, to seke a knot in a rushe. A prouerbe, where one maketh a thyng difficulte or doubtfull: whiche is verie playne to be vnderstande, or is scrupulouse in a thyng without cause.

Aheni nodi, chaynes of brasse.

Corporis nodi, the ioyntes of the body.

Articulorū nodi, the knottes where the ioyntes are fastened and knytte.

Nodum soluere, to dissolue a harde doubte or intricate matier.

Dum hic nodus expeditur, whyles this matier is dispatched.

Cælestis nodus, was of auncient wryters, taken for the signe Pisces.

Noe,

Noe, significant test of wisdom from labour. He was the name of an holy patriarch, the son of Lamech, whom enuye) with his wife and. iii. sonnes) god elected to be preserved from the vniuersall floud, whiche almightie god sente ouer the world, for the horrible synnes of men than lypng. Noe (of the age of 600. yeres) by the commaundement of god made a greateshell, called in holie scripture an arke, whiche coneyned in lengthe. 300. cubites) as saynt Augustin saith) geometricall, euer cubite consisting. vi. comune cubites, which is. ix. fete, so it was in length. 12700. fete, in bredth. 50. cubites, whiche was. 450. fete, in depenthe. 30. cubites, whiche was. 270. fete, wherein was also saved of all kindes of beastes and foules, male and female. And after the floud ceased, the arke remained upon an hill in Armenia called Cordiei. Noe lived after the floud. 350. yeres: after the creation of the world. 2007. yeres, and before the incarnation of Christ. 1855. yeres. He was of the gentiles called Iannae, and sometime Vortumnus.

Noegerm, gei, n. ge. a white naphyn, or rather a white thynne garment twelced with purple like to an aulbe.

Noele, wertes, whiche be in the chekes of swyna or goates.

Noema, a sentence.

Noemagus, a citee ofarbon in France, called Rion.

Noenon, of olde tyme used for non.

Noes, a riuer in Thracia, which renneth into the ryuer called Danubius or Ister.

Nola, a towne in Italy.

Nolani, people of that towne.

Nolo, lui, nolle, to nyl or to be vnwillng.

Nolo offensum, I am affrayde to displease, or anger hym.

Nollem dixisse, I woulde not haue sayed it.

Non nolle, for velle.

Nomx, arum. f. g. plu. pynfull sores.

Nomades, prople in Scythia, whiche is in Casopra, whych feedynge cattall only, haue none other habitation, but where the cattall doe eare. I suppose the be the Tartarians, next to Polonia and Ruffy.

Nomarcha, cha, masc. gene, he that hath pteseminere in the ministracion of lawes, a Mayte or other lyke.

Nomarchia, & Nomi, certayn officers or magistrates in Egypt.

Nomas, adis, a shepherdes name.

Nomen, inis, n. gen. a name, geuen vnto chyl dren, as John, or Thomas, sometime it signifieth honour, anthozite, or great bloud, somes tyme byrte or renoume, sometime cause. It is also a title, article. or Item of ones accomptes, rekenynges, or other wrytyng. It is ofte taken for the debt or detour.

Ex nomine, for that cause.

Multis nominibus, for many causes.

Hoc vno nomine, for that onely cause.

Nomen soluere, to paye debts.

Nomen transferre, to boyme of one man to paye an other.

Nominibus honestis, for an honest considera- cion, vnder an honest pretence.

Ascribere aliquem sibi in nomen, to name one after his owne name.

Ad nomina respondere, to answer when he is called.

Nomen habet Fabius, he is called Fabius.

Imponere nomen alicui, to geue one a name.

Inclamare nomen, to call one aloud by his name.

Magna nomina, for Magni nominis homines, Meo nomine, for my sake.

Stringere nomen alicuius, to speake of alyte of one to his rebuke.

Nomina facere, to sende to many men.

Pecuniam sibi esse in nominibus ait, he sayth he hath money owng hym.

Nomina exigere, to alke debts, or sue debts toours.

In nominibus habere, to haue money owng.

Transcribere nomina in alios, to transcribe the debts from hym selfe, and set it on an other mans heade.

Nomina idonea, sure debtours.

Nomina expedire, to paye debts truly.

Nomina explicare, to discharge debts.

Nomina expungere, idem, to put his name out of his creditours booke.

Nomenclatio, onis, f. g. the numbyng of names and surnames, offices, titles and dignities.

Nomenclatura, e, f. g. idem.

Nomenclator, oris, or Nomenclator, oris, m. ge. to whome it belongeth to know by herte the names, orders, offices, craftes, and carul- tres of all persons, which serued most comonly among the Romayns, to instruct them of suche as they shulde sollicite to graunt theyr voyces in election of officers, a beddyll.

Nomentana via, the waye out of Rome, leadyng to Nomentum.

Nomentum, a towne in Italye not farre from Rome.

Nominatim, by name, namely, expyressly.

Nominatim appellare aliquem, to call one by his name.

Nominatio, onis, f. g. genre. a namynge or ap- poyntment, nomination.

Nominatione sua coopiare aliquem, to calle one after his owne name.

Nominatus, a, um, named, also famous.

Nomino, aui, are, to name or appoynt, to speake or make mention of one, to geue a name.

Quis me nominat, who speaketh of me.

Quid ait, ubi me nominas, what sayed he when thou speakest of me.

Nominatio, the frequentatiue of Nomino.

Nomissis, nyne pounce weight.

Nomius,

Nomius, the name of Apollo.
 Nomodidactes, he that teacheth lawe.
 Nomophylax, acis, om. g. he that hath the custodie of lawes, wherein the lawes be written.
 Nomos, a jurisdiction or magistracy, a lawe.
 Nomotheta, re, m. g. he that giveth lawe, a law maker.
 Non, adverbium negandi, no, noy, not, and is foreigned to all modes, sayng the negatative.
 Non na pridem, not longe ago.
 Non modo, not only. Non sobrius, dronke.
 Non facenda, maye wrythe.
 Non admodum delectari re aliqua, to take no great pleasure in a thing, not to delight greatly in a thinge.
 Non, non sic futurum est, non potest, No, it will not come so to passe, it can not be.
 Non clam me est, I know well enough.
 Non dico inter pecudem & hominem, sed, &c. I saye not onely betwene a beeste and a mā, but, &c. Non dubie, without doubt.
 Non est de nihilo, it is not for nought.
 Non fere quisquam, almost no man.
 Non fere contingit nisi his, &c. it neuer chaunceth almoste, but to them. &c.
 Non ita multis ante annis, not very many yeres before.
 Homo non malus, an honest man.
 Non malum hercle, In sayth not of the worst sort. Non dubia spe, certayne hope.
 Non multo post huc aderit, she will bee here shortly after. Non modo, sometime for Ne dū.
 Non nemo, some men.
 Non pauci, many thynges.
 Non pridem, not longe since.
 Non queo, for Nequeo.
 Non quo, for Non quia.
 Non temere, seldom or neuer, almost neuer.
 Non temere est, it is not without a cause.
 Non nequequam isti appellabā. &c. It was not without a cause, or it was for some purpose or consideration, or it was not for naught that these men. &c.
 Non ultra quam compedibus, id est, solum compedibus.
 Nona, the name of one of the fatall labies called Parca.
 Nonacris, a place in Arcadie, where is lioure so colde, that nothyng can contayne it but the house of a mule.
 Nonacrius, and Nonacrinus, a, um, of that place, or of Arcadie.
 Nonarum, f. g. plur. in Marche, May, June and October, be the vi. dayes, whyche doe followe the fyrst day in other monthes, it be the iiii. daies that followe the fyrst day of the month.
 Nonagies, foure score and ten tymes.
 Nonageni, re, gena, plu. tantum, nyntie.
 Nonaginta, foure score and ten.
 Nonagécuplex, plicis, om. g. foure score and ten double.

Nonagécuplus, foure score & ten tyms so much.
 Nonagenarius, a, um, that is fourscore and ten yeres olde.
 Nonagellimus, a, um, the lowest sort and tenth, the nyntieth.
 Nonaginti, or nongenti, re, a, nyne hundred.
 Nonarius, a, um, of nyne.
 Nonarie meretrices, common harlottes, whyche used at, re. of the clothe to sette them selues, or to open theyr houses, to lette men come to theym.
 Nonaria, re, for gen. eadem herba, quæ astragalus.
 Nonea, re, f. anchusa.
 Nondum, not yet.
 Nonne, an aduerbe of aspyng or demanding.
 Nonne oportuit præscisse me ante, had it not ben mete that I should have knowne it before?
 Nonne ita est: it is not so.
 Non nihil, somewhat, a littell.
 Non nihilo æstimare, to sette somewhat by, to esteeme somewhat.
 Nonnullus, a, um, some man, some woman, some thyng.
 Nonnunquam, sometime, otherwhyles.
 Nonus, a, um, the nyntie.
 Nonusis, the weight of nyne pounce.
 Nophria, loke ballote.
 Norba Cesaria, a towne in Portugall called commonly Alcantara.
 Noricum, a countrey in Germanye, it is bounded on the west with the ryuer Danubius, & Vindelicia: on the north with Danaw: on the east with Pannonia super: on the south with the alpes: this and Vindelicia be as partes of Bavarie.
 Noricus, a, um, of the countrey Noricum.
 Norma, re, f. g. a rule or square.
 Ad eorum normam, after theyr rule, or as they do measure.
 Dirigere vitā ad normam rationis, to order the lyfe accordyng to reason.
 Normālis, le, tyghte to the rule, made by the square or rule.
 Nortmania, Normandy in Fraunce.
 Nortmani, Normans.
 Normatus, a, um, idem quod Normalis.
 Normula, re, f. g. a littell rule.
 Noruegia, re, for g. a countrey beyonde Densmarke, called Norwayne.
 Nos, we or vs.
 Noscitabundus, a, um, knowyng.
 Nōscito, aui, are, to knowe muche, to consider or regarde to the intente to knowe.
 Nōscō, noui, scere, to knowe.
 Age, noui animum tuū, Go to, I knowe the nature, mynde, or phantasy well enough.
 Noui de facie, I knowe hym by syght.
 Quasi nō nouimus nos inter nos, As though we dyd not knowe one an other.
 Noui æque omnia tecum, I knowe alldoges ther

Noti locum ubi sit, I knowe the place well where it is.

Notmet, & nosmetipsi, our selves.

Notmetipsi inter nos, aminge of between our selves.

Nosocomion, mi, n. gen. an hospitall for sick
men.

Noster, a, um, ours, of our familie or house.

Noster est, he is hyne to vs.

Nostrarum, for nostrum.

Nostra, sometyme for Mea.

Nostra omnis lis est, we haue wonne, or we haue overcome in the suite.

Haud similis virgo est virginum nostrarum,
This may be is not lyke, or after the facion of the maybes of our cite.

Nostrum omnium adolescentia, for Nostra omnium, &c.

Nostrae culpa, by or throughte our owne defaulte.

Nostras, atis, om. g. of our countrey or household.

Nota, x, f. g. a note, a marke, a token, a signe, a defamacion, infamie, a slanderous name or repute to ones dishonour, also a reprehencion or correction of any wrytyng. Sometyme wrytyng.

Notae, be also cyphers, notes, abbreviations,
suche as men vse wrytyng in haste.

Notis scribere, to wryte with cyphers and abbreviations.

Variis affectus notis, defamed with byures thynges. Instruit secretis notis, he gaue or tolde hym pryue tokens.

Apponere notam, to sette a marke.

Commendare aliquem alicui de meliore nota, to commend one as an honest man verie earnestly and effectuously.

Instruit secretis notis, per quas, &c. he telleth them cetyne pryue tokens and markes. &c.

Notae amoris, signes or tokens of loue.

Eiusdem notae, of the same soyte.

Secundae notae, of the meane soyte, not excels hnte.

Notae salutis, tokens of healtie in one that is sicke.

Notae eximere, to acquite or discharge of respoeche or dishonour.

Natam inurere, to defame.

Ad cenam non ad notam te inuito, I badde
the to supper, and not to reproue or defame me.

Notabilis, le, notable, a thyng to bee noted or marked, as a greaite mattier, and worthy memozy, bothe in the good parte and in the yll, als
so manifest. Sometyme to be reprehended.

Notabiliter, notably, evidently.

Notarius, rij, m. g. a clerke that wryteth instrumentes of pleas.

Notatio, onis, f. g. consideration, aduise mente, notyng, markyng, obseruyng.

Notatus, a, um, marked, noted, obserued.

Notescere, scire, to be knowne or made knowne.

Nothia, genus de bellaribus.

Nothus, a, um, beharbe, not lausfull.

Notifico, au, are, to notify or make to bee knowen.

Notion, the yerde called Semper viuum.

Notio, onis, & notitia, x, f. g. knowlage, vns bestanding, acquaintance.

Habere notionem alicuius rei, To haue the knowlage or vnderstanding of a thyng.

Inter nos nuper admodum notitia est, it is a decepe littell while agoe that we haue bene acquainted together.

Notium, a towne in Aecolia, also a promontorie in Irelande called commonly Cabo de Mar.

Noto, au, are, to note, to marke, to repute, to reprehend, sometyme to accuse. Also to petrepus, to obserue, to put in wrytyng. Sometyme Ignosminia afficere, to defame, or put to rebuke.

Notare vitium, to repute vice.

Animo notare, to marke in ones mynde.

Notare aliquid ab alio, to deteine one thyng from an other. Notare & animaduertere.

Notare res proprijs appellationibus, to geue to thynges theyr propre names.

Notarunt hoc annales, This is wrytten in chronicles.

Notari ignominia, to be accused or defamed.

Vt notamus in muscis, as we perceiue and obserue in flies.

Notoria, a kynde of accusyng, or aperechyng of
men.

Notorius, a, um, an adiectiue.

Notus, a, um, knowen, notable, famous, acquainted. Notum facere, to geue knowlage.

Notus, ti, the southerne wynde.

Nouacula, x, f. g. a barbores rasour. Sometyme any other knyfe.

Noualis, lis, f. g. or nouale, lis, n. g. lande sowed euery other yere, or lande newly eared to bee sowed, and sometyme grounde fyrste eared or broken to be sowed.

Noua mencia, a citee of Darmatia, called commonly Weissenburge.

Nouantum Chersonesum, a place in the weste parte of Scotlande, called Colermonth.

Nouatianus, a pylet of Boome, and sometyme chapleyn to saynte Cyppian, began an heretic called Cathaton, whiche was, that they whiche had renounced the faith, should not be receiued to penance.

Nouatus, a, um, made newe.

Nouator, oris, m. g. and Nouatrix, icis, f. g.
one that maketh a thyng newe.

Nouellum, i, n. g. a late growen vine.

Nouello, au, are, to tyll newe grounde, or sette newe vines.

Nouellus, li, a mannes name in Rome, whiche wold drinke vp. iii. of the measures called Cōs-gii, and was therfore surnamed Tricongius.

Nouellus, a, um, verie newe or yong growen.

Nouem, omni. g. vndeclined, nine.

Nouem

Nouember, bris, m. g. the month of November.
 Nouenarius, a, um, of nyne.
 Nouenarius numerus, the number of nyne.
 Nouendialis, le, of ix. dayes space.
 Nouendiale sacrum, the terecment the nyth day after the burying.
 Nouendum, n, n, g. the space of nyne dayes.
 Noueni, a, n, plu, idem quod Nouem.
 Nouennia, plu, a citee in Thracia.
 Nouerca, a, f, g. a stepmother.
 Nouercalis, le, of a stepmother.
 Nouercale odium, the accustomed hate that stepmothers are wonte to beare to theyr husbandes chyldren.
 Nouercari, to doe lyke a stepmother.
 Nouiodunum, the name of dyuers citees in France.
 Nouissime, at the last, finally.
 Nouissimus, a, um, at the laste, the hyndermost,
 the lowest or basest.
 Nouitas, a, ris, f, g. newenesse, or strangenesse. also newe compng vp of ones selfe without noble auncestrie.
 Florida nouitas mundi, the beautifull spring
 tyme.
 Nouiter, newly or lately.
 Nouitius, a, um, newe begonne, newe come.
 Nouium, a citee of Spayne called comunlye Noya.
 Nouius, a ryuer in Bytayne, comunlye called Cloit.
 Nouo, aui, are, to make newe, to reuue, also to change or alter the state or condicion of a thing, to make a thng otherwys than it was before.
 Agrum nouare, to cast vp the ground agayne that hath ones been eared.
 Nouocomensis, a citisen of Nouum Comum.
 Nouum Comum, a citee in Lumbardy.
 Nouuncium, n, n, g. a weyght of ix. ounces, or a measure of nyne ynches.
 Nouus, a, um, newe, freshe comen, strange,
 not seene afore, of a newe sorte, vncomen.
 Noui homines, men late come to woozshipp and honour.
 Ede quid portes noui, Tell what newes thou bryngeest.
 Noxa res, chaunge and alteration of the worlde.
 Nouarum rerum cupidi, me desirous to haue
 a chaunge of the worlde.
 Maritus nouus, one new married, a bydegrome.
 Noua nupta, a byde.
 Nouo modo, strangelye, after a newe sorte, vncomthlye.
 Nouus furor, a sodaine furie.
 Nox, octis, for. gen. nyght. sometyme slepe. also death.
 Noctis auis, an oule.
 Hoc noctis, for hac parte noctis.
 Nox intempesta, the deepe of the night whan
 all is at sylene.

Adulta nox, mydnyght, or the later parte of the nyght.
 Illustris nox syderibus, a saye cleare nyght with steres.
 Nox concubia, the tyme of nyght, whan eu-ery man is layed to sleape, midnyght.
 Noctes ante, the titell of a booke, which Aus-lus Gellius made, so called, because he wrote it at Athens in winter tyme.
 Aequare nocti ludum, to play all night long.
 Appetit nox, the night draweth on.
 Locare noctes, meretricum est.
 Negare noctem, whan harlotten wyl not admit theyr louers.
 Dare noctem, contrarie.
 Peragere noctem insomnem, not to sleape al
 nyght longe.
 Polcere and rogare noctem, amatorum est.
 Animi nox, blynnes, ignorance.
 Nox rei publice, trouble or aduersitee of the commune weale.
 Dormienda est nox vna perpetua, we muste ones die.
 Noctes & dies, continually, alwayes, nyght and daye.
 Steruit noctesque & dies, he lyeth routyng &
 snoozyng all daye and all nyght.
 De nocte, in the nyght tyme.
 Multa nocte profectus est, he went forth late in the nyght.
 Noxa, a, for. gen. the offence, or the punishment and payne for the offence, a fault, also hurt, damage.
 Decernere noxam, to adudge one to be punished for his offences.
 Noxe damnatus, condemned to be punished.
 Extra noxam esse, to be nothing culpable or faultie, to be gylelesse or blamelesse.
 Nihil his noxa futurum, That they shoulde haue no harme for it.
 Ea res a noxa circulionum defendit, That thng dooeth saue it that it be not hurt of the weyls, speakyng of cozne.
 Noxa eximere, to acquite one of trespassse.
 Noxis vel noxijs solutus, acquitted of felonye or trespassse.
 Penes te est noxa, the offence is in the, the fault is in the, or thou art in the fault.
 Noxam auertere ab aliquo, to discharge one of trespassse, to put the fault from one.
 Noxa dedere, & ob noxam, to render a man or beast, whiche hath doen harme, in recompence therof, and to be punished at his pleas-sure, to whom the offence was doeh.
 Sine noxa luce bibuntur, in the daye a man may drynke of them without any harme at all.
 Noxam contrahere, to fall into syknesse, or to take harme.
 Noxam concipere, idem.
 Noxam facere, to doo harme.
 Noxam nocere, idem.

Sine noxia, without fault or harm.

Omni noxia, all faults, or all harm.

Noxialis, le, belonging to an offence, fault or punishment.

Noxialis actio, was an action against the lord for an offence done by his vassal, for the which the plaintiffe by the verdict, should be a sufficient discharge and recompence of the lord, if he by the delictus his vassal to the plaintiffe.

Noxia, a, f. g. the offence or fault, the trespass.

Noxia esse dicuntur res, when one is blamed or reprimed for them, or secretly hurt by them.

Nec eis noxia futurum, and that they should be not be blamed.

In noxia esse, to be in the fault, to have done amysse.

Vnam hanc noxiam misit, pardons me this one offence or trespass.

Noxiis vacuum esse, to be in no fault.

Noxia careo, I am not in the fault, I am blameless.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Noxiolus, a, um, full of faults, verus humilis.

Nubilo, pro in nubilo tempore.

Venus agit nubi, The wynde dyueth the cloude.

Depellere & detergere nubi caelo, to make the weather cleere, and bypasse the cloude.

Nubo, pti, heu, to cover, to be wedded; or to wedde, pposuim, the womanes parte, but sometyme of the men. And some write, that it is spoken onely of those men, whose wyues are their maistres, also to be ioynd into.

Nubere in familiam claram, to be married to one of a noble house or familie.

Vxor nubere nolo meo, I will not be married to my wyfe, meaning to forsake her.

Dare nuptum viro, To marry his daughter to one.

Nubere dicuntur arbores, to be ioynd to vines.

Nubitur, the impersonall.

Nucamentum, i, n. ge. a thyng hanging downe of nutte trees, lyke a rattes egle, and the lyke is in diuers other trees, as it were compacts of thin scales.

Nuceria, a towne in Campania.

Nucens, a, um, of a nutte.

Nucifrangibulum, i, n. g. a nut cracker. Plaudas vobis it for a tooth.

Nucipersica, a kinde of fruite verie common in France, whiche they call Deschenois, we call them peches.

Nuciprimum, a plumme-grafted on the stocke of a nutte tree.

Nucleus, clei, a kernell, also a cloue of garlyke.

Concidere nucleu dentibus, to knock a nut.

Nucleum amisi, I have lost the kernell, used pproverbially, when one hath lost that, where in profite consisteth.

Nucleus ferri, Steele.

Nucula & Nuccella, a littell nutte.

Nudatus, a, um, made naked of bare, vncouered, made voyde.

Nudata castra, the campe left without men.

Nudatus defensoribus murus, the walle abandoned, and without men to defende it.

Nupedalia, ceremonies done barefooted.

Nuditatis, atis, f. g. nakednesse, barenesse, pouertie, wante of any thyng. Sometyme playnesse without obscuritee or dissimulation.

Nudius quartus, foure daies agone.

Nudius sextus, cui talentum mutuū dedi, It is now sixe daies sens I lent hym a talent.

Nudius tertius, the daie before yesterdaie, the thyrde day before, and is alwayes ioynd with the pterperfecte tens.

Nudo, aui, are, to streppe naked, to make naked of bare, to vncouer, to make voyde. Sometyme to disclose or open.

Nudatur arbor foliis, the tree is bare without leaues.

Nudare gladios, to drawe swordes.

Nudare vada, to leane beate littell water in the ryuers.
 Nudare scelus aliquod, To disclose of open a mischeuous acte.
 Nudare facta alicuius, to tell of disclose what thynges one hath doen.
 Nudus, a, um, naked, bare, vncovered, boyde, sometye vnburied of dead.
 Ensis nudus, a sworde redy dyatwen, a naked swerde.
 Nuda senecta, id est inops.
 Domus nuda & inanis, an emptye and bare house, without anye prouision of householde stuffe. Nudus a propinquis, without healte of frendes of kynsefolkes.
 Nuda a magistratibus respublica, The comynne weale cleane destitute and without magistrates and officers.
 Nuda vrbs praesidio, a citee not fortified with a garrison, of that hath no garrison of men to defende it.
 Nudo vestimenta detrahete, to take rayme from a naked man, prouerbi ally used to take of seke a thyng of a man that he hath not, to take a byeche from a bareste man.
 Nugæ, arum, f. g. plur. fables, trifles.
 Nugalis, le, perseyning to trifles.
 Nugamentum, i, n. g. a trifle.
 Nugator, oris, m. g. a trifier.
 Nugatorius, a, um, trifyng, of that trifier.
 Nugax, acis, om. g. that trifier.
 Nugiger, of Nugigerulus, a, um, that beareth aboute of telleth tales, fables, vayne thynges of trifles.
 Nuguendus, a seller of trifles and fables, he that selleth trifles to women.
 Nugor, aris, ari, to trifle, to dallye.
 Nullatenus, in no wyse.
 Nullus, a, um, none. Sometye it signifieth non, sometye of no price, value of profite, vayne.
 Nulli consilij, for nullius consilij.
 Nullibi, no where.
 Nullo negotio, easly.
 Nullorum hominum homo, lyke no man.
 Si non querit, nullus dixeris, If he dooe not enquire sell not.
 Nullus sum, I am vndoen, I were as good bee dead.
 Nullus dum, no man vntyll this daye, neuce man. Nulla est igitur hæc amicitia, Therfore this frendshipp is vayne, of nothyng worthe, of not worthe to bee called frendshipp.
 Is nullus venir, he cometh not.
 Nulla fide esse, vntwothyne to be trusted, not to be trusted of beleued, false, of no credite.
 Nullis litteris viri, a man bitterly vnlearned.
 Nullo loco deesse alicui, to healte one in all thynges.
 Nullo fine, without ende.
 Nullo ordine, without order.
 Nullam in partem, for nullo pacto.

Nullius, for neutrius.
 Nullo modo, nullo pacto, nulla ratione, by no meane.
 Num, for An. It is properly to be used, where the answer must be made by Non and An, where the answer must be made by Ita, etiam, or any other words of affirmynge.
 Num cogitat quid dicat deus he regardes of consider what he saith.
 Num censet faceret? would he doe it thynghe Num ego te spoliavi? dyd I robbe the?
 Numnam for nam, or virum.
 Numnam tu hic relictus custos? Arte thou leste here to watche?
 Numnam perimus? ar we not all vndwen?
 Numnam ego perii? Am not I vndoen for euer?
 Numa, the seconde kynge of the Romayns nexte after Romulus. He was chosen by the people and senate of Rome, of a poore gentylman, dwellynge in a towne of the Sabynes called Cures, for his excellent vertues and lernynge, sayng of the discipline of Pythagoras. He by his policie and ceremonies, byaghte the Romans (who duryng the tyme of Romulus were continually occupied in warres) in such a wonderfull quietnesse and honeste course of lypynge, that the cuntreyes enuyronnyng theim, by the space of xl. yeres, dyd neuer moue warre agaynst them.
 Numana, a towne in Italy.
 Numantia, a citee in Spayne about Biskaye, whiche was of such valyentnesse, that beeyng besieged of the Romayns xlii. yeres continually, yet they dyd not onely resist, haungeth but. int. thousande men to defende it, but also vanquished xl. thousand Romayns. At the last it was destroyed by the last Scipio, after he had besieged it a longe tyme. For whan they had longe susteyned famine, and myghte not stue forth to fyght in battaile: they burned theym selues and all their goodes.
 Numarius, a, um, of or belongynge to moneye.
 Res numaria, a money matter.
 Iudicium numarium, a iudgement corrupted with moneye.
 Iudices numarii, iudges corrupted with moneye.
 Difficulus numaria, scarcitee of lacke of moneye.
 Num tanta difficultas rei numarie eu tenet? Hath he so great neede of scarcitee of moneye?
 Res numaria tenet eum, he is in neede of moneye.
 Numatio, onis, f. m. ge. the haungeth of a great abundance of moneye.
 Numatus, a, um, well monied, riche of moneye.
 Marsupium numatum, a purse full of moneye.
 Numella, æ, and sometye Numellus, li, a cumbyrell, wherin men be sette, haungeth therein theyr handes and legges. Also a bynde of colare of shables.

Numerus, to the begges, begges, open of other begges.
Numerus, numerus, n. g. the power, wyl, maie:
the, or vertue of god. sometime it signifieth
god. sometime apparable.
Numina diuum, id est oracula.
Manifesto numine, id est manifesto deorum iudicio.
Numeratio, onis, f. g. numbyng.
Numerabilis, le, that which may be numbyed.
Numerans, le, pectryng to numbye.
Numerarius, a, um, that is of numbyes.
Numeratus, a, um, numbyed.
Numerato, promptly, at hande, by numbye.
In numerato habere ingenium, to haue a wit
apte and redb vnto verry thyng.
In numerato, in redb money.
Claudius Isidorus testamēto suo dixit, quē uis multa ciuili bello perdidisset, tamē relin-quere seruorum quatnor millia, luga boum tria millia sexcenta, reliqui pecoris ducenta quingenta millia, in numerato, pondo sexcenta millia. Claude Isidore, rehearsed in his testamēt, not withstanding that he had losse much in the ciuile warres, yet dydde he leaue four thousand bondemen, three thousand and foure hundred pokes of oxen, of other cattelle, it.
hundred and fiftie thousande, and in redb money, three hundred thousande pounde.
Número, aui, are, to numbye of tell, to accompt, to reken in odyr. It is sometime used for Has-bere, of Censere, to esteeme, to iudge, to thynke, to coumpt.
Numerare pecuniam, to paye, lende of bellice money out of hande.
Numerare alicui, idem.
Prope collega Timarchidi numerabatur, he was almoste taken of coumpted to be felowe in office with Timarchidus.
Nullo loco numerare rem aliquam, to sette nothyng by a thyng, to esteeme of rechen it nothyng worthy.
Numerare in bonis, To rechen amonge god
thynges, to thynke it god.
Neq in rectis, neque in prauis numerabar, he dyd esteeme it nother god noy yll.
Inter amicos numerare, to rechen one his frend.
Número, the aduerbe, very sone, by and by.
Número dicis, id est facile ac compendio, of after some Ciro & celeriter.
Número huc aduenis, thou comest hither ve-rate sone, or to quickly.
Numerosus, in great numbye, also by measure.
Numerosus, a, um, great in numbye.
Opus numerosas poscit manus, The worke requyeth many handes, of the healte of manye
men.
Numerus, i, m. g. numbye. sometime quantitee, especially in grayne, or thynges measured. It is also harmony, measure, and order in spillables, sometime company assembled, speciall ye of the worst sort of people. It is sometime the hour, estimation.

Numeris omnibus absolutus, perfects at all poyntes.
Numeri, be sometime taken for verses, metres.
Magnus numerus frumenti, a great quantiatie of sayne.
Maximus vini numerus fuit, there was much wyne, of a great quantitee of wyne.
Ex eorum numero aliquis, one of theim, one of their part of company.
Quo numero fuisti, in what state of estimation wast thou.
Nullo numero homo, a villayne of vyle person, nothyng worth, not worthy to be coumpted a man.
Número abundare, To bee to many of beaies many.
Hanc ad tuum numerum adscribito, Rechen take of coumpt hym among your frendes.
Distribuere in numeros, to diuide into bātes.
Número eximere, to choose, to sette apart, to exempt, to note as excellent of singular.
Habui numerum sedulo, I remembred well
howe many it was.
Habere aliquem in numero suo, To esteeme and repute a man to be one of his frendes.
Aliquo numero haberi, of esse, to be some what esteemed of set by.
Ut in aliquo numero esse possis, that you may haue mo felowes the your selfe.
Aliquem numerum obtinebat, he was reputed of taken for one, or he deserued to bee in some estimation.
Dicimus milites, non dum relatos in numerum, whan they be chosen, but not yet bylled and appoynted to their capitaine and bande.
Quo in numero Chalcis accipitur, among the whiche Chalcis is numbyed.
Quo in numero ego sum, of the whiche num-bye I am one.
Qui ne liberi quidem hominis numero sit,
whiche is not worthy to be accepyed a free man.
Deorum numero esse alicui, to bee esteemed and reputed a god.
Cum is tibi parentis numero esset, where as you esteemed hym euen as your father.
Ludere in numerum, to daunce by measure.
Numicius, a riuer not far from Lauinium.
Numicus, a ryuer in Italie by the citee Lauini-um, in the whiche Aeneas was drowned.
Numida, a man or woman of Numidie.
Numidia, a countrey betwene Carthage and Mauretania in Aferike, and now is called Babaria, where Masinissa dydde sometime regne: in that countrey is founde moste excellent marble, the chiefe citee there was named Cir-ta, whiche was veraye stronge, and so puissant of men, that in the tyme of Strabo, it myghte harmente ten thousande hoysmen, & twentie thousande footemen.

Numisiana vitis, & Numisiane vuz, a kynde of bynes and grapes, reade in Columella, Lib. 3. cap. 2.

Numisma, misimatis, n. g. money.

Númitor, óris, father vnto Rhea, whiche was the mother of Romulus.

Numuláriu, rij, m. g. he that keepeth a banche of money.

Numulus, li, m. g. a little piece of coppe.

Nummáriu, ij, m. g. and Nummatus, looke Numarius.

Nummáriu, a, um, looke Numarius.

Numus, i, m. g. money or coppe, some do write it with double, M. it is also a brazen or syluer coppe among the Romanes, called Sesterius, or Sesterius nummus, aboute the value of i. d. ob. or an olde sterlyng peny, when eyght grotes made an ounce.

Numus argenteus, as Leonardus Portius writeth, was that whiche was also called Denarius Romanus, and weighed a dram, and the thirde part of a dram, which was foure sterples.

Numus aureus, although it were altered sundry tymes, yet the same Portius doeth gather of the fyrst chapiter of the xviii. booke of Plinie, and of Suetonius, in the lyfe of Otho, and Plutarchus, in the lyfe of Galba, that at that tyme, nummus aureus was in value. xii. nummi argentei, and in that wyle it agreed with the Venetian ducate, which was worth. xii. of our grotes, whā eight of them made an ounce.

Nummus adulterinus, counterfeyte or forged money.

Quadrages nummum, one hundred thousand crownes, 20000. li. sterlyng.

Nunc, nowe, nowe at the last, At this present, at this tyme, also, nowe and neuer before: some tyme it is vsed for Autem, as,

Bona facile mutantur in peius, nunc quando in bonum verteris vitia: for quando autem, or Sed quando.

Nunc aliud specta, nowe marke an other thyng: or yet more ouer consider an other thyng: for Nunc is here taken for iam, which is often vsed for Præterea, Insuper, Adhæc, furthermore besides all thys.

Nunc temporis, now a dayes.

Nunc iam, euen now, also nowe at the length.

Nunc est, interfici quum perpeti me possim, Now at this present tyme so it is, that I could be contente to die.

Nunc illud est, quod si omnes omnia confilia, &c. Nowe is the matter come into suche case or state, that yf. &c.

Nunc ipsum, pro ipso momento & puncto temporis.

Nunc primū audio quid illo factum sit, now is the fyrst tyme that euer I herd what is become of hym.

Nunc primum, for primo, fyrst and foremost.

Nunc denique, What? nowe so late? nowe so longe after?

Nunc vero, but nowe.

Nunc iam sum expeditus, nowe at the last I am dispatched.

Nuncubi, pro nunquid & alicubi.

Nuncubi meam benignitatem sensisti in te claudice? Diddest thou euer perceiue, that I dyd not vse my selfe liberally towardes thee?

Nuncius, looke Nuntius.

Nuncupatio, ónis, f. g. a pronouncing, a telling, a recytinge, a namynge, a declaration of a wyll.

Nuncupo, aui, are, to name or to calle a thyng by some name, to pronounce and tell expressely, to make expresse mention, to recite, to rehearse, to declare his wyll by mouthe, concerning the apoynting of his heire and legacies before, vii. witnesses.

Nuncupata voluntas, a testament or wyll made by mouthe, and not in writing.

Nuncupare votum, to make a solemne vow.

Nuncupatum lingua, men of olde tyme called that, whiche was with the mouthe, and expresse wordes promysed.

Nundina, æ, a goddess of the Romanes.

Nundinæ, arum, f. g. plur. fayres, markettes, markettes, they were amonge the olde Romanes kepte euery nythe daye, wher vnto all people resorted, and then all lawes, whiche were new made, were proclaimed.

Nundinális, ðe, pertaining to fayres.

Nundinatio, ónis, f. g. buyng and selleng.

Iuris nundinatio, buyng and selleng of lawe or iustice for hyppes.

Nundinarius, a, um, longynge or serving to fayres. Oppidum nudinarium, the towne where the fayre is kepte.

Nundinator, óris, m. g. he that goeth to fayres or markettes to bye and sell.

Nundinor, áris, ari, to bye and selle openly, as they doe in fayres.

Nunquam, neuer, or it is vnpossible. Sometyme for Non.

Nunquam hoc vno die efficiatur opus, It is impossible that this enterpryse maie be brought to passe in one daye.

Nunquam non, alwaye.

Nunquam post illa, neuer sens that.

Nunquam quicquam, nothyng in the worlde.

Nunquam fui vsquam, I was neuer in anye place.

Nunquando for Num aliquando.

Nunquis, nunquæ, nunquid, is there any?

Nunquid ego sum? Is it I?

Nunquid vis? Wyll you any thyng with me? Wyll you any thyng commaund me? Wyll ye tōs maunde me any seruyce?

Nunquid præterea, is there any thyng els?

Nunquid nā amplius tibi cum illa fuit Charines, haddest thou any thyng els to dooe with hir? Nunquid dubitas? Doost thou doubt any any thynges of best: then not thynke bestly.

 Rogo nunquid velle, I aske hym whether he woulde commaunde me any thynges.
 Nunquid horum probat? Dooth he allowe any of these thynges?
 Nuntia, f. g. a woman messenger, or a thyng that byngeth tydynges.
 Nuntiatio, ōis, f. g. a reposte, a shewing, a declaringe.
 Nuntio, aui, are, to shewe tydynges or newes, to reposte, to tell.
 Voluptatem magnam nuntias, thou shewest
 thynges that be veraye pleasant.
 Salutem nuntiare, to sende or byng commens varius by letters or by mowthe.
 Nuntiarat domum, tydynges are broughte home, alia Romam nuntiarum est, other new wes were brought to Rome.
 Nuntiare monstra, to tell strange and won derfull thynges.
 Nuntium, n. g. a messaige. Valla sayth: this worde is not red in any probate authour.
 Remittere nuntium vxori, to repudiate and put away his wyfe.
 Nuntius, n. g. a messaiger of messaige, tydy
 nges, newes.
 Nuntij afferuntur, newes or tydynges are broughte.
 Perferre nuntium, to byng worde or tydy nges. De Quinto fratre nuntij nobis tristes venerunt, These came or was brought to vs
 heauy tydynges of my brother Quintus.
 Accipere nuntium, to here worde or tydy nges.
 Virtuti nuntium remisisti, thou haste caste of or forsaken vertue.
 Nuo, ui, etc, ppropely to noddé with the head, to signifie by noddynge. it was vsed of olde wy
 ters for Volo.
 Nuper, late, not longe agone.
 Nuper admodum, verie late, but a whyle agon.
 Nuperrime, veraye lately.
 Nuperus, a, um, late down or happened.
 Nupta, x, f. g. a woman that is married.
 Nuptiarum, plur. a weddinge.
 Nuptialis, le, pertepning to weddinge.
 Nupturire, to couete mariage.
 Nuptus, a, um, wedded.
 Nuptus, i, m. g. the man that is married.
 Nouus nuptus, the byde groomme.
 Nuptus, us, m. g. mariage, weddinge.
 Nuptui collocare, to geue his daughter to be married.
 Nursia, a citee of the Sabines, not farre from Rome, set on the hilles of Ambzia.
 Nursini, people of that citee.
 Nurus, us, f. g. the sonnes wyfe.
 Nuscitiosi, idem quod luscitiosi.
 Nusquam, an aduerbe, no where, or in no place.
 also nowhither, or to no place.
 Ille autem bonus vir nusquam apparer, that honest man can be found in no place.

 Te nusquam minam, I wyll sende the no whither.
 Nusquam pedem, he shall not goe one foot further.
 Nusquam gentium, no where.
 Nusquam non, euery where.
 Nutans, antis, om. g. noddynge, enclynnge or wagging downward, as though it wold fall.
 Nutatio, ōis, f. g. noddynge, as a mans head
 dooth, when he sterteth steppyn.
 Nuto, aui, are, to becken or shake the head. Comes tyme to leane and her ryde to fall in decapet.
 sometime to doubt which parte to take, or to leane vnto.
 Nutat ne Loquar, he beckett vpon me, that I should not speake.
 Victoria nutat, victorye inclineth nowe to one parte, nowe to another, or maureth betwene bothe parties.
 Nutricatio, ōis, f. g. nouryng.
 Nutricatus, us, m. g. nouriture.
 Nutrico, aui, are, and Nutricor, aris, ari, idem quod nutrio.
 Nutricula, x, f. g. a nouryter.
 Nutricula casa, the nurserie, the place where the chyld is nouryshed.
 Nutrimen, inis, and Nutrimentum, i, n. g. nous ryshment.
 Nutrimenta, ōrum, n. g. plur. pro nutrimenta
 ne, the same.
 Nutrio, iui, ire, to nourysh.
 Nutrire vinum, to conserue and kepe wyne.
 Nutricia, ōrum, n. g. plur. the nurces wages.
 Nutritius, the nourice husbande.
 Nutritius, a, um, pertepning to nouryng.
 Nutricor, ōis, m. g. he that nourysheth.
 Nutritus, a, um, nourished.
 Nutritus, us, m. g. nouryng, or nouriture.
 Nutrix, icis, f. g. a nourice. Also a place where men doe some trees or herbes, to the intente that when they haue taken roote, they wyll remoue theim, and sette them in a gardeyne or orcharde.
 Nutus, us, m. g. the signe that one maketh with his eses or head, declaring his intent, a becke, sometyme it signifieth the wyll or pleasure of
 one. also the declining or bendynge of a thyng
 downwarde.
 Nutu & renutu, with a becke towarde and frowarde.
 Demonstrare aliquid nutu, to signifie any thyng with bekyng or noddynge.
 Expeditus ad nutum alicuius, ready at ones
 becke or pleasure.
 Nux, ucis, f. g. a nutte.
 Nux auellana, a fylberde, or hasell nutte.
 Nux iuglans, a walnutte.
 Nux muscata, vel myristica, a nutmygge, hot and dry in the seconde degree.
 Nux pinca, a pyne appull.

Nucem conficere, to knache a nutte.
 Nuces relinquere, to leaue obdurd matters and geue hym selfe to earnest affayres.
 Nux græca, an almonde.
 Nux mollusca, a peache.

N. ANTE. Y.

NYctalops, opis, om. ge. he that seeth in the daye tyme well, in the eueninge deep littell, at nighte nothing at all, he is also called Lusciosus.

Nyctalopia, x, f. g. that discafe of the eyes.

Nyctalopa, an herbe called also Nyctegreton, of fpyr coloure, and syneth by nighte. Some thynke it to be that, whiche is called Lunasia, geefe at the fyrst sight of it be affrayde, and therfore it is called Chenamychon.

Nyctegreton, like Nyctalopa.

Nycteis, idos, the daughter of nece of Nictens.

Nyctelius, the surname of Bacchus, because his sacrifices were dooen in the night.

Natex Nyctelius, wyne.

Nycteris, teridis, f. ge. a ceremouse of barke, whiche hath so small seete, that he seemeth to haue none. Cherephon, the philosophier was so called, for his excedyng teannesse, that he gat with ouermuche study.

Nycteritis, the herbe called also Anagallis.

Nycteus dissyllabum, a kyng, the father of Antirope.

Nycticorax, oracis, m. g. a nyght crowe.

Nyctileia, sacrifices by night.

Nyctimene, the daughter of Nycteus, who after she had lyen with hir father, was turned into an owle.

Nyctorix, or after some Nitocris, a queene of Babylon, after Semiramis.

Nympha, x, f. ge. dweth signifie the byde of spouse nowe married, a nymphe of fayrie.

Nymphæ, maydes of the sea, elles. Sometymes the mules also ponge bees before they do flie.

Nymphæna, a certayn precious stone.

Nymphæa, the herbe called filix femina.

Nymphæa, called also of the apothecaries Ne-nuphar, an herbe and flower called the water
 lily, or water roses.

Nymphæum, phæi, n. g. an estwe of bayne, a washyng place.

Nymphæum, a promontory of hylle of Proconessus, out of the whiche alwaye issueth fyre.

Nymphæus, a ryuer in Italy by Melite.

Nympholepti, idem quod Lymphati.

Nymphus, the byde growne.

Nysa, a citee of Arabie, where Bacchus was nourished. also a mountayne and a citee in India, builded by Liber pater. One Nysa is in Beroia, an other in Laria, and certayn other places.

Nyseia, a citee in India at the fote of the mountayne Heron.

Nysius, x, m. of Nysa.
 Nyssa, dissyllabum, name of Bacchus.
 Nyssa, a certayne kynde of fyre.
 Nyssa, aadis, a woman of Asla.
 Nysigena, one boyne in Asla.
 Nyssa, x, f. g. a name of Asla, from whiche the ners fetch their race.
 Nysus, the frende of Euripus, betaye swithe in cennys.

O. ANTE. A.

AN. INTER.

lection, bled
 in wounding.
 Sometime with a vocative case
 Sometime a nominative case,
 Sometime an accusative case,
 Sometime in exclamacion,
 Sometime in

lamentyng, Sometime in wishyng.

O me perditum, alas! I am vndooen. Some-tyme in scoynyng.

O præclaram sapientiam, O the goddly wisse;
 dome. Sometime with reioysyng.

O factum bene, O that is well dooen. Some-tyme it is the voice of hym that is sodenly stris-ken, or speaketh to one that he sawe worde before.

Quis hic loquitur? Misit salue, O salue pamaphile, who talketh here? Whis god saue you, O Pamphilus welcome.

O, for vtinam.

O tatum libeat mecum tibi sordida rura ha-biare, Would god it mighte please the to in-habite or dwell in the homely felde with me.

Oatarica, a spaume of fyre called.

Oaxis, a ryuer in the yle of Candie.

Oaxus, a citee in Candie.

O. ANTE. B.

OB, for. Sometime for Ante, beefore. In composition for Circum, as Obambulare.

Dum obrem, so that it be for my profyte.

Ob oculos, beefore myne eyes, Ob tacendum, for vt taceat, that he should not tell.

Precium ob stulticiam fero, I am serued lyke a foole. or I am serued well enough for my folly.

Precium ob asinos, id est asinorum, the pyce of the asses, money for the asses.

Ob dictum, for a woorde speakyng.

Quasi ob industriam, as it were of purpose, or for the nones.

Opposum pignori ob decem minas, layde to mortgage for ten pounde.

Qui

Quilano ob oculum habebat, whiche had a clothe before his eye.
Mihi fecisti ob nullam noxiam, ye dyd it to me without a cause, or for nothing that I was guilty of.
Obacerbo, aui, are, to make one angry.
Obacero, aui, are, to lette a man that he can not tell out his tale.
Oberatus, a, um, bounden by earnest money, indebted.
Obambulatio, onis, f. g. a walkyng about, a walkyng agaynst one.
Obambulo, aui, are, to walke agaynst an other.
 also to walke together or with an other, also to walke about. sometyme to go to mete.
Obarmo, aui, are, idem quod armo.
Obaresco, scere, to dye all aboute.
Obaro, obaras, aui, are, to care aboute.
Obater, atra, um, somewhat blacke, in maner darke or blacke.
Obaudia, diui, dire, to heare hardely or unweyllingly. sometyme to heare.
Obba, a, for, g. a buttell.
Obbibis, obbibis, obbibis, ere, to drynke.
Obcacatus stulticia, blynded with folie.
Obcaco, aui, are, to blynd, to make darke or obscure. Obccare fossas, to couer dyches.
Obccari tenebris, to be made darke or obscure.
Obcalleo, loke Occalleo.
Obdo, didi, dere, to thrust agaynst, to put to.
Obdere forem, to shut or spere the dore of a gate.
Pessulum ostio obdo, I bolted or sparrd the dore.
Obdere ceram auribus, to stoppe the eares with waxe.
Obdormio, iui, ire, to sleape fast or soundly.
Obdormire crapulam, to slepe till he be effe-tiones sobre, to digest his surfeit with slepe.
Obdormisco, scere, to nappe, to fall on sleape.
Obduco, xi, ere, to laye ouer, to couer a thynge all ouer. sometyme to vnsouer or open. also to bryng agaynst or ouerthwarte a place, to bryng aboute. also for Inducere, as Obducere torpore, to induce or cause a dulleesse or ston-yng of the membres.
Obducere cicatricem, to couer a wounde with skynne, to close vp a wounde.
Obducere vultum, to lowe, to lowe somely.
Callum obducere, to make harde or thicke skynned, and psonethially, to cause to suffer with lesse payne or greife.
Obducere callum dolori, to cause one to sufferne or suffer sozome without greife, or more easly.
Tenebras obducere, to darken, to obscure, to make lesse knowen, famous, or notable.
Ex ciuis obducta exalabat lumina prunæ, id
 est superducta, couered, hilled.
Crustam obducere, to growe to an harde skin or cruste.

Rubiginem obducere, to make rusty.
Frontem obducere, to frowne, to lowe, to lowe somely.
Diem obduci, I obduci of myght out that daye with nothing about.
Obduxio, onis, f. g. a couerynge.
Obduxio capitis, the foldyng of myppynge vp of the head and clothe or other thynge.
Obduxio aui, are, the frequentative of obduco.
Obductus, a, um, couered, hilled.
Obductus aui, are, couered or closed in a cloude.
Obductum rubigine ferrum, yron all eaten
 ouer with rust.
Sien obductus, confectione and ouer with hoynesse of duste.
Obdulesco, scere, to be swarte aboute.
Obduro, ui, ere, to bee harde.
Obduresco, scere, to be hardened, to become harde.
Obduro, aui, are, to make harde.
Obediens, entis, om. g. that obeyeth, obedient.
Obediens dicto, he that doeth that which he is commaunded to do.
Obedienter, obediently.
Obedientia, e, f. g. obedience.
Obedio, obedis, iui, ire, to obey.
Parere & obedire.
Obtemperare & obedire.
Obedibo, was of olde tyme vsed for Obediam
si ad verba nobis obediunt, If they doe according to the wordes that we doe speake.
Obedo, obedis, obedi, obedere, to consume or eat all aboute.
Obeliscus, i, m. g. a greate square stone lyke a butte, waxing smaller and smaller vnto the top of a great heyghte, made playne by a warhem.
 There were of theym diuers in Rome.
Obelus, obeli, m. g. a spitte, or byrche. Also a longe streke in wytyng lyke to a spytte, for a note or diuersitee.
Obeo, iui, ire, to go to, to go aboute, to bee at hande, to be assient or present, to mete with one, to dye, to dye or exerce.
Obire mortem, Obire diem, Obire diem extremum, to dye. Obire vadimonium, to ap-prete and be present at the day appoynted.
Obeunt tres noctes, id est praterenti, thre nyghtes passe.
Id obire non potui, id est peragere, I coulde not attayne it or go throughe with it.
Obire morbo, to dye of a sicknesse.
Comitia obire, to be presente at, or to goe to the assemblies of the people.
Diem aliquem obire, to be assient or present in a place, at a daye appoynted, or accustomed.
Obijt legatus Aegyptum, he was ambassadour in Egypte, or he beyng ambassadoz went about all Egypte.
Morte obijt repentina, she dyed sodenly.
Munus consulis obire, to doe and exercise the authorite of a consull.

Omnia per se obire, to do all hym selfe with our helpe of any other.

Obire domos amicorum, To goe all aboute from one frendes house to another.

Obire opus rusticum, to labour in the field.
Prælia obire, to fyght.

Sichiam totam obiri, I went ouer all Sicile.
Vires obire, to goe aboute in the field.

Obire, sometime for Circadare, to come of compassion rounde about.

Obire legationem, to goe in ambassage.
Obire prouinciam, to goe about the prouince,

whither one is sent, as lieutenant, or gouer-nour. Obire bellum, to goe to battayle, to make warre.

Quia tot simul bella obire nequirent, Bees cause they coulde not susteyne the cravynge of so manie and dyuers warres at one tyme, or goe to and bee presente at so manie warres together.

Obire hereditatem, to take possession of lands
des, wher a man hath a state of inheritance.

Obire cenas cum aliquo, to goe to banquettes with one hyther and thither.

Obire oculis, to looke here and there about.

Obire pedibus regiones, to goe into dyuers countreys on foote.

Obequito, aui, are, to ryde about.

Obero, aui, are, to wander about, to ren about from place to place. Comotymus to flee about, also to to vne of mynle.

Obeſco, aui, are, to fede fatte, to cramme.

Obeſitas, atis, f. g. fatnesse grossenes.

Obeſo, aui, are, to make fatte, to cramme.

Obeſus, a, um, in Virgile, is fatte. In Neuius it signifieſh leane, ſpell, ſclandre. It is moſte commonlye taken for groſſe of fatte of bodye, quarrey, coſly.

Obex, obicis, com. g. an obiecte of lette, a ſpurre or bolte of a dowe.

Obfirmare, obſtinately.

Obfirmatus, a, um, ſubburne, ſtyffe, earneſtlye bent or mynded.

Obfirmo, aui, are, to harden ones ſelfe, to haue an echel opinion, to be earneſtlye purpoſed.

Ne ram obſirma te, be not ſo ſtyffe or ſo hard hearted.

Obfirmare viam, obſtinately to goe ſorwarde with his purpoſe, what let ſo euer there bee.

Obfirmare animum, to be ſubburne and obſ-ſtinate. Somtyme in the good parte to bende. vt.
to bende ones mynde earneſtly on a thyng.

Ogannio, iui, ire, to whyſter in ones care, also to tell a thyng often, to chaſte.

Obharreo, harere, to cleave or ſtycke.

Obharbeſco, ſcere, to growe by as herbes doo.

Obiaceo, obiacies, cui, ere, to lye about or agagnt, also to lye befoze, to lye in the waye.

Obiectaculum, i, neu. ge. that whiche is ſette of thyng befoze one, to make hym aſtrayde, or ſo lette hym that he ſhall not paſſe.

Obiectatio, onis, f. g. a reproche, a ſaying to ones charge, a calling in the ſquare.

Obiecto, cui, are, to obiecte or often impuſe or laye to ones charge, also to call out.

Corpora bello obiectant, they put theys bodies in the danger of warre.

Obiectum, i, neu. ge. any thyng that is befoze mans eyes and may bee ſene.

Obiectas, a, um, thyng, layde, or ſet agaynt, put befoze, ſetwen to, layd to ones charge, ſette in ones ſight, caſt or layde ſightly in harmes way, redie to danger.

Obiectus, us, m. gen. the ſaynge or ſettinge of a thyng befoze ones eyes, or agaynt one.

Obiecto, obicis, eci, ere, to lay or throw agaynt, or to laye befoze one, to laye to ones charge, to caſt in ones ſight, to laye to ones reproche, also to cauſe to remembre, to bring in mynde, to caſt out in harme or perils waye.

Obiocere mentem alicui, To put in to a mans head, or to bring one in a fantaſy, to put into ones mynde to do a thyng.

Obiocere moram, to make one to tary, to let.

Obiocere preuaricationem, to ſaye a matter to ones charge.

Obiocere religionem, to make one to be ſerui-pulous, or to make conſcience in a matter.

Obiocere ſolitudinem, to make one carefull or penſiue.

Obiocere ſpem, to put one in hope.

Obiocere terrorem, to make one aſſerde.

Obiocere caput periclis, To put hym ſelfe in daunger to be ſlayne.

Obiocere cibum canibus, to caſt meate to the dogges.

Obiocere furorem alicui, to put one in a madneſſe or fury.

Laticiam obicere alicui, to ſetwe to one ſo
deply loyfull and meey thynges.

Metum animo alicuius obicere, to put one in a feare, to make hym aſſerde.

Salutem ſuam pro aliquo obicere, To putte ones ſelfe in daunger for a man.

Obiici ad omnes caſus, to be ſette in daunger of all chaunces.

Obiens, untis, of Obeo, obii, goyng or compaſſyng rounde about.

Obigitare, to ſtirre or meue befoze.

Obinanis, ne, breake vacant and emptye.

Obinunt, they dye.

Obiratus, a, um, beate angry, greatly moued.

O'biter, by the waye, incidently, beſide the purpoſe, in the meane tyme, precieſely.

Obitus, obita, um, dyng.

Obitus, obitus, m. ge. the dyng or deſceſſe of a man: ſomtyme the comyng of one. The aun-cient wyters toke Obitum, for the acceſſe or comyng to one by chaunce.

Obitus lune, the goyng downe of the mone.
Stellarum ortus atque obitus.

Obiurgatio, onis, ſcm. gener. chidinge, rebuſhyng,

annoynted all aboute.
 Parricidius oblitus, shamefully disposed of dishonestly with some detestable murder.
 Oblivio, ōnis, f. g. forgetfulness.
 Oblivioni dare, to forget.
 Capit me oblitio, I have forgotten.
 Conterere voluntaria obliuione, To forget willingly, and putte quite and cleane out of resmembrance.
 In obliuione iacuit, he was quite and cleane out of memory, and nothing spoken of.
 Oblivionem tibi surrepere aui, They saye that he forgettech to eate his meate.
 Venire in obliuionem, to be forgotten.
 Ab obliuione vindicare, To make that one shall neuer be forgotten.
 Obluctans obliuioni, goyng about to call to remembrance, or tryng to mynde.
 Oblivione delere & obruere, to forget.
 Obliviosus, a, um, forgetfull, obliuious. Comes tyme that causeth to forget.
 Obliviscor, scēris, sci, to forget.
 Oblivium, n. g. idem quod obliuio.
 Obloco, oblocas, aui, are, idem quod Loco.
 Oblocutio, ōnis, f. g. p̄l report.
 Oblongus, a, um, very longe.
 Obloquor, eris, obloqui, to speake agaynst, to say contrary, to reporte p̄l, to curle.
 Obloquitor, ōris, m. g. an p̄l reporter or de-tractour.
 Oblacitor, aris, ari, to erre.
 Obluctor, aris, ari, to waste, strue or struggle
 agaynst.
 Obludo, si, ere, to play with one.
 Obmāens, abydyng longe.
 Obmōlior, iris, iri, to sette some thynge with greate labour agaynst the place, whereby one must nedes passe.
 Obmordeo, di, ere, to bite.
 Obmouere, olde wyters vsed for Admouere.
 Obmūmuro, aui, are, to murmur agaynst.
 Obmutesco, mutui, scere, as we commonly say,
 I holde my peace, I speake not, I holde my tongue, I haue not a woorde to say.
 Obmutescere dicitur res aliqua, not to be in vse.
 Obnato obnatas, aui, are, to swyme agaynst.
 Obnatus, a, um, growyng or spryngyng about.
 Obnexo, xui, ectere, to knit fast.
 Obnexio, ōnis, f. g. a fast knittynge.
 Obnexus, a, um, fast knitte.
 Obniger, gra, um, blacke, somewhat blacke, or after some, very blacke.
 Obnitor, niteris, ti, to resist with al ones power, to strue agaynst with all his myght, to endeuour with all force to let a thynge.
 Obnixē, an aduerbe, signifyng with al his might or power, or firmly, as muche as one can.
 Manibus pedibusq; obnixē omnia facit, He doeth all thynges with hande and foote, as muche as in him lieth.
 Obnixus, a, um, that earnestly resisteth or strys with agaynst, or labouryth to withstande.

 Obnoxius opibus, id est attentus ad rem, wholly bent to get and kepe money.
 Obnoxius, a, um, bounden, subiecte, vnt in dan-gier, obedient, in the power of the churche.
 Sometime is signifyng guilt of faulte, that hath deserved to be punished.
 Sum nbi obnoxius, I am bounden of subiect vnto the.
 Obnoxius p̄nē, subiecte to punishment deserved.
 Obnoxius morbis, subiecte to sicknesses.
 Periculis obnoxius, subiecte to perils.
 Ninari interdum ferro, nisi sibi obnoxia for-ret, and threthed his sometyme with his weapon, if he woulde not be obedient to his re-questes.
 Obnoxium feris, to cast out to wilde beastes.
 In dangier to be hurte of wilde beastes.
 Obnoxium ingenium, a dishonest wit.
 Obnoxia cura arua, fieldes necessarie to bee husbanded and tended.
 Ego me obnoxium esse fateor, I graunt that I am faultie.
 Procellis obnoxia, in dangier of stormes, or that quickly taketh harme by stormes.
 Obnoxius legibus, in dangier of the lawes
 by reason of some offence doon.
 Obnoxia munera & officia, among the ancient wysets were taken for those offices, the ministracion of the whiche was vile and dishonest, which also minished libertie or nobilitie of byrthe.
 Obnoxius gratie iudex, the iudge whiche regardeth fauour or pleasynge of the one parte, a iudge that regardeth ones complaynt, and Memeth fauour, fauourable.
 Obnoxia corpora, bodies diseased, and not in helthe, sickely bodies.
 Obnoxius iniuriis, to whome one may soone
 dooe wronge.
 Obnoxia nulli animati olera, herbes that no beast will hurt or eate.
 Obnoxius crimini, he that is charged with an offence.
 Obnoxie, fearefully, like a subiecte or slave.
 Non obnoxie, evidently, playnly.
 Obnubilo, aui, are, to make darke with cloudes, to make cloudie. also to make heny and sad in countenance.
 Obnubilus, a, um, cloudy or darke.
 Obnubo, nupsi, nubere, to hyde, to couer ouer and ouer, to couer the head or body.
 Obnuntiatio, ōnis, form. g. a declaracion of the diuinours called Augures, to the chief officers of Rome, that any thynge shoulde not bee en-terprised or doon, that was purposed, by reas-son of certayne sygnes or tokens, whiche the saied diuinours percepued by the sight or voyce of byrdes, whiche was contrary to the purpose that they went about.

Obnung

Obnuntio, aui, are, to tell of new p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]nges, and thynge by p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]ng of vntilke, to denie,
to resist agaynst a thynge purposed.

Obolco, oboles, olui, and oleui, lere, to spyke, to p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]ng, to p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]ng, to p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]ng.

Obolus, oboli, m. g. a weyght conteynyng thye Siliqua, or carities, and is halfe a temple. it was also a coyne of Sylue; but that varied according to the countrie, where they were currant: as Obolus Atticus, Romanus, Hebraicus, it is now commonly used for an half peny.

Obolus terra, is the 3/4 part of iugerum, that is five fote in breadth, and .x. in length:
which containeth .50. fote square.

Obolus, amonge the Atheniens was eight of the coynes called Chalci, and every Chalci was half quadrians, so that Obolus, contained iiii. quadriantes, and was in value somewhat lesse then our halfe peny sterling, as some have subged, but I thinke it to be moze by a little, for Drachma conteyned, 6. Obolos, and Denarius, being of the same value, contained. iiii.
sextantios, every sextantius is in value a sterling penie, when eight grotes made an ounce.

Oborior, oboriris, or oboreris, oboriri, to begin to spring or come forth, to rise.

Obortus, a, um, begun or spronge, risen by.
Rumor obortus, tydnge spronge.

Tanta letitia oborta est mihi, so greafe toy or gladnesse is chaunced and come to me.

Aduentu suorum lacrymae sunt obortae, whā his acquaintance or frendes came, he burst out in weeping, or the teares trickled downe his cheekes.

Risus obortus est, he burst out in laughynge.

Obrado, rasi, radere, to shave agaynst the heare.

Obracatus, a, um, made hoarse.

Ob rem, for the purpose.

Obrepo, repsi, repere, to come p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]ly, to steale in, to come vntwares or vntlooked for, to creepe vpon one ere he be ware. sometyne to deceiue
one.

Obrepere ad honores, to come or attayne to honour by crafty dissimulation, vnder the colour of learnyng, wisdom, or honestie.

Obrepit somnus, sleape cometh vpon him vntwares, and by translation, he is deceiued or erred.

Obrepit senectus, olde age creepeth vpon a man ere he be ware.

Obrepit dies decessionis, that daye that I muste nedes departe on, came vpon me sooner than I thought.

Obreptio, onis, fcm. gen. the getting or obtai-nyng of a thynge by craftie dissimulation or falschode.

Obreptis litterae, letters obtained by the sayde
meanes.

Obrepto, aui, are, for frequenter obrepo.

Obratio, obratus, obretire, to take in the net, to tyng of by the net about a thynge.

Obrideo, risi, dère, to laugh at one, to mocke
one.

Obrigeo, obriges, gui, gère, and Obrigesco, teere, to be of worse sorte or harder for colde.

Obrion, one of the p[ro]p[ro]n[ti]ng called fortunat.

Obris, a t[ro]p[er].

Obrizum, or Obryzum, zi, n. gen. pure or fine
golde.

Obrisso, a mocke.

Obrodo, rōi, rōdere, to gnawe about.

Obrogo, obrogas, aui, are, to checke or interrupt a man in his speche.

Obrogare legem, to derogate one lawe by an other.

Obrumpo, rupi, rumpere, for Rumpo.

Obruo, obrui, ruere, to overthrow, to confound, to cover cleane ouer and ouer with earth or other thynge, to hyde in the ground, also to stop, to pester.

Obruere sale, to cover with salte, to powder.

Obruere voluptatibus dolorem, to putte of dylle away sorow with hauntyng muche pleasure and pastime.

Obrui a re alieno, to owe very much, or be in great debt, to be ouer charged with debte.

Obruere memoria alicuius, to put one cleane
out of remembraunce.

Obrui magnitudine negotij, to be ouer charged with the importance of the affayre or busi-
nesse.

Obruit eum obliuione verustas, it is so long tyme passed, that he is cleane oute of remembraunce, or vnterly forgotten.

Obliuione obruere facta sua, to cause his actes to be forgotten.

Obruere risu testem, to make the witness to be so laughed at, that he durst not speake anye moze. Obruitur vulgi sermo hominum in-teritu, the speche of people is losse whan men be dead.

Obruere lapidibus, to stone to death.

Obruere se vino, to overthrow him self with wyne, to dlynke to much, to be dronke.

Obrutus, obruta, um, ouer throwen, couered, perished.

Obrutus in terra, buried or hidde in the
grounde.

Obrutus aquis, drowned.

Obrutum situ vetustatis, it is lost or perished for age: or it is so longe agone, that it is now
out of remembraunce.

Obrutus niuibus, couered with snowe.

Obruta itinera strage, the waies were full of men slayne or kyled.

Obrutania fulmina, lyghtninges, whiche so daynly happen, throwynge downe and bou-nyng thynge, before they be looked for.

Obrutuit, he was astonied.

Obscuio, obscuui, uire, to be woodde angrie
agaynst

agaynst one.
Obsaturo, aui, are, to fyll to much with a thyng,
 to make one to haue his full of a thyng.
Obsaluto, aui, are, to offre to salute one.
Obsalutum, olde wyters vsed for halowed.
Obsceno, aui, are, to bypnye of cause ill lucke.
Obscenus, a, um, that signifieth of declareth some ill lucke or misfortune to folowe, that bypnyeth ill lucke.
Obscene, lyke a rybalde, without shame, fylthily, vnchastly, bandyly.
Obscenitas, âris, f. g. villany in actes, rybaledyrie, filthynesse.
Obscenus, a, um, abhominable, all thyng whiche is to be eschewed, dishonest, vncleane, fylth-y, wanton, bandy, vnchaste.
Obscuratio, ônis, f. g. darkyng, dimmyng.
Obscuratus, a, um, made darke or vnknown.
Obscure, darkely.
 Non obscure, playnly.
Obscure loqui, to speake covertly or darkely.
Obscure ferre aliquid, to dissimule or make as a thyng were not with him as it is.
Obscuritas, âris, f. g. darkenesse, difficultee, obs-curitee, vngentilnesse of bloud, vnnoblenesse, or basenesse of byrthe.
Obscuro, aui, are, to make darke to hymme, to shadow, to hyde, to kepe in silence or from the knowlage of other, to make of no reputacion.
Obscurat magnitudinem periculi lucrum, lucre or gayne maketh that the greatnesse of the daunger can not be sene or perceiued.
Quod obscurari non potest, that can not bee
 hydde or kept vnknownen.
Obscurare and Celebrare, contrary.
Obscurari & obrui.
Obscurus, a, um, obscure, darke, hid, diffyse, vnsknownen, of no gentyll bloud. Sometyme blacke.
Obscuro adhuc ceptæ lucis, before it was byght day, in the dawning of the day.
Non erat obscurum, it was euident, every man did know, or it was no harde matter to know.
Discrimen obscurum, a difference that can not well be perceiued.
Non est obscura tua in me beneuolentia, the good wyll that you beare me is well knownen, and perceiued of all men.
Obscuro loco natus, of a base and vnknownen stocke.
Obscura luce, in the enenyng.
Peregrinatio obscura & sordida, by the whiche one getteth no renoume or byrite.
Obsecratio, ônis, f. g. a speciall desyre, a desyre
 ryng for goddes sake.
Obsecro, obsecras, aui, âre, to beseeche or hertly to pray, to pray for goddes sake.
Obsecrare ab aliquo, to desyre of one.
Id te obsecro.
Ibi cepit me obsecrare, than he beganne to desyre and pray me for goddes sake,

Obtestari & obsecrare.
Obsecro ne facias, I beseeche you for goddes sake doo it not.
Obsecro, vsed aduerbially.
Hem, obsecro, an is est. Hem, I pray the, is that he or I pray thee say true is it he in dede.
Obsecundo, aui, are, to make prosperous, also to obey or dooe all thynges at an other mannes wyll, to make a thyng better than it seemeth to
 bee. Obsecundato in loco, be ruled, or folow
 the appetite of a man at some tyme.
Obsecundanter, obediently.
Obseprio, obsepis, obsepui, obsepi, and sepsi,
 sepire, to inclose about with an hedge.
Obsepire iter ad honores, to lette or stop that men can not come to honour or promotion.
Obsepire viam adipiscendi aliquid, to let that one can not attaine a thyng.
Obsequela, lxx, f. gen. obedience, diligence, en-deuour.
Obsequentia, x, f. g. obeyfance.
Obsequens, entis, om. g. obedient, plicant, redy to doo as one woulde haue him.
Obsequenter, obediently.
Obsequentissime, with great obedience.
Obsequia, thynges doon to the pleasure or appetite of him that they be doon for.
Obsequibilis, le, diligent, ready to dooe that,
 whiche is commaunded.
Obsequiosus, a, um, that doeth willingly pleas-sure and seruice, seruicable, that attendeth or standeth waytyng ready at hande.
Obsequium, quij, n. g. redynesse to dooe all that is commaunded, obedience, humble seruice.
 Sometyme it signifieth flattery.
Obsequium & indulgentia corporis, the susteynyng of the body to haue all pleasures that it desyeth, sensualitee.
Obsequium ventris, pleasure of the bealy in feedyng, delicate feedyng.
Obsequium animo sumere, to take his pleas-sure, to lye as he will him selfe.
Obsequor, cris, obsequi, to folowe an other mans pleasure, to do as an other wil haue him, to be plicant, to be redy to dooe seruice, to please.
Obsequere animo, take thy pleasure, make good cheere.
Obsequi animo suo, to lyue as he will him
 selfe, to take pleasure and make mery.
Gracilis habitudo corporis artium mome to obsequitur, the slender state of the body is pliable or lythy, to the nyblenesse of the toyn-aces or limpes.
Obsequi alicui in omnibus, to doo as one woulde haue him in all thynges.
Nos senes æquum est senibus obsequi, It is meete for vs olde folkes to dooe pleasure eche for other, or reason woulde, that we olde men shoulde helpe one an other.
Obsequor, is sometyme vsed with an accusa-tiue case, as, Ea quæ obsequi non oportet.
Obsero,

Obsero, obseris, secul, serere, to see about to plante. sometime for Circundare, to come pas in or about. Obsidare, to plant his ground or fiede with vines.
Obsero, obseras, auis, are, to looke or wathe.
Ostium obsera intus, shut the doore on the in
syde.
Observabilis, le, mete to be observed, worthy to be had in reverence.
Observans, anis, one that severently.
Observantissimus omnium officiorum, he that doeth helpe and observe all occasions possible to have pleasure for his friends.
Observantia, a, form, gen, reverence, honour, observance.
Observantia, sometime for Observatio.
Observatio, onis, f. g. a wayte, observing, watching. sometime for Observantia, reverence, honour.
Observationi operam dare, to observe, to marke, to take good hede.
Observo, auis, are, to wathe diligently with the eyes, also the mynde, to wathe, to observe, to marke to honour, to take good hede, to have in reverence, to love, to favour with a looping, reverence.
Fedus ictum observare, to kepe or observe.
Me semper ab ineunte adolescencia observas uit, he hath had me alway in reverence, was Observare ranuam, to kepe the gate.
Scripturam alicuius observare, to reprehende or fynde faulte with that one hath written.
Observito, auis, are, the frequentative of obs-servo.
Obses, obsidis, com, gen, an hostage or pledge in warres.
Cauere obsidibus, to take hostages or pledges for the performance of the covenantes.
Obsessio, onis, f. g. a siege.
Obsessor, oris, m. g. that laeth siege.
Obsessus, a, um, besieged.
Obsessi, they that are besieged, which can not ysue out of the place where they be.
Obsidire, arum, f. g. plur. lying in awaite to take away any thyng craftily.
Obsidianus, a, um, the adiective.
Obsidianum vitrum, a kynde of glasse, which is pure blacke.
Obsidionalis, le, belonging to a siege.
Obsidionalis corona, a garland given to him whiche belieted a towne or fortreffe, besieged with enemies, whiche was of grasse.
Obsideo, obsides, fessi, fidere, to besiege, to co-pas about, to inagron. Also to possesse, to oc-cuppe.
Tempus and Locum obsidere, to occupy the tyme or place that an other man should.
Armatus exerens regiam obsedit, the hoste roode all aboute the place vnder armed.
Stuprum obsidere, to wathe or espy an occasion to committe a country with one.

Domi certum est obsidere, usque donec res dierit, I have surely purposed to abide at home till he come agayne.
Obsidio, onis, f. g. a siege laid to a towne or castell.
Cingere and Claudere obsidione, to besiege.
Obsidione eximere, to relie the siege.
Obsidior, aris, are, to lie in a wayte to take one.
Obsidium, dij, m. g. a siege layd aboute a towne or fortreffe.
Facere obsidium, to besiege.
Solvere obsidium, to relie the siege.
Obsido, fessis, fidere, idem quod obsideo.
Obsigillo, auis, are, to hide, to seale up.
Obsignator, oris, m. g. he that putteth his seale or sygne to a booke or instrument.
Obsigno, auis, are, to close letters and seale them,
also to sygne them.
Obsignare testamenta, to put his hande or seale to testaments or willes.
Literas obsignare, to seale up letters.
Obsignatus, a, um, sealed up.
Obsipo, auis, are, to throw or cast, as when men of the country doo saie, Obsipa pullis escam, caste meate to the chicken.
Obstisto, stiti, sistere, to resist, to withstande, to repugne, also to gape saie.
Obstistere obusam, to meete with one.
Obstistit non potest, no man can let him or withstande him.
Iniuria obstistere, to let or withstande iniurie.
Obstus, obstia, rum, wrapped, set aboute with herbes or trees.
Obstus annis & pannis, very olde, and wrapped in ragges.
Obstus squalore vestis, yll and stutty shye cladde.
Obstus viro, very aged.
Obstia, tenebris loca, very darke places.
Obsolesco, factus sum, fieri, to be out of vse, also to be defile, diskeine, or disonest.
Obsoleo, obsoles, obsolui, and obsoleui, lere, to waxe olde, to grow oute of vse to decaye, to lese the grace.
In homine turpissimo obsolebant dignitatis insignia, lost their grace.
Laus alicuius obsolescit, decayeth, weareth
away.
Virtus obsolescit, decayeth.
Obsoleto, lere, to decay, to waxe olde, to be out of vse.
Obsoleto, oldely, barely.
Obsoleto, a, um, decayed, old, out of vse, woyme
as a garment whan it is bare.
Color obsoleto, an yll colour.
Dextra obsoleto sanguine, id est maculata, blondy.
Vestis obsoleto, a garment woyme very nere, threde bare.
Obsoleto vestitus, poore appaile.

Obsos

Obfönium, looke Opfönium.
 Obfönor, and Obfönor, aui, are, looke Opfönor.
 Obfonus, obfona, um, that which hath an yll towne.
 Obfonito, looke opfonito.
 Obfonatio, feaflyng of banhettyng.
 Obfonator, & Obfonatrix, looke Opfonator.
 Obfono, obfonas, aui, are, to fowne yll.
 Obforbo, bui, & obforpi, here, to fup up all.
 Obforbo, forpi, here, idem.
 Obfordeo, dui, fordere, to be fplfhe, huteleane, or fluttythe. Nonius declareth it to waxe olde, to become ylle.
 Obftaculum, h, n, g, an obftacle or impediment.
 Obftetrico, aui, are, to dooe the office of a myds wiffe.
 Obftetric, trice, f, g, a midwiffe.
 Obftinate, obftinately, firmly, stubbornly.
 Obftinatus, a, um, obftinate, firme, or fable,
 fubburne.
 Obftinatio, onis, f, g, obftinacy, fiftentiffe
 in opinion, fubburniffe.
 Obftino, obftinas, aui, are, to bee obftinate, to perftiffe fyne in one fentence or purpofe, to bee
 fubburne.
 Obftipo, aui, are, to ftoppe chynkes.
 Obftipare verticem, to lay the head a fide on the foulder, as men doo when they mafe.
 Obftipus, a, um, wyle necked downe, towarde the foulder, holdyng downe the head towarde the foulder.
 Obfto, ftiti, ftare, to withftand, to let, to hinder.
 Paululum negotij mihi obftat, a luttell bufy nelfe doeth let me.
 Egone id paffiar, meæ voluptati obftare?
 Would I fuffre that thyng to withftand of myn
 der my joy or pleafure?
 Obftatur, the impersonall.
 Obftrepo, obftrepis, repui, ere, to cry oute on one or make a noyse, to fterre and make a noyse or ruflyng with the feete or otherwife agaynft
 one.
 Laudi alicuius obftrepere, to be agaynft ones
 prayfe.
 Obftreftus, a, um, faft bounde, tied harde.
 Obftreftus, us, m, g, a ftreit or hard wyngyng.
 Obftreftillo, aui, are, to refift or repugne agaynft to fpeake in detraction of one.
 Obftingo, ftinxi, ftingere, to bynde fafte, to tie harde, to wyappe in bandes.
 Obftingere fide, to make a faithfull promiffe.
 Obftingere fe scelere, to comit fome naughtie tie acte.
 Obftingere fe parricidio, to murder his fa ther or mother.
 Obftingere fe periurio, to comit periurie.
 Obftingere fibi aliquem munere, To make one bounden to him for fome friendly pleafure.
 Obftingere fe hereditati, to claime and take poffeffion of ones heritage.
 Lureiurando obftingere aliquem, to bynde

one with an othe.
 Aere alieno amicos fuos obftingere, To bynd his frendes in debte.
 Religione obftingere, to charge ones con
 fience.
 Prædibus fe obftingere, to bynde him felfe with fureties.
 Obftudo, fi, dere, to hide, to ftoppe a mannes or fpyre, that he can not faw into, to wyppre a thyng deepe and hyde it in the grounde.
 Obftudblentum, t, p, n, g, a ftoppyng.
 Obftrectio, onis, idem.
 Obftrectus, a, um, ftopped, thutte, to ftoppe Obftroo, obftrois, ftroxi, ftrecte, to thutte, to ftoppe by.
 Vndas obftruit molibus, he ftoppeth the wa ter with piles, or dammes.
 Obftroere luminibus, to let that a man can not looke out of his wyndowes, or to ftoppe by his lightes.
 Obftudere aures, to ftoppe by ones eares, to make deaffe.
 Obftupidus, a, um, aftonied, abafhed.
 Obftupefacio, pefacis, feci, facere, to abathe or make abafhed or aftonied.
 Obftupesc, obftupes, obftupui, and obftupes fco, fecere, to be abafhed, to be aftonied, to bee difmayde.
 Obftum, obfui, obefce, to hurt or hynder, to en damage.
 Obftuo, obfui, obfuece, to faw rounde aboute.
 Obfturdefco, fturdui, defcere, to be of wox deaffe,
 alfo for Nolo audire.
 Nefcio quomodo obfturdefcimus, I can not tell how, we be very lothe to here.
 Obtego, obtegis, obtexi, obtegere, idem quod
 Tego, to keepe clofe, to hide, to couer.
 Obtegere fe corpore alicuius, To hide him
 behynde fome body.
 Obtemperatio, onis, f, g, obeyfaunce.
 Obtempero, aui, are, to obey or be at commaunds dement.
 Obtendo, obtendi, obtendere, to layen excuse,
 to couer ouer, to make a pretence.
 Hationem turpitudini obtendere, to couer or excuse a difhoneft act with fome colour or rea fon.
 Obtendere velum ante lectum, to draw the courtayne befoze the bedde.
 Obtendiculum, li, neu, gen, a coulourable and fweere.
 Obtentus, a, um, couered, that hath a courtayn or veile drawn befoze it.
 Obtentus, us, m, g, a pretence or colour, a dyas
 wyng of a courtayne befoze a thyng.
 Obtentu philosophia, vnder the colour or pretence of philofophye.
 Sub eius obtentu cognominis, vnder the col our or shadow of that furname.
 Obtento, aui, are, the frequentatiue of obtineo.
 Obtero, obteris, obtrui, obterere, to tera or thur

thrust downe, to thrust, to thrust, to thrust with yll wordes, to abuse.
Obreeta laudes eius, it is by him selfe his praises.
Ab elephantis obreeta sunt, They were trode downe with the elephants.
Calumniam obreeta, to confounde a false accusation.
Iura obreeta, to destroy and abolye the lawes.
Obreeta, onis, for. ge. an humble desyre, plastely not to doo a thyng. also a taryng of god or some other thyng to tynesse.
Obreeta, aris, ari, humbly to desche, to desyre, to desyre for goddes sake, or for the remembrance of some thyng, whiche is of him that is destyred, thankefully herde.
Obreeta, texui, ere, to weare rounde aboute.
Obthuratio, onis, f. g. Murtyng.
Obthuro, aui, are, to Murte, to stoppe.
Obthurare, to stoppe ones mouth, or make that he speake no more.
Obthuramentum, ri, nig. a stoppell, a thyng that stoppeh up. also the head of a ponde.
Obtencia, e, form. gene. Silence, holdynge of ones peate.
Obticeo, obtices, cui, cere, to kepe Silence, not to speake, to holde ones peate as though he were dumme, to kepe in such thynges as we bee named of.
Lachrymans obticeo, he weepeth, and will not speake a woorde.
Quid obticuisse? why standest thou dumme?
Obtineo, obtines, obtinui, nere, to obtayne, to get, to achieve, to holde, to receyve thyll. sometime to have.
Si istam animi firmitudinem obtines, salui sumus, If thou hast that firmnesse of courage, we be safe.
Obtinere litem, to get the thyng that he sued for, to reconer his suite by iudgement.
Obtinere primum locum, to be the chiefe or principall.
Obtinere ordinem suum, to keepe the order and place that he is in.
Obtinere & repelli, contrary.
Admiracionem obtinere, to be in admiration
Causam obtinere, to overcome in the suite.
Dignitatem obtinere, To kepe still his honoy and dignitee.
Obtiner fama, the moze common rumour is.
Obtinere ius suum, to obtayne that right and law doeth geue him.
Prouerbi locum obtinet, it is now bled of tashen for a prouerbe.
Prouinciam obtinere, To obtayne the gouer-nauce of a prouince.
Regnum in Sequanis obtinuit, he reigned ouer the people called Sequani.
Obtinetur, the impersonall.
Obtinet magnum locum in medicaminibus hec herba, this herbe is greatly vied of este-med in physike.

Precipuum obtinent nobilitatem, They be moze spoken of, or moze esteemed than al other.
Patricii nomen obtinent, they haue the name of the countrey.
Obtinere nomen sapientis, to be reputed a wise man.
Noxiam veneni obtinet, It is hurtfull lyke denome of poison.
Obtinet vniuersum mundum, It hath the force of stronge of medicine.
Obtinet vniuersum per alium, It is by that mans benefite that he lyueth.
Obtinere vrbem aliquam armis, to kepe and holde a towne by force and violence.
Obtingit, ungebis, obtingit, obtingere, to happen, to chaunce.
Asia Quinto fratri obigit, the gouernance of Asia sel or was allotted to my brother Quintus.
Istuc tibi ex sententia tua obigisse lator, I am gladd that this chaunced to you, euen as your owne herte would desyre.
Obtorpeo, obtorpui, obtorpere, and Obtora-pisco, scere, to be very slow or dull, to feyne for feare.
Obtorpet manus, my hande is a slepe.
Obtorqueo, torfi, obtorquere, to wyngye wyse or wythe aboute.
Obtorus, a, um, wyshed or wythed.
Obtrecho, aui, are, to reposit ill, to depraue, to dispreyse, to haue in despyte, to barboite, to sclaunder, to speake ill of.
Obtrectator, oris, m. g. an ill reposit, or back-biter, a sclaunderer.
Obtrectatio, onis, for. g. ill reposit, dispreysing backbiting, sclaunder.
Obtrectatus, us, m. g. idem.
Obtrigo, aui, are, to bynde by an othe, after Lalepine.
Obtritus, us, m. g. wearyng, soulyng, brassyng,
treading of a thyng vnder fote.
Obtritus, a, um, woyn out, brassyed, stamped,
treden in pieces.
Obtrudo, trudi, trudere, to thrust downe, to put to with force, to offe or geue to one agaynst his will.
Obtrudit fores, he thrust to the doore.
Obtrudere vxorem, to geue a man a wyfe as gaynst his wyll or appetite.
Obtruncatio, onis, f. ge. a cuttyng of the toppe of a thyng, a beheadyng.
Obtrunco, aui, are, to sles. also to stryke of a mans head.
Obtrusus, a, um, thrust or put to by force.
Obtruo, eris, eri, to beholde stedfastly.
Obtritus, us, m. g. idem quod obtritus.
Obtrundo, obtrudi, dere, to strike, to byrke, to make dull or blunte, to hurte a man with speakyng, to make weery, to inculcate or repete a thyng often, to beate into ones eares with ofte repetyng, to annoy with many wordes.

 Aciem oculorū obtundere, to hurt the sight,
 to make the eyes dimme.
 Auditum obrundere, to hurt the hearing, to make one thicke of hearing.
 Obrundere ingenium, to make the wit dull.
 Vocem obrundere, To hurt the voyce with straignyng.
 Obuor, tueris, obtutus, or obtutus sum, ob-tui, to beholde, to regarde diligently.
 Obturbo, aut, are, to trouble, to trouble all, to disurbe, to interrupt or let ones tale.
 Obtūro, aui, are, idem quod obturo.
 Obtruse, dully, bluntly, without spirite or lyfe.
 Obtrusus, a, um, dull, blunt.
 Aures obtusæ, eares thicke or dull of hearing.
 Vires obtusæ, weakened, decayed.
 Obtrusus, us, m. ge. a looke or regard, a steadfast beholding.
 Obuāgio, obuāgis, giui, gire, to crie out as a childe doeth.
 Obuallo, aui, are, to environne or cōgasse about with a dicke or trenche.
 Obuaricator, oris, mal. gene. he that tourneth one out of the ryght way, or letteth him that he may not passe.
 Obuarico, aui, are, to stoppe or let one of his passage.
 Obuaro, aui, are, to peruerter.
 Obuenio, obuenis, ueni, nire, to come agaynst, to meete with, also to happen, to chance to, to chaunce by lotte.
 Hereditate obuenire, to come to one by succession.
 Qui primus mihi obuenisset, whiche had first mette with me.
 Obuentio, onis, f. g. reuenues, rentes.
 Obuersatio, onis, f. g. gen. comyng and goyng to a place.
 Obuerso, aui, are, the frequentatiue of obuerto.
 Obuersor, aris, ari, to be presente or befoze the eyes, to come in remembrance, to haunt a go much to a place, to be so euident to the mynde, as though it were befoze the eyes.
 Sed mihi ante oculos obuersabatur reipublicæ dignitas, quæ me ad se rapuit, but befoze myne eyes came the estate of the publike weale, whiche plucked me vnto it.
 Obuersari oculis.
 Obuerto, ti, tere, to tourne agaynst or backe.
 Obuertere signa in hostem, To tourne the standers agaynst the enemies.
 Obuiam, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth befoze in the waie.
 Obuiam ire, to go agaynst one, to preuente.
 Obuiam mittere, To sende men to mete with one in the way.
 Obuiam fit, he mette with me.
 Obuiam ire periculis, to preuent daungier.
 Si nihil obuiam est, if there be nothyng in the way to lette,

Quam ire conuulsum, To preuente that one embroileth or goeth aboute.
 Se mihi obuiam dedit, he mette or encount-red me.
 Obuiio, aui, are, to meete with one.
 Obuius, obuia, um, that which meeteth with one.
 Obuii & diuersio, they that mette a man.
 Obuia vrbs inimicis, the citee easy to be taken with enemies.
 Obuius & expositus homo, one that admitteth
 every man to common and talke with him,
 a very genell and familiar person.
 Obulus, looke Obolus.
 Obumbro, aui, are, to shadowe ouer and ouer, to make dark with shadow, sometyme to de-sende, to saue or kepe from daungier.
 Obumbratus amnis, covered or shadowed with trees.
 Obuncus, a, um, very crooked.
 Obundo, aui, are, to runne or flowe agaynst.
 Obuolo, aui, are, to flye agaynst.
 Obuoluo, uolui, uere, to wrap together, to fold
 rounde aboute, sometyme to touse or hyde.
 Obuos facto, the auncient Romaynes used for obsecro, I beseeche you.
 Obustus, a, um, houned rounde aboute.

O ANTE C.

Ocalee, a citee of Beroth.
 Occa, ce, f. gen. an harrow or dragger, whiche hath yron teeth, wherewith clod-des are broken.
 Occatio, onis, f. g. a bryng of cloddes, har-
 rowyng.
 Occatorius, a, um, belonging to harrowyng.
 Occator, aris, m. g. he that harroweth.
 Occæco, aui, are, to make blinde, to enuegle.
 Occalleo, lui, lere, and occallesco, scere, to way or be hard felled or hained, like as a hope is.
 Occallatus, a, um, that is tourned into harde
 felle or haine.
 Occano, canui, canere, and Occino, occinui,
 occinere, to syng agaynst one, to lay in rebuke.
 Occasio, onis, f. m. gen. occasion, oportunitie of tyme, meete and conueniente tyme to doo
 a thyng.
 Rara occasio, not redy at hande.
 Ad excutiendum ignem non semper lapis dis occasio est, there is not alway at hande a stone to strike fier: or, ye can not alway haue in readines a stone, &c.
 Amittere occasionem, to lette slippe occasion or oportunitie.
 Imminere occasioni, and captare occasione,
 to wayte an occasion or oportunitie.
 Arripere occasionem, To take an occasion quickly whan it is offered.
 Nunc est occasio inimicum vlcersi, Nowe there is good oportunitie to bee reuenged on mine

Occidit enim. Post hoc occasio calua, a pource, take occasion when it cometh, for he that will not when he may, when he will he shall haue nay. the tyme cometh no man.
 Occasus praemenda, a pource, when the sunne shineth make hay: the tide must be taken when it cometh.
 Occasiuncula, le, f. g. a small occasion.
 Occaso, fere, to be loste or vndoen.
 Occasus, us, ma, ge, death of man or beast. also the goyng downe of the sunne, or sunne glabe, the fall or decay of fortune, as well in men as other things.
 Occalus reipublice, the decay or fall of the commune welth.
 Occatorium, rij, n. g. an harrowyng.
 Occedo, pro accedo.
 Occentalsint, for conuicia fecerint, They shall geue rebukes or woordes of reproche.
 Occento, aui, are, to cry out agaynst one, with rebukfull woordes.
 Occentus, us, m. g. where one spyngeth agaynst another. It may be taken for a counter tenour. also a squeakyng.
 Occentus foricis, the squeakyng of a ratte.
 Occipio, pro incepero, I shall begynne.
 Occisissimus, vterly vndoen, caste away, or slayne, of all other most lost or desperate.
 Occidens, entis, mascu. gener. the west or posnet.
 Occidens, entis, om. gene. declining, fallynge, goyng downe.
 Occidens sol, the sunne goyng downe.
 Occidentalis, le, of the west.
 Occidio, onis, f. g. death, slaughter.
 Occidione occidere, To kill every mothers sonne.
 Occidioni eximere aliquem, To saue from killynge.
 Ad occidionem gens interimenda est, They must be killed every one.
 Occido, cidi, dere, to slea or wounde to death, to kill, to tourment or molest one greuously.
 Occidere remp. & condere, contrary.
 Occido, occidis, occidi, dere, to fall downe, to perissh vterly, to die, to go down, as the sunne doeth, and other sterres, to decay.
 Occidi, is a signification of sorowfulness, as it were, I am vndoen, or vterly lost.
 Occidi, I am dead, I am lost.
 Ferro occidit, he was slayne. &c.
 Ante suos annos occidit, he died before his tyme.
 Occidit memoria, The memoire or remembrance is lost.
 Occidit spes nostra, our hope is lost.
 In nihilum occidere, To come at the laste to nothyng.
 Occidunt herbe, cum euanescent.
 Occiduum, i, n. gen. the place where the sunne

goeth downe.
 Occiduum, a, um, the place where the sunne
 goeth downe.
 Sole iam fere occiduo, the sunne beyng redde to goe downe.
 Occulare, to heare of beastes.
 Occino, occinis, nre, ere, to synge to another, to synge agaynst.
 Occipio, occipis, occipi, etc, to begynne.
 Occiput, ipitis, & Occipitium, n, neu, ge, the of hynder parte of the head, the noddle or nape of the necke.
 Occisio, onis, f. g. a slaughter or death of men, or cattall.
 Occisione occidere, to make a great slaughter and leaue almost none one liue, to kill eneris mothers sonne.
 Occisus, a, um, killed, slayne.
 Occisa res est, The matier is dolsed or married.
 Occitantur, for frequenter occiduntur, they be slayne here and there or in diuers places.
 Occlamito, aui, ate, to stie out.
 Occludo, clusi, ere, to shut fast.
 Tabernaculum occludere, to shute by shoppes.
 Occludere linguam, To stoppe a man from speakyng, to make him that he can not speake, or answere, to make him haue neuer a woorde to say.
 Occlusus, occlusior, occlusissimus, fast shutte.
 Occlusa contumelijs libido, stopped, restraied.
 Occo, aui, are, to harrowe and breake cloddes and balkes in the cozne feldes. Also to couer with eathe.
 Occubo, occubas, occubui, cubare, idem quod Occumbo.
 Occubare morte, to die.
 Occulo, oculis, ocului, lere, to hide cleane that nothyng be sene or perceyued.
 Sylua occultit feras.
 Occultare, idem quod occulte, ppyuely, vns knowen, secretly.
 Occultatio, onis, f. g. an hydryng.
 Occultator, oris, mascu. gener. he that hydyeth.
 Occultatus, a, um, hyd, kept close or secreete.
 Occulte, ppyuely, secretly.
 Neque id occulte fere, and he doth not hide it or dissimule it.
 Occulto, aui, are, to hyde.
 Occultare se ab aliquo, to hide him selfe out of ones sight.
 Occultari & aperiri, contrary.
 Occultare apud se, To keepe close with him selfe.
 Occultare consilium fugare, to keepe close. &c.
 Occultus, a, um, hyd, ppyuie, that is not knowen verie secreete.
 Occulta musica, stille musike.
 Occultum habere aliquid, to keepe secreete, not to disclose.

Ex occulto, used proverbially, principally.
 Occultissima res, thynges very secretes.
 Occultus & inuolutus, proprius & apertus, contrary.
 Monitus occulti, private warnynges.
 Vix occulte, private and unknown waies.
 Abdere se in occultum, to hide him selfe.
 Occumbō, but, here, to be slayne, to be deadly wounded, to die.
 Occumbere mortī, mortem, and morte, to die, to be slayne.
 Occupans, anis, om. ge. that doeth occupie of vse a thyng, the occupier.
 Occupatio, ōnis, occupation, necessary busynesse, the holdyng of possesing of a place. Also a coloure of rhetorike, where the playntife in pteuentyng the wordes of the defendante, vs her selfe that, whiche he will lay for his excuse, and disproueth it, pteuention, anticipation.
 Distineri occupatione, To be soze troubled with busines.
 Eripere tempus ē summis occupationibus, to steale a time to doo a thyng, from his other very vrgent businesse.
 Implicatus occupationibus.
 Expedire se omni occupatione.
 Relaxare se occupationibus.
 Occupatus, a, um, let in businesse. occupied, taken vp, possessed.
 Nisi quid magis es occupatus, operam mihi da, If you haue no greater busines in hande.
 Occupati animi beneficiis alicuius, the herites of men wonne and gotten with benefites and pleasures dooyng.
 Occupo, occupas, aui, are, to occupy, to get or take before an other man, to doo before an other, to pteuent, to vse in commune, to take or holde a thyng with force, to let or empeche, to possesse. Sometime to lende for a vantage, to let.
 Occupare consilium, to fynde aduise or counsaile.
 Occupare locum, to take any place before an other, or kepe a place by force. Occupes prior adire, go to him fyrst.
 Occupat Tullus in agrum Sabinum trāsire, Tullus pteuentyng them, went fyrst. &c.
 Occupauerat animos fuga, they were of purpose or in mynde to flee.
 Occupat animos terror, They are in a greete feare.
 Quem quisque occuparit locum, The place whiche euery man shall take for him selfe.
 Hac causa primos menses occupabit, This matter shall be handeled or entreated of the fyrst monethes.
 Diem fati occupare, to pteuente his naturall death.
 Amplexu occupare aliquem, to embrace one fyrst.

Ministerium carnificis occupare, to doo the parte. &c.
 Mors ipsam occupat, death came vpon him.
 Occupare aliquem, to pteuente one, and take him before he doo a thyng.
 Occum solis occupare, to pteuent.
 Occupare pecunias alicui, or apud aliquem scire, to lende money to one for vsury.
 Occupare imperium, to vsurpe the crowne, rule or gouernance of any realme.
 Occurro, occurri, ere, to meete with, to come to mynde or remembrance, to offer him selfe, to come in vse, to come in place, to come in the way, to pteuent in answering that one myght objecte, also to resist, to renne, to be pteuented.
 Occurrit pernionibus herba hanc, this herbe healeth hybes on the heeles.
 Occurrere maleuolentia hominum, to pteuente or resist the ill will and malice of men.
 Occurrit ex aduerso instructa acies, the army on the other parte in good order of battaile marcheth forwarde agaynst them.
 Occurrere suppetias fugientibus suis, to ren and succour their company, flynge and reculyng backe.
 Occurram expectationi vestrae, I will answer to that you would haue me, before ye demaunde it.
 Varietas satietati occurrit, the varietee maketh that a man shall not haue his full of it, or lothe it.
 Non occurrit animo, It cometh not to my mynde or remembrance.
 Occursatio, ōnis, f. g. the rennyng by & downe from one to an other, whan a man sueth or laboureth for an office or roume.
 Occurso, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Occurro, to come often to remembrance, to meete ofte or renne agaynst one.
 Occursare numinibus, id est adorare & sacrificijs placare, to pteuente the wyate of the goddes with sacrifice, that they plage vs not.
 Occursus, us, m. g. a rennyng agaynst one, a meetyng or encountryng.
 Oceanus, a, um, of the ocean sea.
 Oceanus, i, m. g. the broade sea, called the ocean sea, which compasseth the worlde, and addeyth to his name, the name of the countreyes, by which it passeth: as,
 Oceanus Britannicus, the sea next Englands and Scotlands.
 Oceanus Indicus, the Indian sea.
 Ocellatus, a, um, that which hath eyen, or holes lyke to eyes.
 Ocellum, a, citee in Spayne.
 Ocellus, li, m. g. a littell eye.
 Ocellus meus, my pigges nye.
 Ocha, x, f. g. a goole.
 Ochusius, a duke of the people called Oetoli.
 Ochra, x, f. g. gene. ochre, which printers dose vte, vte.

Ochi, the herbe attripte.
 Ochion, idem quod coriandrum.
 Ochi, certayne trees, like to figge trees.
 Ochros, an herbe, which Theophrastus dooth trise late sometime, ciceram, sometime cruiliam.
 Ochus, a tyte, whiche passeth through Scarnasnia, a countrey in Grece.
 Ocinastrum, wilde basil, or basil mints. also the herbe acinos.
 Ocimum, mi, n.g. basil.
 Ocymoides, commonly called lacia alba, and posularia; after Ruellius opinton. But other thynke it to be that, whiche is called Ben rus brum.
 Ociroe, a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus.
 Ocnus, he that buildeth Opanus. Also ocnus, signifieth flow in englishe.
 Ocrea, x, f. g. a boote, a legge harness.
 Ocreatus, a, um, booted or harnessed on the legges.
 Ocrinum, saynt Symeons mount in Cornwal.
 Ocris, olde wyters called a broken hill herbe to go by to.
 Ocior, loke otior.
 Ociosus, loke otiosus.
 Ocium, loke orium.
 Octangulus, a, um, eight cornered.
 Octapitarum promontorium, a place in Wales called saynt Davids.
 Octavia, the sister of Augustus, and wife of Antonius, whome he afterwarde forsooke. In other ther was daughter of Claudius the emperour, and wyfe to Nero, who caused her to be slaine.
 Octavianus, the name of Augustus, befoze he tooke on him the Monarchie.
 Octavius, the name of Augustus fathre, and of diuers other Romaynes.
 Octauus, a, um, the eyght.
 Octies, eight tymes.
 Octingenarius, a, um, eight hundred yeres olde, or that conteyneth the numbze of eight hundred.
 Octingentesimus, a, um, the eight hundredeth.
 Octingenti, x, a, Octingeni, & octingenteni, eyght hundred.
 Octingenuplus, a, um, eight hundred folde.
 Octipes, ripedis, om. g. hauing eight feete.
 Octo, eyght.
 Octóber, bris, m. g. the moneth of October.
 Octoduri, Sein and Waleis in France.
 Octogenarius, a, um, of foure scoze in numbze, or foure scoze yeres olde.
 Octogenus, a, um, foure scoze.
 Octogesimus, a, um, the last of foure scoze.
 Octogies, foure scoze tymes.
 Octoginta, foure scoze.
 Octoiuges, eight couple.
 Octónus, a, um, the numbze of eyght in sundry partes.
 Octóphorum, ri, n.g. a litter bozne of. bill. men.
 Octuplicatus, a, um, eyght tymes double.

Octuplus, octuplus, um, eyght tymes as much.
 Octulris, the weight of eight pounde.
 Oculatio, this, f. g. the taking away of superfluous budde from a tree or vine.
 Oculum, a, um, full of eyes. also quiche sighted, circumspere, thynge a thynge thynge.
 Oculatissimus locus, a place fappe in sight on all parties.
 Ocularis testis, a witness, which sawe the thynge.
 Oculus, a, um, full of eyes, wply, that seeth a thynge quickly.
 Oculissimus, he that seeth most cleerly.
 Oculitas, aduerbium, euen aswell as ones eyes.
 Oculitus eam amat, he loveth hir as well as his own eyes.
 Oculus, i, m. g. an eye, also a ponge budde of a tree.
 Oculis captus, blinde.
 In oculis gestare, & in oculis esse & ferre, to lous one so muche that he can not bee satisfied with beholding of him.
 In oculis habere, to attende upon one or to be helde attentively or stedfastly.
 Vin' hodie facere quo tuo viro oculi doleat, wyle thou now doo that, which shall make thy husbande lothe to see.
 Oculi eruditi, when one knoweth whether a thynge be well dooen or no.
 Oculum exculpere, to scratche out ones eye.
 Oculos tollere, to begynne to be mery, to begyn to reynue.
 Intendere oculos, to set the eyes to beholde stedfastly.
 Oculos tenere, to make men to wonder at the excellent wozhemanship of a thynge.
 Heberare oculos, to dull the sight.
 Oculi emitti, eyes bollyng out, and galyng abroad. In oculis, id est, coram hominibus.
 Adijcere oculum alicui rei, to cast an eye, or to looke towarde a thynge, entending or conuertyng to haue it.
 Auertere oculos omnium in se, loke Auerro.
 Circumferre oculos, to loke rounde aboute.
 Conijcere oculos in aliquem, to loke towardes one.
 Contractari oculis, to be biewed or conspydered. Somnum oculis expellere, to make that one can not sleape.
 Quorum in vultu habitant oculi mei, whom I alwaies beholde stedfastly.
 Oculis obuerrari, to be alwaies befoze ones eyes. Oculi, the blew spots in the feathers of a peacockes taylor.
 Oculus Christi, an herbe, whiche is also called Filius ante patrem.
 Oculus pithonis, the herbe sterchas.
 Oculus louis, the herbe Aizoum.
 Oculus caninus, the herbe called also canaria, boundes grasse.

Ocyalus, a mans name in Homere.
 Ocymum, an herbe called Basyll.
 Ocymum, a kinde of meate for beastes made of diuers herbes or kindes of pulle, looke more in Vardi. cap. 31. & in the annotations of Hieronymolus, upon Dioc. li. 2. cap. 178.
 Ocymoides, looke Ocimoides.
 Ocyor, ocyssimus, swifte, quicke, ligier.
 Ocytere, one of the Harpeys.
 Ocyroë, a nymphe.
 Ocyron, a tyner in Arcadie.
 Ocyus, sooner, quicklier.
 Ocyssime, beey quithelp.
 Non ocyus quini, I could doe it no sooner, or with no more speede.
 Accipe a me ocyus, take of me quickly.
 Ocyssimus, a, um, most swifte.

O ANTE D

ODE, a songe.
 Odum, ci, n. g. a place wherein singynge is exercised, an house of musike.
 Odfacio, for Olfacio, to smell.
 Odi, odisti, odit, defectiuum, I hate, haue hated, or did hate.
 Odit eum cane peius & angue, he hateth him more than a dogge or a serpente, as who saith, mortally, without hope of reconciliation.
 Aperre odisse, to hate without dissimulation.
 Odinolentes, lytle sythes; whiche cleaueth to a myp, and maketh her to a byde, as though she lay at anchor. Vide Remora.
 Odiose, with hate, displeasently, spitefully; with ill will.
 Odiōsus, a, um, that is hated, displeasunt, hates full, troublous, tedious, malapert, that molestyeth or greueteth.
 Odites, one of the sons of Trion, the Centaure.
 Odium, odi, ne. g. hate, displeasure, tediousnesse, rancour, ill will.
 Odium, id est fastidium, tedium. Neque agri, neq; urbis me odiū vnquam percipit; I am neuer through wery neither of the countrey, nor yet of the citee.
 Odio esse, to be hated.
 Odium capere alicuius rei, to be offended or discontent with any thyng, to begyn to hate a thyng.
 Odium concitare, to procure hate or displeasure, to reise hatred or malice agaynst one.
 In odio omnibus esse, to be hated of all the worlde.
 Odio esse apud omnes, idem.
 Struere odium in aliquem, to make one to be hated or haue ill will.
 Hostili odio esse in aliquem, to hate one as his deadly ennemie.
 Obscurum odium, private hatred.
 Odium mitigatur, deponitur, tenetur, sed datur. Odium studiorum facere, to make one hate study.

Negotij si quando odium cepit, If he chared to bee wery of his greates labour and busi-
 nesse.
 Sustipere odium alicuius in re aliqua, to be hated of one for a thyng.
 Quibus infundum fuit odium, which haue im-mortall hatred.
 Nunquā tuo odio vinces me, thou shalt never overcome me with thy tebyr impatience.
 Odius, a mans name in Homere.
 Odoporieon, ci, n. g. an Iunearie, wherein is written the distance of one place from an other, or a lyke thyng, as the letters of princes, are asgnyng their tourneies.
 Odovides, an herbe growng in meadowes, hauynge in the stalkes many litle knottes, a purple flower, leaues somewhat longer then penny rois all: it is holseome agaynst the tooth ache.
 Odor, vel odos, oris, m. g. sauour, sent, and by translation, perceyuing, vnderstandynge, or be-lyng of a thyng.
 Fœdus odor, a soule synnyng sauour.
 Grauis odor oris, a stronge breathe.
 Odores, plu. is of Columella taken for sweete gummes and spices, perfumes, sweete and pleassaunt smells.
 Expirare odorem dicitur res aliqua, to haue
 a sauour.
 Differtum corpus odoribus, embalmed.
 Odore aliquo legum recreatus.
 Odorāmen, rāminis, and Odoramentum, i. n.
 gen. euery thyng that sauoreth well. also a sauour, a perfume.
 Odorarius, rij, m. ge. a maker or seller of thin-ges that smell sweete, a maker of perfumes.
 Odorarius, a, um, that belongeth to sweete sauours.
 Odoratio, onis, f. g. a sauouryng or smellynge.
 Odorator, oris, m. g. he that smelleth or senteth
 out. also an hounde made to the suite.
 Odoratus, us, m. g. the smellynge or sent. some-tyme for Odoratio.
 Odoratus, a, um, that which is perfumed, some-tyme that which doeth sauour, odoriferous or smellynge soote.
 Minime odorati flores, That haue small sauour or none.
 Odoratae radices herba, that hath a very soote
 roote.
 Vinum odoratum, odoriferous, haupyng a bes-tie pleasant sauour.
 Odorifer, a, um, odoriferous or soote in sauour.
 Odoriferus, a, um, idem.
 Odorifequus, qui, m. ge. an hound or spaniell that hunteth by sent.
 Odoro, aui, are, to make to smell well, to make to haue a good sauour, to perfume.
 Odoror, aris, ari, to smell to perceyue.
 Odorare hanc quam ego habeo pallam, quid olet, smell to this gowne or robe that I haue. &c.

Cibum odoratis, thou smellst meate.
 Odorari vestigiis, to draw as an hound doeth,
 to smell of sent by the tracke.
 Tu sagacius odorabere, thou shalt perceive it better than I.
 Cupio odorari diligētius, quid futurum sit,
 I desire to smell out, or to haue some vnderstandyng how the matter will go.
 Degustare & odorari aliquem, To feele and vnderstande how one is minded or disposed.
 Festine odorari, to smell out thynges quickly.
 Odorus, a, um, that whiche sendeth forth the sauour, or hath a good sauour.
 Odora canum vis, the qualitee of power whiche
 the dogges haue to take the sent.
 Odryce, people of Thrace.
 Odrysius, a, um, of that people, or of Thrace.
 Odyssea, æ, f. g. a worke of Homere concerning the great and perillous traungles of Ulysses.
 Odytes, like Odites.

O ANTE E.

OE, idem quod sorbus.
 Oea, a citie of Aethiopia.
 Oeagrus, a ruere in the countrey of Thascia, also the father of Oipheus the poets.
 Oeanthe, a citie. also the floure of a vine.
 Oebades, kyng Darius hofsekeeper, by whose pos-silitie he attayned to the kyngdome of Persia.
 Oebalia, the countrey in Grece, called also Laconia.
 Oebalides, patronim. masc. pro gentili, a man of Laconia.
 Oebalis, lidis, patron. fem.
 Oebalius, a, um, of Oebalia.
 Oebalus, a kyng of Laconia.
 Oechalia, a parte of Laconia, and a citie of the same name.
 Oeci, places where women doo sit and woozke either with silke or woull.
 Oecirines, a man of Aegle.
 Oeconómia, æ, f. g. the orderynge and prouy-dyng of thynges concernyng householde. also an order in wrytyng, wherby euery thyng is set in his proper place.
 Oeconómica, ðrum, n. g. plur. pertynyng to householde.
 Oeconómicus, i, m. ge. he that can order and gouerne an house.
 Oecos, id est domus.
 Oeconómus, i, m. g. a guarde of householde.
 Oecuménicus, a, um, vniuersall, pertynyng to all the worlde.
 Oecumenicum consilium, a generall coun-sayle, wherein thynges are vniuersally treated concernyng all countreys.
 Oedasticus, ci, he that is cunnyng in the knowledge of weightes and measures.
 Oedema, an impostume or botche, comen of a fleshy matter, in the which is no griefe,

Oedipodionides, the daughter of neere of Oedipus.
 Oedipodionius, la, um, belongyng to Oedipus.
 Oedipus, was by his father Laius, kyng of Thebes, deliuered to his shepheard to kille.
 But he, pityng the childe, made holes in his feete, and did hang him on a bough, and beyng so founde of Phobas kyng of Corinth, was brought to the queene, who lachynge children, brought him vp for his sonne. Afterwarde in a chymph the vntwitynge, he slewe his owne father, & assolyng the subtil riddles and questions of Spinx the monke, he obteyned the kyngdome of Thebes, and the queene called Jocasta, which was his mother, by whome he had ii. sonnes, Polinices and Ethioles. But whan he knew that he had slayne his father, and wedded his owne mother, for sorowe he scratched out his owne eyes.
 Oemaus, the sonne of Mars, father of Hippodamia.
 Oenantharion, the oyle called Oenanthinum.
 Oenanthē, thes, f. g. the flower of a wylde vine, growyng in hedges, called Labrusca. But Di-oscorides lib. iii. saith, that it is an herbe, hauynge a leafe lyke a persnepe, a white floure, a bygge stalk, an hand bredth high, serde lyke of rage, a great roote with many rounde heades.
 This herbe is also called Filipendula, and Saxifraga rubra, libr. 5. he saith that it is the floure of a wylde vine. Soone after he saith, that it is the grape of a wylde vine. Theodorus Gaza doeth translate it Vitiflora.
 Oenanthinus, a, um, made of the herbe Oenanthē.
 Oenanthinum oleum, an oyle made of the besarie of the wilde vyne, or elles of the herbe Oenanthē.
 Oenanthia, a citie of Sarmatia, called now Sancta Sophia.
 Oenas, a certayne birde of the biggenes of a cul-uer, which Gaza translateth Vinago.
 Oeneus, dissyllabum, the father of Melager & Deianira the laste wyfe of Hercules, he was kyng of Calidonia.
 Oeneus, and Oeneius, a, um, of Oeneus.
 Oenides, the sonne or nephew of Oeneus.
 Oenigena, pertynyng of wyne.
 Oenisteria, was a certayne sacrifice at Athens, made by yonge men, newly bearded, which was dooen befoze they did cutte the heare that was longe, whiche sacrifice was in this wyse.
 A certayne measure of wyne was brought in to the Temple of Hercules, wherof the yonge men dranke a litle, and gaue the residue to all other that were present.
 Oenochema, a mountayne in Aethiopia.
 Oenochonus, a riuer rennyng into Thessaly.
 Oenocrotali, certayne rauinous birdes, of whiche
 the Aelianus writeth, beie like to swannes, but þ they haue a litle beneth their mouth a gorge

O ANTE E.

in to whiche they swallow their meate greedely,
and after chat it agayne.
Oenone, the concubine of Paris, before that he rauiſhed Helene, alſo the herbe argemone.
Oenophorus, i, m. g. a ſeruant that byngeth
wyne to the boorde.
Oenophorum, ri, a wine pottle, flagon or bottle.
Oenopia, an yle called alſo Egina. alſo a certaine
roote.
Oenopides, an aſtronomer of Chios.
Oenopola, x, m. g. a tauerne or vintner.
Oenopolium, ij, n. g. a wine tauerne.
Oenops, a mans name in Homere.
Oenothera, an herbe.
Oenotria, a countrey in Italy. ſome write, that Italy it ſelfe was ſo called of Oenotrus, an Troadian.
Oenotrides, two ples nigh to Calabria.
Oenotrius, and Oenotrus, a, um, of Oenotria.
Oenurta, an herbe, wherof if dogges and crows doore eate, it maketh them drunke.
Oestrum, i, n. g. madneſſe or wood fury. alſo a ſlie that maketh a greate noiſe, whan he ſleeth, ſome ſuppoſe it to be a doxe like to a bee, but that he is blacke and greater. He ſemeth to bee the fly called a brieſe or hoſe ſlie, by reaſon that it doeth ſo vex cattell in ſommer tyme.
Oeſypum, i, n. g. the ſlythy oyle that is in woul that is in the ſhankes of a ſhepe, or aboute his necke, whiche oyle is ſodden out, and vſed for medecine.
Oeta, a mountayne betwene Theſſalia and Ma cedonia, where is the ſepulchre of Hercules.
Oeta, the father of Medea, wyfe of Jaſon.
Oechini, people nere to Pontus.
Oeroſcyros, in the Scythian tongue, the name of Apollo.
Oetus, the brother of Ephialtes the gygant.

O ANTE F.

OFfa, x, form. gen. a puddynge, alſo a dyſhe made with fatte byrthe, harde cheeſe, pepper, and cynamome, or other lyke tunkat. ſometyme it is taken for a moſſell, a gobbet, a piece of fleſhe, as a ſteake or collop, or any lyke piece, euerie lyttell piece lyke paſte or dowe.
Offa penita, a piece of fleſh cutte of, with the taylor, the rumpe.
Offa adipis, gobbettes of fleſhe.
Formantur offa, quibus aues ſaginantur, li tle rounde pieces to cramme capons.
Offa & maſſa promiſcua vitur Columella.
Pultis offa, a little gobbet or moſſell of fleſhe in porage.
Offarius, & offaria, a maker of ſuch tunkettes.
Offatim, in moſſelles.
Offector, oris, m. g. a dier.
Offella, x, for. g. a ſteake, a collop, a littell moſ ſell or gobbet of fleſhe mynced. alſo a por

O ANTE F.

tage made with pieces of fleſhe, as ſerued byrth or forced gettall.
Offella porcina, a collop of bacon.
Offella bouina, a ſteake, or littell piece of beoſt.
Offendiculum, i, n. ge. an impediment, a lette,
an obſtacle, and by tranſlation, a doubt.
Offendens, entis, om. g. that offendeth or diſ pleaſeth. ſometyme for Offenſus.
Offendimentum, idem quod offendix.
Offendix, icis, f. g. a rybande or lace, wherewith a bonet or hat is knytte faſt to the head: or ra ther the knot of a lace that faſtneeth the hatte to ones head.
Offendo, di, ere, to meete with, to fall into, to ſynde by chaunce, to ſtryke or hitte any thyng vnware, to offende, to hurte, to empayre, to do a miſſe, to diſpleaſe.
Offendere apud aliquem, to do a thyng which lieth not him that ſeeth it dooen.
Latus offendere, to hurte his ſyde, or hit his ſyde agaynſt a thyng.
Offendimus eam mediocriter veſtitam, wee foude hir in pooze apparayle.
Offendere ſcopulum, to hitte by chaunce as gaynſt a rocke.
Offendere ad ſtipitem, to hurte hym ſelfe as gaynſt a ſtump.
Offendere aliquem, to diſpleaſe, to diſcon tent.
Offendere alicui animum, idem.
Offendere apud iudices, to pleade yll and not to pleaſe the iudges.
Offendere aliquid in re aliqua, to ſynde a faute in a thyng.
Si in me aliquid offendisti, if you haue fou
d any faute in me.
Si quis eſt in quo offenderis, if there be one in whome thou haſt been deceiued, or whiche hath deceiued thyne expectation.
Si quo in vitio eius offendimur, yf there be any faute in him, which doeth diſpleaſe vs.
Offendebatur, he was greuouſly diſpleaſed.
Minus offendor, I am the leſſe angry.
Offendere in arrogantiam, to be arrogant,
to offende in arrogancie and pride.
Offendit me loci celebritas, I can not away with the great haunt of people that reſorteth to the place.
Offendere valetudinem, to empayre or hurte
the helth of the body.
Si tantulum offensus ſit, If one chaunce to ſayle or doo amiſſe be it neuer ſo lyttell.
Offenſa, x, form. ge. an offence or diſpleaſure,
alſo blame.
Offenſa pro discordia, is otherwhyle vſurped of Offuſa.
Offenſam ſubire, to be in diſpleaſure of one,
to haue ones diſpleaſure or yll wyll.
Quum offenſam vereretur, whan he was loth to diſpleaſe.
Mereri offenſam, to doo a thyng wherewith
one

one is offended. Sine gustus offensae, without displeasing of the said.
Nec offensae minus habent, neither be those things less displeasing.
In offensa esse apud aliquem, to have displeased one, to have ones displeasure bestowed.
Offensiculum, l. n. g. chat which is laid in a mean way, whereas he stumblith, as for not Offensans, jannis, that which hurteth or testeth.
Offensator, dris, m. g. he that sauereth in re-byng, as though he were not perfect in reabyng, or readeth otherwys than it is written.
Offensator equus, a stumblinge horse.
Offensio, onis, hurt of harme. Sometime displeasure of hatred, that men beate comrade
 one. Sometime the fault of him that displeas-eth, discontenting.
Accipere and Sumere offensionem, To take displeasure agaynst one for any thyng.
Deponere & omittre offensionem, contrary.
In offensionem cadere, To come in ones displeasure.
Nihil ex eo offensionis habiturum te, That you shall be nothyng displeased or discontented therwith.
Offensiones belli, fautes in battayle.
Offensiones, incumbrances, inconueniences,
 stoppes, lettes.
Offensioni esse, to doo displeasure or harme, to grieve, to molest. Betwene Offensio, and Offensa, semeth to be this diuersitee, that Offensa, is in hym that offendeth or greeveth.
Offensio, in him that is grieved or offended.
Nam quod negas te dubitare, quin magna in offensa sim apud Pompeium hoc tempore, non video causam, cur ita sit hoc quidem tempore, Where ye doo not doubt, but that now at this time, I am in Pompeies great displeasure, I see no cause why it should be so at this present tyme.
Nec tantum intelligebam esse ei offensionis, quantum literae tuae declarant, And I perceue not, that he was so muche displeased as your letters make mention,
Offensionem subleuare,
Vna illa subleuanda offensio est, That one grieve or offence is to be eased or holpen.
Offensionem obliterare, To pardon or forget an offence or displeasure.
Offensiones lenire, O multas & graues offensiones, quas quidem tu das operam ut lesnias, Oh how many and greuous displeasures be dooen, whiche ye go aboute to mitigate or excuse.
Offensionem deponere.
Cum tantum literae meae potuerunt, ut his lesstis, omnem offensionem suspicionis, quam habueras de Lisione, deponeres, Wens my letters myght dooe so muche, that whan ye had teldde them, ye did lay aparte all displeas-ures, which ye had agaynst Liso, engendred of suspicion.

Offensio pedis, stumbling.
Offensio & beneuolentia, contrary.
Coniectare vultu offensionem, to geue that one is displeased by his countenance.
Offensione turpitudinis moueri, to take displeasure with a dishonored acte.
Inuidiam atque offensionem suscipere apud populum, to receiue in the hatred and ill will of the people.
Offensionem negligentiae vitare, to beware that he be not esteemed and reckned negligent.
Offensio rarius ordinis, discontenting of displeasing the whole order of company.
Offensiculum, x, form. gen. a small offence or displeasure.
Offenso, aui, are, to hitte ofte or to let, to thrust agaynst a thyng, a thyng that displeaseth.
Offensum, i, n. ge. the fault in my discontenting
 the audience.
Scito nihil unquam fuisse tam infame, tam turpe, tam denique omnibus generibus, ordinibus, etatibus offensum, quam hunc statum qui nunc est, know this for a surte, that there was neuer thyng so reprochfull, so dishonored finally. so displeasing to all sortes, degrees, and men of every age, as this present state that now is.
Offensus, us, m. g. idem quod Offensa.
Offensus, x, um, hurt, annoyed, displeased, offended. Sometime for inuisus, odious.
Offensus alicui, discontented or angrye with
 one.
Offensior, displeased, angry, somewhat moued.
Pes offensus in porta, when one stumblith.
Pede offenso procumbere, to stumblie and take a fall.
Offercio,fferci, ire, to sturffe or fyll.
Offero, obtuli, offerre, to offer or presente, to geue willingly, to promise.
Offerre auxilium, to promise ayde.
Offerre crimen, to put in a complaynte ag-aynt one.
Offerre incendium, to fyze a thyng.
Domus ardebat in palatio, non fortuito, sed oblato incendio, My house in the palace dyd burne, not by any chaunce, but by fyze thruste in by some man.
Offerre mendicitatem, To bynge one into pouertee.
Offerre religionem, to make one haue a scruple or doubte in conscience.
Si se in via obuiam obtulerit, occisum iri i ab ipso Milone video, If he meete with Milo in the way, I perceue he will slea him.
Si nihil offeret se, quod sit probabilitati illi contrarium, If there appere nothyng contras-ry to that apparence of truth.
Offerre se alicui, to presente him selfe to one, of to come before one. offerre spem, to put one in hope.

offerre stuprum, To assay by meanes to besyle a woman married or unmarried, to commit auoutrie.
offerre moram, to lette.
offerre se obuiam, to meete with one.
offerre vitium virgini, to defloure a virgin.
Optime te mihi offers, you meete with me as well as can be.
Osculum offerre, to proffer to kysse.
offerre beneficium, to proffer to doo one a pleasure or good to turne.
offerre caput periculis, to put his lyfe in daunger.
In discrimen vitam suam offerre, idem.
Negotijs alienis se offerre, to proffer him selfe or meddle in other mens matters.
Oblatam mihi causam gaudeo, I am glad that I haue an occasion.
offerre se ad mortem pro patria, to offer him selfe to die for his countrey.
Se alacrem offerre, To come to one with a merry chere.
offerre se sceleri, aut dementie alicuius, id est opponere, to withstande, to resist.
offerre iniuriam, to doo the first injury or wronge.
offerre mortē hostibus, to slea his enemies.
In omnia suam offerens operam, proferre to ayde them in all thynges.
offerre iusiurandum, whan one proffreth to sweare for the profe of that he hath saied.
Offerrumētā, stryppes.
Ni offerrumētā habueris plures in tergo tuo, quam vlla nauis longa clauos, tum ego ero mendacissimus, And if thou haue not mo stryppes on the skinne of thy backe, than a galy hath nayles: I shall be the falsest lier that euer was.
Offerrumētum, i. n. g. a thyng offered to god.
Officiālis, le, pertainyng to offices or duties.
Officiālis, an officer, or rather a minister to a magistrate or officer.
Officina, a, f. g. a warkehouse, a shop. Sometime pro ipsa operauone, vel fabricatione, the making or woorkemanthyp.
Officina nequitie, & diuersorium flagitiorum.
Ex eadem officina venit, it was of the same mans dooing.
Officinātor, ōris. m. g. Officinātor vseth for faber.
Officio, officiis, feci, ficere, to hurte, sometime to doo. also to die clothe.
Herbæ officiant frugibus, the weedes hurte the cozne.
Officere luminibus, to stoppe his lyghtes.
Neuter alteri officiat, Let not the one hurte the other.
Officiose, diligently, seruicably, with a good will, redely.

Officiōsus, a, um, frendely or seruicable, that is to good to please, or that doeth his dutie well.
Officiōsus dolor, a griefe that proceedeth of a glad cause or reason.
Officiū, ij, n. g. office, dutie of ones behauiouris layng towards every man, that one is bounde to doo by reason and honestie. As a thyng that ought to be doon. It is sometime taken for honoure doon to one; and it may be vled for that whiche we doo call homage doon in such forme as our law dooth appoynt it. It is also taken for benefite, pleasure, seruise, and a good to turne.
Officiū vsurpare, to do his dutie.
In officio esse, to doo his dutie; to applie diligently his office or vocation, to dooe that one ought to doe.
Multaque & magna inter nos officia paria & magna intercedunt, Betweene vs haue ben sondry and great pleasures of like importance dooen one to an other.
Officiū promereri, to doo pleasure.
Non conuenit enim, cum ego ad promerendum officium tam fuerim expeditus, vos ad referendam gratiam esse tardiores, It is not reason, that sens I was so ready to do you pleasure, ye should be so slacke to doo likewise for me.
Officia fungi, to doo his indenoire or dutie, to applie his office.
Officiū præstare, Officiū conferre, idē quod officium promereri, to dooe seruise, to dooe a good turne or honest pleasure.
In officio continere, to keepe him his frende.
Officij causa prosequi aliquē, to keepe company with one, to doo him honoure or woozshyp.
Officia mutua, mutual pleasures that frendes shew one to an other.
Officiū facere, to doo ones dutie.
Suprema officia, funetall obsequies.
Supremis in matrem officiis deesse, not to bypge his mother solemnely to the earth.
Sūmo officio præditus homo, a man of right honest behauiour, a man that doeth in al thynges accordyng to honestie and reason.
Suprema officia celebrare, to keepe the funetall obsequies.
Colere officium, to endeuore to do with diligence all thynges that honestie requirerth.
Delegatum alicui officii, an office or charge appoynted to one.
Deserere officium, not to doo that he should be doo, to be slacke in dooing his office and dutie.
Detrectare officium, to refuse to do his dutie.
Officij duxit, he thought it parte of his dutie.
Neque pes, neque mens satis suum officium facit, neither my feete nor my witte serueth me very well.
Fungi supremo in aliquem officio, to bypge one honourably to the earth.
Meminit officium suum, he remembryeth wel what oyle is made.

Olearius, ri, m. g. a maker or seller of oyle.

Olearius, one of the ples called Cyclades.

Oleastellus, a diminutive of Oleaster.

Oleaster, i, f. g. a wilde olyue.

Oleastre, i, f. g. a wilde olyue.

Oleastre, i, f. g. a wilde olyue.

Oleastrinum, ni, n. g. oyle made of wilde olyues.

Oleatrum, a towne of Spayne.

Oleatus, a, um, infected with oyle.

Oleitas, tatis, f. g. the tyme of gathering of o-lyues.

Olecranon, ni, n. g. the elbow.

Oleomel, a thyng lyke honey, that issueth out of a tree.

Olenus, ni, a mans name.

Olenus, a citee of Arabia, where the gote, with whose mylke Jupiter was nourished, was broughte up, and therefore the signe of Ares

(whiche was supposed to be the same gote) is named Olenia.

Olenius, a, um, of Olenus.

Olentica, thynges, whiche haue an pll sauour.

Oleo, leui, olérum, or olui, olitū, ere, to sauour, to haue sauour, to smell. sometye to stinke.

Olent illa supercilia maliciam, these browes of thyne, or that surdy loke, dooe signifie, that thou art malicious.

Aurum huic olet, This felowe smelleth that

I haue money.

Iucunde olere, To haue a sweete sauour, to smelle pleasantly.

Bene olere, to haue a good sauour, to smelle

well.

Male olere, to stynke, to sauour yll.

Rosa refens a longinquo olet, a rose newly gathered, is smelled a farre of.

Hircum olere, to stynke lyke a gote.

Mirram olet, it sauoureth of myrr.

Nihil olebant, they had no sauour at all.

Oleósus, a, um, full of oyle, all oyle.

Oleraceus, a, um, lyke to pot herbes, or of pot

herbes.

Olesco, scere, to growe.

Oletare, to corrupte or make stynkyng. Leg. xij.

rabul.

Ne quis aquam oletato dolo malo, vbi pu-blicè salit, si quis oletarit, Sestertiorum decem millium multa esto, No man by craft corrupt water, where it spryngeth to a common use, he that doeth corrupt it, shall forsaite ten thousandes Sestertius, whiche do amounte of our money to. xxv. li. xij. s. iiii. d.

Oletum, i, n. ge. a place where olyues do grow.

also the dunge or ordure of a man, properly it is a draught of iakes.

Oleum, olei, n. g. oyle.

Oleo tranquillior, moze mylde or quiete than oyle. Se the prouerbe in Chil. Eras.

Oleum cibarium, meate oyle.

Oleum & operam perdere, to lose laboure and coste,

Oleum, is used for exercise of pfectible condition of spyring.

Olfacio, olfacis, feel, ere, to smell, to sound of smell out, to vnderstande, to perceyue.

Olfactarius, leis, for, gen. that maketh a sound of smelle.

Olfacto, aut, are, to smell muche of often.

Olfactorium, ri, m. g. a pottis or nose gate.

Olfactus, us, m. g. the fence of smelling.

Oliba, a towne of Spayne, called communely,

Olib.

Olibanum, ti, n. g. a measure of wyne.

Olicana, a towne in Englande, called Lychep.

Olidus, olida, um, that which hath great saour, either good or bad, most communely stynkyng.

Oligarchia, a, for, m. gener. the state of a commune weale, where a fewe persons be in authorites.

Oligarchici, they which woulde haue a fewe persons beare rule.

Oligochloron, idem quod capparitis.

Oligoron, idem quod Apocynon.

Olim, sometime in tyme past, tyme out of mynd,

in tyme to come, nowe late, longe tyme past,

once. it is also spoken of the tyme present, euen.

Sometye for Aliquando, or quandoq; as,

Atticus quidam olim nauifraga, &c. a good whyle since.

Ut pueris olim dant crustula blandi doctos res. &c.

Hæc olim meminisse iuuabit, It shall delecte us, or do vs good in tyme to come to remembre

these thynges.

Olina, the herbe Ebulus.

Olor, oris, m. g. a gardener or seller of herbes and rootes.

Olorius, a, um, pertaining to a pottis garden or pottis herbes.

Oliua, a, f. g. an olyue tree. sometye the fruite of olyues.

Oliuarius, a, um, pertaining to an olyue tree.

Oliueta, the tyme of gathering of olyue beares, after Calpine.

Olietum, i, neu. gen. a place where olyue trees do growe.

Oliuifer, oliuifera, rum, that beareth olyues.

Oliuina, a, f. g. plentie of olyues, also reuenues

whiche do come of olyues.

Oliuitas, atis, the fruite of olyues, the gathering tyme of olyues.

Oliuo, aui, are, to gather olyues.

Olium, i, n. g. oyle olyue.

Olla, a, for, gen. a pottis, also a faute in an oliue tree.

Olla fictilis, an earthen pottis.

Ollaris, re, of a pottis, or that is kept in a pottis.

Ollares, grapes conserued in pottis.

Ollaria, a, f. g. a kynd of mixt brasse or copper.

Olli, for illi.

Ollie, for illic.

Ollus, olla, ollum, for ille, illa, illud.

Ollus,

Ollus, a mans name that was a great maker of other mens fautes.

Ollula, lre, f. g. a little pottle.

Oloconitis, an herbe mentioned in Hippocr. whiche some thinke to be that, whiche is called Myle, or moly.

Olocimus color, a diuerse colour.

Olochrifum, the herbe Sempervivum.

Oloeyron, chamæpytis.

Olophyton, capparis.

Olophernes, chiefe counsaile to the great Nabuzodonosor kyng of Assyrians, a valyaunt capiteyne, not withstanding (beyng once charged with wythe, and to muche trustyng in the beautye and pleasaunt speache of the Hebrew lady Judith) he was by his flayme in his bed, & had his head stricken of, and brought to his enemies, before the incarnation of Christs yeres.

Ololygonos, crokyng frogges.

Olor, oris, m. g. a swanne.

Olorinus, a, um, of a swannes Cantus olorinus, the syngyng of a swanne.

Olus, oleris, n. ge. herbes, whiche serue for potage, pottle herbes, and figuratiuely it is vsed for poore fare.

Olusatrum, tri, n. g. an herbe called Ilyxander.

Olusculum, li, n. g. small herbes.

Olympia, a citee betwene the hylles of Ossa, and Olympus.

Olympia, orum, solempne playes & games kepte in Grece to the honour of Jupiter Olympicus, or after some in the honour of Hercules.

Olympiacus, a, um, perteynyng to that playes or hyl.

Olympias, piadis, the space of fye yeres, wherby the olde grekes dyd accompte, as we dooe now, by the yeres of our lozde, as the fyrste Olympias, the second, the thirde. Olympias, is also the name of Alexanders mother, and a wynde blowyng in Euboia. Clareanus writeth, that Olympias is the space of. iiii. yeres, and that they, whych take and wyte other wise, are deceived.

Olympicus, a, um, of Olympus.

Olympicum certame, was a game or ppyce kept on the hyl of Olympus, by all the princis and citters of Grece every fift yere, in the honour of Hercules, who fyrste began it. In the whiche were all these maiesties pzyoned. Rennyng on fote to a golle. also rennyng forth and backe agayne two furlonge. also wastlyng, fightyng with fytes, rennyng with hofes, and leapyng from the one to the other, coursyng wpyth charyottes, rennyng with mares: but so as in the myddell of the course, he that dyd ryde, should leape downe, & holdyng fast the byddell, should make an ende of his course. There was also contention and victorie of poetes, rhetoricians, musicians, and subtile disputers. In the place dyd growe a wyld olpye tree, wherof garlands were made, and geuen to the victours, here unto assembled: In the whiche tyme eyther water was appoynted, or leagues concluded.

Olympionices, or Olympionicus, he that hath had victorie in the games at Olympus.

Olympius, a, um, heavenly.

Olympus, a mountayne or hylle in Grece, betwene Thessalia, and Macedonia, aboue the whiche appereth no cloude: & therfore amonge the poetes it is blisped for heauen. Plutarchus in vita Aemilij; saith, that it is. x. furlong in heighe.

Olynthi, wilde figges that be neuer ripe.

Olynthus, a citee nere Athens.

Olyra, ra, f. ge. a kynde of wheate, wherof they make very white breade.

Olyrias, a ryuer in Grece, by the place called Thermopyla.

Olyssippum, a citee in Portugall, nowe called Vlybona, in englyshe Lusseboyne.

O ANTE M

O Masum, fi, n. g. a fat gut or chitterlyng.

Ombria, a stone, whiche some call notitiam, and fauleth with lightenyng or thunderyng.

Ombrii, people nere to Illiticum.

Omen, ominis, n. gen. the lucke of some thinge to come, gathered of some worde or sayng before spoken. also a worde or sentence so depnly spoken, after the whiche some thyng happeneth to folowe accordyng to thevnto, aboue the expectation of them whiche herde it, forspelyng.

Optimis ominibus, with veray god lucke, in a veray god houre.

In omen accipere, To take or interpretate a thyng, as a token of god lucke or happye.

Dextrum and sinistrum omen, contrarie.

Omentum, ri, neu. ge. the call or swet, wherein all the bowelles are lapped, also the thyn skyn in the head, wherein the brayne is conteyned, of some called the ryme of the brayne, and of surgeons Pia mater.

Omentatus, a, um, myxt with swet.

Ominatus, a, um, vnlucky.

Omino, ominas, aui, are, was vsed of olde wyrters for Ominor.

Ominor, aris, ari, to gesse what shall happen or folowe, to forspake, to speake a thyng luckyly, or vnluckyly.

Bene ominari, to speake luckyly.

Male ominari, to speake vnluckyly.

Ominator, oris, m. ge. he that telleth a mannes lucke or fortune good or ill.

Ominosus, a, um, lucky or vnlucky, that portendeth god or ill lucke.

Omissus, a, um, left, not medled with.

Vbi te vidi animo esse omissio, whan I sawe that thou caredest for nothyng, or wast negligent.

Omissis

Omiffis iocis credo, in earnest I doe beleue.
 Omiffior ab re, he that is nothyng follicitous to gather richesse.
 Omitto, omiffi, omittere, to forbeare, to leaue,
 to neglect, to leat paffe, to omit, to put awaye.
 Omitte hunc, leat hym alone, pardon hym.
 Omitte me, lette bee, lette me alone.
 Omitte iracundiam, be angry no moze, leaue your anger, appeale your felfe.
 Omitte follicitudinem, care not for it, put awaye your carefullneffe.
 Omitte timorem, bee not afearde.
 Omitte de ea re dicere, fpeake no moze of that matter.
 Id omitto, I wyll not fpeake therof.
 Ut omittam de eo plus loqui, that I maye let paffe, and fpeake no moze of hym.
 Omitte hunc, pardon this man & let him go.
 Omnifariam, all maner of wayes, of euery kind.
 Omifer, ra, rum, that beareth all thynges.
 Omnifarius, a, um, fundry, diuers.
 Omnigenus, a, um, of euery kynde.
 Omnimodus, a, um, all maner.
 Omnimodis, all maner of wayes.
 Omnimodé, idem.
 Omnino, wholly, througely, all together, vterly,
 alwaye, fynally, onely.
 Omnino in familia non erat, he in no maner of wyfe was in the houfe.
 Miserrima eft omnino ambitio, ambition is vterly the moft miserable thyng that can be.
 Omnino omnis eruditionis experts, vterly without all learning.
 Omnino leuitatis eft, it is vterly a poynce of lyght behauiour.
 Virum omnino fibi nequaqua parem, a man
 lyke to hym in nothyng, or nothyng to be compared to hym felfe.
 Nihil omnino, nothyng at all.
 Qui omnino nufquam reperiuntur, which be found in no place at all.
 Omnino omnium horum incommodorum
 vna cautio eft, to bee wozt, for all thefe incom-modities there is no remedye at all but onelye this.
 Quinque omnino fuerūt, id eft tantummo-do, there were fyue and no mo.
 Omnino, for etiam, and Sed omnino, for Sed etiam.
 Non modo tantam causam perorare, fed omnino verbū facere conari, not onely to plead fo great and weightie a matter to the ende, but alfo in any wyfe to endeuoure to fpeake one wozde.
 Aut omnino cogitare, or in any wyfe to think.
 Omniparens, entis, om. g. father or mother of all thynges.
 Omniparens terra, the earth byngeth forth al
 thynges.
 Omnipotens, entis, om. g. almyghty.
 Omnis, ne, om. g. all in numbze. Some tyme for Totus.

 Omnibus partibus, all maner of wayes, to all intentes.
 Omni ratione, idem.
 Causa omnis, id eft, yniuerfa, all the wholle
 matter.
 Omnibus ætatibus, id eft, fingulis, euerye
 fomme.
 Omne genus, & omnis generis, of all fortes.
 Omnem tulit punctum, he touched euerye poynt, fpooken of hym, which omitteth nothing neceffary or expedient.
 Omnibus horis, euery houre.
 Differunt omni modo, They varye in all
 thynges.
 Omnibus numeris, in all poynctes.
 Ita tamen, vt noſtri omnibus partibus fupetriores eſſent, but yet ſo that our men had the byper hande in all thynges.
 Res omnibus numeris abſoluta, a thing perſefite in all poynctes.
 Sine omni periculo, without anye daungier at all.
 Omni quinquennio, the wholle fyue yeres
 ſpace.
 Eo tempore omni, all that tyme.
 Omnes tres, all thre.
 Ad omne tempus, for euer.
 Omnibus precibus orabant, they beſyged me very ernettly, or with very great interceſſion.
 Omniuagus, a, um, wandying euery where.
 Omniuorus, a, um, that deuoureth and eateth
 all kynde of thynges.
 Omologia, conuenientia.
 Omoplatæ, two broade bones, goyng from the necke to the ſhoulders on both ſides, called in latine ſcopula operia.
 Omomelida, amamelida, vel apamelida, a kind of very pleaſant peares without core, after a kynd of wildinges called id omnia deſois.
 Omphacinus, a, um, that is made of grapes, or other frutes not rype.
 Omphacinum vinum, a greene wyne, not pleaſaunte or ſweete.
 Omphacinum oleum, oyle made of olyues,
 not beyng rype.
 Omphaciſſo, aui, are, to wax ſower.
 Omphacium, cii, u. ge. a lycour made of fruyte that is not rype, as of grapes, & than it is called vertuyce. It is alſo of other frutes & flowers.
 Omophagi, they whiche doe eat rawe fleſhe.
 Omphax, ácis, a grape not fully rype.
 Omphacomeli, a cyrupe made with the ſuyce of greene grapes and honye. They make it nowe adaiſes with the ſayde ſuyce and ſugar, and doe
 call it Syrupus de agreita.
 Omphale, a mayden, whiche was queene of Aſia, whome Hercules dyd ſerue, and ſhe cauſed
 hym to ſpinne on a roche.
 Omphalocarpus, i, idem quod Aparine, looke
 there.

O Nager, Onagri, m. g. a wylde alle.
O Onchistion, a plant in the marches of Onchos, chi, m. g. aye dunge.
O Onerarius, a, um, that whiche serueth for dones beyne.
O Onero, oneras, au, are, to charge, burdeyne, or lade.
O Onerare populum, to put impositions of tas
 ses on the people.
O Annōniam onerare, to make cozne deere.
O Mensam onerare epulis, to set very many dis hes on the table.
O Remittas iam me onerare iniurijs, ye would cease to ouerlade, charge, or cumber me with vnreasonable.
O Maledictis onerare, to rate, to rail at, to geue
 many shewde wordes.
O Laudibus onerare, to geue great pryse, to praise exceedingly.
O Mendacijs onerare, to deye one shamefully.
O Praeceptis onerare, to charge with many thin ges, to geue manye instructions and commaunds demerites.
O Promissis onerare, to promise one many thin
 ges, to make many great promises to one.
O Pugnjs onerare, to buffet and thumpe one with his fytes.
O Onerari imaginibus, whan the famous me
 moie of our auncestours both in maner bynde of constrainge us to do honourably.
O Onerare lxticia, to make exceedingly ioyous and gladd.
O Oneratus, a, um, burdeined, laden, ouercharged.
O Onerarius, a, um, that wheron burdeyn is layd.
O Onerariae naues, shypys whiche serue for bur deyne, they wate bee taken for hulkes.
O Onerosus, a, um, burdeynous, chargeable, be rape heauy.
O Onesicritus, a philosopher, and an historiogra phier of Regina.
O Onesimus, a learned man in the tyme of Con stantine Magnus.
O Oniropolos, he that interpreteth an other mans dreames, or visions: or he that expoundeth his owne dreames.
O Oniscus, ci, m. g. a worme, which bendeth him
 selfe lyke a howe whan he goeth, whiche is red, and founde vnder trees, which haue lyeen longe on the grounde.
O Oniscos, a fythe, which is called also Asellus, or Galaria: it is also an instrument that surgions doe vse.
O Onistis, the herbe Apocynon.
O Onitis, a kinde of oygament: Ruellius doubteth, whether it be sticas Arabica.
O Onixes, a kinde of marble.
O Onobletum, an herbe like a tunge, medicinable for the flowers in women.
O Onobrychis, a certayne herbe growynge by water.

O Onochelos, an herbe of the kynde of Anchusa, hauing a purple flower, tough leaues, a roote
 in harvest tyme redde, at other seasons blacke.
O Onoba, a citee of Spayne.
O Onocardion, quasi asinus carduus, a kynd of tallies.
O Onoclea, the first kynd of Anchusa.
O Onocentaurus, a beast, halfe a man, halfe an asse.
O Onocrotalus, li, m. g. a bynde lyke to a swanne, which puttyng his head into the water, bzaiesh
 lyke an asse.
O Onophillon, the herbe Anchusa.
O Onogyros, a rough and sharpe herbe hollow a gainst poyson.
O Onopetation, idem quod Onitis.
O Onothero, idem quod Oenothera.
O Onomatopēia, a, f. g. a word made of sowne, or pronouncynge, as bleatynge of a shepe, lowng of a cowe, hyssynge of an adder.
O Ononis, nidis, f. ge. an herbe full of prickes, a leafe lyke rue growing commonly amonge cozne, it letteth the plough and therfore is called, Rest hartowe, or Lammoche: in Cambrige shire, a whyne.
O Ononium, nij, n. g. a blinde nettell.
O Onobalistura, a citee of Spayne.
O Onocida, a kinde of gaules, that be great and hollow, not of so good effecte as the lesse.
O Onos, a kynd of Locustes, whiche is called thus thus.
O Onus, oneris, n. ge. a burdeyn, a lode, a charge
 geuen to one, or that one taketh on hym.
O Oneri esse, to be chargeous to one.
O Onus deponere, to discharge one.
O Onus imponere, to geue to one in charge.
O Oneri premi, to be to muche charged, to be ouer charged.
O Onere opprimi, to be ouer charged.
O Onus suscipere, to take charge.
O Onus tollere, to beare charge or burdeyn.
O Onus sustinere, idem.
O Concidere sub onere, to falle downe vnder ones burdeyn.
O Onus ciborum reddere, to auoyde the excre mentes of nature.
O Cur tuum onus sustineo? Why doo I your burdeyn?
O Nostrum est onus, The charge is ours.
O Onustus, a, um, loded, charged, bourdeyned.
O Onustus vino, ouercharged with wyne, drinke.
O Onychipuncta, a pzeious stone, called also lasa ponix, white of colour, with redde strakes.
O Onyx, onychis, m. & f. m. gen. a whyte stone lyke to a mans naye, also some bee founde in India, whiche are of dyuers colours, hauinge white spotted lyke vnto eyes, it is supposed of some men to bee that, whiche is called Con chula India.
O Onyx, is also the herbe Astragalus, also a kynde of

of precious marble, whereof cuppes were wont to be made.
Onychinus, a, um, made of the stone Onyx.
Onychitis, a hynde of Cadmia.

O ANTE O.

O Onx, fies in the nothe ocean, where the inhabitanter dooe lye with egges of foules.

Oopellum, a towne in England called Chester.

O ANTE P.

O Paca, the herbe Onobrichis.
Opacitas, atis, for. g. Madowe of trees of bmyage.

Opaco, aui, are, to shadowe, to make darke, as it is in wordes vnder trees.

Opacus, a, um, shadowed, or in the shadowe.

Opalum, li, a precious stone, hauing the properties of diuers stones.

Opella, diminutiu of opera.

Opera, operæ, for. g. warke, labour, diligence, payne, traualle.

Operæ, plurali tantum, workemen, slaues hyed to do a thyng, labourers, factours.

Operæ est, for opus est, it is neede, it needeth.

Opera mea, tua, sua, by myne, thyne, or his meanes.

Operam perdere, to labour in vayne, to leaue ones labour.

Operam ludere, idem.

Operam ponere, to take labour and payne about a thyng.

Operas reddere alicui, to paye one his hye.

Orestes & Lycurgus vna opera mihi sunt sodales, qua iste, Orestes and Lycurgus be as well my companions as he.

Haud censebam istarum esse operarum patrem, I dyd not thynke that my father medled with these matters.

Spero alicunde hodie me bona opera aut mala, tibi inuenturum esse auxilium argentarium, I truste that ones to daye I shall by good meanes or badde, fynde some moneye to helpe the with.

Operam do, operam impendo, operam nasuo, I dooe myne endeuore, I put to my dils-gence, I spende my labour.

Operam impendere & dependere, To take payne about a thyng.

Multam operam conferre, to bestow great labour and payne, to study or labour muche.

Operam dabat veteri domino, he serued his olde mayster.

Ego istuc ætatis non amori operam dabam, when I was of this age I dyd not bestowe my tyme, or let my mynde on wanton loue.

Dare operam funeri, to bee at ones interresment or buryng.

Libetia operam dare, to geat thyng.

Dare operam alicui, To dooe one seruise, to helpe hym in his busynesse.

Dare operam præceptor, id est, audire, to heare his mayster, to leaue of hym.

Dare operam rebus diuinis, to bee at diuine seruise.

Dare operam tonsori, to bee shauen.

Dare operam alicui dicitur iudex, when he heareth one attentively, and maketh good re-pediton in his cause.

Operam dare iuxta ciuili studio, to study the lawe ciuile.

Data opera facere, to dooe a thyng of your-pote, or for the nones.

Si videam tibi operam esse, per. I maye se you occupied, or if that ye haue any thyng to doo.

Non opera est Sceledro, Sceledrus is yuell, and hath nothyng to dooe.

Opera experiri, To proue by the effect that a thyng is so.

Quibus operæ est trahere bellū, whiche haue need, or to whome it is expedient to prolonge the warre.

Exigere plenam operam, To require a full taske. Bene ponere operam, to bestowe his labour well.

Operam orationis compendi facito, speake
the thyng in fewe wordes, telle it briefely.

Cui opera vita erat, whiche lyued by his labour. Cur tu operam grauare mihi? why are thou lothe to helpe me? or why dooest thou grudge to helpe me?

Locare operam alicui, to labour for hye or wages.

Opera succisina, the hye labour that one beed stoweth in thynges of no great necessitee.

Profitari operam, to promyse to helpe one.

Dare operam memorie alicuius, to kepe and preserue the memorie of a man.

Iam mihi videor nauasse operam, nowe me
thynketh I haue obteyned my purpose.

Tradere operas mutuas, to help one an other,
to dooe one for an other.

Eadem opera, with one labour or traualle.

Operæ Clodianæ pontes occuparunt, The clientes, hyed seruantes, or slaues of Clodius us, or those that Clodius had hyed, kepte the bydges.

Operæ precium, cij, neut. gen. the rewarde or profyte of ones labour, a thyng profitable or expedient, necessarye or conueniente, honeste, or ioyous, a thyng woorthye to bee esteemed and sette by.

Audire est operæ precium, it is a world to heare
Est operæ precium cognoscere, it is a thyng woorthye the knowlage.

Operæ precium est considerare, it is a thing woorthye to be considered and marked.

Magna operæ precia mereri, To haue greates wages in warfate.

Operæpretium est, It is a thyng worthye the payne.
Quia vix operæpretium erat, because they shoulde haue had great reuayle, and litle or no profite, or because the thyng was scante worth the payne that shoulde haue been taken about it.
Si nihil, quod est operæpretium, fecerant, yf they had doon nothyng that was of any value.
Operaria, æ, f. g. the feminine.
Operarius, rij, m. g. a labourer, a workman.
Operarius, a, um, that whiche is dooen with labour, or pertyneth to labour or worke.
Homo operarius, a workman, a labourer, a craftes man.
Lapides operarii, stones that may be wrought on, and made fitte for buyldyng.
Pecus operarium, beastes used to tillage, cartage, and other necessary busynesse.
Operatio, ōnis, f. g. working, sacrificyng.
Operatus, a, um, wroughte, sacrificed.
Ex tempore, quo corpus additū atq; operatum reipub. esset, during the tyme that the body shall be employed about seruyng the comune weale.
Operculo, aui, are, to couer a vessell.
Operculum, li, n. g. a heueryng or lydde.
Operimentum, ti, neu. gen. any thyng that couereth.
Operio, operis, operui, operire, to couer or hyde, to shutte, to close.
Ostium operuere, they shutte the doore.
Luctum operire, to dissemble and hyde ones mournyng.
Operior, ris, riri, to bee heuered or shutte.
Operor, aris, ari, to worke, to labour to endeavour, to geue diligent studye to a thyng, to studye.
Operari, is sometyme used to sacrifice with great reuerence.
Operatio, ōnis, the woork, or that, where about a man labourerth, also solempne sacrificyng.
Operose, difficultely, with great labour and busynesse.
Operositas, atis, f. g. trauaylyng.
Operosus, a, um, busy, diligent in labouryng, laborious, paynfull. Sometyme passiuely, that one labourerth on.
Res operosa est, It is a matter that requirerth much payne: It is a harde and paynfull matter.
Facilis & operosus, contrary.
Colonus operosus, laborious, paynfull.
Operosa herba, of great efficacie and strength in working.
Agri operosi, that require great labour.
Operto, aui, are, to couer often.
Opertorium, rij, n. g. a coueryng.
Opertum, ti, n. g. a thyng couered.
Opertus, a, um, couered.

Operti præda, id est onusti.
In operto esse, to be couered or hydde, to bee inclosed, to hepe his house, & not come abroad.
Esse operto capite, To weare a cappe or other thyngs on ones head, to haue the head couered.
Opertus dedecore, shamefully disteyned.
Opertis oculis aliquid facere, to doo a thyng byndeth.
Non est rationis opertæ, The reason why is euident and playne.
Opertum, and apertum, contrary.
Opertaneus, a, um, dooen within doores or vnder couert.
Opertanea sacra, sacrifices dooen within doores, and not abroad.
Operula, diminutive of opera.
Opes, opum, opibus, looke Ops, opis.
Opheltes, the sonne of Argurgus, slayne by a serpent.
Ophicaldelus, a pretious stone of colour blacke, diuided with two white lines.
Ophiaca, pertynyng to serpentes, they were bookes, whiche Alexander, & Ptolemy wrote, of the nature of serpentes.
Ophidion, dij, n. g. a fyre like a congre.
Ophiglossum, si, neu. g. an herbe, called in Englyshe serpentes tonge, or adders tonge.
Ophigenium, rij, neu. ge. an herbe, called also Elaphoboscus, whiche hath strength agaynst serpentes.
Ophioctonon, idem.
Ophiogenes, people in Hellespont, whiche heale the styngyng of serpentes with touchyng the place.
Ophion, one of Cadmus companyons.
Ophioneus, the name of a smith.
Ophiophagi, people in Bethiope, which doe eat serpentes.
Ophiostaphilos, vitis alba, looke Ampeloleuce.
Ophiostaphyle, a shrubbe lyke the blacke beris tree called in latine serpentis vna.
Ophis, the herbe dracunculus.
Ophioscorodon, di, wilde garlike, hauyng longe blades lyke a bulrush, and holowe within, and in the toppes of the stalke purple flowers: the roote hath cloues like other garlike.
Ophrys, a certayne herbe lyke to Jagged colwortes, whiche maketh the heare blacke.
Ophites, a kynde of marble, hauyng spotted lyke a serpent.
Ophiucus, the name of Esculapius, because that he is ymagined to holde a serpent in his hande. Some write, that it is a signe in heauen, whiche some calle Harcules, other Esculapius.
Ophiusa, an ylande, called sometyme Rhodos.
Ophthalmicus, ci, m. ge. a physicion that cureth the disease in the eyes.
Ophthalmia, æ, f. gen. a sykkenesse of the eyes, whiche inflameth the bones of the head, the knyttynges of the eyes, the thyngnes saynes therof.

therof, and linewes, and all the holowe part of the eye with the forehead and balles of the chekes: it cometh eyther of smoke, or heate of the sunne, or duste, or by a falle, or a stroke, or some tyme of an humour, sanguine, cholerike, fleummarke or melancolpke.

Ophthalmos, an eye.

Opici, they whiche bled abhominable eydaudye.

Opicus, opica, um, vncleane, dishonest, shame-lesse, bawdy, fylthy, vncaste.

Opifer, opifera, rum, that byngeth helpe.

Opifex, fisis, com. gener. a workeman, a crates man.

Verborum opifex, an inuenter and maker of
wordes.

Opificina, x, f. g. a workhouse.

Opificium, cii, n. g. the worke.

Opigena, Juno was so called of women, becs cause they supposed, that she holpe them in theyr traualle.

Opilio, onis, m. g. a shepherde.

Opilo, a certayne birde.

Opimas, atis, riche, welthie.

Opimatores, the prouiders of coyne for the ar-mye.

Opime, abundantly, richely, plentyfully.

Opimitas, aris, f. g. plentifulnesse.

Opimo, aui, are, to make fatte or grosse.

Opimus, a, um, fatte, also riche, plentifull.

Opimum seu opimianum vinū, wyne which might endure godd two hundred yeres.

Habitus corporis opimus, & gracilitas, contrary, grossenesse, doozelynes.

Opimus ager, a fertile and fat soyle.

Opimi boues, fatte oxen.

Opimum decus, great honour.

Opima spolia, the spoyle, whiche by one chiefe capitayne is taken from an other in battayle, as his cote armour or harnais.

Opima prædia, manours profitable, of great
reuenues.

Opinabilis, le, that may be conceiued in opinio.

Opinatio, onis, f. g. thynkyng, supposyng.

Opinātor, and Opinatus, looke after Opinio.

Opinio, onis, f. g. opinion, hope, iudgemente, fame, estimation, reputation, also suspicion.

Vincam opinionem tuam, I will be moze dis-ligente than you thynke.

In his locis opinio est, When thynke in these quarters, or the sayng or byute of men is here in these partes.

Summam opinionem obtinet, It is greatly esteemed.

Magna est hominum opinio de te, men haue conceiued a great opinion of you.

Malam opinionem imbibit, he hath conceiued an ill opinion, or he thynketh ill.

Opinio de te multū me fefellit, I am greatly deceiued in myne opinion of you.

Contra & præter opinionem, otherwise than one thought or hoped.

Omnium opinione, as every mā thynketh, by the opinion of all men. Opinione celerius, soner than men thynke. When men doubt of a thyng, we say, not, Hæc est mea opinio, but Hæc mea est sententia.

Afferre opinionem, to make one to thinke.

Quantum opinione auguror, As farre as I coniecte or gesse. Opinionem comprehendere, to conceiue an opinion.

Remittere opinionem, to put awaye an opinion that one hath conceiued.

Non fallam opinionem tuam, I wyll not de-ceiue your expectation or opinion that ye haue conceiued of me.

Vt mea fert opinio, after my iudgemente or fantasie, as I deme or thynke.

Laborare opinione arrogantiz, to be suspected of arrogancie or pride.

Oppleuit opinio hæc totam Græciam, All Grece was of this opinion.

Concurrunt multæ opiniones, many suspit-ons come togyther.

In eam opinionem venerat Cæsius, men thought this of Cæsius, or men had this opinion of Cæsius.

Adducere in opinionem rem aliquam, To byng a thyng in suspicion.

Opinātor, onis, m. ge. a supposer, he that neuer affirmeth any thyng. also the prouider of coynes for an armie.

Opinārus, a, um, supposed.

Opinor, aris, ari, to suppose, to haue opinion, to deme, to thynke, to iudge.

Opipare, plentifully, abundantly, richely.

Opiparus, a, um, abundant, freche or gay, rich, magnificent.

Cæna opipara, a delicate, plentifull & sumptuouse supper.

Opis, pi, pem, ayde, helpe, succour.

Nisi eum quantum dā dant tibi opis, serues, castigas, mones, excepte thou awaite, chastice, and rebuke hym, with al the helpe that the gods dis maie geue the, or with al the helpe that thou mayste haue of the goddis, or as farre as god wyll helpe the.

Nihil opis est in illis, they can not helpe or succour the.

Omni ope, with all his might.

Confugere ad opem alicuius, to flee to one for helpe or succour.

Egere ope, & indigere opis, to haue nede of helpe.

Opis aliquid ferre, to helpe somewhat.

Non opis est nostræ, It is not in our power.
Summa ope niti, to endeuour with al force or diligence.

Opem alicuius expectare, to loke for helpe of one.

Opem petere, implorare, poscere, exposcesre, orare, to desyre ayde or helpe.

Opem,

Opes, olde wynter bled for opulentiam, it thes Opis, opis, a labie, companion to Diana. Shee was also wynter Saturnus. And by hir is delighted the earth amonge porten. It is also a cite by the ryuer Tygris.
 Opisthographus, i, m, g. a booke written on the backe syde, or paper written on both sydes.
 Opisthotonicus, a, um, he that can not turne his necke.
 Opisthotonos, the crithe or disense that letteth
 one to tourne his necke.
 Opisthophylaces, they whiche defende the backes of them that fyght, the reere garde.
 Opiter, opiteris, or opitris, the whole father dis-
 ed before his grandfather.
 Opitorginus, a, um, of the towne of Carthage, called Opitergiurn.
 Opites, the name of a Greeke, whiche Hector slew.
 Opitulátor, oris, m, g. a helper.
 Opitulator, aris, ari, to helpe, to succour, to ayde.
 Contravanas species opitulator, it helpeth or is medecynable agaynst vayne phantasies of the brayne.
 Opitulus Iupiter, Iupiter the helper at nede.
 Opium, pii, n, g. the iuyce of an herbe called black poppe. also Opium is he that fighteth in armure.
 Opobalsamum, mi, n, g. balme naturall, which in a parte of Iudea, called Hiericonthe, stilleth out of a litle thorne.
 Opocarpalum, i, n, g. the iuyce of Carpalum.
 Opopanax, acis, the iuyce of an herbe called Pan-ax.
 Opore, all fruytes, whiche be good to be eaten, &
 haue no harde pillng, or shale, as apples, pea-res, plumes, &c.
 Opórice, ces, f, g. an excellent medecine made of frutes.
 Opórinus, a, um, belongynge to Saturne.
 Oporophylacium, cij, n, g. the keepynge of frutes.
 Oporotheca, x, f, ge. a place wherein winter
 fruite is kepte.
 Oportet, it behoueth, it is expedient or necessary.
 Nonne prius comunicatum oportuit? Had it not been mete that I should haue been tolde of the matter before, or that I shoulde haue been made priue to it before?
 Factum oportuit, it shoulde haue been doen before this.
 Oportet, is sometime vled personally, as,
 Hac facta ab illo oportebant, this ought he to
 haue doen.
 Opos, succus.
 Oppango, pégi, pangere, to fasten or foggne.
 Oppedo, oppedis, ere, to farte agaynst one, to denie with a lowde voyce, to dissent and be against, to contemne.
 Oppérior, riris, riri, depon, to tary, to abide for.
 Ego te opperiar domi, I will tary at home for the. Oppertus sum, I haue tarried for.

 Oppeto, opperis, riri, vel opperit, tere, to dye,
 also to be slayne.
 Oppetere febrem, to fall into a feuer.
 Oppia, a bygnis. Metastis, whiche being conuicted of whoredome, was buried quicke.
 Oppinot, a, um, a poste.
 Oppico, ani, are, to pitche or couer with pitche.
 Oppidant, i, th, g. a citisyn or towne man.
 Oppidanor, a, um, that belongeth to a towne, or towne man.
 Oppidatim, towne by towne.
 Oppido, an aduerbe. Signifyinge verie muche.
 Sometime it signifieth togethwith, verily.
 Paulum oppido iociter se distitune, they distressed verye litle.
 Dic me hic oppido esse inuitam, saye that I am here soe agaynst my will.
 In angustum oppido meo cogitur Copia, all the helpe that I haue is now diuyn to a narrow streete.
 Oppidulum, i, n, g. a litle towne.
 Oppidum, i, th, g. a walled towne or cite.
 Oppignero, ani, are, to laie in pledge, to laie to a gage.
 Oppignerare se, to lay hym selfe to pledge.
 Oppilatio, ónis, f, g. a stoppyng, oppilation.
 Oppilo, ani, are, to stoppe or shutte.
 Oppleo, pleui, ére, to fyll full.
 Oppleuit lactus vrbem, The wholle cite was iourished and lamenited.
 Oppletus, a, um, fylled vp.
 Opploro, ani, are, to lament, to weep.
 Oppono, sui, ere, to laie or put agaynst, to oppose.
 Opponere praesidium, to set a garrison to defende. Obicere & opponere.
 Oppono auriculam, I laye myne eare to harden. Formidines opponere, id est obicere, to put in great feare.
 Opponere milites ad portas, to set souldiers to defende the gates.
 Opponere alicui insidias, to laie an ambu-che by the waie where one shulde passe.
 Opponere nomen alicuius ad rem aliquā fa-ciendam, to threaten one with a mans name, yf he wyl not doe a thing that he is commaunded.
 Opponere se inuidia, to put hym selfe in danger of the yll will, hatred, and displeasure of men. Opponere corpus pro patria, to put his lyfe in daungier for his countreye.
 Opponere, & opponere pignori, To laye downe a paine or gage agaynst one, also to lay to guage.
 Opponere causam, to laie an excuse, to laie a reason or cause.
 Opportune, opportunately, conuenientely, as it ought to be, in due tyme and measure, in good season. Opportune aduenis, you come veriaie
 well.

Opportunitas, atis, for. g. opportunitie, conueniencie of tyme and place; commoditee, p^{ro}sp^{er}tyte, vtilitee.
Temporis opportunitas, ante and conueniente tyme.
Via opportunitas, id est facilitas, the easynesse of the way.
Opportunitate venire, to come in season, to come in good tyme.
Opportunus, a, um, that which is in due tyme, and as it ought to be, after our desyre, as we would haue it, meete for the purpose, conuenient, enclined, subiecte, in daunger.
Opportunus iniuriæ, fit or apt to take wrong.
Opportunus alicui vitio, aut morbo, id est, noxijs, procliujs, ready, inclyned, subiecte, in dainger. Magis opportunus, nec magis ex usu nemo est, there is no man more meete for it, noz no man more to your commoditee.
Tempus opportunum, tyme meete and conuenient. Lorum opportuna, meete places.
Oppositio, onis, f. g. contrary settinge or putte tyme.
Oppositus, a, um, the participle of Oppono, put or set agaynst. also gaged, laide to gage.
Villa opposita ad austrum, open to the south.
Villa opposita ad quindecim millia, layed to gage for the some. &c.
Oppositus, us, m. gen. contrarietee in puttyng or settinge.
Laterum nostrorum oppositus & corporum pollicemur, we promise that we wyll put our bodies and lyues in reopardy for the defence thereof.
Oppressio, onis, f. gen. an oppression or violas tyme, a doyng of wrong by violence.
Per oppressionem aliquid eripere, to take by violence, to take away a thyng by extorcion.
Oppressiuncula, æ, a diminutiue of Oppressio.
Oppressor, oris, m. g. an oppressour, or he that dooeth greue or harme one, he that doeth iniurie by violence, an extorcioner.
Oppressus, a, um, oppressed, violently wronged, taken sodaynly or vnwares, thrust hard.
Oppressus, a prædonibus captus est, beyng overlaid with theues, he was taken.
Oppressa amicitia, frendshipp viterly broke of.
Oppressus doloribus, soze pained, in great sorowe and payne.
Opprimo, opprimis, pressi, ere, to oppresse, to kepe or shut in, to take sodaynly, to rauyn a woman, to greue, to thurst hard. Also to p^{re}uent, to geat of one by force, to confesse a thyng whether he wyll or no.
Opprimi ære alieno, to bee much in debte, to be overcharged with debte.
Opprimere animos formidine, to make men soze afrayde.
Opprimere mentionem, to put a thyng to silence, to make that a thyng be not spoken of.
Opprimi inuidia, to be greuouely hated, to haue a veraye p^{re}sente amonge menne for any thyng, to haue the p^{re}sente of displeasure of men.

Opprimere iudicio, to vnderstand by suite, or by an one iudice at the lame by force & tyrannie is put to the worke.
Opprimere orationem alicuius, to make one to speake no more of a thyng, to make one leaue his communication and talke.
Oppressus graui somno, in a deade slepe.
Nox certamina cepit oppressis, the nyghte came on, & byd lette the contentions that were begunne.
Opprimere occasionem, to cause the occasion to be lost.
Opprimere pedem, to treade or thurst downe with ones foot.
Opprimi ruina, to be slayne with the fallynge downe of some thyng.
Opprimere bellum exortu, to cesse or quiete the warre that is begunne.
Os opprime, stoppe thy mouthe.
Opprimere aliquem, to take one vnwares.
Opprimere aliquem concilio, to ouercome one by wisdom, to go beyonde one in wyt and counsayl.
Opprimere dictum suum, to change his sentence, or deny that he hath spoken.
Opprimere ignem, to quenche the fyre, and by translation, to quiet a busy & dangerous matter. Onerare opprimi, to be overladen.
Opprimere ex improviso, to come vpon one sodaynly.
Opprobamentum, i, n, g. of olde wryters was used for Opprobrium.
Opprobriū, i, n, g. a reproch, rebukefull speaking.
Opprobrio, opprobrias, au, are, to obiect agaynst one to reproche, to cast in the nose.
Opprobatio, onis, for. g. rebukefull speaking, reprochyng in wordes, callyng in ones teethe.
Oppugnatio, onis, for. g. an assiege or assaut agaynst a fortrese.
Oppugnator, oris, m. g. he that letteth the p^{ro}s site of any other man, or goeth aboute to dooe him displeasure.
Oppugnatus, a, um, assaulted.
Oppugno, au, are, to assaule, to oppugne, to fyght agaynst, to reason agaynst a matter earnestly.
Oppugnare bona alicuius, to assaye meane to make one lose his gooddes.
Oppugnare aliquem capite, & fortunis, to cause one to lose his lyfe and gooddes.
Oppugnare verbis comoda patriæ, to speke agaynst the p^{ro}s of his countreie.
Oppugnare aliquem, to labour agaynst one by all meanes possible.
Oppugnare aliquem pecunia, to labour agaynst one with moneie and bribes.
Oppugnare occulte rem aliquam, to be p^{re}sently agaynst a matter.

Ops, opis, f. ge. the wife and wife of Saturne:
also it signifyeth one that helpeth. Dunctio wytters vnto Ops for opulentum, ryche.
Opes, opum, ibus, the plural, ryche, also puisaunce of power, ayde, helpe.
Non humanis opibus, not with mans helpe.
Ingenij potius quam virium opibus, rather by the strength and vertue of the mynde, than by myght and power.
Expectare alterius opes, to loke for the helpe of power of other.
Opputo, opputas, aui, are, to cut of boughes, to prune trees.
Oppunire, for Percutere, a woude out of use.
Oppunia, strepes.
Opfago, the herbe Solanum somniferum.
Opfigamia, a iudgement of law in Laccedemonia agaynst men that were not married, or were vn-
married.
Opson, all thyng that is made with fyre to be eaten.
Opsonator, oris, m. g. a pueretour of vitayles,
a prouider of cates, a cater, steward, or maistr.
Opsonatus, us, m. ge. preparation for dyner or supper. Opsonatio, idem.
Opsonito, aui, are, to prepare often for dyner or supper.
Opsonium, nij, n. gen. all thyng belonging to a meale, except breade and drynke.
Opsono, aui, are, & opsonor, aris, ari, to prepare thynges necessarie for dyner, supper, or banquet, to laie out moneye for cates.
Opsonato ampliter, bestowe large cost vpon prouision of meate.
Vix drachmis obsonatus es decem, thou biddest scarcely bestowe fortye pens vpon meate.
Optabilis, le, that whyche is to be desired or wished for.
Optabiliter, pleasantly, delectably.
Optatio, onis, f. g. option or choyse.
Optato, with desire, as one wolde wythe.
Optato aduenis, you be welcom, you com enow
as I wold haue you, I am glad you be come.
Optatus, a, um, wished for, or desired.
Optatum loquere, speake curteisly, speake not so rigorously.
Nihil optatus, ther is nothing that I desire more, or wold more sayne haue.
Optati, they that be chosen to any honest degree or estate.
Optata loquere, supple verba, thou speakest toyfull wordes, or as I wold haue the.
Optatissimus nuntius, moste pleasant and acceptable tydynges that can be.
Præter optatum meum, Otherwyse than I wyshed or desired.
Opteron, ri, ferre.
Optice, the science wherby the reason of syght is known.
Opticus, optica, um, perspectiue, pertainynge to syght.

Optimas, atis, com. g. a head man of a citie. Also he that defendeth the part of nobilitie and ryche.
Optimates matrone, The chiefe women in the citie.
Optimatus, us, m. ge. the estate or condition of head men of a towne or countreie.
Optime, verate well.
Optime est, it can not be better, it is as well as can bee.
Optimus, optima, um, beste, or verate good.
Optimo iure, of verate good ryghte, or with good reason.
Tu optimus es testis, no man can tell better than you.
Optio, onis, f. g. a choyse or election.
Optione facere, permittere, & dare, to geue
the choyse to one.
Si optio esset, If I, thou, or he, might choyse.
Optio sit tua, Choyse you, take the choyse.
Optio, onis, m. ge. great money, which souldi-ours do receyue to prouide their necessaries. It was also to the capitayne in warres, a minister to doo his commandement, and be assient vnto hym.
Optius, a, um, for Adoptius.
Opto, aui, are, to desire, to couete, to choyse, to haue liester.
Quoduis donum & præmiū a me optato,
desyre what gift or rewarde thou wilt of me.
Optauit potius, he had liester, or desired more.
Opulenter, richely, plentifully, abundantly.
Opulentia, æ, f. g. ryche, abundance.
Opulentitas, atis, f. g. idem quod opulentia.
Opulento, aui, are, to make riche or plentiful.
Opulentus, a, um, ryche, abundant, plentiful.
Opulesco, scere, to waxe ryche.
Opulus, opuli, f. g. a wyche hasyll tree, as some haue thoughte, but by the iudgement of other it is not that, but an other tree, which the frenche men call Opier, and is the best tree to twigne vines vnto.
Opuncalo, he that syngeth lyke a Mepeherbe.
Opuntia, æ, f. g. gene. an herbe growynge by the citie Opus.
Opuntius, a, um, of the citie Opus.
Opus, untis, a citie in Locris.
Opus, operis, n. g. a worke, a building, a labor, sometyme for artificij, workmanship. sometyme an act or dede. Munus opus q tuū, thine act, thy dede. Eius opere, by his mean or diligẽce.
Opere maximo, with all meanes possible, In moste hertly wyse.
Rex Seleucus me opere orauit maximo, ve sibi latrones cogerem, king Seleucus desired me asmuche as he possible might, that I wold get hym souldiours to be about his person.
Thais maximo te orabat opere, vt cras redires, Thais desired the as hertely as he coulde that thou woldst come agayn to morow.
Gracos nimio opere delectant, they desire Ddd 4 the

the Grekes exceeding much, & the Grekes take exceeding great pleasure in them.

Tanto opere, for Tantopere. Opus otij, A woork that a man hath made at vacant tymes.

Accelerare opus, to hasten forward the woork.

Omni opere anniti, to endeavour with al force and labour.

Opus facere, to labour.

Instare operi, to see that the woork goe forward.

Opus, an adiective vnderclined, nedefull, expediente, necessary.

Nihil mihi opus est, It is not expedient for me, I haue no neede.

Dux nobis & author opus est, we haue neede of a capitayn or chiefe leader.

Quæ ad rem opus erant, whyche were expedient and necessary for the matter.

Puero opus est cibum, the chylde hath neede of meate.

Opus est maturato, they must make speede.

Opus sunt milites, for opus est militibus.

Opus est, it is necessary or nede.

Si opus sit, yf nede be.

Opus intestinum, loke Intestinum.

Opus est conuento, Ita res subita est, celeriter mihi hoc homine conuento opus est, the chaunce is so sodayne, or the matter requireth suche haste: that I muste nedes speake with the man woyle or quickly.

Opus est facto, it muste needes bee dooen or executed.

Vosmet videte iam Laches & tu Paphile, res missam opus sit nobis, an reductam domū, Howe Laches and Paphile, aduise your selues wel, whether it be necessary that she be sente home or brought home.

Opus sunt tibi, Thou hast nede of them.

Vt cum desponderim des qui aurum ad vestem, atq; alia quæ opus sunt, comparet, that whā I haue affianced hir, thou deluyner whers with to bye attyre, apparayle, and all other thynges nedefull.

Opusculum, li, n. g. a littell woork.

O ANTE R.

Ora, æ, fœ. gen. the extreme parte of euery thyng, as the edge, the byzme, the shytes, the hemme, the bozder, the cabull that yeth the shypp, a coast, a countrey, or region, specially neere the sea syde. It is also a clym, a partition of the byzmannent.

Ora positorum, the byzmes of cuppes.

Oram soluere, to take the sea.

Quacunque in ora terrarum, in what region, countrey or coste of the worlde so euer they bee.

Australis ora, the southe coste.

Superis concessit ab oris, he dyed.

Ora vulneris, the ouer parte of edges of a wounde, whyche be stitched.

Ora maritima, the sea syde, the sea coste.

Oraculum, i, n. g. the temple or place where answers were giuen by ydolles: also the answer it selfe. sometime a notable sayng of some wyse man.

Oraculum, a oraculo edidit deus, god sayed.

Orarium, ri, neu. ge. the vesselment, wherein the priest doth saie masse.

Orata, æ, f. g. a shythe called a gilt head.

Oratio, ōnis, an oracion, woordes, communication, talke, also a prayer.

Quod si sciret, esset alia oratio, yf he knew it, he woulde saye otherwyse.

Tam impudētissima eorum oratio est, than they woordes be without all shame.

Orationis satis est, race, we haue sufficiently talked of the matter, holde thy peace.

Omnis eius oratio est de summo bono, All his woordes and speaking is of the chiefe and principall goodnesse.

Oratione beneficis, liberall in woordes.

Orationem tibi para, ymagyne what thou mayste saye.

Quid vult sibi hæc oratio? what meane these woordes? or to what intent doth he speake this?

Oratiuncula, æ, f. g. a littell oracion or prayer.

Orator, ōris, m. g. an oratour, an ambassadour, a spokesman.

Oratoria, æ, f. g. rhetorike.

Oratorie, lyke an oratour, or in forme of rhetorike, eloquently.

Oratorius, a, um, pertaining to an oratour.

Oratum, i, n. g. a requeste, a thyng desired.

Oratus, us, m. g. a praiyng, a requiryng.

Oratus, a, um, intreated, desired.

Oratio, ōnis, fœ. g. the deppynge of one of a thyng.

Oratus, a, um, that is destituted of any thyng.

Oratus filio, he that hath losse his sonne.

Oratus spe salutis, that hath no hope of helth or lyfe.

Orbelon, a place in Thracia, where Ophheus did dwell.

Orbiculatum, rounde lyke a circle.

Orbiculatus, a, um, made rounde, or in the forme of a circle.

Orbiculus, li, m. g. a littell circle, also a pulley.

Orbicus, orbica, um, rounde.

Orbills, lis, the circuite of a rouse. also the ryngs of a carte wheele.

Orbilius, a grammarian of Beneuentum in Citeros tyme.

Orbis, bis, fœ. ge. a circle, a rounde compasse, a rounde couer, a rounde trencher, a roundell to set dishes on for soylng of the table cloth. sometime the worlde. also a continual course of success of thynges in the worlde: a continuation, order, and knistyng of thynges together in wryting, an historie. also a region or countreie, a great compagne of men. sometime a yere.

Orbes, the holes of the eyes, sometime the eyes.

Orbis

Orbis ablacionis, the rounde pisse that is dygged about the crosse of a wine or other tree.
 In orbem, by rounde, rounde aboute, one after
 an other.
 Viderem in singulos annos orbis volueretur that they might be occupied in the same thus yere yere.
 In orbem ire, to go rounde aboute from one
 to an other.
 Orbem facere, to gather rounde together in a battayle.
 Orbis terræ, the wholle worlde.
 Lacteus orbis, the whyte circle aboute the
 moone.
 Orbis rotarum, the rounde ritle of wynges of carts wheeles.
 Obliquus orbis, the Zodiacke.
 Sol hausit medium orbem, the sunne hath passed halfe his course.
 Orbita, orbitæ, f. g. a whele, sometime the tracke that the whele dooth make in the grounde, some tyme roundeneste of compass.
 Orbitas, atis, f. g. the lacke of children, some tyme the lacke of a father, also any lacke.
 Orbitas tecti, lacke of a thyng to cover it,
 lacke of a house to dwell in.
 Orbitas luminis, lacke of light.
 Orbitudo, inis, idem quod orbitas, an olde worde.
 Orbitus, orbita, um, rounde as a circle.
 Orbo, aui, are, to take from, to depyue one of a thyng that he setteth muche by.
 Orbare equitatu, to take his horsemen from
 hym.
 Orbis, a, um, propetye blynde, sometime lacke of any thyng.
 Luminibus orbis, blynde.
 Palmities orbi, braches that haue no budges.
 Orbus auxilij, destitute of helpe.
 Orba ab optimatibus concio, an assemble, wherein be noble men.
 Orbus pater, he whose children be dead.
 Orbi, they whiche haue lost theyr children, also orphans that haue lost their parentes.
 Res publica orba consulis, the common weale destitute of a consull.
 Legatio orba, that hath losse the principall of cheefe ambassadour.
 Orca, æ, f. g. a greate monster of the sea, also a great vessell, as a but or vat, wherein Rennythe wyne is put, an earthen pottle with a narrowe mouth, a longe necke, and a great bealy, into the whiche childerne practised for a game to cast nuttes. Also a boxe, wherein dyce be shaken, and after throwen on the tables: sometime a coffer, wherein womans paintyng is kept, also a vessell, wherein egges be kept, and a kynde of pious stones.
 Orcas promontorium, the nozthe ende of Scotlande.
 Orclis, a towne in Spayne called communely

Origula.
 Orchades, thirty pladdes in the sea by Scotlande.
 Orchampe, a kynde of Bayle, whiche hurped his daughter Lencoshea quicke, because she was vanquished of Apollo.
 Orchestra, æ, f. g. a place wherein the Senators and honorable persons sit to beholde playes.
 It is sometime taken for the session of the Sea
 Senators and noble men.
 Orchis, or Orchites, tis, f. g. a kynde of olives.
 Orchis, is also an herbe called Testiculus canis, because the testes be lyke hogges stanes, a lytill to lettherye. Some call it in English gan-dercole, some ragwort. It is also a kynde of fyre.
 Orchis vel Orchas, a kynde of great olives, more mete to be eaten than to make oyle of.
 Orchoe, a citee of Babylon.
 Orchomeneus, a, um, of Orchomenus.
 Orchomenus, a mountaine in Thebais, also a citee and a river in Beotia.
 Orchoselinon, idem quod Orcoselinum.
 Orcinus, a, um, of Orcus.
 Orcinus libertus, one that is manumpled of hym that dieth.
 Orcomana, a beere, whiche dead corpses lye.
 Oracula, æ, f. g. a runlet, a diminutive of Orca.
 Orclitunica, the herbe Anemone.
 Orcus, a ryuer of hell, also an other in Thebais.
 It is sometime taken for hell, or the darkness of hell.
 Ordeaceus, a, um, of barley, looke Hordeaceus.
 Ordesius, a ryuer of Scythia.
 Ordeum, looke Hordeum.
 Ordia, orum, n. g. plur. the fyrste begynnynges of thynges.
 Ordinarius, a, um, wherein order is obserued, ordinarie.
 Ordinaria femina, sede set of women in an order. Ordinarius homo, a busye and naughty felowe, that is alway in suite.
 Ordinarii lapides, harde stones, that bee not one blythe an other, but of the same quantitee and facion, and yet not cut or made by the rule.
 Ordinaria structura, a meane kynde of build-dyng, where stones of lyke quantitee and facion be laied together, but not wrought by the lyne and plumbe rule.
 Ordinate, ordinately, in order.
 Ordinatum, in order, one after an other.
 Ordinatio, onis, ordinance, appoyntyng, also administracion.
 Ordinator, oris, m. g. he that ordereth or ap-poynteth, or setteth thynges in order as they shoulde be.
 Ordinatus, a, um, well appoynted, set in good order.
 Ordino, ordinas, aui, are, to order or dispose, to aduance to any office or dignitee, to put in and thozites.

Ordinare syllabarum literas, to spell.
 Ordinare improbas cogitationes, to rectifie naughty imaginations in ones mynde.
 Ordior, iris, orfus, and orditus sum, to begyn to speake.
 Unde rectius ordiri possumus, where may we better begynne.
 Ordiri & Terminare, contrarie.
 Altius ordiri, to repete the matter alond the
 the begynnyng.
 Ordiri telam, to begyn to weaue.
 Ordiamur a facillimis, let vs begyn at the easiest matter.
 Orditus, a, um, begun to be woken or wryght.
 Ordo, inis, mas. ge. an order, a rowe, a ranke, a raunge, a raze, a course, the estate of men concernynge fortune and goodes. Sometime the men of one estate or order, also the dignitie of men in one estate or degree.
 In ordinem redigere, to kepe one within his boundes, that he do not excede his degree.
 Ordines seruare, to kepe the raze.
 Ordine ponere, to set in a raze.
 Ordo longus, a great multitude.
 Ordines ducere, to be a capitayne.
 In ordinem cogere, to bynne vnder obryssaunt, to correcte them that be out of order.
 Ordines conturbare, to breake or scatter the raze. Prius ordine, that is first.
 Posterius ordine, that is laste.
 In ordinem disponere, to set in aray or order.
 Habere locos ex ordine, to haue the places by herte, in order as they stande.
 Pone ordine vites, plant the vines in order.
 In ordine referre, to shewe in order, and by course, nowe one, nowe an other.
 Ordinem retere, to begyn agayne at the first a frethe.
 Ordo senatorius, the estate and order of the Senators.
 Ordo amplissimus, idem.
 Meus me ordo irrideat, They that bee of my condicion or estate, maye well laughe me to scorne. Sepenumero multa verba in hoc or-dine feci, I haue often tymes spoken muche in this reuerent company of Senators.
 Conueni hodie quendam mei ordinis, I spake to daye with one of myne owne estate and haurioure.
 Ordinis inferioris amici, friends that be of a lower estate than we be.
 Extra ordinem, out of order or course, not hepyng the accustomed proceffe. also singularly, for certayn particular considerations.
 Ordo luci, hilles that doo diuide Scotland and England, they be now called Cheuilet.
 Ordo luci montes, the hilles called Cheuilet, betwene England and Scotland.
 Ordouicum, uici, a citee in Britayne, the people wherof were called Ordouices, whom Iulius Agricola subdued.

Orea, is, f. ge. the spe for an hoste.
 Oreades, nymphes of the mountaynes.
 Orebatis, a hie of Persie.
 Oreon, an herbe growynge on hilles.
 Oreofellum, in, n. g. called also Sylvestre Pes-seofellum, and Apium montanum, a hie of presely.
 Oresophia, a degg name in Sulder.
 Orestes, the sonne of agamemnon and Menelaus.
 Oresteus, a, um, of Orestes.
 Orestium, the herbe Melencolum.
 Orestis, oreftidus a part of Macedonia.
 Oretæ, people of Indie.
 Oretus, a river of Scythia.
 Oretio, or Oria, a towne of Spayne called Calatraua.
 Oretus, a name of Bacchus.
 Orexia, is, f. g. is most taken for bowle, or be it
 it signifyeth appetite to eate.
 Organa, all instrumentes of musike.
 Organarius, rij, mas. gen. a maker of instru-
 mentes.
 Organice, with a bite of instrument.
 Organici, they that play with instrumentes.
 Organicus, a, um, belonging to instrumentes, or that is dooen with instrumentes.
 Organum, organi, n. g. an instrument perteynyng to buyldynge. also an ordinance of wars.
 res. also a certayne instrument to measure land with, sometime it is used for an harpe.
 Orge, a well in Marbone, wherof groweth a cer-tayne herbe, which oren and hene doe so greatly despyre, that they thruste theyr heades wholly vnder the water to get it.
 Orgia, drum, ne. ge. plu. ceremonies or songes perteyning to infernall goddes, or to Bacchus.
 Orgyla, is, f. ge. or as some write it Orgyia, a measure conteyning sixe foote. Suidas doeth write, that it is the space that is contremed be-twene the handes stretched out, whiche I suppose is a fathome. Gaza translateth it four cubites.
 Oria, a, f. g. a thers bote.
 Oribatius, a noble man, which was familiar with Iulianus the emperour: he wrote 72. booke of physike.
 Oricalchum, i, n. g. latyn of copper mettall.
 Oricus, a, um, of Oricos.
 Oricola, is, f. g. an herbe in the Isles Canaries, wherewith they vse to dye clothe.
 Oricos, or Oricum, a citee of Epyre.
 Oricularius, a, um, idem quod Auricularius.
 Oriculum for Auricula, a lyttell care.
 Oriens, entis, m. g. the east.
 Oriens, entis, om. g. ryng, spryngynge, begyn-
 nyng.
 Orificium, ij, n. g. the mouthe of any thyng.
 Origanum, i, n. g. an herbe called oreganny, some name it wyld maioram.
 Originarius, a, um, that hath a thyng from his byrthe,

byrthe, of from the beery begynnyng, of that boorne in any place.

Origenes, called also Adamantius (borne at Alexandria in Egypt) was sonne of one Leonides the martyr, a man of most excellent doctrine and verity from his chyldhode, who being on slepe, his father came into the chambze, and taking away the clothes of slepe, kyssed the brest of the infant, as a temple, hauing with him the holpe ghospe, and gaue thanks to god, that had geuen hym suche a sonne. When his father was martyred, Origen begynne but a young chyld, and yet despynde of martyrdome, ranne amonge other that were ledde to be slayne, and by all meanes proffered hym selfe to dye with theim. But his mother (who loued hym most entierly) perceyving the matter, did byrthe lamentablye entreate hym, to withstowe hym: but his desyre of martyrdome was the more increased thereby. Wherefore in the nyght, when he was in his bed, he stole away his clothes: so that in the mornyng when he woulde haue gone forth, he myghte not come by them: wherefore he was constrained to tary at home.

Of the whiche decepte of his mother, he come playned to his father in pryson, despyng hym to perseuer constantlye in his good purpose. After the deathe of his father, he gaue hym selfe continually to the study of holy scripture, which he had tasted before by his fathers instruction.

And yet, before he was .xx. yeres olde, he excelled all men of his tyme, as well in philosophy, as all other sciences. At the age of .xviii. yeres he expounded gentile authours openly, wherein he so enterlaced the holpe scripture, that he converted manye greatte learned men to the fayth of Christ. His luyng was so straight and vertuous, that he dyewe many vnto hym, and was amonge all men had in a wonderfull reuerence. He neuer ceassed in all persecutions to comforte and confirme men in the embracinge of martyrdome, and dyd continuallye reade openly, and also wyte innumerable booke in the expounding of holy scripture. He wente into dyuers countreies to preache, and for his great fame Mammea, the mother of the noble Emperour Alexander Severus, sent for hym to Rome, and hearde hym, and as some suppose, was by hym converted. Whereof you maye reade in the booke, whiche I translated out of Eusebius, and called it the ymage of gouernance. He obserued all the preceptes of the gospell moste strenghtelye, in continuall fastynges & watchynges, hauyng but one garment, goyng alwaies barefote, counsaillinge all his hearers to renounce all that they had, and to geue it in almesse. Also he gelded hym selfe, not onely to bee the more chaste, but also (because in the tyme of persecution, he taughte the woorde of god, as well priuely as openly, to men & women) to leat the payngms to speake dissonance of hym, and those that repaired to his sermons and lessons, whiche although he dyd secretly, yet god woulde not haue it hyde, so that it came to the eare of Demetrius the byshop of Alexandria, who byrthe wonderinge at the stomache and vertue of the man, praisynge the fruentynesse of his saythe, sayde vnto hym.

Howe like to thy doctrine and preachyng, sens thou hast leste vnto thine aduersaries none occasion of suspicion. But afterwarde the same Demetrius, stirred with enuye, laied it in espyche agaynst hym openly, fyndyng nothyng els wherewith to dyspaise hym. He that well knowe moze of Origen, let him reade the .vi. booke De historia ecclesiastica, and saint Hierome De scripto. ecclesi. He was after the incarnation of Christ, 204. yeres.

Originalis, le, that whiche one hath from his byrthe.

Origo, riginis, f. g. a begynnyng, bynde, cause, a fountayne, a well springe.

Modicus originis, of a meane stocke of kindred

Clarus origine, of noble bloude.

Orinda, a bynd made of the graine called Orindium, whiche groweth in Ethiopie.

Orion, orionis, the sonne of Neptuneus. Some feigned, that when Copius had lodged Iupiter, Mercurie, and Neptune, and had kyllled for theim an oxe, he despyed them to grant him a sonne. Than those thre pyssed in the hyde of the oxe, of the whiche beeryng layed in the grounde came Orion, as it were Vriion. For Ouros, in greke is vyine. When Orion beyng an hunter, woulde haue defloured Diana, he was slayne with a scorpion, and translated amonge the sterres, and there is the signe called in latine Iugula.

Orior, oriris, vel oreris, riri, to be boorne, to appere, to appeare, to springe, to haue the begynnyng of any thinge, to begynne.

Oriri & procreari.

Facinus ex te oritur, thou arte the authour of this mischeuous act, of this act hath his begynnyng of the.

Tibi a me nulla est orta iniuria, I neuer dyd you any displeasure of iniurie.

Ab his sermo oritur, they begyn first to speke.

Putant quicquid est ex te esse ortum, They thynke all that euer hath ben doen to come first of the, of thou beganst it first.

Oritur clamor, there arose a great thoute of crye.

Ortus ab omni turba fletus, all the company began to weepe.

Oritur fons, the well springeth of hath his begynnyng.

Orites, iis, mas, gen. a precious stone, of facion rounde, and can not be hurte with fyre.

Orichza, a nymphe that encourageth men to ren.

Orithyia, the daughter of Erictheus, kyng of Athens, whome Bozeas loued & conueyed away with hym into Thrace. An other of this name was queene of Amazons.

 Oriundus, a, um, comen by auncesters oute of some citee of countreie. sometyme bozne.
 Nati Carthagine, sed oriundi a Syracusis, bozne at Carthage, but by auncestours descended from Syracuse in Sicile.
 Oriudus ab Vlisse, descended of Vlisses bloud.
 Cumis erant oriundi, They were bozne at Lume.
 Meminerint sese vnde oriundi sint, let them remembre them selues of what lynage they are descended.
 Orix, or Oryx, a certayne wilde beaste.
 Oriza, a, f. g. a grayne called ryce, which is most commanelye eaten in lente, with almonde mylke.
 Orizelon, the herbe aiuga, or chamæpitis.
 Orizon, ontis, m. g. is the furthestmost parte of the firmament, that mans eye can determyne.
 Orménias, a citee of Magnecia.
 Orminium, or Orminum, an herbe lyke to horehounde.
 Orminium, or orminum hortense, clarie.
 Orminum sylvestre, The herbe called Ocle Christi.
 Orminum Atticis corruda, wilde sperage.
 Ornamenta, dweth sometyme signifie them that bee woorthy prayse.
 Ornamentum, i, n. g. apparayle, an ornament, a garnysing, also honoure, dignitee, prayse, or commendacion, an honourable pleasure of benefite down to one.
 Ornamento esse, to be an ornament, to commende, to sette forth, to garnyshe.
 Ornate, trymply, gorgeously, elegantly, with colours and ornaments of rhetorike.
 Ornatix, icis, the that commendeth or setteth forth, or that garnysmeth or apparayleth.
 Ornatus, i, m. g. he that is in greate dignitie or authoritee.
 Ornatus, a, um, apparayled, trimmed, garnysshed, instructed, furnysed, adourned, honourable, aduanced to hygh authoritee and dignitee, that is indued with great wysedome, ver-tue, and knowlage.
 Ornatissimam de me sententiam dixit, he gaue me a veraye honourable reposte.
 Ornatus esses ex tuis virtutibus, thou shouldest haue ben trymmed accordyng as thou arte woorthy.
 Ornata sunt cuncta, al thinges are ready prouyd and appoynted.
 Ornatissimus fundus, lande veraye well husbanded and appoynted.
 Ornatus, us, and sometyme Ornatus, i, appa-raile, trimmyng, deckyng.
 Ornea, sacrifices dedicated vnto Orizapus.
 Orneoglosson, id est, auis Lingua, an herbe.
 Orneus, one of the Centaures.
 Ornios, the herbe Anemone.
 Ornīs, Ornios, vel Ornithos, a byrde, a henne.

Ornithie, nothen wyndes.
 Ornithotrophium, phi, neu. gen. a place where byrdes be nourysed or brought vp.
 Ornithoboscium, h, n. ge. a house where pultry is kept, a coupe.
 Ornithogallium, or Ornithigalon, an herbe hattyng a title vnder stalke; a fote and halfe in heyghe: loke for the residue in Diosco. li. 2. foli.
 li. 21. ca. 17. it is called dogges option.
 Ornithon, onis, m. ge. a plate, wherein byrdes be kepte.
 Orno, aui, are, to garnyshe, to decke, to trym, to furnyshe, to apparayle, to make ready, to make fozze, to prepare, to make mete, to honour with some authoritee or dignitie, to do some honourable pleasure, also to prayse, to set forth, to commende, to beerynghe.
 Ornare suffragio, to helpe one with his voyce or good reposte.
 Iam ornabat fugam, he was euen now ready to renne away.
 Munus nostrum ornato verbis quod potes-ris, prayse and set forth my gyfte with good wordes as muche as thou canst.
 Laudibus ornare, to set out with great prayse.
 Melius est prædium ornare domi, it is better that dyner be prepared or made readye at home.
 Classes ornare, to furnyshe shippes.
 Ornus, i, f. g. a wilde asse with hyde leares.
 Oro, aui, are, to praye, to demaunde, to speake openlye and eloquentlye as oratours dooe, to pleade.
 Pro salute alicuius aliquem orare, to entreate
 one for a mans lyfe.
 Orabo nato vxorem, I will pray or intreate hym to geue his daughter to my sonne in ma-riage.
 Scin' quid te orem scire? Canst thou tell, or wottest thou what I woulde desyre to know of the? or what I would desyre the to tell me?
 Aequissimum orat, it is veraye good reason that he desyeth.
 Orare iussit vt ad se venias, he commaunded me to desyre you to come to hym.
 Omnibus precibus oro, I desyre you as her-tily as I can possibly.
 Causam orare, to pleade his cause.
 Orat ignoscas, he desyeth the to forgiue him.
 Oroandes, an hyll by the mountayn Imaus.
 Oroatis, a ryuer in the bosom of the sea, called Paricum, southwarde.
 Oroba, a citee of Assyria.
 Orobanch, ches, fcm. ge. an herbe growyng among beanes or peason, and destroyeth them, loke Eruiangina, or Eruangina, some calle it Cynomorion, it is called in englyshe chokes wede. vide Plin. li. 22. ca. 25.
 Orobatis, a citee of Persia.
 Orobax, the flower called the pionie.
 Orobia, a, fcm. gen. a kynd of frankincense in litle

little grapes.

Orobatis, tis, f. ge. generallie like to the blades of coyne.

Orobation, idem.

Orobicum, idem quod orobum.

Orobium, a kinde of pulle coyne, I suppose it is tares. looke thereto in Eruium.

Orodes, a kynge of Parthia, who vanquished and slew Crassus the Roman.

Oroetes, a Persian, which did hange Polytraces, the tyran of Samia.

Oromalides, a kynde of apuls, called also Omoslida.

Orontes, a ryuer by the citee of Antioche. also a Troian that came frome Troy with Eneas.

Oronteus, a, um, of Orontes.

Oroselinum, m, n. g. petely.

Orosius, a woorthypfull priest bozne in Spayne, ryght eloquent and experte in histories. He wrote .viij. bookes agaynst them that saied, that the decay of the common weale of Rome hapened by the doctrine of Chryste. He was sent by saynt Augustin, to saint Hieron, who was then in Iudea, to learne of him the reason of the state of the soule.

Orphanus, orphanii, m. gen. he that lacketh his father and mothers succour.

Orphanotrophium, phiij, n. gen. a house where fatherlesse chyldren be kept and brought vp.

Orphanotrophus, he that is master or keper of suche an house.

Orpheus, a Thracian bozne, sonne of Deagrus, or as some wyte, of Apollo and Calliope, an auncient poete and harper most excellent. He (as the poetes surmised) dyd with his musyke, delite wilde beastes and infernall spirites, and moued stoncs with his sweet harmonie: wherby he recouered his wyfe Eurydites out of hell. At the last he was slayne with lychtning, or (as some wyte) tozne in pieces by women.

Orpheus, a, um, of Orpheus. sometyme for Thracius.

Orpheus, one of Plutos hoxles.

Orthopygium, giij, n. g. the rumpe of a byrde, or any other beast.

Orion & Taurum eam vocant partem, quæ testiculos interiacet.

Orilochus, the sonne of the ryuer Alpheus.

Orsa, orum, n. ge. plu. enterpytes, begynnyns ges, thynges begunne.

Orsus, us, m. g. a begynnynge.

Orsus, a, um, begunne, that hath begunne.

Orthæ, the buildynges called also Menianæ. looke there.

Orthium carmen, a kynde of musike in verie high tune, which Arion vled when he cast him selfe into the sea.

Orthocoribanthii, people of Scythia in Asia.

Orthocolla, or stillosa, those beastes, which haue the crampe so in their feete, that they can not sette their hole hoxfe vnto the ground, but go only the toppe.

Orthodoxia, the right opinion or faith.

Orthopeia, the right forme of speaking.

Orthodoxus, i, m. ge. a man of a right opinion sayth or helieth.

Orthogonius, a, um, that hath right corners.

Orthogonus, i, m. g. a right corner.

Orthographia, e, f. ge. the right forme of writing. it is also a play for buildyng, wherein is painted or sette forth the figure of the whole worke, with the reasons of the same.

Orthomastica, certayne fruite that be like teates.

Orthopnea, æ, f. g. a disease when a man can not fetch his breathe, but holowge his necke vpright.

Orthopnoicus, i, m. g. he that hath that sicknesse.

Orthos, id est, rectus.

Orthosia, a citee of Syria, called Tortosa.

Orthostadios, a garment, which was alwayes woyn vngyt.

Orthostata, a count in buildyng, where timbers or stoncs be moasted one within an other, or elles fastened together with yron or byalon crampons or hookes.

Orthogoriscus, a certayne tyth, which stanteth.

Orton, a citee of the Delignians, called commonly Pietra de pirati.

Ortona, idem.

Ortopla, a citee in Dalmatia.

Ortus, ti, vide Hortus.

Orti peniles, garbeines made on houses or pylours.

Ortus, a, um, bozne, sponge, begunne.

Ortus ex eodem loco, descended of the same estate or degree.

Ortus equestri loco, a gentilsman bozne.

Tenui fortuna ortus, descended of a poore kyned.

Ortus, sometyme for Oriundus.

Ortus Corintho, haupng his auncelsters descended of the Corinthes.

Ortus, us, m. g. the byrthe or natyuite, growyng vp, spryngyng, ryfing. also the cause.

Ortus solis, the sunne ryfing.

Ortygia, the name of an yle in the sea Iegeum, called also Delos, also the herbe plantago.

Dea Ortygia, Diana.

Ortygomêtra, æ, f. g. the capitayn or leader among quayles, whiche is blacker and bygger than the other. It is called also of Aristotle, marrix.

Ortyx, ortygis, f. g. a byrde called a quayle. also a certayne herbe.

Oryx, origis, a beast of the kynde of goates, of the nature of this beaste reade 3li. li. 2. ca. 40. & li. 8. cap. 53. item Colum. li. 10.

Oryza, idem quod Oriza.

O S, oris, n. g. the mouth. also the visage.
 Sometime the proportion of all the body. Sometime countenance. also presence, language. Sometime audacitee, boldnesse, hardnesse.
 Omnes vno ore authores fuere, Al they with one accord and consent, gaue me counsaile to doo it.
 Os ad mala audiendū praeberē, to suffice one to rebuke him to his face.
 Per ora hominum ferri, To bee published of spoken abroad.
 Os distortuere, to sette his mouth awrye, to morke with the mouth, to make awry mouth of yll fauoured face.
 In ore est omni populo, all the world
 speaketh of it.
 Os ducere, to facion the mouth in speakinge
 most commonly to curiously.
 Os durum, a stamelle person.
 Os impudens videtur, he seemeth to haue an impudent looke of stamelle face.
 Os alicui laedere, to say ill of one to his face.
 Os hominis insignemque impudenciam cognoscite, Consider you the boldnesse and presumption of this fellowe.
 Duarum & viginti gentium ore loquebatur
 he spake. xxiij. languages.
 Os portus, the entre of an haue.
 Os sublinire, to morke of deceiue craftilye,
 with fayre promises.
 Abit in ora hominum, it is a brode in manye mens mouths, dyuers men speake of it.
 Quem ex tuo ore admiror, whome I greatly esteeme throughe your commendacion.
 Sanguis effuderat ora, they blushed.
 Tibi valde in ore solet esse, thou were wonte to speake very muche of him.
 Venire in ora hominum, to become famous and renoumed.
 Quo ore illum obiurgabis? How wilt thou be so bolde to rebuke him?
 Quod habent os? what audacitee or boldnesse
 haue they? or what presumption is in them?
 Incedunt per ora vestra, they go before your face.
 In ore eius iugulatur, he is put to death before his face, or in his presence.
 Sacculi os, the mouth of a bagge.
 Offa, sometime used for shales of nuts or olives.
 Os, ossis, n. g. a bone. Ossum idem.
 Os leonis, a certayne herbe, haung a purple floswer.
 Asperare sagittas ossibus, to make the heades of their arrowes of bones.
 Reponere os, to set a bone that is oute of his place.
 Osa, lawes concernyng deuotion.
 Osanna, I pray thee saue vs.
 Osa sum, for Odi, I hate.
 Osa, a towne in Spayne called communely

Guesca.

Oscenon, idem quod scrotum, looke there.
 Oscedo, cedinis, f. g. panyng or gapping.
 Oscela, a citee in the Alpes, called now Secula.
 Osci, people in Italy.
 Oscilla, littell ymages of more to be offered.
 Oscillo, aui, are, to houe downe.
 Oscillum, i. n. g. a littell mouth. Sometime a lit-tell ymage of puppet.
 Oscinis, oscinis, or oscen, scinis, f. g. a hyda that dooth by his voyce signifie. Somewhat to come or happen.
 Oscines, all spynnyng birdes.
 Oscinm, oscini, n. g. a diminucion by byrdes.
 Oscis, the abhominable vse of carnall sinne.
 Oscitabunde, idem quod oscitanter.
 Oscitans, antis, om. gen. that gapeth as it were for lacke of sleape. also that careth for nothing, sure, fearyng nothyng, negligent.
 Oscitanter, softly, without any courage, as if one were almost on sleape. also negligently.
 Oscitatio, onis, f. g. gappinge. also quietnesse from laboure.
 Oscitationes alicuius, bookes negligently, written.
 Oscito, oscitas, aui, are, to gape as men doo for lacke of slepe. Sometime to open as flowres do at the sunne rysyng.
 Oscitor, aris, ari, idem.
 Osculana pugna, battayle, wherein they which before had the victorie, were vanquished.
 Osculatio, onis, f. g. kysyng.
 Osculor, aris, ari, to kysse, by translation to loue hertily, to shewe great kyndenesse.
 Osculum, osculi, n. g. a littell mouth. also a kysse.
 Affigere oscula, to kysse.
 Dare oscula manibus, to kisse ones handes.
 Ingeminare oscula, to kysse twise or thise one
 after an other.
 Osiris, siris, or siridis, the sonne of Jupiter and Riobe, first kyng of Egypues, after leauynge that realme to his brother, he wente into Aegypte, and there reigned and married Isis. Finally he was slayne by Typho his brother, and longe sought for by Isis his wife, who at laste fyndyng his body, buried it in the ple Abatos, where the Egyptians afterwarde fyndynge an Oxe, supposed that Osiris was become a god, and takynge that ore with them to the citee of Memphis, honoured him for a god, & callynge him Apis, they ordeyned to him certayne cesremonies. A littell whyle after, drownyng him in the riuer, they sought for an other lyke Oxe with waylynge and weepynge: whiche beyng founden, they cried with much gladnesse, and brought him to the citee. He was before the incarnacion of Christ. 2012. yeres.
 Osrites, an herbe, which is also called Cynocesphalia, because it is lyke a dogges head.
 Osmon, an herbe called also medion.

Ofor, oforis, m. g. he that hateth and enuies
Ofpreolion, idem quod orobanche,
Osa, a high mountain in the Alps.
Ossus, a, um, of the bone.
Ossus, a, um, bony of a bone, as harde as a bone.
Ossiculatim, one bone from an other, in pieces.
Ossiculum, li, n. g. a littell bone.
Ossifragus, a, um, that breaketh bones.
Ossifraga, f. g. of Ossifragus, g. l. m. g. a kind of eagle.
Ossilegium, gij, n. g. a gathering of bones.
Ossonoba, a citie of Portugale.
Ossuaria, a, f. g. a house of like thyngs, where bones of dead men are put, a charnell house.
Ostendo, di, dere, to shewe, to open, as a man, dooeth his wares to sell.
Ostendere se sine animo suum, to declare his courage, or what he intendeth to doo.
Ostendere se vultum, to shewe him selfe a man to doo valiantly.
Oportune te mihi ostendis, you meete with me in very good season.
Bellum ostendere, to proclaim or denounce warre.
Os suum ostendere, to shewe his face.
Multa peccata in hac re ostendis, thou shewest many offences, or thou comittest many faults, in this one matter.
Se optime ostendunt, they behaue themselves right honorably, or declare them selves to be very honest men.
Ostende qui vir fies, shewe what a man thou art. Se palam ostendere, to appeare.
Mihi per alium ostendit suam sententiam, he shewed me his iudgement vnder the colour & name of an other man.
Ostendere spem, to put in hope.
Ostendere metum, to threaten one with a thyng, wherof he is afearde.
Ostensus, a, um, shewed.
Ostentans, antis, boasting, shewing with ostentation.
Ostentatio, onis, f. g. boasting, ostentation, as vaunting, shewing or telling of a thyng for bayne glorie.
Ostentator, oris, ma. g. a boaster, a bragger, he that sheweth a thyng for ostentation.
Pecuniosus ostentator, he that braggeth of his money.
Ostentatus, a, um, shewed, proffered.
Ostentata occasio, the occasion present.
Ostento, aui, are, to shewe often, also to boast or aduance, to shew a thyng for bayne glory and ostentation.
Ostentare periculum capitis, to menace one to kill him, or to cause him to die as a transgression.
Ostentare iugulum pro capite alterius, to offer to die to saue the life of an other man.
Ostentare spem, to put in hope.

Vendicare & ostentare, to revenge.
Ostentare verbis, to promise, to bragge.
Ostentum, tri, n. g. a thyng which happeneth seldom, and doothent, that some straunge thyngs shall happen, as a blessing here, thusder on a fayre daye. Sometime it signifieth a thyng monstrous, or contrary to the common course of nature.
Ostentus, a, um, shewed.
Ostentus, as, m. g. a shope, whan one in more hope pointeth to one, a shewing.
Ostentat esse, to be pointed at, to be for a shew.
Osteocollon, an herbe growyng much on stones and walles, physicians call it Polygonion, some talaction, the common sort symphiton. It is alway greene, and liueth without leaues.
Ostia, orum, the entrees of greete riuers. Sometime hauens.
Ostia, a towne nigh to Rome.
Ostiarus, rij, m. g. a porter, a doore keeper.
Ostiatum, from doore to doore. Sometime one after an other, or one after an other by name.
Ostiensis, a littell haven at Rome.
Ostiensis, se, of Ostia.
Ostiensis porta, a gate in Rome towards Ostia.
Ostigo, ostiginis, f. g. the scabbe, which happeneth to sheepe about their mouthes and lippes.
Ostiolum, li, n. g. a littell doore.
Ostium, ij, n. g. a doore or gate, an entree into a thyng.
Ostracis, or Ostracites, a certayne stone.
Ostracismus, mi, m. g. a maner of exilinge of men at Athens, whiche expelled other in power or authoritee, whiche exile was dooen by deliqueryng of Ostracismos, wherein the name of him, whiche should bee exiled, was written.
Ostracium, cij, or, Ostracum, ci, n. g. a shell, it is sometime vled for the stone Onyx.
Ostrea, a, f. g. an oyster.
Ostreum, trei, n. g. idem.
Ostrearius, a, um, belongyng to oysters.
Ostrearius panis, browne breade, the whiche men are wonte to eate with oysters.
Ostrearia, arum, places where oysters be found.
Ostreatus, a, um, harde and rough like an oyster.
Ostrifer, strifera, um, that bringeth forth the iuyce, wherof purple colour is made.
Ostrinus, a, um, of purple colour.
Ostrina vestes, garmentes of purple colour.
Ostrogothi, caste Gothes.
Ostrum, tri, n. g. the tuice of the fythe Murex, wherof purple colour is made, also purple or other lyke colour.
Ostrya, vel ostrys, a certayne tree.
Ostum, looke Hostum.
Osus, a, um, that hath in hatred,

Osus sum, osus es, osus est, I hate, thou hatest, he hateth.

Osyris, called also Linaria, of some Herba vrisnalis, is supposed to be the wilde lynne, or wilde flaxe, or starneworte, some call it tobe flaxe, some Binarie.

O ANTE T.

OTanes, a noble man of Persia, whiche conspired with Darius agaynst the Magician, that usurped the kyngdome.

Othonna, some thynke it the iuice of the herbe Chelidonia, reade Dioscor. li. 2. ca. 262. & in his commentarios.

Othone, an herbe, that groweth most in Syria, and hath leaues full of holes.

Othriades, a Lacedemonian.

Othris, a mountayne of Thessaly, where dwelled the people called Lapithae.

Othrisius, a, um, of Othris.

Othus, a gygant.

Otiar, aris, ari, to be ydell, at rest, or quiete, to be without trouble or busynesse.

Otiase, ydelly, at leysure, all by leysure, surely, without care.

Otiase ambulare, to walke all by leysure.

In aurem vitramuis otiase dormias, breake no sleape for the matter hardily, be nothyng careful for the matter.

Otiase dormire, to sleape without care, or to sleape soundely.

Otiase negotium gerere, to go negligently about his busynesse.

Otiolus, a, um, ydell, sure, without care, careless, quiete, at ease, without trouble, occupation, or busynesse.

Otiolus dies, an holy day, a playng day.

Animo iam nunc otioso esse impero, Rome I charge thee care for nothyng, or I byd you set your herte at rest, quiete, or ease: or set your herte at quiete at my worde.

Otiolares, a thynge that requireth no care or studie.

Otiolae sententiae, sentences, whiche have no vertue or power to moue the audience: or that the audience dooeth not vnderstande or perceiue.

Otiolus studiorum, he that studieth nothing.

Otiolum otiosum, vacant time withoute busynesse.

Otiolus ab animo, quiete in mynde, without care or trouble.

Otiolus a metu, without feare.

Otis, tidis, f. g. a kynd of owles, or as Helicetus saith, a birde lyke a partridge, so fatte, that she can not flee much aboue the ground, and therefore when she heareth the dogges bark, she hideth hir selfe amonge bushes.

Otiolum, thz n. g. ydelnesse, vacation from labour, also leysure, rest, quietnesse, contrary to labour and busynesse.

Tenere otium, to mainteyne quietnesse.

Suppedicare otium studio, to passe the tyme in studie, to get leysure to studie.

In otio esse, to sit at home and do nothyng, to be at leysure, to be without busynesse.

Abundare otio, to haue much leysure.

Afluere otio, idem.

Otiolum operis, when they labour no more.

Otiolum plurimorum, the matter requireth much leysure.

Literatum otium, vacant tyme applied to studie.

Abuti otio, to bestow his vacant tyme ill.

Si tibi est otium, if ye haue leysure.

Si plus otiolum habuero, If I haue more leysure or vacant tyme.

Facere consuetudinem otioli, to byng one in a custome to be ydell.

Otiens, the brother of Macuba.

Oti, ti, the byrde called an hojne owle.

O ANTE V.

OVallis, le, perteynyng to triumphe or aduantage.

Oualis corona, a garlande of myrtles, geuen vnto him, whiche had victorie without effusion of blood.

Ouantis, antis, om. g. reioysyng, beynge ioyefull.

Ouatia, onis, of ouis, the time of layng of eggs.

Ouatia, onis, f. m. gen. a small triumphe of a prynce or capitayne, whiche had victorie of his enemies, without slaughter of men: or where battayle was not denounced, In the whiche triumphe the capitayne went on foote, or only byd ryde on a horse, with a garlande of myrtles telles on his head, and his souldiours syngynge about him.

Ouatius, us, m. gen. the thowte or noyse of them that go in suche a triumphe.

Ouatius, a, um, which is in similitude of an egge.

Ouiaria, a, f. g. a flocke of sheepe.

Ouiarius, a, um, of or belongynge to sheepe.

Ouidius, surnamed Naso, bozne in Sulmo, brought vp in Rome, and diligently instructed in latine letters from his tender age, he gaue moste diligent study to the makinge of verses, from the whiche he was withdrawen by his father, and put to learne theozicke, wherein a whyle he muche profited, and was in the number of the beste oratours of that time, and was aduanced to sundry authoritees and made a senatour. Not withstanding he chiefly dedicate him selfe to poetrie, wherein by nature he was excellent in facilitie and abundance of sentences. He was in good fauour with the emperour Augustus, of whom at the last he was exiled into Pontus, where he spent the rest of his lyfe in a towne called Tomos, amonge people most barbarous, who not withstandinge last mented his death: for his cowardly and gentyl manners. The cause of his exile is vntreyned, saying some suppose it was for abusing Julia, daughter of the emperour Augustus, although the presence of the emperour was for the making of the booke of the crafte of Ioue, whereby yong mynbes myght be styed to wantonnesse. he was before the incarnation of Christ.

Ouicula, l^r, f. g. a littell sheepe.

Ouisera gallina, a broode henne.

Ouile, l^r, n. ge. a folde of shephouse, a shepe cote.

Ouilliones, idem qui opilliones.

Ouilluteum, the whites of an egge.

Ouipera, those beastes, birdes, or fishes, that breede egges or spume.

Ouillus, a, um, of a sheepe.

Ouinus, a, um, idem.

Ouis, uis, f. g. a shepe. Ouis, is sometyme red in the masculine gender.

¶ Ouem lupo committere, a prouerbe, vied whan any thyng is committed to him, for whose cause it had ben expedient, to haue had an other heper.

Ouo, aui, are, to reioyle with noyse or voyce in a multitude.

Ouum, ui, n. g. an egge.

¶ Ouum ouo simile, one egge like an other, applied vnto them, whiche be of lyke condicions of person.

Ouo prognatus eodem, of one father and mother, or brought vp vnder one master, or in one schoole.

Durum ouum, an harde egge.

Molle ouum, a soft egge.

Sorbile ouum, a reuee rosted egge.

Albumen oui, the white of an egge.

Luteum oui, the yolke of an egge.

Incubare ouis, to sitte on broode.

Ponere oua, to lay egges.

Gignunt oua pisces, fshes brede spume.

¶ Ab ouo vsq ad mala, prouerbiaily from the begynnyng to the endyng.

O ANTE X.

OXalis, oxalidis, form. gener. a kynde of sorrell.

Oxas, Hercules sonne by Megara.

Oxellum, a citee in Englande called Chester.

Oxigion, the dregges of vineger.

Oxis, oxidis, a vessill for vineger.

Oxos, a kynde of purple made in Phencia.

Oxos, a riuer in Asia, rennyng thozough the desertes of Syria. also Oxos, eos, neu. gen. is vineger.

Oxobapta, certayne purple garmentes of an excellent good dyng.

Oxolxon, oyle and vineger mixt together.

Oxyacantha, a barbery tree, called of some Ber baris, or Pipreget.

Oxybaphum, or Oxybaphus, idem quod Accetabulum.

Oxyceiros, a kynde of redde tree.

Oxycratum, water and vineger sodden toge ther, called also Posca.

Oxygala, l^r, f. ge. or Oxygalum, li, neu. ge. lower mylke.

Oxygarum, ri, n. ge. Sharpe sauce, y^ethe sauce.

Oxyhalme, a kynde of dynte made of salte and vineger.

Oxylapathum, thi, n. g. sorrell.

Oxylla, great sorrell.

Oxymeli, or Oximel, oxymelis, honey and visneger sodden together.

Oxymoron, a sentence spoken with so much affectation, that it seemeth foolyshe.

Oxyphoenix, nicis, the tree whiche beareth the fruite, called of the apothecaries Tamarindi.

Oxypora, opntmentes and emplasters myrte with vineger, to the intent that the vertue of the other ingredience may the better penetrate.

Oxyporum, ri, n. ge. all Sharpe sauce made with vineger.

Oxiporopola, l^r, m. ge. he that selleth meate in Sharpe sauce or soule.

Oxyrinchus, a citee in Egypte, so called of the fsh Oxyrinchus, soasmuch as the Egyptians and wooshipped two fshes for goddes, that is to say Lepidodus, and Oxyrinchus. Also two bydes, a hauke, and the birde Ibis. also three beastes, an ore, a dogge, and a catte, and some honoured a crocodile, and some Ichneumon, a littell beaste that killeth the crocodiles in the sayd citee the fsh Oxyrinchus was specially wooshipped.

Oxygarum, id est, acutum garum.

Oxylepes, a kynde of breade, geuen to them that be sicke of the feuer, or that haue the fire.

Oxymyrsine, a myrte lyke to the myrtle, but that it hath leaues rougher and Sharper, & hath redde berries, lyke to cherries. this myrte is also called Brusca.

Oxyporum, a medicine that helpeth the belly. also the same that Oxygarum is.

Oxyporopola, they whiche sell meates condite in vineger.

Oxyringus, a fsh, which the Egyptians wooshipped as a god.

Oxys, id est, acetosus, acutus, velox, looke Oxxytriphillon.

Oxyschænos, a kynde of Bulrushes.

Oxyfaccharum, sugger and vineger sodden together, of some men called Syrupus acetosus simplex.

Oxytonon, wilde popie.

Oxytoca, medecines to make a woman to byng sooth her birthe quickly.

Oxytriphillon, an herbe, called sorrell de boys, or Alleluia, Lockows meate, or wodde sorrell.

Oxys, idem.

Oxx na,

O Za'na, π , form. gener. sores in the nose, which causeth a stinking savour in the nose.

Ozæna, is also a kynde of the scurfe, called Polypus.

Ozæniuis, an herbe, called also pseudonardus.

Oze, es, f. g. the stinking of the breath.

Ozimon, an herbe called basil.

Ozimum, ozimi, n. g. a meate made of the inward partes of beastes.

P ANTE A

PABULARIS, re, perteynyng to forrage of meate for beastes.

Pabulatio, onis, forageyng.

Sometime pasturynge of feedynge of beastes.

Pabulator, onis,

mascu. gen. a forrageour.

Pabulatorius, a, um, perteynyng to forageyng of beastes meate.

Pabulor, aris, ari, to go in forageyng. sometime to feede, to pasture.

Pabulari oleas, pro nutrire.

Pabulum, li, n. ge. forrage of meate for beastes, pasture, and by translation every thyng that feedeth, maynteyneth or nourisheth.

Amoris pabulum, that maynteyneth or nourisheth loue.

Hybernum pabulum, winter stalle, to feede the cattell, as haye.

Pacalis, le, that byngeth or signifyeth peace.

Pacator, onis, m. g. that pacifieth, asswageth, or tamed, he that quieteth.

Pacatus, a, um, appeased, quieted.

Pachiri, hills in the lesse Asia.

Pachorus, a kynde of Parthia, clayne in Syria, after the death of Crassus.

Pachynus, a mountayne in Sicille, on the sea side of an elbowe of the lande there, which now is called Capo pasciuio.

Pachyos, a ryuer of Sicille.

Pacideianus, a swoorde plater.

Pacifer, cifer, a, um, that byngeth or signifyeth peace.

Pacificatio, onis, form. g. an appeasynge, a swagynge, a pleasynge, a peace makynge.

Pacificator, onis, m. g. he that asswageth, pacifieth or maketh peace.

Pacificatorius, a, um, that dooeth pacifie.

Pacifico, aui, are, to pacifie, to make peace, to sette at one.

Pacificare, absolutely, to intreat of peace, to conclude or make peace.

Pacificatum veniunt, they come to intreat of peace.

Pacificus, a, um, that maketh peace.

Pacinus, a mans name.

Pacio, was of olde writers used for pactio.

Pacisor, sceris, sci, to make covenannt, to bargain, to payse, to indent.

Pacisci vitam ab hoste, To render him to his ennemie, his life onlie saved, or on condiction to save his lyfe.

Cum Xerxe nuptias filie eius paciscitur, he agreed to marry the daughter of Xerxes.

Pactus est duo millia, he covenanted to geue two thousande.

Inducias aliquot dierum cum hoste pacisci, to make a truce with their enemies to endure for certayne daies.

Vitam pro laude pacisci, to be wyllynge to die, to the ende to get prayse.

Pactus est illum dimitti, he promysed, that he should be dismissed.

Cui pacta Lavinia, ante aduentum Aeneas fuerat, betrothed, spoused.

Pacisci filiam alicui.

Paco, aui, are, to mitigate, to appeale, to accord, to please.

Pactilis, le, platted.

Pactilis corona, a platted garlande.

Pactio, onis, an accord, agreement, a treatise, a covenannt.

Pactionem nuptialem facere, to agree vpon a marriage.

Obligare pactionibus, to bynde with covenanntes.

Pactitius, a, um, dooen vpon condicion or agreement.

Cessatio pugne pactitia, a truce.

Pactoliopes, excedyng rychesse.

Pactolus, a ryuer in Lydia, havyng golden grauell.

Pactor, onis, m. g. he that maketh a covenannt, or agreement.

Pactum, ti, neu, ge. a covenannt, a conuention, a bargayne, agreement.

Manere in pacto, to sticke to the bargayne or agreement.

Pactum transitionis, a sault conducte, to passe from one countrey to another, a passeport.

Alio pacto, otherwyle.

Nulla pacto, in no wyle.

Eo pacto, in this maner of wyle, or by that meanes.

Hoc pacto, by this meanes.

Pactus, a, um, covenanted, promysed.

Has tibi nos pactus legibus dare iussit, He commaunded vs to geue this money vpon a condicion.

Pacuius, a famous writer of tragedies, borne at Brundisium in Calabria, after sonne of Ennius the poete: he is commended of Quintilian for the grauitie of his sentences, the pondrousnesse detourne of his wylde, and the authorite of the personages, whiche are in his tragedies and comedies. What his stile seemeth somewhat rude, is to be ascribed to the time, and not to his fault: he lived vntill the age of 90. yeres before the coming of Christ.

Padus, a famous river in Italy, whiche is there named Po. Cato in originibus saith, that the Canaves called it Borigon; the Ligorians Botigum. Plinius calleth it Bodincum, that is to say, hauinge no bottome, the Greekes call it Eridanus. It cometh out of the hylle called Vesulus, whiche is the highest part of the mountaynes called Alpes, and cometh by the marches of Liguria, and passeth vnder the ground and eyleth estuones; in the countrey called Vibonensis, and lastly with him. xxx. other ryuers into the Venetian sea, named Adriaticum.

Padua, a citee in Italy called Paue.

Padusa, a ryuer, whiche some say is an arme of the Po.

Pæan, pæanis, m. ge. an hymne in the prayse of Apollo, sometyne the same Apollo. It is now taken for an hymne; made to the laude of god or our lady.

Pæantius, a, um, of Apollo.

Pæantida, pæcious stones, called also Gemas nides.

Pædagógium, gij, n. g. lodgynge for seruantes and childzen, a schole, among lawyers it is taken for a bondmans service.

Pædagógus, gi, m. g. he that is appoynted to wayte on childzen, to se them well ordered, a teacher of childzen, a schoole maister.

Pædagium, gij, n. g. a thynge, wherein childzen be caried. In Plutarche it seemeth to be taken for a tender childe or derylynge.

Pædaretus, a mannes name.

Pæderastes, stis, a louer of childerne in vnholy nest wife.

Pæderastia, x, f. g. a vicious loue of childzen.

Pæderos, ôtis, m. g. gene. a pæcious stone, called also Opalion, there appereth in it the fyre brightnesse of the Carbuncle, the shynynge purple colour of the amatist, the grene sea of the emeraude, all shynynge together with an incredible myxture, Pli. li. 37. ca. 6. There is also a byemle and herbe, whereof Plinie maketh mention. li. 19. ca. 8. and Dioscorides lib. 3. & 4. called Pæderos, some suppose it to be a kynde of Acanthus.

Pædia, x, f. m. gene. erudicion and institution in good artes, as Gellius teacheth: Sometyne childholde.

Pæ'dico, aii, are, to commit buggery.

Pæ'didi, filthp and sluttye felowes.

Pædor, ôris, m. ge. slutty sheneffe, vnleannesse, filthynesse.

Pædomathes, they whiche learne in their childhode.

Pædotribia, the teachynge or exerceysng of chylde.

Pædotribes, bis, and Pædotriba, x, m. g. gen. a schoolemaister.

Pægmia, aii, n. g. looke Pegma.

Pæon, onis, a foote in metres.

Pæon, onis, an excellent phisician.

Pæonia, an herbe, called Pionie, of the whiche there is the male and the female. also a countrey in Europe, and is a part of Macedonie.

Pæstanius, a, um, of the citee Pæstum.

Pæstonium, a citee of Austrie, called commonly Wetta.

Pæstum, a citee of Lucania, where is abundance of Roses.

Pætus, ti, m. g. he that looketh as if his eyes were halfe closed, he that looketh a squint vwardes; or he that hath the one eye lesse than the other. after some, he that hath vnconstant eyes, rolling and turnynge now hither now thither.

Paganalia, orum, n. g. plu. ploughmennes holidays, as wakes be now a daies.

Paganeus, a, um, perteynyng to villages.

Paganius, ni, m. g. a man of the countrey, or of the village. it is also he that despyeth to bee in the numbze of souldiours, and is not yet admitted: or rather euery man, that is not a souldiour, and by translation, he that is not perfect or cunnyng in any science.

Pagasa, a towne of Thessaly, whiche after was called Demetrias.

Pagasæus, and Pagasus, a, um, of Pagasa.

Pagatim, village by village.

Pagina, næ, f. ge. the side of a leafe in a booke. it is also the place in the trape of a vine, where euery branche is fastned.

Pagella, læ, and Paginula, læ, f. g. a litle syde of a leafe in a booke.

Pago, gis, pépigi, gere, pactus, to make conuynant or contracte, to patise, to indent.

Pagonaton, the herbe Tussilago.

Pagrus, a certayne frethe water fysh, called also Pagurus.

Pagus, gi, m. gen. a village. also a dictio, lordship, or marches, hauing diuers townes and villages.

Pagyris, the name of a ryuer and of a citee, of which the people are called Pagyritæ.

Pala, x, f. m. gen. a spade. also a piele to put in breade into the oven. also a fan to make wind. also the broadest parte of a ryng, wherein the stone is sette. sometyne a fyre panne or moule. also a certayne tree of excedyng greatnesse growynge in Indie.

Palæ, wedges or peeces of fine golde, or gaddes of metall whan it is fined.

Palæcra, x, or Palæcraia, f. g. a peere, ingotte, or wedge of golde.

Palæmon, palæmonis, a god of the sea. also the sonne of Phineus, kyng of Arcadie. Also a grammarian in the time of Cyberius, and a Mepeherdes name in Virgile, Palépharus, an auncient wyter in the tyme of Ariaretes.

 Palepharia papyrus, a booke containing nothing but fables and tales, of thynges incredible.
 Palæpolis, a place not farr from Naples.
 Palæsta, τα, the measure of the. iiii. fingers lopp gued together.
 Palestina, a countrey in Syria, loppynge to Presbis, called in holy scripture Philistim.
 Palestrea, α, form. gen. a wastlyng place. also the exercise of wastlyng, or barriers. It is also the comelynesse of menynge and gesture, accord-yng to the state or degree of the person, whiche
 she weth it.
 Palæstrice, lyke a wastler.
 Palæstricum, idem quod Palestrea.
 Palæstricus, ci, m. gen. a wastler, he that teacheth wastlyng, or fyghtyng at the barriers.
 Also one that teacheth gesturynge, and comely movynge of the body.
 Palæstricus, a, um, perteynyng to wastlyng.
 Palæstrina, α, m. g. he that useth wastlyng, or stryng at the barriers.
 Palam, openly befoze men, that all men may see it.
 Palam facere, to revele or byng to open knowledge.
 Res palam est, the matter is openly known,
 or the thyng is manifest.
 Palam populo, for coram populo.
 Continuo palam est, by and by it is abyde,
 I kepe no counsaile.
 Palam est pisces audire, it is evidently knos-wen, that fyshes dooe here.
 Palam mentiri, to lie evidently, and manifestly.
 Palam aduersarius, an open aduersary.
 Palam and Obscure, contrary.
 Palamedes, the sonne of Nauplius, kynge of the yle Cubota, a valiaunt capitayne of the Greeces, at the sieg of Troy, where by the faulte
 surmyse of Ulysses, he was slayne of his people.
 It is wrytten, that he founde certayne letters of Grecke, by the order of a flight of cranes.
 Palaneæ, idem quod Palangæ.
 Palanga, γα, f. g. a leauer, or poztter, wherewith they lyfte or beare tymber, also a roller to con-ueigh thynges of great weight.
 Palango, aui, are, to beare on leauers or poztters.
 Palangarij, men whiche doo beare on leauers or poztters thynges of great poyse or weight.
 Palans, antis, om. g. renayng or wanderynge as bynde, as they that be discomfited in battayle.
 Palatina, a countrey by Rome.
 Palatinus, a, um, of Palatina.
 Palanteum, a citee builded on the hille called Paslatinus.
 Palantia, a citee in Tragonia.
 Palas, the daughter of Euander.
 Palatha, α, f. g. a tart of fygges.

Palatium, an aduerbe significyng scattered and wanderyng here and there.
 Palatina officia, officers within a princes palatice or court.
 Palatinus mons, an hille at Rome.
 Palatium, ti, n. g. an hille at Rome. also the passage of an emperour or kynge.
 Palatio, onis, form. gen. a foundation made in a marie grounde, or in the water, with piles of tymber.
 Palatuar, or palatual, a sacrifice doone at Rome
 on the hille called Palatinum.
 Palatualis, a pyeste consecrated to the goddesse, that had the tuition of the palatice in Rome.
 Palatum, ti, n. g. the roofe of the mouth.
 Subtile palatum, a fine taste.
 Torpens palatum, a dull taste.
 Exacuere palatum, to quicken the taste.
 Lingua deest palato, he can not speake.
 Exsurdant palatum vina feruida, hot wyne hurte the taste.
 Palatus, us, m. g. is red in Cicero, if the booke be not false.
 Palea, α, f. g. chaffe of cozne. Sometyme strawe.
 also a gristell, whiche hangeth downe from the necke of a cocke or capon, a cockes bearde.
 Palea æris, the scum or offall of brasse, whan it is bourned or tried.
 Palear, aris, ari, neut. gen. the dewe lappe of a rodde beaste, hangynge downe vnder the throte.
 Palearium, rij, neu. ge. a place wherin chaffe is kepte.
 Paleatus, a, um, made, myrte, or couered with chaffe.
 Pales, the goddesse of Mepeherdes and pasture.
 Palene, a citee so called of Pallena, the daughter of Syphon, and wyfe of Aletus.
 Palapaphos, a citee of Epyssie dedicate to Ues-nus.
 Palescamander, a repute in Troy.
 Palfurius, an oratour.
 Palicenus, a fountayne in Sicilia.
 Palici, twoo brytherne the sonnes of Iupiter, and the nymphe Thalia.
 Palilia, or Parilia, orum, n. g. plur. Mepeherdes holy daies kepte in the honour of Pales.
 Palillogia, reduplicatio, a fygure.
 Palimbacchus, a foote in meter, haupng the two fyrst syllables longe, and the last shorte.
 Palimpissa, α, f. g. pitche twyse sodde.
 Palimpsestus, ti, mas. g. parchment rased, that was befoze wrytten in.
 Palingenesia, α, f. g. a regeneration or seconde natiuitee.
 Palinodia, α, form. gen. a contrary songe, or retractyng of that whiche one hath spoken or wrytten, now of some menne called a recansyng.
 Palinodiam canere, to retracte that whiche one hath spoken or wrytten.

Palinurus, the maister of the Myppe, wherein Theseus came into Italy, also an elbow of the land of Sicile into the sea.

Paliurus, xi, m. g. a byrte, whiche beareth a rod, wherein are three or foure blake sedes. I suppose by the description bothe of Theophrastus, and Dioscorides, that it is the firsle of goyle, although in some one place it maye be greater than in an other place. It may so be, that firsle is one kinde of Paliurus: for authoys set diuers kindes of it: but most commonly it is taken for a tree growyng muche in Strike, and hauyng a sweete berry or fruite, which they put in wyne, to make it moze pleasant. looke Ruellius, and the commentes on Dioscorides.

Palla, la, for. g. a womans gowne or robe, also a garmente that frenche men vset much lyke a Myrte cloke with sleeves. Trahere pallam, to wryple his gowne on the grounde after him.

Pallace, laces, or Pallaca, ca, form. gen. a concubine.

Palladium, di, neut. gener. the ymage of Pallas.

Palladius, a mannes name whiche wyote of husbandry, also of an other, whiche was excedyng swyfte.

Palladius, a, um, that longeth to Pallas.

Pallancana, a sharpe oynion, which causeth the eyes to water.

Pallantia, a towne in Spayne.

Pallas, antis, the sonne of Euander. sometyme hynde of Latines, also a gyant.

Pallas, adis, the daughter of Iupiter, called gods desse of battayle, and also of wysedome.

Pallene, a countrey by Macedonie, and a citee in Italia.

Pallens, entis, that is pale or wanne.

Palleo, lui, lere, to be pale, sometyme to feare. Multo pallere colores, to waxe pale & change coloures, as men that be sodenly taken in any dedde.

Pallesco, scere, to become wanne or pale.

Palliastrum, stri, neut. gener. a course mantell or robe.

Palliatus, a, um, cladde in a mantill, robe, or cloke.

Palliatæ fabulæ, comedies or enterludes made in Grecia, and the personages therein were Grekes: as Togatæ fabulæ, were enterludes in Rome, and the personages Romaynes, so called because the hypermoste habite of Grekes was called Pallium, of the Romaynes Toga.

Pallidulus, a, um, somewhat pale.

Pallidus, a, um, pale.

Pallio, aui, are, to conceale or hyde, to couer.

Palliolârim amictus, cladde in a palle or robbe.

Palliolârus, a, um, cladde in a robe or mantill.

Palliolum, li, neut. gene. a myrte mantill, or a wollen whoodde, vset in olde time to couer the head. Pallium, lij, n. g. a mantill, such as knyghtes of the garter hose weare, a longe robe, a garmente that philosophies vset, a cope. sometyme a cloke.

Tunica pallio propior, a prouerbe, when a man will signifie, that he is moze bounde to one frende than to an other.

Pallor, ôris, m. g. a palenesse of colour.

Palma, re, f. g. the palme of the hande, it is oft tymes taken for a hande, also a measure called a handbreadth: also a palme tree, or date tree, which is alway greene, and was wonte to be geuen to them that had woone victorie. sometyme it signifieth the pryce or rewarde of victorie, also victorie it self. Palma, is also a great vine brynche, that beareth grapes.

Plana faciem, contundere palma, to clap one on the cheke or aboute the face with his hande.

Huic equidem consilio palmam do, in fashy I geue pryce and pryce to this diuise or counsaile.

Palmam ferre, to haue the pryce of victorie, to be most excellent.

Plurimarum palmarum homo, he that oftentimes hath had victorie.

Palma, is sometyme vset for a date.

Palmam præripere, to take the pryce or honour from an other.

Palma Christi, called also Michaides, an herbe of the hynde of Saryion, but hauynge rootes lyke the palme of ones hande.

Palma, a towne of Spayne.

Palmâris, re, that is geuen to one for victorie, or worthy a garlande for victorie.

Palmâre facinus, an act worthy palme or signe of victorie.

Palmaria, an yle in the Tuscan sea.

Palmârium, ij, n. g. the rewarde or sygne of victorie, or a thyng worthy a garland or sygne of victorie.

Palmârius, a, um, and Palmâris, re, of Palmas that is the measure of. xii. syngers.

Palmaria spacia, an hande brynche space.

Palmaria, & palmâris vestis, a garmente of haubekyn, which the consull did weare in tyme of peace, and the victour in the tyme of warre.

Palmârius, a, um, worthy the signe or token of victorie, worthy to be crowned.

Palmes, palmitis, m. g. the brynch most commonly of a vyne.

Palmes pampinariis, the ponge brynche of a vine tree, that beareth no fruite, but only leaues.

Palmes fructuarius, a brynche that beareth fruite.

Palmes focaneus, a brynch that spryngeth out of the cleske & very middes of twoo bowes that growe togethewyle, and taketh parte of the nourishment of them bothe.

Palmêrum, i, n. ge. the place wherein date trees doo growe, Palmeus, a, um, of palme or date trees.

 Palmifer, a, um, that beareth palme or date trees.
 Palmipedalis, a measure of a foote, and an hand breadth, a foote and an halfe.
 Palmipedes aues, all byrdes that haue whole feete, as commonly all water foules haue.
 Palmipes, pedis, that hath a playne and flatte foote, splay footed.
 Palmio, aui, are, to bynde together, also to do any thyng with the palme of the hande.
 Palmosus, a, um, full of palme trees.
 Palmula, a, fœ, g. the bynde ende of an ope or sculle, also a date.
 Palmus, mi, masc. gene. a measure, Maior & minor.
 Maior, after Budeus, is .xii. syngers, after some a spanne. Minor, is foure syngers, or halfe a foote.
 Palmyra, a great castell or forte in the middle of Syria.
 Palmirena, a countrey in Syria.
 Palo, aui, are, to hedge or pale in. Also to wander.
 Palor, aris, ari, to goe a sunder here and there scattered.
 Palpatio, onis, f. g. flattery.
 Palpator, oris, m. g. a flatterer.
 Palpebra, arum, m. gener. plur. the heates that doo growe on the eye liddes, also the eye liddes.
 Palpiratio, onis, f. g. pantyng, beatyng, moyng of the stomache.
 Palpito, aui, are, to beate as the stomake doeth.
 Palpo, aui, are, & Palpor, aris, ari, to fele, stroke or touche softly, as a man doeth an horse or other fierse beast. By translation, to flatter, to deceiue with fayne woordes.
 Palpones, flatterers.
 Palpum, i, n. g. a flatteryng.
 Obtrudere palpum, to flatter, to deceiue with fayne woordes.
 Palum, a ryuer in Britayne.
 Paludamentum, i, n. ge. a cote armour, it was also a womans garment.
 Paludarium, the herbe called smatlage.
 Paludatus, a, um, cladde in a cote armour.
 Paludifer, a, um, that causeth a ditch or marishe.
 Paludosus, a, um, full of dytches or maryshe groundes.
 Palumbarius, a certayne hauke that is longe and blacke, and flieth the most part by night.
 Palumbes, bis, m. & fœm, ge. a wood culuer, a ringed doue.
 Palumbus, and Palumba, idem.
 Palumbinus, a, um, of a wood culuer.
 Palumbina caro, the fleshe of a wood culuer.
 Palus, li, m. g. a stake or poste.
 Palus, ludis, f. g. a fenne or marishe.
 Paluster, stris, stre, perteynyng to a fenne or maryshe.

Locus palustris, a marishe grounde.
 Pampasilia, a perfect kyngdome or dominion, a kyngdome where one hath all in his power.
 Pamisus, one of the five principall riuers of Chetalia.
 Pamphagi, people in Ethiopia, whiche doo eate of all maner of thynges.
 Pamphilia, a region in the lesse Asia, lyng on the southe syde of the mountayne Taurus, and marcheth on the realmes of Phrygia, and Caria.
 Pamphilus, a, um, Pamphilia.
 Pamphilus, significth all loue, or a louer of all men, euery manfuernde and louer. It was the name of Ptoles sonne Platos scholar, also a priest of Ceteria, which was martyred.
 Pampillum, a chariotte.
 Pampilona, a citee in the realme of Nauerre.
 Pampinaceus, a, um, that hath diuers bzaunches.
 Pampinarium, ij, n. g. the tender branche that groweth out of the body of the vine, which beareth nothyng but leaues.
 Pampinarius, and Pampineus, a, um, of or perteynyng to a vine bzaunche.
 Pampinatio, onis, a cuttyng of, of vine bzaunches, or pullng of of the superfluous leaues.
 Pampinator, oris, he that cutteth of the superfluous bzaunches or leaues of a vine.
 Pampinatus, a, um, the participle of Pampino.
 Pampino, aui, are, to cut of the small bzaunches of a vine, or to pull away the leaues, that the sunne may come to the roote.
 Pampinula, an herbe called also Pimpinella.
 Pampinus, ni, fœm. or masc. gene. a vine leafe or grene bzaunche. also the byssles of the fythe Polipus.
 Pan, panis, called the god of shepherdes.
 Panaces, cis, n. g. and Panacia, a, fœ, ge. idem quod Panax.
 Panætius, a stoike philosopher.
 Panætolum, an hyl of Aetolia, also the whole counsaile of the countrey of Aetolia.
 Panætolicus, a, um, of the counsaile of Aetolia.
 Panagios, totus sanctus.
 Panagron, gri, n. gen. a great sweepe nette that taketh all maner of fythe.
 Panaretus, that containeth all vertues.
 Panaritium, a disease that often breedeth in mens syngers.
 Panaria ebrietas, Cælius writeth, that he hath redde for Arrogantia & licentia.
 Panariolum, li, n. g. a basket or panter, wherein bzeade is caried.
 Panarium, ij, neu. ge. a pantrie where bzead is kepte. also an hutche wherein bzeadde is kept, or a basket to carie bzeadde.
 Panathenaicum, a kynde of oylmentes.
 Panathenea, were amonge the Athenientes, certayne solemne ceremonies, wherof some were greate, and kepte euery fyfth yere, some were lesse.

Pando, and they were yong children. They were sometime called Athenians. Panax, panax, a gen. an herbe, which hath a leafe lyke to a lyege eere. It hath also a longe stalk, and groweth in the top of a knappe, wherein are small seedes with a sharp fene. It hath an yelow floure, and groweth in dyverse partes of Grecia.

Pancarpia, a garden made of diuers flowers, and of all flowers that may be founde. Pancarpus, chamelion niger.

Panchari, people in the desert of Arabia, which eate serpentes.

Panchaia, a region in Beabie, called also Sabaa.

Pancheus, and Panchaicus, a, um, of Panchaia.

Panchestus, a, um, a gen. a moderate good for all manner diseases, and is for cure of toyes.

Panchros, chiri, m. ge. a precious stone hauinge almost all colours.

Pancratia, tis, m. g. a man expert and excels in lent in dooing of all thynges deacrutees. Also he that is cunning in the bynde of wastlinge, called Pancratium.

Pancratice, mightie, strongly.

Pancratice, valero, to bee in good healtie and lustie up.

Pancratium, h, neu, gen. excels in all feates, as wastlinge, rennyng, leappng, castynge of the barre, and other lyke exercises of strength. It is properly a kinde of wastlinge, wherein one doeth his endeavour by all meanes bothe with hande and foote, to cast the other.

Pancratium, is sometime taken for Escorle.

Pancrum, is betwene fleshe and honnoll lyng betwene the stomache and the liver.

Panda, a citee in India, where the great Alexas dee builded the thirde citee of his name, the uttermoste ende of his iourney. Also in the same place were nulkers builded by Bacchus, and after by Hercules, than by the queene Demiramis, last by Lysus.

Pandana porta, a gate of the citee of Rome, whiche was first opened, and laste shutte, for all thynges to be brought into the citee.

Pandario, onis, form, gene, a booyng of crewlyng.

Pandatoria, an ple in the sea Tyrrenum.

Pandectæ, arum, f. ge. plur. comprehendynge all thynges. It is also the volume of the law ciuile, called the Digestes.

Pandiculatio, onis, fce, g. a gailpyng and stetes chynge ones selfe.

Pandicular, aris, ari, to gape and stetch ones selfe, as they doo that come from slepe.

Pandion, onis, the sonne of Erichon, hynde of Athens.

Pandionia, the countrey of Athens.

Pandionius, a, um, one of the countrey of Athens.

Pando, pandidi, ere, passum, to open, to sette abode.

Viam pandere, to open the way.

Pando, aui, are, to boote downe, as one doeth vnder a burdeyn.

Pandocheus, chis, mase, gen. an Inholder, an hostler.

Pandochus, h, n. g. an Inne of commune lodgng, an hostler.

Pandocrator, toris, omnipotent, almighty.

Pandofia, a citee in Italy, an other in Epire.

Pandora, the mother of Deucalion, vnto whome sundry goddes gave sundry giftes. Pallas gave hir wisdom, Minerva beaultie, Apollo musike, and the other goddes. And therefore she was called Pandora, which signifieth she was endued with all goodes. The poet writeth, that Jupiter sent hir into the world to deceptus mankynde.

Pandofius, a poole in Beabie.

Pandus, a, um, crooked, boowrd.

Panegyricus, a, um, that prayseth, that contrayneth prayse and commendacion.

Panegiris, tis, fce, gene, a commune assemble of people, bee it a fapte, marie, or market, high fraite of sellours. Also a place wher those asmes ble be.

Panegyrica oratio, & panegyricum carmen that whiche was recited in prose or verse, as surhe an assemble to the prayse of any person.

Paneros, ri, m. g. a precious stone.

Pancus, a towne and a ruier of Lethie.

Pangæus, an elbow of Thrac.

Pango, pépigi, & panxi, ere, to set, to plant, to toygne one thyng to an other, to fasten, to bynde in, to wyse, to lunge, to tell, to make.

Pangere clauum, to bynde in a nagle.

Pangere osculum, to kysse.

Inducias pangere, to make true.

Pangere versus, to wyse verses.

Pangere pacem, to make peace.

Pangere societatem, to make alliance.

Panhormus, idem quod Panormus.

Panícula, f. ge. that which doeth hange downe of some herbes or trees, longe and rounde, as on great oaks, also on peacha trees & pine apall trees, colfers, and reedes. Also any thyng that groweth out sounde and longe, maye bee called Panícula.

Panicum, ci, n. ge. a sobryne feare, wherby men be distraught, or out of their wittes.

Panicum, i, n. ge. a grayne, which groweth lyke Oyll, and hath at the leaste tenne leaues, the stalk small with a redde pendant full of cozne, some purple, some redde, some blacke or white. The Italians doo call it Melica, in Englyshe Panike.

Panis, is, m. g. breadde.

Panis, is sometime vled for Panus, luke there.

Panis distrius, grated breadde.

Panis porcinus, an herbe, called also Cyclas minus, Rapum terræ, Vmbelicus terræ, & Artamita.

Torta panis, a crannell or simnell.

Ecc ij

Prima

Primarius panis, white bread.
Panis nauticus, bysset.
Panis secundarius, ragged bread, or cheate bread, or crebble bread.
Panis, is sometyme used for vitayle, or corn.
Panifex, nificis, m. g. a baker.
Panificium, n. g. the crafte of bakynge.
Paniscus, a god of the woddess.
Panneus, a, um, of moullen.
Pannicula, looke Panicula.
Pannicularia, orum, n. g. thynges of smal balure that one bringeth with him that is committed to prison, or put to death, passing not the value of five crownes, as his raymentes, and that he beareth aboute him.
Pannicularius, a dyaper that selleth clothe.
Paniculus, li, m. g. a peece of clothe, a cloute, a ragge.
Pannonia, the countrey now called Hungaria, whiche toke that name of an other Hungaria now called Iulira, a countrey in the north parte of the worlde, not farre from the ryuer Tanais, and is tributary to the Moscouites. The boundes of hungary are now much larger than they were of olde tyme, and hath on the west Ostrie & Beame: On the south the parte of Slaquoy, that lieth on the sea adriaticum: on the east Seruia, on the north Polonia, and Moscouia. The countrey is ryght fertile of grapne, and ryche of golde and silver: And as the inhabitants doo reposit, there is a ryuer, wherein yf yon be oftentymes dyed, it will be touned into copper. this noble realme is now destroyed and vnder the captiuitie of the Turkes, which is soe to be feared all christendome shall repente. For it was sometyme reputed the puissant bulwarke of all christian realmes agaynst the intollerable violence of Saracyns and Turkes.
Pannonia superior, the countreys called Buthia and Stiria, in this countrey standeth Vienna.
Pannonia inferior, hath on the north Dunaw and Germany, on the west Pannonia superis orem: on the south Liburniam, on the east lazgas: this countrey is almost wholly vnder Hungares.
Pannones, Hungarians called also Pacones.
Pannofus, sa, sum, that weareth poze appaile.
Pannulcium, lei, n. g. an handkercher.
Pannuntius, a, um, idem quod pannofus.
Pannus, ni, m. g. clothe.
Panolochria, thrix, f. g. better destruction.
Panomphæus, a, um, a name of Jupiter, signifying that he heareth all mens voices, or because he is worshipped of all men.
Panope, a citee in Phoris.
Panope, and Panopæa, a nymphe of the sea.
Panoplia, x, f. g. all armour belongyng to a man of armes, cumplet harness.
Panormita, Panormitanus, and Panormius, one of Panormus.

Panormus, & Panormum, a citee in Siciliens called in Italian Palermo.
Pans, x, com. ge. one that hath a broad face, or that is face spotted.
Paschabaton, a name of a stone, which is called as a way to be made, called also Paneros.
Panselenon, the full meane.
Pantaces, a river in Samos.
Pantacrista, x, m. g. he that fighteth with handes and fiste, he that wrestleth all feates and games.
Pantagias, a name of a stone.
Pantanus, a poole of duell in Italy.
Pantachlon, he that contendeth in all manner of games.
Panthea, the wife of Hyadada, a thessiane.
Pantheon, a temple of all the goddes.
Panther, thêris, m. g. and Panthera, x, f. g. a beast, haupng on his thinnelittell rounde spots, some blew, and some white. It is saied, that herdes of cattell doo muche gladly belite in the sweete saoure that cometh from them, and in beholdyng of them. And therefore feelyng by the sweete eye, when they haue they reforte, thither will all beastes come, fearyng nothing but their fierle lookes, and therefore the panthers hydyng their heades, doo suffer the rest of theyr bodies to be looked on, that they may the more easily take theyr pray of the cattall beyng dismaied. The people of Eriecania doo more often kyll them with a popson called Aconitum, than with weapon. But the Panthers feelyng theyr selues popsoned, doo take for the dung of a man, whiche if they synde and eate, they be forthwith deliuered. They be so lyuely, that they lyue a great while after their bowelles be cleane out of theyr bodies. It is written, that the Panther will not touche him, that is washed with the hyothe, wherein a cothe is boyled. In the weste parte of Ethiope, towarde the sea, is a people called Agriophagi, whose hynges hath but one eye in his forehead, which lyue with eatyng the fleshe of Panthers and Lyons.
Pantherinus, a, um, of a panther, or spotted lyke a panther, of diuers colours.
Pantherum, i, n. g. a nette, wherewith all maner of foules are taken: whiche nette is pitched on the grounde a greate length, and covered with strawe or chaffe, that the birdes se it not, and sodenly by a corde cast vp, taketh all that is within the compasse.
Panthesilea, a queene of Amazones.
Panthoides, the name of Pythagoras, whiche is saied, that he was ones the sonne of Panthous the Troiane.
Panthous, or Panthus, a Troiane, the brother of Heuba.
Panticapes, a river of Scythia.
Panticapeu, a towne not farre from the same place.
Pantices, a great bealy, also the fluxe.

Pantocrator, ōis, m. g. emperour, conqueror.
Ouyng all thynges.

Pantolabus, a clown, that taketh all thynges.

Pantomimus, a towne by the sea side in Candie.

Pantomimus, m. g. a disorder, that can teigne and counterfaite every mans gestures.

Pantrepes, a ruet of Scythia.

Panurgia, ae, f. g. subtilty, craftynesse, gyle, deceite.

Panurgus, gi, m. g. he that is practised in al thynges, a crafty and deceyfull felowe, a wylly person, an olde bearn for. also a founde thing growing out of a tree lyke a mushroom.

Panus, ni, m. g. a keynell in the thare of gyne of a man, or behynde the eare. It is also a measure rolle, wheron the webbe of clothe is rolled or wounden.

Papæ, an interfection of wondryng, will you see a wonderfull thyng.

Papæ, in the tynge of Scythia signifieth Jus-pites.

Papare, to call dad as a childe doeth.

Papas, a father, as children doe call dad.

Papauer, paueis, n. g. and sometyme, m. g. an herbe called popie, or the boub.

Papaueris lachrimæ, that which they now cal
Opium, looke there.

Papauer erraticum, red rosy rose, or wylde popie.

Papauer corniculatum, hoyned popie, or yea
lowe popie.

Papauer sativum, garden popie.

Papauer alida, wylde popie.

Papaueratus, a, um, lyke poppy.

Papauerata vestis, a garment not pure white but of the colour of poppy.

Papauereus, a, um, of popie.

Paphages, a kynge of Ambrosia.

Paphlago, paphlagonis, one of Paphlagonia.

Paphius, a, um, of Paphos.

Paphlagonia, a countrey in the lesse Asia, lopppyng to Galatia, where dwelled the people called Meneti, of whome came the Menecians.
It is bounded on the east with the ryuer called Halis, rennyng out of the southe betwene Si-ria and Paphlagonia.

Paphos, a citee in the Ilande of Cypres, whiche was dedicate to Venus, wherof she was called Paphia.

Paphus, he that builded the citee Paphon.

Papia, a citee in Lombardy, called Paue.

Papilio, ōis, m. g. a butterfly. also a tente or pauilion.

Papilla, ae, f. g. a littell wheale or pushe in the shynne of a man. also a cooke in the rundle, wherout water cometh. Moreover the nipple or teate of a womans breste. Sometime it is taken for the breste.

Papinianus, a famous lawier in the tyme of Se-uerus the emperour.

Papinius, a poete of Naples.

Pappa, ae, f. g. pappe made with mylke and flou-
wer.

Pappo, ai, are, to eate, to call one father or dad wantonly.

Pappus, a philosopher of Alexandria.

Pappus, i, m. g. grandfayre or grandfather. It is also an herbe called groundswell. also the floure of thistles, whiche like to fathers dooeth flie away with the toppe. Sometime the most nest of certayne herbes.

Papula, ae, f. g. a wheale or pushe.

Papyrifer, isera, um, that beareth the rushe called Papyrus.

Papyraceus, a, um, of pappe, or of the saled rushe.

Papyrius, the surname of a noble man.

Papyropola, la, m. g. gen. idem quod chartupratus.

Papyrus, ri, f. g. seu Papyrum, i, n. g. a great rushe that groweth in the fennes and marish groundes in Egypte and Syria, ten cubites in height, wherof the byllie paper was made, wheron men dyd write. Now Papyrus is called paper, wherin men do ble to write or printe bookes.

Par, aris, n. g. a pappe, a couple.

Par, aris, om. g. lyke, equal, mete, euen, reason-nable, conuenient. Par est, it is lyke also it is mete or conuenient. Par ætate, of one age.

Paribus animis, of lyke affection, with lyke good wyll or courage.

Par ingenium nactus, he hath founde one of his owne faction, or like to him selfe.

Par sapientia ad formam, as wyse as he is fayre or talle.

Par precium tanti laboris, the recompence or rewarde was such as was equallet to so great a labour.

Par idem, all one.

Pares esse nostro exercitui non potuerunt, they mought not be so stronge as our host, they were not able to resist our armie.

Pares, matches, two, the one lyke the other.

Par magis fuerat, it had ben more mete.

Vt par erat, as reason was, as it was conueniente.

Pares cantare, lyke conuynng in musike or syngyng.

Sūtque pares in amore, they loue one an other equally, or lyke hertily.

Pares cum paribus, matches together.

Parem esse, to be able to resiste, susteine, for-beare, or abyde a thyng.

Par laboribus corpus, a body able to susteyne and away with labours and trauayles.

Male merenti par erit, to him that doeth ill,
he wyll render ill agayne.

Vide in scribendo vt par mihi sis, See that you write as much or as often to me, as I doe to you.

Paria facere, to make amendes, to requite, to doo one thyng for an other. also to make a ly-holy help mathe, to serve one as well agayne.

 Par impar, a game that children use, called even or odd.
 Paremi ubi referam gratiam, wherein I may requite him, or shewe him like pleasure.
 Par pari datum, one for another.
 Par pari respondere, to answer the same wordes, to say as much as the other saith.
 Parisimus, the superlative, used sometime of Plautus.
 Para, a greke preposition used sometime for Aspid, sometime for Prater.
 Para, looke Parra.
 Parabates, a transgressor.
 Parabasis, sis, fem. gen. preparation, transgression.
 Parabilis, le, that may be soone gotten, or will be soone redie.
 Victus parabilis, meate that may be soone gotten.
 Parabola, lx, f. g. a comparison or resemblance, a parable.
 Parabolani, certayne ministers, which might neuer departe from the thyng that they hadde charge of.
 Paracelsus, sis, fem. gen. an exhortation, a consolation.
 Parachlamys, a garment that bothe souldiours, and also children used in olde tyme to weare.
 Paracletus, i, m. g. an exhorter, a comforter or advocate.
 Paraclytus, ti, ma. g. a man inflamed, or reproved of, one that hath an ill name.
 Paracentesis, a harde and pynful warthyng or curyng of a wounde by sawyng or prickyng of it.
 Paracentesis, sis, f. g. a cure doen with the Scurgiana owne hande. or whan the heale of one that hath the dropsie, hath an hole made in it, to let out the water.
 Paracenterium, ri, n. g. the instrumente, wherewith that cure is dooen.
 Paracnemium, mi, n. g. the uttermost bone in the thanke of the legge, called also Parastarum.
 Paracope, pes, fem. gene. the alienation of the mynde.
 Paradacri, an herbe called also banium.
 Paradelos, the great daisy with the knoppe in the myddes. It is of the apothecaries called Consolida media.
 Paradiastole, a dilatyng of a matter by an interpretation, or a fygure, whan thynges that be lyke are severed by opposicion of the contraries.
 Paradigma, digmaris, n. g. an example.
 Paradisus, i, m. g. or after some, f. g. Paradise, it signifieth a garden.
 Paradisus, a towne in Syria.
 Paradoxum, i, n. g. a sentence contrary to the opinion of the more parte.
 Paradoxus, a, um, a thyng meruylous strange contrary to the most commune opinion.

 Paradromis, midis, f. g. an open gallery, here bout, or walke.
 Paraneis, sis, f. g. a precept contaynyng an exhortation or admonicion.
 Paraneiticus, a, um, contaynyng such precept or instruction.
 Parastaceni, people in the uttermost borders of Media.
 Paratonijs, a great haven of Syrenaica, also a towne of the same name.
 Paragaudes, or Paragauda, a certayne kynde of wytes, petticoates, or linnen vesture, that they used in olde tyme, under theyr other garment.
 Paragoge, ges, f. g. a figure, whan a letter or syllable is added to a word, as Dici, for Dici.
 Paragogia, the place, through the whiche water renneth.
 Paragraphe, es, f. g. a thyng written before a sentence, an annotation in the margin.
 Paraglyphus, a paragraphe.
 Paralia, a kynde of pitch.
 Paralipomenon, left out, unspeken, or unwritten, which ought to have ben spoken or written.
 Paralion, an herbe called also Esula.
 Paralius, a kynde of spurge.
 Paraleli, lynes in the sphere of the worlde equally distant, wherby the sonne passyng, causeth variation in the houres of the day.
 Paralelus, li, m. g. equally distant.
 Paralus, his name that first inuented galleyes.
 Paralysis, sis, f. g. a sickness called the palsy, wherein either all the bodie or one membre, or many membres be mortified, and be deprived of feelyng and meeuyn. It hapneth either of an impostume, stoppyng the rootes of the synewes, that they beyng deprived of the spirites animal, which serueth for thaim, become losse: or elles of the fleumaticke humour, growe and be digested, whiche stoppeth the sayed places. Some tyme of a stroke or fall, wherby the toyndes of the backe bone are lousd, and the sinewes, which come from the necke or nape of the head, are stopped. Otherwhyle the sinewes and the rootes of them hurt with a bruise, induceth the palsy, especially in an olde man.
 Herba paralysis, the littell white daisy with redde toppes.
 Paralysis interdum cicuta, interdum Delphinium.
 Paralyticus, a, um, that is taken with the palsy.
 Parangaria, looke Angaria.
 Parantes, a certayne precious stone.
 Paranympus, i, m. g. he that is the mediator in matrimony betwene the man and the woman. She that is on the womans parte, is called Pronuba.
 Parapechium, chi, n. g. a light cloke, also one of the bones in the arme, called also radius.
 Parapherna, orum, n. g. plur. all thynges that the woman woman byngeth to her husbande besides his dower, called also in latine Peculium.

Paraphrasia, sis, for. g. an imitation of wordes, setting out the sense or meaning of the author more playnely and largely.
Paraphrastes, æ, m. g. he that dooth not translate wordes by wordes, but expyeth the sentence of the author more openly.
Paraphrosync, a kynde of phrenesie or madnesse.
Parapotamia, a countrey nere to Tigris.
Pararium æs, was double wages geuen to horsemen for haupng two horses.
Pararius, ij, m. g. a broker.
Parasanga, æ, f. g. a myle in Persia, containyng fifte furlonges. Herodotus saith, xxx.
Parascæue, es, for. g. a preparation. Also good friday.
Parasopelisis, sis, for. gen. a figure in speakeyng, whan we feigne that we wyll not speake, and yet couceitly it is declared what we don meane.
Parasita, æ, f. g. the feminine of Parasitus.
Parasitus, i, m. g. an haunter of other mens tables uncalled for, a swelkrasse, a John holding-staffe. Also he that to fill his belly with meate and dyshe, speaketh alway to the appetite of him, with home he dyneth or suppeth, a parasite, a bealy frende, a flatterer.
Parasitor, aris, ari, to holde vp an other mans tale, for a dinner or supper, to play the parasite.
Parasitaster, tri, m. g. he that counterfisteth him that is called Parasitus.
Parastades, stones whiche do susteyne bothe the sydes of a doore called the lambes.
Parastasis, f. g. assistance, ppose by witness.
Parastata, certayne stones sette to or about a pillar, by lykenesse of whiche one of the bones in the shanke is named Parastata, the cundites als to, by whiche the seede passeth from the hidneys of a man in generacion, be called Parastata. als to certayne vnder officers in the wynges of a bat, table be so called.
Parathesis, apposition.
Paraticla, the summe of thynges entituled.
Paratimos, a kynde of punishment vsed to poore men taken in aduoutry. Ea pœna erat euulsio pilorum e natibus, & pudendis.
Paratē, promptly, redyly.
Paratragœdio, aui, are, to bragge or crake, to speake great or highe wordes.
Paratum, i, neut. gene. prouision, a thyng made ready.
Paratus, a, um, ready, made ready.
Vir in quouis loco paratus, a man ready at al assayes, or ready to dooe what so euer a man woulde haue him.
Paratus & promptus.
Paratus ad omnem aduētum, ready to abide what chaunce so euer will fall.
Paratus ad omnia, ready to doo any maner of
thyng.

Ab omni re sumus paratiores, we be more in a readynesse with all thynges.
Ab exercitu paratus, in a readynesse as tous thynges our armie.
Animis opibusque paratus, Paratus omnia perpeti.
Animus paratus bello.
Paratus, us, m. g. prouision, preparation. Comes time approprie.
Principalis paratus, princely either prouision or apparail.
Parazonium, ij, n. g. a kynde of swordes, a hanger, a woodknife.
Parce, ladies of desente: also it signifieth the self desente or disposition in prolongyng of Morts nyng of lyfe. The names of the ladies be Clos-thos, Lachesis, Atropos.
Parce, scarcely, niggardly, nyghely, saye and softely, sparngly, saupngly.
Parce ac duriter viuere, to lue saupngly and hardely.
Parce parcus, a beery nygarde.
Parce uti verbis, to speake fewe wordes.
Parco, peperci, and parsi, cere, to spare, to forgeue or pardon, to let or prohibite, to leaue, for beare or absteyne, to shewe fauour.
Parcere precio, to spare cost.
Sumptui ne parcas, spare for no coste.
Parcere valetudini, to take hede to thine helth.
Parcere voci, not to speake louds.
Parcitur, impersonale.
Neque parcetur labori, they will stike for no labour. Parcere metu, to put away feare.
Parcere gladio, to absteyne from murder.
Parce metu, be not so much afrayde.
Aliquantulum tibi parce, spare or fauours your selfe somewhat.
Lamentis parcere, to leaue wepyng or wailing.
Parcite oues nimium procedere, Let not the shepe go to farre, or keepe in the shepe that they go not to farre.
Parcite credere, doo you not beloue hym.
Nihil promittere parcunt, they spare for no promesse.
Vt a cædibus & incendijs parceretur, That they woulde absteyne from murder and fyre.
Supplicibus parcere, to shewe fauour to them that make humble intercession.
Parcere and perdere, contrary.
Parcere & Spoliare, contrary.
Auxilio alicuius parcere, not to ble ones help.
Pacitas, atis, for. g. frugalitee or moderation in sparyng, sparyng, saupng.
Pacitas animaduersionum, seldom punishes
ment of chastysinge.
Parcus, i, m. g. a nygarde, an hepye.
Parcus, a, um, nygh or nigarde, scarce in expensces, sparyng, saupnge. Sometyms it signifieth seldom.
Parcus comitatu, he that hath a small traine.
Parcus opera, an easy workeman, he that is Ecc iij

PARCERE
to spare

more ydell than occupied.
 Parca parcus, he that executeth but litte punishment.
 Parcissimus honorum, he that passeth not for honour and promotion.
 Parcissimus æstimator beneficiorum suorum, one that doth litte esteeme the benefices that he doeth a man.
 Pardalianches, the venemous herbe called Aconitum, also a certayne kynde of popson.
 Pardalios, li, m. g. a prierous stone.
 Pardalium, li, n. g. a certayne oymment, sauours eyng lyke a panther.
 Pardalus, i, m. g. a birde of dunne colour, whiche flieth in flockes. I iudge our plouer to be a kynde of them.
 Pardus, i, m. g. a lybarde.
 Pardalis, the female.
 Paræbasis, f. g. excursion, or handling of a matter that pertaineth not to the purpose.
 Paræctatus, i, m. g. he that is newly issued out of his childe's pæres, and beginneth to haue the tokens of a man.
 Parectonia, the mother of Plato, the most noble philosopher.
 Parcelcon, the makynge longe of a woorde by the adding of a syllable, or by adding of a woode in a sentence, whiche semeth to be superfluous.
 Parencephalis, the hinder parte of the brayne called cerebellum.
 Parens, entis, com. ge. a father, mother, or any other auncestor. Sometime it is used for him that taketh much care for an others welthe and defendeth it.
 Fieri parentem, to haue a childe boyne.
 Magna parens, the earth.
 Frugum parens, idem.
 Parens cunctorum terra, the earth nourisheth or byngeth forth all thynges.
 Lyra parens, Mercurius.
 Parens, entis, om. g. of Parco, obedient.
 Parentalia, orum, n. g. feastes made at the buryng of auncestours.
 Parentalis, le, of or pertainyng to auncestours.
 Parentela, æ, f. g. auncestrie.
 Parenthesis, sis, or seos, f. g. a sentence comprehended within an other sentence, without any detriment therunto, beyng marked with one halfe circle at the begynnyng, and an other at the ende, in this wise.
 Nihil adeo principem decet (quod omnes quidem fatentur) quantum iustitia, prudentia atque liberalitati æqualiter coniuncta, no thyng so well becometh a pince (whiche all men doo confesse) as iustice equally togged with wysedome and bounteousnesse.
 Parenticida, æ, m. gen. he that murdereth his father or mother.
 Parento, aui, are, to celebrate the funeralles of auncestours or frendes, to kepe diuiges.
 Parentor, aris, ari, idem quod Parento.

Parco, rui, ere, to appere to bestene, to obey.
 Eius parium sententia non est, they did not accordyng to his sentence and iudgement.
 Dicto parere, to be obedient, to doo that one is commaunded.
 Promissis parere, To fulfill that one hath promysed.
 Parei oppidum illud regi, that towne is vnder subiection of the kynge.
 Parere cupiditatibus, to folow his wanton appetites.
 Paretur, the impersonall.
 Patergum, i, n. g. some thyng added to, beyng nothinge of the matter, as when a printer dooth make an ymage, he addeth to trees of townes.
 Paterga horologiorum, thynges made in dyalles for the oymment and settinge forth of them.
 Parefis, sis, for, g. weakenyng or decayng of the strength of the body or mynde.
 Parethonium, nij, n. g. a white colour that painters doo lay it is founde in Egypte.
 Paribit, for pariet, the wall byng for the a childe.
 Parici, iudges assigned for capitall causes, as murder or felonie that requirith death.
 Paricida, æ, com. gen. he that hath slayne father or mother, also a murdurer that hath slayne any man.
 Paricidalis, le, belongyng to murder of parentes, also cruell.
 Paricidium, ij, n. gen. murder of parentes, kinmen or countrey men, woorkyng of myshiefe, and destruction of his countrey.
 Paricidiose, lyke a wicked murderer, that hath slayne his parentes.
 Parienna, a towne in Germany called Frydelz.
 Parietis, rietis, m. g. a wall of an house.
 Parieti loqueris, thou speakest to the walle, which may be saied of him, which will not esteemes reuerse that whiche he heareth spoken.
 Parietis integerinus, a wall standyng betweene two neighbours.
 Parietis cratius, a wal made hurdle wise, with rodde or other thynges ouerthwart.
 Parietaria, an herbe called pelitorie of the wall.
 Parietina, parietina, f. g. an olde wall halfe broken downe.
 Patilia, orum, n. g. plur. festiuall daies, whiche the Romaynes kept, for preseruacion of theyr cattall.
 Parilis, le, equall.
 Parilitas, atis, f. g. equalite, similitude in quantity or qualitee.
 Pario, peperit, partum, & paritum parere, To byng forth the childe, the lyke thyng in beastes, to whelp, to farrowe, to hatche, to lay as an henne laith egges, to calue, &c. Sometime to byng forth generally, to gette, to purchase, to byde.
 Parere sibi gratiam apud aliquem, To get a man

many canons.
Tibi mille passus peperit moeror, he hath caused the to saye whyles thou moughtest haue eydden of gone a myle.
Parere periculum pedibus, to cause hym selfe by cunnyng away.
Parere verba, to speake wordes not spoken before, to intreat newe wordes.
Terra parit fruges, The earth byngeth forth coyns.
Parere oua, in hennys to laye egges, in fshes to byede spawme.
Parere fastidium, To make one to lothe, or to disdaine, to byede a lothynge or lothsomnes.
Parientur voluptates pecunia, pleasures are purchased or procured with money.
Parere odium, to purchase hatred.
Immodica seneritas parit terrorem, Ouer muche rygour byedeth feare.
Canis peperit catulos, The bytche hath wheelped.
Paretorium, a citee in Egypte, with a great haven.
Parion, a citee in Thelapont.
Parippi, dogges among the Atheniens as twiste as hostes.
Paris, idis, the sonne of Hyamus king of Trois ans, whose hystorie is so commonlye knowen, that I neede not to wryte it.
Parrhasius (an excellent peincter) contended with Zeufis in cunnyng: Zeufis brought forth a table, wherein he had so craftilye peincted grapes, that bydes flew to them, & pithed on them. Parrhasius byonght forth an other table, wherein was peincted onely a sheete, so finelye wrought, that all men iudged it to bee a veraye sheete. Tha Zeufis required him to take awaie the sheete, and shewe forth his worke. wherat Parrhasius laughed and iested at Zeufis meryly. Than Zeufis perceyving it, acknowlaged his errour, and graunted the victorie vnto Parrhasius, sayng, Yesterdaie I deceiued bydes, but to day thou haste deceiued me byng a craftes man.
Pariter, together, likewyse, equally, semblably.
Gnatum pariter his vti decuit, It was mete that my sonne shoulde haue as muche parte of these thynges as I.
Pariter cum omni animante nascitur, It is geuen euery lyvinge thyng of nature in his bytche. or it is naturally in euery lyving creature.
Crescunt pariter cum Luna, they encrease together with the moone, or they encrease as the moone dweth.
Vt pariter disperiantur bona parentis, That their fathers gooddes myght bee diuided equallye. Or that the one myghte haue as muche of the fathers gooddes as the other.
Trucidat foeminas pariter ac viros, they slea as well women as men.

Pariter patribus ac plebi gratus, acceptable as well to the fathers as to the people.
Reliquit filium pariter moratum vt pater, he lefte a sonne that had the condicions of his father, or that was in maners lyke his father.
Mecum pariter moleste ferunt Siculi, the Sicilians be displeased with it as well as I.
Parichimia, be heruels in the innermost partes of the eares of the tongue, called also Tonfillar.
Parito, aui, are, to prepare often, the frequentation of Paro.
Paritura, a, for. g. byngng forth.
Parium, a citee in Asia in the countrey of Mysia.
Parus, a, um, of the ple Parus, from whence is brought marble stone called Parium marmor.
Parus lapis, a touche stone.
Parma, a citee in Italy.
Parma, a, for. g. a littell rounde teryate, which some men byd vse.
Parmatus, a, um, that weareth such a teryate or buckelar.
Parmenides, a philosophy, the discipule of Thagorazas.
Parmenio, one of Alexanders capitaines.
Parmeno, a mans name in Terence.
Parmenses, the inhabitants of Parma in Italy.
Parmiron, the herbe Sideritis.
Parmula, a, for. g. a buckelar, a diminutiue of Parma.
Parmularius, ij, m. ge, he that maketh a buckelar, or he that useth a bucklar.
Parnacides, dis, for. ge, apparayle belonging to maydens, a pett rote or light raiment belonging to wenches.
Parnasides, the nine muses or ladies of sciences.
Parnasius, a, um, of Parnasus.
Parnasus, or Parnassus, a mountayne in Grece, haung two toppes, vnder the whiche the 9 muses byd inhabite or dwell.
Parnes, nethis, m, g, or, f, g, an hyll in the countreis of Athens.
Parnopes, locustes.
Parnus, one that for a boate, whiche he had losse, curs euery body that he mette, wherof rose this prouerbe.
Disceptare ob Parni scaphulam, To make greate sute and busynesse for matters of small value.
Paro, aui, are, to prepare, to geat, to purchase, to procure, to bye, to apparayle, to make redy, to byesse, to aray.
Parare fortunas magnas, to geat great substaunce and rychesse.
Cupio aliquos parare amicos, I wolde sayne make, geat, or purchase some frendes.
Bellum parare alicui, or Contra aliquem, to make prouision and prepare for warre againste one.
Parare prandium, To prouyde or make ready a dyner.
Parare exitium alteri, to procure or purchase ones ones death or destruction.

 Fugam parare, to bee aboute to flee or renne awaye.
 Parare necessitatem, to purchase friends or acquaintance.
 Se ad aliquid parare, to addresse, facion, or dispose hym selfe to a thyng.
 Hic ego non paro me ut rideant, amonge suche men I doo not so order or facion my selfe to make them to laugh at me.
 Itane parasti te? Haste thou so behaved or ordered thy selfe?
 Alios ym parantes occidit, Other whiche are deuoured to defend them selues with stronge hande, he slewe.
 Parare iter in Macedoniam, To prepare hym selfe to go into Macedonie.
 Paro, onis, m. g. a littell myppe or brigantine.
 Paroculi, orum, they that haue lyke eyes.
 Parochus, chi, m. g. an officer that provided for wood and salte for ambassadours, also it is nowe used for a priefte, which is a custode or paryshe priefte.
 Parodus, a passage. De parodontibus, vide Celsum. lib. 6. ca. 13.
 Paracia, æ, f. g. a paryshe.
 Paracmia, æ, f. ge. a prouerbe accomodate to the matter and tyme.
 Paracus, i, m. ge. a parimedner, or one of the same paryshe.
 Paromœon, a figure, where there be dyuers verbes in a sentence almost lyke.
 Paromologia, æ, f. g. a figure in rhetorike, wher we graunt a thyng to our aduersary, and afterwards inferre a matter of greater weight and ymportance.
 Paronomasia, æ, f. g. a figure in speaking, where one woorde is lyke an other, but in dyuers significacions.
 Nam inceptio est amentium haud amantium, This is an enterpryse of mad folkes, and not of louers.
 Paronychia, æ, f. ge. the rottenesse vnder the rootes of the nayles of a man or beast. also the the herbe called Sedum maius.
 Paropanifadæ, people of Asia by the hylle Paropanifus.
 Paropanifus, a mountayne ioyngynge to Indie, and the countrey called Bactra. It is also the name of a great ryuer, that renneth thorough Scythia, not farre from the north ocean, and some dooe name it the head sea, or frozen sea.
 Paropsis, ropfidis, f. g. a dyke, a potynger, a postage dyke.
 Parra, æ, f. g. an vn lucky hynde.
 Paros, otis, an yle in the sea called Egeum.
 Parosis, rotidis, f. g. an impostume behynde the eare, whiche cometh of a matter distilling from the head into the burres or hernelles of the eares, ingendred of an inflamacion of the bodye and bloude.

Paroxismus, mi, m. g. the fitt of a fauer. It signifieth apyring or stirring vp.
 Parrhasia, a countrey in Greece, called also Tracabla.
 Parrhasius, æ, um, of that countrey.
 Parrhasis, idis, a wooman of Parrhasia. Callisto was so named.
 Parrhasius, loke before after Paris.
 Parricida, loke Parricida.
 Parricidium, loke Parricidium.
 Pars, artis, f. g. a parte, a porcion, a partie of syde in contention, a faction. also a charge, of a sic duete.
 Partes facere, to diuide in porcions.
 Partes primas agere, to bee the chiefe personage properly in an enterlude.
 In parte aliqua habere apud aliquem, to be in some fauour, or to be an hanger on in one parte or other with a man.
 Priores partes habere apud aliquem, to be in more credence or fauour with one, to haue the preeminence with one.
 Priores partes tribuere alicui, To geue one the most praise, or prayse hym moste.
 Partes alicuius agere, to dooe an other mans office, or to doo that an other shoulde doo, or to playe the parte that an other shoulde or hath played.
 Partes meæ sunt, it is myne office or charge, it is my parte.
 Partes defendas tuas, defende thine owne matter or cause.
 Non sunt meæ partes id facere, It belongeth not to me to doo it, or it is not for me to doo it.
 Pars bona, the more parte.
 Magna ex parte, for the more parte, almost all together.
 Ex parte, partly.
 In parte, idem.
 In omnes partes, wholly. also in what maner so euer it bee.
 In optimam partem accipere, to take a thyng in woorth or in good parte.
 Pars, for Partim, partly.
 Milites pars victoriæ fiducia, pars ignominie dolore, ad omnem lætitiâ audaciamque, processerunt, The men of warre, partly vpon trust of victorie, partly for sorow of the reproche that they had taken, became at the laste to be full of courage and mercy.
 Pars, is of Plautus taken for the wyfe.
 Satur, de me loquitur, & de parte mea, Now that his bealy is full, he talketh of me and my wyfe.
 Partes primæ, the chiefe parte.
 Vtinam esset mihi pars aqua amoris tecum, woulde god thy loue and myne were lyke.
 De parte Boræ, from the north.
 Parte vtraque audire, both the partes beeyng heard.
 In his partibus, in these quarters.

Parte,

Parte, sometyme for Partim, Plus media parte, more than halfe.
Minorem in parte interpretari, to interpret or take a thyng partly.
Pro virili parte, as muche as I can, with al my power.
Pro sua quisque parte, every man for his part,
 or every man as muche as in him dyd lie; or es-very man according to his power.
Duras fratris partes predicat, my brother is in harde case by thy sayng.
Mere partes non desiderabatur, I wyl not sayle to doe myne office or dutie of the beste that I can doe, or you shall have no cause to fynde fault with me.
Nec in alia parte terrarum, Neyther in any of ther parte of coaste of the woylde.
Resina damnatur ex his partibus, The rosyne of gumme that cometh out of those partes, is not allowed.
Ab his qui Romanæ partis erant, of them that were of the Romanes parte.
Nullius philosophiæ partis ignarus, there is no parte of philosophie that he is not skilled in,
 or he is ignorant in no parte of philosophie.
Trahere aliquem in partes, to geat one to take parte with hym.
Parfimonia, α, f. g. moderate expence, sparyng,
 sayng.
¶ Særa parsimonia in fundo, It is to late to spare when the barrell is at the bottome.
Sine parsimonia, largely, freely.
Parthaon, onis, father of Oeneus kynge of Be-otia.
Parthenis, the herbe Artemisia.
Parthenia, virginitie.
Parthenium, ij, n. g. an herbe, which by Dioscorides description, hath litle leaves lyke to Coriander, a floure with whyte leaves, and is in the myddell somewhat belowe, haung a great and yll sauour. also he geueth the same name to the herbe called Helxine, which is Perystope of the wal. The spise is of some apothecaries called Matricaria. Ruellius reppoueth theym that suppose Parthenium to be the herbe called Corula foetida, which is rather Buphathalmos. For Corula hath leaves lyke to fesnell, and so hath Buphthalmos, and not lyke to Coriander. Some affirme, that one kynde of Parthenium is feuerfue, called Matricaria, the seconde is ransy, the thirde camomell, the fourthe Corula foetida, the fyfte Buphthal-mos, that is to saye ore eye, which is lyke to Corula, and stinketh not: The sixte Mercur-rie, the seuenth Peritozie, the eyght Mothers wozte. Some put Maiorani for one kynde, but commonly it is receiued, that perthenium is fe-uerfue. albeit Fuchsius, and other, semeth to take it for stinkyng maydewede, or stinkyng mathes.
Parthenius, a ryuer in Pontus and Bithynia.

also the name of a poete.
Parthenius, a, um, of Parthenius.
Parthenope, the olde name of the citee of Naples.
 Also one of the meercmaydes, which drowned them selues, because they coulde not allure thirs.
Parthenopeus, a, um, of Parthenope.
Parthenopæus, a kyng of Stradie, the sonne of Mars and Penelippa, which was slayne at the siege of Troie.
Parthia, a countreie in Asia, which hath on the south the redde sea, on the north, the sea called Hircanū, on the east the people called Arii, on the west the realme called Media.
Parthi, people of that countrey.
Parthiarj, marchantes that byng thynges out of Parthia.
Parthicus, a, um, of the countrey of Parthia.
Parthini, people of Macedonia.
Parthissus, a ryuer on the north of Germany.
Partiarius, ri, m. g. a partyngs felowe or copers
 tener, a fellow, a partner.
Particeps, ticipis, com. g. he that taketh parte,
 a companion, a complice, a copartioner.
Particeps & experts, contrary.
Coniurationis particeps, one of the conspi-racie.
Illi in periculis particeps, his companion in perilles and dangers.
Facere aliquem participem alicuius rei, to make one partner of a thyng.
Particeps conciliorum, he to whom one hath tolde or reueled his counsailes or purposes.
Particeps hereditatis deripiēda, he that hel-peth one to take a mannes inheritance wrongs fully from hym.
Particeps vitij, vicious.
Meus particeps, my complice, my companion.
Secleris in regem particeps.
Participo, au, are, to geue parte, to take part, to make one partener, or of counsaile.
Participare lucrum, to bee partener of ones
 gaynes or winnyng.
Seruum consilio participare, to tel his mynde or counsaile to his seruant.
Prandio aliquem participare, to make one to dyne with hym.
Particula, α, f. g. a porcion, a parcell.
Facere particulas, to dyuide into smalle paracels.
Particulāris, re, particular.
Particulatim, by partes, by members, particularly.
Particulōnes, co heyres or coparteners, which haue inheritance together.
Partim, partly, in parte, sometyme parte.
Partim hominum venerunt, part of the men
 dyd come.
Partio, ōnis, f. g. a byrth, an olde woozde.
Partior, uis, iri, itum, and Partio, rui, ire, To
 parte,

parte, to diuide.

Paritē, aduerbium, diuided in peces or partes.

Partitio, ōnis, f. g. a partition or diuision.

Partitor, ōris, m. g. he that parteth or diuideth.

Partitudo, for partus, the byrth of a chyld.

Partitus, a, um, parted diuided.

Fœdera partita lecti, when a woman aband doneth his selfe to othere besyde his houthande.

Partor, ōris, m. g. he that hath gotten or obtey ned.

Parturio, parturis, rini, ire, to labour as wo men doo in trauaile of chyld, to trauaile with chyld.

Partus, a, um, gotten with labour, broughte forth to the worlde, bozne.

Partus, us, m. g. the birth of a chyld. Sometyms the chyld selfe.

Ferre partum, to be great.

Reddere partum, to be deliuered.

Adest mulieri partus, the woman is ready to trauaile with chyld, she is ne her time.

Appropinquat partus, idem.

Dare partu, id est parere.

Partus arboris etiam dicitur.

Abigere partum, to kyll the chyld. In the mos thers wombe, with medicines or otherwyse.

Parulis, a swelling in the gummies.

Paruifacio, fœci, facere, to sette littell by.

Paruifacio, idem.

Paruiduco, idem.

Paruipendo, idem.

Paruitas, âtis, f. g. the lyttelnesse.

Parulis, rûlidis, fœ. gen. a pushe or swelling in any parte of the gummies.

Parum, lyttell.

Parum est, it is a small matter.

Parum decorum, not verie comely.

Si parum intellexisti, If thou diddest not pers reue the matter well.

Parum diligenter aliquid facere, to doo a thyng somewhat negligently.

Parum diu, a lyttell whyle.

Parum fœlix, nothyng happy.

Parum consultis, you regarde but littell, or take but littell hede to your profyte.

Parum processit, it went shewdly forward.

Parum est vt in curiam venias, &c. It is no great matter to come into the court, &c.

Parum benefacere, to doo amisse.

Parumper, a littell whyle or tyme. also very littel.
Sometyms quickly, speedly.

Parumper operire me hic, tarpe for me here a lyttell whyle.

Parus, ri, a byrde, called a titmouse, wherof be three kindes, the one called Fringillago, the great titmouse, or the great ore eye: the other surnamed Monticola, the lesse titmouse: the thirde is called a nanne.

Paruulum, aduerbum: Paruulum differt, It is but a small diuersitee, it differeth lyttell or nothyng.

Paruulus, li, m. g. a littell chyld, a littell babe.

Paruulus, a, um, verie littell, small, pyrate.

Pecunia paruula, a small summe of monie.

Tam ob paruulam rem, for so small a matter.

Paruula manus, a small compaigne or bande of
men.

Paruus, a, um, littell or small, of littell price or value.

Parua sunt foris arma, nisi est cōsiliū domi,
Armour is a small matter abroade, yet there be not good counsaile at home.

Parua consuetudo, little or small acquaynt fance.

Hic mihi paruum habet fidem, he doeth halfe mistrust me, he dooeth not well beleue me.

Paruus & angustus locus, a straitte and nar rowe place.

Precio paruo vendere, to sell at a low price.

Quæ eximia videntur, parua ducere, To esteem thynges that seme to other excellent, to be of lyttell value.

Parui æstimo, I passe littell, I care not greatly by for, I littell esteeme or sette by.

Parui pendere, to sette littell by, not to passe byon. Parui refert, it maketh no great matter.

In paruo, for Ferē, almoste.

Paruo breuius quā, hoc est, ferē, vel parū abest quin, there lacked but littell.

Parui odoris res, a thyng that hath but a weake sauour.

Paruissimus, the superlatiue, is bled of Lu cretius.

Parysatis, the daughter of kynge Cyrus.

Pascālis, le, that feedeth here and there abrode.

Pascalis gallina.

Pasca, cæ, f. g. or Pascha, pascatis, n. g. passyng or chyping ouer, the feast of Easter.

Pascālis, le, pertynyng to Easter.

Paschala, gammons of bacon.

Pascēcolus, li, m. gene. a leather bagge: or after some, a littell purse or ryuet within a bagge or great purse.

Pascito, aui, are, to fede often, to go to pasture.

Pasco, paui, pascere, to feede, to eate, neutrally, propely in beastes, to go to pasture. also to hepe at pasture. also to geue meate to an other, to nouryshe, to byng by, to augmente: by transla tion, to delite, to please.

Pascere oculos, to contente or please the eyes with the beholdyng of a thyng, to delyte the eyes. In priuato pascere, to gos or fede in se uerall grounde.

Pascere sues, to kepe or feede swyne.

Pascitur herba equus, the horse is fedde with grasse. Pascere animum, to delyte the mynde.

Ego hic pascor bibliotheca Fausti, I am here delited, and as it were fedde and nourys hed with Faustus libary.

Non olusculis nos soles pascere, ye were not mont to feede vs with herbes.

Discordiis ciuium pasci, To be delited with the

the debate and discourse of his countreie men.
Pascor, pascoria, pascus, um, pasci, to feede as beastes doo. Sometime to increase.
Pascuum, cui, n. g. pascua, orum, n. g.
 a pasture or place, where beastes feede.
Pascuus, a, um, that groweth to feede cattell.
Pascuus ager, a pasture, or a fildes, to feede beastes in.
Pasites, a swaddlers name.
Pasiphaë, es, or Pasiphaa, es, the wyfe of Qris nos hynde of Crete, who haunged compagne with a bulle, brought forth the monster called Minotaurus, whiche was halfe a man, and halfe a bulle.
Pasiphaëus, a, um, of Pasiphaë.
Pasicheles, a famous grauer bozne in Grece.
Pasichea, one of the graces.
Pasirhoa, a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus and Cetys.
Paspale, idem quod Milium.
Passarina, the herbe Leucosia.
Passer, pascis, m. g. fig. a sparow. also a fythe called a playce, or after some a sole.
Passerculus, li, m. g. a littell sparowe.
Passernices, a kynde of stones founde in Italy.
Pasilli, a littell grape called warches or fitchies.
Passim, here and there. Sometime it signifieth from to all places. Sometime indifferently. also ouer all.
 Sometime for Quomodolibet, every man as he listeth.
Passim & ordinatim, contrary.
Creditur ei passim, every man beleueth him,
 or he is beleued in every place.
Pasio, a passion, greefe.
Pasimus, a, um, that whiche signifieth passion or causeth passion or greefe.
Pasui amatores, they which do loue all women indifferently.
Passum, si, ne. g. a wyne made of grapes muche withered in the sunne. it is also a licour made with great reasons steeped longe in very good wyne vntill they swell, and than to be brused, and the licour pressed oute and sometime they put thereto some water, and than is it called Secundarium.
Passus, a, um, of pando, spread abrode, or open.
Capillus passus, his heare discheueled about his eares.
Pasis manibus, with his handes open, or holdyng vp his handes, as a man dooeth in bees frechynge.
Racemi pasci, pressed grapes, reasons.
Passus, a, um, of pator, that hath suffered.
Vux passus, grapes.
Passus, us, m. g. a pace, whiche dooeth contayne fure foote.
Mille passus, a myle.
Pastillum, li, n. g. a kynde of round cakes bled in sacrifice.
Pastillus, li, m. g. a round piece of dough, or any other thyng lyke a lofe.

Pastilli medicinales, pyllies.
Pastilli odoratorii, pomaunder balles, swete washing balles, muske balles.
Pastillico, ui, are, to make pyllies or lytle round balles, or to minister pyllies.
Pastinaca, er, for. g. an herbe called carrettes,
 also a fythe.
Pastinatio, onis, f. g. deluyng or dyspyng the
 grounde.
Pastinator, oris, m. g. a delurer.
Pastinatum, ti, n. g. a place that is delured.
Pastinatus, us, m. g. deluyng.
Pastino, ui, are, to delure in a gardryne.
Pastinum, ni, n. g. a dybble or scetpyng spyke, or Pastinū instigare, to delure or dyspye a ground to sette of plants in.
Pastio, onis, for. g. pastuepyng or feeding of cattell,
 or the pasture for cattell.
Pastomis, pastomidis, f. g. an instrument, whiche is sette on the nosespyles of horses, that they will not be ruled, called barnacles.
Pastophori, certayne pyestres in Egypt, perreynyng to Isis.
Pastophorium, ri, neu. g. the chawmber of the sceten, or hym, whiche keepeth the temple, after some the bryde chawmber: and therefore Venus is called Pastophoros.
Pastor, oris, m. g. a shepherde or heardman, or a pasture.
Pastoralis, le, perteynyng to the shepherde or herde man.
Pastorea bursa, an herbe, called sheperdes pouch,
 or sheperdes scrip.
Pastorius, a, um, and Pastoricus, a, um, idem, Pastoritiam vitam agere, to be a shepherde, to leade a sheperdes lyfe.
Pastus, a, um, that hath eaten, fedde, nourished,
 also that hath ben eaten.
Pastus, us, m. g. meate, feeding, pasture, pasturyng or feeding of beastes.
Homines, quibus in pastu est, men whych eate it.
Patabelcon, the herbe Leontopetalon.
Patagiata, idem quod Patagium.
Patagium, gi, neu. g. a clothe of clothe of golde, used to bee worne on ryche garmentes.
Patagiati, they whiche doo weare ryche clothes.
Patagiarii, the craftes men that make such clothes.
Patara, a citee in the countreie of Lycia, where Apollo was chiefly honoured.
Patauium, a citee in Italy called Padua, nyghe vnto Venice, also a citee in Bithynia, called nowe Bolmen.
Patauini, men of the citee of Pauis.
Patauinas, the propheete of the language of them that dwell at Pauis.
Patefacio, tefacis, feci, facere, to make open, to declare, to disclose, to discouer, to reuele.
Patefacere fenestram, viam, aditum, iter, ianuam, &c. to open a waie, to make a gappe or wyndow, to geue an occasion of any thyng.
Patefas

Patefacere viam hostibus, to leat they enne-mies haue passage.
Patefacere aures assentatoribus, to geue eare to flatterers.
Patefacere odium suum in aliquem, to shewe and utter his malice and hatred agaynst one.
Patefaciendum mihi esse arbitror, I thynke that I muste declare or reuele.
Patefactio, ōnis, f. g. an opening, a declaring,
a reuelling.
Patefactus, a, um, opened, declared, reueled, made manifest.
Patefio, fieri, to bee disclosed or discovered, to bee opened.
Patella, ſe, form. ge. a littell panne or a shillet, or rather a pottynge or dyshe, as it appereth by Sapientia, and the places that the reciteth. It is also a faute in trees, that cometh of burning of the sunne called also Clauus, and Fungus.
It is also a littell vessel vbled in sacrifice.
Dignum patella operculum, like master tyke man; thynges are well matched.
Patellarius, a, um, belongynge to a pottynge.
Patena, loke Parina.
Pateo, tui, tere, to be open, to be manifest, apparant, or euident, to be discovered, to be-fy to come to, to be in daungier, or subiect to daungier.
Patet locus tria stadia, the place to foure foor-longes in breadthe or lengthe.
Patent omnibus ad visendum, euery man
maie see theim.
Acutis morbis adolescentia magis patet, youth is moze subiecte to sharpe or dangerous syckneses.
Postulo, vt tua domus mihi pateat semper,
I require that your house maye bee open for me at all tymes.
Huc tibi aditus patere non potest, you can not haue entraunce hither, and by translation you can not attayne to the vnderstandynge of
these thynges.
Patere & obstrui, contrary.
Patere & in promptu esse.
Patent aures tuæ quarrelis omnium, ye are ready to here euery mans complaynt.
Vt mihi tui libri pateat, that I may come vnto your booke, or haue accesse into your library.
His honoribus excludi, quæ seruis pateant, to be kepte from those promotions and dignitees, that be often geuen to seruauntes.
Late patet, it serueth for many thynges, or it
maye be vbled in many thynges.
Fugæ non patebat locus, they coulde not flee any wayes, or they had no place to escape.
Omnia mea tibi patet, id est, sunt in tua postestate, Al that I haue is in your handes, or at your commaundemēt, to vse as ye will your selfe.
Mille passuum in longitudine patere, to be a myle longe.
Patent præstigia, your disceytes or wyles bee disclosed and euident.

Patens, entis, ōm, g. open, in daungier.
Patens vulnere, in daungier to be hurt.
Campi patentes, open feltes.
Longe latet patens locus, wylde both longe and wyde, a large place.
Patentissimi oris dolium, a tunne with a bestate hyde mouth.
Patens vulnere equus, an horse that is in danger to be wounded.
Patientiore viâ, by a moze open waye.
Patienter, openly, playnly, largely.
Pater, vis, ſe, gen. a father or auncelone. Unde
ber this name is conteyned Adus, Jabautis, proauus, & arauus.
Patres, in pories is sometime taken for the fath-res or great men of a cite.
Paterpatrius, was he, to whom it pertaineth, whan truce shoulde be taken, to receyue the offers and appoyntment of bothe partes, and was therein chief and principall ambassadour.
Pater patrius, he that is a father, and hath his fatherlyng.
Gradivus pater, Mars.
Patres conscripti, the senators.
Patres aucti, senators for netherlitter, chosen out of the order of gentylmen.
Patens, ſe, form. gen. a hyde ptece or bolle of golde or syluer.
Paterfamilias, as, or x, in genit. the good man of the house.
Paternus, a, um, pertainynge to a father.
Paterniana, a towne of Spayne, called commonly Pastrina.
Patesco, secere, to be open. also to be opened.
Pathos, trouble or vexation of mynde, affliction, passion.
Pathetica oratio, an oration, mouynge the heare to indignation or pite.
Paribilis, ſe, that maye be suffered.
Paribulus, li, of some olde wyters was vbled for a bedde.
Patibulum, li, n. gen. a woddyn Locke of a doze, or a barre, wherewith the doze is made fast. als so a place of tourment, a gybber, galowes, or crosse. also a certayne instrument that they vble in gatherynge grapes.
Patiens, entis, that can suffer, abyde, or endure.
Patiens laboris, that can abyde trauayle and peines. Nulli patiensius reprehenduntur, quam
qui. &c. None suffer moze patiently to bee rebuked or tolde their faute, than they whiche. &c.
Patiens nauium Tyberis, Tyber may beare shyppes.
Patiens operum, he that can indure to labour.
Patiens verustatis, that whiche endureth long.
Patienter, patiently, measurably, moderately.
Patienter amare, to loue moderately, and with measure.
Patientia, ſe, f. g. patience, constançe in abydyng or indurynge aduersitee or labour.

Patientiam præstare, to suffer and leat passe.
 Rumpere patientiam, to breake patience, to breake out in an anger.
 Patillum, li, n. gen. a payre of tongues or other like instrument, wherewith toles are taken up.
 Patina, nre, fer. gen. a basen to washe in, a dysh, wherin meate is caried, a vessell of pãne, whers in they dyd bothe seethe meate, and brynge it to the table.
 Iamdudum animus est in patinis, my mynde
 is on my dyner, and hath been a good whyle.
 Patinarium, meate whiche is stewed vppon a chaffing dysh.
 Patinarius, rñ, m. g. a glutton, one that deliteth to fill the bealy, or that myndeth nothyng but eatyng and drynkynge.
 Patinarius, a, um, that is hepte betweene twoo
 dyshes, or in a dysh.
 Patior, pateris, pati, to suffre, to endure, to su-steyne, to abyde, to forbeare.
 Pati a viti, to susteyn hunger, to lye poorly.
 Pati agra, to be yll content.
 Pati a quo animo, to be well content.
 Pati fortiter, to suffre patiently or valiantly.
 Pati iniquo animo, to be angry for a thyng.
 Indigne pati, to be discontent.
 Pati facile, not to bee discontent, to be verie well content.
 Patior non moleste, I am not discontent.
 Nullum patior esse diem, quin in foro dica,
 I dooe leat no date passe, but that I pleade
 some matter.
 Pati æuum, to endure well.
 Grauius accusas, quam patitur tua consuetudo, ye doo accuse moze greuouely than ye be wonte, or than your custome is.
 Nec vlla segetum minus dilatione patitur,
 There is no cozne that ryppeth moze hastyly, or woulde moze sower be reaped.
 Pati febrem, to haue the feuer.
 Pati iacturas, to haue had losses.
 Pati impedimentum, to be lette.
 Pati imperium, to be vnder subiection.
 Pati supplicium, to be put to death.
 Pati solitudinē pro aliquo, to take thought for one.
 Pati poterunt oculi me cum Gabinio senten-tiam dicere, Maie I endure to sytte with Gasbinus in iudgement.
 Patimur & silemus, we suffre or forbeare, and saye nothyng.
 Ne istuc tam iniquo patiare animo, take not this so vnkynedly.
 Pati non possum, I can not abyde it.
 Non possum pati, quin tibi demulceam caput, I can not forbeare, but that I must nedes stroke thy head.
 Abortum pati, to traunyle before the tyme.
 Concubitus pati, forminarum est.
 Consuetudo patitur, the custome or facion is.
 Quo ad patietur dignitas, as farre as you

maye with your honour.
 Dilationem res non patitur, the matter can abide no delaye.
 Falcem pari dicuntur semina, to bee reaped or mowed at one and the same tyme.
 Exilium pati, to be banished.
 Famem pati, to susteyne hunger.
 Necem indignam pati, to bee cruelly putte to death.
 Pati repulsam, to bee put backe in a suite or res-quest, not to obteyne.
 Pati aliquem esse desertum, to forsake one.
 Patiror, suffre thou.
 Patizites, a Persian, whiche made his brother Smerdes kynge of Persia, after the death of Cambyses.
 Pator, oris, m. g. an openyng or gappyng.
 Patra, trarum, a citee in Achaia.
 Patrator, oris, m. g. he that doeth a thyng.
 Patratu, a, um, done, committed, accomplished, brought to passe, atchined.
 Patria, æ, fer. g. ones countrey, a citee or towne where one was bozne. Sometyme the countrey or region, but vnpropely.
 Patrianus, a, um, of the citee Patra.
 Patriarcha, chæ, m. gene. a prince or chiefe man of the fathers. It was also the name of dignitee of fise chiefe Archebischoppes, as of Rome, Antioche, Alexandrie, Hierusalem, and Constantinople.
 Patriarchatus, the dignitee of a Patriarche.
 Patriciatus, a, um, the state or dignitee of Sen-natours, or of them that descended of Sen-natours.
 Patricida, æ, m. g. he that killeth his father.
 Patricidium, dij, n. ge. the murder of a mannes
 father.
 Patrice, nobly, or lyke a noble man.
 Patricius, ch, m. ge. a senatours sonne, or comen of Senatours.
 Patricij Francie, the twelue peeres of France.
 Exire e patriciis, To be made one of the comminaltee.
 Patricius, a, um, belongyng to the state of Sen-natours, or them that be descended of the Sen-natours.
 Patrimonialis, of or belongyng to heritage.
 Patrimonium, nij, n. ge. gooddes comen by ins
 heritaunce, patrimonie.
 Patrimonium dissipare, effundere, exhaus-re, to consume and spende awaie riottously all that his father lefte hym.
 Patrimus, or Patrima, he or she that hath his father lyuynge.
 Patrimus, a, um, of the father, or pertynyng to the father.
 Patritus, a, um, that which hapneth to one by his father, that is of or belongyng to a father.
 Patria philosophia, that he hath of his father.
 Patrius, a, um, of ones countrey.
 Mos patrius, the custome of the countrey.

Instituta patria, the ordinance of his countrey.
 Sermo patrius, his countrey speache.
 Patrius, a, um, of the countrey: also of oꝝ pꝛe-tynning to a father.
 Patria abligurierat bona, he had spent all his fathers goodes in makynge good there.
 Hoc patrium est, this is the poyncte oꝝ office of a father, this is a fathers parte.
 Patrissio, aui, are, to be like his father in maners,
 to be his fathers owne chyld.
 Patro, aui, are, proprie dare operam liberis, als
 so to dwe, to committe, to pꝛefourme, to accom-plyshe, to attchieue, to bynge to an ende.
 Patrare facinus, to committe amiskheuous dede.
 Promissa patrare, to pꝛefourme his pꝛomises.
 Patratis consiliis, whan they had taken counsaile oꝝ aduise: Oꝝ whan they hadde bꝛought their purposes to passe.
 Necem patrare, to committe a murder.
 Victoriā patrare, to attchieue a great victorie.
 Potest bellum patrari, id est, debellari, The warre maie be attchieued oꝝ bꝛought to an ende.
 Pacem patrare, to make peace.
 Operibus patratis, whan they haue done, at-chened, oꝝ made an ende of theꝝ woꝛke.
 Patrare expugnationem, to wyne by assaut.
 Patrocinator, aris, ari, to defende theim, whiche be pꝛoye, oꝝ be falsely accused, to suppoꝛte, to beare
 out.
 Ut sceleroso patrocina-retur, that he mighte
 suppoꝛte and beare out a naughtie felowe.
 Patrocinium, nij, n. g. the defence of men beyng in trouble and suite, suppoꝛtacion, bearing out, mayntenaunce, atturmentshyp.
 Plurimorum patrocinijs defenditur, manye men speake in the defence of it.
 Suscipere patrociniū alicuius, to take vpon him to defende oꝝ mainteine one.
 Patroclides, a mannes name.
 Patroclus, a noble man of the greekes, companion to Achilles.
 Patronus, nij, m. g. he that is aduocate on the defendauntes parte, an attourney, a spokelman, he that defendeth one in trouble and perill.
 Sometyme he that manumisseth oꝝ maketh free
 a seruant oꝝ bondeman.
 Te mihi patronum cupio, I woulde sayne
 haue you to defende and helpe me.
 Patronus and Clien, contrarpe.
 Patrōna, x, f. g. the femine of Patronus.
 Patronymicum nomē, a name taken of an auncestour: as Priamides the childe of Priamus.
 Patruelis, lis, com. g. a coulyn germaine, oꝝ right coulyn on the fathers syde, a bꝛothers sonne oꝝ chyld.
 Patruelis, le, of oꝝ belonging to coulyn germans.
 Patruus, trui, m. g. the fathers bꝛother, an vn-cle by the fathers syde.
 Patruus magnus, my fathers vnkle.
 Patruus maximus, my grandfatheres vnkle.
 Patruus, a, um, belongyng to an vnkle.

Patragia, a ryuer in Sicile.
 Patulcius, the name of Janus, because that in the tyme of warre the doores of his temple stode open.
 Patulico, aui, are, to be opened.
 Patulus, a, um, wyde open, that is alway open, bꝛode, large.
 Patulus bos, an oxe oꝝ a cowe, whose hoꝛnes doo stonde wyde open.
 Patula arbor, a bꝛode tree that hath a great compasse.
 Campi patuli, bꝛode and wyde fieldes.
 Paua, x, f. g. a pꝛygh henne.
 Paucies, selbome, fewe tymes, rare.
 Pauciloquium, quij, neu. gen. littell talke, fewe woꝛdes.
 Paucis, in fewe woꝛdes.
 Paucitas, ātis, f. g. fewenesse, fewe in nombꝛe.
 Pauculus, a, um, verie fewe.
 Paucus, a, um, fewe.
 Ausculta paucis, harken a woꝛde oꝝ two.
 Paucis diebus, within fewe daies.
 Impaucis diebus, quā. &c. within fewe daies
 after, that, &c.
 Paucis interpositis diebus, after two oꝝ thꝛe daies. Pauci, was vsed of olde wyters for Boni: and Multi, for Mali.
 Conferre in pauca, to tell in fewe woꝛdes.
 Paucissimus, the superlatiue.
 Pauendus, a, um, dreadfull, terrible, to be feared.
 Pauensio, sis, fieri, to be made asfearde.
 Pauens, tis, om. g. that feareth for a tyme, fearyng, dꝛeadyng.
 Pauco, pau, uere, to feare, to bee troubled in spirite.
 Ne pauce, be not asfearde.
 Nimis pauebam, ne peccaret, I was in a gret feare, oꝝ I feared soꝛe, lest he woulde offende oꝝ do amysse.
 Pauera, rē, f. g. wheate, whiche spryngeth not well out of the hōse, whan it groweth in care.
 Pauesco, scere, to be asfearde.
 Paucula, lē, f. g. a paupng beetill, wherewith stones be dꝛiuen into the grounde, in the makyng of a pauement: oꝝ an instrument, wherwith the floꝛe of a barne oꝝ other place, is made euen and playne.
 Pavidus, a, um, that alway feareth, fearfull, ty-morous.
 Metus pavidus, feare that maketh one tymor-rous.
 Pauide, fearefully, timorously.
 Pauimento, aui, are, to make a pauemente oꝝ a floꝛe.
 Pauimentum, ti, n. g. a pauemente, a place paued, a floꝛe.
 Pauimenta pꝛnica, floꝛes pꝛaued with marble of Numidia.
 Pauio, pauui, uire, to strike, to beate.
 Pauto, aui, are, to be soꝛe asfearde, to be soꝛe troubled in body and mynde.

Paula

Paulatim, littell end littell, by litle.
 Paulisper, a veray littell while.
 Paulisper mane, tary a littell while.
 Paulo, a litle.
 Paulo ante, a littell before, also for Dudum, or Nuperrime, of late.
 Paulo ante vidimus, it is not longe sene we sawe it.
 Paulo magis affabre, somewhat cunnyngely thought, moze artificially made, than the common sorte of thynges be.
 Tardior paulo, somewhat to slowe.
 Paulo post for paulo minus.
 Paulo post eum numerum, somewhat fewer,
 not all thyng so many.
 Paulo magis, for nimium: as, verbis vii paulo magis priscis.
 Paulo minus, confyderatus, a littell over-scene, somewhat negligente, not circumspecte enoughe.
 Paulo minus, for Propemodum, or Ferè.
 Paulo minus octogesimo ætatis anno, the mozte the fourth score yere of his age, or beyng well nere four score yeres olde.
 Paulo minus per quatuordecim annos perpessus, when he had suffered hym well nere or almozte, xiiii. yeres.
 Paulo minus q̄ priuatum egit, he behaued hym selfe almost lyke a priuate person.
 Paulo mox, id est, statim, by and by, a litle while after, shortly after.
 Paulo nimium, a littell to muche.
 Paulo pecunie conductus, hyed with a smal deale of money.
 Paulominus, litle laste.
 Paulo prius, a littell earste.
 Paululum, a diminutive of Paulum, veray littel.
 Paululum modo, neuer so litle.
 Paululum tum erat contenta, she was then content with a veray litle.
 Paululum abscede istoc, goe a littell aside this
 waye.
 Paululum operirier, si vis, yf ye will tary nener so litle.
 Si paululum modo quid te fugerit, yf ye be ouersene in any pointe, be it neuer so litle.
 Paululus, a, um, litle, veray litle.
 Homines paululi & graciles, me smal in stature, and fewe in numbze.
 Paulum, litle.
 Paulum aliquid, a littell while, a littell space.
 Paulum hostiū impetus tardatus est, the vior
 lence of our enemies was somewhat stopped.
 Paulum cū eius villa abessemus, whā we were but a littell waye from his ferme or manour.
 Quasi vero paulum differat, as though there were but small difference.
 A te paulum allatum est noni, you broughte some newes.
 Paulum infra columbas magnitudine, somewhat lesse then culners,

Post paulum, a littell while after.
 Abesse paulum, to be a littell waie of.
 Admodum paulum, a Paulum oppido, veray small.
 Paulus, a, um, litle, male.
 Paulus pecunia, a littell money.
 Paulo momento, with the least thyng in the world.
 Paulo sumptu, with littell coste.
 Paulus, a name of hyuers Romaines: one was most excellent, named Paulus Aemilius, son of Lutatius Paulus. He ascendyng by all dignities vnto Consul, was capteyne of the warres in Spayne, where he fought two batailles, wher-in were slayne. 36660. Spaniards, & wonne 250. walled towne, & not withstanding retires ned to Rome, not one grete the riches, for he was liberrall and sumptuous, & not veray rich.
 Afterwarde he made warre against the Liguri-ans, whiche were about Ieane, where hauynge with hym but onely 8000. he put to flight 30000. & brought them to subiection. Fynally he foughte against and vanquished Persus kynge of Macedonie, and broughte hym and his chyldren prisoners to Rome, and triumphed in this forme. The senators aparapled in white silke, sat in stages about the market place, to beholde the triumphe: all the temples were set open, and filled with flowers and scete perfumes: the triumph was diuided into. iiii. dayes. The first daye breth sufficed to the be-holdyng of images, as well painted as wroughte in stone & metall, by most excellent workemen, whiche were caried in 250. chariottes: The seconde daye was brought forth the harness and artillery of the Macedons, and the apparaple of hozles, which was in such sorte, that it was in a maner terrible to the vanquishers to beholde.
 After folowed. 3000. men, whiche bare siluer coppe in. 350. vessels of siluer, euerie vessel beyng in weight. iiii. talentes, whiche was. 240.
 li. after. 80. li. to euerie talente, euerie vessel was bozne of. iiii. men. Ocher dyd beare great cuppes and pottes of siluer. The third daye the trumpettes came before blowyng bloudy soundes. After them came. 120. oxen, their hoznes gylte, and therbypon were set filletes and garlandes, and were led with yonge men, gylte and prepared to sacrifice them: & chyldren bare cup-pes of golde & siluer, to serue to the sacrifice. After them folowed they that bare money of golde in golden vesselles, euerie of them weighynge thre talentes. also the nombze of the vesselles were. 240. Than folowed they that caried the pottes, whiche Aemilius had let make al of precious stones, weighynge ten talentes, whiche was. 800. li. also they that bare all the plate of the kynge Antigonus, Seleucus, Thetricus, & Persus, which was innumerable. After came the chariot, wherin was Persus harness, with his diademe set therbypon. Soone after his two sonnes, and one daughter led, and with them a great number of nourished maistres & gouernours, weping and holdyng by theyr handes to the people. Whereof many were moued to teares, so that the triumph seemed to bee myngled with gladnes for the victorie, with heynesse for compassion. After his children and seruantes followed forthwith Perseus in a blacke garment, trembleng and troubled in spirite: whom insued a great company of his counsaillours and officers, beholdyng hym sorrowfully with teares, whiche moze constrained the Romans to weepe for pitee that they had of theyr misery. After him were borne .iiii. C. crownes of golde, whiche were gyuen to Demetrius by the cities of Greece for his vertue and prowesse. Then followed Demetrius hym selfe, sitting in a chariot decaytely appaile, hauing a robe of purple tinct, and bearyng in his hande a brynche of laurelle, as a man besyde that honour wozt he to be looked on. Then after came the men of warre, whiche had ben with him, in order of suche bedes and companies as belonge to battaile, every of them bearyng in his hande a brynche of Laurelle, and singyng verses mixt with mery tauntes: Some singyng the praises of Demetrius, whome they becheide, and wondered at for his excellent qualitees. But nowe becheide, Demetrius beeyng in that state and condicion, that nothing lacked in him that man coulde wyshe for: yet his lyfe was not without aduersites. He hauynge fower sonnes, of the whiche he hadde geuen two in adopcion to Scipio Africanus, and Fabius Maximus: the other two he kepte at home with hym: The one of them dyed foure dayes before the triumph, beeynge syttee peeres olde: The other beeyng twelve yeres olde, dyed the thyrde daye after the triumph. The whiche crueltee of Fortune, all men lamented, that hadde broughte so greatte heynesse in to the house replete with suche gladnesse, reioyng, and noble renoume, and had meddled teares, sorowes, and lamentacion with victorie, ioye, and triumph. But therfore Demetrius neuer abated his courage, but callyng the people together, made to them a noble oracion, declaryng that he was nothyng deceyued by fortune, for as muche as whan he seemed to hym mooste favourable, he than moze feared hir than anye thyng elles: And although he had taken from hym good sonnes, whome he appoynted to succede hym, yet sens he had shewed hir extreme malice to hym & his bloud, he had good hope nowe, that the people of Rome shoulde remayne prosperouse without any peryll. O noble herte, O valiant courage, worthy to bee left in remembraunce. He brought so muche golde and silver into the Treasorie of the Romans, that there neded no taske to be sette on the people, lxxx. yere after and aboue:

yet he left in patrimonie vnder .592. li. and in treasure littell or nothyng. This history I haue written for the notable thynges therein decreyued, with the insuetude of prosperitee, wher in all men are shapen, that theye to haue it. One thyng woulde be remembred. Although Demetrius was a fauourer of the nobilitie, yet was he better beloued of the people, than was Scipio, who onely studied to serue theyr purposes. For his humanitee equally mixt with grauitee, he was brought to the earth, not with sumptuous preparation, but with loue and fauour, not only of his countrey men, but also of his enemies. For as many of Liguria, Spayne, and Macedonia, as were than at Rome, they that were yong and strong dyd beare the corpe, the old men folowed, callyng hym benefactor and benefactor of their cities and countreies. Paulus, the apostle of Christ, borne in Iudaea, in a towne called Giscalis, of the tribe of Benjamin, the towne beeyng taken by the Romans, went with his parentes to Tarsus a citee of Cilicia, and dwelled there. But afterwarde he was sent by them to Jerusalem to learne the lawes, and was ther taught of one Gamaliel, a great learned man. He beeyng with other at the martyrdome of S. Steuen, receyued letters of the byshop, wyllyng hym to go to Damascus, there to persecute them that beleued in Christ. And in the waye, he was by reuelacion chaunged, from a persecuter to a vessell of election. Afterwarde whan he had conuerted Sergius Paulus (than beeyng Proconsull at Cypres) to the faith of Christ: by hym he was called Paulus, where before he was named Saulus. Finally he suffered martyrdome by beheadyng, after the passion of Christ. xxxvii. yeres, and the. xliii. yere of the reigne of Nero. Hec Hieronymus & Sophronius. The rest due of his lyfe appereth in the actes of the apostles. His lernyng and mysticall wysdome, is well shewed in his epistles, in the whiche (as saint Peter saith) he some thynges harde to bee vnderstande, and that men vnlearned and inconstaunt doo depraue, lyke as they doo the other partes of scripture, to theyr owne perdition.

Paulus Samosatenus, an horrible heretike, byshop of Antioche, a man of excedyng pride and intollerable vanitee, about the yere of our lord 267. His heresy was, that Christ beganne of our lady, and toke his fyist begynnynge of the earth, and was a man onely of our commune nature: Whiche heresy was condemned by a generall counsaile holden at Antioche, & Paulus excommunicate by all the counsaile, and another byshop put in his place. And he by the commandement of the emperour Aurelianus was of the people pulled out of the churche.

Paulonis, & Pauus, ui. m. g. a pectoche.

Pauonaceus, a, um, of or belongyng to a pectoche.

Pauor,

Panot, aris, m. g. to make one's self afraid.
Panor capis me, I am so afraid.
Incutere paucem, to make one's self afraid.
Lenire paucem, to assuage one's fear.
Pauper, pauperis, com. g. after some com. g.
 a poor man, poor.
Argenti & auri pauper, he that hath little money.
Pauper eloquentia, pro inopi & ieiunia.
Pauperies, ei, & Paupertas, acis, form. gener.
 poverty.
Dum pauperiem pati, To suffer great po-uerty.
Leuare pauperem alicuius, to ease of helpe
 one that is in poverty.
Pauper, ra, rum, poje, is redde in Plautus.
Pauperculus, a, um, uerage poje.
Paupero, ui, are, to make poor, an old word.
Pauperinus, a, um, poje.
Paula, a, form. gener. a paulo, leysure, a rest, a stoppe.
Ego pausam feci, I made a pause, I stopped.
Frigida pausa vite, death.
Pausanias, the generall captayne of the Lacesdroniens in the great battaile agaynst the Perses, and yet afterwards he was condemned of treason.
Pausarius, rij, m. g. one that getteth a signe when we should pause or cesse in doing a thyng.
Pausa, or Pausa, a, f. g. a kynde of olyues that yeld no oyle, except they be knocked or beaten.
Pausiacus, a, um, of Pausias.
Pausias, a noble peincter.
Pauso, ui, are, to pause, to rest.
Pauxillium, by littell and littell.
Pauxillus, a, um, a diminutive of Pauxillus, very littell.
Pauxillum, an aduerbe, verate littell.
Pauxillus, a, um, a diminutive of Paulus, verate littell.
Pax, acis, form. g. peace, a quiete libertee. Comes tyme for league, also pardon, forguenesse.
Dum in faciem pacis veniretur, so that they would come in peaceable wise.
Explorata pax, certayne and sure peace.
Propterea pace aduenio, therefore I come to you in peaceable wise.
Agere aliquid cum pace, to doo a thyng pea-cably and quietly.
Componere & consiliare pacem inter aliquos, To set men at one, to reconcile men that be at variance.
Agere pacem siue de pace, to intreate of peace.
Limittere cum pace aliquem, to leat one be-part peaceably.
Excutere pacem orbi, to set all the worlde on tumulte and warre.
Eripere pacem alicui, to consigne one to
 make warre.
Aeternam pacem exercere, To lyue alwayes

in peace, to lyue in peace.
Inspem pacis venire, to contryue an hope to haue peace.
Pacem & veniam petere a deo, to desyre para-don and forguenesse of god.
Pace tua, and pace tua dixerim, with your fa-uour, sayng your displeasure, with your leave.
Pax, te tribus verbis volo, God speede, I would speake two of thyse wordes with you.
Pax sit rebus, make no stirryng of busynesse.
Pax sequestra, a truce betwene two hostes.
Pax, adverbially, signifieth Tantummodo, as Vnus est dies, dum argentum eripio, pax nishil amplius, I requyre but one daie to geat the money from the olde man, than no more.
Paces, is used of Plautus and Horace, in the plurall numbre.
Pax Iulia, a towne of Hoptingall, called comuned
 by Badoioz, or Pacensis.
Paxillus, li, m. ge. a littell state, a pale of poste,

P. ANTE E.

Peccatum, i, n. ge. a syn, an offence, a fault,
 a trespass.
Recte factum & peccatum, contrary.
Si est nostrum peccatum, yf it be our fault, yf
 we haue offended.
In eo est peccatum ipsius, he is faultie in that,
 or therein it is that he hath offended.
Peccatum animaduertere, to punishe.
Peccatus, us, m. g. idem quod peccatum, in Cic.
Pecco, ui, are, to offende or synne, to faile in any thyng, to doe amysse, to committe a fault, a faute.
Peccatur, the impersonall.
Dupliciter peccare, to comit a double offence.
In matrona peccare, to comyt anoutrage with a mannes wyfe.
In istam partem peccato potius, Offende rasther in this poyncte.
Si quid in te peccaui, if I haue committed any faute toward you.
Si vnam peccaui ses syllabam, if thou haddest
 fayled one syllable.
Nihil peccare, to offende nothyng.
Magna peccare, to commit great fautes.
Magno tuo periculo peccabitur, It wyl be to your great peryll, yf any thyng be dooen amysse: Or if there chaunce any fautes to be com-mytted.
Peccatur, passine dictum.
Quo in genere multa peccantur, many thins
 ges ar don amysse, or many fautes ar comitted.
Pecorarius, a, um, perteynyng to cattall.
Pecorarius, rij, m. g. an heardman, also he that doeth hyze cattall.
Pecorinus, and Pecoreus, a, um, of rother beas-tes, or of cattall.
Pecorofus, a, um, full of cattall, or where be-many cattall.

Pecten, pectinis, ma. ge. the flay of a weathers lome: also a combe, either to hembe the heade, or to dyesse hempe, or a payze of cardes to carde wull with all. It is also the place about the pye the mēches, where heare groweth. It is also the striches, wherewith a man striketh douleymers, whan he smyth plaie on them, also a sphe called Scalop. also the long grayn of a tree, by the which the wood cleaueth. also a rake with yron teethe, a dragge or harrowe, or a facion of sy-thes or hookes vnto reape cothe.
Veneris pecten, an herbe the leaues wherof be lyke the teethe of a combe.
Pectinatum, in the facion of a combe.
Pectino, au. are, to hembe. also to harrow cothe whyles it is in grasse, or to rake cothe together, as they doe in haruest.
Pectitus, pectita, um, hembed, harrowed, raked.
Lana pectita, carded wull.
Pecto, xui, exi, tere, to hembe or trym heare, to carde wull, to sette an harpe or other lyke instrument, to strike the douleymers or harpe.
Pectere equum, to curry or hembe an horse.
Pectere lanam, to carde wull.
Pectere vestes, to reple the wull of clothe, to trype or cotton garments.
Pecton, a kynd of stomakers blake.
Pectorale, lis, n. ge. a breast plate.
Pectoralis, le, perteyning to the breast.
Fascia pectoralis, a breast herche.
Pectorium, ri. n. g. a certayne carte, sometyme vnto France.
Pectorosus, a, um, that hath a great and bryde breaste.
Pectunculus, li, m. g. a littell scalop.
Pectus, pectoris, n. g. the breast. sometyme the hert of courage.
Toro pectore, with all my herte.
Amicum pectus, a frendly stomake.
Nisi apertum pectus ostendas, Excepte you shewe or open your whole stomake and mynde without dissimulation.
Generosa pectora, noble stomakes.
Constanti pectore, with a constant herte and
 courage.
Ab imo pectore dedit gemitum, he set a sigh or groans euen from the bottome of his herte.
Obrusa pectora gestamus, we be hard herted.
Iactare curas pectore, to bee disquieted in minde with care of dyuers thynges.
Corpus sine pectore, a body without courage or herte.
Periura pectora, false and perjured persons.
Pectusculum, li, n. g. a littell breast.
Pecu, indeclinabile, Pecua in plurali, cattall,
 beastes.
Pecuaria, orum, n. g. plur. great floze of cattall, herdes of beastes. Also among the Romans, all thynges wherof reuenue came.
Pecuaria, x, f. ge. the maner of science, to reple, gouerne and nouryshe cattall, Grassiers crafte.

also a place of pasture where cattall doeth.
Pecuaris, ri, m. g. a herde of cattall, a grassier.
Pecuaris, um, belonging to cattall.
Canis pecuaris, a shepherdes dogge.
Dogge, that shepeth the herde of floche.
Rem pecuariam facere, to breed cattall.
Peculator, bris, m. g. he that stealeth a commune treasure, or the treasure of a prince.
Peculatus, us, m. g. robbery of the commune treasure of a prince.
Peculiaris, re, propre or speciall, apperteyning to one, peculiar. Sometyme belonging to ser-uantes, seruile.
Peculiare edictum, a pryuyar commandment, a proclamation concerning one certayne tyme or persons.
Peculiaris quondam ratio, a certayne peculiar consideration.
Peculiariter, proprely, speciallly, particularly.
Pecunia, dei, are, to punishe by the purse, to take awaie a mans gooddes.
Peculiolum, li, n. g. a diminutive of Peculium.
Peculium, li, n. g. substance, that reherse, which is onely in money and cattall, a mannes propre gooddes, also all that a man hath in woonne by his labour and trewple, or gathered together by sauynge and sparynge. After some, money or wyte, that the seruante hath by his mayntenance to trawple with.
Castrense peculium, gooddes that a man hath gotten in warres.
Peculor, aris, ari, to steale a commune treasure, or any thyng from a prince.
Pecunia, x, f. g. money. It is taken of the olde ciuilians for all thynges that we call cattall, or all gooddes mouable and unmouable.
Pecuniam conficere, to make monete, to leue moneye. Annumerare pecuniam alicui, to pay one money.
Pecuniarius, a, um, belonging to money.
Res pecuniaria, money.
Pecuniosus, a, um, rich, that hath much money.
Pecuniosus & Tenuis, contrary.
Artes pecuniosae, craftes that get money apace.
Pecus, pecudis, f. g. all maner of cattall. Comes tyme the multitude of floche of cattall. Comes tyme it is taken onely for shepe or goates, by tra-slation a naughty persone, not woorthy to bee called a man. Ennius vnto Pecus in the masus line geber. Olde wyters vnto Pecuda, n. g. plu.
Pecus, pecoris, n. g. idem quod pecus, ecudis, also a floche of shepe or dyone of beastes. Comes tyme a shepe, and as it appereth by Poline, it is proprely vnto shepe.
Peda, x, f. g. a step or token of a mans wite.
Pedrus, Antenoys bastarde sonne.
Pedalis, le, of a foote.
Spacium pedale, a foote space.
Pedalium, the herbe called Polygonon.
Pedamen, nis, & Pedamentum, i, n. g. a stake or fothe, wherby a wyne, hoppers, or other lyke
 thynges

thinge to be cryed or borne up, a prop or stay.
 Pedana, a countesse by Rome.

Pedaneus, a, um, of the quantitie of a fote in length or diſtance.

Pedane iudices, inferiour Judges, whiche went on fote.

Pedarij, were ſenatours, wherby theyd not ſhewe theyr opinion in wordes, but onely meynge theym ſelues towarde thoſe perſones, whiche had reaſoned, whole ſentences theyd approve, lyke as they do in the payement houſe. Gellius reciteth an other cauſe of this name, libro, 3. cap. 18. alſo certayne gentylmen, which came into the Senate houſe, and were not admitted by the Cenſours, to be of the numbre, were called Pedarij.

Pedaſus, the ſonne of Bucolion, alſo a ſiſter by Pylos, alſo one of Achilles hoſtes.

Pedaſim, whete one fote goeth with the other, fote by fote.

Pedario, onis, f. g. the ſettyng up of vines.

Pedarum, i, n. g. a compynge to one agayne.

Tertio pedato bellum nobis fecere, Hoc eſt tertio reuelli.

Pedecofum, full of lyce.

Pedepreſſim, a ſteppace, ſoftely.

Pedes, an aduerbe, ſignifieth on fote. ſee moze herof in Pes.

Pedes, editis, m. g. a fote man in battayle.

Pedeſter, ſtri, ma. g. he that goeth on fote, a footeman.

Pedeſtris, ſtre, on fote, that goeth on fote.

Pedeſtris oratio, a numerous ſpeaking or wytyng in the ſourthe of a verſe or meter, although it be not a verſe.

Pedeſtria auguria, ſothſayng, taken of foure footed beaſtes.

Pederentim, ſoftely and ſayze, by littell and littell, and prouerbyally, ſoſte ſpe maketh ſweete malice.

Pédica, æ, f. g. any thynge, wherewith the fote is tyed, a ſnare or gynn, a fetter, a paye of gynes or ſtookes.

Pedicillus, li, m. ge. a little worme that byedeth betwene the ſkynne and the fleſhe.

Pediculâris, re, belongyng to lyce.

Pedicularis morbus, the lousy ſyckneſſe.

Pedicularia herba, called alſo Staphis agria.

Pediculârus, a, um, any thing that hath a ſtalke, as the moſt parte of fruite.

Pediculôſus, & pedicoſus, a, um, lousy, full of lyce.

Pediculus, li, m. g. a littell fote. a fiſh, the ſtalke, of an appull or peare, or other fruite, or of the leafe of any herbe. alſo a louse.

Pedio, dire, to ſtampe with the fote.

Pediolus, li, m. g. a littell fote.

Pediſequa, æ, f. g. a woman ſeruaunt that waiteth alwaies on his mayſtreſſe.

Pediſequus, qui, m. g. a ſeruaunt that foloweth alway the maſter or mayſtreſſe.

Peditarius, us, m. g. an hoſte of footemen.

Pedo, aul, are, of olde wyllers was bled to go, alſo to underſet vines or trees.

Pedo, pépedi, pèdere, to taſte, to teat a taſte.

Pedum, i, n. g. a wepe crowne.

Pedusculus, i, m. g. a littell fote.

Péganon, m, n. g. the herbe called rue, or herbe grace.

Pegafa, a towne of Cheſſaly.

Pegafea, the wyffe of the Pegonantes was ſo called.

Pegaſeus, and Pegafeus, of Pegafos, wyſte.

Pegaſicus ſinus, a bolom of the ſea in Cheſſaly.

Pegaſides, the ſhades.

Pegaſus, i, m. g. an hoſte, which was ſeigned to haue wynges. It is alſo a ſigne or numbre of ſterres in heauen. It is alſo an inſtrument in an houſe, wheron garments and other thinges be hanged.

Pegma, or Pécma, pécmatís, a ſtage, wheron pageantes be ſet, or wheron plate and iewels do ſtande to be looked on.

Pegmates, they that play on ſuche ſtages.

Peieratio, onis, f. ge. perjurie, a forſwearing.

Peiero, aul, are, to forſweare, not to do that one hath ſwoyne to doe.

Peior, peius, warle.

Peius, an aduerbe, woole, much moze, moze vehemently.

Pelagia, a womans name of Antioche.

Pelagia, æ, f. g. a ſyſhe called alſo Purpura.

Pelagium, i, n. g. a ſpyoure or iuyce that cometh of the ſyſhe called Pelagia.

Pelâgicus, and Pelâgius, a, um, that is of the ſea, or that lyueth in the ſea.

Pélagus, i, m. g. & n. g. the ſea.

Pélamis, lámidis, f. g. ſyſhe called Cunny, becauſe it be a yere olde.

Pelargus, i, m. g. called alſo Ciconia, a byrde called a ſtoke.

Pelaſgi, people whiche came out of Grece, and inhabited Italye, they be alſo Arabians.

Pelaſgia, a countrey in Grece called ſometymes Cheſſaly.

Pelaſgias, adis, one of Pelaſgia.

Pelaſgicus, a, um, of Arcadie.

Pelaſgis, a countrey in Grece called Arcadie.

Pelaſgus, i, a bynde of laurell or baie.

Pelecanus, a birde called a Mouclard.

Pelecinum, ni, n. g. a weede growynge amonge roynes.

Pelethronij, the Lapithes were ſo called.

Pelethronium, a towne of Cheſſaly.

Peleus, the ſonne of hyng Caius, and father of Achilles.

Pelias, adis, of Achilles.

Pelias, æ, a kyng of Cheſſalye, vncle to Jaſon.

Pelicanus, i, m. ge. a byrde called a pelicane, or mouclard.

Pelicus, a prince of whome the people called

Peligni, toke theſe name.

Pelides, the surname of Achilles.
 Peligni, people in Italye, whiche came out of Al-luria.
 Pelignus, a, um, of that people.
 Pelion, lq, n. g. an hylle in Thessaly.
 Pelius, and Peliacus, a, um, of Pelion.
 Pella, a kynde of hermes, called the blue herme.
 Pella, a citee in Macedonie.
 Pellacia, a, f. g. fayre speche to deceyue.
 Pellax, acis, om. ge. that deceiveth with fayre
 wordes.
 Pellectus, a, um, mened, tempted, allured.
 Pellego, idem quod perlego.
 Pellene, a very auncient citee of Acha.
 Pellex, pellicis, for. gen. He that is a wedded mans harlotte.
 Pellicator, oris, masc. ge. a deceiver with fayre
 wordes.
 Pellicatus, us, m. g. the yll company that a wedded man leadeth with an other woman.
 Pelliceo, pellices, cui, cere, to obteyne with flatterynge wordes, almost neuer bled.
 Pelliceus, a, um, of a shyne or hyde.
 Pellicio, pellicis, pellexi, cere, to disceiue with fayre wordes, to moue a man pleasauntlye to dooe a thyng, to allure or prouoke with fayre
 wordes.
 Pellicula, a, f. g. the shyne.
 Curare pelliculam, to cherishe hym selfe nytely.
 Veterem pelliculam retines, Thou keepest thyne olde facion, thou art the olde man styll.
 Continere se in sua pellicula, id est intra sua sortem se continere.
 Pelliculo, aui, are, to couer or stop with a shyne.
 Pellio, onis, mal. ge. a chypper, he that maketh
 thynges of skynnes.
 Pellis, lis, f. g. a skynne, a fell, a hyde.
 Sub pellibus, id est in castris stans.
 Detrahare pellem alicui, to disclose or discouer ones mynde.
 Quiescere in propria pelle, to bee contente with his owne condiction or state.
 Ouina pellis, a shepes felle.
 Pellitus, a, um, cladde in shyunes.
 Pello, pepuli, pellere, pulsum, to put out or expelle, to thurst, to styrke, to dryue awaye, to make to recule, to styrre or moue, to bere or greue.
 Scipionis animum no mediocri cura pepullit, It brought Scipio not in a little care, or it dyd put Scipio to great care.
 Facile pellas vbi velis, ye maye easlye thurst
 hym out of the doores whan you wyll.
 Vbi lapidibus e foro pellerentur, whan they were beaten or dryuen out of the comon place with stones.
 Pellere in exilium, to banyshe.
 Pellere for Affligere, or Exagitare.
 Nulla me ipsum priuam insignis pepulit iniuria, No notable iniurie or affliction hath touched or greued me particularly.

 Pelli patria, to bee chased or dryuen out of his countrey. Like mythe Pelli regno, agro, ciuitate, domo, sedibus.
 Pellere exercitum, to dryue backe an armye,
 and make them recule.
 Animum pellit species vilitatis, the appeerance of profyte or aduantage moueth the mynde.
 Pellere famem, to put awaye hunger.
 Pellere frigus, to put awaye colde, or to defende from colde.
 Sicim pellere, to quenche thyeste.
 Longi sermonis initium pepulisti, thou hast moued, stirred or begonne a great matter to common of.
 Pellos, or Pellus, li, the byrde, called also Ardea, or Ardeola, lyke Pella.
 Pelluceo, luxi, ere, to shyne byrde, to shyne thorough.
 Pellucet oratio, the oracion is playne and manyfest.
 Pellucid, cleere.
 Pellucidus, and Pullucidulus, a, um, very cleere, cleere thorough.
 Pelluo, pellui, pellutum, ere, to washe cleane.
 Pellicanus, lyke Pelecanus.
 Pellunium, ij, n. g. or Pellunia, a, f. g. a bason, wherein mens feete be washed.
 Pelopeis, idis, and Pelopeias, the daughter of nece of Pelops.
 Pelopide, they that descended of Pelops.
 Pelopidas, a noble man of Lacedemonia.
 Pelopius, and pelopeius, a, um, of Pelops.
 Peloponnesius, and Peloponnesiacus, a, um, of Morea.
 Peloponnesus, a countrey in Grece, called now Morea, on the north it hath the gulph of Cos-rinthe, Althum, and the sea of Crete: on the weste and southe the sea Adriatique: on the east the sea of Crete: so that it is almoste cleane enuironned with the sea: in it were the famous kyngdomes of Micene, of Argine, Lacedemō, Arcadias, Sicionians, &c. it is nowe vnder the Turke.
 Pelops, pis, the sonne of Tantalus, vanquished on horsebacke in rennyng Demomaus, father of Hippodamia, and wedded hir.
 Peloris, lōridis, f. g. a kynde of shell fysh.
 Pelorus, ri, or Peloris, idis, m. g. an hyl in Si-cilie on the sea syde.
 Pelra, a, for. ge. a target or bucklar lyke an halfe
 moone.
 Pelasta, a, m. g. one armed with a tergate lyke an halfe moone.
 Pelatus, a, um, that weareth suche buckelars.
 Pelifer, ri, m. g. idem quod Pelasta.
 Peluis, uis, f. g. a bason to washe ones feete in.
 Pelusiotæ, the inhabytauntes of Pelusium.
 Pelusium, a citee in Egypte, and one of the mou-thes of Nilus.

Pemindus, a, um, stinking.
Penarius, rij, m. g. and after Varro Panaria, x, f. g. after other Penarium, rij, n. g. a cellar of storhouse, a spence.
Penarius, a, um, belonging to householde, provision for householde, vitayles.
Penaria cella, idem quod penarium, a storhouse of spence.
Penates, the gentiles called goddis of mannes lyfe. They bee sometyme taken for the moste secreete partes of the house. The nominatiue case singular is after some Penas, after other Penatis.
Penatiger, a, um, that beareth the householde gooddes.
Pencédamus, mi, m. ge. the webe called balde money, or hogge fenell.
Pendens, entis, om. g. that hangeth.
Vinum pendens, wyne yet in the grape.
Pendeo, pendes, pependi, dère, pensum, to hange or be hanged, to depende. sometyme to be in prime. also to weigh or be of any weight, to be in doubt or uncertaine what to doo.
Pendère animi, to be in doubt or feare. sometyme to longe or desyre to knowe.
Pendere promissis, to trust promyses.
Ego animi pendeo, quid illud sit negotij, I long to knowe what the matter is.
Pendet dragmas decem, it waiteth .x. drammes.
Pender ab eius ore, he harkeneth diligently what he saith.
Pendent opera interrupta, the woorkes remaine imperfecte, or cease for a while.
Penderet ei, is saide of them that bee sued, and dooe tary a longe tyme ere they bee dispatched.
Pendère per pedes, to hange by the feete.
Pendère de rupe, to hange on the rocke.
Salus nostra pendet tua, Our helthe dependeth on yours.
Pendet res publica è Bruto, the comune wele dependeth on Brutus, or is chiefly sustained by Brutus.
Pendere ex arbitrio alterius, to be subiecte to an other mannes wyll and pleasure.
Cui spes omnis & ratio pendet à fortuna, whiche hath all his hope and trust in fortune.
Pendère ex laude, to couete or desyre alwayes to haue prayse.
Rationes quæ ex coniecturis pendent, reasons whiche be gathered by coniecture.
Pendère spe & expectatione obscura, to be in an uncertaine hope and expectation.
Animus tibi pendet, thou art in doubt.
Pendo, pendis, pependi, pendere, to ponder or way, to poise, to consider, to esteeme or value, to examine, to paye, to susteyne or suffer.
Pendere pœnas magistro, to be beaten of the mayster.
Pendere supplicia, to recompence an offence

by death.
Nunquam ostendisti quanti penderes, thou neuer declared howe muche thou wert by hym.
Non leui coniectura res penditur, the matter is not weighed examined or considered with light coniecture.
Pendere pecuniam, stipendium, tributum, vectigal, to paye.
Vsuram pendere, to paye moneye ouer for vsury.
Grates dignas pendere, to render woorthye thanks.
Penditur, the impersonall.
Pendulus, a, um, that hangeth.
Penè, almoste, well nere.
Penissimè, the superlatiue of penè, or after some of penitus.
Penelope, es, or Penelopea, x, the daughter of Teucus, and wyfe of Ulysses, most chaste, wise, and constant aboue all the women of hir tyme, who in the .xx. yeres that hir housbande was absente, being sought vpon by diuers wowers, whiche (would she or no) abode in hir house, she myght neyther by saye meanes nor menaces be induced to marie, or to consent to commit any folly.
Penelopes telam retexere, signifieth to doo and vndo, to take much labour in vaine.
Penelopes, bydes called also Melagrides.
Peneleus, one of the greke capitaines of Ætolia that came to Troie.
Penes, with or at, in the power.
Penes te est, it is in the, it is in thy power or possession.
Penes hunc, with hym, or in hym.
Me penes est vnum, it is onely in my power.
Seruorum cura penes dominos sit, Let the maysters care and prouyde for the seruantes.
Exornat eos penes quos est, it garnisheth them in whom it is.
Penes authores sit fides, I referre me to the authours, whether it bee true or no. Or as for the truthe of the matter, I referre you to the authours.
Penes te culpa est, the fault is in the.
Quem penes est virtus, In whome vertue is.
Penes eum summa imperij est, He hath the chiefe rule or gouernance.
Istæc penes vos psaltria est, id est apud vos, Is the syngyng wenche at your house?
Penetrabilis, le, that may perce or be perced.
Penetrâle, lis, n. g. the inner parte of the house.
In ipsis penetrabilibus, in the inner partes.
Penetrâlis, le, belongynge to the inner parte of the house, or down in the inner parte of the house.
Penetrâle sacrificium, a sacrifice dooen in the inner parte of the house.
Penetrâlis Germania, id est interior.
Penetrâlius, an aduerbe, more inner, that percess moze.

Pénetro, aui, are, to pence or enter.

Atlantem penetrasse, to haue passed or gone ouer the mountaine Atlas.

In maria penetrare, to enter the seas.

Penetrare in urbem, to enter into the citee.

Penetrare sub terras, to go vnder the grounde.

Ne penetrarem me vsipiam, that I might not enter or go into any place.

Penetrare se in fugam, to ren away, to flee.

Nunquam intra portam penetraui pedem, I neuer stept a foote within the gate: or I neuer came within the gate.

Quando id primum ad Romanos penetras uerit, When that came first amonge the Romanes.

Penetrare in animos, to enter into mennes myndes.

Peneus, a ryuer in Grece, that diuideth the countreys of The and Thacia.

Penicillum, i, n. ge. or Peniculum tectorium, a plaisterers bushe.

Penicillum, or Peniculum, is also a tente that is put into a wounde to kepe it open.

Penicillus, li, a kynde of sponges, wherof suche tentes are made.

Penicillus, and Peniculus, li, m. g. or Penicillum & peniculum, li, n. g. any thing that serueth to bushe, scoure, wype, or make cleane, a shoe cloute, a dythe cloute, also a peincters penselle.

Peniculamentum, i, n. n. g. the hemme of a garment, the skyrtes.

Peninsula, x, f. ge. a place almost enuironned with water.

Penis, is, m. ge. a tayle. also the secreete membre of a man.

Penitus, a, um, tayled, haupng a tayle.

Pénitus, inwarde, whereof cometh Penitior, and Penitissimus.

Pénitus, an aduerbe. sometime of place, depely, farre in, throughe. sometye of qualitee, vesterly, to the vttermost, greatly, wholly, all together. Penitus me noscis, id est intus, & in cute, throughe, euen to the bottome of myne herte.

Bene penitus in istius familiaritatē se dedit, he became veray familiarly acquainted with hym, or he made hym selfe veray familiarly acquainted with him.

Penitus insita animis opinio, an opinion depely settled in mens myndes.

Penitus insitum odiū, mostall hatred depely rooted in ones stomake.

Mandare penitus animo, to commyt a thinge surely to his remembraunce.

Non dum penitus in republica versabar, I was not yet throughe or all together occupied in affayres of the common weale.

Hanc consuetudinem penitus amisimus, we haue vterly lost that facion or custom for euer.

Penitus alias auexerat oras, farre of, to other coastes or countreys.

Penna, x, f. g. a penne or quille. sometime it is used for a wyng, not onely of byrdes, but also of fies, bittles, and suche other.

Pennæ renascuntur, By translation spoken when one recouereth the authoritee and dignitie that was taken from hym before.

Caulis pennæ, the stalk of a fether, whereon the downe groweth.

Pennarium, ri, n. g. a pennar.

Pennatus, a, um, that hath fethers.

Pennatum telum, an arrowe or dart fethered.

Penniger, a, um, that beareth fethers.

Pennipes, pennipedis, that hath rough fethered feete, or that hath wynges on his feete.

Pennipotens, a byrde.

Pennula, x, f. ge. a littell fether.

Pensa, x, that which is payde for a thing bought, the paiement.

Pensa, in the plurall numbze, threedes of flaxe or woulle when it is spunne, whiche maye be called parne.

Pensans, antis, ponderyng, weighyng.

Pensator, oris, m. g. a weyer, an examiner.

Pensatus, a, um, pondered, weyed, consyded, examyned.

Pensiculate, with good examinacion.

Pensiculator, oris, m. gen. he that examineth or pondereth a thyng diligently.

Pensiculo, aui, are, to ponder a thyng, idem quod pensito.

Pensilis, le, that hangeth or standeth on hyshes.

Pensile horreum, a granet in the upper part of ones house, where coyne is kept.

Pensilis homo, a man hanged.

Pensilis hortus, a gardyn made vpon pylers, or vpon houses, or in wyndowes.

Pensilis vrbs, a citee that is holow vnderneath, or that standeth on vaultes.

Pensilis lectus, a hangyng bedde.

Pensiles lichni, lampes or other lightes, hangyng in a house.

Pensio, onis, f. g. a pencion, or yerly rent, that whiche one payeth for the vse of any thyng, a paiement.

Pensior & hoc pensus, of more pryce or value.

Alterutra sit cōditio pensior, virginem an viduam habere, whiche thynke you the better bargayne, to haue the mayde, or the wydowe.

Pensito, aui, are, to weigh, ponder, or consyder often and diligently, also to paie often.

Prædiaque pensitant, termes that paie certayne quite rentes, or other customes out of theym.

Pensiculo, aui, are, idem quod pensito.

Pensitatio, onis, f. g. a diligent weighyng, consydyng, or examynyng also a paiement.

Pensitator, oris, m. g. a ponderer or weygher.

Verborum pensitatores subtilissimi, the most subtile ponderers or examiners of wordes.

Pensatus, a, um, diligently thought on, weighed, examined, pondered.
Pensuacula, la, f. g. a littell pencion, paiement, or rent.
Penso, ai, are, to weigh and ponder diligently and ofte, to examine, to trie the weyght. also to estimate a thyng, sometime to bie. also to recompence.
Pensare vicem alterius, To be of serue in the steede of an other.
Veteribus benefactis noua pensantes malicia, recompensyng new displeasures with olde benefites of pleasures.
Pensare singula, to ponder and consyder euery thyng by it selfe diligently.
Pensare aliquid ex alio, to change one for an other.
Pensare argento, to cheape or by for money.
Quæ criminavna laude pensar, whiche sautes he recompenseth with one thyng woorthye laude.
Pensus, a, um, weighed, examined. Sometime it signifieth good and wyle.
Pensum, si, n. g. of Pendo, the flaxe whiche is bounden on the distaffe, out of the whiche the threde is drawen. Sometime it signifieth the threde that is spunne, yarne. it is also the execution of ministracion of an office that is committed to one to dooe, or that one taketh vpon him to doo, a taske of worke.
Capere pensum, to spyne of the distaffe.
Trahere pensa, idem.
Pensum absoluerè, conficere, peragere, To worke out his taske that he is appoynted.
Accurare pensum, to apply his office, or that he is enioyned to.
Pensum, si, n. g. of Pendo, that one hath weighed, pondered, or consydered in his mynde.
Pensi habere, to consyder, to passe on, to care for.
Pensi esse alicui, idem.
Vobis quid faciatis, minus pensi est, ye passe not, care not, or consyder not what ye doo.
Neque dicere, neque facere quicquam pensi habet, He neyther passeth what he sayeth, nor what he dooeth.
Pentacontarchus, a capitaine of fifty men.
Pentadactylus, a broche or spitte in fyue partes with one handell. it is also an herbe lyke a tree of some called Ricinus, of some Helioscopiū.
Pentadōron, ti, n. g. a kinde of tyle or brycke, fyue handefull bryde.
Pentaperes, cinkefoyle.
Pentapharmacum conuiuium, a dinner or supper, where in are fyue sundry dishes of meate. reade Sparcianum in vita Hadriani.
Pentaphyllon, or Quinquefolium, an herbe called cinkefoyle, whiche hath fyue leaues. The physicians of late tyme supposen it to be Comentill, wherewith I am not satisfied.
Pentapolis, a countrie betwene Palestina and Teabla, wherein were the cities of Sodome and Gomorrah, hawnd by the vengeance of god for synne agaynst nature.

Pentarchus, he that is captayne of fyue men.
Pentateuchus, chi, m. g. a volume of fyue bookes. It is vnto the fyue bookes of Moyses.
Pentathlum, li, n. gen. the exercise of fyue seates or games.
Pentathlus, li, m. gen. he that exerciseth these v. games, calling of the ball or rinde, renning, leppyn, iustling and throwyn the darte.
Pentecoste, tes, for. gen. the fiftieth. it is vnto for whitsontyde.
Pentelici hermar, were littell ymages of Merscurius made of marble, called Pendelicus, which was one of the most saye stones that ymages might be made of.
Pentheus, dissyl. the sonne of Echion.
Penthesilea, a queene of Amazons, whiche was slayne at the siege of Troy.
Penthemimeris, a parte of a verse, where a sentence is synghed in the last syllable of the third foote.
Penthyllus, the sonne of Demonous, whiche came to the ayde of Xerxes, with xii. ships, & was taken prisoner by the Grekes.
Pentirēmis, mis, f. g. a galee that hath fyue eyes in every state.
Pentorobon, an herbe called also Peonia, piony.
Pénula, la, f. m. gener. a cloke woyn whan it rayneth.
Pénulam scindere, vnto pouerbially, to holde one so fast to the end to make him tary, that he feareth his cloke.
Pénula scōtea, a cloke of leather, suche as the Flemynghes doo vse, called communely brydes.
Penula gausapina, a thicke frysche cloke, so weare in the wynter.
Penulárium, rij, n. g. a cloke bagge.
Penulátus, a, um, cloked.
Penúria, x, f. g. extreme necessity, penury, lacke of thynges necessary.
Penus, ni, or Penus, us, m. or f. g. and Penus, pēnoris, or pénun, ni, n. ge. all kinde of viatayles, meate and drynke, stowe and prouision of viatayles for householde.
Penuissimè, vnto.
Peplion, an herbe called also Portulaca, wylde purselane.
Peplos, an herbe haupng small leaues, lyke rue, somewhat bryder, the toppe rounde, spred on the grounde the length of ones hande, the lesse beyng vnder the leaues lytell and rounde, lesse than whyte poppy, some apothecaries name it Esula rotunda, in Englyshe as I iudge wertes werte.
Peplus, pli, m. ge. or Peplum, pli, m. g. a headdress, or other lyke coueryng of the head.
Pepo, ónis, m. gen. a kinde of Melones, called Pompones.
Pepsis, sis, f. g. concoction.

Péptica,

Péptica, cæ, f. g. a medicine, which maketh good concoction in a man, that the meate eaten may digest well, also a salve and ointment, whiche maketh impostumes ripe.

Per, signifieth by: sometyne in, with, also betweene vnder the pretence of colour. Per, compounded with a nowne or aduerbe, signifieth

Valde, as, Perpulchrum, very fayre. Peropus est, it is needefull in any wise. Perdocte, very learnedly. Compounded with a verbe, it betokeneth perfection, as, Perscribere to write to the ende.

Perpeti, to suffer to the uttermost. Per etatem, for or by reason of his age.

Per etatem non potuit, he coulde not he was so yonge: or he coulde not he was so olde.

Dum per etatem licet, while his age serueth him.

Per fidem, per fortunas, per dextram te oro, I pray thee for the loue of god.

Cæsar mihi ignoscit per literas, Cæsar wryteth to me, than he hath pardoned me.

Per maturitatem dehiscens, it is clouen by to muche ripenesse, or by reason that it was to ripe: or so ripe that it cleaueth.

Per me licet, I am contente.

Per multas etates, of a longe time.

Per metum, for feare.

Per nebulam scire, to know the one halfe, or not certaynly.

Per noctem lucet, it shineth in the night, or by nyght tyme.

Per omnes dies, every day, or day by day.

Per otium, at leysure.

Per potestatem, vnder colour of auctoritee.

Obsecro, vt per pacem liceat te alloqui, I pray you let me talke with you without displeasure, or I pray you here me patiently.

Per fas & nefas, by right or by wronge, by one way or an other.

Per se sibi quisque charus est, every man of nature loueth him selfe.

Per silentiū ad esse æquo animo, to here without speaking one woorde, to here quietly.

Per silentium ed deducti, brought thither without noyse.

Per stadia duo, the space of two furlonge.

Per speciem venandi urbem egressi, they went out of the towne, by making semblance to goe on huntynge, or as though they went on huntynge.

Per summum dedecus, with greate shame or diswooorthyp.

Per te stetit, it lay in thee.

Volo, ne per me stetisse credat, I woulde haue him thynke, that there was no faute or let in me.

Per tempus, all at tyme, in time, in very good season.

Per cornu faucibus infundito, poure it into his mouth with an hozne.

Per alium ostendere suam sententiā, to shew his minde vnder the colour or name of an other man.

Per ea tempora, in those daies, or during that time. Per hos annos, per hos dies.

Per viginti annos, the space of .xx. yeres.

Per causam, vnder the colour or pretence.

Sed prospera per deos, but make speede for goddes sake.

Per ego te deos oro, I pray the for goddes sake.

Per fas & fidem decipere, to deceiue vnder the colour of religion and faithfull promise.

Per gratiam abire, to departe with good will, or without displeasure.

Per insidias, by treason.

Per inuidiam depelli tribunatu, to be put by the Tribunes for enuy.

Per iram aliquid facere, to doo a thyng in ones anger, or while he is angry.

Consulere aliquem per ludibrium, To aske counsaile of one in mocheage.

Per ludum & iocum, in test, merely, in game, in spozte and play.

Per ludum & negligentiam peruenire ad aliquid, to attayne a thyng and neuer sue or labour for it.

Per luxuriam effundere, to spende riottously, or to consume in diete and banquettyng.

Per me nulla est mora, I am ready, there is no let or hinderance in me.

Per me percontatus sum, id est ex me ipso, of my selfe without mocion of other.

Nisi per necessitatem rem aperire noluerat, Onelesse it were of necessitee, or if necessitee did not constrainge.

Per nos, by our meanes.

Per nos egebit, qui &c. he shall lacke for vs, whiche &c.

Quasi per officium, as it were dooen for due reuerence and honour.

Singuli per ordinem, every one in order.

Per hanc rationem ei datur, id est, hoc modo, in this wyse, after this facion.

Cum ipsum Furnium, per se vidi libentissime me, tum, &c. for his owne sake, or for the loue that I beare to him selfe.

Per se aliquid posse, by it selfe without helpe of other.

Per simulationem vel speciem amicitie aliquem prodere, to betray one vnder the colour of frendshyp.

Per omne tempus, quo fuimus vna, All the whyle that we were together.

Per ver, in spring tyme.

Per viam, id est, in itinere, goynge by the way.

Per vices, id est vicissim, by course, one after an other.

Per vices annorum, every one his yere.

Per visum, in a vision or dreame.

Via secta per ambas, id est, inter, betwixt booths.
Per enim magni aestimo, for Per magni. Per mihi mirum for Per mirum.
Perac, a, f. g. a scrippe or bagge, a satchell.
Perabsurdus, a, um, very absurde, very foo-lysh, contrary to reason, contrary to itselfe.
Peracer, cris, cre, very sharpe; eigre; or vehementer.
Peracre iudicium, a very quicke of good iudge-ment; a great iudgement.
Peracerbus, a, um, very eigre of lower, lyke fruit that is not ripe.
Peracesco, cui, scere, to be very eigre of lower;
by translation to be very displeased.
Peracidus, a, um, very eigre of lower.
Peracticum, ci, n. g. a kynde of gammes.
Peractio, onis, f. g. accomplishment of peccato-r mance.
Peractus, a, um, accomplished, perfourmed,
doen to the ende.
Peracuo, acui, acuer, to make very sharpe.
Peracut, very sharpe, very wittly, ingeniously.
Peracutus, a, um, very sharpe, also wittly, fyne, or quicke witted.
Peraea, the bittermost parte of Judea, towards Arabia and Egypt.
Peradifico, aui, are, to builde vp, to make an ende of an house or building.
Peraquatores, they that leape or gather head
money.
Peraque, very equally, all alyke, euen lyke, euen
the one as muche as the other.
Peraque florere, to flourish equally.
Peraqueo, aui, are, to make equall or lyke.
Peraqueus, a, um, very equall or iuste.
Perago, peragis, egi, agere, to perfourme, to make perfite, to consider, to draw or cause to be drawn with force, to synge. Sometime to thrust through, also to passe thorough, to be-te, to dyne violently.
Peragere reum, to accuse one, and to sue him
to a condemnation.
Peragere omnia secum animo, to consider,
to digest every thyng in his mynde.
Peragere cibum, to digest or consort meate.
Peragere mortem, to die.
Perageres gestas, to write all that is done.
Vbi sententiam meam vobis peragero, after that I haue shewed you thoroughly myne opinion.
Inceptum peragere, to synge or byng to an ende that one hath enterprised.
Latus ense peragit, he thruste him through the syde with a swoorde.
Mandata peragere, to doo or say that he was commaunded.
Nauium peragit in portum, he brought the shyppe into the haven.
Noctes peragere insomnes, to lie whole nights, and sleape nothyng.

Partes suas peragere, to doo his office, dulle or charge.
Peragere laboris pensum, to wooke out, or make vp his task that he is appoynted to.
Peregit deinde postulata, afterwarde he demanded or required those thynges, that he was sent for.
Tot volumina peregit, he red ouer or perused
so many volumes.
Peragito, aui, are, to make, moue, or stirre behemely ostentymes.
Peragro, peragras, graui, are, to walke, go, or renne about a place.
Orator in peragrat per animos hominum, an orator in his oracion doth to touch the partes and affections of mens myndes.
Peragrar latebras suspicionum, to seche all coniectures, wherof suspicion may happen.
Peragrar Aham, to wander ouer all Asia.
Fama peragrauit, the rumour or byute went abrode.
Peragrar animo, to compasse in the minde, to consider, to imagine.
Peragratus, a, um, gone aboute.
Peragratio, onis, f. g. a goyng about.
Peramans, anis, om. g. one that loueth hettely.
Peramanter, very louingly, lyke an earnest and hettely friende.
Perambulo, aui, are, to go thorough, sometime to ryde through or about a countrey or fildes, to walke thorough or ouer and ouer.
Peramo, aui, are, to loue well, to loue thought-ly, or euen to the ende, to loue perfectly.
Peramplus, a, um, veray ample large or greate,
very honourable and magnificent.
Peranguste, very strictly and narrowly.
Perangustus, a, um, very strictly or narrow.
Peranno, aui, are, to lyue a yere to an ende.
Perantiquus, a, um, very auncient.
Perappositus, a, um, very apte, meete or fitte for the purpose.
Perardeo, dere, to bourn out or thorough.
Perardus, a, um, very difficult and harde.
Perargutus, a, um, very subtille and ingenious,
very wittly.
Perareo, rui, etc, to dye vp, to be very dy.
Peraresco, perarui, scere, to waxe very dy,
or dye thorough and thorough.
Peraridus, a, um, very dy or thorough dy.
Peraro, peraras, aui, are, to till all thorough, to care ouer and ouer, sometime to write.
Peraratus, a, um, tyllid ouer and ouer, or written thoroughly.
Perasper, ra, rum, very rough.
Perastute, very subtilly and craftly.
Perastutus, a, um, very subtille and craftie.
Perattente, very attentively.
Perattentus, a, um, very attentive and diligense to heare.
Perbacchor, aris, ari, to be ostentymes drunken,

to vse bankettyng and drynkyng very muche, to passe the tyme in drynkyng and making good chere.

Perbeatus, a, um, very happy and blessed, even in heauen.

Perbelle, very well, right well.

Perbellus, a, um, very good, right good, right honest.

Perbene, very well.

Perbenigne, very liberally, very courteously and gentill, very graciously.

Perbibo, perbibis, perbibere, to quaffe or drynke all out. Sometime for Bibere, to drynke.

Perbitere, for praere, to go before.

Perblandus, a, um, very pleasant and courteous in wordes.

Perbonus, a, um, very good, right good.

Perbreuis, ue, very short or briefe.

Perbreuiter, very shortly, very briefly, in very few wordes.

Perca, e, f, g. a fische called a perche.

Percalefacio, lefacis, feci, facere, to make thos rough warme or hotte.

Percaleo, callui, lere, to be woren harde, to be so accustomed to a thyng, that he feleth no more the payne of it.

Percallere vsum alicuius rei, to knowe perfectly the vse of any thyng.

Per candidus, a, um, very white. also veray ples-ant and gentill.

Percantatrix, traxis, f, g. a syngyng wench. also an inchauntresse.

Percantus, a, um, very subtil or wylly, very ware and circumspecte.

Percedere, to departe.

Percelebro, aui, are, to publyshe in all places.

Perceler, a, um, very swifte, quicke and speedy.

Percello, perculi, and percussi, lere, to stryke and ouerthrow, to moue, to stirre, to perce.

Perculit eum illud, that abated his courage, or strake him to the herte.

Percellere pectus pauore, To trouble one greatly with feare, and make him soe abashed to perce and strike one to the herte with feare.

Percussus animus & abiectus, his spirite was troubled, and his courage abated.

Percellere & euertere.

Percussit mihi animum, it went euen to the very harte of me.

Si te dolor aliquis perculerit, yf any grieve or sorrow doo perce, payne, vexe, or come vpon the.
Percussit me, it delited me, it moued my spi-
rites.

Quum vnam & alteram pestis perculerit,
When the pestilence hath infected or attached
one or two of them.

Perculeris iam tu me, wylt thou ouerthrowe me now?

Percellere, for Differre, as, Ad nouum hoc percellit annum, he deferreth this vnto an other yere.

Perrenseo, censui, ere, to triumph or reuen, to reherse ouer, to number vp.

Totum perconsuit of be in, id est peragratia Percio, percies, cui, ciere, to moue or stirre greatly.

Percingo, cingis, gere, to gyde about.

Percino, nere, to syng or play, to continue synging to syng to the ende.

Percipio, percipis, cepi, ere, to perceiue, to take or receiue, to comprehend, to learne, to vnderstande, to know.

Negagri, heque vrbis odium me vñ percipit,
I am neuer thoroughly weary, neyther of synging in the country, nor in the cite.

Percipere vsum alicuius rei, to vse a thyng.

Percipere opinionem, to conceiue or haue an opinion of a thyng.

Diligenter que dicuntur percipere, to heare and vnderstande diligently what one doeth say.

Percipere artem, disciplinas, doctrinam, to learne, to perceiue, to vnderstande.

Acerbissimos dolores percipere, To take or haue great sorrow and trouble.

Fructum ex arbore percipere, to haue, gather or take fruite of a tree.

Memoria percipere, To comprehend in the memoire.

Nomina omnium ciuium percipere, to comprehende and retyne in memoire all the citesens names.

Oculis percipere, to see perfectly.

Percipere voluptatem, iucunditatem, latictiam, &c. to take pleasure, &c.

Perclam, very proudly.

Perclamo, aui, are, to rise out.

Perceptio, onis, form, ge. a takyng, recepyng,
a percepyng or vnderstandyng.

Perceptio animi, knowledge, intelligence, whā the mynde comprehendeth or compasseth a
thyng.

Perceptio fructuum, the takyng of the profit or fruites.

Percnos, ni, mas, gen. the birde, whiche we call a bald bussard.

Percitus, a, um, stirred, greatly moued or vexed.

Ira percitus, & iracundi percitus, very angry,
wood angry.

Percitus insania, madde.

Percoarcto, aui, are, to hyng into a litle roome, to strygne very harde together.

Percoctus, a, um, wel boyled, thoroughly boyled.

Percognosco, noui, scire, to know thoroughly and perfectly.

Percolo, lui, lere, to wozship much, to loue and reuerence greatly, to make perfecte, to trymme vp, to polyme, to synne.

Percolo, aui, are, to strayne through.

Percōmis, me, very gentill and gracious.

Percommode, very well, right well, very easily.

Percommode facis, Thou doest wonderfull wel.

Perdicium, ch, m, g, m, an herbe called pellitorie of the wall, reade Helxine, & Parietaria.
Perdifficilis, de, verie difficile and harde.
Perdifficiliter, very difficultly.
Perdignus, a, um, very worthy, right worthy.
Perdiligens, entis, very diligent.
Perdiligenter, right diligently.
Perdisco, didici, scere, to learne perfectly, to learne to the ende.
Perdire, extremely, corruptly, desperately, impet- chedly, greatly, vehemently.
Se perdire gerere, to behaue him selfe naugh-
tily and corruptly.
Perdire amare, to loue desperately of oute of measure.
Perdire conari, to endenour very earnestly and spitefully.
Perditio, onis, perdition.
Perditor, oris, m, g, one that destroyeth or bynsgeth to naught.
Perditor & conseruator reipublice, corrupt.
Perditus, a, um, losse, perished, without recourie, out of hope, bitterly undone and cast away, desperately naught.
Perditus homo, a mischengous and desperate
knaue, in whome is no hope of recouerie.
Aere alieno perditus, undone with debte.
Perditus nihil est, There is no man in the worlde more desperately naught than he is.
Tu rem impeditam & perditam restituas?
Canst thou restore a thyng intricate and past hope of recouerie?
Perdita valetudo, suche sykenesse that a man
dispatreth of his helth.
Perdiu, very long.
Perdiues, perdiuitis, very riche.
Perdius, dij, m, g, that abydeth or watcheth all the day longe.
Perdix, icis, f, g, a partryche.
Perdix rustica, a rale, which is counted a kind of partryche. Perdix is also the name of a lame vitailer in Aristophane.
Perdo, didi, ere, to lose, to slea, to corrupt with yll maners, and (as we say) to stroy, to marre, to caste away, to make vnthyfty, also to as- cliete, to vndoore, to bynge into much wo
and trouble.
Perdis gnatum, ye leese your sonne and make him an vnthyfte.
An id laudi sibi fore putat, si perdidit gnatum?
If he byng his sonne to confusion?
Cur perdis adolefcem nobis? Why doest
thou marre, corrupt, or caste away this yonge man our sonne?
Perdere aliquem, to byng one in danger of his lyfe, or in so much trouble that he can not escape it.
Vbi illic est scelus, qui me perdidit? where is that vngracious knaue, that hath undone me?
or brought me into all this trouble?
Quem ego capitis perdam, whome I will slea or hille.

Aquam perdere, monstrously consume time,
to lose time in bayne.
Litem perdere, to lose his possesse of lute.
Famam perdere, to lose his same or name.
Fidem perdere, to lose his credence.
Formam perdere, to be no more so well as honored as he hath been.
Gratiam perdere, to have no more that grace
that it was wont.
Nomen perdidit, I have for gotten his name.
Oculos perdere, to lose his syght.
Operam perdere apud aliquem doctorem,
to lose his laboure under one that teacheth him.
Operam & oleum perdere, to laboure in vaine
to lose his laboure and to lose.
Nisi id verbum in omne tempus perdidisset,
If I had not losse and for gotten that word, for euer and a day.
Mores perdere, to chaunge his maners.
Libertatem perdere, to be brought into seru-
tude and bondage.
Prandium perdere, to lose his dinner.
Stomachum perdere, to be in that case, that he can be no more moued to anger.
Perdere verba, to lose his speache.
Perdocere, perdoces, docui, docere, to teache or instrute perfectly.
Perdoctus, very cunningly.
Perdoctus, a, um, very cunning.
Perdoleo, perdoles, dolui, lere, to be verae
soye.
Perdomitus, a, um, made verae tame, bitterly subdued, brought into full and due obeyance.
Perdomo, mul, are, to make verae tame, to sub- due bitterly.
Prouinciam aliquam perdomare, to bynge
a prouince or countrey in subiection or due ob- edience.
Terram perdomare, to tyll grounde that is tough, toughe, and rubburne.
Perdormisco, scere, to sleepe a ful sleepe, to sleepe all nyght longe euen to the morning.
Perduco, duxi, ere, to byng to an ende, to byng or leade by force or other meanes. Sometyme to induce or perswade.
Ad centesimum annum vitam perduxit, he liued full an hundred year.
Perducere ad exitum, culmen, vel summum to finishe, to make perfect, to byng to an ende.
Perduxit omnes in suam sententiam, he indus-
red or brought them all into his opinion.
Ad mendacium perducere, to be perswaded or induced to make a lie.
Rogat, ut eas ad ducenta talenta perducere, he prateeth me that I woulde induce or bynge them to pay. 24000. li.
In odium perducere, to make one hated or odious.
Oppugnatio ad media noctem perducta est,
the assaut was continued til midnight.
Ni

Ni alterationem in serum perduxisset, if he had not prolonged the alteration till it was long in the night.

Murum in scabellum pedum altitudinem perducere, to wryde by make up a walle, for foote height.

Perducere ad aliud iudicium, to bying before other iudges.

Nequis perducet, thou canst not be perswased by inducib.

Perducto, anare, the frequentative of Perduco.

Perductory, oris, m. ge. he that byingeth one to a man against his will, a bauder that byingeth women to men whether they will or no.

Perductus, a, um, ledde or brought throughte, or to an ende, also inducib.

Perduellio, onis, m. g. treason against the king or the countrey, also a traytoure.

et. Perduellis, lis, m. gen. an ennemie, a stubborn ennemie that mainteyneth warre.

Perduro, aui, are, to continue strongly or to the ende.

Perduratus, a, um, hardened, strengthened, conspymed.

Péredo, peres, or pèredis, peredi, peresse, vel dere, to eate all, to eate throughte.

Peredia, and Bibetia, Plautus vsed for a greedie appetite to eate or drynke.

Peregre, out of a mans propre countrey.

Peregre vado, I go out of the countrey or on pylgrimage, or into a strange countrey.

Peregre venio, I come out of strange countreys, or from pylgrimage.

Peregre sum, I am farre out of my countrey.

Peregrinabundus, a, um, that is wont to go or dwell in strange countreys.

Peregrinatio, onis, f. g. pylgrimage, goynge into strange countreies.

Peregrinator, oris, m. g. he that is wonte to go into strange countreys, a pylgrime.

Peregrinitas, aris, f. m. g. straungenesse, beyng in a strange countrey. also straungenesse of pronounciation that sheweth one to be of an or ther countrey.

Peregrinor, aris, ari, to go into strange countreys, or on pylgrimage, to dwell or be in a strange countrey.

Vestraures peregrinantur, your eares bee on pylgrimage, or you set so listell by the matters of the citie, that you heare not that whiche every man speaketh.

Longe lateq; peregrinari, to go farre abroad in diuers strange countreys.

Peregrinus, a, um, a straunger or alian, that is of an other countrey, strange.

Facies peregrina, a strange fauour.

Perelegans, antis, om. ge. very elegant, very pleasse, that hath a great grace.

Pereleganter, with a great grace.

Pereloquens, entis, om. g. very eloquent.

Perempalla, amonge Angures, were those lightnynges, whiche did bitterly destroy and putte as wether the signification of other lightnynges and tokens pcedyng.

Peremptorius, a, um, that killeth deadly.

Peremptorium edictum, a peremptory watnyng given to him that maketh default of apparence after the whiche he shall neuer have any day given him, but the iudge shall procede to the knowlage and determination of the matter.

Peremptus, a, um, slayne, killeth.

Perendie, the day next after to morow, the thirde day after.

Perendinus dies, idem.

Perendings, a, um, belongynge to the thyrde day.

Perenne, for euer, alwaies, perpetually, continually.

Perennia, orum, n. ge. certayne ceremonies obserued of the diuinours.

Perennis, ne, om. gen. perpetuall, euer durynge, continuall.

Perennis fluuius, a river that renneth alwaies lphewyse, Perennis riuus, & perennis fons. Studium perenne, continuall studie.

Perenniferus, ui, ma. gen. he that serueth and mapster alwaies.

Perennitas, aris, f. m. gen. continuance, longe abidyng.

Perenno, aui, are, to dure or continue for euer.

Pereo, iui, and perij, ire, peritum, to be loste or consumed, also to die, to perishe, to wether away, to miscarie, to be caste away, to be utterly vndone.

Perire ab aliquo, to be slayne by one.

Perierunt ades, the house is downe or in ruin.

Periit illi pudor, he is not ashamed, he is past shame.

Nullus otio perit dies, no day is loste with ydleness, or he passeth no day idly.

Tua arte viginti minæ pro psaltria periere, by thy craft I haue caste away. xx. li. vpon the spynnyng wenche.

Ne pueri periant fame, that the childzen die not for hunger.

Quod si sit, pereo funditus, if it be so, I am utterly vndone.

Perire morbo, to die of a sickness.

Peream, I would I should die than.

Perit ab animo, his courage fayleth him.

Perire mulierem, to die for the loue of a woman, to loue a woman desperately.

Prudens, sciens, viuus, vidensq; pereo, I am wilfully cast away.

Perij, alas I am cast away or vndone.

Ne illi nihil profis, & tu pceas, lest thou do him no good, and cast away thy selfe.

Male pereat, a mischief take him.

Perij animo, alas my hert is doen.

Crudelius perire, to be moze cruelly slayne.

Fortiter perire, to die manfully.

Petēquito, ani, are, to ryde rounde about of on every parte.
 Pererratus, a, um, that hath ben wandred of
 gone ouer.
 Pererro, ani, are, to go of ryde about, to wandre
 ouer and ouer.
 Luminibus pererrare aliquem, to loke round
 aboute one.
 Pereruditus, a, um, very counnyng, right well
 learned.
 Perexcrucio, ani, are, to torment one greatly.
 Perexiguus, a, um, very litlell of small.
 Perexiguum tempus, a very shorte time.
 Perexilis, le, very slender of small.
 Perexpeditus, a, um, verie prompte of redie.
 Perfabrico, ani, are, to make an end of a building
 Perfacere, very pleasauntly.
 Perfacetus, a, um, very pleasaunt.
 Perfacile, very easily, very lightly.
 Perfacilis, le, very easie.
 Perfacul, the quancient wryters vled for Facile,
 lightly.
 Perfamiliaris, re, very familiar, of very grente acquaintance.
 Perfecte, perfectly.
 Perfectissimatus, tus, masc. gen, a high dig-
 nitee of office.
 Perfectio, onis, fce. g. perfection, fully dispatching of finishing of a matter.
 Perfector, oris, m. g. he that byngeth a thyng
 to passe of to appoynte.
 Perfectus, a, um, perfect, accomplisshed, obtained.
 Perfero, pertuli, ferre, to beare of suffer to the ende of thynghy, to bynge in conclusion, Als so to byng of tell tydynes, to endure of abide patiently.
 Opem perferre, to ayde.
 Literas perferre, to byng letters to him, to
 whome they were sent.
 Clamor per totam concionem fertur, There
 was a great shoute of crye ouer all the concion
 of assemble.
 Laudem in urbem perferre, to cause his citee
 of countrey to haue the prayse of commendacis
 on of a thyng, of to doo a thyng to the honoure and prayse of his countrey.
 Legem perferre, to make a lawe.
 Mandata perferre, to beare a message.
 Nuntium perferre, to beare tydynes.
 Omnium nuntijs perfertur, every man telleth of every man byngeth that tydynes.
 Rumor hoc pertulit nobis, we herde this by
 the rumour and speakyng of the people.
 Patri omnem rem illuc perferat, leat hym go thither to my father, and tell him the whole matter.
 Deficere animo, & perferre, contrary.
 Perferre famem ac sitim, to suffer, susteine of
 abyde hunger and thyrste.
 Perferre crudelitatem, cruciatum, frigus, vigiliis, dolorem, &c. to suffer, to abyde, to endure.

 Supplicium pro meritis perferre, to be punis-
 shed for his offences.
 Perferre rogationem, to delate the matter to the people and aske their opinion.
 Perferre fructum, to beare fruite.
 Cum ad eum fama perlata esset, when he herd
 that rumoure.
 Perferuidus, a, um, very hotte.
 Perficio, perficis, feci, ficere, to accomplishe,
 to bynge to appoynte, to obteyne, to bynge to passe of effecte, to attieue his purpose.
 Cibum perficere, to concocte of digest meate.
 Promissa perficere, to accomplishe and pres-fourme promises.
 Quam rem voluisti a me, quin perfeceris?
 What thyng did you ever requyre of me, but that you had your purpose? Of what thyng haue you ever wylled me to doo, but that you haue had your mynde, of but that you haue brought it to passe of effecte.
 Perfecit sibi in inspicuendi effect copia, he did so muche, that he had licence to beholde it.
 Pelles perficere, to dresse selles and make lesther of them.
 Perfidelis, le, very saythfull and trustie.
 Perfidia, x, fce. ge. falschode agaynst promise of truste, disloyaltee, vntreuth, vnfaithfulnesse, treason, trecherie.
 Perfidiolus, disloyally, trayterously, falsely, vndfaithfully.
 Perfidiolus, a, um, full of disloyaltee, ful of false-
 hode and vntreuth, trayterous and false.
 Perfido, to haue a great confidence.
 Perfidus, a, um, false of promise, that doeth any thyng agaynst the truth that is put in him, dis-loyall, trayterous.
 Vappa perfida, venemous.
 Perfixus, a, um, perced, ricked through, thrust through, striken through.
 Perflabilis, le, that may be blowne through.
 Perflatus, us, m. g. a great blast of wynde.
 Perflo, ani, are, to blow vehemently of strongly,
 to blow through.
 Perfluctuo, ani, are, to flow of ren ouer much.
 Perfluo, fluxi, ere, to renne out as water dweth out of a broken vessell, to renne out on every parte, to leake on every syde.
 Plenus rimarum sum, hac atque illac perfluo,
 I am full of chappes of holes, and renne oute of leake at this place and that place on every
 syde.
 Perfluere voluptatibus, to swymme in sensu-alites, to liue all at pleasure.
 Perfluere, sometyme for Fluere.
 Perfodio, perfodis, fodi, dere, to bore of perce through, to strike through, to dygge through of to the bottome of deepe of any thyng.
 Perfodere parietem, to breake a walle, to make an hole through a wall.
 Perfodere montem, to make away of passage
 through through a mountayne or hill.

Perfodi gladie, to be sliced or goied in with swoordes.

Perfodere terram, to digge deepe in the grounde.

Perforata, an herbe, called also of Diosco. Hipericon, vel herba S. Iohannis.

Perforatus, a, um, boied or perced through, that hath an hole made through.

Perfore, to come well to passe.

Performidatus, a, um, greatly feared.

Performo, aui, are, to facion out a thyng.

Perforo, aui, are, to prece or make an hole through, to boze through.

Perfortiter, mightily, veray manfully, right valiantly.

Perforatus, a, um, perced through, striken or digged through.

Perfracté, or after the better copies, Præfracté, stubburnely, obstinately.

Perfractus, a, um, broken in pteces.

Perfremo, fremui, ere, to make a great grunsing or troppng.

Perfretio, aui, are, to passe ouer or through.

Perfrictio, onis, for, gen. a rubbing or frotting harde.

Perfrico, fricul, are, to rub much, to rub harde.

Perfricant sale minuto, they ponder it with a littell salte.

Perfricit faciem aut frontē, aut os, is a prowerbe, as muche to say, as he hath laied a parte shame, or he is shamelesse or without abasement.

Perfrictæ frontis, without shame or honestie.

Perfrigefacio, feci, facere, to make very colde.

Perfrigeo, frigēs, frixi, gere, to be greatly or througely a colde.

Perfrigero, aui, are, idem quod Refrigero.

Perfrigesco, scere, to waxe very colde.

Perfrigidus, a, um, very colde, through colde.

Perfringo, frégi, gere, to breake in pteces.

Ne perfregerit aliquid, least he haue broken any thyng.

Perfruor, perfruitus sum, perfrui, to take all the profite or commoditee, to take greate pleasure or recreation in any thyng.

Perfruitus est, he hath taken the fruite or pleasure of a thyng, he hath vsed or exercised a thyng, or els hath leste the vse or exercise therof.

Perfuga, æ, ma, gen. he that fleeth to the contrary parte in battaile, or that forsaketh his campayne.

Perfugio, perfugis, fugi, ere, to renne vnto one for succour.

Perfugium, ij, n. g. a place, wherunto a man renneth to haue succour, or to be kept from daunger. it is also taken for any thyng, whereby a man may be succoured, a place of refuge. also a sanctuarie.

Perfugium & spes, refuge and hope.

Laborum omnium perfugium somnus est,

sleep is the rest and quiete of all laboured.

Portus & perfugium misera fortuna, a place of refuge in aduersitee and trouble.

Vni perfugio, to saue him selfe in a place.

Illo perfugio vti possit, he may vse this excuse.

Perfalcio, ciui, ire, to flay or holde by well.

Perfunctio, onis, f. g. a doyng or exercysinge of a thyng euen to the ende.

Perfunctio laborum, indurynge of labour and traunple euen to the ende.

Perfunctorie, passyng ouer lightly, negligentely, for a facion onely, to bee quited or dispatched of it.

Perfunctorie munus suū implere, to doo his dutie, or that is committed to his charge, negligentely, and only for a facion to be discharged.

Perfunctorius, a, um, that which passeth lightly away, or tareth not longe. That is done negligentely, and onely for a facion.

Perfunctus, a, um, he that hath done his dutie of office diligently. also dispatched, deliuered.

Perfunctus consulatu, he that hath been consull.

Perfunctus honoribus, he that hath bene in great office and authoritie in the comon weale.

Perfunctus fato, dead.

Perfunctus laboribus, he that hath endured labour euen to the ende, that hath dooen his labour deliuered of his labours.

Perfunctus a febris, deliuered of a feuer, whole of the feuer.

Perfundo, fudi, dēre, to poure out, droppe out, or still out, to poure out on euery parte, to waste all about, altowasthe, althoed vpon, to poure vpon all ouer and ouer.

Perfunditque genas lachrymis, the teares dropped downe on his chiekes.

Perfundere animum religionē, to make scrupulous or religious.

Perfundere animos suauitate, to delite mens myndes very pleasantly.

Perfundere tecta auro, to gylt houses.

Aceto quempiam perfundere, like Acetū.

Perfundere iucunditate, læticia, &c. id est repleri, to be verie forunde and pleasant, to be mery, &c.

Perfundere voluptatibus, to lyue all in voluptee and pleasure.

Perfundere aliquem iudicio, to force one to come before a iudge and make his answer.

Qui me horror perfudit, how soze a feare was I, how dyd all my body tremble.

Aqua feruenti perfunditur, he hath hot water cast or poured vpon him.

Perfundor, to be all embued.

Perfungor, functus sum, fungi, to doo his dutie, office and charge euen to the ende.

Perpeti & perfungi, to suffer and endure euen to the ende.

Perfuro, perfuris, perfurere, to be in a great

Per equito, ani, are, to ryde rounde about of on eury parte.
Pererratus, a, um, that hath ben wandred of
gone ouer.
Pererro, ani, are, to go of rīde about, to wandre
ouer and ouer.
Luminibus pererrare aliquem, to loke round
aboute one.
Pereruditus, a, um, very counnyng, right well
learned.
Perexcrucio, ani, are, to torment one greatly.
Perexiguus, a, um, very littell of small.
Perexiguum tempus, a very shorte time.
Perexilis, le, very slender of small.
Perexpeditus, a, um, verie prompte of redie.
Perfabrico, ani, are, to make an end of a building
Perfacere, very pleasantly.
Perfacetus, a, um, very pleasant.
Perfacile, very easily, very lightly.
Perfacilis, le, very easie.
Perfacul, the auncient wryters vled for Facile,
lightly.
Perfamiliāris, re, very familiar, of very greate acquaintaunce.
Perfecte, perfectly.
Perfectissimatus, tus, masc. gen, a high dig-
nitee of office.
Perfectio, ōnis, fce. g. perfection, fully dispat-chyng of finishing of a mattier.
Perfector, ōris, m. g. he that byngeth a thyng
to passe of to appoynte.
Perfectus, a, um, perfect, accomplisshed, obtayned.
Perfero, pertuli, ferre, to beare of suffer to the ende of throughe, to bynge in conclusion, also to byng of tell tydynges, to endure of abide patiently.
Opem perferre, to ayde.
Literas perferre, to byng letters to him, to
whome they were sent.
Clamor per totam concionem fertur, There
was a great shoute of crye ouer all the concion
of assemble.
Laudem in urbem perferre, to cause his citee
of country to haue the prayse of commendaris
on of a thyng, of to doo a thyng to the honoure
and prayse of his country.
Legem perferre, to make a lawe.
Mandata perferre, to beare a message.
Nuntium perferre, to beare tydynges.
Omnium nuntijs perfertur, eury man telleth of eury man byngeth that tydynges.
Rumor hoc pertulit nobis, we herde this by
the rumour and speakyng of the people.
Patri omnem rem illuc perferat, leat hym go thether to my father, and tell him the whole mattier.
Deficere animo, & perferre, contrary.
Perferre famem ac sitim, to suffer, susteine of
abyde hunger and thyrste.
Perferre crudelitatem, cruciatum, frigus, vigilias, dolorem, &c. to suffer, to abyde, to endure.

Supplicium pro meritis perferre, to be punished for his offences.
Perferre rogationem, to bestow the mattier to
the people and aske their opinion.
Perferre fructum, to beare fruite.
Cum ad eum fama perferretur, when he herd
that rumoure.
Perferuidus, a, um, very hotte.
Perficio, perficis, feci, ficere, to accomplishe,
to bynge to appoynte, to obtayne, to bynge to passe of effecte, to atchieue his purpose.
Cibum perficere, to conceite of digest meate.
Promissa perficere, to accomplishe and per-forme promises.
Quam rem voluisti a me, quin perfeceris?
What thyng did you euer requyre of me, but
that you had your purpose? Of what thyng haue you euer wylled me to doo, but that you
haue had your mynde, of but that you haue
brought it to passe of effecte.
Perfecit sibi in inspicundi esset copia, he dyd
so muche, that he had licence to beholde it.
Pelles perficere, to dresse felles and make lesther of them.
Perfidelis, le, very faythfull and trustie.
Perfidia, a, fce. ge. falsehood agaynst promise of truste, disloyaltee, vntreuth, unfaithfulness,
treason, trecherie.
Perfidiose, disloyally, trayterously, falsely, vnd-
faithfully.
Perfidiosus, a, um, full of disloyaltee, full of false-
hode and vntreuth, trayterous and false.
Perfido, to haue a great confidence.
Residus, a, um, false of promise, that doeth any thyng agaynst the truth that is put in him, dis-
loyall, trayterous.
Vappa perfida, venomous.
Perfixus, a, um, perced, ricked through, thrust through, stricken through.
Perforabilis, le, that may be blowne through.
Perforatus, us, m. g. a great blast of wynde.
Perfio, ani, are, to blow vehemently of strongly,
to blow through.
Perfluctuo, ani, are, to flow of ren ouer much.
Perfluo, fluxi, ere, to renne out as water dwerly out of a broken vessell, to renne out on eury parte, to leake on eury syde.
Plenus rimarū sum, hac atque illac perfluo,
I am full of chappes of holes, and renne oute
of leake at this place and that place on eury
syde.
Perfluere voluptatibus, to swymme in sensu-alites, to liue all at pleasure.
Perfluere, sometyme for Fluere.
Perfodio, perfodis, fodi, dere, to boze of perce through, to strike through, to dygge throughe
of to the bottome of deepe of any thyng.
Perfodere parietem, to bytake a walle, to
make an hole through a wall.
Perfodere montem, to make away of passage
through through a mountayne of hill.

 Perforadi gladys, to be ticked or gozed in with swoordes.
 Perforare terram, to digge derpe in the
 grounde.

Perforata, an herbe, called also of Diosco. Hiperricon, vel herba S. Ioannis.

Perforatus, a, um, bozed or perced through, that hath an hole made through.

Perfore, to come well to passe.

Performidatus, a, um, greatly feared.

Performo, aui, are, to facion out a thyng.

Perforo, aui, are, to perce or make an hole through, to boze through.

Perfortiter, mightily, veray manfully, right bastlyantly.

Perforatus, a, um, perced through, stricken or dig-ged through.

Perfractē, or after the better copies, Perfractē, or stubbornly, obstinately.

Perfractus, a, um, broken in pieces.

Perfremo, fremui, ere, to make a great geunnyng or roppng.

Perfreto, aui, are, to passe ouer or through.

Perfrictio, ōnis, fœ, gen. a rubbing or frottyng
 harde.

Perfrico, fricui, are, to rub much, to rub harde.

Perfricant sale minuto, they ponder it with a littell salte.

Perfricit faciem aut frontē, aut os, is a pro-uerbe, as muche to say, as he hath laied a parte thame, or he is thamelesse or without abashe-went.

Perfricta frontis, without thame or honestee.

Perfrigefacio, feci, facere, to make very colde.

Perfrigeo, friges, frixi, gere, to be greatly or thynghly a colde.

Perfrigero, aui, are, idem quod Refrigerero.

Perfrigesco, scere, to waxe very colde.

Perfrigidus, a, um, very colde, through colde.

Perfringo, frēgi, gere, to breake in pieces.

Ne perfregerit aliquid, least he haue broken any thyng.

Perfruor, perfruitus sum, perfrui, to take all the profite or commoditee, to take greate pleasure or recreation in any thyng.

Perfruitus est, he hath taken the fruite or pleas-sure of a thyng, he hath vled or exercysed a thyng, or els hath lestie the vse or exercise therof.

Perfuga, æ, ma. gen. he that fleeth to the contrary parte in battaile, or that forsaketh his cas-pitayne.

Perfugio, perfugis, fugi, ere, to renne vnto one for succour.

Perfugium, ij, n. g. a place, wherunto a man ren-neth to haue succour, or to be kept from daunger. it is also taken for any thyng, whereby a man may be succoured, a place of refuge. also a sanctuarie.

Perfugium & spes, refuge and hope.

Laborum omnium perfugium somnus est,

sleep is the rest and quiete of all labourers.
 Portus & perfugium miseræ fortunæ, a place of refuge in aduersitee and trouble.
 Vn perfugio, to saue him selfe in a place.
 Illo perfugio vti possit, he may vse this excuse.

Perfalcio, ciui, ire, to stay or holde by well.

Perfunctio, ōnis, f. g. a doying or exercysinge of a thyng euen to the ende.

Perfunctio laborum, indurynge of labour and trauaile euen to the ende.

Perfunctorie, passynge ouer lightly, negligentely, for a facion onely, to bee quited or dispatched of it.

Perfunctorie munus suū implere, to doo his dutie, or that is committed to his charge, neglegently, and only for a facion to be discharged.

Perfunctorius, a, um, that which passeth lightly away, or tarieth not longe. That is done neg-ligently, and onely for a facion.

Perfunctus, a, um, he that hath done his dutie or office diligently. also dispatched, deliuered.

Perfunctus consulari, he that hath been consull.

Perfunctus honoribus, he that hath beene in grea office and authoritee in the comon weale.

Perfunctus fato, dead.

Perfunctus laboribus, he that hath endured labour euen to the ende, that hath doon his labour deliuered of his labours.

Perfunctus a feбри, deliuered of a feuer, whole of the feuer.

Perfundo, fudi, dēre, to poure out, droppe out, or still out, to poure out on every parte, to wash
 all about, altowasthe, altowasthe vpon, to poure vpon all ouer and ouer.

Perfunditque genas lachrymis, the teares dropped downe on his chiekes.

Perfundere animum religione, to make scrup-pulouse or religious.

Perfundere animos suauitate, to delite mens myndes very pleasantly.

Perfundere tecta auro, to gylt houses.

Aceto quempiam perfundere, to ke Acetū.

Perfundi iucunditate, lætitiā, &c. id est respleri, to be bette torunde and pleasaunt, to be mery.

Perfundi voluptatibus, to lyue all in voluptee and pleasure.

Perfundere aliquem iudicio, to force one to come befoze a iudge and make his answer.

Qui me horror perfudit? how soze a feare was I? how dyd all my body tremble?

Aqua feruenti perfunditur, he hath hot was-ter cast or poured vpon him.

Perfundor, to be all embzued.

Perfungor, functus sum, fungi, to doo his busi-tie, office and charge euen to the ende.

Perpeti & perfungi, to suffer and endure euen to the ende.

Perturo, perfuris, perfurere, to be in a grea

furie of woodnesse, to rage extremely.
 Perfusio, ōnis, f. g. a sheddyng vpon.
 Perfusorie, confusedly, obscurely, not with sufficient declaration of the matter.
 Perfusus, a, um, all washed, embayed.
 Perfusus cruore, all bloudie.
 Perfusus metu, soze astrapde.
 Vestes perfusæ ostro, died scarlet.
 Perga, a towne in Samphilia, wherof Diana was called Pergæa.
 Pergama, ōrum, the toures of Troy. It is taken also for the citee of Troy.
 Pergameus, a, um, and Pergamenus, a, um, of Troye.
 Pergamena charta, parchment.
 Pergamus, or Pergamum, the citee of Troy, the ryuer Silenus passeth through it.
 Pergaudeo, gauisus sum, gaudere, to reioyce greatly, to be very glad.
 Pergigno, pergeni, Pergignere, idem quod Gigno.
 Pergo, perrexi, pergere, to go, to procede, to endeavour to doo a thyng, to continue as one hath begonne, to make haste, to assay.
 Perge, go to, passe forth.
 Perge in virum, play the man, go to lyke a man, go to hardily.
 Pergin, wilt thou not leaue? wilt thou not be gone?
 Si pergis, abiero, if thou make any more a do I will be gone.
 Quo pergam, whether I go.
 Qui huc pergit, which cometh hither.
 Hac pergit, go on thys way.
 Obuiam pergere alicui, to go to meete with one.
 Pergam quo corpi hoc iter, I will continue in this journey as I haue begonne. or I will procede in the matter that I haue begonne.
 Ad littora pergens, goyng forwarde towarde the sea syde.
 Perge porro dicere, tell on thy tale, goe to tell vs.
 Eadem via pergere, quo cæteri, to procede or go on the same way that other dooe.
 Tenere viam quam institui perge, goe to, kepe on the way that thou hast begonne.
 Perge ad cætera, goe to, tell on the residue that is behynde.
 Pergit ire ad Phauorinum, id est incipit, he begynneth to go.
 Pergunt domos eorum, &c. they go to theyr houses. &c.
 Pergo præterita, I will let passe and will not speake of those thynges which are passed.
 Domum ire pergam, I will make hast to go home.
 Pergracilis, le, verie slender or small.
 Pergracor, aris, ari, to be riotous in eatyng, dymnyng, and hauntyng of harlots.
 Pergrandis, de, very great.

Pergrandis natu, very ancient.
 Pergraphicus, a, um, very cunningly made, as it were wrought with a pensell.
 Pergratus, a, um, very acceptable, very pleasant.
 Per inquam gratum feceris, you shall doo me great pleasure I say, or ye shall do euen as I would haue it.
 Pergrauis, ue, very greuouse.
 Pergrauiter, very greuouely.
 Pergula, æ, f. g. a close or open galerie, wher men vied in olde time to set wares to sell, or to teache. It is also the place in a shippe, wher men doo walke, the hatches. Also a vine railed in the southe of an hearber. Sometime the company of workemen obeying to the chief workman, after Calepine.
 Pergulanus, a, um, that resteth on a frame.
 Pergulana vitis, a vine cunnyng on a frame.
 Perhibeo, perhibes, perhibui, ere, to saye, to geue, to affirme, sometime for Exhibere, or offerre.
 Nolentibus nobis se perhibet, it offereth it selfe to vs, whether we will or no.
 Precium perhibere, to set a price.
 Perhibere testimonium, to beate witness.
 Vt verba perhibes, so far as I heare you say.
 Si vos vultis perhiberi probos, if you wyl be called good and honest men.
 Vt perhibent, as they say.
 Suo nomine aliquem perhibere, to call one by his name.
 Potius quam cibum perhiberem, rather than I woulde geue meate.
 Alia verba perhibeas, thou wouldest say or ther wyse.
 Honorem perhibere, to giue honour.
 Perhibendus, a, um, worthy to be spoken of.
 Perhonorifice, very honourable, very woorthfully, with great honour.
 Perhonorificus, a, um, very honourable, that byngeth great honour and woorth.
 Perhorreo, perhorruui, perhorre, to be soze as fraide, to shake or tremble in all the body for feare.
 Perhorresco, idem.
 Perhorrus, a, um, very horrible.
 Perhospitalis, le, that vseth greete hospitalitee.
 Perhumane, & perhumaniter, right gently.
 Perhumanus, a, um, very gentill, very husmayne.
 Perhyemo, aui, are, to endure all the wynter.
 Peri, a greke preposicion, significynge Cometyne.
 De, sometime Ultra, sometime Circum.
 Periander, one of the vii. wysemen of Grece and kyng of Lozinthe.
 Periboeton, famous, much spoken of.
 Peribolus, a compasse or circuite.
 Pericarpum, pi, n. g. a kynde of herbes that haue rounde heades lyke oynons.
 Pericles, the noble and valiant capitayne of the Athenes.

Pericles, excellent in witte and naturall eloquence: he was instructed in philosophie by Anaxagoras, so that thereby he attained unto maruailous great knowledge, noble courage and patience, in so much that when a Iewish person followed him to his house, reuylng him all the way: when he was come to his doore (than being night) Pericles commanded one of his seruantes to take a torch, and bring him (who had rebuked him) home to his house. Also he being in great estimation and authoritie among the people of Athens, would neuer be at any feastes or banquettes, nor receiue of any man, any presentes or gifts, nor did go to euery assemble or counsaile, or being there, dyd speake of reason in euery matter, but reserved him selfe to thynges of very great importance. And yet seemed he than to be very timorous. But yet his eloquence was so excellent, his voyce and pronunciation so pleasant, his sentences so ponderous and vehement, that he neuer spake, but that shortly all men consented. And therefore it is written of him, that he did fulminate his wordes, that is to say, that they proceeded from him as thunder, and lightnyng. He was of such temperance, that all though he seemed to haue all the Atheniens at his commandment, yet he neuer increased his owne reuenges, the worthe of one saythyng, but augmented the common treasure excedyngly. And such spoyle as came to his parte in the warres, he dyd employe vpon graue and vittayle, diuidyng it amonge the people in the time of necessity. He was unfortunate onely in his owne children, his eldest sonne Xantippus, persecutyng him with sundry displeasures, and openly mockyng him. Notwithstandyng (as it was reason) he died miserably before his father. Finally Pericles being lyke vnto death, the noble menne came to comforte him, speakyng softly they communed of his prowes, where he had victorie in myne great battayles. He hearyng what they spake, sayed vnto them: that he muche meruayled, that they so greatly extolled that thyng, whereof the moze parte perteyned to fortune, and had hapned to diuers other capytaynes as well as to him, and that they spake nothyng of that which was most to be prayse. For neuer man, said he (by myne occasion) had cause to put mourning garment vpon him. Plutarchus in vitis. He was also the incarnation of Christ. 4.4.1. peres.

Periclitatio, onis, fcm. g. experience or assay, a proufe, aduenturyng.

Periclitatos mores, for Spectatos, dixit Tullius, proued, tried.

Periclitatus, a, um, put in daunger. also proued, saied, aduentured.

Periclitator, aris, ari, to be in peryll. also to experience or proue a thyng, to assay, to aduenture, to leoparde.

Periclitator fama, I am in daunger to lose my good name.

Periclitare sui, I am almost dead or lyke to die for thyself.

Periclitari cancro, to be in daunger of a canker.

Periclitari omnia, to aduenture or assay all thynges.

Rumpi periclitatur, it is in daunger to be broken.

Ne inops fieri periclitetur, lest he bee in daunger to be made a beggar, or a very poore man.

Periclitatur capite, he is in daunger of his life.

Periclymenon, ni, n. ge. an herbe called wood hyne, whiche beareth the hangfurdle.

Periclymenus, for Proxibiother.

Pericornos, ni, m. ge. a kynne that compasseth all the shulle.

Periculator, aris, ari, to be in daunger, or to putte him selfe in daunger.

Periculose, daungerously, peryllously, with great daunger.

Periculose facere, to dooe a thyng with great daunger.

Periculose agrotans, so sicke that he is in leas perill of his life.

Periculosus, a, um, daungerous, perillous, full of daunger, full of perill.

Periculum, i, n. g. peryll or daunger, sometyme experience or proufe.

Periculum facere, to proue, to assay, to leoparde a toynce.

Periculo, meo, tuo, suo, one myne, thyne or his peryll.

Subtrahere periculo, to deliuer out of daunger.

Huius periculo fit, all is done on this mans peryll.

Venire in periculum, to come in daunger.

Creare periculum, to put one in daunger.

Facere & facere periculum alicui.

Ducere and Adducere in periculum, & Adferre alicui periculum, to bring one in daunger, to worke one mischief.

Inijcere alicui periculum mortis, to put one in daunger of his life.

Moliri periculum alicui, to go about or endeavour to worke one displeasure or mischief.

Periculum fortunaru negligere, not to passe for the hasard, daunger and losse of all his gooddes and substance.

Propulsare periculum, to put away daunger that is like to ensue.

Subijcere periculo, to put in daunger.

Haud sane periculum est, there is no daunger or it is not to be feared.

Nihil tibi periculi est a me, I will doo the no harme, thou needest not to feare any thyng that I will doo to thee.

A securi negat ei esse periculum, he saied he

Ggg ij was

was in no daunger to lose his life, or to be beheaded, or that he needs not to feare the daunger of his lyfe.
Fac periculum in literis, p^roue him in lea-
nyng.
Alis aliunde est periculum, some be in danger one way, some an other.
Periculum famæ mihi est, I am in daunger to lose my good name.
Si periculum vllum in te est, if you be in any daunger.
Non procul abuit à periculo vitæ, he was in great daunger of his lyfe, or it had almost cost him his lyfe.
Peridoneus, a, um, very fitte or convenient.
Peridromis, idis, f. g. a walke or galacie about the place of exercise.
Periegêsis, sis, f. g. a compasse or circuite.
Periergos, very curious.
Periergia, æ, fœm. gene. to much curiositee, to much diligence.
Perileucos, a certayne p^recious stone.
Perillus, an arteficer, which made a bull of brasse, wherinto (beyng glowyng hotte) men shoulde be put, that in tormentyng of them, by they cryng, a noyse shoulde issue out lyke the lowesyng of bellowyng of a bull. The whiche en-gynne whan Perillus had geuen unto Phalaris the cruell tyranne: he caused him fyre to be put into it, to p^roue his owne experience.
Perillustis, stre, very noble, ryght notable and
famous.
Perimbecillus, a, um, or Perimbecillis, le, vtry weake or feble.
Perimetros, id est, immensus.
Périmo, emi, ere, to kill, to take away.
Perimere reditum alicui, to let or stoppe one of his way.
Perimere consilium alicuius, to breake or disappointe ones enterpryse.
Perincommodus, a, um, very yll or incom-modious.
Perincommode, very incommodiously, very vnhansomely.
Perinconsequens, entis, nothyng consequent or agreeyng.
Perincertus, a, um, very vncertayne.
Périnde, so in lyke wyse, euen lyke, very muche, euen as, in this facion: and requireth after him. Aci, or atque si, and with a negacion quam, if it haue none of these, it is taken for æque.
Perinde atque capta vrbe, lyke as if the citee had been wonne.
Nulla re perinde motus quàm resposso, he was not so much moued with any thyng, as with the answer.
Sed perinde erit vt acceperis, but it shal be euen as thou wilt take it.
Aduentus non perinde gratus fuit, his com-yng was not very pleasaunt or acceptable.

Perinde quasi factum sit, as though it had ben
doen.
Hoc perinde est, tanquam si ego dicam, this is euen as though I should say.
Eperinde dum nos laudaret, castigaret,
id est, ita, and so, or, and by that meanes.
Eperinde reliquas commiser, and lyke wyse shoulde chaunge the other.
Perinde vt dicam, euen so as I will speake
them.
Clarissimi ciuis & perinde felicit, id est, æque, or pariter.
Fac sis perinde adeo, vt me velle intelligis, se that you be euen as you know that I woulde haue you.
Perinde tuebar, ac si vltus essem, I bidde defende it, euen as though it had bene me seruice.
Perinde coniecturam de moribus suis homines facturos, pro vt hoc vel illud egerint, that men wyl so coniecte of theyr maners, as they doo behaue them in this or that.
Perinde diuquàm lauant, so longe as they walke.
Non perinde, id est, non multū, non valde.
Perindulgens, entis, he that is very gentill and pardoneth muche. Perindulgens in patrem, very obediens, and shewyng great reuerence to his father.
Perinēphra, æ, f. g. the fat plates about the kidneys.
Perinfamis, me, that hath a very yll name.
Perinfirmus, a, um, very feeble, of small force or value.
Peringeniosus, a, um, very wittie.
Periniquus, a, um, very vniuste.
Perinignis, ne, very notable.
Perinteger, gra, grum, verie entier, pure and vncorrupte.
Perinthius, a, um, of Heraclia.
Perinthus, a citee of Thrace, which now is called Heraclia.
Periocha, chæ, f. g. a bylese argument, contrysnyng the summe of the whole matter.
Periódicus, a, um, that goeth and commeth by courses.
Periódica febris, a feuer, which cometh by cours-ses, as tercians, and quartans.
Periodus, di, f. g. a clause, a circuite in woordes, or continuance in speakyng, a periode, a full sentence. also a certayne game or exercise amōg the Grekes.
Periæci, companions or dwellers together in one house.
Peripateticus, a philosopher of Aristotles secte or opinion.
Peripetasma, âtis, n. g. the hangyng of a house,
tapestry, or other lyke thynges.
Periphas, a mans name in Virgill.
Peripheria, a circumference.
Peripherōma, or Periplerōma, âtis, n. g. a fy-gure,

gure, when a parte of a word is nothing necessary, is added unto a word.

Periphrasis, seos, f. g. circumlocutio, some wayes expressed by many.

Peripneumonia, a, f. g. an impostume in the lunges, proceedinge of thicke humours, and commonly followeth pleuresie.

Peripneumonicus, a, um, that hath that distemper.

Peripsēma, ma, n. g. the powder of butter that cometh of filpge of thynge of metall or wood also the paring of a house, entre, or other place, which cometh by reason of goyng.

Perisclis, lidis, f. g. stoppes, which women were wonte to weare.

Perissologia, a, f. g. a superfluous speaking.

Perisson, unequall, uneuon.

Peristerie, house colours of doodes.

Peristereon, a conluer house.

Peristereos, rei, f. g. of Peristerion, onis, m. g.

of Peristereum, rei, n. g. an herbe called also Verbenaca, or Verbena, Meruin.

Peristerotrophium, h, n. g. glidem quod Peristerion.

Peristrōma, itis, n. g. tapete of conuolides of head of Verbenae.

Peristylum, li, or Peristylum, li, n. g. a place set aboute with pillars, a cloyster: also a longenserie in an house.

Perite, aduerb. wisely, cunningly.

Perito, aut, are, to perish or be losse.

Perithous, the companion of Theseus.

Peritia, a, f. g. cunning in any science.

Peritus, a, um, cunning perfect in a science, experte.

Mularum rerum peritus, experte in manye thynges. Peritus, operum, iuris, legum, &c.

Peritus vsq, cunning and readie by experience and vse.

Periucunde, very pleasantly.

Periucundus, a, um, very pleasaunt.

Periuratio, onis, f. g. *forswear*ing.

Periuratiuncula, ix, a diminutive of Periuratio.

Periuriōsus, a, um, that is often forsworne.

Periūro, aut, are, to sweare vntruely, to be perswured, to breake ones othe, not to doo that he hath sworne to dooe.

Periūrus, a, um, forsworne, perjured, that hath broke his othe.

Periurior, more forsworne.

Periurium, ri, neu. gen. perjury, forswearing, breahing of ones othe.

Perizōma, itis, n. g. a bysterie, a rodplece.

Perizōnium, a coise of brode *girt*he, wherewith maidens were wont to be girt vnder their pappes, after come a vesture much like an apron, which maidens woze scd their breastes downes warde.

Perlabor, lāberis, bi, to flow or ven by a place, to syde downe, to slide by.

Perlatus, a, um, very weary, very glad.

Perlare, very broade, saue a brode.

Perlare saue, to perpene to many brode.

Perlatus, a, um, very broade.

Perlecebrare, g, g. a thyng, which pleasauntly draweth a man to saue it.

Perlecebrare, aut, are, to saue one's owne offen.

Perlego, perlegis, legi, legere, to reade ouer, to saue from the beginning to the ende.

Perlegere oculis, to viewe and beholde dispa rausly ouer and ouer.

Perlepidaspe, um, very pleasant, that hath a good grace.

Perleuis, ar, very lyght or todayne, of very litle value.

Perleui sape momento fortuna, with the least change of fortune than can be.

Perleui momento victi sunt, they were ouer come with the least thyng in the woyde.

Perleuiat perit rightly, very quickly.

Perlibens, bentis, that doeth a thyng with a very good will.

Perlibenter, with a very good will, very gladly, ryght gladly.

Perliberāsis, le, very liberall.

Perliberāter, very liberally.

Perlicio, perlicis, lexi, licere, idem quod Pelicio.

Perlicere in amicitiam, to allure one by sayis meanes to his friende.

Perlibro, aut, are, to weighe diligently, to make ruen, to leanell, to trie by the plumme rule or leanell.

Perligo, aut, are, to bynde harde or faste.

Perlinio, perlinis, lini, nire, to rubbe or ans nointe harde with any lycours.

Perlino, lini, lini, or leui, linere, to annoynt or anre all about.

Perlirō, aut, are, to doe sacrifice solemnely with all accustomed ceremonies, to please god with sacrifice, and obteyne his desyre.

Perlirus, a, um, annoynted harde.

Perlonge, very farre.

Perlonge est, it is very farre hence.

Perlonginquus, a, um, farre of, that is a great way hence.

Perlongus, a, um, very longe.

Perlongum est, it is very farre hence, it were very longe to tary.

Perloquor, qui, to speake out all to an ende, to speake perfectly.

Perlubet, it lyketh me well, with a very good will.

Perluber hanc hominem colloqui, I woulde very sayne, or I haue a great desyre to come mon with the man.

Perlubens, entis, that is very well content to do, or suffre a thyng to be dooen.

Perlūceo, lūces, lūxi, lucere, idem quod Pellus ceo, to shyne bright, to shyne thorough.

Perlucidulus, a, um, a diminutive of Perlucius dus.

Perlucidus, a, um, and Pellucidus, a, um, clere, Ggg ij tho that a man may see thorough, as water, glasse, horne.

Perclutuosus, a, um, very lamentable, full of sorrow.
Perludo, lusi, ludere, idem quod Ludo, to play
all aboute.
Perlucio, perlui, luere, to walke ouer al, to rine of walke cleane.
Perlustro, aui, are, to beholde al about diligently.
Perlustrare oculis, to viewe of looke round ab bout diligently.
Perlustrare animo, to regarde of consider ex actly in the mynde.
Perlucius, a, um, washed all ouer, rined cleane.
Permacer, cra, crum, verat leane, veray bare reine of dyse.
Permadesco, idem quod Permado.
Permadesco, defacis, feci, cere, to make very mope, or to mete muche.
Permado, permades, dui, dere, to be welte of uer and ouer, to be thorough welte.
Permagnus, a, um, very great.
Permagnas tua agitur, a greate matter of pours is in controuersie: of the controuersie is of a weightie matter of pours.
Permagno aestimare, to set at a high price, to value a thyng very deere.
Permagno vendere, to sell very deere of at a high price.
Permagnus existimare, to thynke it a very great matter.
Permagni inter est, it maketh a great matter.
Permagni referre arbitror, I iudge it to make a great matter.
Permagni nostra interest, it is very necessarie of requisite for vs.
Permaneo, permanes, mansi, nere, to abyde to the ende, to abyde tyll all be dooen, to remaine tyll, to continue.
Stabilem permanere, to continue sure and stedfast to the ende.
In incepto permanere, to continue in his pur pose that he hath enterprised.
Permanere in eadem mente, to be in the same mynde still.
Permanere in officio, to continue in due obe dience.
Permanesco, scere, to come to ones knowlage.
Vnde ad eum potest permanescere, wherby it may come to his knowlage.
Permanenter.
Permâno, aui, are, to renue all ouer, to renue in to, to be declared openly, to be divulgate of known abroad, to come to ones knowlage.
Ne permânet palam, that it come not abroad
to the knowlage of men.
Ne aliqua ad patrem hoc permânet, least it come to my fathers eares by any meanes.
Permanare ad plures, to come to the know
lage of many.
Permanavit in hanc ciuitatem doctrina Py thagora, the doctrine of Pythagoras came in to this citee.

Permanio, onis, f. g. a continuing of abyding longe in a place.
Permaturo, surui, scere, to mure through an hole.
Permediocris, cre, very meane.
Permeo, aui, are, to go, to passe over.
Permenus, a, um, measured diligently.
Permerdo, to defile ouer all.
Permessus, aut Permessis, isidos, a river in Grece, dedicate to the Muses.
Permetior, tiris, tiri, to measure, to measure di ligently, to passe of go through of ouer.
Permetiri equor, to passe of saile ouer the sea.
Permetuo, metui, meture, to be sore aftere.
Perminutus, a, um, very littell, very small, of very littell value.
Permirus, a, um, very meruylous.
Mihi permirum videtur, it is great meruyle to me.
Permisco, miscui, mistum, of mixtum, misce re, to mixe all together.
Permiscere omnia, to make a great busynesse,
to trouble and confounde all thynges.
Permiscere Græciam, to trouble all Grece, and set it in an hyppocrite.
Permiscere & Confundere.
Permisceri connubio, to be married.
Permisceri vino, to be tempered with wyne.
Permissio, onis, f. g. a sufferaunce.
Permissus, a, um, permitted, suffered.
Permissus, us, m. g. and plu. Permissa, orum,
n. g. sufferaunce, permission, licence, graunt.
Permistus, one with an other confusely.
Permistio, onis, f. g. a mixture of mingling.
Permistus, a, um, mixed, mingled.
Permitis, te, very gentill and milde. Also the rouge type.
Permitto, misi, mittere, to suffer, to permitte, to graunt, to geue licence, power of authoritee to doe a thyng: also to pardone, to yelde of de liuer, to thrust in, to throw downe, to commit, to sende forth, to let downe, as to let downe one by a rope, or other lyke thyng. Sometime for Immittere: as, Concitant equos, permit tuntque in hostem, they thrust the spures to theyr hoxses, or fetched by theyr hoxses with the spures, and galopte forth agaynst their enemies.
Permittere equum, to geue the hoxse the dy
ble, or to let him goe at his pleasure, to galope forth.
Permittere sese, to yelde him selfe.
Permittere se in deditionem alicuius, idem.
Permittere iracundia alicuius, to geue place to one whan he is angrie, to beare with one in any poynte whan he is angrie.
Permittere omnia iudicio alterius, to submit him selfe to the iudgement of one: Or to make one iudge, and suffer the whole matter to be tryed.

Permittere se fidei, or in fidem alicuius, to yelde, or submitte him selfe into ones handes, to put him selfe in ones tuition.
 De eo permissum ipse erat, faceret, quod, &c as concerning that matter, authoritie or leave was given to him, to doo as, &c.
 Neg enim liberum id vobis permittit Philippus, for Philip will not suffer you to do:
 or, Philip will not permit you to doo therein
 as you will your selfe.
 Equo permittere habenas, to let the horse have the bydle.
 Inimicitias cum aliquo suscepias, reipublica Permittere, for the common weales sake to leave of displeasure or enmitie, that he hath wrongs ued agaynst one.
 Precibus alicuius permittit aliquid, to graunt a thyng at ones besyer.
 Permodestus, a, um, very modest, very demure.
 Permodice, in very small pteem, very moderate.
 Permodicus, a, um, very littell.
 Permolestus, very grievously.
 Permolestus, I was very greatly displeased.
 Permolestus, a, um, very greivous, that cometh byteth or letteth a man much.
 Permocio, onis, f. g. a motion or mouing.
 Permouet, permoues, moui, mouere, to moue or stire greatly, to anger.
 Permouus, a, um, moued, stired.
 Permotus mente, madde, out of his witts.
 Permotus metu, feare, afraid.
 Permotus iracundia, very angry.
 Mare permotum ventis, the sea troubled with wyndes.
 Permulseo, mulsi, cere, to appease, addulce, to mitigate a mans displeasure, to please, to so-lite, to stroke one softly.
 Aures permulcere, to please or delite the
 eares.
 Perque manu permulsi eum, and thys he stroked him with his hande.
 Permulseo iras, to mitigate or asswage ones angre.
 Permulseo atq; tractare plebem, to please the people and handell them gently.
 Permultus, very many.
 Permultus, a, um, very much, very many.
 Permulto, and Permultum, aduerbes, very muche.
 Permultum interest, there is a very greate difference.
 Permundus, a, um, very cleane and pure.
 Permutatio, onis, niui, nire, to fortifie strongly, to finish the fortification that one hath begunne.
 Permutus, a, um, strongly fortified, fenced rounde about.
 Permutatio, onis, f. g. an exchaunge, barterynge, exchaungeing one thyng for an other, chaungeyng from place to place.

 Permutator, onis, m. g. he that exchaungeith.
 Permutatio, aui, are, to chaunge one thyng for an other, to chaunge from place to place, to barter. Sometime to bin.
 Permutare locum cum altero, to chaunge place with an other.
 Nomina facit vos permutastis, you have chaunged your names one with an other, or one of you hath taken an others name.
 Permutare rem publicam, id est perturbare, to trouble and alter the state of the common weale.
 Permutare pecuniam, to exchaunge money or with bankers.
 Permutare precio vel merce, to chaunge for money or for merchandise, to barter.
 Permutare aliquid are alieno alteri, to take a thyng of a man to the entente to discharge and pay that he oughth.
 Perna, a, form, gener, the pestill, and also the gaunche of bakon, also a certayne kynde of chylde.
 Pernuigo, aui, are, to sayle or passe through.
 Perniciabilis, a, um, very necessary. Also ve-rie familiar, a great friende.
 Pernego, aui, are, to deny thysely, to deny bet-terly.
 Perneo, nes, denyre, to spinne out the threds to an end.
 Perniciabilis, le, deadly, mortall.
 Perniciâlis, le, that bringeth destruction, that causeth death.
 Pernicies, ei, f. g. death, great damage, destruction, vndoing.
 Ut scias, quam instructa pulchre ad perniciem em sit, that thou mayst knowe, howe goodly she is appoynted to vndoe or caste away any man: or to bring any man to nought.
 Ipse sibi perniciem accersuit, he was cause of his owne hurte, or he made a rood for his owne sayle.
 Pellere perniciem a patria, to save his counstry.
 Incumbere ad vel in perniciem alicuius, to labour all that wille one can, to caste a man as way or to wooke his destruction.
 Incipere sibi perniciem, to be occasion of his owne destruction.
 Perniciose, naughtily, hurtfully, to ones destruction and destroyng away.
 Perniciose de republica mereri, to be cause of great mischief to the common weale.
 Perniciosus, a, um, deadly, mortall, that infer-reth death, destruction, greates hurte or damage.
 Pernicitas, atis, f. g. swiftnesse.
 Perniciosissimus, a, um, warste, moste daung-erous.
 Perniciter, swiftly, quickly.

Perniger, gra, grum, very blacke.
Pernimium, very much, wonderfull muche.
Pernimium interest, there is a wonderfull great difference.
Pernio, ónis, m. g. a hybe on the heele.
Perniunculus, li, m. g. a littell hybe.
Pernix, nicis, om. g.狡猾, flyghty, sometime stubburne.
Vento, pernicio, swifter than the wynde.
Pernobilis, le, very noble.
Pernocto, aui, are, to tary at the night, to watch, to pray, to reste, to walke, to stande, to dwell, to sleape, to lie out of his owne house all night longe.
Pernoctare in publico, to be at night abroad.
Pernoſco, noui, noſcere, to know perfectly, to know thoroughly.
Non ſaris me pernoſti, etiā qualis ſim, thou doest not yet know me thoroughly, what a man I am.
Pernox, noctis, om. g. that continueth wate cheth or abideth all night longe.
Pernumero, aui, are, to tell out money, to reken to the ende, to make an ende of numbynges or tellyng.
Pero, the daughter of Heleus, and ſiſter of Peleus, a woman of exceeding beautie.
Pero, ónis, om. g. a shoe of raw leather, also a lacke, a ſtartup.
Perobſcurus, a, um, very obſcure or darke.
Perobſcura fama, a fame or byrite that very few men here of.
Perodióſus, a, um, very odious.
Perogigomus, mi, m. g. he that putteth the ſtalion to the mare to ſeaſon hir.
Peroleo, péroles, olui, or oléui, olére, to ſavour or ſinke muche, to haue a ſtronge ſauour.
Peronátus, a, um, that weareth raw leather ſhoes, hoteur, ſterups, or cohars, lyke a plough man.
Peroportúnus, a, um, verie conueniente and meete for the purpoſe, that cometh in every good tyme.
Peroportune, very oportunately, in very good ſeaſon.
Péropus eſt, it is very neceſſary or expedient.
Peróriga, gr, he that putteth the ſtalion to the mare.
Perórrior, vris, vtri, to begynne, ſpyng or grow by the occaſion of ſome thyng.
Perorno, aui, are, to adourne greatly, to dooe greate honour, to ſet foorth the ones commendacion greatly.
Perornátus, a, um, adourned, eloquent.
Peroratio, ónis, f. g. the laſte parte of an oracion, wherein the effectes of the herets are chiefly ſtered.
Peróro, aui, are, to ſpeake or reaſon to an end, to reaſon perfectly, to tell a tale to an ende, to make an ende of an oracion. ſometyme to moue the herets to indignacion.

Perorare in aliquem, to pleade agaynſt one, to accuſe one.
Concludere & perorare, to conclude.
Nunquám perorari potuiſſe, that he coulde neuer pronounce his oracion to an ende.
Perorare cauſam, to pleade a cauſe thoroughly to the ende.
Perorare orationem, to pronounce an oracion to the ende.
Perosi, a people of Aethiopia.
Peróſus, a, um, that hateth extremely.
Perpáco, aui, are, to ſet all thynges in peace and quiet, to make calme.
Perparum, very littell.
Perparce, very ſparely, very nighly, or very ſparily.
Perparius, a, um, a very littell one.
Perpaſco, qui, ſcere, to ſeede to the bittermoſt.
Perparuulus, a, um, a very littell pretie one.
Perpáculus, a, um, very fewe.
Perpáucus, a, um, very fewe.
Perpauſacio, pauſacio, fécí, facere, to make ſore a fraide.
Perpaulum, very littell.
Perpáculum, and Perpáculum, wonderfull littell.
Perpáuper, very poore.
Perpello, perpuli, percellere, to conſtraine, to moue or endite one to doo a thyng.
Donec perpulſe viderem, vntill he hadde made or cauſed me to ſay ſo.
Perpellere ad additionem, to make to yelde by.
Perpendicularis, re, that is directly downe right that hangeth ſtreight downe.
Perpendicularum, li, m. g. a plumme lyne, ſuch as maſons and carpenters haue with leade at the ende, whereby they dooe proue the euenneſſe of their ſquares and walles.
Ad perpendicularum facere, to make even with the plumme lyne.
Perpendo, di, deſe, to examine or conſider diligently, to weigh the matter exactly.
Perpenſe, aduiſedly, with good conſideracion.
Perpenſus, a, um, weighed or conſidered diligently.
Perpenſa, an herbe called Cabaret.
Perperam, amiſſe, ouerthwartly, unhappily, wrongfully.
Perperam inſimulatus, accuſed wrongfully, and without cauſe.
Perperam pronunciare, to pronounce roguſly and falſely.
Perperus, a, um, ſhewed, rude, a lier.
Perperitudo, dinis, ſhewdneſſe, ſolitiſhneſſe.
Perpes, perperis, om. g. perpetual.
Noctem perperam dormire, to ſleape all nyght longe.
Perpeſſio, ónis, enduryng, ſuffering, abyng.
Perpeſſus, a, um, that is accuſtomed to endure ſuffre or abyde.
Perpeſſus, a, um, that hath ſuffered or ſuſtained.

Perpeſſu

Perpetua asperum, very painful and grievous to be suffered.
Perpetim, perpetually, without ceasing.
Perpetior, pessus sum, perpeti, to abide; endure, or suffer patiently.
Nunquam perpetiar, I will never abide it.
Perpeto, tui, tibi, perpetere, to aske impossible natly without ceasing, to persourne, to continue.
Perpetro, aui, are, to doe, or to committe an acte properly ill, or moſte commonly ill.
Perpetrare credem, to committe a murder.
Perpetrato bello, after the warre ended.
Perpetratus, a, um, done, finished, atchieved.
Perpetratio, onis, an acte good or badde.
Perpetualis, le, perpetuall.
Perpetuarius, ri, m. gen. he that hireth a ferme, house, or ground in perpetuitee, for ever. Some tyme he that alwaye attendeth his worke or labour.
Perpetuitas, aris, f. g. eternitie, an everlasting continuance, perpetuitee.
Sermonis perpetuitas, continuall speache without interrupcion.
Perpetuo, aui, are, to continue on a thing without ceasing.
Perpetuare verba, to speake on still without fetchyng of breathe.
Perpetuo, and perpetuum, aduerbes, signifying continually, alwaye, for ever, evermore, still, without any ceasing or intermission.
Perpetuo perij, I am viterly vndone, I am viterly cast awaye for ever.
Perpetuus, a, um, perpetuall, everlasting, continuall, whole, not in porcions or divided.
Triduo hoc perpetuo, al these thre daies continually without ceasing.
Si perpetuam vis affinitatem hanc, if you wilt haue this affinitee to continue for ever.
Aedes perpetue ruunt, the whole house falleth downe.
Alimentis perpetuis donari, To haue meate and drynke founden all his life of free coſte.
Febris perpetua, a continuall feuer.
Præda hæc perpetua est mea, id est, tota.
Trabes perpetue, beames that bee all of one piece.
Non est perpetuum, it cometh not alwaie so to passe, it is not alwaie true.
Perpetui montes, continuall hilles, loggnyng one to another.
Perpetua oratio, a continuall oracion without interrupcion or stoppyng.
Palus perpetua intercedebat, There was betwene a continuall marſhe, and no other grounde.
Perpictus, a, um, peincted.
Perplaceo, perplace, perplacui, placere, to content very muche, to please right well.
Perplexè, ambiguously, intricately, doubtfully.

Perplexè loqui, to speake now one thyng, nowe an other, that a man wotteth not what he meaneth, to speake ambiguously.
Perplexè & palam, contrary.
Perplexim, idem quod Perplexè.
Perplexor, aris, ari, to speake doubtfully, as wordes wherein are two intendementes, to bynde of twyfe hard and fast, to mingle so together, that a man can not knowe what the thyng meaneth.
At scio, quo vos pacto soleatis perplexari pactum; non pactum est; non pactum, pactum est, quod vobis lubet, wel I know well enough, in what faction you are wont to speake that a man can not tell how to take you: it was promised, it was not promised: it was not promised, it was promised, even as it listeth you.
Perplexabilis, le, a word spoken, whiche hath two diuers vnderstandynges: or that whiche is one thyng in heyyng, an other in vnderstandyng.
Perplexabiliter, doubtfully, with great perplexities.
Perplexus, a, um, perplexe, twisted together, or harde to bee lousd, intricate, doubtfull, ambiguous.
Perplicatus, a, um, platted together.
Perpluo, pluui, pliere, to rayne through, to let the rayne come through.
Perplurimum, very muche more.
Perplus, pluris, n. g. muche more, many more.
Perpol, an oyle, signifying by Pollux. Sometyme the wordes, Per, doeth pertaine to the wordes following.
Perpol quam paucos reperias meretricibus fideles euenire amatores, by god thou shalt see very fewe true louers happen to comen with women, where per belongeth to paucos, and not to pol.
Perpoleo, perpolis, lini, lire, to polye the trimme, to make very nete, to make perfect.
Perpolio, onis, f. g. a polishing.
Perpolitus, a, um, polished, trimmed by pers.
Perpolitus literis, of great knowlage and lernyng, a man excellently well learned.
Perpopulo, aris, ari, to destroye; waste and spoyle other althynge.
Perpoto, aui, are, to drynke all daie, or to drynke still or continually tyll one be drynke, to dooe nothyng but drynke.
Perporatio, onis, f. g. a continuance in dryndyng, drynkerie.
Perprurisco, riscere, to haue a great itche, or desyre to clawe or scratche hym selfe.
Perpulcher, chra, chrum, verge faire, verge goodlye.
Perpulchrè, very well done, solly well.
Perpurgo, aui, are, to make all thyng cleane or nete.
Perpurgare locū aliquem, id est, expedire.

to dissolve all doubts and difficulties that be in a matter.
Perpusillus, a, um, very littell.
Perpusillum, an aduerbe, very littell.
Pérputo, aui, are, to declare all.
Nunc operam date, vt ego argumētum hoc vobis plane perputem, nowe take ye heede, that I maye plainly declare all this matter to
you.
Perquām, added to any nowne adiectiue, aug-menteth his power.
Perquām doctus, very well learned.
Perquām stolidus, very folye.
Perquām flebiliter, very lamentably.
Perquiro, quisiui, quirere, to make diligente ser-che, to examine, to aske and enquire diligently.
Perquisitē, with diligēt serche and inquirie.
Perquisitor, ōris, mas, gene. one that inquirēth or sercheth.
Perquisitus, a, um, sought or inquired out.
Perraro, very selde.
Perrarus, a, um, that is very selde times seen.
Perrēpo, répsi, répere, to crepe into or throughe.
Perrepto, aui, are, to crepe about in euery corner,
and serche diligently.
Perreptauī vsq; omne oppidum, I haue gone about all the towne to seke.
Perrideo, perrisi, perridere, to laughē hertily.
Perridicule, very folyshly.
Perridulus, a, um, very folysh, woozthy to be mocked and laughed at.
Perrōdo, rōsi, rōdere, to cate or knowe throughe,
all to knowe.
Pérrogo, aui, are, to desire hertily; to require euery mannes opinion and sentence.
Perrumpo, rupi, rumpere, to brenke in sunder, or in the middes, to brenke in piced; to brenke in or entre by force, to brenke throughe violently.
Perrumpere nituntur, they endeavour to entre in by force.
Perrumpere ad suos, to brenke throughe violently to theyr kompanie.
Acem perrumpere, to brenke and disturbe the arraye.
Perrumpere castra, to brenke in and assaile the ennemies in their campe.
Leges perrumpere, To brenke and violate lawes.
Perrumpere periculum, To escape & auoyde
daunger.
Perrumpit omnes difficultates, there is no stop or leat, but that he passeth throughe it.
Perruptus, a, um, broken throughe.
Perfa, a man or woman of the countrey of Persia.
Persape, very often.
Persalse, very wittily.
Persalsus, a, um, veray salte, also veray wittly and preaty.
Persaluto, aui, are, to salute often and much.
Persante, very deuoutely or solemnly.

Perfante deierit, he sweareth solemnly and deuoutely, he sweareth a great othe.
Persano, aui, are, to cure by heale perfectly and thoroughly.
Persapiens, entis, om, g, very wise, right sage.
Persapienter, very wisely, full sagely.
Persciter, right cunningly, with great knowledge.
Perscindo, perscidi, scindere, to cut in two, to cutte or diuide in the middes.
Perscissus, a, um, cutte, diuided; or tozned in the middes.
Perscitus, a, um, very preaty and wittly.
Perscriptio, ōnis, f, g, a bede of a mannes owne
hande wrytynge, a registre.
Perscribo, scripsi, scribere, to wryte a thyng throughe, or to an ende, to wryte at length, to wryte at large, to registre or inrolle a thyng.
Perscribere in tabulas, to registre.
Diligentissime, are scripta sunt, they were wrytten of you at length with great diligence.
Perscribere pecuniam, to cause the bankers to delpuer money to one by lōne, for dette or of therwyle.
Perscriptor, ōris, m, g, he that registreth or kes peth a booke, or that maketh wrytynge and deedes.
Persca, a tree, whiche groweth verpe highe, the woodde is blake, the leafe and floure lyke to a peare, the leafe neuer falleth, and beareth al-waye fruite, of the quantite of a peare; in fourme longe, and inclosed in a hushe lyke an almonde, greene in colour, and hath within it a nut lyke a damān, but lesse and softer, the fruite is swete and delectable, lyght of digestion, and although it be exceedingly eaten, it hurteth not.
The roote is very great.
Pérseco, aui, are, to cutte throughe, to diuide.
Perfectō, aris, ari, to folow, pursue, or serche diligently.
Persecutio, ōnis, f, g, persuite, persecution.
Persecutor, aris, ari, to serche or inquire diligently.
Persedeo, persedes, sedi, sedere, to abyde or sit styll euen to the ende.
Persfacal, the olde and auncient wryters used for Persacile, very lightly, or very easily.
Persegnis, ne, very slowe.
Perseis, a nymphe, one of the daughters of Os-ceanus.
Perseis, seidis, f, g, of Persia.
Herba, perseides, id est, magice.
Persenex, persenis, om, g, very olde.
Persentio, sentis, sentire, to feele, to perceiue.
Persensisco, sensi, scire, to perceiue.
Quoties dedere, vbi possem persensiscere?
howe many occasions gaue they, whereby I myght haue perceyued.
Persephone, the surname of Proserpina, & sig-nifieth the vertue of seedes in springyng.
Persephōnion, the Rhamnus.
Persepolis, a ciue in the countrey of Persia.

Persequor, eris, qui, to pursue, to continue in that, which is begunne, to followe, (a persecutor, to bee enuoyed, to doe, to fulfill, to accomplish.

Persequi aliquem bello, to warre against one.

Persequi aliquem vestigijs, to followe ones steps, to followe one steppe by steppe.

Vestigia persequi, idem.

Persequi numeris cursus syderu, to calculate the course of the sterres.

Persequi iniurias, to reuenge iniuries.

Persequi factis, quod dicimus, to doe as we speake of saye.

Persequi imperium patris, to doe the fathers commandements.

Persequi ius suum, to defende his right.

Persequi poenas alicuius, to reuenge ones death.

Persequi promissa alicuius, to sollicite or call vpon one to kepe his promises.

Persequi vita disciplinam recte viuendi, to lyue according to the doctrine of honest life and behauiour.

Persequi voluptates, to addicte or geue hym selfe to liue pleasantly.

Iudicio persequi, to sue one in the lawe.

Feras persequi, to hounte wyld beasts.

Incepta persequi, to pursue or continue to an ende, that he hath begunne.

Mores patris persequi, to endenour to followe his fathers maners, or to bee lyke his father in conditions.

Commodissime has res persecutus est Xenophon, Xenophon hath written very well of those thynges.

Stylum alicuius persequi, to imitate ones stile.

Versibus aliqua persequi, to write thynges in verses.

Voce aliquid persequi, to speake of a thing, to declare a thyng in wordes.

Persequi artem aliquam, to employ his studie and tyme to learne any art or science.

Persequi scriptura, to write.

Perfero, perferui, perferere, to sow all, to sow or plant about or aboute.

Perles, the sonne of Perseus, of whome came the Persians, also a kyng of Macedonie, vanquished by Demetrius: an other was brother of Hesiodus the poete: an other, brother to Peres, father of Perate.

Perseuerantia, x, f. g. a stable abidinge in any thyng reasonable, constancie.

Perseueranter, constantly.

Perseuero, aui, are, to continue with a steadfast mynde.

Perseuerare & transigere aliquid, to continue in a thyng and bying it to an ende.

Ad vltimum perseuerare, to continue constantly to the ende.

In eo perseuerat, he continueth in that mynde style.

Perseuerus, a, um, very stout or stubborn.

Perseus, sci, a Perles, sis, or si, a noble knight, which bestrid a faire lady (called Andromeda) from a whale, & also from Medusa, which turned men into stones, Also it is a signe amonge the sterres.

Persia, x, Persis, persidis, and Persida, dx, a country in the east parte of the worlde, which hath on the north Media, on the weste Susiana, on the east Carmania, on the south the Persian sea, called Sinus Persicus, where now Sophi reigneth.

Persica poma, a fruite called peaches.

Persicaria, x, some iudge to be the herbe called artemisie.

Persiconapy, the herbe called also Raphanus maior.

Persicus, a, um, of Persia: sometyme ethe.

Persici apparatus, sumptuous and riche provision.

Persideo, persides, sedi, dère, to sitte by, to abide.

Persido, sidis, sedi, sidere, to perse or get downe vnto the bottoome.

Persigno, aui, are, to signe.

Persimilis, le, very lyke.

Persisto, persisti, sterc, to abyde: also to last, to continue to the ende.

Persius, a learned man of Rome.

Persolara, x, f. g. an herbe called clove leaues, which beareth great burres.

Persolido, aui, are, to make sounde or harde, to congele, to freeze.

Persoluo, solui, uere, to paye truly, to pay all, to accomplishe.

Persoluere grates, to geue thanks, to render thanks.

Persoluere amico, to requite a friende for pleasures that he hath done.

Quantum persoluere difficile est, as I am scant able to requite.

Persolui primæ epistolæ, I have answered to those thynges that ye wrote in your fyrste letter.

Persolui gratia non potest, it can not be requited or recompensed.

Officium receptum persoluere, to performe the pleasure or benefite, that he promysed to doe.

Persoluere poenas, to be punished, to make one amende.

Promissum persoluere, to fulfill or kepe his promise, to doe that he promised.

Ille rei publicæ poenas graues, iustasque persoluit, he was greuouly and rightously punished for the mischief or displeasure, that he had wrought to the common weale.

Persoluere votum, to accomplishe his vow.

Persoluere rationem officij, to make an account how he hath done his duetie.

Persolui

Perfoluere stipendium, to pay wages.
Perfoluere questionem, to solve a question.
Perfolus, a, um, alone without companie.
Perfolia nugæ, id est, meræ nugæ.
Perfolata, or Perfolyton, an herbe, wherof they make garlandes in Egypte.
Persona, æ, for. g. a visour lyke to a munes face: also person or personage, the qualites, wherby one man differeth from an other: as Hector from Priamus, by the person of a sonne. Comes tymie a man or woman.
Pacifica persona, a peaceable man.
Imponere alicui personam calumniam, to make one to be taken for an vnjust or false accuser.
Imponere alicui personam, to geue one a charge or an office to doe.
Imponere personam improbam alicui, to make one serue his tourne in committinge a naughty acte.
Mea persona ad istam pacem conciliandam minime fuit diligenda, id est, nō debui miti ei legatus, it was not conuenient, that I shoulde bee sent as ambassadour, to make this peace.
Personæ seruire, to behaue hym selfe accordyng to the parte that he playeth.
Personæ, be also gergelles and suche lyke images made in buildynges.
Personata, æ, and personatia, æ, an herbe, growyng by the water syde, haughe great brode leaues lyke gourdes, but greater and harder: it is supposed to be the herbe, in some countrey called Donye: it semeth by some herbals, to be the same that Perfolata is, clothe or great burr, called of Apothecaries Lappa maior.
Personalis, le, belongyng to the persone.
Personatus, a, um, a masker, he that weareth a visour, disguised, he that taketh vpon hym otherwise than he is.
Personata felicitas, a counterfeite felicitye.
Personata vulnera, hidden woundes.
Personatus, us, m, g. a maske.
Persono, sonui, personare, to sowne out or sowne perfectly, to make a great noyse, to crye out a lowde, or speake aloud with full mouth.
Personare aures alicuius voce aliqua, to speake a thyng often that one may here it.
Personat domus cantu tibiarum, all the house ringeth with minstrellie and ppyng.
Vlulatus personat tota vrbe, wailynge and wepyng is hearde ouer all the citee, or in euery place of the citee.
Personus, a, um, that sowneth all ouer.
Perforbo, forbui, or forpsi, forbere, to suppe all by.
Perspecte, diligently, discretely, cunnyngly.
Perspecto, aui, are, to loke well about, to behold euen to the ende.
Perspectus, a, um, playnely perceyued or known, manifest, euident.
Perspeculor, âris, âri, to beholde, biewe or loke about wpsely and diligently.

Perspergo, spersi, spergere, to sprinkle or cast all ouer a thyng, to sprinkle butt or leaues.
Perspicacitas, âris, and Perspicacia, æ, for. ge. quicknesse of sight, or perceyuing of a thyng, consideracion.
Perspicaciter, aduisedly.
Perspicientia, æ, for. ge. perfecte knowlage, full perceyuing of a thyng.
Perspicax, âcis, om. ge. that seeth quickly, and doeth all thynges with consideracion, quite witted, that perceyue a thyng quickly.
Perspicio, perspicis, spexi, spicere, to see or vnderstande playnly, to perceyue manifestly and clearly.
Perspicue, clearly, openly, euidently.
Perspicuitas, âris, for. ge. cleerenesse, propertie in wordes or sentences, easinesse, perspicuitye.
Perspicuus, a, um, that one may see through, also clearly, playne, easy, euident.
Perspicua aqua, cleere water, that one may see to the bottome.
Perspicuum facere, to make euident & playnly known to euery man.
Perspicuum est omnibus, It is euident and plaine to all the worlde.
Mors perspicua, present death, when one perceyueeth there is none other waie but death.
Perspiratio, a breathyng of breath through.
Perspissio, an aduerbe, very late, slowly.
Perssterno, stravi, sternere, to pauer all through.
Persstimulo, aui, are, idem quod Stimulo.
Persstino, aui, are, to set a price on a thyng.
Perssto, stiti, perstitum, and perstatum, stare, to abide firmly, to stande surely, to continue to the ende.
Perstare incepto, to abide stil in his purpose.
Perstratus, a, um, all pained, pained through.
Persstrepo, pui, pere, to make a great noyse or rustelyng with the fette, or otherwys.
Persstrictores, iuglers, that by leiger demayne make thynges appere to men that be not.
Persstrictus, a, um, wronge harde.
Perstringo, strinxi, stringere, to wryng harde, to touche a thyng mostly in speakyng or wryting, to dull or darke with to muche light, to dafell, to repprehende in fewe wordes, to make one somewhat greened.
Perstringere aures, to fille the eares wth noyse.
Perstringere nomen aut famam, to geue a man an yll name, to geue one a shewed quips per in fewe wordes.
Perstringere oculos splendore, To dull or darken the eyes, to dafell the sight with brightnesse.
Perstringere aciem mentis, to dul, darken, or abathe the strength or quicknesse of the witte or mynde, to deceiue or delude.
Terram aratro perstringere, to labour or till the grounde.
Horrore perstringi, To bee in suche a feare, that that all the body trembleth, or is a colde and chylleth.

Perstringere aliquem, to touche or reprehend one a littell in writing or speaking.
Suspicionem perstringere, to make one suspecte what suspected.
Perstringere rem aliquam, to touche a thyng in some wordes.
Perstudiosus, a, um, very studious.
Persuadeo, persuasi, persuadere, to persuade, to make to beleve or truste, to put or bypnyge in ones mynde, to induce or moue one to doe a thyng. sometyme for Suadere, to exhort.
Et (quomodo mihi persuadeo) equiore, and (as I perswade my selfe) or, (and in my phantasy) more rightfull.
Velim tibi ita persuadeas, I wolde you shulde beleue this surely.
Is mihi persuadet, nuptias quantum. &c. he exhorteth me.
Ita persuasum omnibus, every man beleueth this for a certayntie.
Persuasibilis, le, that may be perswaded, easy to be perswaded.
Persuasibiliter, in such wise as it maye perswade.
Persuasio, onis, f. g. a persuasion, a sure beleue that one hath in a thyng.
Persuasorius, a, um, that perswadeth.
Persuasor, oris, m. g. a perswader or inducer to doe a thyng.
Persuasrix, tris, a woman, whiche induceth or moueth one to doe a thyng.
Persuasus, a, um, brought in mynde, perswaded.
Mihi persuasissimum est, and persuasissimū habeo, I beleue as surely as can bee, I am thoroughly perswaded.
Persubilis, le, very subtle, very fine.
Persulto, aui, are, to leape and skip for great ioy.
Persuo, ere, to sow by all.
Pertadet, tæduit, tæsum est, tædere, to lothe greatly, to be very wery.
Pertaxus, a, um, displeased, annoyed, that lotheth or hateth, that is very wery of a thyng.
Sermonis pertaxus, wery of communicacion or talke.
Pertaxus ignauiam suam, hatynge his owne slouthfulnesse, or displeased with his owne slouthfulnesse.
Priuatam vitam pertaxus, lothynge or hating a priuate life.
Pertego, texi, tegere, to couer all, to couer ouer and ouer, to make an ende of that one hath begunne, to couer.
Pertendo, tendi, tendere, to extend, to go forth straight to a place, to contēde, to laie one thing agaynst an other, to bypnyge to an ende that one hath purposed or intended.
Ad regis castra pertendit, he went straight to the kynges Campe.
Video non licere, vt cõperam hoc pertendere, I perceyue well, I can not be suffered to atcheue or bypnyge to an ende that I intended, or so to bypnyge this matter to passe as I purposed.

Animo pertendens, obstinate, stubburne.
Pertentio, aui, are, to attempt, to assaie or proue muche.
Pertenuis, tenuis, very slender, very thynne, very simple, very single.
Pertenuis spes, very small hope.
Pertenuis argumentum, a small argument or proue.
Pertenui discrimine separantur, They differ very littell, or be littell or nothyng a sunder, or separated.
Suspicio pertenuis, the least suspicion in the worlde.
Perterebro, aui, are, to perre, to boze through.
Pertergo, terfi, tergere, to rubbe or wype dilligently.
Pertero, trini, terere, to rubbe or frote a thyng, to rubbe in pices, to brake in small crummes.
Perterréfacio, perterréfacio, féci, facere, idem quod perterreo.
Perterreo, terrui, terrere, to make soze aserde.
Perterrificus, a, um, that maketh a terrible noise, that with the noise thereof maketh men aserde.
Perterritus, a, um, soze asfayde.
Pertexo, texui, texere, to make an ende, to conclude, properly to weane out, or to weane perfectly.
Pertica, cæ, f. g. a longe staffe, perche or polle, wherewith grounde is met.
Perticælis, le, wherof perches, or polles be made.
Pertimeo, pertimes, mui, timere, to feare much, to be soze aserde.
Pertimesco, scere, idem.
Pertinacia, æ, f. g. obstinacy, stubburnesse, stiffnesse in opinion. sometyme in the good parte, perseuerance, constance.
Pertinaciter, obstinately, stiffely, stubburnely, constantly.
Pertinax, æcis, om, gen. that holdeth fast, stubburne, obstinate, stiff in opinion, opinatiue, and in the good parte, continuynge or abydyng constantly, constant in his purpose.
Vincit omnia pertinax virtus, vertue cõstant and continuynge still in goodnesse, ouercometh all thynges.
Pertinax non ero, I will not be stiff in myne opinion.
Pertinax certamen, a soze and continuall batayle, with great stomake, on bothe the parties, or where neither parte will geue ouer.
Pertinax fama, a constant byrite or fame, that alwaie continueth.
Tam pertinaci odio dissident, they hate one an other so mortally: or theyr natures bee so disagreeynge.
Studio pertinaci, with continuall studie.
Pertinax clamor, cõtinuall or incessant cryng.

Pertinax

Pertinacior, pertinacius, pertinacissimus, more and moſte obſtinate. ſome tyme conſtant.
Pertineo, pertines, pertinet, pertinere, to extend to a thyng; to touche a thyng.
Sylua longe introrſus pertinet, the woodde is extended oꝝ goeth farre in.
Gratius mihi futurum, quam ſi ea tua liberatitas pertinuiffet ad rem familiarem meam, It ſhall be to me more pleaſure, then if ſhe had extended oꝝ ſhewed that your liberalitee toward myne owne propre commoditee.
Qua ex aribus eius in tuas pertinet, whiche cometh out of his houſe into yours, oꝝ euen to yours.
Qua ad poſteritatis memoriam pertinet, whiche might continue to the remembraunce of the poſteritee.
Via, qua pertinent ad iecur, the paſſages oꝝ waies, whiche extend oꝝ go euen to the luer.
Deus pertinet per naturam cuius q rei, god ſhewyng oꝝ extendyng his vertue to the nature of euery thyng.
Ad quem ſuſpicio malefici pertineat, who is to bee ſuſpected foꝝ this naughty act.
Ad rem publicā pertinet, it is foꝝ the profite of the common weale, it is expedient foꝝ the common weale.
Summa illuc pertinet, the whole matter is ſpoken to this ende.
Hoc eo pertinet, this is the effecte oꝝ intent of that, whiche is ſpoken.
Eodemque pertinet, quod ſententiam eius probo, and to the ſame effecte oꝝ intent it is, that I doe allowe his ſentence.
Nec oratio mea pertinet ad inſirmandū foras. &c. the intent of my oracion oꝝ wordes is not to breake oꝝ hinder the league. &c.
Quot ſum quid q pertineat, to what intente euery thyng is ſpoken oꝝ done.
Cur non pertineat ad literas ætas, qua ad mores iam pertinet; why is not that age conuenient foꝝ lernyng, which is already mete to be inſtructed in god maners and behauiour.
Si nihil ad eos pertinere arbitrantur, if they did thinke the matter to touche them nothing, oꝝ to belonge nothyng to them; oꝝ that they had nothing to doe with it.
Pertinet, a verbe impersonall, it belongeth, it appertayneth.
Pertinet ad te, it belongeth to the, it concerneth the.
Pertinet ad rem, it appertayneth oꝝ belongeth to the matter.
Pertinet ſomnium ad hoc, it is euen as I dreamed.
Eadem bonitas etiam ad multitudinem pertinet, it becometh as well the people to haue that goodneſſe as other men.
Pertingo, pertigi, tingere, to touche muche, to ioyne harde vnto a thyng, to come euen to.
Ad cerebrum pertingit, it cometh euen to the brainne.

Pertisum, olde wyttres bleſed foꝝ pertisum.
Pertolero, ani, are, to endure to the ende, to ſtoppe patiently.
Pertondeo, tondi, ere, to clip oꝝ ſheare off.
Pertorqueo, torſi, torqueo, to greepe oꝝ turne.
Petractatio, onis, f. g. often handling.
Petractio, ani, are, to touche oꝝ handle muche oꝝ ofte, to conſider oꝝ thynke on a matter diligently, to diſpute, to rehearſe oꝝ reaſon of a matter.
Omni cogitatione petractans, debating the matter with himſelfe diligently.
Petratio, traxi, here, to draw to with force.
Petrare vitam, to prolonge the lyfe.
Petranteo, fui, & ſij, are, to paſſe through.
Petrantūcidus, a, um, to cleare that one maye loke throught it.
Pertibuo, bui, ere, to geue.
Testimoniū pertinere, to beare witneſſe.
Petriftis, te, very ſad oꝝ heauie.
Petrivus, a, um, all to broken oꝝ crummed in ſmall peeces.
Pertumuloſe, with great trouble and diſturbe, with great ruſſyng and ſturyng.
Pertumuloſus, a, um, full of ruſſyng & buſyneſſe, that maketh great ſturyng and trouble.
Pertundo, pertudi, ere, to ſtepe hard oꝝ breake a thyng in ſtrikyng, to poune harde oꝝ ſmall, to beate oꝝ petre throughte.
Pertundo, tuſi, ere, to beate with hammers.
Perturbare, with trouble of mynde, diſquiete.
Perturbatio, onis, f. g. troublouſe affection of mynde, trouble, diſturbaunce, diſquietyng.
Quanta in conuerſione ſerum; & perturbatione verſemur, in howe vnconſtant & troublouſe a worlde we bee; oꝝ in howe great alteration an trouble of the worlde we bee; oꝝ howe great alteration and trouble of the worlde there is nowe in our tyme.
Perturbatio cæli, and ſerenitas, contrarie.
Perturbatio valetudinis, ſickneſſe.
Perturbatio animi, and ſedatio & tranquillitas, contrarie.
Afferre perturbationem, to trouble.
Perturbator, oris, m. g. he that troubleth oꝝ diſquieteth all.
Perturbatrix, the feminine.
Perturbatus, a, um, troubled greatly, all out of quiete.
Perturbata res rei, a thing myxted oꝝ mingled with an other.
Perturbo, ani, are, to trouble muche, to breke.
Perturbaui omnia, I haue troubled all togedther, I haue brought all out of frame.
Magno animi motu perturbari, to be greatly troubled and diſquieted with affections of the mynde.
Orium perturbare, to make buſyneſſe and ruſſyng where quietneſſe was.

Perturbare mentes & animos hominum, to turne men to busynesse and inquietnesse.
Perturpis, pe, verie filthy and dishonest.
Pertussis, isis, a cough that alwaye vexeth a man.
Pertusus, a, um, broken or pouned in pieces, per-red through.
Pertusa vasa, vesselles cracked or broken in some parte.
Pertusæ margaritæ, peles that be perced or boyled throughte.
Peruado, uasi, dere, to go ouer all, to go throughe or into, to scape or passe throughe or by.
Quum peruasisset castra rumor, when the souldiours in the Campe hearde saie thus, or when this was spred amonge the souldiours in the Campe.
Peruaserat interim fama, in the meane season
 a rumoure was spredde or shewen amonge them, or it was tolde amonge them.
Ad castra cõsulis peruadit, he passeth throughe
 euen to the consulls Campe.
Murmur totam concionem peruasit, there was a murmuring of multetyng ouer all the assemblie.
Peruasit opinio per animos hominum, men byd thynke commonly, or this opinion was commonly in mennes mindes.
Pauor & trepidatio totam urbem peruasit, all the wholle citee was in a soze feare and great dreade.
Peruagatus, a, um, that wandzeth, strageth, or goeth far abrode, spred commonly among men.
Peruagor, aris, ari, and peruago, qui, are, to wandze about, to be published.
Peruagus, a, um, that wandzeth about.
Perualidus, a, um, verie valiant and stronge.
Peruarie, verie diuerselye, in diuers sortes.
Peruarius, a, um, that is of diuers sortes and factions.
Peruasto, aui, are, to destroye cleane.
Peruectus, a, um, caried throughe or to.
Perueho, vexe, vehere, to carie or byng to.
Nauigatione secunda peruehi, to sayle pros-perouslye.
Peruehi in portum, to be brought into the hauen.
Peruello, elli, and peruulsi, ellere, to touche or plucke at, to picke, to molest or greue some what.
Perueller aliquem, to touche plucke or pull at one, to molest or greue one.
Perueller ius, to depaue the lawes.
Perueller fidem alicuius, To styre or collette
 one to kepe his promise.
Peruenio, peruenis, ueni, ire, to come to a place or to an ende, to come to the place that one goeth to, to attayne to.
Peruenire ad nummos, To gette obteyne or come to the money that is owyng.
Si ad heru hæc res peruenit, peristi pulchre,

If this thyng come to thy maisters eare, thou hast spon a saye thyng: or if this bee tolde thy maister, thou maist geue thy lyfe for an haulte
 penie.
Sine me peruenire quo volo, let me speake that whiche I intende to speake, let me come to that poynte that I wolde, or suffer me to saie that I would saie, or suffer me to tell out my tale.
Peruenire ad manus, to come to hand strokes.
Peruenire ad primos, to be rehened or numbryd among the beste.
Peruenire in potestatem, to be in subiection.
Peruenire in tutelam, to be in warde.
In crastinum peruenire, to lyue or continue tyll the morowe, or tyll the next daye after.
Ad maturam frugē peruenire, to continue tyll it bee throughte ripe.
Ne in illius manus perueniret, that it might not come into his handes, or that he myght not get it into his handes.
In meam notitiam decem modo perueni-runt, I knowe no more but ten.
Magnū in timorem perueniunt, they are soze
 affraide, or they be in great feare or doubte.
Fama ad aures meas peruenit, it was tolde me.
Peruenire in desperationem, to be in ve-ter despayre.
Peruenire in maximam inuidiam, To bee in great hatred and displeasure of men.
Peruenor, aris, ari, to hunt ouer all, to hunt or serche diligently.
Peruerse, maliciously, mischeuously, ouerthwart-ly, peruersely, frowardly, contrarie wise to that he shoulde doe.
Peruerse vides, thou seest naughtily, thy eye
 syght deceyuerth the.
Peruersitas, atis, f. g. frowardnesse, ouerthwart-nesse, naughtinesse of nature, whan one deliteth to do contrarie to that he shuld do.
Peruersus, a, um, frowarde, ouerthwart, vnfor-tunate, corrupt, naught.
More peruerso aliquid facere, to do a thyng ouerthwartly and naughtily.
Peruerto, ti, tere, to make yll, to peruert, to des-ptaue, to corrupt, to marre, to turne vpside downe, to subuert, to caste downe.
Peruerrere aliquem, to destroy or cast awaye
 a man with false accusations.
Vestigalia peruerrere, id est subuerrere.
Labefactare & peruerrere.
Peruestigatio, onis, f. g. a diligent serchyng, or sekynge out.
Peruestigator, oris, m. ge. he that seketh or looketh for a thyng.
Peruestigo, aui, are, to fynde in sekynge, to serche out diligently.
Peruetus, veteris, om. g. verie olde.
Peruetus epistola, a letter that hath ben verie longe wrytten.
Peruetustus, a, um, verie olde.

Peruaciter, obstinately, stubbornly, constantly.
 Peruacitor, ōis, more obstinate, more stub-borne, sometyme more constant.
 Peruicax, ācis, om. gen. harde, ouerthwarte, yll to intreate, stubburne, obstinate, headdie, cōtencious, sometyme constant.
 Ite peruicax, he that kepeth his anger longe.
 Peruacitā, a, f. gen. obstinacie, heddinesse, stiff-neckednes: but sometyme it is vsed in a good part, and taken for perseuerance, and constancie in a good acte, Pertinacia, alwaye in an yll parte, as Nonius descreyneth them.
 Peruico, oꝝ Peruicus, for Peruicax.
 Peruideo, peruides, uidi, ere, to se and regarde diligently.
 Peruigeo, peruiges, uigui, uigere, to bee of great vertue and strengthe.
 Peruigil, lis, om. g. that watcheth alwayes, also diligent and industrious.
 Peruigilatio, ōnis, fcm. gene. a watchyng all night longe.
 Peruigilātus, a, um, watched from the begyn-nyng to the ende.
 Peruigiliū, lij, n. g. muche watche, also a wat-chyng oꝝ wigile befoze solemne daies.
 Peruigilo, aui, are, to watche all night, not to sleape all night long.
 Peruillis, le, veray vile, of no valur, of a verie smal price, excedyng good cheape.
 Peruinca, lohe vinca peruinca.
 Peruinco, uici, peruincere, to surmount, to passe
 oꝝ excede, to ouercome.
 Dictis peruincere aliquid, id est, probare.
 Peruiridis, de, very greene.
 Peruitere, the olde wyters vsed for Perire, to be losse, to perishe.
 Peruiuo, uixi, uiuere, to lyue longe, oꝝ vntyll the vtermost, to lyue to the ende.
 Et si peruiuo vsqꝫ ad summam ætatem, tamē breue spatium est perferendi, quæ minitas mihi, although I lyue euen to the vtermoste age: yet is the tyme litle to suffer all, wherewith thou threathnest me.
 Pēcula, a, f. g. a little scrippe oꝝ catchell.
 Pēuius, a, um, that maie be gone in, penetrable, that maie be gone throughe.
 Aedes sient peruiæ, ye maie come into the house whan ye lust.
 Peruiæ naues, when one may goe from one in
 to an other.
 Peruia ventis domus, open to all wyndes, a windie house.
 Id angiportum non est peruium, you can not passe through that lane.
 Perunctio, ōnis, f. g. an noyntyng.
 Perunctus, a, um, annoynted all about.
 Perungo, unxi, ungere, to annoynte muche, to annoynt rounde about.
 Peruólito, aui, are, the frequētatiue of Péruolo.
 Peruolgo, aui, are, to wander about.
 Péruoco, aui, are, to call them all,

Péruolo, peruis, peruult, to despye earnestly.
 Peruelim scire, I woulde veray sayne know.
 Péruolo, aui, are, to flic out oꝝ to the ende, to flic swiftly, to come to go a pace.
 Peruoluo, uolui, ere, to tumble oꝝ rolle apace with great violence.
 Peruoluere librum, to reade ouer a booke dis-
 ligently.
 Peruóluto, aui, are, to tumble oꝝ rolle often.
 Peruolutare libros, to reade ouer booke with great diligence.
 Perurbānus, a, um, veray cūstie and gentyll,
 veray ciuile and of honest behauiour.
 Perūro, uisi, urere, to burne all oꝝ euery where,
 to burne much oꝝ vehemently.
 Perurere coralicuius, to burne ones stomake, oꝝ set ones herte on fyre, with doyng a thyng displeasante to hym.
 Perusia, a citer in Italle called commonly Perugia, Perouse.
 Perusinus, a, um, of Perouse.
 Perútilis, le, veray profitable.
 Peruulgātus, a, um, veray commonly vsed oꝝ knowne, muche accustomed.
 Peruulgo, aui, are, to publishe oꝝ sowe a booke.
 Se omnibus peruulgat mulier, the womā ma-keth hit selfe commune to all men.
 Peruulgare librum, to publishe oꝝ set a booke
 a booke.
 Pes, pedis, m. g. a fote, the measure oꝝ space of a fote, whiche now conteyneth. xii. ynches: the olde fote conteyned. xvi. fyngers breadth. Some-tyme it is a louse. Also the halter in a ship, wherwith they hoyle vp the sayle.
 Pedes, aduerbium, on fote.
 Pedibus, idem.
 Pedibus stipendia facere, to bee a footeman in
 warre.
 Pedem nusquam, I moued not one fote.
 Pedem efferre, to go forth.
 Per me pedibus ista trahantur, hwe what they wyl with these matters, I passe not.
 Pedem referre, to retrayte oꝝ retye.
 Pedibus ire in sententiam, to be of the opinio that other ar. It was the facion of the Romais nes, that the Senate whan diuers had shewed theyꝝ opinio, the residue (loke what parte they leaned vnto) wente from theyꝝ places to those whiche had reasoned accordyng to theyꝝ myndes and opinions, and these were called Pedes nij Senatores.
 Pede presso, saye and softe, a softe pace.
 Pedes agmen circumibat, the host went about on fote.
 In agmine, nonnunqꝫ equo, sapius pedibus
 anteibat, in the hoste he wente alwaye afoze, somtyme on horsebacke, but more often on fote.
 A pedibus, vel seruis a pedibus, a fote man.
 Imus pes, the sole of the fote.
 Tardó pede abire, to go awaye slowly.
 Adijcere se ad pedes, Accidere ad pedes.

a wyld rose in colour, and hath fyve small leaues, the bud of dyuers colours, haung with in it yelow seedes.

Pétimen, timinis, n. g. a faze in the shoulders of beastes, whiche I suppose is a facion.

Petiolus, l. m. g. a litle fute, also a perch, wher on frutes or onyons be hanged, or rather the stalk of fruite, wherby it hangeth on the tree.

Petisco, scere, alie wyrtes bled for Peto, to aske or demaunde, to go to.

Petitio, orum, n. g. a certayne kynde of appyles.

Petitio, ónis, f. g. a petition, a labourynge of suynge for an office or some, an assaut or violence setting upon, a suite or demaunde in the lawe.

Implere petitionem, in the lawe is to declare and proue, that to be his, whiche he claymeth or demaundeth.

Petitor, óris, m. ge. he that asketh or demaundeth, amonge lawyers he is called the demaunders, also it is a begger that asketh almes from doze to doze.

Petitorium, ri, n. g. a chariotte or wagon.

Petitorius, a, um, that belongeth to a petition, demaundynge or claymynge of a thyng.

Petitur, i, n. g. a thyng required or demanded.

Petitus, a, um, despyed or wished for, strepen, assaulted, set upon.

Adjicit extremo lapides oriente petitos, id est quasitos, apporatos, aduectos.

Petitus, us, mal. gen. a request, a demaunde, a petition.

Peto, tui, & ri, ere, to aske humbly, to desyre to haue, to couet, to seke for, to make suite or labour for an office or lyke thyng, to take or chole out, to strike, to poffer to strepe, or offer to geue a blowe, to assaut or set upon violently, also to get or attayne, to late awayte, to abyde, to go to a place, sometyne to reherse or mencion, after. Nonius, also to folow, to leade awai. Petere re gladio, to strike with a sword. Petere veneno, to seke meanes, or go about to poyson.

Petere blanditijs, to flatter.

Petere tactu, to seke.

Petere mutuum, to borrowe.

Petere iugulum, to hyl.

Petere auribus, to heare.

Petere naribus, to smell.

Petere oculis, to beholde.

Petere osculis, to kysse.

Petere vi, to enforce, to set upon violently.

Precibus omnibus petere, to desire as earnestly as one can possible.

Opem petere, to aske helpe or ayde.

Veniam petere, to desyre pardone or forgiveness. Quid petis istis, id est ab istis, after Seruius. Peto tibi, for Peto te.

Missionem militibus petere, to require that the souldiours maie haue licence to depart.

Accusationem in aliquem petere, to require that he maie accuse one.

Cæsar Augusti fili inde gloriâ petijt, id est

adeptus est. Petere somnum, to want or haue a desyre to slepe, to go to slepe.

Petere penas ab aliquo, id est exigere, to require that one be punished, as to be reuenged, to seke meanes to be reuenged.

Principio sedes apibus petenda, first and foremost you must take and chole out a place for the bees.

Rogasse vellem unde peterem cibum, I wolde I had asked hym, where I shoulde requyre or seke for my meate and drynke.

Consilium a se ipso petere, to take counsaile of hym selfe.

Petere exemplum, to take an example.

Petere e flamma te cibum posse arbitror, I thynke the so ppoze a hange, that to get a wofell of meate thou wilt thynke the nose in the fyre.

Exordium petere, to take a begynnyng, to besygne.

Petere ad Aethiopia vsque, to seche it enen as farre as Ethiope.

Petunt in Carmanos, id est, a Carmanis.

Petunt in Indos, id est, ab Indis, they seche it or go for it as far as Indie.

Petere in sepulchrum, hoc est, e sepulchro, to seche out of the sepulcher or graue.

Petere aliquem dextra, to streche or put out the ryght hande to one.

Aliquem literis petere, to wyte to one, to prouoke one in wytyng, to wyte a sharpe, quicke or taunting litle to one.

Petere aliquem fictis criminibus, to accuse one falsely, to lay false thynges to ones charge.

Cornu petere, to bustle with the horne.

Punctum petere hostem, to soyne with a sword or other weapon.

Cæsum petere, to strike with the edge of the sword.

Caput petere, to strike at the head.

Petere aliquem telis, to hurle darts or lanens at one.

Petere aliquem, to assaile or set upon, also to late waite for one.

Petit, used amonge portes for Petijt.

Ad hostem petendum armatus, redge armed to assaile his enemies.

Petere fraude, or Insidijs, to laye waite to destryue or kyll one.

Troianos hæc monstra petunt, id est, manent, expectant, or after Seruius appetunt.

Quem petit, & summis annexus viribus, vrs get, whom he foloweth.

Petuntur in vincula, qui parentes non alunt, they bee ledde awaye to prison, or they bee requirred to be put in prison.

Athenas petere, to go to Athens.

Cælum petere, to fleye up into the ayre.

Fuga salutem petere, to fleye awaye, to the extent to saue hym selfe.

Secretum petere, to go into a secreete place.

Periculo vehemens peti, to be assailed with Petula, a name of a woman.

Supera semper petunt, they count alwaies to be above, or in high places.
Roman petri fons ille, that well runneth to Rome.
Altum flamma petir, the type of flame mounteth by on hygh.
Ardua petere, to clyme by hylls.
Petroleum, n. g. a kynde of wagons of charles often used in Fraunce.
Petofiris, a famous astronomer of Egypte.
Petra, n. f. g. a rocke, a stone.
Petra, a towne in Sicilie by Hybla, also a towne of Straby, wherof Petrea Arabia is named.
Petra Sirenum, a towne of Lucania.
Petracori, a people of Fraunce called commonly Perigort.
Petrea, a nymph of the sea.
Petreaia, a woman goyng before common processions in the countrey, keryng his silke dunke.
Petrelon, lei. n. gen. an oyle, whiche naturally cenneth out of a stone.
Petrus, a, um, of a stone.
Petricolus, a, um, idem quod petrosus.
Petrificatio, a disease in the eye and eye liddes.
Petrina, the herbe Tussilago.
Petroleum, an oyle, that naturally issueth out of stones.
Petronas, carles of the countrey. also wether shepe.
Petrônia, n. a littell brouke rennyng into the river of Tiber. also the wife of Vitellius the emperour.
Petroselinum, ni. neu. ge. an herbe of the kynde of Parselye, and after some hedg parsley or stone parsley. Gesner saith, it is called in the Alpes Ostrutium, whiche they use agaynst all diseases: Hieronimus Tragus calleth it Pimpinellam.
Petrophies, the herbe called Aizoum paruum.
Petrosus, a, um, stonie, or full of stones.
Petulus, anis, om. gen. wanton, dishonest, res prochetfull, proude, vicious, redy to do wrong, malapert, saucie, that passeth not howe pll he speaketh or doeth to a man.
Effuse petulus, malapert and saucie without measure, that hath no moderation in his coage and behauour.
Petulanter, wantonly, proudly, dishonestly, buschamefully, impudently, malapertly, saucily.
Petulantres inuchi in aliquem, To inurgh agaynst one with proude and reprochetfull wordes.
Petulanter inuchi in filiam alicuius, to rayle spytfully and saucily agaynst ones daughter.
Petulantia, n. f. m. gen. wantonnesse, viciousnesse, prouddnes, malapertnesse, impudencie, saucinesse, reprochetfull and proude speaking or chattyng.
Petulus, a, um, wanton, lasciuious.

Petulus, li. m. g. a diminutiue of Petus.
Petus, or petus, i. m. g. he that hath one eye lesse than the other.
Petiscum, a part of the citee of Rome.
Peuce, an ile in the riuers Iker, also the wilde pine apple tree.
Peucedanum, or peucedanus, an herbe, whiche hath a lytle stalk, lyke a fennell, but the by the ground, and hath a peolowe flour, a blacke roote, a great sauour, and is full of iuite, he that doeth gather it, feleth peine and whysling in his heade, except he haue and nosethyphes be anoynted with oyle of roses, Dioscorides. Iohn Agricola supposeth it to bee that, whiche is called Funiculum porcinu, whiche I suppose we call dogge fennell. Some call this, Peucedanum, balde money.
Pexatus, a, um, that weareth a garnet of rough frys, or frysadowe, or suche lyke cloth.
Pexias, anis, f. g.
Pexo, aui, are, to kerme.
Pexus, a, um, kemed, carded, curled, stylen with the flape in weayng.
Pexa vestes, some men in expounding Plinie, suppose to be of suche thyng as is shorne, as fynes woullen clothe or veluet, but it seemeth rather to bee garmentes fyled, or that haue longa woulle, as thyche frys or frysadowe.
Pexa toga, a gowne of frysadowe, or other clothe that hath the woulle ryled.
Pexamunera, garmentes of frysadowe, or other lyke clothe geuen to men.
Pexa folia, leaues thyche and crispe.
Doctor pexus & pinguis, a grosse and rude teacher.
Pezira, mouscheromes growyng at the rootes of trees.

Phacas, idem quod lens.
Phabiranum, a citee in Germanye called Bremen.
Phacea agria, a kynde of lintels growyng in watric places.
Phaces, people of the ile of Corcira, vnder the dominion of Alinons.
Phacus, a, um, & Phacius, a, um, of the people Phaces.
Phax, acis, Phace vseth for one that is fat, wel fed, and deyntlye brought vp.
Phacastus, a, um, that weareth shoes called Phacasi.
Phacasmus, ij. n. g. & Phacasmus, i. m. g. a kind of shoes.
Phadimus, one of the sons of Amphion & Niobe, also a portes name of Bizanthe.
Phadon, a noble man of Athens, slayne by the thyrty tyranes. an other was a philosopher, in whose name Plato made his booke of the immortallitee of the soule.

Phædra, the wyfe of Theseus, and stepmother to Hippolytus daughter of Minos, kynge of Crete.
Phædrus, one of Platos scholars.
Phæniana, a citee of Rhettia, called nowe Belenshusium.
Phænum, idem quod Anemone.
Phæstum, a citee of Crete.
Phæstus, the sonne of Bopis, slayne at Teop, also an hyll of Crete.
Phæton, tontis, a word of thre syllables, the sonne of Phæbus & Clymenes, who with long delaye, opteyned at the last of his father, that he mought one daie gouerne or leade the chariotte of the sun, but beyng unable to that offyce, the horses ouerthrew the chariotte, and burned all the world. wherof Jupiter beyng ascarde, lest he also shulde be burned, strephynge Phæton with lyghnyng, threwe hym into the riuier called Padus, and Erydanus. Phæton, is somes tyme vled for the sunne.
Phætonides, the sisters of Phæton, loke Heliades.
Phætonius, or Phætonceus, a, um, of Phæton.
Phætuſa, daughter of the sonne, reade Heliades.
Phagedæna, æ, f. g. a rennyng canker or poche, whiche moste eateth the fleshe to the bones.
Phagedænicus, ci, ma, gen. that hath that soze or botche.
Phago, a mans name, whiche was an excedynge glutton, and dydeate in one daie a whole boze, an hundred loues of breadde, a sheepe and a pygge, and dranke therto the vessell of wyne called Oera, a butte or other lyke vessell.
Phagineus, a, um, of beech.
Phagus, a beech tree.
Phalanga, æ, f. g. a staffe, wheron men do carie packes, also a playne staffe, a leauer or a roller to lyfte and conueygh wyppes or other thynges that be heauy and weightie.
Phalangarij, porters, whiche do carie packes: also souldiours of the bande called Phalanx.
Phalangium, ij, n. g. a kind of spiders, that hath in all his legges thre ioyntes or knottes, whose stingyng is perillous and all most deadly.
Phalacrocorax, acis, m. g. a water crowe, it male signifie a cote, but the birde, whiche is properly called of Plinie Phalacrocorax, is the thirde kind of y birds, that Aristotle nameth κολοιου id est graculos, loke there.
Phalacron, balde.
Phalacrus, the sonne of Æolus.
Phalæ, or Falæ, hygh towers made of symbye.
Phalangites, tæ, or Phalangium, gij, an herbe hauynge alwaies two stalkes at the leaste, a whyte flowre lyke in facion to a redde lylie, a blake seede lyke halfe a lintell.
Phalango, arc, to moue or dreyne a thyng vpon rollers.
Phalantus, the chiefe capytayne of the bakardes that were exiled and put of theyr country Ias Phalanx, angis, f. g. an host of. xlii. thousande of footemen, set in such order, that they may encounter with theyr enemies, cote to cote, man to man, mylde to mylde.

Phalanges, are the ioyntes or spaces in the fingers.
Phalangitæ, rårum, an armie of. xvi. thousande cote men.
Phalara, a towne in Attica.
Phalarica, æ, f. g. an instrument of warre, wher in wynde sye is enclosed, that whan it is by the fastened to symbye, it burneth all mostely there be of it two sortes, a bygger and a lesse.
Phalaris, a tyran of Agrigentyne in Sicilie, also a grammarians name.
Phalaris, an herbe partly lyke cozne, partly lyke grasse: and therefore may be called grasse cozne.
Phalera, an haubert in Athens.
Phalera, æ, and Phaleræ, arum, an ornamente that gentlemen, & men of armes vled in Rome.
Phaleræ, arum, f. g. plu. trappers or barbes for horses.
Phalaræus, a, um, trapped or barbed.
Phalerata dicta, gaie wordes, pleasant speache.
Phalereus Demetrius, a philosopher and gouernour of Athens.
Phalerij, a citee in Tuscan.
Phalernus, reade befoze in Falernus.
Phalisci, a certaine people in Italy on the highest part of Tuscan, called nowe Mount flacon.
Phalora, a citee of Thessalie.
Phanæus, an hyll of Chios, wheron vines are set.
Phanaticus, i, m. g. he that hath vaine visions.
Phanes, a mans name of Halicarnassus, whiche conducted Cambyses into Egypt.
Phaneta, æ, one of the names of Bacchus.
Phanias, is taken of Hyperides, and Lysias, for an vsurer.
Phanio, sainte Augustine in his epistles sayeth, was takē for one that brought good lucke with his comyng.
Phanni, fantasies, whiche happen to men in dremes.
Phantasia, æ, f. g. is diuersely taken of philosophers & phisitions. Galenus interiorum tertio, the affection called Phantasia, is none of ther thyng but the corruption of vnderstandynge. Aristotle de animalibus. 2. Phantasia is an operation of the power phantastical, that is to say, a menyng from the actuell sense. also Phantasia, is of the treasure or power animall, keeper of the formes and figures first conceived in the common sense or perceyvyng, phantasia, imagination.
Phantasma, tasmatis, n. g. a vision, properly of a thyng that is not, a vaine vision or imagination.
Phantasticus, a, um, phantastical.
Phanum, ni, n. g. a temple.

Pharus,

Phanus, ni, a mans name.

Phanon, a large yonge man.

Pharaz, a cite in Arie.

Pharao, onis, the name of all kynge of Egypte untill the tyme of Salomon. in the Egyptian tongue Pharao signifieth kynge.

Pharetra, x, and sometyne Pharetra, x, f. ge. a quiver for arrowes.

Pharetratus, a, um, that beareth a quiver.

Pharia, an yle called now Aithia. also a cite, wherof the people be called Pharienses.

Pharias, pharix, a serpente, whiche maketh a forsome in the grounds with his tayle as he creepeth, and so lifteth hym selfe up.

Pharicon, ci, n. g. a kynde of popson.

Pharisei, were amonge the Jewes certayne men, which professed a forme of luyng more strict and deuoute than other of that people, and werethere called by that name. For Phares, in the Hebrwee tongue signifieth diuided. they professed continence, virginitee, faste, and abstayning from meate wyse in the sabots daies. they slept onely upon boudes, some upon stones or els on thozes, to kepe them froo spring of firsthye appetyte. they wore on theyr foreheades crowles of parchemente, wherein were writte the x. commandementes geuen by god to Moyses, which they called Philaterias: they had in great reuerence theyr elders, in so much that they wolde not with a wynde displease them. notwithstanding they belened, that all thynges hapned by constellation, and yet toke they not away free wyll from man. they affirmed, that soules are immortall, and that god shall come in iudgemente. hereby they came into wounderfull credence with people, wherby they drew to them great multitudes, and of them were dyuers god men, amonge whome was sainte Paule, Nicodemus and other, whiche afterwarde were Chyistes disciples, althoughe the multitude, takynge that profession onely for vaine glory, peruerterd that honest forme of luyng into hypocrisie, deceyvinge the people, whom Chyiste Marpelye rebuked, and declared theyr foly. and yet with some of them (whiche by Iherlphode were god men) he dined, and of theyr wyse vled them familiarly.

Pharius, a, um, is put for Aegyptius.

Pharius, and Phariachus, cha, chum, of Pharos.

Pharmacutice, es, fcm. gen. that parte of physyche that healeth with medicines.

Pharmacutria, x, f, g. a soycresse.

Pharmacotheon, thei, n. ge. a diuine medicine.

Pharmacopola, x, a pothecarie.

Pharmachum, i, ne. ge. a medicine, sometyne it signifieth popson.

Pharmacusa, two ples by Attica.

Pharnaces, kynge Mithridates sonne, whome Cesar vanquished.

Pharphariades, parte of the mountayne Taurus.

Pharos, a little yle in Egypte agaynste the mouth of Nilus, by the citee Alexandria. in this yle was set a very high tower, wherein were great lychies all the nyght longe, for the comfote & surtee of theyr, whiche were in viage eether on the sea or on the lande. wherof all other toures made for such purpose, are called Phari.

Pharusij, or Pharusi, people of Libya, whiche are nowe exceedynge poore.

Pharsalia, a countrey in Thessalia where the battayle was betwene Cesar and Pompeie.

Pharsalos, a citee in Thessalie, nigh to the whiche was the great and sharpe battayle betwene Cesar and Pompeius, where Pompeius was vanquished and fledde. it is also called of Lucanus Pharsalia.

Phase, a wynde of Hebrwe, whiche signifieth passyng ouer. it is commonly called Paschia.

Phaselis, a citee of Pamphilia, whiche was a refuge for pirates.

Phaselinus, a, um, made of the pulse Phascolus.

Phasellus, or Phaselus, li, m. g. a little Mycocalled a galion.

Phascolus, li, a sorte of pulse cozne, wherof be dyuers kyndes. one is called Dolichus, whiche groweth in gardenes, with a longe stemie, and is succoured with stiches set aboute it, they be mostly corrupted with weate. Decius saith, that onely they amonge all other pulse were eaten with theyr hanches. Ruellius affirmeth, that it was not the common Dolichus, but they whiche were of dyuers colours, and facioned lyke to little kidneys. Alike of them in Similax. An other kynde is called Phasillus, which is bette small, some beyng white and some red, with little stalkes reynynge on the grounde, and lyng holowe, haupng leaues lyke in facion to iute, but softer and full of beines, codded lyke to fengerke, the both of them nauy meth, and maketh indifferent iuce. an other is called Similax, of whom reade in his place. an other is called Isopyron, whose leafe is lyke to anyle, and hath on the top little heades full of seedes lyke to Nigella. I haue no certayne englyshe for this pulse, excepte ye wyll call them faselles or long pease, as maister Turner doth.

Phasganon, the herbe Xiphion.

Phasianarius, ij, m. g. he that breedeth fescantes.

Phasianus, i, m. g. and Phasianus, x, f. ge. a fescant.

Phasiolos, the herbe Isopyros.

Phattaga, a beaste in Indie lyke a cokatrice, as byg as a little dogge, haupng a scalie and rough shynne, that can not bee pearled with Iron, Aelianus.

Phatinus panis, a kynde of bread made of linseeds.

Phasis, sis, or sidis, a great ryuer in the countrey of Colchos. it is also a citee there.

Phasma, asis, n. g. an horrible vision or syght.

Phaulia mala, a kynde of quinces.

Fhh ij

Phau

Hic val He Pharm. n

Gram.
Hic val Hoc

Phaulia, a kynde of olives.

Phaoninus, a famous and eloquent philosopher bozne at Olympe in France. in him wer thye thynges principallie to be merueyled at. The fyrste, that he beyng a frenche man, was so excellent in the Greeke tounge, that besydes his great leernynge, he left behynde hym a noble remembrance of the greke eloquence. The seconde, that beyng Eunuchus or an imperfecte man he was accused of adulterie. The thyrde, that hauinge the emperour Adrian exceedingly displeased with him, he not withstanding ouerlyued him, neuer hauyng any damage by hym: whiche was to the hygh commendacion of that noble emperoure, hauynge this sentence of sentence in his mowthe (but in Greeke) the kyng is than to be esteemed mozte excellent, when he beyng displeased with his inferiour, refrayneth his anger. On a tyme when the emperoure disputed with hym, and in the ende he seemed to suffer the emperour to haue the victory: afterwarde his frendes asked of him, howe it happened that he, who applyed hym selfe to studie and letters onely, and was reputed to be the greatest philosopher in Athens: woughte he vanquished of so great a prince, who was occupied in the great assayes of the empyre. He answered, that it was no shame to be vanquished of hym, which had xxx. legions of men at his commatndemente.

Phayllus, a mas name, that would leape 55. fote.

Phechasiatus, Phecasium: loke Phacasiatus.

Phegeus, a, um, of Phegeus.

Phegeus, the father of Alpheisboea, Themon and Axion, of whome Alcmaon was purged for sleaying his mother Eriphyle.

Phelandrios, drii, m. g. an herbe growyng in marie groundes holesome to breake the stone, called of Dioscorides Helioselinon, id est apiu palustre. Some thynke Phelandrios to be Filis pendula.

Phellodris, Plinie seemeth to take it for cocke, contrary to Theophrastus.

Phemus, mi, m. g. a certayne medicine agaynst the collicke.

Phenice, phenix, or Phenicia, loke Diosc. li. 4. cap. 46.

Phellus, li, m. g. cocke.

Phemonoe, a mayden, prophete of Apollo in Delphos.

Pheneum, a towne of Ieradie.

Pheneata, people of that towne.

Phengites, tis, m. g. a certayne stone.

Phenion, an herbe, some wyte it Fremium. It is also called Anemone.

Phera, a citee of Thessaly, also a place and towne of Achaia, and a towne of Attica, betwene Megara and Thebes.

Pherecides, a famous philosopher and wyter of tragedies, whiche died of the lousie sicknesse, he was Pythagoras maister. There was an ther of that name before his tyme.

Phereclus, the sonne of Hermonides, whiche made the Cuppes wherein Paris sailed into Grece, when he stole away Helen.

Pherecrates, a poete of Athens.

Pherenice, a womans name.

Pheretra, drum, ne. ge. thynges bozne at great feastes or triumphes, as pageantes or iewels of golde or syluer, images, and such lyke thynges.

Pheretrius, Jupiter.

Pherne, idem quod Dos.

Pheretrum, i, n. g. a thyng, wheron pageantes are bozne, also dead coypes, loke Feretrum.

Pheronobium, wilde lettuce.

Pherusa, idem quod Carduus.

Pheuxiteron, Aristolochia rotunda, vi Barb. in Coroll.

Phiala, x, f. g. the generall name to all plate that serueth for wyne or water, and properly of golde.

Phiale, one of Dianas companions.

Phidias, an excellent workeman in making great images of golde or Iuoz.

Phidiacus, a, um, of Phidias.

Phiditia, x, f. g. the suppers that the Lacedemonians vled, whiche were openly kepte with a merueylous temperance, every man bringyng his measureable porcion of meate and wyne.

Phila, lx, f. g. an yle in the frenche sea.

Philadelphia, a citee in Asya, ioynyng to Lydia.

Philadelphia, x, f. g. brotherly loue.

Philadelphus, a little butte, the bowes wherof standyng a sander, encline and ioynge together as it were for generacion, and after departyng a sander, budde and bynge forth.

Philadelfus, called Ptolomeus, kyng of Egypt, who made a librarie, wherin wer fiftie thousande booke. He also caused the v. booke of Moyse to be translated into Greeke, by lxxi. interpreters, doctours of the lawes.

Phila, arum, an yle by Egypt.

Philagathus, thi, m. g. he that loneth goodnesse.

Philagrus, a philosopher of Cilicia.

Philalethes, a louer of trouth.

Philantropia, x, f. g. ge. humanitee, gentylnesse, and fauour towardes men.

Philantropos, the herbe aparine.

Philanthropos, pi, m. g. a louer of mankynde. also so gentyll and kynde, also a kynde of burre.

Philarchus, one that loneth to beare rule.

Philaretus, a louer of vertue.

Phileleuteros, a lover of libertie.

Philargyria, x, f. g. couetousnesse, auarice.

Philargyrus, ri, m. g. couetouse.

Philautia, x, f. g. loue of ones owne personne, loue of ones selfe.

Philemon, a comical poete.

Philema, lemaris, n. g. a kysse.

Phileni, were two byetherne of Carthage, of whiche it is wyten, that where they of Carthage and they they of Cyrene byd Arx for they boundes, if they agreed, that at eche cite two men shoulde stand, and where as they met, woulde be the boundes betwene the said brethren byng sente, woulde a great way into the boundes of the other, as they thoughte retorne, and when they of Cyrene byd for that they were prevented, they toke it displeasantly, and menaced the two brethren, that if they woulde not go backe, they shoulde be put quicke into the earth: but they notwithstanding byng woulde not departe, wherfore they byng buried on line, they cuntrymen made oure them two altars, whiche at this daye be called Arx Philenorum, whiche are now within the realme of Tunis.

Philenus, he that loveth wyne.
Phileremus, a lover of solitarie.
Phileia, temples dedicate to Apolla.
Phileus, a name of Apolla.
Phileras, a grammarian in the tyme of Philippus of Alexandrie, instructour to Ptolomeus Phila- delphus.
Phileteria, z. f. g. an herbe called wyld sage, in the decrees of Gregory that he taketh for charmes of enchantmentis written also in Consilio La- odicensi, we haue read Phileteria facere.

Philetus, is, a hyssop.
Philetus, a, um, amiable.
Phileum, a citee in Fryslande called commonly Groningen.

Philippi, a citee in Thessaly.
Philippicæ, Demosthenes orations against Phis- lip, and Cicero against Anthony.
Phillippides, a comick poete.
Philippopolis, a citee of Macedonie.
Philippenses, men of that citee.
Philippeus, ei, a certayne coine of golde, sometime used in Greece.

Philippus, i, a kynge of Macedonie, sonne of Amyntas, father of great Alexandrie. A prince from his childehode of excellent witte and poswer, of whom these notable thynges be remembered. after he had vanquished the Atheniensis at Cheronea, he began to reioyce of his felici-tee. but to the entente that he therefore shoulde not be by more proude to injuries towards his subiectes, nor to haue indignacion at them, whom he vanquished: he then and ever after caused a chyld to come to his chambrye doore in the mornynge, and to saie aloud, Philippus, thou arte a man mortall. Whiche he obserued so constantly, that he neuer went out of his chambrye, or receyued anye counsaylours or suiters, till the chyld had thus spoken these wordes, notwithstandynge that he was a painime. On a tyme the Atheniensis sente an ambassade vnto hym, whiche after he had paciently hearde, he saide to the ambassadours, when they shoulde departe, knowe you (sayde he) anye thyng that maye be pleasure vnto your citee? amonge them was Democritus (for yll tongue called Thersites) he forthwith answered the kynge: if thou (saide he) wyldest hang vpon thy selfe: whiche answer troubled the residue of the ambassadours, and byd for all the other be-reave in an indignacion, with a great chere.

but Philippus most gently and coldly answered.
Saie you to the Atheniensis, that they whiche for anger can not absteyne from such wordes, be muche prouder of courage, than they
that suffer to be spoken withoute anye punishment.
and thus easily digressed to proude an in-surie. also, where one named Diachetas had a matter in variance before hym, Philippus takeynge littell heede, what was spoken, and sometime cleppynge, at the last gaue iudge-mente agaynst Diachetas: who cryynge out with a lowde voyce, appealed. Wherewith Philippus byng so moued, with a greuous loke, sayde: to whome dost thou appeal?
I appeal, (sayed Diachetas) vnto your selfe,
but byng better awaked, and takeynge heede what is spoken. Philippus byng thoroughly awaked, and hearynge skilfully the matter, perceyued, that Diachetas had wronge, he woulde not reuerse the iudgemente, but the summe of money, wherein Diachetas was condemned he payed of his owne treasure. of his patience, subtiltee of witte, and valiant courage, many haue written abundantly, whiche in the readynge are bothe pleasaunte and profiteable. he was afore the incarnation of Christ
358. yeres.

Philistæ, certayne robbers, amonge the Aegypti- ans, whiche inbrace a man to the ende to strangle hym.

Philistus, an historiographer.
Philo, a philosopher of the secte Academick, and a Jewe, borne at Alexandria, a man of great eloquence and wysedome.

Philocalus, li, m. g. a good man, a clemently man or elegante.

Philocolia, f. ge. delight in fauour and cleane-
nesse.

Philocares, an herbe called horehounde.
Philocles, a tragick poete of Athens.

Philocompus, pi, m. g. a dragger, a craker.
Philocrates, constant in loue.

Philocratias, a courteous man.

Philoctetes, the sonne of Phan was Hercules companion, and buried hym, and had his ar-rowes.

Philodamus, a noble man of the people called Lamfaceni.

Philodici, they whiche desyre to bee prynces in the lawe.

Philanus, a lover of wyne.
Philodulus, he that loveth his seruantes.

Philogracus, he that delighteth or hath a pleasure to vse greke wordes.

Philoginia, z. f. g. doctryne on women.
Philoginos, he that docteth on women.

Philolaus, one of Epichure, whiche gate lawes to the Thebanes.
Philologia, a, f. g. loue of studie, babylinge, deslectacion in to muche talke of many wordes.
Philologus, gi, m. g. studious, of a louer of letters, also a great speaker.
Philomachies, desirous to learne.
Philomachia, desyre to learne.
Philomela, a, f. g. a nyghtengale. also a fayre mayden that was bewowred by Theseus, but bande to her sister: whome poetes feigne to be transformed into a nyghtengale.
Philomusus, si, mal. g. amorous of the muses,
that loueth of fauoureth good letters.
Philonicus, a brawler. sometyne a louer of vic-torie.
Philonides, a great bigge lubbour of Melite, so victoriously and vniuersally, that of hym grew a proverbe, in doctour Philonide.
Philonium, a newe frende.
Philopamines, a famous capitaine of the people
Athens, whiche vanquished the Lacedemonians and Athenians in diuers battailes.
Philopes, he that loneth children to dishonere.
Philopolemus, mi, m. g. a louer of warre.
Philopolites, a louer of his countrey.
Philoponia, loue of labour.
Philopsychia, a, f. g. desire of liete.
Philosarchus, voluptuous, sensuall, desirous of pleasure.
Philoponus, ni, m. g. laborious, painefull.
Philosophaster, stri, mal. g. he that woulde be like a philosopher, a matterer in philosophie, a counterfayte philosopher.
Philosophia, a, f. g. philosophie, the loue of sauouringe of wisedome.
Philosophice, like a philosopher.
Philosophicus, a, um, philosophicall.
Philosophor, aris, to study wisedome, to dispute and reason of philosophie, to seeke the causes and natures of thynges.
Philosophus, i, m. g. a philosopher.
Philostorgia, the loue of parentes towards the children.
Philostatus, a learned man in the tyme of Se-
uerus the emperour.
Philothoros, ri, m. g. one that is geuen to speculation and contemplacion of thynges.
Philothesia, a solemne feast among the Greekes.
Philotimus, desirous of honour.
Philoxenia, a, f. g. hospitalitee.
Philoxous, verie desirous to liue.
Philoxenus, he that kepeth good hospitalitee. also so the name of a grammarian, of a poete, of a famous pyncter, and of a parasite, which wished hym selfe to haue a necke as long as a crane, that he myght haue moze delectacion in swete meates and drinckes.
Philteron, of some is taken for carrets.
Philtrum, i. n. g. a drinke charmed, whiche causeth

Phylara, or Philara, a fount. g. a chimney pipe between the furnace and the wood of the hearth called Phylar, wherein they often in olden times to waste, after some it is the way it calls.

Phylax, a nymph, son of Pan, Saturnus begate Phylon, who therefore is sometimes called Phi-lides.

Phyma, acis, n. gen. a toxe on the finger, which maye be called a wheblowe.

Phimus, est prædilio hosti-um vulue.

Phimus, quem glans membrum virilis ita tegit ut vi nudari non possit.

Phineus, king of Bœotia, who by the enticement of his seconde wyfe, put out the eyes of his son-nes, which he had by his first wyfe. But by the iust vengeance of god, he was also made blind, and the foule euident birds called Harpie, despyed and deuoured the meate that was prepared for hym. But those byrdes were at the last driven away by Zetes and Calais, whome he had curteysely enterteyned. An other Phi-neus was brother of Siphnus, that was turned into a stone by Perseus. An other of that name as Schenten, was turned into a byrde.

Phison, one of the riuers of paradise, which some calle Ganges, some Nilus.

Phlanates, people of Illiria.

Phlebe, phlebis, f. g. a byrde.

Phlebotomia, æ, f. g. bloodletting.

Phlebotomum, mi, n. g. the instrument, wherwith bloude is letten, a fleume.

Phlegeton, ontis, a river of hell, which allowe
bourneth.

Phlegetontes, a, um, of Phlegeton.

Phlegias, the sonne of Mars, a kynge in Thessalie, and father of Ixion.

Phlegma, mātis, n. g. fleume.

Phlegmaticus, a, um, fleumaticke.

Phlegmone, ones, ferri, g. an inflammation of bloudd, which groweth into an impostume in some parte of the body or members.

Phlegon, one of the hostes of the sonne.

Phlegontis, tidis, f. g. a precious stone, wher-in appereth as it were a flame of fyre.

Phlegra, græ, or Phlegre, græ, a citie of Massedonie.

Phlegreus campus, after some a felde in Thessalie, after some in Macedonie, after Plinie and Strabo in Campagne, by the citie Lus-me, where the gigantes were overcome by Herscules.

Phlegyas, loke Phlegias.

Phlegiæ, people of Thessalie, named of Phle-gias Ixions father, which were dyspeters of god and man, and therefore destroyed with a deluge by Neptune.

Phleos, phlei, f. g. a certayne herbe.

Phlias, the son of Bacchus, that sailed into Tolochis with Jason.

Phliasius, a, um, of Phlius.

Phlius,

was named, where he reigned. Also one which was tutour to Achilles.

Phoenix, as Dioscorides describeth it, seemeth to be the weede, that is called way bents, it is lyke barley in the eare.

Pholoe, a mountayne in Arcadia, full of wood.

Pholus, one of the Centaures, the sonne of Arion and Rubeus.

Phollis, lis, m. g. a certayne tribute, whiche noble men payed: also a weight called Balantium, weighyng. 250. Denos, that is. 312. libras, and sixe ounces: There is an other Phollis, containing. 208. of weightes named Ceratium.

Phollis in Suidas, is the same that Obolus is: loke there, & in this sense is it taken in S. Augustine de ciuitate dei.

Phonos, idem quod Atractilis.

Phonascus, ci, m. g. he that teacheth one to pronounce and moderate his voyce.

Phorbas, banis, a shepherde, that found Oedipus, after that he was hanged up by the feet.

Phorcus, one of the sonnes of Neptuneus, whiche was taken for a god of the sea.

Phorcys, Medusas father, of whome she was called Phorcyne.

Phorcys, phorcydos, patrony. of Phorcys.

Phormio, a capitayne of Athenes, in the warre of Peloponnesus. Also a philosopher in the time of Anniball.

Phormium, an herbe holseome agaynst the pinne and the webbe in the eye: and to draw out thinges, that sticke within the flesh.

Phorinus, a comical poete of Syracule of Sicile.

Phoroneus, the most auncient kyng of Grecia.

Phoroneus, a, um, of Phoroneus.

Phoronides, patrony. mascul.

Phornois, nidos, patrony. femi.

Phosphorus, ri, m. g. the day sterre.

Phragmon, the name of an ymagemaker and painter.

Phraortes, a kyng of India, a man of great temperance. An other Phraortes was kyng of Persia, who slew his owne father Derode.

Phralis, sis, f. ge. the proppre fourme or maner of speache, whiche in one countrey is oftentimes diuerse, as Sotherne, Noztherne, deuynthe, kentthe, frenche, Picarde, Gascoigne, walon. Some doo set the negatiue befoze th'affirmatiue, some contrary: some speeche is quicke, some graue, some flourishyng, some temperate.

Phratria, conuencions or assemblies of men, haunyng peculiar sacrifices or facions of religions.

Phregema, a citee in Hetturia, an other in Asia.

Phrene, the midriffe, whiche diuideth the vmbles of a man or beaste from the bowels. Aristotle semeth to take phrenes for the intrals.

Phreneticus, a, um, that is vexed with a phrenesie.

Phrenitis, tidis, or Phrenesis, sis, f. ge. a sickness called frenesie.

Phronimus, prudent, wise, iustitie.

Phronesis, sis, f. g. prudentie.

Phrygia, a province in Asia the lesse, hangyng on the east Cappadocia on the south Lycaonia, on the west Troas, on the north Galatia, also to the west Asipeniam.

Phrygianus, a, um, embrodered.

Phrygianus vestes, garmentis embrodered.

Phrygio, onis, m. g. a prophete.

Phrygius, a, um, of Phrygia.

Phrygium melos, a melody or tune in instrumentes, wherein seemed to bee Cos Lucianus sayeth a maner of diuine tune, all be it: Porphyrius calleth it barbarous. Cassiodorus saith: that the melody, called Doxius, giveth wisdom, and good chastite. Phrygius saith: to beate notes, and instrumentes the best of nature. Neos lius appeareth the tempestes of the mynde, and byngeth in weape. Lydius quencheth understandyng in them that be dull, and induceth appetite of celestiall thynges.

Phryne, a famous harlotte at Athenes.

Phrynichus, an Athenien writer of Tragedies.

Phrynonas, a mans double, so discrefull and wylly that of him was a proverbe.

Phrynon, the herbe, whiche some call Lunaria minor.

Phrygos, a lysarde. Some take it for a kynde of great frogges.

Phryx, gis, a man of Phrygia.

Phryxus, the son of Athamas, kyng of Thebes.

Phthia, a citee in Thessalie, Achilles countrey.

Phthiota, one that dwelleth in Phthia.

Phthiochia, one of the foure partes of Thessalie.

Phthiasis, sis, f. g. a sickness, in the which luse do grow in such multitudes, that they deuoure the body, the lowly cupill.

Phthirophagi, people dwellyng nigh to the great sea, which lyued only by fische.

Phthirion, the herbe Strassagria.

Phthificos, he that hath the consumption of the lunges.

Phthisis, sis, f. g. a disease in the lunges, with a consumption of all the body, comyng of a feuerous heate consumyng, or of a heate artificiall and humours in the stomache. The cause is a reume, Harpe and long continuynge of choller or sale fleume, it happeneth of a squince or impostume in the vuula, when by the rupture of the, the putrifid matter descendeth to the lunges, or of a pleurisie, or Peripneumonia, wher they beyng healed, the putrifid matter is not purged within the space of. xl. days, or by long stopping of hemeroides or flours: or by the coldnesse of the ayre receiued, straignyng the spirittuall membrs: or by the heate of the ayre, dryng and scorcheyng the lunges: or by a grate and longe cough: or by other inforcemente, in conyng bygh, or bearyng a heauy bourden.

Phthisis, the peionie.

Phthonia, medicines, that procure abortion, or des desperance before the time.

Phihongus, gi, m. g. a towne.

Phis, a plant of herbe, whiche is called valerian mammariorum: some call it setwall of capons egge.

Phy, an interfection of mercury.

Phycis, a certayne fische.

Phycites, a precious stone.

Phycos thalassiom, called in latine Fucus marinus, an herbe lyke unto lettuce, very good as against all Joyntes diseases: of it be, three kin-
des.

Phycus, untis, a promontorie of Cyrene.

Phygethlon, li, n. g. a littell swelling of botche,
harde and redde, burning and prickynge.

Phylaca, ex, for. g. a pylon, a warde, a gayle.

Phylacista, ex, m. g. a gaylour, a keeper of a pillon.

Phylace, a citee of Thessalie.

Phylacteria, scrolles of parchment, that the Pharisees used, wherein the commandementes were written.

Phylarchus, the chiefe of the people.

Phyleus, one of the grecke capitaines, that came to Troy.

Phyllandriion, vide Barb. in Coroll. lib. 3. cap.
141.

Phyllanthion, an herbe used to dye purple.

Phyllantes, an herbe, looke Barb. in Phyllinidis.

Phyllis, lidis, the daughter of Lycurgus, hynde of Thrase, whiche hynde hte selfe, despayning of the couplinge of Demophoon, whome poetes seigne, to be turned into an almon tree, wherof that tree is called Phylla. Phyllis is also a cy-ner of Bithynia.

Phyllitis, an herbe called hartes tongue, looke
Fuchsius in Hemionitis.

Phyllon, li, a leafe, also a kynde of mosse.

Phyllus, a citee of Thessalie.

Phylodoce, an nymphe.

Phylura, looke Philura.

Phyma, a beast, on whiche if a man dooe looke
he falleth into a greate palenesse and leannes for many daies space.

Phymosis, looke Phimosi.

Physeter, teris, m. g. a great fische in the frenche ocean sea, whiche riseth lyke to a pillar aboue wppes, and spouteth out water.

Physica, ex, f. g. the science of thynges naturall.

Physica, oram, n. g. booke that treateth of naturall causes.

Physice, naturall.

Physicus, ci, m. g. a naturall philosopher, he that studieth the causes of thynges naturall.

Physiognomia, ex, f. g. a rule to know a mannes naturall affections by his visage or fourme of his membres.

Physiognomus, mi, or Physiognomon, monis, he that iudgeth ones maners and affections by his visage and facion of his body.

Physiologia, ex, f. g. reason of naturall causes.

Physiologus, gi, m. g. he that disputeth of nat-urall causes, a naturall philosopher.

Physis, nature.

Physionus, bene mentulatus.

Phytecusa, an yle in the sea Tircenum.

Phythion, or Phytion, looke Pythion.

Phytonicus, and Phytonica, he or she that hath a spirite within them, that geueth answers of thynges to come.

P. ANTEAH.

P iabilis, le, for the which satisfaction maie be made, and god pleased.

Piacularis, re, that which pertaineth to pur-gynge of sinne, or is geuen or offered to god for satisfaction.

Piacularia auspicia, tokens in sacrifice of some heauy chance to come.

Piaculum, li, n. g. any thyng done for satisfaction of some greuous sin. Sometime a great and happens offence.

Piāmen, minis, or Piamen, ti, n. g. that whiche was geuen or occupied about satisfaction.

Piatio, ōnis, for. g. a sacrificynge, a purgynge by sacrifice.

Piator, oris, m. g. he that purgeth sinne by sacrifice.

Piatrix, tricis, for. g. she that made sacrifice to purge sinne.

Pica, ex, f. g. a byrde called a ppe: a Jay is also contained vnder this name, which in Italye as this day is called Pica granata, Pica, is also the lothyng of the stomake in them that bee with childe.

Picātus, a, um, pitched or rased with pitche, also that saoureth or smacketh of pitche.

Picea, ex, f. g. a pitche tree.

Piceastrum, stri, n. g. a wilde pitche tree.

Piceātus, a, um, pitched, smered with pitche.

Picenum, a countrey in Italy called Marca Aneconitana.

Picenus, and Picentinus, a, um, of Picenum.

Picentes, or Picentini, people of that countrey.

Piceus, a, um, of pitche, or blache lyke pitche.

Picinum, a kynde of oyle made of pitche.

Picra hiera, a bitter medicine, commonly called Hiera pigra.

Picras, the herbe Androsace.

Picrocholi, amarx bilis homines.

Picris, cris, f. g. wylde lettise or Lichozie.

Pictacium, cij, n. g. a table pertainynge to iudges or bishoppes: it is sometime a plaister for the stomake or head.

Pictes, a wastlar.

Pictones, a countrey in Fraunce called Poes-
ters.

Pictor, ōris, m. g. a peinter.

Pictūra, ex, f. g. peyntynge, thecraft or scate of peyntynge.

Picturatus, a, um, peincted, that hath diuers colours.

lours.

picture vestes, embroidered apparell, or rather of handekyn.

Pictus, a, um, peincted, garnished, gaily sette toozthe, that hath in it diuers colours.

Picumnus, a god amonge the Romaynes.

Picus marinus, a birde whiche maketh a hole in trees, wherein he breedeth. Of this be thre kyndes, the fyrst is called a specht, the seconde a herway, the thirde, which Aristotle saith is as bygge as a hen, is not in Englande. Plinie maketh the fourth kynde, whiche seemeth to bee the witwall. Picus, was also the name of an olde kyng of Latines.

Picunus, a pie.

Pic, mercifully, deuoutely, louyngly, godlie, with a naturall and honest loue and affection.

Pieria, a mountaine and citee of Beroia dedicate to the muses.

Pieria, a mayden bozne at Myose a citee of Ionida, daughter of an honorable man, called Pythes, of whome is this historie woorthy of remembrance, there happened to bee warre betwene the inhabitantes of Miletum, and them of Myos, but in such gentill facion, that the women of Myos might alway, on the solemne feast of Diana, come to Miletum, and doe sacrifice to Diana, which was there chiefly honoured: Pieria comyng thither with her mother, one Phrygius, the eldest sonne of Ares deus duke of Miletum, beholdyng hir beautie, beganne to loue hir exceedingly, and after the manner of louers, desirynge to doo some thyng thankfull to the mayde, demaunded what he myght doo to hir most pleasaunt and acceptable. The mayden byng witty, and also loyng to hir countrey and friends, answered that to hir it shoulde bee the greatest pleasure, yf he woulde endeavour hym selfe to byng to passe, that she woulde oftentimes, with a great softe of hir companions repayre to Miletum without any damage. Phrygius perceyvinge, that nothyng might so muche contente the mayden as peace, he callynge the people together, exhorted them to conclude a peace with them of Myos, to be with them in alliance: wherevnto they accorded, and the name of Pieria was euer after in so honorable a remembrance, that all honeste women vsed for a proverbe, to wyshe so to be loued, as Phrygius loved Pieria.

Pierides, were daughters of one Pierus, whiche compared in syngeyng with the Muses: but byng vanquished, and geuyng to the Muses reprochfull woordes, they were by them turned into pies. They be sometyme taken for the Muses of an hill in Thessalie, called Pieris, or Pierus.

Pierides, the Muses.

Pierius, a, um, of the muses.

Pierus, the father of the foresaid maidens Pies rides.

Piens, is, mercifull, &c. Piennor, piensissimus, more and more mercifull, made lounge towards his parentes or countrey.

Pietas, âris, fœm, g. the reuerende loue towards a mans proppre countrey and parentes, of whiche it is taken for the loue and honour due vnto god. Lactantius calleth it iustice and deuoute worshippyng and knowlege of god, gods synne, godly affection, naturall loue towards the parentes or kynfolke, naturalnesse, natural zeale of affection.

Pigeo, gui, gere, to be softe or agreened, to bee lothe, to be ashamed: it is most commonly vsed impersonally, sometime to be slow, also to repente.

Obsecro, ne quid plus minusue faxit, quod nos postea pigeat, I requyre you, let him not doo any thyng more or lesse, wherof we may after repent vs.

Id non piget, he repenteth not of that he hath doone.

Quin me pigeat perdere, but that I woulde be lothe to leste it.

At re nullo modo piguit facere, but thou were nothyng lothe or ashamed to do it.

Num facti piget: is he any thyng softe for that he hath doone.

Piget me laboris, I am lothe or vnwylly to labour.

Piger, gra, grum, slowe.

Piger annus, a yere that passeth slowly away.

Bellum pigrum, a longe warre.

Pigmalion, the sonne of Belus, kyng of Tyre, and brother of Dido.

Pigmalioneus, a, um, of Pigmalion.

Pigmentum ti, neu. ge. peinctyng that women vsed. Also peincters coloure.

Pigmenta, are also false colours in speakyngs deceitfull woordes, pleasant lies.

Pigmentarius, ri, masc. gen. a maker or seller of peinctyng.

Pignatoxatis, veratrum album.

Pigneratio, ônis, f. g. a pledgyng or gageyng.

Pigneratitius, a, um, that whiche is laied in pledge.

Pigneratitius creditor, he that maye take a pledge, or gage.

Pignero, au, are, to lay to gage.

Pigneror, âris, âri, to take a pledge or a gage of a man for suretee of rente or payement of money sometime to lay to gage.

Mars ipse ex acie fortissimū quēq; pignerari solebat, the most valiant men be they, whiche in battayle be soonest dispatched: or Mars vseth to leise for him selfe the valiaunttest men.

Pignerati animi, the mindes of herres of men in daunger, and as it were layde to gage.

Pignus, pignoris, or pigneris, n. ge. a gage or pledge geuen for suretee of dette or rent. also a pawne patrone in layng a wager: by translation a les-tapne when, of surety, of testimony of some of friendship.

 Dare pignus cum aliquo, to lay a gage against one.
 Ponere pignori, to lay in gage or pledge.
 Pignori opponere, to gage or lay to gage for suretie of rent or payment.
 Pignora auferre, To take a distresse. also to receiue of some gooddes for disobedience.
 Pignus amoris, a token of loue.
 Beneuolentie pignus, a token of fauour.
 Pignora capere, idē quod pignora auferre.
 Ager oppositus est pignori, the piece of grounde is laied to mortgage.
 Contendere pignore, to lay a wager.
 Pignus rei publice, id est fiducia & secu-ritas.
 Pignora, is sometime taken for childzen, being as pledges betwene man and wife.
 Alcita pignora, childzen by adoption.
 Pignoris captio, a nouns, signifieth taking of a distresse.
 Pignorator, oris, m. g. he that taketh a gage for suretie of dette or payment.
 Pigrē, slowly.
 Pigrēdo, grēdinis, fcm. ge. slouthfulness, vnlustines.
 Pigrēdo, fieri, to be made slow.
 Pigrēdo, scere, to be or waxe slow or vnlusty.
 Pigrēs, the brother of Artemisia.
 Pigritia, æ, f. g. slouthfulness.
 Pigrities, ei, f. g. idem.
 Pigritudō, dinis, and Pigritas, aris, f. ge. slown-esse, vnlustinesse.
 Pigno, aui, are, to holde backe or tarie one.
 Pignor, aris, ari, to be slow, to be tothe or vn-luste to doo a thyng.
 Scribe ne pigrere, be not slow, lothe, or ill willing to write.
 Pila, læ, f. g. a moztar, wherein any thyng is beasten with a pestill. also a pillar, a balle, or any thyng rounde as a balle. also a pile, heape, or damme made in the water.
 Pila ludere, to play at tenyse.
 Pila se exercere, idem.
 Mea pila est, the ball is in my handes, prouerbially, I may doo now with it as me liketh.
 Pila lanuginis, a littell rounde ball of Molynesse, such as is in gourdes when they be ripe.
 Pilades, a gentill man of Phocæa, which was so feithfull a friende to Orestes, (with whome he kepte companie whiles he was madde) that he wolde neuer forsake him, but folowed him into the countrey called Taurica, where strans-gers were sacrificed vnto Diana, where Orestes beyng apprehended, when he shoulde bee slayne, Pilades would nedes die for him, that he might escape.
 Pilani, they whiche fight with dartes.
 Pilarius, rij, m. ge. a iugglar, whiche maketh as he did by legerdemayne contriuy littell ballen.

 Pilates, tis, masc. gene. a certayne stone that is white.
 Pilanus, ni, m. g. a capitayne in warre, leading a certayne bande of men.
 Pilatim, one pillar by an other, by or at euerie pillar.
 Pilatus, a, um, armed with dartes.
 Pileatus, a, um, capped, that weareth a cappe.
 Pileatus seruus, a slave that is solde with his cappe on his head.
 Pilentum, ti, n. ge. a wagon or chare with foure
 wheles, wherein women were wont to be caried.
 Pilcolus, li, m. g. a littell bonette.
 Pileus, lei, m. g. or Pileum, lei, n. g. a cappe or bonette. sometime libertee: for as muche as bonde men, when they were enfranchised, were capped cappes.
 Pilicrepus, pi, m. ge. he that in hote baynes cast steth littell rounde ballen into the fire, to make it burne.
 Pilo, aui, are, to beginne to be heary, or grow in heare. also to pull of ones heare.
 Pilosella, æ, fcm. ge. an herbe, called common-lie mouse eare.
 Pilosus, a, um, heary, full of heare.
 Pilula, læ, fcm. ge. a littell balle. also a pille made for purgations.
 Pilum, li, n. g. a barbour hnyfe or rasour, also a darte or iacelyn of fyre scote longe and a half.
 also a pestill, to bzaie or powne in a moztar.
 Primum pilum, the chiefe bande of the Ro-mains about the standerd, whiche were chieflie armed with dartes.
 Pilmnus, ni, m. gen. a man whiche founde the maner to dong lande, and to grinde cozne.
 Pilus, li, m. g. an heare.
 Pili non facio, I set not a heare by it.
 Pilus, or Pilum, a pestill, to bzeake or bzaie any thyng in a moztar.
 Pimpinella, læ, fcm. gene. an herbe, called Pimpernel.
 Pimpla, a place by the mountayne called Pernassus, of the whiche the Muses be called Pim-pleides.
 Pimpleus, a, um, of Pimpla.
 Pina, næ, a fyre that hath two great Welles.
 Pinaces, per diminutionem, Pinacidia, tables in booke: Pinaces be also wrytyng tables.
 Pinachotheca, cæ, fcm. g. a case or place, wherein painted tables, plate, iewelless, and ornaments were kepte.
 Pinarij, an auncient house or familie in Italie, of the whiche were the priestes, that sacrificed to Hercules.
 Pinarius, and Potitius, two olde men, to whome
 Hercules reueled, how he would be worshipped.
 Pinastallus, the herbe Peucedanum.
 Pinaster, a wilde pine tree of excedyng greates height.
 Pincerna, næ, a butlar, or one that wayteth on a mannes

mannes cuppe at the table.
 Pinceria pluuiarum, the southwynde, so called, because it byngeth much rayne.
 Pindarus, a Theban poete, and chiefe of them which were called Lirici, wherfore Alexander, when he destroyed the citee of Thebes, caused the house of Pindarus to be preserved, with all his familie. an other Pindarus was a bypmanne of Ephesus.
 Pindo, dis, di, dere, idem quod pinso.
 Pindus, a mountayne in Thessalia. also a citee there.
 Pineæ, æ, f. g. a pine apull of a pine tree.
 Pinetum, ti, neu. gen. a wood of a groue of pine trees.
 Pineus, a, um, of a pine tree.
 Pingo, pinxi, pingere, to pyncte, to denise, to set in order, to drawe oute the Mappe of some of a thyng, to distyncte with diuers colours: by translation, to distynce.
 Pingere humum variis floribus, To strowe flowers of diuers colours vpon the grounde.
 Pinguedo, guedinis, f. g. fatte of fatnesse.
 Pingue, guis, n. g. fatte, moyt fatte, grease.
 Pinguetio, guetio, feci, facere, to make fat.
 Pinguetio, pingues, of Pinguetio, scere, to bee fatte, to become fatte.
 Pinguetius, rij, m. g. he that loneth that thyng that is fatte.
 Pinguis, gue, om. ge. fatte, that is fatte, coyle, vnweldy, grosse, also fruitefull, fertile.
 Pinguis ferina, fatte venison.
 Mensæ pingues, tables furnished with manie good dishes.
 Pingues horti, gardenes that byng forth good herbes.
 Pingui Minerua, grossely, rudely.
 Pingue orium, much ease of rest.
 Pinguis toga, a gowne of coarse clothe.
 Pingue & concretum cælum, thicke ayre.
 Pinguiter, greatly, grossely, with a fattynes.
 Pinguitudo, dinis, f. g. fatnesse.
 Laborare nimia pinguitudine, to be to grosse.
 Pinguis, is sometime vsed in the ciuile lawe for Plenius and Largius.
 Pinna, næ, f. g. a quille of penne, the harder parte of a fether, the battilment of a wall, the finne of a fische, and a certayne shell fythe. sometime the cresse of the helmette.
 Pinnaculum, li, n. g. a pinacle of a towre.
 Pinnatus, a, um, that hath feathers of wynges, of that hath finnes of battilmentes.
 Pinnatus Cupido, id est, alatus.
 Pinnata folia, leaues jagged on bothe sides lyke feathers.
 Pinniger, ra, rum, that hath finnes.
 Pinnirapus, he that plucketh away the cresse of his enemies helmette.
 Pinnothères, m. g. a shell fische, called also Pinnæ, byedyn in muddy places.
 Pinnula, læ, f. gen. the ouer parte of the eare, a littell quill, a littell feather, a littell quill, also a parte of the fische growynge ouer the nagle in the eare of synners.

 Pinstro, aui, are, to byge in a moyle.
 Pinstus, a, um, beaten in a moyle.
 Pinstro, sui, sese, to byge of synne, to make of bake synne.
 Pinstro, aui, are, idem.
 Pinstor, oris, m. g. he that grindeth in a quene, of beate in a moyle, also a baker.
 Pintia, a towne in Spayne called Valladolid.
 Pinton, an ile betwene Sardinia and Corsica.
 Pinus, nus, or ni, f. g. a pine tree.
 Canna pinus, is taken for a Shippe.
 Pinus triuia, the herbe Astragalus.
 Pio, aui, are, to reuerence of honour, sometyme to pollute of defile, also to beate a natural scale of affection to a man. also to purge synne, of please god with sacrifice.
 Piones, people in Spina, named of the citee Pione.
 Piper, piperis, n. g. pepper.
 Piperatus, a, um, peyered, condite with pepper.
 Piperitis, f. g. called also Siliquastrum, an herbe, whiche Ruellus saith is alerost.
 Pipio, iui, ire, to perpe like a chicke.
 Pipio, onis, m. g. a sponge pigeon.
 Pipilo, aui, are, to chirpe like a sparow.
 Pipo, aui, are, to clothe like a henne.
 Pipo, idem quod picus martius.
 Pipleus, an hill, called also Pimpleus.
 Pipulum, li, neu. gen. a rebuke, a checke, a scoldynge.
 Piquentum, a citee of Istria.
 Pirata, tæ, masc. gene. a rouer of robber on the sea, a pirate.
 Piratica, cæ, f. ge. the practyse of pirates of robbery on the sea.
 Piraticam facere, to vse robberyng and conynge on the sea.
 Piraterium, rij, neu. gen. a place where pirates dwell.
 Piraticus, a, um, of or belongynge to pirates of robbers on the sea.
 Bellum piraticum, warre agaynst pirates, and them that trouble the seas.
 Piræa, a famous citee, sometime called Aminus.
 Piræus, an haven of Athens, whiche may receyue 400. Shippes. There is also an haven of the same name at Lozinthe.
 Pirithous, the sonne of Ixion, one of the Lapithes, whiche wente to hell with Theseus, and was there deuoured of Cerberus.
 Pirrhica, loke Pyrrhica.
 Pirum, ri, n. g. loke Pirum.
 Pirus, a pynt of Thrace, slayne at the siege of Troy.
 Pisa, a citee in Greece, betwene the two mounntaynes Olympus and Ossa. also a citee in Sardinia, from whiche came the people that inhabited Pisa in Italy.

Pisc, arum, a city in Italia called Pisc.
Piscani, people of the city of Pisc.
Pisandrus, a poet of the city Lamiae in Thrace, before the time of Hesiodus: an other Pisandrus was in the time of Alexander the great.
Pisaurensis, that dwelleth in the city Pisaurum.
Pisaurus, a river in Italy.
Pisaurum, a city in Italia called Pesero.
Piscaria, x, form. g. the fish-market, or fish selling.
Piscarius, a, um, pertaining to *fish*ing.
Hamus piscarius, a *fish*ing hook.
Piscaria copia, great abundance of fish.
Piscarius, rij, m. g. a *fish*monger.
Piscatus, us, m. g. the act of *fish*ing.
Piscatio, onis, f. g. idem.
Piscator, oris, m. g. a *fish*er.
Piscatrix, trici, the *fish*eress.
Piscatorius, a, um, pertaining to a fish.
Pisciculus, li, m. g. a little fish.
Piscina, nae, f. g. a fish pond, it is also generally every pond, although therein be no fish: also a place with warm water or cold made for men to swimme in. also a grate built of wien vessel, to holde water.
Piscinalis, le, of or pertaining to a fish pond.
Piscinarius, rij, m. g. he that nourisheth fish. he also hath divers fish ponds.
Piscis, cis, mascu. gene. a fish, properly that hath scales.
Captare pisces arundine, to angle for fish.
Pisces, also one of the twelve signs.
Piscor, aris, ari, to fish.
Piscari in aere, proverbially to labour in vain.
Piscosus, a, um, that may be *fish*ed, or is full of fish.
Pisculentus, a, um, idem.
Pisci, people of the city Pisa in Greece.
Pisenor, a Centaure, the sonne of Hyron.
Pisens, he that first invented the brazen trumpet.
Pisidæ, people in Asia, called before time Soly-mi, of Solimus Jupiter's sonne.
Pisidia, x, a countrey of the lesse Asia.
Pisistratus, a noble man of Athens, which changed the common weale of that city from the rule of the people, to the rule of one governor: and therefore was called a tyrant, not with standing (as he wrote unto Dolon, which maintained the popular estate) he ruled by their owne lawes, and was righteous and gentle unto the people.
Piso, pis, pisere, to purge or beate of the huske of corne, or other graine, as they did with powning in olde tyme.
Piso, avi, are, idem.
Piso, sonis, the name of a noble familie of house in Rome.
Pissa, sa, f. g. pitche.
Pissaphallus, is, m. g. pitche and the lime called Bitumen, mingled together.

Pistachon, lat, n. g. an oyle made of pitche.
Pistacum, ri, masc. gene. a saile or humour of wood or pither made with gumme of rosin, and is the sweeter parte of bees labours in making honey and waxe.
Pistacium, ch, n. g. a kinde of nuttree.
Pistillum, li, neu. gen. a pestle to pound or bray with.
Pistilochia, the like kinde of Aristolochia.
Pistor, oris, m. g. he that was wont to pounce corne in a miller, now a baker.
Pistorium, a city in Italia.
Pistoricus, ca, com, and Pistorius, a, um, pertaining to baking.
Ars pistoria, bakers craft.
Pistrilla, la, f. g. a mill.
Pistrinensis, se, belonging to a bakers house, or grinding house.
Pistrinum, ni, ne g. and Pistrina, nae, f. g. a bakers house, a mill, or grinding house. it was a place, where they used to bray, pounce, or grinde corne, and make breads, where (because it was a painful thing) was used to put their servants for a punishment, and therefore it is sometimes used for a prison or prison full service.
Pistris, tris, f. g. a whip: also a sign of planet, called Cetus, and Pistrix.
Pistrix, trici, f. g. a woman baker. also a monstrous fish in the Indian sea, and a planet in the firmament.
Pistura, x, f. g. the craft of baking.
Pistus, a, um, grounden or brayed.
Pisum, si, n. g. a pease.
Pisus, a, um, powned, brayed.
Pitane, a city of Scolis in Asia, the people whereof be called Pitanei, or Pitanix.
Pithecium, ch, n. g. used of Plautus for a beloved or ill favoured woman like a she ape.
Pitheculia, an ile in the sea against Campania, so called for the great plenty of apes there bred, after some.
Pithecus, ci, m. ge. an ape.
Pithera, f. g. a comete or impression in the firmament, which is like a tunne, and doeth appere as it were through a mist.
Pitheus, the sonne of Delops, which builded the city Carcena.
Pitho, or Pithus, the lady and president of eloquence to persuade, called of Ennius Suada, of Horace Suadela.
Pithodemus, a famous wrestler.
Pithodicus, idem quod Vascularius.
Pithurgia, orum, n. ge. a certayne sacrifice, used in Greece in the month of Januarie, at the setting or setting of wyne abrother: in the which they gave wyne to their servants and slaves.
Pithonoscopes, a place in Asia, where after the Idus of August, great flocks of storks doe assemble together.
Pithumnus, a god among the Romans, which first invented to gynde coine to make breates Pitiso, aui, are, to suppe and drynke litell.

Pitpit, in the olde tongue of Oltes, signified quicquid, what so euer.

Pitracium, cn, neu. gene. a litell clothe, whiche being nopped with some salve, is layed some-tyme to the forehead, sometime to the stomake, to ease peyne.

Pittacus, one of the seven sages of Grecia, and was of the cite Mitylene.

Pituita, tr, form. g. fleume of regyme descending from the head, as in them that haue the poise, also the pippe, which cheetins haue.

Pituitaria, x, for. ge. called also vna agrestis, an herbe, which dyeth by the regyme in the mouth.

Pituitosus, a, um, fleumaticke.

Piturum, ri, n. g. a kynde of Olive trees.

Pityides, the innermost burnell of the pine apull.

Pitylisma, maus, an exercise, where a man goeth fast on his tocs, and moueth his armes forwarde and backward.

Pityliso, aui, are, to exercise in that forme.

Pityocamparum, f. g. woundes, which be in a pine apull tree, whose byrre is venemous.

Pityonices, eis, m. g. he that was victour in the games of Grece, and had geuen to him a garland of pine tree, which was celebrate in the honour of Archemorus.

Pityon, ri, n. g. bianne.

Pityri panes, horse headde, or headde made of bianne.

Pityrisifis, the herbe Aiuza.

Pityusa, an yle by Grecia, called also Myletus: it is also an herbe of the kynde of Spurge, whiche
the apothecaries call Bsula. Acuarus writeth, that the barbarous people call the roote of Pityusa, Turbit: but it is the Turbit, whiche is white and thicke, and cometh from the hyl of Garganus, whiche is of the seconde kynde of Spurge, and is not that Turbit, whiche apothecaries now haue, rede more in Turbit.

Piulcum, ci, an instrument to draw out matter.

Pius, a, um, religious, deuout, piteous, genyll, mercifull, benigne, chaffe, he that loueth his parentes or countrey, naturall comynge his parentes, countrey or children.

Pixacanthum, a kynde of thorne, called also Chironium.

Pix, picis, f. g. pitch.

Pixliquida, tarce.

Induere poltes pice, to lay pitch upon.

P. ANTE 1.

Placabilis, i. e. easy to be pleased, genyll, softe qualified.

Placabilis and Irritabilis, contrary.

Præbere i. e. placabilem alicui, to shew him self gentill to one, and easy to be pleased.

Placabile ingenium ad preces, a gentill nature, soone entreated to be contente.

Te ipsum purgare ipfis coram placabilis est, you shal please them the better, if you make your faults knowne to them.

Placabilis, aui, f. g. gentleness, the vertue to be soone contente and pleased.

Placæ, plates of golde or syluer.

Placamen, cam, ius, and Placamentum, u, n. g.
a thyng that one is pleased in, or qualified with.

Placare, peacefully, quietly, gently, without any hate or affection of the mynde.

Placatio, onis, f. g. a swagging, mitigating, pleasing.

Placatus, a, um, pleased, gentill, quiete, appeased, pacified, qualified, also calmed.

Placendus, a, um, that ought to please and be thankfull to a man.

Placenta, x, f. g. a tart, a water, a fine cake, a munket, or any pleasant thyng made of paste.

Placencia, a cite in Liguria.

Placentini, people of the cite of Placentia.

Placeo, cui, cere, to please, to delight, sometime to flatter, to like, to glorie.

Postridie placuit, ut breviter, &c. the nexte day after they mynde was, or then thought it best, that &c.

Ut sapientissimis placuit, after the opinion of the most discrete persons, or as the wisest men thought convenient and best.

Fac ut placeatur nobis, let that he be qualified
to be.

Expecto, quid istis placeat de epistola ad
Cæsarem, I desire to know, what their mynde is concerning the epistle that was sent to Cæssar.

Placitum est mihi, I thought it good, or my will and opinion was.

Placet, the impersonall, it lyeth me, or him, or it is his pleasure or advise, he or I thinke it best, he is of this opinion.

Senatus placet, the Senate hath ordered or thynke it best.

Placet tibi, he standeth well in his owne conscience, he is vngregarious.

Placia, a towne of Africa.

Placide, quietly, patiently, peacefully, pleasantly, gentilly, still without noyse or trouble, softly.

Placide pulsare fores, to knocke softly at the dore.

Placide aperire fores, to open the dore softly, without noyse.

Ferre placide iniuriā, to take or suffer wrong or displeasure patiently.

Vt placide accubat canis, how still the dogge lieth, without baying or barkyng.

Placide currere, to runne softly without strenyng.

Loqui placide sedate, to speake quietly and temperately, without baying or crying out.

Placiditas, atis, f. g. quietenesse.

Placidus, a, um, gentill, meeke, patient, quiete, calme, still, without trouble, also tame, tractable.

caulme, still, without trouble: also tame, tractable.
Placidus dies, a pleasant and sope day.
Fervere & placidum esse, contrary.
Annus placidus, a yeare that cometh very quietly, a still yeare.
Animalia placida, tame beastes that be tractable.
Arbor placida, and Sylvestris, contrary.
Placidum celum, a calme weather without tempest or wynde.
Mare stat placidum, the sea is calme & quiet.
Venti placidi, gentill and softe wyndes.
Urbes placida, cityes quiete without trouble or busynesse.
Placidis moribus boues, oxen that be tractable and not wyld.
Placidissima pax in animo, when a man is without all trouble and affliction of mynde.
Placito, aui, are, the frequentatives of Placere.
Placitum, ti, n. g. a firm consent in an opinion or ordinance, a decree.
Placitus, a, um, that is full of contentment.
Placo, aui, are, to pacifie, to appease, to quiet, to please with sacrifices or gifts, to consent, to quiet, to make calme.
